Interesting Letter From M. L. Winchert—How Conducted in the Far East.

It is time for prayer meeting. The call outside my awakened me from sound before five o'clock in the morning. Brushing a hand my sleepy eyes and dressing quickly, within fifteen minutes I was on my way to sunrise prayer meeting carrying a lantern to light my way. When I arrived at the Owen Memorial Building the more than one hundred men and women were already singing a hymn and Kim Meska (Mr. Kim) was in his place ready to deliver the opening message of the day and to conduct the morning devotions. Seating myself on the steps leading to the platform and facing into the faces of the Koreans who had gathered I saw in their eyes evidence of others having had less of the prescribed 8 hours of sleep. Most of us were sleepy and there is no denying that. The services last night did not end until after 10 o'clock. The bright light from the eyes of those who are faithfully striving to "follow after" the eloquent testimony of the Lord within.

For ten days Kim Meska, of the Northern Presbyterian Mission, had been conducting special services in the Kwangju church and the meetings at night and the sunrise prayer meetings are but part of the program which has been followed in the vigorous campaign against sin and the devil in the "Billy Sunday" of Korea.

There is a daily Bible study from 9 to 10 in the forenoon, and from 4 to 5 in the afternoon each day, in addition to the daily foreign service at noon. Kim Meska is indeed a great preacher and untiring in his efforts to bring the truth to his people from whose eyes the mists of heathenism have not yet fallen. He preaches the gospel straight from the shoulder and is fearless in his denunciation of sin and the failure to live up to the laws of the man complained to me yesterday that the preacher used improper language in his recent meeting for the Christians only. In urging the observance of the tithe, he said that "Unless you give at least a tenth of your income to the Lord, you are robbers;" using a rather low form in making the statement. I think my informer received small comfort—for the present at least—from my reply, for, instead of attempting any argument of the case or a defense of the preacher, I said "Are not these true words?" His text last night was from Revelations 22:22, and I doubt if any of his hearers know this morning if he is a pre-millennium or a post-millennium. At the before sunrise prayer-meeting he preached—no talked—from the First Corinthians, 13:13.

Every afternoon the Christians go out two by two for personal work and invitation to the services, being paired off at the early morning meeting. The average attendance at the night services has been about 600 and already over 100 have expressed their desire to become Christians.

Their names and addresses are taken and, following the close of the meetings a class will be organized and conducted for their instruction. If Pastor Kim is our "Billy Sunday," then Rev. Eugene is our "Rodenhaver," whose zeal and bamboo baton have urged the people to real inspirational singing.

We have no restaurant nor hospital in connection with the meetings nor do we require police to keep order, yet the Holy Spirit is as evidently present within the low mud walls of our church as in any costly auditorium.

There are no gifts of automobiles or seal skin coats for the evangelist, but tiny sacks of rice and small sums of money have been contributed as free will offerings, which will be presented to Pastor Kim at the close of the meeting, which will total in value to about 10 Yen. ($5.00).

Rev. R. L. Armor, pastor of the Methodist church at Toyah was a Pecos visitor yesterday, and remained over to attend the services at the tabernacle last night. He made this office a pleasant call and ordered some printed matter for the church. We were well pleased with Bro. Armor's appearance and manner, and trust he may have a most successful year's work in his field of labor for the Master. The Times will make him weekly visits and keep him posted as to the doings at Toyah as well as this entire section.

Mrs. J. D. McAdams and children left Monday for Shawnee, Okla., where Mr. McAdams is confined to his bed with typhoid fever, she having received a message calling her to him. It is hoped by their numerous Pecos friends that she may find him improved upon her arrival.

THE TABERNACLE MEETING IS NOW IN FULL SWING--COME ALL THE TIME

All Members of the Party Are Now Here and the Meeting is Progressing in Fine Shape—Splendid Music Will Be One of the Main Features.

Lockett Adair and his party are all here "in the harness" for one of the biggest campaigns against sin, in all forms, that has ever been waged in this section of the West.

Those who arrived Wednesday were: Lockett Adair, the evangelist; Geo. W. Wood, assistant evangelist; Joel McGregor, secretary to the evangelist and the soloist; Herbert Wall, musical director; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Childs, who are in charge of the tabernacle and personal work.

The meetings the first of the week were held each night and the ladies' prayer meetings in the afternoon, the local pastors, in turn, occupying the pulpit.

Rev. Moore preached last Saturday night, Key, Sunday morning, and Allison, of Artesia, Sunday evening, and each sermon was a very strong gospel one, and certainly did a great deal of good.

The first part of the services Wednesday evening was devoted to arranging the orchestra and singers and getting everything in shape generally, as well as Bro. Adair making announcements and getting acquainted, so to speak, after which preliminaries he proceeded to preach a splendid opening sermon.

The attendance Wednesday night was very fair and will no doubt increase each service. Those in the choir took hold in right nice shape, and were greatly helped by Mrs. Cochran, with the violin, Messrs. Hanson and Churchill, cornetists, and D. J. Moran, with the tuba.

It is to be hoped that the seats in the choir will be completely filled each night. Bro. Wall is a fine leader and will soon have everything in ship-shape. The solo by Mr. McGregor was a soul stirring selection, and was greatly appreciated by all who heard it. He has a wonderful voice.

Come out tonight and every other night that you possibly can, and assist in making this the greatest and most successful meeting for God and the right ever held in Pecos.

SELLS VALLEY VIEW FARM

T. J. Sisk Disposes of Interest For Neat Sum of $22,000 to Alpine Man.

T. J. Sisk, who for the past few years has been fixing up and improving his Valley Farm of 470 acres, near Hoban, sold it last week to R. R. Youngblood, of Alpine, for the tidy sum of $22,000.00, and gave possession on the first day of November. He and Mrs. Sisk are again residents of Pecos, much to the delight of their many friends.

Mr. Sisk's principal crops raised on the farm, were alfalfa, cotton and hogs, and when the crop of cotton raised this year is gathered and sold the amount of his receipts from the farm this year will be $4500.00. The cotton will average a little better than three-fourths of a bale to the acre, grading middling or better.

