GLAD TO JOIN YOU FELLOWS—Mayor-elect Arlie Lowrimore places a hand on the shoulder of a couple of his councilmen and says he's glad to join them. The two, Johnny Kendrick and Henry Chisholm, were re-elected for another two year term each on the City Council. Lowrimore was elected mayor by a substantial majority.

By JERRY STOLTZ

Monday's duster was a lulu, but such a storm is better than a tornado. Mrs. E. L. Boots' sister lives in Drumright, Okla., and her version of the twister was "the lights went out and we heard a roaring noise. . . We all got under a heavy dining room table. Then everything got quiet and we looked out to see the stars overhead instead of the house." It had blown away from around them. It was a bad one though, and they'll be telling stories about it for quite a while. And until it rains the Commissioners say there isn't much that can be done about the roads. Carl Stephenson says that instead of picking smooth spots to drive, it is now a matter of trying to pick the little holes instead of the big ones.

Mayor-elect Arlie Lowrimore missed the Pony League meeting Tuesday night unintentionally. He said the phone started ringing at 7:10 and he didn't get away from it until almost 11.

Russell Winton started general face lifting of Cobb's this week. The job started at the front curb with the sidewalk and may go clear back to the alley, but full plans haven't been announced yet.

Our story on the highway death of Frank Lloyd, 32-year-old Brownfield negro last week was true, but we didn't have all the details of the accident. Lloyd and J. D. Roberts, a white man who was seriously injured, were trying to outrun Yoakum county officers. The race hit up to 115 mph and was run by the fleeing car with complete disregard for the safety of other motorists, said the officers.

Pursuit started at the state line, went into New Mexico and See NEWS-VIEWS, Page 2

Elect Lowrimore Over Loudermilk

Arlie Lowrimore was elected mayor of Brownfield and aldermen Johnny Kendrick and Henry Chisholm were re-elected to office in a strong voter turnout Tuesday. Lowrimore received 566 votes to 295 for his opponent F. A. Loudermilk. Write-ins for mayor included 10 for retiring Mayor C. C. Primm and two for Kendrick.

The 877 votes cast was short of the record 1,177 votes cast in the 1952 City election. There were 123 votes cast in 1954. In the city council race Kendrick received 634 votes, Chisholm 425, Henry Cargill 291, E. M. Ballard 220 and J. E. Turney 118. The next regular City Council meeting will be on April 19 and it is customary to install new officers at this meeting, according to Mayor Primm.

Juveniles Keep Judge in Turmoil

Just as though two earlier juvenile cases, a drunk negro driving a tractor and various other cases weren't enough to keep the county judge busy, he had a fist fight just outside his window this week to do it up good. A couple of teenagers came to blows on the courthouse square and the brawl ended with the bloody participants "on the carpet" in Judge Herb Chesahir's office.

"Lack of something constructive to do," caused both of the cases that came into juvenile court said the judge. The first was two eight-year-olds who broke several window panes out of East Ward school and entered the building where they painted the walls.

Two other boys, 10 and 12, broke into the Cubs Den during the Monday sandstorm and took $19.25 in change, some ice cream and candy. Their mother found the money and marched the boys down to talk to the Judge. She returned the money and paid for the other things.

Parents of the boys who broke the windows also paid for damages. The drunk negro who was driving a tractor on the Levelland cut-off was fined $50 and costs. A $75 fine plus costs was also handed a man for passing a worthless check Wednesday.

Louis Peeler was elected mayor at Meadow and councilmen D. B. Jones and Herman Horschler were re-elected. Bo Morehead was also elected to the council for the first time with 28 votes. Horschler received 20, Jones 21, and Peeler 31 of 32 cast.

One write-in ballot was cast for F. A. Wilson for mayor, and several received write-in votes for the council.

Judge Proposes Recreation Board

A County Park and Recreation Board to administer over such affairs, subject to the approval of the Commissioner's Court, was proposed by County Judge Herb Chesahir this week. In agreement with the City Council and Commissioners, the Judge and Mayor C. C. Primm announced the board which was selected as a representative body of the entire county, would include Mrs. O. D. Kennedy and Mrs. J. M. Teague, W. N. (Doc) Lewis Jack Eastham, Louis Peeler, G. I. Simms, L. J. Richardson and Jerry Stoltz. The Judge and Mayor will also sit as ex-officio members of the board, he explained.

The group is to organize in a meeting at 4 p.m. Tuesday. Most of them were also present this week for a preliminary meeting during which the Judge outlined some of the problems concerning the park and swimming pools in general that the group should consider before their next meeting.

Let Remodeling Bid For School Cafeteria

Hammock Bros. Construction Co. of Lubbock was low bidder on the project of remodeling East Ward school into a cafeteria and was awarded the contract by the Brownfield School Board Thursday. The Lubbock firm bid $73,480 and agreed to complete work in 150 days if materials don't prove to be a bottleneck. This means it will be ready for the Junior High-West Ward students when school opens if all goes according to plan.

School Elections Are Set for Saturday

School Board members will be elected in all four Terry county school districts Saturday. Voters will have plenty of candidates to select from in every case except for County School Trustees where only one candidate announced in each precinct. H. H. Harred is unopposed in precinct one and B. F. Finley in precinct two, both for re-election as county trustees. Boxes for this election will be at Union and Brownfield for precinct one and Meadow and Brownfield in precinct two.

The Brownfield ballot will list James Martin, T. A. Hicks, Crawford Taylor, Monroe Rowden, H. B. Thompson, L. V. Alexander, Howard Hurd and Noah Lemley. Alexander and Thompson are candidates for re-election.

Dollar Day Prize Winners Announced

Ten persons not only took advantage of Dollar Day bargains in Monday's high winds and dust, but will also receive $10 gift certificates at Brownfield stores.

The winners included Mrs. Ralph Simmons, Rt. 3 at Cobbs; Mrs. A. V. Black, 419 N. Bell; Collins; Mrs. Elbert Green, Rt. 2; at Dunlaps; Bonnie Ruth Lindsey, 1012 So. 4th. Fair Dept. store; Mrs. A. L. Morris, Box 466 at Fenton's; Mrs. R. B. Perkins, Rt. 2 at Fields; Mrs. Glen Hart, 15 N. Bell at Furr Food; Mrs. C. W. Collier, 1001 Reppito at Klein's.

FINAL RUSH Sales Boomed On License Plates

Last day license plate sales Saturday provided County Tax Collector's office personnel with plenty of business. An even 500 passenger car tags were sold on the final day, plus numerous other registrations. The county topped all previous years in total registrations with 4,186 passenger cars, 924 commercial, 684 farm and 85 truck-tractors.

In 1955 there were 3,752 passenger cars registered through the same period of time. Commercial totaled 685 and farms 792 in 1955. The drop in farm and increase in commercial is partially accounted for by the enforcement of the state law requiring signing of affidavits that a farm pickup is used solely for farm purposes. This means that if a pickup is used for even a fishing trip it can't be registered as "farm," but must be "commercial." That simple explanation caused many farmers to just grin and buy a commercial license for their pickup.

Sales started at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and held steady until 8 p.m. A few late arrivals made it during the next three hours that the office was open.

Wellman will have a contest between the three members who are candidates for re-election and three opponents. Carl Golden, D. B. Oliver and Elmo Adair are running for re-election and new candidates are W. H. Carmichael, R. L. Womack and N. R. Marley. Union will hold their election in the usual write-in manner according to County Superintendent Elmer Brownlee. Brownfield voters will cast their ballots in Brownlee's office in the courtroom and Wellman, Meadow and Union polling places will be at the schools.

Complete Plans For Paved Road North Out Of Prentice Field Into Hockley

(LEVELLAND)—Hockley County Commissioner Jim Preuit says he expects a contract to be let "sometime this spring" on a new highway from southeast Cochran County into Yoakum which will give the Levelland area direct access to new oil developments in the Prentice and Tokyo fields.

Preuit says that the project has already been approved by the State Highway Department and that Cochran and Yoakum counties are working on obtaining right of way. Preuit says he talked early this week with the resident engineer for the project, who is working out of Brownfield, and that the engineer says plans are about complete.

