Three watch aircraft plunge to Earth near Grady

Lenorah, Tarzan men perish in plane crash

By MARJ CARPENTER

Two Martin County men were killed at 7:10 p.m. Monday when a Cherokee Warrior piloted by Charles Blake, 39, of Lenorah, crashed into a plowed field one-half mile north of the Grady School off State Highway 176.

Blake and a passenger, Terry Welch, 19, of Tarzan, were killed instantly when the plane nosed into a field near the farm home of Jerry Welch, brother of Terry.

The two men were thrown from the plane with one body found 140 feet from the plane and the other one 40 feet away.

Three witnesses, Glen Holloway and his son, Jerry Holloway, Blake's son-in-law, and Charles Hull of Big Spring, were standing in the yard of the Holloway farm home when the plane banked in a wide turn and nose-dived to the earth.

A high wind was blowing at the time of the crash and a tornado watch in effect for Martin County, according to Deputy Tim Hudson of the Martin County sheriff's office. Justice of the Peace M.L. Gibson pronounced the two men dead at the scene.

The plane belonged to Captain Chris Deitrich of Webb Air Force Base and was used by members of a local flying club. Blake had approximately a year's flying experience.

Funeral for Welch is set for 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel with Loyd Morris, Big Spring minister, officiating. Gilbreath Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park in Big Spring. Welch was a member of the Westside Church of Christ. Born in Big Spring Dec. 8, 1956, Terry lived all of his life in the Tarzan community. He attended high school in Big Spring, joined the navy for a term and then returned to high school here.

Survivors include his parents, Mr.

and Mrs. L. V. Welch, and two brothers, Jerry Welch of Lenorah and Mike Welch of Midland; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Howard Sr., Big Spring and two nephews. Commissioner Eldon Welch of Martin County is a cousin.

Funeral services for Blake are pending at Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home. Blake, who farmed and also worked for Cosden Refinery, was born in Big Spring April 4, 1937, raised in the Knott community and attended school there.

He had resided in Lenorah for the past 17 years and for the past six years served as Democratic Chairman of Martin County. He and his wife, Betty Jane Hill, were married in Ackerly on June 26, 1956. He was a member of the Ackerly First United Methodist Church and the Moose Lodge.

Survivors include his widow of the home, two daughters, Mrs. Jerry (Tahita) Holloway and BeLynda Blake, both of Lenorah and two sons, Don Blake and David Ray Blake, of Lenorah.

Other survivors include his parents, Johnny Blake and Mrs. Agnes Ray Blake, both of Big Spring and a brother, Melvin Dean Blake of Valdez, Alaska. A son preceded him in death.

Ford to campaign in West Texas Friday

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford begins his longest speaking tour of the campaign today, aiming at Texas voters who will choose between him and Ronald Reagan on Saturday in a primary that Ford terms an uphill battle.

Ford was making an afternoon flight to Barksdale Air Force Base, La., and nearby Shreveport to conduct a public forum and address the annual military ball of the Louisiana National Guard.

The Louisiana stops, which precede an overnight stay in Longview, Tex., were on the agenda because Shreveport's television stations claim sizeable audiences in the Piney Woods country of East Texas.

In a filmed interview Monday with KMOL-TV of San Antonio, Ford said he is the underdog in the May 1 primary, with 96 delegates at stake. But he added, "I think we have an opportunity to close the gap and make it a very, very tight race."

Reagan has been critical of Ford's national security policy, and Ford armed himself with fresh political ammunition on his second campaign trip to the state. Late Monday, Ford asked Congress for an extra $322.4 million to buy Minuteman III missiles and new, more powerful nuclear warheads for the intercontinental weapons.

Reagan has contended that Ford has allowed the United States to lapse into second place in military power. But the President told the San Antonio station, "I don't think there are any reliable sources that say the United States is No. 2."

On Reagan's statements that the Soviets have about twice as many men under arms as the United States, Ford said "only about half of those are what we would call active duty military forces."

Ford added that "if Mr. Reagan is saying that the United States should have four million men, not 2.1 million, then I think you have to assume that he is expecting to reinstitute the draft...."

Ford will make appearances Wednesday in Tyler, Fort Worth and Houston. On Thursday, he will go to Conroe, Waco and Dallas. He will visit Lubbock and Abilene on Friday before returning to Washington.

TWO KILLED — Charles Blake of Lenorah and Terry Welch of Tarzan were killed when this Cherokee Warrior fell into a field north of the Grady School at 7:10 p.m. Monday. Two area pilots look over the wreckage Monday night. The Federal Aviation Administration will conduct an investigation of the crash.

Eddie Acri gets plaque

Runoff canvassed, McLaughlin in

By JAMES WERRELL

Ralph McLaughlin was officially sworn in today as place two councilman at the regular meeting of the Big Spring City Council. A resolution canvassing the runoff election between McLaughlin and Jack Watkins and a declaration of the results were unanimously approved by the council.

Results of the election showed that Watkins received 1,075 votes to McLaughlin's 1,145 votes. A plaque recognizing devoted efforts in behalf of the city will be awarded by Mayor Wade Choate to outgoing councilman Eddie Acri who did not attend the meeting.

Also at the meeting, Bessie Love, chairman of the Howard County Council on Aging, requested additional funds from the city to pay salaries of the agency's director and its information and referral coordinator. Salaries are currently paid through federal funding under Title Six which expires June 30.

Funds amounting to half of the total salary figure were granted by the council until October when the figure will be reassessed. The council agreed to provide the funds on the condition that the amount is matched by monies from the county.

Total salary cost is $882 per month. City and county allotments will come to $441 apiece, each month until October.

In other business, the council approved a resolution authorizing Mayor Choate to enter into contract with Howard College for computer services. Under the new system reports of warehouse stock, vehicle and equipment maintenance, the general ledger, accounts payable checks, accounts receivable invoices, encumbrances; personal property taxes, real property taxes, utility billing, bank drafts, payroll, inventory and personnel will be shuttled through the computers at Howard College.

The contract figure for the approved system is $45,000. But with the additional cost of extra materials and hiring a key-punch operator, the final cost will be comparable to that of the present system, around $58,000.

"The cost is not the main factor. We are looking for better services," said Tom Ferguson, city finance director.

According to council members, many of the reports now covered by the system may be eliminated or substituted in the future. It is also thought that if other local agencies, such as the Big Spring Independent School District, adopt the use of the system, costs to the city will be reduced.

The council also awarded a bank depository bid to Security State Bank. The bid offering the highest rate of interest was accepted, and all three local banks submitted bids.

In the city manager's report, Harry Nagel told the council of plans to issue a memorandum to local animal wardens regarding stray dogs. Nagel will request that wardens begin to issue tickets to owners of barking dogs or owners of dogs running at large.

Barking dog owners will be subject to a fine of not less than $10 or more than $100. Stray dog owners may be fined up to $200. Fines may be appealed in Municipal Court.

Nagel also advised that city funds are available for the demolition of unsightly or ramshackle property. Owners of such property should contact city hall for further details.

Hail batters San Angelo area

By The Associated Press

Severe thunderstorms with one-inch hail battered the San Angelo area early today after tornadoes were sighted in less populated sections of West Texas before midnight Monday.

Thunderstorm warnings were issued twice after midnight for Tom Green and Irion counties. Other early morning storms brought rainfall to eastern counties of the Panhandle and to West Texas between Midland and San Angelo.

Before dawn, winds up to 45 miles per hour buffeted the Abilene area along with thunderstorms that were moving toward the east. The thunderstorms were expected to continue drifting eastward during the day.

Temperatures at 5 a.m. varied from 48 degrees at Tyler and 49 at Texarkana in East Texas to 74 at Corpus Christi on the southern coast.

A tornado watch was issued for parts of North Central, Northwest and Southwest Texas after severe thunderstorms and some funnel clouds developed in West Texas and the South Plains. Several tornadoes were sighted in Floyd and Motley counties northeast of Lubbock.

Monday's high temperature of 95 degrees at Presidio in far West Texas also was the nation's maximum reading.

Bancroft elected president of Dora Roberts rehab board

Big Spring attorney Ben Bancroft has been elected president of the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center Board of Directors.

Bancroft, formerly vice president, succeeds Tom Locke, who resigned after being transferred to Wichita Falls.

The position of vice president on the board remains unfilled as the directors met Monday and decided to await the report of a nominating committee.

Locke's place on the board was taken by Ken Perry, newly named president of Cosden.

The board also voted to purchase a wall-type smoke detector, which was one of the recommendations of the certification team which visited the center several weeks ago.

To meet another recommendation of this team, the board also adopted a "conflict of interest" clause to be added to the by-laws which states that should the center consider doing business with any director, three bids will be sought and the lowest one taken.

The center will submit written documentation that recommendations from the certification team have been fulfilled.

In other action, Dr. Nell Sanders was named chairman of the board's Administrative Committee.

Absentee voting to end at 5 p.m.

No more primary ballots will be mailed and no more absentee voting will be allowed after 5 p.m. today, County Clerk Margaret Ray said.

Mailed ballots received by 1 p.m. Saturday, election day, will be counted.

At noon, 237 Democrats had voted absentee, while 41 Democratic ballots had not been returned yet by mail.

In the Republican primary, 121 absentee votes had been cast. There were 37 yet to be received by mail at the county clerk's office.

Focalpoint

Action/reaction: Any plans?

Q. I recently moved to Big Spring from Odessa and wished to point out that whoever said Big Spring streets were dirtier and bumpier than those in Odessa, has never been on the south or west sides of Odessa. Some of their streets have not been improved since the 40s. They maintain that the cost is high. Are there any plans to save the older streets in Big Spring?

A. City Manager, Harry Nagel, said, "During the past three years we have paved over 200 new blocks of dirt streets. This is something that had needed doing in Big Spring for many years. We also have finally started the overpass, are doing something about Scurry Street improvements and are planning the 11th Place extension. We have recently been discussing with the city engineer that rather than begin any more new paving projects in next year's budget, we will go back and attempt to improve some of our older streets in order to save them. I would also like to say that although our street's maintenance head, Tom Arista, claimed we have the wrong kind of sweeper, it is the same kind used by Odessa and Midland. Big Spring has an additional problem in that we are not level like Midland and Odessa and everytime it rains, dirt and gravel drifts down the hills with the rain."

In Pennsylvania primary

Carter, Jackson forecast victory

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Jimmy Carter, Henry Jackson and Morris Udall each forecast success today in Pennsylvania's presidential primary, a race that could determine whether there's room for the brokers at the Democratic National Convention.

If Carter, the former Georgia governor, wins decisively it could make him tougher to stop in the remaining primaries.

Victory by Jackson or Udall, however, would increase the possibility that Minnesota Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, an easy winner in Pennsylvania four years ago, will become a candidate after June 8, when all the primaries are over.

President Ford was alone on the Republican ballot, unchallenged in Pennsylvania by Ronald Reagan. The 103 GOP delegates will be uncommitted, though all are expected to be in Ford's pocket.

Statewide, Pennsylvanians nominated candidates for the U.S. Senate seat now held by retiring Republican Minority Leader Hugh Scott. Two congressmen are among the contestants to succeed Scott, Democrat William Green of Philadelphia and Republican H. John Heinz III of Pittsburgh.

There were 2,801,649 Democrats and 2,221,639 Republicans eligible to vote. At stake were party nominations for state treasurer, state auditor general, 25 seats in Congress, half of the seats in the 50-member state Senate and all 203 state representative seats.

The 9,638 polling places in 67 counties remain open 13 hours, closing at 8 p.m.

It's the presidential sweepstakes that offers the glamour, and in Pennsylvania it was a two-part primary—1. The nonbinding popularity contest, and 2. The election of convention delegates.

Carter, claiming his polls indicated he was the choice of a majority of the people, said he would win the popularity voting provided the turnout was good.

Jackson, the U.S. senator from Washington State, said he would get a majority of the 134 convention delegates to be elected, plus a proportionate share of the 44 others to be selected later by the party's state committee.

Udall, who represents Arizona in Congress, predicted he would finish no worse than second in both the popularity and delegate battles.

