

CAR TURNS OVER AND OLNEY MAN CRUSHED TO DEATH

FATAL ACCIDENT SATURDAY NIGHT AT CORNER SCOTT AVENUE AND FOURTEENTH STREET—HOWARD JEWELL KILLED.

CAR RUNNING FAST

Jewell Pinned Beneath Car His Head Being Crushed and Back Broken—Owners in Car Escape Without Serious Injuries.

Howard Jewell, of Olney, aged about 30 years, was crushed to death early last night when he attempted to turn a street corner at Twelfth street and Scott avenue, while driving his car, a light roadster, at a high speed. The car was turned half over by its momentum, catching Jewell beneath it, crushing his head and chest. Death was instantaneous.

C. C. West, also of Olney, who was on the front seat with him, was also pinned beneath the car, the side of the car lying across his legs. He was not seriously injured. J. J. Henderson of Olney and a youth named Colley, also of Olney, who occupied the back seat of the car fell clear of it when the machine went over and escaped with minor bruises and cuts. West and Henderson said that they believed their car had been hit by a large car which they said did not stop but this theory is not confirmed by Robert Wallace, an eye witness, and others on the scene of the accident. Mr. Wallace was near the street crossing at the time. He said the car came east on Twelfth street at high speed and started to turn in a short curve into Scott avenue toward the north. It went over with a crash. He ran to the car and found Jewell pinned under it dead, and West caught with the side of the car across his legs. In a few seconds help came and the car was turned up on its side. The body of Jewell was laid out on the side of the street and physicians called but life was extinct. The head was crushed in and his back broken.

Mr. Wallace says he saw no other car in the vicinity; other pedestrians in the block also reported that they saw no other car. A report like a gun shot was heard by residents near the street corner. This is believed to have been caused by a blowout of one of the tires when the car went over. Such a blowout might have caused the accident although accounts indicate that the blowout was caused by the swerving of the car which would likely have gone over without any blowout. The tire on the right hand rear wheel was found bursted after the accident. The car itself was not badly damaged. The engine was still running when Mr. Wallace reached it.

Underneath the wrecked car were found a broken whiskey bottle and a broken beer bottle. Pools of blood and pools of the intoxicants were found by side in the dust of the street. The victim of the accident had been a life long resident of Olney. He leaves a widow and two young children. He was a mechanic, having worked around gins and in garages at Olney.

Jewell had driven up from Olney yesterday morning with his wife and Henderson. They met Colley here and he was riding back to Olney with them. According to West they had started for Olney when the accident happened although it is not known how it happened to be driving back toward town.

The body of Jewell was removed to the Hill undertaking establishment and was being held last night for orders from his family.

MONEY BURIED IN A BLACKSMITH SHOP

Part of Money Taken in Mail Robbery Recently Recovered in San Antonio.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 5.—In the blacksmith shop where a week ago government detectives dug up a fruit jar containing $1750 in national bank notes, three more jars were unearthed today containing a little more than $3000. This is part of the $100,000 in unsigned national bank notes which were stolen when three men robbed a train at Rock Gint, W. Va., on October 8, 1915. The currency was being transported by mail from the treasury in Washington to banks in Illinois and Indiana. Recovery of the first jar of money followed four days search of the premises owned and occupied by John Harrison who was arrested and is now awaiting transfer to West Virginia to stand trial on charges of having played in jeopardy with a weapon the mail clerk on the train, and also federal charges of having in his possession stolen currency.

LATEST GERMAN PROPOSAL MORE NEARLY ACCEPTABLE

WOULD SUBSTITUTE MYSTERIOUS DOUBLE MURDER AT MINGUS ANOTHER PHRASE

Germany Balks at Term Illegal But Declares Action Was Without Intent.

By Associated Press. Washington, February 5.—For the word "illegal" which Germany was unwilling to incorporate in the tentative draft of the Lusitania agreement, the Berlin foreign office has substituted a phrase which certain high authorities in a position to be familiar to the status of the negotiations consider covers all the principles involved in the question of submarine warfare.

The language substituted for the objectionable word "illegal" in a tentative communication now being considered by President Wilson avers that the killing of Americans in the Lusitania disaster was without intent because the destruction of the Cunard liner was an act of reprisal and the German government agrees that reprisals should not be applied to neutrals.

Outlook Promising. From various official quarters tonight came information that the outlook is promising for an early settlement. It was indicated that the tentative form of the settlement which, should it prove acceptable to the United States, will be empowered in a formal communication from Germany approaches nearer the desires of the United States than any yet submitted with the authority of Berlin officials.

Secretary Lansing and Count Von Bernstorff met quite informally in the Metropolitan club here today. They talked for a short time. Although it was not disclosed just what was said there was intimation that the ambassador had been informed he might have to communicate with his government again. In fact the ambassador seemed optimistic at the conclusion of the talk.

Act of Retaliation.

The cardinal points of the proposed settlement were obtained tonight. The agreement is prefaced with the statement that submarine warfare in the North Sea was inaugurated by Germany in retaliation for what she regarded as the "illegal" British blockade under the orders in council. It then states that the method of conducting submarine warfare in the North Sea has been modified on account of friendship Germany has for the United States and because of the fact that American lives have been lost. Germany says that the killing of Americans was not intended.

The last portion of the document expressed the readiness of Germany to cooperate with the United States in any effort looking to the freedom of the seas.

In Hands of President.

Secretary Lansing sent the draft to President Wilson last night. It was said tonight the secretary would not confer with the president until Monday unless there should be unforeseen developments. Count Von Bernstorff expects to be called to the state department Monday or Tuesday. Secretary Lansing let it become known today that he might have some announcement on the Lusitania case shortly.

In view of the nature of the phrase which the German government is understood to have substituted so as not to include the word "illegal," attention tonight was called to the last formal note to Germany in which Secretary Lansing wrote:

"In view of the admission of illegality made by the imperial government when it pleaded the rights of retaliation in defense of its act and in view of the manifest possibility of conforming to the established rules of warfare the government of the United States cannot believe that the imperial government can longer refrain from disavowing the wanton act of its naval commander in sinking the Lusitania."

ON OTHER FRONTS

French Artillery Active On Franco-Belgian Front—Berlin Reports British Reputed Near Le Bassa Canal—Little News from Galicia.

The Associated Press summary of the war news last night said: The long looked for offensive of the Teutonic allies against Saloniki may now be on or near at hand. A dispatch from Saloniki reports an artillery duel near the Doinra near strong forces of the central powers have been forcing the entente allies. Such a bombardment might well be the prelude to an advance by the Teutons and their allies, which, according to recent reports, was set for about the middle of this month but which may even now be in progress.

