"MY TURN"

By Carol Ellis

AT ANY GIVEN moment in time, day or night, somewhere around the world there will be a group of grown men running around on a grassy field (or astro-turf!) chasing a little ball.

It's soccer in England, cricket in Australia, jai alai in Spain, lacrosse in France, polo in Argentina, golf in Scotland, tennis all over the world, and in America, it's a toss-up between football and baseball as the national game.

I'm so excited! At the start of every new sporting season, I start wishing for a player's strike. My wish may come true this year. By the time this paper comes to you, decisions regarding the NFL players strike will be underway, one way or the other. If the players don't play, perhaps that ever-growing list of "honey-dos" at our house will finally get done. But perhaps not.

A lot of wives complain about being football widows. I don't see much difference in being a football widow or a baseball widow. The playing seasons get longer each year and overlap to the point where the TV remote control gets worn out while switching from one game to the other.

Some wives call their husbands the "armchair quarterback." I call mine the "couch coach." His language begins to change this time every year. I hear about wide receivers, tight ends, quarterback sacks, etc. A "nose guard" is not some protective gear that the player wears on his face.

The "monster man" has nothing to do with the costume you are putting together for Halloween. The word "safety" does not mean anyone out on the field is going to be safe from broken bones or concussions. Some of the other words that I hear during this season will not bear to be printed.

Zoologist Desmond Morris, in his study of the human animal, notes the fact that we live in a civilized society giving us little or no chance to express our natural group territorial defense and our need for domination over the enemy. The solution to the problem being to provide harmless symbolic substitutes for war. So this is the reason we have football.

In a recent issue of Parade magazine, scientist Carl Sagan offers a little different view of our need for organized sports. He says that powerful hunting instincts have been bred into our genes for 40,000 generations. Teamwork among hunters is essential in order not to frighten the prey. The early hunter-gatherer possessed many of the traditional manly traits which we still admire today. Participation or viewing of team sports provides us with an outlet for our zest for the hunt.

I suppose "zest for the hunt" is uppermost in the minds of those NFL players who are striking for more $$$$. The average pro player makes about a quarter of a million $$$ per season, which is 10 to 20 times more salary than the average fan earns each year.

Players argue that their careers last only a few short years. This, however, does not take into consideration those lucrative product endorsements, public appearances, and other new career opportunities which become available to them once their football days are over.

Bovina Coach Bill Talley says he'd like a shot at that $250,000--for just one year. Says he'd put the money on deposit and live comfortably on the interest for the rest of his life. (So why can't the players think of something like that?)

Wouldn't it be nice if we could return to the days when a team sport was just a game, not a business. A player would be associated with one team throughout his playing career. Fans would be fiercely loyal to one team and could name that team's entire lineup for the season.

Now that "money" is the name of the game, it just isn't as much fun to be a sports fan anymore.

FOR HOMECOMING

Chiefs Host Mustangs Fri.

The Friona Chieftains were hosting the Olton Mustangs in Friona High School's Homecoming Game Friday night (September 25) at 8 p.m.

It's the only home game wedged in the middle of a five game stretch for the Chiefs, so fans were expected to save some travel time and be at the game.

Coach Tommy Moss said he didn't really know what to expect in the game. "In homecoming games, we either play real well, or really bad," the Chieftain coach said.

He recalled that in 1983, his Chieftains beat Dalhart, 21-0 in a great performance on homecoming. The following year, they had to rally to tie Morton, 22-all. In six years, Moss' teams have never lost at homecoming, holding a 5-0-1 record.

In fact, a win by the Chieftains on Friday will enable Coach Moss to tie Bob Owen as the winningest head coach at FHS, with win number 41.

But the numbers aren't uppermost in Moss' mind. "We're trying to get our players re-aligned after the injuries at Portales," the Chieftain coach said.

With Andre Duran out of the lineup following surgery, Toby Gibson and Cody Bracken will share time at the tailback position. Stephen Thornton will take over the punting duties. Duran had done a super job in this department in the first three games.

Cody Burney, who is the place-kicker, will also take over the kickoff duties.

Cornerback Mickey Pena, who missed the Portales game with a pulled muscle, is expected to be able to play against Olton. Bracken started in Pena's place on short notice last week, and did a great job, coaches said, as did Jackie LaFuenta at Pena's split end position.

Next Friday, the Chiefs go back on the road, travelling to Pampa for the team's final non-district game. Last year's game with the class 4-A Harvesters was a bruising game, and Coach Moss says he's hoping to get through this one without any further injuries, prior to district play.

PARK HONORED...The Friona Chamber of Commerce honored the "Mini Park" on Main Street with its Coffee Cart promotion on Thursday. The beauty spot has been a project of Bonnie Wilhelm and Lois Norwood of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce.

MIKE CHANEY

Collegian Wins Grid Event

Michael Chaney, a student at McMurry College, Abilene, was the first place winner in the second week of the Friona Star's football contest.

Chaney was one of four contestants correctly picking 15 of the 20 contest games. He claimed the top spot by virtue of the Friona-Portales tie-breaker score, which he missed by only five points.

Chaney, a former star for the Chieftains, picked his ex-mates to down Portales, 26-10, and the actual score was 23-8.

Elizabeth Peak took second place, missing the tie-breaker by eight points (picking Friona, 21-14), and Coach Tommy Moss took third place, picking his Chiefs to win by 14-7, missing by ten points.

The fourth contestant to correctly pick 15 games was Mike Field of Dalhart, who was 11 points off on the score (13-7).

Fifteen contestants correctly picked 14 games, missing by just a point at a chance at one of the weekly prizes. They were Kerry Bahns, Bill Carter, Jack Clark, Danny Guerra, Boone Hand, Charlie Morgan, Dianne Morgan, Jackie Morgan, Mark Neill, Kent Patterson, Kelvin Sanders, John Seright, Jimmy Walker, Bobby Wied and Steve Williams.

Mrs. Peak pulled into a three-way tie for the lead with first week's winner Mike Meyer and Mark Neill, all with scores of 27, in the overall standings.

Jim Beard, Robert Escalante, Mike Field, Tommy Moss, Roy L. Smith and Bobby Wied are tied for second place with scores of 26.

