TSCD Field Day Tour Gaining Widespread Recognition

Prominent agriculturists from throughout the state and from India joined Terry County farmers and businessmen today for a look-see at what's growing here.

It is interesting to note that on the district's official program, only three blocks of cotton were scheduled for viewing. Otherwise, the attractions were hybrid grains, summer legumes, soybeans, bindweed eradication and ensilage-cattle feeding projects.

Kenneth Purtell and Arthur Sawyer.

Emcee for the day was Alvin Davis, agricultural adviser and vice-president of Brownfield State Bank.

The district paid tribute to the following persons for their cooperation: County Agent Jim Foy; Miss Shirley Holbrooks, home demonstration agent; Loe Miller, manager here of ASC; Dennis Q. Lilly, agricultural adviser and vice-president of First National Bank; and Henry Williamson, A. R. Hodges, Bill Dugger and Marvin Whitmore, all of the Brownfield office, U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

Here are farm sites visited: Tom Pettigrew, Joe Doak, C. E. Bartley, Winfred Tucker, George Weiss, A. C. Pace, J. O. Farrar, Norval Hulse,

It might be interesting for some of you to know that Kyle Graves was president of Rotary Club when the first Harvest Festival was held in 1947.

Those present when the first HF planning committee met in the Post Office were Pete Peterman, Hiram Parks, Everett Latham (all presently living in Lubbock), Clarence Griffith, James Harley Dallas, Graham Smith and Graves.

The prize list idea was started when the president made the remark that he would give $100 in groceries, and each of the other fellows agreed to something similar.

Another grand opening this Saturday: Lindsey Hardware has moved into its new headquarters on Lubbock Highway. You'll find pictures and ads on four pages of the society section telling you all the details.

Come Saturday at Lindsey's, there'll be door prizes, free coffee and doughnuts, and some very special buys for the occasion. Rogers and Woodson (the brothers Lindsey) have a beautiful store, and they'll certainly want you to visit with them this Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Latham were in Brownfield Sunday to visit the First Baptist Church open house. There also were two charter members present, persons who were here when the church was organized in 1906. They were Mrs. Minnie Harris and Mrs. M. McDaniel of Abilene.

We have another football game here this Friday when our Cubs tangle with the Plainview Bulldogs. If our boys take to Plainview like they did to Levelland after the first quarter of last week's game, I think we will win a ball game.

If you drive around to Nelson Pharmacy at 211 South Sixth within the next few days and can't find anyone to wait on you, go next door to the old Terry County Herald building. Nelson is completely remodeling his present building and, by enlarging the back, will double the size of his pharmacy.

How about this: F. O. Masten, prominent farmer at Sudan, was responsible for getting Governor Frank Clement of Tennessee to be guest speaker during the annual Sudan Harvest Festival, which is similar to our Harvest Festival. He will speak at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 28.

A. M. Muldrow was re-elected last Thursday as vice-president of District 2 directors of West Texas Chamber of Commerce. The action took place in Lubbock, where Muldrow was briefed on WTCC's plan for the year by Fred Husbands, executive vice president, and Ray Grisham, president of the chamber.

Don Jones, head of the Lubbock Experiment Station; Jack King, Harvey Walker and N. W. Kramer, all of the Lubbock station; T. V. Reddy, administrator of the government's sorghum breeding program in Andhra State, India; and

Cong. George Mahon of the 19th District, a farmer's representative; Bill Durham, widely known farm editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram; W. S. Goodlett of Big Spring, area Soil Conservation Service head; and Bill Moldenhauer of Big Spring, with the state experiment station at Big Spring; Joe Mehard, supervisor of Farmers Home Administration in Lubbock, and Charlie Richter and Ben Garrity of Dallas, top state FHA officials.

The pace was fast today—but well planned and executed. Air-conditioned buses took the crowd to 12 Terry County farms, where the very latest agricultural practices were explained in detail.

General requirements for appointment include: 21 to 35 years of age, inclusive; minimum height of 5 feet and 8 inches; weight in proportion to height; good physical condition; and a high school education or the equivalent.

The appointments also must be citizens of the United States and residents of Texas for at least one year immediately prior to making application. They also are subject to a rigid character investigation.

Young men who wish to make application or to get additional information regarding the patrol may write W. J. Elliott, Chief, Texas Highway Patrol, Austin, or by contacting E. L. Posey, captain, Texas Highway Patrol, District Headquarters, Lubbock, Tex.

The chairman urged all interested persons to attend the meeting. Serving with her are Mrs. Otis Lerner, education chairman; Mrs. W. T. Pickett, service chairman; County Judge Herb Cheshir, crusade chairman, and Mrs. W. J. Spreen, publicity chairman.

The family lived in the prairie dug-out, and Burnett hauled freight by wagon and team from Big Spring, bringing in much of the material used in construction of Brownfield's first buildings, including his church, First Baptist.

Always taking an active interest in civic affairs, Burnett served two terms as county tax assessor-collector, peace officer and, until his retirement, was employed by the city.

The Rev. J. Wayland Edwards, pastor of Southcrest Baptist of Lubbock, officiated, assisted by the Rev. Clifford Harris, pastor of Tahoka First Baptist.

Colonial Heights P-TA Elects Vice Presidents

Dr. Robert Hoey, guidance counselor at Brownfield High School, presented a program entitled "Parenthood in a Free Nation" when members of Colonial Heights P-TA met last Thursday.

Two second vice-presidents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ramsdell, were elected during the session, and faculty members were introduced by Principal Bryan Jones. Elected officers were introduced by Pres. Mrs. Curtis Sterling.

BREAKFAST SET

Rainbow Girls To Host Businessmen

Brownfield Assembly, Order of Rainbow Girls, will serve breakfast to businessmen and women from 6:30 a.m. until 8:30 a.m., Saturday in the Party House.

