UNITED STATES CENSUS SHOWS 105,682,108 PEOPLE

FIGURES ANNOUNCED BY CENSUS BOARD SHOWS INCREASE OF 14 PER CENT

Washington, Oct. 7.—The 1920 population of continental United States was announced today by the census bureau as 105,682,108. This was an increase of 13,710,842, or 14.9 per cent since 1910. Today's total does not include the populations of outlying possessions which will be announced as soon as the figures for Alaska and the military and naval services abroad are tabulated. It is estimated however, those possessions have 12,250,000 inhabitants, so the total number of people living under the American flag in round numbers is 118,000,000. The figures for continental United States compare with 91,972,263 ten years ago and 75,994,575 twenty years ago. The increase for the last decade, however, fell 2,266,849, or 81 per cent below that of the preceding decade. Director Rogers of the census bureau, in a formal statement, attributed this reduction to the almost complete stoppage of immigration during the world war, an increase in immigration during the same period, deaths in the influenza epidemic of 1917-18, and war casualties. The statement noted the trend of population from the country to the city has been greatly accentuated since 1910. For the first time in the country's history, it said, more than half the entire population is now living in urban territory. This situation was clearly reflected in the figures as to farms in the country, which also were made public today. These placed the total of farms at 6,459,998, an increase of only 98,496, or 1.5 per cent in ten years as against an increase of 624,130 or 10.9 per cent during the decade ended in 1910.

RELIGION AND PRESIDENTS

If Warren G. Harding is elected over James M. Cox in November he will be the first member of the Baptist church to become President of the United States.

If James M. Cox receives a plurality in the electoral college, he will be the ninth Episcopalian to become President.

In a letter to the Boston Traveler, James C. Duncan of Clinton, Mass., calls attention to the fact that no matter how the November elections result, Episcopals will continue to have a plurality in White House residents. Eight Episcopals have been President as against six Unitarians, six Presbyterians, four Methodists, two Reformed and one member of the Disciples of Christ.

Jefferson Vaguely "Liberal"

In chronological order, Washington was an Episcopalian and John Adams a Unitarian. Jefferson is vaguely classed as a "liberal." Mr. Duncan explains that Jefferson's liberalism in religious belief was a part of his democracy. While he attended the Episcopal Church in the neighborhood of his home, sometimes joining in its communion, he was, nevertheless, intellectually a pronounced Unitarian.

Following Jefferson came two Episcopals, Madison and Monroe; then John Quincy Adams, a Unitarian, and after him the first of the six Presbyterians, Jackson. In order, there followed Van Buren, Reformed; William Henry Harrison and Tyler, Episcopals; Polk, Presbyterian; Taylor, Episcopalian, and Buchanan, Presbyterian.

Lincoln Unitarian

Lincoln is assigned by some statisticians, Mr. Duncan points out, to the Presbyterians, because he occasionally attended their church, although he was not a member. He thinks the Unitarians have a greater claim on him, and quotes from Francis Carpenter's "Months at the White House with Abraham Lincoln," with reference to the religious belief of the great war president.

Andrew Johnson is included among the Methodists, apparently being among those who are now described as "having their religion in their wives' names." Grant and Hayes were Methodists, and the martyred Garfield a member of the Disciples of Christ. Arthur was an Episcopalian the last of a long line. The Presbyterians then had Cleveland, Benjamin Harrison and Cleveland again. McKinley was a Methodist.

Roosevelt Second Reformed

Then came Roosevelt, the second of the Reformed Presidents, who was, however, a tower of strength to the Episcopal church in Oyster Bay, in which his funeral service was held before he was laid away in the cemetery overlooking Long Island Sound.

Mr. Roosevelt was perhaps more spectacular in his emphasis of religious fundamentals. The story of his conversation with the newspaper correspondent who insisted that he could worship as reverently under a tree with silver and a book, or in the field,

ANENT PEOPLE AND THINGS —AND SOME OBSERVATIONS

Interesting Items Picked Up Here and There by Ye Editor of the News

The editor and wife and L. J. Halbert were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Edmonson near Running-water Sunday afternoon. The Edmonsons have a farm of 400 acres, which they bought twelve years ago for $6 an acre, which is now worth $75. They have good crops of most all kinds—including a melon patch. They sold 3,600 bushels of wheat recently. They have some fine red hogs, seventy-five turkeys, plenty of chickens and ducks, an orchard and vineyard, a tank with lots of fish—in fact, are fixed up mighty well. They are glad they moved to the Plains from Hill county.

A. E. Rydell has sold his irrigated farm of 113 acres eight miles north-east of Plainview to John Williams, who will occupy same. Mr. Rydell will hold a public auction sale, with Auctioneer C. F. Sjorren of Kress in charge, October 20th. A list of the stuff to be sold will appear in next week's News.

Mr. Rydell will spend the winter in Minnesota, and next spring will go to Oregon to visit his sister. He is a bachelor, and a sister has been keeping house for him, but she is about to leave him, so he will quit farming. We suggested that he secure a wife, and it struck him very favorably as a wise suggestion.

I. Jacobs of Wolfe City is here visiting his son and looking after his business interests. Mr. Jacobs declares conditions in North and East Texas are very unsatisfactory. There is a short cotton crop on account of the rainy weather of several weeks ago and the depredations of insects, and now the price has dropped very low. Also, fully one-fourth of last year's cotton crop is unsold. The farmers are hard hit, and this of course depresses business in general. Many North Texas farmers had planned to come to the Plains this fall and buy farms, but some of them will not be able to do so.

THE CREAM OF TEXAS

It is a well known fact, after examining the country weedies of Texas, that those of the Panhandle and South Plains are the cream of the state. Merchants are live wires and believe in the spreading of printer's ink. Seems that the best printers are employed in the Panhandle. Papers have bigger circulations in the Panhandle. In fact, we think we have a better class of people to deal with and work among. When a fellow feels that way he can naturally put more pep into his work.—Iova Park Herald.

Still Found Near Snyder

Snyder, Texas, Oct. 6.—Sheriff J. H. Byrd and deputies found two men Friday operating a moonshine still in a jungle under the cap rock in the north part of the county.

They had a copper boiler and eighty gallons of mash ready for use. One of the men gave his name as Jim Owens from Jones county. The other declines to give his name. They are in the local jail.

