

Brothers Meet On Battlefields Of Belgium

SGT. W. H. BROWN, JR.

CPL. CECIL B. (Pete) BROWN

Two happier Terry county boys could not be imagined when Sgt. W. H. Brown met up with his brother, Cecil B. (Pete) over in the Belgium area. In a letter to his mother, dated Nov. 17, Sgt. Brown stated he had a letter from Pete, and as they were only 40 miles from each other, he got off and made a trip over to see his brother. Said that the weather in Belgium was about like it is here at the same time of year, maybe a bit colder. He said they as well as Pete's outfit had houses to live in, good warm clothes, and plenty to eat. It had been 25 months since they had seen each other, prior to this meeting. Sgt. Brown has been in the service three years and seven months. Cpl. Pete has been in 21 months.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown, Sr. of this city. Mr. Brown has been janitor at the red brick West Ward school building for years. They have two other sons, Bill of Brownfield and M. B. of Dallas.

$500 Turned In On Christmas Seals

Mrs. O. L. Jones, chairman of the Anti-Tuberculosis chapter of Terry county, stated this week that about $500 had been turned in from the sale of Christmas seals. Most of this fund will stay in Terry county.

Others should respond at once, if they have seals that have not been paid for, as all this business should be cleared before Christmas. Remember that these funds are used for a mighty good purpose. Tuberculosis kills young people mostly, 15 to 35, right in their most productive years.

"G. I. JAMBOREE" SHOW TROUP AND MILITARY BAND BROUGHT BRISK BUYING AT BOND RALLY LAST WEEK

Because of inclement weather, the bond rally last Thursday was held in the Rialto Theatre, instead of courtyard, as previously announced.

The "G. I. Jamboree" show troupe, accompanied by a military band, staged an interesting program to a well packed house. Talks were made by wounded veterans from the battlefields. The auction of the many articles given by local merchants, conducted by J. O. Gillham, as auctioneer, was very enthusiastic, and brought $55,000.00 in bonds.

Pfc. Lucian Greenfield Slightly Wounded

PFC. LUCIAN GREENFIELD

Acting Postmaster L. A. Greenfield and wife have received a letter recently from their son, Pfc. Lucian Greenfield, Jr., stating that a shell fragment, or perhaps a bullet splashed into a tank he was in and nipped him, and as he described it just got a few scratches. Yeah! one in the shoulder and one in the forearm. You know the boys don't give too many details.

Anyway he is a younger brother of Lt. Orel Greenfield, whom we showed in these columns last week. Lucian was home three years ago, come Christmas. He finished high school here and joined the 27th division of field artillery. He was at Ft. Sill three months and at San Francisco three months and then overseas. He is somewhere in the southwest Pacific.

Mahon Writes Mayor Cox About Airport

Mayor of Brownfield.

Last June Congress requested the Civil Aeronautics Administration to prepare and submit to Congress a postwar program for the development of airports throughout the Nation.

The CAA has now made a report to Congress in which various airport developments are recommended. The suggested airport development for your city is as follows:

- Class 2 airport.
- For preparation of land (does not include land purchase) $61,788.00.
- Paving $169,290.00.
- Miscellaneous $22,440.00.
- Making a total sum of $253,518.
- Note that this estimate does not include the purchase money for the land.

For the present this program is nothing more than a suggestion of the CAA, based on the request of Congress. Before the program could be carried out, Congress would have to enact legislation and make appropriations. Both the federal government and the localities would share in the costs upon a basis to be fixed by future legislation.

This information is of interest to your city, and I know you would like to have it. We are all interested in the plans for aviation development. My best wishes.

Yours sincerely,
George Mahon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ferguson and Patsy left last Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ferguson's father in Victoria, Texas. They returned Monday morning.

AAA Committeemen Election To Be Held

You and your farmer neighbors are about to elect local Committeemen to represent you in all the work and responsibilities assigned to the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. Never were the jobs confronting these Committeemen more important than now.

Farmers are aware of the responsibilities facing agriculture in the difficult days just ahead. Most us remember what happened of us remember what happened of farm foreclosures that swept the country in the early twenties, and the almost complete collapse of agricultural prices, is all too vivid in our memories. We don't want to go through that again.

Most of the fearful elements that were present then are with us now. The one big difference is that now we have a program which, if wisely used and administered, can help us weather most any storm.

With the approach of peace, AAA elections take on a new significance. It is more important than ever to have the best men available on AAA committees. Farm problems at this stage of the war, and those that face the nation from here on out will require the best possible leadership and the full participation of farmers if the debacle that followed the last war is to be avoided.

It cannot be repeated too often that we as farmers have the machinery to tackle whatever war or reconversion jobs may be ahead for agriculture. How well that machinery will do the job depends upon the kind of farmers we elect to represent us on community and county AAA committees.

Listed below is a schedule of community elections:

- Meadow, School house, Dec. 13.
- A. L. McCoy, chairman in charge
- Challis, Church house, Dec. 12.
- O. K. Tongate, chairman in charge.
- Pleasant Valley, AAA office, Dec. 12.
- Cecil O'Neal, chairman in charge.
- Union, Union School house, Dec. 12.
- Martin Sullivan, chairman in charge.
- Scudday, Scudday school house, Dec. 12.
- L. A. Brock, chairman in charge.
- Wellman, School house, Dec. 13.
- Geo. Wright, chairman in charge.
- Lahey, Foster school house, Dec. 14.
- Bruce White, chairman in charge.
- Tokio, Allen Gin, Dec. 15.
- J. W. Couch, chairman in charge.
- Johnson, Johnson school house, Dec. 15.
- Paul Blackstock, chairman in charge.
- Needmore, Pool school house, Dec. 13.
- J. W. Bingham, chairman in charge.

We got a big kick out of a recent edition of the Hardeman County (Tenn.) Times, which is the county in which we first saw the light of day. It was a "Timber Resource" edition, and the value of Hardeman county timber and its conservation was stressed. Most of their timber is hardwood at present, but the "old fields" as they call eroded farms, are being set to young pine, a money crop for the next generation.

