RUSSIANS CLAIM VICTORY OVER GERMANS IN POLAND

Declare Invaders Forces Are Cut Up And In Retreat—Report Lacks Full Confirmation

GERMANS RUSH TROOPS TO RENEW BATTLE

In Western Theatre Cold Weather Prevents Action—Germans Said To Be Ready For Winter

By Associated Press.

London, Nov. 24.—If the official reports of the Russians are correct the tide of the great battle in Poland has turned in their favor. How important the change is and to what extent it will influence future operations in the struggle between Russia and Germany was not apparent today.

Berlin officially reported no important changes in the battle, yet the Russian war office whose statements were vague and non-committal for several days, when the tension was running highest and the Germans, to all accounts, were pressing swiftly toward Warsaw, made today its first definite announcement concerning the crucial battle.

It stated that between the Vistula and the Warthe rivers the Germans had retreated. Germany's latest official statement gave this partial confirmation by saying that the arrival of Russian reinforcements had postponed the decision. There was, however, no hint in this statement of a retreat.

While the extent and the completeness of the German defeat was not known here the very fact that General Von Hindenburg had been checked was by far the biggest feature of today's war news.

The same dispatches that tell of reverses, however, say that the German reinforcements were brought up so that another great battle is likely to develop near Posen where the Germans still have the same chances of renewing the fight.

General Von Hindenburg has about 400,000 men and if the Petrograd report can be accepted they have been separated, badly cut up and thousands captured, so these German forces will require reformation and rest.

In the western arena of the war the present lines of battle seem to be frozen into positions, as it were, by wintry weather conditions. The Germans show few signs of being staggered by their enormous losses from Flanders and dispatches from Berlin set forth that the German troops are far better able to stand exposure to the cold than are the allies.

The forces of Emperor William are trained and clothed for just such an emergency while the troops of the allies from the south of France, from Morocco and from India, must necessarily suffer greatly. The fourth contingent of fresh German troops is now said to be in Flanders and this week should see a renewal of the violent German offensive somewhere between Arras and the Sea.

The sinking of a German submarine off the coast of Scotland reminds England once more that she must expect the raiders to bob up anywhere.

Lists of subscriptions to the greatest war loan in history amounting to $1,750,000,000 or rather more than half the total of the British national debt was closed late today. The result indicates the determination of the country to enable the government to prosecute the war to a successful end.

ARKANSAS FOREST FIRES STILL BLAZE

PARTS OF OKLAHOMA AND LOUISIANA NOW REACHED BY FLAMES

MUCH DAMAGE HAS RESULTED

Blaze Is Within Few Miles of Little Rock—Sparks Cause Danger In Cities

By Associated Press.
Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 24.—Including portions of three States within the area of the ravages, forest fires today continued their destructive sweep through the lumber regions of the Southwest. Arkansas, Southwestern Oklahoma and Northwestern Louisiana told stories of additional devastation today. With two mountains ablaze near the smoke from the blazing timber rising in dense clouds Little Rock today came to a closer realization of the menace. The burning area is less than four miles from the heart of the business district. The State stone crushing plant here last night was destroyed at a loss of more than $50,000.

Citizen patrols covered the residence blocks in many sections of the city last night. Hundreds of bales of cotton purchased when the buy a bale movement was started and as advertisements placed in front of business houses are being removed today.

Campers Caught In Flames.

At Carlisle, Arkansas three miles east of here sparks from burning timber set fire to two oil tanks and destroyed 5000 gallons of oil at a loss of $1500. At Magnolia, more than a score of families are reported endangered by the wood fires which have spread with startling rapidity. Near that section, it is said, small farmers and homesteaders are loading their household goods in wagons.

The steamer Tate Adams, the largest boat on the Mississippi, reported lost in the smoke early last night, reached Helena, Ark., at midnight fourteen hours behind schedule.

Captain R. R. Rice, a pioneer settler of Lincoln county and a party of campers returning from a trip which was cut short when the forest fires set fire to their camp equipment told of a desperate battle with the flames in the woods, when they escaped with only their clothing and with faces scorched and arms burned from a ten mile flight through the blazing woods.

In Little Rock today farmers who had driven several miles into town told how they had been forced to abandon the main roads west and southwest of the city.

AIRSHIP RAIDERS HAVE SOME SUCCESS

FACTORY SUSTAINS DAMAGE

One of Machines Is Brought Down By Quick Fire—Attack Causes Much Anxiety

By Associated Press.
Gonova, via Radio, Nov. 24.—Details of the airship raid of Friedrichshaven have been received here from Romanhorn, a Swiss town eleven miles from Comstock. From this account it appears that two French and two English aviators, the former with monoplane, the latter with biplane, arrived above the city and amid a hail of shot and bullets from six quick-firers worked by the men of the Bavarian regiment circled about for half an hour, during which they threw about ten bombs in the vicinity of the Zeppelin shed. One of these bombs struck home, destroying part of the shed, and some machinery. It is reported one of the largest Zeppelins, which was ready to be launched was badly damaged. The Germans deny this.

