Investigation Of Burglaries Made

Sheriff Ocie Murry said Wednesday that investigations are underway in the burglaries of two local business firms some time Tuesday night.

About $40 was taken from a cigarette machine at Warren & Ricketts Co. station at the Lubbock-Tahoka "Y". Entrance was gained by the back door. The burglary was discovered early Wednesday morning when J. B. Ricketts, co-owner of the business, opened the station.

Three boxes of pocket knives and 90 pennies were taken from Shamburger Lbr. Co. Tuesday night. After failing in attempts to scale the fence around the lumber yard, a hole was cut in the fence and the office was entered by removing a pane of glass from the back door. E. V. McBurnett, manager of the business, discovered the burglary.

Murry said that probably both burglaries were made by the same person or persons.

Absentee Voting To Begin Monday

Mrs. Hazel Portwood, worthy matron, presided at the meeting.

Four Local Scouts Attending Jamboree

Four local Boy Scouts were among the 83 South Plains Scouts and nine leaders who left by train Friday night, June 23, from Lubbock to attend the National Boy Scout Jamboree to be held in Valley Forge, Pa.

Scouts from Brownfield, who were among the group were Herb Kendrick, Billy Richmond, Roscoe Treadaway and Johnny Cloud. They are included in Troop 34, of which John Lott of Post is scoutmaster, and Bobby Salem of Sudan and Huston Hoover of Littlefield are assistant scoutmasters.

Prior to their departure, the group of Scouts spent two days at Reese Air Force Base in a "shake down" camp. While attending this camp, they gathered toads, snakeskins, turtles, etc., to be used as "wampum" at the Jamboree. Included in the "menagerie" taken with the group was a fox, which was presented by the Brownfield scouts. The fox will be Troop 34's mascot.

The Jamboree began June 28 and continues through July 5. The group will return to Brownfield July 19.

Local Store Offers Fishing Information

treated with baths and packs, but their mother is still fighting for her life in an iron lung. The nurse is Miss Eve Imig. (AP photo.)

National Guardsmen Return From Camp

Following a two week training period at North Fort Hood, 19 enlisted men and four officers of the Assault Gun company 2nd Bn. 112th Armored Cavalry Regiment Texas National Guard returned to Brownfield Sunday June 25.

The two weeks at camp were spent in training with M-45 tanks carrying 105 Howitzers, filed maneuvers and three day problems on the firing range. The unit received two 3-4 ton weapons carriers while at Fort Hood and will receive their tanks for training in the near future, according to Capt. Sam Privitt, commander.

A new armory addition to the Veterans Hall should be completed within a week, Privitt said. Glenn Paden is contractor for the armory addition, which is of steel and tile construction.

Since their return from camp, Privitt said that 33 enlistments are now open in this unit. Anyone interested in belonging to the National Guard may contact Privitt or Virgil Short in the basement of the courthouse.

Guardsmen who attended camp, other than Privitt, are 1st Lt. William Glick, 2nd Lt. Thomas A. Hicks, Warrant Officer Herbert L. King, M-Sgt. Fred T. Adams and Sgts. Jack L. Browder, M. J. TEXAS SAFETY ASSOCIATION ISSUES FINAL WARNING TO JULY 4th DRIVERS

Once each year, we people of America pause from our everyday work and take time out to celebrate our National Independence Day. Many years ago, a group of brave men gave their lives that we might enjoy this land of ours without fear for the safety of our lives and personal liberties.

On the 4th of July of each year, our pleasures of the holidays take a heavy toll upon us and our loved ones. Hundreds of people die a violent death due to accidents of every imaginable type. On a day of pleasure and joy we compile a terrific record of death and destruction because of the lack of a little planning and care on the part of each one of us.

We people of Texas can expect at least 100 of the citizens of our state to meet a violent death over the holiday week end, from Saturday through Tuesday. Out of that ill-fated group of 100 men, women and children, approximately 36 will die in traffic accidents on our streets and highways. Drownings, firearms, fireworks, homicides and suicides will all take their toll upon the people of Texas.

The Texas Safety Association states that if each of us would but stop and think and exercise a little care and a lot of good common sense, that many of these lives can be saved. Remember these few rules: When driving, drive defensively. Stop often and rest so that you may remain alert at the wheel. Check

Rakes, hammers, or any necessary equipment for this work should be brought by each person. The group will meet at the Girl Scout Little House at 5:30 p.m. July 5.

TEC Offers Aid On Terry Farm Labor

Farmers who wish crews of farm labor to be directed into this area may contact Grimes by calling TEC, telephone number 25, in Lamesa.

Since a TEC office has not been set up in Brownfield, the Lamesa office is offering its services to local farmers.

Oil Outlook Very Good In Local Area This Week

FINAL PLANS FOR JULY GS DAY CAMP DISCUSSED AT MEETING HELD JUNE 20

Final plans for the Girl Scout Day Camp were discussed at the meeting of the Girl Scout Association Tuesday, June 20. John Bost, president, presided.

Camp folders were distributed to all registered Girl Scouts this week. The Day Camp—sponsored by the local Girl Scout council, will be held July 18, 19, 20 and 21. Registration starts now for all Girl Scouts to attend the camp. Non-Scout registrations will be accepted after July 1, if the camp is not filled. Registration fees are $2.00 for Girl Scouts and $4.00 for non-Scouts.

Adult staff members will have a two day pre-camp training brief on the camp site on July 11 and 12. The camp site is located on unimproved property owned by the Brownfield Country Club.

The first day of the camp, Tuesday, July 18, the Terry County Sheriff's Posse will escort the girls through the main business district in a parade, and then on to the camp site.

Campercraft, outdoor cooking, hikes, nature lore, singing, and games are included on the camp program. The same type of camping activities are found in established Girl Scout camps everywhere.

A registered nurse or certified First Aider will be on the camp site at all times, and all Girl Scout standards of safety, health and sanitation will be strictly observed.

Several members of the Brownfield Girl Scout Association attended Girl Scout training under national sponsorship in preparation for this camp, in order to give the girls the most fun and education possible.

All in all, the oil business of the Brownfield area is looking decidedly on the optimistic side for the past few weeks, and especially the past week. Many think that in the next year or two oil in various sections of Terry and east Yoakum will really be going places. This, they say, would happen sooner, but most leases are held by majors, and they never get in a hurry about developing new fields.

In the past week, in the Cobb discovery section just over in Yoakum county, something new has turned up. A few years ago, a well was drilled to the Gloria formation, and abandoned. Of late, the Honolulu company has cleaned out the old hole, drilled down to the Clear Fork strata, and found pay at 6,600-6,750.

Of course at present it is not a strong well, about 90 barrels per day, but it is believed that when the well is cleaned and finished, it will be paying well. Honolulu No. 2 Cobb has been temporarily abandoned, as it showed no production.

Tidewater Offset 1566 Barrel Well

Another well that has been watched with interest here is the Associated Tidewater Oil Co. et al, 12 inches southeast of town, known as No. 1, E. A. Tapp located on section 2 in block C-38.

This is a second try in the Fusselman strata, and both good producers, the latter going 1566 barrels per day on test. The production was found at 11,555 to 11,575. Gravity of oil was said to be 35.5.

New Well In Wellman Area

The most excitement in these diggings has been created by some of the preliminary tests on the Anderson-Pritchard Oil Corp. No. 1, H. C. Bever. It is on section 39 Block DD. This location is approximately 4 miles nearly east of Wellman, and some 10 miles southeast of Brownfield.

The last we heard on this well, the drillers were still going down in pay formation, and at that time no water was encountered. While the well is far from complete, many believe it will be at least a 600 barrel well, if not better. The oil is 41 gravity, very high.

The test was started to go 12,500 to Pennsylvania, but pay developed at a much more shallow depth. The well will be bottomed at some 9,730 plus. We understand that leasing is going pretty well and drawing a pretty high fare, which we will not mention here.

Interest is again drawn to the Mound Lake area some ten miles northeast of town, or better known to old timers as Salt Lake. Two wells have been put down, the No. 1 and 2 Hinson, both fair producers. But they are just first offset distances. The acreage is held by Seaboard Oil Co.

