

MILITIA OF THREE STATES IS CALLED OUT BY PRESIDENT TO GUARD BORDER; SITUATION AT EL PASO DEEMED GRAVE

NUMBER OF REGULARS TO BE INCREASED

WILSON ACTS WHEN NECESSARY FOR MORE PROTECTION ALONG BOUNDARY IS SEEN-TAKES NEARLY ALL AVAILABLE MEN

WILL NOT CROSS

Would Remain on American Side Unless War Broke Out-El Paso Situation is Causing Some Concern at Washington

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 9.—President Wilson has called out the militia of Texas, Arizona and New Mexico to deal with the border situation. Secretary Baker issued the following statements regarding the use of the militia: "The outbreak in the Big Bend districts of the Rio Grande has so far further emphasized the danger of similar occurrences along our long border that the president has called out the militia of Arizona, New Mexico and Texas, and directed them to report to General Funston, who will assign them to stations along the border for patrol duty.

"In addition to that, three additional regiments of regular infantry have been directed to proceed to the border, and such further arrangements will be made as are necessary for the complete security of the people of the United States against raids of this character."

Secretary Baker said the militia of the three border states would make available about 4000 men. In addition three regiments of regular infantry were today ordered to the border. These regiments were the 30th infantry now at Plattsburg, New York, the Third Infantry at Madison Barracks, divided between Watertown and Oswego, New York, the Twenty-First Infantry at Vancouver Barracks and two battalions of the Fourteenth Infantry at Fort Lawton near Seattle.

The total additional forces sent to the border including regulars and militia, total 7000 men. Secretary Baker announced that published reports that the raid upon Glenn Springs had been organized on the American side of the line, according to Mexican reports, had been telegraphed to General Funston that he might investigate.

Secretary Baker said the orders sending more troops to the border were made upon the joint recommendation of both General Scott and Funston and were without significance in connection with the Scott-Oregon conference. Regarding the progress of the conference Secretary Baker said General Scott was awaiting a communication from General Oregon: "Further than this the secretary refused to discuss the status of the conference.

Generals Scott and Funston advised the war department that more troops were urgently needed along the border. They stated that the regulars on patrol duty, with the bulk of the forces within Mexico, were insufficient to adequately guard against repetition of the Big Bend raid. It was upon these recommendations that the president and Secretary Baker decided to call into service the National Guard of the three border states.

Secretary Baker described the new troops movements as a step mere for protection of the border. He said he had not heard whether the American troops in the Big Bend region had actually crossed the boundary in pursuit of the outlaws who raided Glenn Springs and Boquilla.

The national guardsmen are ordered out under the Dick law authorizing their services anywhere in the United States but not beyond the border. Under that law every man enrolled in a regiment who is physically able may be forced to service. If service beyond the border was contemplated the regiments would be mustered into the federal service as volunteers and it would be optional with the men whether they would serve.

The grand total enrollment of the forces ordered out was, in October, 1915, according to war department figures, 299 officers and 4670 men. Because of border conditions the officials here feel certain that the force will be increased a third or more in the course of the next few days.

The disposition of the militia and regulars along the border is entirely in General Funston's hands. He will direct their mobilization in suits units and at such points as he deems best to guard against new raids. While only the guardsmen from the three states mentioned have actually been ordered out the war department is prepared to send similar orders to other nearby states should the necessity arise.

Recommendations by Generals Scott and Funston will govern the sending of any addition militia.

With the dispatch of the additional regular regiments to the border, the entire mobile army of the United States, with the exception of five troops of cavalry is either mobilized upon the border, or in Mexico in pursuit of bandits. Every infantryman in the country is either on the border, en route there, or in Mexico. The remainder of the infantry and cavalry is on foreign service or in Alaska.

Senators and representatives from the border states, some of whom have been active critics of the administration's Mexican policy expressed approval of the mobilization of the guardsmen.

CARRANZA PAPER'S COMMENT ON RAID

Says It Shows Necessity of Withdrawing American Troops From Mexico

Laredo, Tex., May 9.—Commenting on the Glenn Springs raid, a local Carranzista paper says the raid demonstrates the necessity of withdrawing American forces from Mexico "because the sovereignty and integrity of Mexico demand it" and for the reason that American forces should be used "to garrison small towns along the frontier and defend citizens against those who, light under no flag but whose aims are solely incendiarism, pillage and destruction."

FINAL CONFERENCE IS EXPECTED TODAY

General Funston to Leave El Paso as Soon as He Can Make Arrangements.

El Paso, Texas, May 9.—Arrangements for another conference between General Scott and Oregon were being made today. At General Oregon's headquarters belief was expressed that the conference would take place this afternoon and confidence was expressed that an agreement would be reached.

On receipt of news that President Wilson had ordered out the Texas, New Mexico and Arizona militia, General Funston announced today that he would return to his headquarters at San Antonio just as soon as he could arrange to do so. His departure will be contingent upon arrangements he can make with General Scott relieving him from participation in the conference with General Oregon.

General Funston said it would be absolutely necessary for him to return to Fort Sam Houston where he would have the aid of his staff to dispose of the additional troops.

CRISIS NEAR IN PARLEYS AT EL PASO

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, May 9.—From Juarez came the information today that Gen. Oregon thought the negotiations might keep him two or three days more. While the gravity of the situation is admitted it is thought in the next two meetings steps will be taken to avoid a split. War talk was prevalent along the border today but the more conservative pointed out that even if hostilities should ensue they would come after some delay.

Prior to the announcement that arrangements were being made for another conference it was feared that a critical stage had been reached over the plans for the cooperation of the United States and Mexican troops for pursuit of bandits. At temporary headquarters here it was thought that additional troops would reach the border in less than a week. Being infantry they can be entrained much faster than cavalry.

TEXAS MILITIA READY TO SERVE WITHOUT DELAY

HAS 200 OFFICERS AND 3500 ENLISTED MEN BUT COULD BE INCREASED TO WAR STRENGTH IF IT WERE REQUIRED

CAN MOVE QUICKLY

Order To Mobilize May Result in Breaking Up of Officers Training Camp Near Austin—No Mobilization Point is Specified

Austin, Tex., May 9.—At 10:20 o'clock General Hutehings received from Washington a call for the service of the organized militia of Texas. He said he understood that the call would require the use of every man of the Texas National Guard and would so notify all commanders. No mobilization point is specified and the troops will be called out subject to the orders of General Funston.

