

WHAT ARE TERRYITES GOING TO DO ABOUT VICTORY LOAN?

Yeah, the shooting war is over. But for many men and their families the war will never be over. Some are asking why a loan drive when the war is over. The Herald proposes to put some of them squarely up to people with some spare money in this article. All of us should know without being told. Here are a few of the reasons:

We know that a million and a quarter Americans were killed or wounded and that we must take care of the injured men and the families of the dead.

We know that there are still millions of Americans overseas and that we must bring them home as soon as we can maintain them till they get here.

We know that the G. I. Bill of Rights gives these men — and rightly—mustering-out pay, loans, education—a chance to make up for the years they have lost—a chance to get a start in the free peaceful world they won for all of us.

These facts are obvious—just as obvious as the fact that it will take a lot of money to handle the problems they present.

It's also obvious, when you come to think of it, that winding up a war as big as this one is expensive business in other ways. For instance, huge sums are still required to pay for war materials which were ordered, produced, and delivered some time ago.

These reasons for buying extra Bonds in the Victory Loan are clear and easily understood.

But there is another reason for making the Victory Loan a success which, perhaps, doesn't come so easily and clearly to mind:

In these years of war, the American people have displayed mighty sound judgment.

Man by man, family by family, group by group they have come to accept Bond buying as a way to obtain financial and economic security for themselves as individuals and for their country.

Whole communities have thus changed, in the last few years, from debt-ridden, hand-to-mouth groups to communities of solid citizens with a financial reserve, a financial stake in the American system, and a newly formed habit of regular saving.

As a result of this good judgment, we have been able to hold off a disastrous inflation, finance a good part of the costs of war, and save the incredible sum of 100 billion dollars.

And as a result of these accomplishments, we, as a nation, stand ready to throw off the effects of war and get this country back, as fast as we can, on a solid, prosperous, peacetime economic basis.

To win this final battle, we need only keep on doing, for a little longer, the same things we did so well during three and one half years of war. We need to keep on saving until reconversion is complete.

The next few months will tell the story. And if, during this critical period, we will only use the brains, the will power, the energy, the enterprise, the materials, and resources with which we won our war, we can't fail to win the peace and make this the richest, happiest land the world has known.

Making the Victory Loan a smashing success will be a clear notice of our intentions.

THREE TERRYITES GET RELEASED FROM NAVY

The following Terry county men have been discharged from the United States Navy: C. N. Newberry, 23, Seaman First Class, 414 So. 5th St., Brownfield; Jack W. Tierman, 39, Pharmacist's Mate Second Class, 311 North 5th St., Brownfield, and Charles R. Stevens, 23, Pharmacist's Mate First Class, Box 415, Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Bynum and Mrs. Dorothy Robinson spent Sunday in O'Donnell with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Robinson.

USO Drive Extended Through November

Frank Jordan, leader here of the United War Fund drive, received a wire this week from Governor Coke Stevenson as honorary president, and Judge Ben H. Powell as state president of the USO drive in Texas, extending the drive on through November. The wire stated that Texas had sadly fallen down on the drive with only 62 percent raised. Terry did a bit better with 73 percent.

Mr. Jordan was asked to reorganize and re-solicit the county, and do our best to go over the top. Let us remember that we still have millions to troops and sailors away from home, and we that have remained at home should be willing in every way to assist Mr. Jordan to put Texas and Terry county over the top.

This will be a real sacrifice of time and labor for Mr. Jordan, but he is willing to get into harness again, and do all he can, with our assistance to put Terry over. Back them with your dollars.

Gov. Stevenson and Judge Powell explained that this additional drive should not in any way interfere with the Victory War Loan drive.

Pfc. Thurman Miller Returns From Europe

Another returned soldier that has received his discharge for a mean task well done, was in to see us this week, and like most of our returning service men, he had a grin on his face that reached from ear to ear. And another Terry county family is rejoicing that their son, who might have been lost, has returned, safe and sound in body and mind.

Well, Thurman just dropped in to say that there was no need to send his paper to Germany any longer, as he had completed his job there and was tickled pink to get back to Texas, and especially old Terry.

Didn't have much to say about the European country, except that some of the cities were pretty well torn up, and as for the country, as far as he could see, it has been worn out hundreds of years.

John W. Chambliss Gets A Discharge

T/Sgt. John W. Chambliss of Brownfield was honorably discharged from the AAF, it was announced by Public Relations office of Sheppard Field Separation Center. He was a member of the Army Airways Communications System, the unit which operates and maintains radio communications and navigational aids for the world wide airways.

He expects to return to Brownfield where his parents now reside at 607 N. 1st street. He attended the Brownfield High School and was a farmer before entering the army.

In the service for 4 years, as a control tower and radio operator, T/Sgt. Chambliss was stationed at Scott Field, Peterson Field, and also served in Central America, Panama, Nicaragua and Albrook Field.

Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Bishop and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Scudday attended the district assembly of the Nazarene church in Plainview Monday through Thursday of last week.

Guy Tankersley, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tankersley, received his discharge from Fort MacArthur, California the first of the week and is expected home this weekend.

MM3/c A. E. Pate, Jr., is here on a thirty day furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pate, Sr. He has been stationed on the Philippine Islands.

Former Brownfield Girl Killed In Car Wreck

Miss Marjorie Neill aged 19, born and reared in Brownfield but last three years living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Neill at Levelland died early Monday morning in a Lubbock hospital from injuries sustained an hour before when the automobile in which she was riding collided head on with another, six miles north of Lubbock on the Plainview road. Funeral services were held at Baptist Church at Levelland at 2 p. m. Tuesday, with the pastor officiating, and interment at 4 p. m. in the Brownfield Memorial cemetery. She is survived by her parents, one brother, George F., aged 8, and sister Mary Jane, 5. She was granddaughter of the Geo. W. Neills here. Marjorie was a graduate of the Levelland high school, 2 years ago, and for last 4 months Western Union operator at Lubbock, also a student in a business college there, at the time of the accident.

Eight other persons, including her near neighbor girl and room mate, and neighbor boy from Levelland, and two others in her same car, and Wilbur Wenzel, 16 and Lorena Wenzel of route 1 Brownfield, in the other car. Lorena Wenzel suffered a broken back.

Particulars were not learned, but it was thought one of the cars were attempting to pass a bus, when it met the other.

Capt. Murphy May Gets His Discharge

McClellan Field, Calif.—Captain Murphy M. May of Brownfield, Texas is a civilian again today following his discharge at this army separation point after four and one half years of service with the Army Air Forces.

He was overseas in the Asiatic Pacific theater with the Air Transport Command as a Pilot from November 1943 to Sept. 1944. He has been awarded five battle stars.

Previous to entering the armed forces, he was employed at Magnolia Oil Co., Seagraves, Texas for two years.

He is the son of Mr. Tom May, of E. Cardwell, Brownfield.

Chairman Gillham Makes Appeal For War Loan Support

J. O. Gillham, Terry County Chairman of the Victory Loan Drive made the following statement with reference to the Victory Loan Drive:

"We are approaching this final drive with the knowledge that it won't be easy, but with the greatest determination we have had during the entire War Financing Program to see it succeed. Certainly we must not fail to back our country in Victory with our dollars. Costs of demobilization, rehabilitation, care of the wounded and contract termination are tremendous. We must finance this final phase of the War in the same sound way that we have the actual period of hostility. It is a great duty and privilege to invest in victory. Let us finish the job and get the boys home.

"Terry county's over all quota is $295,000, with a Series E quota of $165,000. This means that every citizen must buy all the bonds he can in order to make this drive succeed. There have been rumors circulated by malicious persons that the Series E bonds would be frozen but there is absolutely no truth in these rumors. The bonds say right on the face of them that they can be redeemed sixty (60) days after issue date and our Government will stand behind it's promises. Our Government does not make contracts that it will not and cannot live up to.

The drive started October 29 and closes December 8, with tabulation on Series E, F and G bonds and series C Tax Notes running through December 31."

"It is my hope that every citizen will buy all the bonds he can."