According to the message reporting the bombardment the British heavy guns were dominating those of the Germans and Bulgarians. Elsewhere along the fighting lines few operations of importance are recorded. On the Franco-Belgian front the French artillery continues its activity, the bombardment being intense in the Champagne and Argonne. Berlin reports sporadic activity by infantry, one instance being south of La Bassa canal where the British are declared to have been repulsed in attempting an advance, while south of the Somme where the Germans made gains only recently, the French were beaten off in a hand grenade attack.

A blood stained spike bar was picked up in the yard. Officials say the killings were done with it. It is about two feet long and weighs five pounds. All of the victims were knocked in the head. No warrants were issued today, but it was expected some legal action would be taken after the investigation by Judge Ramstock and Attorney Smith.

There is no evidence that Mrs. St. Clair and Mrs. Wilkins had trouble with anyone. Mrs. Wilkins had been visiting in this neighborhood for some time. She leaves four children, among them a son, John, who lives at Galveston.

The bar with which the killing was done was identified by St. Clair as belonging to him.

COMMISSION TO BE NAMED ON FIRE

Canadian Government Will Investigate Fire that Destroyed Great Parliament Building.

Ottawa, Feb. 5.—Sir Robert Borden, the premier, announced that the government will appoint a commission to investigate the cause of the fire which destroyed the parliament building. The body of J. B. Laplante, deputy clerk of the House of Commons was found today on the sill of the window in his room. The lower part of the body was completely burned away.

STRONGY RELEASED ON ORDERS FROM OTTAWA.

Windsor, Ont., Feb. 5.—Charles Strongy arrested here last night on suspicion of having been connected with the fire in the parliament house at Ottawa was released from jail today on orders from the Dominion government.

ACTOR ARRESTED BY CANADIAN AUTHORITIES.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—Ninety men and women members of the chorus of a Chicago vaudeville troupe were arrested last night on the dimly lighted drafty stage of a local theater for Charles Strongy, musical director, to appear to conduct their rehearsal. At a late hour it was learned that Strongy was held in Canada charged with being a spy and the company disbanded for the night.

Advices reaching here today said the musical director was arrested at Windsor, Ont., and was being returned to Ottawa, where an investigation would be made of the charge that Strongy was implicated in the destruction of the Dominion parliament building at Ottawa.

Strongy, according to local theatrical men, is director of the French opera for the Chicago Opera company. They said he went to Canada last week to conduct a series of four concerts. The dispatches from Canada said Strongy's action on boarding a train at Ottawa Thursday night aroused suspicion and he was arrested at Windsor. This was explained here as probably being due to the fact that Strongy figured on making close train connections in order to reach Chicago. Temperamental by nature, it was said here that the fire in the parliament building and his haste to reach here might have caused Strongy to act in a manner to cause suspicion. The charges against Strongy were believed here to be "ridiculous." It was said he was a native of Belgium and strongly pro-Ally, but Teutonic in appearance.

STATUS OF APPAM MAY REMAIN OPEN

SHIP MAY BE HELD AT NEWPORT NEWS UNTIL END OF THE WAR.

THE TREATY OF 1828

Believed by American Officials to Govern—Captor of Appam Said to Be Ponga.

ON OTHER FRONTS

New York February 5.—The German raider that captured the British steamer Appam, was the Ponga, according to Captain H. G. Harrison, former master of the Appam who reached here today for Norfolk with his officers and crew numbering 150, and who probably will be sent to England on the White Star liner Baltic.

Captain Harrison said he had no other resources than to surrender when he discovered the warlike character of the ship that stopped him. The name of the raider he said appeared in English on the navigation charts hanging in the vessel's pilot house and chart room where he was summoned by the commander. "I had little time to make observations, however," said Captain Harrison, "with my men I was ordered below decks and kept there for two days with the crews taken from the ships previously sunk. While I talked with our guards and many of them spoke English well they gave no information. When I was again on board my ship I found it in full possession of the Germans. Bombs were on the bridge on the chart house and in the engine house and I was told at the first sign of trouble they would be exploded and the ship sent to the bottom."

"Nothing was taken from the Appam, except a shipment of gold bars from West Africa valued at $180,000. The Germans evidently knew we had gold for I was asked about it the first thing. I have no complaint of the way we were treated by the Germans. I was invited by Lieut. Berg each evening at six to have a West African cocktail with him."

According to Chief Engineer Ashburner of the Appam, one of the bombs was exploded under the main injunction valve in the engine room and was watched over night and day by an armed guard. The bomb, according to Ashburner, was shaped like a cylinder about two feet high, it had both an electrical connection and fuse.

The Vaderland recalls previous German "errors" and dwells on the danger of further incidents of this nature. Incidentally it asks what the British navy was doing while the German torpedo flotilla was calmly cruising along the busiest steamer paths. The New Courant treats the case as a break down of the vaunted German organization and discipline.

NEGROES CONVICTED

Mrs. Mohr and Negroes Must Now Face Trial for Assault on Miss Emmy Berger.

ON OTHER FRONTS

Porvidence, R. I., Feb. 5.—Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr was acquitted today by a jury in the superior court on a charge of having instigated the murder of her husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr, C. Victor Brown and Henry H. Spellman, negroes, who were accused of the actual killing, were found guilty. The jury reported at 6:07 o'clock after having been out since 10:30 a. m.

Mrs. Mohr swooned while the foreman was announcing the verdict. Her head dropped forward and she was slipped from her chair when her attorney knelt and supported her while a glass of water was sent for.

"Is there any other charge against the defendant?" inquired Justice Stearns.

"There is your honor," replied Attorney Wright, "but Mrs. Mohr is on bail on the other charge."

The other charge against Mrs. Mohr and the two negroes is that they committed assault against Mrs. Emmy Berger with intent to kill. Miss Berger was shot while riding with Dr. Mohr on the night he was attacked. Brown and Spellman are accused of actually firing the shots at Miss Berger while Mrs. Mohr is charged with being an accessory before the fact.

RESIDENTS THREATENED SECTIONS MUST ACT

Washington, February 5.—Official war department reports today on the Mississippi Valley flood situation indicate that serious trouble may result in the region south of the Arkansas river unless the residents there assist in strengthening the levees. One of the most serious difficulties, it was said, was the scarcity of labor, and there were indications that the federal officers would be authorized to provide rations only for those who showed a disposition to assist them. A report from the chief engineer of Vicksburg, Mississippi, said the levee was being subjected to a severe test but that was an excellent prospect that they would hold if the white population put up a proper fight.

Water 6 to 8 Feet Deep in Streets of Arkansas City and Rising—Town Likely to be Sapped Out—Hundreds Reported in Danger.

ON OTHER FRONTS

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 5.—Residents of the territory in the south-eastern corner of Arkansas tonight are facing a perilous situation. Two thirds of Lincoln, Besha and Chicot counties are covered with water which is flowing southward through half a dozen breaks in levees. Arkansas City, McGhee and Lake Village and dozens of smaller towns are flooded and the high stage of the Mississippi adds a new danger. At Arkansas City the level of the Mississippi river is fifteen feet above the town.

