PLAINVIEW, TEXAS, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1916

COUNCIL NAMES COMMITTEE ON FIRE DEPARTMENT AFFAIRS

Grant Permission to Paxton & Oswald to Make Iron-Clad Building Fireproof.

Permission was granted Paxton & Oswald by the City Council, in session last night, to stucco the sheet-iron building across the alley from their store and otherwise improve it to make it fireproof. All exposed wood surfaces must be covered with non-combustible material. The doors are to be covered with metal.

Appoint Fire Department Supervisors. Some few months ago the volunteer fire department was placed directly under the control of the City Council. At last night's meeting a committee, W. R. Simmons and J. M. Waller, was appointed to have charge of the Council's business with the department.

J. F. Frye, formerly in the Sheriff's office of the county, was employed by the Council to collect the delinquent taxes due the city. A contract is to be drawn by the city attorney for this work.

The contract submitted by the Benham Engineering Co., of Oklahoma City, Okla., was passed to the next meeting.

The current month's bills were allowed and reports of the officers received and accepted. Dr. E. F. McClelland, health officer, reports one case of diphtheria which has developed since the last meeting. He also reports that the typhoid-fever patient, reported ill in his last report, is convalescent.

Report of collections in the water-works department by Superintendent B. L. Spencer showed collections of sewer and water rents during November to the amount of $600.30. Sundry and past-due collections have been made to the amount of $762.57.

City Tax Collector John Vaughn reported taxes collected during the month of November as follows:

Current taxes	$530.58
Delinquent taxes	375.29
Occupation taxes	5.00

Total	$944.22

All members of the Council, except J. M. Waller, who was in Clarendon to attend his sister's funeral, were present.

EMBARGO AT KANSAS CITY ON CATTLE IS REMOVED.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 2.—An order to remove the embargo on shipments of live stock from the Kansas City stock yards was received from Washington today. The embargo was placed on the yards recently on account of suspected cases of foot-and-mouth disease among cattle in the Central West.

Thorough disinfection of the yards, under the direction of Federal authorities, will precede the actual lifting of the embargo. Normal shipments of live stock are expected to be resumed Monday.

The order from Washington followed the announcement yesterday that Dr. Adolph Elehorn, chief of the pathological department of the Bureau of Animal Industry, had found the disease suspected of being the foot-and-mouth malady was not such, and that animals held for examination were suffering from stomatitis. Dr. Elehorn came here several days ago, from Washington, and has been working with Dr. James Fleming, head of the local bureau, in an investigation of the disease.

It was said by officials today that certain regulations regarding the disinfection of all cattle received here will remain in force at the stockyards for some time.

"THE MICROBE OF LOVE" WAS A CLEVER LIGHT COMEDY.

Proceeds Go to City Federation of Clubs as Benefit for Public Library.

"The Microbe of Love," a local talent production, given at the Mae I. Theater last night under the auspices of the Federated Club, was especially pleasing as an amateur presentation of a cleverly developed light comedy.

A rather small audience enjoyed the play throughout, but especially pleasing were the song led by Mrs. E. L. Doland and the swing song. The dancing of Klein Wilson was heartily received.

The entertainment was under the direction of Mrs. Sannan, of Dallas. The proceeds obtained by the Federated Club will go as a benefit for the public library.

Those appearing on the program were Misses Lena Williams, Daisy Gidney, Celestine Harp, Kathleen Joiner, Jennie Humphreys, Marie Gidney, Bess Brown, Kathryn Powell, Zelda Hulen and Webb, Mrs. E. L. Doland, and Messrs. Beal Humphrey, Earl Gray Owens, Lee McGown, Lawrence Gray, Casey Hughes, Lynn Pace, Ernest Fowler and R. M. Crabb. George Hutchings worked up a good orchestra to handle the musical accompaniments.

PLAINVIEW LOSES TO LUBBOCK.

In a loosely played football game Saturday afternoon Lubbock High School defeated Plainview High by a score of 26-0. At no time was Plainview within striking distance of the goal.