Chaney's five misses were Hale Center-Petersburg, Texas A&M-Washington, Michigan State-Notre Dame, Dallas-New York Giants and Washington-Atlanta.

Mrs. Peak missed Dimmitt-River Road, Tulia-Idalou, New Mexico-Arizona, Houston-Buffalo and the Giants-Cowboys.

Moss missed Tulia-Idalou, Sudan-Nazareth, Alabama-Florida, Giants-Cowboys and Washington-Atlanta.

On the current week's slate of games, the professional games will not be considered if the games are not played.

Work Day Is Slated At Depot

The Friona Heritage Society has scheduled a work day at the Depot on Sunday, September 27, beginning at 2 p.m.

People are being asked to bring scrapers, steel brushes and ladders in order to scrape off the old paint and get the building ready for repainting.

"Even if you can't scrape, we need you for your moral support," said a spokesman for the society.

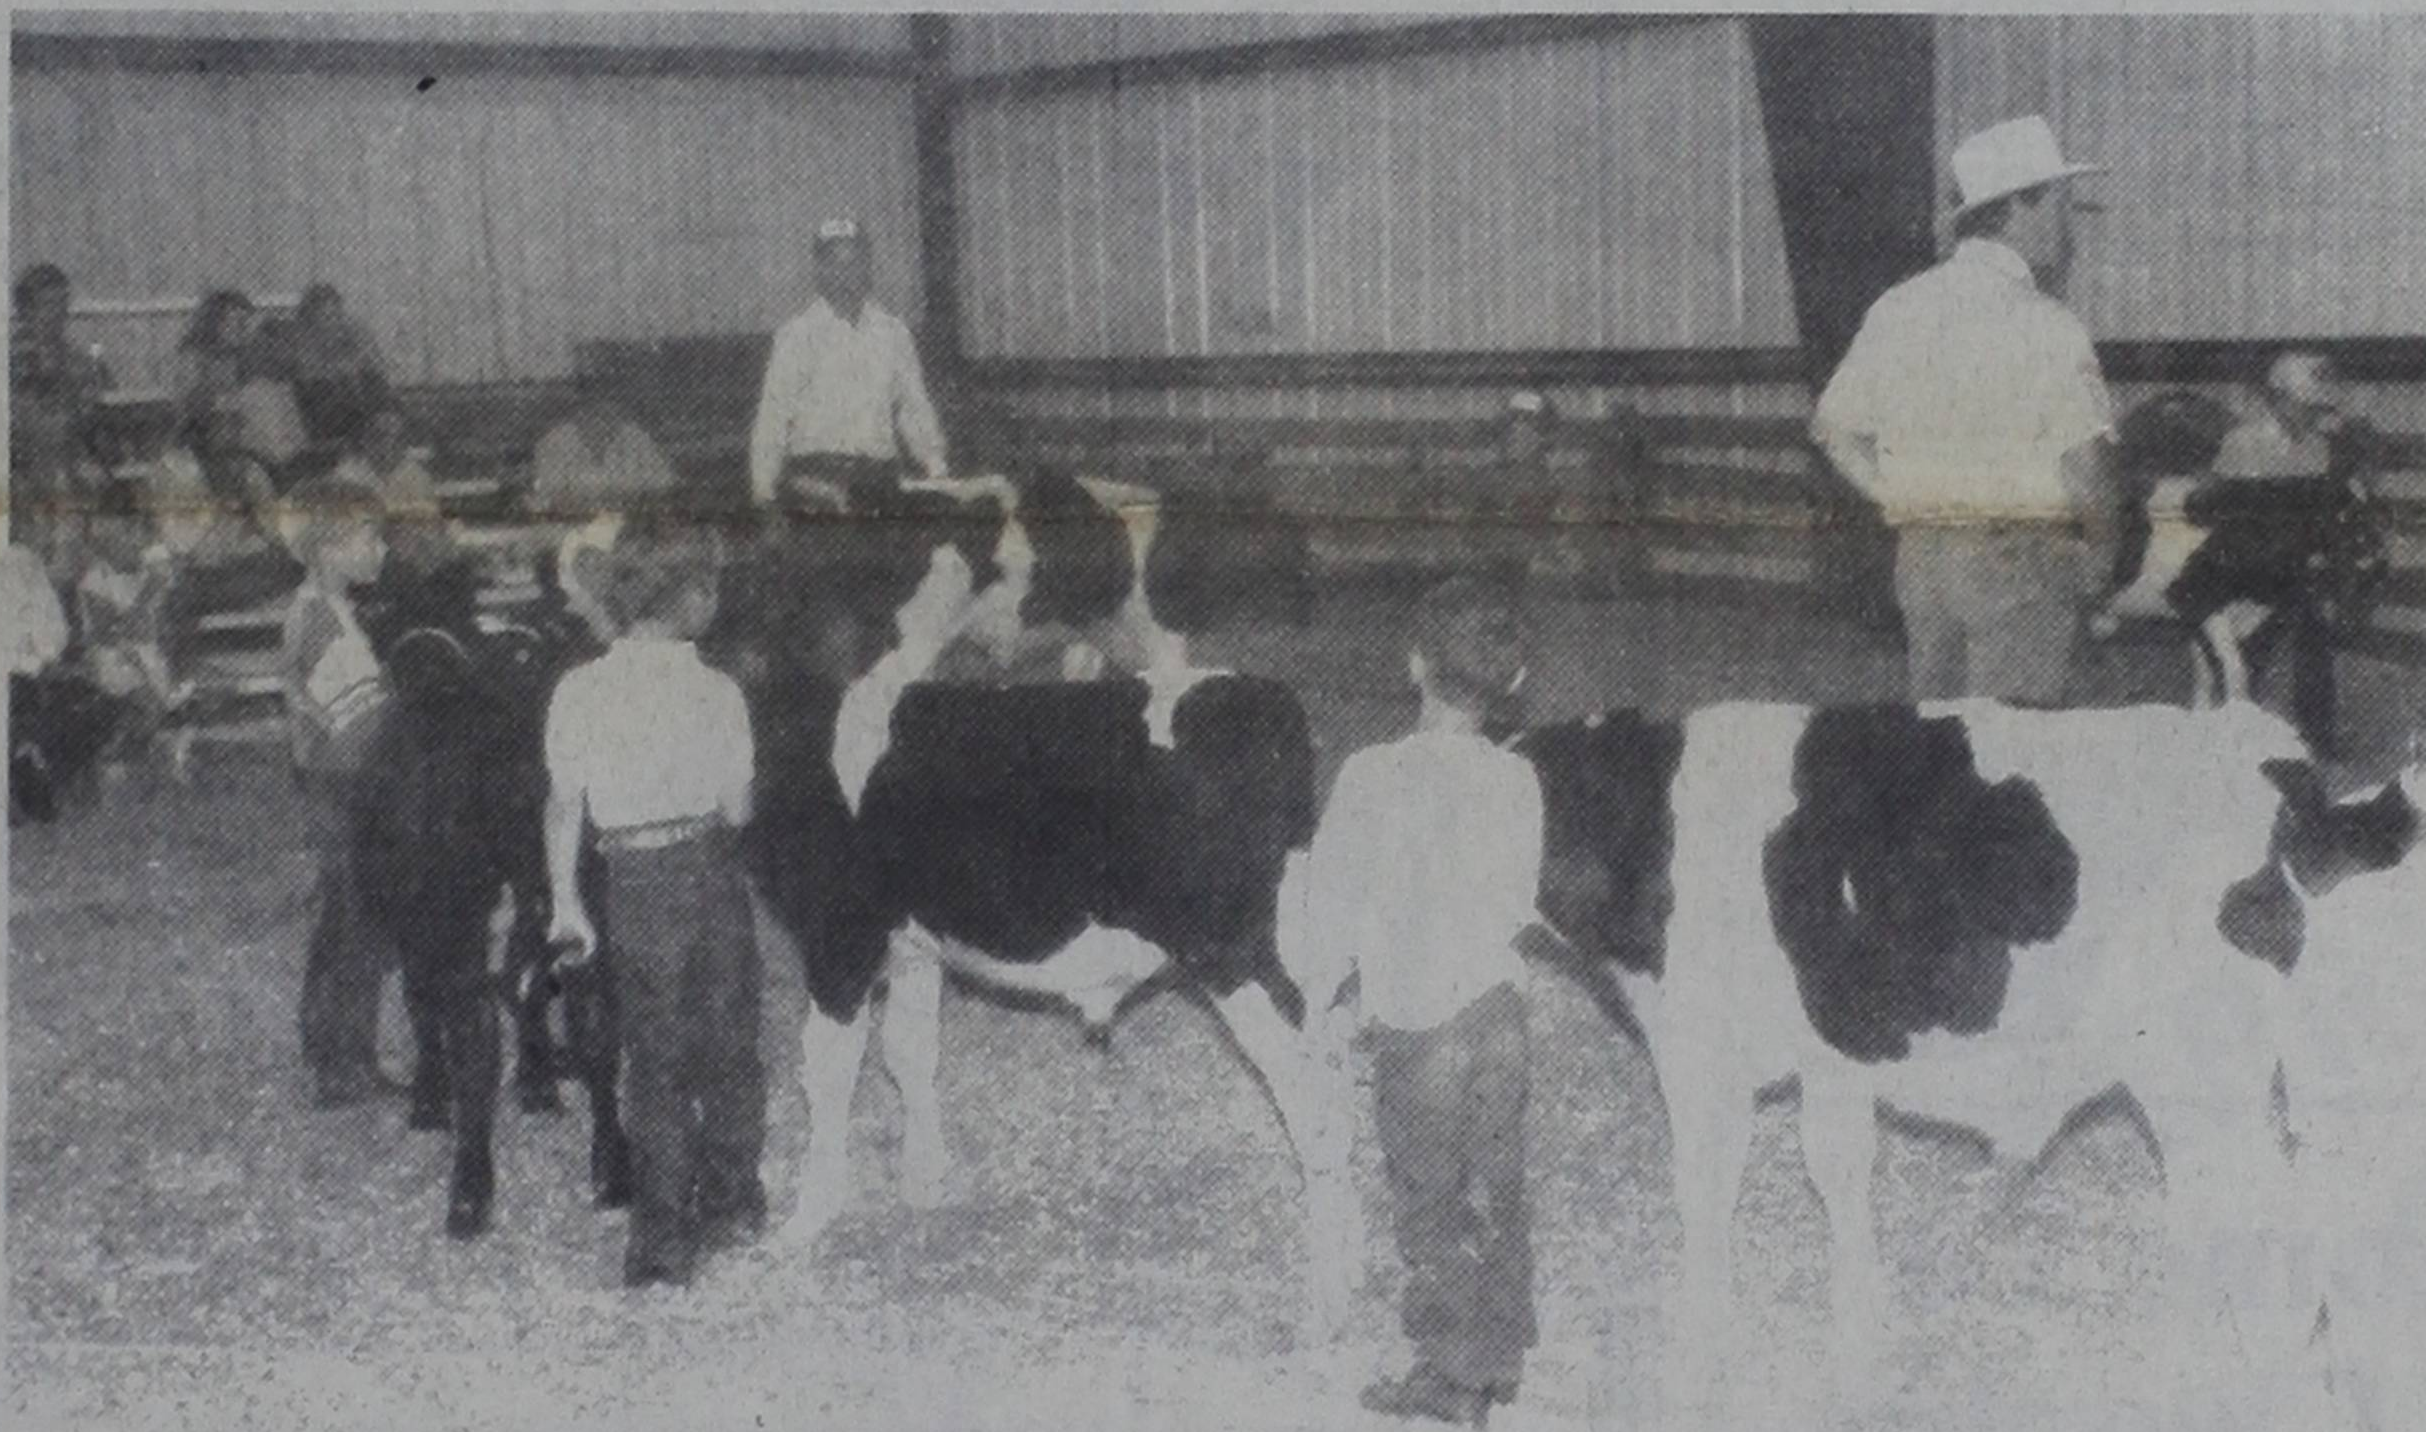

National 4-H Club Week October 4-11

--See results from the 4-H Clubs' Awards Banquet--will be printed in the October 3 issue of the Friona Star.

Church Sets Sausage Meal

St. Theresa's Catholic Church has scheduled its annual sausage dinner for Sunday, October 4, from 11:30 a.m.-2 p.m.

