THE FRIONA STAR, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1955

Texas is getting some bad "publicity" with the articles in Look, Saturday Evening Post, etc., in a so-called expose of rotten politics of the administration in the Lone Star State.

We are for due publicity of facts, but we wonder if these facts haven't been all too cleverly handled by writers more interested in selling a story, maybe acting as a tool of an opposition faction, rather than being disciples from the educated North coming down to try to set us straight.

Couldn't help but notice the Texas relief map accompanying one of the more prominent articles. It showed tiers of mountains angling across the Texas terrain, one streaking across the Panhandle. Now we haven't been but in about two-thirds of the Texas counties, and we can't speak for the geography of the remaining, but we'll bet our collection of type like that we aren't livin' it up in the mountains! And we have tendency to wonder if the story wasn't thrown together in about the same haphazard, unreliable, ridiculous manner.

Just can't get too excited about such goings on.

The Lady Across the Alley says it's mighty nice for children to have pets until the pets start to have children!

Has anyone else wondered why as busy place as Friona, in the center of the irrigation area, has no large machine shop? Seems that would be the one needed business; believe at least one will locate here before many months.

We are again reminded that conscience doesn't keep you from doing anything wrong, it just keeps you from enjoying it!

A 7-pound, 7-ounce boy was born November 3 to Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Hughes. They have named him James Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Warren are the parents of a daughter born November 4. She weighed in at 7 pounds, 5 ounces, and has been named Kittie Lea.

Week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bracken were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Deery and Mrs. Elma Deery of Clarendia, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marsh and family and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Kemp all of Amarillo.

We scream about cotton surplus, poor price and diminishing markets, yet never give a second thought as we buy the many substitutes and synthetics. Can't blame it all on Benson, not by a long shot.

Still believe intelligent and forceful merchandising techniques would help if not cure many an ill.

Look for some interesting changes in the Reminder—we know you'll like it even better!

About the only union we hear much of in this agricultural locality is the telephone union.

Notice that the one in this area has notified the operating company that it is terminating present contract on December 31st.

And we imagine its demands are similar to those throughout the nation. This Communications Workers of America has indicated it will demand the following:

Reduction of the work week to not more than 35 hours with no reduction in basic weekly rate of pay. Reduction in length of hours for traffic central office employees.

A general wage increase including the establishment of a starting wage of not less than $1.25 per hour for all departments.

Establishment of company paid hospitalization and medical and surgical benefits.

And other demands! Wonder if all this will cause Miss Central to answer a bit more readily on our long distance calls!

Dad: "At her request you gave up drinking, smoking, dancing, gambling, and running around?" Son: "Yes, Dad, I did."

Dad: "Then why didn't you marry her?" Son: "Well, after all that reforming, decided I could do a lot better."

Farm Bureau Report

By RAYMOND EULER "Scotch Lite" Farm Bureau stickers are now red and white. You're welcome to pick them up at the office for safety in night driving. They reflect. Someone sent us a box of several hundred good quality pocket combs. We want to use as good as they were, so if you need a comb, or several for the family, just walk in the office and pick up some. They're free, in black or colors.

Gilbert Kaltwasser, E. T. Ford, Sterling Donaldson, Roy Grace, Ralph Smith, Jack Patterson, officers and directors, and A. J. Ellison and Raymond Euler, agents, were in Fort Worth the first part of this week attending the Texas Farm Bureau convention. There are probably others who went, but at this writing, we don't know who they are. Anyway, if you want to know how Farm Bureau policies are developed, ask one of these men who are your fellow farmers. They can tell you.

We feel this way about this subject: If your banker tries to tell you which church to attend, or which civic or farm organization to support before he starts, or continues to finance your farming operation, maybe you need a new banker. Collateral, character and interest should be enough basis for the loan you need.

