Prominent Cisco Business Man and Civic Leader Died Monday Evening

James Joseph Collins, 62, prominent Cisco hardware merchant and civic leader, died in a local hospital Monday at 5:45 p. m. following a minor automobile accident some two hours earlier. Death was attributed to shock. The accident occurred at 4:30 p. m. at 5th Street and Avenue J, when the car driven by Mr. Collins was in collision with a car driven by Martha Whitaker, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitaker of Cisco. Investigating officers reported that the accident was unavoidable, and that neither driver was at fault. Only slight damage was done to the cars involved. Mr. Collins, who recently underwent major surgery in a Fort Worth hospital, collapsed several minutes after the accident and was rushed to the hospital. Mr. Collins was born in Newport, England, on July 31, 1886, and moved to Cardiff, Wales, with his family shortly after receiving an invitation from an uncle, John J. Collins, who was in the saddle and harness making business in Cisco, to visit him here. He accepted the invitation against the wishes of his family and friends, and arrived in Cisco for what was expected to be a short visit in August of that year. On Christmas Day in 1905 Mr. Collins was still in Cisco and on that day was married to Miss Willie Mary Bellew in the home of his uncle and aunt. She was the niece of Mrs. John J. Collins and had been raised in the Collins home. The marriage of Jim Collins and Mary Bellew made an ardent Cisco citizen of Jim and removed all desire of returning to England from his heart. In 1908 Jim and his uncle went into business for themselves and called the firm the Collins Saddlery Co. The elder Collins died in 1918 and the name of the business was changed to the Collins Hardware Company. Mr. Collins remained active in the store until the time of his death. Mr. Collins was a tireless civic worker, having at different times in his career served as city commissioner, president of the chamber of commerce, chief of the Cisco fire department, and president of the Rotary club of which he was a charter member. He always served his community in any manner in which he was called upon. He was a member of the Catholic Church. He is survived by his wife, who with Mr. Collins celebrated their 42nd wedding anniversary on Christmas Day; one son, Cornelius (Con), who was associated with his father in business; three daughters, Ida Mae Collins of Fort Worth, Mrs. Agnes Richardson of Denver City and Mrs. Katherine Abbott of Cisco, and two grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday at the Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Cisco with Father Augustus Merkel in charge. Rosary will be said at 8 p. m. today at Thomas Chapel, also by Father Merkel. Burial will be in Oakwood following the funeral services Wednesday. Thomas Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements. Pallbearers will be E. J. Keough, George Ruppert, J. E. Proctor, Hal Lavery, S. H. Nance, and F. E. Shepard.

More than 13 teams have replied to the announcement, including seven girl quintets and six boy teams. Championship finals will be played off Saturday night.

Wranglers Take Opening Conference Tilt from Decatur By 60-50 Score

An air tight defense and consistent scoring enabled Cisco's Junior College Wranglers to rout a strong Decatur quintet, 60-50, in the opening of the North Division Junior College basketball conference there Monday night.

The game turned out as Coach Stormy Davis had wished it would, since Monday night's encounter was the second of the series. Earlier, the Wildcats slipped up on the Wranglers, 40-29. Not until the second half did the Wranglers pull off any kind of scoring rally that even looked as though they intended to win the game. Down to a 28-26 half time score, Cisco trailed the Wildcats into the winding minutes of the round ball meet.

Then big Leon Parrish, angular forward, pulled the Ciscoans' big guns to the front four minutes after the intermission and paced the hometowners into striking distance of the Wildcats' baskets, scoring 20 of the points. Spec Tomkins nabbed second highest scoring honors with a neat 16 and Leonard Grisby, first year man, followed with 15 points.

Fate nearly overtook the Ciscoans in the opening rounds of the match when Spec Tomkins and James Swanner were called with four fouls apiece. However the basket punching twins were able to refrain from any further fouling and went on with the team to the win. Substitution was frequent for both sides with blonde head Charles Adair and Bobby Travis, 1948 Lobo star, making outstanding debuts on the court in Monday's affair.

Coach Stormy Davis' cagers will move the conference fust into home soil Thursday night when Hillsboro, the conference's biggest threat, meets the Wranglers at 7:30 at the City's gymnasium.

Hillsboro boasts a cage five built solely on lettermen and in order to take measures against their winning the season's first home game, Davis is calling for extra drills. No injuries are hampering the Ciscoans' bids in the conference, as yet.

The norther which had its origin high up in the Rockies brought colder weather to much of the central and eastern portion of the nation. The sudden temperature change was accompanied by a drop in barometric pressure, causing high winds in Arkansas and Louisiana, resulting in the deaths of more than 50 persons and millions of property losses.