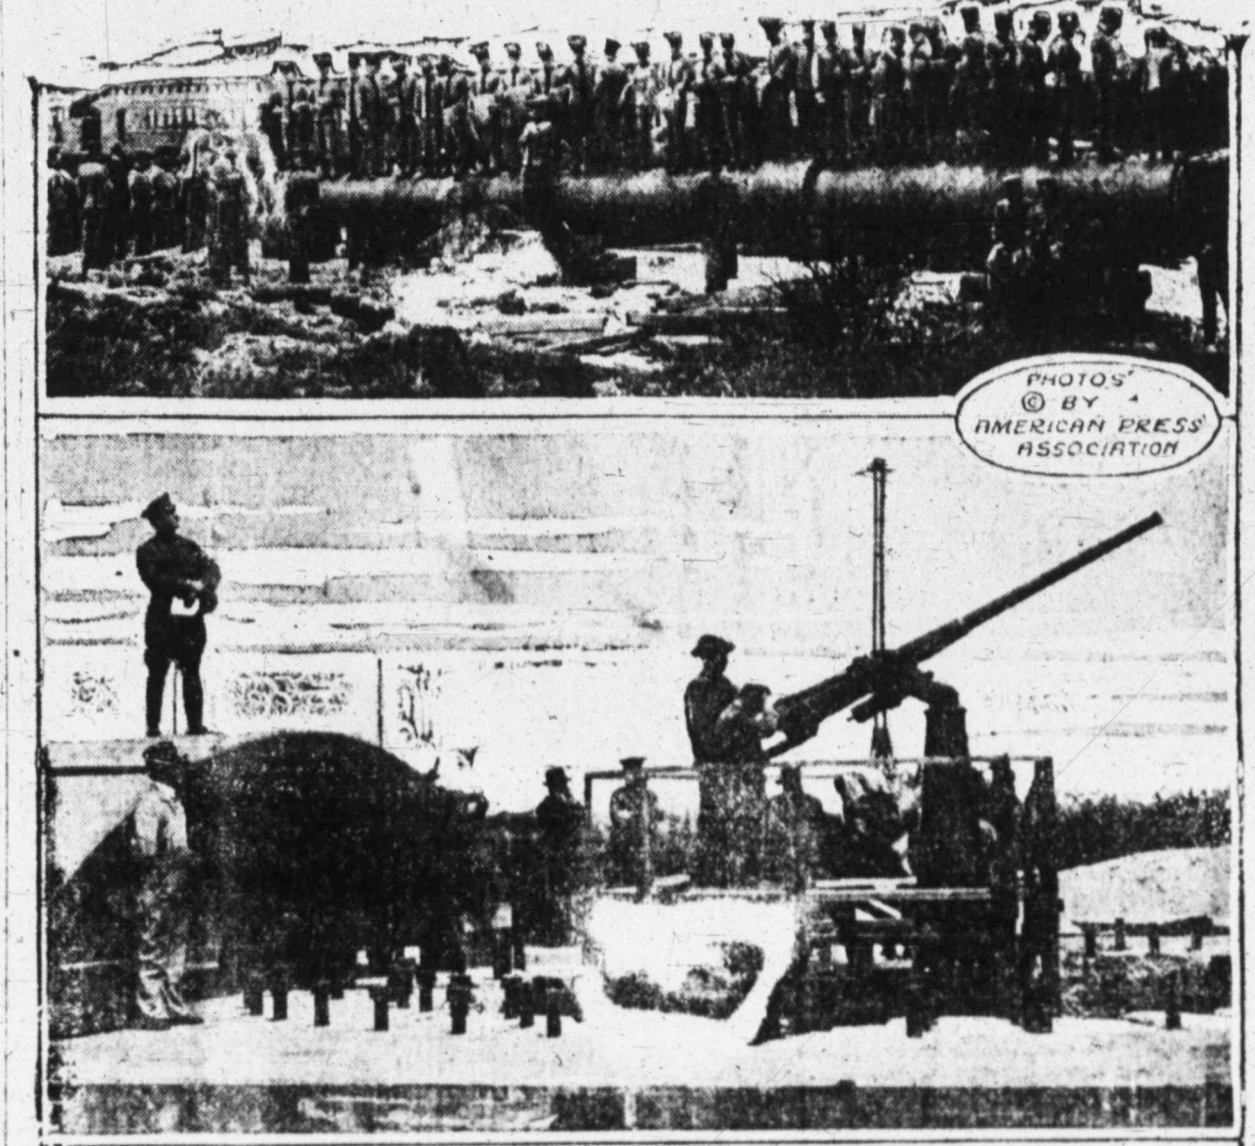

Brigadier General John A. Hulien said 120 infantry officers and 120 enlisted men are here for the officers' camp which may be broken up entirely by the call of the troops. Gen. Hutehings said: "We have about 3500 men in the Texas National Guard at present, with about 200 officers. Our numbers are enlisted to within about three-fourths of war strength. If the federal order specifies full war strength we will enlist up to that strength. We moved troops to Brownsville on two hours' notice once and some of our companies can be quickly again. I would say that we could have every member of the Texas National Guard en route within 48 hours as all company commanders understand they must always be ready for service."

TEXAS GUARD HAS STRENGTH OF 6000

Includes Three Infantry Regiments, Cavalry and Field Artillery. Hulien in Command

Dallas, Tex., May 9.—The war strength of the Texas National Guard is 6,118 men, according to a statement by Adjutant General Hutehings. The guard consists of an infantry brigade of three regiments, a squadron of cavalry, one battery of field artillery, one field hospital corps and several newly organized infantry companies. The three regiments of infantry compose the brigade in the guard are known as the Second, Third and Fourth Infantries. The respective commanders are Col. Benjamin F. Delmater of Gainesville, Col. George P. Pairs of Marshall and Col. C. W. Nimmon of Gainesville. General John A. Hulien is brigadier general.

FUTURE GENERALS PAY VISIT TO 16-INCH AND TINY ANTI-AIR CRAFT GUNS

CADETS VISIT SANDY HOOK

The West Point graduating class, 125 cadets, visited the Sandy Hook proving grounds to be initiated into the mysteries of the government's artillery from the sixteen inch rifle, the mightiest weapon in the world, throwing a 2,400 pound projectile twenty-two miles, to the tiny rapid fire anti-aircraft gun, with its bark like that of an angry skye ferrier, shooting a vicious little one pound bursting shell some two miles into the air. The 16-inch gun and a line of gunboats on the monster weapon are pictured here. Ordnance experts say the new sixteen inch gun soon to be finished, will outshoot the present rifle, but the American 1893 model will outdistance the range of any ship in any navy in the world. A comparison of this gun with the 42 centimeter howitzer of Germany shows that the American weapon shoots a shell one and one-half times as large more than twice as far as the German piece. The rifle which is destined for the Panama canal zone, is mounted on a disappearing carriage, a new design, details of which are held secret. When the cadets visited Sandy Hook the monster was fired for the fourth time. The carriage was kept from operating to the full extent lest some mischance happen. It costs nearly $250 to shoot a sixteen inch gun with a low charge. In war-time cost is $100 more.

FUNSTON EXPECTED TO RETURN AT ONCE

Will Direct Militia Movements. Officers Receive News With Much Interest

San Antonio, Tex., May 9.—Officers at department headquarters are waiting to ascertain whether the militia of Texas, Arizona and New Mexico has been called out for war or peace strength. If war strength is desired each infantry company will have about 150 men. The peace footing is 65 men to a company.