It seems to us that the war and football headline writers have a bit overdone the words, roll over, crack, blast, smash, etc. A lot of times the scores belie the headlines, as only a few scores separate the difference of the two teams, and perhaps the two teams play fairly even, but one happens to get the breaks just at the right moment. And lots of times when we learn that a certain line in the enemy defenses is "crackig," our forces have a long hard battle to fight before they are able to get through the crack. But all are short, easy words, easily grasped, and mean much to Americans.

We get a little West Texas paper each week that is so interesting, and which covers so well the home news in a brief way, that we always take time out to read it thoroughly. We are also so well acquainted with the editor and publisher that we claim him as a close friend. But his home town business men are the kind of people that are dead and don't know it, as the rest of them have not taken the time out to bury them. A few weeks ago, we noted that utilities companies in the area, and a nearby city merchants carried 186 inches, while purely home business men had a total of just 24 inches. One thing can be said to the credit of the publisher of this fine little paper, is that he carried no free ads for any syndicates, nor paid his own money for the privilege of doing so.

People who were near maturity or middle aged people during the last war remember that bond buying was not on a voluntary basis during the bond sales of 1917-18. A committee of your home town people figured out about how many bonds they thought you could buy, and you was supposed to buy them by hook or crook. There was one plan of paying them out monthly, the bond being held in escrow by your bank. This time, people are urged to buy voluntarily. Millions of dollars worth of ads to that effect have been and are being sponsored by your business and professional men. Newspapers and radios are devoting much free space and time to promoting their sales, and we are going over the top. Many small counties failed under the 1917-18 plan, time after time, but this time most all are going over the top. People in general were just as hostile in favor of winning the war then, as now, but American people just don't like to be told what they MUST do.

It is reported that recently, while a number of our flyers were making a raid over Germany, trying to destroy some of their war plants, some careless and indifferent workman in a big shipyard on the east coast started a fire that ran into the millions of dollars, and stopped the work of 35,000 workmen. Our flyers were running the risk of flack and Nazi fighter planes. His life was at stake, but a careless workman in no danger himself, perhaps tossed a match or a lighted cigarette right where it should not have been. Is there any wonder that we are careless, and to put it mildly, criminally indifferent people of the United States run up a fire bill each year that

Baptist Church News

This church as well as the pastor, A. A. Brian, were highly honored when the recent Baptist State Convention elected him to membership of the Executive Board which is responsible for handling the business of the convention for the next two years.

The pastor has been in a meeting of the board this week in Dallas, where they have been considering the work for the year just beginning in which on million dollars will be spent for the advancement of the missionary and benevolent work in Texas.

The convention goal for the coming year is one million dollars for the work of the Texas convention work, one million to the territory of the Southern convention, throughout the South, and foreign missions and one million for educational institutions owned by the convention in Texas for buildings and endowment.

The expenditures for the last year for all of these objects was $2,850,000, the largest in the history of the Texas convention.

The pastor is expected to be present next Sunday.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Some time back I was expounding on taxes, and poppin' off about what happened when Seattle took over the street cars and how, as soon as it did same, less Federal tax money trickled through to Uncle Sam. And to take up the slack, the Govt. upped the taxes on everybody throughout the Nation, including the Seattle citizens. And if you lived in Omaha or El Paso, I said, you got nicked, so it was not just a joke on Seattle.

So a fellow in Philadelphia wrote me via the Honey Grove Herald. A nice fellow, I think—he kept his temper and wrote nice. Anything lost in taxes, he said, could be made up to the citizens in lower rates, if its publicity owned plant was operated efficiently. IF, he said. But he didn't say how the citizens in El Paso or Omaha and elsewhere throughout the Nation were to go about getting their tax money back, due to any operating efficiency or vice versa, in a Seattle plant. I am up a stump—I don't happen to live in Seattle—so I will give the Philadelphia gent 3 cheers if he will tell me what to do.

Yours with the low down,

stagger the imagination, and at the same time carries the lives of thousands as well as many maimed and injured with such fires. Of course there are really fire bugs that should be sent to the pen, and then there are just plain, dumb and indifferent morons that don't give a tinkers Jam about how much property they destroy. There should be a way to bring such carelessness to their minds so carefully that they would use their feeble minds in some ways to stop this unnecessary waste of our resources.

Program Benefits Farmers, Laborers

COLLEGE STATION — Application of the Good Neighbor policy to the farm labor program in Texas will result in the mutual benefit of both farmers and Spanish-speaking migratory workers, 50 conferees recently agreed at a meeting on the campus of Texas A and M College.

Present were representatives of the Mexican government, prominent business men of Mexican descent, Texas farmers, and other interested in Inter-American relations.

The meeting was called by the A. and M. College Extension Service which is charged by law with responsibility for the farm labor program. Dr. Ide P. Trotter, Extension director who presided, said Extension's farm labor staff is interested in seeing that housing and other facilities are available for the migratory labor forces necessary to harvesting crops. And it is also interested in seeing that labor forces are channeled to areas of greatest need.

Within the last seven months, county agricultural agents of the Extension Service have placed 476,000 workers on Texas farms. Of that number 43,000 migratory workers, most of them Latin-Americans, have been routed by migratory field assistants.

Purposes of the conference were endorsed as "humanitarian and patriotic" by Senor M. C. Gonzales, Mexican consul ad honorem from San Antonio. Farmers present emphasized their responsibilities in providing housing and other facilities to assure for themselves a constant supply of labor.

Following the state conference similar meeting will be held on an area basis to promote mutual benefits of employers and employees. Meetings tentatively have been scheduled in San Patricio, Howard, Coleman, Lubbock, Haskell, and Dawson counties, according to C. Hohn, Extension state farm labor supervisor.

Pioneer West Texan Passes Away Nov. 24

W. P. Florence, pioneer of West Texas, passed away on Nov. 24, 1944 at Slaton, where he had resided for some time.

He was born in Smith county in June, 1872. His mother and father moved to Stonewall county when he was just a young man. He was among the first school teachers of the Aspermont school, teaching here the term 1898 to 1899. He moved from Stonewall county to Haskell where he was principal of the Rule schools for some time. From there he went to Gomez, then county seat of Terry county, and pioneered that section of the Plains. From there he moved to Lubbock and he claimed for himself the record of having planted the first bale of cotton raised in Lubbock county.

