Week Full For 'Laws'

County officials also claim that "when it rains it pours."

Starting early Saturday morning a farmer of the Johnson community notified the sheriff that a Negro bootlegger was heading out on a dirt road. Deputies located the car in the colored section half an hour later with a Negro in the car who told who the man was and that he had gone into a building and had not returned. Officers took the car and a quantity of whiskey and beer. An hour afterwards, someone at Hobbs phoned in asking amount of fine. The county judge assessed $200 fine and costs, which was paid Monday. While hunting for the above accused, deputies found another colored man in possession of a quantity of whiskey and beer which was taken. He was fined $100.

Saturday night Sheriff Murry and his force raided several cafes and dance halls in the Mexican quarters, rounding up 35 drunks and gamblers and 18 seniors who pleaded guilty of vagrancy. Fines were paid by all. Also two young men were picked up from downtown for fighting Saturday night.

A local white woman was jailed Sunday night for drunkenness.

A local white man was jailed Monday for driving a truck on the Lubbock highway within the city limits on D.W.I. charges.

All in all sixty drunks were jailed, two D. W. I. charges. Most of these have pleaded guilty and paid fines.

Burglaries Keep Officers on Jump

Burglaries have become as common as bullfrogs in Buffalo bayou here of late. They keep the officers on the watch and jump. In fact, breakins have become almost as bad as they are at Lubbock. But once in awhile one gets nabbed, and if the little jurymen will forget to weep when the lawyer peeps, some of it can be broken up.

And they don't even respect the officers of the law. While Deputy Elmer McCrutchin of Meadow was down here last week attending the Meadow-Ropes ball game, his filling station was broken into, and $500 he had hidden, was taken.

During the Midland-Brownfield football game, the local gym was broken into, and the pockets of the Junior football boys rifled of money, watches and other valuables.

It was probably the Palace Drug but the hombre that did that job was soon in the toils of the law, and he will likely spend quite some time doing time for old man Texas down at Huntsville.

There may have been others we did not hear of, but the above are too many. Jurors will have to get tough.

SUSPECT HELD AFTER DRUG STORE BURGLARY

A man identified as George Gonzales, 23, was being held here this week on charges of burglary of the Palace Drug Store about 4:30 a.m. Sunday.

Gonzales was taken by city patrolmen Aaron Zeitler and L. H. Terral as he left the store with a suitcase, which was filled with merchandise from the store.

A total of $22.75 in cash was taken from three cash registers in the store, as well as several fountain pens, some expensive sunshades, nine packages of cigarettes, three billfolds and three cigarette lighters.

The burglar gained entrance to the store by breaking the glass on a side door with a bottle, making it possible to trace his route in the store by a bleeding hand.

HIT AND RUN DRIVER HOSPITALIZES MEXICAN

David Diaz and four other Mexicans were walking along the highway near the Morton-Plains intersection about 10:30 o'clock Saturday night, when a hit-and-run driver ran over David.

The Brownfield Funeral Home ambulance was called and brought the victim to the local hospital. He suffered a compound fracture of the right leg and the left ankle. The driver has not been identified.

TRADITIONAL THANKSGIVING SERVICES TO BE HELD WED. AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Over a period of many years, Brownfield has observed Thanksgiving with an annual community Thanksgiving service. This year it will be held at the First Baptist Church, Wednesday 23, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon with H. L. Thurston, Methodist minister, presiding. Banks Show Healthy Fall Business Increase

The two local banks, the Brownfield State Bank and Trust Co., and the First National show a gain of a bit more than one and a quarter million dollars since June 30th. And harvesting of a big cotton and grain crop is just getting well under way. Boy, you ain't seen nothing yet!

Just wait for the statements that usually happen about December 31st. This, of course, providing the fall remains open. By that time the good old prosperity will have had time to really move around the corner, and there will, maybe, be two cars in every garage and two chickens in every pot.

The combined deposits of the two banks as of Nov. 1, was $10,335,927.84. The combined loans at the same time stood at $4,225,096.74. No, prosperity is not just around the corner. It is here.

Accidents, Numerous Deaths Cloud Week

Another Old Timer Passes Over River

One by one the old timers here are being gathered into await the judgment morn. Often we have some former citizen call on us, and nearly all of them will remark: "Just about all the old timers are gone, aren't they?" This is a fact. The folks that came here and made this a livable place for those who came later, are fast going. But their works do live after them.

The latest to go, was W. C. Smith, who with his wife and the two elder sons came here from Midland about 1910, but were in directly from Oklahoma. Mr. Smith built the home where Mrs. E. A. Graham now lives, but later sold his interest and bought the one on East Main. He farmed for a few years, but later bought an interest in Texas Company wholesale with Will Adams. He later sold his interest and bought the wholesale division of Texas Co. at Seagraves.

Mr. Smith was born at Mount Pleasant, Tenn., in 1874. He migrated to Oklahoma as a young man, and met his life companion, who passed on last Spring. Since her departure, Mr. Smith has not seemed like the same man. He seemed more like a lost child. Let us hope that their reunion in a better world is even more happy than here below.

The Smith home was a real one, whether it was members of the family or visiting friends and neighbors. The latch string was always on the outside to their friends and neighbors, and one always felt it good to be with them.

Excavations Under Way For School Building

Those who have driven out to the end of the pavement on Broad way or Main in the past week can see that work is now under way for the new half million dollar high school building. But some of the terms used is a bit of Greek to the uninformed, the lay builders and architects.

For instance, the expression that the foundation is to be dug within one foot of the final depth, on account of steel shortage. Now to the uninformed, it sounds like that later, when steel is more plentiful, the present depth will be undermined and another foot added. But it might be as simple as Simon, if broke down in language the laity might understand.

Anyway, they are throwing out dirt from the foundation trenches, on both the high school building as well as the large work shop that goes with it. James T. Taylor & Sons, Fort Worth, are the contractors.

WRECK WED. AFTERNOON ON WEST MAIN

Mrs. Leona Prestridge was taken to the Treadaway-Daniell hospital Wednesday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock by the Brownfield ambulance after she ran her car into the side of a truck on West Main at the railroad crossing. She was accompanied by her sister and little daughter who both escaped injuries. Mrs. Prestridge suffered shock.

DISTRICT FUTURE FARMERS GET TOGETHER

The local chapter Future Farmers of America had a district meeting here Tuesday in which a number of neighboring chapters took part. Among them were Post, Tahoka, Plains, New Home, Wellman, Meadow, Wilson, O'Donnell, and perhaps others. Arrangements were under direction of Lester Buford, of the Brownfield high school vocational ag. teacher, and a director of the local chapter.