The thousand or more workmen employed about the place were at dinner when the raid occurred or the loss of life would have been greater than it was. One home was destroyed by the bombs and several persons were killed including two soldiers.

Forward to Descend

The gunfire of the soldiers brought one of the aviators to earth with his machine. He proved to be a British naval officer. The three other machines disappeared, but one of them, supposed to have been manned by the other Englishman, is reported to have fallen into the lake, the aviator being drowned. Another report says the second machine was forced to land at Wurtemberg. In any event only two machines were seen later flying toward Belfort, which is 125 miles in a direct line from the Zeppelin establishment.

The raid is said to have caused much anxiety in Friedrichshaven. The number of quick firers has been doubled and all foreigners it is said are being expelled as it is believed that spies gave the information that another Zeppelin had been completed. The lake is being searched for the aviator who was not accounted for.

Bombard Two Towns On Belgian Coast But Germans Deny Much Damage Was Done

By Associated Press.
London, Nov. 24.—(via wireless to London, 3:25 p. m.) An official communication given out here today by the German headquarters says: "British warships again appeared off the Belgian coast yesterday and bombarded Lombaerdeyde and Zeebrugge. Our troops suffered but slight damage from this bombardment but a number of Belgian villagers were killed and injured. Otherwise no actual changes have taken place in the west."

"In the eastern war theatre the situation has not yet been decided. In West Prussia our troops are holding their own to the northwest of the plains of the Masurian lakes."

"In northern Poland the fierce fighting which has been taking place still has been without result. In southern Poland the region of Czenstochowa has come to a standstill."

"On our southern wing to the northeast of Cracow our attack is progressing."

"The official Russian report that Generals Liebert and Tannewitz were made prisoners in East Prussia is an invention. General Liebert at present is in Berlin and General Tannewitz is at the head of his troops."

EARTHWORKS NOT EASILY PENETRATED BY BIG SHELLS

Their Powers of Resistance Seem Better Than Fortifications Made of Masonry

By Associated Press.
Waelhem, Belgium, Nov. 24.—No point in the outer circle of Antwerp's fortifications was as stubbornly contested as Fort Waelhem. Its resistance to the German heavy guns was due to the comparatively little masonry in its construction. It was an old fashioned fortification, largely earthwork.

It was demonstrated here that shells from the German 42 centimeter guns penetrated little more than a meter into solid earth. At other fortifications shells from these same guns penetrated concrete and stone to twice that distance.

The village of Waelhem lies immediately behind the fort, so directly in the line of German fire that not a building in the place which had a thousand inhabitants escaped destruction.

A garrison of several hundred Germans is now engaged in repairing the fort and its disabled guns. The place is visited daily by thousands of Belgians who wander over the earthworks furrowed everywhere by German shells and gather about the mounds which the Germans have heaped up over their head.

BRIEF ILLNESS IS FATAL TO YOUNG WOMAN MONDAY

Miss Lillian Bower Is Stricken While at Work and Death Ensues In Short Time

After an illness of less than twelve hours, Miss Lillian Bower, aged 22, bookkeeper at Kahn's store died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Susie Williams at 1117 Monroe street at about 6 o'clock Monday evening. Miss Bower had gone to her work yesterday morning apparently in her usual health.

At about 8 o'clock while at her desk she collapsed and was seized with convulsions. Physicians were called and she was carried to her home. Fever and convulsions intermittently followed during the day and at about 6 o'clock death resulted. The immediate cause of her death was paralysis of the heart. Her case is one that presented puzzling features. It had been reported during the day yesterday that she had been stricken with meningitis but physicians say there were no symptoms of this.

AMERICANS LEAD IN RELIEF OF BELGIANS

ARE IN ACTIVE CHARGE OF THE WORK BEING DONE IN ENGLAND

MANY DIFFICULTIES OVERCOME

Pressure Brought To Bear Upon English Government Until Aid Is Secured

By Associated Press.
London, Nov. 24.—With the exception of its treasurer, Clarence Graft, who is a banker every active member of the American commission for the relief of Belgians is an engineer. The work of these men is pointed to as a tribute to the thoroughness of the American engineering colleges.

H. C. Hoover, who heads both the American relief committee and the Belgian commission is a mining engineer who directs the labors of 250,000 miners and smelter operatives in various parts of the world. Hoover is a graduate of Leland Stanford Jr. University of which institution he is now a trustee having succeeded to the position on the board vacated by the death of Whitelaw Reid.

London is the Mecca of successful American engineers and Hoover has gathered about him a group of men well equipped for the work in hand, and with considerable leisure to devote to it, because the war has suspended so many of the enterprises in which they are interested.

Volunteers Are Asked.

