Fair Park Favored As Site For Soil Erosion Camp

Here yesterday on an inspection tour, representing the U. S. Army, Capt. Wadden, Infantry, and Capt. B. R. Galbrath, Medical Corps gave their approval to the local Committee for location of Coryell County's Soil Erosion Camp at the Fair Park, near the depot.

Inspection was made of several suggested places, and the Fair Park was selected above them all, on account of the proximity to the necessary utilities, including, gas, lights, telephone, water, and on account of the good drainage, shade, and recreational facilities. Also, the closeness to a well organized school system had its affect in the selection of this site. Also civilian technical employees who are married will be able better to secure housing for their families.

Selection, however, was made without the approval of E. T. Nagle, Camp Administrative Officer of the Regional Office in Lindale, Texas, who could not be here on account of an inspection tour being made in East Texas. Due to the recommendations by the Army Officers, it is thought, that approval is certain by Mr. Nagle, and will prove to be only a formality necessary to complete the official locating of the camp. Mr. Nagle will probably be reached today by telephone for formal approval, and it will be unnecessary for him to view the site, since he was formerly County Agent here.

The camp will probably have 200 to 240 men, with two line officers, one full term medical officer, and about 15 or 20 other technical men such as engineers, and other non-enlisted and non-military men.

Directors of the Fair Association signed an option on the fair grounds and the local committee has agreed to meet the requirements including the conditioning of the camp site.

Both Capt. Wadden and Capt. Galbrath expressed a desire that the softball diamond not be disturbed and assured Judge Robert Brown that the men in the camp would be interested in entering the Softball League.

Of interest to local people, is the fact that Capt. Galbrath was a classmate of Dr. K. R. Jones of Gatesville while they were in school at Baylor Medical College in Dallas.

Alvin Shirley of Dallas was a visitor in Gatesville Thursday.

"Steve Brody" and Channel Swim Made By Local Swimmers

Encouraged by the antics of channel swimmers, swimming marathons, Steve Brody, in his famous jump off Brooklyn Bridge, a little hot weather, and a full fast river, a full and fast-er noon, Hazen Ament, R. E. West and Nesbitt Ward, Wednesday afternoon, first took to the air, then to the water and finished up at Fauntleroy's crossing, having traversed the distance from the bridge over Highway 7 over the Leon.

They jumped off the top of the bridge, and, following the swift moving flood waters of the Leon, while it was out of banks, swam, floated and kicked their way to Fauntleroy's, where Y. J. Honeycut waited to welcome the tired swimmers.

FLASH! BONUS BILL FAILS

(Special to the News)

The Senate by a vote of 40 to 54 upheld President Roosevelt's veto of the Patman inflationary bill. The vote came late Thursday afternoon after heated hours of debate. Senator Thomas (Dem) of Oklahoma led the fight for bill against the Administration leaders, Robinson, Harrison, Byrnes and Connally.

The House of Representatives had voted 322 to 98 to override the President's veto after he had personally delivered his veto message to a joint session of Congress, leaving the decision squarely up to the Senate.

The Administration won seven votes since the Senate passed the bill the first time by a vote of 55 to 33. 33 votes would have sustained the veto of the President.

Late Thursday the Patman forces refused to concede defeat. There was talk of forcing the President to pay bonus out of the giant $4,000,000,000 (billions) work-relief fund.

Baptists Delighted As Foundation Work Begins On $40,000 Church

Monday morning found contractor C. C. Ramsey with his two foreman on the ground ready to begin foundation construction of the new Baptist Church structure. Carpenter foreman W. R. Turner is busy constructing necessary store rooms for cement and other materials. Labor foreman Jodie Fleeman is preparing for foundation building as soon as weather conditions permit. This has been hindered by the constant rising of water in all excavations.

Men gather each day as work hours approach ready to begin at a moment's notice. Gatesville Baptists and their friends are delighted with the prospects of the new church building.

PETITION FOR MOVING BRIDGE CIRCULATING

Petitioning the commissioners and other authorities to move the Straw's Mill Bridge over the Leon to the site of the old mill, at Straw's Mill crossing is being circulated here.