The breakfast will be the second sponsored by the assembly within the past several weeks, and it is prompted by the success of the first.

The girls now have plans to make it a monthly event. The chits will cost $1 each.

BOYS JUST WILL GROW UP — The parents of 2-year-old Tony Glenn bowed to tradition Monday and permitted a barber to shear the auburn locks from his head. Tony is pictured above, before and after his visit to the tonorial artist. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Russell Hendricks of Route 1, Meadow, and he was 2 years old last Sunday. Small Tony, handsome as well as good-natured and friendly, probably missed the full significance of what really happened and shed no tears at the loss of his locks. (Staff Photos)

Staff members of The Cub, Brownfield High School annual, said this morning that they would begin an ad sales campaign Monday.

Firms buying space will be presented with window placards showing they have done so.

A spunky and stubborn Cub team kept some 5,000 fans talking long after the final whistle had ended the game with Levelland last Friday night in Cub Stadium.

Although the Cubs went down before the lightning fast running and passing attack of the Loboes, 39-21, they managed to show spurts of promise that indicated they are to be reckoned with before the season ends.

The highly favored Loboes unleashed a sparking running attack combined with a sharp shooting passing barrage that completely stunned the Cubs during the first quarter of play and the Loboes led, 13-0, at the end of that period.

It was not until Levelland had added an early second period tally that the Cubs proved they too had the stuff of which touchdowns are made.

A 60-yard sustained drive topped off by Mike Browning's

30-yard touchdown caper provided the spark needed to arouse the wounded Cubs. Bobby Moore added the extra point. Levelland picked up another marker and led, 26-7, at half time.

The second half of the ball game saw a spirited Cub eleven outscore the Loboes, 14-13 but the first half deficit spelled defeat for the Cubs.

A 52-yard drive by Brownfield in the third period, with Jackie Meeks, plunging over from the four, gave the Cubs their second touchdown and again Bobby Moore converted. Brownfield's 43-yard drive to pay dirt, in the waning minutes of the game, gave the home town fans the thrill of knowing they were watching a Cub team unfold a never-say-die spirit that reflected their coaching.

Mike Browning plunged over from the 1-yard line to add the last touchdown and Moore's educated toe again provided the extra point. Final score: 39-21.

Record Crowd At QBC Meeting

Members of the Brownfield Quarterback Club, after Monday night's meeting, stated that the 47 members and the high school coaching staff constituted a record breaking crowd, for recent years, at a Quarterback Club meeting.

The meeting was held at Fireman's Hall.

Club President L. J. Richardson opened the meeting by asking for discussion on two points of business. A change in name from Quarterback to Boosters club and a change in meeting nights. After discussing both subjects the members voted to retain the name Quarterback Club and to continue the meetings on Monday nights.

Cub Coaches Charlie Keese and Elroy Payne read to the members a scouting report on the Plainview Bulldogs, Brownfield's second game opponent. Keese told the club members that they and the fans could expect to see a heavy Plainview team with a long passing fast quarterback who likes to run with the ball.

Members of the Fire Department served refreshments and Cub Head Coach Doug Cox showed movies of last Friday's game with Levelland.

The club will meet again Monday night at Fireman's Hall.

COWBOY ELLIS

Cowboys, Indians To Wrestle on Monday

Brownfield wrestling fans have a real treat in store when Chief Blue Eagle makes his first appearance here Monday night at the Lion's Club Baseball park.

The Chief is a real full blooded Indian, stands 6 feet 2 inches tall and weighs 240 pounds.

His opponent will be Klondike like the blond headed Canadian who has been dubbed by wrestling fans as the gorgeous one. The reason for the nickname is that he looks like Georgous George.

Cowboy Ellis will make a return appearance here this week in a rematch with Rose's Jim Wright. Another match, to be another later, will round out the card that is sponsored each Monday night by the American Legion Post of Brownfield.

I. E. Honeycutt Going To San Angelo School

I. E. Honeycutt, division equipment coordinator for General Telephone in Brownfield, is in San Angelo attending a three-week course in basic radio fundamentals.

He is one of nine persons studying in preparation for the Federal Communications Commission's examination for a second class radio-telephone license.

The 120-hour course is being held at the company's Southwest Plant Training School.

The first game of the 1956 season for the Cubs is history and the opinions and comment among the fans vary, but one thing all agree to is the fact that the Cubs do have spirit. This was displayed, not only in the closing minutes, but throughout the entire contest despite the many mistakes made by both teams.

True, Levelland was and is rated a power to be considered throughout the state; however, there have been many occasions in the world of sports when a determined aggregation has upset the prognostications relating to its overall playing season.

Such is sure to be the case here should the Cubs continue to display the type of play that won them warm praise after last Friday's contest. Although the mistakes were plentiful the boys seemed to bear down just a little harder after each one with the determination not to repeat.

Coch Doug Cox readily admitted to the Quarterback Club that the boys had made mistakes but he assured the membership that such would not be the case in future games. Not that the boys would not make mistakes, but that they would overcome their number and with each week's play they would be less noticeable.

All in all this corner thinks the Cubs, though shabby in much of their play, did an outstanding job against Levelland and will go along to become a good ball club before the season ends. I think the boys are very proud of themselves, and well they should be, after Friday night's performance.

The respect and esteem they hold for their coaching staff was appreciably increased prior to the game and as the boys work with the staff they will learn many of the fundamentals that go to make up champions. It's not too hard to conceive of the Cubs winning the conference.

Getting back to the increased respect for the coaches. I am sure it came about this way: Coach Doug Cox had the boys bow their heads be-

Seems like Plainview won the game against Littlefield, last Friday after all. World comes here that the Littlefield Eleven played a lad who was just a little old for high school football. I am sure that the school officials were not aware of this prior to game time.