A total of close to 14 miles of paving will be needed to join an existing farm road, which runs south out of Whiteface past Girlstown, with an existing paved road in Terry County.

Preuit says there is a little over eight miles in Cochran and about eight miles in Yoakum County. When it is completed, it will give a through highway straight from Whiteface to Seagraves and open one of the "largest areas in West Texas not served by a paved road" Preuit says.

Jaycees Push Plans For Livestock Show

Brownfield Jaycees ironed out additional details late Wednesday for their upcoming Terry County Junior Livestock Show. The 12th annual event will be held April 13-Friday—in the Lions Baseball Park.

L. G. Smith, newly elected Jaycee president, said this morning that the event would be a premium type of show and that only the packers would bid. During the sale, which will get under way between 1 and 2 p.m., the calves will be sold in groups of prime, choice and good. Hogs probably will be classed in two groups.

Funds from the sale will be pooled and then apportioned among the exhibitors, FFA and 4-H youths, on the basis of their animals.

Premium money is being donated by a number of Brownfield firms, said Smith. Names of the firms will be listed next week. Jaycees will ready the ball park Tuesday night. Robert H. Black of Texas Tech will begin judging the animals at 10 a.m.

Fire On Joseph I O'Neill Location Burns Close To $100,000 Worth of Equipment

One man was seriously burned, and others narrowly escaped injury in a flash fire on the Joseph I. O'Neill drilling location about five miles north west of Ropesville Monday morning.

Cardinal Chemical Co. crews were sand-fracturing the well when a valve gave way and oil spewed onto the hot manifold of one of the engines.

J. W. Trammell, closest man to the explosive part of the blaze received burns on his back, legs and arms. He was reported in fair condition Wednesday. Extensive damage was done to three Cardinal Chemical Co. units and to a Bum Gibbons swabbing unit. William H. Bostick, 703 N. Bell, and driller on the Makin Drilling Co. crew that was on the rig said they had just moved two big Le Roi engines off the location the day before. However the third engine was severely damaged as were the blowout preventer and gear box.

Mobile radio units manned by Jess Mitchell, Mid-Continent Supply fieldman who happened by the location just before the fire started, and by Cardinal Chemical brought aid from the Ropesville Fire Department. A Halliburton unit was also called out of Brownfield, but it didn't have time to get there before the damage was done. "Off-the-cuff" damage estimates at the fire ran close to $100,000.

GREAT DAY—Saturday marked the opening here of two telephone exchanges, Wheatley and Osborn, in the north part of Terry county. In the upper panel, 3-year-old Bill Spain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spain, farming 3 miles west of Needmore gin, holds a delightful conversation (3-year-old style) with his playmates (lower panel), Randy, 4, and Karren, 3, children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beasley, farming 1 miles west of the Spains. List Toll Charges For New Exchanges

General Telephone Co. Division Manager J. L. Kemper Monday released the toll charge rates from the Brownfield exchange to the now completed Osborne and Wheatley exchanges in the northern half of the county.

Charge from Brownfield to the Wheatley exchange for a station-to-station call will be 20 cents, and person-to-person will be 40 cents. Toll charge to an Osborne exchange station will be 15 cents and person-to-person will be 35 cents. All of those charges are on their regular first three minutes toll basis.

Toll charge on an Osborne to Wheatley call, or vice versa, will be 20 cents station-to-station and 40 cents person-to-person for the first three minutes.

March Reflects Upswing In Building, Postal Receipts

Thirteen March building permits totaled $100,000 and postal receipts also showed a gain during March to nearly "normalize" these two indices of the local economy.

January and February postal receipts were both below normal, according to Postmaster Joe Shelton. However March business increased enough to offset the declines and to show a 1.2 percent increase for the March quarter.

The March quarter this year totaled $19,062.88 compared to $18,819.02 for 1955.

The 1956 building total now stands at $317,350 compared to $503,250 at this time a year ago. However some big building is due to start sometime soon according to City Secretary Jake Geron. This will include the Presbyterian Church building program announced last April and estimated at about $200,000.

Seven new homes amounting to $98,575 were listed among the 13 permits and the remainder were for alteration. The complete list includes the following:

- Grady Goodpasture, 1011 E. Tate, a 161x45 foot brick and tile residence with garage and swimming pool, estimated at $45,000.
- Sawyer Graham is building at 1316 E. Tate. The building permit for the 96x26 foot masonry and garage was $13,500.
- Glenwood Homes is building a $6,200 residence with attached garage at 1406 E. Cardwell.
- F. R. Cates is building a $10,000 residence at 1307 E. Lons.

Three houses were to be moved in, one estimated at $7,500 at 1005 E. Harris, another at 1204 S. Third, $875 and 806 S. First, $600.

Johnny Benson is building a steel structure for wholesale and retail battery sales at 203 Seagraves Road, $3,000.

Mrs. A. E. McBroome at 902 E. Hester, has had a garage and utility room added to her home, $3,520.

Frankie Szydoski cut the front off his building and remodeled at 310 South First, $5,000.

Nick's Cafe added an entrance foyer at 201 S. First, $575. The Church of God is building a frame parsonage at 406 S. Third, $3,500. Millard Martin took out a permit to add to his house at 1210 E. Hill, $1,000.

AT LONG LAST—The formal opening here Saturday of the Wheatley and Osborn telephone exchanges brought release from partial isolation to more than 250 rural families in the north part of Terry and the extreme eastern portion of Yoakum counties. Cost to each family was the $50 subscription fee and the $5 monthly maintenance fee. The exchanges belong to the Puka-Lambro Telephone Corporation, Inc. Toll-free service to Brownfield is in the offering. At present, the cost is 20 cents. In the picture above, Mrs. Herman Wheatley of Johnson community, discusses a recipe with a friend in Brownfield. "What peace of mind this new service gives all of us in this part of the county," said Mrs. Wheatley, whose husband was instrumental in speeding work on the system — it is named after him.

OUTSTANDING — Brownfield Junior Class members voted Janel Bragg and William Smyrl as the most outstanding students in the class in the recent annual spring elections. They will be so featured in the Cub's Den.

PIRATE STYLE—Ann Griggs and escort Bob Smith are embraced by a healthy skeleton at the recent Future Teacher's Association banquet at Jesse G. Randal cafeteria. Theme for the banquet is obviously Pirate style.

Wellman Students Entertain Lions

Students from Wellman High School presented the program when the Brownfield Lions Club held their regular meeting Wednesday noon.

The students who performed were winners of the district Interscholastic League meet held in Meadow last week and will represent their school at regional meet.

The program and performers were Charles Goza, who read the poem, "Hiawatha" (Longfellow); Martha Goza, who read the poem, "The Creation" (James Weidon Johnson); Pat Runnels who gave the recitation "Roofs" (Joyce Kilmer); and Jerry Carmichael who spoke extemporaneously on a subject chosen by Lions club members, "Will the Democrats Win in 1956?"

Joe Satterwhite reported back from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention Friday with some interesting facts, and so did Bob Hoey from his Washington trip.

Along the same line of thinking Cong. Jim Wright told Joe that it is probable in time to come that plastic will replace 60 or 70 per cent of the steel.

Bob heard a nationally recognized authority say that by 1966 we won't think in terms of atomic energy, but that we will be converting the sun's energy for heating, power, etc.

Order of Rainbow Met Monday Night

Approximately 25 members attended.

HIGH NOON (SHORTLY THEREAFTER) — Although vicious winds laden with dust and sand whipped the area all of Monday, it was at 2:11 p.m. that the worst part struck. The view above is looking west on Hill street from in front of the News-Herald office. The post office is barely discernible. Klein's, just across the street in front of the post office, is less so. As shown above, the situation called for car lights and careful driving. There were no reports of damage, although lungs, eyes, ears, noses and throats of persons out-of-doors suffered.

Stanford Rites Held Saturday in Plains

Final services for P. G. Stanford, 88, first attorney for Yoakum county, who died Friday in Treadway-Daniell hospital, were held Saturday in the Plains Methodist Church, with Rev. Roby Havens, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Plains Cemetery, under direction of Brownfield Funeral Home.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. J. J. Kendrick of Lubbock, and several nieces and nephews.