The reasons were brought to light more forcibly by the recent flood condition of the river. For a week, crossing has been stopped at this point, and two mail routes out of Gatesville. Besides, this crossing leads to very important part of the county and is also, one of the leading ways out of the country to southern points.

Approximately 150 signers have already signified that this bridge should be moved.

Local Farm Delegates to Washington Hear Roosevelt Defend Farm Program

John L. Voss, D. I. Glass, and P. H. Martin, Coryell county delegates sent on the Farmers' Special to Washington to pledge allegiance to the AAA were greeted last week by President Roosevelt with 4,500 other farmers from 26 agricultural states. The purpose of the pilgrimage was to show the appreciation of the farmers to the heads of the AAA. The Coryell county delegation was instructed to favor continuation of the processing tax and express the farmers' confidence in the AAA programs and in President Roosevelt.

Nearly 1,000 of the farmers were from Texas. Monday banquet of the Texas delegation was held at the Mayfair Hotel. President Roosevelt and his Administration were assured of the support of Texas and Texas farmers.

A giant mass meeting was held at Constitution Hall Monday. In the evening the farmers were addressed by President Roosevelt on the South grounds of the White House.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace addressed the assemblage and was greeted with applause. Chairman W. H. Robertson of Alabama introduced the Representatives and Senators interested in the agriculture program. Senator Theodore G. Bilbo of Mississippi made his bow in a mist of long applause. The hundreds of cotton farmers present cheered for five minutes at the appearance of Senator Bankhead, Co-author of the Cotton Control Act.

The Texas delegation was delayed in transit from St. Louis and reached the Hall after proceedings had begun. They entered the hall singing loudly "The Eyes of Texas," interrupting the address of Rep. Dean of Iowa, who explained the corn-hog program.

Wallace in his address told the farmers that the processing tax was the planter's best protection from the "processors," middle-men and liberty leaguers, who are not thinking first, last and always, about farm income.

The farmers to a man declared their meeting was a "dirt-farm uprising," no inspiration from Washington.

"We like the AAA. We like the Bankhead act, too," say the farmers.

President Roosevelt was enthusiastically greeted by the delegates when he appeared to address them on the White House lawn. The President assured the farmers that no food would be destroyed nor cotton plowed under this year. "It is high time for you and me to carry by education, knowledge of the fact that not a single program of the AAA contemplated the destruction of an acre of feed crops in the United States, in spite of what you may read or be told by people who have special axes to grind.

"We are not plowing under cotton this year, we did not plow it under in 1934, and we only plowed some of it under in 1933 because the agricultural adjustments act was passed after a huge crop of cotton was already in the ground.

"It is high time for us to repeat on every occasion that we have not wastefully destroyed food in any form. It is true that the relief administration has purchased hundreds of tons of foodstuffs to feed the needy and hungry who are on the relief rolls in the United States today."

Thirty-sixth annual Commencement exercises of Gatesville High School were held Tuesday night at the gymnasium with Judge S. P. Sadler of Dallas delivering the address. Out of a total of ninety-five graduates ninety-one were present. Superintendent Frank L. Williams presented the diplomas.

Honor graduates of the High School received medals or scholarships who were presented by D. R. McClellan, president of the School Board, and Principal E. D. Shelton of the Elementary School at the exercises. Vivian Andrews was valedictorian with an average for the year of 93.55, Thomas Bone was the highest honor boy with a term average of 93.48. Robert Cook was the second honor boy with 92.87. Others who made grades of 90 or above are Louise Holland, Eva Louise Mack, James Scott, Freda Wood, Margaret Gilder, James Webb, Elizabeth Lindenberg, Maxwell Holloway, Elaine Smith, Tinley Perry, Edwin Prewitt, Pearl Powell, Rosalie Boyd, and Alice Earl Anderson.

Medals were awarded to Martha Bche, elementary school graduate; Nettie Jane Thomson, freshman; Jack Reesing, Sophomore; Brack Garrett Curry, junior; Jacqueline West, senior, for having the best all-round average in the respective classes. Grades, extra-curricula activities and personality were used as a basis for selection of those for these medals.

