Scouts Return From A Day's Outing on Ranch

Members of Boy Scout Troop 74 returned during the week-end from a day's outing on the Johnson Ranch near Slaton.

Transportation was furnished by Terry County Farm Bureau, who lent one of its new buses for the occasion.

Said Scoutmaster Eddie Roe: "We had a fine time, and we're grateful to TCFB for the loan of its fine bus." The troop also was accompanied by H. B. Parks and Paul Ward.

CORRECTION!

An error in the Copeland Hardware advertisement on Page 6 of Section 2, instead of 18-inch, 2 h.p., 4-cycle lawnmower, correct reading should be: 2-cycle.

Babe Ruth League Schedules Meet

Babe Ruth League officials will meet at 7:30 p.m. today in the Hitch-N-Post Cafeteria to discuss the upcoming baseball season, according to David Nicholson, president.

Nicholson said major items to be covered tonight include formulation of the season schedule, enlargement of present league playing field and registration of youngsters.

"Workouts for youngsters who did not play in the league last year will be held at Babe Ruth Park during the week of May 19," said Nicholson. "The player draft will be held after workouts and the season will open June 2."

Nicholson urged officials and persons interested in the program to attend the meeting, youngsters 13 to 15 years of age.

Little League Ball At Park On Monday

Little League baseball will get underway here when tryouts begin at 5 p.m. Monday in Terry Little League Park, according to Dr. J. U. Borum, player agent.

Dr. Borum said registration slips have been issued to prospective players and urged that applications be returned to the school by Friday. "Both new and old players must register before the season opens," he said.

Tryouts will be held Monday through Wednesday for youngsters 8 to 10 years old. Tryouts for 11 and 12-year-olds will be held Thursday and Friday.

Borum added that league officials will meet Saturday, following tryouts, to make final plans and to hold the annual player draft.

Bids Asked On Quarters By Chamber

The reality of a new home for Brownfield Chamber of Commerce looms ever closer.

The chamber's directorate approved Wednesday morning the advertisement for bids on the new quarters (Page 7 of Section 2).

The bids will be accepted at the chamber's present address, 414 West Main, until 7 a.m., May 7, at which time they will be opened and read publicly at Starr's Melody Drive Inn.

Wednesday's session was called. The May 7 meeting will be that regularly scheduled, and will include breakfast for all directors, bidders (contractors) and architects. Time: 6:30 a.m.

Architects' drawings and complete specifications for the new office, in 200 block of Lubbock Road, were studied and tentatively accepted Wednesday. Presiding was Pres. Dennis Q. Lilly, who asked an invocation of Director C. E. Ross.

It is Ross, Bruce Zorns and Chairman Lal Copeland who have been responsible to the chamber as the building committee. The trio has reported donations and pledges in excess of $10,000 toward construction.

Bright colors, modern design, functional furniture and space aplenty will characterize the new home. The building committee also will coordinate selection of interior colors and furniture.

CAESAR IN SHAME?

Campaign's Goin' Great

Veni, vidi, vici—I came, I saw, I conquered.

Thus did Julius Caesar tersely describe a military campaign.

From all indications, it appears that the foregoing may be the same situation with some of the candidates in the current NEWS Good Will subscription campaign.

Based on reports of the last few days, it is possible that some of the workers may put even the great Caesar to shame.

All the candidates are well on their way in the race. The question: Who will win? The grand prize is worth $1,000 cash.

What will be the score when the campaign ends on May 28?

Warren Is Winner Of Scholarship

Walter D. Warren, Texas Tech electrical engineering student from Meadow, has been named winner of a $500 scholarship from South Plains Chapter of the American Petroleum Institute.

Presentation was made at Tech by R. P. Brouterlin, chairman of the API chapter. Warren has one year before completion of graduation requirements for a EE degree. Though working part-time during his entire college career, he has maintained a 2.20 (B plus) grade point average.

The senior student currently is employed by Magnolia Petroleum Company here.

Was Valedictorian

Warren is active in American Institute of Electrical Engineers, Saddle Tramps, Tau Beta Pi, Eta Kappa Nu and the College Awards Board. He has served as officer in several of the organizations and was valedictorian of his high school class at Meadow.

API scholarships are awarded each year on the basis of scholastic record and need. They are available only to students from the South Plains area.

Selection was made by a scholarship committee, comprised of Coleman Williams of 906 East Reppito and Honolulu Oil Company, Jim Jordan of the Texas Company, Sundown and Jim Mayes, Avalanche-Journal oil editor.

They were assisted by Robert Newell, assistant dean of engineering, and John Bradford, dean of engineering at Tech.

Seniors at Wellman Slate Play Friday

The Wellman Senior Class will present "This Ghost Business", a three act play, Friday at 8 p.m. Admission will be 35 cents for children and 60 cents for adults.

