"MY TURN"

By Carol Ellis

IT IS STILL broad daylight when the doorbell first rings on Oct. 31 and you are met by Wonderwoman, Batman, Kermit and Garfield on your front porch.

Childish voices chime "trick-or-treat" as they hold out their chocolate-filled sacks. They then disappear into the entourage of autos parked at your curb and head home to consume tons of sweets and get a tummy-ache.

Years ago when the tradition of trick-or-treat was just beginning, very young children did not get to go out. It was mostly older kids who scouted the local homes for goodies. Remember, not everyone had extra food on hand in those days and sweets were considered a luxury. So on the morning of November first, you might find that your outhouse had been tipped over during the night or your wagon was resting on the steps of city hall.

A neighbor of ours used to turn tables on the present generation of little ghosts and goblins by telling them they had to perform a nice trick for her before she could give them a treat. "That is the real meaning of trick-or-treat," she lied. She got some varied reactions to this. "Que?" or "There's a crazy lady at this house. Let's get outa here!"

But she also got some cute tricks. One group of four little girls sang the school fight song, a little boy did his imitation of a rooster crowing and one little guy stood on his head out in the front yard. Needless to say, these kids got extra special treats for their goodie bags.

Now I am going to reveal a deep dark secret that has been going on behind closed doors in our community for many years. In most homes where there are children of trick-or-treat age (pre-13 years) there are not one, but two bowls of goodies ready to be passed out at the door on Halloween night. Yes, there is a bowl of "extra special treats" such as candied apples, popcorn balls, or cupcakes with orange pumpkin-face icing. These are to be passed out only to the best pals of your own children. Then there is the bowl of store-bought wrapped candy which is passed out to strangers or mere passing acquaintances.