Had a good Quarterback Club meeting Monday and the most delightful event of the evening was watching Fireman Shorty Lester serve coffee and doughnuts with that big infectious grin.

He seemed to be getting more fun out of serving the men than they did from eating and drinking. The next meeting will be held in the same place (Fireman's Hall) next Monday night. Make it a point to be there. You'll enjoy it.

Mike Hamilton was surprised with a birthday party Saturday night in his home. Several couples helped celebrate with Mike.

The Baptist Church sponsored a party after the ball game Friday night in the party house. They served cokes, sandwiches, and cupcakes to all comers. The guests enjoyed games and gab . . .

The first edition of the Cub's Den, B. H. S.'s newspaper, will be on sale Friday, September 21.

Robert Patrick has become so skilled at using his crutches that he even went so far as to go through the Carlsbad Caverns recently. It seems that the person behind him held the back of his belt on steep or slippery places. We say hats off to Robert, and we hope that he is soon able to discard the crutches. Most of you remember that Robert broke his leg in football practice last spring.

Most of the clubs got organized this week and began to plan their year's activities . . . "Buy mums from the juniors," has been the plea since football season started. The money cleared from mum sales and other junior activities will be used for the Junior-Senior Banquet and prom next spring. Support the Cubs, and let's beat Plainview !!!

CUBS Face Plainview Bulldogs Friday

A heavy Plainview squad, sparked by a fast, break-away quarterback, will furnish the opposition for the Brownfield Cubs Friday night at CUBS Stadium with the kickoff set for 8 p.m.

The bulldogs, smarting from a 38-13 defeat by Littlefield last week, will be out to nip the Cubs and give their freshman coach Buzz Warren a victory. The Dogs boast a forward wall averaging 178 pounds to lead a backfield that averages 158 pounds.

The spark plug of the attack is the quarterback, who is fleet of foot and aims long downfield passes at his two rangy ends. His throwing efforts were not effective against Littlefield last week however, as he completed only 4 passes in 12 attempts.

Coach Warren's Bulldogs operate, offensively, from a split-T formation and attempt to stop their opponents with a 5-4-2 charging defense.

Plainview is not to be underrated however, since observers say a bad case of fumbleitis hampered them against Littlefield. The Bulldogs fumbled 6 times and 5 of those fumbles were recovered by Littlefield.

Coach Cox has been gearing his Cubs, all week, to meet the Plainview running attack

GRAIN ELEVATOR FIRE — It took the better part of Wednesday afternoon and hard work to do it, but Brownfield volunteer firemen whipped a stubborn blaze at Farmers Grain Elevator, Inc., 902 West Main. In the picture above, firemen play a long stream of water on the superstructure, where most of the damages (unestimated) occurred. Fire Chief Leonard Isaacs said this morning that " . . . we were lucky. Despite the huge amount of smoke, the fire was controlled fairly well. Damage was kept to a minimum." The chief also expressed thanks to Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Company for dispatching a fire-fighting truck to the scene. Cause of the blaze is thought to have been a "hot" bearing in a motor. OIL WEEK PRINCIPALS — Final plans for the oil industry's participation in Harvest Festival nearly are complete. Open house at the nearly 50 oil industry companies here will be held from 3 p.m. until 7 p.m., Oct. 16. The man ramrodding that phase is Tucker Johnson, pictured on the left above, with Hughes Tool Company. With him is W. B. (Dub) Nance of Mid-Continent Supply, chairman of the committee which selected Kay Kessinger as Miss Oil Progress of 1956. Both men have been working with John Hansard of Phillips Petroleum, general chairman of the industry's activities. The annual Oilman-Businessman Banquet will be held at 6:30 p.m., Oct. 11, in Veterans Hall, said Hansard. Miss Kessinger will be crowned that night, and Emcee C. T. Williams of Honolulu Petroleum will introduce her and Tom Reavley, Texas secretary of state. David Nicholson is in charge of ticket sales for the banquet. The price: $1 each. (Staff Photo)

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Miss Ann Barron and W. D. Warren, Sept. 18

MRS. W. D. WARREN

Beneath an archway of greenery intersticed with wedding bells and flanked with plants, baskets of white gladiolus and candelabra, Miss Ann Barron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barron of Meadow became the bride of W. D. Warren, son of Mrs. Carrie Mae Warren of Meadow and Marvin Warren of Brownfield.

Rev. Alton Polk, pastor, read the double ring rites at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 18 in the First Baptist Church at Meadow.

Miss Glenda Ballew, organist, offered traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Mary Jane Bartley of Lubbock when she sang "Because", "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life", and, as the benediction, "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly tulle lace over tulle and satin. The fitted bodice featured a portrait neckline, long sleeves terminating in points over the hands, and a large satin bow tied in back. The bouffant tulle length skirt was scalloped around the bottom edge. Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion net depended from a pearl circlet, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Miss Linda Barron was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a waltz length gown of pink lace and net over taffeta fashioned with a strapless bodice and brief bolero. She wore a bandeau of pink sequins and carried an arm bouquet of dark pink carnations.

Candlelighters were Sherry Barron, sister of the bride, and Jan Vance, cousin of the bride. They wore identical gowns of pink taffeta, fashioned with tiny puffed sleeves edged in lace, lace insets on the bodice and skirt, and pink velvet bandeaus. The wore wristlets of dark pink carnations.

J. Hollis Lloyd, Jr. of Big Spring was best man. Ushers were Maurice and Don Warren, brothers of the bridegroom, and David Conner of Lubbock.

At a reception at the church, the serving table was laid with an imported white linen cloth and was decorated with bouquets of the bride and her attendants. The three tiered wedding cake was served by Miss Barbara Russell, and Miss Eloise Keesee presided at the punch bowl. Assisting with hospitalities were Mmes. J. W. Eubank, Neil Barrier, F. H. Sharp, Clois Sharp, C. E. Hicks, Perry McAllister, and Alton Polk, all of Meadow; and Mrs. James Thurman of Brownfield.