The vice chairman is Daniel Heineken, who is an electrical engineer and head of one of the largest international electrical manufacturing groups. The other members are William Hulse, also an electrical engineer and head of a number of engineering companies; John Beaver White, an electrical engineer and a partner in one of the largest contracting firms in Europe; Millard Hunsicker, an electrical engineer for many years one of the executives of the United States Steel Corporation; Captain J. F. Lucy, a mechanical engineer and head of a large manufacturing concern doing business in the United States and Europe; J. W. Dickson, civil engineer, and Millard Shaler, a mechanical engineer living in Brussels.

For three weeks American, Spanish and Belgian diplomatic representatives struggled with the question of supplying Belgium with food without making much progress beyond securing the promise of co-operation from the various governments concerned. When the need became acute and it was necessary to get food under way at once the American ambassador here called upon Hoover to form the necessary working organization, and the result when Hoover called for volunteers was the existing commission with its predominant engineering personnel.

Pressure Brought To Bear.

The first and most serious obstacle encountered by the commission was the refusal of the English government to remove its embargo on the export of food, even for such a necessary work as the succor of the starving Belgians. Early in the diplomatic negotiations, the British government not only promised to allow the export of food supplies to Belgium, but promised the Belgian minister a large cash contribution each month.

The commission then determined upon the bold step of buying the necessary foodstuffs for temporary relief and counting on diplomatic efforts and pressure of public opinion to force the embargo. Within twenty-four hours of the organization of the commission it had purchased a quarter of a million dollars worth of food supplies, chartered the necessary ship and while the food was being placed on board quietly informed the cabinet that the Belgian people were starving and asked, "Are you going to allow this food to go to the Belgians or not?"

FIFTY BARRELS OF FLOUR FOR BELGIAN REFUGEES

Wichita Mill Gives Five Per Cent of One Day's Output, As Others Are Doing

The contribution of the Wichita Mill & Elevator Company to the Belgian relief will be fifty barrels of flour. This is approximately five per cent of the mill's output for one day. At a meeting of Texas millers at Fort Worth Saturday called by Frank Kell of this city it was agreed that the millers would contribute five per cent of one day's output. The flour will be shipped to Philadelphia, the railroads having agreed to haul it free of cost. From Philadelphia it will be sent by ship direct to Belgium. So far as is known the millers are the only people of Texas who are making any organized effort for the relief of the Belgians.

43 SURVIVORS IN WRECK OF STEAMER

FIFTEEN ARE KILLED WHEN BOAT GOES AGROUND ON REEF

TOWED ASHORE BY LIFE LINES

Strenuous Efforts of Those On Shore at Last Meet With Partial Success Today

By Associated Press.
San Francisco, Nov. 24.—Forty-three survivors and fifteen dead from the sixty-two persons on the wrecked coasting steamer Henel, which went ashore yesterday on the Duxbury Reef near here, have been accounted for. Of these thirty were towed ashore by life lines or struggled through the surf by their own strength. Thirteen were brought in by the revenue cutter McCullough. The fifteen dead also were on the McCullough. Only four were unaccounted for. These figures did not include, however, of the Port Point life saving cruiser who were "swamped" last night. Two of these were known to have come safe ashore but the remaining three were reported missing.

Some Reach Shore.

The steamer schooner Henel, ashore on Duxbury Reef, broke in two just before dawn today with 48 persons aboard. Three passengers and two seamen swam ashore immediately. The schooner which had been pounded by the surf since yesterday noon when she ran ashore in a fog went all to pieces. Her bow which hung over the reef and had been twisted into a right angle slid into inside water and drifted to within 100 yards of the beach.

The five who first came ashore swam from this wreckage. A life line which had been shot over the wreck parted just as the schooner broke in two. Duxbury Reef is at the end of a deep and narrow channel running north from San Francisco harbor along the very edge of the cliffs. Big and little boats follow in and out to avoid shall water known as the "potato patch" which begins just beyond the channel and runs for miles to sea. In clear weather it is easily navigable. A few more hours would have saved every soul aboard.

Life Savers Lines Part.

After all hope had been given up ashore and on board the wreck, the sixth life fired by the Golden Gate Park life saving crew under Captain Norman Nelson went over the vessel. A breeches buoy was rigged and then the line parted. Almost immediately the channel and runs for miles to sea. In clear weather it is easily navigable. A few more hours would have saved every soul aboard.

Efforts to take off the passengers and crew from shore began late yesterday after a dozen vessels had tried to reach here and were prevented by surf. The life saving crew from the beach fired lines which fell short until in desperation they double charged their mortar and it burst.

An effort to launch a boat from the Henel failed and a passenger was drowned. A sailor tried to swim ashore with a rope and men on the beach could see his arms moving but at the line of breakers he sank and the body drifted to sea.

A passenger, Ellwood Schwerin of Berkeley, Cal., took a line and got ashore but the line untied itself as he swam. One other man, it was reported, also reached shore, but the details were lacking. A life saving crew which went out toward the wreck. The captain reached shore and the remaining five men got aboard the Henel. Two later were washed off and drowned and there seemed no hope for any rescue.