WE ENJOYED THOSE LUCIOUS TEXAS LEMONS

We have been a long time about the matter, but by no means had forgotten it. Keith's, at Fort Worth, one of the largest distributors of fresh fruit and vegetables in Texas, recently sent us a carton of those delicious green colored but ripe lemons from south Texas, which go under the trade name of Texons.

For a week or two the Old He and wife regaled ourselves with a pitcher of fragrant and pepping lemonade made from them after supper. And if you don't think those lemons have a lot of rich juice, go to your dealer and try a batch of them.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Townzen were Mrs. Mollie Townzen from Ranger and her son and family, G. A. Townzen, of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Barnes from O'Donnell. They came in a plane and landed in Mr. Townzen's sudan patch.

Yen for Marines on Okinawa

First payday for troops on Okinawa was for Leathernecks of the Second Marine Air Wing. They were paid, for the first time in the Pacific, in the yen and yen of military invasion currency. At the left, Technical Sgt. Carl Micharisen, Jr., of Astoria, Long Island, N. Y., watches the yen and yen being counted out by Warrant Officer Donald E. Kent of Syracuse, N. Y., who is in charge of Second Wing's enlisted pay accounts. In the "receiving line," left to right, are Sgt. Walter B. Woods of Philadelphia, Pa., Corp. Daniel J. McCabe of Allentown, Pa., and Pfc. William K. Gibson of Cleveland, Ohio. (U. S. Marine Corps Photo)

Commanding Officer Writes To Mr. And Mrs. Washmon

The following letter was received recently from the commanding officer of an ammunition ship, on which their son, Eugene, lost his life, while in the service of his country. We might add that while the Washmon family now lives in California, Eugene was born and grew up in Terry county, and attended the Forrester, Gomez and Brownfield schools. At his death, he was 20 years, 6 months and 5 days old:

M. V. China,

Fleet Post Office.

Mr. Dear Mr. and Mrs. Washmon: I have your letter of 30 August, 1945 in which you asked several questions relative to your son's death. I will attempt to answer them for you.

Our ship was moored to a Jetty at Zamboanga Mindinao, Philippine Islands. On 10th of July, 1945 at 10 P. M. that date a gasoline fire began on the surface of the water surrounding our ship. As we were carrying explosive cargo it was believed, by all on board, that the ship would explode at any moment, therefore the men abandoned ship. Your son was burned while leaving ship but continued along the Jetty until reaching shore at which time he was immediately taken by jeep to the 2nd field hospital. Eugene was under competent medical care at the hospital less than five minutes after the fire began. He was conscious and identified himself to medical authorities and at no time was he in great physical stress.

Eugene died at the hospital at 5:25 A. M., 11 July, 1945 and was buried with Naval honors with myself and his entire crew members in attendance, at the Zamboanga Military cemetery at 2:00 P. M. 11 July, 1945.

All of us on board realize how great a loss this is to you because we too miss him greatly because of his pleasant disposition, co-operative spirit, willingness, leadership and ability.

It may be some consolation to you to know that Eugene was enjoying the service and that he had many happy liberties while we were in Australia. You can also see from the photo I am enclosing, which was taken about 5 July, 1945, that he was well and happy.

Please accept my sincere condolence, an if you desire other information or if can be of service to you in other ways please allow me to help you.

Sincerely yours,

Lt. (jg) Morgan J. Busch,

Commanding.

OCTOBER TEEN AGERS REGISTER

The following boys becoming 18 years of age during the month of October, have registered with the local draft board:

Bobbie G. Allman, Morgan L. Copeland, Kenneth L. Cave, Jesse I. McKaughn, Freddie Rounsaville, Alfred W. Mangum, Adrian Longoria, Weldon W. Lewis, Thomas H. Smith.

Mrs. Clarence Hester of Meadow was in town Tuesday, shopping.

Hayden Griffin a Mail Man That Pleases

During this war we have seen numerous pictures, some real and other just cartoons of mail men who looked happy to deliver letters on their routes from the boys overseas. In some instances, they would pause long enough to see if Johnny or Bill was OK, before he started for his next delivery. We thought sometimes this was a bit overdrawn.

But our next door neighbor, Hayden Griffin is a man of that calibre. It is usually around dark now when the late Sunday mail arrives from Lubbock, including air mail from the coast. Sometime we drop by late at the PO building to see if we had heard from our son. Sunday was one of those days. Met Mr. and Mrs. Griffin just coming out of the postoffice and among us we had three air mail letters, all from Jack, Jr.

Not only that, but he had a hand full of others, and knowing how anxious people are to hear, Mr. Griffin and wife got in their car and delivered these letters to the folks. That was out of their line of duty. They didn't have to deliver them; they had no special delivery stamps; just an air mail stamp. But they were delivered.

Then, in week days we have a carrier in our part of the city, Terry Redford. Terry will do anything not in violation of postal laws for the people on his route. We wouldn't trade Hayden and Terry for a whole side of bacon.

Your mail man is generally just what the pictures point him out to be. Be nice to your carrier, and when Christmas comes, leave him a little remembrance; a little token that you appreciate his efforts to be nice to you and yours.

Cubs Tie Into Westerners Tonight

Last Friday the Brownfield Cubs engaged Pampa in the 2nd conference game, of District AA-1. During the first half, the Fighting Cubs did exceedingly well, the score at the half being 6 to 0 in favor of the Harvesters. But during the last half, Pampa went wild and scored three touchdowns, the final score being 25 to 0.

The Cubs have lost two games, one to Amarillo and one to Pampa. In taking on the Lubbock Westerners tonight, they tackle a team that also has lost two conference games, one to Borger and one to Plainview. So, the fight tonight is to keep out of the cellar position. It will be the third conference game for both teams.

Don't fail to attend the game at the Tech stadium if possible, and show the Cubs you are still with them and yelling for them.

Well What Do You Know About That?

A few weeks ago most of us were almost positive that there would be no serious demand for grain cars this fall, that could not be met right off the reel by the railroad company. Just the same, Virgil Burnett, manager of BD, informed us that they had requested more grain cars immediately, if possible, from the Santa Fe.

Mr. Burnett stated that every elevator in town was full, and we presume like last year, some is being put on the ground. There is a whale of a lot of grain that probably will be useless as planting seed, but fine for feeding purposes.

SEAMAN CAMPBELL IN OCCUPATION FORCES

Wakayama, Honshu, Japan—Robert Harley Campbell, boat-swain's mate, second class, Route 4, Brownfield, member of an amphibious task force, put American occupation troops ashore here following the surrender of Japan.

The troops were landed at this harbor on the southeastern coast of Honshu for the occupation of Japan's inland cities of Kobe and Osaka.

Farmers To Dedicate Own Refinery

Amarillo—Thousands of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico farmers are expected to be present at the dedication of their new 5,500 barrel-a-day refinery at Levelland, Texas, on November 9, according to an announcement made today by Harold H. Hogue, of Dalhart, well-known Dallham County farmer, who is president of the refinery association.

Last year more than 30,000 farmers in the three state southwestern area, banded together through cooperative farm organizations to purchase the refining plant of the Motor Fuels Corporation at Levelland, paying more than three-quarters of a million dollars for the refinery operations.

These farmer-stockholders selected their directorate and officers from their own number and in February of this year took over the operation of the plant. Distribution of the savings effected by the farmers owning their own refinery is made on an equitable patronage-refund basis.

Plans for the November 9th meeting include a formal dedication ceremony, a free barbecue, entertainment, and special music. The day's festivities will begin at noon with the barbecue, held at the Levelland Rodeo Grounds, one mile south of Levelland on the Brownfield highway.

Farmers from more than 140 Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico communities and their families are expected to attend the celebration and the dedication of the first farmer-owned petroleum refinery in the southwest.

Editor E. I. Hill of the Lynn County News, last week speaking of their recent misunderstanding in their school remarked that he was very pleased that the late unpleasantness has subsided, and the fine school was back to near normal, after making glaring headlines all over the state. You beat that, Editor Hill. You made 'em all over the United States and possessions. We had a letter from the Junior Editor of this sheet last Sunday, written about Thursday the 25th from Pearl Harbor. He said you made the headlines not only in the Honolulu daily, but the Hawaiian edition of Stars and Stripes. Strange how bad news like "Tahoka Texas Takes Football Seriously," will travel. But if Tahoka or Brownfield or any other town was to win every game in a season and not allow any opponent to score, we would not make the headlines in Honolulu. The AP and UP did their task well.