In forward passes Lubbock was surer than Plainview; the local team fumbling badly at critical points of the game. However, many creditable forward passes were executed by the Plainview boys and they did some effective tackling.

The Plainview line was weak, Lubbock being heavier on the average by several pounds.

PLAINVIEW MAY HAVE LARGE PINE FOR MUNICIPAL TREE

Expenses of Tree for All Plainview Has Been Apportioned, Tentatively, to Organizations.

If present plans do not go awry, Plainview's municipal tree will be a large pine imported from the Louisiana forests. J. W. Patterson, manager of the Alfalfa Lumber Co., is using his best efforts to secure the tree, and will have it sent to Plainview in a mill shipment of lumber. With the present car shortage, however, Mr. Patterson says he cannot assure anyone that the tree will arrive in time. In case a pine tree is not available, a large cedar tree will be shipped in for the occasion. Mr. Patterson, however, is hopeful that no trouble will be experienced in getting the pine tree.

(Contributed.) Interest in the first Municipal Christmas Tree for Plainview, under the auspices of the Federation of Women's Clubs, is rapidly increasing, according to the statement of Mrs. Hal Wofford, president of the organization. The date and location of the tree are yet under consideration by the respective committees, and same will be announced later.

At a meeting of the Finance Committee, consisting of Mrs. L. A. Knight, chairman; Mrs. J. J. Lash, Mrs. F. W. Clinckscales, Mrs. L. L. Dye and E. B. Miller, J. D. Whitman and J. E. Lancaster, the matter of raising funds to make the tree a success was decided as follows: The committee, after conference with representatives of the various organizations of the town, suggests an appropriation approximating twenty-five cents from each member, save from some of the larger unions.

This suggested proration is as follows: Travel Study Club, $5; "As You Like It" Club, $5; Mystic Club, $5; Iphigeneia Mothers' Club, $8.25; Central Mothers' Club, $5; Browning Club, $3; Civic League, $18.25; Benevolent League, $5; Home Economics League, $4; Halcyon Club, $4; Auction Bridge Club, $3.25; Thursday Bridge Club, $3; Wednesday Bridge Club, $3; Highland Bridge Club, $4; "500" Club, $3.25; Working Woman's Club, $2.50; Baylor Club, $2.50; Masonic Lodge, $10; Eastern Star, $5; K. of P., $2.50; Praetorian Lodge, $10; I. O. O. F. Lodge, $10; Chamber of Commerce, $5; Young Men's Business League, $10; B. P. O. E. Lodge, $10; W. O. W. Lodge, $10; Texas Land & Development Co., $10; Royal Neighbors, $5; Woodman's Auxiliary, $5; Rebekah Lodge, $5; Modern Woodmen Lodge, $5. Total, $184.40.

The majority of the above organizations, through representatives, have expressed their willingness to contribute toward making Plainview's first Municipal Tree an unqualified success. The finance committee earnestly requests that each organization listed above shall take up the matter at its first meeting. The treasurer of the Finance Committee is Mrs. L. L. Dye, and contributions should be mailed to her as soon as possible.

The Finance Committee wishes it clearly understood that the above proration is merely a suggestion based on the estimated expense of the undertaking. A smaller contribution from any organization that thinks its allotment too heavy will be thankfully received, and naturally larger donations than suggested will be all the more appreciated. An individual donation toward this plan for furthering the spirit of Christmas, which is so rapidly growing in popularity with both large and small towns throughout the United States, will be gladly accepted.

An elaborate program is being arranged, and further details of the plan will be published from time to time. It is the Plainview way to make a success of anything it undertakes, and it is thought that this innovation will be so enjoyable that it will become a regular institution of the Yuletide season.

MANY ARE FEEDING THE RICE BY-PRODUCTS SUCCESSFULLY

Comparative Cost This Year of Bran and Polish Makes It More Profitable Than Kaffir or Malze.