He has made one of the most successful ventures in the pumping irrigation proposition in Reeves county, so far as we have heard. He has been an untiring worker, up early and late, but the results show what can be done by work, combined with grit and common sense a little water and Reeves county dirt. Others could do as well or better if they go at it properly.

Mr. Sisk will spend part of his time at the farm until his crops are gathered. The Times joins with their hosts of friends in extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Sisk, for the latter is also responsible in a way for the success attained, and the good results from their venture at Valley Farm, for few anticipated that they would do so well.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Levy returned home Tuesday from a visit to the former's father and family at Alvarado. Mr. Levy left last Friday, to join Mrs. Levy who had been visiting there for some time. They report having a splendid time.

SCHOOL REPORT FOR OCTOBER

Following is Report Made to Trustees By the Superintendent, Thos. J. Yoe.

Gentlemen:—I herewith submit to you a brief summary of the progress of the schools for the month just closed.

Total enrollment for last month, 361. Total enrollment for the present month, boys, 171, girls, 198; total, 369.

Total number of tardies, 35. Average per cent of attendance for the entire school last month, 97.6. For the present, 98 per cent.

The general spirit and conduct of the work has been up to the high standard set by the first month. You will note, however, an increase in the number of cases of tardiness, especially in the High School section, and that the average daily attendance is not up to the standard of the first month.

Realizing the necessity of our boys and girls keeping up with the great events in the world's history which are now transpiring, a "Keeping-Up Club" has been organized in the High School. This club has already rendered one very interesting program and others equally interesting have been outlined. The entire range of human activities has been subdivided and definite assignment made to each grade. As a part of this general plan of keeping up, several local speakers have been asked to make addresses on topics of public interest. In addition to these Mr. H. D. Slater, editor of the El Paso Herald, will speak on the subject of "History in the Making," and Judge J. M. Goggin on the subject of "Our Public Schools as Training Grounds for Citizenship." These talks will be free and open to all the public. Upon these occasions pupils from the Public Speaking Class will render selections and one class of the High School will act as host for that evening.

I take it to be as much the duty of a superintendent to look and plan for the future as much as it is to perform the duties of the present. With this in view, I am taking the liberty from time to time, to suggest such changes or improvements as I deem would be best for the schools. These are to be regarded and treated merely as suggestions. If Pecos is to become the educational center it can and should be, two things, in my opinion, will be absolutely necessary next year. First, the installation of manual training and domestic economy. Second, the erection and equipment of a separate building, designed for high school work alone. By doing this, the present building could be turned over entirely to the grammar grades and to the teaching of manual arts. I shall rejoice in the day when I see Pecos advertising her educational advantages as a commercial asset. But to do this we must keep abreast of the times in every needed material equipment. If you are looking for the investment which will return you the largest dividend in actual money, I know of nothing which will surpass the investment of money in good schools. But there is a higher and more weighty reason for this: and it is that every boy and girl may get his or her birthright, and that in the fullest, the best preparation possible, for the battle of life. I take it that is it not too early to begin the discussion of this subject. If you think this is an extravagant outline, remember I am not asking it for myself but for your children.

Through the aid of the Parent-Teacher Association, we now have placed on the school grounds twelve swings and a large sand box. It is our intention to have a full program of athletic events at the Fair Grounds on Thanksgiving afternoon. A number of the schools in the county will send contestants for the various events, and a game of football and of basket ball has already been secured with Midland. I mention this at this time that we may pre-empt the day before something else is announced.

The following pupils have made the highest averages in their respective grades for the month:

- Low first, Mary Snyder.
- High first, Ruby Poer, and Wylie Sue Cole.
- Low second, Josephine Rogers.
- High second, Harry Ross and Mary Magee.
- Low third, Josie Prewitt.
- High third, Willie Ruth Hines.
- Low fourth, Ruth Profit.
- High fourth, Mary Stipe.
- Fifth grade, Virginia Runnels.
- Sixth grade, Floena Vaughan, Mozelle Bryan.
- Seventh grade, Leonard Loppo.
- First year, High School—Zara Sims.
- Second year, High School—Estelle Durdin.
- Third year, High School—Sibyl Bowie.
- Fourth year, High School—Hill Hudson.

A cordial invitation is extended to all patrons and to friends to visit the schools at all times.

Respectfully submitted,
THOS. J. YOE.

EL PASO TO FORT WORTH HIGHWAY

Booster Meetings Indicate the Improvement Will Be Welcomed in Vicinity.

On Monday of this week, F. W. Johnson, vice-president of the El Paso to Fort Worth Highway, county judge, Ben Randalls, Secretary Eberstadt, of the commercial club, accompanied E. J. Hernan, Assistant Director General of the United States Highway Department, of Washington, D. C., and Dr. T. P. Grant, a good roads enthusiast of Brady, Texas, over to Barstow, where an enthusiastic meeting was held. Mr. Hernan delivered a very interesting and instructive address going into almost every detail of the El Paso-Fort Worth Highway, and explaining to the citizens of Ward County what was expected of them, in the way of encouraging and co-operating with the highway in order that it might pass through Ward County. Dr. Grant added much to the enthusiasm of the meeting and suggested that Ward County organize a Good Roads Association. This suggestion was immediately acted upon, and an organization was formed, with County Judge Burch Carson president, and C. E. Nichols, cashier of Ward County Bank, secretary. A list was circulated and nearly everyone present at the meeting signed up as members. A committee of three was appointed by the president, to secure new members from all parts of the county.

At three o'clock the rooms of the Pecos Valley Commercial Club were taxed to capacity to accommodate the business and professional men of Pecos, who are always interested and ready to push any good movement. Secretary Eberstadt called the meeting to order and introduced Mr. Hernan who began his address by complimenting Reeves county on having such a splendid system of good roads. He went into the subject of good roads from the early days to the present, and showed how the United States government would assist the El Paso-Fort Worth Highway, and his remarks, particularly in explaining the method that would be used in getting by the Monahans sand, was highly pleasing to his audience. Dr. Grant explained how his home county put the different highways through, and his address was one of the best ever made in Reeves County on the subject of highways.