E. T. Ford was elected vice-president of Farm Bureau at the last directors meeting. Directors thought he did a good job as commodity chairman last year, so they promoted him. He replaces T. E. Lovett, who has served well in that capacity the last two years. Roy V. Miller was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Chairmen of legislative, weed, commodities, and other committees will be named within a month, along with their committee members.

We are proud of the four new county directors who promptly announced their intentions of attending the state convention. Sterling Donaldson, Farwell, Jack Patterson,

Hospital Report Tells Of Biggest Year Yet; Growth is Phenominal

Annual meeting of the Parmer County Community Hospital stockholders was held Tuesday evening in Friona, with about 40 people present to hear the brightest financial report yet enabled in the local operation.

Total assets of the hospital were revealed at $167,546.02, with a net profit in 1955 more than doubling the previous 3-year average, and some $13,000 more than the 1954 report. Operating expenses were up, also, topping the $100,000 mark before the end of the audit period ending September 30.

Manager Jimmie Baxter pointed out other statistics that possibly more graphically illustrated the service scope of the hospital here. Out-patients for the year totaled 15,000; 149 babies were born and kept in the hospital for an aggregate of 695 days; 324 patients were hospitalized for 3037 days, and more than 70 prescriptions were filled for every day in the year.

Board President G. B. Buske presided over the meeting, introducing the auditor, Wm. R. Curtis, Certified Public Accountant of Amarillo, who commented most favorably on the financial structure of the hospital.

Dr. Paul Spring told of the heavy drain on present hospital staff and facilities, pointing to need and plans for the new hospital building now under construction. Completion date was not announced, but some individuals predicted off-hand that the building would be ready in the late fall of next year.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Luttrell spent last week-end in Borger visiting Mrs. Gordon Teets. Returning home they stopped at White Deer and visited with Mr. and Mrs. James T. Gulnn, Jr., and children. While they were away from home, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Luttrell cared for Mr. Ike Luttrell.

Parent-Teachers Meet Thursday

The Friona Parent-Teachers Association will meet Thursday night, November 17, in the school auditorium at 8 o'clock, and Mrs. Nelson Welch, president of the organization, urges all parents to attend this meeting.

Following the business session, the parents and teachers will meet in groups and discuss the children's individual school problems. Parents are also urged to visit the school and become better acquainted with the system and the teachers.

$125,000 Loss Estimated In Bovina Elevator Fire

Smoldering fire in the 50,000 bu. wood and iron unit of the Bovina Wheat Growers elevator early this morning broke into the open to destroy most of the milo and kafir stored in that structure.

A. C. Teter, firm manager, said that damage to the grain could reach a $75,000 figure, with the building loss probably passing the $50,000 mark.

Soon after discovery of the fire at 7 a. m., fire departments from neighboring towns converged on the scene to bring the blaze under measurable control within a 2-hour period. Fire departments were represented from Friona, Farwell, the Clovis Air Base, Hereford and Bovina.

Otis Huggins and Howard Ellison managed to scale the adjacent concrete elevator, hauling hoses with them, enabling the firemen to direct streams of spray into the burning building from above. The firemen remained at this post some 100 feet above the ground, throughout the morning. Increasing winds necessitated the constant control of the smoking grain and elevator beams. Hereford Firechief Earl Phillips said at noon three fires still were smoldering deep in the grain.

The newly enlarged Bovina water plant supplied sufficient water for continuous use of two hoses, a marked contrast to previous experiences there.

Teter had opened the elevator office prior to discovery of the fire, without observing anything amiss. Santa Fe workmen and some stockyard employees also had been working nearby, loading cattle in the early morning hours, without discovering the fire.

The fire started from unknown sources in the headhouse of the old structure, blazing into the open

Cotton Picking Gains Headway in County

Parmer County grain harvest practically is completed this week, with relatively few truckloads still moving to elevators here, and local attention is focused on the cotton picking gaining headway throughout the area.