Since 1900 D. F. Sansom & Son have fed stock of all kinds on rice bran and rice polish, when other feeds were scarce and high. Cattle, hogs, sheep and work stock do well on this feed. And experience of these and other feeders has been that it is almost as good a feed as grain. However, in normal years it has been too high in price, compared with grain, to be fed, but with the high price of grain its use is economical.

A. Van Howeting is feeding rice bran in conjunction with grain to his hogs. He has had them on a ration of this kind for the past thirty or forty days, and finds it satisfactory.

Three years ago M. H. Near, who lives six miles south of Plainview, fed rice bran and polish with success, and is trying the feed again this year. He uses a mixture of two-thirds bran and one-third polish.

Dye Brothers, eight miles west of Plainview, are feeding rice bran and polish, together with cotton seed meal, to sheep. They are also using the rice by-products as part of a hog ration.

T. B. Snyder, six miles south of Plainview, feeds the two products to hogs and milk cows satisfactorily.

The rice by-products are not expensive. The crop this year has been large, and the price has not fluctuated as much as has that of other products used for feed. There have been imported into this county this year about twenty-five cars of rice bran and rice polish. The market for the bran is around $31 per ton, delivered, while the polish, higher in food content, is worth about $40 per ton, delivered. The bran is retailing at $1.55 per hundredweight and the polish at $2.05.

TEAGUE BANKER GIVEN 99-YEAR SENTENCE FOR MURDER.

Sensational Case Grew Out of Killing of State Commissioner of Insurance and Banking.

WACO, Texas, Dec. 1.—The jury in the case of T. R. Watson, Teague banker, on trial here for more than a month past for the murder of John S. Patterson, State Commissioner of Insurance and Banking, returned a verdict of guilty this morning and fixed the penalty at imprisonment in the State penitentiary for ninety-nine years.

Patterson was shot August 28, in the Farmers and Merchants Bank at Teague, of which Watson was president, just after he had ordered the bank closed. He was brought immediately to Waco, and died here the following day. A grand jury was called into session at once, the fact of his death here giving the McLennan County courts jurisdiction, and indictments for murder were returned against Watson and his two sons, J. E. Watson and W. R. Watson.

Corpus Christi, Texas,
November 29, 1916.

Dearest Club Girls:

Monday I will begin packing all of your beautiful pieces of needlework and fruit jars preparatory to returning them to you, together with all the pretty ribbons won at the Dallas Fair, Waco Cotton Palace and the Gulf Coast Exposition. I wish I could impress upon you the valuable assistance you have rendered my department by sending this work to me. It has been an object lesson to thousands of visitors to these fairs who did not know that the girls of Texas could do such beautiful and practical work. If any of the girls do not get back their work, please write Mrs. Wyatt and describe your lost piece, and she will locate it for you. The names on several of the articles came off, and I have no way of knowing whose they are except by description and claim. I have especially cared for it, and trust it will return to you in as lovely condition as it came into my hands.

I wish I could tell you in detail about the Gulf Coast Exposition and its many attractions, and about the wonderful county meeting that we had there Saturday, when over 300 county children came in and spent the day with us. We were given passes to all of the shows, and such a lot of fun we had! We had our club picture made, and if it is good we will send it to the Farm and Ranch, and then many of you will get to see it. That reminds me, the Farm and Ranch must have lots of club readers over the State, for I have heard much about the story of the London school pig in Nueces County. Many of the schools in this county have a pig, and the children say they are making a success of raising it.

Just as soon as I can this week I will send the name of every girl winning prizes at all of the State fairs to the proper sources, and you will receive your awards. They have been published, but I have not had time to send them in to many firms who have donated prizes. Please have a little patience, and you will be cared for.

I want to compliment Hale County for its excellent exhibit and tell the girls of the many expressions of admiration of their needlework. Little Ethel Hammer, of Runningwater, has been especially successful with her fruit exhibits. I wonder what the club girls of this county are going to report about the apple products that I said would be given special consideration. The boudoir of Alice Mae Slek and Emily Christian were extravagantly admired, and I could have sold them a dozen times over had I known the girls would sell. Next year we will label the articles to be sold, and you may be able to earn a nice little sum of Christmas money.