FORMER RESIDENT ARRESTED ON D. W. I. CHARGES

The Brownfield sheriff's force apprehended a woman, former resident here, for driving a car while drunk, just south of town on the Lamesa highway Tuesday afternoon. She had with her a boy about 5 years old and an infant girl about two months old. She was so obstinate and "sassy" officers said, she had to be jailed. Officers carried the infant to the hospital and relatives picked up the little boy.

Charges of drunken driving were filed against her.

TEAGUE-BAILEY ARE MAKING TRACKS

Had a greeting card from Teague-Bailey this week saying they were making tracks. Looked like turkey tracks to us. Indeed, they were hoping this outfit would get some dark and white meat of the national bird.

WOULDN'T THIS BUST YOUR BRITCHES?

Ha! ho! hum! So it took 180 police in south end of Shecogwo to keep down a race riot when it was erroneously reported that a negro family was about to move into a white zone. All the time we've been hearing that race, creed and color made no "dif" up no'th.

Now we await the next issue of the big nationally circulated northern magazines to see how well they'll play up this news. If it was Birmingham or Atlanta, it would be spread all over the mags.

Collier Returns From Funeral Directors Meet

The Central West Texas Funeral Directors Association held a meeting in El Paso on Nov. 8, at the Hilton Hotel.

The program included a forum on Florist-Funeral Directors relations and a most interesting talk on funeral customs in Old Mexico by E. A. Villalobos.

R. O. Black, special agent of the Bureau of Census, US Dept. of Agriculture reports that 11,428 bales of cotton had been ginned in Terry county up to Nov. 1. At the same time last year the figures were 9,808.

At the same time the ginnings in Gaines county was 2305 compared to 792 for the same time last fall.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Fowler and two children visited in the home of Mrs. Fowler's sister, Mrs. Chad Tarpley and family last week. The Fowlers are moving from San Antonio to Lubbock, where he will be stationed at the Reece Army Air Base.

Mrs. Annie Jo McFarland of Dallas visited last week end with her brother, Geo. W. Neill, and sister, Mrs. Tennie Stewart. Mrs. McFarland attended school here in 1910 and is well known to many of the old timers here.

Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He

Hardly know where to start this week. Not that we are impatient or exasperated, after seeing about 40 grain trucks lined up to await their turn to unload at the elevator. That was a lesson to us.

But if them there farmers were the least put out, they failed to show their impatience. In fact as one drove along side the trucks which had pulled out on the shoulders of the highway or street, the drivers of several trucks would congregate around one, and they would start a bull session, or talk crops or weather. A bunch of town people put in their places would have acted like they had ants in their pants.

And speaking of patience, do you ever notice much of a scowl on the face of the Latin laborers that come in to pull cotton? Man, woman or child, they have a grin that shows a nice set of white ivory teeth. And when they meet another man of their country, the jamboree starts.

And really it is a jamboree to us—or rather Greek. But they laugh and jolly one another worse than Anglo Texans. And the kids crying sounds just like they do when they cry in English—no difference.

We get a kick out of watching the teen age boys stop on the sidewalk to count their money. And some of them have quite a roll of the filthy lucre. But like we used to say on the farm back in central Texas, their "hair gets kinky" on Saturday. They dress up, and we mean they dress in nice suits and dresses as the case may be, and come to town. However, their hair stays black and straight.

These visits to town break up after the shows generally, but they are back for more Sundays. While these migratory laborers carry out quite some dough, they leave quite a bit. Just try shopping after noon some Saturday if you don't believe us. There is little said about discrimination or intolerance here.

While on the subject of intolerance, a lot of people seem to think that bad condition is confined to the USA in general and to the South in particular. But when did that feature start, and who started it in this old world? About the first we notice was back in the old Testament times, and Jehovah seemed to have been the starter. He called out his own people and set them apart, and forbid them to have "any strange wives." Read the old prophets for many examples.

Back about 1932 the USA was invited by the League of Nations, and accepted the offer to go to Liberia, a negro republic set up for ex-slaves from the south, and try to straighten out a bad mess. The main complaints were bad sanitary conditions, and SLAVERY. Yes, you read that right. Some of the ex-slaves were practicing the same thing over in Africa.

Well, here is another, and we are not offering this as a criticism. Writers who have been here tell us that Tel Aviv over in Palestine, has a population of some 183,000 people. There is not a Christian church or even a mission in the town. They are not allowed.

Want still another? Well, here 'tis. The protestant denominations have a hard time keeping up their work over in Italy. Who started this intolerant and discriminatory stuff anyway? Sometimes we are led to think that those who howl about "no discrimination regardless of race, creed or color," are the very ones that are trying to use it as a means to their own ends in a political way.

Here's a fourth: The Harlem district of N. Y. City is made up of negroes, Puerto Ricans and Cubans. It is a hot bed of crime, filth and venereal diseases. It is the district of the left-wingist, Congressman Vitro Marcantonio, and where Henry (Corny) Wallace got his biggest block of votes last fall. White people are warned to stay out of Harlem of nights. Truckers don't like to drive through there during the day, as robberies are so frequent.

Now, it is from this section of our nation that the "tolerant" guys are coming south and trying to tell the two races how to live together. Well, maybe oil man George W. Armstrong was not so "intolerant" after all.

Finally, we might say that the less said the better. One can be friendly, polite and square with his fellowman without the necessity of bedding up with him. We have seen some white people who would not want to associate with too closely. And we have seen negroes who would not invite some of his own race into his home. They said as much.

Some friend of Caso March, whom some term the perennial candidate for governor, came in this week and brought a brief outline of his platform. Most of it sounded good to us. But frankly speaking, did you ever see a political platform that did not

Why Doctors Get Cross

Speaking of needless deaths, how are you going to make people pay attention?

The case comes to mind of the pre-natal patient whose doctor forbade her to wear high-heeled shoes. She carried the low-heeled pair in her handbag and put them on outside his office, so he wouldn't scold.

Then there's the case of the bone surgeon and the short leg. After weeks in the hospital the patient was let out, with the leg in a cast. The patient figured he knew better than the surgeon and cut off the cast. The whole extensive process had to be repeated.

Incidentally, this patient had no money to pay the surgeon either time.

How are you going to stop folks from taking wahoo for cancer or sassafras tea for arthritis? It's a free country, ain't it?

Check with any diagnostician on malnutrition. A great many of its victims are well to do and could afford an exclusive steak diet. They never really get a square meal. Not because of the cost. The nutritious foods needed for a properly balanced diet are mostly low-priced. They just won't eat them.

The symptoms of tuberculosis are widely known. Rest is 90 per cent of "cure." But try to get the average person so afflicted to see his doctor before he gets clear down. Try to get him to rest after he knows he's infected. Try to keep him at complete rest in a sanatorium long enough for a "cure." Try to get him to take it easy go to bed early and watch his diet after he gets out.