He once wrote and published a book of his activities in helping to settle West Texas.

Until the time of his death he was active in working in the up-building of his community, both in church and civic endeavors.

He was a deacon in the Slaton First Baptist Church at the time of his death.

Surviving him are his wife and four daughters, three sons, two of whom are in the service, Capt. Grady Florence, who is serving in China, Burma theatre, and Lt. James Florence, somewhere in France; eight grandchildren and a number of other relatives including a sister, Mrs. R. T. Hunt of Rule, and a brother, Bob Florence of Old Glory.

The editor of the Star had been personally acquainted with Mr. Florence for the past several years, and closely associated with him at one time and found him to be a man of high ideals.—Aspermont Star.

The above story written by our good friend, Editor A. E. Richards, is very interesting, as we were well acquainted with deceased. However, there is one mistake. Gomez was never the county seat of Terry county. Up to June 1904, Terry was attached to Martin county for judicial purposes, as an unorganized county.

In June that year the voters decided to organize, and two places were in nomination for the county seat, Gomez and Brownfield, the later hardly classed as a wide place in the road. Brownfield by some hook or crook (Gomezites says the latter) won the election, and was the first and only county seat of Terry county.

Let us add that Prof. Florence was a good citizen and a good man. Peace to his ashes!

W. F. McCracken was in this week, and stated he was rather disappointed with his dairy sale Monday. His fine cows did not bring the money they should have brought. One trouble was that two other farm sales were scheduled in the area for the same date.

Terry county got a bit over an inch of rain over the weekend, and the skies were overcast until Wednesday, when it cleared. Scurries of snow fell intermittently, Tuesday.

A story that hasn't been told

AN AMERICAN WAR PRODUCTION RECORD THAT DESERVES TELLING . . .

On December 14, at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, the men and women of Humble Oil & Refining Company will pause in their work to commemorate, in appropriate ceremony, a feat unparalleled in the petroleum industry: The production of ONE BILLION GALLONS of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline at the Baytown refinery.

This accomplishment merits special commendation, because it climaxes 25 years of development, planning, and teamwork of a great organization. The cooperative effort of Humble employees has brought about a uniform progress in all phases of the Company's operations which has enabled them to establish remarkable records in finding, producing, transporting and refining petroleum during a critical period in the history of our nation.

 Humble research and development, in progress for many years before Pearl Harbor, made possible these accomplishments and contributed greatly to the total production of toluene, and the tremendous quantities of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline required by our Armed Forces.	 Baytown Ordnance Works, first synthetic toluene plant in the world, has supplied toluene for at least one out of every two bombs used by the United Nations since Pearl Harbor. For this production feat, Baytown Ordnance Works has five times been awarded the Army-Navy "E".	 Baytown Refinery has made one billion gallons of finished 100-octane aviation gasoline—more than has been produced by any other plant in the world. The world's first commercial alkylation plant was built at Baytown in 1938. The alkylation process is the very backbone of 100-octane aviation gasoline production by the entire petroleum industry.
 Humble Oil & Refining Company is the nation's largest producer of crude oil, and is currently supplying about one-fourth of the increased production required for war, as measured by the gain since 1941.	 Through the facilities of Humble Pipe Line Company, there is being transported more oil than is being carried by any other system in the country. Nearly 700,000 barrels move daily through Humble pipe lines—one-seventh of all the oil production in the United States.	 United in a great singleness of purpose, 14,000 Humble men and women are devoting themselves to the task of providing vital petroleum products for war, looking to the day when their 3,000 fellow employees and all their comrades in arms will return.

OPEN HOUSE AT BAYTOWN REFINERY—DECEMBER 14-17

So that one of America's great war plants may be seen in action, Baytown Refinery is holding open house from Thursday, December 14, through Sunday, December 17. The story of the refinery at war will be told by dramatic exhibits of petroleum war products and a great Army and Navy show of war machines and materials. Specially conducted tours will take Humble's friends and neighbors into the heart of the refinery itself.

History

Most of the things that really matter in your life and mine are events that took place before we were born. Whether we are rugged or frail, rich or poor, happy or miserable result in large part from decisions and struggles that somebody made long ago. The old saying, "Life is what you make it," is only partly true. Life is what you make it from what you had to begin with. Of course men and women are free moral agents and can do a great deal with their own lives if they will, but departed years influence every generation. They affect everybody more or less and have more to do with some people's lives than the people themselves. In order to take from the past what helps us and avoid what hinders, men have to study history and learn its good from its bad.

A Patriotic Duty
American history, and I don't mean a sketchy catalog of wars and elections, should be a required study in every American school. How can the youth of the United States be proud of this country's success and prosperity without some knowledge of the background that made it successful and prosperous? Decisions and struggles out of which our institutions have grown will tell the important "why" of America's power in the world.

Many encouraging stories have come back from the European theatre of war recently. Not one of them has shed more hopeful light on America's future, however, than a feature article in the New York Times relating that American soldiers in many foreign lands are calling for books on American history. They want to know what makes them different from people they see over there.

What Do We Have?
The article quoted a Pennsylvania buck private as saying, "Something in our history makes us different. Why aren't we taught about it at school?" It is my sincere hope and belief that this soldier's children will be taught more about it at school. At least I hope we don't have to wage a foreign war every quarter of a century so our sons can go see how bullied and comparatively poor other people are.

Our fighters have begun to realize that something goes on in America which encourages and promotes better living than people in foreign countries can enjoy. Farmers' sons in the invasion can't help but see that France, for example, has fertile soil, favorable seasons, and abundant crops but poverty stricken people. There's a reason. It's a long story but an interesting one.

An Educator's Job
Undoubtedly Uncle Sam has some tall, blonde fighting men who used to say, proudly, "My grandfather came from Prussia." But when they get back they will be ready to add, "Leaving that past-blighted country was the smartest thing the old gentleman ever did. It gave him a chance, and me too." History shows how taxes and customs and castes keep many a noble race of people hungry most of their lives.

I wish I might plead with every honest teacher to help keep the United States an oasis in this desert of human oppression. An impersonal, objective attitude is admirable until it points toward slavery. If it forbids telling students that representative, constitutional government is better than dictatorship, or that a successful economic system like Private Enterprise is better than communism, let's tell the truth even if we have to be unorthodox.