Mail Box Provided for Public

The Quick Service Station recently installed a lock mail box at their place of business, for the accommodation of tourists and the public generally who wish to post letters without going to the post office. The mail is taken to the postoffice before each train goes out.

Brooklyn Team is Leading

In the world's championship base ball series, Brooklyn is now one game ahead. Cleveland was victorious Tuesday. Brooklyn won by a score of 3 to 0 Wednesday and again yesterday by a score of 2 to 1.

WILL CAMPAIGN FOR STATE SCHOOL AMENDMENT

MEETINGS WILL BE HELD AT EACH SCHOOL HOUSE IN COUNTY

At the invitation of Supt. W. E. Patty, about fifteen representative men and women of the town met in the county court room yesterday afternoon, to organize for a campaign in Hale county in behalf of the proposed educational amendment to be voted upon in the general election in November.

Prof. Patty explained the importance of adopting the amendment, as a crisis has arisen in the educational affairs of the state. Others spoke of the importance of the proposition.

It was decided to make an active campaign in Hale county, and a campaign committee was elected composed of Mr. Patty, chairman; J. M. Adams, secretary, who with the editors of the county, Judge Chas. Clements, Mayor C. F. Vincent and three men and three women to be appointed will form the committee.

Much literature will be distributed as soon as it is received from Austin, and a meeting will be held in each school district in the county between now and the election.

County Clerk and Sheriff

The attorney general holds that in counties whose population has increased sufficiently to automatically cause a separation of the offices of county and district clerk and of sheriff and tax collector, that the nominees in the July primary becomes the nominees for county clerk and sheriff, and that a district clerk and a tax collector must be elected at the November election.

This means in Hale county that Jo. W. Wayland becomes the nominee for county clerk and J. C. Terry for sheriff. So far no candidates for district clerk and tax collector have been mentioned.

Public Auction Sales

H. E. Landis will hold a sale at his place, six miles southeast of Plainview, Thursday, Oct. 14, at 10:30 o'clock. A list of the stuff to be sold appears in an adv. on another page.

A. C. Perkins will hold a sale at his farm, four miles due north of Wayland college, Friday, Oct. 15, beginning at 10 o'clock. A list of the stuff to be sold appears in an adv. on another page.

Auctioneer W. A. Nash will have charge of these sales, and M. A. McCraw will act as clerk.

Interesting Census Figures

This, the 18th congressional district, has a population of 262,131. In 1910 it had 203,699. It has an area of 49,050 miles. It is composed of fifty-two counties.

This, the 29th senatorial district, has a population of 340,589 people. In 1910 it had 235,300. It has an area of 45,460 square miles, and is composed of forty-nine counties.

Hale county's population Jan. 1st was 10,104; in 1910 it was 7,566; in 1900, 1,680; in 1890, 721. The county has an area of 1,036 square miles.

Mrs. Blanchard Appointed

I hereby announce the appointment of Mrs. C. C. F. Blanchard, of Amarillo, Texas, as associate member of the Democratic State Executive Committee for the 29th Senatorial District of Texas. Mrs. Blanchard will have entire charge of the work with the women democrats of the district and has full power to appoint county chairmen from among the women democrats of the various counties composing this district.

H. C. RANDOLPH, Chairman Democratic Executive Committee, 29th Senatorial District.

Hunting for Lost Brother

D. C. Parish of Tulsa, Okla., is here looking for a brother whom he has not seen in forty-nine years, and whom he heard lives near Cone, in Floyd county, east of Petersburg.

Mr. Parish is a Confederate Veteran and has been attending the reunion at Houston.

The County Federation of Women's Clubs will meet in Plainview at the Presbyterian church, Saturday, Oct. 23rd at 10 o'clock a. m.

The morning will be devoted to the business session, reports of clubs, etc. Promptly at 12 o'clock lunch will be served.

The following program will be rendered at the noon hour:

Toastmistress—Mrs. L. A. Knight. Invocation—Mrs. W. Y. Price. Welcome Address—Mrs. Meade F. Griffin.

Toast to the Mothers, the new American citizens—Mrs. R. A. Underwood.

At 1 o'clock the program will continue in the auditorium.

Music—Mrs. Claxton, Hale Center. Vocal Solo—Mrs. E. E. Patten. Talk: "Why We Should Support the Amendment to Raise the Tax Limit on the School"—Miss Wiley.

Talk: "What Plan Shall We Adopt to Get the Amendment Before the People?"—Mrs. Meharg.

The election of officers will take place at the close of the program. Every club woman is urged to be present.

City Federation of Woman's Clubs Organized

A city federation of Woman's clubs was organized yesterday at the public library. All the clubs of the town were represented by delegates and presidents.

Mrs. Tom Carter was elected president; Mrs. R. A. Underwood, vice president; Mrs. C. A. Malone, second vice president; Mrs. George Saigling, secretary; Mrs. S. W. Meharg, treasurer.

Another meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church next Thursday to perfect organization, and permanent committees will be appointed.

Prior to the war there was a very active city federation. "There are many things to be done for the betterment of Plainview," said Mrs. Carter to the editor of the News yesterday, "and we wish all the women to take an interest in this work and help to make it effective."

The federation will arrange for the semi-annual meeting of the county federation, to be held in Plainview, Oct. 23.

Tuesday Bridge Club

Mrs. L. S. Kinder was the delightful hostess to the Tuesday Bridge club at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Smith, this week.

On this afternoon Mrs. F. W. Clinkscales held high score for the members and Mrs. Robert Tudor for the guests.

Mrs. R. W. Otto will entertain the club at its next meeting.

Civic League to Meet

The Civic League will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in a call meeting at the library room. All members are urged to be present.

Entertained Bridge Club

The Wednesday Bridge club met with Mrs. Ben Smith. After a number of enjoyable rounds scores were tallied with Mrs. Chas. Saigling as high score holder for the members and Mrs. Nick Alley for the guests.

The next hostess will be Mrs. Fred Crawford.

Gun Burned at Floydada

The farmers' co-operative gin at Floydada was burned Wednesday night about nine o'clock. It is thought it was of incendiary origin.

The gin was a new one almost completed, and had not been used. It cost $32,000, and there was $16,000 insurance on it. The loss was total.

