AUSTRIANS CLAIM BIG VICTORY OVER RUSSIANS; ALLIES' LINES APPEAR TO BE HOLDING GERMANS

RUSSIANS ARE RETREATING BEFORE AUSTRIANS REPORT

Germans Claim Important Victory By Austrian Troops In Russian Poland

By Associated Press.

Berlin by Wireless to the A. P. by way of Nauen, Germany, and Sayville, L. I., Aug. 26.—Official reports made public in Vienna and received here by telegraph say that a battle of three days' duration at Krasnik in Russian Poland, 28 miles southwest of Lublin, ended yesterday in complete Austrian victory. The Russian forces were repulsed along the entire front of 42 miles, and now are in full flight in the direction of Lublin.

FIGHTING CONTINUES TODAY ALONG THE FRENCH-BELGIAN FRONTIER

By Associated Press.

Paris, 11 a. m., Aug. 26.—The French war office was silent this morning. No official statement has been issued. Official military opinion is that the fighting along the French-Belgian frontier continues. Confidence exists in Paris that the Allies will hold off the German attack and take the offensive when the proper strategic moment arrives.

JAPANESE ATTACK UPON TSING KAU HAS FAILED AND SIEGE IS BEGUN

By Associated Press.

New York, Aug. 28.—The Japanese attack on Esing Kau, the fortified port of the territory of the Kio Chow, has failed, and the Japanese are preparing for a siege according to a cable message received here today by Count Von Bernsdorf, German ambassador to the United States, from the German embassy at Peking. Count Von Bernsdorf said the cable message contained no details but merely announced the failure of the Japanese.

"The information undoubtedly is correct," he said.

RUSSIANS CLAIM VICTORIES OVER GERMANS AND AUSTRIANS—ALLIED ARMIES AGAIN TAKE OFFENSIVE

Official reports made public in Vienna and transmitted from Berlin by wireless state that a battle of three days' duration at Krasnik in Russian Poland ended yesterday in a complete Austrian victory. The Russian forces were repulsed along the entire front and are in full flight in the direction of Lublin. This is the first indication of an Austrian advance into Russian territory. Krasnik is about twenty miles north of the Galician frontier.

It was announced officially in Berlin today that Lieut. General Prince Frederick of Saxe-Meininingen had been killed by a shell before Namur on August 23.

A news dispatch received in London from Antwerp conveys the report that Brand Whitlock the American minister to Belgium sent an energetic protest to the German government against the hurling of bombs into Antwerp from a Zeppelin airship.

Dispatches from St. Petersburg announce fresh victories against both Germany and Austria by Russian troops who are now said to occupy the whole of the eastern and southern half of East Prussia. The Russian armies are declared, officially, to be continuing the offensive.

A news dispatch received in London from the Russian capital described the great bulk of the Russian army as marching silently, but with terrible force in Posen in Prussia. The authorities at St. Petersburg have issued orders dismissing the German and Austrian princes as honorary commandants of the Russian regiments and depriving them of Russian decorations. This has never been done before in any war.

Rome reports the receipt by the Italian government of a telegram from General Conrad, chief of the Austrian staff, characterizing as absolutely without foundation the report that Austria has aggressive intentions toward Italy.

News dispatches received in London from Ostend say it is believed the Germans are planning to occupy that place for use later as a base of naval operations against England. Ostend is only 65 miles from the British coast.

The North German Lloyd steamer Princess Alice has put into the port of Cebu in the Philippines with a hole in her side. The captain reports that he tried to get the German island of Yap by wireless, but found that the station had been destroyed by the British.

The Belgian royal family will abandon its temporary residence in Antwerp, establishing themselves in a secret place in the city. This step will be taken as a protection against bombs dropped from Zeppelins, as the royal palace appears to be the objective of these efforts.

ZEPPELIN BOMB DROPPERS STRIKE FEAR IN ANTWERP

American Minister to Belgium Is Reported to Have Protested to German Government

By Associated Press.

London, 3:26 p. m., Aug. 26.—A dispatch to the Daily News from its Antwerp correspondent says that another raid on the city by a Zeppelin airship was attempted today. The effective measures taken by the Belgian military authorities forced the airship to retire.

AMERICAN MINISTER WHITLOCK SENDS AN ENERGETIC PROTEST

By Associated Press.

London, 1:38 p. m., Aug. 26.—The Daily News publishes a dispatch from its Antwerp correspondent saying that it is reported there that Brand Whitlock, the American minister to Belgium, has sent an energetic protest to the German government against the hurling of bombs into that city from airships.

GREAT HAVOC WROUGHT IN ANTWERP BY BOMBS DROPPED FROM SKY

By Associated Press.

London, 7:15 a. m., Aug. 26.—The bomb dropping exploit of the Zeppelin airship at Antwerp promises to become a matter of the widest international consideration. The Belgian authorities claim that the attack was a clear violation of Article 26, of the Fourth Hague convention, and are preparing to protest officially to all the powers against this manner of warfare.

Accounts vary as to the amount of damage done by the aerial fighter. One account says 26 lives were lost, although from more conservative sources it is reported only twelve bodies have been recovered from the ruins of wrecked houses.

A dispatch regarded as semi-official says that 900 houses were slightly damaged and sixty nearly destroyed. This dispatch published by the Chronicle here says: "For the first time in history a great civilized community has been bombarded from the sky in the dead of night. Count Zeppelin, whom the German emperor declared was the greatest genius of history has performed the greatest exploit of his life. He has thrown bombs on hospitals where Belgians were attending German wounded. He has staggered humanity. On August 5 the German commander warned General Leyman at Liege that if the forts continued their defense the Zeppelin fleet would move against Belgium. The Germans have been as good as their word."

GERMAN ATTACK ON FRENCH SOUTHERN FRONTIER TUESDAY, WAS REPULSED

By Associated Press.

London, 5:26 p. m., Aug. 26.—German forces delivered an attack on the French southern frontier Tuesday. They were repulsed and retired all along the line, according to an official announcement.

By Associated Press.

London, 4:02 p. m., Aug. 26.—A dispatch from Antwerp says the Belgian operations beyond Malines were continued through last night. The Belgian forces succeeded in destroying defensive works constructed by the Germans.

SENATE ENGAGES IN BOOTLESS CONTROVETSY

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 26.—Objections to hearing addresses from prominent Texans on the warehouse matter on the grounds of undue political activity took up the morning session of the Senate today.

PROCEEDINGS TODAY IN DISTRICT COURT

Acting Judge Nicholson in the district court this afternoon dismissed the case of B. L. Collins et al vs. J. H. Lynn and N. B. Chenault in a suit for damages in the sum of $10,000. The case is a disagreement over the drilling of an oil well in the Burk Burnett district in which the plaintiffs claimed that the defendants who were the drilling contractors, drilled through a paying sand and brought in a dry hole, when if they had stopped at the alleged sand they would have had a paying well.

JAPAN'S INTERESTS IN AUSTRIA WITH THE U. S.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Aug. 26.—The Japanese ambassador in Vienna has placed his government's interests in Austria in the hands of the American embassy at Vienna and planned to leave Austria tonight for Bern, Switzerland.

NEW VARIETY BLACKBERRY BEARS FRUIT IN AUGUST

Austin, Texas, Aug. 26.—Epicures will be interested in an announcement from the state department of agriculture that a new variety of blackberry, which will furnish the toothsome fruit right up to frost, has been discovered in Johnson county. The bush begins to bear in August.

BIG STEAMER SUNK OFF SEATTLE TODAY

By Associated Press.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 26.—The Pacific-Alaska Navigation Company's steamer, Admiral Sampson, was sunk this morning at Point No-Point, 20 miles from Seattle by the Canadian Pacific liner Princess Victoria. The Princess Victoria reporting the accident says she was proceeding to Seattle with most of the passengers and the crew of the wrecked steamer.

TEN LIVES REPORTED LOST

The Admiral Sampson sank in four minutes. The collision took place at 6:30 o'clock this morning. The Admiral Watson bound for San Francisco was near the scene of the accident at the time. It was supposed the collision was due to fog and the smoke from forest fires. Ten lives were reported lost.

GERMAN NOBLEMAN IS KILLED BY A SHELL

By Associated Press.

Berlin, by wireless by way of Nauen, Germany, and Sayville, Long Island, Aug. 26.—According to an official announcement made here today, Lieutenant General Prince Frederick of Saxe-Meininingen was killed by a shell before Namur, August 23. No news of the situations on the eastern or western frontiers of Germany, have been given out today.

REPORTED AUSTRIA DECLARES WAR UPON JAPAN

Rome via Paris, 5:20 a. m. Aug. 26.—A dispatch from Vienna received here says that Austria has declared war on Japan.

RUSSIANS CONTINUE THEIR VICTORIES

By Associated Press.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 26.—The Russian army is now occupying the whole of the eastern and the southern half of Eastern Prussia.

GERMANS LEAVE ARTILLERY

London, Aug. 26, (1:15 p. m.).—The Russian embassy is in receipt of a telegram from the general staff at St. Petersburg, which announced fresh Russian victories against both Germany and Austria. These messages declare that the Russian troops now occupy the whole of the eastern and the southern half of Eastern Prussia.

Writer Sets Forth Facts Concerning The Slavic Race

At the request of some of its readers of Slavic descent The Times here with reproduces an article written for the Dallas News by F. A. Parma of Granger, Texas, in which he endeavors to correct some popular misconceptions concerning the Slavic people. The article follows:

It is time to give the American public true information about the Slavonic people in Europe and entire world. Our American tourists visit the Western Europe every year in large numbers and come in contact with the Latins, Franks and Teutons; but comparatively very few visit Eastern Europe, inhabited mostly by Slavonic people. Many Americans can either speak, or at least understand, the German, and French languages, but very few know or understand barely a few words of Slavonic languages or dialects. Too many writers, at present, volunteer to enlighten the American public through American press on the "Slavonic Problem," and naturally, mostly through ignorance, but in some instances perhaps through National hatred and prejudice, the information they give is based upon misrepresentation and therefore in all cases is untrue and misleading.

Slavs are today presented to American public as barbaric, uneducated, selfish, land grabbing, domineering and warlike people, dangerous to civilization. Now, to prove all those assertions as either ignorance or deliberate, willful falsehood, I am compelled to refer the American public, requesting them to apply their own experience with people of Slavonic origin, who actually live in the United States and are our next door neighbors, for a long number of years. Does the American public find them such as most of the writers now describe their co-nationalists in Europe are supposed to be? Are they domineering and warlike? There are many localities in the United States where Slavs have a decided majority of population to American, English speaking people. Do the Americans find them domineering, unruly, warlike, etc., because of their superior numbers? I feel certain that American public will give the Slav an imperialist verdict, which will compare favorably with the Teuton neighbor.

Didn't Get Farther by Force. It is true that the Slavs like their own land, being mostly and from time immemorial agricultural people, but they certainly are not land grabbers. None of the Slavs got their farms anywhere in the United States by force, squatting or any illegal way; precious few of them availed themselves of the advantages of free homestead grants, but nearly all of them paid hard cash, earned by hard manual work, for every acre of land they possess—and we all know well how hard they work to get the possible results from the land they cultivate. Does the American public find their Slav neighbors as barbaric? Certainly not. Some of their customs, it is true, but they can not be called barbaric by long means. They may seem strange to us, but civilized people have customs strange to each other. It is true that we find some Slavs in the United States unable to speak the English language. We find, however, very few of them unable to read and write their own language. Can we pronounce them as uneducated, illiterate, ignorant? Certainly not.