A man can make a house but it takes a woman to make a home.

Treaty Endangers Texas Economy

A few days ago the executive board of the Texas Federation of Womens Clubs adopted a resolution condemning the Anglo-American petroleum treaty which is now pending before the United States Senate for ratification. Previously, the State Board of Education had condemned the proposed treaty as a threat to the school systems of Texas.

The treaty is listed in international diplomatic circles as a petroleum agreement between Great Britain and the United States. The document was sent to the Senate on August 24 as an agreement but the Senate, after digesting its contents, immediately branded it a treaty and sent it to the foreign relations committee for study and report.

Opposition to the treaty is almost universal in Texas because its provisions endanger the economic structure of the state. The treaty provides that the petroleum resources of Texas and of the other oil producing states be placed in a worldwide oil pool and regulated by some sort of an international commission. The treaty points out that the pooling of American oil resources with those of other nations is vital to future world security.

Under the provisions of the treaty, the oil resources of Texas could very well become a pawn in international intrigue because membership of the international regulatory commission, if allotted to participating nations, would leave the American member of the commission with a minority vote.

Under such a set-up, it would be possible for the international commission to say to Texas oil producers: "Shut down your wells for a period of three years. You have been producing 66 per cent of the world oil for the past three years. Your wells need to be replenished. Therefore, you shut down your wells and the oil fields of the Middle and Far East will supply the world for the next three years."

Cheaply produced oil from Arabia, Iran and Iraq would flow across the Atlantic. It would be sent to East Texas through the big inch pipeline and instead of using Texas oil and gas in our automobiles, thus producing revenue for our schools and roads, and gainful employment for thousands, we would be burning foreign produced oil and gas.

The State of Texas would have to look elsewhere for the revenue which would be lost through a shutdown of the State's oil industry. And that "elsewhere" is Johnny Q. Citizen, the little fellow who is now carrying more than his just load of taxation.

Texas is competent to regulate the resources which a benevolent nature has so richly endowed the state. Texas does not need the regulation of her oil industry from across the Atlantic. The Texas Railroad Commission has done and is doing a magnificent job. Texas oil is a Texas heritage. We must guard that heritage. The Anglo-American petroleum treaty must not be ratified.

Measures Projectiles Speed At Aberdeen

Equipment which measures the speed of projectiles to the 1/100,000th part of a second is now in use at the Aberdeen Ordnance Research Center proving grounds of the War Department. This equipment, known as the General Electric counter chronograph, automatically measures the speed of a shell, and the result is printed by and electric typewriter. It can be easily operated by persons without technical training, whose only task is to push the necessary buttons when a starting signal is received over a public address system.

Split-Second To Identify Planes

Ability to identify planes in one-fiftieth of a second or less is the basis for recognition training of all Navy fliers. A peacetime General Electric development is now used inside the Navy's new "flash projector," a portable, electrically timed film strip projector which flashes images of planes and ships, friendly or enemy, on a screen. The images are viewed from various angles, for a split second, as a training procedure to teach pilots to make quick decisions in combat.

Gov. Coke Stevenson Urges The Buying Of Christmas Seals

AUSTIN, (Special) — Governor Coke Stevenson has urged all residents of Texas to join the campaign to preserve health standards on the home front by supporting the Christmas Seal Sale of the Texas Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated local organizations. The sale, which marks the 40th anniversary of the first Christmas Seal, will open November 27 and continue until Christmas.

In a formal proclamation, the Governor pointed out the danger of an increase in tuberculosis is particularly great in time of war and commended the Texas Tuberculosis Association for its effective work in controlling the disease in this state.

The Governor's proclamation reads:

WHEREAS, 1944 is the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the National Tuberculosis Association, and Christmas, 1944, is the fortieth anniversary of the sale of the first Christmas Seal to support a health program; and,

WHEREAS, tuberculosis is one of the most dangerous enemies of mankind, killing one person every nine minutes and causing the death of more men and women between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other disease, even though the death rate has been cut 75 per cent in the last 40 years; and,

WHEREAS, our country needs a united, healthy people to bring the war to a speedy and victorious conclusion, but the danger of a rise in the incidence of tuberculosis is particularly great in time of war; and,

WHEREAS, the Texas Tuberculosis Association and its local associations are affiliates of the national organization, and are waging an intelligent and effective battle against this disease in our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Coke Stevenson, Governor of Texas, do urge the people of this state to participate in the annual CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE opening Monday, November 27, in order that our state may continue to benefit from the health program supported by the sale of Christmas Seals.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto signed my name officially and cause the Seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this the 25th day of November, A. D., 1944.

(Signed)—Coke Stevenson, Governor of Texas.

Little Black Box Aims Planes' Guns

An ingenious little black box called a "computer" is now aiming the guns of one of America's newest planes. This computer, developed by General Electric, is so small it can be housed in a small box, yet it can make allowances for plane speed, range, altitude, wind, humidity, and many other factors involved in aiming a gun at an enemy plane.

Mobile Substation

A mobile unit substation, which is ready at a moment's notice to be towed at speeds up to 35 miles per hour to any location where emergency power may be required, has been built by General Electric's Pittsfield Works. One of the largest mobile units ever built—weighing 24 tons and compactly mounted on a 12-wheel trailer—it is capable of supplying power for 25,000 100-watt lamps, or a fair-sized town.

B-29 Gunfire System

By shooting more bullets concentrated more accurately at a more distant target than any other plane ever built, the B-29 gunfire system enables the plane to fly through swarms of enemy planes without fighter escort, a new concept in aerial warfare. The system was designed by General Electric engineers, requires some 20,000 persons in virtually every G-E plant to manufacture, and constitutes the largest apparatus contract in company history.

Our War With Japan

The Sixth War Loan marks a new turn in the war both on the fighting and the home fronts. It points our tremendous war effort definitely in the direction of the Pacific. During the first five war loans Americans were primarily thinking in terms of beating Hitler.