The report is going out now that car dealers in the small towns will have none for sale for months, or until the big district dealers have had their full share to sell favorites in their area, say like Los Angeles. When those areas get fully saturated, they say, we "kintry" folks will begin to get some cars. But unless we get some strikes settled, it don't look like anyone will get cars. At least one has been on display here, and another is expected next week, but as far as any being for sale, we shall know later.

That the destructive power of the atomic bomb must be kept for the present from outlaw nations is a foregone conclusion. We might add that it is just as important that it be kept from outlaw individuals. Some gangsters would delight in its use.

The radio commercials have been brought to keen efficiency. They are talked, squealed, sung and hummed. That guy that talks about his candy on Monday nights can make most any one drool. In fact, a lady recently informed us that some washing powder sponsor had done such a good job of it one night that her husband wanted some of it with cream and sugar next morning. They used to say that some folks would still say that advertising does not pay. We doubt if any such are left.

We read a magazine article not too long ago, from a citizen of a state other than Texas and California, deploring the fact that if the other 46 states had a state flag they never displayed it. But Texas and California both seemed to be proud of their state flag. Texans are, and the Lone Star flag flies daily along with the Stars and Stripes over the Roll of Honor list of Terry's service men, on the north side of the square.

The Old Apostle in the Clarendon Leader, also the PM of that city, says that an "unexaggerated" report has gone out in that section that he is broke. The OP and PM says that the report came about two score years too late; he denies that he has ever been any other way than broke.

There was a very interesting story in a recent issue of Esquire about David Crockett, which was propagaed in advance. We wanted a copy and secrecy told our dealer, thinking he would slip us one in a paper sack, our age being what it is. No such luck. One of the young lady clerks handed it over the counter when they came in, with a mischievous twinkle in her eyes, as if to ask what an Old He like us would want with a young man's magazine, knowing it cost 50c. But there were also, some other interesting stories in that copy, as well as some very nice pictures.

Henry McLemore, special writer in the Dallas News, recently out of army uniform, this week tried his luck as a combined legal and love-lorn adviser to the GI's. A WAC that described herself as aluring, with platinum blond hair and light blue eyes, not only asked advice, but wished an interview. Henry at first demurred on the interview, but on second thought set the date for Detroit, and stated she would know him as he would be the only person there not striking.

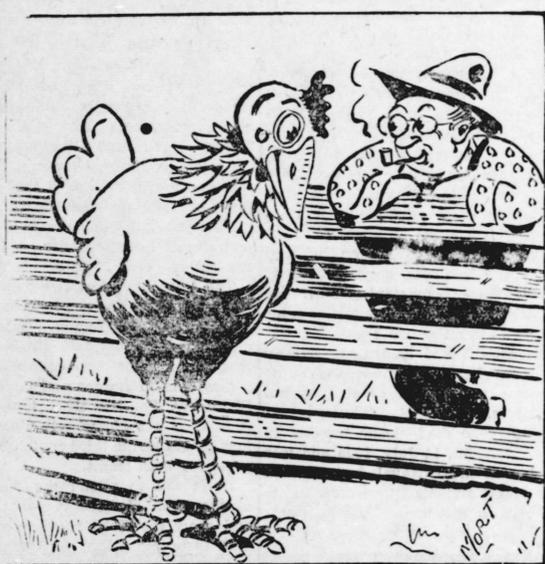

The "coupe de grace" the French officer gave Laval with a six pistol in the ear, must mean the same thing as "he drilled him" in the American language.

The newspapers of Texas are making much of starting a journalism section in the University of Texas. This is OK, but writers could be had most of the time during the war. What the Herald might be persuaded to put up a little cash for, is trained men and women for the mechanical department of newspapers. That's the part that hooked our bull during the war.

The recent bond elections in Yoakum county carried by large majorities. The airport bonds carried 213 to 53, and the special road bonds for the Denver City area carried 151 to 14. We understand the latter are to build a paved highway west from Denver City to the New Mexico line, where a road from Lovington, N. M., will meet it.

Rev. and Mrs. Ed Tharp are having a nice home erected on south Second street just south and in the same block as the Lester McPherson home. This we understand is being built for the permanent home.

Sonny Walls Helped Carry War to Japan

Aboard the Battleship USS Tennessee—R. B. Walls, Jr., seaman first class, USNR, of 311 East Main st., Brownfield, Texas took part in the climax of this ship's role in the war with Japan, a role that included virtually every major operation in the Pacific, when occupation forces were landed from "The Rebel" at Wakayama, Honshu, Japan.

Damaged at Pearl Harbor, the Tennessee came back to engage in operations from the Aleutians to the home waters of Japan. She was at Okinawa, preparing for further operations, when news of Japan's acceptance of surrender terms was received.

YES, THEY'LL RUN ON GIN

According to extensive tests recently completed, automobiles will operate on gin and other mixtures of alcohol and water, with only moderate changes in their alcohol and fuel systems. Under proper conditions, power output and flexibility of operation are satisfactory.

An automobile, however, that would run 100 miles on one tankful of gasoline would run only 20 miles on the same tankful of 90 proof gin. While that would add opportunities in the filling station business, motorists probably would not be so much in favor of those frequent stops.

The present cost of gin and other alcohol blends in comparison with even the most heavily-taxed gasoline seemingly presents an insurmountable hurdle to the use of alcoholic blends for motor fuel in this country at present.

In case, however, motorists should decide they would like to use alcohol instead of gasoline in their tanks, the petroleum industry is prepared to produce and supply vast quantities of alcohol at prices far below those now prevailing.

NATURAL GAS CALLED GREAT NEW SOURCE

Expressing the opinion that natural gas may become so valuable that it cannot be used for fuel, Dr. George H. Fancher of the University of Texas says, "natural gas is a new resource of raw materials for essential ingredients in the manufacture of synthetics. It must not only serve old industries, but it also must supply self-created new industries making new products."

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Horn and daughter came in Wednesday of last week. Mr. Horn received his discharge from Scott Field, Ill. They are spending this week in San Angelo visiting his parents.

LET THE WITCHES RIDE!

HALLOWE'EN is the magical night when the witches ride, riding their broomsticks through the skies and stirring their seething cauldrons as they brew their love potions. It's the night of many superstitions—beware if a black cat crosses your path, and if you fail to see your best beloved in a mirror lighted by a candle held over your shoulder, you might as well know that you have lost him!

Because of its many traditions, Halloween is one of the nights that lends itself perfectly to entertaining. Golden pumpkins and fall foliage mark the decorating theme. Jack-o-lanterns, witches and black cats are symbolic of the spirit of the night.

A buffet supper is best for a Halloween party. Sandwiches, popcorn, heaps of apples, doughnuts are all good to serve. Beverages should be of the party type. Center attention on a punch bowl filling cauldrons with a delicious concoction of fruit juices and sparkling water. Sparkling water keeps your punch alive and zesty. Try adding it to your favorite fruit punch mixtures and see what a difference it makes in tangy flavor. Cider makes a fine punch, mixed with sparkling water, and requires no sugar. Here is a recipe for it.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

If one would understand why a Texan is like he is, it must be remembered that Texas has a history all its own. For Texas has been under six flags: the banners of Spain, France, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States. Texas was freed from Mexico more than a hundred years ago by bold, adventurous men from other States—some of whom had left their country for their country's good.

The expression "Gone to Texas" (sometimes expressed "G. T. T.") once was in vogue in other states as the explanation for some man's sudden departure.

It is related that a newcomer to Texas became involved in a difficulty and was advised by a lawyer to leave. He said, in amazement, "But I'm already in Texas, ain't I?" At the outbreak of the Texas War of Independence, a Tennessean was galloping along and a friend asked, "Where you going?" He replied, "To Texas—to fight for my rights."