Recently, the Seaboard has farmed out a portion of the lease to the Houston Oil Co., and they are now putting a well down one mile west of the other two wells. This will give some indications of the extent of this field, and whether or not it spreads west. It is slated to go 10,000 feet. At present, however, no one knows for sure the extent of this new pool.

In the meantime, the new deep test four miles southeast of town is going down, the derrick being lighted up like a poleox church at night. There is even betting among the gallant sports here as to whether or not it will be a producer or duster. We hope, we hope, we hope.

One thing might be said in favor of major company development of an oil field. They don't develop them so fast, and create a boom as Snyder, for the bubble to bust in a few years. But the development is slower and more beneficial in the long run.

LEVELLAND RODEO JULY 1 THROUGH 4th

We have been requested to announce that the Levelled Rodeo will be put on this year beginning July 1, and through the 4th. The usual rodeo activities will be in vogue.

Some $3,300 in prizes will be offered the performers, including riding, bareback and saddle, steer wrestling, roping, etc.

RECEIVED PAINFUL INJURY TO FINGER

Jimmy Adams, employed as a mechanic at M. J. Craig Motor Co. received a painful injury to the forefinger of his right hand late Tuesday afternoon. Adams was working on an automobile engine when a fellow worker started the motor, catching Adams' finger between the generator and fan.

He received treatment at the local hospital, but was not hospitalized.

Mrs. K. D. Sadler and son returned home recently from a month visit with relatives in Utah and Idaho.

LAUNDRIES TO CLOSE ALL DAY ON SATURDAY

No changes were made in other summer opening and closing hours for the laundries.

Stricklinly Speaking

By Old He

We have asked the Junior Editor of this here newspaper to do an editorial this week having to do with the Glorious Fourth. But we doubt that anything comes out of Nazareth, however, as he stated "I do not know anything that I can point to with pride or view with alarm." Sounds like he's been reading some of the Four of July orations of the old timers.

There is one thing that we dread, however, and that is the report of the killings and drownings, the crippled and maimed that always winds up one of our holidays and our national birthday is about the worst. Calling on one of our shut-ins the other day, our good friend of long standing, J. M. Noble, we have an idea about July 4th.

If you aim to make that a holiday, why not use it as a day of visiting with the several shut-ins in this vicinity. Carry them something they can eat, such as ice cream, a flower, just a home grown one, or a pot plant if you wish to buy one from our fine florists. Thus you cheer those not able to be out, and at the same time play safe by not driving along our highways.

That noise you heard Saturday was a lot of "propaganda" hitting the bottom of editorial waste baskets over the land. Yeah, you guessed it; the stuff was from the AMA convention assembled out San Francisco way. It even contained a mat of the likeness of the newly elected president.

As a sop to the press boys, we found over on page three of the four page "news items," there was a glowing tribute to the press of

TERRY COUNTY HERALD, FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1950

BLAZING OIL WELL—Searing flames and dense smoke rise from the Pan-American No. 1 Holley oil well, about 25 miles northeast of Big Spring. The well erupted burning a geologist to death. Efforts to extinguish the blaze have been unsuccessful. The flames are the United States in their fight against socialism in every form, along with it that of socialized medicine. But the press reserves the right to enunciate its own opinion without the aid of the medic, seeing as how they do not wish any "paid publicity." But they did invite one and all to listen to them over the network of radio hookup hokum.

Speaking of hokum, we ran in to an old time Lynn countian at Tahoka, Saturday, P. E. Askew, who gets the Herald on one of the O'Donnell routes. He sorter ribbed us about the idea of farmers' hereabouts making up a purse to get us back to Tennessee on a visit so it would rain here. He didn't say whether he was in on the pot to help migrate the Old He or not.

Been thinking for some time that we would expose the perfidy of that red maned granger, whose first name is Smith, and who claims to be the Manager of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce. In May he let us get back to our old haunts in Tennessee where we were enjoying our visit among the kin and friends, if any. He sought out the name of the paper back there, the Bolivar Bulletin, through which he made an underhanded attack on us.

He even wanted to sic the FBI on us. That twirp didn't know that we have had the free run of all places concealed along the spring rivulets and wooded areas since our youth, and that the people back there are suspicious of any snooper, especially if they wear a tin badge. But that editor sorter helped old Red Smith in his attack, by stating the last time he had seen us, that we had stated we were heading for the Western (Tenn.) Hospital for the Insane, located near Bolivar. He even tried to get our wife to abandon us back there. Ain't Red got a wife of his own?

This malinger of spotted characters, such as the Old He, is now away on his vacation. Hope he makes it permanent. We got along mighty well before he ever showed his red muzzle in Brownfield. Thinking to hurt us back there, he closed his tirade by accusing us of being a Republican. Several hastened to us to congratulate us that we'd finally become rational, among them a rural mail carrier. The compliments that we received on our turning from Socialism to Republicanism sounded so good, we didn't deny that we were a GOP.

In our reply to Redrick the Great Smith in the next week's issue of the Bulletin, we informed the people of Tennessee where Red came from to Brownfield— from Abilene, and we also let the cat out of the bag that the State Epilepsy Colony was located in Abilene, and Red was perhaps an escapee, but just had fits occasionally, and was under fair control of his wife.

But instead of being the manager of anything, when the Chamber of Commerce made booster trips, Red was chained to the C. of C. president, and acted as Joeko the Monk. Did some dancing to the tune of the grinding organ with his little feathered cap and coin cup. Yeah, they know Red for what he really is back there now, and we advise that he always make his vacations in the west, and avoid the free soil east of the Mississippi.

We thank Malcolm Scales for six nice 5x7 pictures he took of our float last Thursday and presented us without cost. We didn't look any more foolish up there with our six-pistol on and tapping our typewriter than we expected. And the two gals, Gee Gee and Mary Dee who originated the float have all the credit. We never saw it until we were ready to crawl on it.

We also thank the Farmers Implement Co. for the float and motive power to pull it, which was a brand new IHC tractor, all polished and rearing to go. Also the driver, Arnold Shrimpton, who knows his stuff in heading a tractor down the road.

Only thing we regret is that our blood red shirt and red bandana came out just a light color. Oh, well, you can't get all the trees up one oon.

Be seeing you again in July.

ED HENSON SUGGESTED THE AD IN THE HERALD

Two weeks ago, the Herald carried an ad from the Wright Lumber Co., of Ashdown, Ark. When we sent in the bill and tear sheet we mentioned our old friend, W. E. Henson of that city, and asked that they give him our best regards. The ad was a 300 HP engine they had for sale.

In sending payment, the lumber concern manager, Mr. Wright, stated that it was the suggestion of Mr. Henson that caused them to send us the ad, and they would be glad to convey our message to him.

BIBLE COMMENT

True Greatness Is Misunderstood By Many of Us

THE meaning of true greatness is a lesson which many of us find difficult to learn. The mistaken interpretation of the term, however, is not original with us. Some of the 12 whom Jesus chose for His inner circle of disciples, if not all of them, showed at times such an amazing misunderstanding of their Master and His spirit that one wonders how they ever came to be His followers at all.

Perhaps the strong incentive was their belief that Jesus was about to set up a kingdom. And at this stage of the ministry of Jesus, their minds and hearts were full of this earthly kingdom. In journeying to Capernaum, for example, they had been disputing with one another about which of them was greatest.

Kindly, mildly, Jesus admonished them, teaching them the lesson of true greatness. He enforced it by setting a little child in the midst to remind them that they must become as little children if they would find their true place in His kingdom.

And all this Jesus made more plain by a specific act, as well by His general example, when He washed the disciples' feet. The fact that this incident occurred near the very end of the ministry of Jesus shows how slow the disciples were in learning.

But in this respect, aren't we all? There is no lesson that the world of men, and even the world of professing Christians, learns with more difficulty than that concerning the true meaning of greatness. Too many of us are prone to seek a small personal kingdom as a manifestation of our own greatness. And by so doing, we sometimes lose sight of the true and only greatness—that of the kingdom of God.