If there be any among you who ever took the nasty tonic three sound good? If a politician cannot make his platform sound good, he should forthwith fire all his press propagandists.

And we are not trying to say that Mr. March is any worse or better in trying to get a catch-all platform. That is part of the political game. We have always imagined that if we were to run for some office, we could form a platform that would cook the goose of the opposition.

Some one over at Tahoka told our Seasyety Edjuter, that the Herald was the best country weekly he ever read. Christmas Chromo coming up. Sorry we had to go over in another county to find someone who agreed with us.

You don't believe in signs, eh? Well, a country constable who had trouble with the city slickers going through his town like a blue streak, erected one that read: "Slow, nudist colony 1 mile." They slowed.

In England, a radio receiver per year while that for television license costs approximately $4 is just double.

THANKSGIVING, NOV. 24th

If it were given us to be thankful by volume for God's blessings, rather than depth of spirit and thought—how much more we have today than existed at Thanksgiving's institution years ago!

When the birth of a great nation saw the advent of tedious separation of cotton from the seed by hand—when the lowly spinning wheel gave no hint of the gigantic weaving mills of the morrow—when life was wilderness-raw—and the pioneer fathers and mothers saw fit to offer thanks to God for His many blessings, what more have we to be thankful for today! Let's remember daily, and emphasize it on this fine Thanksgiving Day, the advancements we have to be thankful for.

Texas Today

By Dave Cheavens
Associated Press Staff
AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 17—(AP)—Whether they know it or not, Texans are being softened up for the bite of new taxes.

Everywhere Gov. Allan Shivers goes these days—and he is on the go a lot and over wide territory—he reiterates his views that the "broad base" tax is his idea of raising new revenue.

The governor first expressed that opinion midway of the last session of the legislature, while he was still lieutenant governor and when it appeared it might be necessary then to levy for new revenues.

Shivers was one of the key figures in senate passage of the omnibus tax bill that is on the books now. It was written in 1941 and legislatures since then have resisted new tax campaigns.

Texasans are now paying—directly or indirectly—about 45 different kinds of taxes in support of their state government.

It is inevitable that some now unexplored areas of revenue will be sought as sources to tap. There is already widespread talk about a state income tax, and the spectre of a sales tax is also just over the horizon. Either proposal could touch off a violent legislative storm.

It is also reasonable to assume that efforts will be made to increase taxes on some sources already taxed: the usual oil, gas and sulphur tax proposals will be made and also battled to a finish.

Not only the governor, but members of the legislature are talking the tax question in their home districts and some of them over wider areas.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending November 5, 1949 were 25,794 compared with 26,251 for same week in 1948. Cars received from connections totaled 11,705 compared with 13,203 for same week in 1948. Total cars moved were 37,499 compared with 39,454 for same week in 1948. Santa Fe handled a total of 39,294 cars in preceding week of this year.

CITY GIRL KNOWS HER WAY—Shirley Everett isn't just an ordinary farmette who makes a pretty picture with a pitchfork. She can handle any piece of machinery on her father's farm near Flemington, N. Shirley has won prizes with her own thoroughbred cattle which she has been raising since she was 10 years old.

GI Question and Answers

Q—Will I be entitled to subsistence allowance if I enter school under the GI Bill to become an accountant?

A—If you enter training in a state-approved institution that has been in operation for more than one year, you may be eligible to receive subsistence.

Q—I have never applied for a GI loan, but now I am delinquent in a loan I secured to buy some stock and equipment for my farm. Will VA guarantee a loan to meet this indebtedness if I can find a lender?

A—Under certain conditions, VA may guarantee your loan to liquidate your delinquent indebtedness which was incurred in the purchase of stock and equipment for the operation of your farm.

Q—My uncle is a disabled peacetime veteran and unable to work because he is ill. Is he entitled to hospitalization in a VA hospital?

A—Your uncle may be entitled if he was discharged under other than dishonorable conditions for a disability incurred in line of duty or is receiving compensation for a service-connected or service-aggravated disability.

Q—As the widow of a World War II veteran, I was receiving death compensation from VA. Compensation was discontinued when I remarried, but shortly thereafter, my husband, a non-veteran, was killed in an accident. Am I entitled to the compensation I was receiving prior to my second marriage?

A—Under the law, you lost your entitlement to compensation when you remarried.

Not Guilty!

The automotive electrician was coming down the street in a barrel.

"What's the idea," growled a cop. "Are you a poker player?"

"No," replied the repairman. "but I just spent the evening with some guys who are."

Take Care Of Yourself

(Great Grandma Knew Best)
By Glen R. Shepherd, M.D.

Sunburn is like any other burn. It can be just as dangerous of severe and covering a large area and it is always as painful as a burn caused by anything else.

The only difference between sunburn and other burns is that you cannot tell how badly you are burned from the sun until 12 to 18 hours afterward while the burns from other agents you can tell immediately.

The treatment of burns is a rarity in modern medicine because with one single exception, burns are now treated the same as the were generations ago. The best treatment for burns is still considered to be greasy applications, such as yellow petroleum jelly, which coats the sensitive exposed nerve endings and prevents weeping of fluid and serum from deeply burned areas.

The great contribution of modern medicine in the surface treatment of burns is the use of pressure dressings. Of course, as part of the general treatment of the patient with severe burns, modern medicine has contributed the use

Many Texans Attend Eastern N. M. Uni

We have been getting quite a bit of information from the public relations department of the Eastern New Mexico University at Portales, of late, and wondered if there were any Texans to amount to anything in the enrollment.

This week, we got a notice about the formation of the Kappa Pi fraternity, and among them were five Texans of this area, Jimmy Anderson of Meadow being one of them as a pledge, the others being mostly from this area of Texas.

However, the president was Chester Tony of Littlefield, and the vice-president was Bill Power, Marshall, Texas. In all, seven Texans were in the fraternity as members or officers.

of penicillin to avoid infection, the use of fluids and blood plasma in the veins for nourishment and shock treatment, as well as new drugs to relieve pain.

Whenever a burn occurs, it is advisable to apply yellow petroleum jelly under a dressing. It is necessary to get medical treatment in the case of large or deep burns to save lives as well as to lessen scarring and later disability.

Although petroleum jelly or such other grease as butter was applied to burns generations ago, modern doctors thought there must be some way to improve on that. So other materials have been tried including tannic acid which is found in tea, carbolic acid, and various dyes which cause a "protective" scarring.

Some of these agents were found to be poisonous when applied to burns and all of them were found to be less effective than grease in promoting early healing and preventing scarring. In the case of deep burns which go through skin down to or through muscle, pressure dressings properly applied by a doctor to prevent cutting off the circulation and to insure even pressure over the wound are very helpful in promoting early healing and as little scarring as possible.