The menu will consist of sausage, home-made sauerkraut, beans, potatoes, relishes, iced tea and cake. Tickets are $4.50 and $2.50. Call Hortencia Bermea, chairman, for advance tickets at 247-3148.

CALF SHOW...Youngsters aged 5-12 took part in a "Bucket calf show" last Saturday at the Friona Community Center. The youngsters and their projects were a nice sight for the spectators.

Weather Blesses The Area

The weather in the Friona area has taken a turn for the better in recent days, with beautiful warm days which should facilitate the maturing of crops and allow farmers to get into their fields.

Thursday's high temperature was 85 degrees, and more of the same was being expected for Friday and Saturday, as a break from the wet cycle was in the forecast.

"We need a bunch of days like this one--20 or 30 in a row," stated an area farmer, who was pleased to see the bright sun this week.

Corn harvest has been making a slow start in the area. Most of the corn which has been harvested has been for ensilage purposes, with some farmers who have driers able to get some harvesting done. But if the weather continues dry, the harvest operations should expand rapidly.

Lazbuddie Truck Sent To Calif.

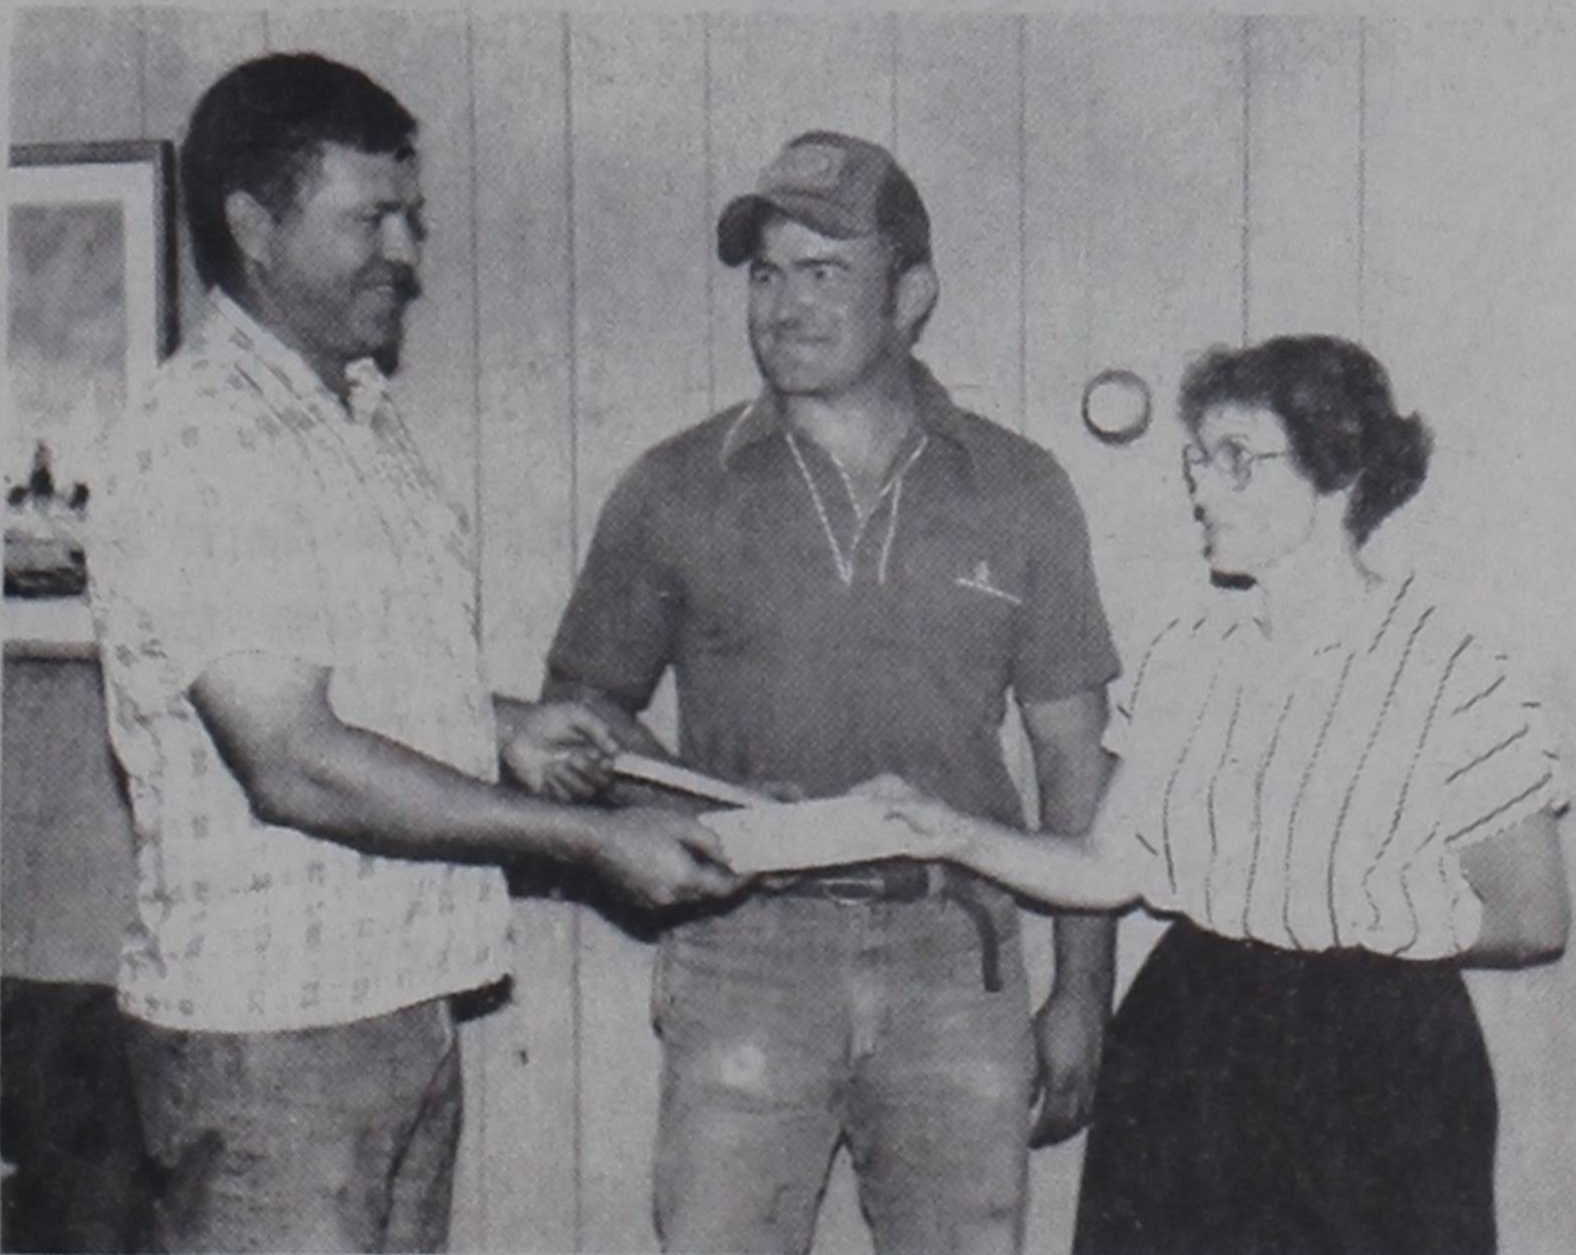

Lazbuddie Fire Chief Glen Lust reports that the Lazbuddie WEPS truck was one of the vehicles which was sent to California to help battle the forest fires there.

It left in the same caravan of fire trucks that the Farwell fire truck joined.

None of the Lazbuddie Volunteer firefighters were able to go with the truck, but it is being driven by National Forest Service personnel.

"The truck is about three to four years old, but we love it," says Lust.

"If we arrive at a fire with the WEPS truck and our old pumper, the pumper empties and goes back to fill up while the WEPS truck keeps spraying foam the whole time," says Lust.

55 YEARS AGO--SEPT. 23, 1932

Quite a bit of excitement was occasioned here Monday morning when Nightwatchman C.M. Jones released himself from his gag and hookwink and the post to which he had been tied, and gave the alarm of burglars. It appears that Mr. Jones had just driven up town from the south side of the railroad in a car with Reeve Guyer, and had alighted from the car about the middle of Main Street near the T.J. Crawford store, when Mr. Guyer had driven on to his home at the north end of Main Street. They had seen three men sauntering along the street and Mr. Jones went to find out their business. They were looking for a bed for the night and it was already 1:30 a.m. When he told them there were no beds or jail to sleep in they gagged him and tied him up. They broke into the Crawford store and took about $6.00 from the cash register.

exhibits and $55 as prize money at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. The local chapter displayed the advantages of debeaking chickens in an educational exhibit.

Pioneer Natural Gas Co. Friday moved into its recently completed building on the corner opposite the post office. Ralph Shirley is office manager and La Quita Jones is office secretary. The staff is now in the process of getting records and files in order.

25 YEARS AGO--SEPT. 20, 1962