Besides the three top contenders, the Democratic ballot also listed Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, Indiana Sen. Birch Bayh, anti-abortion candidate Ellen McCormack, former Oklahoma Sen. Fred Harris and Pennsylvania Gov. Milton J. Shapp.

Shapp, Bayh and Harris quit the presidential race after failing to make any impact in the early primaries.

Jackson, backed by most of the state's labor officials and many party leaders, bristled at suggestions that he is a fading candidate simply heading a stop-Carter movement for Humphrey's eventual entry.

"I don't get involved in such suppositions and iffy questions," Jackson told reporters. "Humphrey is not a candidate (and) I'm going to do very well."

Carter planned to take his campaign to Connecticut today, Udall headed for Maryland and Jackson rested at his Washington, D.C. home.

All rented hotel ballrooms in Philadelphia and prepared to wait for returns there.

In other political developments: —President Ford began four days of campaigning in Texas today, hunting votes for the May 1 primary. Reagan returns there Thursday. A Ford aide said Reagan appears to have the lead now in the fight for the 100 Texas delegates.

—Gov. Edmund Brown Jr. of California plunges into the presidential battle for the first time Wednesday in Maryland. He said "it's hard to predict" how he'll do in the May 18 primary there but that he wants to give the voters "a broader choice" on a Democratic nominee.

—Senate Democratic leaders called on Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller to apologize or produce evidence to support his reported allegations that Communists had infiltrated Jackson's staff.

—The Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of an Indiana law which kept Udall's name off the ballot for the state's May 4 primary.

Law enforcement conflict discussed

Property tax changes proposed

By JOHN EDWARDS

State Rep. Mike Ezzell, D-Snyder, told a group at Gomez Hall Monday night about plans to change property taxation methods.

"Every school in the state will have to use the same standards to determine values..." Ezzell, who is seeking re-election, said.

Ezzell explained how the state distributes money to school districts in an attempt to equalize district finances.

In addition to "equalizing education throughout the state," Ezzell mentioned several problem areas for state government.

Officials are "looking at a balanced budget with no new taxes" and "looking at rising utility cost problems," the representative of the 63rd legislative district said.

His opponent, Bill Atwood Jr., also a Snyder Democrat, did not appear at the program held by the American G.I. Forum and Mexican-American Service Council.

RICK HAMBY, one of two candidates for district attorney of the 118th Judicial District, was the next introduced by Gus Ochotorena Jr.

Hamby said he favored a drug education program in public schools.

"Very recently, we lived with a myth that Big Spring has no big drug problem," Hamby told one questioner. "But you and I know it exists."

"I've been practicing law about two and one-half years," Hamby said.

"My practice has dealt almost exclusively with criminal law," Hamby said.

"I'll be a 29-year-old district attorney if I'm fortunate," Hamby said. "There's been a lot of slaps taken at my age."

"By being vibrant, aggressive," Hamby said he would convince the criminal that "if he violates the law, he's going to be prosecuted."

"Do you think you can handle the hassling that has been happening within the three agencies of law enforcement of this county?" Nabor Martinez asked.

Yes, tension could be lessened by "sitting down and talking" with peace officers, Hamby said.

JAMES W. (JIM) GREGG, the second Big Spring candidate for district attorney, introduced himself as city attorney for Big Spring, Stanton and Colorado City.

"I've had the sheriff and most (local) law enforcement officers in my (college) classes in the last three years," Gregg said.

"There's been some talk that the police department is the one that got me to run for district attorney," Gregg said. "That's not true at all."

"My duty as city attorney is to prosecute class C misdemeanors in city court," Gregg said. "The same rules of criminal procedure and trial procedure apply in district court."

"I was fairly old, I was 37 when I started practicing law nine years ago," Gregg said.

The first year, Gregg said he defended three persons accused of murder, adding he wouldn't say what the outcome was.

"I feel I can reason with the law enforcement officer and point out the mistake without having any animosity at all," Gregg said. "There's going to be some conflict between the law enforcement officers and the prosecutor, but it's just built in. I think I can keep it at a minimum."

SHERIFF A.N. STAN-DARD, the next speaker, was asked if he would cooperate with the next district attorney.

Standard said he would cooperate with any prosecutor "if they'll point out my shortcomings."

After asking what the district attorney requires of the sheriff's office, "we will try to meet them all the way," Standard said.

Standard was commended for employing Mexican-Americans as deputy sheriffs but was asked about having no blacks on his staff.

"If the opportunity presents itself" (to hire a black), we would certainly take advantage of it," Standard said.

"I'm just as interested in the position of sheriff as if I was running opposed," Standard said, explaining his appearance.

O.L. (LOUIS) BROWN, a candidate for county commissioner of precinct one, said he was a high school graduate and worked for the Dawson County Cotton Growers for seven years.

The American G.I. Forum, Mexican-American Service Council and American Legion are among the groups to which he belongs.

"I've always been involved in politics here," Brown said.

If elected, the first thing Brown said he would do would be to "clean up the eyegore" of trash and tumbleweeds around the county road department barn.

Brown would "inform all the citizens what's going on in the county."

SIMON (CY) TERRAZAS, the incumbent commissioner of precinct one, felt juvenile cases and welfare cases should be handled without publicity.

Terrazas was questioned longer than any other candidate.

"I don't have any apologies to make for the 11 years I've been county commissioner," Terrazas said.

"I'm very happy to announce we're in good financial shape," Terrazas said. "As a matter of fact, we lowered the tax rate from $1.04 to 95 cents," he said. The reduction was possible because of reduced bonded indebtedness.

Terrazas said Howard County had "one of the best road systems in the State of Texas."

The commissioner's court built fair barns "that were good for everybody for weddings and dances," Terrazas said.

Brown said no county officials attended a recent rally for Webb Air Force Base, and Terrazas was asked about this. Terrazas said he did attend a meeting with Col. Robert Owens, base commander.

"I would do anything toward appropriating money for that purpose," keeping the base open, Terrazas said.

"I have been instrumental in employing not less than 23 or 24 Mexican-Americans, Terrazas said.

"In the road and bridge department, which is strictly under the County Commissioners Court, I have seen around 19 or 20 that have been employed."

Some have quit for better jobs, the commissioner added.

"Our percentage was nothing when I went in as county commissioner," Terrazas said.

"Personally, I'm for unionizing the county," Terrazas said. He referred to the union for road department employees. "One reason I wanted it was to protect my people the very best we can. Seniority rules."

Martinez asked three last questions.

1. What about the salt lake on the north side of Big Spring?

"We have plans to take the water out of there and get rid of the mosquitoes," Terrazas said.

2. What is the commissioner's position on using county funds to help finance the state protective services agency for children?

"We have a lady that's very good in welfare," Terrazas said. In the past, the State Department of Public Welfare didn't have money when the county wanted a jointly-funded office.

3. Martinez thought "the people should be appointed to higher positions not just blue-collar and clerical jobs." Standard said, explaining his appearance.

"If you want to, we'll turn one of the fountains off," Terrazas quipped. "I haven't heard of any disrespect to the Mexican-Americans in the courthouse, Terrazas said.

ZIRAH L. BEDNAR, the incumbent county tax assessor-collector, mentioned her experience.

"I do try and do a job in which you can be proud," Mrs. Bednar said.

HELEN EGGLESTON, the other candidate for tax assessor-collector, mentioned working the last nine years with auto titles, insurance and finance.

"I did this to give people a choice," Mrs. Eggleston said. "I feel we need a choice when we go to the polls."

BOB WEST, justice of the peace, was brief also.

West said he was graduated from Coahoma High School in 1947, was a Korean conflict veteran and had completed a 40-hour course required for JPs.

West mentioned being appointed to complete the unexpired term of Walter Grice for JP precinct one, place one.

A. G. MITCHELL, the second candidate for JP, said: "I've been serving in law enforcement for 33 years, longer than some of you are old. I served back when Big Spring was tough."

"First, I want to introduce my little wife," the former county judge interjected.

Mitchell mentioned serving as Big Spring chief of police and chief of criminal investigation for Sheriff Standard.

"The first (minority) secretary that was ever hired was hired by this fellow right here," Mitchell said.

"They cut her job off," Mitchell said. "Then, what did I do? I created another job."

"I'll treat you like God's people if you'll let me just be treated the same," Mitchell said.

Mitchell told a humorous story about West having an accident while building a dam on a ranch. West asked Mitchell if he was going to get his mules to vote.

RAFORD DUNAGAN, the Howard County Democratic Chairman, said he was born and reared in Elbow and has lived in Howard County all his life.

His opponent, Robert E. Hutte, was not present.

Party officials are working "to put together an election that would be fair," Dunagan said.

"I see the office as an office of communication," Dunagan said. "We hope we're able to keep the communication line open."

County Clerk Margaret Ray and Wanda Anderson, deputy county clerk, demonstrated use of punch-card voting machines.

GRANDDADDY FLAG OF THEM ALL — Two painters on a scaffold are dwarfed as they paint the side of the Vehicle Assembly Building at the Kennedy Space Center in Florida recently, working to complete the world's largest American flag ever painted. The flag, measuring 110 feet wide and 209 feet long, adorns the side of the 525-foot-high building as part of the center's Bicentennial Exposition on Science and Technology.

Republicans' forum today

An open forum to hear delegates for both Republican Presidential candidates will be held at 7:30 p.m. today in the clubroom at First Federal Savings and Loan.

The speakers are all voting delegates from Abilene. The meeting is open to the public.

Herbert L. Butrum, an Abilene Christian College student and Douglas B. Brodie will speak for President Ford, Al D. Scott and Marcus Anderson will speak for Ronald Reagan.

Local Republicans are sponsoring the forum, which is open to persons from either party who wish to hear the two sides of the issue prior to Saturday's primary.

Vote supplies to be given out

Election officials and workers for the Republican and Democratic Party are invited to attend a slide presentation in the county courtroom at 8 p.m. Thursday.

"Election School '76" is distributed by the Texas Secretary of State, County Clerk Margaret Ray said. Election supplies will be given out in the county clerk's office prior to the program.

CRMWD meet called May 6

Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District will have their next meeting at 10 a.m. May 6, in the district headquarters office building at 400 East 24th Street here.

Agenda items include consideration of a request for additional concession acreage at Lake E. V. Spence, installation of permanent chlorination facilities to maintain pipelines at maximum capacity, adjustment of hospitalization rates, and passing on a request by an Odessa industry for the district to sponsor (without cost to the district) water pollution control facilities.

Police beat

Billy Menton, 1311 Madison, reported a theft from his residence of various tools and hoses valued at $662. He said an employee of his just "up and moved away" without notice, taking with him three expensive staple guns, 200 feet of rubber hose and various hand tools.

A pair of juveniles, 13 and 14, were taken into custody by Odessa police after they were stopped by the highway patrol one mile east of Big Spring on IS 20. They were originally stopped as possible drunk drivers, but it was learned that they were runaways from Richland Hills, who had gotten as far as Odessa and allegedly made a car with the keys in it to make their return trip.

Rick White called police and advised them that someone was trying to get into his house at 1501 W. 5th. The officers on the scene determined that the noises were made by the wind and everything was "all right."

A minor accident was reported at 6:54 p.m.

Lions push Deaths bulb sale

Downtown Lions today continue their annual light bulb sale to benefit their sight conservation and blind fund.

The sale was launched Monday, and after a Wednesday respite, will conclude Thursday, said Dave Morrison, general chairman.

During the past year the club has financed around $1,600 in sight aid, principally eye glasses for boys and girls who needed but could not afford them. Some adults were helped also, along with other assistance to blind. Another $400 was invested in other humanitarian programs, including the Lions League of Texas Crippled Children camp, which also serves during winter months as a training station for the blind.

Costumes and settings have been prepared by the various units participating in the pageant. Tickets for the event may be had from any Cub or Scout or may be had ($1) at the gate Friday.

Bill Bradford, general chairman, said Lewis' tape for the show was outstanding. He urged all unit leaders whose boys will be in acts II and IV to have their groups present this evening.

"It is absolutely necessary that we have all boys and leaders in units present for the overall rehearsal Thursday evening," he said.

"What we have seen looks fine and I believe people who see it will be impressed and go away inspired about their country."