Now our government asks us for a loan of 14 billion more dollars of which five billion dollars must come from individuals. Why? Haven't we nearly finished off our so-called Number 1 Enemy? Can Japan hold up our powerful war machine very long? Your son, brother and friend in his Pacific foxhole wouldn't raise such questions because they are up against realities, not day dreams. They kill or are killed. They pray every waking moment for a sky-darkening cover of friendly planes. They thank America for giving them the finest medical care in the world when their rendezvous with destiny in a Pacific jungle is at hand. They know the war with the Japs is just beginning.

Here are some other Pacific realities so that you will understand why there must be a Sixth War Loan and why it is absolutely necessary that it be a success:

The Allied Military Command has estimated that it will take years, not months, to lick Japan.

Japan's present army numbers about 4,000,000 with 2,000,000 more men available and fit for military service who haven't been called up to date. Another 1,500,000, between the ages of 17 and 20, are not yet subject to the draft.

The Jap Air Force is growing. In addition to millions of native workers, Japan has a potential slave force of 400,000,000 conquered people. 50% of Japan's labor force is made up of women. Another 25% boys and girls under 20, the balance men. The Jap workday is twelve to sixteen hours with two days off a month. The Jap cannot leave his job, change it, or strike. The highest daily wage equals about three American dollars—30% to 75% of which goes to taxes and compulsory savings.

The Jap, as our men in the Pacific know, will fight to the death. As far as the Jap is concerned, the outer Empire—and the men who defend it—are the expendables. The Jap will fight the Battle from inside the inner Empire.

The Jap believes that we shall weary of war too easily and too early.

In the invasion of France, supply ships had an overnight run to make. In the coming Battle of Japan, ships in the Pacific will have long-reached round trips that often take five months to make.

These realities are worth thinking about before you keep your home front rendezvous with a Victory Volunteer. Perhaps you will feel that the national personal Sixth War Loan objective—purchase of at least one extra $100 War Bond—is entirely too small for you. The better we face the realities confronting our forces in the Pacific the quicker the whole bloody business will be over and the sooner we will welcome home our fighting men. That's an American reality to work for with all our dollars and our sweat.

Texas Is Falling Down On War Production

AUSTIN — Eighty-four vital Texas war plants are now behind schedule in production due to a serious shortage of manpower, C. E. Belk, state director of the War Manpower Commission, announced today.

Declaring these production lags to be one of the most alarming set-backs to the war effort yet encountered, Belk stressed that necessary manpower must be obtained at once to keep all essential plants running at top peak of production until the final day of victory.

General Eisenhower has placed the answer to the speedy conclusion of the war directly on the shoulders of workers and industry, Belk said. We on the home front cannot and must not sacrifice the life of a single American soldier because of a lack of sufficient ammunition or supplies. There can be no thought of rationing when this is involved and it is an obligation in which we cannot fail.

The rapid advance of our armies on all fronts both in Europe and the Pacific has necessitated the use of shells and supplies which were not thought would be needed until some time in February.

To meet this emergency 13,145 Texas workers, both skilled and unskilled, are needed immediately to maintain full production flow, Belk said, and this number will be increased to a net demand for 16,066 workers within the next 60 days.

Manufacture of all types of ordnance, especially in production of rockets and 105 mm shells, chemicals and synthetic rubber are the categories in most urgent need of workers to boost production back to its high standard.

Belk attributed a large part of the labor shortage in essential industry to the fact that workers are leaving vital war jobs and returning to their home towns to take less essential jobs in the hope of post war security and that management of less essential industry is continuing to hire these workers. "I feel that every employer in non-essential firms should take it as his patriotic duty to hire no workers who were employed or are needed for war production," Belk said. War industry also should look to improving both in-plant conditions and community facilities in an effort to hold their workers. In this way the migration of workers from vital production jobs could be checked.

Explaining the total figure of 84 firms behind schedule, Belk stated that a firm might for example have three government contracts of which two of these contracts were 100 percent on schedule but have a production lag in the third contract.

The new instruction, started since Marines recaptured Guam from the Japanese, is part of the Civil Affairs Section program to rehabilitate natives and make them self-sufficient. For weaving, the girls use aga, a native grass, and make such articles as cigarette cases and baskets (shown at right) as well as handbags and coasters.

Cigarette Situation Growing Worse

The cigarette situation doesn't get any better and seems to be growing worse every day. Yet, cigarette manufacturers claim they are making twice as many as they have ever made before and have an 18-month supply on hand at this time.

These same tobacco men claim that they are sending less overseas, other than to the armed forces, than they have ever shipped in pre-war days. A Senate discussion in Washington can find no reason for the shortage and can find every reason why there should be plenty for everyone.

But the cold hard facts are that none are scarcely ever to be had in most middle west towns and other spots throughout the U. S. Some claim it is transportation problems to the rural communities that has the situation in a bottleneck. But that statement seems rather vague, as there are still tobacco trucks on the road, but just don't have any cigarettes.

"Uncle Remus" Says Buy More Bonds

To the Editor of the Herald and his Staff:

I hope this will not make you pouch out your chest and make you strut, and I know it won't. Well, what I wanted to say is that you are putting out the best Country Weekly that I have ever had the pleasure to read:

1st. I can feel the love and admiration you have for our boys that are fighting and giving their lives that we may live a life of freedom and peace.

2nd. I see in every line true sympathy for the mothers, fathers, husbands and sweethearts of the boys.

3rd. You also have some poetry. You have seen the red-headed peckerwood. I too, have watched him work with his head to build his home. I have seen him, so have you, when he flies down from the sky; he fastens his claws in a sweetgum tree; he turns his head to one side, like he has something to hide, and then looks at the sun.

Then his work has begun. He pecks and he pecks and he pecks some more. He pecks until his bill is sore and he can't peck anymore.

A Slogan: Now let everyone bring his last dollar and buy war bonds and stamps until it hurts. This will keep the Japs from flinching and make our VICTORY more certain.

Thanks, Uncle Remus.

Health Dept. Reports Influenza Spreading

AUSTIN — Reports from widely separated parts of Texas to the Texas State Department of Health show that influenza is widespread throughout the State. During the past month over 3170 cases have been reported.

Colds, gripe, and influenza are spreading from person to person through discharges from the nose and throat. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer says that in order to protect yourself and others from such diseases here are some things to be remembered and some precautions to be observed.