SWATCO Installs 100,000 Telephone

With the installation of a new telephone in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Winslow at Carlsbad, New Mexico, the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company and its subsidiary companies are now furnishing service to more than 100,000 company owned telephone stations. It was announced today by Mr. Roy Autry, President of the telephone company.

At the close of World War II, Southwestern Associated Telephone Company served slightly less than 40,000 telephone stations. Since that time, the company has more than doubled in size by the installation of additional telephones and by the acquisition of more telephone property. The most recent acquisition was the Two States Telephone Company, which formerly had headquarters at Texarkana, and which will be consolidated with Southwestern Associated Telephone Company when details can be completed.

Mr. Autry pointed out that having reached 100,000 company owned telephones there would be no let up in the company's determination to install a continually increasing number of new telephones and to furnish present subscribers with the type of service which they desire.

Southwestern Associated Telephone Company is one of the operating companies of the General Telephone Corporation system, the largest of the non-Bell telephone companies. Southwestern Associated Telephone Company is presently furnishing telephone service in five of the Southwest states, Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

ANOTHER STRIKE

AGAINST THE PUBLIC AND INDUSTRY AND AGRICULTURE SERVED BY FIVE WESTERN RAILROADS

President Truman's EMERGENCY BOARD recommends a 40-hour week and a pay increase of 18 cents an hour, or $1.44 a day for switchmen represented by the Switchmen's Union of North America.

• Notwithstanding the tremendous increase in their expenses involved, the Railroads' answer to Board is...

Union leaders' answer to Board is..

YES! NO!

In face of Board findings to the contrary, union leaders insist on 48 hours pay for 40 hours work. This would be an average increase of 31 cents an hour, or $2.48 a day. So Union leaders have called a completely unjustified strike on 5 Western railroads, effective June 25.

On June 15, an Emergency Board appointed by President Truman under the terms of the Railway Labor Act recommended the railroads grant switchmen a 40-hour week and a wage increase of 18 cents an hour, or $1.44 for an 8-hour day.

Despite the added financial burden involved, the railroads are ready to accept these recommendations, as they have always accepted Emergency Board recommendations on national issues.

But the leaders of the Switchmen's Union refuse to accept! They demand an average increase of 31 CENTS AN HOUR OR $2.48 A DAY—although their present earnings are substantially higher than those of workers in other industries!

Board Says Demands Unjustified In its report, the Board declared this demand unjustified by all the evidence presented. It also pointed out that it would give the switchmen an unfair pay advantage over other groups of railroad employees, and would add too great a burden to railroad costs.

Here is another case of a railroad union flouting the findings of an Emergency Board—another case of calling a crippling strike in an outrageous and reckless attempt to force demands which the Board clearly labels as unjustified!

Leaders of the Switchmen's Union are calling this strike in defiance of the Board—in defiance of the facts—and at the expense of the public!

In its report on this case, the Board made this statement:

"The railroad industry, the Board believes, needs above all else a period of relative stability to adjust and adapt itself to present competitive post-war conditions."

Despite this warning, the leaders of the Switchmen's Union are upsetting the apple-cart—forcing a completely unjustified strike against everybody who uses the railroads.

FIVE WESTERN RAILROADS AFFECTED BY THE JUNE 25 STRIKE
The five railroads affected by this strike, which goes into effect at 6:00 A.M. local time, Sunday, June 25, 1950, are:

It is time to put an end to such un-American tactics!

The Answer to a Raw Attempt At Dictatorship is "NO!"

In the interest of the public who depend on the railroads every day, there can be only one answer to this outrageous and dictatorial action by the leaders of the Switchmen's Union. And that answer is—"NO!"

Blair-Brown Vows Solemnized June 15

Miss Iva Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Blair, and Nathan Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Brown were married at 10 a.m. June 15 in the First Baptist church, Jimmie Wood, minister of the Crescent Hill Church of Christ performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of white gladiolus and fern, flanked with white tapers in candelabra.

Mrs. W. H. Dallas, organist, furnished the wedding music, and accompanied Miss Bonnie Dye-martin, cousin of the groom, as she sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." Candelighters were Miss Doris Wall, who wore a gold taffeta ballerina length dress, and Miss Lillian Hamilton, who wore a blue taffeta ballerina length dress. Carol Ann Mayfield, who wore a pale blue organdy dress, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Ed Mayfield, matron of honor, wore a toast lace ballerina length dress and a tulle halo. She carried a nosegay of blue and gold flowers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin dress, fashioned with a tight bodice and a scalloped berthia neckline. Her ballerina length hooped skirt was caught up on either side with white satin bows. She had a shoulder length veil and wore lace mitts. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, surrounded by baby mums and baby's breath, and tied with white satin streamers. For something borrowed, she wore a pin belonging to Miss Wall, and something old was the Bible she carried. Her dress was new, and she wore blue garters. She wore a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Dale Newsum was best man. Ushers were Willard Blair, brother of the bride, and Dale Brown, brother of the groom, both of Seagraves.

A reception was held at a local restaurant immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white linen cloth and was centered with the three tiered blue and gold wedding cake. Mrs. W. A. Blair of Seagraves presided, assisted by Misses Wall and Hamilton. Miss Velda Malcolm of Lubbock registered the guests.

For traveling, the bride chose a rose faille two piece suit, with navy blue and champagne accessories and an orchid corsage. After a wedding trip to Manitou, Colo., the couple will be at home in Brownfield after July 1.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brown are graduates of Brownfield high school. He is employed at J. B. Knight Furniture store here.

New Mexico Rites Unite Local Couple

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Butcher announce the marriage of their daughter, Christine, to Gene McWilliams, son of William McWilliams in Hobbs, N. M., June 17.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McWilliams attended Brownfield high school and he is a veteran of World War II.

The couple is making their home in Brownfield, where he is employed with Griggs-Goble Furniture store.

Shower Compliments Mrs. G. McWilliams

Complimenting Mrs. Gene McWilliams, the former Christine Butcher, a miscellaneous bridal shower was given at 216 W. Rippeo June 27. Hostesses were Miss Billie McCutcheon and Mrs. Margaret Daugherty.

The refreshment table was laid with a white lace cloth. Mrs. Daugherty served punch and cookies to approximately 25 guests.

Roses decorated the guest register, at which Miss McCutcheon presided.

Gee Gee's Chit Chat

Tomorrow is "Beautena's" birthday. Tomorrow (July 1) she'll be three months old, and Sonny's Feed and Supply is honoring her with a great big birthday party at their store on the Plains highway. Part of a nationwide demonstration by Purina dealers to prove the value of feeding a good ration to develop big dairy-quality heifers, for three months "Beautena" has been fed nothing but Purina Calf Starters and salt and water. She weighed 80 lbs. when the project started, and now weighs more than 154 lbs. Some lucky person will be the proud owner of "Beautena" after 3 p.m. tomorrow, at her birthday party. Tickets for a chance on Beautena are given away with the purchase of each bag of feed or seed at Sonny's store. Everyone is invited to the party.

Well, the big rodeo is over and the general consensus of opinion is that it was the "granddaddy of 'em all. Never have I encountered such enthusiasm on every corner over the third annual Junior Chamber of Commerce rodeo (held here last week end, in case you didn't know). Not only was the whole shebang well received, but the Jaycees, as well as the Terry County Sheriff's Posse and Steiner Brothers (who furnished the stock) and the rodeo performers and everyone else who had a hand in it outdid themselves in working and cooperating to make the three day celebration one of the most tremendous hits in the history of rodeos in Brownfield. A great big hand should be given to these persons who determined to have a great show and did it. Congratulations!

While on the subject of the rodeo, George Wade and Money Price, who ramrodded the rodeo parade, which was staged by the Terry County Sheriff's Posse, asked me to thank everyone for their swell cooperation in making this year's rodeo parade probably the best that Brownfield has ever seen. Wade and Price, on behalf of the Posse, extend their sincere thanks to the Jaycees, the merchants, the neighboring sheriff's posses, the Brownfield high school band and all other participants in the parade. George says that when you get cooperation like he and Money and the rest of the boys got this year, he wouldn't mind doing a lot of things—including being sheriff of Terry county. (I really don't know what he meant by THAT.)