Check late today revealed 4400 bales of cotton ginned by the four gins in immediate Friona area, with the ginner's estimating from 20 to 30 percent of the cotton picked.

Though additional laborers could be used in the cotton fields, the situation is less acute than might be expected; the recent freezing temperatures defoliating the cotton for easy handling by mechanical strippers. More strippers are noted in area fields than in any previous season.

Yields have varied greatly, many fields with 1 to 2 bales per acre, yet a surprising number with lighter yields with bolls failing to open. Among the higher yields noted by ginner's have been those of O. D. Bingham, west of Hub, with at least 1 1/2 bale to the acre, Bee Westbrook from north of Friona with a similar yield, and a large number exceeding a bale per acre.

Hospital Benefits From Friona Club Activities

The Parmer County Community Hospital building fund received almost $480 from the Lions Club broom sale and the Modern Study Club rummage sale, held last week.

The two donations were for almost the same amount—$230 from the Lions Club and $242 from the Modern Study Club.

Messenger has lived in Parmer County all of his life, and is well-known in this area. He will maintain his present office in the Legion building, and continue in the accounting business also.

WEATHER

Cold north winds brought Friona temperatures to below 20 degrees over the weekend, with warmer weather following.

Forecast today, however, is for snow and 17 degree weather to blow in from the north tonight and Saturday.

The ground was covered with a light snowfall over the area Monday afternoon, with much heavier falls to the north and northeast. Freezing temperatures followed to make driving conditions extremely hazardous Monday night and early Tuesday, though no casualties were reported in the vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baxter were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mastin.

4-H Achievement Day Is Observed in Texas

COLLEGE STATION — The observance of Achievement Day provides opportunity for 4-H members to tell the story of their club program and accomplishments for the past year, says Floyd Lynch, state 4-H leader.

The 120,000 4-H club members in Texas will join with the more than 2,000,000 members in the nation on November 12 in recognizing special achievements. County and local events will include the recognition of county and state 4-H winners in the many award programs conducted in Texas. Banquets, special programs and publicity through newspapers, radio programs and television will be used to honor outstanding 4-H members, their parents, local adult leaders and others who sponsor 4-H programs and activities.

Some clubs will be unable to conduct a special program on November 12 but will later participate in a county-wide achievement event, the state leader said.

Lynch says the purpose of Achievement Day may vary between clubs in different parts of the state but generally the 4-H members are out to report on last year's record and sell 4-H club work to the public. They'll be making special effort to let parents of both members and nonmembers know what 4-H club work offers to youth and to improved living in rural areas. In many instances during the next few weeks, 4-H members will be guest speakers before civi clubs, school groups, farm organizations and other groups interested in youth programs.

It all adds up, says Lynch, to a day of recognition for the 4-H members and all the other folks who help them to "make the best better."

December 1 Set As Safe Driving Day

December 1 has been designated as S-D Day (Safe Driving Day), nationally, by President Eisenhower in an effort to increase public awareness of the possibility of making reductions in traffic accidents.

In support of the program, Governor Shivers has issued a similar state-wide proclamation and has called upon the citizens of Texas to join in a cooperative effort for greater traffic safety both on December 1 and throughout each day of the year.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, joined in the Governor's appeal and emphasized that S-D Day, of itself, "is not an end, but a means to an end."

"If every individual motorist and pedestrian in Texas will drive and walk with strict obedience to the traffic laws on December 1," Garrison said, "we will be assured of a death-free, accident-free period in so far as traffic is concerned."

"And," he added, "if we can do it on this one specific day we will have proven that it can be done during the other 364 days of the year. S-D Day is not an end, but a means to an end of the death and destruction on our streets and highways."

The special emphasis program aimed at marking a 24-hour period without traffic accidents will begin on November 20 and culminate in S-D Day on December 1.

FRIONA SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Dear Uncle Bert,

The big news this week is the football banquet to be held November 12, after the game with Springlake on November 11. I hear it will probably be one of the nicest banquets of the year.