Major Wolfe in charge of militia affairs for the southern department, said the question of strength will be decided by the bureau of militia affairs at Washington. Officers will be detailed direct from the bureau to muster the troops into regular service. Although not officially advised of President Wilson's action, officers at headquarters displayed keen interest in the latest development. Major Barnum, chief of staff and Major Wolfe, in charge of militia affairs, conferred today, outlining preliminary plans for distributing troops available for border service. Matters are being shaped tentatively in light of the early return of General Funston from El Paso after which movements will be definitely ordered.

It is reported from military sources that sufficient arms and ammunition are in storage here to equip the Texas National Guard at war strength. As yet headquarters had not been advised regarding the mobilization point but officers believed Camp Mabey at Austin is likely to be designated.

EIGHT MEN TAKEN IN GLENN SPRINGS RAID GET AWAY AFTER BEING CARRIED INTO STATE OF COAHUILA

By Associated Press. El Paso, Tex., May 9.—A private message received here today says the seven American employees of the Porto Rico de Boquilla mine, who were captured by Big Bend bandit raiders overpowered their guards and escaped to the border bringing three of the Mexicans as prisoners. The message which was later confirmed said Dr. Powers who was among the captured, also made his escape.

AMERICANS TAKEN INTO INTERIOR OF COAHUILA

By Associated Press. Marathon, Tex., May 9.—Seven American employees at the Porto Rico de Boquilla mine near Boquilla on the Mexican side and Dr. Homer Powers of San Angelo, Texas, were for a time captives in the hands of the Villa band that raided Glenn Springs and Boquilla. The eight Americans were taken into the interior of Coahuila where it was feared they would be killed or held for ransom.

Word of the capture of the eight men was brought here early today by Nick Petrus a mine employee, who was seized, but made his escape just before the bandits left the mine with their prisoners. The eight captives were R. R. Hasbrouck, assayer; Dr. Homer Powers of San Angelo; C. B. Halter, mine superintendent; another engineer; Scott, truck driver; McKnight, truck driver; another truck driver, name unknown; Coy, water pumper.

VERDUN ATTACKS CONTINUE WITH GREAT VIOLENCE

INITIAL SUCCESSSES OF GERMANS IN NEWEST DRIVES NOT FOLLOWED BY OTHER GAINS AND FRENCH RETAKE GROUND

LINER CYMRIC SINKS

Boat in Service of British Admiralty is Victim of Torpedo Off Irish Coast and Some Members of Crew Meet Death

The Associated Press summarizes European war operations as follows: What seems to be the most determined effort yet made by the crown prince's forces to break through and capture Verdun is now in progress. Heavy guns are persistently pounding the defense of the fortress and bombardments of unprovoked violence are being followed by attacks in great force.

After their initial successes near Hill 304 the Germans have failed to make further progress, according to Paris which announces the complete repulse of an assault on Hill 304 early this morning. East of the Meuse near Ehamont the French have again been counter attacking and have won back more of the ground the Germans took in starting their new drive.

Intense artillery activity east and southeast of Verdun leads to an expectation that the Germans may have in mind an attempt to push back the French right flank here, simultaneously with the effort to accomplish a like object on the other flank.

The White Star liner Cymric which was torpedoed yesterday afternoon presumably off the Irish coast, sank early today. She was bound from New York for Liverpool with a large cargo of war munitions and a crew of about 100 men all of whom were saved except five who were killed in the engine room which was hit by the torpedo that sank the liner. The Cymric is reported by the American consul at Queenstown to have been an admiralty service.

GERARD INTERVIEW DEFENDS ATTITUDE

Denies That Medals Given by Kaiser Were Paraded Upon Dog

Amsterdam, May 9.—The text of the interview with the American ambassador, James W. Gerard, as published by the Neue Wiener Journal (Vienna) follows: "I cannot tell about conditions in America, because I have not been there for three years, but I hope that peace between Germany and the United States will be maintained.

"I wish you would state that in this crisis and in all former crises I have attached the utmost importance to clearing away misunderstandings between Germany and America. I have always done everything to help avert a conflict between the government to which I am accredited and my government. I do not wish for war between Germany and America. I have never wished it, shall never wish it. The accusation that I am an enemy of Germany is absolutely untrue. I have never done anything to deserve the reproach or said that I dislike the German people.

"It has been said of me lately, without a semblance of proof, that I have encouraged my government to go to war. That I said the German government could make as many concessions as it wished, but war was inevitable because I wished it. They have said that I owned a munitions factory in America and therefore was financially interested in war.

"Then in an effort to malign me they even wrote to the crown princess that my wife had decorated her dog with the orders the Kaiser had conferred on her and she had taken the dog thus bedecked for a walk in Unter den Linden.

MEXICAN OFFICERS VISIT THE AMERICANS AT COLONIA DUBLAN

AMERICAN OFFICERS RECEIVE VISITORS

Visiting the American camps in Mexico has been quite a favorite diversion of Mexican army officers that is, of such of them as do not display openly the hostility to the presence of American soldiers in Mexico that is felt by many Mexicans. Among the Mexicans who visited the camp at Colonia Dublin was Lieutenant Colonel Trefilo Davila of Casas Grandes, seen seated at the left in the picture. The other seated gentleman is Lieutenant Colonel De Rosey C. Cabell of the Tenth United States Cavalry; standing is Lieutenant N. W. Campanole of the Sixth United States Infantry.

TELLS WHY WOMEN NOT GETTING VOTE

Opponents of Suffrage Are Divided into Three Classes By Mrs. C. C. Catt

By Associated Press. Minneapolis, Minn., May 8.—A call to women of the country to join hands and aid in defeating the enemies of equal suffrage was sounded by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association. Mrs. Catt was addressing a large mass meeting at the auditorium here, the opening session of the Mississippi Valley Suffrage Conference, which will continue through Wednesday. Twenty-two states are represented at the meeting.

A number of leaders in the suffrage movement spoke at church meetings Sunday, pleading for cooperation in the fight to obtain national enfranchisement of women. Referring to the factors that have retarded the progress of the suffrage cause, which has been sweeping over the country, Mrs. Catt declared that contributions to political parties by interests opposed to suffrage had proved one of the most serious handicaps. She divided into three classes the anti-suffrage forces, which are aimed to keep women disfranchised.

"First of all," she said, "there are those who may be called the conservatives. They are the flotsam and jetsam of civilization marching on every generation, producing a certain number of these people who can never see anything good in that which is not established. Such people are sometimes intelligent so far as education goes; they are elected to the legislature, often to Congress, but you never caught one of them voting yes on any proposition which his grandfather did not believe in two generations ago. I have often wondered just what percent those conservatives compose. I once estimated it at 10 per cent of the population. No power on earth could move the class of people to believe in woman suffrage or anything else that had not been long established.

"The second class, I shall call the pessimists. They are the people who are born pessimists; they see down they never build up. They believe man suffrage in America has been so signal a failure that it is idle and ridiculous to extend the suffrage to women. Sometimes they believe in a purely educational qualification, but they do not believe in that which exists and no persuasion can convert such people—they are hopelessly pessimists. They are the 'left over' of the 'back numbers'.