Influenza is highly infectious. Practically everybody is susceptible to it. No matter how many times you may have had the disease, you may contract it again. Therefore, keep away from people who are sneezing, coughing, or sniffing, or who are actively ill with colds, influenza, or pneumonia. Keep away from crowded places. Have your own towel and drinking cup and always wash your hands before eating.

Keep yourself fit as possible by drinking plenty of water, by eating simple, nourishing food, by some exercise out of doors every day, by dressing according to the weather, by having plenty of sleep in a well-ventilated room, and by keeping the bowels regulated.

If you feel an attack of gripe or influenza—or even of what you may think an ordinary cold—coming on, go to bed, consult your physician, and follow his direction implicitly.

If Your Family Dislikes Milk

By KATHARINE FISHER and DOROTHY B. MARSH
Authors of The Good Housekeeping Cook Book

NUTRITIONISTS are agreed that children need at least 1 qt. and adults 1 pt. of pasteurized milk or its equivalent daily. The reason is that milk is a rich source of calcium—an essential in a healthful diet—and also supplies other minerals, vitamins and proteins. So we don't blame you for worrying if your family doesn't drink milk.

But have you tried making them eat their daily quota? They will—and like it—if you will use milk in cereals, soups, main dishes, desserts, and the like. It's just as nourishing this way as out of a tumbler, and often a lot easier to take. Here is a table of milk equivalents that will help you estimate the milk values in your meals.

Equal 1 Quart Whole Milk

2 c. evaporated milk
About 1/2 lb. American cheese
1 qt. buttermilk or skimmed milk plus 1 1/2 ounces butter or vitamin-fortified margarine.

Cheese and Oyster Stew

1 cut peeled clove 2 doz. raw oysters, garlic, drained
1 slice onion 4 c. bottled milk
4 tbsp. butter or 2 c. evaporated milk
margarine 2 c. water
1 c. grated processed sharp cheese 1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce 1/4 tsp. pepper
Dash paprika

Rub the inside of the saucepan well with the garlic and onion, and remove them. Then melt the butter in this saucepan over low heat; add cheese, stirring until soft. Add the Worcestershire sauce and the oysters from which any bits of shell have been removed, and heat until the edges of the oysters just begin to curl. Then add the milk, salt, pepper and paprika. Heat well and serve. Serves 6.

Serve with stuffed egg and asparagus salad, whole wheat toast, chocolate bread pudding with toamy sauce and tea for dinner.

Sweet Potato Pie

Flaky pastry 1/2 tsp. lemon extract
About 4 cooked medium sweet potatoes 1 1/2 c. bottled milk or 3/4 c. evaporated milk and 1/2 c. water
4 eggs 1/2 c. granulated sugar 1/4 c. melted butter or margarine
1/4 tsp. nutmeg 1/4 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. salt

Line a 9" pie plate with pastry, having a fluted edge. Press cooked sweet potatoes through a ricer, or mash well with a potato masher, then measure 1 1/2 c. Beat the eggs until light, then add sugar, nutmeg, cinnamon, salt, lemon extract, and milk, and beat with an egg beater until smooth. Add butter and potatoes, and beat well with egg beater. Pour into pie plate, and bake in a moderately hot oven of 400° F. for 45 min. or until a silver knife inserted in center comes out clean. Top with whipped cream, if desired.

Serve with stuffed beef heart, stewed tomatoes, buttered limas, celery and enriched rolls for dinner.

Christmas Bonuses Approved By WLB

Christmas bonuses up to $25 in cash may be paid by employers without obtaining permission from the War Labor Board, according to the latest issue of Labor's Confidential Analyst.

Bonuses in excess of $25 may also be paid if such bonuses were customary in the past, or if the payment follows an established plan of the employer.

A ruling of the War Labor to this effect was adopted to avoid a repetition of last year's experience when employers deluged the board with request for information as to whether they could distribute turkeys, candy or other gifts to their employees.

So if your employer is bubbling over with Christmas cheer and wants to stick $25 in your pocket, it's O. K. with the federal government.

Why We Need The Bible Now

Above all the measures of war-time and post-war planning—in industry, business, education, religion—the supreme need on the part of us all is for clearer moral insight, more unyielding devotion to truth, a more farseeing spirit of brotherhood, a new determination to be more worthy of the great sacrifices that are being made in our behalf. No one source of inspiration is better to provide for our need than the Bible.

Through long generations and among countless people of many nations the Bible has done this for those who have heeded to its guidance. It has influenced the deep springs of our national life. We may well expect that if fresh attention be given to it now by the American people, there will flow into our national life purifying and tonic streams of moral purpose and faith that will count tremendously in the remaining months of the war and the perilous years that follow.

TODAY—PSALM 1

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so; but are like the chaff that the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in judgment; nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Workers Should Have Social Security Card

LUBBOCK — Many boys and girls will soon be, if they are not already, working after school and on Saturdays in local stores in order to help the managers serve the public during the approaching holiday season. Each and every one of these new employees must have a social security account cards last year for the same purpose. They should still have them. They are just as good today as when issued, in fact they are good forever. Those who have preserved their original cards should use them. Workers taking employment for the first time should apply for the account cards. The social security account number must be given to each employer.

Recruiting of holiday labor has already begun by employers in various establishments. New workers, especially the younger type, should bear in mind that a social security card is not a "work permit." It is used for the sole purpose of keeping a correct account of wages earned in order to give the wage earner full credit on his old-age and survivors insurance account.

Social Security account cards may be secured from the Lubbock, Texas Social Security Board field office without charge. In case a worker lives some distance from a field office an application form may be secured at the postoffice and when properly filled out mailed to the Social Security Board office. The card will be promptly returned to the applicant.

Leukemia Studied By John Sealy Hospital

AUSTIN—A study of leukemia cases admitted to John Sealy Hospital in Galveston over a 22-year period, from 1921 to 1943, has been reported in Miss Gwendolyn Crass, fourth year medical student in the University of Texas, in the fall issue of Texas Reports on Biology and Medicine. Leukemia is the disease caused by a deficiency in red corpuscles.

