THE INVESTIGATORS FINDING

From the Philadelphia Bulletin. How the farmers of the country live, how much it costs them to do it and what they get for their money is a question the department of agriculture has set itself to determine. Finding Livingston County, New York, as a typical farming center of the moderately well-to-do agriculturalists, the investigators estimated 402 farmers, about 24 per cent of the total number in the county.

Briefly, it was discovered that the average expenditure, of the 402 was $2,022 a year, of which about one-third came off the farm in the shape of food and fuel. This left $1,344 in real money for the farmer to provide for clothing and amusements for himself and his family, including the upkeep of the automobile motor car. Clothing averaged $277 a family, which based on the usual statistical number of these persons as a family, would be a little more than $60 a person.

The statisticians learned that father and mother found themselves their average share of the $277 a year clothing.

Outstanding Beauty!

Here's a style car that catches the eye at once. Moderately priced but built like an expensive car. More than 150 separate pieces of lumber are especially milled for the stalwart body-frame. Cylinder walls are honed to mirror-like finish. That guards against piston scoring or seizure. And its powerfully flexible performance matches its beauty.

DEMOCRATIC PROSPECT'S SIDELIGHTS

Ralston Looks on Picture That Represents Age Old Republican Democratic Fight—Bryan Might Be Probed Because He Donated $5,000 to the Cause.

By HARRY B. HUNT
By NEA Service.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—On the wall of Senator Samuel Moffett Ralston's office, hung where he faces it as he sits at his big desk, is a freak picture.

It shows a great hairy mastodon, of prehistoric times, being beset by a host of unclad aborigines, armed with spears. It is a battle of many against many, with casualties on both sides, for although the beast is frenzied from the spears thrust through his hide, he has whirled one of the natives aloft in his trunk and is about to dash him to the ground. The picture stirs Ralston's imagination.

"It represents to me," he tells his friends, "the eternal conflict between Democrats and Republicans."

In Ralston's interpretation, the great beast is the Republican party. Its human antagonists are the Democrats.

And just as surely as the aborigines brought about the final extinction of the mastodon, Ralston believes, Democrats will work the ultimate final overthrow of the G. O. P.

Anyway, it is on this picture that Ralston gazes as he meditates whether to enter the contest for the Democratic presidential nomination this year. He already has substantial backing.

The sweeping defeat of Oscar Underwood by William Gibbs McAdoo in the Georgia Democratic presidential primaries has not dampened the Alabama senator's determination to make the bitterest possible fight for the nomination. Georgia, Underwood's backers explain, is inclined to claim McAdoo as a favorite son, since he was born near Marietta, that state.

To prevent the duplication of the Georgia result in other states, if possible, Underwood's candidacy has been placed in the hands of an active manager, C. C. Carlin, former congressman from Alexandria, Va. Carlin managed A. Mitchell Palmer's fight for the Dem nomination in 1920.

Oliver P. Newman, former newspaperman and commissioner of the District of Columbia under President Wilson, has assumed command of Underwood's publicity guns. As "Ollie" was not only a crackerjack reporter in his day but also a major of artillery in the late war, some hot shots from his batteries may be expected.

Despite the fact that William Jennings Bryan announced, in Omaha, that he might consent to head the Democratic ticket again, if drafted, he has little chance for the nomination.

There might be an investigation—and scandal—if he did run.

For s-s-s-h!—speak it in whispers, William Jennings has a financial interest in the Democratic result.

Three checks from the Bryan family, one from Bill himself, one from Mrs. Bryan and one from their daughter were recently received at Democratic headquarters. Doubtless they could be produced under subpoena from an investigating committee. The checks were—yes, sir!—for exactly $5 each.

Brevities

That strange and almost unbelievable things happen even in this modern 20th century—right under our very noses, so to speak—was thoroughly demonstrated early Saturday morning when more than a score of old-timers in the northeast portion of the city sent hurried calls to the Sheriff and police department.

Fearing the worst, Buck, Jack, Jim, Mussy and Hud, the latter rudely awakened out of a death-like slumber, armed to the teeth, charged pell mell to suppress what appeared to be an up-to-date riot.