The needlework exhibit of McLennan and Falls Counties held thousands of visitors before the six show cases in which it was displayed. I wish to especially compliment the Fairview Club of Nueces County for the wonderful cap display they made, showing how carefully they followed their lessons.

I will not send you any more sewing lessons until after Christmas, as you have had enough to employ you in your Christmas-gift sewing. I will send you each week, however, some cooking recipes.

I heard at the Nueces County convention, also at the McLennan County convention, that some of the club officers receive the letters and lessons and do not give them the proper consideration they should. Please consider every letter and lesson that you receive belongs to your club, and you have no right to fail to deliver them. If you do not attend the club at that meeting, please send the letter and lesson. I trust the club officers will learn to be considerate of this matter in the future. It is a discourtesy to me and an injustice to my work to do this. Let's be thoughtful of these things and try to be the courteous club officers you ought to be.

With lots of love to you,
MRS. J. L. LANDRUM.

RECIPES FOR SCALLOPED DISHES.
(Through courtesy of Miss Allie George, Domestic Science Department, Denison High School, Denison, Texas.)

General Rules.

The crumbs used for scalloped dishes are prepared from the inside of stale bread. Crumb the bread by grating, or rubbing two pieces together. The crumbs must be seasoned and added to the melted butter.

Place the food material in two layers, using one-fourth of the amount of crumbs on the bottom of the dish, one-fourth more in the middle, and the remaining one-half on the top of the dish.

More seasoning may be added. Baking dishes and shells should be buttered; more butter may be used with the crumbs if desired.

Crumbs for Scalloped Dishes.

- 1 cup crumbs.
- 1/2 teaspoonful salt.
- White pepper or Cayenne.
- 1 tablespoonful butter.

Scalloped Oysters.

- One pint or 30 oysters.
- 3 cups crumbs.
- 1/2 teaspoonful salt.

Cayenne.
3 tablespoonfuls butter.
1/2 cup oyster juice.
Prepare the oysters by pouring cold water over them in colander; remove pieces of shell. Strain the juice through a cloth.

Prepare according to the rule, add the oyster juice, and bake in a moderate oven 30 to 40 minutes. If baked in shells, 4 cups buttered crumbs must be used, and the oysters cut into small pieces. Only 15 minutes will be required for baking in shells.

Scalloped Tomatoes.

- 1 can or 1 quart tomatoes.
- 3 cups crumbs.
- 1 tablespoonful salt.
- 1/2 teaspoonful pepper.
- 3 tablespoonfuls butter.

Prepare according to the rule and bake one hour; cover 30 minutes.

Scalloped Cornlet.

- 1 can corn.
- 1/2 cup milk.
- 2 cups crumbs.
- 1 1/2 teaspoonful salt.
- 1/2 teaspoonful pepper.
- 3 cups crumbs.
- 3 tablespoonfuls butter.

Mix the cornlet and milk; add seasoning and 1 tablespoonful of the butter; cover with buttered crumbs and bake from 20 to 30 minutes.

JOHN LUCAS, Agent

KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET IN DETAIL.

KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS, Dec. 1.—About 2,000 cattle were offered today including Thanksgiving Day receipts, and steers sold steady to strong, cows strong to 10 cents higher. Receipts of hogs were 5,000, besides 7,700 brought in from other markets by packers to be killed here, sales 5 to 10 cents higher, most advance on medium and light weights, top $9.80. Sheep receipts were 1,500, market steady, pea-fed lambs from Colorado $8.10.

Beef Cattle.

Nothing strictly prime was included, and steer quotations remain unchanged, and quotations on the right kind of steers can be made up to $12.00. A feature today was two loads of plain Idaho beef steers at $7.85, and four loads of commonish Oregon steers at $7.40 to $7.55. Six loads of steers from Red Rock, Montana, are en route, due here Monday of next week. Canner cows find quick sale at strong prices, ranging from $4.65 upwards, cows $5.50 to $7.00, good to choice weighty cows up to $8.00 or better. Veal calves are strong, choice ones $11.25, bulls $5.35 to $6.50.