Mrs. Eldon Vance of Lamesa, aunt of the bride, offered piano selections during the reception and guests were registered by Miss Laura Taylor of Quitaque.

Guests attended from Lubbock, Brownfield, Lamesa, Post, Morton, and Welch.

For a wedding trip to Ruidoso, and other points in New Mexico, the bride chose a torso dress of black shadow stripe silk and cotton, black accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Warren are graduates of Meadow High School. They will make their home in Lubbock, where they both junior students at Texas Tech.

Mrs. Chesshir In Charge of Program

The Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church met Sept. 10 at the church, with 21 members present.

The business meeting was brought to order by Mrs. Truett Flache, president, and opening prayer was given by Mrs. Jack Hamilton. Members were reminded of the need to save rummage for the rummage sale to be held later in the year.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Herbert Chesshir was in charge of the program, "That Which We Have Seen and Heard". Worship leader was Mrs. McDonald.

The meeting closed with the C. W. F. benediction. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Pickett and Mrs. Hamilton.

Footsaving Education

By Barney Doss

Why is it that many babies learn to walk in a new pair of Shoes?
The most probable reason is that the old shoes were too small. If you will notice babies use their little toes for balance. When they walk in their bare feet or sock the little toe of the right foot points to two o'clock while the others point to twelve. After the babies learn balance the little toes become less and less important and close in with the other toes so they can wear shoes in adult life that do not look like rubbers.

This action of the general session was inadvertently omitted in the report of last week's meeting, and, as the organization has taken the support of this amendment as one of their major projects for the year, members wish to make it publicly known.

Table Settings Are Theme of Study By Brownfield Garden Club Members

"Let's Set the Table" was the program topic for the Brownfield Garden Club's first meeting of this club year. Mrs. Jess McWherter presided as the day's program chairman and introduced the participating members. Mrs. Kenneth Purcell set a cheerful breakfast table with beige pottery on a brown cloth. The line mass arrangement of bright orange fritoma and its pottery rooster and hen accessories added just the right amount of color for this first meal of the day setting.

The luncheon table was covered with a white embroidered linen cloth and set with sparkling crystal, white china, and gleaming sterling silver. Mrs. Alton Webb, a line arrangement of pale pink gladiolus contained in a silver bread tray highlighted this attractive table.

Mrs. Lee Fulton covered her dinner table with white linen and set it with china edged in platinum that complemented the sterling silver ware, salt and pepper sets, and silver flower container. Her formal mass arrangement of roses varied from pink to a deep red. The focal point of white roses and the three tapers placed among the roses seemed to adjust the right touch to make this an elegant table.

The buffet table by Mrs. Eulice Farrar was set for an "after the game" supper. The imaginary menu was so simplified that stainless steel forks, pottery plates and crystal glasses with linen napkins were the only essential tools for the guests to manage. The centerpiece set the theme. The bronze mums, fall leaves, and cattails were arranged with a real football as the focal point, all of which created a feeling of gaiety and activity about this appealing table.

The lovely mantle arrangement was created by Mrs. B. Thompson in soft pastels in a provincial mood.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Leonard Lang and Mrs. J. R. Hissom were elected delegates for the Brownfield Garden Club to the State Board meeting to be held Oct. 3-4 in Midland. Other members also plan to attend.

Mrs. Bill Neel and Mrs. C. W. Dension served iced punch and icebox cookies to the 30 members present.

Jimmy Walker and Don Anderson attended the wedding of an SAE fraternity brother in Houston over the weekend.

ARRANGE TABLE SETTINGS — These members of the Brownfield Garden Club were responsible for various table settings presented to club members when they met last week. Pictured, left to right, are Mrs. Jess McWherter, who was program chairman for the day; Mrs. Lee Fulton, who arranged a dinner table; Mrs. Eulice Farrar, who arranged a clever "after the game" buffet; Mrs. Kenneth Purcell, who set a cheerful breakfast table; and Mrs. Alton Webb. The group is standing behind the luncheon table set by Mrs. Webb.

The Horrocks-Ibbotson Company combines glass fiber and resin plastics with mass production techniques to make better fishing rods. They use the same techniques in producing the rest of the fisherman's tackle. They manufacture single and double tapered, nonsinkable fly lines, braided casting lines, spinning lines, and salt water lines. They make single action and automatic fly reels, the popular spinning reels, bait casting and salt water reels. Their dry flies range from the "Beaverkill" and "Black Gnat" to "Wichham's Fancy" and "Yellow Sally." Horrocks-Ibbotson casting and trolling lures include wobblers, spoons and jigs. In fact, the "All-American Tackle from Utica" makes the fisherman better equipped to catch fish, and less equipped to alibi, than ever before.

One of the largest manufacturers of fishing rods and reels in the U. S., catering to the needs of fishermen, is the Horrocks-Ibbotson Company, Utica, N. Y.

More about this later, along with some dope from John Hansard on Oil Progress Week, which goes hand in glove with the festival this year.

We've added another face down here at the salt mine. That of Roy Snow, who's a DE student at the high school and is quite a little artist. Roy's something like old man river—he don't say nothing, he just keeps rolling along. Of course, fat chance he has to say anything around the crew at the office, but maybe he'll learn to just talk louder than anyone else, which is the secret of getting ahead.

The Robert Bauman boys at 734 E. Loas have three black kittens, part Siamese, three months old and trained, to be given away. If you want a nice pet, go by or call the Bauman gardeners.

Quite a few of you have told me that you'd tried to catch me and couldn't locate me. Chances are if I'm out of pocket, I'm at Tahoka visiting my little mother, who is in bed with a cracked landing gear. She's getting along fine, but that bed is no fun, so Helen and I try to get over to see her as often as we can.