County assessor-collector contest becoming costliest

Of the countywide and precinct primary election bids, the race for nomination to county tax assessor-collector is becoming the costliest, finance statements indicate.

What the latest statements, which were due Saturday, revealed follows:

COUNTY TAX ASSESSOR-COLLECTOR

Zirah L. Bednar (the incumbent) — Additional expenditures of $208 brought

COMMISSIONER OF PRECINCT ONE

O. L. (Louis) Brown — No new donations were made to his campaign although Brown showed $145 for the previous period. New spending came to $20, which pushes the total cost of running over $374.

Simon (Cy) Terrazas (the incumbent) — With no contributors helping, Terrazas has spent $550 seeking reelection, including $29 spent during the last period.

COMMISSIONER OF PRECINCT THREE

Oliver (Bud) Nichols Jr. — No contributions were received. New expenditures total $34, making the total campaign cost $314.

Aubrey S. Goodwin — No contributions were received, and no more was spent. Goodwin showed $374 spent during the previous period.

William B. (Bill) Crooker Jr. (the incumbent) — Being unopposed in the Republican Primary, Crooker is not required to file a campaign finance statement.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, PRECINCT ONE, PLACE ONE

A. G. Mitchell — No contributions were shown. Spending $30 pushed the total campaign cost to $216.

Bobby J. West — With no new donations, the contribution total remains $135. Another $141 was spent adding up to $521 for the campaign.

CONSTABLE OF PRECINCT ONE

Lee Young — This candidate filed a late report for the previous period but failed to file one for the last reporting period. During the previous period, Young indicates he spent $150 and received no contributions.

Robert C. (Bob) Smith — Smith reports no new expenditures, leaving the total $200. He listed no donations.

SHERIFF

Aubrey N. Standard (the incumbent) — Standard is running unopposed in both the primary and general election. He, therefore, was not required to file a campaign finance statement, but he did anyway. He has spent a total of $205 and received no donations.

Pops concert booked tonight

The annual Pops Concert will be held at the Big Spring High School auditorium at 8 p.m. today with all high school choirs participating.

The prize-winning Meistersingers, the a cappella choir and the freshman choir will be presented in the concert. Admission is $1 per person.

All music in the concert will be contemporary selections from the past six or eight years.

Carter may include Abilene on presidential campaign tour

Gov. Jimmy Carter may include Abilene on a presidential campaign tour through Texas Thursday or Friday, a Carter spokesman revealed Monday.

Should Carter stop in Abilene, all five candidates listed on both the GOP and Democratic ballots statewide will have set down in Abilene.

The others are Democrats Lloyd Bentsen and Gov. George Wallace and President Gerald Ford and Gov. Ronald Reagan, the Republican nominees.

Carter reportedly will spend two hours in Abilene.

Energy Former Big Spring resident elected oil company veep

DALLAS — American Petrofina Inc., has announced the election of three vice presidents with responsibilities as follows:

S. T. Bogan, controller; K. K. Byrd, information services; and Lee A. Adams, acquisitions. Bogan formerly resided in Big Spring.

Bogan and Byrd were vice presidents of American Petrofina Company of Texas, a wholly owned subsidiary, in similar capacity. Adams was manager of acquisitions for the subsidiary.

Bogan's responsibilities include accounting and budgeting, financial reporting and financial forecasting.

Under Byrd's supervision are all phases of data processing, systems, programming and development and implementation of new com-

American Petrofina announces election of vice presidents

American Petrofina, Inc., today announced the election of three vice presidents with responsibilities as follows: Rene P. Brown, engineering and research and development; Jerry G. Jenkins, chemical operations; and Kenneth D. Naumann, chemical sales.

All three are also vice presidents of Cosden Oil & Chemical Company, a wholly owned subsidiary, headquartered at Big Spring.

Brown's responsibilities include all engineering for the company's chemical and refining operations, including process and project engineering, technical services, and research and development. The company has chemical plants at Big Spring and Port Arthur, Texas; Carville, Louisiana; and Calumet City, Ill., and refineries at Big Spring, Mt. Pleasant and Port Arthur, Texas, and El Dorado, Kan.

Operations under Jenkins include all chemical operations at Big Spring, Calumet City and Carville, special projects and licensing.

Naumann's supervision includes all petrochemical and plastic sales from sales offices in Dallas, Chicago, Los Angeles and Stamford, Connecticut.

Brown was elected vice president, engineering and research, Cosden Oil & Chemical Company, in April 1972. He joined Cosden in January 1957 as a junior chemical engineer in the technical department. He transferred to the polystyrene project in 1958 and later became manager of research and control. In April 1967 he was elected vice president, research, and in 1972 was named vice president, engineering and research. Brown is a member of Cosden's board of directors. A native of Dallas County, Brown received his BS degree in chemical engineering from the University of Texas.

Jenkins joined Cosden Oil and Chemical Company as a senior process engineer in 1958. Later he was named assistant manager of the technical department, advanced to chief process engineer, and in 1964 became manager, licensing and chemical development. Jenkins was elected vice president, licensing in April 1967, and in 1972, was elected vice president, chemical operations. He is a native of Lancaster, Texas, and received a BS degree in chemical engineering from Texas A&M University. He holds a Cosden directorship.

Naumann was elected vice president, chemical sales in January 1970. He joined Cosden in 1962 as a distribution sales manager in Chicago. He became Midwest regional marketing manager in 1965 and moved to New York as national sales manager in 1967. He moved to Cosden's Dallas office in 1973. A native of Oak Park, Ill., Naumann graduated from St. Ambrose College in Davenport, Iowa.

Byrd joined the company July, 1966 and became manager, Systems and Economic Planning. In October, 1968, he was named treasurer of American Petrofina Company of Texas and has served in the capacity of vice president, Information Services since January, 1971. He is a native of Archer City, Texas. He graduated from the University of Texas with highest honors with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree. He became a Certified Public Accountant in 1954.

Adams joined the company in February, 1968, following extensive experience in engineering, exploration and production phases of the oil industry. A native of Oklahoma, he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Petroleum Engineering from the University of Oklahoma.

Local Cerebral Palsy campaign takes shape

Residents of Big Spring will have a special opportunity to do their part in the fight against cerebral palsy — a condition caused by damage to the brain, usually at birth — when United Cerebral Palsy of Texas launches its campaign here during the month of May, according to UCP County Chairman Ted Ferrell.

Approximately 40,000 children and adults live in Texas and are served by United Cerebral Palsy affiliates throughout the state by programs that enable each cerebral palsied individual to develop his capabilities to the fullest.

In addition to supporting these programs, Ferrell reported that 25 per cent of funds raised during the campaign will support State and National UCP programs, which include research into the causes of cerebral palsy, specialized medical training, and guarding the interests of the cerebral palsied and other handicapped individuals in governmental programs.

United Cerebral Palsy of Texas provides wheelchairs, braces, corrective shoes, crutches, and a summer camping experience. In addition a State Program Director is available for Parent counseling. Literature on cerebral palsy is available at no cost to parents, teachers, and students, according to Ted Ferrell.

"The Residential Drive, headed up by Mrs. Pansy Pearl Loper, will begin the first day of May and extend through the week," said Ferrell. "Walker envelopes may be brought during the week to my office at 1505 Scurry street."

Both men were jailed for public drunkenness and remained there today.

World

Missile decision depends

WASHINGTON (AP) — A final Ford administration decision on producing additional long-range Minuteman III missiles will hinge on the course of U.S.-Soviet nuclear arms limitation talks and Russian weapons growth between now and September. The Pentagon plans to speed procurement of more powerful new multiple warheads for Minuteman III intercontinental ballistic missiles (ICBM) regardless of whether the negotiating deadlock is broken.

Senate mulls spy control

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate now must decide whether to reveal the U.S. budget for spying and whether to approve any of the Senate intelligence committee's 86 recommendations for tightening control over spy agencies. White House aides say they will make a major effort to dissuade the Senate from disclosing the U.S. intelligence budget, which was deleted at the last moment from the intelligence committee's final report.

Humidity cuts fire hazard

WASHINGTON (AP) — Keeping the humidity high in your house may not only be more comfortable, but it also could give you added minutes to escape in case of fire, a Harvard University physicist said today. Dr. Howard W. Emmons said increased moisture in walls boosts their heat capacity — the ability to absorb heat without a large rise in temperature.

Lebanese election mullied

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Speaker Kamel Assaad scheduled a meeting today of the parliamentary rules committee to discuss plans for the election of President Suleiman Franjeh's successor. Assaad flew to Damascus Monday to talk with President Hafez Assad and other Syrian leaders about the election by the 99-member parliament. Police reported 78 persons killed and 96 wounded after midnight Sunday in Beirut, the neighboring hill towns and northern Lebanon. But they said during the day Monday the fighting in the Beirut area subsided into sporadic sniping.

Kissinger wants talk

LUSAKA, Zambia (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger called today for negotiations to give Rhodesia black majority rule in two years. Kissinger also told Prime Minister Ian Smith's white Rhodesian government it cannot expect U.S. support at any stage in its conflict with black liberation movements. In a policy speech prepared for a luncheon given by President Kenneth Kaunda of Zambia, the secretary said the Ford administration will urge Congress to repeal the Byrd Amendment authorizing U.S. imports of Rhodesian chrome in defiance of United Nations sanctions.

Cousin wants more time

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A cousin of the late Howard Hughes has asked for an additional four to five weeks to complete a worldwide search for the eccentric billionaire's will. Documents filed in Los Angeles Superior Court Monday by Richard C. Gano Jr. included a letter signed by Hughes March 3, 1938. The letter asked a Texas bank to place two envelopes — one reportedly containing the will, the other instructions — in safekeeping.

Jobs bill considered

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is studying a bill that would require the federal government to reduce unemployment to 3 per cent, but the measure is already being attacked by President Ford, who says it would cost too much money. The bill, which Ford called "a vast election year boondoggle," was introduced by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey and would set a deadline of four years for the unemployment rate to hit the 3 per cent mark.

Borden County prospector

A prospector was slated in Borden this week 12 miles east of Gail.

J & R Oil Co., Abilene, will drill the No. 1 Kent Holmes, et al, an 8,500-foot wildcat in Borden County, 1/2 mile south of the depleted Wichita-Albany opener and lone producer from that pay and more recently Clearfork opener and 3/4 miles east of the current lone Pennsylvania producer in the Lucy field.

This is separated from the former by a 4,130-foot failure, and 1/2 mile north-west of an 8,242-foot failure.

Location is 2,093 feet from the north and 753 feet from the east lines of 266-97-H&TC.

Wichita-Albany production was at 5,696 feet. Clearfork is at 4,065 feet and Pennsylvania at 7,692 feet.

Reed: No draw-down of Webb AFB

Three miscellaneous items relating to Webb Air Force Base:

1) SECRETARY of the Air Force Thomas Reed promised the Big Spring delegation in Washington that there would be no draw-down of Webb before the final decision on the base is made later this year.
It looks like to me that he has certainly kept that promise.
My understanding is that Webb right now has one of the busiest flying schedules that it has had in a long time. The load is heavy, and there is quite a bit of weekend work taking place.
Also, there are as many people on the base — if not more — than there have been. Apartment owners in Big Spring say that the demand has increased, if anything.

The Air Force has been shooting straight with us, and that's much appreciated.

2) According to a Kansas City, Mo., Chamber of Commerce bulletin, a petition drive is going on to ask President Ford to study personally the Air Force's proposals for reduction of Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base.

This is of interest to us in Big Spring because Richards-Gebaur is the first base which the military has attempted to close since the National Environmental Policy Act.
This one has been tied up in legal action for more than a year.

The Kansas City chamber is trying to get 100,000 citizens to ask Ford to look at Richards-Gebaur. The Kansas City Jaycees were circulating 2,000 copies of the petition.

3) AT BIG SPRING Rotary Club last week, former Thunderbird pilot Ralph Brooks stood up in the audience and made a statement which I think is important for us all to remember.

Brooks noted that, although the immediate reason why support bases such as Webb must be closed is the decline in the number of pilots being trained, that reason only points to a deeper one: Why is the pilot training load declining so?