We're right proud of ourselves last week for getting the paper out reasonably early and still being able to take in and enjoy the rodeo. Our own Edwin E. Duncan, who writes Flying News and Views each week in the Herald and does other "odd" jobs around the place, was the "bombardier" (on the plane flown by Roy D. Harris of Harris Flying Service) who scored a direct hit on the rodeo arena Saturday night, with Lynn Nelson's Wyler watch.

(Rudy Simmonds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Simmonds, was winner of the watch, which went through all sorts of abuse and still held together). Dunc, as he is known around the office, has himself, been a pilot for the past five years and has racked up eight at three hundred hours, flying in his spare time. And around this office, spare time comes pretty dear. He is also a plane owner having recently bought a Cessna 120. A heck of a swell fellow, Dunc, we feel, has really contributed a lot to our readers in keeping them posted on local "air doings," which are gaining popularity with leaps and bounds in West Texas and Terry county.

The boys from Brownfield who attended National Guard camp at North Camp Hood June 12-25, finally blew in Sunday morning, sunburned and full of chigger bites and knowledge about armored cavalry. Their new home, being built on the southwest side of Veterans Hall, is nearing completion, and the boys should be all settled with their new equipment in the new armory within a few weeks. If the Korean situation keeps straining at the bit, they may have to add another addition to the addition to take care of recruits. Anyway, the boys reported a very successful camp, and wait until you see them on parade, with their natty yellow neck-scarves. They look like something out of Esquire, but don't let that fool you. They're tough as nails, and show you if the need arises.

Speaking of something out of Esquire, have you happened to glance in the south show window at Collins this week? I don't know where the boys get their "unusual" items of apparel, but they come up with some dillies occasionally. These particular ones of which I'm speaking are simply plain old T-shirts or skivvie-shirts, as they are known in some circles. At any rate, some gay character has gotten hold of these "plain old T-shirts" and given them a run for their money. Being of the female species, the suntanned nudes displayed on some of the shirts are of no particular interest to me, but I did get a big bang out of the one depicting the body of a man leaning against a street lamp, his glazed eyes and dripping tongue hanging out of a wolf's head after a luscious creature gliding down the street.

Next Tuesday is July 4—Independence Day. The declaration of independence signed by our forefathers in 1776, 174 years ago, has stood many conflicts and much water has gone under the bridge in those years. But we, as American citizens, still are the "free" peoples in the world, and we should never forget it. Nor should we relinquish our prerogative in keeping our constitutional rights. We may not always be thankful that we are Americans, and we may not always believe that we have all our freedoms, but I, for one, am most grateful that I am an American. If I had my druthers, I'd druther be just what I am. I don't know of any other place in the entire world where Gee Gee's Chit Chat would be considered legal. (It may be a matter of opinion here, but, by golly, I have my rights.)

And so, little friends, remember this. While you are busy celebrating Independence Day, whatever it may mean to you, if you are on the highways, take care. 'Tis much more desirable to have your friends say on Wednesday morning, "Your eyes look like a couple of road maps" than to have them say, "They sure made him look natural, didn't they?"

Joyce Hinson, Chas. Shannon Married

In a ceremony read at 7:30 p.m. June 16 in the Meadow Methodist church, Miss Joyce Hinson daughter of Mrs. Clyde Faulkner of Meadow and H. R. Hinson of Eunice, N. M., became the bride of Charles Shannon of Ropesville, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Shannon of Ropesville.

Cecil Tunes, minister of the church, read the ceremony before an altar decorated with candelabra and bouquets of sweetpeas and asters and greenery. Wanda Shannon of Ropesville and sister of the groom, and Novella Jordan of Meadow lighted the candles.

Miss Alma Belew of Meadow was maid of honor. Best man was Billy Sims of Ropesville, and ushers were Dan Roberts, Donnie Reynolds, J. R. Hinson and Jerry Hinson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a beige suit with green accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Nuptial music was furnished by Betty Timmons and she also accompanied Pal Schwartz who sang "I Love You Truly."

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left for a trip to Colorado. For traveling Mrs. Shannon wore a yellow nylon dress with a carnation corsage. The couple is at home in Ropesville, where he is engaged in farming.

Mrs. Shannon is a graduate of Meadow high school. Mr. Shannon is a graduate of Ropesville high school and attended Texas Tech.

MRS. TRULY HONORED WITH SHOWER

A shower, given in the home of Mrs. Jim Finlay at 10 a.m. June 27, complimented Mrs. Clyde Truly. Other hostesses were Mesdames Tom Harris, Sam Teague and Bill Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wall and Doris, and his sister, Mrs. H. H. Garrard of Roswell, N. M., spent last week fishing at Possum Kingdom and visiting Mrs. Wall's brother, A. N. Whetsel and family at Big Spring.

Mrs. C. Coleman Party Honoree

On Monday night, June 12, a group of 40 friends met for a farewell picnic supper, honoring Mrs. Clyde Coleman, who is moving to Delano, Calif., where her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Helms, now live.

After a mock shower of clothing and luggage, Mrs. Coleman was presented luggage as a farewell gift.

With an eye to now and the future, in 1938-1942, the late Clyde Coleman, then mayor of Brownfield, planned and developed the park which bears his name. From an unattractive dune, the park was set with trees and shrubs to make a spot of beauty and usefulness for Brownfield.

Portwood Home Scene of Party

A bridge party given in the home of Mrs. John Portwood June 16 at 2:30 p.m., honored Mrs. Lee Brownfield on her birthday. Mrs. Grady Goodpasture was co-hostess.

Strawberry ice cream and cake were served to Mesdames John L. Cruce, C. C. Primm, J. T. Bowman, Truett Flache, N. L. Mason, Tom Harris, W. T. McKinney, the honoree, the hostesses and Miss Marian Wingerd.

Mrs. Cruce scored high and Mrs. McKinney was second high. Mrs. Bowman binged.

LAVONNE FRANKLIN BIRTHDAY HONOREE

We have the dope straight from one A. Y. Vyshinsky, a Kremlin high mogul, very recently, that informs us just how "democracy" is working in the Soviet Union. First off, he informs us slaves of the western world, that only the working man was given freedom of speech, assembly and for demonstrations. No freedom for non-laboring class. Just a few sentences later, however, Bro. Vyshinsky let the cat out of the bag. Speech for anyone is free so long as the Soviet setup is praised, and in assembly just so long as Boss Stalin is cheered. The press is also free so long as it follows the line laid down by its masters. Whether it be socialism or communism, they enforce the same kind of "freedom." When all power is concentrated in a government ruled by a few men, freedom ceases to be a practice, and becomes a theory only. And when government is concentrated in one or a few men, tyranny follows as sure as daylight follows the dark. Freedom is a great heritage given us by our founding fathers. Let's not treat this gift lightly. To do so is to invite slavery.

While the Herald believes that dishonesty should be exposed in high as well as low places in our government, we also believe that the press should show discretion in its criticism of public officials. Let us take the "trained seals" incident that has recently rocked the Louisiana State Senate, brought about by the editorial opinion of a New Orleans daily. The paper stated that the Louisiana Senate was like a bunch of trained seals, and jumped at the command of their trainer, Gov. Long, of that state. Of course such a statement was calculated to anger the Pelican State Senators. Naturally they did not want the people of Louisiana to think they were trained animals, always being told or shown what they must do. We have always heard that truth sometimes hurts. Anyway, most of the senators of that state thought better of trying to jail editors and muzzle the press of that state. Such a step might backfire. Even a "packed" Supreme Court might not agree with them.

Instead of the people of the ifornia. No, brother, it was not a government project. It was privately owned, taxpaying project—not tax exempt. And that is not all. That is just one of six such projects planned in the post-war era by a Pacific coast utility concern. The ultimate cost will run around $750 million dollars. These power plants will not be owned by just a few big shots, but by thousands of small stockholders, who have saved up a bit of money for a rainy day. America was built to its present greatness by such enterprises. On the other, socialism is a defeatist philosophy. It is entirely unnecessary in this country and contrary to American principles.

