There must be a strange attraction between our new building and these pesky flies!

All one has to do is turn on the air conditioner, sit down at this typewriter, and we guarantee that within the space of a few minutes you'll be pulling your hair out.

We've about solved the problem by placing a flyswatter behind our ear, instead of a yellow pencil, and keeping a bug bomb within reach.

This does a pretty good job of keeping the flies away, but it doesn't help do the typing much faster.

In fact, we've found that we spend 99 per cent of our time swatting flies, and the other one percent we spend trying to work.

We hope you'll weren't too disappointed with our first off-set issue of The Star last week. The printers tell us that a new press is sorta like wine, it gets better with age.

Anyhow, we all have a lot to learn about using the product in the new shop, and to be truthful, some of them really have this scribe snowed.

A visitor was asking questions concerning the process and in trying to explain it to him we are afraid we convinced the man we are completely nuts!

We're sure that a few folks are already convinced of that fact anyhow, but there is no use adding to it.

The false chinch bugs are giving quite a few of our farmers a run for their money these days.

While making the rounds last week we overheard this conversation in a local feed store.

LADY: I wonder if you can sell me something that will get those imitation bugs out of my garden?

STORE ATTENDANT: What kind of bugs lady?

LADY: Oh, you know, those imitation sure-fire bugs we have.

Needless to say, the man sold her some insecticide for false chinch bugs, not imitation cinch bugs.

Farmer County vegetables sure are easy on the plate, but hard on the one that has to prepare them.

Going home the other night what do you think stared us in the face when we walked in the door?

The spouse had been out with a friend and between the two of them they had picked four bushels of peas to can.

We had other plans for the evening, but it sure is hard to sneak out when both the front and back doors are guarded.

Anyhow the next morning we suffered from an acute case of peashellingitis.

Never in my born days saw so many peas. At least not so many that we knew were for us to shell, or help shell.

But in time the job was done and there we were with some chortled fingers galore!

But with a hunk of ham hock, cornbread and buttermilk it's almost worth the effort.

We never thought of it until last week when we took the picture of little Jane Rushing with all those books, but you know that presents quite a hurdle to a six-year-old.

Our "grey beard" isn't too long yet, however, it doesn't seem like we had that many books in our whole school, let alone a stack like that for one kiddo.

In last week's issue of the Star there was a page of pictures concerned with activities of the Union Congregational Church.

We are indebted to Mrs. Pearl Kinsley in making these pictures available to us for our presentation to our readers.

The pictures represent a way of life that is gone, but not forgotten.

Judge's Race Spotlight Of Saturday's Elections

County judge's race will hold the spotlight Saturday as Parmer voters cast their ballots in Democratic Run-off Primary.

Aside from the judge's race, most county voters will have only one other selection to make—Associate Justice of Supreme Court, Place No. 1. In Bovina precinct, however, a commissioner's race will give voters another decision to make there.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the county's eight voting precincts.

Voting precincts are Black, O. B. Roberson; Friona, Nelson Welch; Bovina, O. W. Rhinehart; Farwell, Albert Smith; Lazbuddie, M. O. Treider; Oklahoma Lane, Clyde Perkins; Rhea, Melvin Sachs; and Lakeview, Otho Whitefield.

Locations of the polls in the various precincts will be Farwell, courthouse; Bovina, Legion Hall; Friona, school; Rhea, parish hall; Lakeview, Whitefield's home; Black, community building; Lazbuddie, school; and Oklahoma Lane, Methodist Church.

Judging from the amount of absentee ballots which were requested, interest in the run-off election is higher than in the first primary, which was July 26. Just a few more than 100 absentee ballots were marked in last month's election, County Clerk Hugh Moseley says. Over 160 were requested for the run-off. Tuesday was the deadline for voting absentee.

Loyde A. Brewer, Friona, and incumbent A. D. Smith are candidates for the county judge position. Brewer led a field of three in the first primary by a substantial margin. Smith has held the office for several terms. Brewer is a former county clerk. He held that position until four years ago when he did not seek reelection.

In the first primary, Brewer

County Singers Meet Sunday

Third session of the Curry-Parmer County singing association is to be at 3 p.m. CST Sunday in Texico Baptist Church. R. L. Douglas Sr., president of the group, says members are endeavoring to reach persons who participated in a similar group several years ago.

"We have been very pleased with the response," he says, "but there are still lots of the old-timers that we'd like to have back." He urges everyone interested to come for an afternoon of good old-fashioned gospel singing.

Several out-of-county groups were present for the July session and a number are expected to attend Sunday's meeting, also.

carried five of the eight boxes—Friona, Black, Rhea, Lakeview, and Oklahoma Lane. Bulk of his votes was picked up in Friona. He had 424 in that box compared with 18 for Smith.

Smith led in the other three boxes. Hardesty failed to carry a precinct.

A race which promises to be close is drawing to a close in Bovina precinct. Only one vote separated the top two candidates in the first primary.

C. L. Calaway had 178 while incumbent Charlie Jefferson got 177, all of which were of the write-in variety. Jefferson's name was left off the ballot due to a failure to file. His name will, however, be on Saturday's ballot.

Opposing each other in the Associate Justice race are Robert W. Hamilton of Midland County and J. Edwin Smith of Harris County. This state-wide race has stirred little interest in this county.

Parmer County's total of qualified voters is 2230. This includes individuals with paid poll taxes as well as exemptions. Approximately 1800 voted in the first primary.

TIED FOR TOP LL HONORS--Teddy Renner, center holding trophy, is congratulated by friends as he was presented with a gold engraved trophy for his being selected All-Around Player in the Little League play this season. Young Renner tied for the honor with Bing Bingham.