At 2 o'clock in the morning the Golden Gate life saving crew with a larger mortar, appeared. Through the enterprise of a local newspaper it had been ferried across San Francisco Bay loaded on a motor truck and sent ten miles over mountain roads. It began to shoot lines toward the wreck as the tide rose. After the third shot the water was waist deep on the schooner and the wireless operator who was sending with an improvised outfit held in one hand reported that the passengers were desperate.

Wireless Calls For Help.

"We will get ashore as best we can," he reported, "we cannot stay here. But they dared not trust the waves."

"Try once more. Hurry! Hurry!" called the operator a little later.

The Henel was a wooden vessel 666 tons, built for the Hawaiian sugar trade in 1901 and later diverted to coast wise traffic, running between San Francisco and Ureka. She left Ureka Sunday. She was owned by the Independent Steamship Company.

At The Theaters

The Lydia Margaret.
The vaudeville bill opening yesterday is more than ordinarily pleasing. Miss Hendricks in her offering of singing and dancing is good and the three Millards in their comedy playlet, "Zeke in Society" make good in every sense of the word. Today's pictures are "Country Innocence," a two part imp, featuring the charming Dorothy Phillips, also "Vivian's Transformation" a comedy with Vivian Prescott.

The Majestic.
Arthur Johnson is playing today in another of the "Beloved Adventure" stories, this being "The Untarnished Shield." When one's family honor is in question would the life of the one who has endangered the honor be too much to demand as the price of an "untarnished shield?" How a nobleman of England answered this question is the basis of this story. John E. Ince is featured in a two part Lubin, "His Brother Bill," a story of the Civil War. Richard C. Travers is seen in "White Lies" an Essanay drama and a Vitagraph drama, "When the Gods Forgive" features Margaret Gibson.

The Empress.
Today the usual excellent program with "Our Mutual Girl" is showing "Tomorrow" "The Perils of Pauline" will be the attraction.
This is the seventeenth episode out of 20, it having been decided that the series will end with the latter number. For absolute daring, as well as novelty the present episode eclipses them all.

One of the most interesting features of this really remarkable film is a small white bulldog, who acts with an intelligence considerably in excess of that manifested by some human players who have appeared on the screen. After a long series of surprising stunts, he caps the climax by running for a long distance carrying in his mouth a bomb from which a lighted fuse is trailing. With this he jumps from a bridge into a river and swims a considerable distance. The extent to which he ambles about alone in the various scenes is in itself remarkable.

Completely restored after her last harrowing experience, Pauline lingers her moments away in harmless pastimes. Much of her time is given to the above mentioned bull terrier a gift of her friend, Lucile. Her affection for the little brute is looked upon with disfavor by Harry Marvin who jealously begrudges each caress bestowed by her. The presence of the dog gives Owen, the villainous secretary, an idea which he speedily starts to put into execution. Meeting his fellow conspirator, Balthazar, he arranges with him to steal the dog and to entice Pauline away. Thus he plans to capture his ward and at last remove her from his path.
Balthazar takes the dog to a house inhabited by a notorious gang of counterfeiters and is promised aid by them. An old hag is induced to write Pauline that she is in possession of the dog and asks that she come to a certain place to get him. Pauline sets out in her racing car, and with some trepidation rings the bell of the old deserted house. The old hag answers the ring and leads Pauline inside. Here she is seized by the counterfeiters, but during the struggle the dog makes his escape. Sometime later Harry is surprised to see the dog running toward him with a piece of rope in his mouth.
Picking up the rope, Harry is led by the dog, toward the deserted house. He suspects fool play, and when he seen Pauline's racer in front of the house his fears are confirmed. Harry attempts to rescue his sweetheart, but is discovered by the counterfeiters. He eludes them and shouts to Pauline to join him. Together they rush for the car and make their escape with the dog. But a punctured tire later causes them to desert the machine.

Balthazar, who has led the counterfeiters in pursuit discovered some bombs left by the contractor and determines to blow up the shack. He lights the bomb and throws it in the back. It is then that the dog rises to the occasion. From this point on events happen too rapidly to be chronicled.