Cox Gaining on Harding

The 8,000 Rexall stores throughout the country are each day taking a straw vote on the presidency.

According to the bulletins as shown at the Dye Drug Co. Cox is gradually gaining on Harding. Bulletin No. 1 of Sept. 23, with a total vote of 103,624, gives Harding 361 electoral votes, Cox 150. Bulletin No. 2, Sept. 27, 227,450 votes, Harding 364, Cox 161. Bulletin No. 3, Oct. 1, 300,092 votes, same electoral vote. No. 4, 445,673 votes, Harding 361, Cox 170. No. 5, Oct. 4, 438,108 votes, Harding 353, Cox 178.

Women Can Vote in Election

The women can vote in the general election to be held the first Tuesday in November, suffrage is now in full effect.

However, it is necessary for each woman to register her name with the county tax collector some time not later than October 22.

The women of Hale county should not neglect to register. Do so at once.

Those who paid their poll tax and voted in the primary are not required to register.

Public Schools Are Crowded

The enrollment in the Plainview schools is increasing rapidly, and the buildings are overcrowded, especially in the primary grades, though a half-day attendance has been resorted to in the first grade.

In Lamar school one teacher has fifty-nine pupils, and in Central school a teacher has fifty-eight.

An effort is being made to secure room in some of the churches, and if this can be done additional teachers will be secured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harp Dies

Mrs. Elizabeth Harp died at the home of her son, Frank Harp, in Fort Worth, Saturday. She resided in Plainview for a number of years, and was quite well known here. She was quite an active member of the Methodist church. She leaves three sons, R. G. and Frank Harp of Fort Worth, and A. E. Harp, who until recently lived in Plainview.

Humphreys Sells Residence

E. H. Humphreys has sold the family residence at the corner of West Eighth and Baltimore to A. J. McCoy of near Runningwater, who will occupy the place with his family.

Mr. Humphreys has bought a bungalow from J. B. Maxey, now being completed at the corner of West Tenth and Fresno Streets.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE TO SPEAK HERE SATURDAY

J. G. CULBERTSON WILL SPEAK AT COURT HOUSE AT 2:30 P. M.

If a cyclone or earthquake strikes Plainview tomorrow afternoon don't be surprised, for the first republican speech ever delivered in Hale county is announced.

Hon. J. G. Culbertson, a prominent business man of Wichita Falls, candidate for governor, will speak at the court house at 2:30 o'clock. He is said to be quite an interesting speaker.

Emil Meyer of Dallas, who is working under the republican state committee, is here today making arrangements for the speaking, in connection with F. L. Brown, republican chairman for Hale county.

DIMENSIONS AND AREA OF THE UNITED STATES

The gross area of the United States is 3,797,000 square miles. The total area amount to 2,973,744 square miles and the water area—exclusive of the area in the Great Lakes, the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico within the three-mile limit—amounts to 52,015 square miles. These and other data determined or compiled by the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, to show the limits of the continental United States contain some interesting facts.

The southern most point of the mainland is Cape Sable, Fla., which is in latitude 25.07 degrees and longitude 81.05 degrees. The extreme southern point of Texas is in latitude 25.50 degrees, and longitude 97.24 degrees. Cape Sable is therefore 40 miles further south than the most southern point in Texas.

A small detached land area of northern Minnesota at longitude 95.09 degrees extends northward to latitude 49.23 degrees.

The easternmost point of the United States is West Quoddy Head, near Eastport, Maine, in longitude 66.57 degrees and latitude and 44.49 degrees the westernmost point is Cape Alva, Wash., in latitude 48.10 which extends into the Pacific ocean to longitude 124.45 degrees.

From the Southernmost point in Texas due north to the forty-ninth parallel, the boundary between the United States and Canada, the distance is 1,598 miles. From West Quoddy Head due west to the Pacific Ocean the distance is 2,807 miles. The shortest distance from the Atlantic to the Pacific across the United States is between points near Charleston, S. C., and San Diego, California, and is 2,152 miles.

The length of the Canadian boundary line from the Atlantic to the Pacific is 3,898 miles. The length of the Mexican boundary from the Gulf to the Pacific is 1,744 miles. The length of the Atlantic coast line is 5,560 miles and that of the Pacific coast line is 2,730 miles. The Gulf of Mexico borders the United States for 3,640 miles.

Nearly all maps of the United States show the parallels of latitude as curved lines and are likely to lead the ordinary observer to believe that certain eastern of western states are further north than some of the central states that are actually in the same latitude. For this reason, one who is asked which extends farther south, Florida or Texas, is very likely to say "Texas," but, the mainland of Florida is nearly 50 miles farther south than the southernmost point in Texas. For the same reason, when we consider the geographical positions of countries south of the United States we find that errors are likely to be made in estimating position or extent in longitude. Few realize that the island of Cuba, for example, if transposed directly north would extend from New York City to Indiana, or that Havana is farther west than Cleveland, Ohio, or that the Panama Canal is due south of Pittsburgh, Pa., or that Nome, Alaska, is farther west than Hawaii.

Wayland Goes to Clarendon

The Wayland foot ball team went to Clarendon yesterday to play Clarendon college this afternoon.

Those who went were Ray Stallings, manager; Hanks Blakemore, captain; Hubbard McBride, Roy Gladson, Taylor McCasland, Ewing Mann, Pat McWhorter, Rufus Brazile, Clay Jones, Paul Lipscomb, Horace Rushing, Frank Ezum, Jack Robinson, Alvine Cadenehad, Oscar Brady.

BRING BACK MY BONNIE TO ME

My bonnie lies out on the ocean, while sadly I wait on the shore,
He wonder'd away o'er the billow, I'm longing to see him once more!
He comes to my heart in bright visions, his face like on angel's I see!
And, still do I sigh in my dreaming; Oh, bring back my bonnie to me!

Chorus.

Bring back, bring back, bring back my love o'er the sea, the sea,
Bring back, bring back, bring back my love o'er the sea,
Bring back, bring back, bring back my bonnie to me, to me,
Bring back, bring back my bonnie to me.