The cast is as follows: Joe Hardy, Carroll Parker; Eddie Canfield, Bill Adams; Marie, Margaret Ingram; Faught, Magnolia, Martha Goza; Effie Forrest, Clara Bolen; Laura Hardy, Karen Hamm; Mabel Canfield, Peggy Burnett; A. G. Stevens, Ray Sansing; Mose, Deryl King, and Bill, Billy Rich.

The story of the play: Joe Hardy and Eddie Canfield buy a cottage at the lake and bring their wives, Laura and Mabel, there for a nice quiet vacation. Suddenly, Mrs. Effie Forrest, a neighbor, brings disturbing news - Weary Rest, as the cottage is named, is haunted! A ghost appears and from then on there are shivers, suspense, and thrills.

Magnolia, the colored cook, threatens to leave because she "Ain't gonna stay where them ghosts is." Cooks are hard to find and Eddie's schemes for keeping her there and exposing the ghosts cause many exciting and hilarious scenes. Just as one ghost is exposed and they settle down to enjoy their vacation, another one pops up and the excitement is on again.

Everyone is invited and urged to attend.

Trucker Is Slugged, Robbed Here Friday

Seagraves trucker, Thomas Christy, told officers he was slugged and robbed by two Latin American men about 5:10 p.m. Friday on the Lubbock-Brownfield highway 5 miles north of here.

Christy said he was robbed of $3. He said one of the holdup men tried to shoot him, but the pistol only clicked and would not fire.

The trucker told sheriff's officers his attackers talked in Spanish for a moment and then one of them slugged him from behind. He said the other hold-up man had a knife or razor.

Christy said the holdup occurred after he stopped on the highway to check his tires. He said the men drove up as he stood on the road and threatened to kill him when he started back to the truck to get himself a weapon.

SON OF BROWNFIELD COUPLE

Gaines Farmer Recognized by District

Harlan Miller, former Terry farmer, recently was named Outstanding Conservation Farmer for 1957 in Gaines Soil Conservation District. Miller, who was presented a plaque by Seminole Lions, was elected from some 1,000 farmers and ranchers in Gaines and Andrews counties. He is the son of Mr and Mrs. Oden Miller of 317 West Tate. He was selected for the award on the basis of soil improvement and soil protection practices he has carried out during the past several years. He also was required to make his entire living from farming. At presentation ceremonies Miller said that Gaines County soils are low in fertility, but with proper treatment and soil improvement practices, they can be made as productive as any soil in West Texas.

Biologist Urges Pine Forests Be Planted

With careful planning, landowners can have good pine forests as well as enough hardwoods to sustain wildlife, says Biologist Daniel W. Lay of the Game and Fish Commission.

In "Pines: Profits with Problems" to appear in the April issue of Texas Game and Fish, official publication of the Commission, Lay explains some of the principles to follow in determining which hardwoods to save.

"Pines bring a better price than most hardwoods at present," Lay acknowledges, "but this may change as hardwoods become scarcer. So a landowner who saves sound, well-formed hardwoods may find a strong market for them later. Thus, the hardwoods saved for wildlife may also produce merchantable logs."

All fruits and seeds produced in the forest are used by some kind of wildlife, Lay points out. Since acorns are the most important food in the southern forest, he advises landowners to leave all the oaks they can.

If possible, to save some of each species of oak. Some of the other common food-producers are dogwood, yaupon, black gum, blackberry, French mulberry, red haw, black haw, grape, rattan, greenbriar, sumac, and holly.

"No amount of protection will grow game in the absence of adequate habitat," asserts Lay.

MED AT HELPING HIGH PLAINS COTTON

PGC, Area Extension Personnel Compile New 'Plains Cotton Guide'

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., cooperation with the Texas Extension Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, has drafted a "Plains Cotton Guide."

Personnel of the extensive extension service, experiment stations and other organizations have worked with PGC and planned a coordinated cotton educational and promotional program for the High Plains Area.

The new guide will be used in the educational program, which is to be aimed at helping high plains farmers grow quality cotton and have it processed and marketed for greater profit.

The guide is divided into three sections, production, processing and marketing. It is made available to county agents and others who work with farmers throughout the High Plains. All members of the PGC will be mailed a copy.

The guide analyzes the plains cotton situation and sets forth steps to help producers in the production of higher quality cotton that has more uniformity and good character and in the marketing of such quality cotton for greater profit.

"For many years the personnel of the Lubbock Experiment Station have worked on problems to give better quality cotton. However, sometimes these farming tips and suggestions are not as widely published as they might be and too many farmers do not know of their importance. In our educational program we hope to spread this type of information throughout the area and help our farmers in producing better quality cotton," explained W. O. Fortenberry, PCG president.

Directors of PCG approved the educational and promotional program at the last board meeting and appropriated necessary funds to carry out such a program.

By cooperating with the extension service personnel and members of other organizations, we hope to eliminate duplication of effort and help one another in an overall educational program, said George W. Pfeifferberger, executive vice president.

W. H. Jones, District Extension Service Agent of Lubbock, pointed out that production practices in general govern quality and yield. Processing procedures are problems of the farmer in harvesting and of the ginner in ginning cotton.