To disprove the assertions of the many prejudiced, volunteer information of this day, I refer the American public to encyclopedias. They all agree that the Slavonic nations, from the time their history begins, way back to the time of Roman Caesars, have been peace loving people, who never started wars for conquest, but fought valiantly in defense of their homes, when invaded by the hosts of conqueror. They did not change in that particular. Because the word "Slav" resembles the word "slave," some present writers show their ignorance by hasty deduction, that the word Slav has been derived from the word slave, and that Slavonic people have originally been actual slaves to some other Nation. Those writers certainly failed to consult some encyclopedias before they published their own ignorance. They would have found in any encyclopedia that the word Slav has been derived from the word "salva," which means "glory," or from the word "slovo," which means the "word spoken word." The earliest history describes Slavonic Nations as "liberty loving, democratic and opposed to absolutism. Their early rulers were no despots. It is true that the feudal system of Europe has been forced on Slavs as well as on the English, French and German people, but the Slavs were about the last to be beaten to submission and kept on dragging to east off the feudal burden—even at the time when their Teutonic neighbors tamely submitted to carry the same yoke. Never Found Behind Neighbors. As to civilization, the Bohemian and Polish Slavs were never found behind their Teuton neighbors. The University of Prague, Bohemia, was founded in 1346 and became most celebrated in all Europe within seventy years following its foundation. No principle of the present Germany was a part of a university antedating the University of Prague. After Christianity had been introduced into Bohemia, the first half of the ninth century, the first Christian ruler of Bohemia, Wenceslaus First, termed Saint, strove with all his might to abolish slavery in his dominions and actually abolished the death penalty. He also used his endeavors to avert wars and unjust National quarrels by arbitration. When forced to war by a warlike neighbor, Duke Rudolph, when both Saint Wenceslaus sent a message to Rudolph couched in the following words: "Why shall you and thy people suffer in battle for our particular disagreement? Let me and you meet in a fair fight and let Providence decide between us." Rudolph gladly accepted this proposition, being the stouter, older, better mounted and more experienced warrior and certain to easily run down his opponent. History gives us the result of this bloody duel and signal victory of Saint Wenceslaus and consequent friendship between him and his opponent, Rudolph. It is a pity that Christian rulers did not and do not follow the noble example of Saint Wenceslaus of Bohemia. If they did there would have been no wars among Christian Nations, no consequent hardships and even the peace tribunal at The Hague (a shameful misnomer of battle Europe) would have had its cause to be established. Verily, there is no cause whatever to fear any Slavonic peril, whatever be the result of present European war. The world may rest easy. I admit that racial hatred and commercial competition are principal causes of this war. Balkan Slavonic Nations feel the time has come to throw off the Teutonic oppression and domineering they had to suffer for ages. Teutons aided the Turk in keeping the Christian Slavs as actual slaves. The civilized Teuton stands before the world as abettor of the Turk in his merciless, bloody, murderous barbarities inflicted on the Slavonic people subjects in Balkan. He who knows what atrocities had the Balkan people suffer at the hands of the Turk for centuries back in 1912, will not wonder that the Turk was made to take some of his own medicine when time of retribution arrived. Result of Oppression. The rumblings of discontent now in Austro-Hungary are direct result of the Teuton-Magyar oppression of Bohemians, Slovaks, Croats, Slavonians, Serbs and other Slav Nations ruled by the Teuton "Hapsburgs." It will prove a Herculean task for Francis Joseph and his minions to compel the Slavonic majority in his dominions (there being from 27,900,000 to 30,000,000 of Slavs out of the 50,000,000 population of Austro-Hungary) to fight their fellow brethren in Balkans and Russia. The French Joseph government faces now a general revolt and Kaiser William will soon find to his cost that his ally will have a world of trouble to keep up his own throne. Instead of aiding brother William Francis Joseph may easily be brought to such stress that he will implore aid from brother William. By scientific manipulation of official census, Austro-Hungary managed to pose before the world as a "German State." By bayonet threat and if needed military support from Berlin, the Hapsburg government kept her Slavonic subjects in obedience, forcing them to deliver their taxes in blood and money for the sustenance of a government of a Cardinal Francesco Della Volpe, chamberlain of the Vatican, now has charge of the church affairs until a new pope is selected by the conclave of cardinals. He is shown in this illustration surrounded by some of the other cardinals whose names have been mentioned in connection with the election. No one can tell upon whom the choice will fall. His picture may appear in this group or he may be some obscure prelate whose name has never been even dreamed of, as was the case with Cardinal Sarto, the late Pope Pius X. There are four cardinals in the class the Italians describe as "infamiti" or persons of disreputable past, chances and caliber. These are Cardinals Serafini, Vanutelli, Gotti, Ferrari and Della Chiesa. These Catholics who would like the religious policy of Pius X, perpetuated without a Merry del Val look with favor upon Cardinal Serafini Vanutelli, who is eighty years of age. Like Rampolla, he has had no active part in National Affairs for the last few years, unlike his brother, Cardinal, Massimo Vanutelli, who has filled several honorable offices. Serafini Vanutelli is dean of the sacred college, having succeeded Cardinal Gregorio di Santo Stefano. He is grand penitentiary, bishop of Ostia and Volterra and successor in office to the late Cardinal Pirochelli. Girolamo Maria Gotti was born in 1824 and created cardinal in 1895. Andrea Ferrari, archbishop of Milan, was born in 1850 and created cardinal in 1894. Cardinal Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna, was only appointed to the sacred college last May, but he is held to be strong among the Italian cardinals, besides being on good terms with the Quirinal. A fifth favorite is Cardinal Ferrata, the secretary of the Congregation of the Holy Office. He is sixty-seven years of age and was made a cardinal in 1896. It has been said more or less humorously, that it will be found that Pius C. has indicated him as his successor just as Leo XIII. indicated Cardinal Rampolla.

CURRENCY REFORM ENGAGES FARMERS

THIS WILL BE CHIEF SUBJECT AT COMING CONVENTION OF FARMERS' UNION

MEETING AT FORT WORTH

Convention Will Be Attended By Representatives Every Branch of Agriculture

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 26.—Tables will be turned by the farmers of the nation in a business-like little educational campaign they will begin for the benefit of the public after the tenth-annual convention of the National Farmers' Union that opens here September 1.

Currency reform, as the need is understood by the farmer, will be an important subject with the union at the approaching convention. A. C. Davis of Gravette, Ark., National secretary-treasurer said recently.

"The impression has gotten abroad in some sections that the farmer, in seeking some form of rural finance, is asking for charity. By following the work of the coming meeting of the greatest body of organized farmers on the American continent, the general public will realize that the farmer is but asking the privilege of establishing himself upon a firm financial footing."

The convention will open September 1. Unlike most big conventions, its program is not set as to time. The convention will adjourn when the farmers have finished their business, whether it takes two days or a week.

Secretary Davis is jubilant over the reports that are coming to him of large crowds that will journey to Fort Worth from every section of the country for what officials of the union regard as the organization's most important convention.

Because of the present crisis in the South, owing to the demoralized condition of the cotton market, it is certain that ways and means for disposing of this crop without serious loss to the planters will engage the attention of the convention as much as any other question.

The convention, though will not be sectional. Every section of the country will send delegates and visitors and every line of agricultural industry will be represented.

The tobacco growers of Virginia, the Carolinas, Kentucky and the East will be here in large numbers; the raisin growers of California, the peach growers of Georgia, Texas and Arkansas; the orange growers of Florida, grain and stock men from the northern and middle western states, the cotton planter of the South and truck growers from every quarter of the land will come to the council for the betterment of rural life conditions.

Twenty-two states, reaching from Virginia to California and from Teuton tyrant, and receive nothing in return but bear the insolence of Teuton oppressors within the Slavonic territory and even in their own homes or the past forty-eight years, the reigning of the Pan Germanic era, the Prussia for Hapsburg Government. These are cold facts. I venture to assert that out of the more than 50,000,000 of Slavs who originated from Austro-Hungary to the United States, scarcely 100 can be found who have a word of praise for the "Hapsburg" government, much less feel any affection to Franz Joseph or his family. They certainly easily adhere their allegiance to Franz Joseph when signing their naturalization papers in the United States. No ear of jerjury in that score. I am certain that no Austro-Hungarian Slav in the United States will return to take up arms in defense of Austria and Germany. If he were to find some lacking good common sense, actually willing to fight in this war, you will find every one of them in the Serbian, French or Russian armies. They warmly sympathize with their consanguineal Austro-Hungary, who, no doubt will suffer physical and mental agonies in this war, but the sympathies are with the oppressed and not with their home oppressors. We certainly have natural rights to sympathize with our consanguineal Europe, Slavonic, Teuton, Frank or English, but President Wilson vividly reminds us that our sympathies shall be guarded by the fact that we are all United States citizens and as such are fellow brethren in the United States. We are not quarrels in Europe are not our quarrels. Let Europe adjust her own grievances. I write these lines not in spirit of hatred or animosity to German fellow citizens and friends, but with the view of pre-

BELIEVING ON CHRIST THEME

HE DELIVERS LAST SERMON

Evangelist Leaves For Alabama And Rev. Hubbard Takes Charge of Meetings

Evangelist Martin delivered his final sermon to a great audience at the First Baptist Church last night speaking on the subject, "What It Means to Believe on Christ." Beginning with today's meeting Evangelist Hubbard takes charge of the services.

The song service last night under the leadership of Mr. Rabern was one of the inspiring features of the meetings.

Evangelist Martin devoted some time to the explanation of how he became a minister. It seems he gave up a career of practicing law, gave up every thing to be a minister, after he made the decision to become one. He said that since he had done that, he wanted to become a preacher, he decided that there was only one way or him to preach that would repay him, directly for and in the service of God. When it came to what denomination he should follow, he admitted that his decision favored being a Baptist. He said that he had been a Catholic priest and a Baptist pastor. They, Baptist and Catholics, are the only two religious bodies that have endured since Christ, he said. Finally, after lots of study, he decided upon the Baptist. The Baptist church, he said, is built up on Jesus Christ, the Catholic church is built upon the word of the apostle Peter, he explained. And all other churches were instituted by man. All religious bodies consisted of only two heavenly doctrines, the way of salvation and the way of baptizing.

Joining Church Don't Save.

Discussing the joining of the right church, he declared, that if you join any church with the object in view of only being saved by that institution, you were merely increasing your already fast dash to hell; and if you are baptised with that object only in view, to be saved, you were creating the very object which causes you to be baptised. For first it is necessary to receive and believe on the Word of Christ, baptism being an after consideration.

The minister explained the meaning of "Believe on Christ." He said that he full import of the phrase rested on the word "on." Many people believe about God, he explained, but they do not believe in God, they trust their whole life and the chance of their salvation "on" Christ, are rare indeed. He said that to believe about nothing was easy when compared to believing on anything. For example, one were perfectly willing to take another person's word that a bridge would be safe to cross, he believed about it. But let it look unsafe and shakily and that person asks you to take his word for its safety and walk across it—then you wanted to be sure after you had tested it, then you would be willing to believe on the bridge he said. Believing on Christ was the same way. Almost any one is willing to believe about Him, but they are not willing to trust all to His mercy. That proposition requires investigation as does the bridge belief, the minister explained.

"You are never saved until you set your whole salvation upon the Word of Jesus Christ. There can be no half way about it; you must trust our whole life; your all to Him," the minister exclaimed.

One night, Rev. Martin said he was scheduled to preach before an audience of 1500 at Baylor University. There was a young man there by the name of Evans who was the bride, envy and admiration of the whole university. He was not an influential fact, that he had been taken out of a parsonage to be given a place as teacher in the college. When T. T. Martin heard him render a piece on the piano, he had an intense desire to secure the service of the young man for a college in Blue Mountain, and had fully determined to offer to contribute $200 a year to help pay his salary. After Martin had preached a while, the young man came running up to the pulpit and admitted that he had never been saved before that night. The pastor said that he got to thinking that Texas needed that young man about as bad as old Blue Mountain, Tenn. There were numerous young people in Texas who needed his instructions and he decided never to mention the thing to the Tennessee college trustees. He said he considered that Texas had a right to the young man.

The speaker dwelt upon the fact that this would be his last opportunity to try to convince the unaved members of the congregation that they should give their whole soul into the keeping of Jesus Christ. He asked for about five minutes of their time in which to show any honest thinking man or woman that the only right way to be saved was to give your hand to God. "If we trust Him, He will save us, if we go right ahead conducting ourselves honestly and rightly," he declared. "For he that comes unto me shall in nowise be cast out," and "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on my Word has (right then) everlasting life," the pastor quoted.

The speaker went on to explain that God had said, "You keep my commandments and I will save you." But owing to the fact that this is impossible, God had sent his only son to earth, to suffer and endure every form of horrible torture, finally dying on the cross to redeem the world and free sinners from all iniquity.

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated. Testimony of Wichita Falls Citizens.

When a Wichita Falls citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Dean's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Wichita Falls resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

Mrs. G. A. Swope, carpenter, 612 Burnett Street, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "I had pains across the small of my back and in my sides and trouble with the kidney secretions. My ankles became swollen. A few boxes of Dean's Kidney Pills cured me. I seldom have occasion to use a kidney remedy now, but when I do, Dean's Kidney Pills always give fine results."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Pills—the same that Mrs. Swope had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Fort Worth—On the basis of an agreement between the Dallas and Houston Currency Associations and Secretary of the Treasury—McAdoo, the Fort Worth Currency Association which was recently organized, has been assigned 108 counties in North, West and Southwest Texas. Membership is restricted to national banks doing business in the stipulated counties.

THE TREY OF HEARTS

The speaker went on to explain that God had said, "You keep my commandments and I will save you." But owing to the fact that this is impossible, God had sent his only son to earth, to suffer and endure every form of horrible torture, finally dying on the cross to redeem the world and free sinners from all iniquity.

down and get out, I'll do it myself," the minister said, was the way God looked at the matter. It was the way God looked at it when he sent Jesus to earth to die for our sins; it was the way He looked at it when He was perfectly willing to forgive any sin provided you believed on Him.

The Point Illustrated.

This was made plainer by the speaker who illustrated it by telling of an imaginary instance where a father gave his small son a patch of corn to hoe by sun down, promising to pay him a reward of five dollars if he did, and whip him if he didn't. The boy began playing with some more boys after a few hours work. His larger brother saw it, went and told the father, and then came to the younger brother with this proposition: "I saw the trouble you were getting into when you were playing. I had a talk with father and he said it must be done by sun down. Therefore I'll do it myself if you'll throw down your hoe and beat it." That, he said, was the whyfore of Christ coming. Jesus came to earth and has relieved us of the curse of disobedience of the ten commandments, and asks no greater reward than that you believe on Him.

He said that most people wanted to trust God, but kept holding on to the church to save them. They were positively unwilling to give their whole salvation into the keeping of the Almighty, and that was the only legitimate way they could ever be saved, trusting God.