Summer Holidays Near End-Friona Schools Open Sept. 2

Registration will get underway at schools in the Friona Independent School District Friday morning from 9 until 11:30 a.m. August 29.

Principals of the elementary, grade and high schools have announced the following information concerning the registration of students in their respective schools:

Elementary School (Grades 1-4)
Tom Jarboe, principal
Students beginning school through the third grade will meet their classes in the elementary building across the street from the main school yard at 9 a.m. Friday morning.

"We want the parents of all first graders to send a paper with the child's name, address, parents names, phone number and bus number with the youngster," Jarboe says.

"This will help with the confusion of the first few days and help us get the youngsters squared away quickly," he says.

In addition to the paper with the above information, Jarboe pointed out that all first graders must be vaccinated for smallpox and bring a doctor's certificate with them. Also they must have a birth certificate showing they are of school age. "If all students in the first four grades will just go to any room where their grade classification will be, we will divide them later," Jarboe says.

Teachers names and grades will be posted on their doors

Sprayed Vegetables OK For Human Consumption

There is no need to waste good vegetables just because they've been sprayed, says Dr. Paul Spring of the Parmer County Community Hospital.

This explanation was given Wednesday after numerous phone calls from worried housewives had been received at the hospital and The Star office.

Several false reports and rumors are out over this area concerning human infection caused by the spray from airplanes getting on vegetables. "This is false," says Dr. Spring.

"All the people who have been sick from the spray are pilots or flagmen who breathe the spray over long periods of time and work with it constantly," he says. Government research on the subject of parathion spray, which is the type used for spraying maize here, shows that cattle have eaten unwashed vegetables within a short time after spraying and showed no ill effects.

"All you have to do is wash your vegetables thoroughly and wait about 48 hours after the spraying to pick them and they will be just fine," Dr. Spring says. "There is no need to waste good food because of danger from spraying."

"Pete Smith, pilot for Benger Air Park, took sick Monday at noon from the poison, but he has been spraying crops constantly for periods from 10 to 12 hours a day and breathing large quantities of the spray," Dr. Spring says.

Students who will be in grades 5 through 8 will report to their classes in either the new junior high building or in the red brick two-story building depending upon their grade.

Students who will be in grades five and six will report to any classes on the top floor of the red brick building and students in grades seven and eight will report for their assignments in the new gymnasium.

High School (Grades 9-10-11-12)
Raymond Cook, principal
Students who will be in the high school this year will report to the following rooms in the high school building for their assignments:

Freshmen will report to the study hall.
Sophomores will report to the band hall.

Hub Squeaks by L'men To Hold IL Title Crown

Hub barely kept their undefeated record of two years intact Friday night as they squeaked by a determined McCaslin team, 4-3, after going an extra inning.

In a game which would have done justice to big-league teams, members of both teams fought tooth and nail down to the final score.

Marked by spectacular playing and fielding on both sides, the boys went all-out to fight for the Intermediate League crown.

Going into the sixth inning trailing by one run, 2-1, Catcher Mike McKee of the Lumbermen walked to the plate and blasted a home run into right field to tie the game in knots.

Hub was unable to score in their stand at the bat and when McCaslin returned to bat, Pitcher Bernie Deaton scored a run and sent his team into the lead 3-2.

In the bottom of the seventh inning, Hub was at bat with one out when Doyle Mabry, catcher for Hub belted a triple.

Cary Jackson, second baseman, got a single and scored Mabry and moved to second on a pass ball.

Gary Lou Renner got a single and Clinton Long walked to load the bases when Eldon Long singled into left field to score Jackson and win the game.

There were numerous "unbelievable" catches and plays during the game, with Marcus Connally, right fielder for McCaslin, turning in a one-handed running catch that saved the day back in the third inning.

Ronnie Brookfield, first baseman for McCaslin, made an eye-popping backhander catch of a foul ball that would have thrilled any baseballer.

Following the game, trophies for the top teams in the league were awarded to Hub and McCaslin.

Best all-around players for both leagues were named and awarded trophies.

Gary Lou Renner of Hub was presented with the "best all-around player" award for the Intermediate League.

Runners-up for the award were given silver baseballs and these went to Bernie Deaton of McCaslin; Russell Scales of Herring Implement and Danny Murphree of Benger Air Park.

Teddy Renner and Bing Bingham tied for best all-around player honors in the Little League division and were both awarded trophies. Teddy played for Rockwell Bros. and Bing for Reeve Chevrolet.

New Home Slated for Rockwell

Work began this week on a new $10,000 office and shed at the Rockwell Bros. lumberyard in Friona.

Oscar Lange, manager of the local lumber yard, says the new building will house the scales and have adequate storage capacity for all the company's requirements for the near future.

The new office and shed will be built at the present location of the company on East Sixth Street in Friona.

BAND PRACTICE BEGINS MONDAY

First rehearsal of the senior band will be held Monday morning at 9:30 a.m. in the band hall in the high school according to an announcement from Dick Bentz, band director.

"It is very important that all members of the senior band be on hand for this session, Bentz says.

Earl Smith Named FHS Fish Coach

Earl Smith, a 1953 graduate of Texas A&M, joined the coaching staff of the Friona Chiefs during the 1958 season, announced Coach Colie Huffman this week.

Smith, a physical education major while at A&M, played two years of football at the Southwestern Conference college. After his graduation, he joined the staff at Boy's Ranch at Channing.

In 1954, he reported for service with the U. S. Army and served at Fort Bliss with a guided missiles group.