"The cotton farmer has a greater opportunity to improve his production and harvesting practices than to better the ginning and marketing procedures, but an understanding of how cotton is processed and marketed may enable him to realize more net return from his investment and labor," said Jones.

Earl Hobbs of New Deal, president of Plains Ginners Assn., sat in on several planning sessions and urged the cooperation of ginners with effort to raise the quality of plains cotton.

The new cotton guide was printed by Texas A&M College and 50,000 copies are to be distributed to farmers and others in the area.

Eleven of the top cotton officials in this area and in Texas assisted in drafting the cotton guide and have approved the information it contains.

These include Charles Fisher, Don L. Jones, Dr. J. D. Bilbro, all of Lubbock Experiment Station; Ernest Thaxton, formerly with the Lubbock Station, now project leader at a new experiment station at Pecos; Bill Taylor of Levelad, Hockley County Agent; Bill Kimbrough of Littlefield, Lamb County Agent; Ollie Linder of Hale County Agent; Lee McLeroy, Lubbock County Agent; John Box and Fred Elliott, both of the Extension Service at College Station; Dr. Tom Richmond, who has charge of cotton research at College Station; Dave Sherrill District Extension Service of Lubbock; Jones and Pfeifferberger.

The guide was edited by Conrad L. Lohoefer, director of public relations for PGC, and Tad Moses of the Extension Service Information Office, College Station.

Copies of the guide will be available from Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Office, 220 Lubbock National Bldg., or any county agents' office.

Report Reveals That Brazos River Has Water For Industry

MINERAL WELLS — Although the Brazos River watershed covers a sixth of the area of Texas and a sixth of its population, it contains only a tenth of the state's industry, according to a study just completed by the research section of the Brazos River Authority.

The basis of the study was number of employees of manufacturing plants according to 1956 figures, the latest firm data available. Texas as a whole had 524,193 workers in manufacturing plants, of whom 52,213 — or 9.96 per cent — were employed in the 65 counties that lie wholly or in part in the Brazos watershed.

The Brazos River Authority also queried Chambers of Commerce, in the watershed and close by, concerning the status of industry in their areas.

The Chamber managers unanimously declared that their cities had lost no industries for lack of water, even during the drought. But they were divided as to whether the water problem had kept new industries from moving into the Brazos watershed.

Several chambers reported that they had failed to win new industries because of the uncertainty of local water supplies, and others said that currently certain industries were hesitating to move into area for the same reason.

Various chambers estimated that assured supply of good-quality water might bring in enough new industry to increase their populations by 50 to 1,000 per cent.

Additional reservoirs on the Brazos and its main tributaries can provide the assured water supply that industry wants before it locates here," said J. H. Kultgen, of Waco, president of the Brazos River Authority.

"Our long-range plan of development provides for enough water to serve greatly growing cities and industries while at the same time supplying more water than ever for agriculture. There is enough water in the Brazos to serve all these needs, if we can agree on where to build the lakes to store it for dry periods."

When plants die or fail to make satisfactory growth, Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist, says that crown gall may be the trouble maker.

Texas Cotton Week is Set By Governor

Efforts to stimulate the sales of cotton products have been boosted with an official memorandum by Governor Price Daniel designating May 19-24 as Cotton Week in Texas.

With the action, Texas officially joined in the observance of National Cotton Week. More than 15,000 retail stores and many communities across the country are taking part.

"Cotton plays an important role in the economy of Texas, accounting for 33.2 per cent of the farm marketings, and bringing an income of over $630 million annually at the farm level," said Governor Daniel.

He also pointed out that the success of efforts to increase the use of cotton and cottonseed products will benefit millions of people who share in the prosperity of cotton.

Bronc Netters Win In District 7-B Play

In high school-junior events honors were won by Virgil Gilliam, third place, boys singles; Keith Tyler and Carl Walker, third, boys doubles; Janice Joplin, third, girls singles; and Bonnie Beasley and Jackie Carroll, first, girls doubles.

In the grade school events the following students placed: Jim Hester, second place, boys singles; Kay Martin, first, girls singles; Gene Finley and Don Murray, second, boys doubles; and Mary Smith and Barbara Benson, first, girls doubles.

Inoculation, Water Key To Successful Soybean Growth

Inoculation and September irrigation are essential to successful soybean production on the High Plains. This was shown in the tests conducted at the High Plains Station of the Texas Research Foundation in 1957.

Plots of the Lee variety which received September irrigation produced an average of 36 bushels per acre compared to 15 bushels per acre on plots receiving no water after August 25. Beans which were not inoculated produced only 18.5 bushels per acre compared to 36 on inoculated plots.

The application of nitrogen and phosphorus did not increase the yield in 1957. The plots receiving no fertilizer produced as much as did plots where 40 pounds of nitrogen and 40, 80 or 120 pounds of P2O5 were applied per acre.