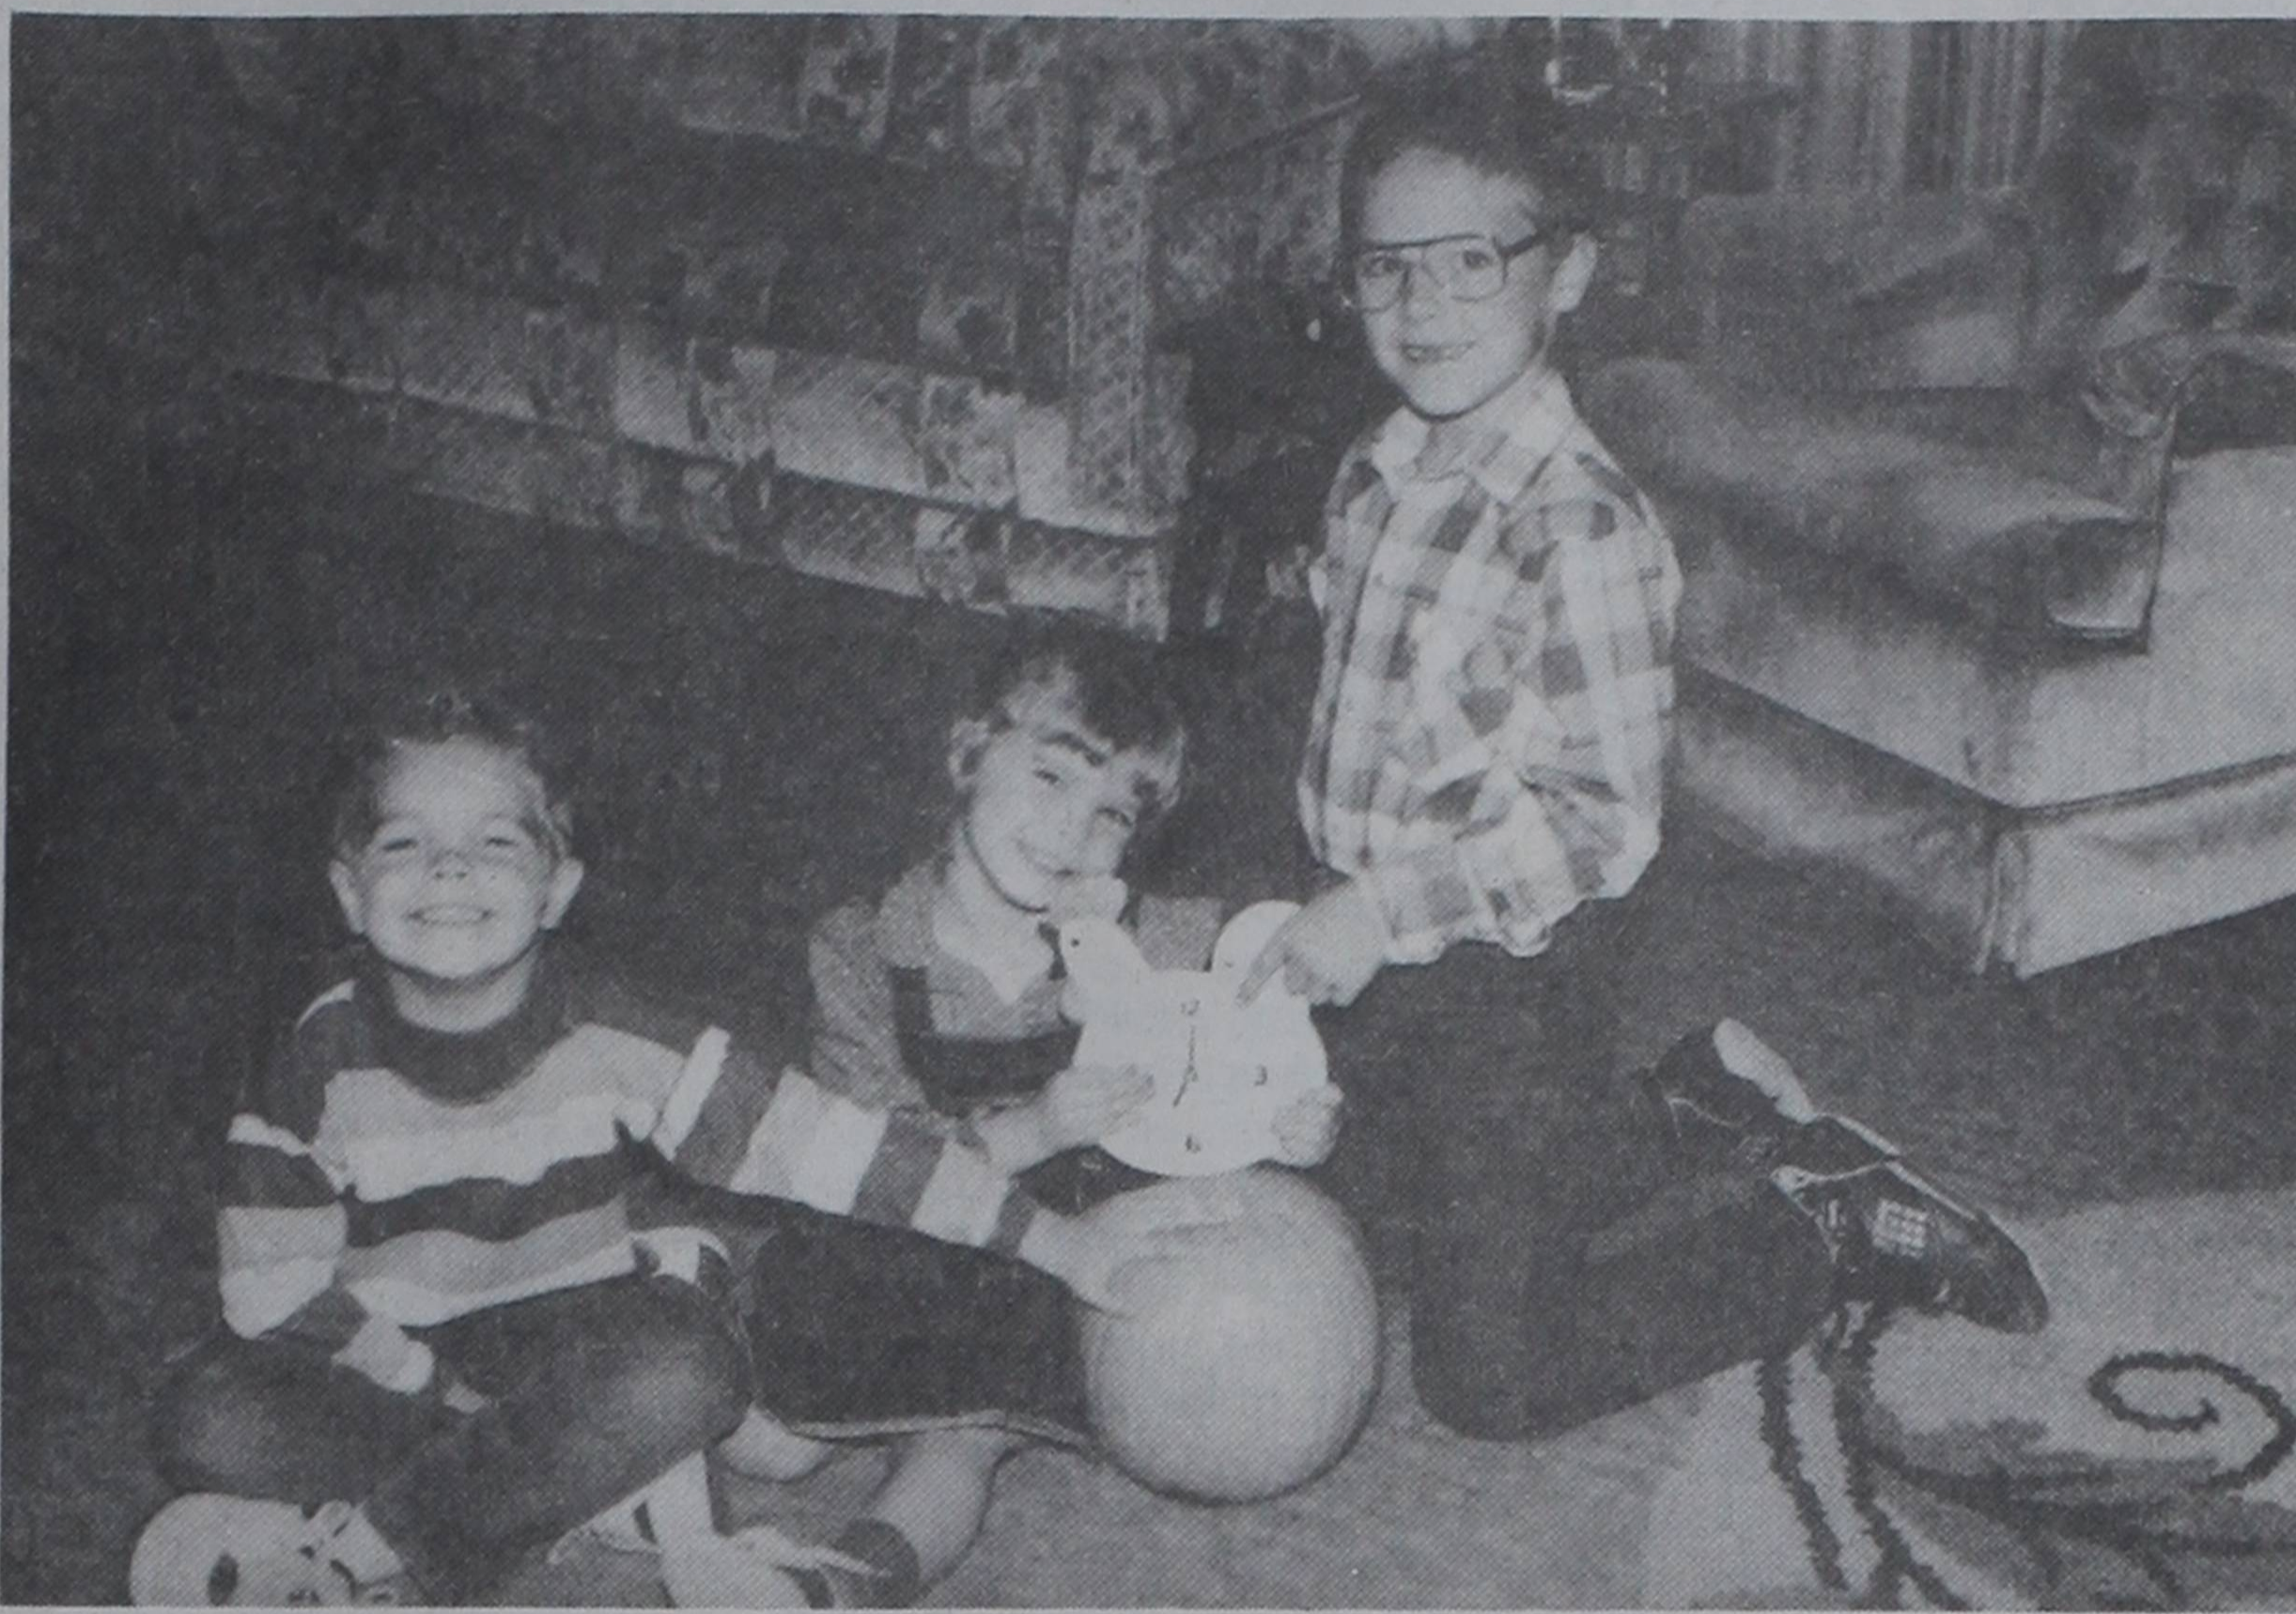

Of course, the real "trick" is then perpetuated upon the grown-up who answers the door and must try to figure out which of those plastic cartoon faces belongs to your child's best friends. Thank goodness for a few kids with original costumes which require only some colorful face make-up. It is a little easier to figure out who's who if you just have to look past a red clown's nose or some freckles penciled across the cheeks.

Otherwise you end up playing a guessing game on the front porch. "Now, let's see who could this be?" Pre-schoolers and kindergarten-age kids will usually blurt out their names right away, but the older, wiser ones take a perverse pleasure in telling you they are someone else.

Several years ago, before my get-up-and-go got up and went, I used to dress up as a witch on Halloween night and stand real still in the open doorway with frizzled hair, green face and an eerie light turned on. The little spooks would saunter up the walkway thinking someone had rigged up yet another mannequin and put it in the front door for the entertainment of the trick-or-treat guests. Ho, hum! Just about the time they were ready to ring the bell, I would hop into action and cackle "Come right on in, my pretties! We'd love to have you for supper." Most of them turned, screaming and ran for the cars waiting for them at the curb.

It sure solved the problem of trying to figure out which ones were supposed to get those extra special treats.

TIME TO CHANGE...Dusty, Danielle and Dallas Fleming, the children of Beth and Charlie Fleming, remind readers of the Star that Sunday is the day to set your clocks back to mark the end of Daylight Savings Time. Dusty even pats a pumpkin that he may carve out in honor of Halloween. Don't forget to change your clocks, and watch out for the small spooks next Tuesday night.

Suicide Ruled In Man's Death Here

The death of Dale Cooper, 34, was ruled a suicide by County Judge Porter Roberts Wednesday, October 25.

Cooper was discovered dead Wednesday morning in his pickup-truck about six and one-half miles southeast of Friona. Roberts was summoned to the scene and pronounced Cooper dead.

County Sheriff Rex Williams said that Cooper had apparently consumed some powdered farm pesticide which was extremely toxic.

Williams also said that authorities found what appeared to be a suicide note with the body, but that the note had gotten wet and the writing smeared, and that they were still trying to decipher its contents.

Cooper's body was discovered about 1.5 miles south of FM 2397 on a dirt road.

Funeral services were conducted Friday, October 27 at the First Baptist Church of Muleshoe with Rev. Barry Bradley officiating.