Probably not too much would be said about the government subsidizing this, and that and the other, if there was no discrimination. It has been brought out recently that while the railroads carry 94 percent of the US mail, and most all the bulky parcel post stuff that means have to be provided to efficiently handle. This includes separate mail coaches, with mail clerks to sort and properly sack mail for small towns along the rail lines, as well as those off the lines, isolated towns and villages. They get $27 million subsidy. On the other hand the air lines carry but 6 percent, yet they get a subsidy of $55 million dollars, and the mail is thrown off the air lines just like it was put on; no distribution as to destination. Carrying this idea of the government to the farms, we find that a grain buyer down at Fort Worth recently offered the government $1.90 per 100 pounds for eight million pounds of maize on which the government had placed a loan. He learned that the government had contracted to sell this maize to India for 85c per 100 pounds. Another thing, the Fort Worth buyer agreed to take the maize wherever stored, but the government agreed to load it aboard ships at seaports for India at this fire and smoke sale price. For the above as well as hundreds of other reasons, thousands of people are being convinced that the less the government gets in business the better for all concerned.

Last week's issue of the Crosbyton Review rather accuses east and southeast Texas of being responsible for the new set-up for cotton acreage control in 1951. Admittedly those sections would get the acreage taken away from the South Plains. But the man who introduced the bill is a Georgian, Representative Pace. Perhaps any shift in the delta area where there are large plantations, would be distributed to the "patch" farmers of Georgia and others of the old south. In talking with some of the farmers recently, who in this county might be classed as small farmers, they are getting just a bit fed up on controls, and some wish to hark back to the time when they could plant what they wished and as much as they liked without dictation. Many areas in even the new south Plains country, are showing a decided drop in rural population, and the same hold for the older sections of this and eastern states. The migration is to the towns, and especially the large cities. This has not been so noticeable here on the south Plains and the Mississippi delta. Take the small farmer of east Texas and the old south that have been working from 10 to 20 acres in cotton, then place a heavy handicap on him of a 33 percent reduction in acreage, and his crop is reduced to nil. On the other hand take the man with 300 acres or more in cotton, and the same cut leaves him with a fair acreage. Do you wonder that the easterner yells? We heard plenty such yells in both east Texas and the old states in May. And if the congressmen in those areas decide to go ahead with the plan of better distribution, as much as we would like to keep it as is, we fear there is nothing Congressman George Mahon and the people out here can do to keep it that way. The east has the votes.

We have noted for years that the Star-Telegram oil news section has studiously avoided mention of any town that happened to be near any wildcat oil well, pool opener or offset. There are two or three exceptions, those being Big Spring and Midland. For instance, if the Star-Telegram wants to give the location of a well, say in southeast Terry, they give the section No. and the block, and say it is so many miles from the Adair pool. We dare say that few people outside the oil boys in west Texas, and perhaps none elsewhere knows where the Adair pool is located, it being a new pool and not too

Mahon Announces For Re-election To Congress

Announcement of his candidacy for re-election to the House of Representatives from the 19th District of Texas is being made formally through the press of the District by Congressman George Mahon. Mahon has met filing requirements in all the counties of the District.

"It now appears," Mahon said, "that congress will be in session up to and beyond July 22, the date of the primary, and I will have very little opportunity to visit and campaign over the district. I thus am taking this method of again presenting my candidacy to the voters of the 19th District."

By virtue of his congressional tenure at the will of the voters, only 47 of the 435 members of the House are now senior to Mahon. By reason of congressional seniority procedure, this gives the 19th District a position of prestige possessed by relatively few areas in the country. Mahon ranks No. 3 on the powerful House Appropriations Committee and is chairman of the subcommittee handling appropriations for the armed services.

Said Mahon in his announcement: "As your representative in Washington, I have been confronted with many difficult problems, as has been the case with you folks at home. You have co-

"We are now in a very dangerous and difficult time in the history of the nation, and as the representative from the 19th District, I am seeking as best I can to measure up to the terrific responsibilities confronting our government."

Mahon said he wanted to thank the people for the wonderful support they had given him through the years and that he would continue to do everything in his power to do a good job in Washington for the people of the 19th District.

At this time, in addition to his regular assignments, Mahon is aggressively seeking to prevent passage of a pending proposal which would shift a large portion of the West Texas cotton acreage allotment to Central and South Texas in 1951.

Earlier in the session Mahon secured approval by the House of the bill he handles which provides funds for the operation of the Army, Navy and Air Force. The Senate has not yet passed the measure and final agreement between the House and the Senate cannot be secured until this is done.

LOTS OF LOBSTER — Larry Shea, of Newport, R. I., compares an average one-pound lobster with a 17 1/2-pound monster recently caught off the Newport shore by a fishing dragger. Too big to get into the average lobster pot, the 37-inch crustacean was hauled aboard by fishermen with a boat hook.

THE DEPARTMENT IN CONGRESS BAD

By Don Robinson, in The American Press

If I visited Congress every day like a Washington correspondent does, I might become accustomed to the bad manners of our national representatives. But since I only get to Washington now and then, it is still very shocking to me to see our nation's leaders putting on a daily exhibit of outrageous deportment.

I use the word "deportment" because I imagine most of the thousands of daily visitors to Congress compare the House of Representatives with a classroom of mischievous schoolboys and visualize what would happen to Junior if he behaved in such deplorable fashion in his hometown public school.

In schools, those who talk, laugh and cavort while others are speaking can be sent to the principal's office, sent home, or expelled. But in the House of Representatives the speaker can only bang patiently with his gavel and ask and pray for order.

It may be excusable for Congressmen to see some escape from listening to long-winded speeches by their conferees, but if they are bored or disinterested they have the right to leave the floor of the House. Certainly there is no excuse for grown-up men, when under constant surveillance by boys and girls from all over the nation, to act in such fashion that the Speaker has to bang for order a dozen times an hour.

I hope any editor who visits Washington will check the deportment of Congress and write about it when he gets home. Country editors are so well respected in Washington that they may be able to force order by long-distance editorials better than the Speaker can do it with his gavel.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne (Red) Smith and children left Saturday for a two week vacation in San Francisco, and other points in California.

Terry County HD Council News

Miss Patsy Anne Moore, 4-H girl from Wellman gave a demonstration "Making Cottage Cheese Salads" at the Terry County Home Demonstration Council Saturday afternoon. She is winner of a county contest on Dairy Foods Demonstrations and is to give the demonstration at Texas A. & M. College.

After this interesting and informative program, the council held its regular business meeting. Several reports were given. The 4-H sponsors reported that $20 was turned in from the proceeds of the play "Moonlight and Applesauce," which was held at Wellman and given by the Union 4-H club women. This money was to be used to help send 4-H members to the annual round-up.

Delegates to the State convention nominated by the clubs were introduced as follows: Mrs. Kellie Sears, Gomez; Mrs. Lloyd Holloway, Johnson; Mrs. Ralph Murray, Harmony; Mrs. Doc Settles, Needmore; Mrs. Mollie Perkins, Tokio; Mrs. Della Benton, Union; and Mrs. Roy Moore, Wellman.

Mrs. Lee Bartlett was the only nominee for THDA chairman.

Three delegates and a THDA chairman will be elected by council in July. These delegates will represent Terry county at the state convention to be held in Big Spring August 23, 24, and 25.

Refreshments were served by the agent Miss Helen Dunlap and the council chairman Mrs. A. J. Bell to representatives from nine of the eleven clubs of the county.

A training school "Scoring of Canned Products" will be held June 30 at 2:00 P. M.

Miss Dunlap distributed Pen Jel and Malt-O-Meal samples to council members and gave several good bulletins to leaders

Suggests We Take Brownfield Census Over

People of Brownfield: I think most of Brownfield is wondering if the Brownfield census of 1950 was correctly counted. It might not be 9,000 as some expected, but 6,160 was a little low. Why not take the census over and see for ourselves? Seagraves took their census over and found many people that had not been counted. Why not let's try—A Brownfield Citizen.