Stanford died about 5:25 p.m., following a three-day illness. He had been a retired rancher for the past 15 years.

Born in Alabama, he went to Yoakum county and became its first county attorney in 1908. He also was the area's only lawyer at that time. He served as county attorney until 1934.

J. W. Hogue Rites Will Be Held Friday

J. W. Hogue, 77, a retired farmer and former justice of the peace died at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday after a long illness. He came to Terry County in 1919, and farmed until becoming justice of the peace, which office he held for seven years. He retired because of health in 1954. He was a member of the Baptist Church here and a native of Navarro County, Texas. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Jones Weathers, pastor, and Rev. James Tidwell, pastor of the Methodist Church, and the Rev. Bill Spreen of First Christian Church conducting the services. Survivors include his wife; a son, Howard Snyder; two daughters, Mrs. Elva Benton, Lubbock, and Mrs. Lura Brown, Brownfield; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Pallbearers will be Wayne Brown, Royce Hogue, Jimmy Benton, Harley Rogers, Carl Hogue and T. C. Hogue. Honorary pallbearers will be Lonnie Rhyne, Jess S. Smith, Martin Line, Andrew Cooper, Leonard Lang, Herbert Chesshir, H. M. Pyeatt, Crawford Burrow, Ocie Murry, Smith Murry, Lee Hulise, Edgar Richardson, Ferrel Brigrance, Henry Cargill, Malcolm Thomason, Fred Snitker, Carl Stevenson, Lee Bartlett, Horace Fox and Earl McNeill.

Little Leaguers Will Register Thursday

PAGE SIX Brownfield News-Herald, Thursday, April 5, 1956

Monahans has named Bob Henderson of Chillicothe as head coach replacing Joe England, who recently resigned. That means three of the eight coaches in 6-AA last fall won't be on the sidelines this year. Of course one of them, George Zeller at Seminole, wouldn't have anyway since they aren't going up a notch to AAA. Crayton Alpine also stayed in AA with the same coaches.

Spring football practice starts here next week. Coach Doug Cox and aides will have a lot of work to do in a short time according to stories out of Kermit and Pecos where spring practice is already over.

Along with football talk Big Spring is planning a new football stadium to seat about 10,000 persons. It is to be a joint venture with the city, high school and Howard County Junior college.

Howard County Junior college plans to become a senior college and to field a football team too many years from now.

Prizes are stacking up at the Country Club for the annual South Plains API Scholarship tournament May 11 and 12. The prize committee is aiming at something near $2,000 in prizes, all to be won in "blind-bogey" style.

API members are the only ones eligible to enter and it doesn't cost much to join (see Cleo Barnett's Tournament entry fee will be $3 and that includes the Friday evening barbecue. Play will be for nine holes and in foursomes.

Brownfield golfers scored 303 strokes in the SPWGA match at Lubbock Wednesday. Other team totals are Lubbock CC 295, Hillcrest 298, Plainview 299 and Levelland 316. Brownfield is defending champion.

Those playing from here include Jane Shirley, Mary Jo Hardy, Evelyn Cruce, Mary Stretch, Dorothy Kirschner, Gwen Henderson, Barbara Duke, Virginia Zorns and Marion May. Evelyn Cruce had low net with 76 in the championship flight and Virginia Zorns was low in the third flight.

Nicholson To Head Terry Pony League

David Nicholson is president of the newly organized 13 and 14 year old Junior Baseball League that will correspond to the national Pony League. However the group voted against national affiliation or the first season at the Tuesday meeting at the Junior High.

Nicholson's board will include vice-president Jerry Stoltz, secretary N. L. Mason and player-purchasing agent Euland Laves.

Plans are to soon call a meeting of representatives from the four sponsoring organizations — First National Bank, Rotary Club, Sundown Pump & Supply Co. and Claud Buchanan — to select team uniforms, names, etc.

Boys will register sometime late this month and workouts will start in May, Nicholson said.

Mrs. King Services Conducted in Gomez

Final services for Mrs. L. H. King, 55, of the Gomez community, were held at 3 p.m. Monday in the Gomez Baptist Church, with Rev. T. L. Nipp, pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Clay Guest of Cone.

Survivors are three sons, Deryle and Leonard of Gomez, and Douglas of the U. S. Army in Berlin, Germany four daughters, Verna Lou and Mary Helen of Gomez, Mrs. Bill Ware of Point, and Mrs. Jack Brunson of Monahans; two brothers, A. E. and F. P. Thompson of Anson, and three sisters, Mrs. Ben Bingham of Abilene, Mrs. J. L. Wilson of Stamford and Mrs. T. C. Parr of Brownfield.

Burial was in Terry County Memorial Cemetery, under direction of Brownfield Funeral Home.

Palbearers were Bill Blackstock, Grady Dickson, E. V. Britton, Cliff McKee, L. V. Alexander and Alvis Patton.

Mrs. King died at 10:40 a.m. Saturday in the Seagraves hospital, following a prolonged illness. She had made her home in Terry county since 1930, coming here from Jones county.

Cubs Enter District Meets This Week

Jackie Meeks and Ellis Cox appear to be the best bets for Brownfield points in the District 4-AA (same as 6-AA for football and basketball) track and field meet at Kermit Saturday.

Meeks scored fourth in the Permian Basin Relays at Kermit last week for the one of the two Cub points. However two of the boys who finished ahead of him were from other districts, which gives him a good chance of contesting Benham of Andrews for first in this event.

Cox tied for third in the high jump with Hobbs and Colorado City entries. Patton of Seminole was the only 4-A entry to beat him.

The Brownfield Mile Relay team ran a 3:43 race to win their heat, but this was 11 seconds off the pace of winning Colorado City. However with Johnny Raybon getting in another week's work Cub chances for a lower time are good.

The 440-Relay team is also likely to score according to Coach Charley Jones.