The most sacred spot in Texas is the Alamo where one hundred and eighty-two men, including Travis, Crockett, Bowie and Bonham refused to escape or surrender but fought to the last man against the hordes of the dictator, Santa Anna. "Thermopylae had her messenger of defeat; the Alamo had none." At Goliad, a Texas force under Fannin, facing artillery and overwhelming numbers, surrendered and then was massacred. At Jan Jacinto, the furious Texans, under Sam Houston, shouted, "Remember the Alamo! Remember Goliad!" and in 20 minutes Santa Anna's army was shattered; the tyrant himself was captured next day, and the freedom of Texas had been won.

For 10 years, Texas was a republic, maintaining a navy, sending and receiving ambassadors, then voluntarily entered the Union by a treaty under which the right was reserved for Texas to divide

He received word from the Navy Department that the last week of his leave had been cancelled due to a change in the ship's schedule, so he had to leave within a few hours' time, which didn't give him time to see all his friends here. He expects his ship to be used to transport troops from Pearl Harbor to the States.

Highlights From President's Address

Washington, Oct. 30 — Highlights from President Truman's speech on wages and prices to-night:

The American people are entitled to know now that this government stands for prosperity and jobs—not depression and relief.

I believe that industry as a whole can afford substantial wage increases without price increases.

I do not think all of us understand how hard a blow our industrial workers have suffered in the shift from war production to peace production.

If nothing is done to help the workers in this situation, millions of families will have to tighten their belts—and by several notches.

Wage increases are therefore imperative—to cushion the shock to our workers, to sustain adequate purchasing power and to raise the national income.

However, there are important limits upon the capacity of industry to raise wages without getting price increases.

Labor . . . has a stern responsibility to see that demands for wage increases are reasonable.

Labor is the best customer management has; and management is the source of labor's livelihood.

We need more of the good sense, the reasonableness, the consideration for the position of the other fellow, the teamwork which we had during the war.

Mrs. R. L. Bowers left Thursday with her son, Marion, to go as far as Dallas with him. From there she will go to Terrell to visit Mrs. Dorothy Nicholson.

HA1/c Max V. Myatt, of Lubbock was here Thursday evening visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Pounds. He is stationed at New Orleans, La., and is home on furlough.

1500 View New Ford, Several Order

In conversation this week with representatives of the Portwood Motor Co., local Ford dealers, they stated that 1500 people called Friday and Saturday to view the new 1946 Ford on display at their display room. Many of these placed orders, they stated.

Asked the reaction of the interested callers, they stated that it was very impressive, and as a general thing the callers were simply carried away with the new car.

While cars are off the ration list, this company stated that they intended using their best efforts to see that those most needing a car would be first supplied, but it will help matters if all who intend buying, let it be known.

Residents Must Have Texas License Plates

Austin—Hundreds of Texas residents are operating their automobiles illegally with license plates secured in other states where the plates may be obtained at a lower rate than in Texas.

Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has advised that there will start immediately an enforcement program to see that all persons who are residents of Texas properly register their automobiles. Thousands of dollars are going into the revenue of other state treasuries when it should be going into the Texas treasury for the maintenance of Texas highways.

SWIFT JUSTICE MEETED OUT TO ROBBERS

Joe B. Price, sheriff, conveyed the three men convicted of robbery of the Fosters, in the south part of town, to the State penitentiary at Huntsville, last week. They were arrested, indicted, tried and entered the prison in 24 days after commission of offense.

"This is a victory of more than arms alone. This is a victory of liberty over tyranny . . . Back of it all were the will and spirit and determination of a free people who know what freedom is . . . Liberty does not make all men perfect, nor all men secure. But it has provided more solid progress and happiness and decency for more people than any other philosophy of government in history. And this day has shown again that it provides the greatest strength and the greatest power which man has ever reached . . ."—From V-J Day Speech by President Harry S. Truman.

LOOKING AHEAD

by GEORGE S. BENSON
President—Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

Liberalism

Back in America's colonial days before the Revolutionary war when everybody was underprivileged, there were only three freedoms. Everybody had a right to work hard, save as much as he could of his earnings and use his head as profitably as possible in business. If you have a taste for long words you might call the three freedoms industry, frugality and ingenuity.

Politics in those days were all full of rich-man vs. poor-man problems, same as now. They were, to be sure, better decorated with pretty English but the issues were about the same: What will we have to work with? If we do well, how much can we keep, and how much will be taken by the government? Government in those days was the English king, of course.

Lovers of Freedom

People who thought the king ought to show more liberality called themselves liberals. In theory the king owned the land. In reality he held a tight rein over his subjects. He taxed them plenty and his subsidized buying concern paid little enough for what they produced. A liberal, in those days, was a man who wanted government to loosen up a bit in favor of the individual.

Affairs of the people were not changed very much by the Revolution. Colonies changed into states and new issues arose but still there was an over-all government. In this over-all government were people who had power-lust, or else feared to trust the common people with vital decisions. Opposed to these power-hungry folk were the liberals, still plugging for personal liberty.

Liberals Won Out

The liberals were right. Time has proved beyond a doubt that people act better and live better and make more progress materially and spiritually when they have more freedom. Since the United States became a first-class power in record time, the world's wealthiest and happiest people, the word "liberal" has been popular here. A liberal to us, is one who wants the individual to be free.

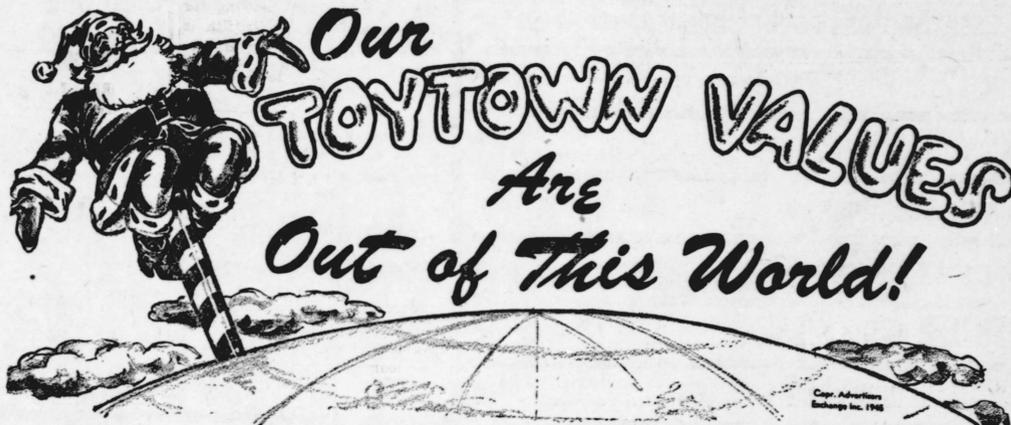

Through the same historic periods America has had reactionaries. They were the people, in colonial days, who wanted the king to rule them. After the Revolution, the same element wanted an iron-rope rule in Washington—something like a dictator. Small wonder that reactionaries have always been popular in America, people who howl against the system and try to grab power for themselves.

Try to Swap Labels

Reactionaries in America today are smart. They have learned one lesson well. They are very sure of one thing: they have a bad name. They know also that the word "liberal" is an asset. Accordingly they have adopted the term "liberalism" and call themselves liberals. This is the very same political element that supports more government rule and less liberty for individuals.

By the same strategy, this political element has begun to call people reactionaries who hold precisely to the liberal teachings of Thomas Jefferson. Don't let anybody tell you that government control of everything, and the destruction of individual freedom and opportunity, is the liberalism that Americans think so highly of—nor that it is liberalism at all. It is a counterfeit rosign designed to misdirect American thinking away from the ways of freedom.

Part of Original
XIT Ranch To Be Sold

Thirty sections of land, part of the original holdings of the Capital Syndicate Company, will go on sale Monday, November 5th, 1945, according to Tom W. Cotten, Amarillo realtor who is conducting the sale. This land, at one time part of the famous XIT Ranch, is located 6 to 10 miles south of Perico, Texas, and northwest of Dalhart.

"This tract will be offered to farmers in one and two section lots. It is row crop land, and the soil is sandy loam. The crops this year are making between $20.00 and $30.00 per acre," Cotten stated. "School buses run to each farm. These farms have good water and there is an abundant supply at 80 to 100 feet. There are 14 sets of improvements, and 18 wells and windmills on the land which is to be sold."