Burial was in Muleshoe Cemetery, under the direction of Ellis-Blackwell Funeral Home.

Cooper was born May 6, 1955 in Friona. He had lived in the Muleshoe area before returning to Friona about ten years ago. He worked as a farm laborer for Gene Welch of the Black community.

Survivors include one son, Johnny Dale Cooper of Muleshoe; his mother, Geneva Cooper of Friona; three sisters, Barbara Jean Woods of Perryton, Gail Roberts of San Bernadino, California and Patsy Nabours of Friona; and two brothers, Jerry Cooper of Friona and James Cooper of Portales, N.M.

Indian Summer Lingers

The Friona area enjoyed another week of pretty, Indian Summer weather during the past week, with high temperatures reaching at least 80 degrees on five days.

For the month of October, the mercury has now climbed to 80 degrees or above on 16 days through October 27, including three days of 90 degrees or more. This compares to 1988, when the temperature reached into the 80s only seven times, and no days above 90.

However, the area missed out on any precipitation this week. Only .12 inches of moisture has been registered in October, as conditions have become extremely dry.

Herring Injured In Crash

Richard Lynn Herring, 25, was injured just west of Friona last Sunday when the light plane he was flying crashed shortly after takeoff.

Herring was taken to St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo, where he was diagnosed as having a broken back, leg and jaw. He was undergoing surgery late this week on his back.

Investigators said that Herring was attempting to take off from the landing strip at Champion Sprayers when he lost control of the plane and it crashed.

"The plane just stalled. He was probably 200 feet in the air when it stalled, and just didn't have time to bring it out of the stall," said Glen Herring, Richard's father.

The younger Herring was flying a 7DCAB Citavra two-seater plane. The crash occurred at approximately 6:25 p.m.

Department of Public Safety troopers Trey Ellis and Rick Uribe investigated.

Band Rates 1st Division In Marching

Friona High School's Chieftain Marching Band received a "First Division" rating at the District 1 UIL marching contests last Saturday at Borger.

The band had good comments generally, with special commendations for the soloists.

Bands from Canyon and Tulia were selected to advance to the area marching contest at Wichita Falls.

"We were not as sharp in our marching as we have been at recent games," said Jim Parker, band director.

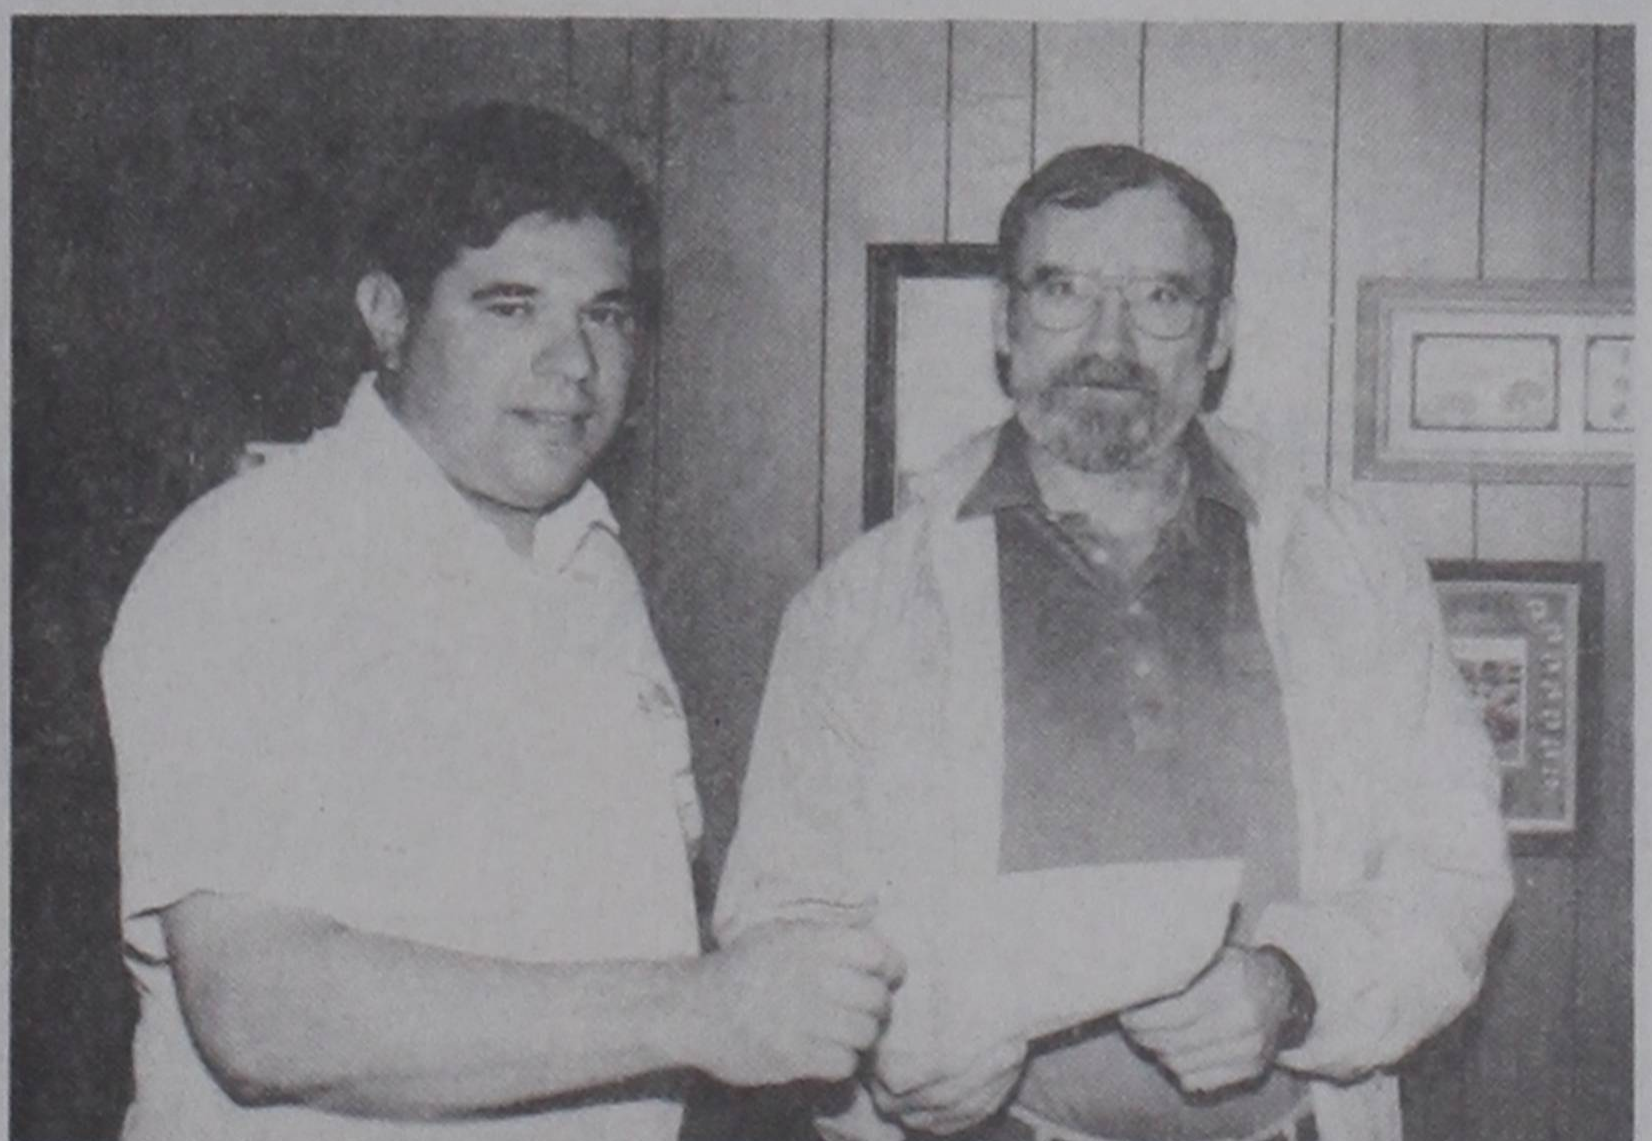

The band will now set its sights at winning the "Sweepstakes" award, having garnered its first division in marching.