Editor's Note: The local papers ran several blanks during the census taking, to get people who may not have been counted on the dotted line. As late as it is now we doubt if any figures that are made by private people would from each club to be taken back to the membership of their clubs. These included bulletins on Insect Control, Desserts, Picnic Recipes, Stain Removal, and Making Jelly.

Council Meets again July 8.

be taken by the census department. Perhaps we should have offered $1 each for names like they did at Lubbock and Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hoy had as their guests Sunday her sister, Mrs. A. N. Baldwin of Lubbock, and his sister, Mrs. Loyd Hill of Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballard had as their guests over the week end her father, L. W. Landrum, and her sister, Mrs. Arthur Sammon and family all of Tulsa.

Malcolm learned this work while with the Air Force in the late war, and his outdoor work shows a master hand. Thanks Malcolm!

BOAT OWNER GETS THE BIRD—What to do with a duck on the deck presented a knotty problem for boat owner Fred G. Clarke, Jr. of Seattle, Wash. This mallard hen assumed command of the craft by selecting a coil of rope on its foredeck to deposit a clutch of nine eggs. Not wishing to disturb the wild waterfowl in the performance of her motherly duties, Clarke had to turn the boat over to the hen during the three-week incubation period.

Fogging the Burg-Bottle Busters Here

One did not have to have a very clear vision Tuesday night to find that the city street and alley crew was busy fogging the alleys. Your nose told you that. Here of late the flies have begun to stir out, and the object was to nip them in the bud before they get rank. Too dry this year for mosquitos.

Speaking of alleys and streets, there is a "smart" bunch of boys that drive up and down the streets breaking bottles, glass jars and other glass ware in the streets. This is not only against the law, but is positively dangerous to drivers as it is likely to cause a blowout. Then little bare-footed children crossing the streets are likely to get a glass sliver in their feet.

Some of these boys with this rude idea of fun burst a large glass container in front of a home where several were sitting out early this week. It was a bit too dark to get the license number, but they did get the color of the car and turn it in to the mayor.

Officers are now checking that color of car and who usually drives such a color. A good stiff fine and maybe revoking their license might stop their bottle busting career.

Negro Section In Bad Condition Mayor C. C. Primm and some if not all the councilmen were over in the colored section of Brownfield Monday night, making a survey with the idea of taking it into the city, as the sanitary situation is getting out of hand, and could cause trouble.

They found that the parcel of land, some 25 or 30 acres had been sold to the Negroes, with no plotting, arrangement for streets and alleys or any semblance of system. In fact, City Secretary Bill Aschenbeck informed us that one house might be across what was supposed to be an alley, and then another might be where a street should be.

The officials were doubtful if anything can ever be done about the matter now. And some think the Mexican section is almost as bad.

Bob Whitney was a business visitor in Paris, Texas, last week.

Bronco Gets New Methodist Church

Repairs and remodeling have already been started on a building, purchased from the Denver City Baptist church, to be known as the Bronco, N. M., Methodist church, according to D. C. Newson, a member of the board of stewards.

The church, of which the Rev. Joe Bickley of Tatum, N. M., is minister, will be located on the south side of the Tatum highway.

The board of stewards is composed of Newson, Bobby Fields, S. E. Campsey and Anita Field.

Newson and his son, Doyle, recently purchased the Bronco from C. F. Reynolds. They moved to Bronco from Wilson.

'Annie Get Your Gun' To Be At Rialto

"Annie Get Your Gun," Broadway's fabulous hit which played to an audience of one million, five hundred thousand spectators during its three year stage run, now has been brought to the screen by M-G-M and emerges as the biggest, most spectacular and most tuneful Technicolor treat to be offered filmgoers in the history of screen musicals. The new offering which opens soon at the Rialto Theatre, will remain for three days.

With the vivacious Betty Hutton in a made-to-order role as the rough and ready marksman, Annie Oakley, and with stage star Howard Keel making and auspicious film debut as Frank Butler, the man whom Annie "can't get with a gun," this exuberant and eye filling picture unfolds against colorful backgrounds of Wild West shows replete with cowboys and Indians, tribal dances, stunt riding, shooting contests, buffalo stampedes and all sorts of rootin' tootin' activities centered around the famous figure of old West folklore—Buffalo Bill.

The infectious Betty Hutton reaches the peak of her popularity in the role of the lovable, homespun Annie who can't read or write but who sings and shoots her way to triumph before royalty on a grand European tour and eventually into the heart of the man she loves. Howard Keel scores an outstanding hit in his first motion picture role. A handsome young actor with a superb singing voice, he is an admirable romantic foil for Miss Hutton. A topnotch group of actors is seen in support of the stars, among them Louis Calhern as the delightful Buffalo Bill, J. Carroll Naish as Sitting Bull, the Sioux chief who adopts Annie, Edward Arnold as Pawnee Bill, Keenan Wynn as the amusing and glib-tongued company manager, Benay Venuta as Annie's rival and Clinton Sundberg as the harassed hotel owner.

"Annie Get Your Gun" shoots along at a furious pace and it's a smash hit square in the bull's eye!

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Skiles and family attended the wedding of Miss Beatrice Cox and Nevada St. Claire, in Hart, Texas recently.

Hopes The Rural Telephones Ok'd

The Herald, among other business and professional institutions in Brownfield and throughout the south Plains are in hopes that Messrs. S. J. Allen of Lamesa and Tom Garrard of Tahoka are successful in getting a loan at Washington for putting in rural telephones throughout this area. This is a long felt want, and as we have stated on more than one occasion there were more rural phones when we came here 41 years ago than now.

Before anyone misunderstands, and thinks these men are in Washington for a free handout, be undeceived. They seek a loan, just like farmers get loans from the government to build REA lines. They get long term loans from the government to build these rural electrification lines, and the money is repaid to the government over a long time at a low rate of interest.

Rural telephones are of value to a community in more ways than one. One is that in case of disaster in a given community, nearby farms can immediately call for aid, ambulances, doctors, etc. Especially is this true in regard to explosions, storms, and other disasters.

THREE NEW GRAIN SORGHUM VARIETIES

Three new grain sorghum varieties have been developed by plant breeders of the Texas Agricultural Experiment station and released to certified seed breeders for increase, it has been announced. The new varieties are Combine Kafir 60, Redbine 60 and Redbine 66.

The Station will have additional seed at the end of this season for distribution through county agents for demonstration plantings in 1951.

OF MICE AND MONKEYS—Cynics have been heard to comment that feminine hat stylists, who have used everything including the kitchen sink for their creations, should go to the zoo for fresh inspiration. A Chicago designer did just that, and came up with the headgear pictured above. The straw topper at left, entitled "Three Blind Mice," sports a trio of rodents complete with trap and artificial cheese. Two monkeys perch at a rakish angle atop the simian style at right. Both are modeled by Penny Karno.

Good Information About Diabetes

AUSTIN — Death rates from diabetes is three times as high in diabetics whose condition was not discovered until after complications developed than for patients whose illness was recognized and brought under treatment before advance symptoms appeared.

Based on recently completed national studies, this was revealed Thursday by State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox.

Diabetes has not always been a public health problem, the health officer declared. "It became one when we found the death rate is much greater when the condition is discovered late."

"Public education makes for lower diabetes death rates, and public education in such matters is a health department job. Dr. Cox told this story about diabetes:

It used to be that many diabetic patients sought treatment only after having developed serious complications. A considerable number of all diabetics examined at autopsy showed active pulmonary tuberculosis.

The discovery of insulin gave physicians a specific treatment for prolonging patients' lives, even before it was entirely clear what the disease was and what its effects were. Thus, even after event took place with insulin therapy, eventually leading to the realization that early discovery means longer life.

"Diabetes Mellitus" — called sugar diabetes by some people — is a condition in which the body cannot properly process the sugar it needs. The result is chronic thirst, hunger, and weakness. Eventually, without insulin, the patient will literally starve to death. Insulin injections will correct the faulty body processes.