The answer is that the conventional forces of the Air Force are being greatly reduced.

Aside from the local problems that this causes in Big Spring, Brooks noted that this decline signals a broader concern for America.

The Air Force, in terms of real growth, has fallen back to pre-Korean War days, and in some areas to pre-World War II days. The reliance has been on quality of weapons, not quantity, and this too has its dangerous side.

Brooks is right: When the Air Force says that Webb must be closed because of lessening pilot demand, that is a surface reason, but only the tip. The underlying reasons are ones that should concern not only Howard County folks but all Americans.

'Come on down!'

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Washington is being besieged by visitors this year to celebrate the Bicentennial. While everyone is happy to see them, it is affecting the town, and many residents are trying to figure out ways of discouraging their friends and relatives from coming here.

My friend Glaubet has even composed a letter which he sends out to anyone who is threatening to come to the capital in 1976, and it goes something like this.

"Dear Steve and Jean,

"LOLA AND I were thrilled to hear the good news about you coming to Washington with your six children for the week. It's a wonderful time of year to visit the nation's capital, and I know you'll have a good time.

"The swine flu epidemic hasn't hit us yet, though we did get word that two people down the street had it. I'm sure it's just a wild rumor, but I would get shots for it just in case.

"The azaleas are in bloom and the dogwoods are out, and Washington is now a veritable splash of color. Unfortunately the air pollution count is now over 100, and so if any of the children have respiratory diseases I'd leave them home. If you have an air-conditioned car the smog shouldn't get to you, but at this time of year I can't guarantee it.

"You asked me what to see in Washington. The White House, of course, is a must. You only have to wait five hours to get in, and they move you pretty fast once you do, but it's worth it. They now have tents so you don't have to stand in the blazing sun for more than two hours, and there are nurses on hand if you get sunstroke.

"I ALSO RECOMMEND the Capitol, although I would warn the children if they visit the Senate or House not to expect much in the way of excitement as there are never more than three or four congressmen on the floor at one time. The waiting time to get in is only three hours, but it's indoors so you don't have to worry about the heat, as you do at the Washington Monument which takes four hours, but is a great thrill for the kids.

"You asked me if crime was a problem in Washington. Don't believe everything you read in the newspapers. We have rapes, muggings and purse-snatchings just like any other city, but the street gangs that hang around the Mall and the Reflecting Pool don't bother anybody unless they see a camera or bicycle they like. I'd say in the daytime you would be as safe in Washington as you would be at night in Central Park.

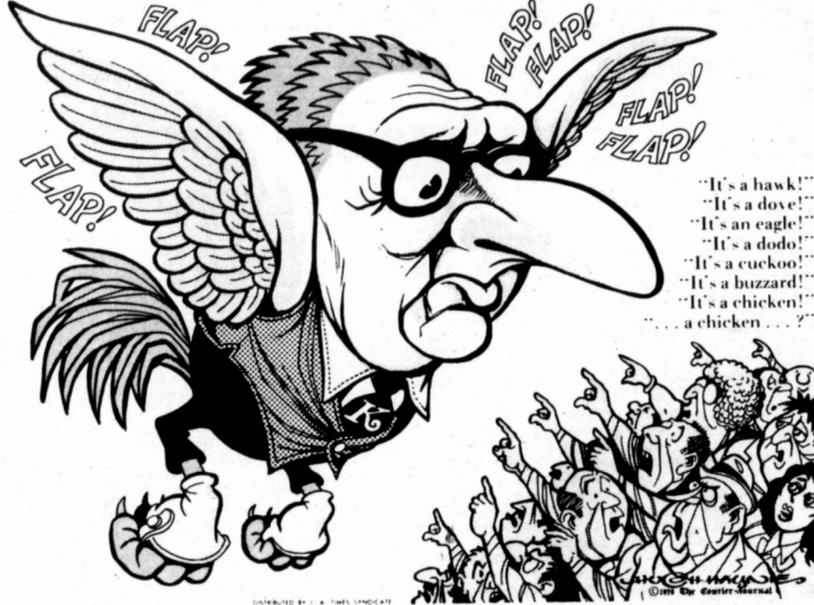

"Traffic is no problem, particularly if you're on vacation and don't have to be anywhere at any particular time. They've opened up several of the streets that were closed because of the Metro construction, though they're digging up other ones.

"IS IT EXPENSIVE you asked. Hardly. You can feed your entire family at a cafeteria for less than $60, but if you want to sit down it will, of course, cost more.

"Parking is not a problem. There are plenty of garages in the city that will take your car for $3.50 an hour. It only takes 45 minutes to get it back.

"Well, that seems to be it. Hope you're coming because there won't be anything like it. Oh, by the way, don't plan on seeing President Ford. He'll be out campaigning your way while you're here. I'm not sure you'll even see Ron Nessen. The week you're coming he agreed to do a guest spot on Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman.

"Cheers from all the Glaubets!"

Angina pectoris special problem

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is angina pectoris always connected with hardening of the arteries? Can you have one without the other? Can you strengthen your heart as with other heart conditions? It seems that if I walk after I eat I'm in trouble.

I'm 62, and would like to know where I stand. I've always been able to fight back after other illnesses, but I'm not able to this time. Stairs are hard on me. I'm 5-foot-4 and weigh 122 pounds. — Mrs. E. Y.

Yes, you can have generalized arterial hardening without angina pectoris. Angina occurs when the coronary arteries fail to supply sufficient blood to satisfy any sudden increased oxygen demand by the heart muscle.

Rest and avoiding situations that increase the heart's oxygen need are important in treatment. Medication can improve blood supply temporarily, but it is no substitute for caution in the matter of activity.

You should not exercise for the sake of exercise. Your weight is in your favor. At your age, and with your anginal symptoms, it is important to learn what you can do to help you through a normal day's activity. It is you, rather than your doctor, who must decide "where you stand."

You know what activities bring on attacks. It is up to you to avoid these or to minimize them. If a moderate walk is possible without symptoms, that is fine and desirable. If it is possible only with help of your medication, then you must learn when to take it, how to time it with such activity.

This way you can gradually develop a daily routine to keep fit while not aggravating the angina problem. It is better to work up to your limits than to work down to them.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My husband is 54. He has been taking medication daily for the past three years for hypertension. He is currently being treated for depression. He has had three bouts of depression in the last three years. Do you think the drugs he is taking can be connected with his depression? — Mrs. J. V.

The medicine you mention (elsewhere in your letter) consists of two separate drugs — hydroflumethiazide and reserpine. The former is a diuretic, the other acts on the central nervous system. Reserpine shouldn't be used in cases of severe depression. It could be causing your husband's symptoms.

There are other possible factors to be considered in depression at your husband's age. Sometimes anxiety over his hypertension (high blood pressure) can be itself involved. Such complications are discussed in more detail in my booklet on hypertension than space allows here. If you would like a copy send 35 cents to me in care of The Herald. Enclose a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I'm a 15-year-old girl who loves iced tea. I drink five 16-ounce glasses at supper, and I would like to know if drinking too much could hurt me. — P. R.

That's quite a bit of liquid for anyone to be drinking at a sitting, especially in the evening. Remember, tea contains about the same amount of caffeine as does coffee, and caffeine is both a mild stimulant and a mild diuretic. This would tend to both disturb your sleep and increase your need to urinate.

More importantly, your urge to drink large amounts of liquid can be a symptom of a problem your family doctor would want to investigate — for instance the possibility of diabetes. Your parents should mention this to him at your next visit.

Whatever the outcome, I suggest you cut down this excessive tea-drinking.

To Mrs. C.T. — Yes, there are boutiques that specialize in fashions for women who have had breast removal. Your local cancer society would know of one near you if one exists. I am told the styles are quite attractive. Some large department stores have consultants in such matters.

Is angina pectoris dangerous? Is there a cure? If you would like to learn more about this heart condition, write to Dr. Thosteson, in care of this newspaper, for a copy of his booklet, "How to Handle Angina Pectoris." Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

My answer

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: Would you please give me some guidance about the charismatic movement. Both my daughters are very much caught up in this, and one is thinking of removing her membership from her church. My husband and I are heart sick over such a possibility. — J. R. K.

DEAR J. R. K.: What you are referring to is the work of the Holy Spirit in the lives of Christian people. It is a far deeper and fuller work than many Christians have been open to in recent times, and therefore, for many churches, it means exploring a new territory — never an easy step to take.

The important thing is for you to help your daughters with advice from the Scriptures. Study the Person and work of the Holy Spirit as revealed in the Bible, and from that study you will be able to give guidance to your family. You should help them to see that any work of the Holy Spirit takes place within the Body of Christ which is the Christian Church. That work can only be hindered by causing division within the Body. Your daughters should be encouraged, therefore, to face the discipline of working and praying within the church structure, thereby helping to bring everyone within that church to a deeper experience of the Holy Spirit's work.

To study the work of the Holy Spirit is a thrilling and challenging task, and many fine books have been written to help those who sincerely seek to understand His ministry. I am now writing a book on the Holy Spirit which I hope to publish early in 1977. Do not be too disturbed that your children are desiring to know more of that work in their lives.

To start you off in your study, think of the full meaning of just one Bible passage, Ephesians 3:14-19 (Revised Standard Version). Sit down with your daughters and seek the meaning of such phrases in those verses as "be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man"; "that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith"; "to know the love of Christ"; "be filled with all the fullness of God." These are great sentences to study and pray over together.

Political graffiti

Around the rim

Troy Bryant

America's political views, hatreds, and wits are recorded on millions of walls in bathrooms, subways, restaurants and on fences everywhere.

THIS WAS glaringly evident to me after reading the book "Graffiti" by Robert Reischer.

The Vietnam war was a popular item on the wall, as I remember, and a chapter in the book confirms this.

For example:
Bombing can end the war — bomb the Pentagon

WASHINGTON — President Ford dropped his support of legislation to curb corporate mergers after his most prominent campaign fundraiser complained about the bill to top White House and Treasury officials.

THE DECISION to scuttle the consumer measure was reached at a secret White House meeting after fundraiser Bernard Lasker intervened. Lasker, an investment banker and former head of the New York Stock Exchange, has been a key member of Ford's executive campaign finance committee since November.

The amendment which so infuriated Lasker would have given the government a better chance to block major corporate mergers which often strangle competition and run up consumer prices.

But the legislation could also cost the clients of Lasker's internationally known investment firm hundreds of millions of dollars.

So, a few weeks ago Lasker began calling his friends in Washington to object to the antitrust bill as "inflexible." He spoke with Treasury and White House officials, including the President's top economic aide, William Seidman.

Almost immediately, the matter was brought up at a closed meeting of the White House's powerful economic board. There, the Treasury officials whittled away at the arguments of the Justice Department's antitrust chief Thomas Kauper. Finally, the Lasker view prevailed.

To avoid making Kauper publicly back down, the White House had his boss, Deputy Attorney General Harold Tyler, convey the bad news to Senate Antitrust Chairman Philip Hart, D-Mich.

"The Administration," wrote Tyler, "does not support enactment of the pre-merger stay provision." The letter all but sounded the death knell for the bill because of the implicit threat of veto.

SEIDMAN, WHO acted as a fair-minded mediator in the matter, confirmed he had spoken to the powerful fundraiser about the provision. Treasury officials also conceded they spoke with Lasker. Lasker did not return the call.

Footnote: President Ford also flipped out on a previous antitrust measure. After pressure from business groups, Ford reversed himself on a bill to allow states to file antitrust suits on behalf of their consumers.

BOOZE AND BOMBS: High-ranking officers of the Navy's Flagship carrier Saratoga, on at least one occasion, used the ship's nuclear storage spaces to smuggle whisky and furniture past U.S. customs.

The gold-braid smugglers correctly guessed that the customs inspectors, lacking nuclear clearance, wouldn't try to check the nuclear areas for contraband.

FOR MORE two years, the Saratoga crew, disciplined to protect nuclear secrets, has been even more tight-lipped about the booze that he stashed in the bomb spaces. The secret might never have leaked out if the top brass hadn't revoked the liberty privileges of scores of enlisted men for drunkenness.