He left me when roses were fading, to bid me farewell for a while,
My heart is so weary and lonely, bereft of his beautiful smile;
I stray where the billows are dashing and wonder where now he can be,
My heart to the waves ever whispers; Oh, bring back my bonnie to me.

Chorus.

Then, darling one, can you forsake me? My life is so weary and lone.

Oh! send me a word o'er the water, and say you are ever my own,
In sorrow and tears I'm repining, and sad is my watch by the sea,
My darling, my dear one forever, oh, bring back my bonnie to me.

Chorus.

This Great Moral Guide of the Plains wishes to impress it upon the fathers and mothers and god-fathers and god-mothers and a few uncles and aunts, that Plainview is a good town for the people of the Llano Estacado to do their trading. The business men of Plainview carry extensive lines of all kinds of goods, and their prices are in line with other towns, and possibly lower. Come to Plainview to do your trading.

FOOLISH MOB TACTICS

There is regular hot-bed of socialists in Jones county, especially about Lueders. It will be remembered that when the war came on several scores of them were arrested on charge of trying to foment a revolution to overturn the government, with the avowed purpose of ousting President Wilson from the White House and putting a certain Jones county farmer in his chair as president. They were tried in federal court in Abilene and some of them convicted. Their attorney, W. H. Atwell, in his plea to the jury, declared, "Gentlemen of the jury, you have before you the greatest aggregation of ignorance ever brought into a court room in Texas." He plead that the jury be merciful to them on account of their ignorance.

Cotton has dropped in price from more than 40c to less than 20c, and in Jones county warnings have been posted here and there forbidding ginners to gin any more cotton until the price reaches 40c, the threat being made that if they do their gins will be burned. One night last week a gin was burned at Lueders, after the owner had received a threatening letter, and Saturday a gin was burned in Anson following a similar warning. Over in East Texas and in some of the older states the ginners are being warned not to gin until the price goes up high.

"What fools some mortals be," to think that mobs and terrorists can effect the price of any product. It has rather a depressing effect. A lot of ignorant rough-necks can burn down a gin, kill the ginner, and do other outlawry, but that won't put up the price of cotton the least bit.

It is the same way with all radical activities. To blow up banks, railroads, factories, and other plants, kill innocent people, does not bring better laws for the working people or farmers, but rather causes the general public resolve to pass stringent laws such as the open port law in Texas, the industrial court law in Kansas and the compulsory arbitration law in Nebraska.

There is but one way to settle all political questions in America, and that is at the ballot box, where under the constitution, every citizen can vote for the things and the officers he desires to win. The government is just the sort of a government the great body of the people want it to be, for in this country the people have the power to do what the majority of them wish. Labor, capital, everybody, will progress faster, and all questions be more easily and rightly solved by lawful and orderly methods.

The Hale county exhibits at the Dallas fair will cause East Texas to throw a jealous fit.

The Plains are being dotted with grain elevators. This is a great grain country. Wheat is king, and maize and kafir are princes.

The editor of the News is promised a juicy dividend on his oil stock in a few days, but he is not going to draw any checks on it until it is safely in the bank.

Mrs. Catt up and says: Suffrage owes nothing to either party, and the women will vote as they feel inclined, and not regard themselves as bound to republicans or democrats.

The Lockney Beacon a few days ago celebrated its twentieth birthday anniversary, with Editor Smith having been at the helm for ten years. The Beacon grows better as time passes. It is interestingly newsy, has a spicy editorial page, and is a great force in the development of its town and community. Long may it live!

We wish something would get hold of the print paper market, and do some price cutting. Paper is the only article in commerce that is now increasing in price. The making of paper has been cornered by a trust that absolutely controls the matter.

Possibly the greatest need of Plainview is a direct railroad line to Fort Worth. Such a line would give shorter connection with the eastern markets, and would be a great boon to the business, agricultural and live stock interest of the Plains. Sooner or later such a line will be built, for there is such a pressing need of it.

These days on the Plains are surely fine—sunshiny, crisp, bracing, health-giving. Autumn is undoubtedly the most glorious season of the year, and the Plainsman who does not feel "fine and fit" and is glad he is alive these days has something seriously the matter with his makeup.

Plainview is growing rapidly. More than twenty-five residences are now under construction. Every house in the town is occupied, and there are scores of families wanting to move here if they could secure houses or apartments. The housing situation is indeed critical. Nobody will build rent houses for under present prices of building material, labor and taxes, the investment is unsatisfactory.

Bigger Opportunities Than Ever For 1921 Avery Dealers

The most complete line of motor farming machinery ever offered—new machines, improved features—

And the broadest, most liberal contract ever written with any dealer awaits you with the Avery Line for 1921. The policy on which this contract is based will convince you that the Avery Company have your best interests at heart.

Here is a business opportunity that outranks all previous offers of this or any other company. It gives you a big opportunity in selling the Avery Line alone or to make the Avery Line the biggest part of the business you now have.

Think of having the sale of:

- a line of small tractors for farming, orchard and other work.
- a line of three medium-sized Tractors for farming, individual threshing, and road maintenance.
- a line of two large Tractors—for large farms, custom threshing and road building.
- a line of Motor Cultivators in one and two row sizes (the most useful machines ever offered the farmer).
- a line of One-Ten Motor Trucks (another money-maker just added to the Avery Line).

- a line of seven Roller-Bearing Separators (Champion "Grain-Savers" that are selling as fast as Avery dealers can get them).
- a complete line of "Power-Lift" Moldboard and Disc Plows in all sizes for every size Avery Tractor.
- a line of "Self-Operating" Tractor Tillage Tools, including the Avery "Self-Adjusting" Tractor Disc Harrow (nothing else like it in the entire field.)
- a line of Tractor-Driven Machinery, including Avery Roller-Bearing Silo Fillers.

This gives you the largest money-making line of Motor Farming Machinery ever offered by one company—all in one contract, and on a new and original basis that insures you the greatest possible profits throughout the entire line.

This new contract will soon be ready. It will mean more to you in sales opportunities, more in profits, and much in building substantially for a sound future business.

Tell us if you would like to have an opportunity of seeing this contract.

The speculator who was caught on the declining market, is now about as pessimistic as a bolshevik.

There is only one better man than the man who gets behind and pushes, and that is the man who gets ahead and pulls.

Another thing that the Plains country is long on, and that is good health, and good health is more to be desired than wealth.