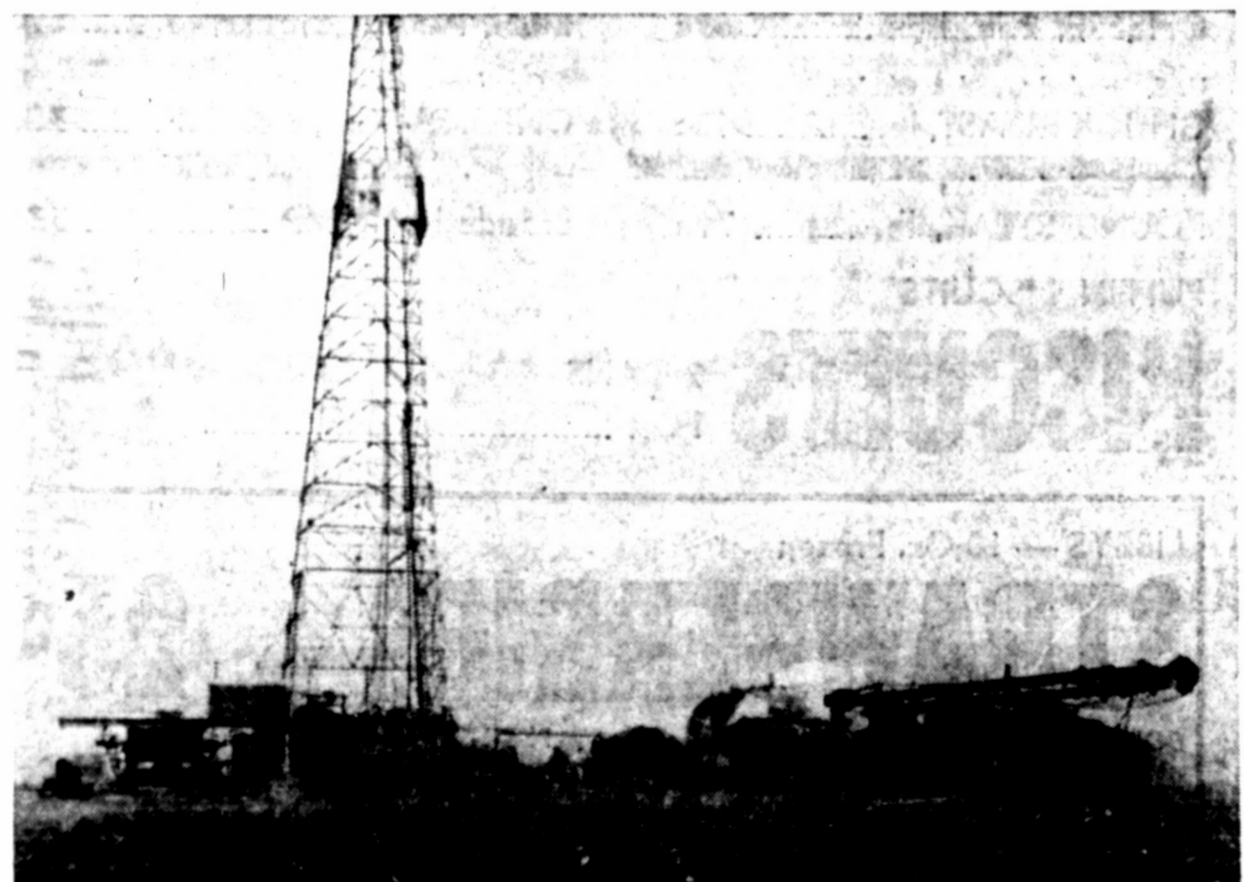

Colorado City edged out Andrews by one point in the Relays last week with Hobbs, N. M., third. Brownfield and Pecos both had 2 points while other district schools scored better in the 18 teams meet.

Cub golf and tennis teams will compete at Monahans where the host Lobo golfers are favored to win on their home course. However the Cubs are picked to give them tough competition.

Tennis is expected to be a free-for-all with no particular favorites.

FIRESWEPT EQUIPMENT — Except for the blaze from the test tank, an estimated $75,000 to $100,000 fire had burned out on a Joseph I. O'Neill location near Rupesville Monday morning. A Sand-Frac crew was pumping fluid into the well when a line leak caused a small explosion and flash fire that literally destroyed all of the equipment in the foreground, including heavy damage to the Bum Gibbons pulling unit on the right.

EASTER PRIZES—Among some 150 children hunting eggs Saturday afternoon, courtesy Easter Bunny and the Brownfield Lions Club, the trio shown above was named champions. They hold the prizes given them by the Lions. From left, they are Victor Jeter, whose parents live on Route 3; Connie Daniels, whose parents live on Route 3, and Robert Kemper, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. (Dusty) Kemper of 1103 East Cardwell. The annual Lions egg hunt was held on Arthur Sawyer's farm, northwest of Brownfield. The prize which Connie holds signifies "grand champion" egg hunter. A high wind and some blowing dust failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the youngsters. Victor and Connie admitted they were a bit windblown.

ADD UP THE COST of keeping your present car in top condition this year—new tires—engine work—paint—battery—muffler—brake linings, etc. Then talk to your Plymouth dealer about his modern financing plan; find out how it may actually cost you less money to drive home in a '56 Plymouth—the only all-new car in the low-price three.

“Let's trade! Your present car on a big, all-new, jet-styled Plymouth!”

You'll own the only low-price car that's really new. Plymouth is all new—design of the future today. But the other two low-price cars? Still about the same as last year and the year before!

You'll own the biggest car in Plymouth's field. You'd have to pay hundreds of dollars more to match Plymouth's length and roominess.

You'll own the only low-price car with positive, mechanical Push-Button Driving. Greatest advance in a decade, and only Plymouth has it in its field! Touch a button... and you're off. Fool-proof! At left, safely out of children's reach.

You'll own the top performer of the low-price three. Plymouth is fastest from 0 to 30 and 0 to 60 m.p.h., as independent tests show! Just try that new Hy-Fire V-8—with up to 200 horsepower!

So—bring your present car in now and see how much we'll allow you on a magnificent all-new '56 Plymouth. We'll surprise you! And be sure to ask about our modern financing plan—makes owning a Plymouth easier than ever!

PLYMOUTH costs less

From the day you buy it... through all the years you own it... you'll spend less on a Plymouth. That's one reason more Plymouths are used as taxis than all other cars combined.

GEE GEE'S Ghit Ghat!

Lots of the kids, no doubt, were sad to see the gaping hole east of the Presbyterian Church after the old rec hall was moved off Tuesday afternoon. However, the local Scouts will be happy to have it set out at the Legion Hall for their use. The kids in Brownfield have had some very happy times in the old building, but that's progress, kids.

Things are shaping up for several Spring events around Brownfield. First up, I think, is the Brownfield Garden Club's annual flower show to be held in Seleta Jane Brownfield club house next Wednesday (the 11th). After judging, the public is cordially invited to look over the many displays, starting at 3 p. m.

Then, Friday the 13th is the annual Junior Livestock show to be held at the Lions ball park this year. More about that next week. Later on this month, the 20th annual style show will be held at the Brownfield Country Club with the alternate Maid of Cotton, Revis Jordan of Lubbock, one of the main attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Barrier and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Barrier and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bishop and girls of Snyder visited their folks, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barrier, Sunday.

Mrs. Elvise Duncan and Debra spent a few days at Brownwood last week, visiting relatives. They went with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Joplin and daughters. They also visited their sister and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bramlett, and family in May, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dunn of Seagraves are the parents of a baby boy born Sunday morning. Mrs. Dunn is the daughter of Mrs. Major Howard.

Those on the sick list this week are Brady and Ricky Barrier, Mary Frances Young, Kathy Barrier, Debra Duncan, and Jerry Barrier. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Johnson and sons of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dunn and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunn and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dunn and family Sunday.

Five Spiritual Classics' s W.S.C.S. Program

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met in the church parlor March 26 for another general meeting to resume their study of "Five Spiritual Classics".

Monday's lesson was "The Imitation of Christ", given by Mrs. J. C. Criswell. Mrs. Ernest Latham discussed the author of the book Mrs. G. S. Webber gave the devotional.

Things going on in and around Brownfield, but if I've skipped any of you, please let me know. I'm always happy to have the news and to give your organization a little plug. Drop me a line in care of the News or call me at 2188 or 3858.

Sure sorry to hear that Johnny and Lorraine Haynes are leaving us. They'll be moving to Ruidoso to manage a restaurant and tourist lodge. John leaves the 15th, and Lorraine will follow when school's out. One consolation, however, is that they'll probably see more of their friends more often in Ruidoso than they would if they stayed here. Sorry to see them go, but hope they'll come back for a visit now and then.

All things considered, guess we had a pretty fair turn-out in Tuesday's election. Would like to congratulate Arlie Lowrimere, our new mayor, and re-elected Johnny Kendrick and Henry Chisholm. Know the boys will do their best to give us good government—something everybody can use.

Short and sweet this week. One parting shot: get out in that yard and dig up those daa-de-lions!

WML Circles Met At Church Monday

The Darlene Sears, Helen Tisdale and Ruby Wheat circles of the Calvary Baptist Church Women's Missionary Union met at the church for a monthly business meeting Monday.

A song, "Rescue the Perishing" was sung by the group. The devotional was given by Mrs. Lottie Evans. Special prayer was led by Mrs. A. W. Stowe. The closing prayer was led by Mrs. Byron Cabbiness. Those present were Mesdames Onita Poole, Alton Garner, A. W. Stowe, Byron Cabbiness, Lottie Evans, Norris Phillips, Ben Stokes, O. W. Cox, L. T. Redding, Ray Mullings, and Oscar Decker.

Visitors over the Easter holidays in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bynum were their daughter and family, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Bilder, Karen and Gary of Denison; Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Stinson of Lubbock; and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stark of Seminole.

Plans Being Completed for Annual Flower Show of Local Garden Club

Plans are being completed for the third annual Flower Show of the Brownfield Garden Club, according to Mrs. L. M. Lang, president, and Mrs. Virgil Travis, show chairman.

The show is set for Wednesday, April 11, at the Seleta Jane Brownfield Club house. After three o'clock, when the judging will be complete, the public is cordially invited to attend the show.

Entries for the show must be made between 9 and 11 a.m. Wednesday, and the show will be judged by the Standard System, with nationally accredited judges from Midland. All late entries will be put in a class for display only.