The indignant sailors got in touch with us to complain that their alcoholic trespasses were trivial compared to the escapades of certain top officers, including an admiral who turned out to be the secret owner of some confiscated spirits.

We have carefully verified the complaints from eyewitnesses and Navy files. Here are the fascinating facts:

Just before the Saratoga pulled out of the Tonkin Gulf in winter 1973, some Navy bigwigs loaded crates of whisky into a nuclear storage room on the third deck below the hangar bay. Some rattan furniture from the Philippines was also hidden in the secret nuclear area, according to our sources. The contraband, safe in its nuclear hiding place, was sneaked into the United States, duty free. The commanding officer of the Saratoga at that time was Capt. James R. Sanderson.

Last year, some Filipino stewards were also caught smuggling a load of booze aboard the Saratoga off the shores of Rota, Spain.

County commissioner candidates quizzed

The Herald, as a service to the reader, has undertaken a series of question-and-answer sessions with candidates for public office.

The two candidates for the office of county commissioner, place one, Simon Terrazas and O. L. Brown, were forwarded questions for today's interview and supplied the following answers.

Q. What qualifies you to serve as a county commissioner?

O. L. Brown — I'm a taxpayer, aware of what it takes to maintain a responsible county government and have the interest of the taxpayer at heart.

Simon Terrazas — My interest in the future of Howard County and the problems involved in furthering sound business practices, plus my 12 years' experience on the county commissioner's court qualified me for re-election.

Q. Which county operation — the library, road construction and maintenance, judicial activity, etc. — should be given priority for budgeting?

Brown — All are important, but judicial activity takes precedence in my view. I believe all facets of government demand attention.

Terrazas — Each is important within its own framework, and priority should be determined as each problem arises.

Q. Do you believe the county welfare program is adequate?

Brown — To my knowledge the county welfare program is operating adequately. If I am elected, of course, I will attempt to research this area of county government, and if necessary make whatever changes appear to me to be needed for an equitable situation to exist.

Terrazas — Yes, in most cases.

Q. Do you believe the probation program for youths and adults serves the purpose?

Brown — I believe the probation program, as it exists now, for youths and adults, definitely serves a purpose. However, I consider this a little out of the realm of a county commissioner except to the extent it may be made more workable if problems arise in the future.

Terrazas — Yes. Juvenile officer Ed Cherry and probation officer John Dibrell are efficient and competent.

Q. What is your position on the county's policy toward accepting roads and approving developments?

Brown — The county's policy now I believe is to have the developer submit all plans and furnish the costs of development of roads, and in my opinion this is the way it should be handled, with the county approving the same, and accepting the same, after it is furnished to meet specifications.

Terrazas — Our policy now is to accept roads that are laid out and caliche with promise of development.

Q. Is the county getting the maximum return on its invested funds? If not, what would you do to improve the situation?

Brown — No comment.

Terrazas — Deposits on interest must first be absolutely secured, then top bids are accepted.

SIMON TERRAZAS

Occupation — County Commissioner, rentals and 7-12 Grocery. Address — 1001 S. Bell. Size of family — three, Claudean Cone, Simon F. Terrazas, and Mary Alice Campbell. Wife's name — Claudine. Education — high school. Civic Activities — County Commissioner duties.

O. L. BROWN

Occupation — Disabled. Address — 1508 Oriole. Size of family — four. Wife's name — Emma. Education — high school. Civic Activities — American Legion, American G.I. Forum, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, and "40 and 8 Club."

Q. What would you do to see property taxes are more equitably assessed? Or do you believe no major problems exist in the tax appraisal system and schedules used? Should farmers and ranchers be required to pay taxes on the fair market value of their land or its productivity?

Brown — For a more equitable assessment of property taxes, I think a complete overhaul of the re-evaluation system should be done. As to the second part of the question, I believe that if one piece of property is assessed on fair market value, all of it should be assessed on fair market value, and this would be the only equitable manner to handle the same.

Terrazas — My belief is that county taxpayers should be responsible for county needs, but not for excessive expenditures. We are not in need of a tax raise. We lowered the tax rate from $1.04 to 95 cents in 1975.

Q. Why or why not will there be a need to raise county taxes in the next few years?

Brown — I do not see anything on the horizon that would warrant a raise in county taxes in the next few years, as the county is now operating on a surplus.

Terrazas — Road equipment was upgraded before the price increases. The Revenue Sharing money has been a boost to our county. We should live within our budget.

Teachers arrested, school not told

WESLACO, Tex. (AP) — Weslaco Police Chief Claudio Castaneda Jr. says he did not feel that he needed to inform Weslaco school officials before arresting a teacher on a charge of delivering a controlled substance known as THC.

Miss Lorna Elaine Marmaduke, 24, a resources teacher at Dr. Armando Cuellar elementary school in Weslaco, was one of several persons arrested as the result of an undercover investigation. She is now free on $15,000 bond.

School Supt. Tony Rico said Monday he is upset that he was not notified of the investigation before the arrest.

Castaneda said there was nothing unusual about his not notifying school officials of the investigation.

"If I had (notified school officials) it wouldn't have been an undercover investigation," Castaneda said.

The Weslaco school board met Monday night in a closed session and voted to suspend Miss Marmaduke for the rest of the school year.

Rachel Lynn Smith, 19, a Weslaco high school pupil, was expelled for the remainder of the school year, Rico said. Officers earlier had identified Miss Smith as the coach of a little league baseball team, but Bill Summers, president of the Weslaco Little League, said Monday night she was not a baseball coach.

Summers said Miss Smith was the girlfriend of an assistant coach in Little League and frequented practice sessions for the team.

Miss Smith was being held in the Hidalgo County jail today pending a $15,000 bond on a charge of delivery of dangerous drugs.

Other persons arrested following indictments based on the undercover agent's work included Richard L. Treadaway, 24; Paul Hampton, 24; Alberto Jorge Garcia, 20; and Jesse R. Gonzalez, 22; all of Weslaco; Felipe Salinas, 19; of Donna; and John David Hoverson, 20, of Ala Feria.

last year along with former Judge Carrillo and his brother, Duval County Commissioner Ramiro Carrillo, on 12 counts of violating the federal income tax laws.

The Carrillo brothers were convicted of conspiracy last October in a Corpus Christi federal trial in which testimony indicated that the Zertuche General Store existed only as a conduit through which county funds passed to a store owned by the Carrillo brothers.

Witnesses said Zertuche was away at college during most of the time the Zertuche store allegedly existed.

O.P. Carrillo has received a five-year prison sentence and Ramiro four years. Both men have appealed their convictions.

Zertuche is now the coordinator of intramural athletics at Texas State Technical Institute in Harlingen. All other federal charges against him have been dropped.

He was indicted last month by the Duval County grand jury on a charge of felony theft for allegedly taking money from the county in 1971.

SW Bell 'milks' Texans

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Senators probing "Waterbell" were scheduled to review a report today that—according to an aide—alleges that Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. has manipulated figures to milk Texas customers for all it can.

A staffer for the subcommittee on consumer affairs also said the report will tell of political gifts and lavish expense accounts of Bell executives.

The federal Securities and Exchange Commission has given the subcommittee permission for the first time to use information the commission obtained in depositions on Bell's Texas operation, Mike Thomasson said.

The chairman of the subcommittee, Sen. Ron Clower, D-Garland, has referred to Bell's problems over the past 2½ years as "Waterbell."

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby ordered the subcommittee probe in December 1974 after T.O. Gravit, former Bell chief in Texas, committed suicide in October.

Gravit, who was under investigation by Bell executives, left notes accusing the firm of illegal rate-making activities and of keeping a political "slush fund."

Investigators said they had discovered a "clear pattern" of political giving by Bell executives at the state and local level.

They also said they had found that executives spend "outrageously high" sums of money to win friends and influence votes on rate proposals.

They have recommended that the new public utilities commission conduct a full audit of Bell's corporate accounts and regulate what "business expense can flow to the rate payer."

The Dallas Times Herald said in January that investigators had also found that Bell employees entertained themselves by listening to customers' private conversations, and others assisted law officers in conducting illegal wiretaps.

Ridin' fence Smell the flowers

with Marj Carpenter

(Photo By Danny Valdes)

Life is fine if you take time to stop and smell the flowers along the way. That's what Jesus Aguilar told me down in South Texas many years ago when I was teaching school. Only he didn't say it exactly like that. It was "Oh, Mees, stop and smell the flowers." That was his excuse when he was tardy to school.

When I started making the rounds out around West Texas in my new Ridin' Fence assignment, one of the first things I noticed were the flowers.

I can go to the scene of a fatal accident and never bat an eye. I can come up on a murder scene and not wince. Airplane crashes can be pretty hairy, but they don't really upset me that much. That's the hard news reporter that has been to so many accident scenes that it becomes routine.

But I still haven't reached the point where I fail to notice the flowers.

When I was down in the Hill Country over the weekend, everybody kept pointing out the beautiful bluebonnets. They didn't have to, because you can never fail to notice them.

When I was down in the Hill Country over the weekend, everybody kept pointing out the beautiful bluebonnets. They didn't have to, because you can never fail to notice them.

From all the reports on Lamesa's citywide egg hunt, there are some forthcoming track stars in that town. It was a race. Stanton chose instead to hold a sedate Easter parade around the courthouse. A lot of people turned out and both events were reported to have been lots of fun.

But back to the flowers, the flowers that really depict spring to me, in nostalgic form, are honeysuckle blooms. There are some in the planter box outside the Herald and I love to smell honeysuckle in the morning.

But when voting the other day up at 18th and Main, I suddenly caught a whiff of honeysuckle and turned around and George Heckler's fence is literally covered with that vine.

That's my favorite honeysuckle vine that I've seen in Big Spring and my favorite rose garden around here belongs to Charlene Kee at 8th and Main. I simply have to throw in a tale about why honeysuckle reminds me of spring. It grew in our yard in Mercedes and one particular spring, I had to hold a bouquet of it in my hand and sing "Listen to the Voices that Welcome the Spring" on Children's Day at our church.

It was supposed to have been a quartet. Betty and Bobby Whipke and my brother, Walter Collier and I were to sing. Bobby Whipke is not to be confused with Big Spring's late Bob Whipkey. This Bob Whipke, who used to live in Midland, works for Exxon overseas where he fled because I have been angry at him all of these years.

His sister and my brother broke out with chicken pox and he broke out with chicken — afraid to sing. So every spring when I smell the honeysuckle along the way, I think about him and how I got to sing by myself.

But the flowers are beautiful in West Texas this year. That's what I noticed while I was out ridin' fence.

Farm roundup Cattle TB tests begin in NM

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Veterinarians looking for signs of bovine tuberculosis, which can be transmitted to humans planned to begin testing cattle near Las Vegas, N.M., today.

State veterinarian Robert Pyles told the New Mexico Livestock Board Monday the state and federal veterinarians would test about 100 head of cattle and the results would be ready by Friday.

The testing comes after U.S. Dept. of Agriculture inspectors found what they called an "aged" beef cow at an Albuquerque packing plant recently.

The carcass had lesions, the federal inspectors said, and about 75 per cent of its lungs were tubercular. The animal was declared unfit for consumption by humans.

Pyles said the animal's history will be traced in an effort to find the source of the disease.

"New Mexico has never had a problem with bovine tuberculosis," he said. "It never got established in the state and meat inspectors keep looking for it."

Pyles told the board the disease causes the infected animal to lose weight, and said there is no effective treatment for it in cattle.

research scientists look into the problems of "genetic vulnerability" of major crops in hopes of finding ways to reduce natural threats to U.S. food production.

Dr. R. L. Lovvorn, administrator of the Cooperative State Research Service, which is handling the grants, said scientists are concerned that "so many of our major crop varieties come from fairly narrow pools of genes," which transmit inherited characteristics from one plant generation to another.

Washington (AP) — A mild dispute has developed behind the scenes at the Agriculture Department over new projections showing that farmers could raise huge grain crops this year, boosting U.S. reserves to their highest level since 1972.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Richard E. Bell, who oversees international affairs and domestic farm programs, told a group of farm editors Monday that he thought the crop projections by USDA were out of line.