A good roads association was formed, to be known as the Reeves County Good Roads Association. F. W. Johnson, president of the Pecos Mercantile Co., and vice-president of the Pecos Valley State Bank was elected president; S. E. Eberstadt, secretary of the Pecos Valley Commercial Club, and the following signed as members of the organization: W. D. Cowan, president of the Pecos Valley State Bank; T. Y. Casey manager of the Pecos Mercantile Co., and president of the Pecos Valley Commercial Club; M. W. Collie, manager Tri-State Telephone Co.; D. W. Bozeman, proprietor Pecos Drug Co.; W. W. Camp, Tax Assessor; R. N. Couch, county commissioner; Sol Mayer, farmer and stock raiser; O. Mitchell, proprietor City Pharmacy; T. B. Pruett, president of Pruett Lumber Co.; W. A. Hudson, attorney; W. H. Brown, Jr. cashier Pecos Valley State Bank; Vickers & Collings, merchants; R. F. Kelton, stock raiser; Max Krauskopf, merchant; I. A. Hanna, mer-

THE TIMES, ever progressive, has added a feature that we feel sure will interest those of our readers who contemplate building a home. On this page will appear, each week, The illustration of a home, and, occasionally an interior. A wide range will be covered, so no matter what your taste regarding how a home should be, you will find just what you want. The reading matter, too, will be of a nature that has to do with the home.

Modern Homes Create and Maintain Civic Pride.

Modern home building is an incentive to civic pride. The success of any civic attractiveness movement depends upon the co-operation of the people as a whole.

Noticeable has been the lack of interest displayed by those whose homes were unattractive and antiquated, just as noticeable has been the change displayed when one built a new modern home. It was the building of that home which created the desire to have the whole town look like the surroundings of their homes.

In former days no attention was paid to making the low or medium priced homes attractive and harmonious. Only the very rich was privileged to have homes. All of the rest existed in mere houses—four walls with a roof. There was no intermediate between palace and hovel.

With the advent of the cozy bungalow and the attractive 2-

ECONOMICAL TWO-STORY HOUSE.

This house will appeal to a man who wants to build a two-story house economically, lumber cuts to even sizes and is all carried in stock.

Balcony in rear of second floor affords airing space for bedding which is very essential for two-story houses. Two bedrooms upstairs, both having in them large closets. Well lighted sewing room well protected from sun by projecting gable.

Living and dining rooms in beam ceiling. Living-room has built-in window seat in alcove and wide colonade opening leads into dining room which has a commodious built-in buffet. Bath room easily accessible from first floor bedroom. Built-in cupboards and sink make kitchen work a great deal handier. Screen porch adjoining kitchen gives convenient access to back yard.

story homes the minds masses naturally turned beautifying of their surroundings. When this accomplished the contrast between their domain and streets, public square, grounds of the Court City Hall, etc. were so that they took upon themselves to make the whole look like a park. The modern home building has accomplished a miracle in short years.

The illustration here a true portrayal of a story and a half bungalow attractive, distinctive and in interior arrangement yet medium priced and the reach of the home. It would do credit to any streets in your city. It presents the dawn of a new home building. It is to the average man's that one decision is to be "Let's build a home and enjoy the convenience and beauty."

Wanted Them Bad.

A provision house which prides itself on filling orders accurately received a letter from a provincial customer recently, complaining bitterly of the last order of eggs supplied saying that they had been exceeding poor.

The reputation of the house for never making an error, it seemed, was at stake, but the bright mind of the junior partner found a way out of it. He wrote:

"Gentlemen: We are sorry to hear that our consignment did not suit you; there was, however, no mistake on our part. We have looked up the original order sent by you and find that it reads as follows: 'Rush fifty boxes of eggs. We want them bad!'"

If you want to know where to find something good to eat, look in the Pecos Times.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES
A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into sour bile, shaking you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.—Advt.

Pecos Readers Must Come too That Conclusion.

It is not the telling of a single case in Pecos, but a number of citizens testify. Endorsement by people you know bears the stamp of truth. (The following is one of the public statements made in this locality about Doan's Kidney Pills:

L. E. Dendy, prop. of Central Hotel, Oak Street, Pecos says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills in the past and gladly recommend them to others for I think they are a good medicine. They helped me and I believe they will help others, if taken according to directions."

HAND work commands respect in every field of endeavor—hand work is careful, painstaking, precise work—hand work is used more largely in our made to measure clothes than in any clothes you can buy.

Hand tailoring makes style permanent and enduring—it isn't nearly as fast nor as cheap as machine work, but it's so much better that there's really no comparison between the two.

The Continental Tailors of Chicago hand tailors our made to measure clothes.

Entered as second class matter December 3, 1912, at the Postoffice in Pecos Texas, under Act of March, 3, 1879.

Christmas is fast approaching and the hens still continue their strike. Not an egg will they lay. But one thing remains for us, and that is to have our guzzles tin lined and take it straight.

The Record of Pecos County alfalfa seed crop shows that the alfalfa growers harvested and sold this year, 918,000 lbs. of alfalfa seed at 15.80 cents a pound. Time to quit groan and whistle awhile.—Ft. Stockton Pioneer.

Hens have no excuse to offer for direktion to duty in the process of laying eggs. It can hardly be blamed on the war in Europe. Maybe they have turned suffragettes, and are busy stumping the country for the election of Hughes to the neglect of their primitive duty.

Our High School boys had what might be termed a little experience last Saturday over at Midland. It doesn't spell a thing in the world, that score. Our boys are game, and their necks are bowed for the return game, and the result, we will wager, is going to be different.

Once more, at election this year, a very important issue is before the people of Texas. It is the amendment at the bottom of the ballots. Voters should not pass up the amendment but should vote for it, as it means much for many districts in Texas that are not as favorably cared for as our own.