Boosters Have Caps

The Friona Booster Club is selling Booster Caps, which are available for $10.00 each. The caps will be sold at the home games, and were to be sold at the chili supper Friday.

The Boosters also will be sponsoring the dunking booth at the Halloween Carnival next Tuesday. Those attending are urged to come by the booth and dunk their favorite coach. Members of the coaching staff will be "targets."

The Boosters were planning to have a line of members for the football players to run onto the field prior to the game.

“Emotions”

Street Smarts

By John Ingram Walker, M.D.
David Mahoney, in his book, Confessions of a Street Smart Manager, gives some creative ideas for getting and staying ahead. Mahoney says that learning from our mistakes and the mistakes of others is what street smarts is all about. He quotes Kingfish in “Amos 'n Andy”: “Good judgment comes from experience and experience comes from bad judgment.” Here are some tips from Mahoney on cultivating good judgment.

KNOW THYSELF. Self-knowledge, the beginning of wisdom, ultimately involves taking responsibility for your own behavior. You learn not to blame others or circumstances. You bear better the things you can't change. You learn to avoid burning up energy in anxiety or self-pity. You eventually learn that no matter how much you try to please, some will never love you. You learn how to take charge of your own life.

AVOID THE SEVEN DEADLY SINS. Those with good judgment resist envy, pride, covetousness, lust, anger, gluttony and sloth. Emerson wrote, “Envy is ignorance,” because those who are envious are ignorant of their own abilities and powers. Rather than envying another's strength, find your own and build on it. Pride destroys because it prevents us from asking others for help. When we covet we fail to appreciate all the blessings we have been given. Lust drains energy and perverts our higher powers. Anger destroys relationships. Gluttony causes loss of the competitive edge. Sloth leads to carelessness and disorganization and loss of our most precious commodity, time.

INVEST IN PEOPLE. Good judgment requires recognition that we must depend upon each other to survive and prosper. The old joke tells of a man sitting on the roof of his home with flood waters rising, praying to the Lord for help. On two separate occasions boaters came by to take him to safety and a rescue helicopter hovered overhead, but he refused help from all three saying, “The Lord will save me.” In Heaven, after the man had been swept away and drowned by the rising waters, he challenged the Lord for failing to rescue him. The Lord responded, “But I tried. I sent two boats and a helicopter.” The joke reminds us that we often don't see or appreciate help that others can offer us. The wisest people actively seek help, information and advice from others.

BE A GOOD ASSISTANT. Good judgment requires focusing on doing something for others. If we focus on giving, on service, we enrich and ennoble our own lives. The law of compensation assures that we will always reap exactly what we sow. Many entrepreneurs begin with an idea that will better serve others that their own company had rejected. The entrepreneur finds a way to do something cheaper, faster, better, easier and newer, for others. As Brian Tracy says, “Ask yourself over and over, ‘what can I do to increase the value of what I do for other people?’”

BEWARE THE EXPERTS. Good judgment tells that persistence can overcome all obstacles. Rows and rows of biographies show how successful people accomplish their goals with persistence and courage, denying the experts who said, “It can't be done.” As Thomas J. Watson, the founder of IBM said, “To be successful, double your failure rate.” The more times you fail you will find that you will learn and the faster you will achieve success.

It appears that two school boys who live in the country, had missed their bus the evening before and had spent the night at the company's sales room with Roy Williams, who was in charge as night man that night. About 5 o'clock Thursday morning while Mr. Williams was outside attending to his duties, the boys proceeded to light a fire in the heater and allowed too much fuel to get into the fire pot of the stove causing flames to cover the stove and fill the building with smoke.

50 YEARS AGO—OCT. 13, 1939

Dear Bill:
The Graduation-1989 Celebration was a big success. Much of the credit for the success of this endeavor goes to you. Without your support through donations and discounts, we could not have offered the students so many options for food, fun and prizes during this all-night party.

We were extremely pleased with the attendance. Sixty-eight per cent of the graduating class was there and most of them stayed all night. Many parents and friends were there, also.

We should like to thank you on behalf of the senior class and the entire community of Friona for donating the advertising for the party.

Thank you again.

Methodist Anniversary November 5

Plans are progressing for the 75th anniversary celebration by the First United Methodist Church of Friona, scheduled on November 5.

Those planning to be here November 5 include the Reverends Albert Lindley, Bobby McMillan, James Price, Sammie Ellis Rainey, Clifford Trotter and Archie Echols.

The Sunday morning service will begin at 10:50 a.m., and the speaker for that service will be Rev. McMillan. As a part of that service, the church's new stained glass windows will be dedicated. Rev. Lindley, who is presently serving as District Superintendent for the Methodists, will be in charge.

A catered meal will be served to all church members and friends at 12:30 at the Friona Junior High Cafeteria. K-Bob's of Hereford is catering the meal.

Rev. Echols will direct a program of "Memories," which will cover particularly the church's last 25 years, beginning at 2:30 p.m. back at the church.

Several musical numbers will also be presented. These will feature the men's quartet, the ladies trio and the children's choir. Members have been asked to bring their old pictures, to be displayed at the church.

A reception will be held at the church's fellowship hall following the afternoon service.

All members, former members and friends are invited to attend the special activities to celebrate 75 years of Methodism in Friona.

Module XIII: Improved Annuities Provide Tax Shelters

The new tax laws have made it necessary to be more selective in investment planning. Since the tax advantage of long-term gains has been eliminated, it has become more important to protect these gains and to allow them to compound under some type of tax shelter. New and improved insurance annuity contracts offer a safe and reasonable way to accomplish this.

The old annuities, as many remember them, were insurance retirement vehicles that required either a lump sum or periodic deposit. When the annuitant decided to begin withdrawals, a regular income was guaranteed for a specific period or for life. When that period ended, any money remaining in the account went to the insurance company. Although this eliminated the worry of outliving an income, the rates were generally low and once annuity payments began, they never increased. Although the annuitant was assured a lifetime income, inflation caused the buying power of that income to drop each year.

The variable annuity, however, offers a possible solution. It combines the benefits of a mutual fund with the advantage of deferring taxes under the shelter of an insurance policy. You have the choice of several stock, bond and money-market mutual funds as your investment, and returns vary based upon how well the funds perform. Upon death, the insurance company pays your heirs the greater of the current market value or the amount of your contributions. This guaranteed death benefit is very appealing to those who want the returns available in the market without subjecting their heirs to a loss of principal.

The key to selecting a variable annuity is to scrutinize the management and investment results of the variable accounts. They vary considerably from company to company, so results will depend upon your choice.

If you select to switch mutual funds within the annuity, you don't have to pay taxes on any gains you might realize at that time. Taxes are due only when you begin withdrawals from your annuity. One negative feature is that the government imposes a 10 per cent penalty on withdrawals taken before age 59½.

Most variable annuities are offered with no initial sales charge, which allows all of your original investment to go to work immediately. However, to protect the insurance company from loss should you decide to remove your deposit before they recoup their expenses, there's generally a declining contingent deferred sales charge. This charge is based upon the number of completed contract years between the date the deposit was made and the date withdrawals begin. It varies with different insurance companies.

Variable annuity contracts are generally straightforward and simple to understand. However, should you receive your contract and decide it does not meet your needs or contains some unacceptable features, most insurance companies allow up to 20 days to return the annuity for its current market value with no surrender charge. This option is clearly stated in your contract.