Rev. Martin said he would be afraid to get on a train to leave the town if it were not for the passage in the Bible: "Believe on me and (right then) you shall have everlasting life." Because he would be afraid that the train might be wrecked and he would be ground into jelly beneath the wreckage, and he would be afraid to die if it were not for that paragraph in the Scripture. He declared that it was one part of the Bible that was never changed in any translation; it was the one that held out the most hope to sin-tired sinners and that it was a bit of truth that could not be doubted.

He asked for response pleading that he would like to see them give their heart to God for fear they would turn away the hand of God and thereafter be exempt from his redemption. While no one agreed to join the church, eight persons, in response to an invitation, held up their hands as an indication that they were uncertain about whether they had received the Word of God.

Today's war dispatches tell it pretty clearly—the dead are so thick on the firing line the bodies have no room to fall to the ground.

As yet it has not been even suggested that the government should grant pension to those of its subjects who were visiting and sight-seeing over in Europe at the time war broke out.

The National government has notified Governor Colquitt that under what is known as bank rule No. 110, State banks can issue emergency currency.

The Federal government has its appointed sphere. It is to prevent governmental measures which are of the nature of the two amendments to the Constitution.

The State Executive committee has again confirmed Jeff McLemore as democratic nominee for Congressman-at-large and still Mr. Lane is not satisfied.

Lord Kitchener, the British war general, makes the prediction that the European war will last for eighteen months, and it may be put down that he set the time for the ending of hostilities just as close at hand as it was possible for him to figure out.

Only last Saturday men from all parts of Texas met in Austin, the capital of the State, and organized the Texas division of the Southern Cotton Congress and passed resolutions urging all the cotton farmers to store their 1914 crop and hold it until a price of at least 12-1/2 cents a pound can be obtained for it.

That was their fight, and yet were the law absolutely impartial they would be indicted for entering into a conspiracy in restraint of trade.

The cotton seed oil mill men of North Texas held a meeting recently at Dallas and the Fort Worth Record says that ostensibly the meeting was for the purpose of consulting with the best means of financing the crop of seed, but from the tone of the proceedings the object was how to procure the seed at the lowest possible price.

lars. Sufficient time have already fallen since harvest time to put a good season in the ground for fall plowing, and while they are fighting in Europe, our farmers are busy preparing their fields for another great wheat crop.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR COTTON.

J. L. McConkey of the Farmers Union has received a letter from J. H. Hill, president of the Texas Railroad Managers' Association, which undertakes to warn the farmers to take better care of their cotton. The letter follows:

"Being advised that a meeting of the district unions of the Farmers Union will be held in Fort Worth August 31st, I have written all members of this association calling their attention to it.

"I take this opportunity of appealing to your organization to adopt the slogan, 'Protect Your Cotton From Damage.' It is apparent to all that the crop of cotton now growing will, as a whole, have to be held longer than any crop for years. Its immediate value is likely to be lower than for many years past, and prudence will dictate the wisdom of marketing gradually.

"You all know as well as I do the careless and slovenly manner the cotton has been cared for in the past. In my opinion no bank should advance as a loan, one dollar on cotton, the owner of which has failed to care for it by placing it off the ground and under cover of some kind to protect it from damage.

"Will you not handle this subject most vigorously, and try to awaken the farmers, ginners and merchants as never before to the necessity for, and the value of the command 'Protect your cotton from damage.' We feel that what is to your interest is to ours as well, and will be glad to be advised of action taken. Am sure every newspaper will gladly publish free any resolutions you may pass on the subject.

"Is there anything we can do to assist? If so, please let us know. Respectfully, J. H. HILL."

State will be the property of a single corporation, which is monopoly indeed. It is not likely that we shall any time soon go back to the fundamental principle of the reserved-rights of the people.

And Debs is right. The government is slowly but surely taking over all quasi-public utilities and agencies. The parcel post, the postal savings bank, and the railroad in Alaska are some of the forerunners.

Here is the Memphis Commercial Appeal, writing about the great war in Europe, saying that "imperialism is dangerous to the liberties of free people, dangerous to the peace of the world, and when this war is over the quicker people abolish all kings the nearer they will be to the permanent maintenance of peace."

But what good will it do to abolish all kings unless you live up to the spirit of the first ten amendments to the Constitution of the United States?

HERMAN REDDER DISCUSSES GERMAN ARMY ADVANCE

(New York Staats-Zeitung) We are prepared for the news of the taking of Brussels and Antwerp. The advance during the last four days has been unusually swift.

It must be remembered that modern artillery is so extraordinarily destructive that infantry must entrench continuously. An advance of 25 miles from Aix la Chapelle to Diest in 16 days in the face of effective artillery fire is certainly an exploit worthy of the best days of the Prussian infantry.

We, German sympathizers, find but few crumbs of comfort in most of the reports that emanate from Paris, Brussels and London. The details of the German advance would make extremely interesting reading.

Belgians are probably exhibiting admirable courage and daring. German military achievements will not include the brave troops of cavalry that rode into Liege in a desperate attempt to capture Belgian general staff under the guns of the fortress. Not a man back.

It is reported that the Prince lies seriously wounded at La Chappelle. It is natural for young prince who spoke so freely in his farewell address to the 'Head Hussars' a few months ago to have risked his life at the front in keeping with his impetuous character to have been where the fighting was thickest.

Her princes are men of blood and iron. Germany will make the same sacrifices both of her great as well as her small.

Reports that describe the German lines as demoralized and disorganized may be dismissed as absurd. Victorious armies are not in the habit of yielding to panics.

Not only the army, but all Germany is so completely organized for this very situation that ordinary business is carried on from day to day with only slight interruptions.

FRENCH ALGERIAN SOLDIERS WIN IMMORTAL FAME IN A CHARGE THERE

THE CARNAGE WAS DREADFUL

Germany Take Town From French Who Recaptured It After Most Desperate Fighting

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 26.—A correspondent of the Times sends the following under a Paris date: "At Mons the British troops have made themselves at home. Everywhere in the town confidence is dominant. When, with heavy firing audible in the distance, British soldiers can sit quietly on the banks of the canal fishing with rifles as fishing rods, the spectacle inspires even though from all directions the presence of the dreaded German cavalry is indicated."

The correspondent proceeded to Tournai where he found the populace in great alarm. Six German cavalrymen suddenly appeared on bicycles and asked whether any French soldiers were there. They were told there were none, but later in the day French troops entered the place and killed the six Germans. The next morning a large force of Germans attacked the town but were repulsed. Proceeding to Valenciennes the correspondent found that troops trains filled with French soldiers were constantly arriving. The correspondent continued:

Turcos Win Immortal Fame "Near Charleroi is heard stories of the bravery of the French soldiers. The Germans were bombarding the city. The French troops made what amounted to a medieval sortie but finding the enemy in much greater force than was expected, were compelled to withdraw. The bombardment continued relentlessly whereupon the Turcos, picked troops from Algeria, debouched from the town and with gallantry which must surely live in history and charged the German battery overrunning all the German gunners. "Their losses, it was said, exceeded those of the Light Brigade at Balaclava. Of a battalion only one hundred men returned unscathed. Their bravery, however, was powerless against the German advance which crept foot by foot through the outskirts of Charleroi to the very heart of the town. There in the narrow streets the carnage was said to be unexampled."

ROADS JAMMED WITH DEAD "A French infantryman told me that the roads became so jammed with dead that the killed remained standing upright where they had been shot supported by their dead comrades."

The last stand of the French was made before the railway station in front of the canal. Here the Germans pushed forward for two hours to take the station. After they had captured the station with heavy casualties the Germans moved rapidly ahead taking a number of suburban towns. At six o'clock in the evening the fighting ended, both sides being worn out.

Before dawn the next day the French artillery again bombarded Charleroi and once more the little town of France swarmed with the troops of the French army. The town recapturing the villages, Charlet and Duffieux and Marchienne and Vouillet. The fighting at this stage of the engagement was attended by heavy losses on both sides.

"Charleroi which was the center of the action is an industrial mining district and the slag heaps of the surrounding country gave the French operating advantage while in the upper suburbs the Germans mounted mitrailleuses in every street of the town. In the face of a withering fire from these the French again entered the unhappy town of Charleroi and drove the Germans back across the Sambre river."

"The French entered a city littered with dead, battered by shells and devastated by every instrument of modern war. Outside a dilapidated inn could be seen the figure of a German officer, his head bowed over a basin of water and a lather of soap dry on his face. He was shot while in the act of washing. Another officer lay across a table, his hand holding a coffee cup raised to his lips when death found him."

"In every part of the city the houses were in flames or smoldering. Every villa was occupied by terror-stricken inhabitants of the town."

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

WHEAT AGAIN UP TO A NEW RECORD

ALL GRAINS MAKE BIG JUMPS ON LIKELIHOOD OF PROLONGED WARFARE

SEPTEMBER GOES TO $1.20

In Kansas City No. 2 Hard Ranges From $1 to $1.05—Ninety Cents Here

Wheat jumped eight cents a bushel in the local market this afternoon, going to 98 cents a bushel, the high point of the year. Dealers were doubtful whether the advance would be maintained tomorrow, expecting a break in the Chicago market when it opens in the morning.

By Associated Press. Chicago, Aug. 26.—Wheat, corn and oats today attained new high records for the crop in the first hour of trading. Wheat opened one cent up on the advance at Liverpool. Lord Kitchener's statement estimating the duration of war at three years and the bullish sentiment in outside influences were factors in the advance.

In the first hour prices made a net gain of three to three and one-half cents, or about twenty cents higher than a year ago today. In corn and oats the influences were the same. Corn in the first hour advanced one and one-quarter and oats one and one-eighth to one and five-eighths. Wheat closed strong. Corn closed strong. Wheat—September, 1.08 1-8; December, 1.13 1-4; May, 1.19 3-8. Corn, September, 82; December, 82 1-4. Oats: September, 48 1-2; December, 50 1-4.

R. C. JOHNSON CHARGED WITH CARRYING PISTOL

R. C. Johnson was arrested last night by Officer Frank Johnson and placed in the county jail. This morning a charge of carrying a pistol was placed against him and he waived examination and was given bond to appear before the grand jury. Officers say that Johnson was in the Coney Island Cafe about midnight last night attempting to shoot a man named Adams. Adams and a woman who says the name of Flossie Smith were also arrested and charged with vagrancy in Justice Howard's court this morning, where they were fined $1 and costs each.

W. F. Hardimen, charged with theft of over fifty dollars was bound over to the grand jury in Judge Jones' court late Tuesday evening. His bond was set at $750.

THE END IS NEAR

Three days more will complete this very remarkable furniture sale. Remarkable because of the bargains and the way men and women have been buying. It now looks as though the $10,000.00 surplus stock will be completely wiped out.

In spite of the rain yesterday, many visited the Freear store, and took advantage of the hundreds of bargains we are offering.

Several complimented Mr. Freear on the quality of these bargains and said they had "looked the city over and were convinced this was a genuine 25 to 50 per cent reduction sale."

Lok around your house and see if there isn't something you need, then come and we will save you money.

THE PEASANT BOY WHO CAME TO BE POPE

Life of Guiseppè Sarto, Known as Pius X One of Hard Work and Unselfish Devotion to Duty, Stood Exceptionally High in Hearts of Followers Throughout the Entire World.

In the poor home of a humble couple in the simple little town of Riese, Italy, there was born on June 2, 1835 a boy destined to become pre-eminent in ecclesiastics and one of the greatest figures in the world's history. His parents named him Guiseppè (Joseph). It would have seemed idle then to predict an uncommon career for this child reared in peasant environment; it was enough for his parents that they brought him up to be good. Unaccustomed to a life other than their own plodding one and contented with it, they considered themselves blessed that Giuseppe showed none of the harmful vices. That he would become a parish priest was the goal of his mother's ambition, but that he would become a bishop, a cardinal, was beyond this work beat woman's powers of conception. And yet her son became not only a bishop and a cardinal, but pope—Giuseppe, the child of poverty and hardship, who wore the fisherman's ring as the two hundred and sixty-fourth successor of St. Peter, ruler of the Roman Catholic church.

Giuseppe Sarto was one of eight children. The family which gave to the church the first pontiff in a century and a half of such lowly origin had a hard struggle in their quiet corner of the diocese of Treviso, a see just to the northward of Venice.

Sarto, father of the future pope, was a town messenger at a meager pay, and Giuseppe's mother utilized her time when not needed by her large family in sewing for those in Riese who had more means than the Sartos. Of Giuseppe's six sisters, Antonia married a tailor, Lucia the sacristan of the church of Salzano and Teresa a Riese innkeeper. Giuseppe attended school four and a half miles from his home and walked the distance, carrying his lunch, usually a solid cold polenta, a kind of porridge made of coarse maize meal. That the future highest dignitary of the Catholic church was no exception to the mischievous small boy of all generations is apparent from the following interesting anecdote: An old farmer of the district where the Sartos lived, upon being told that Giuseppe had been elected pope, exclaimed: "Not little Beppo? Not that little rascal? Many are the cherries he has taken off my trees with a stick, and he bidding defiance and pelting me with stones. The last time he did it I caught his boot, and a merry dance we had about that field. But he was a good chap. When my old woman died and he was already a cardinal he helped me with money and with prayers."

"Beppo" was the name by which his relatives spoke of him. Even when he became pope it is related that one of his sisters, visiting him at the Vatican, in an outburst of joy called him Beppo, to the consternation of other guests. But the pontiff seemed not to notice the incident.