Awards will be as follows: first place, blue ribbon; second, red; third, yellow; and honorable mention, white. A sweepstakes award will be given to the exhibitor winning the greatest number of first prize points for specimens, and a tri-color award will be given for the outstanding arrangement.

The show will be classed in two divisions, Artistic Arrangements and Horticulture, with 22 sections. Included in the Artistic Arrangements division will be 'Huntin' and Fishin', compositions stressing line in an outdoor manner; Weather, compositions suggesting gentle wind, using spring branches; Appointment With Adventure, Hogarth curve arrangements; Strike It Rich, pyramid arrangement in a silver container; Recipe Round Up, composition using kitchen utensil, flowers, fruit, and/or vegetables; Notes of Harmony, arrangement expressing rhythm; Climax, composition using foliage with a single flower as a focal point; Ding Dong School, composition using nursery rhyme; Faith for Living, mass arrangement suitable for church, dramatized all-white flowers, and contains green stems and leaves permitted.

Horticulture Time, mass line arrangement using a pitcher; You Hit Parade, using niches, composition suggesting song title; Plains Talk, education soil conservation and Cossages, to be made with garden grown flowers.

In the Horticulture division these sections will be included: single tulips, double tulips, parrot tulips, Dutch iris, bearded iris, delphiniums, roses, snapdragon, and hyacinths. Each of these sections will be broken down into colors and other types.

Other committees and members are Schedule, Mmes. Cleo Barnett, H. B. Thompson, Lee Fulton, and Travis; Staging, Mmes. Clarence Lewis, Terrill Isbell, J. C. Criswell and T. G. Faulkenberry; Entries, Mmes. Alton Webb, Joe Johnson and Jess McWhorter; Arrangement, Mmes. H. B. Thompson, Le Fulton, and Cleo Barnett; Horticulture, Mmes. L. M. Rogers, J. R. Hissom and J. H. Carpenter; Judges and Clerks, Mmes. Ernest Latham, C. W. Dennison, Eulice Farrar, Joe Johnson, Kenneth Purcell, Harold Sims, and Fred Turner; Hospitality, Mmes. J. O. Satterwhite, C. W. Avery, and J. L. Cruce; Publicity, Mrs. R. W. Baumgardner; and Properties, Mrs. Bill Blackstock and Mrs. James King.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sawyer are in Temple this week.

Marilynn Miller To Wed Joe Sharp

Rev. and Mrs. Stephens W. Miller 1207 E. Buckley announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Marilynn to Joe Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sharp, 1312 N. Atkins.

The engaged couple are graduates of Brownfield High School and are now junior students in Hardin Simmons University.

The wedding will take place Saturday, June 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the Calvary Baptist Church with the bride's father officiating.

MISS MARILYNN MILLER

Revival Begins At Gomez Church

The Rev. H. Carrol Herring pastor of the Slide Baptist Church in the Lubbock association will begin revival services Sunday morning, April 8, and continue through Sunday, April 15, at the Gomez Baptist Church.

Tommy Nipp will lead the singing. Services will be conducted twice daily, at 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The Rev. T. L. Nipp, pastor of the church, has invited the public to attend.

Rev. Herring was born in Terry County, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Herring of Union. He is married, is 26 years old, and has one child. He attended Hardin Simmons University and Texas Tech.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Information "On The Line"

I was reading the other day how a person can get all sorts of things just by dialing a number on his telephone.

In New York you can get the time, the weather, or a prayer. In Philadelphia it's the stock reports. In Boston a voice tells bird watchers what's to be watched in the park.

Over in Europe, they go further. Vienna offers a five-minute fairy tale for kids. In Switzerland you can get the news in any of three languages. And a couple of places have "talking menus" for desperate housewives.

From where I sit, it doesn't matter if ideas are put out by telephone, through editorials, or in person—as long as we can take them or leave them. I happen to like a glass of beer with my supper. You may prefer coffee, tea or branch water. Well, there's no harm in "listening" to another's opinions... but if he should try to force them on you, it's always an American's privilege to simply "hang up!"

WILL you join us in welcoming Spring? Will you be our guest at the Spring Fashion Festival of the Best Buicks Yet?

We can promise you the season's most exciting vista—a fashion display of the stunning new Buicks, all in gay Springtime colors, including the very newest: Apricot and Bittersweet.

And, if such is your desire, you can blossom out in your own new Buick—in any Series, in any model—with the Springtime freshness of any of these bright colors.

But when the looking is done, there's the driving you can do—and that's the sheerest thrill of all.

For that's when you feel the solid comfort of Buick's great new ride. That's when you feel that sweet new handling. That's when you feel the silken might of Buick's lofty new horsepowers.

And that's when you feel the spine-tingling sweep of that new Variable Pitch Dynaflo*—where getaway and gas saving hit new highs at only part throttle—and where you can switch the pitch for a safety-surge of full-power acceleration that's pure thrill.

So—come be our guest—at our Spring Fashion Festival—and at the wheel of the most spirited Buick yet.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Over the Easter holidays a lot of the exes were home. One of the old steady couples from B.H.S. during their high school days seen at home were Max Black and Parilee Nelson, who are now engaged. Some of the girls kicked away and who are less often are Patsy Teague, Tom Akers, Sue Salmon, Gail Davis, Gloria Angus, and Barbara Eaves. Jack Lee as Jackie Stockton, and Lou Ann Jones, a former U.S. B. H. S. were seen riding around Sunday while their friend, Jerry Bailey, was soda jerkin' at Boston's. He was that "thing" with the red beard. After running in a track meet at Big Spring, James Gee Norris and Ronnie Swan came home Friday. Some other boys home to see their girls were Vernon Brewer to see Patti Thomas, Richard Ridgeway - Donna Jane Nelson, Earle Davis-Sheby Thompson, Tom Chisholm-Mary Ruth Venable, Gene Zachary-Barbara Whitaker, James Meeks-Carolyn Crites, Gail Armstrong-Josie Grissom, and Arnold Patton-Barbara Mary Jo Christian had company

Challis Personals

The Sunrise Easter services at the Challis Baptist Church Sunday were well attended. There were visitors from Dallas, Albany, and Brownfield.

The Women's Missionary Union of the Challis Baptist Church met with Mrs. Ruby Whitaker Monday for a Royal Service program. Mrs. Bagwell led the opening prayer and Mrs. Whitaker read the scripture taken from Matt. 28:1-8.

The program was "Tell Them of Jesus Mighty to Save". Mrs. Henderson spoke on "Still He is Waiting". Bertie Mae Bagwell spoke on "If Only They Believe". Mrs. M. L. Pate on "Touched by a Loving Heart". "The Lord Will Provide" by Martha Pettigrew, and Mrs. Carroll spoke on "Tell Jesus Will Save". The closing meditation was given by Mrs. Whitaker.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Martha Pettigrew. Refreshments were served to nine members.

Double-Duty Beauty

—WE CALL IT "INTAGRILLE"

TWO FRONT BUMPERS IN ONE... FOR PROTECTION HIGH AND LOW!

Here's what's out in front when you're behind the wheel of a new Oldsmobile! It's the exclusive "Intagrille", a full-depth bumper of sturdy steel, locked to the frame for your protection... double protection!

But that's not all! Oldsmobile did more than put a steel safety wall between you and all outdoors. "Intagrille" is out ahead in beauty as well as utility. That rugged front end is just as much an eye-catcher as it is functional. You not only get two bumpers in one—double protection high and low—but "Intagrille" instantly indicates all the Oldsmobile beauty to follow.

NEW IDEAS EVERYWHERE! Behind the "Intagrille" is overall beauty that's yours only with Oldsmobile's styling leadership! A Crosby county local of the Farmers Union was organized Monday in Ralls. The 75 persons present at the meeting elected officers and fired a broadside at the current farm programs.

Officers are Jim Reed of Crosbyton, chairman; R. H. Farris, Jr., of Crosbyton vice-chairman, and Mell D. Chery of Lorenzo, secretary-treasurer.

Membership of 100 is required for a charter, a goal workers pledged to reach shortly.