After his discharge from service, he coached at Mountain Air, N. M., until he was named to the faculty of Friona High School this summer.

In addition to his coaching duties, Smith will teach mathematics.

The new coach is married and his wife, Helen, is the new librarian for Friona High School.

The Smiths have two-year-old twins, a boy and a girl. The family lives on West Fifth Street.

TRACTOR FIRE--Friona Volunteer Fire Department was called out last week when a MM tractor caught fire near the James Proctor place north and west of Friona. No one was seriously injured in the blaze and the tractor was far enough from any buildings to prevent damage other than to the vehicle.

THE STAR'S EDITORIAL COMMENT

Is It Always Right To "PLAY IT SAFE"?

We were reminded of the narrow-mindedness of the human being by a little story we heard only recently.

It brought to mind many of the problems which our country faces today and perhaps it is this type of attitude which has brought us to where we stand today.

The story goes something like this:

While traveling through the countryside of Georgia one day a man had car trouble and had to stop. After working on his auto in the heat he was exhausted and became thirsty.

Looking about him for some help for his parched throat he spotted a farmhouse down the road. Walking up to the house, he saw a man sitting in the shade of a tree whittling with a hound dog asleep beside him. As he approached both the dog and man only raised an eyebrow and looked him over.

The man, clad in a patched pair of overalls and a threadbare shirt, told him "Howdy" and asked what he was doing. The stranger then asked for a drink of water and told of his car trouble.

"Sure," the cracker said, "There's a whole well full. Just help yourself." After getting a drink and lighting a cigarette the stranger tried to make conversation with the Georgian.

"How was your cotton this year?" the stranger asked. "Didn't plant none," the cracker replied. "Looked like the bugs was gonna be bad, so just played her safe."

Raising his eyebrows at this remark, the stranger asked, "Well, how was the corn crop? Saw some pretty well-filled cribs back down the road."

Didn't plant no corn neither," the cracker said. "Had a lot of corn borers last year so just figured to save myself the trouble and to play it safe."

"Well," the stranger said, "How did your tobacco come out?" "Didn't plant none this year," the cracker said. "With all this talk about cancer figgered there weren't no market so just didn't plant any and played it safe."

There must be a moral to this little story and to us it is like playing it too close to the vest.

It is possible at times to "play it safe" so that there just isn't any play at all. We've heard lots of comments on new projects end up just like the Georgia Cracker--"Won't be any use in trying that. It just wouldn't go over, so why try?"

If all the farmers in Parmer County did their "figgering" like our man above we'd really be in a fix.

and Mrs. Wilson has been on the nursing staff at the Parmer County Community Hospital for at least 10 years.

The Jim Shaffers have moved from their farm southwest of town to their newly-constructed home in the northeast part of town. Bob and Ouida Jones and their sons, Jim Bob and Joe Bill, moved in the house the Shaffers vacated.

Then Mrs. Mabel Jones moved into the house Bob and his family moved out of. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Phipps have sold their home in the west part of town and rumors say they are moving to Arkansas. After talking to Mrs. Phipps that move is doubtful. Anyway, they have worn out several pairs of shoes apiece here, so will probably not get very far away.

Things never quite come out even it seems. A few weeks ago we wanted cats. We got them and appreciate the ones we have very much, but can't use any more. The problem is now to find someone else who wants a cat or two or three.

Bennie Lynn Hannoid has some very pretty white kittens with long hair that she wants to find a good home for. Anyone who wants a kitten can contact her by telephoning 2721. Bennie is the daughter of the Bill Hannoids and the family home is one block north of Day's Gulf Station.

D. G. McClellan, our telephone service man, was in the office this week after doing a repair job on the line back of the building. After getting everything back in order, he walked out shaking his head. He said, "Sure hate to have anything happen to a new installation. It seems that when that happens we just keep having trouble."

It had been our opinion that this theory was true only in the newspaper business. It just never fails if we make an error on any person's ad or story one week, then in the following weeks just make one error each week it always happens to affect the same person.

The housing situation here continues to be critical. At the present time we know of several families who want to move to Friona just as soon as suitable housing is available.

We noticed last week that at least one Friona citizen is working toward a solution to this problem. Fred Carson has moved two new houses on locations on North Euclid Street. Both of them are all new and look very neat. Judging from outside appearances they probably have two bedrooms.

That section of the town is growing and these two houses add much to the appearance of the neighborhood.

Joe Bob Johnson, Carol Struve, and Deniese Buske. Then we have seen a number of others that we don't know.

Expansion Ends At Friona Schools

A building program totaling about $320,000 is rapidly nearing an end, according to school officials.

Included in the improvement of school facilities in the Friona Independent School District are:

High School
A new science room which will double space in this department will be provided. Home economics department has expanded to accommodate two teachers and additional room for sewing and home nursing courses.

High school library has expanded and now will have a reading room and a library with adequate storage space for books, references and other research volumes.

Five new lecture rooms are included in the west wing plus a lecture room and a shop room for industrial arts and the agriculture department.

Cafeteria
A 42x45 addition costing $21,200 will add another 50 to the seating capacity of the cafeteria. This will bring the total number of persons that can be served at one time to 300. Also a new kitchen, storeroom, walk-in icebox, dishwashing unit, office space and a restroom are included in the addition. The entire cafeteria will be air-conditioned.

Junior High
Ten new lecture rooms, a library, gymnasium, teacher's work room and office space will be provided in the new $200,000 junior high building. This building includes new furnishings and will take a lot of the strain out of the present facilities.