"But there is a third class that we may call the spitters, and they are our real opponents. 'There are intelligent men and women who are capable of changing their minds who are honest and open-minded, who have not yet been reached with education. Were it not so we should consider our cause hopeless. We won 42 to 48 percent this year without the class that we now are going after. We should be able to win and lift the vote up to something over 51 per cent.

"But while we are educating, we must know where our enemy is. 'Long ago when our government was new, that great man, Maxiney said that our republic could never succeed with all classes of men counted among the voters. Said he: 'Some Caesar or Napoleon will arise among you and he will seize the reins of government and rule America.' No Caesar or Napoleon has appeared, but there has come now and then powers which have overridden the real law of the men of our country and those powers have varied from time to time. But we have one dangerous condition in our political system. Some states have tried to correct it, none has succeeded absolutely. Every state must correct it. Some one somewhere will find the solution. When some great power with money contributes vast sums to political campaign funds it virtually buys up the consideration of the leaders of those political parties which have received these contributions and they therefore are able to largely control legislation. Those powers which care nothing for the welfare of the people, which care nothing for democracy, which only stand for their own selfish interests, spoil and weaken of our land—they all are opposed to women suffrage.

"All over our country, in every campaign, we have made this observation, but it is always difficult to prove in the courts. Sometimes, however, the proof comes out. 'There is but one solution; honest politics, honest votes, no purchase of political parties, of legislators nor of Congress. And when we make sure of that, we may then go upon our way with freedom.' Mrs. Catt outlined briefly the history of male suffrage in the United States and referred to what she characterized as the unfair condition of taxation without representation that women are subjected to. She told of how the woman's place in the home formula had been met in New York last year by the call for a one day strike of working women. She declared that after the threat to shut up business for an entire day, no one ventured to object to women's place when offered other than within her own four walls.

Mrs. Catt concluded her address with a strong plea for the federal amendment enfranchising women.

SHRINERS MEETING AT BUFFALO TO BE NOTABLE

By Associated Press. Buffalo, N. Y., May 9.—Arrangements are being made for the holding of the annual convention of the Imperial Council of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine in this city July 11, 12, and 13, and it is announced that unusual efforts are being made to set a new record this year for attendance of this character. It is estimated that the convention will bring to Buffalo close to a hundred thousand persons.

J. Putman Stevens, Imperial Patron of the Shrine at Buffalo, Me., has just completed a tour of the southern and Pacific States and the Hawaiian Islands, devoted to urging the temples he visited to send large delegations to the 1916 Mecca. Buffalo has pledged $100,000 for the entertainment of the visitors. Many of the special trains in which the nobles will make the pilgrimage will be luxuriously fitted out. One California temple is spending $75,000 on its trip. The Chicago shriners have engaged the largest passenger steamer on the Great Lakes for the water trip to Buffalo and are putting $40,000 into their exertions.

Among the amusement features planned is a national airplane race scheduled to open here July 12. Negotiations are under way to remove, if possible, the Canadian government's objections to visitors at the Fort Niagara camps, so that the Shriner's may be accorded the privilege of seeing the Overseas regiments at training.

SERBIANS RETURN TO FORMER HOMES

Farms Now Under Cultivation and Country Is Being Re-habitated

By Associated Press. Nish, Serbia, (By Mail)—Great numbers of Serbians who fled before the advancing armies of the Central Powers last fall and winter are returning to their former homes. Most of the returning fugitives come from districts along the Montenegrin and Albanian frontiers, where which they found it impossible to accompany the retreating army, and most of them also are of the urban class, as the rural Serbian population for the most part remained at home.

Several carloads of the returning Serbs pass northward every day, largely destined for Belgrade, and they seem cheerful enough at the prospect of getting back to their old homes. Owing to the lack of rolling stock, they are obliged to travel in freight cars, but with the warmer weather the discomfort of this is mitigated. So far comparatively few young men have returned. The armies of occupation are doing what they can to assist in the reparation.

The Serbian farms, which have been badly neglected since the outbreak of the war, are now being cultivated. The Germans and Austro-Hungarians have brought numbers of steam-plows into the country, and the soldiers are everywhere at work plowing and sowing. Notwithstanding their efforts much land remains fallow. Some of this has been so long uncultivated that a vigorous stand of scrub oak has conquered it.

The Serbian women are doing their part in agricultural work. The military commanders have effected a redistribution of the country's livestock by requisition in those parts not affected by the war, and most of the households again look well fed, some pigs and chickens. Milk and eggs can be bought everywhere. Meat is scarce but bread may be obtained in any quantity and without bread cards. The women and children look well fed but most of them are poorly dressed.

Several women with whom the Associated Press correspondent talked said that they were glad the war had passed beyond Serbia's borders. They wanted to know when their men would return. None had any news of them. It was immaterial to them, they said, who governed Serbia in the future, provided there was no more war. One young woman in city dress, however, held different views and expressed them in fairly good French.

A year ago Serbia was in the clutches of a terrible epidemic typhus, typhoid fever and other diseases. These it is asserted, have been completely wiped out. The occupation troops compel the population to obey the sanitary rules established by the military authorities, with the result that Serbian villages have never been so clean. The mud of decades has been carted away, and the streets have been covered with gravel and crushed rock. Sanitation in the home is effected through thorough inspection.

Civil government has already been established in the Austro-Hungarian and Bulgarian spheres in Serbia and the Bulgarian territory in Macedonia, but the districts held by the Germans are still under military rule, because, it is said, no permanent occupation of the district is contemplated. Railway traffic and postal service are in the hands of the military authorities, but the Serbian population is permitted to use them. Schools and churches have been reopened in many parts of the country.

WILSON IS PRAISED BY GERMAN WRITER

Maximilian Harden Says Germans Would Be Proud of Him if He Were Theirs

By Associated Press. Berlin, May 9.—After figuratively taking the public's breath away two weeks ago by a daring article headed "If I Were Wilson," Maximilian Harden returns to an exhaustive defense of Wilson, his policy and the entire American standpoint. In a leader in the Zukunft, entitled "The Real Wilson," Harden praises President Wilson as a man of high moral and spiritual character of whom we might be proud if he were ours.

"What the writer characterizes as 'lax ignorance' is represented as 'battering from the mantle of world patriotism which in reality has nothing in common with genuine patriotism when President Wilson is called in by the frequently has been. 'Ninety-nine out of a hundred of the so-called war literature,' Harden continued, 'should be sent where it belongs, to the paper mills, and the public should return to books from which a wide awake spirit speaks in 'Julian President Wilson's 'The New Freedom.' Then perhaps true common sense will return to you and awaken you to the duty of respecting the dignity of foreign people."

DEALING JUSTICE TO IRISH REBELS

Dublin, May 7. (via London, May 8.)—Justice is being dealt out to the Sinn Feiners on pure facts proved by incontrovertible testimony regarding their active participation in the recent rebellion. Suspicion is not enough for a court martial to condemn any man and vengeance for the minds of the military judges. There is no "dragging out" to death of the rebels.