Cotten stated he would have men who are familiar with the land at Perico each day to show the land until it is all sold."

Y. P. A. HOLDS CORONATION
SESSION IN TAHOKA

A Young People's Associational quarterly meeting was held at the Baptist church in Tahoka, Monday evening. The Brownfield church received the banner of attendance with 50 people from here present.

A coronation service was held for the G. A., with Mrs. Roy Johnson, of Canyon, in charge of the service. Girls from Brownfield that were crowned queens were: Fredda Edwards, Jane Jobe, Leulla Mae Johnson, Willa Johnson, Anne Grace Nicholson and Bobby Helen Brian. The service was very impressive with the girls wearing formals and kneeling on a white satin pillow to receive their crown. Those being crowned as queens wore white and the maidens and princesses, pastels. The church was beautifully decorated in green and white with white candles. A large electric star above the altar and the candles were used as illumination throughout the service.

Dr. Roy Johnson, of Canyon, delivered the inspirational address to close the service.

Capt. Murphy May arrived here Tuesday on a temporary leave. He has received his discharge but it will not become effective until January, when he will then be placed in the reserves and retain his rating of Capt. Two of the boys, Capt. Shirley Palmer and Lt. Bill Hardway, who were with him in the A. T. C. are visiting in the May home.

Roy Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Stephens of Tahoka, and brother of Mrs. Roy Hicks of Brownfield, arrived home Wednesday of last week. He was a civilian employee of a construction company and was taken prisoner by the Japs at the fall of Wake Island in December, 1941. He was taken to Shanghai but was in Japan when liberated at the close of the war.

A student council has been organized in the high school this week, the first in four years. Alfred Bond was elected president and the following representatives were elected to represent their class: senior, Dorothy Henderson and Alfred Cornelius; juniors, Kitty Hendricks and Pat Harris; sophomores, Jack Tankersley and Mary Edna Tankersley; freshmen, Jack Gibson and Myrtle Hunter. Two of the teachers will serve as sponsors.

Mr. and Mrs. Fayne Smith and Mrs. John L. Cruce spent the weekend in Sudan as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie Allen.

T. B. Association
Met October 27th

A regular meeting of the Terry County Tuberculosis Association was held in the county health office Saturday, Oct. 27th, at 4:00 P. M. Eleven were present.

Miss Peerman, state field worker, was one of the number. She had many useful and interesting suggestions for us which will be of help to us in carrying on our program.

Wellman, Union and Gomez communities sent representatives. We were indeed pleased to have them and to not the interest they are showing in the work. Representatives were chosen from each of these communities to help carry on a Tuberculosis control program.

Since this is a county-wide problem it will take all working together to carry on a wide awake program, and it can easily be seen that people are becoming awakened to the fact and cooperating very nicely.

The association has paid for eight X-rays since the first of January, 1945, and is paying for the patches that Mrs. Griffith is using, and is carrying on an educational program through distribution of literature.

A picture entitled, "Good Bye Mr. Germ," will be shown at the theaters beginning about the 12th of November. Please watch for exact date in your papers. We urge as many as possible to see this picture.

Mrs. Griffith is getting splendid cooperation in her patch testing, which is very commendable.

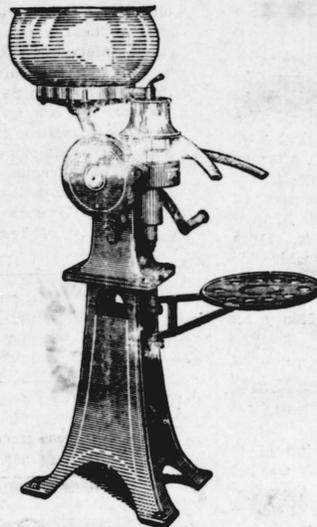

Tuberculosis Christmas seals will be mailed out on the 17th of November this year, and is the only means of raising funds through which to carry on a Tuberculosis program.

Please help by sending in your contribution on the seals mailed to you. Use them freely on your Christmas packages and letters. 90 percent of collections will be used in this county for Tuberculosis prevention and control.

Mrs. O. L. Jones, Chairman, Terry County.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bectel returned last Friday from a month's vacation, Mr. Bectel hunting in Canada, and Mrs. Bectel visiting her daughters. As soon as they are mounted Mr. Bectel will have the heads of a moose, an eight foot grisly bear and two mountain goats to add to his hunting trophies.

De-Icer for "Elsie"

"Elsie the Cow" won't have to wait for the ice to be broken in her favorite barnyard drinking tub this winter, as the General Electric "Stock-Tank De-Icer" will be taking over the chore the farmer had to do each morning. Constructed like an oversized pancake, the de-icer floats at the top of the tank and does not heat the water but keeps it from freezing solid. Estimated to operate at six cents per day, the electrical device heats only to temperature slightly above the human body and can keep "Elsie's" nose warm while she drinks.

RAILROADS PROPOSE TO BUY PULLMAN STOCK

A large group of American railroads, headed by the president of the Santa Fe, met recently in Philadelphia, and offered the Pullman Company $75,000,000 for their rolling stock. That was the price set by a committee appointed by the courts to value the stock.

The courts have recently held that as the Pullman Co. was a builder of cars, it violated the anti-trust laws to be a carrier at the same time.

We believe this is a step in the right direction. Railroads are carriers, and a day coach ticket or a Pullman ticket should be sold by the same company.

Mrs. Kellie Sears was in this week and stated that her son, Cpl. Chas. O., was now located at Fort. Ord, California.

Employment First

People who work in the fields, in mills, mines and shops, on railroads and in industry generally, are to be congratulated upon President Truman's choice of Fred M. Vinson, the new Secretary of the Treasury of the United States. His undertaking is enormous, delicate and vital. But it is my belief that nobody else in government is quite as well qualified to handle the job as Vinson.

The new cabinet member knows taxes. Things he has said already prove that he is keenly aware of two things that are currently the most important facts about taxes. (1) High taxes are necessary, now and for some time to come. (2) Wrongly devised taxes in the United States can wreck the financial structure of the entire world in a few months. Dark Ages might visit the earth again.

A Dependable Thing
 The "yankee dollar" is one of few known quantities left in the financial world. While this condition lasts, there is a way for weak and depleted countries to gain industrial and then financial strength. The dollar will remain good so long as Uncle Sam keeps meeting his obligations promptly, fulfilling promises and paying the interest on his stupendous national debt.

Our debt is so big and America's moral obligations are so exacting that taxes must be high after the war, much higher than they have ever been in peaceful years before. Government has no way to get money except by taxing its citizens. Consequently the citizens have to be prosperous. There must be full employment, plenty of jobs at good wages—otherwise not enough taxes.

Holding our Ground
 The world is relying on the solvency of America, on the soundness of the dollar, and it all depends on jobs. Mr. Vinson said: "Taxes should be levied in such a way that they have the least harmful effect on the expansion of business investment and the creation of jobs because productive employment is the source of . . . revenue which the government collects from taxes."

The Secretary's eye was not on taxes alone. In a recently published report he made it clear that productive employment is the foundation of America's living standard (highest in the world), the source of all income and the basis of prosperity for business and agriculture. We may be assured that Vinson will always do his best to prevent ruination of jobs by taxing business to a standstill.

A Rational Economy
 Here is a powerful and rational sentence from Vinson's pen: "The sooner uncertainties in the post-war tax structure are removed, the sooner business management will be inclined to make firm commitments for expansion and the faster men can be put back to work following the wholesale cancellation of contracts that will occur with the unconditional surrender of Japan."

Persons who would like to see America in chaos, people who would like to see a dictator climb to power over America's wasted estates, may call the new Treasury head a friend of big business. He apparently is, to whatever extent such a friendship means jobs for workers, prosperity on the farm, customers in the store and food on the table for America's plain people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carpenter took Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carpenter and son to Denver, Colorado, where they will take the train to Walla Walla, Washington, where Carpenter is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Butler, of Lubbock, spent Tuesday in Brownfield as guests of Mrs. Butler's sister, Mrs. P. R. Cates.