The flood waters inside the levees are weakening them. At Arkansas City the Mississippi stage late today was 55 1/2 feet, the highest ever known. Water from the Arkansas river flood is six to eight feet deep in the main streets of the town. It is expected to go at least four feet higher. About 1000 residents have left the city which now is cut off from communication with the outside world. There are 200 hungry and homeless persons in the town. A dispatch tonight said the Chicot levee is in a precarious condition and that if it should break Arkansas City would be wiped off the map. A message from there tonight says immediate help is needed.

A serious condition also exists at Clarendon on the White river where the river rose four feet tonight. Sheriff Frank Milwee tonight telephoned from Clarendon that water is but a few inches from the top of the levee but he said every man who remained in the town was at work on the levee and was confident of winning the fight; 500 people left there today.

A relief train in charge of Iron Mountain official and Murray A. Auerbach of Little Rock, representative of the Red Cross society, left the city at noon for the flooded district along the lower course of the Arkansas. A train carried a fresh supply of food and provisions and a big motor launch with which to distribute the food. It was planned to run the train as far below Pine Bluff as the flood will permit after which the party will proceed to the launch. It is reported many persons are requested to heed the warning to leave their homes and it is feared that falling waters will reveal that many lives have been lost in addition to those already reported.

DEADLY FIGHT BETWEEN NEGROS

PERRY GILES ATTACKS DOCK MCKENZIE WITH KNIFE—BOTH WOUNDED, SERIOUSLY.

GILES' WIFE CAUSE

Knife Drops to Floor In Fight—Police Find Two Negroes Utterly Exhausted.

Called by a report of a fight between two negroes, Chief Nail and Policeman Gilliam, Saturday afternoon reached a negro house on Lake Street east of East Lake to find Dock McKenzie, a negro, with a great gash half way round his neck and long slashes across his face sitting or rather leaning astraddle Perry Giles, another negro, who was cut in the face and one of whose thumbs was almost bitten off. A knife lay on the floor beside them. Both negroes were so nearly exhausted from their deadly struggle that neither was able to reach the knife to finish up the job. Giles, who was not seriously wounded, was taken to the county jail, while McKenzie was taken to the county hospital. He had been cut around the side and back of the neck, the wound being nearly two inches deep in some places, but not severing vital arteries or veins. He had also been cut over the eye and down his nose and down his cheek. It is not believed his wounds will prove serious, and at the hospital last night it was reported he was getting along very well. The encounter is said to have resulted from McKenzie's attentions to Giles' wife. Giles who says he came here recently from Muskum, has been working out of town. He came home about a week ago and found McKenzie trespassing in his place. He gave McKenzie warning to leave his house and told his wife that if she wanted to live with McKenzie she must secure a divorce from him. McKenzie went to court at a house close by. Saturday afternoon Giles coming home found his wife out and started to search for her. He found her at the house where McKenzie was staying. She and a young actress were in the room with McKenzie. They say they saw Giles enter the door reaching his hand in his pocket. They uttered warning cries to McKenzie and fled from the room but before they saw Giles leap toward McKenzie and drive the knife into his neck.

The struggle for life that followed must have been one of time and desperation. McKenzie had no weapon but in the struggle he got Giles' thumb in his mouth and nearly bit it off causing Giles to drop the knife. McKenzie got the knife and cut Giles in the face but it again being men went to the floor and fought until they became exhausted in which state the police found them. County Attorney Bruce Greenwood and Deputy County Attorney Deavenport secured statements from the two principals and from the two negro women. The case will go before the grand jury when it convenes this week.

CHILD LABOR LAW OPPOSED BY S. M. A.

Secretary Opposes Keating Bill Because It Proposes Control of Production Before Manufacture

By Associated Press. Asheville, N. C., Feb. 5.—Hudson Miller of Charlotte, North Carolina, secretary and treasurer of the Southern Manufacturing Association told a delegate to the National Child Labor Conference here today that he was opposed to the Keating Federal Child Labor Bill because he said the measure proposes federal control of production before manufactured articles become commercial commodities. Mr. Miller voiced his opposition to regulations providing for an eight hour day. Numerous bills introduced in state legislatures throughout the country to regulate labor were to have been enacted into laws if they had included a provision for a 10 hour instead of an 8 hour work day, he said.

The placing upon the manufacturers of the burden of proving the age of their employees was objected to, he declared that such regulations were impracticable and undesirable.

By Associated Press. The Greek government presented a claim to the United States last December for payment of its losses on settlements of international postal money-orders. GERMAN NEWSPAPER TAKES SERIOUS VIEW

Says Affairs Between United States and Germany Are Resting On Knife's Edge

By Associated Press. Berlin, Feb. 5.—In a leader entitled "The American Crisis" the Tagliche Rundschau is disposed to take a serious view of the situation existing between Germany and the United States. "Let nobody deceive himself about the fact that affairs between America and us rests on a knife's edge and cannot remain thus long. There must come quickly either a lessening of the tension in a friendly direction or a catastrophic decision. Wilhelmstrasse has decided not to leave the conduct of this momentous affair long in the hands of Ambassador Bernstorff but takes the decisive hand from hereafter, having looked on so long."

The Rundschau comments upon the surprise of the German people at finding the Lusitania matter still unsettled. The paper says "from what is claimed to be American defenses of the sinking of the Lusitania" cites remarks of several American senators, and concludes: "If new misfounded news from the artificial sharpening through President Wilson and Secretary Lansing of the relations between Berlin and Washington, we have infallible American testimony as to who bears the blame."

The announcement date itself was contained in the heart of the yellow jonquils which formed the plate favors. The lesson study for the club completed the "Ring and the Book" by Brownings and the chief paper was an essay, "The Lesson of the Ring and the Book" by Mrs. Wiley Robertson. The conclusion of the program brought the guests invited by the hostess for the announcement feature, these being the immediate neighbors.