Arriving on the scene the officers found several hundred law abiding citizens, partially attired, acting some what after the fashion of barnyard fowls seeking to elude a hawk. So great was the excitement that several minutes elapsed before the law could determine just how gruesome the crime was.

With weapons drawn, the authorities ordered the mob to stand aside that they might get to the corpse. Finally, wiser and cooler heads managed to regain their composure sufficiently to explain, amid wild gesticulation, that Mike Fitzgerald had been seen cutting weeds.

The accusation that the male gender of the modern Caucasian is bereft of medieval politeness has been refuted. It is pointed out that Sleuth James Butler tips his kelly each and every morning to the lady standing in the Wright Furniture Company entrance. It is not recorded, however, that Jeems ever received a return nod. The lady in question is pasteboard.

And say, have you noticed the very latest thing in bobbed hair? No? Well, T. Vard/Woodruff has what might be termed a "courthouse bob," designed no doubt, to knock the jury for a row of subpoenas.

But, just imagine what those weeds thought when they saw Mike approaching them with a flock of shears. Grass hoppers fainted and doodle-bugs whooped and angle-worms crawled backwards; that is, that's what Buck said.

Man Takes Swarm of Bees in His Shirt.

F. C. Baker returned Wednesday afternoon from a visit to a brother at Uvalde. He reports that apiarists in that section anticipate a big honey crop this spring and that catclaw and wahoo brush were nearly blooming. He stated that while driving out with his brother, they saw an immense swarm of bees hanging on a bush near the road and having nothing else to secure them in, his brother removed his shirt, tied up the sleeves, shook the bees in and carried them home and they just about filled the hive.—Christoval Observer.

DRAFT.

The only militarists in the United States are war profiteers who made fortunes out of the blood of the men who wore the uniforms. So says Major General John A. Lejeune of the United States Marine Corps.

He is absolutely right, though many would include the more or less feeble-minded who, easily swayed, become involuntary militarists. Our professional military leaders prefer peace.

The first step toward ending war is to take the profits out of war. Draft factories and money as well as

STUDIES CLIFF PAINTING

Sul Ross Professor Inspects Indian Signs in Big Bend.

ALPINE, April 14.—Victor J. Smith, head of the Department of Industrial Education, Sul Ross College is making a study of the Cliff Paintings in this section, painted by the Indians, and has found much in common between the art of the Texas Indians, and that of the primitive people of Europe.

One feature of Professor Smith's study is a discussion and comparison of the cliff paintings found near the Bird Silver Mine, about twelve miles from Alpine. In these paintings the human hands appear thirty-two times. The drawings seem to represent the hands of men, women and children. Both the right and left hand appears, but the right with greater frequency.

He will attend the State meeting of the Texas Folklore Society to be held in Austin on May 3rd, and will deliver a lecture on "The Human Hand in Primitive Art."

BRINGING MOTOR PLEASURE TO ALL

In the manufacture of the cheapest fully equipped motor car, the ideals of Chevrolet were to bring the pleasure and convenience of motoring to all—to those who do not wish to pay excessive costs for their transportation as well as to those of more moderate means where cost is a decisive factor. The sales position of Chevrolet today is a national tribute to how closely it has approached this ideal and public appreciation thereof.

The season of motorings greatest pleasure is now upon us. Spring and summer, with their unlimited possibilities for pleasant little picnics of an evening or more extended outings as a vacation for the whole family are at hand. Why wait longer? CONVENTION

Next Saturday precinct conventions will be held in the various precincts of Nolan County for the purpose of electing delegates to the County convention called for Sweetwater May 6, the following Tuesday. It is the duty of voters to attend these conventions. Folks groan enough if their government is not conducted to suit them but most of the time these folks fail to take into consideration the fact that their government is what they make it, or permit because of lack of interest therein. The importance of civic duty of this kind should also be fully considered by women voters, not only now but in the primaries to be held later as well as regular and special elections.

BOY WEEK

The week from April 28 to May 5 is known as National Boy Week, which is all right in its way, but boys are on hand the other 51 weeks in the year as well and unless the observance of Boys' Week helps out on the balance of the boy's time, it is a more or less useless performance.