Brownfield Jaycees were pushing plans this week for their 12th annual Terry County Junior Livestock Show. Robert Baumgardner is general chairman. A total of 48 calves and 44 hogs are scheduled for showing and sale by FFA and 4-H youths. The event is slated for one day, Friday, April 13, in the Lions Baseball Park.

The head of Texas Tech animal husbandry department, Dr. Robert H. Black, will begin judging at 10 a.m. Sale of the animals is set for 2 a.m. The show will be commercial—no milk-fed stock will be entered.

Terry farmers and businessmen have been joining steadily since they organized some two months ago. Membership fees are being taken at First National and Brownfield State banks, Terry County Farm Bureau and Lewis Peeler's Farm Store at Meadow.

Fees remain the same: $10 minimum for both groups; 10 cents a bale, based on the 1955 cotton crop for farmers, and up to $100 for the businessman.

Planning Is Important Profit-Wise

Cotton growers last year set an all-time production record of 431 pounds of lint an acre. That's about one and one-half times as much as the 279-pound, 10-year average. It is only 57 per cent, however, of the 750-pound yield experts say is possible.

Farmers in 1956 are challenged to set their sights for 1½ bales on dryland and 3 bales on irrigated.

High production means less cost per unit—and it is the best way to keep income high as the support price is lowered.

High-goal planting is the first step toward high yields.

H. A. Smith, Texas A&M engineer, recommends 4 to 5 seeds to each foot of row. That means 20 pounds to the acre or about 80,000 seeds.

Says Smith: "You'll come out with 30,000 to 50,000 plants to the acre, and you'll save upward of $5 an acre because you don't have to thin or chop. Yields are as good or better than when the crop has to be thinned or chopped."

Control the weeds, the engineer urges. "Don't let the weeds rob you of moisture or plant food."

Smith continues: "Use fertilizer. You can't hope to make high-profit yields without the use of fertilizer. Follow soil tests closely. In Texas, recommendations are made on the 1½-bale level."

Control the pests. New systemic insecticides look good. Farmers can save money by early application. This schedule increased yields for J. C. Howard of Garza county from 1.45 to 2.58 bales to the acre.

Smith concludes: "It takes careful planning to get big cotton yields. However, with a break from the weather, farmers can get the kind of production which will maintain cotton income."

ANNUAL SHOW SET — The 12th annual Terry County Junior Livestock Show will be held here April 13 in the Lions Baseball Park. Approximately 48 calves and 44 hogs are expected to be entered, said Robert Baumgardner, general superintendent. The one-day event will be a commercial show, with no milk-fed stock shown. Judging will get under way at 10 a.m. by Dr. Robert H. Black, head of the Animal Husbandry Department at Texas Tech. The sale is set for 2 p.m.

Machine Helps To Dry Forage

Farmers in 1956 are getting more help than ever in beating a problem as old as agriculture itself—water.

Almost always there's too little or too much water—never the right amount. But a fairly new method called grassland farming—plus equipment that can put water on the land and take water out of a crop—is helping farmers beat these problems.

For instance, in parts of the country like the northeast where the springs are wet, there's many a hay crop ruined while it lies on the ground drying and before it can be harvested.

Forage Harvester
Now a machine called the forage harvester helps the farmer chop the first cutting for grass silage whether it's raining or not.

And if there's dry weather during the planting and growing season farmers today can call on the irrigation equipment to relieve this shortage.

Today one of the newest machines bids fair to lick still another problem—how to get the moisture out of the harvested crop fast. There are just a few hours when

Berkshire Breeders Organize in Drive To Push Interest in Registered Swine

Organized to further interest in registered Berkshire swine breeders from throughout the Panhandle and South Plains met last week in Lubbock to form the Texas Berkshire Breeders Association.

The action to organize was prompted when a number of the breeders met at the 23rd annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show.

Temporary officers of the new association are Tommie Hewlett of Amarillo, president; A. D. Wenzel of Brownfield, vice-president; Dale Price of Wilson, secretary-treasurer, and James Willis of Brownfield, reporter.

"The association invites all Berkshire breeders in Texas and Eastern New Mexico to join with us in supporting our common interests," said Wenzel.

April 28 was scheduled by the group for its next meeting, to be held on the Texas Tech campus at Lubbock.

Drop in Farm Value Of Beef Last Quarter '55

During the last quarter of 1955, the farm value of choice grade beef was down an average of nine cents a pound, while the retail price dropped only 3½ cents a pound.

A beef study by the U. S. Department of Agriculture shows that the difference between what the farmer receives for U. S. choice grade beef on the hoof and what the consumer pays for the meat has fluctuated widely during the seven years 1949-1955.

Sound Dairying Depends On Well-Kept Records

Herd records are basic to sound dairying. No dairyman, says R. E. Burleson, extension dairy husbandman, can breed, feed or manage a profitable herd of dairy cows year-in and year-out without herd records.

Right now records are especially important because of the cost-price squeeze for they permit dairymen to cut corners and eliminate inefficiencies in the business.

Burleson says most dairymen are familiar with the three methods used to obtain herd records. He lists them as DHIA, the official testing program for registered cows and private records which are kept by the dairyman. He believes DHIA records are preferred where dairymen have an opportunity to participate in a dairy herd improvement association program.

This program is now in its 50th year and has proved to be an effective tool and source of information for managing the dairy herd.

WHAT'S A SCHOOL BOARD

You Own the School System

As part owner of your school system, whether it be Brownfield, Meadow, Wellman or Union, you owe it to yourself to not only know your schools but to protect them. How do you go about this "protection?"

Start with the school board election and vote for the candidates who think as you do.

Someone might ask, "What has the school board to do with it?" The reason is that the school board sets the policies and in a general way is responsible for the education of our children. Their responsibilities include developing and improving the educational program; providing for staff personnel; providing a physical plant; raising funds to pay for all this; hiring a superintendent to run all this; and maintaining good school-community relationships.

All the superintendent has to do is translate these words into deeds . . . nothing to it, is there?

We've got eight good candidates running for the school board and the other schools in the county also have contested races with capable candidates. So whom do we elect? Pick out the wisest, the most selfless and the most dedicated and you'll have them.

Find the men who love kids and believe youngsters have the ability to learn, men who are concerned with developing future leaders and who are non-partisan to political, economic, religious and social problems. Men who have high personal integrity combined with leadership and executive ability, and who will work with and respect other board members.

Impossible? No there's several on that list.

He'll also have the unpleasant task of taking public criticism at times, and to be a good board member we don't want him to pussy-foot over issues that need facing. And we certainly don't want a fence straddler.

He's not going to make any money out of this job, and there won't be much recognition. We Americans are prone to criticize, rather than praise.

Whether this clarifies the issue or not, most of all turn out and vote for a Board Member Saturday!

Advertising Works for You--And How!

Weston Hill, advertising copy writer who is said to have talked to more consumers through advertising than any other living man, is now engaged in a project to explain advertising itself to this same vast audience. He thinks that the average consumer, though eagerly responsive to advertising, has little or no idea of just how this modern science benefits him—in guaranteed brand quality, lower prices, and rising employment that supports general prosperity.

Hill pegs down some old fallacies with the familiar and erroneous aphorism: "Let a man build a better mousetrap, and the world will beat a path to his door." Beautiful and sentimental, says Hill, but contrary to the hard facts. Whether the man is buried in the Maine Woods or the concrete jungle of New York, the world will not beat a path to his door—until it has reason to believe his mousetrap is better than any other. Just how is this mousetrap inventor to tell the world? Can he count on his friends, or word-of-mouth publicity? It's not likely he would sell very many mousetraps by these methods.

Or is it better, asks Mr. Hill, for him to find a way to tell millions—through hundreds of newspapers—all at the same time? Certainly if the local paper tells everybody in town, then those with mouse trouble will be interested in seeing if this trap is really better.

Even so, the mouse-harried consumer wonders, "Isn't this advertising awfully expensive? Won't I be paying more for the advertising than for the trap?"

Definitely no, says Mr. Hill. Advertising reduces the price because it enables the inventor to make and sell thousands or millions of mousetraps rather than just a handful. Mr. Hill asks his readers to visualize a food manufacturer busily producing a (one) box of corn flakes by hand . . . and speculate on how much it would cost, with or without sound effects and a premium for the box-top!