Seventy cases were admitted to the hospital in the 22 years. A summary of Miss Crass' report shows that there was an increase in the disease in the fall and winter months, and that children are most susceptible throughout the year, whereas adults showed a rise in frequency of onset during the winter.

Persons from six months to 75 years from six months to 75 years were stricken with the disease, with more persons afflicted before their tenth year, and more between the forty-to-fifty year age groups than any other. There were three times more white patients than colored patients, and the colored patients lived almost twice as long with the disease as the white person.

Occupation had no bearing on the disease, Miss Crass reports, and no factors were found in past histories to predispose to leukemia.

Judge Davidson Given LLD At Tech

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech is truly Texan and exemplifies the true Texas spirit, said Judge T. Whitfield Davidson of Dallas on the occasion of his being awarded the honorary degree of doctor of laws by the institution.

With Tech's new president, Dr. William M. Whyburn, presiding, the ceremony was held following an address by Judge Davidson to an audience of 1500 students, faculty members, and townspeople. Members of the Lubbock County Bar association turned out in force.

Dr. Clifford B. Jones, president emeritus of the college, conferred the degree and Dr. R. C. Goodwin, dean of the graduate division, clothed the recipient in academic regalia. Dr. Jones said, "We deem it a privilege to honor a man so well known for his constructive interest in education, conspicuous support of Texas Tech, and his outstanding service to Texas and the nation."

CHRISTMAS TREE SUPPLY AMPLE

The supply of Christmas trees in 1944 will probably be ample to satisfy holiday needs of Americans, according to data given the Office of War Information by the War Production Board, Department of Agriculture and Office of Defense Transportation. At the same time, however, buyers are warned against "over-zealous buying" as that might create an artificial shortage followed by a waste of trees. In 1943 consumer anxiety about the family tree, which began with slow deliveries to retailers, led to high prices followed by a glut of trees near Christmas time. Many surplus trees sold for practically nothing on Christmas Eve and a sizable leftover had to be destroyed. The 1944 supply should be about that of last year.

WTCC And Congress To Study Cotton

The future of cotton in the postwar world will be closely studied in the U. S. Congress this month, and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be on hand. The regional chamber's Abilene headquarters has announced that Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe will represent it in meetings starting Dec. 4 before the House on Agriculture. Moffett, who is chairman of the Texas Senate's agricultural committee, left Saturday night for Washington.

Purpose of the hearings called by Cong. Steve Pace of Georgia, chairman of the House committee, is to coordinate the interests of all concerned in the cotton industry, from grower to spinner. Special study will be made of the export situation and competition American growers will face after the war from countries with lower production costs than ours. The problem of synthetics in competition with cotton fiber also will be scrutinized.

"Rapid and far reaching developments are taking place in the cotton industry," Sen. Moffett pointed out. "It is to be devoutly hoped that foreign consumption of American cotton can be permanently stepped up. This is especially important to West Texas, for we export more than 90 per cent of our crop."

"The inauguration of the federal government's 4 cents a pound program to stimulate cotton exports may help, but the West Texas Chamber of Commerce believes, and so do I, that permanent solution of the problem lies elsewhere. We believe that the advent of a perfected cotton picker has many ramifications some of which may be almost revolutionary in the cotton world, and especially our West Texas world; for, under our mechanized production methods, we are a long jump ahead of the cotton belt as a whole."

"Those qualified to judge believe that as soon as raw material is made available there will be placed at the farmer's disposal a cotton picker which will gather the staple for not more than $8 a bale, or a reduction of about 4 cents a pound from present harvesting costs. This plus an export subsidy will enable our growers to meet foreign competition."

West Texas growers must again be made acutely cotton conscious, Moffett said. This year, with no government limitation on planted acreage, area production—as of the government's report on ginnings to Nov. 14—stood at only 731,352 bales, against 908,961 bales in 1943, same date. At a third of a bale per acre, this indicates that 1944 West Texas total planting was 30 percent under the 3½ million acres sown in 1943, when production reached 1,200,000 bales. The year's total probably has not exceeded 2½ million planted acres. West Texas growers, fearful of cotton's future, besides being short on labor, this year did not cash in on the lifting of planting restrictions by the War Food Administration.

RUBBER PROBLEM REMAINS SERIOUS

The overall rubber problem remains far from solved and allied crude rubber stocks are now at the lowest since the start of the war, the combined Raw Materials Board reports. This statement makes a distinction between the successful synthetic rubber program and the natural rubber supply. It is natural rubber that is being used faster than it can be obtained and it is natural rubber that is so needed in heavy truck tires and airplane tires—which the war uses up at an appalling rate. The upshot of this situation is the unrelaxed dependence upon civilian tire users to conserve and conserve. The shifts to synthetic rubber mean, the Board explained, some sacrifice in quantity and quality, but such is an essential price to pay to conserve natural rubber.

Income Tax Season To Open Soon

When King Solomon died, his son, Rehoboam, took over. The people sent a committee to him, complaining their yoke was heavy and asked him to lighten their burden. He told them to come back in a few days. He then consulted the older men, who told him he better do it. But the young men whom he grew up with, told him not to, but to pour it on. So, when the people returned he said: "My fathers yoke was heavy, but I will add thereto, he chastised thee with whips, but I'll chastise thee with scorpions," and the people went away mumbling as usual.

Last year a great wail went up to high Heaven and Washington, about the complications of income tax reports. Congress had their finance committee to work on, re-adjust and simplify them, and lighten the yoke. Newspapers at the time made glowing reports. Now, bracket time is here again, and the consensus of opinion among the income tax fixers-uppers, is, as to complications, they "have added thereto," and they will have to learn it all over again. The income tax law was re-enacted early this year, with many changes, some effective for this year's reports, some to start only with 1945. Personal exemptions are reduced to $500.00 each, including children. Victory tax and "earned" income, repealed, but a normal, and surtax continues.

It appears that every person who has gross income of over $500.00 has to make a report regardless of exemptions and deductions. It also appears all, but farmers, are to make their estimate on December 15, but if they file final reports by January 15, this is excused. All must make final reports by March 15, 1945. Income and deductions are about the same as last year. An optional form, with table of taxes already calculated, may be taken. Wage-earners and salaried folks, are taken care of by their employers, except they must make final returns March 15.