The boy problem is about the biggest problem there is. It involves schools, churches, homes, associates. Essentially it is fitting the boy to take his place as a man in life, with a knowledge of how to make a living for himself and his family, how to conduct himself and the duties and responsibilities of citizenship. The difficulty of this program is accentuated when it is remembered that there are none too many of us grown ups who have any too clear an understanding of these things. We may think our homes are right, that our schools are right and our churches right, and that our boy has the right associates—but the acid test will reveal, ere early manhood is reached, just what the result of this training has been. Fate has a relentless habit of winnowing the wheat from the chaff.

ARBOR DAY

Arbor Day has grown to be an occasion of nation-wide observance. Until recent years Arbor Day observance has been largely a matter of sentiment. The old sentiment is still there with additions worthy the notice of those who cherish the importance of the forestry of our Nation. America cannot plant too many trees for either beauty or remembrance. At the rate trees are being destroyed by the thoughtless or for commercial interests soon there won't be any.

Trees for remembrance were planted Saturday all over the United State especially in the north and west and in the eight cemeteries "Over There." A tree planting program along the Lincoln, Harding and Victory Highways and other remembrance roads, in climates not too late for extensive tree planting, as it was for the extreme south, was begun Saturday which may take several days to complete.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs, with its nation-wide membership of 2,800,000, put forth its organized effort to stimulate the proper observance of Arbor Day and are insisting that the problem of conserving the nation's natural forests and the necessity of replacing and planting larger areas, be taught in the public schools, that the rising generation will be able to deal more wisely with the problem than have their forbears.

The local U. D. C. had planned a program for the day which included decorating and marking the 26 Veterans' graves in the City Cemetery, but had to postpone it, because their markers failed to arrive in time.

DEFEAT LORAIN

Swatters Take Opponents' to Second Defeat, Score 4-2

The high school Swatters defeated the Loraine nine for the second time Friday on the home diamond, the score standing 4 to 2 at the close of the ninth.

Fitzgerald hurled for the Swatters while Crutcher acted as pivot man. Roy and Adams respectively held those positions for the visitors.

Bishop placed two hits for the Swatters, while Roy and Toler came in with one each. The Loraine squad pounded out 7 hits, but evened the balance with some seven errors compared to Sweetwater's one.

The Swatters will play games with Merkel Monday; Abilene Wednesday; and Hamlin, Friday, all on foreign fields.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Fortner and little daughter, expect to leave the city Monday for Whitewright where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bryant. The Doctor will go on to Chicago where he will take a special post graduate course at the Chicago Institute of Surgery.

Mrs. Clyde Comegys and little daughter Mary, of Merkel, are here for a week-end visit with relatives, having returned home with her sister, Miss Hybernia Price, who visited her this week.

ROGERS ONCE PLAINS COWHAND
Famous Humorist Made Trip From Amarillo to Liberal, Kan.

From Plainview Herald.
A bit of the history of the old Plains as a cattle country is brought to mind by an experience of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Clinkscales and Judge and Mrs. E. Graham in California. Judge and Mrs. Graham have just returned from California and Mr. and Mrs. Clinkscales are yet there. While driving by the Roach studios in Los Angeles Mr. Clinkscales recognized an actor as Will Rogers, famous humorist, whose writing are syndicated and published in a number of the metropolitan papers, and who has become famous as a motion picture actor.

The Plainview visitors made themselves known to Mr. Rogers. "Are you from Plainview?" he said. "Why I know that town. I recall a number of years ago when just a lad of 14 or 16 years I was coming out of Oklahoma into Texas and landed at Amarillo with nothing but scant clothes, a half starved pony and an unsatisfied appetite. I was hungry. Looking for employment I overheard a ranchman with a herd of cattle tell a man he was trying to employ that he would have to hurry if he got the job. The man had a lot of things to do before he could commence work, so I made bold to ask for the job as a cow hand with a herd of 2,500 cattle headed for Liberal, Kan. The cattle belonged to Slaton & Knight of Plainview and L. A. Knight was with the herd.