One of the most stubbornly-contested political campaigns is rapidly drawing to a close. Both sides, Republicans and Democrats, predict a victory. But it cannot be. One or the other must go down to defeat. How the Republican party can win out, we cannot see, for the history of the ages have proven beyond the peradventure of a doubt, that a house divided against itself cannot stand.

Hearty co-operation of our people is asked in the big revival meeting that opened up the past week. Rev. Lockett Adair is here now and is doing some forceful preaching. The success he has had in other places can be our—Pecos—if the same spirit is manifested among the church members of the city. It's a straight out 50-50 proposition, he has his work to do and they have theirs. Should either fall down failure will be the result, and another opportunity lost.

Conversing with several of the farmers of the Toyah Valley leads us to the belief that optimism prevails in that section of the country since the record crop of alfalfa hay and seed has been harvested and sold. A sign of the times, say you. But why the occasional years? It is a state of affairs that should be permanent, and now that the farmers have caught on in that section, our only request is to keep your eye on the Toyah Valley. As for the cattlemen in the same section—they need no sympathy. It has been a wonderful year in THE valley.

Some are wont to frown on the idea of football in the High School. We're for it, strong! We send our boy too school for an education, it's true, but we also wish them to graduate, not only as walking encyclopedias, but also as manly men. Believe me, football is a man's game, and should your boy makes the squad, rest content that he is all wool and a yard wide, the rest will come easy. Its a game that will not for the briefest space countenance a boy with the faintest streak of amber in his make-up. The skin will grow back, and, if there are broken bones, they will soon mend, but the training, physically, that a boy gets on the gridiron will never be effaced, and its just what he needs. So turn 'em loose!

Turkey Day is an institution that should be kept alive by all means. On Saturday, November 18th, Pecos will hold its first Turkey Day, and farmers and others are asked to cooperate in making it a grand success. It should be borne in mind that those who have turkeys for market will, by cooperating in the movement, be helping themselves. The Pecos Valley Commercial Club is behind the movement solely for the benefit the farmers and all who have turkeys to dispose of will reap by a concerted move to find a market that will pay well for the product. No one in Pecos receives a cent for services rendered, by commission or in any other way. The price the buyer gives is the price the seller will receive. In addition to get a good price for turkeys, premiums have been offered by the business men, in cash and in merchandise, for those who bring turkeys to Pecos on Turkey Day. A good start is all we need to perpetuate this move, and all who will are asked to help.

Stock Shipments.

Will Lea shipped out a carload of horses last Friday afternoon to Merchison, which he purchased from Mrs. W. L. Ross.

Thursday the Pecos Valley Southern took out five cars of sheep belonging to R. M. Washkom. They came down from Roswell over the Santa Fe and were taken out to Saragosa.

Wednesday the following were shipped out from Pyote, and were reported to us by Henry Slack, inspector for the Panhandle & Southwestern Stock Association:

Billy Madkins to Clay Robinson & Co., Fort Worth. 3 cars of beeves and 1 of yearling stockers.

Rube Reed, to the Geo. R. Barse Commission Co., Fort

Last Friday Fred Gibson shipped to Artesia, N. M., 3 cars of cows and 7 cars of yearlings, which he had purchased from W. D. Cowan & Sons.

One car of cows and one of calves were shipped to Fort Worth yesterday by the Jno. Z. Means Cattle Co., being loaded out at Riverton, and shipped via the Santa Fe and T. & P. roads.

Hudson & Snyder received yesterday from Iatan, 31 cars of stock cattle. Four cars were unloaded here and 27 were sent up to Reverton, via special train over the Santa Fe, where they were unloaded and placed in pasture for the winter.

Wednesday W. W. Camp received a carload of Mexican cattle which Mac Camp had purchased at Marfa and shipped here, W. W. had them branded and shipped to his ranch near Orla.

Analysis of Water From the Pea Wells.

On account of some misunderstanding in regard to the analysis of the water from the Pea wells, we give the following, so that all may understand the matter. These are the wells from which Pecos expects to get the soft water for the proposed system:

"University analysis sustains the contention of water works promoters that the water soon to be piped into Pecos is the very best to be had.

"The analysis received by Ben Warner, city engineer, from State Chemist, W. T. Read, says that there are from two to three pounds of encrustating solids in one thousand gallons, which reduced to pounds, equals 8000. This gives a water that with two pounds of solids is 99 98-100 per cent pure, and with three pounds of solids it is 99 97-100 per cent pure. When compared to the water we are used to using it will seem almost pure.

"Mr. LaSalle in all his public and private statements has said that the water contained 36 parts total solids in 100,000 or 99 96-100 per cent pure, so Worth, 1 car of stockers and 7 cars of beeves.

Cowden & Leck, to the National Commission Co., of Fort Worth, 4 cars of stockers. It is readily seen that the University gives the quality of the water as being slightly better.

"Two pounds of total solids is equal to 20 parts in 100,000. "Three pounds of total solids is equal to 30 parts in 100,000.

"Mr. Anderson, of the Pecos Valley Southern Ry., states that the water is so good that they will never attempt to treat it for boiler purposes, the amount of solids being so small that it would not justify them to do so.

"From records in Mr. Anderson's office it was found that it would cost less than one cent per thousand gallons to treat water with double the amount of total solids as is shown in this water."

Walter Slover autoed up to Arno last Friday, carrying Mrs. J. W. Day and daughter Ruth, for a visit to another daughter, Miss Artie, who is teaching school up there, and a son, Ralph, who is attending the school there. They returned home Saturday accompanied by the two latter, and Miss Ruby, Henson, who visited until Monday morning. Miss Artie is having splendid success in her school work up there. A birthday party was given to Ralph last Friday which was greatly enjoyed by all fortunate to be present.

HONESTY FIRST PARTY POLITICS AFTERWARDS

Hon. R. B. Creager, of Brownsville, Texas, Republican Candidate for Governor

IN FAVOR OF—

- Retention of Robertson Insurance Law.
- Submission where demanded by a majority.
- Amendment of Warehouse Law.
- Abolition of many useless State Offices.
- Abolition of the useless Office of County Treasurer.
- Woman's Suffrage—As a matter of Justice.
- Lower Taxes, and lower governmental expenses.
- Amendment of delinquent tax law.
- Governor obeying constitution as to salary limitation.
- Placing all public officers on a strict salary basis.