Football Field
New bleachers on the west side of the field have been added this summer which will seat an additional 500 fans. Also restrooms have been built at the north end of the field and a new concession stand added.

A beautiful peach brought into our office by Mr. J. H. Wise last week was enough to make anyone have faith in the possibilities of growing fruit here. The peach was "one of the Lubbock varieties" according to Mrs. Wise. It was 9 inches around and 9 1/2 inches around the long way.

Mr. and Mrs. Wise ordered two of the varieties developed at the Lubbock Experiment Station about two years ago and this year one of them had about two dozen peaches on it. The only thing we did not like about it was that there wasn't a bushel just like it.

We knew before we moved our office that the old location was the handiest place in town. It was right on the way to the bank, the post office, the drug store, and just about every business place in town. And, as Hop Halsey at Lubbock used to say, "Right on your way home."

Our new location isn't nearly so well located, but we are beginning to like it. One thing that we miss over here is the shortage of crickets. It seems that we just moved off and left them. Tuesday afternoon as we walked by there, we noticed that there was a plentiful supply of them over there still.

Another beautiful yard and flower garden can be seen at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nazworth in the northwest of town. Growing things is a source of much pleasure to this couple and they always have a large number of beautiful flowers of different kinds.

If anyone in town is wondering what to do to keep busy when school opens, there is a great need for volunteer workers for the Girl Scouts and Cub Scouts. Any time, energy, or talent you may possess can be put to good use in either of these organizations.

An announcement was made recently that will be of interest to a number of 4-H club girls in Parmer County. The South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show, which is in Lubbock each spring, has opened its entry books to girls.

A number of girls in the 4-H clubs in our area enjoy working with livestock and they have heretofore been barred from entering the Lubbock show.

Next spring's show will be March 16-18 at the Fair Grounds in Lubbock and we hope that some Parmer County girls will make preparation to show a fat steer, barrow, or lamb.

Judging from the number of trucks, pickups, and moving vans that we have seen parked and loading or unloading furniture this week, there must have been a lot of families changing their places of residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson and children moved to Arlee, Mont., early this week. Wilson is a former city manager

Cantaloupes Bright Spot In Vegetable Production

Cantaloupes, a new and attention-getting entry into Parmer County agriculture, are currently the only bright spot in the area's vegetable production.

Promoted by Gateway Produce Company, which built its shed in Bovina this spring, the more than 600 acres of cantaloupes in the central part of the county are rolling to market at a good pace.

Prices, which started off at less than $3 a crate, generally considered the break-even point, have now ebbed to between $3.50 and $4, depending on the size of the melons.

Generally, anything over $3 is considered satisfactory, and with the good picks that are indicated for most farms, this will result in the melons being a profitable crop for farmers this year. The pre-harvest yield estimate of 200 crates an acre has been upped slightly. From 225 to 250 is expected to be a more accurate figure.

Bovina area growers, in getting into cantaloupes for the first time, had some trouble with the weather earlier in the season, but it has been cooperating with them since during the past two weeks, insuring good ripening conditions: hot and dry.

This has also aided harvesting operations, which have continued uninterrupted. The Bovina deal is now at its peak of activity and will continue active for another week or 10 days, unless weather disrupts the pattern.

All cantaloupes from Bovina are being moved out by refrigerated truck.

Gateway is also ready to receive a smaller acreage of bell peppers—38 in all, from several area farms. Growing peppers this year are Sammy Sudderth, Arlin Hartzog, Billy Sudderth, Don Garrett, and Doyle Elliott.

Harvesting is expected to begin this weekend, and Otto Ables, Gateway shed manager at Bovina, says "Prospects are very good" for the bell pepper market.

The second big deal for Gateway will open "by September the first—possibly earlier," according to Ables. That will be when the more than 300 acres of tomatoes start rolling into the shed. The tomato harvest is supposed to pick up about where cantaloupes leave off, but there may be some overlapping this year.

In other good-sized acreage vegetable deals, things were not so bright this week. Potatoes, which started at slightly over $3 to open the season, have been sliding ever since the first loads came in.

The price is now down to $1.65 a hundred "when you can sell a load," reports John O'Haugherty, salesman for Friona Growers and Shippers, where the area's biggest potato deal is.

Rough estimates place the remaining Friona potato acreage at about 150, which is something less than a fourth of the original plantings. Not only is the price at a very low point, but the demand is weak, also, and shipments are being made very spottily.

"The potato market is down all over the country," says O'Haugherty. "Some people think that we get poor prices while everybody else gets good prices, but it just isn't so." He furnished market quotations from a trade publication on points all across the nation to prove his point. Very few were as much as $2. The salesman does not see any prospect for the markets to improve before the Friona digging is over, either. All of the country is in production.

The first carrots were due to be dug Tuesday of this week, and the market for them also appeared to be down considerably. O'Haugherty expects prices to open at about $25 a ton. Last year, the carrot market opened at about $45 a ton for this area.

This is not unexpected. Last year was an exceptional one for carrot growers. Demand and prices continued high all season long and carrots proved to be the leading money-maker among area vegetables.

A big jump in carrot acreage, especially on the High Plains, was expected on that account. Reports had it that carrot acreage would double or triple with ease, but the belief now is that many farmers had difficulty in getting stands and the volume may not be so great as had previously been thought. There are about 500 acres around Friona.

At any rate, $25 a ton is considered only a "fair" price for the producers. If any money is made at that price, it is likely to be the result of high production instead of the market. There are no estimates on the yield prospects of carrots as yet. There should be by next week.