The wintry winds will soon begin to blow the crowd on the corner into places where there are fires. None of its members, however, contemplate going to work.

The parcel post department has ruled that alligators can be mailed by parcel post, so don't get excited if some morning you find an alligator among your mail.

Plains cotton is now coming onto the market. The Plains grows many crops, and there is a year-round market for the farmer. Business is good on the Plains all the time.

People have the money and are surely spending it. The government declares the people of the United States are spending 100 million dollars a month on amusements alone.

The worst thing shown in the census report of Texas is that fully half the increase of nearly a million in ten years has been in ten of the larger cities. The movement of people from the country into towns and cities is sure to bring trouble sooner or later, for it causes an unhealthy condition of affairs.

Have you contributed to the democratic national campaign fund? Do so a once. W. A. Nash, P. B. Randolph, either of the banks or the News will receive subscriptions. Every democrat in Hale county should give at least a dollar. It is worth a lot to have a handsome democratic postmaster like the present one hand out the mail to you.

Cotton has been forced down $100 a bale in the past ninety days. F. C. Weinert, state commissioner of the markets and warehouse department, declares gamblers in futures are responsible for the drop and have robbed Southern cotton growers of a billion dollars. Between the gamblers and the boll weevils and worms Texas cotton farmers are having a hard time.

The News has just received a copy of the democratic campaign text book for 1920. It is a handy volume of 500 pages, chock full of information relative to this year's national campaign, discussing every question, with speeches and extracts from writings of Candidates Cox and Roosevelt and other leaders in the party; also a discussion of the republican party platform, its candidates and party history especially the record made by the republican congress during the past two years. The League of Nations covenant is published in full. The democratic record in winning the war is itemized. It is a book that every person should have.

A Fort Worth lawyer has appealed a case in which he was convicted of refusing to stop and give aid to a person whom he had run over in his car. Unconstitutionality of the law is urged. A man who is so contemptible as to run away after such an accident deserves the most severe punishment and the contempt of all good people, and a lawyer who would plead unconstitutionality of the law to free such a man deserves to be disbarred.

BETTER SCHOOLS AMENDMENT

The people of Texas will at the November general election vote on an amendment to the state constitution, which seeks to remove the limit of local taxation for school purposes, and permit the people of rural and independent school districts by a majority to vote any amount they wish to support their schools.

The present law places a limit of 50c tax on the $100 valuation, and under present conditions this is inadequate to support the schools. This low rate has to provide and maintain buildings and pay teachers' salaries, except for the state available funds.

The low local tax rate has forced the state legislature to make additional appropriations of from one to four million dollars a year, as emergency measures, to keep the schools going. These appropriations bear hardest on the Plains people, where there are no negroes or Mexicans to be educated and where the per capita property owned is much larger than down in the state. If the proposed amendment carries, the East and South Texas counties that draw so much larger amounts of money from the school fund than they pay in all state taxes, will have to provide their school funds by local taxation instead of making the Plains people pay for schooling their children.

Every Plainsman should vote for the amendment, not only for this reason but because there is a crisis in the state's educational affairs which makes additional revenue absolutely necessary.

According to the Washington correspondent of the Dallas News, a gain of approximately 105,000 is shown in the population of the Twenty-ninth senatorial district of Texas which includes Hale county. This district includes a larger number of counties than any other in Texas. The population of this district in 1910 was 253,300. In 1920 it is 349,589. There are senatorial districts in East Texas that have less than 85,000 population, hence we of the Plains have less than one-fourth their representation. The state has not been senatorially redistributed since 1890.

Lynn county has set the record above every county in the United States for greatest increase of population within the past twenty years. In 1900 it had 17 people, in 1910 it had 1,713, and on January 1st it had 4,751. Many other West and North-west Texas counties have made almost as great gains, yet East, South, Central and North Texas politicians vote against being senatorially redistributed, and the districts are now as they were thirty years ago, thus denying the people of West and North-west Texas their proper representation. Is there any wonder that the sentiment to divide the state is growing?

Aristotle on being asked how much educated men were superior to the uneducated replied, "As such as the living are to the dead."

The people of the Plains are talking about the fair held in Plainview last week. It was a great one, but next year's will be much greater.

Clothes might not make the man but there always comes a season they certainly do contribute to his comfort.

down by a union man he deserves to be maimed or killed. The man who does not employ union labor is subject to boycott and his property burned or dynamited, and there are always enough weak criminally-minded members in every union to do the bidding of the leaders. Organized labor had as well make up its mind to give the public a fair deal, for the public has justly become aroused and will crush organized labor just as it did the Kaiser, liquor traffic and other autocratic evils.

GOV. COX AND THE FARMERS

In 1918, when the whole nation was alive to the necessity of stimulating agricultural production, Governor Cox went to work to aid the Ohio farmers. He called a meeting of tractor manufacturers and stated that he wanted them to allot at least fifteen hundred farm tractors for sale in Ohio. He then went to the superintendent of the state banking department and obtained letters to every banker in the state, urging financial assistance to farmers in the matter of buying tractors. He deposited two million dollars of the state industrial commission funds in country banks, with a hint that they lend at least some of it to farmers buying tractors.

Gov. Cox then went to the federal reserve bank and secured a ruling that notes given by farmers purchasing tractors be discounted on the same basis as agricultural implement paper. By these various means the farmers of Ohio were enabled to purchase in 1918, 1,932 farm tractors, thus practically doubling the number in the state. This was said to be the most aggressive campaign ever waged by any governor.

Editor B. F. Sears has sold the Farwell Tribune, and will engage in farming. The Canadian Record syndicate that Sears has been telling his subscribers how to raise crops, and has become so imbued with his own stuff that he is going to try to put it in operation. We hope he will succeed. The editor of the News has been pegging away at the newspaper business from twelve to twenty-four hours a day for almost thirty years, and while he loves the work yet it is beginning at times to grow tiresome. In our day dreams often we wish for a stock farm where we could get out in the open and work close to nature, where there would not be two papers a week to be published, where nobody wanted his job of printing within ten minutes, and where we would not have to be on the treadmill every moment. And some of these days we are liable to "break loose" and take a long rest or at least change to a less exacting business. Likely, however, the "long rest" will come when we start on "that long journey from whose bourne no traveler has yet returned."