Hogs.

Packers fortified themselves against a possible small supply by bringing in several train loads from other markets north, but there was keen competition for the 5,000 hogs offered for sale, Armour leading and paying the top price, $9.80. Medium weights sold up to $9.75, and lights up to $9.65. Quality continues to improve, average weight here last week 180 pounds, 15 pounds heavier than three weeks ago. However, average weight for November was 172 pounds, 22 pounds lighter than November a year ago. Fresh pork and pork products are selling at prices that make killers a large profit on hogs at present prices, and all the packers are willing buyers, markets usually developing strength toward the close every day.

Sheep and Lambs.

Receipts were only 1,500 head, and they were quickly disposed of at stronger prices. Two cars of pea-fed lambs from the south edge of the Monte Vista pea-feeding section sold at $12.10, 65 pounds average. Fat ewes are worth $7.00 to $8.00, and strictly choice lambs would bring $12.35. Receipts are expected to increase some within a week or two, but are apt to continue moderate till after the first of the year, with possibility of pretty good runs thereafter. Killers are anxious for good lambs, and present strong prices will doubtless hold good for a time.

A good attendance enjoyed the Fletcher Method demonstration Tuesday afternoon. Interest in this method is steadily growing, and with a reason, for in this "children's age," when astute minds are studying the needs of the child and meeting these needs, no parent should be content to allow his child to study this complex subject, music, in the same way that grown-ups study, or in the same manner it was taught years ago, when in school, etc. they require modern and improved methods. The Fletcher Method meets these needs in a musical way, and it is recommended by the world's best musicians as the most thorough and ideal course known for children.

Miss Ziegler illustrated with several pupils the different steps of the method. Lula Malone illustrated the ear training, and showed what can be done even in this short time with training of the ear if taught in this systematic way. Lula was given twenty different sounds at piano, and was able to correctly name eighteen sounds as she heard them. This so-called "Positive Pitch" has been considered a gift of a genius, but fully 80 per cent of Fletcher pupils acquire this knowledge.

Self expression in music is encouraged, and Cleo Kerley illustrated this by playing one of her own little compositions. Cleo has been studying two months, and this was quite creditable for a beginner.

Frances Hutchings, aged five, charmed her audience with her rendition of one of Frances Gaynor's child songs, and played three little pieces.

The length of course depends upon age and natural ability of child. Upon its completion he is able to read music rapidly and easily. His ear has been trained to a point which even today is considered impossible by the majority.

He can modulate in fifteen different ways and transpose into any key any composition he has learned.

The method is applicable for pupils of any age over five.

Plainview is indeed fortunate in having a Fletcher teacher; and Miss Ziegler is an able exponent of the work. She has received the best of training, is a music graduate of the oldest school west of the Mississippi River—Lindenwood College. She finished music under Jas. T. Quarles, instructor in Cornell University, and finally has fitted herself for teaching by taking this course under Mrs. Fletcher Copy, the originator of the method known to be the best normal course of music study to be gotten in America—the Fletcher Music Method.

With several beginners, Miss Ziegler showed her process of notation. This is taught with long table and large staff and wooden notes. These children quickly placed some thirty-five notes and read them rapidly.

This method, the original Kindergarten and Simplex Method of America, was brought to this country through the interest of the New England Conservatory, eighteen years ago, and was the only system represented by lectures on the Panama Exposition program last year.

The varied materials and games used appeal to the play instinct of the child, and make music study a pleasure instead of a drudgery. The concentrated interest aroused results in an enormous saving of time and energy. It.

COLORADO RIVER WAS FIRST CALLED FIREBRAND RIVER.

The Colorado River was reached by two of the early Spanish explorers from Mexico in 1540. One of the explorers was Melchior Diaz, who came across country and went only a short distance above Yuma, and the other was Hernando de Alarcon, who came in boats from Western Mexico. Owing to the custom of the natives of carrying firebrands in winter, with which to warm themselves, Diaz named the stream Rio del Tizon (Firebrand River), a name more distinctive than the present one, which often causes considerable confusion, because no part of the river is in the State of Colorado.—Santa Fe Guidebook.