A small acreage around Friona is in cabbage this year. A. L. Black, Bob Jones and Kenneth Neill have about 30 acres. John Renner and Bruce Parr also have some which is being processed out of the county.

A CREW OF MEXICAN NATIONALIST farm workers is busy with harvesting the Bovina area cantaloupes. They pick the melons from the vines, put them in a satchel, and take the filled satchels to a truck in the center of the patch. The J. B. Sudderth farm is the scene.

At Friona, cabbage cutting began about 10 days ago. The leafy vegetable is bringing about $27.50 a ton, which is not too bad, if enough tonnage can be obtained from the fields.

Growers are hoping for three cuttings.

The tail end of the onion harvest is coming at Friona, with about 30 acres left in the ground. Current prices are about $1.40, which is unsatisfactory. However, O'Haugherty says, "I look for the market to strengthen." He says the Hereford onion deal is about played out, which could help Friona at the last of the season.

Onions, like potatoes, have had pretty much of a dismal year. The onions still left at Friona are sweet Spanish.

Lettuce, the High Plains late crop, will not be due until early October, usually just before the first killing frost. Both Friona and Bovina will have lettuce this year, the combined acreage being somewhere around 600.

The market on lettuce just now is very poor. However, so much could happen between now and October that this is not necessarily an ill omen. All in all, the vegetable picture is weak to fair in the Parmer County area, with the single exception at this time being cantaloupes.

Maximum Payment Rates Different In New Program

The Conservation Reserve Program (the 5 and 10 year contract program) has been changed for producers who will enter land under contract for the first time beginning with crop year 1959 in that no maximum payment rate is established for all farms in the county as has been true in the past.

Instead, there will be a maximum payment rate established for a farm upon the request of a producer who is interested in participating in the program, announces the county ASC office.

There will be two maximum payment rates established for a farm. One maximum rate will apply if only a part of the eligible land in a farm is to be placed in the Conservation Reserve. The second maximum payment rate will be 10 per cent higher and will apply where all of the eligible land in the farm is to be placed in the Conservation Reserve for 5 or 10 years.

The annual payment rate previously established for land already under Conservation Reserve Contract will remain unchanged.

The basic rate for Parmer County is $12 per acre. The maximum rate for a farm can, under no circumstances, exceed 150 per cent of the county basic rate, nor can it exceed 20 per cent of the estimated value of the land. The county committee will estimate the value of the land on each farm.

Physical improvements such as houses, barns, fences or irrigation facilities will not be taken into consideration in estimating the value of the land on a farm.

Any person who feels that he may be interested in participating in the program must apply to have a maximum payment rate established on the farm. This application must be completed prior to September 26. Employees of the ASC office will assist producers in filing this appli-

Producers who have filed an application for establishment of maximum payment rate will be notified of this rate shortly after September 26, and if interested in participating will be afforded the opportunity to offer land and apply for a contract on such land. This offer and application for contract must be completed and filed with the county ASC office not later than October 17, says Prentice Mills, ASC office manager. As soon as possible after October 17, the county committee will determine which contract offers are acceptable and applicants will be notified as to whether or not a contract may be entered into.

This program is not designed to cause irrigated farm land to come under contract and it is not anticipated that payment rates will be such that cause a farmer to be inclined to retire irrigated land from production, Mills says.

The aim of this program is to try to encourage the return of marginal farmland to grass; in other words the aim is to put land back in grass which probably never should have been placed in cultivation in the first place.

Producers who are interested in participating in this program are advised to call at the ASC office for information relative to their farm.

(Editor's note: Following is a report written by Cooper Young of the Lazbuddie 4-H Club on a recent field trip made by a group of 4-H members.)

Eleven 4-H boys were accompanied by three adult leaders and County Agent Joe Jones to Amarillo Thursday, August 14. Purpose of the trip was to learn more about grain marketing.

We first gathered in the Petroleum building where introductions were made by Knox Parr, district agent. Bill Nelson, executive secretary of Grain Sorghum Producers Assn., told us the importance of grain marketing.

Frank Pharris, assistant manager of Producers Grain Corporation, told us how to interpret market reports.

We then had lunch at a restaurant. Our host was the Amarillo Grain Exchange.

After lunch we heard a talk by Richard Chitwood of Lazbuddie on the importance of the county elevator.

The afternoon tour took in PGC, Amarillo Grain Exchange and Mead's Bakery.

Boys attending from Parmer County were Chitwood, Dale Gober, Dickie Clayton, Danny Murphy, Randy Price, Gary Beauchamp, Johnny Mabry, Barry McCuan, Gary Renner, Ronnie Proctor, and Cooper Young.

Leaders were Tom Beauchamp, Ralph Price, Dee Chitwood and Jones.

We all had a very interesting and educational time.

lieves Jones. In the case of phosphate it must be done before seeding and should be placed in bands. Nitrogen fertilizers can be put on easier before wheat is seeded, but can be top-dressed dry or through water applications later. Farmers should keep in mind that fertilizer application through water is not considered a very good method because of poor water distribution, points out the agent. "Several methods of getting wheat up have been followed and all have proven satisfactory. These include seeding wheat, then watering up; pre-watering and seeding, seeding on rainfall and waiting for a stand before watering," says Jones. "Keep in mind that wheat should go into winter with the soil profile well supplied with moisture. This will enable the plants to root deeply and stool well."

Soils high in clay particles with a reasonable amount of organic matter can hold rather large amounts of fertilizers for use later on in the year. This is not the case with sands unless they are high in organic matter.

"When getting your wheat land ready you should decide whether or not you plan to apply fertilizer in the fall and again next February or try to make one fall application, or one spring application do," says the agent. "In most instances fall applications followed with a spring application result in higher yields. This will become increasingly true as time goes on and soils become more and more deficient in organic matter."