Many more burns occur nowadays than used to occur many years ago. We are now surrounded by agents and materials which can cause serious burns. Some of these are gasoline and other inflammable fluids, ultra-violet lamps, electric fixtures and frayed wires, long-handled pots and pans sitting on the front burners of stoves with the long handles extending out automobiles and other machinery which crash, break and explode into flames as well as the hazards in industry. A watchful eye and careful movements are necessary to prevent burns.

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening.

What's YOUR price tag on happiness?

The comfort that's found in all-coil springs, a husky, steady-traveling understructure, cushions that are deep and soft and wide enough to let you spread yourself a bit.

Even that extra swelling of the chest that comes from owning a car you know everyone respects and admires.

In a word—your happiness. It's never out of our mind in planning this car—nor in making very sure each dollar of cost gives you the greatest possible benefit.

That's why we rather proudly ask you to go see—and try—this Buick SPECIAL. It's priced like a six, in spite of the fact that like all Buicks, it's a big-powered Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight.

And we honestly believe that it puts a lower price tag on your motoring happiness than any other car you can buy today! See your Buick dealer and find out about that.

The smartest bit of automobile styling on the road today? The standout beauty of tapering fenders—the sturdy protection of a wholly new front-end design?

The prestige that's in the Buick name—the solid, road-wise steadiness Buick has always stood for?

Your chance to get in on the perfect smoothness of Dynaflo Drive*—this being the lowest-priced car on which that sensational new transmission is available?

*Optional at extra cost.

They're all there, every one of those things. And for a good reason that may go a bit beyond the usual idea in designing an automobile.

For, a long while ago, we graduated from the idea that a motorcar is merely a means of getting about.

The way you travel is pretty important too. The lift that's yours in knowing there's no prettier picture anywhere on the highways. The "kick" there is in a power plant that's lively and eager and always ready to get in on the fun.

Texans In Washington

By Tex Easley
AP Special Washington Service
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 17—(AP)—The 40,000 members of 580 Lions Clubs throughout Texas are planning a year-round camp for crippled children. It will be near Kerrville on land now owned by the government.
 The success of the plan, according to W. F. Mickelsen of Kerrville, depends on whether the government donates 500 acres of partly wooded ranch land adjacent to the Legion Veterans Administration hospital.
 He is very optimistic.
 In fact, he hopes that the first of a cluster of ranch-style bunk houses will be built and echoing next summer with laughter of happy youngsters who have forgotten their physical handicaps.
 Crippled boys and girls, 7 to 16 years of age inclusive, would be enrolled at the camp. There would be no charge. They would come to the camp for 90-day periods, with some remaining for one or more additional periods if their personal situation made this advisable.

Here for a week of conferences with various federal officials, Mickelsen headquarters at the office of Rep. Clark Fisher of San Angelo. Most of his conferences were at the Federal Security Administration.

The FSA, which includes the Public Health Service, was picked by the General Services Administration to handle the matter. The GSA handles disposition of surplus property, and the 500 acres in question already has been declared excess to the needs of the Veterans Administration.

The land sought from the government originally was given to the American Legion by the Schreiner family of Kerrville shortly after World War I. It eventually became the property of the VA. The present hospital there for treatment of tuberculosis, occupies only about 399 acres of the original tract of approximately 800 acres.

Economic Highlights

All of the criticism of President Truman's policies does not come from the formal opposition. Much of it has taken place within his own official family. The most striking example was the recent resignation of Dr. Edwin Nourse, who was the President's chief economic advisor for three years, following a blunt speech in which he strongly criticized the Administration's economic ideas.

"I am not happy," Dr. Nourse said, "when I see the government slipping back into deficits as a way of life." He urged that the government put its fiscal house in order, and then said: "If we are to maintain the march of economic progress, we must—individually and as groups, in private business and in politics—display industry, prudence and self-discipline, recognize that we can't get more out of the economic system than we put in. . . . Monetary and fiscal tricks have no power of magic but are a slippery road to misery." In the course of his address, Dr. Nourse also criticized the three-day week in the coal mines ordered by John L. Lewis, would be about $250,000 (T), with an annual operating cost of $300,000 (T). It might be expanded in future years.

Enrollment would be limited to 110 children. They would come from various parts of Texas, selected by local Lions clubs.

"The purpose of the camp," Mickelsen elaborated, "is to give these unfortunate boys and girls a fresh, healthy outlook on life."

seas Program (CROP). Everyone in Texas can be a part of the Texas Friendship Food and Fiber Train now being assembled. The facts as to how you may give are in the hands of your pastor and county agent.

HIS EXPRESSION TALKS—Hohann, age 7, is sad but his eyes reflect anticipation or receiving some food. This does come to many like Hohann through the commodities given to the Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP). Everyone in Texas can be a part of the Texas Friendship Food and Fiber Train now being assembled. The facts as to how you may give are in the hands of your pastor and county agent.

the effort of the steel workers to reduce the working day, and the pricing policies of some industries. This would not be particularly newsworthy if Dr. Nourse were a conservative business economist. But he has always been regarded as a man of liberal views, and he has favored many New Deal and Fair Deal theories. The point seems to be that he, in company with many others, has become convinced that Mr. Truman's policies, and the enormous cost they would involve, endanger our financial security as a nation. It is obvious to anyone that if the government must operate on a deficit basis in good times, when the national income is very high and tax revenues reflect this condition, the situation would become critical if business slackened and the economic machine slowed down.

This problem is underlined by the current labor situation. Secretary of Commerce Sawyer is the authority for the statement that if the steel strike continues until December, 5,000,000 will be out of work. The grim effect of that on the economy is easily imagined. Men who are not working cannot buy. Merchants, landlords and others cannot collect their accounts, so they too cannot buy. The cycle thus started spreads until every enterprise and every section of the country is affected. Wages and earnings drop—and so do the government's revenues. And even when a great strike ends, it takes a long, long time to make up the lost ground.

In any event, Mr. Truman undoubtedly faces stormy days ahead. He has shown no disposition to give ground on any policy. But the opposition to his economic policy is growing.

MAYOR DISLIKES HIS JOB AIDS INTEGRITY

ABERDEEN, Idaho—(AP)—The mayor of this potato town of 1,500 people doesn't like his job—he'd rather farm. Keeping pigs out is one of the troubles of Mayor James Chapman, 58. It's against the law to raise 'em in town.

"This stuff of telling people what to do isn't in my line," Chapman said. "I'm not cut out to have all that power." But Aberdeen, where there are more churches than filling stations, insisted that Chapman take a second two-year term. He said "people just figured I'd be able to devote more time to the mayor's job than anyone else." His salary is $75 a year.