Maize Days, 1962, is now history, and for the most part compared very favorably with celebrations in other years. A truly representative group of beauties got the festivities rolling with the queen's contest last Thursday night. When the judges tallied their decisions, 17-year-old Janet Buckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Buckley, was chosen to reign over the celebration. First alternate was Barbara Fallwell, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck Fallwell of the Hub community. Second alternate in the contest was Carolyn Herring, 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Herring. Twenty-two contestants appeared in formals and bathing suits.

Friona's first bale of cotton for the 1962 harvest season was ginned last Friday, September 14 with O.T. Patterson growing the premium bale. The bale was brought to Country Club Gin on Wednesday afternoon, but lack of electrical power at the gin forced the two-day delay in its ginning.

20 YEARS AGO--SEPT. 21, 1967

Paula Fortenberry, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fortenberry, was crowned the 11th Maize Days Queen as a highlight of the city's 1967 celebration last Thursday. Miss Fortenberry, a junior at Friona High School, was chosen from a field of 30 contestants, which tied the record for the number of queen entries. First runnerup was Terri Sue Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Cummings, and second runnerup was Becky Coffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coffey.

Enrollment in Friona Schools has risen to 1339 as of Monday a net increase of 54 since the first day of school, September 5, it was announced this week by Superintendent of Schools Alton Farr.

15 YEARS AGO--SEPT. 21, 1972

The first load of maize for the Friona area--and possibly the first load for Parmer County this year was marketed on Monday morning by Eugene Boggess at Friona Wheat Growers.

The Friona High School Ex-Students Association, in a departure from their usual schedule, will hold their annual reunion during Maize Days this year--breaking from the long-standing tradition of meeting during the Christmas holidays.

10 YEARS AGO--SEPT. 18, 1977

Debbie Menefee was chosen as Friona's Maize Queen Thursday night, and will have a place of honor in concluding the events of the city's 21st annual celebration. Debbie, the 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Menefee, was chosen from a field of 24 young ladies for the title. First runnerup was Priscilla Pruet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pruet. Second runnerup is Vickie Smiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Smiley.

5 YEARS AGO--SEPT. 19, 1982

Diane Johnston, 16-year-old junior at Friona High School, was crowned the 26th Maize Queen in the annual pageant concluded last Saturday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnston. First runnerup was Kristi Britting, another 16-year-old junior at FHS. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Britting. Second runnerup was Cindy Drake, a 17-year-old senior at FHS. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Isberg.

Susan Huckabee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Huckabee, was crowned Friona's 1982 Little Miss. Jodi Looper was first runnerup and Clover Putman, second runnerup.

45 YEARS AGO--SEPT. 25, 1942

G. Cranfill, manager of the Santa Fe Grain Company, announced this week that his company has secured the dealership for Purina Feeds in Friona.

John Burrow, who has been manager of the Friona Poultry and Egg produce business here for several years, has purchased the interest of the Lubbock Poultry Co. in the business, and is now sole proprietor.