New 1946 Chevrolet To Be Here Saturday

The thrifty, performance-proven vave-in-head engine, and unitized kneeaction which provides outstanding riding comfort are two of the mechanical features that give to the new 1946 Chevrolet top billing in the parade of lowest-priced cars.

Other star features are a vacuum-power gear shift with synchro-mesh transmission; shockproof steering and positive-action hydraulic brakes.

The six-cylinder valve-in-head engine, which has been improved and refined through years of experience, is standard on all Chevrolets. The engine is famous for its rare combination of economy and performance, and is justly called the Thrift-Master.

The engine is equipped with light-weight, cast alloy iron pistons in the production of which Chevrolet has had more than 30 years' experience. Chevrolet engineers claim that the cast alloy iron pistons wear best, and permit engine design which insures economy of fuel and oil.

Unitized knee-action is an outstanding Chevrolet feature. It provides comfort and smoothness for all riders. The front spring suspension, shock absorbers, brakes and steering connections form a single assembly, which is adjusted accurately and aligned before it is attached, as a unit, to the chassis. This promotes safety for the driver and passengers because the front wheels run true on curves or rough roads.

Shockproof steering is a major advantage of the 1946 Chevrolet. Knee action maintains the front wheel alignment, and eliminates wobble, thus doing away with the chief causes of steering wheel jerk and vibration.

The Chevrolet hydraulic brakes are different, too. They are superior because of an articulated brake-shoe linkage which assures positive braking and prolongs the life of brake linings.

The gear shiftr has fingertip control. The lever moves easily and but a short distance because a vacuum power cylinder does 80 per cent of the work. The driver does not even have to remove his hand from the steering wheel.

The Chevrolet engine is noted for its specialized four-way lubrication system, using four methods of supplying oil to moving parts such as the valves, crankshaft and camshaft bearings, connecting rods, pistons and cylinder walls. The engine is lubricated effectively for all purposes, including the most critical of cold starts.

A cooling system, scientifically designed to provide more engine mileage, is another Chevrolet feature. The radiator core permits full coverage by the fan. More uniform cooling is provided by full-length water jackets that enclose each cylinder.

The fuel system embodies a balanced, single-adjustment carburetor with air cleaner, silencer and flame-arrester. Fuel mixture is heated, with thermostatic control, in the manifold heat chamber. The Chevrolet octane selector enables owners to obtain the best possible results from the various types of fuel obtainable.

The chassis frame is the exclusive, proved box girder type. Side rails and cross members are of flanged box section construction on all models, insuring exceptional rigidity as used in conjunction with the all-steel, all-welded Mesdames Kenneth and R. J. Purtel spent Tuesday in Lubbock, shopping.

The fourteen-year-old girls of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Gladys Moorhead, Friday, for a covered dish luncheon and business meeting. The name of the Merry Willing Workers was chosen for the class name.

Cpl. Terrell Fowler, who is with the Marines, wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Fowler, that he had landed in Tsingtao, China the tenth of October.

The cabriolet, with its open-type body, uses I-beams in V-K construction in place of the central box section cross members, to insure comparable rigidity.

A semi-floating type rear axle, with a gear ratio of 4.11 to 1 has hypoid drive gears and six ball and roller bearings.

FOR THE LAST TIME, AMERICA - BUY EXTRA BONDS!

Well, it's over . . .

We came through the greatest danger in our history, to our greatest victory.

The price of that victory—in blood and in money—was high.

We can thank God that the price in blood is paid in full. There will be no more deaths in battle, no more new casualties.

But the price in money is still not quite paid!

Your money is still needed by the men who helped to pay in blood. Hospitalization for the wounded, the disabled. Artificial limbs for the men who have given their real ones. And help for the wives and orphans of the men who gave everything.

Your money is still needed for the education and training of our veterans—to help them find a real place in the America they saved for all of us.

Just as the money you lent (at interest) in the seven American War Loans helped pave the way for victory, the money you lend now in the Victory Loan will help secure the fruits of that victory.

Not only for our veterans and casualties—but for you. For these Bonds are still the world's safest investment. They are still the way to insure yourself the security and peace of mind that come from safe, substantial savings!

This is the last time you will be asked to buy extra bonds! It's a great opportunity to help yourself while saying "Thanks!" in a very important way to the men who made our victory possible!

*Following the Victory Loan, the sale of E, F, and G U. S. Savings Bonds will continue through regular authorized agencies and through the Payroll Savings Plan.

Select Corn Carefully For Hominy Making

College Station, Oct. 23—Hominy-making time is here again and a few hints on selection of corn for hominy will help the home-maker in getting a better product, says Gwendolyn Jones, specialist in food preservation of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. Since hominy is an economical source of carbohydrate, or energy food, and has some protein and a small amount of iron and calcium, it is a popular and valuable addition to the diet.

Corn with large flat kernels is best for hominy because the broad type requires less time for lysing. White corn makes a whiter and more attractive hominy, but yellow corn may be used. Surecrop-

Mrs. E. J. Jarrat, of Junction City, Kansas, is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Lang and other relatives.

Miss Eline Davis, of Morton, is here visiting in the home of her brother, Rev. J. V. Davis.

per, Chisholm, and White Hybrid are suitable Texas varieties, and Stowell's Evergreen is a good sweet corn for making hominy. Tuxpan is especially suitable to the Gulf Coast area, while Hickory King is used by most commercial canneries making hominy, Miss Jones states.

Kernels should be uniform in size. That means that butts and tips of ears which are usually off-shape should be left out. New corn which has dried in the field under normal weather conditions is best. If it is too dry it takes too long to remove hulls and the starchy portion of the kernel is burned by the long lye treatment.

Detailed instructions on how to make hominy may be obtained by writing to the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, College Station, for Farm and Home Hints No. 360, "Th Hows and Whys of Hominy".

MEN WORKING

It's lunch hour on one of the New York street excavation projects, and Fred Abrams, right, welder, is busy carrying out the government's program of fat conservation. He knows the meat and fat scraps he is collecting from Martin Hopkins and Timothy Hickey, mechanics, are sources of used fats so urgently needed to meet industrial requirements, that OPA is offering housewives four points per pound.

Waiting Contest

Hard as it may be to get a died-in-the-wool bureaucrat thinking about winter problems in the summer time, unless something unusual happens, cold weather will come again. One of these days a school bell will ring, a boy will come down the street bouncing a football and after that it won't be long. More-over winter calls for a lot of things that are scarce now.

Let's take shoes as a down-to-earth illustration. Which is better for keeping a boy's feet off the frosty ground, a 1942 price ceiling or a pair of good heavy brogues with wool socks in them? That's the problem before the American people, with school bells only a few days away. Getting into production on civilian goods is what the OPA is currently bungling.

Hold That Price
The OPA's war job was to keep prices of needful things from skyrocketing—a noble work requiring some stiff rules. But today, with the war won and war business slack, OPA is still making rules. One of them says: Manufacturers may make things for civilians provided they sell at 1942 prices. There's the rub, for factory owners now ready to start reconvertng, making jobs safe for their employees.

The 1942 price rule stops them; nothing else. Workers want their jobs to last. Most civilians have saved some money and want to buy new things. Industry is anxious to serve them but very few factories can operate at 1942 prices. Materials cost more now and labor costs more also. There is only one thing a manufacturer can do, namely, beg OPA for special permission to price-up and go to work.

Mail Bags Full
The OPA, if you remember, is famous for leaving no stone unturned, and all that sort of thing. It is rumored that some men in the bureau have their own private opinions about business people anyhow. Before they grant any firm special leave to change a price, they investigate. That's all right, but applications to reconvert are coming in fast, more than 500 a day.

The bureau will never wind up its red tape in time. The only possible way out of trouble is to make a reasonable rule for all industry to follow, let whistles blow at 6:00 a. m. and ask questions later. Will they do it? Who knows? Employees and customers would probably cheer loudly for any employer who kept his payroll alive and said "Ph-f-v-v-ut" to the OPA, but it's dangerous.