There's a Carload of These Beautiful Saxons Here This Week

After all, performance is the most jealously prized motor car attribute.

And when you come to seek the reason for the overwhelming success of Saxon "Six" you'll find it, most likely, in its ability to out-perform any other in its field.

Since the first Saxon "Six" went into service some two years back it has been passing through a constant state of development.

Uniform torque—perfect power flow—was the standard sought and now attained.

Each explosion merges into the next—with no interval interposing to produce the vibration that shortens the life and impairs the efficiency of less able motors.

Consider, for instance, a comparative case if you would know how surprisingly Saxon "Six" surpasses any other at less than $1200.

Running one of the best

"A Car That Will Out-Perform Any Other In Its Price-class"

known cars of less than six cylinders at 20 miles per hour there are 1512.73 power impulses per minute.

Running Saxon "Six"—under the same conditions—at 20 miles per hour there are 2993.925 power impulses per minute.

That is to say, Saxon "Six" produces 97.9 per cent more impulses per minute at a 20 mile speed than this well-known car of "less-than-six-cylinders". This is practically perfect continuity of power-flow.

Think how much less friction there is in the Saxon "Six" motor.

Think how much longer life this gives Saxon "Six" since friction is the greatest enemy to a motor's endurance.

Translated into dollars and cents, think how little will

SAXON "SIX"
A BIG TOURING CAR FOR FIVE PEOPLE

be your repair service cost on Saxon "Six" as compared to the car with less-than-six-cylinders.

You will find the superability of this Saxon "Six" motor reflected to your benefit in many ways.

First, in unusual quietness and smoothness. Engineers estimate the power-flow smoothness of Saxon "Six" to be nearly 98 per cent greater than that of the "less-than-six."

Second, in astounding quickness of "pick-up"—from standing start to 45 miles per hour in 23 seconds.

This "less-than-six" we cite required 30 seconds in that test.

Third, in amazing flexibility. Seldom indeed do Saxon "Six" owners resort to gear shifting.

Fourth, in unrivaled pulling power.

Saxon "Six" is $815 f. o. b. Detroit.

Only sixteen more shopping days until Christmas. With that tip, it isn't necessary to suggest that you do your Christmas shopping early.

We appreciate Commissioner Davis' invitation to attend a jack-rabbit dinner at fifty cents per plate. But why this extravagance, when we can have a half jack rabbit, unjoined or whole, most any day by watching our back yard garden for a few minutes?

There is some conjecture as to whether the dairy cows for Hale County, which were shipped last Monday, will be detained on account of the quarantine placed by Texas against Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas. From a source we consider authoritative, The Herald is informed that this stock will come through all right, if not unloaded in states which the Texas Livestock Commission has quarantined against.

THE GARDEN AND THE GROCERY STORE.

The high cost of living is causing inquiry to be made into ways and means to reduce the cost of living. A doctrine which has been preached by students of economics is production by every family of everything possible that is used by it. Thus the Extension Service of the Federal Government is urging the people of Texas to raise everything possible. "The farmer's family must eat," is stated in a recent press letter. "The question is whether he will feed them from a spring garden, a home dairy and the home poultry yard or whether he will feed them from a grocery store."

And the admonition does not only apply to the farmer, but to the townsman as well. It's time to begin making preparation for the spring garden. The great point in prosperity is to pay out less than is taken in, and the home-cured meat, small garden, hog, cow and hen polley is one step in the direction of permanent prosperity.

COMMON DECENCY DECRIES THE SIDEWALK SPITTER.

Common decency and an understanding of it would prevent some men from following the obnoxious practice of spitting on the walks; but there are some men of which the converse is true. They do not understand nor do they possess decency. There are men whose vocations are such that their daily environment is not conducive to acquiring that quality much admired in both sexes—polish. But there is no man, whatever his calling, who cannot be decent.