At a time when tax shelters have all but disappeared and investors are looking for safe and reliable options to IRAs, the variable annuity contract offers an alternative you may want to consider.

JOHN DUKE

Duke Wins 2-3A Title C-Country

Friona High School's cross country team competed in the district meet last Saturday at Lubbock's Mae Simmons Park.

Senior John Edd Duke won first place overall in the boys' division, winning the three-mile race in a time of 16.57.

The Chieftains did not enter the meet as a team, but Duke was racing for individual honors. He will now be eligible for the regional cross-country meet in Lubbock.

For the varsity girls, Martha Aronce led the Squaw runners and placed 16th overall with a time of 13.58. Sheryl Dement was next for Friona and placed 24th overall with a 14.23 clocking. The varsity girls placed fifth in the district race, with 128 points. Dimmitt won the meet.

For the junior varsity, Renee Martin led the Friona runners with a time of 14.11, and Holly Grimsley was next with a 15.10 effort.

Only three teams were entered in the JV girls division, and Tulia edged out the Squaws for second place in the standings.

Lazbuddie Home Ec. Stage Plays

Mrs. Barbara Lust, home economics teacher at Lazbuddie, has shown that student plays can be a very effective teaching device. She recently conducted a unit in her Life Management Skills and Comprehensive Home Economics classes in which she allowed the students to create and act out skits over handling conflicts, development tasks of teenagers, emotions, family crises and communication.

A parent video-taped the plays, which took place in the home economics room. Mrs. Lust then showed the video to several of her classes, using it as an instructional tool as she pointed out realistic problem-solving skills that were shown and discussed alternative solutions to some of the conflicts presented.

Mrs. Lust said that the students really enjoyed working on their skits and then watching themselves perform. She stated that she was pleased with the student participation and interest, and she feels that it was an effective way of not only teaching the unit, but also that the video helped to instill self-confidence in the students who performed.

Mrs. Lust said that one of the major goals of the state's home economics program is to work toward improving each student's self-image. She said that although home economics still teaches cooking and sewing, the program has adapted and includes many areas of home life, including managing money, resolving conflicts, preparing for marriage, child development, etc.

Mrs. Lust stresses that there is an emphasis on building self-esteem, and she makes every effort to incorporate it into every teaching unit. She encourages both boys and girls to take advantage of home economics courses, and indeed, she has many boys in her classes and enjoys their participation.

ROCHA RAMBLES...Ismael Rocha (30), was the offensive star for the Friona Chieftains in their game against Tulia last Friday. Rocha scored twice on runs, once on a pass. He gained 122 yards rushing and caught five passes for another 86 yards to keep the Chieftains close. (Photo by Rick Ellis)

Chieftain Offense Improves Drastically

Last week, Coach Tommy Moss made a couple of changes in his lineup that he said prior to the Tulia game he "felt would help the team move the football."

The changes must have been just what the doctor ordered, and "Dr. Moss" saw his team's offense improve by 270 per cent from the previous week.

The only drawback was that the team still lost—41-29 to the Tulia Hornets—but following the game, you'd have thought that the Chieftains had snapped their losing streak.

What seemed to fire the team up even more was a challenge at halftime by Coach Moss, after Tulia tried its darndest to run up the score on the Chieftains after leading 27-0 in the second quarter.

"I couldn't believe L.G. (Wilson) would try to run up the score like that," said Moss, who reportedly challenged his team to go back out and do something about it.

What the Chieftains did was to score on four of their five possessions of the second half. They struck for 208 of their 352 total yards in the final quarter alone, gaining 132 yards of that through the air.

So fired-up were the re-vitalized Chieftains that they drove 75 yards with only 1:10 left on the clock for their final touchdown, unreeling 11 plays. The final play came as the horn sounded to end the game.

Catalyst for the dose of offense was sophomore tailback Ismael Rocha. Rocha scored three touchdowns, gained 122 yards rushing, and five passes for 86 more yards.

"I felt like Ismael would boost our offense, because he's been doing a good job on the JV. But I never dreamed he would do that well. He's good at cutting and finding the 'seams.' We haven't had a back on the varsity who can make the cuts all year, like Rocha did Friday," Moss said.

FUMBLES COSTLY

But for the second week in a row, turnovers proved extremely costly to the Chieftains, who lost three fumbles and had one pass intercepted.

The Hornets turned the mistakes into 20 points. If you deducted these from the final score, Friona would have scored a 29-21 win.

Friona had good field position after holding the Hornets' first drive, but gave the ball back on their third play from scrimmage on a fumble.

The Hornets cashed in four plays later when their sterling sophomore, Mike Smith, went in from three yards out. Smith added the kick for a 7-0 Tulia lead.

Friona couldn't move, and Tulia took over and drove 63 yards in ten plays. Smith again got the TD from the three, and his second high floating kick made it a 14-0 game.