The Associated Press was placed in a position today to obtain first hand information of the entire system of charge, evidence, trial and sentence in the cases of the men captured during the fighting or who surrendered after the collapse of the uprising. As soon as a rebel falls into the hands of the authorities his identity is established and his evidence is recorded.

The reports of officers and soldiers concerned in the capture are written down. The prisoner is placed in confinement. Then a preliminary hearing is held and lawyers draw up the charge.

The next process is the formation of a field general court martial of which three are sitting to dispose of cases rapidly. Each court is composed of three superior army officers. Only one of the nine judges participated in the suppression of the rebellion, so it cannot be alleged that the officers acting as judges will bring prejudice to bear arising from personal feelings.

Before the prisoner is brought before the court the charge against him is read in full in order that the accused may prepare to defend himself when facing the judges. He has no legal defender, but should he desire to call witnesses the court immediately calls them to testify in complete freedom.

He is also permitted to have the services of a clergyman. Meanwhile the judgment is laid before Sir John Maxwell, commander in chief in Ireland. General Maxwell is very humane but he has a strong will combined with a judicial mind and a strict sense of duty to his country. He never has failed to persevere the evidence himself before putting the final seal on a sentence, but then he decides quickly. He is inclined to leniency in cases where the facts permit him to exercise it.

The confirmed judgment is promulgated by an army officer and the following morning the condemned prisoner is shot. The execution is carried out in the same way as in the field. The prisoner is blindfolded and placed in front of a firing squad whose first volley always is fatal.

IN THE SPHERE OF WOMANKIND

The Morning Song.
Hi, little woman, singin' in the door;
Thought this life had joy enough,
But you're a makin' more!

Hi, little woman,
Sweet as sweet can be,
You're singin' all the sunshine,
An' the breath of flowers to me!

Hi, little woman,
The love one heart can hold
Is brighter than the sunshine,
And all the stars of gold.

WILL RESUME BOAT SERVICE INTO NOME

Most Northern City in World Can Be Reached Again Early in June

Seattle, Wash., May 9. Steamship service into Nome, the most northern city in the world, which has been isolated since last October, will be resumed on June 1 with the sailing of the steamship Umattila from Seattle, followed by the steamship Victoria on June 2. Soon after the last southbound steamer left Nome on October 28 last, Bering Sea was entirely frozen over, and it was necessary because of the winter cold, to suspend mining operations at Nome. The 2,000 or more people who were left behind when the last steamer sailed prepared to face the long winter. During the winter there was a letter mail service by dogteam from Fairbanks, but newspapers, magazines and parcels were not carried. The United States signal corps maintained connection with the outside world by means of cable and wireless.

The arrival of the first steamers from the south, in the last week in June, is the occasion of even greater excitement in Nome than the finish of the annual dogteam race. The people are advised by cable of the departure of the boats from Seattle, and eager watch is kept for their coming. Sometimes the steamers have a hard battle with the ice and are held for many days only a few miles from Nome, with ice conditions so unsafe that no one ventures to walk to shore. Again, the season may be too late and the boats will come in sight of Nome without difficulty and see firm ice between them and the shore. In such a case the passengers or most of them, will walk to Nome over the ice and will have a more precarious landing than if they waited to be hoisted in the basket of the aerial tramway. There is no wharf at Nome and can be none, for there is no harbor. Passengers are taken ashore in the tramway and freight by lighter and tramway.

Both of the boats side preparing to sail for Nome have every berth reserved, and all the cargo room is spoken for. Much of the cargo will be reading matter, vegetables and fruit, of which the people of Nome stand in great need after eight months of imprisonment. Most of the northbound passengers are men interested in mining in Nome, and their families. They go out in autumn and return the next summer.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION FOR MILITIA OFFICERS

Austin, Tex., May 9.—Under direction of Captain James M. Love Jr., Twelfth United States Infantry, and inspector of infantry organizations in Texas, there was to open at Camp Mabry, near here, today, a school of instruction for officers of the state militia, both infantry and cavalry branches. The school will last until May 15.

At the school the fundamentals of military training will be explained from an officers point of view, and for officers, with the idea of providing eventual instruction for the various companies of Texas militia. Adjutant General Henry Hutchings has made provisions for a large attendance, and it is predicted the effects of the school will be far reaching in the militia in the face of the preparedness propaganda.

A full page lithograph of Hon. Jeff McLemore adorns the front cover of "The Patriot" this week. Jeff's earned the honor all right.

To see yourself as others see you is going to cost more than it did a while back. The price of beveled plate glass from which the better mirrors are made has advanced steeply within the past few months. A great part of the supply of this kind of glass is imported from France and Belgium and since the war this supply has been cut off with the result that the price of mirrors is advancing sharply.

News from Mexico for the past two weeks has indicated that a clash between Mexican troops and the American soldiers is only a matter of time. Dispatches have told of the defection of Carranza troops and how in the districts further south from the border they have been going over to the Villistas in bodies. The numbers of the Villistas are reported increasing in the district around Parral and in the mountainous territory to the south and west and as soon as they are gathered in sufficient strength to make an attack possible, there is no doubt but that they will attack the American forces. If the defection of Carranza forces continues it will soon become general and pretty soon we may expect to find most or all of the Carranza troops with the Villistas and when that comes to pass the United States can proceed on the theory that all the armed forces in northern Mexico are hostile to the Americans and can act accordingly. The calling of the state militia and additional troops to the border has not been a moment too soon. All the armed forces that can be gathered ought to be concentrated along the border for work in Mexico that is daily growing more apparent.

Colonel George Harvey, editor of the North American Review, is for Hughes for the Republican presidential nomination. He says the people are for Hughes. It's none of our affair and probably we are not in the best position to size up the situation, but it is our observation that it is not the people but the politicians who want Hughes. His views on the issues of the day are unknown. His has been a position where he could not make known his views. Unlike Roosevelt or Root he has said nothing to alienate German support. Therefore the great majority of the Germans are for him, and because they think he can hold the German vote and will be acceptable to both the progressive and stand-pate factions of the party, the politicians of both elements are for him. The politicians are for anybody to beat Wilson. They see a chance with Hughes, therefore they are for him. The masses of the voters don't appear to have warmed up, very much toward any of the republican presidential aspirants. Desperate efforts are being made to stir up enthusiasm, but the rank and file won't enthuse. Root failed, Roosevelt is failing. It's Hughes turn now. To return to Colonel Harvey: It will be remembered that he supported President Wilson in 1912 until the latter told him that his support was an embarrassment. Now Colonel Harvey is a bitter critic of the administration.