Forecasts call for fair and continued cold Tuesday night with slowly rising temperatures Wednesday. The temperature in Cisco at 2 p. m. Tuesday was 32 degrees.

Quiet New Year Observed by Ciscoans; High School Is Scene of Vandalism

Ciscoans, old and young, ushered in the new year over a week-end in a quiet manner, a check of the City Police "blotter" revealed.

According to the police, complaints of noise from celebrators' exploding fire crackers, which echoed in virtually every section of the city, were "few and far between" as compared to last year. On the whole, the announcing of the new year was the quietest and most joyfully observed Cisco has witnessed since the turning of the decade.

Last year, Ciscoans and West Texans alike, were digging out from under an eight-inch snow that began falling early New Year's Day, accompanied by ice and sub-freezing temperatures.

However, this New Year's Eve, mild and sunny weather enabled most happy celebrants to leave the fire side and participate in the various "watch parties" held by the churches and elsewhere over the city.

Charles Cofer, chairman of entertainment of the Cisco Country Club, reported this year's annual Christmas and New Year's dance an over-all success. More than 200 members and guests attended the affair.

Business at the City Police station was dull, dropping somewhat below the predictions of police officials. Police Sergeant, Clyde Weathers of the night force received a number of reports of pranks by youths and a bulk of misdemeanors. A few "family squabbles" were called to the attention of police.

Early Sunday night patrolmen arrested two youths believed connected with a theft of $45 taken from a woman employee of the Texas and Pacific Railroad. After a questioning of both boys by railroad detectives and local officers, the supposedly stolen money was found in the baggage case of the employee. The case and charges were dismissed, police said.

Elsewhere over the city, police were investigating reports by school officials here in connection with Thursday and Friday's "paint brush" raid on Cisco High.

White paint, school officials showed investigators, was poured from a gallon bucket found nearby on the front steps and doors of the red brick building and the initials R. H. S. (Ranger) were found painted on the wings and windows of the building.

Ranger police and school officials were summoned and an investigation is now underway in the neighboring city in an effort to uncover the identity of the vandals who left calling cards on the Cisco school building. Some questioning by officials here was conducted in the morning assembly hour of C. H. S. Monday.

Police and school officials, warned trespassers the continuation of destruction to school property would be punished severely by heavy fine or jail sentence, if convicted of the felony.

Only four men offenders, charged with drunkenness, were placed in the city jail over the week-end. One violator was fined $25 and the others paid similar fines.

Local Association Plans For Spring Livestock Show

Officers and directors of the Cisco Livestock Show Association, laid the ground work for a bigger and better annual Eastland County Livestock Show to be held in Cisco on March 25 and 26. The plans call for added classes in the livestock division, an enlarged horse show and an increase in the premium funds.

In an effort to make the Cisco show the best little show in this section, the officials voted to increase the total cash prizes from $500 to $650. The cash prizes will be in addition to ribbons and trophies to be used in the horse show.

A committee was appointed by President Myrick to work out the details for covering the stalls to be used for the horse show and to study the possibility of erecting new sheds for this year's show.

It was decided to begin at once on the preparation of the bulletin and program for the show and Willard P. Knight, local advertising man, was given the job of making the layout and contacting call for having the bulletin in the hands of all club boys and prospective advertisers. The plans stockmen over the area by February 15.

Early plans call for the using of tents which are available to the organization for housing some of the animals brought for display. It was planned to have sufficient housing to take care of all animals exhibited.

Entertainment plans were discussed and committees were appointed to contact entertainers such as the Chuck Wagon Gang and attempt to bring them here during the show.

The association voted to go all out in making the best livestock show ever staged in Eastland County.

YOUR NATIONAL GUARD DIVISIONS CONTINUE THE OLD TRADITIONS

This is the eighteenth of a series on the Infantry and Armored Divisions of the new National Guard. They are presented to acquaint you with the organization which will be an M-Day Force, trained, equipped and available for immediate service with the Regular Army in the event of any emergency.

43RD INFANTRY DIVISION—New England's own, in peace and war, is the 43rd Infantry Division of the National Guard of the United States. Troops of the Winged Victory Division were drawn from Connecticut, Maine, Rhode Island and Vermont for its long and brilliant service in World War II. The postwar organization is drawn from the same states, with the exception of Maine, and the division is commanded by Major General Kenneth F. Cramer, of Wethersfield, Connecticut, who also is the Chief of the National Guard Bureau.