The Gem.
"413" a Vitagraph three part special with Julia Swayne Gordon, Anita Stewart, Harry Morey, Anders Randolf and other notable film stars is the offering here today.
Baron Barcellos engaged in smuggling diamonds meets Elaine, daughter of Mr. Hall, wealthy diamond merchant, aboard an ocean liner. Tina, an adventuress, infatuated with the Baron, is also a passenger. The smuggler is warned by a code message he is being watched, but cleverly gets his gems by the customs, despite the fact that he is carefully searched. Barcellos hurried to a strange rendezvous where he meets "413" the head of a smuggling band, and receives pay for his diamonds. The engagement of Elaine Hall and Raymond Davis, a secret service agent on the Baron's trail, is announced and Barcellos who is infatuated with the girl is furious. He asks Tina's help and she, by an assumed accident gets Davis to carry her into a cafe. There she makes a scene and the two are arrested. Davis, on proving his identity, is at once released. Elaine sees an account of the affair in the newspapers and breaks off the engagement. Davis continues to shadow the Baron. Determined to win Elaine, Barcellos, knowing her father's business, forces Hall to acknowledge, in the presence of Davis and Elaine, his (the Baron's) engagement to her. Elaine is puzzled by the whole affair and pays a visit to Tina in person. She arouses Tina's fierce jealousy by telling her the Baron intends to marry her, and secures the address of the smuggler's den, also the truth of the cafe incident. The den is raided and Davis shooting through his pocket, kills the Baron. Four Thirteen escapes in his automobile. An exciting chase follows and finding his pursuers gaining, the smuggler steals an empty train at a railroad station. Davis orders the agent to wire ahead and when the train, driven by "413" at sixty miles an hour, strikes an open-switch it plunges down a 50 foot embankment and piles up at the bottom a total wreck. The others arrive and when the body is taken out it is found that Mr. Hall, the smuggler chief and "413" are all one and the same man.

(By Mrs. J. C. Cochran)

Cover a pie plate with flaky pie crust, fill with mincemeat and cover with paste, rolled to paper thinness and bake. For the apple meringue peel and grate one large tart apple, sprinkling over the grated apple one cup of sugar to keep it from turning dark. Beat the whites of two eggs very stiff, add the apple and beat until well mixed. Pile on top of pie, sprinkle with chopped nuts and return to oven to brown. This is a delicious novelty.

The wedding of Miss Helen Marie Jalonick and Edward Earl Clayton of Wichita Falls took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's uncle, 3817 Lemmon avenue, Dr. Robert Hill, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, officiating. The home was prettily decorated with white plum chrysanthemums and waxlax. The bride was given away by her brother, Elison Jalonick. She was gowned in white satin over a tulle of white tulle, while a long white tulle veil clustered with orange blossoms fell from a lace cap that had been her grandmother's. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilacs of the valley. Miss Eddie Car-

Roses and lilies of the valley formed a setting for the wedding cake on the dining table, the dining room being an effect in green and white. A number of out of town guests were present. Ten months ago one of the members gave to the ladies of the society ten cents each, from which they were to make what ever they could. The results of these dimes were turned in at this meeting and altogether the sum of $150 had been made. Mrs. A. M. Hartsook had made the largest amount, something over fifteen dollars and several others had made almost as much. The wheat fields or fields of wheat in Wichita county present a fine appearance now, and the rain of last night and today will help out wonderfully. Nearly all wheat farmers have finished sowing, but wheat sowed as late as Christmas has been known to produce a fine yield.

There are 55,000 autos in Texas, valued at $63,000,000. Corpus Christi Democrat.

Doubtless the figures are correct as to the number, but it's our guess that $63,000,000 valuation of the 55,000 automobiles was not obtained from the tax assessors throughout the various counties of the State. An automobile that the purchaser is required to pay from $1000 to $2000 is rarely ever assessed for taxes for more than one-fourth the purchase price.

The American government has received information from the foreign office of the Netherlands government guaranteeing the shipment of cotton in transit to Germany, or to transshipments of cotton consigned to Dutch firms. In view of the fact that cotton is reported as selling for as much as 15 cents per pound in Germany, this announcement should add a few cents to the present price being paid for cotton.

It now develops that President Wilson had good cause for removing Henry Lane Wilson as ambassador to Mexico. He is wanted in Mexico now on a very serious charge—that of being implicated in the assassination of former President Madero. Until he clears himself of that charge he should at least be decent enough not to criticize the acts of President Wilson in this Mexican situation. But Henry Lane is not likely to return voluntarily to Mexico to face such a charge, and if he did it is not likely that he would be permitted to return.

Just now there is hardly a mail that does not bring to our desk an appeal for aid for the poor Belgians. And there is not the shadow of a doubt but that the Belgians need and should receive the aid they are, through their friends in America, appealing for, but it must be remembered that the Americans are in no wise responsible for the European war, or for the ruthless manner in which the people of Belgium have been treated. But on account of this European war thousands upon thousands of American working people—men, women and children—will be thrown out of employment this winter, and as a consequence there will be suffering, especially in the crowded large cities. If their wants and necessities can first be provided for, it will then be time enough to extend charity to the Belgians, or the suffering people of foreign nations. In reply to an appeal to aid the Belgians, Mayor Mitchell of New York City very correctly sets up the situation as follows:

"You ask me to help in some way the committee of mercy to raise funds for the relief of the distressed Belgians. I would do anything that I, as mayor or personally, have power to do to mitigate the suffering of those unfortunate people. Never has so strong an appeal been made to the sympathy and humanity of America. But, as mayor of New York, I feel that I must say to you that we can not close our eyes to the demands which are to be made upon the more fortunate of us for the relief of distress in the United States in the coming winter, particularly in our great cities. This distress is due in large part to the disturbances of business and industry caused by the war."