SAYS BLUE SERGE

TORQUAY, England—(AP)—What the world needs to revive its sense of integrity is a return to the old fashioned blue serge Sunday suit. That's what George Quemy of Liverpool told the meeting of the National Federation of Merchant Tailors here. "When I entered the trade 40 years ago," he said, "every man had a Sunday suit of good blue serge. He wore it to church and when he visited friends. It gave him a sense of responsibility that men haven't got today."

HD Club Women Make Tour of Homes

Nine Residences, Church Studied

The second achievement tour of home demonstration club women, was held last Wednesday. Visits were made in nine different homes and one church.

The first stop was at the home of Mrs. Lee Bartlett, president of the Needmore Home Demonstration Club. She had improved two bed rooms in her home. Both had been repapered by Mrs. Bartlett, without any help. She refinished two old dressers, a chest of drawers and a bedstead for the boys' room. Besides the refinished and reupholstered two straight chairs for their room. The curtains in their room were made of ecru colored monks cloth. By dyeing a faded bedspread a soft green, it blended harmoniously with the brown striped wall paper and the blue linoleum rug. Mrs. Bartlett dyed a small throw rug dark green to blend with the other colors.

The second bed room was made larger by the addition of ten more feet. A new closet helped to solve the storage problem. Mrs. Bartlett mixed colors in an attempt to make the new woodwork match the old. Although the old was fir and the new, pine, Mrs. Bartlett was able to get them matched pretty well.

Just before going to the next home, Mrs. Bartlett showed the rebuilt cellar. She said that it was during the time of the Sundown tornado, that they decided to repair it. The women saw the 448 containers of food conserved this year, arranged on shelves around the walls. Fresh vegetables and fruits are also stored in the cellar.

In the same community, the people saw the home of Mrs. Grady Davis. She had improved each room of the house by papering and by painting the woodwork. She had added curtains in each room as well. The women were interested to hear that the kitchen curtains, made of feed sacks, had been dyed different colors for the third time. As the family tired of a color, she removed it and dyed the curtains again.

Top Women in Public Health

She next took the women to her cellar to show them the four hundred containers of food she had put up this summer. The cement floor was for ease of keeping the cellar in an orderly condition.

At the home of Mrs. Carl Hulse, the women saw dairy equipment that has made possible the production of clean milk. Mrs. Hulse is the dairy demonstrator of the Needmore club. A seamless milk pail and a seamless strainer make for easy cleaning with a brush. In washing the utensils, Mrs. Hulse explained that she used a slightly alkaline powder in the wash water and then rinses. This is followed by a chlorine solution, which disinfects the utensils. Mr. Hulse uses another precaution by cleaning the cow's udder with some of the alkaline solution, before milking.

Another piece of useful equipment is a draining rack for the utensils. Mr. Hulse made it of scrap materials, and spun thread from cotton. Later she crocheted it into a dolly.

In different rooms the women noticed pictures on the wall made of white material. Mrs. Elmore explained that they were flour sacks with printed designs. She worked them with wool thread and framed them. Over the mantle, was a picture of a white goat.

As the people entered the newly papered kitchen, they saw Mrs. Elmore's birthday gift. It was a new kitchen cabinet given by her husband.

Mrs. I. W. Bailey showed the work of the women of the Baptist church at Tokio. The piano, which originally had a dark finish, had been refinished light. The women worked at different times during the year to scrape off the old finish and apply the new.

Mrs. Everett Brantley made the new pulpit and a flower stand of new pine. They were finished like the piano with clear varnish. The women on the achievement tour agreed that the work looked like the work of professionals.

Mrs. Carrol Shults, bed room demonstrator of the Union Home Demonstration Club, had improved her young son's bed room. The new brown, yellow and striped denim bedspread, trimmed in the plain brown, blended harmoniously with the cream and tan colored wall paper. Two of the club women assisted Mrs. Shults with the papering.

At the home of Mrs. B. Y. Howze, the people saw another improved bed room. She had reworked an old bed room suite to more modern furniture. From parts of the headboard, she cut a top for the new dressing table. She padded it on top and made a skirt of plain green print. The original three panel mirrors were of drawers were sawed off. They were set on the floor on each side of the bed for night stands. The yellow in the wall paper was emphasized by the fresh yellow curtains.

The last place visited was that of Mrs. W. L. Ragan, member of the Union Home Demonstration Club. Although her new bathroom lacked paint, she was able to exhibit necessary equipment at a nominal cost. The bath room was built on from the back porch. It was built by her husband from all used lumber which was given him. The fixtures were all second handed, and cost very little. By the addition of a water heater and the paint, the bath room will be complete.

Points Out Way To Raise Money

LUBBOCK, Tex., Nov. 17—Representative Preston E. Smith today called for a program of financing that would permit renovation of the state eleemosynary institutions without the necessity for raising new taxes.

The money, under Smith's plan, would come from the interest on state surplus funds.

These funds, now deposited in Texas banks, bring little or no return. But under the terms of a bill which Smith introduced at the last session of the legislature, they would be invested in government bonds.

The interest thus earned would be sufficient to put through the state eleemosynary improvement and building program, Smith asserted.

"Interest received on $190 million held by the U. S. Government for the Texas Employment Commission amounts to more than $4 million per year," the Lubbock representative asserted. "Banks pay the state less than $120,000 depository interest on a like amount. The state now has approximately $190 million in cash funds and suspense accounts."

Smith described conditions in the eleemosynary institutions as "deplorable" and recommended that they should be remedied efficiently—and at the same time economically.

"It does not make sense," he declared, "to impose new taxes on an overburdened citizenship when it is possible to achieve the desired result with the means already at our disposal." Smith added:

"There is no need for new taxes if we employ a businesslike method of handling the state's finances."

How will you have your turkey dressed for Thanksgiving? Apparently little Miss Catherine Jones and her young friend, Bobo Jackson of Memphis, Tenn., want their bird dressed in an outfit made of cotton feed bags. There is a reason for their unconventional approach, though. The youngsters hope to win a new car in a "fowl fashion contest" to choose the best-dressed fowl in the nation. They are foregoing their Thanksgiving turkey dinner to enter their bird in the contest with other turkeys, ducks and chickens which will be dressed to kill in feed sack fashions for contest finals in February at Kansas City. The human designer of the best fowl fashion will receive a new car as first prize.

Did you note the new fangled ballot last Tuesday? It is supposed to be more secret than the old one that had your name and number on it for any and all to peruse. But in the case of a contest, like the old one, the contestees as well as other examiners would know who voted and how. However, most any improvement over the old method will be something.