Not a few of us were pleasantly surprised to see our football team in such fine shape last Friday night, and probably not a few of you are kicking yourselves because you didn't get season tickets. Here's a little tip for you: those football tickets will be going pretty fast each week, so you'd better see Jewel Smith or Raymond Sims on the second floor of the courthouse early if you want a good seat.

Speaking of last week's game the spectators certainly got our money's worth. It's very seldom that any football game, even a college game, extends to two hours and 25 minutes. It's also pretty seldom that you see the officials call every infraction of the rules. Our officials were zealous, to say the least. As a member of a family containing a football official for some 15 years, more or less, I've never been one to complain about the officiating of football games. I'm still not saying Friday night's officials were lousy—I'm just saying they were four of the most conscientious boys I've ever seen take a field. At times, it seemed to be more a battle of flags than a battle of football, and personally it not only tended to slow down the game, but it distracted attention from the game itself. The fans were disgruntled in general over this, but it could be that the coaches asked the officials to be particularly tough in calling infractions in order to keep the boys on their toes. Anyway, despite the red spots we were continually plagued with, the Brownfield High School coaches have plenty to be proud of in their Cubs and I feel that us fans are going to see lots of good football from these boys.

By the way, you'll notice that our football contest in the News begins this week

the farming angle

By DON RYNUM

At the peak of the current cotton harvest, Terry County producers will need an estimated 8,200 pullers.

The figure was determined Tuesday morning by a group of interested farmers meeting with Dayton Carrell and Aubrey T. Jones, managers, respectively, of the Lamesa and Brownfield offices, Texas Employment Commission.

TEC has estimated, also, that 3,925 Mexican nationals will have to be imported into the county to harvest the current crop.

The TEC figures were part of a report submitted to the U. S. secretary of labor. Under Public Law 78, the commission must supply this information to the secretary, who then must limit the number of nationals by setting a "ceiling."

The ceiling granted by the secretary limiting the importation of the Mexican nationals into the area will be posted in post offices in Brownfield and Meadow, in the county agent's courthouse office and in the courthouse lobby.

As in the past years, Jones maintains a running tally of the number of bales turned by the 17 gins in Terry. As of Tuesday, that tally stood at 3,000.

Terry County farmers no longer are required to file Social Security returns on a quarterly basis, according to H. O. Nichols, administrator of the Lubbock office.

During 1955, farmers were required to file quarterly returns with the district director of Internal Revenue. Because of a late change in procedure, explains Nichols, they now file one return, in January.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security office will be in Brownfield at 9 a.m., Sept. 27, in the basement of the courthouse.

Redemption of Soil Bank Certificates Is Explained by USDA

Redemption of Soil Bank certificates, an important item to many Terry farmers, has been explained by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Under certain circumstances, the certificates will be worth a little more than face value. But mostly, they are on par.

The soil bank chits earned by farmers for reducing acreages of wheat, corn and rice will be valued at 105 per cent of their cash value when exchanged for grains in the Commodity Credit Corporation inventory or when used to redeem grain they have put under price support loans. This is a minor "give-away" to farmers, themselves, in order to reduce politically hot surpluses.

For exchange purposes, the value of the CCC-owned grain will be set at the current support price for the grade, class and location of the grain. The certificates may also be redeemed for cash at 100 per cent of face value.

CCC-owned grain will be available through warehouses operating under the Uniform damaging numbers is to prevent carryover to next year's crop, according to agricultural officials familiar with the pest.

Micronaire—a name not too familiar to many cotton producers in this area. From all indications, however, the micronaire — an electronic device for measuring cotton staple — may become extremely important to Terry cotton growers.

Grain Storage Agreement. The grain will be delivered at local warehouses or terminal elevators but CCC will not supply grain at locations other than where it has stocks. In other words, no cross-country movement of grain into an area where it is not grown.

Wheat certificates may be exchanged for wheat, barley, rye, oats or grain sorghums — but not for the other two basic grains, corn and rice. This limitation applies to corn or rice acreage reduction certificates. Rice chits cannot be swapped for corn or wheat, and corn chits will not get rice or wheat.

Grains will not be available during harvest periods, CCC officials point out. CCC will not exchange a particular grain for certificates during the harvest season for that grain in the area. This harvesting limitation will also apply to redemption of grain under loans by use of certificates.

An event which will have far reaching consequences and benefit to Terry and other South Plains counties is in the planning stage by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The event is a Short Staple Cotton Research conference to be held in Lubbock on Oct. 18-19, PCG President W. O. Fortenberry announced today.

Said Fortenberry "The South Plains produces approximately one-tenth of the entire U. S. cotton crop and nearly one-half of the Texas crop.

"Production has expanded rapidly during the past decade or so, and many problems have arisen in connection with this progress. Many different varieties of seed have been tried with more or less success, but there has been little effort at standardization or organized seed distribution."

The president continued "The short growing season on the Plains gives rise to problems existing only in this area. Storm resistance and early maturing in combination are only two of the important factors which must be developed.

Modern concepts of cotton marketing are bringing up a new factor which is of tremendous importance to the Plains producers.

"That factor is the rapidly expanding use of the micronaire in cotton merchandising, and the real possibility that the micronaire value soon may be included on the Smith-Doxey classing card.

"Such a move undoubtedly would inject the micronaire into the loan picture, and would carry tremendous implications for the Plains.

"These are only a few of the many problems which must be faced and solved in the near future," the PCG head emphasized.

The purpose of the Lubbock conference will be to study and explore the entire short staple cotton situation. It is expected to develop a master plan for action, through both immediate and long range research programs for improving the quality of Plains cotton, to reduce costs and to strengthen the competitive position of short staple cotton in the market.