The following program was presented: Processional, by the High School Orchestra, directed by D. W. Diserens; Invocation, by the Reverend James M. McLean, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Gatesville. Presentation of the class of 1935 was as follows: The President's Address, Durward Taylor; "The High School of 1935" by James Scott; "Development of the Secondary Schools," by Freda Wood; quartette, Frances Goodall, Alice Earl Anderson, Chess Braze and James Evans; "Development of Education in Our Own Community," by Joe Powell; "The Schools of Today," by Margaret Gilder; Violin solo by Jacqueline West. At the conclusion Reverend Marcus M. Chuna led the benediction.

Baccalaureate Services

PROTEST CHAVEZ APPOINTMENT
FRENCH PREPAREDNESS
HITLER'S ADDRESS

Ex-Representative Dennis Chavez, 47, Monday was sworn in as United States Senator from New Mexico, succeeding Senator Bronson Cutting, killed in an airplane crash. Senators Johnson, Borah, Norris, Nye, La Follette and Shipstead walked out of the Supreme Court room where the oath-administering ceremony took place in protest to the appointment of Chavez as Senator Cutting's successor. Chavez was defeated in November by Cutting by only 1,200 votes and at the time of Cutting's death was contesting the election with the support of the Democratic National Committee, of which James A. Farley is chairman. The liberal Senators felt that the Roosevelt Administration had done Cutting an injustice by refusing to support him in the election last year, as Cutting left his party in 1932 to support Roosevelt.

FRANCE does not intend to fight the next war with Germany on French soil. Thousands of troops have been moved to the northern border to occupy the new $100,000,000 set of fortifications extending from the North Sea to Lorraine. In 1914 the frontier was unprotected except for a few garrisons and the Kaiser's hosts had actually reached French soil before an adequate French army could be assembled. But no surprise attack can be launched now. The French believe their new ring of iron and steel forts to be impregnable.

Now, as an additional guard against German moves, the entire Mediterranean fleet is being moved to the North Sea to guard against a possible attack on the North coast. Two 1,500 ton submarines, the Clorieux and the Heros, have just returned from a 16,800-mile cruise to Cochin China, a French protectorate west of India.

"THE BOLSHEVIKS" never retreat, asserted the Soviet air minister when announcing that three new planes of the same type as the Maxim Gorky, which crashed last week with a loss of forty-nine lives, would be constructed in the future. The new air ships are to be larger, more beautiful and more powerful than the old Gorky and will be named after three of the Soviet's greatest heroes—Nicholas Lenin, Joseph Stalin, and Maxim Gorky.

Russia, like Italy, feels that its future lies in the air. The Soviet Union is second in air strength in Europe with 2,500 planes and 30,000 men in the air force.

Adolf Hitler, in his speech before the German Reichstag Tuesday, blamed the war victors for the mad arms race, charging that they violated the peace treaty's arms limitations. Hitler solemnly promised that Germany would not alter the present boundaries fixed by the treaty of Versailles. "Germany of today is immersed in the tremendous work of repairing its domestic damages. None of our subjects of a factual nature will be completed before ten or twenty years," he said. "What else could I desire but quiet and peace."

Hitler declared Germany's willingness to sign nonaggression pacts with all European nations but Lithuania because of that nation's treatment of Nazis in Memel. The Nazi leader attacked the military alliance between France and Russia as introducing an element of league insecurity into the only clear and really valuable mutual treaty of security of Europe, the Locarno pact. He said Germany will not join any general security system which might compel Nazis to fight on the side of Communism.

Hitler thus solemnly promises the European powers that Germany will not start a war within ten years. The object of the speech was to allay the fears of England that Germany is preparing to start trouble. He reaffirmed his intention to arm

Germany "for defense only" and placed the blame for such action on the shoulders of the former Allied powers who refused to comply with the arms limitation provisions of the Versailles Treaty.

New PWA Work to Start Soon; Hopes President

After much discussion the President has fixed wages for labor under the new PWA that is to use most of the four billion dollars recently appropriated.

Fixing of wages and work hours by the President was regarded as removing a major obstacle blocking first actual expenditures of the $1,091,000,000 in projects already stacked on Roosevelt's desk.

His executive order said that preference in the employment of workers shall be given persons on relief rolls and stated: "Except with the specific authorization of the works progress administration at least 90 per cent of all persons working on a work project shall have been taken from the public relief rolls."