Dudley G. Wooten, in the long ago, gave to the public what he called Wooten's History of Texas. According to the Wooten figures in 1744 Texas had a population of 1,500; in 1836 a population of 7,000, and in 1849 a population of 217,150. Now Texas holds the rank as fifth state of the union.

It is one thing to talk about protecting American citizens, no matter where it might be. But when an adventurer goes into a hornet's nest and knows where he is going the United States ought not to send a brigade of soldiers with him.—Governor James M. Cox.

Colonel James H. Lowery of the Honey Grove Signal is a never-seratch-a-ticket Democrat. He has his likes and dislikes, his fads and his fancies but on election day he plunks a straight ballot into the box. This is his latest: "Tom Watson, recently nominated for the United States senate by the Democrats of Georgia, has subscribed $250 to the national Democratic campaign fund. We have said a good many things about Tom and his brand of democracy but the fact remains that he has contributed $249 more to the campaign fund than we had counted on contributing, and to date has given more to make the country democratic than all the democrats of Fannin county."

FOR SALE OR TRADE—Section 15, League 244, Dickens county School land, located in Lamb county, what will you offer.—Box 337, Seymour, Texas.

LOST—Four rear wheel Ford Columbia tires, between express office and Nobles wholesale, return to Quick Service Station and receive reward.—B. F. Foster.

Stand upon a mountain top when the first gleam of sunshine tips the fields of waving grain, see the apple blossoms with tears of Dawn trickling from their waxy cheeks; watch the mocking birds away in the branches of the stately pine. Behold this panorama touched with turquoise and purple, with emerald and gold, with all the hues of the morning-glory and the violet, the hollyhock and the rose. And as you stand there breathing the fresh air, wrapped in a seraph of yellow sun glow ask yourself the question: Where is a De Vinci, a Raphael or a Flory to imitate this magical picture, painted out of a heart of loveland hung here in Nature's mighty art gallery by the hand of a Divinity?

No Reduction

in the price of

Dodge Brothers

has been received by Carter-White Motor Co., the Dodge Brothers dealers in this city. A telegram from C. W. Matheson, acting general sales manager to the local dealer, reads:

"Dodge Brothers policy has ever been to give full value for the price asked. There will be no reduction in the present prices of Dodge Brothers Motor Cars. Newspaper reports to the contrary are absolutely untrue."

"Dodge Brothers announcement was no surprise to us," said Carter-White Motor Co. "In fact it is only a substantiation of Dodge Brothers business principles. At no time have they demanded an excess amount for their product. As in the past, they will continue in the future to demand a fair return for their efforts."

"The mere fact that the demand for Dodge Brothers motor cars is still greater than the supply, despite the great expansion program at the factory, has absolutely nothing to do with the decision to continue the present prices. In marketing their car Dodge Brothers have never made a point of price and will never sacrifice the quality of their product to enter price competition."

FOR SALE BY PERRY & CRAM

We are presenting to our customers in this issue a larger list of lands than we usually use, thinking that perhaps it will serve to give a better idea of values than the short list.

With lands selling as readily as they do, a printed list is likely to be disappointing for the reason that many of these farms will be gone before our customers can get action.

We want to impress upon our readers that these tracts are only samples of the exceedingly large list that we have of lands all over this part of the country. If you don't see what you want in this list, tell us what you have in mind and what you want to invest and we will try to meet your wants.

Remember that we are the EXCLUSIVE AGENTS for what is known as the PRICE BROTHERS LAND, located Northeast of Plainview, in the WHITFIELD country. There are no finer lands on the Plains than this. It is especially adapted to the growing of WHEAT AND COTTON, and of course will grow any other crop known to the Plains country. We have about 10,000 acres of this, and you can make your selection in tracts of 160, 320 or 640 acres. The prices are right and the terms good. This land has been in One Family for 45 Years, and this is the First Time it has ever been offered for sale. It is CREAM. Let us show you, and your judgment will tell you what to do.

From other THOUSANDS of ACRES listed with us, we are giving below a few samples. You will be sure to find something in this list that will interest you. We shall only give general descriptions. Select what seems to appeal to you and let us give you the details.

LITTLEFIELD
Oct. 6.—The monotony of our little city was broken Wednesday morning by the beginning of an auto race between Frank Wilkins, with his Overland and Rolly Kauffman, in his little Ford. The start was made at 7:00 o'clock a. m. from the postoffice and the course covered the round trip to the city of Roswell, New Mexico. Arthur Holberg was mechanic for Kauffman and Phil Pemberton was trouble man. The race started at 7:15 a. m. and led into the city on the return at 12:00 midnight, having covered the 330 miles in seventeen hours, which is a remarkable run considering the class of Road and altho, the Overland did not arrive until 5:00 a. m. it made a good record for it was leading until the night came on and driver Pemberton could not avoid the "high centers", and as the Overland is a low swung car it could not overcome this handicap and much time was lost. A big crowd gathered at the Highway garage Thursday morning, expecting to find these cars ready for the scrap pile but they were both in good shape and ready for another spin.

Mr. Chas. Pridgen of Plainview was here Wednesday on business. Judge R. C. Hopping made a business trip to Sudan Wednesday. J. W. Douglas, father of Neal A. Douglas, was visiting here for the past week, but left Monday to visit a son at Muleshoe. Miss Catherine Anderson visited in Lubbock Wednesday. Cards were received here the first of the week announcing the marriage of Miss Lillian Earnest to Mr. Claud Smith of El Paso. Miss Earnest is the sister of our fellow townsman, Pool Earnest, and has many friends in this country who wish her much happiness. Rush Allison spent the first of the week in Crosbyton in the interest of the Littlefield Land Co. Miss Catherine Anderson visited in

Poll Ranch Thursday morning; we can easily see that Fred is in a fair way to go to the bad and we are thinking of wiring Mrs. Hoover to cut her Oklahoma visit short and return home at once. E. C. Cundiff is driving a new Ford; when you get the habit it is hard to break it. Prof. H. S. Sheppard of the Littlefield High School can show'em when it comes to giving a Lyceum course he went over the top the first night and will lay by a nice little sum for the next season, which, no doubt will cover a larger assortment. If the rest of our numbers for this season are as good as the first one we will all be well pleased. Richard Redfearn and Bob Pipkin of Canyon have erected a derrick and will in a few days begin drilling on a test oil well on Tierra Blanca near that town.