A row spacing test was conducted with one and two rows per bed at seeding rate of 40, 50, 60 and 70 pounds per acre. The results of this test indicate no significant difference in yield between one and two rows per bed or between the seeding rates.

These tests will be repeated in 1958 with the addition of potash in the fertilization test.

The Brazos River Authority also queried Chambers of Commerce, in the watershed and close by, concerning the status of industry in their areas.

Additional reservoirs on the Brazos and its main tributaries can provide the assured water supply that industry wants before it locates here," said J. H. Kultgen, of Waco, president of the Brazos River Authority.

Judge Greenhill To Be Candidate For Texas' High Court

Joe Greenhill of Travis County announced his candidacy this week for his first elective term as associate justice of the Supreme Court of Texas.

Greenhill was appointed to the State's highest civil court last fall after 20 years of varied trial and appellate courts experience.

Greenhill came up from the ranks in Supreme Court work and has had extensive experience with the Court, having served for two terms as a briefing attorney. His first tenure was several years after graduating from the University of Texas. When World War II came he joined the navy, serving mainly in the Pacific.

After the war, he returned to Supreme Court work as briefing attorney for the late Chief Justice James P. Alexander, and the late Justices Few Brewster, John H. Sharp, C. S. Slatton and Graham Smedley, among others.

He then served three years in the attorney general's office, the last year as first assistant. Until his appointment last fall to take the place of the late Judge Brewster, he was in private practice.

Judge Greenhill is a native of Texas. His grandfather was a division passenger agent for the Santa Fe Railroad in Texas. His father, who died in 1917 when Joe Greenhill was three years old, was an accountant with the Texas Company.

His mother, Mrs. Violet S. Greenhill, who now lives in La Porte, is widely known throughout Texas for her welfare work and was a division chief with the State Welfare Department in the 30's.

In 1940 Greenhill married Martha Shuford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Shuford of Tyler. At the time, Mrs. Greenhill was teaching in the Austin Public Schools. Her brother is Harry Shuford, captain of the SMU football team that went to the Rose Bowl in 1935. The Greenhills have two children.

Judge Greenhill said he planned an active campaign and would visit all parts of the State before the July primary.

Sensing will share a convention program that also features discussions of Texas tax problems, the new economic impact of Texas agriculture, an outline of the state's new water program, and an analysis of the industrialization possibilities in West Texas.

The convention will also have

Mrs. Bill Copeland was installing officer when Meadow PTA met last Thursday night for their final meeting of the year and installation of officers.

Mrs. Robert Beasley was installed as president; Mrs. Billy McCallister, vice president; Mrs. Willie Blair, secretary, and Mrs. Don Murray, treasurer.

The program was presented by first and second grade pupils of Mmes. Woods, Stone and Carroll. They sang "Home on The Range," "Suzie, Little Suzie," and "Davy Crockett."

A play, "The Three Bears" followed with parts presented by Tommy Copeland, Terry Jones, Anna Jean Bowman and Ginger Tongate. Students of the second grade conducted the program with a barn scene and folk dance.

Texas Tech's annual Red Raider Round-Up, its intrasquad spring training football game, will be played in Jones Stadium at 8 p.m. Friday.

Coach DeWitt Weaver and his staff are dividing the Red Raiders as evenly as possible for the contest. Admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for others. No seats have been reserved.

Also Friday and Saturday will be the eighth annual coaching clinic with Navy's Eddie Erdelatz as guest lecturer. High school coaches have been invited to attend free of charge.

Texas Tech's track will be busy as the site of the Red Raider Relays Saturday afternoon. The event is conducted by the Lubbock Amateur Athletic Association.

Sensing, who will speak at the annual dinner on the evening of April 28, has received four awards from the Freedoms Foundation including one Certificate of Merit and three Medals of Honor.

Noted as a keen analyst of the political and economic scene, he is the author of a weekly column, "Sensing the NEWS," which appears in many Southern newspapers and is widely reprinted in other publications.

During the past few years, Sensing has made more than 600 addresses in 24 different states, the District of Columbia, Canada and England.

A Middle Tennessean by birth, Sensing holds a B. A. degree from Vanderbilt University and the M. A. degree from George Peabody College, Nashville. For a number of years he was business manager of Peabody.

A staunch advocate of individual freedom and a free competitive economy, his firsthand study of the situation in Great Britain, where he made an intensive study finding out what happens to a people's freedom and a people's economy under a socialist government, received wide attention.

The WTCC convention, with headquarters in the Hotel Texas, will begin registration at 3 p.m., April 27. The Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce is hosting a dinner for WTCC members and wives that evening, beginning at 6 p.m.

Also Friday and Saturday will be the eighth annual coaching clinic with Navy's Eddie Erdelatz as guest lecturer. High school coaches have been invited to attend free of charge.

Mental Health Week Set By Texas Governor

Governor Price Daniel today called upon Texas citizens to help fight mental illness by joining and supporting their local mental health associations.