"How long will it take you to get ready?" I was asked.
"Just long enough for me to get on that pony yonder," was my eager reply.
"I got the job and made the trip to Kansas with the herd."
This was the last herd driven from Plainview by Slaton & Knight and was on the fulfillment of a Spanish-

American war contract, about 1898. L. A. Knight of Plainview vividly recalls the trip with the herd of cattle, but he does not remember the incident of the employment of Will Rogers.

Junction Is Assured of Getting Ice Plant.

W. K. Snow of San Antonio, who has been negotiating with the Chamber of Commerce to erect an ice plant here, was in town Wednesday and the final arrangements are about worked out that will insure a plant being erected here at an early date. In fact, Mr. Snow brought up a ton of cement and went back to Kerrville that afternoon to purchase other material for starting the building.
An ice plant is a business addition to the town that is badly needed by the people who will become local customers, as well as for the heavy tourist demand that will be additional. It is rather distasteful to the average tourist to come here and have to pay 2 cents or more for ice when they have been accustomed to paying less than one-third that price.—Junction Eagle.

Instruct for McAdoo at Precinct Meetings Saturday, May 3rd

Wall street and the Wets are endeavoring to control the next Democratic National Convention to be held at New York.

The wet and reactionary politicians know from their experience at San Francisco in 1920, that their only chance of success lies in misleading and manipulating uninstructed delegates from dry States and progressive States.

If you want Texas to send a Progressive Delegation, and a dry delegation to the Democratic National Convention on Saturday, May 3, and get your friends to go with you, and fight for the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved:
(1) That we favor the nomination of a Progressive Democrat for President of the United States on a Progressive Platform.

(2) We recognize William Gibbs McAdoo as the outstanding Progressive Democrat, whose Progressive record is a Progressive Platform.

(3) We instruct our Delegates to the County Convention to vote for Resolutions and for Delegates favoring his nomination.

(Cut out this resolution and take it with you to your Precinct Convention.)

REMEMBER THAT THESE CONVENTIONS WILL BE HELD AT 2 P. M. IN THE RURAL DISTRICTS AND AT 8 O'CLOCK P. M. IN CITIES: OFFER THIS RESOLUTION OR GET SOMEONE ELSE TO DO SO.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

John B. Foster, noted sport critic, says that big Ike Boone, who hit .402 and shattered numerous Texas league records last season, looks like the most promising swat artist that has come into the American League in a decade. Boone, right now, is topping big top biffers with an even .500 batting average.

Jakey Atz, double to George Willis, again led his scratching Kittens to a sweet victory over those hoofless Steers of Dallas Saturday. The score was 2 to 1. The Cats didn't beat Dallas Friday—it rained.

Beaumont, with additional strength in the outfield, bids fair to climb a notch or two. Bersen, Oiler Skipper, grabbed off Red O-tergard and Joe Rabbit, fly-chaser from the White Sox. The former is a terrific mauler and it surprised many that he was waived out of Johnson's loop.

Boss Johnny Evers kept Rabbit until Easter. Wow!

Bill Trammell, sad to relate, didn't do so well in his second trip to the mound. Willyum was slaughtered something awful Friday, going to the showers before rain check time.

STYLE PLUS COMFORT

The old idea was that in order for a shoe to be comfortable it had to be made something like a bag in general appearance. Arnold Glove-Grip Shoes get away from that idea. They are the neatest looking shoes you ever laid eyes on. But so scientifically are they built that many men who have had trouble getting a shoe to fit them, can wear these with the utmost comfort.

Fairy Song

Shed no tear! oh, shed no tear!
The flower will bloom another year.
Weep no more! oh, weep no more!
Young buds sleep in the root's white core,
Dry your eyes! oh, dry your eyes!
For I was taught in Paradise
To ease my breast of melodies,—
Shed no tear.

Overhead! look overhead!
Mong the blossoms white and red,
Look up, look up! I flutter now
On this fresh pomegranate bough.
See me! 'tis this silvery bill
Ever cures the good man's ill.
Shed no tear! oh, shed no tear!
The flower will bloom another year.
Adieu, adieu—I fly—adieu!
I vanish in the Heaven's blue,—
Adieu, adieu!