Parmer County last week staged a county fair that ranked with the very best of county fairs in Texas, according to "those in the know" who have made the circuits this year." Over 2200 people were present at the Friday night barbecue that highlighted the social activities of the fair. M.C. Osborn, Friona FFA member, showed the grand champion in both male and female divisions of the beef cattle group with his Hereford entries.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
Have you ever wondered where your town is going? I wonder where all the good leaders of Friona are going? The ones who cared to be your neighbor and cared about our town and not just their pocketbook and large cars. The ones who donated their time for Scouts, Little League, school functions. The ones who paid for advertising, made donations, who loaned a neighbor a car because he needed it, who kept your kids because you were sick. The ones who helped your child, who cleaned your house, who cared what kind of schools our children attend. The ones who let you pay on credit because you didn't have the money or a job, even though that merchant had to borrow money and pay interest on it to keep his business alive.

In my book this list is long—Uncle John White, F.L. Spring, F.W. Reeve, Glenn E. Reeve Sr., Ed White, Mrs. Kinsley, Os Lange, Rose Lange, Nora O'Brian, Ralph Roden, Elroy Wilson, Ed Boggess, Dale Smith, Otho Whitefield, Pat Fallwell, Carl Maurer. These are but a few of the people who cared but who are gone.

The ones who are still with us such as Wesley Foster, Cotton Houser, Paul Spring, Dorothy Blankenship, Gib Boatman, Grace Whitefield, Ralph Wilson, Louise Wilson, Lillie Taylor, W.M. Massie, Olive Massie, L.D.

Taylor, Reuben Taylor, Ralph Shirley, Sue Smith. This list could go on and on, too.

LOOK UP AND SEE IF YOU CARE. These people helped even though they had jobs from 7:30 a.m. to whenever. They donated time and love to Friona. They picked up wrecks, ran the ambulance, put out fires, helped stranded visitors and neighbors, volunteered time to sit with friends who were sick. People like these pick up trash, work for churches, clubs, civic groups, schools and hospitals. They don't have banking hours and they volunteer money, time, and themselves, not just for their own needs. Most of them make small salaries and have less time...BUT THEY CARE!

They build banks, with their overdrafts and interest on notes. These people are working in small businesses and large businesses, schools, hospitals, city jobs, farms, farm hands, homemakers, Excel, Hi-Pro, Millard, Ruthie's, Foster's, Perry's, flower shops, beauty shops, hardware stores, restaurants, oil companies, gins, elevators, credit unions, accounting offices, newspapers, insurance offices, grocery stores, feed yards, etc. Without this kind of people, Friona does NOT come FIRST, nor does its people, nor does its bank.

Are you one of the people who wants Friona to grow by shopping at home? If we don't shop at home, the businesses will close, the taxes will drop, the schools will suffer and our small town will become an even smaller town, with smaller schools, smaller churches, etc. Add the ones you know to the list of people who care and see if it gets longer and longer. Look around you and see who are the people who show they care about Friona and pass it on. Adopt the motto "If I do something for you, don't do something for me...but PASS IT ON!"

Doing God's business is helping people do things they need to have done just because you want to help.

Thank you,
Wanda Reeve

Seat Belt Law Has Anniversary

Two years after the safety belt law went into effect, Texans are still buckling up in record numbers and front-seat fatalities are still declining, says George R. Gustafson, president of the Texas Safety Association and a spokesman for the Texas Coalition for Safety Belts.

"Our rate of safety belt use has quadrupled since pre-law days, and we've showed remarkable staying power," Gustafson announced this morning. "The latest study by Texas Transportation Institute shows about 60% of our drivers buckling up."

Col. Leo Gossett, director of the Department of Public Safety, said, "According to preliminary statistics, there's been a decrease of more than 100 traffic accident deaths in front-seat positions of cars and light trucks from September of 1986 through June of this year compared to the same period the year before."

"DPS troopers continue to be watchful for violations of the Texas safety belt and child restraint laws, issuing over 8,000 tickets a month on rural roadways," Gossett added.

During the upcoming Labor Day weekend, the Texas coalition will work with safety belt coalitions from five neighboring states to make the good news better.

Oklahoma, New Mexico, Colorado, Missouri and Kansas are cooperating in "Project Safe Conduct," a holiday safety campaign which will encourage motorists to wear their belts, watch their speed, and avoid driving under the influence of alcohol.

Highway troopers in several states, including Texas, will be out in force over the three-day weekend. The event will coincide with the DPS's "Operation Motorcade," in which the state headquarters in Austin keeps a running fatality count.

"Labor Day is a dangerous time for Texas motorists," Gustafson noted. "It's the last big weekend of the summer vacation season, and we usually see more vehicles on the highway. We hope people will keep this in mind and use extra caution."

The Texas Jaycees, one of the coalition's member groups, will operate 125 rest stops on interstates and other major highways. The Jaycees will serve free coffee, soft drinks, and rolls, and will offer travelers a chance to get out of their vehicles for a few moments.

The coalition has encouraged other member groups to sponsor public awareness activities, either at the state or local level.

Free Trees Available For Fall Planting

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving ten free shade trees to everyone who joins the non-profit Foundation during September, 1987.

A Sugar Maple, Weeping Willow, Red Oak, Green Ash, Thornless Honeylocust, Pin Oak, Silver Maple, Tuliptree, River Birch, and Red Maple will be given as part of the Foundation's campaign to encourage tree planting.

These trees were selected because they provide beautiful orange, red, and yellow autumn colors and cooling summer shade, according to John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director.

The Foundation will give the ten free trees to members contributing $10 during September. The six-to-twelve inch trees will be shipped this fall between October 15 and December 10 when conditions are right for planting. They will be sent with enclosed planting instructions, and are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free by the Foundation.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to Ten Shade Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, Nebraska, 68410, by September 30, 1987.

Chiefs Down Portales, 23-8

The Friona Chieftains scored a bittersweet win, 23-8, over the Portales Rams last Friday at ENMU's Greyhound Stadium at Blackwater Draw near Portales, N.M.

The good news was the win, over a big, strong Portales team which was making its home debut for the season, and delighted in hitting the Chiefs.

The bad news was injuries to a pair of starters. Sophomore tailback Andre Duran sustained a torn knee ligament requiring surgery, that will sideline him for the rest of the season.

Guard Louis Dunnam was more fortunate. His injury was diagnosed as a strained ligament. He is expected to miss the team's next two non-district games.