JUST LOOK AT IT AGAIN.

(Dallas Dispatch.) Maybe you saw it in the figures of the telegraph reports, but we want to again show it to you, as a matter of promoting good cheer, the basis of good times.

Comparing last September with September 1913, we sent abroad twice as much wheat, seventeen times as much sugar, twice as much corn, three times as much oats, four times as much oat meal, ten times as much rice, ten times as much barley, 68 million dollars' worth of food stuffs against 38 millions worth.

This notwithstanding that none of the plans for improvement of transportation facilities were in fair operation. Cheer up! Beat your hammer into a horn! Everybody else is beating his plowshare into a bayonet.

NEW PRINCIPAL CHOSEN FOR COMMERCIAL SCHOOL

The Times has received the following:

"The Wichita Commercial School which has been gradually broadening its course of study and increasing its efficiency received a great impetus in its upward trend when W. E. Miller was elected to the principalship of the school and at the same time securing one-half interest in the same. Mr. Miller is a man of thorough college training who has had years of experience both as school teacher and as office man.

"Mr. Miller was for some time teacher of bookkeeping in one of the reputable business colleges of the South; he has also seen service in the public schools. For the last two years Mr. Miller has been in the accounting department of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad of this city. He will have charge of the class room being head teacher of bookkeeping, accountancy and banking, while Mr. Foster will have charge of the office end of the work.

MAY FINE UNION MEN WHO BUY AT NON-UNION SHOPS

This Plan is Considered at Meeting of Trades Council Monday Night—Oppose Price Cutting

The Wichita Falls Trades and Labor Council went on record at its regular meeting last night as being opposed to price cutting by proprietors of establishments in which union labor was involved. It was declared the sense of the council that every legitimate effort should be exerted against price cutting.

The council also adopted a resolution recommending local unions which make up its membership to adopt a rule for firing members who patronize non-union stores and shops. This resolution will be referred to the locals for whatever action they may see fit to take.

The question of new quarters was again discussed. A proposition has been submitted to the council for the erection of a building of its own.

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE'S FIRST VISIT TO THIS STATE

Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin, who is to deliver an address at the Wichita Theatre tonight under the auspices of the high school, arrived this afternoon from Houston where he made an address last night. His address at Houston was the first he has ever made in Texas and indeed, he had never been in Texas before. He got on the train at Houston last night and rode all day to get to Wichita Falls. He was told that it was another twelve hours ride to the western border of the State.

"The immensity of your State staggers me," he said. "It's too large," he continued, while his hearers in the hotel lobby protested. "I tell you it is too large. States like New York, Pennsylvania—and some day Texas—have too large delegations in Congress; they have too much power in National conventions. Why New York and Pennsylvania now can almost dominate the Republican party. But what wonderful things are in store for Texas. I am told that you produce $250,000,000 worth of cotton annually. That's a big sum but did you know that Wisconsin sells over $100,000,000 in dairy products annually? It looks to me like Texas ought to become as good a dairy state as Wisconsin. I tell you when Texas begins to realize her possibilities it will be something stupendous."

Senator LaFollette will speak at 8:30 at the Wichita Theatre. His subject will be "Representative Government." He will be introduced by Judge A. H. Carrigan. From here he will go to Fort Worth, where he speaks tomorrow night. His other engagement in Texas is at Denton.

By Associated Press. Chicago, Nov. 24.—Wounded German soldiers in French hospitals at first refused to eat or drink until nurses tasted the food or drank of the water, as they feared poisoning, according to Miss Yvonne Karger, who enlisted as a Red Cross Nurse in a hospital near Havre, France. Miss Karger, who is here today on a business trip, said in several instances dishes were hurried at her by German soldiers who would not be convinced that the food did not contain poison.

BUY NEW MACHINERY FOR COFFEE ROASTING PLANT
Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Bean will leave tonight for New Orleans and from that city will sail for New York. Mr. Bean goes to New Orleans for the purpose of laying in a stock of coffee and will proceed to New York to purchase additional machinery for his coffee roasting establishment. He will be absent from the city until about December 15, returning by rail via Chicago and St. Louis.
Mr. Bean, as is well known, is retiring from the grocery business and will devote his entire time and energy to his coffee roasting plant, which is to be moved from its present location on Ohio avenue to the Joline building on Indiana avenue. It is the only establishment of this nature on the Denver road west of Fort Worth. It will be both a wholesale and retail establishment and has already grown to such proportions as to demand Mr. Bean's entire time and that is the reason for his retirement from the grocery business.

What Soldiers Want.
Paris.—In an appeal from one French infantry regiment the soldiers mentioned the following as acceptable gifts: Tobacco, matches, chocolate, peppermints, acid drops, soap, colored handkerchiefs, boric powder, playing cards and pencils.

VAST ARMY ON MOVE

Captured Frenchman Tells of Moving German Host.