ANNOUNCEMENT LUNCHEON FOR MISS CARRIGAN
The formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Anne Carrigan to Carter McGregor and the wedding March 2 which will be the society event of the early spring, was made Saturday at a one o'clock luncheon with Mrs. A. H. Carrigan, mother of the bride to be as hostess. The daffodil, the first spring flower, inspired the color motif and furnished a charming floral touch. The bride's table in the dining room bore a large centerpiece of daffodils and the eight smaller tables set in the hall and music room were adorned with the same golden blossoms in individual cut glass vases. At the large table was seated the one for whom the event was designed to betoken a new happiness, Miss Carrigan, surrounded by the girls whom she has chosen as brides maids and with the mother of the groom, Mrs. W. M. McGregor also accorded a place of distinction. The announcement came with the service of the ice course, the wedding day being gleaned from

BOXING MATCHES FREE STRONG ON WITHIN THE LAW MURDER CHARGE

AFTER HEARING BEFORE JUSTICE HOWARD ATTORNEY WON'T PROSECUTE

NEGRO IS ACQUITTED IN DISTRICT COURT LATE FRIDAY NIGHT

BOUNTS WILL GO ON PLEA SELF DEFENSE

No Admission Charged and Compensation of Boxers Form of Voluntary Donations

Jury Failed to Agree When Case Was Tried Earlier in the Term

Boxing bouts are within the law so long as no admission fee is charged and so long as the boxers perform without promise of compensation; this, in substance, is the status of the exhibition staged at the Business Men's Athletic Club, as explained to the officials of that organization Saturday morning at an informal hearing before Justice of the Peace Howard and District Attorney Leslie Humphries.

At Friday night's bout between Fleming and Pappas, officers notified the officials to appear at Judge Howard's office. Those summoned being J. L. Art, E. Leopold, J. R. Howard, J. S. Maxwell, Carl Fleming, Jimmy Pappas and two negro boxers. Mr. Humphries explained that he wished to ascertain if the bouts were within the law. Mr. Art replied that in view of some agitation for putting a stop to the bouts, he was anxious to learn the legal status, adding that he did not intend to have anything more to do with the bouts if they were unlawful.

The state law against boxing matches was read, and it was explained that no admission fee is charged, admittance being limited to members of the club. As to the compensation for the boxers, it was declared that they performed without any agreement as to their compensation, that what money they received was in the form of voluntary donations.

The district attorney assured the club officials that as long as the bouts were within the law, no action would be taken by the authorities. It was explained that often boxers who appear are compensated by money thrown in the ring by club members and that the amounts thus contributed are increased by donations from officials of the club.

As the matter stands, it seems that as long as the matches are under the auspices of a club, and the attendance limited to members of that club, the question of an admission fee does not enter, and that the question of boxing for money is obviated by the voluntary donations. It is not pretended that the boxers go without compensation, but the officials claim that whatever payment is made does not transgress the terms of the state law on the subject. They believe themselves to be within the law, and plans for further bouts here are being made.

It is possible that the grand jury which reconvenes tomorrow may look still further into the matter.

MEMBERSHIP FIGURES CORRECTED

Baptist Membership and Increase is Larger Than Given by Church Council Figures

Editor Times:—The Times gave some figures in Friday's paper as to the number of members in several of the religious denominations in the United States. I would like to correct the statement as to the Baptists. The statement was that there are 1,252,633 in the North and 2,705,121 in the South. The facts are there are 1,341,933 in the North and 4,671,879 in the South. This number includes only the members who have made a public profession of regeneration and who have been buried with Christ in baptism. Increase by baptism last year was 209,243 and not 127,114 as stated. It might be of interest to some to know that the Baptists have in the United States 52,416 churches, 37,371 ordained ministers; 214 schools with 53,723 students. Value of church and school property $208,832,185. Endowment of schools $44,521,905. The total cash contributions for last year were $29,943,181. Total gifts to local expense of the churches, $22,486,248.

DECREE ISSUED PARKER ESTATE

CLAIM OF FIRST WIFE FOR SHARE IN ESTATE WALTER PARKER SETTLED

WRIT ERROR DENIED

First Wife Given 4,862 Acres Land in Wichita and Gray Counties and $14,300 Cash

A judgment involving about 2600 acres of land in Wichita county, 2200 acres in Gray county and $14,300 in cash has been entered in the federal court at Dallas, bringing to an end the long litigation over the Parker estate. The refusal of the supreme court at Washington to grant a writ of error in this case resulted recently in the final decree being issued. Mrs. Barbara Parker, plaintiff was the first wife of Walter Parker, an Iowa Park resident who died in 1901 leaving a valuable estate. He had first married in California, but had separated from Mrs. Barbara Parker and went to Missouri to live. There he sued for divorce and, believing that he had secured one by legal means, married again, moving to Wichita county. A number of children were born to him and his second wife.

Sued for Half Estate. When Walter Parker died he left the estate to his wife and children, but his will mentioned the daughter of his first wife to whom he left one dollar. Mrs. Barbara Parker, the first wife, then sued for half the estate, alleging that the divorce was not properly obtained. It appears that she was never served with the citation. On the first trial of the case she received a half interest in the lands and personal property, but when the case was appealed, she received only one fourth. Judge A. H. Carrigan of this city was appointed special master in the case and divided up the property so that the plaintiff receives, about 4862 acres as described below, in addition to $14,300 cash.

Much of the land in this county which goes to Mrs. Barbara Parker is in or near the oil fields and is considered quite valuable.

An interesting feature of the case is the fact that at one time a cash offer of $10,000 had been made by the defendant's attorneys declined to accept such a proposition. The judgment obtained by Mrs. Barbara Parker is worth many times $10,000.

Decree issued last week and gives Mrs. Barbara Parker an undivided fourth interest in real estate in Wichita and Gray counties and also directs that she recover the sum of $14,000 from the twelve defendants in the case, who are: William Carl Parker, Leonard Cecil Parker, Harry T. Parker, James Edward Parker, Donald J. Parker, J. T. Cunningham and wife, Beulah Francis Parker, Jessie M. Parker and Mattie Parker and Leonard Cecil Parker as executor of the Walter Parker will.

The lands which Mrs. Barbara Parker obtains under the decree include three and a half sections in Gray county, 300 acres of section 13, H. & G. N. survey, all of section 25, H. & G. N. survey, 790 acres out of the John McCool survey, 684 acres out of the Palo Pinto county school lands and 210 acres out of the Marsden Kansas survey, a total of 4862 acres, all of which is in Wichita county except the three and a half sections in Gray county. The remainder of the lands involved in the suit are awarded to the defendants.

FLEMING-PAPPAS BOUT IS CLEVER

BANTAMS GO FIFTEEN ROUNDS
TO DRAW IN LOCAL RING
FRIDAY NIGHT

EACH SHOWS SKILL

Bout is Speedy and Classy, Neither Having Any Decided Advantage

Fifteen fast and furious rounds between Carl Fleming and Jimmy Pappas, bantam weights, before the Business Men's Athletic Club Friday night ended in a draw, neither of the contestants having any decided advantage. The bout was one of the cleverest and most entertaining yet staged here and was attended by a large crowd.

Both men were in good condition and at times each seemed to have the advantage. A comparison of them is difficult from the fact that each affected a different style of fighting. Pappas was nimble and clever, ducking and dodging adroitly when Fleming rushed him. Fleming made an even better showing than in his first bout with Burns, protecting himself ably and breaking through the Greek's defense on numerous occasions.