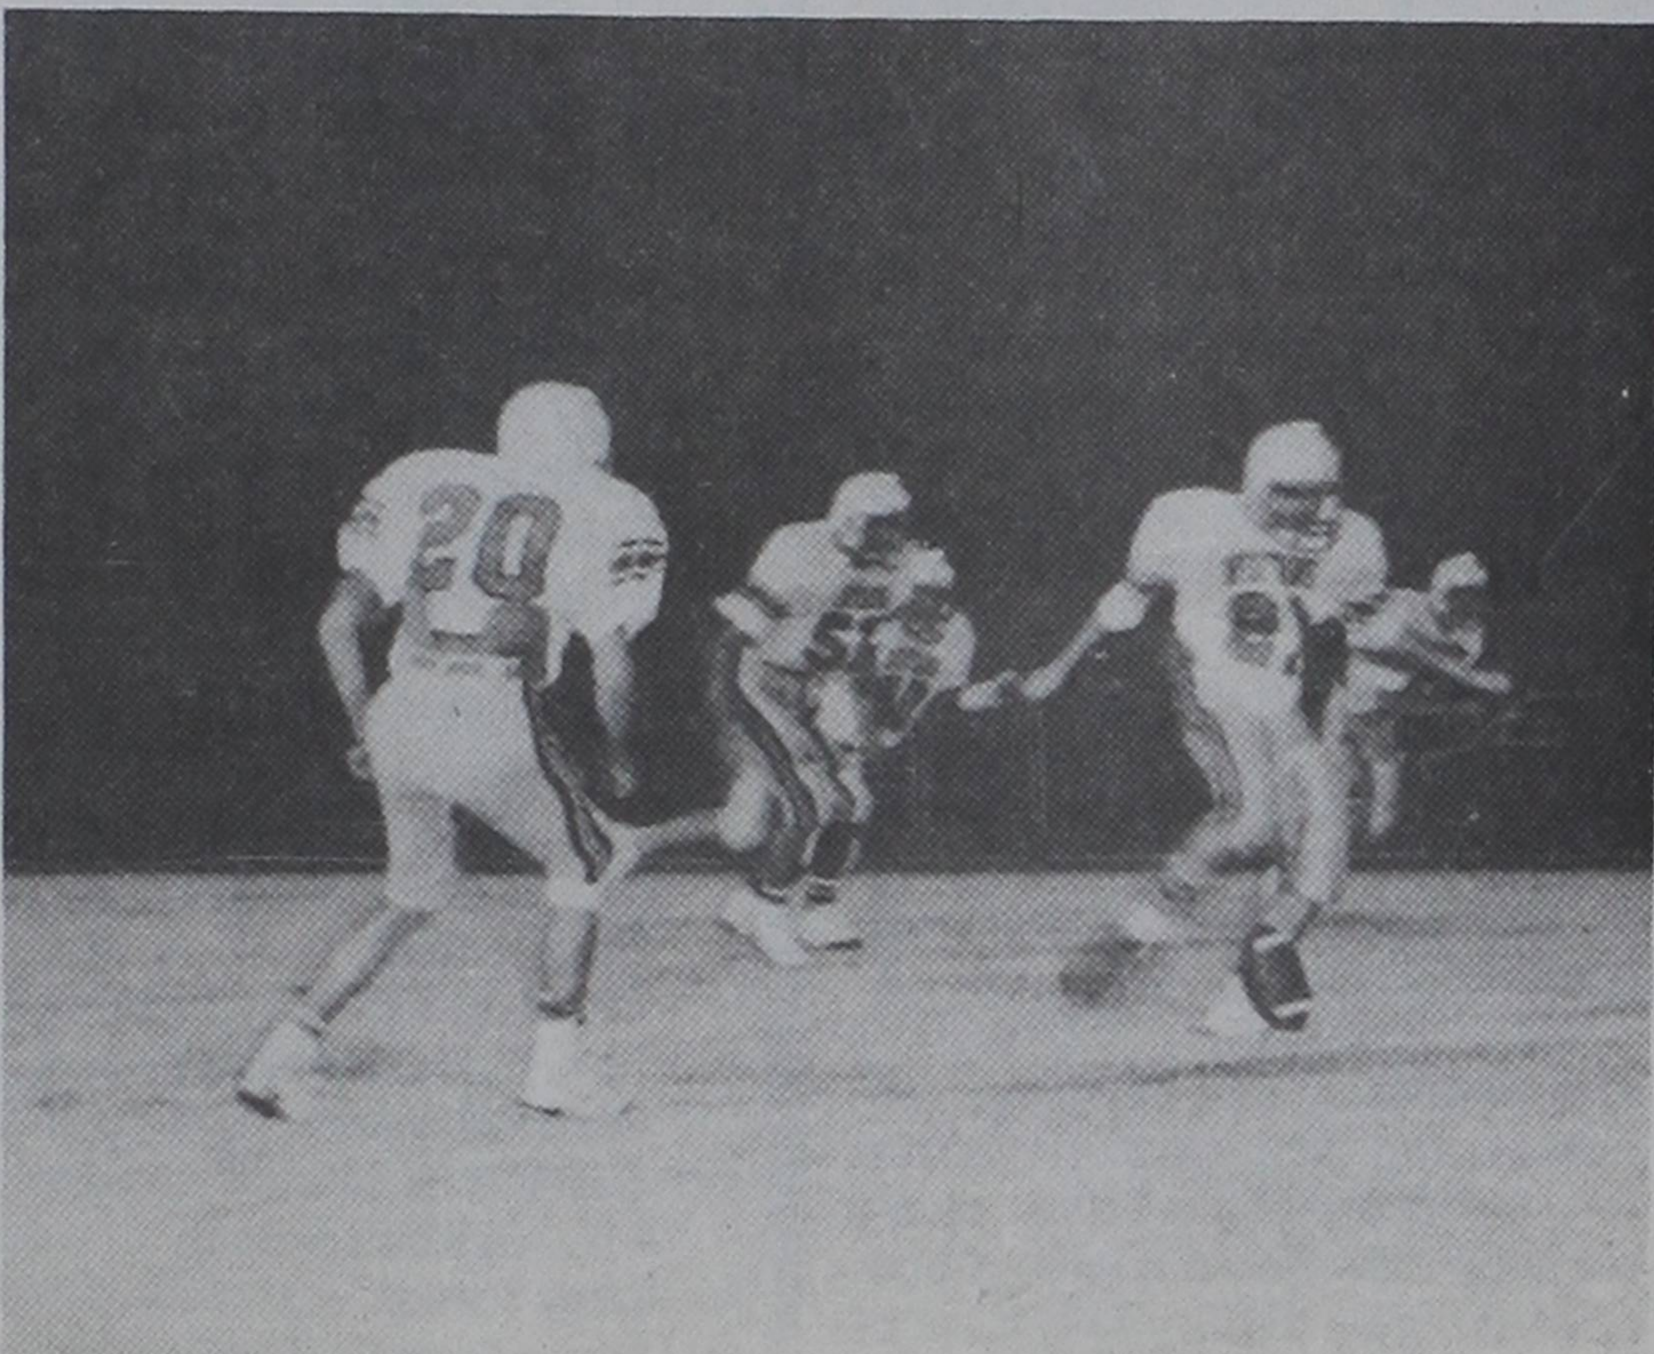

Tulia's second score came with 1:18 left in the opening quarter.

Friona drove to the Tulia 20 yard line early in the second quarter. Rocha ripped off a 20-yard gain, and Andre Duran ran 12 yards, before Brian Brogden hit Rocha with a 20-yard pass to the Hornet 20.

On a third down play, Brogden's pass hit Mike Sutter in the shoulder, as he didn't turn quickly enough, or the Chieftains might have scored a touchdown.

Mike Scott's 43-yard field goal attempt fell short.

Tulia drove 60 yards in only four plays, with Smith getting outside for the final 20 and a touchdown. His kick hiked Tulia's lead to 21-0.

The Hornets blitzed Brogden and recovered a fumble on the second play, and a 21-yard pass gave Tulia a 27-0 lead with 1:56 left in the half.

Tulia tried its best to get into the end zone again before halftime, but couldn't make it.

Friona came out the second half a determined team.

Jeff Stowers' kickoff return of 37 yards got them going. Then Rocha had gains of seven, nine and nine as the team moved downfield.

Finally, Rocha went in from the one, and Scott's kick made it a 27-7 game 5:00 into the third quarter.

Tulia responded, though, as Smith's fourth touchdown gave the Hornets a 33-7 lead.

Tulia faced third and 16 and executed a quick-kick. The play worked better than they could have dreamed when Stowers tried to field the ball and Tulia claimed the fumble at the Friona 35.

Five plays later, Pacheco's score hiked Tulia's lead to 41-7 on the first play of the final quarter.

But the Chieftains kept their heads up.

Brogden lofted a 43-yard bomb to Stowers, good to the Tulia six, and three plays later, found the 155-pound flanker in the end zone for a touchdown. Brogden passed to Sutter for two points and a 41-15 score at the 8:47 mark.

Getting the ball back, Friona drove 50 yards in just eight plays. Brogden passed to Stowers again for 16 yards, then Rocha got outside and outran his defenders to the flag from 12 yards out.

A pass for points failed to click, but the score was more respectful at 41-21 with 3:13 left.

Tulia ran three plays and punted. Friona got the ball back at its own 25, but there was only 1:10 left on the clock.

On a big fourth down play, Brogden hit Rocha for 20 yards and a new set of downs at the Tulia 45 with just 23 seconds left.

Two plays later, he again hit Stowers for 35 yards and Friona had it at the Tulia ten.

Two passes fell incomplete, and only one second showed on the clock.

Brogden fired the ball as the horn sounded, and Rocha put the finishing touches on a great night with a superb catch, being hit a hard lick by a Tulia defender in the end zone.

Brogden to Sutter worked for the PATs and the final margin. The two teams had amassed 70 points, 29 of them in the final quarter.

Canyon Man Wins Football Contest

Don Max Vars of Canyon was the weekly winner in the Friona Star Football Contest this week, as six contestants led the way with scores of 15.

Vars was declared the winner when his tie-breaker score for the Dallas-Kansas City game missed the mark by only 12 points. He picked the Chiefs to win, 31-21, and the actual score was 36-28.

Dennis Field won second place, after missing the tie-breaker score by 15 points. His score prediction was Kansas City 32, Dallas 17.

Mike Raymond took third place in the weekly event, having picked the Cowboys to win, 21-18 and missing the score by 25 points.

The top three contestants received cash prizes of $10, $7.50 and $5.

Vars' misses were Amarillo-Coronado, Texas-Arkansas, LSU-Kentucky, Tennessee-Alabama and L.A. Rams-New Orleans.

Field missed Littlefield-Dimmitt, Amarillo-Coronado, Arkansas-Texas, Tennessee-Alabama and the Rams-Saints.

Raymond mis-fired on Littlefield-Dimmitt, Dumas-Frenship, Amarillo-Coronado, LSU-Kentucky and Chicago-Cleveland.