Was Brimful of Fun.
When Giuseppe's father died in 1852 the mother no longer could afford to send the boy to school and she had him recommended to the patriarch of Venice, Mgr. Monaco, who got him into the seminary at Padua. Her beloved Beppo was going to be a priest and the old mother's heart was filled with gladness. Although studious, it was said that Giuseppe still was possessed of the spirit of mischief that had led to his cherry tree encounters with the wrathful farmer of Riese. In fact, his first teacher, Father Joseph Inghelbrecht, remarked that Giuseppe was a little rascal, but always good natured and God fearing. He also said he was a lad of pronounced natural talents, decidedly shrewd and sagacious.

It was the time, then, when Giuseppe was ordained as a priest. He was twenty-three years old and little more than a boy in appearance at Riese in the boy's folk of that parish. It was the fiftieth anniversary of the mass that was celebrated in St. Peter's, Rome on Jan. 11, 1908, without pomp or show of power, as was the wish of the former pope, young Pius, whose supreme work of life he had to which he conformed himself. For many years he was in the country of Lombardy. When Father Sarto tried to induce his mother to live with him in the parish rectory, she said: "No, my dear, I was born in Riese, and here I shall die. Go your way, enjoy your good fortune and send me four lines when it needs sending."

Fasted to Feed the Poor.
From Tombolo Father Sarto went to Salzano as parish priest. That was in 1867. His work had commanded such attention that he was elected chancellor of the diocese of Treviso and then spiritual director and examiner in the seminary, and vicar of the chapter of the Cathedral of Treviso. In 1884 Pope Leo XIII appointed him bishop of Mantua, where he remained until 1893 when he was made cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice. His motto had been, "Give, give" and he carried his benefactions to the point of personal impoverishment. One day when he was bishop of Mantua one of his three unmarried sisters who kept house for him, as they subsequently did when their brother was patriarch of Venice, went to him to report that somebody had stolen the meat she had left on the stove for their dinner. The bishop with a twinkle in his eye, suggested that it might have been the cat.

"The cat, indeed!" replied the sister in ridicule. "The cat does not carry off likewise the broth pot—my dear sister," they said. The bishop gently, "if you wish to know it was I who carried it off. A poor man came in and told me his wife was ill in bed and needed broth and I gave it to him already made."

St. Bernardo delle Terme was the little Pope Leo bestowed upon Bishop Sarto when his holiness elevated him of the cardinalate. Cardinal Sarto's sole article of value was an emerald ring, the gift of friends. His revenues, not more than $5,000 yearly, permitted no extravagance and his eminence often was sorely vexed at the forced curtailment of his allowances for the needy. When he could devise no other plan, it has been said, he would have his bishop's ring put in pawn to raise funds. The first of each month Cardinal Sarto's secretary would deliver to him the sum that could reasonably be expected to be applied in his disbursement. But in a very short time the capital would be gone.

Cardinal Sarto had quickly won the love of the Venetians wherever he went, and when his gondola passed along the canals the people rushed to the bridges and along shores to salute him. The women would cry "God bless the patriarch of Venice!" His popular diversion was these gondola trips and he would land at some point to pay surprise visits to the priests under his jurisdiction. At 6 o'clock every morning he went for a walk, quite often to the sandy islands of Lido, which separate the lagoons of Venice from the Adriatic. Frequently he would visit his home village, Riese, where he brought sunshine and assistance to many an afflicted family.

Beloved by Pope Leo.
Pope Leo in his last talk with the patriarch of Venice was quoted as having said, referring to his own approaching end and consequent impending change in the pontificate: "You may perhaps be that man. We know, my son, that you would be in a position to render great service to the church, for you possess qualities which would render you precious to her."

Commenting on the fact that the patriarch of Venice, upon discovering that his name was mounting to the top in the contest that chose him pope, had broken down wearily every at the scene of his "sanctification" and that it required an overwhelming persuasion to overcome his objections, one biographer said: "I have little doubt that Cardinal Sarto, feeling himself unequal to the great responsibility, saw the importance of it as a small and quiet, but difficult persuasion to overcome his objections. Never out of his parish, still he was more than forty-seven years in Rome, never a representative of the holy see as nuncio in the courts of Europe, he had not learned any of the arts or the language of courtiers. He spoke only his native Venetian. He was a simple, unassuming man, a devoted son of the equator states (Venice, Mantua, Rome and Ancona, who moved to Rome to see their pope) who had ministered to the Vatican to his every want when he was bishop of Mantua and patriarch of Venice, and when he became pope he had broken down a staid line they should have a villa in the Vatican park. But the sisters for some reason chose to occupy a flat in an apartment house within ten minutes' walk of St. Peter's palace.

Dallas—The investigations carried on by Howard F. Wright, special agent in charge of the department of justice, to the cause of the advanced prices of food products in this State during the last week has developed, insofar as can be learned, that Texas merchants are not to be responsible for the soaring of prices on these products. Mr. Wright has visited practically every large city in the State and will soon issue a report of his investigation.

PARIS IS DEFENDED BY THREE LINES OF FORTS

Life's Entrenched Camps First Met British Situated There—Guns Sweep Country

Paris, Aug. 26.—Should the German army cross the French frontier through Belgium it will find a first, second and third line of defense across the line of its "march to Paris" that will prove far more difficult to overcome than was the case in 1870.

First of all, the entrenched camps of the Lille district will be met and it may be said at once that everything points to the certainty that the British expeditionary force that has been landed in France is now admirably situated from a strategic point of view in this very Lille region.

The forts of Valenciennes, Maubeuge, and Hirson, all south of Lille and close to the Belgian border, form the chief resisting points in this great entrenched camp, which was specifically designed to meet and repulse any invasion through Belgium north of the Meuse.

Here must be fought the first great battle of any invasion that comes by way of Brussels, Ghent and the north of Belgium. Behind this barrier the French has constructed, on the way to Paris, another entrenched camp, that of Laon and Reims, which is the base of the operations of the second line of defense—the field army that will bar the invaders on their advance through

Don't Darn Your Stockings Any More

Put your darning basket away in the closet—you won't need it for six months when you buy the first box of Holeproof Hosiery.

Darning is now almost a thing of the past. For with every box of "Holeproof" we give a written guarantee to replace any pair that needs darning in six months. Instead of taking out your darning basket you merely take out a coupon and get a new pair of hose free—isn't that simple?

Holeproof Hosiery
FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

The makers pay an average of 74 cents a pound for the finest Egyptian and Sea Island Cotton Yarn. Common hose are often made from cotton at 32 cents a pound. Yet the common hose sell for the same price as "Holeproof."

"Holeproof" uses 3-ply in the body and 6-ply in the heels and toes. Ordinary hose are made from 2-ply yarn throughout. You pay no more for "Holeproof" but it wears six times longer.

Come in and see this hosiery. Note the style and comfort—see how light and soft it is. Buy one box and try it. Note how it hugs the ankle. Then, if you can, continue using the common hosiery.

We have a complete assortment of sizes and colors. They are very smart. Prices are 6 pairs for $2, and 6 pairs for $3—guaranteed six months.

All Modernly Equipped.
The outer ring lies about thirty-eight miles from the northern wall of fortified Paris itself, while the inner ring is nineteen miles distant. All these forts are of the most modern kind and equipped with siege guns of the very latest type.

Between Hirson and Verdun, which faces Metz, there is a frontier line of fortresses, their omission being a deliberate design of the French general staff, but west of the Aisne are found the entrenched camps of Reims and Châlons, which continue the La Fere and Laon second line.

Below the Belgian frontier and facing any attack from the Luxembourg and Alsace-Lorraine frontier there exists a long and powerful string of forts, distant but a few kilometers each from the border—six of the Bigger Forts. They include Longwy, Verdun, Commercy, Toul, Epinal and Belfort, with other minor fortified places between them. Back of this line is the continuation of the La Fere and Laon camps, including Reims, Châlons, Chaumont, Langres, Dijon and Besancon.

Gen. Michel, a member of the superior council of war and military governor of Paris, is in supreme command over all the Paris fortifications.

Lillian Nordica in Grafanolo Selections

World's Famous Wagnerian Soprano Heard only in Columbia Records. Mme. Lillian Nordica was held to be the greatest dramatic soprano the world has ever known. Scarcely can there be found in any civilized country a corner where her fame had not penetrated, and where her name is not synonymous with everything that is splendid in vocal art. Her voice as it is heard in Columbia Records, is the same noble and beautiful instrument that has held thousands spell bound. It has the same golden, velvety qualities that has ever set it apart among the soprano voices of the day. Here are a few of her best selections: "Damon, 55 in English. "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water" and "Mighty Lak' a Rose," in English. "Mignon" in Italian. "Annie Laurie," in English. "La Gioconda" in Italian. "Tristan and Isolde," in German.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We have decided to close out our Grocery business, in order to open in Wichita Falls an up-to-date exclusive Coffee, Tea and Spice House. As you are probably aware we have been roasting coffee in connection with our grocery business for several years and have arrived at the conclusion that the town will justify an exclusive establishment of this character. We are not quitting the grocery business on account of lack of success, on the contrary believe we have been more than an average success in this line, but our coffee business has grown to where we feel that by giving it our entire attention we can obtain better results both for ourselves and patrons. On September first we will close our books and on September the third we will inaugurate a cash closing out sale on every article in our stock, with the exception of coffee and mineral waters, at cost and less, and as we want to convert our goods into cash in the shortest possible time, will sell at prices that will move them regardless of our cost. As prices of all food stuff are advancing rapidly it will pay you to take advantage of this sale and anticipate your wants for some time. We wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your patronage in the past and assure you of our appreciation, and trust we will have the pleasure of serving you in our new line. Announcement of the location and opening date of the new business will be made later. Very truly yours,

GERMANS TAKE LILLE AND THE FRENCH BEGIN VIGOROUS PREPARATIONS FOR PARIS ATTACK

KAISER WILHELM GROSSE SUNK BY BRITISH CRUISER

Big German Armored Merchant Vessel Destroyed Off West Coast Of Africa

By Associated Press.
London, 4:12 p. m., August 27.—The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse has been sunk off the west coast of Africa by the British cruiser, High Flyer. Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, announced the sinking of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse before the House of Commons this afternoon. He said:

"The Admiralty has just received intelligence that the German armored merchant cruiser, the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse of 14,000 tons and armed with ten four inch guns was sunk by His Majesty's ship, High Flyer, off the west coast of Africa. This vessel has been interfering with traffic between this country and the Cape, and is one of the few German armed auxiliary cruisers which succeeded in getting to sea.

"The survivors were landed before the vessel sank. The High Flyer had one man killed and three wounded."

The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse was one of the palatial steamers of the North German Lloyd line. It was on this vessel that the late Mayor Gaynor was shot as he was about to sail for Europe.

NEUTRAL DIPLOMATS ENDANGERED BY ZEPPELIN BOMBS IN ANTWERP

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 27.—Official dispatches today confirmed the report of the dropping of eight bombs in the city of Antwerp by a Zeppelin airship killing many women and children and destroying many houses.

Diplomatic representatives of foreign neutral governments had narrow escapes, it was reported.

PARIS PREPARES TO WITHSTAND PROLONGED AND SEVERE SIEGE

By Associated Press.
Paris, 3:40 p. m., Aug. 27.—Paris, it was officially reported, is preparing for a possible siege. The matter was discussed by the new minister of war, Alexandre Millerand, with the subordinates of his department, and steps were taken to determine the exact measures necessary to place the city in a position to withstand an attack and invasion.

Millerand will meet with the other officials of the war office every morning for the consideration of developments, and every possible phase in connection with an entrenched camp, such as the capital will become.

In an official statement issued today by the war office it was said:

"The German troops retired from the regions of Mazuren in East Prussia after the Russian victory. The Russian advance is unretarded in that country which presents difficulties and the outlet of which to the west was occupied by German forces.

"It is confirmed that one hundred cannon were taken from the enemy.

CZAR'S SOLDIERS ADVANCE WITH IRRESISTIBLE FORCE

St. Petersburg Reports Say Germans Retreating Everywhere Before Russians' Advance

By Associated Press.
St. Petersburg, by way of London, 5:25 p. m., Aug. 27.—The following official announcement was made here today:

"Our offensive both in East Prussia and Galicia developed increasing success on August 25. The Germans hastily retreated everywhere toward Koenigsburg and Allenstein."

It was officially announced that the Russians have occupied Tilsit, a town sixty miles northeast of Koenigsburg in East Prussia.

FRENCH DECLARE DEVELOPMENTS HAVE NOT MODIFIED THEIR PLAN

By Associated Press.
Paris, 3:30 p. m., Aug. 27.—An official communication says:
"The events of yesterday in the region of the north neither have imperilled nor modified the arrangements made in view of the future development of operations in the region between Vosges and Nancy. Our troops continue to progress."

THREE TOWNS ON NORTHERN FRENCH FRONTIER TAKEN BY GERMANS

By Associated Press.
London, 3:10 a. m., Aug. 27.—A dispatch received here from Ostend says the Germans have occupied Lille, Robaix and Valenciennes, all in France.

The towns of Lille, Robaix and Valenciennes, all are close to the Belgian frontier.