A number of Greeks attended the bout, and it may be said that they were not entirely neutral; the majority of the crowd seemed to be with Fleming, who has many friends here and who conducted himself in a way that largely justified the support he received. Both fought cleanly and naturally and brilliantly and in many respects it was one of the best bouts staged here.

Each is Floored.

Each boxer was floored once, Fleming going down for the count of eight and Pappas for the count of five. Each came back strong, Fleming seemed in far better condition than in his earlier bouts, and was going stronger than his opponent at the finish, in spite of the fact that the Greek had peppered his stomach severely, evidently knowing Fleming's former weakness. The bombardment was without apparent effect, however.

Time and time again each boxer turned loose swings that would have been hay-makers had they landed. Pappas was something of a real bantam, his manner of crouching low before his opponent then spring forward suddenly, reminding the spectators forcibly of a bantam rooster. He was smaller and some pounds lighter than Fleming, but his speed offset the disparity in weight.

The preliminaries were of much interest. There was a battle royal and then the colored representatives of Indiana and Ohio avenue came together. Ohio avenue had won the previous affray with a knockout, but last night the honors went to Indiana when the Ohio avenue product slipped and fell, injuring his arm and forcing him to quit by the third round.

Redbird vs. Hefner.

The bout between Redbird and Hefner was a very classy exhibition. Hefner was considerably heavier, but the scarlet topped Oklahoma youth gave as good as he got throughout the four rounds. It was counted a draw. Hefner marked Redbird's face up somewhat, but Redbird's speed prevented his receiving serious damage.

The bouts were conducted by J. W. Modt as referee. Charles Katz, official time keeper of the club, clocked the rounds.

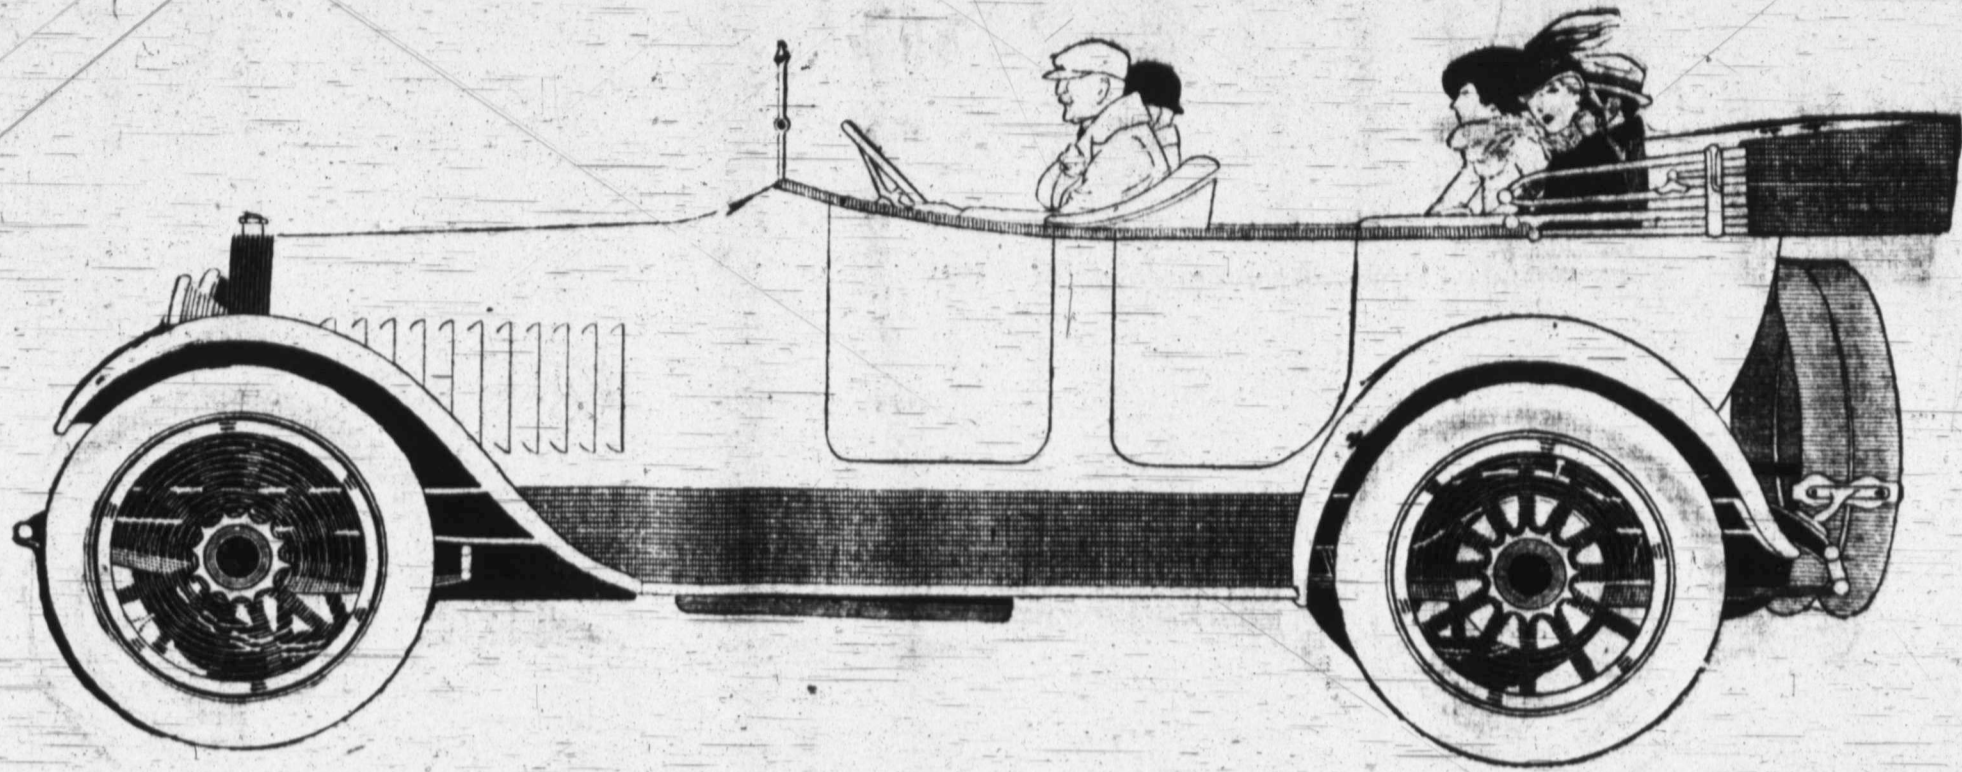

The first round was rather slow the boxers feeling each other out cautiously. They soon clinched, Pappas administering some fancy tumbling as they were locked. The Greek played very low and Fleming's first swings went wild. Pappas jumped out of his crouch and landed two blows; it was his turn by a shade. Each boxer managed to land cleanly when the second round opened. Pappas resumed his crouch then lunged forward like something had bit him, but his glove missed Fleming's head. He worked on Carl's stomach hard in the clinches but the round was about even.