"To initiate a sound program of research and marketing,"

Fortenberry explained, "it is necessary to collect and thoroughly analyze all the facts and to work out an integrated plan which will take into account every segment of the cotton industry."

To accomplish this, said the PCG leader, "... we are inviting the top cotton leaders in the United States to this Lubbock meeting. Outstanding men in research, production and marketing will be here.

These men will include scientists from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, the Texas Extension Service, private breeding firms, technical experts from the National Cotton Council, and recognized leaders from all segments of the cotton and allied industries."

Fortenberry said that a number of men from the following fields already have accepted invitations:

Cotton genetics, plant physiology, entomology, production, harvesting, ginning, warehousing, crushing, marketing, utilization, economics and market research.

Explained Fortenberry: "The October conference will not be of large proportions. Instead, it will be a working committee of experienced men who can contribute to the consensus of thinking on the over-all short staple problem.

Goals of the conference were listed as follows:

1. To focus attention upon the technical and economic problems of the short staple area.
2. To stimulate interest and support for expanded and intensive research on short staple cotton.

Clyde's cotton is opening fast and among the open bolls, you will not find spotted cotton at the bottom of the burr even though this cotton stays in the burr. This cotton was never poisoned.

FRUEHAUF ON THE CARPET

Both Parties 'Bosom Pals'

Everybody — in politics at least — appears to be the bosom pal of "small business." The Democrats insist they are, while assailing the Republicans as "the party of big business." The GOP cites, in reply, its benevolence to the small business man through the transformation of the former RFC into the Small Business Administration, and promises in its platform "positive measures to help small business get started and grow." The Democratic platform promises to small businesses (among other things) a reformation of the SBA that will "render genuine assistance in fulfilling their needs and solving their problems."

What makes all this a little confusing is the fact that the Government has an independent, tax-paying (not tax-consuming) manufacturer on the carpet for actually performing what the two parties so loudly promise.

The Federal Trade Commission is cracking down on the Fruehauf Trailer Company for the outstanding aid it has rendered truckers — who constitute one of the most typical, and certainly most vital, "small business" industries of the nation. Specifically, the Government lawyers charge Fruehauf with violation of the anti-merger law by acquiring five other firms in the transportation equipment industry, and with violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act in owning its own finance company and giving its customers more financing help than they can get elsewhere.

In his reply to the FTC complaint, Roy Fruehauf, president of the company, denies that the acquisition of "some of the assets" of the five other companies has lessened competition or resulted in monopoly. In enabling his company to provide improved products and services, he feels that these acquisitions have helped in the tremendous growth of the highway transportation industry — and hence enlarged competition rather than reduced it.

This growth, Mr. Fruehauf points out, was made possible by time payment terms on equipment, and his finance company supplied capital to "a multitude of small businesses whose needs could not be supplied by short term commercial bank lenders, and who could not compete for funds in the long-term capital market with large corporate borrowers."

The company, he says, "has done more for the small business man in the trucking industry than any other agency devised by private or governmental initiative", and adds that its customers are always free to pay cash or to arrange financing elsewhere.

Traditionally, the highway transportation firm begins with a man and a truck. He prospers as he serves — and expands as he can. Collectively, he has become a great industry, as evidenced by the fact that everything we eat, wear or use travels at least part of the way by truck and truck trailer. To have played a conspicuous role in the development of this universal service to the American people deserves a better reward than a Federal complaint. At least, that's the way we read the party platforms.

THE AMERICAN WAY

SCIENTISTS MAKE GREAT CONTRIBUTION
By George Peck

(EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board of the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, FAETNERS.)

All of us are aware that scientific research has been responsible to a large degree for the great industrial expansion that this nation has experienced and for our ever-bettering standard of living. But I wonder how many of us realize just what a big factor it really has been in making America so outstandingly prosperous among the nation of the world?

Research has been a powerful force in launching new industries and in the success and growth of thousands of established companies and industries. Illustrating just how important business executives consider it is to the continued prosperity and expansion of industry, it is estimated that in 1956, approximately $5.5 billion will be spent by industry in scientific research.

As a result of scientific research, millions of American are now gainfully employed helping to produce things that were unknown a few years ago. As cases in point:

A recent statement made by the Procter and Gamble Company emphasized the fact that in 1955 it was using 105 chemicals that were not in use ten years previously.

The president of General Electric Company recently reported that one out of three workers employed by that company is engaged in making new products that GE did not make in 1939.

Radio Corporation's president is on record to the effect that 80 percent of its more than $1 billion in sales in 1955, was in products and services which did not exist or were not commercially developed just ten years ago.

The experiences of company after company could be cited to prove that from scientific research has come an ever-increasing flow of new products

Ford tandem axle BIG JOBS are rated to carry more payload than comparable tandems of any of the leading manufacturers. T-800 model has max. GVW of 45,000 lb.—GCW is 65,000 lb.

Ford's F-100 Custom panel is one of the top load carriers in its class. It provides 155.8 cu. ft. of cargo space in a smooth, fully lined interior and hauls up to 1,535 lb. of payload.

The hardest-working, biggest-saving "two-tonner" of these all is the Ford F-100. Only Ford offers a Short Stroke Six and three Short Stroke V-8s in this field. Max. GVW is 19,500 lb.

Ford Trucks cost less

Ford's F-100 pickup with 8-ft. box is the biggest in the half-ton field—up to 19 cu. ft. more loadspace than the others. Regular 6 1/2-ft. box with a full 45 cu. ft. capacity also available.

COME IN TODAY!

• Before you buy your next truck, look at both sides of Ford's story of value. Check what you get and what it costs. You'll like what you see.

Look at the costs. Ford's first cost is low. Resale value is high. Modern Short Stroke engines—V-8 or Six—are designed for less friction, less wear, lower running costs. Maintenance costs are lower, too, because Ford trucks are built stronger for rugged long life. And a 10-million truck study proves Ford trucks last longer.