Lille is the most important from a military point of view. It has a fortress of the first class and the circle of its guns covers thirty miles.

Robaix, a manufacturing center, apparently is not of military importance. Valenciennes, also a manufacturing center, also is a fortified town.

The Ostend correspondent to the Times quoted a Belgian officer to the effect that it was decided last Monday not to defend Lille.

GREAT PRESSURE ON ITALY IS EXERTED

GERMANY AND AUSTRIA REPORTED TO HAVE MADE A LIVING OFFER

ITALIAN PEOPLE ARE ADVERSE

London Report Declares They Will Revolt Before They Will Join With Austria

By Associated Press.
London, Aug. 27.—A dispatch from Rome declares great pressure is being brought to bear on Italy by Germany and Austria to join in the war. Both countries make alluring promises but without effect. The Italian people are against Austria, says the dispatch, and any move by the government to join in the conflict by the side of Germany and Austria would mean a revolution. The Triple Alliance, the Times correspondent says, is a thing of the past.

BLOCKADE BEGUN ON KIAU CHOW

JAPANESE BOMBARD SMALL ISLAND OFF COAST OF GERMAN LEASED TERRITORY

ATTACK MAY BE DETERRED

Heavy Roads From Summer Rains May Prevent March On German Fortress

By Associated Press.
Teing Tau, Aug. 27.—A dispatch from the battleship Sowa sent a wireless message to Governor Meyer Waldeck this morning declaring a blockade of the leased territory of Kiau Chow.

Later a Japanese warship appeared outside the harbor and shelled a small island off the coast which was not occupied by Germans. The German governor notified Willis Carl Peck, American consul at Kiau Chow, that he had 24 hours to leave if he so desired. Mr. Peck, however, elected to remain.

TODAY'S DEVELOPMENTS ALONG THE EUROPEAN BATTLE LINES

By the Associated Press.

Belgian operations were asserted to have been completely successful in an official statement from Antwerp by way of Paris a little after midnight. Four Belgian divisions from Namur were said to have stopped the southward movement of the German Fourth Division after which the Belgians retired on the French line. The forts at Namur still were holding out, it was declared. The claim regarding the Namur fortifications was repeated later by an English correspondent at Ostend who quoted a Belgian officer who had arrived from Namur. He said the Germans had destroyed two forts and still were attacking the others.

It is officially announced at St. Petersburg that the Russian advance in Prussia is proceeding with irresistible force. It has heretofore been stated that the objective point of the main Russian army for the present is Posen in German Poland. The Germans are represented as having retired to Osterode in East Prussia.

A merchant arriving in London from Berlin is credited with the statement that trains are bringing many refugees to Berlin from Koenigsburg, which city he claimed civilians had been advised to leave.

Diplomatic relations between Austria and Japan apparently have been formally severed. A dispatch direct from Tokio states that the Austrian Ambassador Muller Der Scentgyorgy has been recalled.

A blockade of the leased territory of Kiau Chow has been declared by the Japanese whose warships shelled a small island off the coast. The island was not defended. This information comes from Tsing Tau. The same correspondent states that as far as can be observed the Japanese had not yet landed any troops.

The Japanese Minister of Justice, Yukio Ozaki, announces that the hostilities in the China and Japan seas will end with the capture of Kiau Chow, when Japan will become spectator instead of participant in the war.

He adds, however, that if the Germans should prove a menace to peace in the South Seas, Japan would consult with Great Britain and might cooperate in driving the enemy out of the Orient.

Keen interest continues in the attitude that Italy will eventually assume. A Rome correspondent of the London Times says that Germany and Austria are bringing great pressure to bear and are offering Italy inducement to join them. Newspaper dispatches represent the Italian people as more favorable to a war against Austria. It is to be noted, however, that these reports lack official confirmation.

A dispatch from Kraguje Batz, Serbia, says that the Austrian army has evacuated the Sanjak of Novipazar.

The Germans have occupied the French cities of Lille, Valenciennes and Roubaix according to a dispatch from Ostend, Belgium, which passed through the hands of the censor at London. All three cities are situated within a few miles of the Belgian frontier and Lille is strongly fortified. Exact knowledge of this awaits official confirmation.

Early dispatches from Ostend quoted a Belgian officer as authority for a statement that the allies had decided not to defend Lille, and that its evacuation by the French troops was announced by the mayor Tuesday.

A wireless dispatch direct from Berlin early today brought the official announcement that all the forts at Namur had fallen before the Germans who also had captured Longwy.

FRENCH REPULSED BY GERMAN CROWN PRINCE

Berlin Reports Longwy Taken By Kaiser Soldiers and Upper Alsace Cleared of French

By Associated Press.
Berlin, Aug. 27, via wireless to the Associated Press by way of Naoun and Sayville, L. I.—All the forts of Namur have fallen and Longwy near the Luxemburg border has been captured after a resolute defense. The French forces which attacked the German crown prince's army has been repulsed. Upper Alsace is free of the enemy except at points toward the westward of Colmar.

REPORTED AUSTRIAN ARMY HAS EVACUATED NOVITZAR

By Associated Press.
London, 5:32 p. m., Aug. 27.—A dispatch to the Havas agency at Kraguje Batz, Serbia, declares that the Austrian army has evacuated the Sanjak of Novitzar.

WILSON TO LEAVE ON SHORT VACATION TRIP

President Goes to Cornish, N. H. This Evening For Few Days of Rest

By Associated Press.
Washington, Aug. 27.—President Wilson has decided to take a few days vacation, the first respite he has had this summer. He will leave late today for Cornish, New Hampshire to remain until Monday or Tuesday. Miss Margaret Wilson and Mrs. F. B. Sayre, his daughters, already are at Cornish, where the summer white house has been put into order.

WEATHER FORECAST

Tonight and Friday unsettled; probably local thunder showers.

GERMANS POISONED FOOD BEFORE ABANDONING IT

Russian Army Order Prohibits Use of Food Left Behind By the Germans

By Associated Press.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 26, via London, Aug. 27, 6:10 a. m.—A Russian army order prohibits the use of food and forage abandoned by the Germans in East Prussia because of cases of poisoning which have occurred at Eyte, Gunnen and Gumbinnen and Insterburg.

AUSTRIAN RESERVIST TAKEN OFF AN ITALIAN STEAMER

By Associated Press.
New York, Aug. 26.—The Italian steamer Ancona, which sailed from New York carrying reservists, mostly officers, was stopped by the British at Gibraltar, according to a cable message received here today. The Ancona was allowed to proceed after the Austrians were taken off.

Military Expert Discusses Probable Length Of War

How long will the European war last? Military critics throughout the world are discussing that question.

Lord Kitchener, the great military leader of Great Britain, says it will last eighteen months, and, of course, that it will result in the defeat of Germany.

The English critics turn to past wars in order to gain some means of comparison by which the probable length of the present struggle may be measured.

The battle front on which the German army faces that of the allies is the longest ever formed since the dawn of civilization. The German army upon that front is more than twice the size of the Japanese armies which confronted the Russians at Liaoyang and Mukden, and it is fairly argued that because of the masses now engaged, and the longer front they occupy, the expected battle may well consume more than six or seven days throughout which fighting was continued in either of those two great battles in Manchuria.

The Japanese defeated the Russians at Liaoyang, but it took the victorious Japanese army six and one-half months to push the retreating Russian army, Mukden, fully sixty miles beyond Liaoyang.

The Yosses Will Be Astonishing.

The critics point out that however bold and skilled may be the commanders of the allied forces, or of the German host, if military history repeats itself, a long time must be occupied before the coming battle can be stamped as decisive for one side or the other, because the task of driving the allied forces from their defensive position, if not beyond the power of the Germans, must occupy much time and result in losses far beyond any ever before recorded in any war.

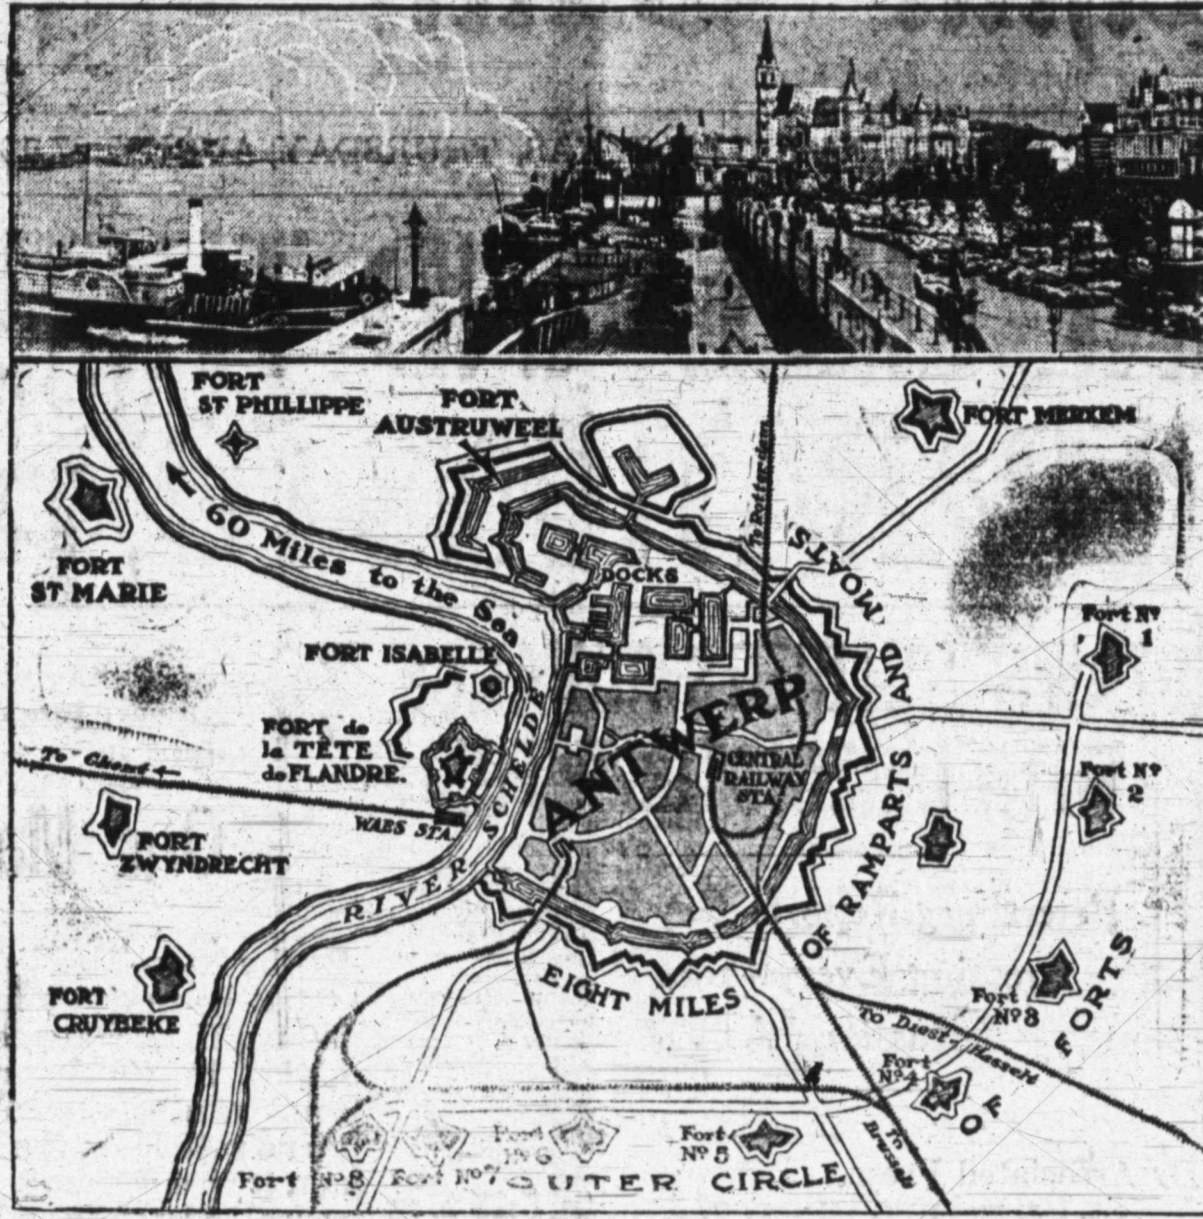

The battle front at Mukden, where some 700,000 men were engaged, was sixty miles long, and the battle which bears the name of Mukden was really made up of a series of combats which extended from February 25 to March 15, while at Liaoyang, on a front of forty miles, the fighting continued from August 24 to September 5. Thus, as one critic observes, it seems probable that the great battle now seemingly beginning may really prove to be a series of battles, any one of which may assume the proportions of the combat at Mukden.

The fighting line along the Franco-German border is only 250 miles long, and the forces locked in awful combat on that battle field of unprecedented dimensions are variously estimated from two to three million.

Germany Needs a Battle.

Military men are convinced that long before Germany can defeat the ship Suvoroff. Upon that ship the weight of the Japanese fire was directed from the first, and when finally she was on fire in a score of places, when exploding shells had caused her to burst into flames, the ship, lying almost stationary in the water, and slowly working her engines so as to get on the proper course, and follow the fleet, still offered her battered sides to the enemy, bringing wildly from those of her guns which were still serviceable, and, alas! they were few in number.