AGAINST—

- Dishonesty in and out of office.
- The appointment of incompetents for political reasons.
- Paying out public funds for private expenses.
- The collection of excessive back tax penalties.
- A candidate accepting campaign funds from corporations.
- "Personal representatives," "social secretaries" and other illegal appointments at public expense.
- The Terrel Election Law.
- The fee system.

Do You Agree With Mr. Creager?

For every dollar property tax-payers paid the state in 1908 the paid $7.10 in 1915. For every dollar the CORPORATIONS paid the state in 1914 they paid only 52 cents in 1915.

WHY

Unnecessary Political Offices. "Juncketing" trips, Panama Exposition trips, "Social Secretary," "Personal Representative," chauffeur, gasoline, feed, groceries, etc., etc., etc.

If you vote for R. B. Creager for Governor of Texas, you will call a "halt" on such bills being paid out of the tax money. The constitution of this state provides, "that the salary of the Governor shall be $4,000.00 and no more."

WE CAN HAVE A SOUND MORAL AND SUCCESSFUL COMMUNITY ONLY UNDER AN EFFICIENT AND HONEST GOVERNMENT.

VOTE FOR R. B. CREAGER FOR GOVERNOR

and for the balance of the Republican Ticket—State and National. Let us have the "House-Cleaning" Texas so badly needs.

IF YOU VOTE FOR GOVERNOR FERGUSON YOU APPROVE HIS ACTS. 43*3 (Political Advertisement)

Missionary Society Entertained

Mesdames Max Krauskopf, Ben Randals, A. J. and O. O. Curtis entertained in a most delightful way the Missionary Society of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Krauskopf Tuesday afternoon of the past week.

A most interesting "Poster contest" was first on the programme, these posters being puzzle pictures pinned on one of the Methodist Missionaries. The name of the pastor, Rev. Walker, was uniquely hidden in the last poster.

Next a Bible contest was passed. Cards containing 12 questions on the life of Jesus.

A dictionary contest was source of much merriment and called for ready wit, each of the guests were given a letter of the alphabet, and required to give a proper Biblical name beginning with that letter on a very short notice. The hostesses in their gracious manner, filled the entire afternoon with pleasure. The serving of delicious chocolate and angel food cake brought this merry party to a close. Some thirty-five guests were present.

Baptist Tea.

The members of the Baptist Aid Society enjoyed the hospitality of Mesdames Woody Johnson, Ben Capps, and Sam Means, at the home of the former last Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

On account of the plans for the prospective revival, there was no special program planned for the occasion.

A devotional service was held, consisting of prayer, sacred songs, and Bible readings.

After the exercises a short business session was called for by the president, Mrs. Hefner. The remainder of the afternoon was most pleasantly occupied in conversation, interspersed by piano and vocal numbers and selections on the Victrola.

Misses Jewell Cowan and Lucile Brooks passed delicious refreshments of chicken sandwiches, pickles, and hot chocolate.

DON'T FORGET TURKEY DAY

Saturday, November 18th To Be a Red Letter Day For Turkey Raisers.

The cackle of the Rhode Island Reds, Barred Rocks, and other fowls sound mighty good to the ear. The delicious odor of fried chicken emanating from the kitchen is powerfully tempting. However, there is one bird for which the dinner bells of the nation ring out in unanimous praise, and that is the Turkey. His proud strut, and his gobble, gobble, gobble, is the finest sight and the sweetest music of the barnyard. In Texas they raise the bird to heights of perfection, and today the Texas turkey is diligently sought after by consumers all over the United States. Not hardly a home but what is looking forward to that great dinner on Thursday, November 30th—Thanksgiving Day. When you see that big, fine gobbler on the platter and partake of ample portion of the delicious white or brown meat, you are forced to admit:

"Of all the meat, None can beat Turkey, Turkey, The greatest treat."

The Texas turkey is recognized in all the big poultry markets of the country, and bring a better price than turkeys from any other state, and today all parts of Texas are raising turkeys and shipping in carloads, and in order to encourage the farmers of this section of the West, to give more attention to this revenue producing fowl, the Pecos Valley Commercial Club have gone to much trouble and expense to inaugurate this first Turkey Day. There is no question but that the farmers of this section have heretofore been overlooking and neglecting this source of income, and if we can concentrate at least 1000 turkeys in Pecos on Turkey Day, we will have accomplished our purpose of establishing a market for turkeys, and by next season, will induce some of the large poultry dealers to operate a dressing and a shipping plant here as they are doing in other parts of the state.

To further encourage the farmers to bring in their turkeys on Turkey Day, the business men of Pecos have offered $75 in cash and merchandise and the party bringing in the greatest number of turkeys on that day will alone receive $30 in cash and merchandise. The party bringing turkeys the longest distance will receive in cash and merchandise, $20.

Other smaller prizes will be given.

The Pecos Commercial Club will have buyers right on the ground and these buyers will pay the highest market price on Saturday, November 18th. Turkeys will be weighed and cash paid for same right on the spot, no commission to be paid to the Commercial Club, to its secretary, or to any member, nor any business firm or citizen of Pecos. It will be absolutely a business proposition between the buyer and the seller—no middle man will, whatsoever, to rake off the commission. Every penny brought by the turkey goes to the seller.

If you have turkeys do not overlook this splendid opportunity to dispose of them to good advantage, and at the same time help to develop a great industry for this section of the country.

I will kindly ask and urge that you write me about the number of turkeys you expect to bring, for if the Commercial Club can advertise the number we expect, it will mean more buyers on the ground, keener competition in bidding, and a better price for your turkeys. We want to ship at least a carload. If we can ship a carload instead of shipping by express, it will mean a better price. I am now in correspondence with some of the largest poultry dealers in Texas, and no matter what you may hear, if you do not understand the proposition and wish any information on the subject, call at the office of the Commercial Club, and if you can't call, write or phone and it will be pleasure to give you all the information you wish in regard to Turkey day. Tell your friends about the Turkey Day, and let us work and boost, and if we do this, you will hear more gobble, gobble, gobble, on Saturday, November 18th, than you have ever heard in this section of the West.