The third was Fleming's round. He landed twice on the Greek and the latter became more cautious, executing some clever defensive tactics and being hard with his uppercut. The fourth round was slow at first, but with considerable clinching. In the fifth, Fleming used the rope at the ring side in a stunt to give him momentum for a fancy turn, but the Greek was not there when he struck. He did land, however, before the round ended, straightening Pappas up with a stiff one.

The sixth saw a real mixup. Fleming managed to break through Pappas' guard with good results; but the extremely clever footwork of the Greek permitted him to get away from further efforts. Fleming showed some good footwork also, getting away from some hard swings by Pappas that had trouble written on them. The seventh witnessed still furious fighting and the boxers failed to hear the gong, they were so busy. The Greek missed several slumber swings, but landed one hard one that the Oklahoman felt distinctly. It was Pappas' round on the whole.

Fleming began to get in under Pappas' crouch in the eighth and straightened the Hellene up with two stiff punches early in the round. After that the Greek's nimble footwork kept him out of difficulties. The ninth was Pappas' round, he punning Fleming severely in the clinches and showing up well in the open fighting. Fleming took several steady ones in this round. The tenth was Fleming's round, however, and had he been able to follow up the advantage which some of his punches gave him might have finished things there.

The eleventh was a very speedy

CHALMERS CARS ARE RIVETED SECURELY TO THE REQUIREMENTS OF TOMORROW

Chalmers builds—I sell—you buy, not merely for today, but for tomorrow.

When I sell you a Chalmers car, I am looking into the many tomorrows that stretch ahead.

The struggle of motor engineering does not end with the production of speed, power, safety, comfort, beauty.

It is a battle with time itself.

Just how many years the Six-30 $3400 r. p. m. Chalmers I am selling today for $1650 will stand up and obey your bidding, I don't know. Hugh Chalmers doesn't know. Nobody knows. Time has not yet set an age limit upon this magnificent power beast.

The first Chalmers 30 was born back in 1909—seven years ago. And "Old Reliable," the first Chalmers 30 built, is still rolling up the mileage after over 300,000 miles of hardest road service.

The new Six-30 Chalmers with 3400 r. p. m. engine is a direct descendant of "Old Reliable."

But it is a greater and better car than its forefather. Into it has been bred and built a compact summary of motor eugenics.

This car delivers 45 H. P. at the former cost of 20 to 25 H. P. It gets twice the mileage per gallon of gasoline that many of its contemporaries get.

Here is high-speed, high power, high mileage, along with amazing fuel-thrift.

Engineering has taken a new, sharp turn. And Chalmers leads in wringing high speed and power from an engine with out sacrifice of operating economy.

The great 3400 r. p. m. engine is an insurance policy against the rising trend of gasoline prices.

Its engine strength is reflected in its car strength—it meets the shocks of hardest usage without faltering or complaint. Every gram of material is selected from the raw with always an eye to its lasting qualities. An army of 226 inspectors watches over every detail of construction.

Chalmers cars are riveted to the future with all the skill known to science.

Like Tiffany, like Steinway, Hugh Chalmers has lashed his product securely to the requirements of tomorrow.

exhibition, both in the open fighting and the clinches. The boys were going so strenuously when the gong sounded that they kept right on and proceeded to hammer Referee Modt when he stepped between them. This was Fleming's round by a shade. Pappas came back in the twelfth and had things very largely his own way, landing on Fleming several times and rocking him rather severely with a latter to the head. Fleming took several hard ones in the thirteenth and presently one of Pappas' punches met squarely on the jaw and Fleming went down. He was not out by any means and was up on the count of eight, coming back hard. Both went to it very furiously in the fourteenth but each seemed excited and many hard swings missed their mark. Fleming slipped one to the point of Pappas' chin. The Greek went to his knees but was up at the count of five and came back brilliantly. The fifteenth was Fleming's round decidedly though the Greek started hard enough. Fleming rushed things repeatedly and came nearer having the Greek worried when the final gong sounded than any time during the bout. Both boxers were going hard at the final tap of the gong.

BOTTLE FACTORY SEEMS ASSURED AT HENRIETTA

For several weeks it has been generally known that with a reasonable degree of expectancy Henrietta was looking for a good sized factory, but the old gal hasn't been saying much about it. All arrangements were made some weeks ago, with money bonus in the bank, but Henrietta has been fooled in this sort of case before, after having complied with her part of the contract and so is from Missouri—dreadfully.

PERCENTAGE CAR OWNERS PLEASURE DRIVERS SMALL

"The percentage of car owners who drive for pleasure only is growing smaller every year," says Geo. C. Hubbs, assistant general sales manager of Dodge Bros., Detroit. "Motor cars today are an economic necessity and this is true particularly of the cars in our class. Even the wealthy man, who has one or more big cars for pleasure touring, is turning to the smaller car with its light upkeep for business purposes."

"We had a striking example of this immediately after the last time Galveston was swept by the sea. Naturally we looked for a slump in business in the Galveston territory but instead our representative there made demands for more cars and specified roadsters. When we inquired we ascertained that the big men of the community, who were throwing themselves heart and soul into repairing the damages done by the waters, were buying Dodge Brothers roadsters so that they could get around the city more quickly.

FARMERS URGED TO RESOW OATS WHERE FROZEN OUT

Tom H. Taylor, lecturer for the state agricultural department is urging the farmers whose oats have been destroyed by the freeze to resow them this month as there is enough moisture in the ground to make the chances for a crop good. Mr. Taylor is advising strongly against a large cotton acreage this year and urges the planting of sorghum, ferretta or any other of the feed crops adapted to this section rather than the planting of cotton.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" At The Majestic Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday

"The Battle Cry of Peace" J. Stuart Blackton's tremendous photoplay depicting the horrors of war as it would be waged by an unscrupulous foe against us in our present defenseless condition, is remarkable not only for the fact that it was inspired by "Defenseless America" the famous book by the no less famous inventor, Hudson Maxim, who personally appears in the picture and for the fact that it has been the cause of more editorial comment than any photoplay ever produced, but for the fact that all the principals in the great picture are dramatic stars of the first magnitude.

Charles Richman, who plays the role in the character of John Harrison, who is in love with Virginia Vandergriff, the daughter of Mr. Vandergriff, the pacifist who favors complete disarmament, is known to theatre goers all over the United States for his recent unimpaired characterization of The Husband in George Broadhurst's famous play "Hogart and Paid For" and numerous Shakespearean plays. Mr. Stewart Blackton has secured his exclusive services for the screen.