In proclaiming April 27 to May 3 as Mental Health Week, the Governor said, "Mental illness poses one of the most serious problems facing our State and Nation and the problem continues to grow each year. It can only be conquered with the full support of all citizens."

Mental Health Week is being sponsored by the Texas Association for Mental Health in cooperation with the nationwide observance led by the National Association for Mental Health. With 23 local affiliates throughout the State, the Texas Association is a voluntary, non-profit organization which devotes itself exclusively to the total fight against mental illness and to the promotion of mental health.

In Fort Worth, Dallas, Tyler, Waco, Galveston, Marshall, Lubbock, Wichita Falls and Amarillo, Mental Health Week will launch a fund drive for the local associations. All over the state, Mental Health Week activities will spotlight the need for interested citizen action to improve treatment and rehabilitation services for the victims of this number one health problem.

The Governor pointed to the fact that 16,000 Texans are now in state mental hospitals and it is estimated that one in 12 Texans will be hospitalized for mental illness sometime during his lifetime.

However, he emphasized the hopeful aspects of the situation. "The tide is beginning to turn," he said. "More mentally ill persons are recovering, more research is getting underway, more communities are providing facilities for early detection, early treatment and rehabilitation."

"The Texas Association for Mental Health and its 23 local affiliates are working diligently in the fight against mental illness. Through a program of information, direct service to patients, and community-wide mental health education, the Association is seeking to reduce the terrible toll of mental illness."

Governor Daniel addressed his final remarks to all Texans: "I hope each of you will

AT REGAL—Robert Taylor, angered at the trouble-making activities of his brother, John Castavetes, snatches the six-shooter from his hand in "Saddle the Wind," M-G-M outdoor action-drama which is scheduled today through Saturday at the Regal.

Six-Star Cast Will Mark Film at Rustic

A magnificent six-star action picture filmed in the most thrilling color process ever brought to the screen will be presented Sunday and Monday at The Rustic.
It's Universal-International's "Night Passage," which has James Stewart and Audie Murphy heading its six-star cast.
The film is truly the most exciting package ever offered outdoor fans in a decade, since it combines the talents of two top-flight action heroes with a unique story screened in Technirama, the new wide screen process never before used in a movie, and which has more clarity and warmth than any other process to date.
Other stars: Dan Duryea, Brandon DeWilde, Dianne Foster and Elaine Stewart.

HE LOVES ME — He loves me not, Perri, delightful new Walt Disney heroine, asks the age old question regarding the squirrel in her life in this amusing scene from "Perri," which begins a three-day stint Sunday at The Rialto.

HER NAME: PERRI

New Personality In the Spotlight

A glamorous new personality has zoomed into Hollywood's spotlight with one surprising performance.
Her name is Perri.
She is Walt Disney's youngest protegee, making her bow in his live-action Technicolor feature production, "Perri," which begins a three-day run Sunday at The Rialto.
Born in the backwoods of Utah, growing up as wild as they come, she has defied every tradition in winning movie fame.
Unlike the many hopefuls who annually storm the film capital seeking recognition, Perri has never come within 1,000 miles of the studio.
Perri is a little pine squirrel, bright-eyed, spirited, swift-footed and graceful, elegant in her grey fur-coat and splendid plume. She is a thing to behold!

Highland Lakes Will Be Site Of Annual Bass Tournaments

Which of three Texas lakes will produce the largest bass officially taken this year in the State Bass Fishing Tournament?
This is the question now being asked, with the annual tournament transferred from Whitney to the Highland Lakes. The three lakes to be fished under the new rules will be Granite Shoals, Inks, and Buchanan.
Located in Central Texas they are expected to draw hundreds of fishermen from all over the state for the event scheduled May 22-25. The tournament is being sponsored by the Austin American Statesman and the Waco Tribune-Herald.
Entry can be made by sending your name and address and the name and address of your fishing partner to Russell Tinsley, Outdoor Editor of the Austin American Statesman, or Earl Golding, Outdoor Editor of the Waco Tribune-Herald. There is no entry fee.
Each team will be composed of two fishermen. They must qualify on either of the first two days, before their entry in the finals on the last day of the event. The total weight of the two-day catch determines the champ.
Only artificial lures are allowed, with no trolling and no minnow fishing. Only black bass of 12 inches or longer will be eligible.
Trophies will be awarded to the high team; individual; big bass champion; husband-wife teams; ladies team; ladies champ; and ladies' big bass champ. Trophies also will be awarded each day to the daily champions.
Tournament headquarters will be at the Inks Lake State Park. Fishing will be from an hour before sunup to 2:30 p.m. daily.