Well, we are ready for the howl to go up from the legislators that BIG BUSINESS has won again. And, to hear them tell it, lobbyists will have to keep them in feed and bed down at Austin, and the boys will have to vote like the bosses say vote—or starve. But from the talk we heard on the streets last week and this, most people voted agin' all of the amendments on general principles, and the folks we talked to were not big business but what might be popularly termed voters from the forks of the creek. As one of the men expressed himself to us, the previous administration had salted away around 100 million dollars down at Austin "for hard times," and the 51st boys not only spent all of that but all other funds supposed to be collected in the next two years. And they hardly got started on their appropriation spree. Legislators know what they are expected to get before they go down there, so we can see no earthly excuse to howl because their pet legislation was snowed under. If a man runs for that office and gets it, losing both time and money in quest of the office, he should be prepared to live on crackers and milk while down there rather than sell his integrity for a mess of pottage.

The people who took the trouble to go to the polls last Tuesday were probably better posted on the propositions of the proposed constitutional amendments than usual. The papers really spread themselves this year in trying to tell people just what was meant by each of the ten proposed amendments. In reading the advertisements back in August, or for that matter what appeared on the ballot itself was a blind and a snare. Most of them were first steps toward further taxation, and the people knew it. So they were snowed under. Take the poll tax repeal for instance. If the amendment had called for outright repeal, without any prospects of a big hand to register your party preference in preparation to cast a vote, it might have gone over. And while we are at it, if there was any comfort to those advocating the "welfare state" and for cradle to grave care and protection, we failed to see it in the Texas vote. Fact of the matter is, the old time Democrats and Republicans seemed to be in the saddle, Tuesday, November 8th. We failed to detect any drivel from Moscow.

From the wording of the federal indictment, as well as expressions by the US attorney general, the federal suit against a large chain grocery was because they sold food cheap. Attorney General Howard McGrath is reported to have said in effect, "that they, (chains) used their capital to buy and process food in order to sell it cheaper, and cut the throat of competitors." But some 140 million consumers of food are very much interested in cheaper food. Just ask them. Not too long ago, a prospective employee of this firm in one of his letters asked if there were any chain stores here, as merchandise was generally cheaper where they did business. And, so far as we know, no independent groceries are suffering needlessly. In fact, we saw a copy of a large ad an independent grocer ran over in Georgia that stated flatly he was for the chains. He said they had caused the independents to be more business like, more careful in buying and keeping a cleaner stock. Then there are more independent groceries than was ever known in America, and they did a great business last year. In view of this fact, just who is behind this prosecution?

We note that the Texas State Teachers association will meet during the Turkey Day holidays over at Fort Worth, and that they are expecting at least 12,000 Texas teachers to attend. One of the attractive announcements stated that there would be twenty (20) breakfasts, luncheons and dinners during the three day confab of the pedagogic fraternity. Now the Herald is in hopes that the Terry county bunch go with plenty tums in the overnight bag. We don't want any of them to come home with a bad case of indigestion, and take their gripes on the school kids. To say the least, we hope the teachers have a jamb up good meeting. We note that they are scheduled to hear some of the most noted educators from the south during the convention.

While enlarging on the scary headlines about the coffee scarcity, this writer suggests that you save all those okra seed out in the field. They make a fine coffee substitute, sans caffeine, and you might buy a bit of that at your drug store. One year back in Tennessee during the Cleveland Democratic boom, about 1893, we ran out of coffee. The dry okra seed were gathered, roasted and ground on the old coffee mill. It was not half bad. Speaking of the Cleveland boom with its 3c cotton, 6c pork and 25c corn, about 1898, during and after the Spanish-American war, things began to pick up, and for 12 years, a lot of misled people said there was always prosperity under a Republican administration. Then came the Wilson administration with the first World War, and other people began to say, if you want good times, elect a Democrat. But the people about 1920 decided on a change, and for a few years we whooped 'em up under the Republicans. Then comes the Hoover bust, and FDR enters with his spending and winning program, which has been going on since 1932. We have about reached the point where we don't think it amounts to a tinker's dam. The main thing is to have a world war and plenty borrowing from Peter to pay Paul. But the whole program narrows down to the old firm known as Supply & Demand.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Folks, I am a kind of peaceful sort of citizen, but you know, she is beginning to look as if it is nearly time to whip out the old 6-shooter and clear the landscape of the crew that is steering us right smack along the route chosen by that Britisher, Atlee. And look at Atlee's socialist England today—flat as a pancake. The gloom that comes from scarcities and Govt. bossiness grows thicker and thicker. The promised land, like a desert mirage, is beyond reach—just a little further—always, just a little further.

And now the U.S.A.—look at butter. What happens? Butter is tied up in Govt. warehouses—millions of pounds—and Govt. buying continues at the clip of around 750,000 pounds a day. Butter is beyond the reach of some. Synthetic scarcity has done it. It is not the groceryman or the dairyman—it is Sambo. He is the baby in the woodpile—and with our own money.

In all directions, from Govt. power houses on the Columbia where the kilowatt business has been fooled by Sambo's antics, we see electricity rationing is in again there. Our 48 governors will soon be just office boys.

When your senator or congressman gets home from Europe, or Asia, or Africa, from his "look- ing into conditions there," tell him you want butter—also much less Govt. fumidities.

By gum, they left our column out last week. A short paper gotten out early for a holiday (Armistice) and the makeruppers thought they had something better to fill in, while hundreds of readers—well anyway a dozen, half dozen or less vainly searched for their favorite literary nourishment.

Something to think about. Two cousins, and they cousins also, playmates and school mates of the Old He died suddenly in the past month. One of them was a night-watchman at Memphis. He died of heart attack after midnight between clock punches, 1 a.m. and 2 a.m. Then on the 5th of this month another was run over on the highway and horribly mangled by a big lumber truck, at old home town, Middleton, Tenn.

Which makes us say again that some smart alexs do 50 or 60 up and down Broadway here in Brownfield, with cars parked on both sides of the street. They could no more stop if some one emerged from between two cars than a cow can fly. Officers should do their duty.

What we would call adding insult to injury happened to our neighbor this week. A guy persuaded him to let him spend the night. With some inconveniences this was done. The bird flew de coop next morning forgetting his lodging bill, but did not forget an almost new coat belonging to his accomodating landlord for the night.

Insects Whittle Down Cotton Crop

South Plains farmers can profit from national cotton yield reports which indicate that insects were responsible for a 63,000-bale decrease in 1949 production, despite greater acreage and favorable crop conditions.

The plant industry department at Texas Technological college cited the figures today as an incentive for West Texas cotton growers to adopt rotation plans and apply insecticides at the proper time.