But when the same manufacturer can excite millions, via advertising, to eat and listen to his corn flakes, the consumer can buy a package for what the manufacturer pays one of hundreds of workers for five minutes labor.

On the savings that mass production (sired by advertising) give all of us, we could even forego that "better mousetrap"—and give our mouse some of the corn flakes.

THE AMERICAN WAY

GUIDE TO BETTER WORLD

By George Peck

(EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board of the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, PARTNERS.)

Juvenile Delinquency has been a subject that has graced or rather "disgraced" the newspaper headlines these past few years. It is hardly necessary for me to prove to the readers of this column that it is one of the grave problems facing the nation today. All recognize that it is a menace to the nation's welfare and realize that something must be done about it.

That the situation, bad as it is, is not even worse, America can be thankful to the churches, boys' and girls' clubs, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, the Salvation Army, the various service clubs and a host of other organizations too numerous to mention, that are working diligently to forestall Juvenile Delinquency and to rescue Juvenile Delinquents.

Foremost among these agencies is the Sunday School. Judging by the headlines these past few years, it is a rare exception to have a boy or girl appear in their courts who has had a record of regular Sunday School attendance.

This being the case, does it not seem reasonable that every energy should be exerted toward getting as many as possible of our youth into our Sunday Schools as regular attendants?

Recognizing this among other spiritual needs in 1940, the Laymen's National Committee was organized, as a non-profit, all-faiths corporation. Its purpose is to re-awaken religious thinking in every possible way; to conduct campaigns of public education in Bible reading and study; to encourage Church, Synagogue and Sunday School attendance.

During the second week of April each year, the Laymen's National Committee sponsors National Sunday School Week for the purpose of stimulating Sunday School attendance. This year of 1956, National Sunday School Week is to

Smile Hides True Communist Facts

American newspapers and news magazines gave prominent position to reports of the antics in London last week of Georgy Maximilianovich Malenkov, henchman of the late Communist dictator Joseph Stalin and a key man in the Communist international conspiracy to gain control of the world. New photographs showed a pudgy, smiling Malenkov mingling with women and children on London streets, being wined and entertained by high British government officials, speaking to applauding Socialist-Labor Party groups.

Malenkov was serving as Premier, immediately after Stalin's death, when the last big power struggle within the dictatorship resulted in the liquidation of hundreds of Reds once held in high favor. He was in London last week to inspect electric power installations. It was apparent, however, that his prime mission was as "advance man" for the other Communist bosses—Khrushchev and Bulganin—who are to follow him to London this spring.

People Taken In

An important commentary on Malenkov's London visit was the evidence it gave of people's susceptibility to the handshake and smile of a demagogue—even though the demagogue's smile may be a fraud on the basis of clear facts. TIME Magazine's London correspondent reported: "Scores of female garment workers hung out of windows across the street to catch a glimpse. When Malenkov raised his hand and grinned his broadest, the walls echoed with a welcoming cheer. 'He was so clean-cut,' one sewing-machine operator told a reporter later, 'he looked like an American.'"

Lord Citrine, British government official who entertained Malenkov, said of him: "A very friendly man, with a deep grasp of English cultural life." And yet, Lord Citrine

AUSTIN, Tex.—Battle lines are fast forming. The scrap for control of the Texas delegation to the Democratic national convention is a high-tension argument. Harmony is out. Now it's a no-holds-barred, toe-to-toe slugfest.

It started when House Speaker Sam Rayburn, leader of Texas' liberal-loyalist forces and godfather of the Democratic Advisory Council proposed that U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson be Texas' favorite son candidate for President of the United States . . . and head the Texas delegation to the nominating convention in Chicago.

George W. Sandlin, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, had proposed Gov. Allan Shivers as chairman.

Shivers charged that Byron Skelton, chairman of the DAC, had thought up the favorite son and chairman idea . . . and that Rayburn "is just his mouthpiece."

Shivers denounced Rayburn's proposal as a "cynical and calculated effort to divide the conservative democrats of Texas . . . an attempt to maneuver the senator into the DAC-PAC camp."

Then he challenged Johnson to denounce Liberal-Loyalist backing and take a stand for states' rights.

Johnson's answer was that he would head only a middle-of-the-road delegation. Not one "from either fringe"—either ultra-conservative or ultra-liberal.

"No one knows better than Allan Shivers that I am not a creature of the ADA, DAC, PAC, NAACP, CIO or any other group he may have named," snapped Johnson. "Nor am I an errand boy of reaction-

Verbal blasts between Washington and Austin continued. Shivers accused Rayburn of "trying to run Texas from Washington." Rayburn termed Shivers "an angry, confused, frustrated man . . . on a sinking ship." Adding "I belong to no faction but the Democratic party."

Shivers replied that had he gotten in the boat with Rayburn and Adlai Stevenson in 1952, "we would have lost the boat and the Tidelands!" He charged Rayburn with "being a Democrat first and an American second."

Shivers has declared he will not pledge himself to support "any nominee," and will hold himself free to vote for the man he considers best for President, regardless of party. "and I hope it is a Democrat."

Fencing between Johnson and Shivers was in milder tones, with Shivers concluding that he had no desire to battle with "my old friend, Lyndon Johnson." Without withdrawing his demand for Johnson to state his position on the issues, Shivers said "I would not stand in the way of Texas honoring him as chairman of the delegation or as favorite son."

Johnson has not said whether he would permit his name to be presented as a favorite son candidate or whether he would "take" the chairmanship. He has said, however, that he hopes to be a delegate.

All of which means a show-down fight for control of the Democratic State Convention in Dallas, set for May 22. Liberals have promised a contest there . . . and if they lose they will attempt to bar the conservatives from the national convention. Rayburn will be temporary chairman of the national conventionary big business or the Republican party."

Farmers who plant corn should set as their objective maximum production at the lowest possible cost per bushel. The planting of an adapted corn hybrid, says L. C. Coffey, associate extension agronomist, is a mighty important step toward achieving the objec-

Roping Event Set for April 29

Preliminary plans for a matched roping contest to be held here April 29 have been completed by directors of the Terry County Sheriff's Posse.

Here are nationally known ropers scheduled to make their appearance: Toots Mansfield of Big Spring, Troy Fort of Lovington, N. M., John D. Holleyman of Rankin, Byron Wolford of Tyler, Don McLaughlin of Fort Worth, and Sonny Davis of Kenna, N. M., Marvin Fisher of Andrews, Tuffy Cooper of Monument, N. M., Bill Lowe of Crane, Roy Wharton of Bandera, Buddy Groff of Hondo, Junior Vaughn of Elida, N. M., Glen Franklin of House, N. M., and Dean Oliver of Naptha, Idaho.

The contestants will shoot for $2,000 in prize money in the matched roping event, termed as one of the largest to be held in the Southwest—and probably the largest ever scheduled in West Texas.

In addition, jackpot contests will be held for Rodeo Cowboys Association members and amateur ropers, plus a jackpot girls' barrel race.

Posse officers arranging the April 29 event are Leo Holmes, captain; Mozell Ratliff, lieutenant; Horace Fox, corral boss; Clarence Lackey, wrangler; Allen Tredwell, secretary-treasurer; and Crate Snider, publicity director.

Posse committeemen for the ensuing year are:

And yet in Britain, say the news reports from London a royal welcome is being made ready for Khrushchev and Bulganin, and the U. S. State Department announces blandly that the cocktail is its most important "tool" in international affairs. Are the free nations compromising with evil? Decency cannot win out in this way. Our own stake is everything we hold dear.

able to the average farmer for the first time. Produced by New Holland Machine Company, New Holland, Pa., the portable crop dryer can handle practically any forage crop on the farm. And it's so portable farmers can use it to help neighbors during the busy harvest season.