WHAT FATE AWAITS ANTWERP? HER STRONG DOUBLE LINE OF FORTS READY FOR GERMANS

Let us take from the Japanese official account these words describing the end of the Russian battleship:

"In the dusk, when our cruisers were driving upon the Suvoroff alone, at some distance from the fleet, heeling overboard and enveloped in flames and smoke, the division (Captain-Lieutenant Fudzilmito) of torpedo boats, which was with our cruisers, was at once sent to attack her. Although much burned and still on fire—although she had been subjected to so many attacks, having been fired at by all the fleet (in the full sense of the word)—although she had only one serviceable gun—she still opened fire, showing her determination to defend herself to the last moment, at first resistance—so long, in fact, all she remained above water. At length, about 7 p. m., after our torpedo boats had twice attacked her, she went to the bottom."

"Does any man ask for more convincing tribute to the dogged courage of the Russians, whose advance toward Germany is now awaited with such different feelings by the allies and by the Kaiser?"

"Wide to Enter; Narrow To Go Out."

Mention of Japanese commanders and tactics recalls a statement made by the late Japanese Field Marshal Oyama, who, at the close of the Russo-Japan War, was discussing the German system of drill as compared with the Russian system and that followed by the Japanese in the Manchurian campaign. He said:

"We are believed to have modeled ourselves upon Germany. In the German army there are many things that are good, but our opinion is that, however poorly you may think of the Russians, we always believed that if they had been Germans we would have beaten them in half the time that it took us to defeat Russia."

Japan beat Russia in Manchuria, and yet it made little impression upon Russia proper. Marvellous fighters as the Japanese were it took almost the last ounce of their strength to defeat Russia, and the real Russia was untouched and unshaken."

RUSSIA'S SPEEDY ATTACK PLEASES

KAISER MAY BE FORCED TO WITHDRAW FORCES TO GRAND EASTERN FRONTIER

PRUSSIAN BORDER IS STRONG

If Allies Can Hold Germans Few Weeks France Can Feel Safe From Invasion

Paris, Aug. 27.—Russia's speedy concerted attack has delighted French military chiefs. They say that if they can hold the Germans near the present positions for another week the worst will be over, as the Kaiser must withdraw part of his forces to save his hurried army in Eastern Prussia. It is said, and it will need the most efficient of the Germans to hold even momentarily the immense Russian army that is now in the field.

The incursion of large bodies of Russian troops into the German provinces of East and West Prussia, and their capture of the important positions of Gumbinnen and Insterburg, placed strategically to the east of the river Vistula and between it and the frontier.

Koenigsberg Strongest.

Among these fortresses one of the first in importance is Koenigsberg, on the Gulf of Danzig, a fortress of the first class. The city contains about 200,000 inhabitants and was formerly a Polish possession. The garrison in three of peace comprises three infantry regiments of three battalions each, a heavy cavalry regiment, a squadron of mounted rifles, two field artillery regiments, one garrison artillery regiment, two engineer battalions, and one battalion of the army service corps.

Thorn is another first class fortress guarded by a large number of outlying works. This place also has a garrison of nine infantry battalions, one regiment of uhlans, one field artillery regiment and a battalion of fortress engineers. It is southwest of Koenigsberg on the Polish front.

Three Forts on First Line.

Allenstein is, if anything, stronger even than Thorn. Its garrison consists of six infantry battalions, one dragoon regiment, and a regiment of field artillery, but it is the headquarters of the Thirty-Seventh Infantry division as well as of the Seventy-Fifth Infantry brigade and the Thirty-Seventh cavalry brigade, and it is regarded as a place of concentration for a field army. Allenstein was the scene of a victory by Marshal Soult and a French army over the pursuing Russians and Prussians in 1807. It lies equidistant between Thorn and Koenigsberg, the three cities forming the first fortified line on the eastern German frontier.

Danzig Northern Defense.

Far to the north of the Vistula lies Danzig, a great naval station and fortress. It has a population of about 150,000 and a considerable garrison, consisting of nine infantry battalions, two regiments of uhlans, two field artillery regiments, one garrison artillery regiment and a battalion of the army service corps.

To the south of the Russian line of advances on the left wing of the Russian army lies Posen, a strongly fortified city, formerly part of Poland, which is occupied by a garrison whose composition is unknown, but whose strength is believed to be great.

Between Danzig and Posen on an uneven line lie the two fortresses of Brunnberg, with six infantry battalions, one mounted grenadier regiment and two field artillery regiments, and Gra-denz, which has nine infantry battalions, a regiment of mounted rifles, two field artillery regiments and some garrison artillery. These are the keys of the second line of defensive works.

Other Small Fortresses.

Other small fortified places on the line of advances are Marienburg, with a small garrison of artillery, which was formerly a fortress of the Knights Templar, Kulm, with a garrison of one rifle regiment and a machine gun section; Dirschau, a small place which was plundered and burned by the French in 1807; Braunsburg, which is occupied by a fusilier battalion and which was the scene of a victory in 1807 by Bernadotte over the Russians.

All these places were originally Polish; most of them becoming Prussian territory when Poland was divided in 1773 among Russia, Austria and Prussia. Most of the inhabitants still speak the Polish language.

TWO OIL WELLS BROUGHT IN NEAR LAWTON, OKLA.

Two good oil wells were brought in Sunday in the Lawton oil field. The first one was on the fence that Owen, Wilson and Chaffee secured from Epstein and Keady, the southeast corner of section 29, township 2 north, range 10. At 250 feet gas sand was struck which lasts for 50 feet and then oil sand was found at 420 feet from which the pure oil came up in the hoiler. It is a high grade of oil and the sand was penetrated for 29 feet.

The other well is on the T. M. Keady farm in same section and half mile north. The oil was struck here at 390 feet and there is plenty of oil sand and high grade of oil.

These two wells mentioned and other activity in the oil field here is additional strong evidence that the Lawton oil field is a certainty and a good one—Lawton Constitution.

Three University of Texas Men in Wilson's Cabinet

Austin, Aug. 27.—With the selection of W. Gregory as Attorney General of the United States, the University of Texas is the best represented college in the country in the President's cabinet. Postmaster General Burleson and Mr. Gregory are both graduates of the law school of the State University, while Secretary of Agriculture Houston was formerly president and professor of economics in the University.

Postmaster General Burleson and Mr. Gregory were in the University at the same time. Mr. Burleson was a member of the first class which graduated from the law school in '84. Mr. Gregory graduated the following year. Both these graduates have maintained an intense interest in their alma mater and are among its most loyal supporters. Each has had a daughter to follow in their footsteps and graduate from their alma mater. Miss Laura Burleson, now Mrs. Richard Nealey of San Antonio, was the first to graduate, while at the late commencement Mr. Gregory's oldest daughter, Miss Jane, received her bachelor of arts degree.

Both Mr. Burleson and Mr. Gregory are among the largest contributors to the fund which the University alumni are gathering for the building of an alumni gymnasium at the University. The prospective Attorney General is one of the staunchest supporters of the Longhorn football team, and on many occasions he has been called upon by the students to address them at their football rallies, where he is well remembered because of the stirring quality of these speeches. Mr. Gregory has also been a constant contributor to the Alcade, the University alumni magazine.

COLD BAKED BEANS AND SPAGHETTI WILL TASTE GOOD

You probably spend a great part of your time in the kitchen planning and cooking foods that are suitable for the summer days.

Your family must have foods that readily take the place of meat during the hot weather—foods that will help to maintain health and vigor.

Baked beans and spaghetti are some of the things that answer this purpose the best and are most appreciated. Instead of spending long hours of hot work in preparing these dishes, get the Heinz baked beans and the Heinz spaghetti habit.

Try them once and you will always use them and you'll find them a great economy in time and money. Serve them cold and see how delicious they are.

BETTINA'S SALADS.

Lovely girl is my Bettina. Most exemplary her habits. Save that I can never wear her. From concocting tough-Welsh rare-bits: Also fudge she's always cooking—Such things leave me weak and pallid—And forever she is looking. For somewhat to make a salad.

Saints are her ruling passion: She will make them at all hours. She adopts each salad fashion—Makes 'em out of fruits or flowers. Once when we had friends to dinner—Nothing else had my lady—She with dressing made a winner Out of just old straw cady!

In the year we've been housekeeping Naught but foolish foods I've eaten. And for solids I am weeping. Though the salads can't be beaten. Life seems vapid, silly, petty. And I've told her so, doggone it! What do you suppose said Betty? "Put some salad dressing on it!" —Houston Chronicle.

NN RECIPE FOR CHILI SAUCE.

(By Mrs. W. J. Mathews) Eight quarts of ripe tomatoes, three cups of peppers and two cups of onions chopped fine, to this add three cups of water, one cup of salt, one and one-half quarts of vinegar, two teaspoons of nutmeg and mace; boil three hours, bottle and seal. (Recipes are solicited. Phone 1671 or send in to The Times office.)

PARTY HONORING SECOND BIRTHDAY OF MASTER BEYETTE.

Mrs. L. J. Beyette entertained with a delightful little "folk's" party Monday afternoon in celebration of the second birthday of her little son, Cecil. About three o'clock the guests began to arrive, each bringing some pretty little gift, most pleasing to the host. After an interval of happy play the children were invited into the dining room, which was decorated with cut flowers in charming array, and were served delicious ice cream and cake by Mrs. Beyette, assisted by Mesdames Ohair and Swearingen. The wee tots attending this very delightful party were: Harold and Lucille Carter, Lyman Brown, Leon Swearingen, Jessie B. and Jim Bob Ohair, Raymond Stirman and Thomas and Cecil Beyette.

Mrs. R. L. Harraraves and son, Robert, have returned from a three months visit with relatives in New Orleans.

3000 EXPECTED TO ENROLL AT STATE UNIVERSITY

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 27.—A decided increase in attendance is expected at the University of Texas this year by E. J. Mathews, registrar, who says indications are that the university enrollment will reach 3,600. Last year's registration of 2,532 students placed Texas seventeenth in 600 colleges in the United States. Mr. Mathews says many poor boys and girls are inquiring for means of self-aid. Last year 936 students worked their way through. Practically all school funds now available are exhausted.

At The Theaters
The Majestic. The Majestic will show today a special three part feature, "Francis Marion, the Swamp Fox." A story of the war of '76; the rescue of Gen. Gates from the British camp and his dashing escapade during the war of 1776 are shown with wonderful realism. Guy Coombs and Marguerite Courtot take the leading rolls in this great military drama, which is said to be by critics one of the best of the silent picture features. The acting in this production is without a single flaw, the natural scenery selected is entirely in keeping with the spirit of the picture and there is a time one forgets they are looking at the silent drama. This picture can be easily classed among the best.

The Empress. "Mother Love," a six part special featuring Marion Leonard, one of the most brilliant and capable young actresses of this day, is showing here today.

If a sympathetic part is one in which a man or woman is persecuted—almost beyond endurance—in which he or she is driven from pillar to post with a persistence as remarkable as it is contemptible, then Marion Leonard's role in "Mother Love" is the most sympathetic the Warner's Features actress has ever essayed.

Had the deacon loved his young wife to distraction and had he been jealous of another man (or even of her violin) and not so decidedly bent on saving her from vague sin he would have had, at least in the modern way of looking at things, some excuse for treating in the way he did a character as lovable as his child wife.

A young girl noted in the small village in which she lives for her talent for the violin wins a scholarship at a music seminary in the city. She goes to the school and not only wins the hearts of her fellow students but a name for herself as an accomplished musician. The deacon and chief banker of her village who has great influence with her aged father persuades the old man that his daughter is on Perdition Pathway and that she is dangerously near a deep and dangerous precipice. He advances the argument that the only way to save her from the devil is to allow her to marry him (meaning the deacon) and the father's death bed request is that she do so.

Two years have passed in the interval between the first and second reel and in that time a baby has been born to the young wife and her husband has started his campaign of systematic persecution which he feels is forced upon him by the fact that she wears tiny unmentionables instead of the heavy flannels to which he is certain the good sisters of the parish are addicted, and for which he thinks she also should have a passionate liking. He takes an immediate dislike to her friends from the city and as a special attention the evening after their call he locks her out of doors till she promises to be good.

Quite naturally she decides to run away. Taking the baby she sets out on foot. Husband pursues her and to return to her humble but godlike abode. She does. When he is safely inside with the baby he slams the door in her face and her determination to join her friends is thereby strengthened.

In the city she makes a distinct hit as a violinist, but her happiness is brought to an end by the receipt of a white crepe from her beloved husband. Learning that there has been an epidemic of diphtheria in her home town she thinks her baby is dead and rushes home in an automobile. The deacon will give her no satisfaction, but silently points to a newly dug grave. She is heartbroken, but her friends learn from the deacon's housekeeper (who has at last grown sick of his cruelty) that the child is alive. They take it to her in the midst of the service to the wife and then follows a rather remarkable church scene.

A newspaper picture and a comedy, "Willy Walrus and the Awful Confession" are the pictures for tonight. "The Sob Sisters" is a stirring romance of newspaper life and is exceedingly realistic.

Have you ever been bit and hit hard through the newspapers; that is have you ever enjoyed the sickening sight of seeing either your own name or the name of some one whom you loved in a newspaper story that smacked strong of scandal?