It further said no person under 16 years should be employed, nor more than one from a family group unless specially excepted.

The president had reiterated that if possible all of the 3,500,000 he hopes to put to work would come from the relief population, but officials said the requirement could not be carried out rigidly.

The country was divided into four regions for wage purposes with monthly earnings—varying in each according to population density. Labor itself was divided into four types—unskilled, intermediate, skilled and professional and technical work.

In Texas unskilled labor salary is set at $21 to $35 per month, for 40 hours per week, and 8 hours per day. Intermediate labor will receive $30 to $52 per month; skilled labor $38 to $68, and professional and technical will be paid $42 to $75 per month.

In the densely populated sections of the Northwest and middle West, where living expenses are considered higher, unskilled labor is to be paid $40 to $55, and other labor proportionately higher.

Zuni Indian women of the Southwest are so used to balancing large pottery jars on their heads that some women can even run without touching the jar with their hands.

Chinquapins belong to the chestnut family.

Culinary Jingles

Listen, my children, the while I croon
The fate that's befallen the lowly prune.
Once hated, rejected, consumed with distaste,
The prune is now greeted with relish and haste.
And children now clamor, now beg, now implore,
"Oh, please, let us have just a little bit more!"

MARSHMALLOWS and dried prunes are two of the best confections in the world for children, so when a dessert contains both prunes and marshmallows it should be a children's specialty. Prune marlow comes up to these specifications, and being frozen, it is highly acceptable to any child.

The prunes are present in the ice cream to give it flavor and to bring up its food value by leaps and bounds, so rich are they in iron and vitamin B. The marshmallows are there to make it suavely smooth and creamy, because that is the effect marshmallows have on ice cream; and that is the reason marshmallow ice cream has a special name of its own—marlow. It is so completely unlike ordinary ice creams made in a mechanical refrigerator that to call it just "ice cream" would hardly do it justice.

Besides all its other advantages, Prune marlow is so easy to make that if your child is a would-be cook she might be allowed to make it herself as a special treat. There is no time like childhood to learn the delight of making with one's own hands, for company, a dish which is sure to be exclaimed over and stowed away with the most flattering alacrity.

PRUNE MARLOW

1/2 cup prune pulp
1/2 cup prune juice
20 marshmallows
1 teas. lemon juice
1/2 pint whipping cream

First of all, rub the cooked dried prunes through a puree sieve. (The dried prunes should be prepared by washing them carefully the night before they are to be used; soaking them overnight in cold water to cover; and steaming them until tender in the same water, without sweetening.) Put the prune juice and marshmallows together in the top of a double boiler, and steam them over boiling water until the marshmallows are entirely melted. Add the prune pulp and lemon juice, and set aside to cool, until slightly stiffened and quite cold. Then whip the cream until stiff and fold in carefully to the marshmallow-prune mixture. Pour into containers and freeze without stirring either in an ice cream freezer or mechanical refrigerator. An ordinary mold may also be used, with an ice-salt pack. Be sure the mold is tightly covered and sealed with adhesive tape.

Sammie Hoerster of Mason county took his calf 502 miles to enter him in the El Paso Show. Sammie declined hotel reservations in favor of sleeping with the calf. He won first place.

You have to be an expert to make rugs worth $50, but Mrs. Will Sittton, home industries demonstrator of the Hopewell Home Demonstration Club in Smith county, is just an expert. The rug was 7 1/2 x 10 feet and was made from burlap.

The general rule in the feed lot is for chickens to eat what the horses scatter but on E. C. Schneider's farm in Waller county 270 white leghorn hens have reversed this order and bought the feed for four work horses after paying their own board bill.

Rotted hay and cotton boll waste are ugly—but they make pretty flowers and shrubs if spread on top of soil and worked into the beds as they are cultivated. They keep the soil from baking and add humus according to reports made by the yard demonstrators in Kleberg county.

The community raven trap has been set up by M. H. Perkins of Clyde in Callahan county. Forty ravens were caught the first afternoon. Experience has proven that fresh bait in the early morning is most effective but the trap is cleared before nightfall because otherwise the dogs tear the trap to pieces to get the bait.