We played a good game with Sudan at Sudan, Friday night, but we lost 41-7. Sudan crowned their football queen in a very impressive ceremony.

Fifteen Student Congress members enjoyed a trip to Odessa last Saturday to attend the South Plains Association of Student Council conference. We all loved it. We got some swell ideas for better relationships within the school.

The Thespian play is coming right along. We should be able to enjoy it before Christmas. There has been some change in the cast. One of the male parts is vacant and I haven't heard as yet who has been cast in the part.

LOST AND FOUND

The lost and found department in the elementary school is overflowing, according to Principal John LeMay. There is a large number of articles that haven't been claimed, so if your child has last an article please have him check by the office with Mr. LeMay.

The Pep Club is sponsoring a bake sale Saturday, November 12. You want to be sure, Uncle Bert, to pick up some cakes and pies. Not only will you enjoy them but you will be helping the Pep Club a great deal.

Last week was National FHA Week. Our chapter attended a supper at Farwell on Monday night. We really enjoyed it. During FHA Week, we have had Tag Day, Courtesy to Teachers Day, Clean-Up Day, and others.

Our teacher, Miss Rymer, is wearing a new diamond on her third finger, left hand. We wish her all the luck in the world.

We are discussing the proposed Youth Center, at school. I sure hope we can have one, as I think it would be a very good thing. Oh well, I guess we will know soon.

The Pep Club pictures are supposed to be made Thursday for the annual. I hope the girls don't forget to wear their uniforms. Of course, it would be just like me to forget to wear mine.

How did you enjoy the first snow of the season, Uncle Bert? Wasn't that keen? I really loved it, and I'll be glad when all the crops are in so we can really enjoy it.

Well, better get my algebra now. Bye, Uncle Bert.

Love, Big Minnie.

FRIONA PARMER COUNTY TEXAS

By VERN SANFORD

Texas Press Association

AUSTIN. — One thousand education-minded Texans, meeting in Austin, selected "No federal aid, no federal control" as the theme they will take to the White House Conference on Education, November 28 through December 1.

Texas is one of five states that refuses federal funds for staging state and local education conferences.

Gov. Allan Shivers told the delegates to the conference that Texas did not seek federal aid to education. Further aid to the school system, he said, should come from the state, but without strings of control from the state level upon the local districts.

Rather than federal aid, one leader suggested "relief from the stupendous federal tax burden" to allow states more latitude for school financing. A re-examination of the state's total tax structure in search of additional school revenue was proposed.

Other problems on which the Texas Conference on Education exchanged ideas were: 12-months-a-year or six-days-a-week use of buildings; attracting and holding good teachers; keeping curricula up-to-date.

A consensus of their findings will be compiled into a report to be taken to the White House Conference.

Court Re-Considers

Texas Court of Criminal Appeals is, for the second time, pondering the legality of the Duval County grand jury which returned 104 indictments against county officials.

This time it also is considering charges by Attorney General John Ben Shepperd that it "misrepresented facts" on its October 5 decision nullifying the grand jury's action.

In a vigorous argument for reversal, Shepperd contended the majority opinion reflected on the "propriety and motives" of himself and Judge A. S. Broadfoot. He referred specifically to statements concerning alleged collusion between himself and Broadfoot.

Judge Broadfoot dismissed one grand jury in Duval County and made arrangements for a new one, which the high court held illegal. Shepperd's office assisted with the South Texas investigation.

Master Plan Outlined

Visitors to Austin will have new sights to see in the Capitol area before long.

Guiding factors for the creation of a "state government center" with the Capitol building at the core, have been outlined by a professional planning firm.

A new state courts building and a state office building are to be constructed in the area soon. In locating them the planning specialists suggested:

1. That none should tower over the Capitol dome.
2. That off-street parking be provided.
3. That easy pedestrian access be provided for all buildings.
4. That further commercial development in the Capitol area be controlled.