Although not organized as a division until 1925, the 43rd Division's regiments include two with more than 200 years of continuous service and tradition. The 169th, which traces its history to 1672, and the 102nd Infantry Regiments were organized as the 1st and 2nd Regiments of Militia of Connecticut in 1739 and first fought as units in the French and Indian Wars. They were ready again when the Colonists declared their independence and played a major role during the Campaign around New York, at Saratoga and in Connecticut at Danbury and New Haven.

In the Civil War the men of both regiments fought in 11 campaigns, from Bull Run to Petersburg, including the battle of Gettysburg and the march to the sea through the Carolinas. In World War I some 35 officers and 1,502 enlisted men of the 169th were transferred to the 102nd Infantry which fought with the 26th (Yankee) Division in the campaigns of Ile de France, Lorraine, Champagne-Marne, Aisne-Meuse, St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne. The third regiment, the 172nd Infantry, of Vermont, traces its history to "the Green Mountain Boys" who banded together 10 years before the Revolution under Ethan Allen to protect their land grants from encroachment by the Crown Province of New York.

Shipping overseas in late 1942, the 43rd Division participated in four major campaigns against the Japanese. They included the familiar names . . . Guadalcanal, the Northern Solomons, New Guinea and Luzon.

After landing in New Zealand and later in the Russell Islands without opposition, the 43rd was organized as a task force. With other elements of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, it made the first assault on New Georgia at Rendova Island on June 30, 1943. In 81 days of continuous combat it accounted for 4,000 enemy dead.

On July 12, 1946, command of the 43rd Division was taken over by General Cramer, a veteran of both World Wars. Wounded as a scout in France during World War I, he had served as Assistant Division Commander of the 24th Division in the Pacific during World War II.

How will you greet him?

Many will toast this fellow's arrival with champagne and cheers.

And when they shout "Happy New Year"—they know it will be just that . . . for them.

There'll be others, of course, whose cup will be bitter and cheerless. To them 1959 will promise just one more year of disappointment and failure—another year of "have-not!"

How will you "see in" that year ahead?

Your answer lies in the plans you are making today for the future happiness and security of your family and yourself. It lies in a systematic saving plan—one that builds and builds for the future.

Many are finding the best answer in U. S. Savings Bonds—the wisest, surest of all investments. These Bonds are guaranteed by the U. S. Government—guaranteed to pay you back $4 for every $3 you put in, after ten years.

Now is the time to start saving, automatically, this easy, painless way. Enroll today in the Payroll Savings Plan. Or, if you're not on a payroll, ask your bank about the equally convenient, equally profitable Bond-A-Month Plan.

Boom Continues As Buying Power Outpaces Prices

PURCHASING POWER

MINNEAPOLIS—Buying power of the average family continues to outpace steadily rising prices, the monthly Investors Syndicate survey of "real income" reveals. "Real income" is the relationship of revenue to living costs.

The typical family can buy 1 per cent more goods today than a year ago, the survey reports. Income is 110 per cent of the 1947 level, while living costs are pegged at 109 per cent.

Various factors in living cost—food, shelter, clothing and miscellaneous—are rising at about the same rate. Wages, salaries and investment income are a little farther ahead of 1947 levels than are farm prices. Farm income, however, was higher earlier this year, and farmers are still enjoying high purchasing power, the survey reported.

"The continued nominal increase in purchasing power is cause for optimism," stated E. E. Crabb, president of Investors Syndicate, a leading distributor of investment certificates. "Shifts within some phases of the economy are not affecting the total picture. High industrial activity and consumer demand seem certain to continue."

We try to keep 5 years ahead of the babies!

THEY'RE being born in record numbers these days; 4 million babies last year—12 million since the war!

They make one very important reason for the gigantic expansion program of the business-managed electric companies. Another reason is that everybody's appetite for electric service is getting bigger—in towns and on farms, in homes and in industry.

Ordinarily, we work and plan about 5 years ahead to meet the anticipated demand for electric service. (It takes a long time to plan, build and equip power plants.)

Today, in addition, we're working hard to catch up with much needed construction we could not do during the war years!

The West Texas Utilities Company is now rushing the work on an $18,000,000 construction program. This $18,000,000 construction program is part of the company policy of anticipating future needs... of keeping ahead of the babies.

How is this $18,000,000 being spent? It is paying for new generating facilities... for improving and enlarging existing equipment... for hundreds of miles of wire, cable and pole lines. It means new jobs... agricultural and industrial development... a more prosperous West Texas for all of us!