Spitting on sidewalks, or in any other public place, is a habit, in which none but the most careless and uncouth engage. It is dangerous to the public health. Spread of disease follows in its wake.

Despite the fact that Plainview has an ordinance providing a penalty for spitting on the sidewalks, and despite the indecency of the practice, there are men who "hug" the warm side of one of the largest business buildings in Plainview and expectorate on walks. Ladies who pass—elderly ladies of the conservative type—soil their skirts frequently, and those of the ultra-fashionable type besmirch their delicately tinted boots as they wend their way through the daily congregation of street-corner farmers and business men.

Spitting on the walks is a careless habit, and one would not have to stand on the streets long in order to apprehend a few who are guilty of persistent violation of the city's ordinance and the laws of common decency.

West Texas Press

Plainview has contracted to do a lot of street paving, and the new 2-B freight rate, which went into effect November 1 will cost the city about $8,000 more for freight on material than the rate in force when the contract was made. With this unreasonable advance in rates the railroads of Texas should be able to fix their roadbeds and give some improvement in service, if it is permitted to stand by the courts.—Taylor County Times.

Plainview has not yet contracted for her paving, but is getting in position now to let a contract. It does seem that the increased freight rates, especially on building material, is a tax on the development of West Texas. There has been much said and much will be said during coming years about railway rates, both passenger and freight. Texas rates are in a chaotic state. West Texas especially feels that she has been discriminated against in increased rates. It is no secret that the railways operating in the Panhandle and South Plains country are doing a good business and a profitable business. There is apparently no good reason for maintaining the high rates now in effect. West Texas does not want more than is just, and is not bringing up the matter of rates merely to be agitating some question. If the rates in effect can be shown to be just, it is well enough that they be left as they are. If they are not just, and if investigation shows this to be the case, adjustment should be made. That is no more than is being asked and no more than can be expected.

It is reported that Congressman John H. Stephens has sold his home in Vernon and will continue to reside in Washington, D. C.

BEAUTIFUL INCIDENT OF WAR.

A boy from Hollowell, Me., a mere lad who had not attained his majority, was Captain Frank E. Goodrich, of the Royal Flying Corps, whose death in action on the Somme front was announced by the British War Office on September 15th. Wounded at St. Julien, and incapacitated as a soldier, he entered the British air service, and in six months earned two promotions and the Military Cross. Just a month before he died he wrote a letter to his mother from which the following paragraph is taken:

"You wanted to know how Immelmann (the most famous of the German aviators) was finally brought down. He tried his old game of diving on one of our machines while it was being engaged by several others. Unfortunately for Immelmann, another of our machines was behind, watching for just such a move. Before he could get away he was shot down and killed. We were sorry to learn that he had been killed, for we had hoped to bring him down alive on our side and make him prisoner, for we all admired his ability as a pilot, and no doubt he was as chivalrous as a Hun can be. I had the honor to drop a wreath for him from the member of our squadron. We subscribed for it, attached a card inscribed, 'To Lieut. Immelmann, a brave and able opponent, from the R. F. C., and I took it over one afternoon and dropped it by parachute on one of the airframes. They shelled me all the way over and back, but did no damage. It was acknowledged later in the German papers. Several other squadrons also dropped wreaths."

The incident is a reminder that the German who brought down Adolphe Pegoud, the great French aviator, in September, 1915, similarly bedecked the grave of his adversary; and it is a fine evidence that war still often arouses the nobler emotions of chivalry and compassion.—World's Work.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Tumberg spent from Thursday until Sunday in Amarillo, guests of the latter's brother, Arthur Banks.

A number of our people and many from our neighboring communities gathered at this place last Thursday to spend Thanksgiving, and a splendid day was the result. Rev. Upton and family, of Plainview, were with us, and Rev. Upton made an interesting talk. Also, E. E. Freeman gave a short talk on Thanksgiving and its meaning. He also read President Wilson's proclamation. A short testimonial meeting was also held. At the noon hour, a bountiful dinner was served to the crowd in attendance. In the afternoon a basketball game was played between our boys and Prairieview, the latter winning 13 to 4. At a late hour in the afternoon the jolly bunch departed, and declared they had spent a glorious Thanksgiving throughout.