A good many people who criticize the administration for its apparent lack of firmness in dealing with England do not know that England is only, in many instances, following out rules and practices laid down by the United States during the Civil War, which were then accepted by Great Britain and other powers and became a part of the body of international law. State Press in the Dallas News emphasizes this fact in answering the complaint of an Estelline farmer. He says:

From Estelline comes a protest against the assertion of State Press that there is no parallel between the President's warning of Americans to quit Mexico and his refusal to warn them to stay off of certain ships sailing the high seas. Our protester calls himself "a plain ordinary farmer," and states that he received S. P.'s comment in the form of a clipping. Evidently the Estelline brother is not a regular reader of The News. His comments concerning this country's foreign relations indicate that he patronizes those public prints which make a specialty of misinformation. In effect our critic charges this country with international conduct almost unanimous and traitorous. If he is an American he ought to be ashamed not only of his own prejudice, but of his willingness to ascribe to the chosen representatives of this republic such insincerity as would make them false to their honor and their oaths of office. "A vessel will leave a Southern port loaded with the products of the farmers, and Wilson allows it to be the legitimate prey of England," declares the Estelliner. Where on earth could a Texan have absorbed such foolishness? The demagogues, politicians or editorial, who disseminate fictions of that character, to be seized by narrow and credulous minds, deserve the severest reprehension. "Our State Department does not enforce, nor try to enforce any of our rights on the seas where it affects England," further declares the complainant. Does he realize that he is charging Woodrow Wilson and Robert Lansing with disloyalty to the United States? But we do not blame him so much as we blame those who, for purposes of their own, have confused and misled him. They have told him—and convinced him—that "freedom of the seas" means a refusal on the part of this country to recognize the British blockade of Germany. He has not been told, by his chosen instructors, that the right of blockade is one of the oldest of international laws. He has not been told that the right of blockade was more utilized and firmly defended, and enlarged, by the American Government in the Civil War than it ever was before. He has not been told that practically every large question at issue between this country and the allies today, as regards the blockade, was an issue at one time or another between the American Government and European Governments in the Civil War. He has not been told that many of the precedents England is following today were set by the American Government. He has not been reminded that, while Germany's "ominous toll" of American lives' rescues into the hundreds, England has not harmed one hair on any American's head. He has not been told that in numerous instances since this war began England has conceded the American contention and admitted its own error. He has not been told that all disputes concerning American cargoes seized by the blockade patrols have been carried to regularly authorized courts and the claimants afforded opportunity to appear and prove their rights. He has not been told that, despite the supposed onerous restrictions upon American commerce, American commerce was never so vast or so profitable as now. There are, to be sure, some issues between this Government and the English. It is undoubtedly true that the allied navies have exceeded in some instances their authority under international law. But these matters are in a state of settlement. Every right we have claimed or shall claim will be fairly adjudicated and probably in our favor, for we claim only our rights as we understand them. We have claimed nothing more from Germany, and Germany has granted nothing more.

CONVENTION OF DEMOCRATS HELD THIS AFTERNOON

WILSON ADMINISTRATION IS INDORSED IN RINGING TERMS AND DELEGATES INSTRUCTED TO SEND ONLY FRIENDS

ONE CLOSE DIVISION

Resolution That No Officeholder Should Be in Delegation Carries Narrowly—Judge Huff Indorsed for Delegate

Resolutions endorsing the administration of Woodrow Wilson in ringing terms and declaring a belief that it would be a calamity not only to America—but to the entire civilized world if he should fall to be nominated and elected were adopted by the Wichita county democrats assembled in county convention this afternoon. The Wichita county delegation to the state convention was instructed to see that none but true friends of Mr. Wilson were sent from Texas to the National convention. The resolution was adopted unanimously.

A resolution was also adopted instructing the Wichita county delegates to the state convention to vote for no delegate who is now either a state or a federal office holder was adopted by the narrow margin of one-sixth of a vote out of a total of 16 votes in the convention. A resolution was reported by the committee endorsing the administration of Hon. H. F. Looney as attorney general but was withdrawn as it was considered that the adoption of such a resolution might endanger the chances of Mr. Huff to become a delegate to the national convention.

County Chairman T. R. Boone presided as chairman of the convention. Ben. D. Donnell was elected secretary. Delegates from Precincts 1, 12 and 13 in the city of Wichita Falls and from Burk Burnett and Iowa Park were in attendance. Upon a motion the chair appointed the following committees:

To recommend delegates to the state convention, W. J. Bullock, J. T. Montgomery, R. L. Eeds and G. T. Smith.

Resolutions, P. A. Martin, A. H. Carrigan, M. L. Allday and J. F. Boyd.

The committee recommended the following delegates to the report being adopted: R. E. Huff, P. B. Cox, J. A. Kemp, J. C. Ward, W. W. Viles, Frank Clark, N. Henderson, W. J. Bullock, B. D. Donnell, August Loebstener, Frank Boyd, W. T. Willis.

The resolutions adopted were as follows:

To the Hon. T. R. Boone, County Chairman, and the members of the Democratic County Convention:

We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions, beg leave to submit to the following report:

1. We heartily endorse in all things the wise, patriotic, and conservative administration of Woodrow Wilson as president of the United States. We recognize him as the only logical candidate of the party to succeed himself and in the present strenuous times when the peace of the whole world is threatened, we believe it would be a calamity to not only America but to the entire civilized world if he should fail to be nominated and elected for his second term.

We therefore instruct our delegates to the State Convention to use all fair and honorable means to see that none but true friends of Mr. Wilson be sent to the National Convention to represent this state and that they be instructed to vote for him, first, last and all the time.

2. Exhibit "A" attached hereto.

3. Resolved that our delegates to the State Convention be instructed to support Hon. R. E. Huff of Wichita Falls, Texas as a delegate to the National Convention.

Respectfully Submitted,
P. A. MARTIN
Chairman

Whereas, one of the fundamental principles of Democracy has always been to let the people rule:

And Whereas, we believe in having the platform written at the National Convention and our candidates named by those who are in close touch with the voters themselves, as near as possible:

And Whereas we recognize the fact that there are many able and distinguished democrats fighting in the ranks who do not hold public office in Texas, that are justly entitled to recognition in the councils of the party; and believing that all the honors should not go to the office holding class:

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the democrats of Wichita County, in county Convention assembled that we instruct our delegates to the State Convention at San Antonio to vote for no delegate to the St. Louis Convention who is now, either a federal or state office holder in Texas.

An interesting contest resulted from the resolution against the sending of federal or state office holders to the national convention as delegates. J. T. Montgomery and John Kay spoke in opposition to this resolution. Mr.

Montgomery said the resolution was too sweeping. Mr. Kay said that while he had had not been a supporter of Governor Ferguson that the latter had shown in his valiant support of the administration a broadness of spirit that was entitled to recognition. Mr. Montgomery's amendment to the report of the committee to strike out the resolution was defeated by a vote of 8 7-12 to 8 5-12.

ELECTIONS ASKED FOR THREE BRIDGES

Commissioners Delay Action Pending Attorney General's Advice on Subject

Petitions for three bridge bonds aggregating $90,000 were presented to the county commissioners court this afternoon. Action upon the petitions was postponed pending an inquiry to the state attorney general's office to learn whether the bonds could be presented to the voters as a blanket proposal covering all three bridges. This inquiry was made by telegraph and an answer is expected tomorrow.

One petition asks for the submission of a $20,000 bond issue for a bridge across the Big Wichita between Electra and Dundee; another asks for a $20,000 bond issue for a bridge across the Wichita river at the southeast corner of J. D. Overby's land and at the southwest corner of W. H. Johnson's land in commissioners precinct No. 3. The third petition is for $50,000 bond issue for a bridge across the Wichita at the north end of Burnett street.