John Tracy, managing editor of the Times, is one of those relentless fellows who believes in the publication of news regardless of whom it hits or the harm that it may do to innocent persons. Well, John Tracy gets a lesson that will not be forgotten in some time; when the shoe came to be fitted on his own foot it was a different story. Incidentally, there is a real moving love plot woven into the story. Nell Gwynn, Times reporter, who comes under the newspaper sobriquet of "sob sister" is the girl. Bert Randolph, sporting editor of the same paper, is the man. Nell is sent out to get a story on a girl who has run away from a boarding school. Nell gets the story and saves the girl from an awful fate; but—well, the girl happened to be the daughter of Tracy, managing editor. Tracy didn't know that when he forced Nell to write the story. When he found out—well, see the play. It is laid in a newspaper office; at least a large part of the action and one of the big climaxes are. Anna Little and Herbert Rawlinson, two of Universal's cleverest stars, are seen in the lead roles. It is one of the best newspaper stories that has come your way in months.

The Gem. A two reel Vitagraph drama that has for its central figure an artist is "The Passing of Diana," showing at the Gem today. Brooke, an African explorer becomes friends with Rodney Miller, a struggling artist. Through his influence Miller becomes celebrated. Brooke is called to the Congo, leaving behind his bride of a few months. In a search for a model to paint what Miller feels will be his masterpiece he makes the acquaintance of Sio, a bewitchingly beautiful woman. As the painting progresses they fall in love, but later Miller Sio's and becomes engaged to Eva Warren, daughter of a wealthy patron. (Go tips to poison her on learning of his engagement. Brooke returns from Africa and invites Miller to meet his wife, whom to his surprise he finds in Sio, his model. The following events happen with bewildering rapidity. They fear discovery, as the picture is to be exhibited. Cleo's jealous nature again asserts herself. She takes Eva Miller's fiancée for a drive the day before the wedding, leaving the artist a note to the effect that she intends to kill both herself and Eva. Miller follows frantically but is too late to prevent the car going over a precipice. Cleo is killed instantly but through a miracle seemingly Eva escapes unhurt. Two other pictures are shown. "Her Spanish Cousins," an Edison comedy, and "By the Old Dead Tree" a Biograph.

NEARLY FIVE INCHES RAIN HERE IN PAST 48 HOURS
Nearly five inches of rain have fallen here in the past forty-eight hours, of which 3.1 inches fell last night. Tuesday night the precipitation was 5.6 of an inch, Wednesday 3.9 of an inch fell, making with last night's rain a total of 4.9 inches.

Rain fell nearly all night last night and this morning the lake was rising steadily. A rise in the Brazos and Red rivers was also expected as the rains appear to have been general over this section of the State.

Nearly all the passenger trains were late in reaching the city today on account of soft tracks.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS. Carrier boys are not authorized, nor is it any part of their duty to collect for subscriptions to The Times.

It is now announced that the prune crop is short, and with this announcement comes the rumor that boarding houses will advance their rates.

Brussels is a city of 664,000 population, and when the Germans captured it they levied a war tax of $4,000,000 on the inhabitants. That means about $60 for each man, woman and child.

The Russian Czar shows unmistakable evidence that his attitude toward the Poles and the Jews is softening somewhat. If they will only stand up now and make targets of themselves he will guarantee them their future liberty in his domains, and doubtless many will "fall" for his soft speech.

Local wheat jumped to 98 cents yesterday, but even that fancy price was not sufficient to induce holders to dump it on the market. Farmers are holding for $1 and they will get that, at least, and possibly more.

It begins to look as if the special session of the Legislature was not going to accept the re-nomination of the governor—act inefficiently and quickly upon the one matter it was called together for and adjourn, but will attempt to play politics and accomplish little or no good for the people of the State.

We agree with the esteemed Waco Morning News that it is well that the McNamee-Lane contest has gone to the courts for adjudication. The matter is now at a stage where partisanship must cease. All honest and fair-minded Democrats will want the decision to go to the man who it is shown received the greatest number of votes, honestly cast and honestly ascertained. Neither Lane nor McNamee will want or can afford to go to Congress on a tainted title.—Waco Tribune.

Without the aid of Villa, Carranza could have never driven Huerta from Mexico. To ignore him now is a mistake, and one that, if not corrected immediately, is likely to cause him to lose out. Bandit that he was, there can be no mistake but that Villa has demonstrated he is a leader of men and a fighter of no mean ability. In gratitude has been the chief cause of the fall from power of many great men, and Carranza may be the next.

If there is anything in the theory that bad noises caused by explosion of dynamite and powder will bring rains then it is certain that all Europe is going to enjoy a season of wetness. Also, it might be that this European war now raging may have something to do with the frequent rainfalls in this section of the country. Up to the present time more than eight inches of rain has fallen in this immediate section since August first.

This war is going to cost American dollars. Paper will be higher. The dollars, paper will be higher. The expenses of getting war news when so many difficulties are put in the way increase enormously and must be paid by all of them at last. Yet the newspapers would seem to charge exorbitant prices on that account.—Austin Statesman.

As a rule, newspaper men are poor business men. When sugar goes up the groceryman puts the price up to his customers, and it is that way all along the line. And yet there are many intelligent people who really believe the European war is making the newspapers rich. On the contrary, if it continues long, many of them will be unable to meet the increased cost of service and will be forced to cut it out, and a newspaper that does not carry the war news had just as well suspend publication.

Napoleon, after his return from Elba, achieved four victories in four successive days. The allies, alarmed at the brilliance of his movements at the head of the rejuvenated French army, offered him peace on terms that, under the conditions, were highly advantageous to the French army. Napoleon, deluded by the ease with which his victories were accomplished, proudly refused the offer of peace, and for the allies there remained but one thing to do—to crush Napoleon. With no alternative they settled down grimly to their task. The battle of Waterloo followed within a few weeks. Napoleon surrendered to the captain of the British Bellepheron and was exiled to St. Helena. One of the Bourbon kings had placed in the hands of the British nothing to do with the Napoleonic wars. The point of it is that it is not well to be too confident of ultimate success because of early successes. When so much is at stake men and countries fight on to the bitter end. It is the policy of the most successful states that in a month of the war, as we of the South learned in the memorable struggle of 1861.—Denton Record and Chronicle.

THE BATTLE OF WATERLOO

(Byron's "Childe Harold.") There was a sound of revelry by night, And Belgium's capital had gathered then Her beauty and her Chivalry, and bright The lamps shone o'er fair women and brave men; A thousand hearts beat happily; and when Music arose with its voluptuous swell, Soft eyes look'd love to eyes which spake again, And all went merry as a marriage-bell— But hush! hark! a deep sound strikes like a rising knell! Did ye not hear it?—No, 'twas not the wind, Or the car rattling o'er the stony street; On with the dance! let joy be unconfin'd; No sleep till morn, when Youth and Pleasure meet To chase the glowing hours with flying feet— But hark!—that heavy sound breaks in once more As if the clouds its echo would repeat; And nearer, clearer, deadlier than before Arm! Arm! it is—the cannon's opening roar! Within a window's niche of that high hall Sat Brunswick's fated chieftain; he did hear That sound the first among the festival, And caught its tone with death's prophetic ear; Ah! when they scolded because he deem'd it near, His heart more truly knew that peal too well Which stretch'd his father on a bloody bier, And roused the vengeance blood alone could quell; Ah! then and there was hurrying to and fro, And gathering tears and tremblings of distress, And cheeks all pale, which but an hour ago Wush'd at the praise of their own loveliness; And there were sudden partings such as press The life from out young hearts, and choking sighs. If ever more should meet those mutual eyes Since upon night so sweet such awful morn should rise! And there was mounting in hot haste; the steed, The shouting squadron, and the clattering car Went pouring forward with impetuous speed, And swiftly forming in the ranks of war; And the deep thunder peal on peal afar; And near, the beat of the alarming drum Roused up the soldiers ere the morning star; While throng'd the citizens with terror dumb, Or whispering with white lips—"The foe! They come, they come!"

Last noon behold them full of lusty life, Last even in Beauty's circle proudly gay, The midnight brought the signal sound of strife, The morn the marshalling in arms—the day Battle's magnificently stern array! The thunder-clouds close o'er it, which rent The earth is covered thick with other clay, Which her own clay shall cover, head'd nad pent, Rider and horse—friend, foe—in one red burial bent.

Writing in his paper, the Dallas Democrat, State Senator McNeilus has the following to say of the El Paso convention: "That rough rider state committee, at the El Paso convention, overplayed their recklessness. They acted like a legion of Robber's Roost bandits. Rough House methods on the part of the trustees of the democratic party can't go on always. A few more such disfranchisement incidents as the throwing out and denying seats in the state convention to legitimate delegates, as was done toward McLennan and Barratt toward the refusal to accept the honest election returns from the seven counties of Montague, Menard, San Saba, Reeves, Hockley, Menard, Oldham and Dimmitt; the stealing of a seat in the national congress for a favorite and taking it away from a man who was not a favorite with the leaders of the successful faction in the general results of the election; these practices, carried on a little longer, in the name of democracy, will, in the temporary detraction of the grand old party in Texas will not be far postponed. It is good to have a giant's strength; it is wrong to use it as a giant. The controlling element at El Paso could have acted honestly and had an overwhelming majority. They did not need to play the political highwayman. But that's what was done. They sowed bad seed; they will reap a bad harvest, in due time. San Antonio, 1914, was bad; El Paso, 1914, was villainous. Real democracy is synonymous with honesty. The grand old party in Texas does not deserve such ignominy as it has to bear because of the coast, brutal, vicious work of the rough riders of the last two state-conventions done in its name."

Play P. A. right across the boards!

You lay an odds-on bet that Prince Albert is the best pipe and cigarette smoke any man ever put a match to. You'll cash in before you clean out your first tidy tin.

Here's tobacco that's got real red-blooded man punch, but it can't bite your tongue and it can't parch your throat. That's thrown into the discard by a patented process owned exclusively by the manufacturers. You stick a pin here—no other tobacco can be like Prince Albert; nor has P. A. any "near" relatives! Drilling Oil Wells In U. S.

Then Now Fifty-five years ago today the first driven oil well in the United States began to give up its precious fluid. The event marked an epoch in the illumination of the world and the beginning of many huge fortunes. The chief illuminants of that day were sperm or whale-oil, retailing at $2.25 a gallon; camphene, a derivative of turpentine and very liable to explosion; coal oil, obtained from coal and Scotch baghead, selling at about $2 a gallon. How to light the home and workshop cheaply was a serious economic problem. It was that problem that induced two Connecticut financiers to advance $2,000 to Col. Edwin L. Drake, who proposed to drill an oil well near Pithole, Pa., where for generations the local residents had been gathering oil as it floated on the surfaces of creeks and pools. Drake began work in 1857. His early attempts resulted in failure; his financiers refused more money and his workmen deserted. His scheme became the joke of the countryside. "He might as well drill for whiskey," remarked one rural spectator. When on the verge of starvation, Drake finally secured financial aid from Pennsylvanians and resumed his operations. Months passed. Several drilling methods proved useless, until he sank a six inch iron pipe. At a depth of seventy-one feet the pioneer finally found traces of oil, and the next morning the liquid was found flowing liberally upon the ground. It was the beginning of one of the greatest modern industries.

Shipment Of New Maxwell Touring Cars Enroute Here

The Imperial Motor Sales Company have been advised that a carload of the 1915 model Maxwells is now enroute here and should arrive within the next ten days. The shipment is made up of touring cars which will be delivered to the customer at $790 equipped with electric lights and starter. The same car will be sold for $750 without the lights and starter. The new Maxwell has created a sensation. The Detroit headquarters reports that applications for dealer representation have been pouring in the form of a steady deluge. Thousands are clamoring for dealer representation. The situation in automobile circles is positively unprecedented and it foreshadows the wonderful popularity and prominence that the new Maxwell is destined to attain. The tenor of each request for dealer representation indicates utmost enthusiasm. Galveston—A compilation showing the amount of the export and import of automobiles handled through this port for the year ending June 30, 1914 has just been issued. The records show that both import and export commodities to the value of $15,766,019, compared with $9,285,721 for the same period of 1913 were handled through here during that time. Despite the conditions which prevailed in Mexico, a substantial increase was made over the business with the Republic for 1913.

EMERGENCY MONEY FOR LOCAL BANK

CITY NATIONAL BANKS APPLICATION GRANTED AND IT WILL ISSUE CURRENCY

$175,000 TO BE AMOUNT

Steps Taken to Make this Available at Earliest Moment Possible

C. W. Snider, cashier of the City National Bank this morning received a telegram from the treasury department at Washington stating the bank's application for admission as a member of the National Currency Association of Dallas had been accepted, and that the bank would be permitted to issue $175,000 emergency currency, in addition to that which is permitted under the regular currency law.

The object of the local bank in issuing this emergency currency at this time is particularly to help finance the cotton crop which is coming on the market soon. In anticipation of the acceptance by the treasury department the officers of the institution have already arranged for issuing the currency, which will be available for loans in the course of a very few days.

WHEAT REACHES DOLLAR IN LOCAL MARKET

Dollar wheat was reached in Wichita Falls today. That is this was the nominal quotation as no wagon wheat has been offered on the local market for several days. The muddy conditions of the roads will prevent wheat hauling for several days. Dealers were making no contracts for future deliveries at a dollar a bushel today.