To be sure that wheat has the plant food needed at all times fall and spring applications will be necessary. In cases where phosphate is being applied, be sure this application is made before wheat is seeded, and either placed in the soil or worked in, says Jones. For best results phosphate fertilizers should be placed in bands.

It is also a good idea to always treat wheat seed with a fungicide to protect against seed-borne diseases and an insecticide to protect seed from wireworms. The wireworm protection is especially needed where seed are to be placed in a dry soil, says Jones.

SOIL CONSERVATION: DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Irrigation trials were conducted last Thursday on the Gilbert Kaltwasser farm southeast of Friona. These trials are to obtain information as to the amount and rate that the soil is taking water. This check was made on a deep, medium textured, moderately permeable soil which is characteristic of the soil in that area. The rows at this location in the field were 1933 feet in length. The orifices that are used to determine the infiltration rate were set in the same row but on three different grades. The crop was cotton.

The Soil Conservation Service worked with one of the District's new cooperators in planning on building a waterway to stop the erosion caused by this excess water.

H. C. Wells is building an elevated ditch on his place north of Friona in addition to moving some dirt to improve the water application in one of his fields.

Jay Sanders and Glenn Floyd checked out the pipeline completed on Joe Jesko's farm north west of Clay's Corner.

A basic conservation plan was written on the Young and McGuire farm located 3 1/2 miles south of Clay's Corner. This makes 21 basic conservation plans written in the Parmer County Soil Conservation District for this year.

MARTIN HARVEST HOARDER SYSTEM

The MARTIN SYSTEM is a Drier & Storage Unit all in one. Yet it costs little more than ordinary storage facilities.

Large Farmer or Small Farmer - You can follow the 4 key steps to profits with A MARTIN HARVEST HOARDER SYSTEM.

1. Harvest early—at 33% moisture content. Gain 10 to 15 more bushels per acre because your crop doesn't stay in the field to dry, where it is at the mercy of the sun, wind and rain.
2. Dry with low cost forced air. Drying with forced air is cheap because the air is free and it takes only pennies a day to run the fan. Dry without danger of fire.
3. Store in the same bin. Just turn off the drying switch and your crop is in storage. No expensive handling equipment or labor. Condition the grain at any time by turning a switch.
4. Sell or feed more, better crops. Sell No. 1 corn or grain and you are free to sell any time of the year on better markets. Whether you feed or sell, the greater profits will soon pay for your Martin system.

LETTUCE, TOO, REQUIRES ATTENTION--This weed-infested field of tender lettuce demonstrates the requirements of vegetable growing. Since weeds and vegetables do not mix well, labor is needed in larger quantities than is required for grain sorghum production. This scene of stooping laborers at the Earl Redden farm south of Bovina is typical to farms where vegetables are being grown.

trouble. Add to this the water that is released from the lower end of the field into the bar ditch and you have a total waste that staggers the imagination. If our irrigation water was unlimited, or even replenishable, there might be some justice in our present use of irrigation water. But with circumstances what they clearly are, we are obviously robbing ourselves (and our children) by careless methods.

Sorghum grain stocks on July 1 were more than triple supplies of just one year ago. That reflects the enormity of the 1957 crop. This fact casts a somber shadow over the milo producing areas of the High Plains, even though acreage nation-wide is down about 20 percent from last year.

However, there are some pressures at work which will be of some help to milo growers this year. The main one is the greatly increased feeding of livestock. Cattle prices have improved substantially in recent months, and feeding has been stimulated. The growing acceptance--even preference--for grain sorghum in the feed lot is noticeable in the disappearance of stocks. During the April to June quarter of this year 106 million bushels were moved out, compared with only 40 million the same quarter of last year, according to the Cargill grain reports.

In addition to feeding (in which case stocks usually go through normal, direct channels of trade), the government's loan program must be reckoned with, and since Commodity Credit Corporation has taken over such a huge chunk of the 1957 crop, the government's part inflicting markets for grain sorghums is even greater at the moment.

What the government does with its grain is, unfortunately, largely a target of happenstance, politics, the state of our economy, and our relations with countries that could use these stocks.

Under Public Law 480, the government has been encouraged to move fairly large quantities of grain sorghum into export channels. There is no assurance that the heavy rate of disposal will continue, however. It just depends.

Gordon Fraser, former assistant administrator of marketing development for the Foreign Agricultural Service, says, "Of all our farm products, feed grains probably have the brightest export future. We are the world's greatest and most efficient producer of these grains and are already the largest exporter. THE PARMER FARMER by W. H. Graham Jr.

It may be that our frequent disdain of the practice of letting irrigation water escape from a field with no apparent concern on the part of the land owner or renter grates on the nerves of some of our readers. We have, on occasion, heard some rather acid comments to that effect. "I'd like to see YOU irrigate and not have any water in the bar ditches" seems to be the general attitude of our critics. No doubt it is a difficult feat to make optimum use of irrigation water, especially on tighter soils and especially where there is a pronounced slope to the land. But there must be a way to get it done, because there ARE some farmers here on the High Plains who seldom let a drop escape. Most of these farmers are either very water conservation conscious or they have a limited supply and must conserve and stretch it.

Also, we have had our eyes open when we visited other parts of the country where irrigation is practiced on a big scale. We can say without reservation that the High Plains is the most flagrant waste area we have ever seen. We have seen the Lower and Middle Rio Grande, the big Pecos area of west Texas, the Portales Valley, Southeastern New Mexico, Western and Northwestern New Mexico, Southwestern Colorado, the Texas Coastal Plain, and many, many other projects, big and small, all over the Southwest. Some irrigation is from stored surface supplies, some from wells.

