The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

ONE OF THE saddest tasks of a country editor is to write news stories about the deaths of neighbors and friends.

When we came to Cisco and took over at The Press nearly four years ago, Mr. LaRoque was the editor.

We believe that Mr. LaRoque had school teaching. He liked young people. He was a good leader for them, and he was popular as a teacher.

THE CISCO LIONS Club dedicated its weekly luncheon program Wednesday as a memorial to Mr. LaRoque.

The tribute opened most appropriately with Billy O'Brien, B.S.U. student, singing "Home on the Range."

Mr. Jackson then spoke. He noted that Mr. LaRoque, who was Lions District Governor in 1939 and 1940, had a record of 27 years and three months of perfect attendance.

Mr. Jackson noted that Mr. LaRoque had held every office in the Cisco club.

Mr. LaRoque's family and friends can take a great deal of comfort in the knowledge that many of the principles and things for which he stood and worked will live on.

STEPHENS JURY FINDS WALKER NOT GUILTY OF EMBEZZLEMENT

A Stephens County district court jury found Horace Walker not guilty of embezzling $900 in Eastland County tax funds in a verdict returned early Wednesday night at Breckenridge.

Walker, who formerly was employed by Eastland County as a delinquent tax collector, told reporters in Fort Worth later that he believed the verdict was justified and that he doesn't expect to be convicted on the other three indictments.

Walker's trial centered about a $1,000 check, exhibited by the defense, as issued to Neil Day, former tax collector of Eastland Co., in payment of the sum which Walker was charged with having embezzled and also in settlement of a $30 error.

Judge Floyd Jones of the 99th District Court, who presided in the case, instructed the jurors that if they believed Walker gave the check to Day with the intention of paying the sum which he is charged with embezzling, the jury was to find him not guilty.

Taking the stand in his own defense, Walker testified that he gave the check to Day about May 12, 1950, in the lobby of a hotel in Fort Worth, for the purpose of correcting an error in the account of I. J. Allen of Corpus Christi, which showed he had paid only $230 when $1,200 was due.

Day was returned to the stand Wednesday and testified that Walker had telephoned him several days before he gave him the check, saying an error had been made and to hold up issuing certificates, but that when Walker gave him the check he made no mention specifically of the Allen account.

Warmer Weather Is Aid To Cover Crops Throughout Entire State

Small grains and winter cover crops responded to the temporarily improved moisture situation at Texas temperatures moderated this week following the hard freeze a week ago.

Surface moisture was adequate for current needs in most northern and northwestern area, and scattered showers in the southeast were beneficial; however, strong south winds were again dissipating surface moisture in all areas.

Cotton harvest progressed slowly in northwest areas due to cold, damp weather and a shortage of pullers but will gain momentum as soon as mechanical pickers can be used.

Some sweetpotatoes remaining in the fields were damaged by the recent freeze, and harvest was being rushed to completion.

Damage to tender vegetables from freezing temperatures and frosts on November 3 was extensive in all areas.

Hearing Planned On City Spacing

The E. C. Connally No. 1 A. Z. Myrick, wildcat oil test just south of Cisco, is expected to be completed as a substantial Lake sand oil well this week, according to reports today.

The cement plug was drilled early this week and the casing was perforated from 3,425 to 3,428 feet—the lower three feet of a 14-foot Lake sand section.

Completion work was awaiting the installation of tanks and equipment being set up.

Further development in the South Cisco area, where two flowing wells were completed before the Myrick test was begun, is not expected to begin until after a hearing of the Texas Railroad Commission is held next week on spacing rules.

Six miles southwest of Cisco, Wilcox Investment Company No. 1 Leveridge Estate was drilling at 2,268 feet today—near the Strawn sand level from which the nearby Wilcox No. 1 McElreath has been producing for several months.

In the Bankline-Owens field, five miles northeast of Cisco, the Bankline Oil Company No. 3 C. E. Reynolds was drilling at 2,735 feet in shale and sand. This is an offset to production on two sides.

A new project for the area is a 3,900-foot test to be drilled five miles northeast of Cisco by J. A. Green of Wichita, Kansas, as his No. 1 Mrs. W. R. Reagan. Location is 1,649.2 feet from the east and 1,520 feet from the north lines of Section 38, Block 4, H&TC Survey.

New OPS Price Regulation Meets Needs Of Construction Industry

The Office of Price Stabilization has issued a new ceiling price regulation designed to meet the specific needs of the construction industry generally, a $36 billion a year industry.

The order, Ceiling Price Regulation 93, is effective November 20, 1951. Previously, construction and related services and sales of installed materials were covered generally by the General Ceiling Price Regulation (GCPR) until the issuance of Ceiling Price Regulation 34 (Services) on May 16, 1951.

Except for actual increases in labor and material costs, it is not expected that the new regulation will result in any general increase in charges for construction work.

In general, the new regulation establishes ceiling prices on the basis of current costs for labor, materials and equipment, plus nine-tenths (9-10) of the highest markup for profit which the seller had in effect for a similar job during the base period July 1, 1949 to June 24, 1950.