Flea hoppers, leafworms, aphids, and red spiders can be controlled if the farmer will observe his crop closely and keep periodic counts. Weekly observation permits the farmer to keep pests in check if suitable sprays or dusts are used.

Grain Is Now Swamping Elevators

Never in the history of Brownfield and trade area has there been as much grain coming in as at present. There has been times before when there were several truck loads congregated around the unloading place at the several grain buyers places here, but until last week, no one saw trucks lined up for a quarter mile on the highways.

This came to our notice Monday of last week, and we drove out on the Plains highway to see for ourselves. At the time we were out there, the line of trucks reached well down in the draw on that highway, and there were dozens of the trucks that had found parking places around the Goodpasture and Co-Operative elevators. This had been going on for several days.

Others Are Not Idle Either
A round of the elevators and grain buyers found a beehive of industry. At the Brownfield Grain Co., between the Lubbock and Levelland highways, as well as the Gore Brothers, trucks were in evidence, and it will not be but a few days until all available storage is taken, and the grain farmers will have to make other arrangements, or the grain men for them. The best we can see is that much of it will have to be stored on farms, or piled on the ground, and that is bad for grain, at this time of year.

Others may be buying, but we failed to see any evidence. They may have obtained storage elsewhere. The last report we saw stated that Terry county would this year be the banner sorghum grain county on the Plains. There are two reasons for this, as Terry usually stands second to Lamb county. First off, around June 1st, a lot of cotton was either blown or washed out by heavy rains. This acreage, which was quite heavy, was planted to grain sorghums.

On top of that, there is a vast area of Terry and Yoakum counties that is too sandy for cotton, and most of this was planted to grain originally. Added to that the blown or washed areas, and you have a bumper acreage. Then the yield is unusually good all over the county, which all adds up to a crop that will likely reach 7 or 8 million pounds.

Mrs. Crede Gore stated to a reporter that the delivered at elevator prices was $1.55 per cwt., while the government loan ran from $1.81 to $1.87. She thought most farmers were storing, but added that with present rate of unloading, storage space would be at a premium and soon.

Louis Rutenburg, chairman of the board of Servel Inc. (left above) received the scroll from T. J. Morton, Jr., president of the group, at a luncheon here. To give the more than 500 members of the association a glimpse of the award the Metal Trades group had a 6-foot-blowup made which is in the background.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Tarpley and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bandy spent the week end at Possum Kingdom fishing.

SS Payments Do Not Work Automatically

Social security payments do NOT come automatically when due! It takes an application from you in order to receive either retirement or survivors payments from your federal family insurance system. It is true that benefits are earned by employment and payroll deductions under the Social Security act, but the benefits do NOT start automatically when the worker retires or dies. Actual cash benefits MAY be lost if a claim is not filed PROMPTLY.

Your are urged to take stock now of your social security rights. If you have reached 65, and have been paying social security premiums, or if in your family a breadwinner has passed away who had been covered by social security in his or her work, get in touch with the Social Security Administration IMMEDIATELY.

The office serving the Brownfield area is located in Lubbock. A representative of the Lubbock social security office will be at the Brownfield post office at 9:00 a. m. November 17, 1949, for the purpose of taking claims for possible benefits from eligible persons. This representative visits Brownfield monthly. He'll be glad to assist you in filing a claim or in furnishing any needed information about social security benefits.

President J. Walker Hammond is in receipt of a letter from Governor Shivers acknowledging receipt of his membership card, in which he said: "I acknowledge with appreciation the receipt of my membership card in the Texas Farm Bureau Federation and am happy to be a member of your outstanding organization."

Mr. R. J. Havens and son, Gene of Clyde, Texas, visited Sunday and Monday in Meador with his mother, Mrs. T. J. Havens and his sister, Mrs. R. M. Minter and family. Gene remained for several days more.

H. I. (Punch) Nelson, who is in training at an air base in San Antonio, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nelson. Punch informed us that as soon as his period of training in the air corps was over, he would return to Baylor U. and resume his studies.

TALKS WITH ARTIFICIAL LARYNX

MELBOURNE, Australia — (AP) —An engineer and his doctor have worked together to perfect a chromium larynx which gives speech to mute people.

Ten years ago, Harry Shannon the engineer, had his larynx removed and was told he would never speak again. But he had a thorough study of the larynx and used his engineering skill to make an artificial articulator. His first important clue was the discovery that the vocal chords produce a constant tone which is modulated by use of the lips and teeth. When in use, his chromium gadget which resembles an inhaler, is held in one hand, one end of the tube being connected to an aperture in the throat and the other slipped between the teeth.

Now Harry Shannon talks like any normal person. By changing from one articulator to another, he produces the voice of a baritone or soprano while he even has what he calls a "roarer" for cheering at football matches and a "whisperer" for more confidential moments. The artificial larynx has brought speech back to many other mute Australians.

COURT GOES TO NEW CITIZEN

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Mrs. Ida Rose, 60, a native of Lithuania, went to court to set her first citizenship papers, but when it came time for her to set her final certificate she had become bedridden.

District Court rules were relaxed to allow Judge Henry A. Schweinhaut to go to her home to conduct naturalization proceedings.

BRITISH BUILD MOST SHIPS

LONDON—(AP)—Lloyd's Register of Shipping disclosed that British shipyards are building nearly as many vessels as all the rest of the world put together. Figures for Sept. 30 showed that the tonnage under construction in Britain totalled 2,085,217 tons, while all other countries (with the exception of Russia) had 2,512,522 tons abuilding.

WASHINGTON WILL BE PORT

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Dredging operations have begun in the Potomac River that will make Washington accessible to 10,000-ton ocean vessels. The Board of Trade says a steamship line serving the Caribbean area has said it would like to dock at Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Browder spent Armistice Day in Midland visiting relatives.

Borrowing from the male's vest style, designers have created a feminine version of the vest, called a "weskit." In velveteen and corduroy, weskits are made to match freely with skirts and blouses, according to National Cotton Council fashion experts. This soft cotton velveteen weskit was designed by Justin Mc Carty.

Duties of VA Office No Mystery, Says Lincoln

Much has been said about the benefits and services available to veterans and their dependents, of all Wars, from the Veterans Administration.

After some five years of operation, the duties and location of the Terry County Service Office still is a mystery to some of the estimated 2750 veterans, and, or their dependents of three wars who reside in the county. Those who make their first trip to the office, soon find that all phases of veterans affairs are covered by the county service officer.

Included in the work of the office are application for compensation, pension, from four wars, several types of loans, schooling, subsistence allowance, on-the-job training, medical and dental aid or treatments, hospitalization and ambulance services, employment preferences, insurance, burial benefits, procuring recorded documents (without cost to veterans), changing case files and addresses, assisting in securing additional evidence on veterans benefits, publicizing and advising veterans and dependents of new regulations, and benefits that are being made available to them, etc.