Previous machines have been limited in the crops they could dry or were so big an investment they were out of the reach of the average farmer. With the new portable crop dryer the average farmer now can go a long way toward solving another of his peculiar problems—getting out of the crop the water he tried so hard to get into it at the beginning of the season.

a crop is at the peak of its quality and it should be harvested just as close to that time as possible. Modern equipment like automatic balers have helped get the crop off the fields fast, but in hay, for instance, a certain amount of moisture has to be dried out of the crop before it's placed in storage. This means leaving the hay in the field to dry out through the sun and wind. Of course there's always the chance of a late summer rain coming along and ruining it. And the slow drying process also removes some of the feeding value from the crop.

That's why farmers are looking closely at crop dryers. These new machines blow a blast of warm air through a green crop and take the moisture out of it fast—keeping almost all of its original feeding value.

Whether the crop is hay, corn, small grains or cereals, it means the farmer is getting a better crop—and he can harvest it when he wants to because he controls the drying himself.

One of these machines capable of drying many crops is now available.

HONORED LEGIONNAIRES—Of the 15 charter members on the roster of Howard-Henson Post 269, only three were able to make their appearance here last Friday night to join in the 37th birthday observance of the American Legion. From left, the trio is W. A. (Judge) Bynum, J. D. (Jim) Miller and Glenn Harris. The men accepted small mementoes made from wood in the first Legion post in Brownfield. Later, they blew out the candles on the post's huge birthday cake. (Staff Photo)

Stangel, head of Tech's Agriculture Division, was making a report on special studies his department had been asked to prepare during the last year.

"Our greatest asset is the land. Poor land makes poor people. Productive land makes prosperous people."—Anonymous.

Hail before July 1 can damage cotton plants rather severely, yet tests show that the plants can grow again and produce good yields.

Hail after July 1, even the lightest, often can do much damage. Results of hail damage experiments conducted at the Lubbock Experiment Station and at College Station indicate.

HONEST MAN. A man applying for a job was told that the company had all the employees it could use.

Low Flock Replacement Cost Ups Hen Profits

Flock replacement costs, determined by pullet costs and rate of lay, next to feed are the largest expense item in producing eggs. Therefore, says Ben Wormell, extension poultry husbandman, the cost of producing pullets is a major consideration in a successful poultry operation.

Generally, points out Wormell, pullet costs are figured on the basis of the number of days required for the flock to reach 50 percent production. At this rate of lay the pullet will normally pay a return over the current feed costs. In the 1955-56 Texas Random Sample Test the pullets averaged 172 days (24½ weeks) of age when they reached 50 percent egg production. The range of the entries tested was from 157 to 181 days.

"First and most essential, we must know the physical realities which we face. Too long have we reckoned our resources in terms of illusion. Money—even gold—is but a metrical device. It is not the substance of wealth. Soil, water, minerals, vegetation and animal life—these are the basis of our existence and the measure of our future."

—Paul B. Sears.

Terraces Pay in Bigger Crop Yields for Farmer

A spreader terrace system paid for itself in one year according to D. D. Mahon, who farms 8 miles north of Shallowater.

Mahon, who is a cooper with the Lubbock County Soil Conservation District, installed the system 3 years ago. Soil conservation Service technicians assisted with the design and layout of the terraces.

The land was sloping and had several acres of watershed above it. Mahon decided to install the spreader system to slow down the runoff and to spread the water over a larger area.

Since installation, Mahon says he has averaged about a bale of cotton and one ton of grain sorghum an acre—without from the land.

Cadillac

A Little Vacation In Every Day!

What's it like to take the wheel of a 1956 Cadillac?

If you don't already know, then we hope you'll come with us now on a little imaginary journey in the "car of cars".

Suppose, if you will, that you're in the driver's seat.

How wonderful you feel. Those deep, luxurious cushions hold you in perfect comfort—your hands rest naturally on the slender wheel—and all about you are vision ... and beauty ... and luxury.

And how quiet and restful it is! The car is so smooth and silent in operation that your only sense of motion comes from the sound of the wind and from the passing landscape.

Starting ... stopping ... turning—all are regulated with the lightest touch of toe and hand.

You simply lean back and enjoy the ride.

We've heard it said that a drive in a new Cadillac isn't really a drive at all, in the normal sense of the word. It's a time for rest and pleasure and relaxation.

Better come in for a visit some day soon.

If you should decide to move up to a Cadillac, it will be our purpose to make you as pleased with your relationship with us, as your dealer, as you are certain to be with the car itself.

The Cadillac name has long been a symbol of automotive integrity and honesty of purpose—and we make every effort to have our own business reflect the same ideals in our dealings with owners.

It would be a pleasure to see you—at any time.

BETTER FARMING • BETTER LIVING

YOUR LAND IS YOUR BANK ACCOUNT

Soil, like money in the bank, is not inexhaustible. To make sure it keeps you, you must keep it, putting more in than you take out. Crop rotation, contouring, terracing, retirement of eroded and steeply sloping land to grass or trees.

These are only a few methods the resourceful farmer uses. As the Grain Sorghum Marketing Center of this area, we take great interest in preserving and improving the soil in Terry and surrounding counties.

Interposition Approved
Complying with Governor Shivers' request, the Democratic State Executive committee has ordered on the July ballot a referendum on "interposition". This seeks a voters' mandate for the Texas Legislature to petition Congress for a constitutional amendment re-establishing and protecting states' rights.

It is an attack on U. S. Supreme Court decisions, such as the Tidelands, school segregation, federal control over natural gas, etc. which Texas conservatives have branded as an unauthorized invasion of states' rights.

Ineligible for Office?
C. T. Johnson, who testified five times under oath that he had spent "no more and no less" than $125 in traveling the length and breadth of Texas while campaigning for Lt. Governor in 1954, now admits spending $1200 more than he reported.

This exposure resulted from charges by Russell W. Bryant, Italy publisher, that Johnson could not have traveled an admitted 12,000 to 15,000 miles for $125 (or approximately 1 cent a mile).

"There isn't a standard make automobile made that doesn't cost nearly 2 cent a mile for gas alone," said Bryant. "And Johnson testified under oath that the $125 included expenses as lodging and meals."

In admitting the $1200 additional expenditure Johnson stated that he did not report any expenses under $10. State laws require the reporting of all expenditures, and the names and addresses of persons with whom more than $10 is spent.

Falsification of a campaign expense report prohibits such candidate's name from appearing on the ballot at any succeeding election.

Yarborough After Grassroots Votes
A down-to-earth intensified campaign for governor now is under way by Austin Attorney Ralph Yarborough.

His first official move was a cross-roads plea for contributions and support "from the common people who believe in the Democratic form of Government."

Ads appear this week in weekly newspapers throughout Texas soliciting one dollar or more from small-town contributors. It's a "Dollars for Democracy" appeal.

SHORT SNORTS: Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd has called for the establishment of a Texas commission to define the boundaries in which the federal, state, county and city governments should operate. Also advocated is a code of ethics for public officials—those at the local as well as the state level. Injunction suits have been filed in Gainesville by the State Bar of Texas, to restrain four non-attorneys from engaging in alleged unauthorized practice of law. Newspaperman Ed Kilman of the Houston Post is the newest member of the State Parks Board. Supreme Court Justice W. St. John Garwood, a long-time personal friend of Kilman's, administered the oath of office in a ceremony in the Governor's office Tuesday. Applications from veterans for the purchase of land are being received by the Veterans' Land Board at the rate of 500 per month.

Bowman Biscuit Co. Has New Boxcars To Carry Cookies

Supreme Bakers, the Bowman Biscuit Company, recently announced the addition of specially-designed Cookie Boxcars to transport Supreme Cookies and Crackers from the Denver plant to fifteen branch offices for distribution to grocers throughout the territory.

"This is another milestone in the progress of the Western baking industry," said J. C. Bowman, president of the baking firm. "The innovation of the Cookie Boxcars inspired Supreme Bakers to hold a territory-wide Carload Cookie Sale in celebration of our fiftieth anniversary this year. Highlight of this gigantic sale will be the introduction of five brand new Supreme Cookies."

The Cookie Boxcars, specially made for Supreme Bakers by the Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad, have a shock-absorbing plastic composition flooring to prevent breakage. Modern wall insulation protects against extremes in hot and cold temperatures, thus assuring maximum protection for the original freshness of the products and providing spotless storage for the Cookies and Crackers while in transit.