In reducing the base period percentage markup for profit by 10 percent, as provided in the new regulation, OPS officials pointed out that costs of construction labor and building materials have risen by 10 percent and 12 percent respectively, since the outbreak of hostilities in Korea. It is estimated, therefore, that nine-tenths (9-10) of the pre-Korean percentage markup for profit, when applied to increased costs, will result in approximately the same dollars-and-cents profit as the seller realized during the base period on a similar job.

The base period percentage markup for overhead need not be reduced if the seller can make a separation of his total base percentage markup into an applicable percentage representing profit and an applicable percentage representing his recovery of overhead expense.

The regulation covers transactions in which the seller furnishes labor services or any combination of labor, materials, equipment and service for building construction, highway construction, heavy construction, railroad construction, and a broad range of miscellaneous construction. Also included are transactions which involve shop fabrication by the installer of materials; the sale of installation or erection service by a manufacturer who installs or erects a commodity manufactured by him and charges separately for the installation or erection; and any transaction involving both the manufacture and installation or erection of a commodity with a single charge for the entire service, except those transactions specifically covered by Ceiling Price Regulation 30 (Machinery and related manufactured goods).

Each type of construction service may involve the activities of contractors in specialized branches of the construction industry such as plumbing, heating, air-conditioning, electrical work, sheet metal work and carpentry. Accordingly, the regulation is designed to afford methods of general pricing applicable to all segments of the industry in order that sellers may price their services readily and uniformly and in accordance with traditional methods used by them in estimating and furnishing services, materials and equipment.

The regulation applies to sales of construction services under lump sum, cost-plus, fixed fee, cost-plus fixed fee, and cost-plus with guaranteed limit contracts; to sales on a time and materials basis or an hourly rate basis; and to sales of items or materials and equipment together with the construction services required to install or erect them.

NEW TAPE RECORDER

CJC Nov. 13 — No more static and buzz in your speeches on the old tape recorder. The school has bought a new tape recorder for the speech classes.

The new recorder is the same high fidelity equipment used by professional radio studios. It is an Eicor dual-speed, magnetic tape recorder, with tone as well as volume control.

Used with this new equipment the mixing board and microphones already on hand give the school a very complete recording studio for the use of the music as well as the speech department.

Representative Cox Addresses Assembly

10,000,000 heroes were called for by Representative Jack Cox of the Texas Legislature in a speech given at Cisco Junior College in assembly Wednesday, November 7. Cox, a Studebaker dealer from Breckenridge, analyzed the problems of taxation and called for changes in our spending.

He pointed out that the U. S. cannot "buy" the friendship of other nations. He said that each U. S. citizen has already given an average of $137 each to Britain in free aid.

Cox stressed the fact that "deficit" spending is the major problem of the U. S. at the present. He gave as a possible solution to "deficit" spending—the cutting down of free aid to Europe, which is apparently getting us nowhere along the lines of friendship.

He also pointed out people actually raised their own taxes by demanding benefits and "hand-outs" from the government, and that they do not realize this.

Cox illustrated that our government has shown marked trends toward socialism and pointed out that all socialistic governments have ended up in chaos and that we need 10,000,000 heroes who would reject government aid and thereby cut down taxes and solve the problem of deficit spending and remove the danger of inflation.

Covers Chosen For CJC 1951 Annual

Covers for the 1952 Cisco Junior College Annual, The Roundup, were chosen by a representative group from the annual staff Wednesday morning. Those representing the staff were Mrs. Stamey and Miss Ford, sponsors; Joe Ed Schaefer, editor; H. K. Neely, assistant editor; and Jack White, art editor.

After a thorough study of the various types, designs, and grains; the group chose a padded, embossed, western-type cover. The front is on a simple theme, having the title, the year, and a small triangle in the center with a picture of a wagon and cacti. The grain is knotty pine with brown and tan as the colors. The group agreed that the grain goes exceptionally well with the theme.

Mr. Jacks, representative of the Newsfoto Publishing Company of San Angelo, conducted the meeting. He pointed out the advantages and disadvantages of each cover. He also gave information on the annual layout, took the order for the annuals, and informed the group of the deadlines. They are December 1, when twenty-five percent of the annual must be in; January 1, when fifty percent of the annual must be in; and February 1, when seventy-five percent of the annual must be in. The last portion must be in at least sixty days before the annuals are to be given to the students.

He also urged that all class pictures be made as soon as possible in order for the staff to meet its deadline in December.

LETTERS FROM EX-STUDENTS

Dear Mr. Turner:

I have received a couple of letters from ex-students of Cisco Junior College. The sophomore member these boys and girls are happy to hear from them. I haven't had much news down there. I got a couple of papers and a few letters when school started. I hear from every one in a while. Arkansas Allen's ship has been here in this harbor three times since I have been stationed here. Tell everybody hello for me. I sure wish that I could be here this year.

Well there is nothing to tell you so I guess that I close.

Thanks a lot for sending the "Brandin' Iron". I'm reading about the interesting things which are happening in C. J. C. I wish that you would thank the teachers for giving a good preparation. They are a good background to make the work up here easier.