Each of the petitions bore many signatures. A committee of Wichita Falls citizens who appeared for the bridge at Burnett street expressed themselves as favorable to the other bridges as well.

PROGRESSIVES AND REPUBLICANS MEET

Name Delegates and Alternates to Respectively State Conventions of Parties

Delegates to state conventions were elected this afternoon at county conventions of both the republican and progressive parties. There were more than a score at the progressive meeting, while less than a dozen republicans attended.

The republican convention was called to order by C. S. McCullough of Iowa Park, John Moore being elected chairman and O. T. Bacon, secretary. Delegates to the state convention were chosen, being O. T. Bacon and C. S. McCullough, with W. H. Moreheiser and C. H. Van Horn as alternates. Delegates to the congressional convention which convenes here Saturday will be Q. T. Bacon and Joe Weidman, with John Moore and A. D. Terrell as alternates.

H. F. MacGregor of Houston was indorsed for national committeeman. No resolutions were adopted condemning the administration for the present prosperity and for keeping the country out of war. Asked why this was not done, one of the delegates replied:

"There was no one present with a great enough command of language to do justice to the situation."

The progressives were presided over by O. P. Maricle, with H. A. Baker as secretary. H. A. Baker, A. Zundelowitz, O. P. Maricle, W. H. Thatcher, John Moore and Ben Redinger were named as delegates to the state convention with J. W. Williams, H. L. Borden and Louie Reinhardt as alternates.

COMING WEDNESDAY

Kathlyn Williams in

"The Rosary"

Adapted from the play and book.

AT THE THEATRES

JOHN BARRYMORE AT THE EMPRESS TUESDAY

"Nearly a King" a Paramount will be the offering Wednesday at the Empress.

John Barrymore as one character is enough to insure the success of a play, but when he takes the part of the two principals in a production we may expect something extremely interesting; delightful comedy—in a word, "Barrymoreque!" "Nearly a King" embraces every phase of the playwright's art, from farce to melodrama, from sentiment to adventure; it combines with screamingly funny situations, moments of tenderest romance and scenes of gripping suspense. This novel comedy of romance and adventure would be delightful whoever the star, but it is doubly so with John Barrymore as both the Prince of Pulswana and Jack Barrymore.

KATHLYN WILLIAMS AT THE MAJESTIC WEDNESDAY

"The Rosary" the seven reel Selig Red Seal play will be shown at the Majestic Wednesday. Kathlyn Williams has the leading woman's part in this picture and in the other roles Charles Cleary, Wheeler Oakman and many other Selig favorites appear. The story is adapted from the well known play by Edward E. Ross and is filled with dramatic action and heart interest through the seven reels. Critics have been lavish in their praise of this film drama, some of them going so far as to say that it marked a new era in the production of motion pictures.

The Lydia Margaret. A play within a play is the dramatic medium through which Thomas H. Ince helps to develop logically the plot upon which he has built his newest Triangle play, "The Last Act" in which Bessie Barriscale is starred, showing today at the Lydia Margaret.

Miss Barriscale is an actress who obtains a good part when she needs it most and thereby gains great success and attendant social recognition. Into her life comes a prosperous lawyer, whose wife neglects him for her charities. It is by reproducing part of the play in which he stars, says that Ince reveals to her the folly and consequences of permitting a continuation of her relations with the lawyer.

Her faithful maid knows them and warns the wife of the lawyer. The latter comes to see the actress, who recognizes her as a woman who had previously befriended her. She is moved to give up her admirer in a spirit of sacrifice but hesitates until through her mind passes the great climax of her play. She sees what happens to the triangle in that make believe world and hesitates no longer. She even goes so far as to show the wife how easy it is to regain her husband's love; less time given to outside charities and more to making a happy home and congenial companion for her husband.

The Empress. Today's attraction at the Empress is "Then I'll Come Back to You" by Larry Evans author of "Then I'll Come Back to You" the latest feature release of the World Film Corporation, starring the universally popular Alice Brady, who has been termed by the Metropolitan critics America's greatest young comedienne. She has written many splendid and celebrated novels, but none which has been equal to his latest work. Briefly told, the story of "Then I'll Come Back to You" is as follows: Early in his journey on the long and rugged trail of life Steve O'Mara

DIRECTORS URGE NEW BOND ISSUES

SCHOOL, PAVING AND BRIDGE IMPROVEMENTS RECEIVE ENDORSEMENT TODAY

MEETING IS SHORT

Committee Named to Go Before Commissioners To Ask Bridge Bond Election

Unanimous endorsement of the $40,000 paving bond election and the $85,000 school improvements election was voiced by directors of the Chamber of Commerce, this morning in regular weekly session. The two issues will be voted upon Tuesday, May 23.

The directors also endorsed petitions for a bond election to build two county bridges, one at Wichita Falls and the other near Electra. A committee comprised of J. A. Kemp, R. E. Huff, J. S. Bridwell, Marvin Smith and J. B. Marlow was appointed to go before the county commissioners court this afternoon and urge that the election be called.

No other business of importance was taken up. The session was one of the shortest in several months.

The following directors were present: Messrs. Huff, Hines, Bland, O'Reilly, Bridwell, Boyd, Huey, Marlow, Noble, Hays, Ferguson, Pennington, Smith, Collman, Harvey, Gates, Ward, Kemp, Kay.

It is estimated that the love of woman possesses an uplifting and saving grace. Combining in his soul the keen intelligence of the city and the rugged instincts of the forest, where he was brought up, Steve fights the battle of the brave against seemingly overpowering obstacles. Barbara Allison, daughter of the chieftain of vast lumber interests, is the girl who has enslaved Steve's boyish inspirations, and who, in his matured years, still holds his heart. The building of a railroad spur leading into Allison's lumber property affords Steve the opportunity to demonstrate to Barbara the mettle of his manhood.

Face to face with Harrigan, a fight is had, which is won by Archie Wickersham, a love rival of Steve. Steve demonstrates in a terrific fist battle that his brawn is equal to his brain, and in one of the most thrilling hand to hand fights ever staged or screened on the screen, Steve saves the day for the railroad and frustrates Harrigan's plan to blow up a bridge and accomplish Steve's downfall. Barbara, who has been an unwilling witness to the fight, is horrified at Steve's supposed brutality and she flees from the northern wilderness. Through the long night Steve follows her and finally discovers her semi-conscious form. He carries her back to civilization and from this point on the story leads up to an exciting and tremendous climax in which Harrigan meets his deserts and Steve comes into his own.

The Majestic. "The Bondman" feature is on the program at the Majestic today. William Farnum in his dual role, first as the profligate leecher who is father to both the half brothers, then as Jason, the son born in Iceland, who is the principal figure throughout the last reels, is entirely suited to the character. His virile person and his mastery of facial expression have won Mr. Farnum a high place among screen actors. Dorothy Bernard as Gretha and Doris Woodbridge as Rachel give intelligent and sensitive interpretations of their roles. The other parts, too, are satisfactorily handled, several of the character impersonations especially so.