Land Sales Reopened

Requests from over 3,000 veterans were included in a drawing which officially reopened the Texas land program last week.

The first 300 drawn were to receive application forms immediately. The remainder will receive notices of where they stand in line and will receive their application forms at a later date.

Land Office Commissioner J. Earl Rudder looked on as Charles L. Downey, department commander of the American Legion, drew the name of Olin R. Talley of Buffalo Gap as the first on the application list.

Rudder said careful measures are being taken to prevent favoritism. This was one of the factors revealed in the investigations which caused the program to be shut down last November.

Skelton Elected

In electing him chairman of the Texas Democratic Advisory Committee, Byron Skelton of Temple told the DAC they had, in effect, made him chairman of the Democratic Party in Texas.

A resolution at the DAC meeting in Waco, to leave the national committeeman post vacant until the May convention was rejected. In its place, the committee adopted a resolution setting forth "prime qualifications" for a national committeeman and committee woman.

No direct reference was made to the choice of Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, recently named committeeman. Ramsey's appointment had the approval of Speaker Sam Rayburn, who organized the DAC to fill the place of national committeeman after Wright Morrow was ousted from the post.

Johnon Dinner Planned

If plans materialize, a testimonial dinner for U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson will be given in Austin in December.

Meantime, there have been suggestions to name Johnson Texas "favorite son" candidate for president. Johnson said he had no intention of being proposed as a candidate. He said he had every hope of forming a legislative program in Congress which can be carried to the people. "If we do our job in Congress right, the election will take care of itself."

Texas Schools Praised

A letter to Governor Shivers from Maj. Gen. John G. Van Houten at Fort Gibson, Colo., praised Texas' public school system.

General Van Houten said outstanding trainees are selected from approximately 1,500 newly inducted soldiers each month in the basic training program.

"To date the greatest number of outstanding trainees selected have come from the state of Texas," the general said. He is commanding general of the Eighth Infantry Division.

Congressman Rogers Tells of Russia Trip

To the People of the 18th District: BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN

It would be most difficult to express in words the feeling one has as he gets on an airplane in Helsinki, Finland, for conveyance to a point behind the Iron Curtain. It can certainly be said that the entire operation is surrounded by the deepest mystery and this passenger felt somewhat like he was taking part in a foreign intrigue episode. In any event you are in a state of suspended animation not knowing what will happen next.

The airport at Helsinki is an excellent installation and is served by several airlines connecting with the Western countries. Its only connection with Russia and the Eastern countries is by the airline owned by the USSR and named Aeroflot. The Finnish Airlines are not allowed to go into Russia nor are any other airlines from the Western countries. You may fly any of the several airlines serving Helsinki but when you reach this destination you must change over to Aeroflot if you are authorized to see behind the Curtain. We were scheduled to depart Helsinki at 3:15 p. m. for Leningrad. We were all waiting for the arrival of the Russian planes hoping to get some pictures. I had a movie camera and was all prepared to take pictures. Instead of one plane, there were three, all the same type. They carried the Russia emblem and came in almost simultaneously. I began shooting pictures and discovered my camera wouldn't operate. I took a quick glance inside and discovered that I had done something wrong and the entire roll of film was a twisted mass and the camera had jammed. I began to hunt for a dark room where I could take the film out and save as much as possible. The only place I could find that was not brilliantly lighted was the men's rest room. I can testify without fear of successful contradiction that trying to remove twisted film from a jammed camera in a Finnish men's room is no pleasant task. I had the door locked and almost got in trouble with some of the other passengers. I finally got some of the other film out and tried to insert another roll but the camera had definitely jammed and I missed getting my pictures of the first Russia plane I had seen. So I put the camera in the case and tried to forget it.