"FAVORITE RECIPE" — Pictured is Mrs. Arvil Hall of 802 North Second as she prepares her favorite recipe, fried okra salad. Her directions are: slice one pound of okra, or use one can of well drained okra, stir in enough flour to coat pieces and fry, slow, in covered skillet. As okra is cooking dice one fresh tomato, one small onion, one medium sour pickle and one small green pepper. Add the above diced vegetables and tablespoon of vinegar to the okra when it is done. According to Mrs. Hall, "This salad fits in with so many menus. I made it up myself when I was cooking at the local hospital and the nurses as well as the patients were always asking for fried okra salad." (NEWSfoto)

Germination Standards Drop for '57 Cotton Seed

The action permits producers of low germinating cottonseed, produced under certification regulations in 1957, to place certification tags on lots of seeds showing germinations down to 40 per cent. Young noted that in January the Board made temporary approval of lowering germination form 80 per cent to 60 per cent. The decision to again lower germination to 40 per cent was made at a meeting in Abilene March 29.

"Reason for the change is that farmers in some sections of the state already have had to replant their cotton acreage and were unable to find adequate high germinating seed for the replanting," Young said. "It is the Board's opinion," he explained, "that if it is necessary for growers to plant seed with germination below 60 per cent, it will be better to plant the low germination seed produced under certified regulations than to plant low germination seed of unknown or questionable origin."

A farmer should expect to purchase the low germinating seed at a reduced price since it will contain less live seed per bushel than seed germinating at a higher percentage. "However, the reduction in price can not be proportional to the reduction in germination since it costs the same to cull, treat, bag and tag both the low and higher germination seed," he added.

Planned Planting Is Good Garden Rule

State Capital NEWS

By VERN SAFFORD

Texas Press Association — Next summer's campaigners are tuning up to play from a familiar score — the conservative vs. liberal melody Texas voters have been hearing for years.

But, like the rock 'n roll version of a Stephen Foster song, it may sound different. Campaign pitches will have to keep time to the fast beat of 1958's new issues. Such as "curing the recession" and "catching up in education."

On the federal level, talk is of cutting taxes to give the people more money to spend. Here in Texas, it's raising taxes to give the state more money to spend. In a situation like this, a voter can get confused.

For each issue, there'll be several choruses — more or less drowning each other out. Some will chant of scaring away recession with large-scale government spending. Others will say the only way is to give business a break.

For schools, some are calling for a nationwide program to require more work from students, provide better teachers at better pay, more lab equipment, scholarships for promising students, etc. But many Texans say "never" to any scheme that would eat away at local control over schools.

On how to get money to bail out the state treasury, there are already a number of tunes being struck up — sales taxes, income taxes, corporation taxes, more economy in government — but no prospect of close harmony.

COWBOY HAT IN RING — One morning, in between pouring his coffee and finishing his bacon, William A. Blakely decided to run for the U.S. Senate.

Blakely served as junior U. S. senator for four months last year as the appointee of former Gov. Allan Shivers. He was not a candidate in the special election when Ralph Yarborough was named to succeed him.

Son of Oklahoma homesteaders who had to "work out" for other farmers, Blakely parlayed a little grit into a lot of money — in law, banking, real estate, ranching, oil, gas, insurance and an air line.

He'll not be troubled by most candidates' sorest problem — raising campaign funds.

Incumbent Yarborough has made statements leaving the door open for either of two courses — running for another Senate term or a fourth try at the governorship.

PURSE-WATCHER NEEDED — Texas' governor should have some power to keep a hand on state purse strings after the Legislature leaves.

So says Vernon McGee, director of the Legislative Budget Board. McGee heads the board with responsibility for studying the fiscal needs of all state departments and making recommendations to the Legislature.

Under present system, McGee pointed out, after the Legislature makes its appropriations, only the individual department heads are responsible for how the money is spent.

Many administrators are admirably "tight-fisted," McGee said, but others will spend money that could be saved for later needs, just because they have it.

McGee's recommendation: give the governor authority to ask for periodic reports from departments and to cut from their budgets items no longer necessary.

Most other states have this system, said McGee.

STILL TOO MUCH OIL — Despite severe cuts in production, Texas is still producing more oil than anyone wants to buy. It could mean even deeper cuts and more idle drilling rigs next month.

Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson noted an increase of 1,208,000 barrels in stocks of crude oil. It shows, he said, that April's low-in-histroy, 8-day production pattern was needed.

He suggested that new wells coming in may make an even lower pattern necessary for May.

SET TO GO—Texas Highway Department is poised for a $36,000,000 speed-up in road building if a new stepped-up federal aid bill becomes law.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said the bill, sent to the President by Congress, would enable Texas to avoid a summer lull in highway construction. Texas has already planned the projects in anticipation of the money, said Greer.

Designed as an anti-recession measure, the bill specifies the extra money must be spent within 12 months.

It won't put all the unemployed people to work, said Greer, but it will stimulate the economy. And, he added, it's not a "leaf-raking job."

SCIENTISTS MUST EAT — With all the emphasis on scientific education, importance of training farmers and ranchers should not be neglected, said Gov. Price Daniel.

Speaking to a Future Farmers group, the governor said food is as necessary to the nation's defense as development of better weapons.

Texas' farm population, he noted, has declined by more than one-half since 1933.