Also picking 15 games right but finishing down the line on the tie-breaker system were Jerry Bentley, Mike Schueler and Jerry Hinkle.

In the race for grand prize, Koby Rogers clings to a one-point lead in the overall standings with a score of 94. Rick Carr is second at 93. Patricia Carr, Dianne Morgan and Tommy Moss are next with scores of 92.

In all, 17 contestants have scores of 90 or more. All of the scores of the top contestants may be found elsewhere in this issue of the Star.

Contestants are vying for the grand prize of $100, to be awarded at the conclusion of the 13-week event.

Prairie Acres Party Line

By JANICE STOWERS

It will now be my pleasure as the new secretary at Prairie Acres to report to you what we have done through the week. I am excited about working with our residents and staff members and they have all gone out of their way to make my first two weeks most enjoyable. Our construction is clicking right along this week. We have watched them move load after load of dirt, pour concrete, and now are framing up the addition to our dining room. Our residents are very intrigued and are making excellent "supervisors."

We would like to extend our thanks to the Agee family for their donation of clothing. I am sure that we will put it all to good use. Velma Gresham, Carolyn Pruitt, Mercedes Williams, Reba Holt and several others are regulars in our craft department. We certainly appreciate their time and continued donations. Thanks to all of you who have donated jars this week. We are still in need of lace for various projects that we have underway. Any help would certainly be appreciated.

The Friona Methodist ladies deserve a big "Thank You" for their help with hair and nail care this week. A special thanks to the Congregational Church for our Sunday service.

Carol Cole will now be working directly with our residents on a one-on-one basis. She will be specializing in exercise, encouraging fluids, and extra activities. Our residents love Carol and certainly look forward to her personalized attention.

We have two new residents this week. Amelia Murillo is from Hereford and we are certainly glad to have her. We also welcome Mrs. May Ardissonne. She is the sister of Joe Talley and the late Calvin Talley. She is a delightful woman, so come by and welcome her to our community.

Life is what you make it, so make the most of yours.

TWIRLERS...The Friona High School twirlers have been a highlight of the Chieftain band's halftime show this fall. In the back are Renee Martin and Tena Willard. In the front are Oleta Burch and Sheryl Dement.

Reception Honors Ann Martin Sun.

Guest of honor at a Martin family dinner at noon Sunday in the home of Junior and Pat Martin was Ann Martin, who will be moving to Creston, Iowa at the end of this month.

Fifty-one members of the family of the late Calvin Martin, including his three children and their spouses, Junior and Pat Martin, Clarence and Wynona Martin, all of Friona; and Marilyn and Eugene Nidey of Campo, Colorado, were present.

Grandchildren and their spouses, who were present with their children, were Freddie and Martha Turney and J.E. and Kathy Stone, Slaton; Keith and Jac'Que Martin, Lubbock; Jerry and Donna Martin, Farwell; Susan and Jeff Harkey and Linda and Donnie Klinger, San Angelo; Roylin and Lisa Jackson and Bobby and Brenda Grogan, Campo, Colorado; Larry and Judy Martin, Loren and Jackie Martin, Mike and Rita Martin and Greg Martin, all of Friona.

In the afternoon, members of the Tenth Street Church of Christ hosted a reception honoring Mrs.

Martin. Refreshments of coffee, punch, fruit tidbits, assorted fruit breads and cookies were served.

About 150 people attended. Out-of-town guests signing the guest register were Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patton, Clovis; Marie Hinds, Hereford; and Carol Dean Huggins, Farwell.

It's A Boy For Couple

Roy and Orpha Robledo became parents of a baby boy, named Brandon Aaron, on October 15, 1989, at Clovis High Plains Hospital, Clovis, N.M.

The newborn infant weighed seven pounds, one and one-half ounces, and was twenty-one inches long. He has a sister, Britney Ashley, who is eleven months old.

Grandparents are Maria and Pedro Jass of Friona and Javier and Maria Robledo of Bovina.

Great-grandparents are Pedro and Lupe Jass of Lampassas, and Jose Sammarron of Friona.

Town Talk

By Geneva Williams
Call 247-3249 With Your News Item

The weeks fly by so fast. It seems only yesterday that I wrote last week's column and now here it is time to do it again. Where does time go?

Years ago, my sister, Frances and I corresponded regularly and this got to be a "thing" with us and we would tell each other that if we found TIME going in either direction to slow it down, and it has not gotten any better through the years, but I would not want it any other way.

We should learn to make the most of every day that we have, for this is the only TIME that we are promised. Live it to the fullest and never let an opportunity pass by without taking advantage of it.

Friona Woman's Club enjoyed a book review by Lu Ann Hough on "It Only Takes A Minute" and she reminded us of just how much we can accomplish in just a minute. How about you making your list of what you can or can't do in just a minute, or just how much trouble you can get into in "Just A Minute." You might be surprised! Try it.

My sister, Elizabeth Ferguson, and I were glad to hear from Clair Massey at Olive Hurst, California and to know that she and her family were alright and did not have any problems during the earthquake.

Her daughter, Joy and son Ben, are living with her and she tells us that her other daughter, Judy and Kevin and family, are back in the States from the Philippines and are now stationed in Arizona.

Betty Louise and Lloyd Rector and Lauretta Brookfield made quite a trip to western points recently. They enjoyed the "bright lights" of Las Vegas and also at Laughlin, Nevada; Bull Head, Arizona; Lake Havasau on the Colorado River, the London Bridge and at Parker, Arizona, they dropped in on Edith Brookfield Fleming, who has a fabric shop there.

Edith could hardly believe her eyes or ears when Lauretta said she had come all the way just to have dinner with her. It can be shocking when you are not expecting your kinfolk, but Edith was glad to see them and enjoyed the visit.

At Phoenix, this group enjoyed the dinner theatre performance with the Halbrook family. The Halbrooks manage this dinner theatre and they have been friends of Betty Louise and Lloyd for the last four years at Zapata.

They also enjoyed the Petrified Forest (Betty said they did not take any of the wood, either) and the Painted Desert and while at Las Vegas they enjoyed the Liberace Museum and some of the other shows.

On their way home they enjoyed the flea markets at Albuquerque and Apache Junction. Betty Louise thinks she just can't pass one of these places up. She might miss something!

Sheri and Ricky Keaton and family have moved from Amarillo to Garland. Ricky is employed with Employers Insurance Company. Sheri is enjoying being at home with the family for the present and is trying to get settled in their new home. Come back to see us! * * * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spooner and son Ed visited in the Rector home over the weekend. These are some more friends of the Rectors from ten years of friendship at Zapata. The Spooner family is from Greenville, Michigan and spend the winter months at Zapata.

On Monday morning, Betty brought Mrs. Spooner by the Friona Star office to meet publisher Bill Ellis. Mrs. Spooner is somewhat interested in genealogy, and is a subscriber to the Ellis Cousins Newsletter, which is published on a nationwide basis here in Friona by Bill and Carol Ellis for everyone with an "Ellis" in their background.

Mrs. Spooner thought it was quite a coincidence that she had contacts in Friona with two local families. * * * * *

Julia Fairchild flew with Wesley and Rhea Foster to Chicago where Julia visited with one of her Zapata friends, Helen Scott. Helen lost her husband recently so she and Julia have a lot in common and lots of good memories to relive.

Julia said they got to see the beautiful fall colors and some of the points of interest at Plainfield, Illinois. She was there two weeks while Wesley and Rhea visited with their daughter and family, Ray Nell and Ed Lonvick and two children.

They always enjoy making this trip and especially to visit with the family. While there it snowed and this was a different climate for them. The three also flew back together. * * * * *

And, it gets to be such a small world. At the DFW Airport, the Fosters and Julia had a visit with Janet Buske.