"I think that they tended to border on the high side in terms of production potential in 1976," Bell told a meeting of the Newspaper Farm Editors of America.

Newton backing leans heavily toward oil 'gang'

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Jon Newton continues to outspend his rivals in the Democratic primary race for railroad commissioner, reporting expenditures of $226,966 as the campaign near its climax.

Newton's report, filed Monday, reflects cash contributions of $232,450 — with a heavy infusion of oil money, $20,000 in loans and $2,100 in in-kind donations.

Lane Denton reported expenditures either in his own name or his campaign committee's of $59,744. Contributions totaled $34,920 and loans $11,448.

Dave Finney's report to the secretary of state showed $28,662 in donations, $39,156 in expenditures and $15,000 in loans.

Of the four major candidates, only Terence O'Rourke, had not submitted his report as of Monday.

Contributions of $1,000 or more: Denton: Edgar Ball for a Houston labor political committee, $3,000; W.F. Wallace, Hallettsville, $1,000; Communications Workers of America

Recount requested in Dallas mayor race

DALLAS (AP) — It will now be Wednesday before Robert Folsom will know if he is or isn't the mayor of Dallas.

That's when the results of his race with former city councilman Garry Weber will be known officially following a vote recount requested by Weber.

Plans were to have Folsom sworn in Monday during a council meeting. Instead the Dallas millionaire watched from the gallery as a private citizen because Weber asked for a canvass of Saturday's election.

Folsom had a narrow 1,400-vote edge out of 113,000 ballots cast.

Weber said the "closeness" of the election was the reason he asked for the recount.

Folsom appeared Monday in council chambers shortly before the council began hearing speakers on a rate hike request by Dallas Power & Light.

He said he was not surprised by Weber's request for a recount and expressed confidence the results would change little after the second tabulation.

Folsom said he plans to visit several major cities at his own expense to review their successes and failures and determine how the information can be applied to Dallas.

Among the things he will be seeking are ways the larger cities are revitalizing their downtown areas.

Although he was not sworn in, Folsom received a congratulatory telephone call from one unexpected well-wisher — President Ford.

Zertuche, Carrillo nephew, gets probated sentence

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — A federal judge here has placed Arturo Zertuche, a nephew of former State Dist. Court Judge O. P. Carrillo, on probation for five years and levied a $5,000 fine on the former Duval County resident.

Zertuche, the owner of the infamous Zertuche General Store in Duval County, received the sentence Monday from U.S. District Court Judge Owen Cox.

Cox sentenced Zertuche, who pleaded guilty last month to a charge of filing a false income tax return, to three years in prison but reduced the sentence to the fine and probation.

Furr's reports record income

Furr's Cafeterias Inc. recorded new record highs in sales and earnings for the first quarter of 1976, reported Don G. Furr, chairman of the board.

Record high sales of $14.9 million were achieved in the 13 weeks ended April 3, 1976, an increase of $3.0 million or 25.8 per cent over the same period of 1975. Net earnings were $730,000, equal to $3.33 per share for the first quarter, compared to net earnings of $551,000 or $2.25 per share for the first quarter of 1975, a 32 per cent increase. Earnings in the first quarter of 1975 have been restated to conform to the current year's method of estimating certain discretionary accruals. The 1975 first quarter earnings were increased by $32,000, or two cents per share, after tax.

"Increases in sales for the first quarter are mainly attributable to nine new units opened during 1975 and three new units opened at the first of this year in Albuquerque, N.M., Tulsa and Enid Okla. Also, we have experienced increased customer counts in our older units," stated Furr. The company presently operates 66 cafeterias and two pie shops in seven states with one additional unit under construction in Norman, Okla. which is expected to open in late May or early June. Leases are being negotiated at this time for future units in Lubbock, Tex., Bartlesville, Okla. and the Dallas-Richardson area.

In March, 1976, the company's corporate offices were relocated to a newly constructed 16,863 square foot building in Lubbock.

Carla Walker given grant

SAN ANGELO — Millard Cope Journalism Scholarships at Angelo State University have been awarded to a graduating senior at San Angelo Central High School and to a sophomore journalism major at Angelo State.

The $300 scholarships were awarded to Lori Allise Pyle, a senior at Central, and to Carla Glen Walker of Big Spring, a sophomore at ASU.

In addition to the new awards, Cope Scholarships were renewed for six ASU journalism students. Renewals were granted to Robert Dierschke, a sophomore from Wall; Melinda Viertel, a junior from Moran; Margaret Ann Williams, a junior from El Paso; and to Coleen Berger, freshman, Bruce Howell, sophomore, and Juan Sanchez, freshman, all of San Angelo.

ASU Special Journalism Scholarships, amounting to $300 each and provided by the university, were awarded to three entering freshmen and one renewing freshman was granted. The new awards went to Ndem Boardman of the United Republic of Cameroon, Karen Gayle Matschek of Ballinger, and Kelly Zant of Lamesa. A renewal award was given to Linda Beth Barrett, an ASU junior.

Ms. Walker, a native of Big Spring, was a semi-finalist in National Merit Scholarship Competition and was graduated third in her high school graduating class of 303 students. Thus far in her journalism studies at ASU, she has compiled a 3.53 grade point average.

The Millard Cope scholarships are financed from the proceeds of a $25,000 trust fund established by the late Houston Hart and his wife as a memorial to the late Millard Cope, publisher of the San Angelo Standard Times at the time of his death Jan. 4, 1964.

Drill Bit editor named

MIDLAND — John Paul Pitts has been named managing editor of Drill Bit magazine, according to Donald Hart, president of Hart Publications.

A Wink native, Pitts attended college in Pasadena, Calif., where he earned a degree in English. Following work in journalism at Cal State, he worked as a freelance magazine writer five years before joining the Pecos Enterprise. In 1974, Pitts won the Frank Kelly award for excellence in oil and gas reporting.

NALLEY-PICKLE FUNERAL HOME
... there when you need them

Nalley-Pickle personnel offers personal service

Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home is there when you need them with concerned, experienced care.

Nobody ever wants to use a funeral home, but sooner or later, it is a service needed by each and every family.

The type of care at the time of sorrow can be very important to the members of the family. Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home has experienced personnel that handle every little detail with great care and real concern. They also offer the services of the lovely Rosewood Chapel which is properly cooled and heated, and has a special place for members of the family.

Adequate parking is also available at the funeral home. Their many years of experience in Big Spring have made them concerned about people in this area.

This funeral home has not lost the personal touch and offers this special feeling of concern to their patrons.

Their facilities are at 906 Gregg Street and their telephone number is 267-

Special provisions are made at Nalley-Pickle for music in a recessed area. Their main concern is that each detail will be suitable to the bereaved family and their experience in handling these details is known to many Big Spring families.

Need to cool off?

Hester, Robertson serve cooling, heating needs

If you want completely up-to-date air conditioning equipment, featuring cylindrical units for use in central cooling of homes, check with Hester and Robertson.

Anything that has to do with heating and cooling is their strong point. And this time of year, let's face it — most people are worrying about cooling.

Hester and Robertson service all types of low-temperature installations in supermarkets, cold vaults, ice machines, air conditioners and commercial refrigerators.

Hester and Robertson's are well stocked with refrigerative and evaporative cooling equipment. Their equipment includes Carrier units which are becoming very well known as successful ways to air condition in West Texas.

Hester's Sheet Metal and Robertson Plumbing joined forces several years ago to better serve their customers. They have a service truck equipped with parts for electric or gas-fired furnaces, for commercial boilers, as well as for all cooling equipment.

It's certainly time for air conditioning if you haven't already done something about it. Or, if yours is inadequate, you might want to check with Hester and Robertson. Their business is located at N. Birdwell Lane and their phone number is 263-8342. Call them for cooling or heating needs.

Open Heart Club chapter organized

Members of the Open Heart Club of the Southwest met Sunday at Malone-Hogan Hospital to organize a Big Spring chapter.

Any person who has undergone open heart surgery is eligible for membership. Other interested persons may join as associate members.

Members agreed that the goal of the chapter will be to financially aid the project to purchase surgery equipment for Methodist Hospital in Lubbock where most area patients undergo open heart surgery.

Members will also make visitations to persons who need open heart surgery or who are recovering from an open heart operation.

The members and all interested persons will meet June 20 to elect officers and appoint committees. Lubbock chapter members will be special guests.

Charter members of the local chapter are L. W. Pearce, J. W. Sanders, Sam H. Reed, Berry B. Watson, Dr. Glen Allen, the Rev. Claude Craven, George C. Coots, Charles E. Cain, C. W. Smith, Charles Berryhill, Johnnie Walker, J. C. Gross, Pat N. Savell, Willis E. Taylor and Ronald King.

Miss Bailey honored at shower

Miss Diane Bailey was honored with a bridal shower Friday evening in the home of Mrs. C. N. Humphrey.

Miss Bailey is the bride-elect of Greg Vick. Special guests at the shower were Mrs. Donald Bailey and Mrs. Thomas O. Vick, mothers of the couple. The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. O. H. Vick, and Ms. Terri Christian were also special guests.

Hostesses in addition to Mrs. Humphrey were Mrs. Walter Stroup, Mrs. D. W. Pierce, Mrs. Charlie Shanks, Mrs. Tim Cudd, Mrs. Jimmy Morehead, Mrs. David Elrod, Mrs. Hilliard Ditmore, Mrs. George Tarpley, Mrs. Kenneth Stephens, and Mrs. Frank Parker.

The couple will be wed May 14 in the First Presbyterian Church.

Newcomers name bridge winners

Newcomers Bridge Club members met Wednesday morning in the Pioneer Natural Gas Flame Room.

Mrs. Dianne Oliver won high score with Mrs. Linda Fontes winning second place. Mrs. Gretchen Sprinkle won bridge-o. Mrs. Fran Roberts, Mrs. Ruth Davis, Mrs. Marlene O'Dell and Mrs. Janet Wolfe were guests.

The next meeting will be at 9:30 a.m., May 5 in the Flame Room. All interested bridge players are invited to attend.

Daughter fears reactions of fathers at graduation

DEAR ABBY: As my high school graduation draws near, I am becoming more concerned about this problem. My parents are divorced, and my mother married a man my father absolutely detests. The feeling is mutual, and if they meet each other face to face, there is sure to be a fight. I have sent invitations to my mother and father. My mother insists on having her husband attend with her. I am just terrified of what is going to happen when my father and stepfather meet at my graduation. And there is no way they can avoid seeing each other.

My graduation is a very important event in my life, and I want everything to go right. My father says he won't start anything, but if my stepfather takes a poke at him, he will defend himself.

I get tied up in knots just thinking about it. I've even considered not showing up myself. If there's a fight, I'll be disgraced.

IN THE MIDDLE

DEAR IN: Don't borrow trouble. There may not be a fight. And if there is, remember, you are not responsible for the behavior of your father or your stepfather. They can disgrace only themselves.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WHY, WHY, WHY?": Seldom is one single crisis wholly responsible for an emotional collapse. It's the trigger of a gun that is already loaded. Don't feel guilty.

Club members instruct garden therapy projects

Four women of the Oasis Garden Club instructed the exceptional children of Moss Elementary School in garden therapy projects Thursday.

Women working with the group were Mrs. Charlie Creighton, Mrs. Paschal Odum, Mrs. J. F. Skalicky and Mrs. J. D. Leonard.

A picnic will be held May 20 in Comanche Trail Park for the students.

The children studied specimens of wild flowers, mint and carnation pinks for smell, texture and taste.

The children also planted macramé hangings with sweet alyssum and sedum moss and succulents.

Vets, auxiliary to meet Friday

Veterans of World War I Barracks 1474 and its auxiliary will meet at 10 a.m. Friday at Kentwood Center.

A covered dish luncheon will be served.

All WWI veterans, their wives, widows and daughters are urged to attend the meeting.

Duplicate bridge winners named

Mrs. R. L. Tollett and Mrs. W. B. Gill were first place winners of the Wednesday duplicate bridge game held Wednesday at the Big Spring Country Club.

Other winners were Mrs. J. H. Fish and Mrs. E. O. Ellington, second; and Mrs. Rogers Hefley and Mrs. Hayes Stripling, third.