Yours for a great Turkey Day,
S. E. EBERSTADT,
Sec'y Pecos Valley Com. Club.

Will Hold Bazaar.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold a bazaar on December 8 and 9. Fancy work and many useful things, as well as lots of good things to eat will be on sale. The place to buy your Christmas gifts. Full particulars will be given later. 38-tf

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

With the exception of black ink, all raw materials used in manufacture of a newspaper have advanced in cost during the past twelve months approximately 100 per cent. This means that it will cost our publisher practically double to supply you with a newspaper the coming year.

Under stress of these unusual conditions, The Star-Telegram has been forced to increase its "Bargain Days" rate from $3.25 to $3.65. A increase of 40c per year ($1.30 per month) or 12 per cent. Based on a conservative estimate increase in production cost of 100 per cent, and this price the division of added expense will be as follows:

Increased expense to The Star-Telegram 88¢
Increased expense to The Reader 12¢

This situation means that after "Bargain Days" the regular rate of $6.00 per year must be strictly enforced. We have battered the price to the very bottom in order to protect our annual Subscription Check Rate Period, which has been in effect since the establishment of The Star-Telegram.

Do not take chances, save the $2.35, by ordering before Bargain Days expire. Take advantage of the $3.65 rate.

The high standard of The Star-Telegram will be maintained as long as there is a Star-Telegram regardless of any war burdens.

Talks With the Boys

By J. L. HARBOUR, IN THE VISITOR.

The Boy Who Laughs.

"You hear that boy laughing? You think he's all fun; But the angels laugh, too, At the good he has done; The children laugh loud As they troop to his call, And the poor man that knows him Laughs loudest of all." God bless the laughing boy! He adds so much to the happiness of the world—even more, he adds to the growing good of the world. Gloomy and even evil thoughts sometimes flee when a merry laugh is heard. I think that I would be a bit suspicious of a boy who never sent into the world anything so good and wholesome as a ringing laugh. Great is the power of cheerfulness. Some one has called it the principal ingredient in the composition of good health. Who can doubt that cheerful thoughts are good for one's health? Carlyle once wrote: "The man who cannot laugh is not only fit for treason stratagem, and spoils, but his whole life is already a treason and a stratagem."

And yet, this is no plea for constant and useless laughter, and I do not know of anything more offensive than mere giggling. I know a boy who has a laughing eye. It twinkles merrily all of the time, and often he adds a ringing laugh to the laughter in his eye. He is a very popular boy, and his constant good nature brings to him many friends. Some one has said that the fool will laugh when there is nothing to laugh at. I am afraid that I do know one or two boy laughers of this kind. I saw one of the boys laughing in church yesterday. He had his hand over his mouth and he was laughing simply because a baby had uttered a little cry in church during the sermon hour.

Then no kind or gentlemanly boy ever laughs at the misfortunes of others. He never laughs at things that bring real pain to others. I once heard a group of boys burst into peals of laughter because a poor old woman slipped and fell in the mud while crossing a street on a rainy day. Silence would have been a very becoming thing on the part of those boys.

It is a great thing to be able to "laugh off" many of the small troubles and trials of life. The other day a boy I know, came home from the diamond, where he and a juvenile baseball nine had been playing a game with a nine from another school. "How did you come out?" I asked.

"Say, if we didn't get beautifully trimmed!" he said with as merry a little laugh as the funniest happening could have created.

"You don't seem to be much broke up over it," I said. "Why should I be? Anyhow we had no end of fun and one side or the other had to be left, and we happened to be that side. That is all there is to it."

I hope that he will be able to go through life taking this philosophical view of things and laughing at many of the little defeats in life. One had just as well meet the great defeats and failures cheerfully, since moroseness and tears can be of no avail in such a situation.

Again Carlyle said: "How much lies in laughter? The cipher key, wherewith we decipher the whole man." The laugh that has a sneer and a jeer in it is better suppressed. It is an indication of something in the heart of a man or a boy that no one wants to discover there. The laugh of triumph over the defeat of others is also far from delightful. There is a certain maliciousness in it that jars harshly on all right-minded people.

Here is a bit of good advice in rhyme, and it has to do with laughing:

"Are you worsted in a fight? Laugh it off. Are you cheated of your right? Laugh it off. Don't make tragedy of trifles, Don't shoot butterflies with rifles— Laugh it off.

Does your work get in kinks? Laugh it off. Are you near all sorts of brinks? Laugh it off. If it's sanity you're after, There's no recipe like laughter Laugh it off.

I remember that I once read of a doctor in Paris who had established a laughter cure. This curious institution was a private affair, and one had to pay a large sum for its service. The patients sat around in a room and at a given moment they begin to smile at one another. The smile becomes a ripe grin and at a signal the smile and grin deepens into a ringing laugh. It is claimed that two hours a day of this kind of exercise cured dyspepsia. I do not think, however, that this kind of manufactured laughter could be nearly so good as that which comes from real merriment within the heart. Have you lost the road to the happy place that is called Laughtertown? Here is the way to get back to it:

"Would you learn the road to Laughtertown, O ye who lost the way? Would ye have young hearts, though your hair be gray? Go learn from a little child each day; Go, serve his wants and play his play. And catch the lilt of his laugh And follow his dancing feet as they stray— For he knows the road to Laughtertown, O ye who have lost the way!"

Knocker vs. Booster.

Someone has said that when the Creator had made all the good things there still remained some work to do, so he made beast and reptiles and poisonous insects, and when he had finished there were some scraps left, so he put all these together covered it with suspicion, wrapped in with jealousy, marked it with a yellow streak, and called it a Knocker.