Torpid Liver

Black-Draught "has no equal for headache, sour stomach, torpid liver and feverish colds," declares Mrs. Annie Whitmore, of Gate City, Va. "It is easy to take and does not gripe, as a lot of medicines do," she adds. "It is good to take in a hot tea for colds, or can be taken in a dry powder. I can't say enough for Black-Draught and the sickness it has saved us."

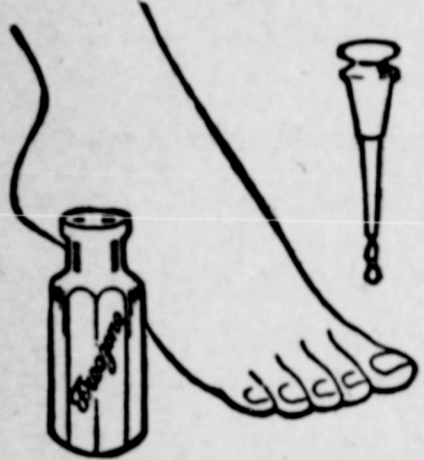

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

has been found a valuable liver medicine, in thousands of homes. "I do not use any other liver medicine," says Mrs. Mary O. Brown, of Europa, Miss. "It is splendid for sour stomach, a bad taste in the mouth or torpid liver. I keep it all the time, use it with the children and feel it has saved us many dollars in doctor bills and many days in bed."

Insist on the genuine—Thedford's.

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard calluses from bottom of feet.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, they shortly lift that bothersome corn or callus right off and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly, No humbug.

ASPIRIN FOR HEADACHE

Name "Bayer" is on Genuine Aspirin—say Bayer

Insist on "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in a "Bayer package," containing proper directions for Headache, Colds, Pain, Neuralgia, Lumbago, and Rheumatism. Name "Bayer" means genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for nineteen years. Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets cost few cents. Aspirin is trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoacetic-acidester of Salicylicacid.

NEURALGIA

The powerful, healing warmth of Hunt's Lightning Oil gives instant and positive relief from throbbing, nerve-racking pains of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, etc. At your drugstore, 50c and 75c bottles.

THEY ALL DEMAND IT

Plainview, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It.

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results to thousands. Here is Plainview evidence of their verities. St. says: "About two years ago I found it necessary to use a kidney medicine, so I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Long's Drug Store, Inc. I had been troubled for some time with my back being weak and lame. The kidney secretions had been too frequent in passage and highly colored. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills helped me and continued use made a cure."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Shackelford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

NICK'S HARD FATE

One Romanoff to Whom Country Has Been Ungrateful.

Story of Great Russian Military Commander Most Amazing Romance of the War—His Splendid Generalship Is Recalled.

From March, 1917, till October, 1918, Grand Duke Nicholas Romanoff, former commander in chief of the Russian armies and one of the most brilliant generals of the great war, was a prisoner in the town of Yalta in the Crimea. He is now in Milan with his family, humbly housed. The story of "Big Nick" is one of the most amazing romances of the war, the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times states.

When the bolshevik gained control of Russia Nicholas was residing at Tiflis, where he had been governor under the czar and under the Lvoff regime. He was summoned to Yalta by the bolshevik authorities and obeyed the summons. His brother, his wife, his sister-in-law and other members of his family and his suite were imprisoned with him. Twenty-five bolshevik soldiers were detailed to guard the distinguished prisoners.

Late in the summer of 1918 it was decided by the Yalta soviet to execute all the prisoners. The bolshevik guards absolutely declined to permit the sentence of death to be executed and sent the firing squad back to headquarters. Three times thereafter executions were sent to kill the prisoners, but in each instance the guard prevented the carrying-out of the sentence.

When the Germans came to Yalta Nicholas died, and his possessions were sent to enter the house and had been his prison, declaring his utter loathing of all things German. Soon after this the allies took Yalta and Nicholas was released.

All the private fortune of the grand duke has been lost. His lands have been confiscated. At Milan he lives comfortably, but very unostentatiously.

Democracy owes much to Grand Duke Nicholas. He was, in fact, a staunch upholder of the old Russian absolutism. But first of all Nicholas was a Russian. He knew Russia's salvation depended on the vanquishing of Germany. He was a leader of consummate skill and it is more than probable that only his splendid generalship prevented Germany from winning the war in the early stages. His retreat before the tremendous attack of Mackensen and Hindenburg, which resulted in the saving of the Russian armies, was one of the most notable chapters of the war.

Between the bolshevik Russia of today and the old autocratic Russia for which Nicholas fought, practical students and statesmen find little choice, but it must be admitted that the autocracy produced great men, while the gutter communism has found only scoundrels for its leaders. In the awarding of justice there should be some provision for this gigantic Russian, who in 1914 and 1915 prevented Germany from marching to easy victory.

No Horses on Largest Farm.

A 200,000-acre farm, the largest in the world, which is the direct result of the government's efforts to stimulate the growing of wheat, is described by Robert H. Moulton in Everybody's.

"The farm is devoted entirely to wheat, and if it produces somewhere around the country's average of twenty-eight bushels per acre, which is practically certain, it will add approximately 5,650,000 bushels to the 1919 wheat crop," says the writer.

"All of the work is being done with tractors. Last fall when the first ground was broken, there were fifty monster machines at work tearing up the prairie sod. They plow on an average of one acre a minute for the working time. A record was made one day of 1,880 acres turned and broken. All the seeding, harvesting, etc., will also be done by tractors, and then, of course, there are the thrashing machines. Hence, the absolute non-accountness of horses about this place."

Price of Labor.

An Indiana suffragist, who is a widely-known speaker, went to her door the other morning to buy some blackberries of a young country woman, reports the Indianapolis News. "The berries were fine, but the suffragist wished them at a lower price than they were offered. 'Why, they just grow along the roadside so plentifully that all you have to do is to pick them,' she told the woman. 'Don't you think you are charging a rather exorbitant price for your labor?'"