But there is no area in the Southwest that wastes water--precious water, without which our agricultural economy would crumble and fall in a few short months--as does the High Plains area. In spite of all the arguments there are about how difficult it is to use irrigation water without waste, the stark fact remains that only about a third of all the ground water pumped here on the High Plains is ever used by the plants themselves. From the moment that the water reaches the surface, waste begins, especially in the open ditch type of system which is still in common use. Evaporation and seepage from the ditch take their toll as the water is carried from the well to the point in the field to be irrigated.

Then, much of the water released down the row wets soil that has no roots in it. Evaporation is still at work. The soil profile is usually irrigated to a greater depth than the root zone at the top of the field. Swags or low spots and the tail-end of the field often suffer the same

Smith is also a public educator, having served for many years in public school systems as both a teacher and an administrator. He knows LAW, he knows EDUCATION, and is the only candidate so qualified.

County Judge A. D. Smith is fair and honest. He believes in doing what is right for the county as a whole. He avoids sectionalism. He will work for the interest of the county--not any one city or school district.

County Judge A. D. Smith has always worked harmoniously with County Commissioners Court. During his tenure of office, Parmer County has received its full quota of farm-to-market roads.

County Judge A. D. Smith believes in efficiency and economy in government, and has personally followed that philosophy. He has no office secretary and keeps the administrative costs of his office at a minimum. County judges in neighboring counties DO use extra help, but County Judge A. D. Smith writes his own letters, runs his own errands, and personally attends to each item of business. County Judge A. D. Smith is ON THE JOB full-time. The way to keep costs of administering this office low is to keep A. D. Smith county judge.

Financial condition of Parmer County is one of the best in the entire state. Money has been used wisely and without selfish motives. You can assure the continuance of such an excellent financial picture by returning County Judge A. D. Smith to office. He does not and will not spend public money foolishly, unwisely, or selfishly.

County Judge A. D. Smith is in excellent health and is approximately the same age as the present Speaker of the House of Representatives.

By his training, by his experience, by the record he has established, we can be assured that County Judge A. D. Smith will continue to hold court, administer school and county affairs, and personally attend to the hundreds of details that go with this important office, and WE SHOULD RETURN THIS DEDICATED PUBLIC SERVANT TO ANOTHER TERM OF OFFICE.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of lace and tulle embellished with seed pearls. Her veil was a crown of iridescent sequins and pearls. The pearls were a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of gar-lands of ribbon.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The table appointments were in the bride's colors and the serving table was centered with an arrangement of the bouquets of the bride and her attendants.

Friona Women Attend Convention

Mesdames Rene Snead, Ralph Price, A. L. Black, and D. L. Carmichael attended the Texas Home Demonstration Club Association meeting in the Austin Hotel at Austin Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of last week. Mesdames Snead, Price, and Carmichael were delegates and Mrs. Black was a visitor.

The Parmer county women joined 48 other club women from District 1 in Amarillo and the group traveled by chartered bus to the capitol city. In the absence of Governor Daniel, Zollie Steakley, Secretary of State, was the guest speaker at the Wednesday session. His topic was The Christian Home.

One phase of the convention was workshops on health, safety, citizenship, recreation, 4-H club work, civil defense, and education. It was impossible for each delegate to attend every meeting, but several of them were attended.

The recreational part of the convention was two skits, Mice and Men, and Entering The Pearly Gates. There were several conducted tours. In making one of the capitol building and grounds, the delegates noticed that air conditioning is being installed in the building for the first time.

Invitations were extended by the cities of Galveston and Corpus Christi for the 1959 convention. The local delegates report a very interesting and informative meeting and trip and suggest that all club women begin making plans now to attend the meeting next year.

Sixth Street Church of Christ

Friona, Texas Taking Advantage Of God

In the days of Noah (Genesis 6) God willed a change in the state of affairs. He had been long suffering with man. Man's wickedness had been great and "every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually." God allotted man one hundred and twenty years to straighten out his affairs and throughout the period patiently waited to see what he would do (1 Peter 3:20).

The people of the day took advantage of God's long-suffering quality and continued "eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and they knew not until the flood came and took them all away." (Matthew 24:38-39) They must have thought that because there was no evidence of his displeasure on them that he was either pleased or un-mindful of what they did. It was a matter of little consequence with them that God was not pleased with their manner of living.

Friend, herein is a wonderful lesson for you and me. God is not to be laughed at for he will do that which he has promised. He "is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is long suffering to you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." (1 Peter 3:9) Do not take advantage of his patience with you. Because things are well with you now, and because, seemingly, you are prospered as well as the man who devotes himself to God and submits to his teaching, do not elevate yourself against God or think that he is un-mindful of your neglect and disregard. As surely as he will bless the faithful he will punish the negligent and disobedient.

Lions Club Hears Needs Of Hospital

Members of the Friona Lions Club were told of the crying need of more money for the Farmer County Community Hospital at their regular Thursday night meeting. Dr. Paul Spring told members that the initial hospital drive, which was carried out several years ago, just raised enough money to get them into their new building and now with the threat of rising costs on every side the building payments and interest are threatening the security of the hospital.

"Our building payments are the margin between the hospital breaking even and going in the red each month," Dr. Spring says.

"You can imagine our problems when each month our costs run about $1200 just for the building," he says. Dr. Spring told of the hospital's owing some $50,000 borrowed from local individuals to complete the building, which is long overdue.