In duplicate bridge game action Friday afternoon, Mrs. Jack Irons and Mrs. E. L. Powell were first in the North-South division. Mrs. Rogers Hefley and Mrs. J. H. Fish were second, and Mrs. Bert Allison and Mrs. Auriel La Fond were third.

In the east-west division, Mrs. John Stone and Mrs. J. D. Robertson were first, Mrs. Hayden Griffith and Mrs. James Raoul were second, and Mrs. W. B. Gill and Mrs. Elmo Wasson were third.

Local Odd Fellows, Rebekahs host meeting of IOOF branches

The Mullins Lodge, International Order of Odd Fellows, and the Rebekah Lodge 284 of Big Spring hosted the Department of Texas state-wide meeting of Grand Encampment, Ladies Encampment Auxiliary, Canton and Ladies Auxiliary Patriarch Militant.

The four branches of Odd Fellows met Saturday at the IOOF Hall at Ninth and San Antonio.

A spaghetti dinner was prepared by the LAMP 23 ladies of Big Spring for approximately 150 delegates at the meeting.

Officers present from the LEA degree team were Mrs. Florene Garrett, grand matriarch from Dallas; Mrs. Lanell Mohler, grand high priestess from Freeport; Mrs. Cleary Shoemaker, grand senior warden from Corsicana; Mrs. Marion Baccus, grand junior warden from San Antonio; Mrs. Vergie Hawkins, grand scribe from Corsicana; and Mrs. Maurice War, grand treasurer from Ennis.

Degree team officers from the LAMP attending the meeting were Lady Mable Williford, first vice president from Teague; Lady Jessie Blakney, secretary from Odessa; and Lady Mary Estell, treasurer from Corsicana.

Cantons degree team members attending the state meeting were Maj. Gen. William Miller, department commander from Dallas; Brig. Gen. C. W. Starling, commander of First Brigade from Dallas; Brig. Gen. F. Henry Clark, commander of Second Brigade from Arlington; and Col. Waymon

H. Little, chief of staff from Waco. Grand Encampment officers on the degree team in attendance were Tommy Wilson, grand patriarch from Waxachie; Waymon Little, grand high priest from Waco; Walter Murphy, grand junior warden from Dallas; Homer L. Garrett, grand scribe from Dallas; and Charles Shoemaker, grand treasurer from Corsicana.

Each branch initiated candidates into the degrees. The Midland LEA 23 instituted and installed officers and 25 candidates.

Back in Kuhn's lap NL votes down expansion

CHICAGO (AP) — Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn said he's disappointed, but the American League couldn't be happier that the National League voted down expansion into Toronto and Washington, D.C., in 1977.

"Well, I guess it's back in my lap," Kuhn said Monday after the National League voted 7 to 5 to reject a proposal to move into the two cities.

Earlier this month, Kuhn instructed the American League, which approved expansion into Toronto on March 29, to include a plan to provide Washington with baseball or lose the right to place a team in the Canadian city to the NL. When the American League owners failed to come up with a plan acceptable to Kuhn, he gave the National League two weeks to consider expansion into the two cities.

"I'm extremely disappointed. My efforts to provide baseball for Washington will continue," said Kuhn, who reportedly has received pressure from Congress to return baseball to the nation's capital after a five-year absence.

Kuhn said that now he is not certain what route he will take to restore baseball in Washington. "At this point, I don't want to try to answer that question precisely," he said.

Meanwhile, AL President Lee MacPhail clearly was thrilled by the NL vote to leave the field open to his league.

"That is tremendous! Great news," he said. Asked if he had expected the National League to reject the expansion move, MacPhail said: "I tried not to guess what they would do because I've been wrong so often. But this sounds conclusive. The NL constitution requires a unanimous vote for expansion."

National League President Chub Feeney, who announced Monday's 7-5 vote, did not identify the three clubs which shifted positions, but one National League source said San Francisco was one of them.

He explained the switches, however, saying: "People thought it over and decided it was not in the best interest of the league" at this time.

Asked if the negative vote meant the American League would be moving into Toronto, Feeney replied: "There is nothing to stop them."

JUST A LITTLE DONNEYPROOF — Vic Harris of the St. Louis Cardinals was hit by a pitch Monday so he and Giants pitcher Charlie Williams squared off at left as players from both sides joined in. It was a wild eighth inning in which Cards scored six runs and gave San Francisco an 15-7 shellacking.

BS Cards clobber Sox twice

Joe Flores hurled a no-hitter in the first game Sunday and Joe Martinez racked Sonora pitching for three hits and six runs batted in in the second game to lead the Big Spring Cardinals to a doubleheader sweep of the Sonora Red Sox, 5-1 and 19-0.

Flores lost his shutout in the last inning, the seventh, but struck out six while walking three to even his season record at one and one with a 5-1 win. He helped his own cause with a double.

Jim Fierro had a two-run blast for the only home run of the day, Orlando Olague, who was to be the winning pitcher in the second game, had a double.

Martinez' three hits, which included a double and triple, led the way for an easy victory for Olague, who threw a two-hit shutout, to win the second game 19-0. Olague walked two and struck out seven. Tony Martinez had a double.

The Cards travel to Sonora for a doubleheader Sunday and the Red Sox said they would be more competitive since some of their best players were sick last Sunday.

First game by innings:
Sonora 000 000 1-1 0 3
Big Spring 010 220 x-5 8 2
Flores (w, 1); Marie (L, 0-1)
Second game by innings:
Sonora 000 000 0-0 2 7
Big Spring 522 405 x-19 12 1
Olague (w, 1-0); Sanchez (L, 1-1)

Even Bench afraid?

Schmidt blasts shock Reds

Baseballs must be afraid of getting hit by Mike Schmidt's red-hot bat. How else do you account for the fact that he gets runs across the plate these days even when he strikes out?

The 26-year-old third baseman of the Philadelphia Phillies has always had a propensity for swinging and missing. After all, he has fanned 486 times in 477 major league games.

But when he connects, he usually hits the ball a long way, leading the majors with 36 home runs in 1974 and again with 38 last season. And Schmidt has never been better than he is now with a record-tying April shower of 11 homers.

Nos. 10 and 11 came in the third and fourth innings Monday night. So when Schmidt stepped to the plate against Cincinnati's Rawly Eastwick in the eighth inning of a tie game with Dave Cash on third base and one out, eager Philadelphia fans were hoping for No. 12.

Instead, like the mighty Casey of baseball lore, Schmidt struck out on an 0-2 pitch. But the ball escaped catcher Johnny Bench for a passed ball and Cash raced home with the run that gave the Phils a 10-9 triumph over the Reds.

Schmidt's 11 April home runs — he also has a double and four singles — equals the mark of 11 also shared by Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell (1971) and Graig Nettles of the New York Yankees (1974).

Dodgers 7, Pirates 1
John, a veteran left-hander, blanked the Pirates until the eighth inning to earn his first triumph since he severely injured his pitching elbow on July 7, 1974. The Dodgers jumped on Doc Medich for nine hits and five runs in four innings, including Ron Cey's two-run homer.

John, who was 13-3 at the time of his injury in 1974, was making his third bid for a victory this season.

Cardinals 15, Giants 7
St. Louis, behind 7-1 after one inning, finally pulled ahead on Keith Hernandez' pinch triple and Bake McBride's sacrifice fly in the sixth. Ten of the St. Louis runs were unearned, including all six in a wild eighth inning, which included a fight between Giant pitcher Charlie Williams and Cardinal second baseman Vic Harris, who was hit by a pitch. Former St. Louis third baseman Ken Reitz, in his first at-bat against the Cards, hit a three-run homer in the first inning.

Big Spring hosts Midland Lee today

The Big Spring Steers and Midland Lee Rebels were picked to finish one-two in the above order in the pre-season poll. Neither team measured up in the first half, the Steers finishing tied for third with Abilene, and the Rebels finishing in fifth, but both have a chance to improve on those rankings this half.

Lee is undefeated in the second half, 3-0, and the Steers coming out of a mid-season (district-season) slump are 2-1. With that one defeat it's almost a sure thing Big Spring has to win its remaining four games, which of course makes today's game a must-win.

Lee could lose today and still win or tie for second half honors.

Steer Coach Larry Horton is pleased with the way his team has been hitting lately, especially Ray Don Box, Pat Carroll and Dick Battle. "They were our leading hitters last year, but they haven't been doing that well until the last couple of games," Horton said. "If they get hot — they're all streak hitters — they can carry the ball club."

Horton said he would probably start Frank Rubio today, game time 4:00, and have Pat Carroll ready to go in to relieve. Unless relief is needed late in the game, then it would be Battle, who will start in Abilene Saturday against Cooper.

Coahoma drops Barnes

COAHOMA — By a school of 4-3 the Coahoma School Board voted not to renew the contract of William "Sonny" Barnes. Barnes was the head girls basketball coach and an assistant coach on the football team.

Coahoma High School principal Bill Easterling said he thought the part about Barnes being an assistant coach for football was the crux of the problem. Barnes wanted to be concerned with just the girls basketball program and Easterling said Coahoma was not a big enough school to allow this.

Wayne Hilliard struck the winning blow when he cleaned the bases with a single, then came all the way around on an error that led the home team from behind to win.

Little League—Starfighters beat Talons

Ben Jermin, Wayne Coffee, and Dean Gartman pitched the Starfighters to a 9-5 win to run their record to 2-0. The loss dropped the Talons to 1-1.

Wayne Hilliard struck the winning blow when he cleaned the bases with a single, then came all the way around on an error that led the home team from behind to win.

Scorpions no-hit Cats

In International League action, Skip Hinman and Dan Kaiser combined their talents for a no-hitter as the Scorpions shut out the Wildcats 14-0. Hinman pitched the first three innings striking out 5 batters while retiring the first six Wildcats he faced. Kaiser struck out 4 as he set down the Wildcats in order in the last two innings.

The Scorpions spaced nine hits through their batting order with A. McGee and Sean Graves contributing solid doubles.

Scorpions: 14 runs, 9 hits, 1 error
Wildcats: 0 runs, 0 hits, 10 errors

Baptist lead Texas

WOLFE CITY, Tex. (AP) — The second and final round of the Texas women's collegiate golf tournament was scheduled today, with Houston Baptist University holding a nine-stroke lead over the University of Texas.

Four Houston Baptist golfers, led by Mary Beth Morgan and Brenda Goldsmith, fired a 327 total Monday to lead defending champion Texas, which had a 336. Southern Methodist was third in the 10-team event with a 349.

Miss Morgan and Miss Goldsmith were tied for individual honors at 77 each on the par 72 Webb Hill Country Club course. Theresa Hession of SMU was one stroke back with a 78.

Ball bashing in TL

UNDATED — Texas League batters continued to crush the ball Monday night, with the winning teams averaging 11 runs.

Amarillo had the biggest bats, winning a 16-10 slugfest with San Antonio. Other TL games saw El Paso smash Midland 12-1, Jackson whip Arkansas 8-3 and Lafayette nip Shreveport 8-7 in 14 innings.

Lamar needs 1 of 3

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Lamar University, boasting a 31-6 record, hopes to win outright the 1976 Southland Conference baseball title this weekend.

The Cardinals, 9-3 in SLC play, must win at least one of three scheduled games with Arkansas State to capture a berth in the NCAA Region VI playoffs.

SWC athletes of week

DALLAS (AP) — The Baylor University two-mile relay team has been named as Southwest Conference athletes of the week.

The Bear quartet of Walker Lea, Arthur Nious, Phil McClendon and Mark Lane completed an undefeated track season last weekend with a 7:20.7 first-place clocking at the Drake Relays. The team is now 7-1 over two seasons.

Other nominees for the SWC's weekly honor were Houston catcher-outfielder Jerry Willford, who went 9-for-11 against Texas A&M last weekend; SMU's Mark Vines, who won the SWC tennis championship; tennis runnerup Charles Emley of A&M; tennis doubles champions Randy Crawford and Tut Bartzon of TCU; and Texas Tech track standout William Pearson.

El Paso smashes, Amarillo crushes

By The Associated Press

Texas League batters continued to crush the ball Monday night, with the winning teams averaging 11 runs.