PANHANDLE—Five calves, valued originally at $70, brought $328.65 profit to Walter Britten, 18, Carson county 4-H club boy, according to M. P. Leaming, county agricultural agent.

All feed for the calves was purchased, since the drought ruined the feed crops on the farm. No nurse cows were needed, Walter attributes the success of his demonstration to comfortable quarters, an abundance of good, clean water, and the regular feeding of a balanced ration supplemented only by a little charcoal as a conditioner, a little molasses and a mineral mixture for good growth. The net return per animal averaged $65.73.

STANTON—A cellar adequate for storing all the family canned goods can be made at a low cost by using discarded materials," Mrs. J. E. Griffin, 4-H pantry demonstrator in Martin county, told Miss Joellene Vannoy, home demonstration agent. Mrs. Griffin has just completed a cellar 10 feet long, 8 feet wide and 6 ft. deep at a cost of $5.87 for materials. Three old car frames were covered with steel taken from old oil tanks at a cost of $1.50 and were used for the top. The remaining $4.37 was spent for lumber for five shelves extending the full length of the cellar and for a door.

NEW BRAUNFELS—More cow peas for soil building and also for hay and pasture are being planted in Comal county this year by more farmers than ever before as reported by George E. Ehlinger, county agricultural agent. "With the number of acres of peas planted this year a favorable season will mean that Comal county will be well on the way toward a soil improvement program in the near future."

Dr. R. Wright has used Barham peas for the past three years and has planted 40 acres this year with two rows of hegari alternating with two rows of peas. Gus Hilbert, Erwin and Walter Schulze, Albert Soefje and Gus Krause are others who are planting peas this year. Krause harvested 250 bales of fine hay last year from Barham peas originally planted for soil building.

China's rice crop was so damaged by drought that the country will have to import 1,333,000 short tons of rice this year, an increase of 257,000 tons over usual imports.

CHAIN "STICKING"

Following the "Chain Letter" craze, we now have the "car sticking" craze.

Sunday, about 10:30, Miller Stinnett, probably getting ready to go to church, started to back out the bus, side-slipped into the edge of the garden, whereby hangs a tail.

After the usual sputtering, spinning and slinging of mud the car dug its own grave. To the rescue, came Red Chamlee, in his V-8. Results: 2 cars stuck. "The sticking was started with the hopes of getting the first car out."

A Texaco truck was then called, and in turn, became mired either in the garden or the soft turf. "In not omitting anything, Fuzzy Chamlee followed in the elongated wrecker—and stuck again, leaving four vehicles piled up in front of Mr. Stinnett's garden and front lawn. By this time the street was practically blocked, and 75 or 100 people were interested in the sticking.

Fuzzy with the cable from the wrecker, hooked onto a convenient pole, pulled the wrecker out, and in rapid succession, out came Texaco, Red, and Miller, ending uneventfully Gatesville's one and only "Chain Sticking."

Last Monday night the Firemen lost to the Oilers 9-0 (Sorfelt). The Bachelors hit their stride and licked the Independent crew 6-1.

There seems to be a general letdown in the local softball loop and there is apparently no reason for this lack of interest. The managers can't agree on various matters and the confusion created by this situation could easily be halted by appointing one man to supervise softball affairs and to settle all disputes. Several men are capable of handling this job and we believe that softball would be on the rise.

The recent rains played havoc with the schedule and the games that were to be played on May 14, 17, and May 21 have not been settled, although the contest slated for May 14 will be played tonight. Last night the Oilers met the Round Table gang and the Smokeaters took on the Independent crew.

Round Table	7 1/2	4 1/2	.625
Independent	5 1/2	6 1/2	.459
Conoco	2	10	.166

Some teams in the County Baseball loop have played their game that was rained out last week end, however, there are some games we haven't heard from. We hope to hear from these games by Monday, and the games will be registered on the regular team standing which appears in every Tuesday edition.

We heard from the State-Plainview game, and the State nosed out the Plainview crew 3-1. Pidcoke won from Jonesboro 9-6. In the Sunday Division Liberty lost to the strong Mound club 10-0. Mound seems to have the inside track on winning the Sunday Division. Osage won from Purmela 3-2.