This product was so fearful to contemplate he had to make something to counteract it, so he took a sunbeam, put it in the heart of a child, the brain of a man, wrapped these in civic pride, covered it with brotherly love, gave it a mask of velvet and a grasp of steel and called it a Booster; made him a lover of fields and of flowers and manly sports, a believer in equality and justice and ever since these two were created, mortal man has had the privilege of choosing his own associates. —Logansport (Ind.) State University Furnishes Teachers to Texas Schools

Taking 240 of the largest high schools in the state, it will be found that the faculties number 532 University of Texas men and women, an average of more than two to the school. It is conservative to estimate that there are now teaching in the schools of Texas as more than 2,000 University of Texas graduates and ex-students. Moreover, the percentage of university men in the positions of superintendent and principal is greater than for the subordinate positions, so it is not merely a matter of numbers when you come to estimate the importance of the university to the common schools. Running down the list of important school systems in Texas, you find, without getting beyond the C's, the following cities employing University of Texas men and women as superintendents and principals of both: Alpine, Alvin, Austin, Baird, Ball, High School, Belton, Bonham, Burk Burnett, Caldwell, Calvert, Cameron, Carthage, Center, Childress, Chilicothe, Cleburne, Commerce, Corsicana and Cuero. Each year for the last ten, the ranks of the teaching profession in Texas have often been swelled and the learning of the profession enriched by the accession of from 100 to 300 graduates and ex-students.

Naturally, many of the men and women the University has sent into the profession have risen to important positions, where their ability is fully utilized for the common good. The university itself employs seventy-one of its graduates as teachers; most of whom have pursued studies in other institutions and advanced degrees. In the normal schools of the state we find twenty-eight university of Texas students graduates; on the faculty of the college of industrial arts, nine; in the A. & M. College, three; Occupying superintendencies, in the city school, we find 150 University of Texas men and women.

Now Lookout.

When a cold hangs on as often happens, or when you have hardly gotten over one cold before you contract another look out for you are liable to contract some very serious disease. This succession of colds weakens the system and lowers the vitality so that you are much more liable to contract chronic catarrh, pneumonia or consumption. Cure your cold while you can. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation. It is relied upon by thousands of people and it never disappoints them. Try it. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.—Adv

ROOSTER WOULD FIGHT ARMY

At Least That is Oregon Man's Opinion of Fowl That Attacked and Disabled Him.

Down on a farm near the Furnish dam there is a rooster that L. A. McClintock, local implement dealer, thinks should be on the fighting front over in Europe or down in Mexico. "The blankety blank would fight an army by himself," he says, and he speaks from a painful experience that put him on the hospital list.

In company with Sam Paine, W. C. E. Pruitt and Elbert Stieckler, he went down to the Furnish dam the other day in quest of good fishing. As the anglers were walking through the barnyard at the ranch there a big Buff Cochon rooster strutted out with ruffled feathers. Evidently he was in a belligerent mood as a result of the trespass upon his preserves.

Coming up behind McClintock, he delivered a sturdy peck at the implement man's calf, which was protected by a knee boot. The rooster was not to be denied by any such defense. Walking around in front of McClintock, he leaped into the air and drove his sharp spurs home just above the knee, one on either side, delivering at the same time a stout blow from his beak.

The spurs entered the flesh and struck the tendons of the leg. McClintock had to be helped to an automobile, so effectively had the old rooster crippled him. By the time he reached home his leg was swollen and stiff, and he could not use it for some days.—Pendleton (Ore.) Dispatch to Portland Oregonian.

C. M. WILSON, Agent, Panhandle & Santa Fe Ry. Co.

To the Voters of Texas.

The constitutional amendment to be voted upon by the people on the seventh of November is distinctly an educational amendment, and is the only amendment to be considered at that time. One leading feature of the amendment is that it does not impose a tax of itself but if adopted will give to the various districts and counties of the state an opportunity to secure additional support for their schools if they need and want it.

The amendment was submitted to the people of Texas in response to a widespread demand throughout the State for an opportunity to secure greater support for the schools than is now permitted by the Constitution of the State. In Texas many districts have already reached the constitutional limit in taxation and are yet short of funds with which to provide an adequate system of public free schools. Inasmuch as the amendment does not levy a tax on any district or county, the voters of such counties and districts as may not need additional support should in good neighborly spirit, vote for the amendment, for by so doing they will give the needy districts of Texas an opportunity to establish good schools for their children.

Four hundred sixty-seven independent school districts, and approximately two thousand common school districts in the State have already voted upon themselves the limit in taxation permitted by the present constitution. Many of these districts need additional support and cannot secure another dollar for their schools unless this amendment is adopted. On account of the compulsory school attendance law many schools in these districts are now filled to overflowing with pupils for whom there is no provision for housing, seating or teaching. The only relief for such districts is the adoption of the amendment to Section 3, Article 7, of the State Constitution, known as House joint Resolution 30, to be voted upon on the seventh of November.

Yours for the schools,
W. F. DOUGHTY,
State Superintendent.

The Penalty.

Little John is a confirmed sleepy-head. One morning when he was more than usually averse to getting up, his mother reasoned with him by calling his attention to the flowers.

"Why, the little flowers have been awake for hours," she told him, "and here you are at eight o'clock still in bed."

"Oh, well," was the reply, "look what awful dirty beds they have, and how nice and clean mine is!"

Unforeseen.

Helen was attending her first party. When refreshments were served she refused a second helping to ice cream with a polite "No, thank you," although her look was wistful.

"Oh, do have some more ice cream, dear," the hostess urged.

"Mother told me I must say, 'No, thank you,'" explained the little girl, "but I don't believe she knew the fishes were going to be so small."

Shingle Roof a Menace.

The ordinary shingle roof is a tremendous fire hazard which is not fully appreciated by most persons. After a shingle has been exposed to the weather for a time it becomes so inflammable that it will burn as quickly as paper, and they are so light that an ordinary wind will carry these burning brands from one building to another some distance away. This was clearly demonstrated at the conflagration which took place a short time ago at Paris, Ky. Of the total number of 1,440 buildings destroyed, over 1,000 had shingle roofs. Perhaps no more convincing example of the danger in the use of untreated wooden shingles in a closely built up community could be found than that furnished by this latest conflagration. Practically the only residence in the path of the flames which was but little damaged was roofed with incombustible material. In the reconstruction of the city the use of wooden shingles without fire-retardant treatment should be absolutely prohibited.