Janet met her mother, Ruth Kerr from San Antonio, and they flew to Altadena, California for the eightieth birthday for Dr. Melba Miller, a sister of Mrs. Kerr and Janet's aunt. Melba is a doctor of education. Janet's sister, Elaine Wall also made this trip. Elaine is from Boerne, Texas near San Antonio. They were gone a week and B.K. played mother and father to their children, assisted by Grandmother Myrl. * * * * *

I read this somewhere and it makes sense to me (but I don't do it every time):
Buy lemonade from any kid who is selling.

*Anytime you can VOTE on anything--VOTE--(especially Nov. 7 on our amendments).
Choose having time over having money (?)
Always take the scenic routes.
Give at least something to any beggar who asks.
Give money to all street musicians.
Always be someone's valentine.
When the circus comes to town--be there!*

Sounds good anyway. Let's try it. And with Halloween just around the corner, we can make some child happy to put "something" in their sack. * * * * *

Sue Rector has had a fabulous vacation. She drove by herself to Panama City Beach, Florida and spent three weeks with her brother, Jack Armstrong, and as she said, "The All American Boy" and from the sound he is just that.

He has lived there for 37 years and is retired from the Navy. He has worked in the building of Disney World and parts of Cape Kennedy. He enjoys the ocean and is now building his own boat and has invited Sue back to go with him on some trips. She wonders about this, but Sue said it would not take much to make a beach bum out of her.

She thoroughly enjoys the beach and the water there. She went to Punta Gorda, Florida to visit Ted and Cathy Faires. This couple "stood up" with Sue and Charles at their wedding.

You can imagine the visit they had and Sue babysat for the Faires' children when they were young. Sue visited Ft. Myers and Maples and other places of interest and as she said you can never see it all, but maybe next time.

It took her two days to drive the 2,000 miles down there and the same time coming home. On the return trip, she drove the beach line, Biloxi and Gulf Port, Mississippi and at Gulf Port, she visited the Jefferson Davis home, since Jefferson Davis is an ancestor of Sue's, but as she said it is about the same as all of the older homes you visit and yet was of special interest to her.

Sue said that her brother cautioned her about Hurricane Hugo and for her to be cautious about it, but Sue said Hugo stood her up and she did not have any weather problems. Thanks, Sue for sharing such a nice trip with Town Talk. * * * * *

To be successful does not mean you are the BEST--
But that you DID YOUR best. * * * * *

Town Talk (Geneva Williams) enjoyed visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lovell from Lubbock. He is doing the supervisory audit for the Credit Union and Geneva always enjoys visiting with the Lovells when they are in town. Mr. Lovell has been a federal auditor for Credit Union and Geneva has learned and enjoyed the Lovells through the years. * * * * *

*My heart is filled with love and peace.
My world with joy and goodness.* * * * * *

June Floyd is BACK IN FRIONA and we are so glad to have her home with us. She will be writing Town Talk for us for awhile, so call June with your news, or if you cannot get June, call me and I will get the news to her. Welcome home, June and it is good to have you back with us! * * * * *

And it is with regret that we said "farewell" to our friend, Ann Martin, last Sunday. Ann will be moving back to Iowa where she came from to be near her daughter. We shall miss her, but Ann it has been a real pleasure to have known you. May the future hold only happiness for you! * * * * *

Mrs. J.T. Gee called to tell us of two Friona young men who were mentioned in the Texas Tech paper--Brian Hall and Jim Bob Jones. It is always nice to hear of Friona young people who have gone on to make a name for themselves. Brian is the son of Doris Hall and brother of Roxanne Hurst and Jim Bob is the son of Bob and Ouida Jones. * * * * *

This about tells the story for this week, and we hope to be hearing from you with your travels and happiness later on.

M. Baca Attends Annual Convention

The National Council of Catholic Women, a nationwide federation of over 8,000 Catholic women's organization, concluded its 44th biennial convention recently at the Atlanta Hilton and Towers in Georgia.

The convention theme, "Turning Toward the 21st Century," was inspired by NCCW's new long-range plan, which was endorsed by the 1,800 delegates attending the meeting.

Sister Thea Bowman, a Franciscan Sister of Perpetual Adoration and an acclaimed educator, evangelist and gospel singer, gave the keynote address which focused on celebrating the diverse gifts of all women and the gospel directive to love one another.

Workshop presentors addressed issues which are part of NCCW's current activities: pro-life legislation, spirituality for women, land stewardship and leadership development.

Two convention resolutions were adopted. The first affirmed NCCW's commitment to Respite, the federation's volunteer program for caregivers of the elderly. The second resolution addressed initiatives in several states for rederenda in favor of assisted suicide and NCCW's dedication to alert and activate its membership against these legislative measures.

Elected to succeed Mary Ann Kramer of Lucan, Mn. as president of NCCW is Beverly Medved of Kalispell, Mt.

Attending from this area were Alta Mae Hartman of Happy, Amarillo DCCW president; Matilda Baca, Friona, Amarillo DCCW vice president and Hereford Deanery president; Juanita Brower of Pampa, Amarillo DCCW secretary; Marj Huval of Borger, Amarillo DCCW public relations; Flora Ezzel of Borger, Amarillo DCCW organizational; Ida Morales of Amarillo, Guadalupe organization president.

Also, guests, Pat Wolfe of Borger; Marie Rentfrow of Borger; Doris Jones of Borger; and Marcella Helbert of Pampa; Belinda Roberts of Stratford, Borger Deanery president; and Vickie Rubalcaba of Amarillo, a guest.

The convention started on September 27 and concluded October 2.

Supper To Benefit Firemen

The Lazbuddie Fire Department EMS Service is holding a chili supper to raise money for a new ambulance on Friday, November 3 at the Lazbuddie School Cafeteria from 5:30-7 p.m. and following the Lazbuddie-Bovina football game.

The menu features chili, beans, crackers, peppers, cobbler, tea and coffee. Pies and cakes will also be auctioned off as a further fund-raiser.

Cost is $5.00 for those ten and over, and $2.50 for children under ten.

"We want to urge everyone, especially those from out of town, to attend the supper and help our fund-raiser," said a spokesman for the benefit.

Earthquake Donations Accepted

ATTEND CHURCH

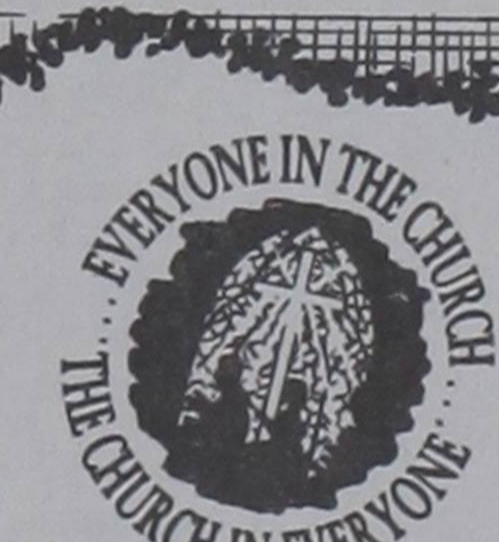

"For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also"

Gooby Ghost

Hallowe'en is a very old holiday, dating back hundreds of years. It began in the Church and to the Church it really belongs, for it is properly All Saints' Evening; hallow meaning holy or sainted in old English. This ancient Holy Day was appointed as a special time to remember relatives, friends and Church leaders who had died. The ghostly part came in when the day was separated from its Church context and became only a day for Jack-O'Lanterns, Hobgoblins and Ghost stories. The truth of this day remains even though we have forgotten what the day means. What a comfort it is to be able on this day and every day to think of one's departed loved ones as being safe in the presence of a loving God. The teaching of the Bible, taught lovingly by the Church, is that nothing either present or to come, either visible or invisible, even death itself, can separate us from God our Father.

Is something wrong with your life? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Father. He alone can forgive and reassure. Through the church God has redeemed the provisions and protection of His forgiveness and to God. Everyone should be in the church and the church in everyone.