PINCH ON SMALL SCHOOLS — Small schools are going to have to help to meet higher state standards in math and science, says Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro. Beginning with the 1959-60 term, high schools are to be required to teach four years of science and four years of math. Sen. Martin said he doubted smaller districts had or could get, without assistance, the necessary staff and equipment to meet the new standard.

"Most have gymnasiums," he observed, "but a lot lack laboratories."

SHORT SNORTS — Deaths from industrial accidents dropped from 167 for the first three months of last year to 152 for the same period this year, reports the Industrial Accident Board.

Named by Governor Daniel to the Texas Civil Judicial Council: John Peace of San Antonio, Emil Rassman of Midland, Chief Justice T. C. Chadick of the Texarkana Court of Civil Appeals and Baylor University law dean Abner V. McCall of Waco (reappointed). Council is to advise Legislature on civil court matters.

Other gubernatorial appointments: George Dahl of Dallas and Louis Page of Austin to the Texas Board of Architectural Examiners. Mrs. James L. Moore of San Antonio to the State Board of Cosmetology.

Unemployment claims inched up slightly — from 89,326 to 89,786 — in latest weekly report, but Texas Employment Commission officials expressed confidence that the month as a whole would show a drop in number of jobless. Texas' traffic fatality score for 1958 looks better than this time last year — 444 compared to 506 in 1957. But Texas is still apparently a pretty dangerous place for driving, second only to California in road fatalities, says the governor's traffic safety director, Brad Smith.

Carl H. Chatters, Chicago city official: "We cannot have both low priced money for municipalities and high priced or scarce money to curb inflation."

THE NEXT BEST THING TO PUSH-BUTTON FARMING...

Cultivating with a JOHN DEERE

You've no idea how much easier it is to do good work at cultivating time until you've handled a new John Deere Tractor and Cultivator in the field. For the first time, you'll come in from a long day without tired arms and shoulders, without a sore back or a stiff neck. That's because John Deere has taken all the hard work out of hooking up the cultivator . . . all the muscle work out of operating the rigs singly or in unison . . . all the fight out of steering . . . all the strain out of watching the rows. That's why cultivating with a John Deere is the next best thing to push-button farming.

AMMO-PHOS fertilizers are highly water soluble and we can prove it by simply placing a small amount of AMMO-PHOS in water and placing the same amount of an ordinary fertilizer in another equal amount of water. You'll be able to see how water soluble AMMO-PHOS GOES INTO SOLUTION while the ordinary fertilizer collects at the bottom of the glass. You'll know then why AMMO-PHOS fertilizers give the quickest response to crops.

Advance commitments indicate that the first annual Governor's Conference on Boating and Firearms Safety in Austin May 5 will attract "several hundred Texans", according to Ted Scibienski, director of Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas, who will be moderator for the day-long program.

"We expect a generous representation of people who make boats and guns plus individuals and agencies instrumental in having them used as well as groups concerned about reducing incidental hazards," said Scibienski.

A major factor in the firearms phase of the meeting will be the National Rifle Association which, said Scibienski, will conduct an instructors' training course the day following the conference providing sufficient advance interest is indicated.

Pamphlets are being distributed with attached cards for Texans to state their intention of attending the first such statewide gathering.

Scibienski said the need for the water safety phase of the unprecedented conference already is pointed up by the seasonal surge of Texans to their favorite lakes and streams.