After approval of our papers we were admitted to a room from which we were later to depart for the airplane. This room was filled with many types of people who were travelling to or returning to the Soviet Union. After another round of processing we were led to the plane by a Russian hostess. One member of the party started around the front of the plane and the hostess with the speed of a quarterback herded him back into the fold and left no doubt in his mind that he was to proceed where she led. The plane was very similar to a DC-3 type of plane, that is two motored and about the same size. Some of these planes have tricycle landing gear and others have a tail wheel exactly like the DC-3. The furnishings inside of the plane were typically Russian in design, color and texture. Much different from the furnishings in our planes. There were no seat belts which disturbed us to some extent. As soon as we were aboard, the motors were started and we took off without any further ado. There were no announcements or instructions of any kind, in fact we did not see anyone nor did we hear from anyone. We were quickly airborne and climbed to about 3,000 feet. The trip in was uneventful except that we undertook to determine exactly when we passed behind the Iron Curtain. We watched the border but were unable to discern it due to a haze. However, we were able to approximate our crossing by time. There was nothing unusual about the countryside except that there were no cities or towns in sight and we did not see any for a long time.

As we approached Leningrad we noted many railroad tracks and many trains. Where they were going I do not know, but most of them appeared to be freight trains. We landed in Leningrad in due order where we were met by some Russian officials both men and women. The airport building is about 200 yards from the landing field. The two are connected by a wide flower bordered concrete strip. We were escorted into the building and into a special room where our baggage was examined by customs officials and we were required to sign certain declarations as to what we were carrying. One of the officials spoke English very well and I asked him a number of questions. One was, "Where and how do you buy any articles that you might desire?" His answer was, "You buy anything you want anywhere at any time." As an afterthought he added the following question, "Not so in the United States?" to which I replied, "Oh, yes. There are so many things to buy and so many places to buy them in the United States that all you need is money." He grinned as though he thoroughly understood the problem.

This was our introduction to the mysteries behind the Iron Curtain and from that point many interesting events took place which I will try to outline in detail in subsequent newsletters.

GUARANTEED... the new multi-viscosity motor oils will do more to improve the winter starting characteristics and extend the life of your car than any other petroleum lubricating oil.

It's a scientific fact... most engine wear occurs:

1. During the warm-up period before ordinary oil thins down enough to circulate freely.
2. At high operating temperatures when ordinary oil thins down too much to give proper protection.

It's a scientific fact... Shamrock multi-viscosity motor oil stops this wear because:

1. It circulates freely in temperatures as low as 30° to 35°F below zero.
2. It retains its viscosity (thickness) at highest operating temperatures.

Improve the performance and extend the life of your car with Shamrock 5W-20 or 10W-30 motor oil. Ask for them at the Shamrock station near you.

QUALITY YOU CAN MEASURE BY YOUR CAR'S PERFORMANCE

"WE WIRED FOR HELP!"

says Mr. Roland Champion, 808 S. Plains Park Drive, Roswell, N. M.

Wiring — good wiring — is an investment that never depreciates. And good wiring never costs less than it does when you build.

As H. D. Danenberg, who wired the Champion's home, points out: "With their present system, they won't have any expensive additions in the future."

Whether you build or remodel, be sure that wiring is part of your plan — if you plan to live the modern way.

The lifeline of modern living is your home electrical wiring system. When it's up-to-date, you're up-to-date.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Champion of Roswell know the pleasures of modern electric living, for their home is wired for today — and the future.

Mr. Champion says: "With our home wired for our needs, we live very comfortably, and certainly conveniently."

Mrs. Champion gets right down to cases. "Our wiring lets us have an electric range. I wouldn't have any other kind. The outlets in the kitchen are so handy, and in the living room they're just right for the arrangement of furniture. Our wiring serves us from daylight to dark, right around the clock."

For pleasant living — electric living — wire ahead in your home now.