Discipline is Most Rigid and Everything is Carried Out With Machine-Like Precision—Foe is Kindly Treated.

Paris.—A well-known and distinguished French artist, who was sent to the front to get inspiration for war pictures, was captured by the Germans at St. Gerard, near Namur. He gives the following vivid account of his experiences:
"After sleeping in a barn with Zouave prisoners, a soldier standing over us with fixed bayonet, we were called at five the next morning. The prisoners were told to peel potatoes for the field kitchen. I made my toilet while a guard followed me out. At six, the soldiers began to form up. Orders came from the officers like pistol shots, the click of heels and the thud of shoulder arms coming as from one man. 'Shoos to the ma' slightly out of line!

"I was placed in the middle of a marching column, and as I was loaded with my knapsack and coat, a soldier near to me carried my papers. I could take part in the sensations of the men under the iron discipline of the officers. The road is inches thick with chalky dust, which rose in clouds above our heads.
"Never were we allowed to open our mouths as I had seen the marching Belgians do and the air circulate. We plodded on the whole day, the only rest being when there was an occasional block on the road. The march was as if on parade. Should one fall out of step the shouts of his superior soon brought him up.
"Now and then men were waiting with buckets and as the column swung by, the soldiers dipped in their aluminum cups. Another man would be holding a biscuit tin full of sweets, or it might be handfuls of prunes, but still the march went on.
"It was remarkable to see the field post office at work; the armed blue-coated postmen stood by the marching column receiving the postcards. Sometimes an officer would hand over a fowling piece or antique with the address hanging from it.
"Last noon I was handed over to officers and I left the regiment. I was on the box seat of a char-a-banc full of officers and could observe the marvelous organization of the column. The pace was at a walk, but continuous.
"Ammunition wagons, field pieces, carts filled with flour, whole trains of enormous pontoons pulled by heavy horses, and great traction engines pulling siege guns, landaus and motor-cars filled with doctors and officers, whose only distinguishing mark is a strip of color at the neck, all advanced at the same pace.
"Should a slight block occur, the whole column would stop as one train, the drivers passing the message back by a pumping movement made with the fist on high. The warning of a declivity or bend in the road passed backwards like musketry fire. All vehicles belonged to the army. Some had chalked on their gray sides, 'Berlin-Paris.'
"Sometimes the column would get an enormous gray motor-omnibus dash by, and through the glass sides I saw staff officers bending over maps. Every driver and service man carried his weapons, the great wagons simply bristling with rifles.
"Passing returned to their ruined homes. It was pitiful to see them humbly raise their hats to the invaders. We passed many villages in ruins.
"Locked-up houses were instantly broken open and searched. The better class houses were pillaged for wine, every soldier marching with bottles sticking out of his knapsack.
"A French aeroplane dashing low above the column, the German sharpshooters ineffectively bursting little balls of thistledown underneath it.
"Last, at a village near the French frontier, I was set down in the littered mairie, where, at a long table lighted by the unshaded light of lamps, staff officers were quickly writing, giving out orders between the puffs of cigarettes. At a word the aides-de-camp stood at attention, clicking their boots and their hands at the side like a statue.
"Great bundles of detailed maps were brought in and distributed for the following day's march. Then the room was left to the clerks, who were writing all night with a bottle of wine on the table. Broth from the field kitchen, with black bread, hard as a brick, made an excellent supper, with a bottle of filtered Burgundy.
"After sleeping in the open hall, the next morning I was given papers to return, one staff officer kindly giving me the use of half of his military map.
"The impression I gathered from conversation with the officer was angry surprise that England had joined with their enemy. One said he was sorry for the Belgians and even for the French, but they would never forgive England."

SAMPLE OF NEW CURRENCY HAS BEEN RECEIVED HERE

Local Banks Have Specimens of Notes Issued Under Federal Reserve System

While the 6 1/2 per cent loan is likely to prevent much federal reserve currency from being borrowed by the banks here, at least until New York and Chicago banks cannot lend it cheaper, several of the local banks have secured samples of the reserve currency just to show the curious what it looks like.

The new notes are regarded as the most artistic and practical in design ever issued by the United States government.

On the face of the $5 note is a portrait of Lincoln, while the face of Jackson decorates the reverse side of the $10 notes. Portraits of Cleveland, Grant and Franklin are used on the twenty, fifty and hundred. On the reverse side are designs which are said to furnish the greatest possible protection against counterfeiting.
Here is the description given by the treasury of these designs:

$5—On the left, representation of the discovery of America by Columbus; on the right, the landing of the Pilgrims on Plymouth Rock.
$10—Typical scenes of agriculture and manufacture. The left represents a harvest scene and the right a modern factory.

$20—Scenes representing transportation on land and on water and in the air. In the left of the note are engravings of a modern railroad train, an automobile and an airplane and on the right an ocean liner in New York harbor, with the New York sky line and the Statue of Liberty in the background.