"This plus our building payments keep us hogtied at every turn," the doctor said.

"We have to pay our help, buy supplies, maintain the building and equipment and at the same time offer help to all comers and it has just proved impossible with this mortgage standing over our heads."

After hearing Dr. Spring, members of the club voted to organize a drive to help pay off the hospital's remaining building costs.

After hearing from Dr. Spring, the club heard from two representatives of Westinghouse from Amarillo.

The men outlined their recommendations for lighting the baseball field north of town.

After drawing diagrams on a blackboard and explaining how they arrived at their recommendations, the men told the Lions it would cost an estimated $2800 for equipment and materials to properly light the field. This included the use of poles and lights already on hand.

Members took no action on the baseball field problem.

George Jones presided at the meeting in the absence of Deon Awrey, president, who was away on vacation.

The following story was printed last week in the Hereford Brand, and will be of interest to many of our readers. It was written by Paul Buiar of the Associated Press and re-released from New York. Q. What's a purple people eater? A. It's just a riddle set to music.
At a recording session in January, songwriter Sheb Wooley went through a basket full of tunes that were turned down by MGM's repertoire man and president. In desperation, Wooley pulled out "Purple People Eater" which he had written as a gag. The arrangement was Wooley's idea and was recorded because there was nothing better available.
At the last count, the record sales were nearing the two million mark and the song has been recorded in 10 languages. Wooley receives the publisher's share of the profits as well as the composer's and performer's. Through this three way cut he should clear more than $200,000 besides the fringe benefits of Purple People Eater dolls, hats, novelty pins and various articles of clothing that are making their way to market.
The Navy's first electrically propelled ship, USS Jupiter, was launched August 24, 1912, at Mare Island, Calif.
The Marine Corps reached a maximum strength of 75,101 during World War I. World War II peak strength, reached August 31, 1945, was 485,113.

Juniors will report to the science room. Seniors will report to room 12. The principals requested that all new students (those students, outside of grades 1 through 6, who have not attended the Friona schools previously) report to their respective principal's office in either the grade school or the high school between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. Friday afternoon for registration.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Gandy and children from Tahoka were weekend guests in the home of Mrs. Gandy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Houston.

Ambitious Cyclists Head For San Diego

Friona was a haven for three sweat-soaked cyclists last Sunday afternoon who have as their goal pedaling their bicycles from Amarillo to San Diego "just to prove a point." In reality the boys began their trek north of Amarillo, near Dumas, and had gotten as far as Friona by noon Saturday after leaving their homes early Friday morning.

Werner, Rex Nicholl and his brother Larry Nicholl, of Amarillo, was all packed and ready to go when found lounging in the city park about 12 p.m. Saturday. "These shade trees sure did look good," one of the boys remarked after this reporter arrived. "We almost changed our minds after that 14 miles north of Hereford yesterday," another grinned. He was referring to a long grade north of Hereford which the boys fought in the face of a 25 to 30 mph breeze.

The boys have all the necessary camping gear, including blankets, spare bicycle parts, canned food and water, lashed to their light, English-style bicycles.

"We found that English tires just weren't designed to take goat heads," Werner laughed. "We began with two spare tires, and now are well on our way to having changed completely over to puncture-proof tires."

As he spoke he was ripping another of the English tires from the wheel and threw it aside—"These things just can't toe the mark."

The boys say they began on their journey to prove a point. To whom, they never said, but just to prove the "resourcefulness and integrity of the American male."

The boys, two of whom are college age and one a senior in high school, are all natives of Amarillo.

Werner is a junior government major in the University of Denver; Rex Nicholl, a senior journalism major in Marquette University and Larry Nicholl, a senior high school student.

"Well, it's not going to get any cooler," and with that parting remark the boys climbed on their cycles and began their trek toward San Diego.

Football Practice To Begin Monday Morning

Football will officially get under way Monday morning at 7 a.m. for members of the "A" and "B" teams of Friona, according to Head Coach Colie Huffman.

"We will work out two times a day until school begins, then drop back to once a day," Coach Huffman added. He asks that all boys that come out for the team bring their own supporters, towels, socks, shoes and $5 for their insurance and physical exams.

Members of the freshman team will not report for practice until Friday, Aug. 29, Coach Huffman says. The Chiefs' fortunes for the coming season look a bit gloomy according to Huffman.

The 1957 district champs lost 17 lettermen from their squad including All-district Halfback Jackie Sheek, who moved to Louisiana.

Eleven returning lettermen will make up the "core" of the 1958 Chief team and will include two-year lettermen, Jon Mac Roden, senior center; Gary Brooks, junior back and Bomar Stacey, senior back.

Other returning lettermen include Gary Bradley, end, junior; Monroe Young, tackle, senior; Larry Moyer, end, senior; Owen Ray Houston, guard, senior; Gary Dean McLaughlin, tackle, senior; Gary Goetz, end, junior; Kim Caffey, tackle, senior; and Chauncy Woodey, center, senior.

Dalhart has been named as the "team to watch" in the new district in which the Chiefs will be competing this year.

They were picked for the nod at the coaches' school as the most likely team to win in District 1AA.

"All four of the teams are strong, but the coaches felt that Dalhart would be the strongest of the four," Huffman says. Season opener for the Chiefs will be September 5 at 8 p.m. against Sunray at Sunray. First home game will be Happy at Friona on September 19.

A complete schedule of games is as follows: Chiefs '58 Schedule Sept. 4—Sunray at Sunray; Sept. 11—Amherst at Amherst; Sept. 19—Happy at Friona;