Chicago Grain Futures. By Associated Press. Chicago, Aug. 27.—Bullish sentiment brought wheat to a new high level at the opening of the market today. May wheat opened 7-8 to 2-5-8 under yesterday's close, on the sale of a few odd lots to secure profits. At this price specified and spot in jeans and bonds up to 1-25 or 3-5-8 cents better than the high point yesterday. September opening 5-8 down, rose 3-1-8 cents over the previous close, while December opening 1-1-4 down rose and advanced 5-8 cents from the bottom. Corn was neglected in favor of wheat and oats, but net advances of 1-14 to 1-3-4 cents were registered early. Oats were independently strong on reports of continued seaboard demand for export, and the influence of yesterday's large trade still was felt. Opening prices were 1-8 to 1-4 cents higher and early bidding added another half a cent. Wheat closed steady, corn steady. Close for leading months Sept. 1-0-7-1/2, December 1-11; May 1-19-1-4, Corn Sept. 81 1/2, Dec. 52 5-8, Oats, Sept. 47 7-8; Dec. 50 3-8.

Kansas City Cash Grain. By Associated Press. Kansas City, Aug. 27.—Wheat No. 2 hard 1-07 to 1-11. Corn No. 2 mixed 80 to 80 1/2; No. 2 white 49 1/2 to 50.

Fort Worth Livestock. By Associated Press. Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 27.—Cattle receipts 2700; steady; beefs tops $7.55. Hog receipts 1700, five cents lower, bulk $8.80 to $9.25.

Cheese factories may spring up in Wichita Falls as thick as battles in war beset Europe before many days have elapsed according to a report that J. R. Wiley of Enid, Oklahoma, who has designed a simple way of making home-made cheese, and is coming to Wichita Falls and demonstrate his method if he can get the proper agreement from the Chamber of Commerce. He claims that one gallon of milk will make one pound of cheese which will sell for twenty cents a pound and will be pure, sweet, unadulterated cheese such as has never been purchased from a store. Also, since you make it yourself without any trouble, worthy of mention, he says, and know every ingredient that is contained therein, you know that it is cheese and not the make shift stuff that is sometimes imported from the old countries.

REVIVAL CONTINUES AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. A. Hubbard of Alabama, one of the Blue Mountain evangelists, had charge of the meeting of last evening at the First Baptist Church. Dr. Martin having preached his final sermon the night before, leaving Evangelist Hubbard and Sister Sam Raborn to continue the meetings indefinitely. Dr. Hubbard had for his subject last night, "Setting the Captive Free" and the music by Mr. Raborn was, of course, a feature. The singer's brother was here for a short stay and he and Mr. Raborn sang a duet which lent much attraction to the service. At the close of the sermon the invitation was extended, the speaker making a forceful appeal. One came forward to accept the invitation.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Raborn held a meeting for the women and girls which was one of the most splendid and successful meetings in the series. Again this morning Bro. Hubbard was in charge of a special meeting, while the singer conducted the meeting of this afternoon. Three meetings a day will be the order of the service, nine o'clock in the morning, four in the afternoon and the usual evening sermon.

A NEW WAREHOUSE BILL INTRODUCED MEASURE PREPARED BY AUSTIN COTTON BUYER SUBMITTED BY REP. MENDELL

HOUSE AND SENATE MEET Administration's Warehouse Bill Introduced in Senate Is Without Ginner's Tax.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 27.—The House was in session only a few minutes today when an adjournment was taken until ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

Representative Mendell introduced a new bonded warehouse bill prepared by R. G. Crosby, a local cotton buyer. The bill differs from the governor's bill in that it provides for individual ownership of warehouses and would place these warehouses under control of the state commissioner of insurance and banking. This bill will be considered along with other bills.

Senator Wiley today introduced a bill in the Senate providing for the establishment in Austin of a cooperative cotton marketing bureau. A resolution was offered by Senator McGregg memorializing the Texas delegation in Congress to urge the passage of bills now pending in Congress for the conversion of the federal government's military posts into sanitariums for consumptives. This resolution was offered at the request of the Texas Public Health Association.

AMERICA WILL SEND THREE CARDINALS FOR THE FIRST TIME TO ELECT A POPE

1. CARDINAL O'CONNELL 2. CARDINAL GIBBONS 3. CARDINAL FARLEY

America has three Catholic cardinals. They are James Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore, aged eighty; John Cardinal Farley, archbishop of New York, aged sixty-three; and William Cardinal O'Connell, archbishop of Boston, aged fifty-four. It is considered possible that Cardinal Gibbons may be elevated to the papal see, but of course, they will attend the conclave on exactly the same footing as cardinals from any other country. It will be the first time that America will be represented by that number. As there are thirty-four Italian cardinals, more than those of all other nationalities combined, it appears certain that an Italian will be selected as pope.

Primer Of War's Geography Given By Geographic Society

The Ardennes—A plateau region extending over the Belgian province of Luxembourg, the grand duchy of Luxembourg, and the French department of Ardennes. The Belgian Ardennes may be said to extend from the Meuse above Dinant on the west to the grand duchy of Luxembourg and Rhinisch Prussia on the east, with the northern boundary represented by a line drawn from Dinant through Marche to the German frontier, where the Marne river crosses the Belgian boundary. On the south the boundary is the French frontier and the Semois river valley. Some of the finest forests in all Europe are to be found in this territory. The country is rolling and offers no military strategy. The French Ardennes at some points reach an elevation of 1,600 feet.

Turnhout—A Belgian town near the Dutch frontier twenty-five miles north east of Antwerp and the same distance west of North Dier. It has a population of about 3,000. The prisoners have complete liberty of movement except they must be under the supervision of a guardian and must not leave the boundaries of the settlement.

Ghesl—A Belgian town nearly midway between Turnhout and Dier, where Belgium maintains one of the world's most noted asylums for the insane, giving the inmates every opportunity to lead normal lives and to keep interested in normal things as long as possible.

Florenville—A small Belgian town immediately across the boundary from France and about fifteen miles, air line distance, east of the famous French battlefield of Sedan. It is just off of the main highway leading from Dinant to Montmedy and Longway, France.

Metz—A city of some 70,000 population, the capital of the German province of Lorraine, on the Moselle, less than ten miles from the French frontier at a point nearly opposite Verdun. It is eighty miles, air line distance of ninety-nine miles by rail, from Strassburg. The Seille joins the Moselle here. There are fourteen bridges spanning the Moselle. Throughout its entire history down to 1870 Metz never surrendered to an enemy, thus winning for itself the name "La Pucelle." It now ranks with Strassburg as one of the two great fortresses of western Germany. After the French lost it in the Franco-Prussian war the Germans strengthened its fortifications to make it the principal pivot of operations against France. It is nearly surrounded by strong outlying forts.

Seaborn—A town in lower German Alsace, situated on the Rhine-Marne canal, twenty-eight miles from Strassburg. It is situated at the foot of a pass through the Vosges mountains commanding the road from the French frontier to Strassburg. On the French side of the Vosges is Pflanzburg. The road between these two places is famous for its scenery which is immortalized by Goethe in "Dichtung und Wahrheit."

Gumbinnen—A town in the extreme northeast of Germany, twenty-two miles inland from the Russian frontier and about sixty-five miles east of Königsberg. It has a population of some 15,000 and is located in a rich farming section. It has a number of iron foundries, machine shops, and textile and tanning plants.

Markirch (French, Sainte-Marie-Aux-Mines)—A town in upper Alsace, Germany, with a population of about 15,000, where desperate fighting is reported to have taken place between the French and Germans. It commands one of the passes of the Vosges mountains and is situated in the valley of the Leber. It is famous for its textile dye works.

$100 Reward, $100
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known for the internal catarrh of the bladder, urethra and rectum. It is a constitutional treatment, and requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have no more to say for their curative powers than they offer the Hundred Dollar Reward for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. LARGEST OIL WELL IN WORLD-BURNING Galveston, Texas, Aug. 27.—El Agula, the largest well in the world, which registers an average flow of 120,000 barrels of oil daily, is burning and the greatest oil field holocaust in the history of the development of the industry in America appears to be in view.

This is the report of Capt. Fenn of the British tank steamship C. A. Canfield, who states that the well has been burning for days, that it caught from a smaller well which was fired by spontaneous combustion and that other wells in the district are threatened. El Agula is owned by the Peabody Syndicate, and is one of the most valuable of all that company's holdings.

All employees were laid off during the Mexican revolution and the wells capped. It is thought that gases formed and caused the conflagration. Heroic efforts are being made to check the flames but the enormous flow makes it impossible to approach the valve and Captain Fenn says cannons are being fired into the center of the fire in hope of cutting off the valve.

SUCH FINE LIGHT BREAD with its golden brown crust is possible with such flour as "BELLE of WICHITA" This flour bakes perfectly every time. You have only to try a sack and your reputation as a good baker will have begun. All leading grocers have it.

THREE LEADERS DISCUSS PROBLEMS OF LABOR

Washington, Aug. 27.—Labor problems are discussed by distinguished Americans in the Labor day issue of the 'Federalist,' the official organ of the American Federation of Labor, in an issue published today. President Wilson, former President Roosevelt and former President Taft. Secretary of Labor Wilson, Chairman Walsh of the Industrial Commission and others contributed 'messages' to labor. 'No one can look about him will frank eyes without feeling that there is a steady movement both of purpose and action towards justice and a fuller comprehension and realization of the essential rights and liberties of men,' said President Wilson. 'The movement may be slow, at times seems distressingly and discouragingly slow, but it is unmistakable and all that we have to do to set it forward with ever increasing momentum is to think justly, purpose the things that are right and be afraid of nothing except to be unfair and selfish and hasty when interests great as the country itself are involved.' Roosevelt Scored Fuel Company. Col. Roosevelt's statement declared in favor of unionism, workmen's compensation, social insurance, the eight hour day and minimum wage legislation. He scored violence in labor disputes, particularly in the Colorado coal strike. 'Every man who condones, glosses over or apologizes for such acts,' said Roosevelt, 'is a public enemy. The managers and large stockholders of that corporation (the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company) had not a proper sense of their real obligations to their employees and the community.' Roosevelt denounced the mine owners as 'greedy, short sighted and callous to public needs.' Taft Against the Closed Shop. Former President Taft declared himself in favor of labor organizations, but against the 'closed shop' as a curtailment of personal liberty. He said he favored workmen's compensation laws, but was against exempting labor and farmers' organizations from anti-trust law. He congratulated President Compers on the latter's 'hard, and successful fight against the spread of Socialism among wage earners. 'The only tenet of Socialism I fully endorse is its opposition to war,' said Mr. Taft.

Real clothes made to fit every peculiar line of your build cost no more. Hand-me-downs are all made alike; no two men are built alike. A suit that fits John Smith makes Jack Brown look like an animated scarecrow. A suit that fits must be made for the individual who is to wear it. And the measure taken by a man who knows how to lay the tape. You may look like a step-ladder, a human being or a keg, but if you want a fit, we have your number.

One's Character

Is determined by the lines of the face, the clothes and the way they keep their places of abode. Beautiful, well-kept homes bespeak thrift and energy; neglected ones, carelessness, idleness and indifference.

WE HAVE NOTICED that those who were careless or indifferent about their homes or business were doubly so when it came to taking care of their dead. Should you want to read character, go to the cemetery. You can tell every class without a microscope. There are a few people in Wichita Falls, beautiful in character, homes beautiful, and the last resting place of their loved ones well cared for. The regular visitors to the cemetery know them.

Lillian Nordica in Grafanolo Selections

World's Famous Wagnerian Soprano Heard only in Columbia Records. Mme. Lillian Nordica was held to be the greatest dramatic soprano the world has ever known. Scarcely can there be found in any civilized country a corner where her fame had not penetrated, and where her name is not synonymous with everything that is splendid in vocal art. Her voice as it is heard in Columbia Records, is the same noble and beautiful instrument that has held thousands spell bound. It has the same golden, velvety qualities that has ever set it apart among the soprano voices of the day. Here are a few of her best selections:

"Damon, 55 in English, "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water" and "Mighty Lak' a Rose," in English. "Mignon" in Italian. "Annie Laurie," in English. "La Gioconda" in Italian. "Tristan and Isolde," in German.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We have decided to close out our Grocery business, in order to open in Wichita Falls an up-to-date exclusive Coffee, Tea and Spice House. As you are probably aware we have been roasting coffee in connection with our grocery business for several years and have arrived at the conclusion that the town will justify an exclusive establishment of this character.

We are not quitting the grocery business on account of lack of success, on the contrary believe we have been more than an average success in this line, but our coffee business has grown to where we feel that by giving it our entire attention we can obtain better results both for ourselves and patrons.

On September first we will close our books and on September the third we will inaugurate a cash closing out sale on every article in our stock, with the exception of coffee and mineral waters, at cost and less, and as we want to convert our goods into cash in the shortest possible time, will sell at prices that will move them regardless of our cost. As prices of all food stuff are advancing rapidly it will pay you to take advantage of this sale and anticipate your wants for some time.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank you for your patronage in the past and assure you of our appreciation, and trust we will have the pleasure of serving you in our new line.

Announcement of the location and opening date of the new business will be made later.

Very truly yours,

O. W. BEAN & SON