$50—A symbolical picture across the note representing America presiding over the Panama Canal. In the center is an allegorical figure of a woman, with ocean view on each side. On the left is the picture of a merchant steamship; on the right,
that of a battleship.

$100—An allegorical picture covering the entire back of the note, composed of a central group representing America, seated with figures on both sides showing Peace and Plenty. On the left is a figure of Labor bearing the harvest, and on the right is a
ing the distribution of the harvest.

WOMEN NERVOUS, WEAK, DIZZY

Could Not Do Housework For Family
of Three. Vinol in a Short Time
Made Her a Strong Well Woman.
Fort Edward, N. Y.—"I was in a run down condition; nervous, weak and dizzy, so that in doing the housework for my little family of three, I would be all exhausted. I tried cod-liver oil emulsions and three or four other medicines without benefit. Finally a friend told me about Vinol and I tried it. I soon felt better and now it has built up my strength, I have no more nervous or dizzy spells and can do all my housework without getting all tired out."—Mrs. Elmer Glidden, Fort Edward, N. Y.
"Women are so active nowadays and so much is expected of them, that they constantly overdo and suffer from headaches, backache, nervousness and kindred ills. Vinol is a most efficient strength creator for such women.

It is the medicinal elements of the cod's liver, aided by the blood making and strengthening properties of tonic
iron which makes it so far superior to all other tonics.

If you are in this condition try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money if it fails. Miller Drug Store.
Note—You can get Vinol at the leading drug store in every town
where this paper circulates.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved Catarrh to be a constitutional disease,
and therefore requires constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Sol Blank Will Be Married Tonight at San Antonio Theatre

Sol Blank, a son of Abe Blank and wife of this city, is to be married in San Antonio tonight to Miss Ruth Wallace. The marriage will take place on the stage of a San Antonio theatre. Mr. Blank wrote to his friend, James B. Marlow enclosing a clipping from the San Antonio Light and asked Mr. Marlow to break the news to his father and to write him what his father said.
"That don't sound like a Jewish name to me," is the message that Mr.
Marlow sent to the comedian.
The clipping from the Light follows:

A novel wedding will be staged
in San Antonio Tuesday night, November 24 at the Plaza Theatre. Sol Blank, a comedian and a big favorite with the theatre-goers of San Antonio, will be married to Miss Ruth Wallace, a charming young San Antonio girl Mr. Blank met last summer while he was producing musical comedy at Luna Park. Mr. Blank has just closed a successful week at the Plaza Theatre.
"Mr. Blank and Miss Wallace will be married upon the stage in full view of the audience, Justice of the Peace
Campbell performing the wedding ceremony. Immediately after the adding the couple will leave for Chicago, where Mr. Blank will fill some vaudeville engagements."

PRACTICAL HINTS.

When making hard soap, get a good patent lye. Follow the directions for making soft soap, put in three pints of water and five pounds of fat and a handful of borax. Mark off into cakes before it hardens.

Devonshire Cream.—This is so delicious that more people should know how it is prepared. Put two quarts of fresh milk on the stove in a pan of cold water, bring very slowly to the scalding point and keep it hot for nearly an hour, being careful to never allow it to boil; then remove from the stove, set in cold water with ice for six hours. By this time the cream is all collected on top, which is removed with a skimmer and kept until ready to serve.

Rice Flour Pound Cake.—Cream a quarter of a cup of butter with one cup of powdered sugar, add the beaten yolks of two eggs, one teaspoonful of vanilla, the grated rind of a lemon, and half a cup of cold water. Mix thoroughly and add one and a half cupfuls of rice flour, sifted with one and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Add the whites of the eggs beaten stiff. Bake in small gem pans and cover with fancy frosting. Garnish with candied cherries.

A teaspoonful of lye in a boiler of clothes will, when they wonderfully.
Vinegar and salt will clean brass
well, though it is not pleasant to use,
if you have any broken places in the skin of the hands.

German Cream Soup.—Cut thin slices of bread as thin as shavings, put them with a small amount of butter into a saucepan and stir until well browned, then pour over enough boiling water to make the amount of soup needed. Add salt to taste, and let the water boil up; then remove the saucepan and stir in a large cup of sweet cream. If a richer soup is desired, add more cream to the soup. Be sure to have it well salted, or it will taste flat. This is a good recipe to give the sick.

Scraped beef is another good dish
to serve the sick. Scrape round steak with the sharp edge of a spoon; season
well and cook in a hot frying pan.

Dublin, Nov. 21.—The sudden in-government will draft men for the army. Rumors of this sort, together with statements published in certain Dublin newspapers that the militia

hallor act was to be enforced in Ireland, have spread alarm through the rural districts. Official denials are being made in an effort to check the outflow of young men from the country.
Official returns of recruiting for the army show good results. Exclusive of reservists, the number of men who have joined the colors since the war began is over 29,000. Recruiting stations have been established in fifty cities and towns of Ireland and the new Irish brigade to be exclusively commanded and manned by Irishmen, has been half filled.