And tackle Paul Trimmell, suffering from bruised ribs, once again came out of the game after the ribs became too painful in the second half. Trimmell has been wearing a "flack jacket" since the opening game injury.

The Rams were penalized only once for unnecessary roughness, but Friona fans felt there should have been another flag or two in this regard.

It was a game of big plays for the Chieftains, and the first one was made by the defense.

Portales took the opening kickoff, and thanks to a couple of good runs, advanced the ball well into Friona territory, having the ball at the Chieftain 30, where the Rams faced third and five.

Ram quarterback Roger Moore threw a pass into the right flat, cornerback Glenn Trimmell intercepted. Trimmell caught the ball with a full head of steam, and ran 70 yards up the west sideline for a touchdown.

Cody Burney came on to kick the point after, and Friona had taken some of the wind out of Portales' sails for a 7-0 lead after 4:02 of play.

The Rams used a reverse handoff on the kickoff, and ran it to the Friona 49. They picked up a first down to the Chiefs' 36, then had to punt after a pair of quarterback sacks by Brent Riethmayer and Reese Hand.

Portales punted the Chiefs into a pretty good hole at their own eight, but they didn't stay there long.

Duran burst through the line for a 15-yard gain to the 25, Echols gained nine on a keeper, and Duran raced nine yards as Friona moved out to their own 46.

Then Echols again clicked on a keeper play, running 22 yards to the Portales 14 as the first quarter came to an end.

Friona had a fourth and one from the Portales four, and Duran was stopped just short of the first-down marker. The Chieftains had driven 88 yards only to lose the ball on downs.

Portales got fired up. Jeff Hancock ran 39 yards on the Rams' first play after taking over, being stopped from behind by Echols on a touchdown-saving tackle.

But the home team was determined, and Rudy Zapata ran 30 yards around right end for the touchdown. Moore passed for a two-pointer, and the Rams took an 8-7 lead with 4:59 left in the second quarter.

Riethmayer and Dunnam made big defensive plays for the Chiefs to force a punt and Friona took over at its own 43 yard line. Only 1:45 remained on the halftime clock as time was running low.

Duran fumbled, but Portales was hit with a personal foul penalty, allowing Friona to keep the ball. When the Portales coach protested too much, the ref threw another flag, and Friona accepted the 30 yards, moving the ball to the Rams' 25.

Echols passed 14 yards to Duran, with 28 seconds left in the half, and then spotted the talented sophomore alone in the end zone for a nine-yard scoring pass as the clock read 0:23. Echols tried to run for two points, but was stopped at the left corner. However, Friona took a 13-8 lead to the dressing room.

Neither team mounted much of a threat in the third quarter, but the Rams fumbled a pitchout on the second play of the fourth quarter and Friona claimed the ball at the Portales 15.

On third down, Echols had some running room, but tripped over his blocker, bringing up fourth down.

Burney came in to boot a pretty, 32-yard field goal on his first three-point try as a varsity kicker, extending Friona's lead to 16-8.

"He's going to be an exceptional kicker before he's through. He has been kicking field goals pretty regular in workouts," said Coach Tommy Moss.

The Chieftain defense again sparkled, throwing the quarterback for a 13-yard loss, giving Friona the ball in good field position after Portales was forced to punt.

With the ball at Friona's 44, Echols broke through the line on a keeper play. About ten yards upfield, he was hit by a defender, and it looked as though he might go down. But the speedy Chieftain was able to keep his balance, and sprinted the 56 yards for the clinching touchdown.

Burney's kick made the margin 23-8.

The Rams fumbled the exchange between the center and quarterback, with Friona again recovering at the Portales 15.

On the first play, Duran was gang-tackled after a four-yard gain, on the play on which his knee was injured.

Dunnam had been carried off the field a little earlier, so the Friona bench was beginning to resemble a battleground.

Echols gained 129 yards to lead the ground-gainers. It was his second straight plus-100 game, as the 160-pounder had gained 127 yards against Idalou. His 322 yards in three games makes him the number five rusher for class AAA players in the area.

"Portales outweighed us 30 pounds to the man on the offensive line. We gave up a lot of yardage, but our defense tightened in the second half. We moved the ball when we wanted to," Coach Moss said.

Medicare Insurance Pays For Services

Medicare medical insurance can help pay for physician's services, outpatient hospital care, outpatient physical therapy and speech pathology services, home health care, and other health services and supplies.

Medical insurance generally pays 80 per cent of the approved charges after the patient has incurred the first $75 of approved charges; this is the medical insurance deductible. The patient is responsible for the remaining 20% of the approved charges and any amount above the approved charges.

Medicare medical insurance payments can be made in either one of two ways. The payment may be made to the physician or to the supplier of medical services, or the payment may be made directly to the patient.

If payment is made to the physician or to the supplier, the method of payment is called "assignment."

The assignment method can be used only if both the physician or the supplier and the patient agree to it. When this method is used, the physician or the supplier agrees that his or her charge for the service will be no more than that approved by the Medicare carrier. Medicare will then pay 80% of the approved charge after subtracting any part of the $75 deductible that the patient has not met.

Not all physicians will accept assignment. A list of those who have may be obtained from any Social Security office.

Kids Should Know Minor Treatments

Children can be taught to do many of their most often needed first aid treatments for themselves. The Education Department of Methodist Hospital offers this list of some of the common hurts and the common-sense helps which can be taught to children.

For small burns run cold water on the injured area immediately and keep it clean. Bug bites or stings are relieved by holding ice on the bite area. If the child is dizzy or having trouble breathing, tell them to seek help.

Scratches and scrapes should be washed gently with warm, soapy water. A bandage on the area will keep it clean and free from infection. For nose bleeds instruct children to sit down, tip their heads back and squeeze the nose shut. If the bleeding does not stop, children should seek adult help.

For bruises and bumps, apply ice in a towel to lessen the swelling and pain. Instruct children to get help if a bump on the head causes nausea, sleepiness or visual difficulty.

Children should be taught to get help immediately if they suspect poisoning or a broken bone or if they are helping a victim who is unconscious or having trouble breathing. Children should also be taught not to move victims and to seek adult help if there is bleeding.

Other steps parents can take to help children include having an emergency phone number prominently attached to the phone. Parents should talk to their children about when to use the emergency number.