Saturday Plainview plays Ireland at Ireland; Turnersville vs. Pidcoke at Pidcoke and Jonesboro plays the Training School at the State.

Sunday Osage will play Liberty at Liberty; Levita vs. Purmela at Purmela; and Mound plays Hubbard at Hubbard.

LOCAL RED CROSS ASKS HELP FOR FLOOD VICTIMS

The local chapter of the Red Cross has inaugurated a personal solicitation campaign for relief work in the Texas counties affected by the recent floods. According to a telegram from William M. Baxter of St. Louis headquarters to M. B. Sasse, former chairman of the Coryell County chapter, tornados last Saturday affected seven counties, including Freestone, Houston, Leon, Robertson, Rush, and Shelby. Continued rainfall in the affected areas has increased property damage and added to the discomfort of flood victims. Incomplete surveys embracing little of the rural area affected confirm nine dead, fifty-six major injuries and six hundred twenty homes damaged or demolished.

An earnest request for funds has been sent of all Texas chapters. Contributions may be left at either of the local banks.

With his bagpipes tucked under his arm, Hugh Kennedy traveled 700 miles by boat, Scotland to London, to compete train, and omnibus from Three in a piping contest against 200 others only to see the first prize go to the youngest competitor, 15-year-old Donald Ramsey.

News Fashion Suggestion

Summer is here and we begin to think of a dainty, cool frock for our afternoon teas and parties, and to carry with you on your vacation. This frock would be lovely made in voile, lace, net, or organdy and trimmed in ruffling.

Cotton plays a stellar role in the gay life of young things. Wherever you go on your vacation, be sure to pack at least one in your bag.

A STRONG MOTIVE IN "STAR OF MIDNIGHT'S" MYSTERY SOLUTION

He has to find the real criminal, or face a charge of murder himself.

In that situation, William Powell rises to the greatest crime solving heights of his career in "Star of Midnight," RKO-Radio's thrilling new mystery romance based on the popular story by the late Arthur Somers Roche.

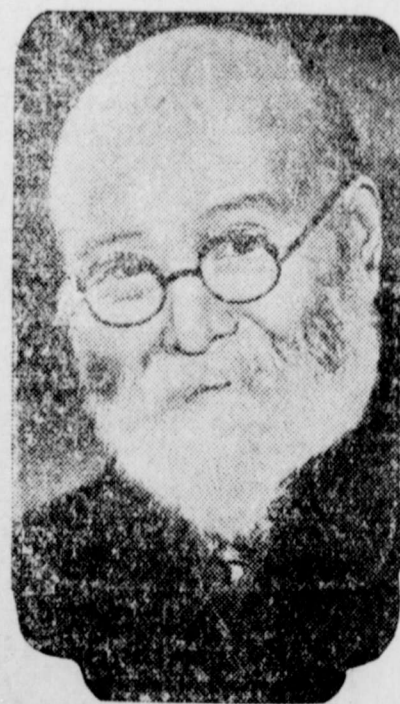

In his investigation, Powell is aided by Ginger Rogers, as beautiful an amateur sleuth as ever failed to fool anyone with a disguise.

Romance and subtle comedy vie with mystery and thrills in the clever modern drama with a background of New York society, stage life and stratas of the underworld.

Stephen Roberts directed, and the supporting cast includes such prominent players as Paul Kelly, Ralph Morgan, Leslie Fenton, Gene Lockhart, Vivian Oakland, Russell Hopton and J. Farrell MacDonald. The screen play is based on a recent Redbook magazine story by Arthur Somers Rohce.

DEATH OF NRA WILL COST TWO MILLION JOBS

Washington—Donald R. Richberg's blunt assertion that NRA's death would take jobs from 2,000,000 workers quickly extracted from a house democratic group today a tentatively-approved measure for extending NRA about as the administration spokesman demanded.

The phraseology disclosed strong committee sentiment for a two year extension against the senate's 9 1/2 months, for price fixing, in some cases, for code control over small businesses which affect interstate commerce and for presidential imporsion of codes.

Richberg, standing in the committee table semi-circle, said with fist-pounding emphasis:

"The extenson of the NRA for a few months, with the added burden of necessary code revision made impossibily difficult by vague and sweeping amendments, will simply bring rapid deterioration and disintegration of the whole industrial recovery program."