Miss Louise Beaudet, who plays the part of Mrs. Vandergriff is one of the best-known actresses in America and was in her early youth a friend of the great French thinker and author, Victor Hugo. She has had every sort of a theatrical part and is now one of the regular constellation of stars of the Vitagraph studios on Long Island.

Harold Tubbin, who does an exquisite bit of work as Mr. Vandergriff the father, is one of the best actors of our time. His "The Motor of Peace" at any price" is a character actor of well known attainments with an ability in the portrayal of the quiet, effective satire which is rare, equaled on either the stage or screen.

Lucille Hamill, playing little Dorothy Vandergriff, is one of the best fascinating little actresses in the world, and while her age is only five has stood so far in the way of great achievements, it is conceded by the sturdiest critics that when the time comes she will be just as much a star as any girl that ever lived.

Miss Katherine Farnk, playing the woman spy, is a comparative new comer in the Vitagraph ranks, but has already made a mark for herself as an unusual character actress.

William Ferguson, appearing as Abraham Lincoln is the only man now living who was on the stage of Ford's Theatre in Washington the night of Lincoln's assassination; he was a boy at that time and was standing in the wings when Booth fired the shot.

NEW YORK INVADED WASHINGTON CAPTURED
A CALL TO ARMS AGAINST WAR
 President Wilson says one act of submarine commander might set world afire, including America.

THE BATTLE CRY OF PEACE

The most noteworthy achievement in the history of motion pictures. What 25,000 Dallas people saw in "The Battle Cry of Peace"

- They saw sixteen inch shells crash into the heart of Manhattan Island and
- They saw the most beautiful sky line in the world in flames and
- They believe the capture of New York would only be a matter of a few hours.
- They saw the American fleet destroyed by a fleet twice its size and many times its power and
- They are convinced our shores are unguarded.
- They saw a foreign foe's deady, efficient march through familiar streets and
- They know we are unprepared.
- They saw Americans lined up against a wall and they saw a swivel gun make its sickening strike.
- They saw the hand of the invading foe at the throats of our women and
- They harkened to "The Battle Cry of Peace" and a shrill and terrible cry it was.

It is still ringing in the ears of those who gripped the arms of their seats. THE BATTLE CRY OF PEACE STARTS WHERE THE BIRTH OF A NATION LEAVES OFF. It is a marvelous production.

AT THE THEATERS

LYDIA MARGARET TO SHOW LILLIAN WALKER MONDAY

Lillian Walker, known all over the world of the screen as "Dimples" is to be shown at the Lydia Margaret Monday as the star of "Green Stockings" a charming comedy of English life. This is one of the newest and most popular of the Blue Ribbon features put out by the Vitagraph Company. The play deals with the efforts of a girl to remove the stigma of spinsterhood by creating a fiancé out of her imagination. She is forced to write love letters which find their way accidentally into the post and which reach a man by the same name she has called her fiancé. He investigates just as the girl has killed him off by the insertion of his death notice in the papers. The man finally forces the girl to confess her duplicity and the play has a pleasing climax in their real betrothal. In "Green Stockings" the Vitagraph Company has produced a five part Blue Ribbon Feature which is destined to take its place among the greatest comedies yet produced. Lillian Walker is seen to fine advantage first as the old maid who blossoms forth into the beautiful and attractive girl she is. The cast is an all star one and the acting and photography leaves nothing to be desired.

FOUR PART KALEM AT THE GEM MONDAY

A four part Kalem "The Luring Light" will be the attraction at the Gem Monday. The cast includes Stella Hoban, Corrine Malverin, Helen Lindroth, Frank Woods, Bradley Barker, Nat Sachs, Henry Hallam, Francis Capolano, Stephen Purgee. Anna, who lives with her harsh tempered aunt, eagerly seizes the opportunity to join a traveling repertoire company. The girl and Darnton, the villain in the company, become deeply interested in each other, and because of Anna Darnton acquires his terrible craving for liquor. Later, when the troupe disbands in New York, Anna meets Rita. The girl makes the acquaintance of a Marbridge, an agent of the worst type, and only her wit saves her from the man's clutches. Following a quarrel with Darnton, Anna foolishly consents to go out with Rita and the last set with which the latter associates. The auto hurtles over an embankment and Anna alone escapes death. A reconciliation with Darnton follows. Anna obtains a position in the company in which Darnton plays the villain. The girl receives her great opportunity when the star, whom she is understudying, is injured on the opening night. Enraged, the manager, learns of the love between the new star and Darnton. Fearing lest sentiment affect their work, he sends Darnton to head the Chicago company. But the separation depresses Anna so greatly that Enwright orders Darnton to return. The player comes back unknown to Anna and suddenly appears before her at the next performance. The ensuing scene thrills the audience, which never for a moment suspects that the heroine and the villain are secret lovers. But the moment the curtain has descended Anna walks into Darnton's arms. Her lips meet his.

WILLIAM FARNUM AT THE MAJESTIC TUESDAY

William Farnum and Dorothy Bernard are the stars in the Fox-special "A Soldier's Oath" to be the Tuesday feature at the Majestic Theatre. A story is given—Pierre Duval, a private in the French army, is called to the colors and goes into action with his regiment. Following the first engagement, which takes place but a short distance from his own home, Pierre finds the Count de Morave dying on the field of battle. The Count entrusts Pierre with jewels and papers and asks him to transmit them to the young Viscount Raoul de Reyntiens, their owner.

Pierre slips from camp at night, goes to his home, and hides the heirlooms in a strong box which already contains a necklace given to his wife, Margot, by the Duke and the Duchess D'Auberg. Lazare, a war correspondent who has followed Pierre, later enters the house, murders Pierre's wife and steals the entire contents of the secret hiding place. Pierre, on his return to camp, is hailed before D'Auberg, accused of murdering his own wife and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Mavis, Pierre's infant daughter, deprived of both her father and mother, is taken into the D'Auberg family, who are unaware of her identity. Years elapse. Mavis, blossoming into womanhood falls in love with the penniless young Viscount de Reyntiens. Lazare, who by means of the stolen papers and jewels is masquerading as the Count de Morave, falls in love with Mavis and presents her some of the jewels, including Margot's necklace.

Pierre in the meanwhile, because of his heroism in saving his fellow prisoners from death by fire, has been liberated. He obtains employment with the priest who is tutor to young de Reyntiens. When Mavis visits de Reyntiens to tell him that her foster parents refuse to let her marry him, Pierre sees Margot's necklace which Mavis is wearing. He learns from whom she obtained the necklace and thus locates Lazare. Mavis ultimately marries the young Viscount and the direct of retribution overtakes Lazare.