WASHINGTON GOSSIP

BY CHARLES P. STEWART,
NEA Service Writer.

That no presidential candidate will get a majority—that Congress will have to settle it—looks likelier every day, politicians say. If he runs independently, it's predicted LaFollette, who's won Wisconsin's Republican primaries already, will carry Minnesota, the Dakotas, Montana and Colorado, too; maybe Iowa, Nebraska and Idaho. It's hardly possible, dopsters declare, against such odds, for either Coolidge or the Democratic candidate, whoever he may be, to beat his main rival plus LaFollette.

'Twas a Surprise.

Al Smith's victory in the Wisconsin Democratic primaries was a surprise, though it is a wet State. Experts admit he must be stronger in the west than they thought. This, with his New York and New England following, makes him formidable—perhaps not enough so to win but enough to have a lot to say about picking somebody else.

After New York.

Harlan F. Stone's appointment to succeed Attorney General Daugherty is regarded as a Republican bid for New York. Nearly everybody thought Judge Kenyon would get it, but Iowa isn't considered as doubtful as New York, nor has it so many electors.

The Three Ws.

Secretaries of War, Agriculture and the Interior Weeks, Wallace and Work now are distinctly in the class under investigation in Washington. T. F. Lane, army air service lawyer, warned not to appear before the Daugherty committee, testified anyway. Thereupon he was fired. That's the first thing Weeks must explain. Wallace is accused of trying to keep livestock commission rates high. Work is blamed for inefficiency in the reclamation service.

Dope in Prisons.

An investigation of dope-selling in prisons is due. Ex-Warden Dyche says he started one in the Atlanta penitentiary, but Superintendent of Federal Prisons Votaw, Harding's brother-in-law, squelched it to prevent a scandal.

B. Y. O. B.

Dry sleuths were uninvited guests at a New York banquet of prominent men who served on the general staff during the war. The invitations read, "B. Y. O. B." meaning, "Bring Your Own Booze." Hence the sleuths. Such men as Secretary of War Weeks, ex-Secretary Baker and General Pershing were asked to attend. Drys are after an investigation of this.

Buick Value—The Measure of Automobile Values

People now-a-days measure automobile values on the basis of Buick value. How often you hear such remarks as: "It's not nearly as good as Buick". People make these remarks both consciously and unconsciously. Consciously, because they actually know Buick value either from their own experience or that of their friends; unconsciously, because for twenty years Buick has been the accepted standard of the industry. Good reasons, both, why you should own a Buick.

STIRRED UP PEOPLE

edge of God."
The nature of Rayburns revivals are shown by the statement of Mr. C. S. Wise of Roswell, N. M., who in passing through Sweetwater Thursday attended the union service that night.

In speaking of the Rayburn meeting held in Roswell two years ago, he said, "The meeting there was an unusual success in that it has been lasting. Those that were converted during the meeting are interested and working members of the different churches."

"The tabernacle was crowded the first week and the men showed unusual interest in the morning services that were held at the stores or banks, and the crowds would become so great that they had to come on the outside."
"Roswell is a typical western town, no better or worse than others of its size, and great interest was taken in the meeting and many souls were brought to Christ among whom were hardened drunkards and gamblers."

After the evening service, Friday Rayburn talked separately to the men, laying plans for a great service at 2:30 p. m. Sunday when he will talk on "Big Business."

At the Friday Bible Class 176 people were present, 51 more than at any previous date. No class was held, however, Saturday, and Monday there will be no preaching service at night.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Auxiliary will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Otis Neely, with Mrs. Elliott hostess.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Lamar Street Baptist Church will meet Monday afternoon at the church for a business session at 3 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

Jimmie Charlton will return tonight from Fort Worth where he has attended the Shriners' ceremonial the past week.

County Looks Good

A. H. Herring has returned from a trip with Willard Burton of the Burton-Lingo Company that included Abilene, Coleman, San Angelo and Big Spring—a total of 456 miles during which they visited 17 lumber yards in the various cities. Mr. Herring said the country traversed looked just like a fine garden.

Daughter-in-Law Dies

Mrs. J. L. Casstevens left on the Friday morning Santa Fe in response to a message from Los Angeles advising of the death of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Casstevens.