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One Year (in Coryell County)....$1.00; Elsewhere.....$1.50

Entered as second-class matter June 24, 1933, at the post office at Gatesville, Texas, under the Act of March 3, 1979.

NOTICE: Any erroneous reflection upon the character or standing of any person or firm appearing in its columns will be gladly and promptly corrected upon calling the attention of the management to the article in question.

LATERAL HIGHWAYS

Lateral highways—meaning side roads, or connecting links to the main arteries of commerce and travel. That's the story in a nut shell for Coryell County. Of course, the main highways are a necessity—no discounting that fact.

However, in cementing a people or group of towns and communities together, the main highways will never do it. What this county needs is good, graveled, or mudless lateral highways, connecting each and every community with, not only Gatesville, but with the nearest main arteries.

Only yesterday, we were talking with a man closely connected with the Osage community, and he gave us to understand that people of his community were interested in a better road from their community to Gatesville including a bridge over one of the bad crossings on that road.

From the business man's standpoint, we can't see how he expects to pull trade with or by any means, when people are forced to traverse some of the roads necessary to travel in getting to the local markets. It looks to us like a splendid investment in profits to any local business, to boost and do everything possible to connect up every district in this county within the trade territory of the local markets.

We could go on like this indefinitely, but the muddy and impassible roads remain. Innumerable communities Copperas Cove, Antelope, Pidcoke, Topsey, Elija, Coryell City, Osage, (but space forbids) all are interested in a "good road" even in "Wet Weather." During dry weather, when they can work on the farms, they don't need the roads so badly, but during the wet weather when they can't work, they WOULD come here if the roads were passable. Can't something be done!

OUR SCHOOLS

"School ain't out till the bell rings." Now the bell's rung. And what have we! There is no denying that has been a most successful school year for Gatesville and the entire County. With the addition of the busses and the gym, the physical equipment has been so enlarged as to take care of many students from the rural districts, who have been sorely in need of a continuation of their efficient schools.

Gatesville schools, as they have been called, are not now "Gatesville" schools, but "Coryell County" schools, especially the high school. A rather large per cent of those receiving their diplomas, were from the rural districts, and have held up their end of the bargain, by taking part in all activities including scholastic attainments, showing that they had a foundation for the advanced schooling to be received in the schools here. They have taken a part in sports, literary, social, and everyone of the various activities to be had in this school. They have become one of us.

Bringing these students here even from a hard commercial standpoint benefits those of us who live in the city limits. Besides the goodwill and interest people show in the schools when they have children here. Gatesville also realizes splendid returns from the hard commercial standpoint. They spend money here and in general help put over these educational institutions of which we are so proud.

So, with the grand finale on the school system for another year, let us give credit where credit is due, and say frankly, that Gatesville schools could not have had such a successful year had it not been for the large number of good students who came in (and were so graciously received) from the rural schools. We're glad you came, and WANT you to accept our WELCOME and continue with us!

President Vetoes Bonus
But the Lower House
Quickly Repasses Bill

The House Wednesday passed the Patman bonus bill over President Roosevelt's veto after the President had appeared in person to deliver his veto message before both houses of Congress sitting in joint session. The Representatives voted 322 to 98 to override his veto, leaving the issue directly up to the Senate. The President's message brought no important vote changes in the House. The House ballot showed a net gain of four votes against the Patman bill. Gains were expected in the Senate as Sen. James P. Pope of Idaho, a Democrat who voted in support of the Patman bonus bill when it passed the Senate, announced he would vote to sustain the president when the bill comes up again under the veto message.

President Roosevelt in his speech delivered before both Houses of Congress and the Cabinet condemned the $2,200,000,000 (billions) Patman bill as "disastrous." He warned that "uncontrolled prices and destruction of the value of savings" would follow adoption of the printing press money plan of meeting the demands of special groups. In vigorous, measured language the President told Congress and the nation that the cash payment plan was unwarranted. The country cannot safely yield, he said, to all groups able to enforce upon Congress their claims for special consideration, he said. Uncontrollable prices, inflation, and destruction of savings are inescapable, Mr. Roosevelt argued, if a printing press money precedent is established. He reiterated his pledge to care for disabled veterans, but for the able-bodied former soldier, he insisted that there should be only equality of privilege with all other citizens.