"In 1949, there were 739 diabetes deaths in Texas," Dr. Cox said. "By comparison, that same year there were only 189 polio deaths."

"It's the family physician who is in best position to discover diabetes or a pre-diabetic condition. That's just one more point in favor of regular medical check-ups," the doctor concluded.

"Whitey" Hughes and Wife Call On Us

Got started pretty well in rumbolling around last week with real old timers, R. E. "Whitey" Hughes and wife. He is the son of the late R. R. Hughes and wife, and a brother of Dr. H. H. Hughes, city. Mrs. Hughes is the daughter of the late Jim Smith, and his wife, who is now living with another son-in-law and wife in Colorado.

We didn't have much time to gabfest, but we did bring up a lot of funny things that happened back when, including the one wherein the son of the ex-editor of the Herald got polluted one Christmas and shot a hole in the printing office stove pipe with a twelve gauge shotgun. "Whitey" and his brother, Clay, were our first employees in the Herald office.

Clay now lives out near Cloudcroft on his ranch, and "Whitey" wanted to know why we didn't go out and kill a deer some time. We remarked that walking was out with us. "You won't have to walk," says "Whitey", "You can sit on his gallery and kill one."

Yeah, but the trouble is Clay has extended no invitation, so far. Anyway, the Hugheses will get their Herald regularly out at Albuquerque, N. M.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

I am, of all things, a do-gooder. I admit it. But I am sailing under no false banner, where I claim all my do-gooding is just for the other guy, exclusive. There is no substitute for the truth.

I am on this subject on account 600 professional do-gooders met here recent-like for 3 days and told how they are bleeding, dying and suffering for the welfare of the rest of us poor souls. And now to blurt out the truth, these 600 are on the generous payroll of the State or the Counties or the Colleges. "Welfare" is their bread and butter. They must make welfare click, just like if you sell tires or ice boxes, etc. You boost your goods.

My do-gooding today is for the protection of my insurance—fire and life. And since just about everybody has insurance — and wants it to stay safe—we can all get in bed together and make a double-jointed job of our do-good endeavor—and no camouflage.

Here's how. When you hear some political gent harangue about cutting all big or man's size business down to boy's size, pick up a postcard. Tell him your insurance company depends for its income upon the interest it gets in many and various big companies. Tell him to lay off—he is deteriorating the safety of your insurance—his insurance, too. That might wake him up.

Yours with the low down, JO SERRA

SARDINE SHORTAGE STUDIED

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — What hits the sardine population? Dr. Yoshio Hiyama doesn't know, but he's looking for a link between the wartime decline in the Japanese sardine haul and the one that struck California fishermen in 1946 and 1947.

One reason is that last year the sardine catch increased both here and in Japanese waters. Dr. Hiyama is professor of fisheries at Tokyo Imperial University. He is here to study American commercial fishing methods — and like many experts, he is looking for an explanation of why sardine runs vary so much.

THROW IT BACK? — Gar Wood, of Detroit and Miami Beach, who won world fame as a speedboat racer, thought he had done pretty well by landing this 447-pound tuna off Bimini in the Bahamas Islands. But judges of the Bimini Tuna Tournament called it a little too small to enter in the competition.

Twenty six members and one out of town visitor attended the meeting.

FAIRWAY FASHION—American golfers might be a bit startled to see a caddy dressed like this, but Parisian designers have conspired to splash a bit of color on the golf course by attiring the ball-hawks in beige "plus fours" topped by a brown jacket, scarlet cap and brown calf shoes with flaps and squared toes. Pigskin gloves and a scarlet and blue umbrella complete the outfit.

VA Instructions On Home Loans Under Public Law 475

The VA has issued instructions setting October 20, 1950, as the effective date of the provisions of Public Law 475, terminating combination, or second mortgage loans as provided originally in the GI Bill. The provisions of the law require that this type loan be discontinued Dec. 31, 1950.

As a means of making a smooth transition, four dates have been established by the VA for four successive steps. These steps are as follows:

After July 20, 1950, prior approval of second mortgage loans will generally be withheld unless the first mortgage loan is at a rate of 4 1/4 per cent or less.

BIRMINGHAM NEWSPAPERMAN HERE VISITING

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Russell of Birmingham, Ala., were here this week visiting Mrs. Russell's brother, J. L. Milsap and family. This was their first trip out here. They also visited briefly in El Paso and Juarez, Mexico, while here.

Mr. Russell paid the Herald a call for a fraternal conversation. He is an attorney as well as a newspaperman.

After August 20, 1950, guaranty will generally be refused on supervised loans, except where the first mortgage loan is at 4 1/4 per cent or less.

After September 20, 1950, certificates of loan approval will not be issued on new applications for prior approval on FHA-VA combination loans.

After Oct. 20, 1950, combination loans will not be guaranteed. All loans already in process prior to this date will be completed.

More About New Housing Bill Public Law 475

The government guaranty payment was not increased; it remains as in the old law, 4 per cent of the first $4,000 guaranteed, thus not exceeding $160.

Some veterans who have used their entitlement may have their loan rights restored if their property has been destroyed by fire or other natural hazard.

The Federal National Mortgage Association (Fanny Mae) is now authorized to purchase GI and FHA loans made by private lending agencies. It is believed loans for farm dwellings will now be made easier to obtain.

Widows may have loans: 75,000 widows whose husbands were killed in World War II are now eligible for GI loans guaranteed by the VA provided they have not

TALL TAIL TEST—Fifty feet above the floor of a hangar at Ames Aeronautical Laboratory, Moffett Field, Calif., technicians install pressure measuring equipment in the towering tail of the Navy's Lockheed Constitution transport plane. Research flights will provide valuable data on tail loads during flight of very large aircraft. The Constitution, with a wingspan of 189 feet, will have a maximum weight of approximately 80 tons during the tests.

re-married. Type Of Discharge No Bar For POW Claims

The type of discharge or reason for separation from service has no bearing on eligibility for payments by the War Claims Commission. Therefore veterans who may be barred from VA benefits because of their discharge other than honorable should not be denied their privilege of making application to the War Claims Commission for POW payments.

Retired Group Gets Extended Benefits

Public Law 473, 81st Congress, approved April 17, 1950, authorizes the extension of officers' retirement benefits to persons who, while serving as enlisted men in the Army during WW II, were given battlefield promotions to an officer grade and were incapacitated for active service as a result of enemy action. These men will now be permitted to receive retirement as officers.

The new law amends Public Law 351, "The Career Compensation Act of 1949," which provided retirement benefits initially and increased benefits in many cases to retired officers who have also had service in the National Guard and Reserve, as well as in wartime. A number of former enlisted men, who had been granted battlefield promotions for valor but were so injured as to prevent acceptance for continuance in officer grades have been denied the privilege of retirement in the higher grades. This new law will correct this situation.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending June 17, 1950, were 27,243 compared with 25,009 for same week in 1949. Cars received from connections totaled 10,708 compared with 9,611 for same week in 1949. Total cars moved were 37,951 compared with 34,700 for same week in 1949.

Santa Fe handled a total of 35,566 cars in preceding week of this year.

Mahon Fears Big Cotton Acreage Cut

Representative George Mahon has reported to the local PMA office that the House Committee on Agriculture is seriously considering the approval of a bill by Congressman Pace of Georgia which would, among other things, drastically reduce cotton acreage allotments in West Texas next year. Mahon states that he has been advised by officials of the Department of Agriculture that under the proposal by Mr. Pace the 19th Congressional district would sustain a loss next year of 355,000 acres of cotton. These acres would go principally to Central and South Texas.

Mahon has appealed to PMA officials in Washington and College Station to seek to be of assistance in preventing the drastic reshuffling of the cotton acreage allotments for Texas. He also appeared last week before members of the House Committee on Agriculture to protest the proposed action, and he states that he will continue to do everything in his power in behalf of the cotton producers of West Texas.