AMUSEMENTS

The superficiality of a certain species of women is the theme of "The Age of Desire," a First National picture produced by Frank Borzage, which is coming to the R and R Palace Theater on Monday and Tuesday. The story was written by Dixie Wilson and appeared originally in McClure's Magazine.

Janet Loring, the heroine of the tale, was a widow, penniless, and with a son to care for, she felt rebellious against the pangs of poverty, and became so desperate that she determined to obtain riches, and the happiness which she believed accompanied them, even at the expense of her son. Through her wiles she ensnared a millionaire, and deserted her son to live with him, keeping her parentage a secret from her husband.

Eventually she came to a realization of her selfishness, and she asked her husband for permission to use this subterfuge to regain possession of her child. But it was too late. When, many years later, she again saw her son he had come to her with criminal intent, unaware of her identity.

CHILD HEALTH.

Thursday, May 1, will be Bill of Rights for the American child. The American Child Health Association, of which Herbert Hoover is president, has enlisted civic, religious and social service organizations in a great national effort to concentrate attention for the one-day on better health for children.

The enterprise has the indorsement of President Coolidge given in a personal letter to Mr. Hoover. Celebrations, with outdoor pageants and plays for children, have been arranged in every State in the Union. The Governors of practically every State and the Mayors of most of the large cities have issued proclamations or statements to citizens, calling upon them to observe the children's festival.

While the celebration will be picturesque, its deep underlying purpose will be to call attention to the fact that the United States, in spite of its wealth and progress is fifth among the countries of the world in the matter of saving child health and sixteenth in preserving the lives of mothers in childbirth.

The American Child Health Association was stirred to action by the fact that 200,000 children in the United States die before they reach the age of one year. Physical examinations given to 22 million school children reveal that there is something wrong with over half of them, often something preventable: five million have defective eyes; a million have defective hearing; a million have active tuberculosis; a quarter million have organic heart trouble, and three to five million are underfed.

Those figures carry with them a word of warning to the American public, no less one county than another, no less one town than another, for it has been only a short while ago that Miss Spiller, our own public health nurse, temporarily reported on the large number of defective children in Tom Green schools. It runs well over 50 per cent. There is cause for alarm in such health status, but there is cause for hope in the fact that the defects found are easily corrected if gone at in the right manner.

Surely it is time to set a day to think about these things, and time to do all in our power to employ a full-time health nurse. Health is the greatest single asset we may pass on to the next generation, and it may be obtained at such a little price, if a health nurse is maintained permanently and her advice is heeded.

Mrs. Ace Henson left on Saturday afternoon's train for Temple, where she goes to place her baby boy under the care of a specialist. Mr. Henson will make the trip in his car and meet them in Temple.

Mrs. J. L. Stephenson is visiting her brother and family at Big Spring for the week-end.

Take a squint at Louis Galbraith's ads—there's food for thought. 741c

Twenty years before she had deserted this boy; had thrown him aside for the life and luxury she called happiness.

Through long years she cried for the son that cruel fate had made a social outcast. And then she found him—found him when he came to blackmail his own mother unknowing. She claimed him then as her own son, but he denounced her—threw her out of his heart and broke hers in so doing.

But events change the lives of great and small and memory glorifies this sacrifice of a woman for an unwanted son.

This one picture in a hundred.

Did You Know--

That the Hotel Wright is one of the best known hotels in West Texas? And that experienced travelers always try to route their schedules so as to spend the night or the week-end in Sweetwater?

There are several reasons for this. One is that we have never turned anyone away. We always find room, some way, no matter how crowded on special occasions. And on the average there are 25 rooms unused in our hotel every night. It is necessary to maintain this surplus so that there will be ample rooms for any demand that may be made upon this hotel by the traveling public.

Another reason the Hotel Wright is preferred is the cheerful welcome and home-like atmosphere, with a staff keenly alert to insure the utmost in comfort to guests.

Service in our dining-room likewise knows but one standard—and that the best.

It is the ambition of the management to provide Sweetwater with the best hotel service in West Texas.

Take Sunday dinner with us today. The price is 75c per plate.