Formula for Panic
Most business men are conservative. They are likely to wait exactly as long as the OPA says wait. Unable to do business on 1942 prices, they may pull fires from under their boilers and lay off the crew. Then the waiting contest starts. Bureaus will wait on investigations; employers will wait on bureaus; workers will wait on employers and you and I will wait for everything.

Idle workers in the soup-line; farmers without markets let crops rot in the field. An ugly picture. The way to avoid it is to let industry convert, sell its products to people with money and pay the men who work. Inflation can be prevented without starting a panic, if OPA will adopt a workable rule soon enough. But bureaus are usually more interested in rules than in reasons—warts on the nose of progress; bunions on the toe of time.

Mrs. Choc Hamilton visited with her son, Flight Officer, Choc Hamilton in Lubbock Sunday. He had flown passengers from Warrensburg, Mo., to E. Paso and was returning with some. When he found he had a two-hour layover in Lubbock he called his mother to meet him there.

Scarlet Fever Media
Three Times Higher

Austin, Texas — Scarlet fever, now nearly three and one-half times higher than the seven-year median in Texas, is one of the most disabling and dangerous diseases usually associated with childhood, although actually it is confined to no age limit, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. One hundred nineteen cases were reported in the state during the week ending October 20, bringing the year's total to 3,443.

The Doctor described scarlet fever as an acute infectious disease, the onset of which is sudden. The first symptoms including sore throat, vomiting, fever, and headache, may appear in three to five days after exposure. These are followed by the distinctive red rash which gives this disease its name, Dr. Cox stated.

Complications may cause prolonged disability or death. Children suffering with scarlet fever may develop sinusitis and middle-ear infections which can lead to mastoiditis. As the germs spread through the child's system, the joints, kidneys, and heart may become involved, causing life-long invalidism or crippling.

"A child with any kind of a sore throat should be seen by the family physician promptly," Dr. Cox asserted. "If scarlet fever is present, the treatment recommended will do much to alleviate discomfort and reduce the possibility of serious complications."

Dr. Cox stated that children under ten years of age are most susceptible, and that those persons who fail to contract scarlet fever until grown stand an excellent chance of never having the disease.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Riggs, of the Happy community received word Sunday that Mrs. Riggs' father had passed away. They left immediately for Big Spring where her family live.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Breedlove were in Lubbock on business Monday.

Marion Bowers left Lubbock Thursday by plane to return to his school in Urbana, Ill.

Maness was a Pfc. when discharged, and served a bit more than 3 years overseas with Hdq. Co. 591st Engineers combat group, 7th army, and participated in the battles of Algeria, French Morocco, Tunisia, Rhinland, Naples, Foggia, Central Europe and Rome-Arno.

He is entitled to wear the European, Mediterranean, African ribbons, in addition to the good conduct medal.

LABOR

In conversation with W. G. McDonald this week he stated that the farmers in the northeast part of the county were very busy harvesting cotton and grain sorghums. He stated that they still need help to harvest the cotton and anyone interested in that kind of work can contact the county agent's office as they have a list of the farmers wanting help.

He also stated that it was too early to tell just how much damage the frost had done to late feed crops.

Mrs. David Mills of Seminole visited her mother, Mrs. Minnie Hamilton, over the weekend.

Texas And Annexation

By Dr. E. C. Barker
Professor of American History
University of Texas

WORLD SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ANNEXATION OF TEXAS

(This is the second of a series of articles on events having to do with the annexation of Texas to the Union. Texas this year is observing the Centennial of Statehood.)

The annexation of Texas by the United States was for ten years a subject of world importance.

At home, the subject aroused bitter sectional controversy between the north and the south. Abolitionists, who were determined to prevent further spread of slavery, declared that annexation would be unconstitutional and would cause the dissolution of the Union, intimating that it would justify the secession of the states that had abolished slavery. Southern states, on the other hand, declared that refusal to annex would justify secession of the South.

In international relations, Texas was an actual or potential bone of contention between the United States, Mexico, England, and possibly France. Since Mexico refused to accept the battle of San Jacinto as final and repeatedly declared its intention to reconquer Texas, annexation might lead to war between the United States and Mexico. British financial interests in Mexico, desire to promote abolition of slavery, and commercial aims shaped England's policy toward Mexico and Texas and caused it to oppose annexation by the United States.

Evidence indicates that the British government had no desire at any time to make Texas a part of the empire, but it was willing to establish a protectorate over the rising republic and guarantee its independence to prevent its acceptance of annexation by the United States.

The Texans used the international situation to their advantage. Houston, during his two administrations, was able to feign an indifference toward annexation that he probably did not feel, thereby stimulating anxieties of pro-annexationists in the United States and encouraging British statesmen to hope that Texas would remain independent. It is a notable fact that neither American nor British diplomats ever felt quite sure of Houston's preference. The same doubt was felt about Anson Jones, under whom annexation was consummated.

Lamar, the second president of Texas, was frankly against annexation and his policy strengthened the uncertainty about Houston and Jones when they declared later that they were playing a game. Jones confused the issue further by attempting to prove that, but for his own intervention, Houston would have completed treaty engagements with England which would have made annexation difficult if not impossible.

The historian can neither prove nor disprove the sincerity of Houston and Jones. In the light of the circumstances, contemporary documents can be construed to support the hypothesis that they worked shrewdly to hasten annexation, or to defeat it altogether. Naturally, after annexation was accomplished, both contended they had always desired that end, and I believe that they were sincere.

Mrs. A. W. Turner is in Dallas this week buying new merchandise at the fall market for Latham's store.

We had a surprise this week when Mrs. Alice Jakatis of Long Beach, Calif., called on us. She will be better remembered here as Mrs. Ralph Bynum. Said she got one Herald one time out there, and devoured it ads and all. Now she will get it weekly. She and father are visiting at Amherst.

Bill Fulton was in last week and stated that J. C. Nichols, a former citizen of Terry several years ago, died Friday 12th at Abilene. He sold his place to A. C. Holcombe when they left here, and he was manager of a Piggly Wiggly store at the time of his death.

Social Security Program For Area Released

Sam Leifeste, manager of the Lubbock office of the Social Security Board, today released the current figures on the social security program for this area.

On September 30, 1945 there were 828 monthly benefits in force in the Lubbock field office area. In addition to the monthly benefits in force, 52 lump sum payments have been made to claimants in the Lubbock area during the last six months totaling $6,268.32.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

For folks who never get a pat on the back—or almost never—but who deserve same, you will look high and low to find anybody more entitled to it than the boys who patrol the highways. These highway Guardians are your friend versus somebody to avoid—unless you been up to something. You don't get picked up for just the personal amusement of the Patrolman. It would be more pleasant for him if he didn't have to wave you over to the road-side. He gets no commission per arrest—it just makes him more work, more reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Peachee, and daughter, of Lubbock spent the weekend in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Griffin.

I know a couple of these guys—they look after traffic up and down our own highway here—they are regular fellows—gentlemen—but also they are no sissies. A burglar or a car thief or any kind of gun-shootin' thug—it is all the same and in the day's work, and they waste in. Or they can take it easy, like when mama puts her arm to turn RIGHT—and then turns LEFT.

Instead of fewer, we need more Patrolmen. Day by day it is getting more unsafe to venture out in your car. Take time out and go down and get acquainted with the Highway boys—you will be glad you did so. And if Sergeant Ellis or Captain Rutherford over on U. S. Highway 101, should run across this piece of writin', they will then know that I think of them.

The Woman Listener

By Sally Welles

NEWCOMER TO THE CAST of "Right To Happiness" is Shirley O'Hara who, in the role of Ruth Pierce promises to be the new woman in Dwight Kramer's life. Shirley's career story labels her a needle-in-the-haystack girl—several times she happened to be found at just the right time. She was first discovered for the movies where she got her earliest acting experience. Then chance brought her to the theatre, and later to radio. She arrived on "Right To Happiness" after Director Paul Martin happened to hear her on "Molle Mystery Theatre". He translated her into the perfect person for the part of the gay, vivacious secretary... which she performs most competently.

Willard and Virginia Klose, authors of the rollicking new nighttime show, "Mommie And The Men", solved the writers' eternal problem of what to write about by telling the story of themselves. It's almost an autobiography of Virginia Klose who, like Mommie, runs her household and her sons casually but capably, and is also a clever writer—all in the midst of happy confusion identical to Mommie's.