Show Day Is Coming.

"When the Show comes to town," is what people are saying to each other these pleasant days and the show that is meant is the Cole Bros. World-Toured Show and Trained Wild Animal Exhibition, that is greater, and bigger than ever this season. This colossal organization will exhibit in Pecos, Friday, November 10th. Everything imaginable in the way of wild and domestic animals is given, from the smallest monkey to the largest elephant. Among the hundred arenic acts are astonishingly clever and accomplished acrobatic exploits; feats of strength, acts of deftness and dexterity, difficult head and hand balancing acts.

Among the features are the Berne Bros., the strongest men on earth, direct from Europe, seen for the first time in America, in their varied feats of marvelous strength and wrestling matches.

Prof. F. J. Rogers, with his troupe of educated dogs and Shetland ponies which are a delight to the children and interesting to the grown-ups; these celebrated Rogers dogs, present an entrancing series of numbers at the command of their master, instantly change their positions and form different poses. 25 of the most beautiful Shetland ponies present drills and most difficult maneuvers with all the precision and skill of trained soldiers. This is known as the best trained school of ponies seen with any tented organization.

Herr John Diefenbach's with his trained bears are another European importation. Herr Diefenbach comes highly recommended by the press of Europe and the performances of his huge grizzly Siberian bears range from comedy to sensationalism.

Capt. Herbert's band of trained seals and sea lions, have no equal. All work very speedily, performing tricks that but few men could do. They do high diving, juggle firebrands, ride bicycles and play on musical instruments.

Took the Hurt Out of Her Back.

Mrs. Anna Byrd, Tusculumbia Ala., writes: "I was down with my back so I could not stand up more than half the time. Foley Kidney Pills took all of the hurt out." Rheumatic pains, swollen ankles, back-ache, stiff joints and sleep disturbing bladder ailments indicate disordered kidneys and bladder trouble. For sale by Pecos Drug Co.—Advt.

FAMILY FETES TIGHTEN TIES

Advantage Should Be Taken of Any Anniversary That Makes Gathering Possible.

Little family fetes do much to strengthen family affection. Take advantage of any occasion that may prompt a gathering of the family; let not one slip away unnoticed. Graduations, marriages, births, no event of special interest should be neglected. No anniversary is more personal than a birthday, be it in youth or old age. Everybody likes to know that people are glad he is here. In the companionship of their friends, young folks are forming ties that the coming years will strengthen. And when the young people help to celebrate the birthday of a parent or elder person, they learn thoughtfulness and unselfishness, and find happiness in making others happy. As the years fly by and a life of joys and sorrows is left behind, the aged person looks eagerly forward to the celebration of each coming birthday. The fewer occasions like this one may look forward to the more each anniversary means. One who has lived many years has found how fleeting is the joy in more material things and has learned to value more and more love, affection, and the good will that comes from the heart. In these family fetes expense need not and should not be considered. The simplest gift selected with care, a flower, a card, or just a loving wish carries much that makes the day happy. A letter or a card to the absent one, to the "boy at the front" will be a sustaining power for good when lonely, homesick or forlorn. Let the absent one know he is thought of and cared for. Do not let the birthday of any loved one pass unnoticed.—Milwaukee Journal.

IF MASKS WERE TAKEN OFF

Would People Be Any Happier If They Should Say to One Another Exactly What They Thought?

Do you suppose the time ever will come when all men and women are sincere and will say to one another exactly what they think? And do you suppose the world really would be any happier in such a time? Would the old man whose days are nearly spent be any happier if he knew precisely what the younger folk think about him? Would the young woman walking in pride on the street or lolling in her limousine be happier if she could read the thoughts of those she meets? Would the callers be happier if they knew what was said about them when they left—if, instead of a kiss and a "Come again, dear," there were a blow and "I hope you will never come again"? Would the people themselves who look an admiration they do not feel and speak compliments they do not mean be any happier if all were known?—From the Columbus Dispatch.

The Pecos High School football warriors definitely determined their superiority in the handling of the pigskin on the local gridiron here last Monday, when they overwhelmingly defeated the Pecos All-Stars 18 to 6. A vast and enthusiastic audience gathered under a clear sky to witness the best exhibition of football that has ever been staged in Pecos. The battle was hard fought, and it was not until the latter half of the game that the keenest critic could have foretold the outcome of the game. It was something more than a football game—it was a classic staged before windy cheering, yelling, shouting students, frenzied partisans and others who had no personal interests in either side, but who were caught in the spirit of the tumult and trapped in the atmosphere of a school day. The game was won on straight football and splendid kicking. The veteran ends, Jones and Hefner, played a stellar game, often catching long forward passes. The seasoned back-field men, Glover, Floyd, Wheeler and Prewitt, were bulwarks on defense and terrors when carrying the ball. The Pecos High School team had the advantage in team work, which they wielded with effect.

The long forward passes from Wheeler to Hayden and the meteor-like running of Greer were the sensational plays made by the All-Stars. But the old, seasoned football heroes were forced to yield their supremacy to the more agile players of a younger generation.

The following is the account of the game by halves: The High School won the toss, and chose to defend the north goal. Wheeler kicked off to Hudson, who made a brilliant open field run and returned the ball 40 yards. By a series of line bucks, the High School succeeded in making a touchdown. Glover, however, failed to kick goal.

Glover kicked off to Haygood, who returned the pigskin twenty yards. Forward pass from Wheeler to Hayden netted twenty yards. Greer went around left end for a touchdown. Failed to kick goal. The remainder of the half was played on the All-Star territory.

The second half began by a kick-off, from Jones to Wheeler, who returned 32 yards. The All-Stars failed to make the down. The ball went over to the High School. The All-Stars began to weaken. After a series of line bucks and ward passes, the High School made its second touchdown. Failed to kick goal.