Look at what you get and you'll see you get more in a Ford. For example, more horsepower per dollar—proved by a comparison of factory-suggested list prices and net horsepower of all truck lines. You get more comfort and safety in Ford's Driverized Cab with exclusive Lifeguard features.

Look carefully... consider everything. You'll agree Ford trucks cost less, give you more. If you want a great deal—a great deal more for your money—see your Ford Dealer.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM THE State CAPITOL

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex. — Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd has asked the press of Texas to sponsor 12 bills in the 1957 Legislature. They pertain largely to publication laws. In Shepperd's opinion, such laws would have prevented the land, insurance and Duval County scandals.

Shepperd, whose term expires in January, addressed the 6th Annual Fall Meeting of the Texas Press Association, in Austin.

He recommended passage of Legislation that would require the land office to publish an official notice in a newspaper in the home county of each veteran applying for a loan under the Veterans' Land Program. This, so that hometown people will know that such an application has been filed.

Also suggested was publication of a financial statement by insurance companies, such as is required of banks and building and loan companies handling the people's money.

A strict law, making it "an absolute, mandatory requirement" that all elected public officials handling the public's money make a public accounting of same at regular intervals was cited by Shepperd as a necessity "to protect the honest public official as well as to protect the public from the dishonest public official."

Much deception is being fostered upon the people by failure of some officials to publish the full text of ordinances, said Shepperd. He referred to the publication of descriptive captions only, or mere titles, which do not give sufficient notice to the public.

He cited the imperative need for publication of annual financial statements by each school district—before another scandal rocks the state. Ditto for publication of the proceedings of county commissioners' courts and meetings of all boards, commissions and other agencies of the State, City, County or other political subdivision — and opening these meetings to the public.

Other needed laws dealt with means of recovering money unlawfully expended or misappropriated; the hiding of public records; requiring special audits; fixing penalties for filing false reports; establishing venue for the prosecution of any state official who refuses to testify on the grounds of self-incrimination.

Shepperd emphasized his remarks with this statement: "It is the duty of the press to keep the door of the public of-rice open . . . to see that public officials remain public in every sense of the word. For this purpose, this country has created and maintained a free press."

Fund Regulation Urged — A bill to regulate labor union welfare funds is to be introduced in the next Legislature.

Rep. Tom Joseph of Waco said in a recent Austin statement he will back such a law. Supervision would be either by the Insurance Commission or State Banking Department, he said.

Joseph said he believed an excessive portion of welfare payments goes to union fund managers, and too little to workers.

Roads of the Future—Highway construction under the new multi-million-dollar federal-state building program is designed to meet anticipated traffic conditions of 20 years from now.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said crossroads and railroad crossings will be either separated or eliminated. Hills will be graded down to allow for speeds of 70, 60 and 50 miles per hour, depending on location. Roads will be either four-lane or two-lane right-of-way for two miles.

Texas' share of the projected nation-wide highway network will be 2,900 miles.

Roughage Program Under Way — After numerous delays, drought-hit Texas farmers now are getting federal aid to buy roughage for cattle.

Certificates good for $7.50 per ton are being issued through nearly 200 county offices of the Farmers Home Administration. Hay, cottonseed hulls, corn shucks and corn

Faster Service Is Assured In Getting Soil Tests Returned

The number of soil samples being sent to the Soil Testing Laboratory at College Station have dropped to a new low for this season, reports M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist who has charge of the lab.

The chemist says the big reason for the slow down is the continuing drought and the uncertainty that rains will come in time to permit the seeding of fall and winter pastures or winter legume crops. But Thornton is sure that Texas farmers and ranchmen who go ahead with their planning will be far ahead when rains do come.

General rains could cause a last minute rush of soil samples to the lab which would overtax the facilities and delay analysis reports to producers for many days; thus slowing the job of seeding if the lab report is to be of value.

Thornton believes that farmers should be prepared to take advantage of any situation which gives them enough moisture to insure a stand of fall seeded crops.

By submitting soil samples now while the lab is not too busy, producers can be assured of getting fast returns. Too, they will be in a position to go

Top yields of high quality forage are needed now in every section of Texas and the use of fertilizers will play a big part in making these objectives possible, says

Henderson Residents Schedule Big Reunion

The fifth annual reunion of former residents of Henderson County will be held Sept. 30 at Mackenzie State Park in Lubbock, it was announced today by Charles A. Spencer.

There will be a lunch spread at noon, said Spencer. Thornton. A soil analysis will show the amount and kind of fertilizer needed to get the most from crops or pastures regardless of the growing season.

Crop Forecasts Down — Dwindling prospects in dryland areas have caused the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture to revise downward its estimate of Texas' 1956 cotton crop.

Forecast now is 3,460,000 less than originally predicted, 579,000 less than the 1955 crop. USDA's rice crop estimate

Other forecasts: sorghum, 88,428,000 bushels; corn, 25,528,000 bushels; wheat, 26,275,000 bushels; pecans 25,000,000 pounds. Texas' 1955 pecan crop was 38,000,000 pounds.

"Pappy To Run Regardless" — W. Lee O'Daniel is going to "personalize" the general election ballot.

Immediately after the State Supreme Court announced that his name could not appear on the printed ballots, "Pappy" said it will be written "by the hands that rock in the cradles... and their husbands and their own sons and daughters."