Glamorous Mary Patton, familiar to "Road Of Life" listeners as the signature voice, has just received an unusual and charming present from an enthusiastic fan. It came from a serviceman—a small box containing several little silver bells. And with it was a note saying, "Your Voice reminds me of these bells."

Broadcasts of "The Boston Symphony", under the direction of Dr. Serge Koussevitzky, will be resumed on October 6th. First program will include Beethoven Symphony No. 3, "Erica".

Papa David, of "Life Can Be Beautiful", gave an unusually good definition of friendship when he said, "One of the nicest impulses of man beings is sociability... and along the same lines hospitality. There is something basic in a friend saying to his guest—My home is your home... my fireside is your sanctuary... what is in my pantry belongs to you. That is the essence of friendship."

Radio audiences who "Meet Margaret MacDonald" regularly are certain to acquire a wealth of unusual and interesting facts. For example, on a recent broadcast she reported that Raffles, a mynah bird, helped sell over 15 million dollars' worth of War Bonds; that the United States Constitution served as a model for Switzerland, Brazil, Canada and Australia; and that baby kangaroos are only two inches long when they're born!

Ralph Edwards, in addition to being master of ceremonies of "Truth Or Consequences", has turned movie actor. The first week in September RKO Studios began production of "Bamboo Blonde", in which he is featured as a comedian. Frances Langford is star of the picture.

Charming Eleanor Phelps, who looks too young to be playing the role of Norah Martin, Jerry Malone's mature older sister on "Young Dr. Malone", has a rather unusual ambition for one who has spent most of her time on the stage or in radio. If she should ever retire, Miss Phelps would like to enroll in a University and study literature and writing!

Often times people who have submitted questions used on the "Information Please" programs cannot be located when it is time to send them their prizes. Therefore, the "Information Please" office this year is making plans to conduct their own private Missing Persons Bureau. Some interesting Rip Van Winkles may reappear!

G.I.'s evidently know a good thing when they hear it. Boys stationed at the Army Redistribution Center at Santa Barbara, which is closing shortly, have asked that "The Jack Kirkwood Show" play a return engagement, for their final entertainment. Jack is especially gratified, as a number of his fans are boys recently released from Jap prison camps who heard the show via short-wave in the Pacific.

very anxious to have a test of all school children of 12 years of age and over in this case finding program. If permits get lost or for any reason not available, just a note from parent will be accepted. 5. First grade children will be tested also.

Miss Beatrice Tharr and Mr. Jack Nelson, of Lubbock, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Tharr, Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. T. H. McIlroy visited his parents in Lubbock, Sunday.

AGAIN, the Massey-Harris Self-Propelled Harvest Brigade

Makes Harvest History!

Farmers throughout America's grain-growing sections have again witnessed the record-breaking performance of Massey-Harris Self-Propelled Combines. The 1945 Harvest Brigade even exceeded its spectacular record of last year—helping put another bumper harvest "over the top," meeting the wartime shortage of men and machines by its ability to harvest more grain per man, per hour, per dollar than any other type of combine.

YES, THE MASSEY-HARRIS SELF-PROPELLED HAS AGAIN...

YOU CAN DO 2 MEN'S WORK
Proved that one man with a Self-Propelled can harvest as much grain as 2 to 3 men using a tractor-drawn combine of the same size...

Proved that Self-Propelled operates on 1/2 gallon per acre less fuel than is required by a conventional 14-foot combine and tractor, because only one engine is required...

Proved that Self-Propelled saves millions of bushels of grain tramped down on opening cuts by tractors hauling pull-type combines.

As soon as materials become available, Massey-Harris will be building Self-Propelled Combines for all farmers who need them.

You will want a Massey-Harris field-proven machine, built by pioneers of Self-Propelled Combines... builders of Power-Plus Tractors, Forage Harvesters, High-Speed Plows and other modern cost-cutting implements. If you will require new equipment for 1946, let's get together now and talk it over.

THE SEVEN-FOOT-CUT SELF-PROPELLED CLIPPER COMBINE

The original "Straight-Through," Scoop-Type Combine... proved in a hundred different crops... new made in both pull-type and self-propelled models.

Rats Are Heavy Economic Loss To The State

Austin—Because of the economic losses they cause to industry and commerce and the annoyance they create in homes, rats have been considered a serious menace to mankind since long before their role as vectors of disease was understood. Today at least six diseases are known to be transmitted to man from the rat, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. These diseases include the dread plague, typhus, trichinosis, a form of jaundice, tapeworm, and food poisoning. Typhus fever, in the past few years, has become a major health problem in Texas.

'It is necessary to public health,' Dr. Cox said, 'that a continuous rat control program be maintained in every urban and rural area throughout Texas. This is of especial importance on farms where rats may flourish by feeding on grain and other farm products.'

The Doctor pointed out that rats, like other living things, require food and shelter if they are to propagate and increase in number. Destroying their shelter and breeding places included the employing of ratproof design in buildings, employing of ratproof methods of construction and installation, and providing for periodic inspection of buildings to insure permanent safety. This program will force the rat out into the open where its destruction may be accomplished.

Of equal importance as a control measure is the elimination of all food supplies. This consists of storing all foods in ratproof containers, the proper storage of garbage in closed containers until disposal, and careful feeding of stock to prevent waste feed from being picked up by the rats.

By observing these control measures, the community will benefit not only in the eradication of a nuisance and economic menace but in improved health conditions and the certain decrease in the incidence of typhus which, alone, would make the control program worth-while.

SIDELIGHTS From Washington

By George Mahon

West Texans who are interested in dirt-moving equipment and machinery for the use of local Soil Conservation District will approve action recently taken by Congress. For months many of us here have sought legislation which would require the transfer of certain surplus dirt-moving machinery to these Soil Conservation Districts. A few days ago the Senate passed unanimously such a bill, and the House Committee on Agriculture has approved and plans to present to the House for passage a similar bill.

My mail indicates widespread interest among farmers in the use of this machinery by Soil Conservation Districts. It would be difficult to exaggerate the importance of soil and water conservation, and much of this surplus machinery could not be put to better use.

In Texas there are one hundred and fifteen Soil Conservation District embracing 336,000 farms. In the United States there are fourteen hundred Soil Conservation Districts embracing a vast territory in excess of seven hundred million acres. Those of us who are advocating the proposed legislation feel that it would be in the public interest to make much of this surplus dirt-moving equipment available to these Districts, rather than let it lie idle or sell it for a few cents on the dollar.

The proposed airport construction program, which has been approved by the House and sent to the Senate for consideration, provides for Federal participation in the cost of local airports up to fifty percent. But the Federal Government would not participate in the cost of the land, and the project would have to be approved by the Civil Aeronautics Administration. The CAA office for Texas is in Fort Worth. L. C. Elliott is Director.

Manufacturers of airplanes suitable for private ownership and use are trying to gauge the public demand for such planes. One private plane manufacturer estimates that the airplane industry will make and sell to the private users fifty thousand planes in 1946. Most of the surplus Army and Navy planes now being disposed of are war-wearied combat types, or are otherwise so constructed that they are economical or safe for individual use.

Our West Texas High Schools that desire war-wearied airplanes for educational purposes can get them. Even though such schools do not have courses in mechanics and aviation, and do not have shelter for the planes, they can secure a plane by making application and paying the packing, handling and transportation costs, ranging from $50 to $350. The Educational Disposal Section, Surplus Property Division of the RFC in Washington, has circularized the schools as to procedure. The disposal regulations have recently been modified. I would be glad to provide further information to the schools upon request.

The surplus aircraft disposal program is a big one. Planes of the original total value of ten billion dollars are in process of being declared surplus and offered for sale to the public. Up to October 15, forty-four thousand planes had been declared surplus and fourteen thousand of them had been disposed of.

There are 634 surplus aircraft on the airfield at Lamesa, Texas. At the South Plains Army Airfield at Lubbock there are 1500 flying fortresses, many of which have served with distinction overseas. The Air Forces will declare 1200 of these planes surplus within a few weeks.