What Your Children Are Doing This Week:

1-B—MRS. STARK
 We have started our Thanksgiving decorations for our room. We have some very good free hand turkey posters up.
 We are reading in our fifth little book, and very well.
 Our new Think and Do work books are here and we have started working on them.
 Maria Garcia moved away so our enrollment at present is just thirty.

1-C—MRS. BROWN
 We have started making our Thanksgiving things and preparing our room for Thanksgiving.
 We received new work books this week and have started working on them.
 We have had several students absent because of illness.

2-A—MISS HANSON
 Six of our mothers together with Mrs. Grubbs, one of our room mothers, gave us a very nice Halloween party. Since it was Diana's birthday, her mother, Mrs. Martinez, brought a beautiful birthday cake. We had fun.
 On Halloween night most of us went "trick and treating" and were able to collect 15 pounds of nuts and candy for the children in a hospital in Abilene. We won the $10 prize offered by the local PTA. We are happy to have won it, but it made us even happier to have a small part in bringing a little bit of happiness to the little children who could not go "trick or treating."

2-C—MRS. HAYES
 We were sorry that Mamie Sue Underwood had to move to Littlefield. We hope she will get to be back with us after Christmas.
 Tim Herring celebrated his eighth birthday Tuesday, November 9.

3-A—MISS WALKER
 We have commenced the study of various fruits, and we have brought fruit from our homes and made a display in our room. We have also started our study about the "Cave Man."

3-B—MRS. PHILLIPS
 From our Weekly Reader this week, we learned that there is a new movie that we will want to see. It is about animals, and it came from another country called Sweden. This movie won a prize. Next week is Book Week.
 Today we are drawing pictures of book characters and in language we are to make riddles about book characters for the rest of the class to guess.

3-C—MRS. WEATHERFORD
 We enjoyed the snow on Monday.

 While there, Carl went deep sea fishing and caught an 18-pound kingfish, the largest caught by the convention fishermen. We was awarded the first place trophy, which he brought home with him.

TAPE USED IN READING CLASS
 The tape recorded purchased last year by the Friona P-TA and school is being put to use this week in the Elementary classes at school.
 The recorder is being used in the reading classes, with the child hearing his own voice in the playback. This is used to correct speech defects and improve the reading skills.

For '56

New Sweep-ahead styling

New Sizzle to match

WHAT YOU SEE pictured here is Buick for 1956—and from the gleam of that "V" grille to the sassy slant of the tail fins, you can see it has no equal for gorgeous good looks.

But what you see from the curb is fully matched by what you feel at the wheel—and that's gospel. For this Buick gets its zoom from a mighty 322-cubic-inch V8 engine lofted to a new record high in power and compression—and from a spectacular new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

What's new in the '56 Dynaflo is this: in the first inch of pedal travel—and not with wide-open throttle—your Buick moves from standstill to cruise with silk-smooth, instant and certain getaway.

But comes a sudden need for safety-surge action to get out of a tight spot—and you floor the pedal to switch the pitch of this airplane-inspired transmission. Instantly and smoothly, you're at full-power acceleration—a thrill beyond words.

There's a lot more we could tell you about these great new Buicks—about brilliant new interiors, a superb new ride with a safer "sense of direction," and new safety features everywhere you look.

But the best way to get the whole story of the best Buick yet is right at the wheel of one of these '56 beauties. So drop in this week and do just that.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Randall, Armstrong Counties Are Added to Water Resources Survey List

The portions of Randall and Armstrong Counties within the boundary of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District have been combined on the accompanying maps. About 275,000 acres of Randall County and about 39,000 acres of Armstrong County are within the boundary of the Water District.

The area within the Water District in Randall County contains about 3,380,000 acre-feet of ground water in storage available for pumping. In Armstrong County the amount of ground water in storage available for pumping is about 279,000 acre-feet.

The map in plate 1 shows the thickness of the water-bearing strata between the water table and the redbeds in 1938 before an appreciable amount of water had been pumped from the reservoir. The map in plate 2 shows the decline of the water table from the spring of 1938 to January, 1955.