Under state law of Texas a county service officer in order to qualify for the position, must meet certain requirements before he can be employed. He must have served in the military service during a war period, be honorably discharged, and he is required to have certification by the proper official from a veteran's organization that he has served a post or chapter as service officer for at least two years. He also is required to take a course of training as prescribed by the Director of the Veterans Affairs Commission, and be certified by the director that he has satisfactorily passed and completed all courses and is qualified to serve as a county service officer.

Texas state law authorizes the commissioners court of all counties to employ and pay from the county funds the salary of a county service officer.

The minimum amount of salary of assistants and county service officers are made by the state legislature.

Veterans and dependents of veterans are cordially invited to contact your service office, located on the ground floor of the Terry county courthouse, Brownfield, Texas, office phone 247-M.

MAKING IT SAFE FOR AMERICAN HOMES

CHICAGO—Workers in American industry were safer in 1948 than in any year in history, the National Safety Council reported today.

Reports to the Council, as shown in the 1949 edition of its statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts," indicates that disabling injuries per 1,000,000 man-hours averaged 11.49 for all reporting industries in 1948. This is a 13 per cent reduction from the 13.26 rate the year before, a new record. An average of 1.12 days were lost per 1000 man-hours worked in all industries last year, a reduction of 9 per cent from 1947—also the best on record.

In both years lumbering had the highest accident frequency rate, but it was reduced 18 per cent in 1948—from 59.74 to 49.04. Coal mining, with the greatest accident

Safety Expert Revamps Courtesy Code

Because safety is involved, no well-mannered woman, says Traffic Expert Slutz, will accept a light from a man while he's driving a car.

Man has been helping woman through doors for centuries. But she should not permit it, according to Slutz, when the courtesy forces a man to enter or emerge from a car on the side of flowing traffic.

Don't point! It may distract masculine attention from the wheel.

DON SLUTZ, managing director of the Detroit Traffic Safety Association, has laid out a code for women auto passengers. It violates many accepted standards of civility but, Slutz explains, "I think women would prefer a discourteous escort to a gallant corpse." "My basic rule for women passengers," says Slutz, "is not to take offense at a male driver's disregard for the little considerations normally due her sex." In the accompanying pictures the Chevrolet Motor Division has illustrated some of the Slutz ideas on manners.

"Behind the Scenes In American Business"

By Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK, Nov. 17—Since the war, crying the business blues has become a chronic complaint with many Americans. Despite the string of boom years, economic pessimists have periodically hit the headlines with forecasts of calamity. In 1949, they said gloomily, production would drop, unemployment would climb. But as the year draws to a close it becomes apparent that the prophets of doom have concentrated a bit too much on the dark spots in the economy. Though production has dipped somewhat below previous peaks, it is still high. And while severity rate both years, went down from 7.96 to 7.61, a 4 per cent reduction.

Communications again ranked as the safest among reporting industries in 1948. It had the lowest frequency and severity rates last year as well as the year before.

unemployment has increased somewhat, employment has stuck close to the record height of 60,000,000. Incomes have topped peak 1948 marks, and sales of many manufactures have chalked up new highs.

The impact of the steel and coal strikes of course has taken some of the starch out of the economy, but as we approach the Christmas season the overall picture is far from dismal. As recently as mid-September production workers in manufacturing industries attained their second highest income level on record—an average of $55.64 a week. Add the fact of an accumulated savings backlog of $220 billion and you have at least some reason for optimism for the new year too. Recent stock market action, incidentally, seems to offer some confirmation: it hit a new high for the year in the last week of October.

ROAD BLOCK—America's highways are rapidly approaching the saturation point. With car-conscious Americans grabbing new models as fast as motor makers can turn them out, modern four-lane parkways are becoming as crowded as the old two-lane roads. By the year's end, says the association, highways will be swarming with a record-breaking 43.5 million vehicles—35.4 million passenger cars, 7.9 million trucks, and more than 200,000 buses. Truck population alone has doubled in the last 15 years, climbing from a little over 3.5 million in 1935 to what will be just under eight million by the end of the year. This unprecedented road burden is causing increasing alarm among the nation's highway officials.

KITCHEN MEMO BY JEAN CLAUDE

For those vitamin-conscious cooks who are always looking for a recipe jam-packed with nourishment, here is one called Raisin-Carrot Muffins. Cream 1/2 cup sugar into 1/4 cup shortening, creamed. Add 1 cup, lightly beaten, and beat together until blended. Mix 1 cup shredded carrot with 3/4 cup milk and pour into the batter. Sift together 2 cups flour, 3 tsp. baking powder, 1/2 tsp. salt. Add 1/2 cup raisins and stir into batter until barely moistened. Do not beat. Put into gas oven at 375 F. for 25 minutes. Makes about 12 muffins.

Delicious addition to pork chops: Top with orange slices before putting into the broiler about 4 inches from the flame.

Before you start using your gas space heater again, check the burner ports for scaling. A wire brush will clean them so that the flame will not be obstructed.

When starching curtains, make enough starch for all curtains in one room so they will have identical crispness.

You can save gas by turning down the flame to center simmer whenever you're boiling food because boiling point is 212 F. and the center simmer gives enough heat to reach boiling point.

To Blanch almonds: Cover with cold water, heat just to boiling over center simmer burner, drain, slip off skins.

Sour cream, instead of the usual milk, sharpens the flavor of mashed potatoes. Mash, add sour cream, sprinkle with chopped chives or parsley.

AUSTRALIA STARTS GIANT PROJECT

ADAMINABY, Australia—(AP)—Australia's Snowy River has been a waste. It has poured a half-million gallons of water each minute into the sea.

All this waste is to be stopped with the greatest engineering project ever attempted in Australia. The Snowy River Hydro Electric Scheme has been talked about in this country for 70 years. Now it has been started.

The entire project will cost an estimated $440 million and take 20 years to complete. The Government plans to use teams of migrant labor, employing as many as 10,000 men on the project. Special towns will be built to house workers near the jobs.

ON OBSERVING TRADITIONS— and Building New Ones

In observing Thanksgiving this year, and every year, we are all paying tribute to the pioneering spirit of forefathers who wrought faithfully—and permanently.

In following our several courses through life, we are wont to add new traditions to the old. It is America's way of presenting her version of civilization as it marches through time.

We of this territory have a place in helping to establish the standards of a nation. Let's accept the trust.

The personnel of Brownfield's banks wish everyone the blessings of a feasty Thanksgiving.

These Banks Will Be Closed For THANKSGIVINGS
November the 24th

Please accept this friendly gesture to arrange business so inconveniences may be avoided.