The 25-county 19th Congressional District received an allotment this year in excess of 2,300,000 acres of cotton which is more than one-third of the allotment received by the entire state of Texas. Mr. Pace insists that the acreage this year for the entire 19th District was too high by about 355,000 acres. Mahon pointed out that the allotments this year were based on 1947 and 1948 plantings and that West Texas received a greater allotment because of heavy plantings in 1947 and 1948, and that other sections of the state would have had larger allotments had they chosen to plant greater acreages of cotton in 1947 and 1948.

The outcome of the pending proposal is uncertain, but Mahon pointed out that the threat of drastic reduction in West Texas is a serious one.

Is It Awful?

Just about every newspaper has printed the tale defining the various ists with the two cows. It took the Arizona Progress to enlarge and enhance the story.

CAPITALISM: If you have two cows, you sell one and buy a bull. As nature takes its inevitable course your herd increases in size, value and productivity.

SOCIALISM: If you have two cows the government takes both of them and gives you back a little skim milk. This is known as the redistribution of wealth.

COMMUNISM: If you have two cows the government shoots you, milks your cows and issues a manifesto to the effect that milk is a poisonous secretion produced only by capitalistic mammals.

BRANNAN PLAN: If you have two cows, the government shoots the bull—and then milks the taxpayer.

IDEALISM: If you have two cows you imagine that one is a bull and wait expectantly for a miracle to happen. It never does.

REALISM: If you have two cows, both of them have gone dry.

RUGGED INDIVIDUALISM: If you have two old cows that have gone dry you can sell them to another rugged individualist at twice their value and then damn the government because you must pay a tax on the profit.

MARXISM: If you have two cows, you're a capitalist.

POWER? Sure! Here's a whole bonnetful of Fireball straight-eight power.

Room? Plenty—in big, sofa-wide seats and generous room for elbows and shoulders.

Style? Well take a look—see anything on the road today that is so smart, so sleek, so quickly spotted?

But that's just a start in this beauty. Here you're going to meet the "ride of a lifetime"—smooth, level-going comfort in the quite matchless Buick manner.

Only Buick has Dynaflow—and with it goes: HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.)

Just see why this is so:

Most cars have coil springs in front. Buick has them all around.

Most cars now ride on low-pressure tires. Buick adds to them Safety-Ride rims to cut heel-over and sway.

Most cars drive through the rear springs, which means they have to be stiff. Buick drives through a firm torque-tube that takes up driving thrust and roughness.

And no other car—no, not a single one—has all these comfort extras plus husky frames plus Hi-Poised engine mountings plus middle-of-the-car seating plus the extra silkiness of Dynaflow Drive.*

Worth something? You bet it is. But it's riding luxury that doesn't show up in the price tags. Figures start at levels lower than on many sixes—yet every Buick has this matchless array of ride features.

Better come learn about them—by firsthand trial. Can you see your Buick dealer today?

We have heard farmers discuss spraying or dusting for cotton insects pro and con, but those in favor are usually those who have tried it. The others seemed to question the idea of whether the expense meets the good that might accrue from dusting or spraying.

Frankly we would not know the answer, but we saw some farms that lost many bales of cotton last year from ravishes of thrips, sharpshooters, fleahoppers, or whatever the name of bugs that sting young squares and cause them to fall off. However, we know so little about the matter that we are not prepared to say that the cost of spraying would have been taken care of in additional yield.

We do know this however, that boll weevils were very bad in the old states last year. They spend a lot of money there for fertilizer, and usually make a bale and half or more per acre. But many got less than a half bale last year. And already, they report that some fields are badly infested, there being a count of 2500 weevils to the acre.

But what we started out to tell you, was that the Goodpasture Grain and Milling have the spray material on hand, known as Kiltone. And they state that one may fasten the spray tank on the cultivator and spray and cultivate in one operation.

It is by no means too early to investigate, and be ready for the bugs when they appear. When cotton is bringing as much as 30c a pound, it is decidedly too costly to let the bugs eat it.

SENDS THE HERALD TO HIS DAUGHTER

J. S. Corning, one of the old timers of Terry, was in this week to get the Herald started to his daughter, Mrs. Retha Cardwell at Polina, N. M.

Mr. Corning stated that it was too much trouble to come in every year, so he had us date his daughters' paper up two years.

Lynn County Old Settlers Do It Again

By invitation we had a seat in Bob Noble's car to the old settlers reunion at Tahoka last Saturday. Bob never misses, even though he came near being a Territe, as he was reared only a mile from the line, and part of the Noble ranch was in Terry county in the Westpoint community. Dad and Mother Noble were unable to attend and the rest of the family were busy. So, Bob and the writer had a car all to ourselves.

As usual there was a good crowd on hand that are still Lynn countians, and when the Exes are added, and guests, like the writer, there is always a great gathering. For instance, Matt Smith of Yoakum county, and Uncle Jack Blankenship of this city never miss. And there was Dan Davis of Amarillo. He was seen about lunch time. Anyway, it is always worth your time and more to visit this reunion. Your change is no good over there—everything is paid for—and you just help yourself when hungry or thirsty.

We, as well as others, have often wondered why Terry county does not have a Pioneer Reunion yearly. Is it selfishness, or do we just lack leaders? Your guess is as good as ours. This year the sessions were held at the Legion hall, as it was very hot and the hall is air conditioned. But the eats were as usual, served in the city park. And such a feast.

The main speaker of the morning was a Rev. Dick O'Brian, Baptist minister of Big Spring, who was reared down in old Comanche, and knows west Texas like a book. He is witty—note his name again—and got many hearty laughs from the audience. Truett Smith and other made short talks. Oscar Roberts, the president seemed to be very busy with details of the barbecue lunch, and R. D. Weatherby acted as master of ceremonies.

The afternoon affair was given over to music, a stringed orchestra, some singing and tap dancing, as well as an oration from Hobert Nelson, former Tahokaite and others. The afternoon session was quite short.

We thank Editor Frank Hill for his many courtesies, one of them was in having us sit down in the shade at the park, while he rustled our lunch. All the Hill family are really nice folks.

W. S. Copeland of California, was here this week visiting his son, who operates a Magnolia Station out on the Seagraves road. W. S. was an old timer here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Evans and family of North Carolina are here visiting her brother, Harmon Howze and family.

REED MAKING RACE FOR LT. GOVERNOR

W. O. Reed

A state government, like a family, should live within its income. W. O. Reed, former speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, declared this week as he vigorously pushed his campaign for Lieutenant Governor.

Reed, who is now serving his ninth consecutive term in the Legislature from Dallas county, is well qualified to speak with authority on economy in government, for he has actually done something about it.

He was the author of the pay-as-you-go law which put Texas on a cash basis and prevents the Legislature from spending money it does not have. While Reed was Speaker in 1947-48, he directed legislation which resulted in a surplus of over $90,000,000 in the general revenue fund at the end of his term.

"Additional taxes are not the answer to the rising cost of state government," he declared. "I am definitely opposed to any kind of a general sales tax, income tax or gross receipts tax."

"I firmly believe that if common sense and practical business economy are used in running our state, Texas can halt the runaway cost of governmental expenditures."

"As your Lieutenant Governor, I pledge that I will strive to give the people of Texas the same progressive debt-free government that I helped direct when Speaker of the House of Representatives in 1947-48," Reed concluded.

Monday Is The Monthly Trades Day

Here 'tis again, before we hardly expected it—trades or if you wish, Dollar Day. Several of the local merchants are featuring Dollar Day items. In one case at least one of the merchants is having an extension built on to their building, and things are so torn up, they hated to face a Dollar Day this month.

Anyway, there will be many, many items priced much lower than usual. So come and get 'em. This is a sort of waiting spell between planting and chopping, so, unless there is rain in the meantime, most farmers will have nothing else much to do than come to town that day.

George Black, one of the pioneer settlers of Terry county, was up this week visiting relatives and friends. He lives at Asherton, Texas, some nine miles south of Carrizo Springs, county seat of Dimmitt county.

Mrs. F. E. Walters of Tahoka, and a pioneer settler of Terry county, was brought over by two of her daughters this week to catch a bus to Carlsbad, N.M., where she will visit another daughter and family.