Amarillo had the biggest bats, winning a 16-10 slugfest with San Antonio. Other TL games saw El Paso smash Midland 12-1, Jackson whip Arkansas 8-3 and Lafayette nip Shreveport 8-7 in 14 innings.

Lin Hamilton had three hits and four runs batted in for Amarillo in its 3 1/2 hour marathon victory over San Antonio, which also got three hits and four RBIs from former University of Texas star Blair Stoffer.

Another UT-ex, Lafayette catcher Rick Bradley, homered in the top of the 14th inning in the victory over Shreveport.

Joe Zagarino hit a homer and a double to knock in four runs in El Paso's easy triumph over Midland. Laurence Rush and Marty Friedman added three hits and three RBIs each for the winners. Chuck Gibbon pitched a five-hitter.

Jackson jumped on Arkansas starter John Urrea for six runs in the first two innings and Mets right hander Larry Pruitt stopped the Travelers until the ninth when he got relief help from an ex-Traveler, John Taylor.

POWERING THE PHILLIES — Phillies' Mike Schmidt runs the bases after a fourth inning home run Monday night in Philadelphia. Schmidt has 11 home runs for the month of April which ties a Major League record. Phillies won, 10-9.

COAHOMA NEWS

BASEBALL MEETING — The Coahoma Baseball League is holding a meeting tonight in the Coahoma City Hall at 8:00. All parents with boys or girls from 6 to 13 interested in playing baseball are urged to attend this important meeting. New officers, including president, will be elected.

Poor attendance and the lack of volunteers could mean the end to the Coahoma Baseball League.

JV BOYS TRACK — Coahoma took second in a junior varsity track meet in Ballinger. In the field events: Randy Wallace won the pole vault with a vault of 11 feet 3 inches, Gary Gee was second with a vault of 9 feet 6 inches and Keith Kohanek was sixth with a vault of 9 feet.

Mike Roever was second in the discus with a toss of 124 feet 4 inches and Jerry Roever was fourth with a toss of 124 feet 4 inches. A. Uranga was second in the high jump with a jump of 5 feet 4 inches and third in the broad jump with a leap of 18 feet 10 inches.

Tracy Frasier was second in the shot put with a heave of 45 feet 4 inches and J. Roever was fourth with a heave of 44 feet 4 inches.

Running events: Larry Newton was third in the 100-yard dash with a time of 11.7. Gary Gee was fourth in the 70-yard high hurdles with a time of 10.9. T. Frazier was fourth in the 330-yard dash with a time of 41 flat and James Dever was seventh with a time of 42 flat.

A. Uranga was fourth in the 220 intermediate hurdles with a time of 29 flat. Tim Ballard was fourth in the 660-yard run with a time of 1:33.9. Clint Elliot was seventh with a time of 1:38.4 and Faron Phinney was ninth with a time of 1:48.0.

Michael Robinson was eighth in the 1320-yard run with a time of 3:56.9. The 440-yard relay team of Tim Childress, A. Uranga, Joe Rodriguez and Larry Newton were third with a time of 48.3.

The 1320-yard relay team of James Dever, Scott Davis, A. Uranga and T. Frasier was fourth with a time of 2:49.6.

Colorado City won the meet with 241 points and the Bulldogs finished second with 96 points.

COAHOMA GIRLS TRACK — Angela Dykes was fifth in the high jump in the regionals held in Levelland Saturday with a jump of 5 foot. The mile relay team of Jeanne Hayes, Jean Parks, Debra Meyers and Lusera Phinney qualified with a time of 4:11.3 and finished third Saturday with a time of 4:07.2, but then were disqualified.

FOUR GO TO STATE

GARDEN CITY GIRLS TRACK — Four Garden City girls qualified for state in the Region I Track Meet in Levelland Saturday plus one alternate. The 880-yard relay team of Linda Chandler, Jan Hirt, Dana Halfmann and Donna Plagens won with a time of 1:46.0.

Chandler will also run the 60-yard dash at state. She qualified winning the event with a time of 7.5. She qualified for the finals with a time of 7.3 on Friday.

Dana's sister Emma Lou Halfmann will be the alternate for the 880-yard relay team. Chandler, Hirt, D. Halfmann and Plagens also ran in the 440-yard relay team and came in third with a time of 51.3. On the mile relay team Trudy Hoelscher replaces Chandler. They were fifth with a time of 4:25.0.

D. Halfmann was fourth in the discus with a toss of 94 feet 8 1/2 inches.

HOWARD COLLEGE RODEO TEAM — The Hawks won events in the Hardin-Simmons Rodeo. Charley Burns was first in bareback and split third and fourth in bull riding for all-around cowboy.

Jim Price split third and fourth in saddle bronc riding.

In the women's division Lisa Jo Mann split fourth and fifth in the barrel race. Margo Powell was fourth in calf roping.

Terry Himes was second in barrels and Marla Cathey was sixth.

The girls team finished second to New Mexico and the men's team came in fourth.

Howard is in the Snyder Coliseum Thursday through Saturday for its next rodeo.

CLASSIFIED ADS THE PLACE TO LOOK

Your Daily HOROSCOPE from the CARROLL RICHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST WEDNESDAY, APRIL 28, 1976

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Don't upset present conditions by taking dramatic action that could cause consternation on the part of practical minded persons.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Don't permit any schemes to change present monetary setup, nor take advice from one who gets excited. Use your own good judgment.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Be sure an associate does not make radical changes that would be bad for all concerned. Handle your own work intelligently.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Go to the right sources for the data you need. Use your intuition more since it is correct. Take time for recreation tonight.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Forget expensive amusements and gain the aid of trusted friends. Show others that you have wisdom.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Many situations arise that need quick and intelligent action. Contact influential persons and get their help for furthering your finest aims.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You want to study new interests which could help you advance, so plan time for just that. Use extreme caution in motion.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Make sure you handle responsibilities well and impress higher-ups. Take a new stand with your mate and come to a better rapport.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Listen to ideas and suggestions which associates make and follow the best. Don't do anything overly dramatic now. Keep steady.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) A secret matter has you fretting but look at it objectively. Try to cooperate more with a co-worker and you get more accomplished.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You have a desire that is not good for you, so forget it. Avoid those who have an eye on your assets. Make important payments.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Take care you do nothing that could jeopardize both your career and your good name. Don't discuss any subjects with that could lead to arguments.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) A day to forget to tempting tangents and get busy on whatever is practical. Confer with associates for greater mutual advancement.

NO. 1 IN TUNE UPS

Building 281 is winner of Webb campaign prize

Winners in five categories in the 1976 Webb AFB cleanup were picked recently, on the last day of the campaign's concerted effort, by a team of judges.

Building 281, Security Police Operations, won "best building or facility" honors by a unanimous decision. "A lot of extra effort is evidenced there," one of the judges said. Runners-up were Building 631 — Transportation Division, Motor Pool Operations, and Building 1114 — Communications Squadron.

Top honors as "best unit functional area" went to Supply Squadron for the Base Supply area. Judges noted that the appearance was enhanced by cactus transplanted to near the entrance.

The Bachelor Enlisted Quarters picked winner was 208 which is shared by Supply and Communications squadrons.

Sgt. and Mrs. Wallace J. Hemingway, at 256B March Circle, won the prize for having the best appearing yard in the enlisted area of Webb Village. On the officers' side, it was Capt. and Mrs. Michael F. Scasny Jr., at 98A Gunter, who took the honors. Sgt. Hemingway works in the vehicle operations branch of Transportation while Captain Scasny works in Data Automation. Each couple will receive free dinners.

Receiving honorable mention in the "best building" competition were Bldgs. 625, 615, 1105 and 3 along with Hangar 44. They house Procurement and Supply Orderly Room, Base Supply, Traffic Management, Base Operations and Aerospace Ground Equipment.

Special mention for individual effort went to Bldg. 932, the India Flight Shack, for its painting and cleaning efforts. The most improved area noted was Bldg. 449, Youth Center.

Honorable mentions in the "best unit" category went to Communications and Transportation.

"Best housing" honorable mentions went to Sgt. and Mrs. John L. Cortas of 173B Fairchild and Tsgt. and Mrs. Charles C. Romero at 189A Fairchild, in the enlisted area. An honorable mention in the officer area went to Maj. and Mrs. Rastus O. Massey at 107 Gunter.

Residents of BEQ 208 will receive their choice of free rounds of golf or bowling games. Permanent signs are to be posted at the buildings and units judged best in the campaign.

Directory is distributed

The new 1976 Big Spring city directory has just been received by the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce. This '76 commemorative edition honoring our nation's 200th birthday has been bound in white cover cloth with red and blue imprinting; quite an impressive edition which may well be looked upon as a collector's item in years to come.

The city directory, published by R. L. Polk & Co., Dallas, contains factual information and is used by many business and professional people, as well as residents and out-of-town visitors.

Since this 1976 directory will be placed in many directory libraries for free public reference in other cities, it will serve as perpetual and reliable advertising. It reflects the achievements of the city and depicts what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center.

The directory is composed of four sections, as follows: buyers' guide and classified business directory, alphabetical directory, street directory of householders and businesses and numerical telephone directory. Information in this city directory is gathered each edition on a door-to-door canvass and includes listings for all residents 18 years of age and older. Businesses who have supported this new commemorative edition with their advertising dollars are listed in alphabetical order on special "honor roll" pages.

Delivery of this 1976 Bicentennial edition is currently under way to subscribers in the area.

Fort Hood open house is scheduled May 22

Invitations to a May 22 Fort Hood Open House for retired military personnel have been mailed to approximately 17,000 people living in a 179-county, extending from Odessa to Texarkana and from Childress to Galveston.

The purpose of the open house is to provide retirees and their dependants with the latest information on their rights, benefits, and privileges and to give them the opportunity to renew their interest and perspective of today's active Army.

Upon their arrival at Theater 1 at 10 a.m., the visitors will receive a welcome address by Lt. Gen. Robert M. Shoemaker, commander of III Corps and Fort Hood. Gen. Shoemaker will be followed by Ms. Martha McSteen, the keynote speaker for this year's open house. Ms. McSteen is regional commissioner for the Social Security Administration, which includes Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico. Additional presentations will be given by the VA and CHAMPUS representatives.

The activities will then move to the Whittington Community Center, Bldg. 108, at 11:30, where retirees will have the opportunity to talk to professional personnel in the retiree areas of interest, such as general legal problems, civil service employment, social security, retired pay information, identification card renewal or issuance, Texas Employment Commission, Veterans benefits and medical benefits.

Surgery talks are planned

Many types of minor surgery can be performed without an overnight stay in the hospital.

Those types of outpatient procedures which do require "general" or complete anesthesia will be discussed during "Ambulatory Surgery," the therapeutics seminar for health professionals set for Thursday, at 12:30 p.m. CST. Professionals at Big Spring State Hospital will participate in the discussions originating from The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio and broadcast locally by means of a live teleconference hookup.

The hookup will allow two-way communication between San Antonio and the local hospital.

Moderator Dr. J. Bradley Aust, professor and chairman of surgery at the San Antonio center, will lead discussions of procedures including superficial plastic surgery and breast biopsies.

Additional panelists from the San Antonio center will be Dr. Donald Greer, associate professor and head of plastic and reconstructive surgery; Dr. Linda Stehling, assistant professor of anesthesiology; and Dr. Howard Zauder, professor and chairman of anesthesiology.

"Where does Texas Electric get electricity?"

UNDERSTANDING YOUR ELECTRIC BILL

Electricity doesn't come in barrels or by pipeline or by boat. It's not in veins or fields lying around waiting to be discovered. We have to make it out of something else.

Most electricity is produced when steam turns a generator. The steam comes from boiling water.

To heat the water, we have to burn fuels like natural gas, oil or coal. Or we can use the heat from a nuclear reactor.

The hardest thing about making electricity these days is making sure we have plenty of fuel. Natural gas, currently our main fuel, is running out.

That's why we're building new power plants that run on cheaper, more abundant fuels — like lignite coal and uranium.

If you'd like more information about where we get electricity, call or write Texas Electric.