The volume of water remaining in the underground reservoir was determined by subtracting the volume of material unwatered since 1938 from the total volume of saturated material in 1938 and multiplying the remainder by the coefficient of storage of 15 per cent.

These data show about 3,940,000 acre-feet of water was in storage in Randall County available for pumping in 1938, and about 557,000 acre-feet of water, or about 14 per cent, has been removed from storage since 1938.

In Armstrong County, the data show about 325,000 acre-feet of water was in storage available for pumping in 1938, and about 46,000 acre-feet of water, or about 14 per cent, has been removed from storage since 1938.

The approximate quantity of underground water in storage, available for pumping, beneath an individual farm may be determined by multiplying the number of acres in the farm by the thickness of the water-bearing strata underlying the farm and then multiplying by the storage coefficient of 15 per cent.

Suppose the farm consists of 160 acres and has 150 feet of water-bearing strata underlying it, then 160 acres x 150 feet x 0.15 per cent equals 3600 acre-feet of water available for pumping. An acre-foot of water is the quantity to cover one acre to a depth of one foot, and it is also equal to 43,560 cubic feet or 325,829 gallons.

An individual may use this information to determine, within reasonable limits, how long the quantity of underground water in storage beneath his farm will last at any annual rate of withdrawal. This assumes, of course, that his neighbors pump a comparable amount of water per acre on their farms.

These maps and studies of this type are parts of the regular hydrological work in progress by the staff of the Water District. Similar maps and information will be prepared, as rapidly as practicable, for all the counties within the Water District. Maps of Deaf Smith, Parmer, Castro, Potter, Randall and Armstrong Counties are now available.

YOUR RIGHTS IN COURT

The average person has only a vague idea concerning his rights in court. When unjustly charged with an offense, even a simple traffic violation, he is prone to feel that all is lost. Our laws, however, provide a number of protections to insure against conviction of the innocent.

Probably the most fundamental right of the accused is summarized in the well-known adage, "Every man is innocent until proved guilty." It is up to the prosecuting authorities to prove that the person on trial is guilty—and not the obligation of the person accused to prove that he is innocent. The prosecution must prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, or you will be acquitted. The mere fact that you have been given a ticket or accused of a crime is not even evidence of guilt.

Another important protection is the right to have a witness whose testimony you may need subpoenaed to appear in court and testify. Many people are reluctant to go to court when their own rights are involved, and unless you had a means for compelling their attendance and testimony, you often would be unable to prove the facts necessary for success in your case.

It is the duty of every citizen to testify if he has information important to a law suit and is called upon to do so. The courts can and do enforce attendance in court and the giving of testimony.

Certain other safeguards are valuable to you. A person may refuse to testify in any proceeding if he has a reasonable belief that his testimony could be used as a basis of a criminal proceeding against him. This does not mean, of course, that a confession given freely and voluntarily cannot be used in evidence.

But it does mean that an accused cannot be compelled to take the witness stand. Nor can his failure to testify be commented upon by the prosecution.

These are but a few examples of the numerous safeguards our courts provide to protect the innocent against false accusations of crime. But many of these rights would be valueless without the assistance of a lawyer, who has been schooled in legal principles and rules of statute or decision involved, to invoke these rights. The "right to counsel" must be granted to every accused person brought before any court in the state. In capital cases, if an accused person cannot afford to pay for legal counsel and desires it, the court must appoint a lawyer to represent him.

Every person charged with an infraction of the law has the right to consult counsel before making any plea. This applies to cases in every court—including justice of the peace courts, municipal courts, traffic courts and district courts. It does little good to consult a lawyer after you have pleaded guilty and paid the fine, for then the damage has been done.

The courts are open to you any time one of your legal rights has been denied or any of your property has been unlawfully taken. This is one of your most precious rights. The courts are the only peaceful means of enforcing your rights.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)