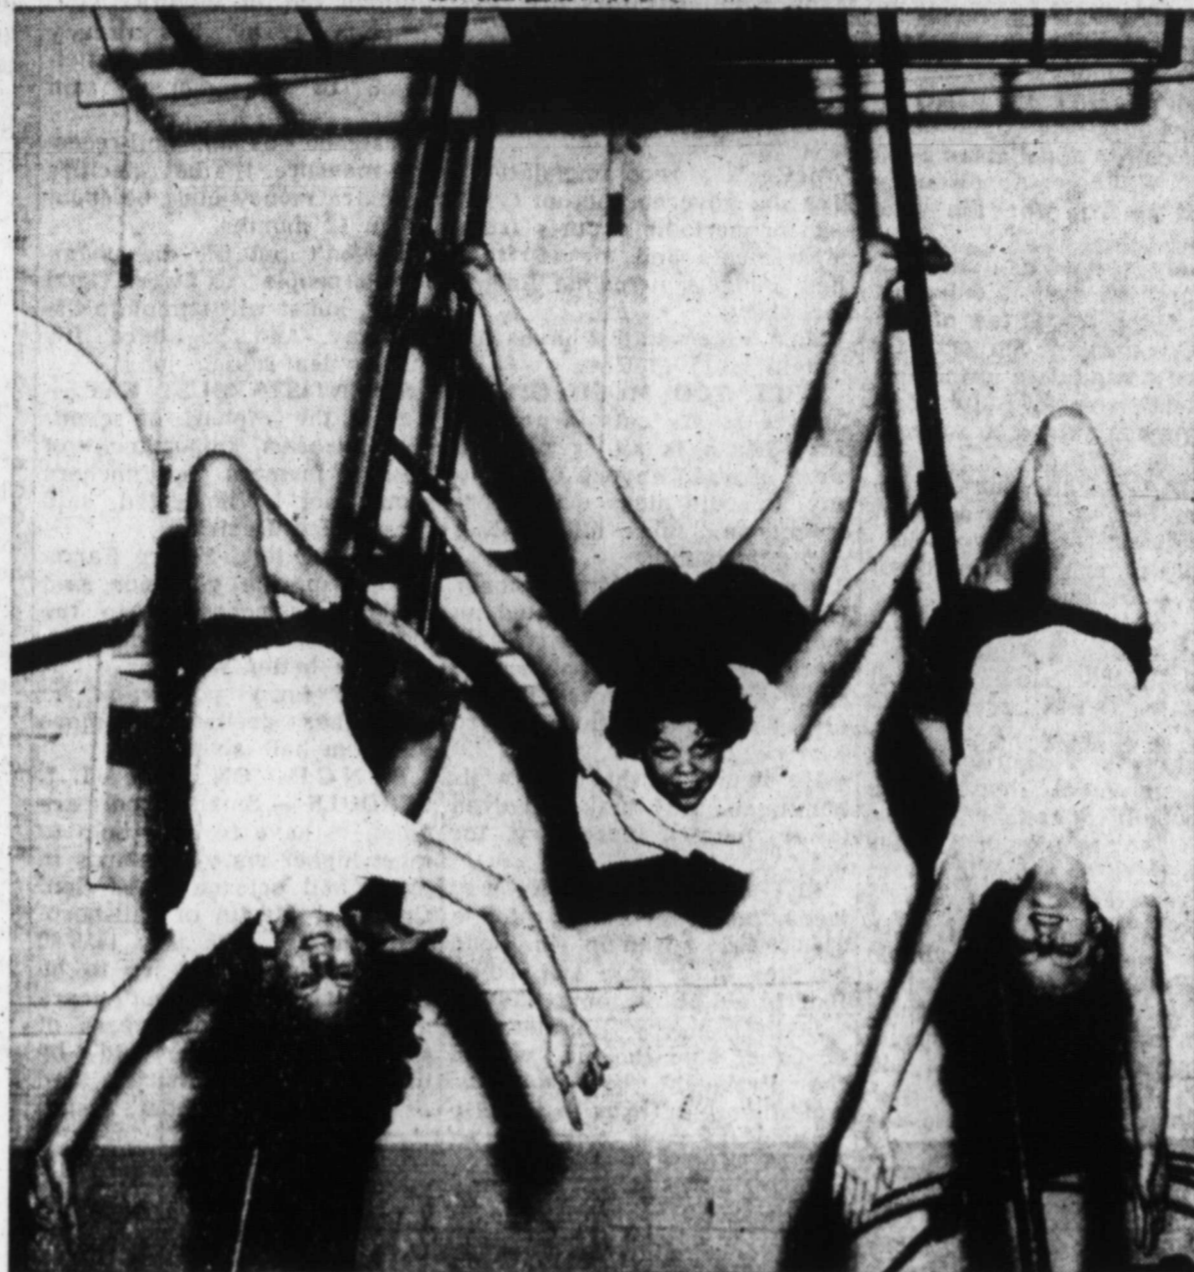

"Some areas already have enacted their own regulations, such as restricting power of motor propelled craft and otherwise controlling affairs to eliminate conflict between fishermen and water skiers, for the mutual benefit of all," said SCOT's official.

"By exchanging ideas among the boat people, the skiers, the fishermen and law enforcement authorities we hope to establish the best pattern for safe and pleasant utilization of our waterways."

Already linked to the movement in an organizational capacity are representatives of the Governor's Office, State Department of Public Safety, State Sheriffs Association, State Department of Health, Texas Game and Fish Commission, Texas Education Agency, the Adjutant General's Office, Texas Safety Council, Armed Forces, Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, FFA, 4-H Clubs, Texas A & M College, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Boating Trades Assoc. of Dallas, Texas-Press Association, Texas Association of Broadcasters, Texas Daily Press Association, and the Coast Guard.

Lately, according to Scibienski, several groups such as the American Water Skiers Association, and the various Power Squadron Units have indicated

Seed is scarce... make everyone pay off!

Treat your cotton seed furrows with ORTHOCIDE Soil Treater X—the new ORTHO soil fungicide.

You need no special equipment with this easy planter-box treatment. Just sift the dust (1 1/2 - 3 lbs. per bushel) directly on the seed in the planter-box. It's as simple as that! The dust gives previously treated seed added protection from seed rot. The excess material filters down into the furrow and forms a "protected zone" around the seed and seedling. With planter attached duster equipment, apply 10-12 lbs. of ORTHOCIDE Soil Treater X per acre.

Reduces losses due to damping-off, sore shin, sore shank, seedling blight, seedling root rot, other seed and soil diseases.

Order ORTHO Soil Treater X from your ginster today.