"The country woman put her boxes back into her basket. 'I've known of higher-priced labor,' she retorted testily. 'Words are more plentiful than blackberries and yet our club had to pay you $25 last winter for putting a bunch of them together.'"

His Resolve.

"It is better to do your losing early in the season."

"I know that axiom," said the baseball manager, "but if I happen to win a few games I'll endeavor to keep it with resignation."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

No Loss of Animation.

"I suppose Crimson Gulch is quieter since the bar closed."

"Not yet," said Cactus Joe. "AE you've got to do is to say 'prohibition and everybody begins to argue at the top of his voice.'"

AUSTRIAN DESPOT IN ITALY

Excellent Reasons Why Commandant in Town of Buje Was Feared and Detested.

During the war, Austria, tearing and hating the Italians of Istria, placed every town under drastic military control.

It was the chief task of Colonel Vogelhuber, commander of Buje, to make the Italians feel his presence. They had felt it one day. Incensed by his latest decrees, they had come in crowds below his windows, discussing, gesticulating, angrily demanding an audience, until his troops had rained them in the stomach with the butts of rifles and driven them off—to their homes where they would find that during their absence a few more objects had mysteriously disappeared, woolen clothing, perhaps, or some pieces of furniture or a cherished picture. Not stolen, of course, but "requisitioned." It was next.

He had had a good day but he would have a better evening. They had wanted an audience. Very well. That evening he would grant an audience to their leading citizens. More than that—he would dine them!

The leading citizens of Buje will not soon forget that dinner. The meal itself was excellent—indefinitely better than any that they had had for months. It consisted of meats "requisitioned" from their own herds and flocks, grains from their own fields, wine from their own cellars. The host, Colonel Vogelhuber, sat at the head of the table, all smiles and benignity. He was solicitous that every one should have plenty. When the repast was finished, he rose.

He called the attention of the Italians of Buje to the fact that he had sent very few of them to Austrian internment camps. He emphasized his tolerance and liberality in this matter. His action, however, had been guided by a definite purpose. It might please them to be informed as to the purpose which he had had in mind.

"I do not care to intern you," he said in a smiling climax, "because I prefer to execute you!"

"The troops of Italy are at present making some advance. I wish simply to announce to you now that before they ever reach Buje I shall have the pleasure of seeing every man of you shot. Good night, gentlemen. The pleasure has been mine."

Then, showing the yellow streak always present in such natures, he hastily summoned his soldiers, and every guest was escorted to the street at the point of a bayonet.

A gay, dashing wag was Vogelhuber. Dashing he was certainly, a few weeks later, when the Italian Bersagliere swept into Buje so suddenly that he did not have time to make good his promise, but found it prudent to run to save his own skin, even leaving a precious carload of stolen treasures behind him.—Willard Price, in World Outlook.

The Helicopter.

A new flying machine called a helicopter, has been invented, quite different from anything that mankind has yet stared up at. In that its propellers have a diameter of 51 feet, revolve so much more slowly than the more-and-more familiar airplane propeller that they are practically noiseless, are located above the car, and also take the place of the wings of the customary airplane. The propellers, in fact, are practically moving wings; and the machine, as described by Robert G. Skerrett in the New York Sun, presents quite a list of advantages over anything that has preceded it for air navigation. It can, it is declared, descend slowly, rise and come down without difficulty anywhere, carry a considerable load and is inherently stable. Aviation, after all, is still quite young and it may possibly turn out that the helicopter is the next forward step.—Christian Science Monitor.

Clever Work.

The pupils of the second grade had been given a test in writing, and after it was over, the teacher requested them to take their copy home to show to their mothers.

The verse which Dwight had written was: "Little drops of water, little grains of sand," etc.

His mother examined his work and praised his effort. "But what is this little word not doing up here in the corner?" she asked.

"Oh," expostured Dwight, "I forgot how to make a 'c' and had to write dog to fill out."

ANCHOR

Oct. 4.—Health is good in this community and every body is very busy putting up their crops.

Farmers are busy with their Sudan crop, binding and shocking. The high winds of last week shattered the grain very badly.

Wheat sowing has been shut down for several days, as the ground is too dry for it to sprout the grain sufficient to bring it up. We are needing rain again, for wheat sowing.

The kaffer, miaze, sudan, sorghum, feterita and higera are simply fine in these parts.

Anchor was well represented in Plainview last Tuesday. The writer was there and can say she was proud of Hale county's exhibits, as they were simply fine.

Mother and Father Taylor of Oklahoma spent last week with her son, Frank Simonton and wife. They took the train from Plainview Tuesday for their return home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Benson, Jr., took dinner with her mother, Mrs. S. E. Leckliter Sunday and the crowd went from there to visit a sister, Mrs. Ernest Parris in the Norfleet community in the afternoon.

The farmers seem to be up against it on the wheat proposition. On account of car shortage we can't get a sale for our wheat. It may be all for the best as the price paid is not sufficient on account of the farmers having to pay the high prices for help and for threshing.

Edison Into Realm of Dead

New York—Thomas A. Edison is now at work on a delicate apparatus which he has designed to effect indisputable communication between those whom death has removed from this earth and those who yet live.

It is Mr. Edison's hope to complete the instrument within a few months, and he realizes what a tremendous sensation it would create should it prove to be successful. He says he would not be surprised if responses on his new apparatus should first come from telegraphers or scientists or those familiar with the use of delicate instruments and electric currents.

FORDSON FARM TRACTOR

The Fordson cuts the cost of preparing land almost to half of what it costs with horses. But even more important is the fact that the Fordson saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time. And time saved—getting fields in shape to plant in the proper season; getting things done when they should be done—means money to the farmer. Besides it helps the labor problem.

As ever, the machine way is proving more efficient, faster, easier than the old hand way. In the factory, the machine increases production, saves labor—produces more at less cost. And that is what the Fordson does on the farm. The Fordson way is the machine way of farming. Besides it helps the labor problem.

The Fordson's first cost is low; and the after or operating cost is low. It is a compact, easily handled tractor, backed by the greatest tractor service organization in the world.

We are Fordson dealers. Not only do we sell Fordson tractors, but we carry a stock of Fordson parts and employ Fordson mechanics to help the farmers get the best results from the Fordson. Let us demonstrate the Fordson on your own farm.