JONES sometimes wakes up feeling cross and in consequence the family know it without his telling them in so many words.

Mrs. Jones attributes it to biliousness and if it doesn't wear off during the day she gives him a dose of liver medicine at night. The next morning he feels better and she gives him coffee for breakfast,—and the next morning,—and the next morning. And in a few days Jones has another spell.

Dear Mrs. Jones means all right, but she doesn't seem to realize that if she didn't give Jones his morning coffee she wouldn't have to give him the liver medicine and Jones would feel all right without both.

Housewives everywhere have found out that Instant Postum takes the place of breakfast coffee perfectly. And that is only one of the reasons why Instant Postum has wholly supplanted the use of coffee on thousands upon thousands of American breakfast tables.

EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!
Calomel is Quickliver and Acts Like Dynamite on Your Liver.
Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones, and should never be put into your system.
When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel, just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe. Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring up your inside, and can't salivate.
Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children, because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

Cold Days Require Coal
Why is it that some folks always delay their coal buying and the installing of their stoves until the last minute when every member of the family has run the risk of serious cold or pneumonia and until all of the coal and stove dealers are so busy they cannot give the best service? Surely the wise man will not be caught in a blizzard with his coal supply not yet laid in.
We have the supply of coal, we have the prompt service, and the prices are lower now than they will be when winter gets here. Isn't it good health insurance, isn't it good business, isn't it the sensible thing to do to place your order now?
Just phone us at 162 and we will do the rest.

PREPAREDNESS
On every hand, claim is being made for preparedness, some really worth while others simply taking advantage of the popularity of the word.
Electrical Preparedness
Is perhaps as vital as any ever suggested. To prepare the home, the office, the work shop, or any other place where men and women gather, means to increase the efficiency, to lessen the cost and the labor, to protect the eyes, and to cut out dirt and oil or gas smells.
The Winter Reading
Absolutely demands that you have the pure light furnished by electricity to preserve the eyes of the little folks who study, and the older ones who read for pleasure and profit. The long evenings will be a pleasure if you will wire your home for electric service.
We will be glad to figure your wiring job without any obligation on your part. Phone 13 for wiring service.

Lockney Wins From Plainview.

The basketball girls left Thursday afternoon bound for Lockney, where they were to play their first game away from home, this season. The trip was made in about one hour and a half, without any mishap.

The game was called for four o'clock, but it seemed as though there had been some misunderstanding about when they were to play, and they had made no preparation for the game, so they had to mark off the goals after Plainview got there. The girls played a quick, snappy game, but were defeated by a score of 18 to 5. After the game they were treated to a good oyster supper by Professor Woodruff, after which they went to the Lockney picture show. They arrived at home about 11 p. m., happy, though being defeated.

Annual to Be Called "The Plainview."

November 17 the Senior Class held a meeting, at which they elected the staff for the High School annual. The following editors were elected:

Frank Buchanan, editor-in-chief; John Boswell, business manager; Ruth Dillingham, assistant business manager; Beulah Lee Jackson, assistant editor; Alta Long, society editor; Mabel Bohner, art editor; Hugh Tull, editor of athletics, and Thelma McLain, editor of comic section.

The Senior Class voted unanimously to call the annual "The Plainview."

A visible progress has been made in the new building. All P. H. S. has been anxiously awaiting some sign of completion. The windows are now being put in, and this gives it the appearance that before long it will be habitable—at least we hope so.

Little Mr. H. P. Webb was a welcome visitor in the senior room Wednesday.

9-B Boys Entertain. At the home of Mr. George L. Mayfield on Monday evening, November 27, the boys of 9-B room entertained the 9-B girls. The majority of the pupils were present, also some visitors.

The evening was spent with music, readings, playing "forty-two," checkers and various other games. Refreshments were served, consisting of hot chocolate, cakes, candy and apples. The guests departed at a late hour, declaring a most enjoyable time.