The Gem. Rosemary Theby and Harry Myers are starred at the Gem today in "The Model Husband" a multiple reel feature comedy. Also on the program is "The Blackmail" a drama of much interest and a Universal Animated Weekly.

CITY'S BUDGET IS ADOPTED MONDAY, TO NEED $108,000

ESTIMATES OF EXPENSES OF VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS COMPLETED—SEWER EXTENSIONS, PARK AND NEW EQUIPMENT

NO TAX RATE CHANGE

Remains at 87 1/2 Cents—Motor Street Sweeper, Combination Fire and Patrol Automobile and Other Needed Things May Be Purchased

It will cost over $108,000 not counting interest or paying to run the city government of Wichita Falls for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1917, if all the expenditures provided in the budget, adopted yesterday at a special meeting of the city council, are made. The budget covers all city expenses, and recommends a tax rate of 87 1/2 cents on the $100 valuation, this being the same as at present.

Some new equipment, important sewer extensions and a new park are among the items called for in the budget, but the adoption of the budget does not necessarily mean that all the expenditures will be made.

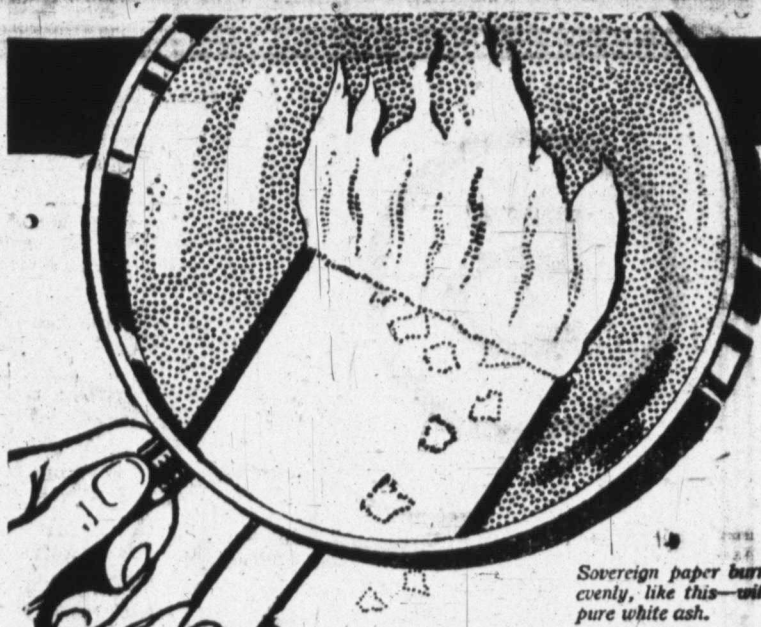

A motor street sweeper, an automobile for the fire chief, another for the street superintendent, an X-ray machine for the general hospital, ten new fire lights, ten new incandescent lights and five new fire hydrants are among the improvements called for in the budget. The cost of the motor street sweeper is placed at $3500 and it is declared that with this machine the city will be able to care for all the paved streets without having to add another crew, which would be necessary with the present type of equipment.

The car for the fire chief, which it is estimated would cost $500 would carry a chemical tank and other equipment and would be considered an adjunct to the fire department, but its use as a patrol wagon is also contemplated. If the car can be successfully equipped for fire purposes, it will mean a reduction of one cent in the tax rate. An automobile for the street superintendent, to cost $500 is also provided in the budget.

The budget includes an item of about $800 for a park in Floral Heights. This is to be a triangular plot at the corner of Grant and Tenth streets, which will be offered to the city for the cost of the paving. This offer has been accepted; no payment is made for the plot itself.

The total of $108,261.71 which it is estimated the city will have occasion to spend before March 31, 1917, is divided as follows:

- Not including bonds and not including street paving.
 - Salaries of elective officers and treasurer—$11,100.
 - City clerk's office—$505.26.
 - Sanitary and other miscellaneous expenses—$4,925.
 - Assessor and collector's office—$358.17.
 - City engineer's office—$275.
 - City inspector's office—$1,105.
 - City health officer—$420.
 - Treasurer's office—$52.25.
 - Committee on public utilities—$8,394.
 - Committee on public safety—$15,347.55.
 - Police department—$9,500.
 - Sanitary committee—$6,792.
 - Collection and disposal of garbage—$6,792.
 - Sewer extensions—$15,780.
 - Pure food department—$1,125.
 - Parks—$4,257.29.
 - Cemetery—$2,985.
 - Street committee—$20,476.
 - Hospital—$4,000.
 - Total—$108,261.71.
- The city expects to spend $40,000 as its share of additional street paving during the year, contingent upon success of the bond issue to be voted upon May 23. The sum of $20,082.50 will be required for interest and sinking fund.
- With running expenses estimated at $108,261.71 it is figured that a total of $121,357.98 will be available from all the various sources, so that there should be a balance on hand at the close of the year. The income is based upon an estimated tax valuation total of $8,000,000.
- The expenses include $11,100 for salaries as follows: Mayor $1200; five aldermen, $1200; city clerk, $1200; city attorney, $1500; assessor and collector, $1500; health officer, $420; city marshal, $1200; city engineer, $275; city recorder, $600; treasurer, $420. The expenses of the city clerk's office are estimated at $505.26, which includes election expenses, printing, publishing of ordinances, and like items. City and miscellaneous expenses total $4,925, in which is included $1000 for the river improvements. The expenses of the assessor and collector are estimated at $358.17, mostly for printing and office supplies. Expenses of other city officers are: Engineer, $275; inspector, $1105; health officer, $420; treasurer, $420. The expenses of the fire and police departments are estimated as follows:

BOY ON TRIAL AT HENRIETTA TODAY

Jay Wilson, Aged 17, Faces Murder Charge For Killing of School Teacher

The trial of Jay Wilson, a seventeen year old school boy, was scheduled to begin in the 20th district court at Henrietta, this afternoon. Wilson is charged with murder in connection with the killing of J. G. Wright, principal of the school at Newport, Clay county on January 28. The shooting of Wright followed a brief altercation in the school room, according to evidence adduced at the examining trial. Wilson and a girl, Estelle Williams, had turned in examination papers which did not appear to be in their own hand writing and Wright rebuked them, telling Wilson that he would complain to the latter's father. Wilson declared that he guessed it wouldn't make any difference or words to that effect, whereupon Wright started toward him; the shooting followed. Wright was shot once in the stomach and once in the face, dying about two days later. He made an ante-mortem statement.

Young Wilson was placed in jail, remaining there about ten days, when his examining trial was held. He was remanded without bail, but Judge R. E. Taylor, his attorney, instituted habeas corpus proceedings which were heard before Judge Bonner here; bail in the sum of $10,000 was allowed and was furnished.

Wilson is of a prominent family in the southern part of Clay county. The case has attracted much attention and it was expected that the trial would be followed by a large crowd.