Parents can make arrangements with one or two neighborhood adults who are usually home to help children in emergencies. Parents should post their numbers prominently.

Talking with kids about safety rules in general and rules for themselves, their neighborhood and their activities in particular, is also an important safety step.

Parents should keep bandages and antiseptic cream where kids can get them for themselves. Don't keep them in the medicine chest, which may hold other things dangerous to children.

The Education Department of Methodist Hospital is offering a Medical Terminology II class September 22 through November 3. The class will be offered on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2-3 p.m. and Tuesday evenings from 6:30-9 p.m.

Participants must have completed Medical Terminology I to participate in the course. For more information or to register for the class, call Methodist Hospital's Education Department at 793-4100.

Sugar Industry Is Unfairly Attacked

(Editor's note: The following is part two of a series of articles in which the sugar industry attempts to defend itself from what it calls "unfair attacks" about the domestic sugar industry.)

The European Economic Community (EC) is possibly the biggest culprit in creating the distorted "world sugar price." The EC dumped 25 million tons of sugar on the world market the past seven years and it continues to subsidize production at the expense of less-developed sugar exporting countries. Most U.S. industry representatives believe these artificially-low prices are a threat to the entire industry.

Although the U.S. sugar program is working well for farmers and consumers, the Reagan administration wants to reduce the program's effectiveness by increasing sugar imports and lowering the sugar loan rate to farmers. Major sugar users, such as Coca Cola and other soft drink companies, along with several consumer groups, are also opponents of the sugar program.

Basically, the opponents see the "world sugar price" as meaning lower prices for consumers and industrial users. The administration claims the sugar program is damaging American foreign relations with Caribbean and other sugar producing countries.

Study Club Has Annual "Day Out"

The Black Study Club met Thursday, September 17, at 9 a.m. in the home of Martha Hamilton and then travelled to Amarillo for their annual "Day Out."

The group went shopping, had lunch at the Back Porch, and did some more shopping before returning home.

Those attending were Martha Hamilton, Ann Kelley, Hannah Lookingbill, Ruby Stone, Carrie Tatum, Ann Carthel, Lucille Rockey and Mildred Welch.

Also four guests were present, Pam Tatum of Canyon, Mary Powers of Dumas, Diane Hamilton of Houston and Varla Wilcox of Friona.

The next club meeting will be Thursday, October 1 in the home of Hannah Lookingbill.

While the sweetener industry's sugar political action committee (PAC) does spend several million dollars to keep congressmen and senators informed on the overall sugar situation, industrial users and foreign exporters spend much more in efforts to try and destroy the usefulness of the sugar program. And many of the lobbyists are, or have been close, to the Reagan administration.

For example, Deavers, the former communications director, is now a lobbyist for the Caribbean Basin Institute and other foreign interests. Smith, the former USDA foreign agriculture official, also represents the Caribbean in Washington. These lobbying offices are established independent from foreign embassies.

Another example of how American sweetener interests are directly affected by world situations involves the World Bank, a lending entity for many third world countries. Supported heavily by U.S. dollars, the World Bank nonetheless made a recent loan of more than $242 million to rebuild sugar factories in the Dominican Republic, Indonesia, Sudan, Jamaica and Mauritius, an island in the Indian Ocean.

Cleavinger says sugar farmers are not against lending assistance to America's foreign friends, as long as it is not done at the expense of American agriculture, especially actions which damage the domestic sugar industry.

"Destroying the U.S. sugar program would, in essence, destroy the U.S. sugar industry," he says. "American producers and processors cannot compete with artificially-low world prices which are priced far below the cost of production. And leaving consumers at the mercy of imported sugar could create a situation similar to that caused by America's dependence on foreign oil—a situation of erratic and high prices.

"If our domestic industry is allowed to die, consumers would not have dependable sugar supplies and would face retail prices which may be low in one instance and extremely high in another."

History has shown that without a sugar program, prices for raw sugar fluctuate wildly—from as low as 10 cents a pound to as high as 65 cents a pound.

These sharp price changes caused panic among food and beverage processors—which account for about 80 per cent of the U.S. sweetener consumption.

Many consumers also panicked at the sugar counter, further disrupting supplies.

While Reader's Digest notes that several sugar cane processors have been forced out of business by the sugar program, Cleavinger points out that as many as 16 sugar beet processing facilities nationwide were closed during the period without a sugar program in the 1970s. This put thousands of people out of work and left thousands of farmers without a market for their crops.

The sugar program has changed the picture. Prices have been stable for consumers and producers, and supplies have been abundant. "In fact," says Cleavinger, "during the first five years of the program, USDA figures show that sugar prices actually dropped by more than eight per cent.

"At the same time, prices for sweetener-containing products, such as soft drinks and candy, increased by more than 27 per cent. This clearly indicates that a drop in sugar prices doesn't translate into guaranteed lower consumer prices for products containing sugar."

In comparing prices paid for sugar by Americans to prices paid by consumers in foreign countries, U.S. prices are actually below the worldwide average. The USDA Foreign Agricultural Service, which surveyed consumer food prices in 16 world capitals, found that consumers in Washington, D.C., paid the ninth lowest price for sugar.

Cleavinger says the argument that American relations with other sugar producing countries are damaged by the sugar program are false. "Major sugar exporters, such as Caribbean countries, would actually be hurt financially without the program," he says.

"Traditional suppliers, such as those in the Caribbean, would lose more than $110 million the first year if the program was rewritten in favor of the Reagan administration's plan, even though their sales would increase."

There are also false implications that foreign countries will default on loans to major U.S. banks if sugar trade is reduced. "For example, if we were to completely shut down U.S. sugar production and import all sugar from Brazil at current U.S. prices, it would erase only four per cent of Brazil's foreign debt," says Cleavinger.

"And without the sugar program, there is no guarantee that our Caribbean and South American friends would take over production lost by American farmers. EC sugar would likely take the place of significant numbers of U.S. production."

Cleavinger says that under the Reagan proposal, taxpayers would be out more than $1.2 billion in farmer subsidies over four years, "which is the last thing our budget deficit needs.

"It's important that we maintain our current sugar program," he concludes. "It's good for U.S. consumers and farmers alike. And it's good for the Panhandle-South Plains area."