I do not know how my preparation in ping pong is, but I have not had the ping pong tournament here. I read in the papers where Huffmyer and Peterson were in the final game of your tournament. Thanks for sending me the paper.

Boxing To Begin At Community Gym

It has been announced the Golden Gloves boxing begin training in about two weeks. The boxers will out at the Community Gymnasium under the direction of Mosley. Paul is in charge of boxing at both the College and High School.

He said that if all the who fought last year in School come back, they will have a good High School boxing team. The High School boxers go to the Golden Gloves Tournament last year. However, there are not enough Golden Gloves interested in boxing. Heavyweights are especially needed.

Many boys do not participate in boxing because they are not that they will be matched with some expert. This is not true. The boys are paired according to experience.

This year's Golden Gloves Tournament is scheduled to place at the community gymnasium in Cisco.

Football Team Elects Captains

Wayne McLean and Wayne Knapp were elected Co-captains of the 1951 Wrangler football team Monday afternoon.

McLean is a senior halfback and is a two year letterman. Knapp is also a senior plays center. He has played two years at Weatherford Junior College and came to Cisco after Weatherford dropped out.

BORN AT SEA—When the Italian liner Conte Biancamano docked in New York, she had one more passenger than when she started across the Atlantic. Holding baby Pasquale Ranucci, born on the ship and named for the captain, is his mother, Mrs. Gaetano Ranucci, en route to Orange, N.J., with her two other children, Dominico, two, and Nicoletta, six.

GALLANT GENTLEMAN—Prince Nestor Eristavi Eristoff, of Georgia, celebrating his 60th birthday and 200th film role, greets actress Ann Blyth on the set in Hollywood. The white-bearded Russian nobleman fled his birthplace during the Bolshevik revolution and made his way to the movie capital 20 years ago.

"USO IS A MUST"—Greer Garson, movie star of Hollywood and Dallas, is high in her praise of the work which the USO is doing in behalf of our young Texans in the Armed Forces. "USO is a must for all of us on the home front," she says. "It's the least we can do for those in uniform who are offering their all to protect the freedom of our country." Looking over a new Texas USO poster with Miss Garson are Robert L. Thornton, Jr., Dallas, state treasurer of the Texas United Defense Fund Committee, and Sgt. Leslie J. Shaver of Austin, who has just returned from a year in Korea with the First Cavalry.

EGGBEATER ENTERPRISE

THEY DIDN'T WALK—In what may prove to be a new and revolutionary phase of ground warfare, an entire, fully-equipped battalion of U.S. Marines was flown 18 miles by helicopter into battle in Korea. Some of the Leathernecks are shown after leaving a 'copter and moving out to take up battle positions as the machine rises from the landing area to return for another load. Each trip carried six fully-equipped men.

MOVING UP—Twelve giant Sikorsky "eggbeaters" completed the shuttle operation, within mortar range of Communist defenses, in a little more than six hours without the loss of one man. Normally it would have taken up to two days to move the battalion over the 18 miles. In line at the starting point, 936 men wait to be transported by "Operation Bumblebee."

COMING IN—A wing and a prayer were mighty helpful as a ground crewman signals in a helicopter and its six passengers over the dangerous and rocky terrain of the landing area. The successful operation was the largest of its kind in military history and is undoubtedly the criterion by which such future moves will be judged when large-scale landings are attempted.

On and Off the Streets

... owners of land as well as prospective owners discuss with us freely the many problems growing out of the ownership of real estate. One of the big problems, of course, is the title problem. We tell them frankly that a few dollars invested in an abstract now may save them hundreds of dollars later on. The old saying that "a stitch in time saves nine" is still true and very aptly applies itself to real estate transactions.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 15. — It's bigger and better than ever this year — the annual Shrine Circus coming to Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum November 16 to 25th. R. L. Carnrike, general chairman of the Moslah Temple 1951 Circus, has announced that the cast has been enlarged to include some of the top aerialist stars in the circus business. Bovine Mastitis Can Be Prevented Farmers could prevent many cases of bovine mastitis, if they would abide by sensible and proved preventive rules, the American Foundation for Animal Health suggested today.

"Mastitis is often brought on by use of faulty milking equipment, and through barnyard and pasture udder injuries which might have been avoided," the report said.

As a case in point the Foundation cited the instance of one Illinois man who reportedly lost a $5,000 investment in less than a year simply because he used the wrong kind of suction cup on his milking machine. The entire herd developed mastitis and had to be slaughtered.

To help prevent mastitis losses this winter, the Foundation advised dairymen to:

"(1) Guard against udder injuries by removing sticks and other sharp objects from barnyards. Also, door sills should be kept free of ice so cows will not slip and stumble on them.

"(2) Sterilize milking equipment and use only machines which are properly adjusted.

"(3) Avoid rough handling while hand stripping.

"(4) Milk infected cases last.

"(5) Buy only clean, healthy replacements which are known to be free of mastitis.

"(6) Work out a practical control program with the veterinarian, using both medical treatment for affected cows and preventive methods with those that are free of the disease."