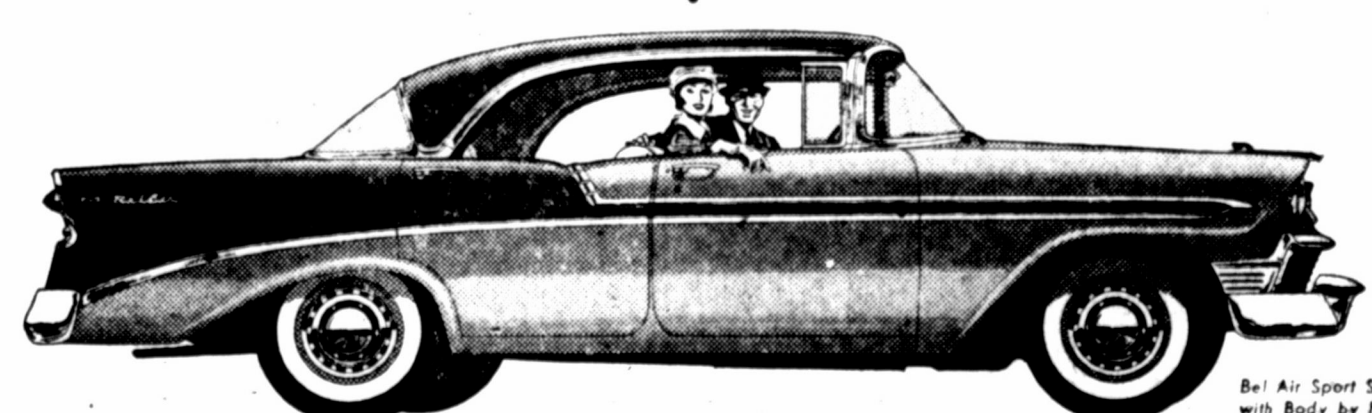

Then he announced that he would conduct a write-in campaign.

Secretary of State Tom Reavley had refused to accept O'Daniel's filing as the nominee for governor on the ticket of the Constitution party because the former governor had been defeated as a candidate for the same office in the Democratic primary this year. And the court upheld Reavley's contention.

Still retained by the state are 23 tracts on which no bids or too-low bids were received. Thefts committed in Texas have increased 14.8 per cent during 1956, according to the Department of Public Safety. Murders and homicides have decreased slightly. Total so far for 1956 as 437. RED WINTER MOST COMMON

USDA Names 23 Wheat Varieties To Be Discounted in the '57 Support Program

Discounts to discourage plantings of undesirable wheat varieties were included in the price-support program for the first time on the 1956 wheat crop.

Today the USDA released a list of 23 varieties which are classed as undesirable because of inferior milling or baking qualities. They will be discounted 20 cents per bushel in price-support rates on the 1957 wheat crop.

According to extension agronomists, the hard red winter varieties are most commonly grown in Texas and those on the undesirable list include Stafford, Pawnee Sel. 33, Red Chief, Chiefkan, Early Black-hull, Red Jacket, Kanking, New Chief, Blue Jacket, Purkof, Cimarron and Red Hull. Others listed are soft red winter, hard red spring, durum and white wheat varieties.

These 23 varieties were designated as undesirable by the Agricultural Research Service after consultation with state agricultural experiment station personnel, agronomists, cereal chemists and others on state and Federal staffs.

The extension agronomists point out that the discount on these undesirable hard red winter varieties should not hamper Texas wheat producers because research has developed varieties which are better yielders as well as producers of better milling and baking quality wheat.

The recommended varieties available for the High Plains of Texas are Comanche, Concho, Westar, Wichita and Triumph. For the Rolling Plains area these some varieties are recommended along with Quannah for the eastern counties.

In the north-central area of Texas, Quannah is preferred while Comanche and Concho have also done well. In the South-central area, Quannah is recommended because of its resistance to disease.

The discount was adopted in the support operation to lessen their production and the possibility of U. S. wheat of inferior quality finding its way into domestic and export channels. Representatives of crop improvement associations have strongly urged the action.

Marketing, Storage To Feel Effects Of Soil Bank Program

Texas farmers will feel the effects of the soil bank program in their marketing and storage of basic agricultural commodities, primarily wheat and cotton.

Dr. Alvin B. Wooten, economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says "Grain elevators and cotton warehouses operate on a small charge per bushel or bale, depending on a large volume for their margin of profit.

So, if the soil bank program is successful in lowering production then marketing firms storing and handling crops may expect an increasingly lower volume, thereby lowering their profit."

The soil bank program has as its major objective a reduction in the amount of wheat, cotton, corn, peanuts, rice and tobacco produced in the future.

Many farmers will be effected by the reduced volume squeeze in their local cooperative marketing associations, too, Dr. Wooten added. Other farmers also will be effected because as volume drops storage costs per bushel or per bale warehouse firms will have to charge a higher rate to continue operation.

However, the considerable reduction in basic crops certainly should strengthen market prices.

The soil bank adds to the cost for operating efficiency for both marketing firms and on farms. The best management will have the best advantage. Many firms will find their volume insufficient for operation at a profit, Dr. Wooten concluded.

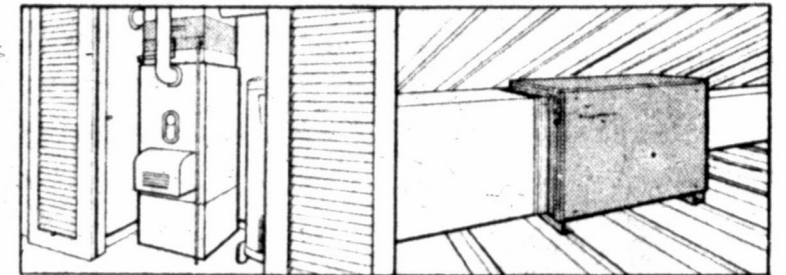

Mrs. E. C. Davis and Mrs. W. J. Spreen, members of Maids and Matrons study club, attended a board of directors meeting of the Texas Federated Women's Club in San Antonio this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hyman and children, Bernda Kay and Billy Joe, of Andrews spent Wednesday with his parents. Mr. Hyman is a highway patrolman.