However, we are not attempting to explain or define this, which is almost impossible, even if we had the space. We merely call the attention to taxpayers, the time is near at hand, and one had best see his accountant soon.

Point Value Chart To Continue In December

Point value charts now posted in retail stores will continue in effect during the ration period which began Sunday, December 3 and ends December 30, Miss Opal L. Wood, District Food Rationing Officers for the OPA has announced.

Present point values for rationed meats, fats, and processed foods will continue unchanged during this four-week period.

For this December ration period, three red stamps in war Ration Book IV, worth 10 points each, were made good December 3. The stamps are Q5, R5, and S5. Blue stamps X5, Y5, Z5, A2, and B2 were validated December 1.

Judge Says:

If Jimmy Durante were to step into the Texas University, he no doubt, would exclaim, "everyone is trying to get into de act."

If Morgenstau would just offer a package of cigarettes with each bond bought? "Stand in line, take your turn at the window, don't shove."

Old man Gossip, after a three weeks silent vacation, following November 7, has returned to work in Washington. Thanks anyway for the short respite.

Mrs. Tobe Howze received a card last Thursday from her son, Bobby Jones, saying he had landed safely somewhere in the Pacific.

YOUR BEST CROP DESERVES YOUR BEST EFFORT

Year-in-and-out, Cotton is the best crop most Texas farms can grow—that's why it has been our leading cash crop for almost 100 years. Cotton grows so well under Texas conditions that it will produce even on poor land, with poor treatment—but Cotton is so valuable that it deserves the best land and every effort to produce it effectively and economically.

Proper land conservaion and preparation, the use of fertilizers were adapted, well-bred planting seed treated with Ceresan, proper planting dates and methods, proper cultivation, control of insects—all these increase Cotton production and will "Make Your Best 'Pay Crop'—COTTON—PAY YOU MORE IN 1945."

Start now to put into practice the practices that have proved their ability to reduce costs of production and increase yields and net income from Cotton.

Santa Fe Remembers Employees In Service

Although many of its employees in military service are stationed in remote outposts of the world, the Santa Fe Railway hopes to reach each one of them this Christmas with a Holiday Message. Season's Greetings from the railway's president, F. G. Gurley, accompanied by a check for ten dollars, are being mailed by the Company to approximately eleven thousand furloughed employees to remind them that they have not been forgotten by their co-workers on the home front.

Obtaining the correct addresses of these employees proved a difficult task. Their fellow-workers, families and former bosses were canvassed in the search for proper mailing information. Many of the employees have been in the armed forces since 1940; others have moved from one camp or fighting front to another as much as a half dozen times. The search also revealed that a substantial percentage of these men and women now are on foreign soil. Wherever they may be, the Santa Fe will try to reach each of them with its holiday message.

"To A Christmas Shopper"

The time has come, all merchants say.

To talk of Christmas stuff—
Of hose and lingerie and robes,
Of female fad and stuff.

Before we dust off adjectives
And deck our ads in cheer
We think you really out to know
What's going on this year.

Priorities and scarcities
Have all stores in a "tizzy"
And getting Christmas orders in
For months has kept us busy.

"Can't send you this," suppliers write
"Next shipment will be higher."
We rushed to buy the gifts you want
Before their stocks expire.

We've never bought so heavily
So FAR ahead of time—
To tell you THAT is mainly
The reason for this rhyme.

Our shelves and stockrooms bulge
With Christmas goods galore
And if you don't believe it
Drop in and see our store.

We haven't raised our prices yet,
And won't until we must—
But take our tip on values:
Be the one who gets there
"fust."

To find distinctive gifts they love
To miss the Hurly-Burly—
We must respectfully suggest
DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY!

Sugar Beet Yields 41 Tons Per Acre

LUBBOCK, Dec. 9—A total of 41.54 tons of sugar beets was harvested from a three-acre plot on the Texas Tech farm by the plant industry department this year, according to Dr. A. W. Young, head of the department.

The beets have been shipped to the American Sugar Crystal company of Rocky Ford, Colo., and the department will be informed of the sugar content in approximately three weeks.

No Shortage Seen In Protein Feeds

AUSTIN—No repetition of last year's shortage of concentrated protein feeds for livestock is expected by Grover C. Hill, assistant secretary of agriculture.

Hill, here to visit E. O. Thompson of the Railroad commission, said he believed the plan under which each mill must set aside 20 per cent of such proteins for cattlemen and dairymen, will prevent recurrence of the experience.

Hill, formerly of Amarillo, planned to spend several days here. He speaks at a meeting of sheep men at San Angelo Dec. 5.

SOCIAL SECURITY TAX MAY BE FROZEN AT ONE CENT

It is predicted that Congress will freeze the payroll tax for old age pensions at 1 percent for another year. Those favoring the freeze say that the present fund is sufficient for all visible needs. The law provided that the rate be advanced to 2 percent last year. At this time it was frozen for one year at 1 percent. Congressional action must be taken before January 1, 1945, otherwise the rate automatically increases under the law to two percent.

What happens when your hat comes down?

SOMEDAY, a group of grim-faced men will walk stiffly into a room, sit down at a table, sign a piece of paper—and the War will be over.

That'll be quite a day. It doesn't take much imagination to picture the way the hats will be tossed into the air all over America on that day.

But what about the day after?

What happens when the tumult and the shouting have died, and all of us turn back to the job of actually making this country the wonderful place we've dreamed it would be "after the War"?

No man knows just what's going to happen then. But we know one thing that must not happen:

We must not have a postwar America fumbling to restore an out-of-gear economy, staggering under a burden of idle factories and idle men, wracked with internal dissension and stricken with poverty and want.

We must not have breadlines and vacant farms and jobless, tired men in Army overcoats tramping city streets.

That is why we must buy War Bonds—now.

For every time you buy a Bond, you not only help finance the War. You help to build up a vast reserve of postwar buying power. Buying power that can mean millions of postwar jobs making billions of dollars' worth of postwar goods and a healthy, prosperous, strong America in which there'll be a richer, happier living for every one of us.

To protect your Country, your family, and your job after the War—buy War Bonds now!

Let's all KEEP BACKING THE ATTACK!