"BATTLE CRY OF PEACE" AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

A special musical score by Katz Orchestra will feature the two days' showing of "The Battle Cry of Peace" at the Majestic Theatre Wednesday and Thursday of this week. "The Battle Cry of Peace" is a stupendous production the like of which has seldom been filmed much less shown in city the size of Wichita Falls and as a marvel of motion picture photography is offered by the Majestic management. Concerning the interest which the picture holds and the feeling which it inspires the following clipping from the Boston Transcript will be enlightening.

A spectator at a moving picture is a callous sort. He has had sudden death and destruction served up to him too often to have it ruffle his calm exterior. Besides he knows all this is essential to any film worth the price of admission. Thus in general he is able to sit unmoved, while the dramatic personae struggle in the midst of fire, or flood or famine. It is not because he is hardhearted. It is because there has become firmly ingrained in him the belief that somewhere in the last reel there will be tucked away a happy ending. Be it said to the credit of "The Battle Cry of Peace" produced last night at the Majestic, that everyone in the crowded house waited for the happy ending with strained attention. They read with general excitement the moral of unpreparedness the film is supposed to teach. And their attention changed to horror when the happy ending, after hovering about for some time as a remote possibility, vanished beneath the ruins of the city of New York.

MARY PICKFORD AT THE EMPRESS WEDNESDAY

"Madame Butterfly" with Mary Pickford is the Wednesday attraction at the Empress. The most beautiful Japanese gardens in the United States were decorated by director Sidney Oleott for the staging of the Famous Players Film Company's screen adaptation of Jno. Luther Long's "Madame Butterfly" in which Mary Pickford plays the beloved (the title) the little Japanese girl who commits suicide when her American husband proves false. Feminine fidelity and trusting faith have few more dramatic and pathetic impersonations than the beloved—Cho Cho San, which Mary Pickford so admirably interprets in the Famous Players Film Company's adaptation of Long's classic "Madame Butterfly." It is one of the sweetest and most lovable characters that has ever been presented on the screen and in the portrayal of the role Mary Pickford does the most remarkable work of her career.

"MUMMY AND HUMMINGBIRD" AT THE EMPRESS MONDAY

The Monday feature at the Empress Theatre is "The Mummy and the Hummingbird" a society drama with a highly original and thoroughly absorbing plot. The chief character is an English nobleman with a penchant for scientific study, so thoroughly developed that he neglects his wife. The lady is charmingly vacuous and her neglected charms soon attract another less desirable suitor in the form of Signor D'Orelli, a novelist who is in search of first hand information concerning the emotions and experiences of which he writes. Unfortunately his next story is to concern the wrecking of a home.

This is not an altogether new experience for D'Orelli, for he has already solved the seed of destruction in the home of Giuseppe, who is now in search of revenge. The absent-minded peer, the sinister, designing D'Orelli and the waiting, vigilant Giuseppe form the mainstays of contending forces which center about the unsuspecting Lady Lumley. With these hostile powers battling for supremacy, with the issue always in doubt until the last moment—which is given a thrillingly unexpected turn—the play is one to hold the attention riveted to the screen throughout its entire course.

Charles Cherry who does such clever and forceful work in the role of Lord Lumley, the Mummy is given excellent support by a cast of distinctly unusual power which includes such well known names as Arthur Hoops, William Sorelle and Charles Coleman, Lillian Tucker, who has recently scored a pronounced personal success in "Experience" appears in the role of Lady Lumley.

CHALMERS DEPOT GOES TO DALLAS

Announcement Made Yesterday by Vice President of Chalmers Company

Recognizing the importance of Dallas as a distributing point for Texas and the Southwest, Vice-President Paul Smith of the Chalmers Motor Company, yesterday announced the new distributing concern to locate their new distributing office in this city. In making his announcement, Mr. Smith paid a tribute to the Dallas Board of Commerce, stating that the local civic body was largely responsible for the selection of Dallas by Chalmers officials.

"Following the big gathering of Texas dealers at the Chicago Automobile Show, we decided to go after the Lone Star State business in earnest" said Mr. Smith yesterday. "Owing to the tremendous growth of our business we had made up our minds some time ago to place a distributing depot in one of Texas' larger cities. Dallas was decided upon only after a thorough investigation of her shipping facilities and commercial importance and considerable correspondence with the Dallas Board of Commerce. "I have been fortunate in the past in maintaining closer and more intimate relations with dealers in the south and southwest than usually falls to the lot of an automobile sales manager. Three years of my selling experience was obtained in Texas. Missouri and neighboring states and I believe I understand the selling situation in this district a little better than the man who is acquainted with conditions in the Southwest.

The convention of Texas dealers in Dallas has been arranged in order that we may be able to get in closer touch with the entire body of men who sell motor cars in this section. Personal contact between dealers and members of the factory sales force made possible by a meeting of this kind, is of more value than tons of impersonal correspondence, at long range. We have come to Dallas to meet the Texas dealer, talk over his problems with him, and whenever possible suggest remedies and improvements in his ways of doing business. We feel that the convention cannot help but be of mutual benefit to dealer and manufacturer alike in establishing cordial relations between the two, and clearing the way for the greatest year of prosperity this country has ever known."

The Chalmers convention will hold the boards for two days and will be presided over by W. W. Morris, Dallas District Manager. Mr. Morris will also be in charge of the new Dallas depot when opened. It is understood that an entirely new finance plan, which will revolutionize the sale of quality cars, is to be announced and explained to the dealers in attendance. Several hundred dealers from all sections of Texas are making Dallas their home during the meeting.

INTERESTING TEST GIVEN IN HISTORY

January Reports at St. Mary's Academy Varied by Unusually Interesting Features

Last week the reading of the reports of the students at A. M. I., for the month of January was varied by some unusually interesting features. Among these were an oral test in which the Texas history class gave some interesting information on the history of our State; an imaginary journey in the form of original compositions in which Miss Kathleen Lanch conducted the attentive listeners through the Americas, Miss Eleanor Moran and Hester Sessions being their guides through the other continents. Misses Helen Hunt, Annetta Monroe, Helen Stone and Mary Moran read papers summarizing the history of English literature up to the Elizabethan Era, the Golden Age of which was discussed by the class. Miss Agnes Dittoe and Miss Alice Stone entertained their companions with an amusing dialogue in French, the former playing the role of "Mon-

ELECTRA WANTS TWO VOTING BOXES

Commissioners Court May Be Asked to Provide Additional Boxes—Here Also

A movement has been set on foot at Electra to secure an additional voting box for that precinct. The Electra and court house No. 12 (car barn) boxes are the two largest voting boxes in the county, and the count of the ballots in these two boxes usually requires more time than the other boxes often not being completed until near daybreak on the morning after the election. At one election the count in these boxes was not completed until well into the day following the election.

Changes in the boundaries of the voting precincts and additional voting boxes may be ordered by the county commissioners' court.