Administration forces expressed confidence the bill could be stopped with 35 Senate votes they claim have stood fast during terrific pressure of the past few weeks.

Here is how the Representatives from Texas voted on the President's veto of the bonus

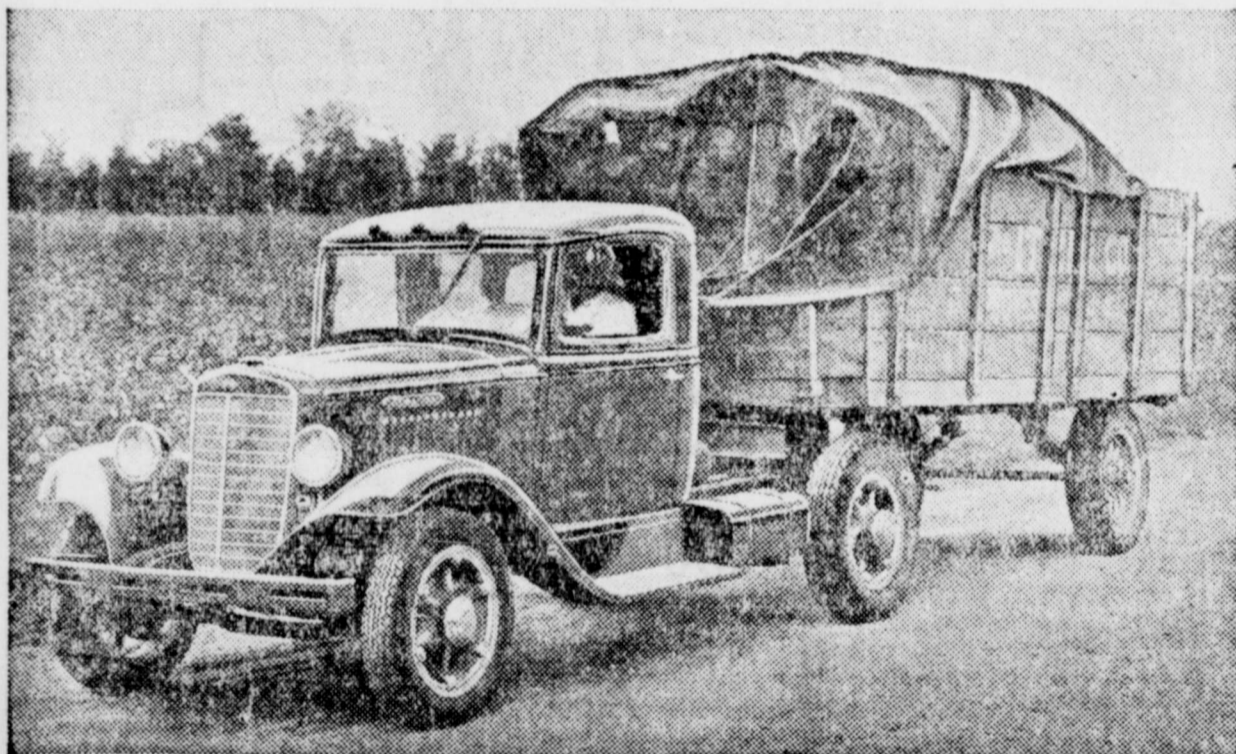

To override: Blanton, Cross, Dies, Eagle, Johnson, Kleberg, McFarlane, Mahon, Mansfield, Merick, Patman, Patton, Thomason.

To sustain veto: Buchanan, Lanham, Sumners, West.

International Trucks are available in sizes ranging from 1/2-ton to 10-ton. The truck illustrated above is the new Model C-20.

● The new low-priced 1 to 1 1/2-ton Model C-20 carries on the International economy tradition. It brings to truck buyers all the proved economy of former Internationals, together with new beauty of line and many mechanical refinements. It has strength without excess weight, speed for long hauls, and an abundance of power for emergencies. The four-speed transmission adapts it to dump truck service. Two wheelbases—133 and 157 inches—permit the mounting of a wide variety of body types.

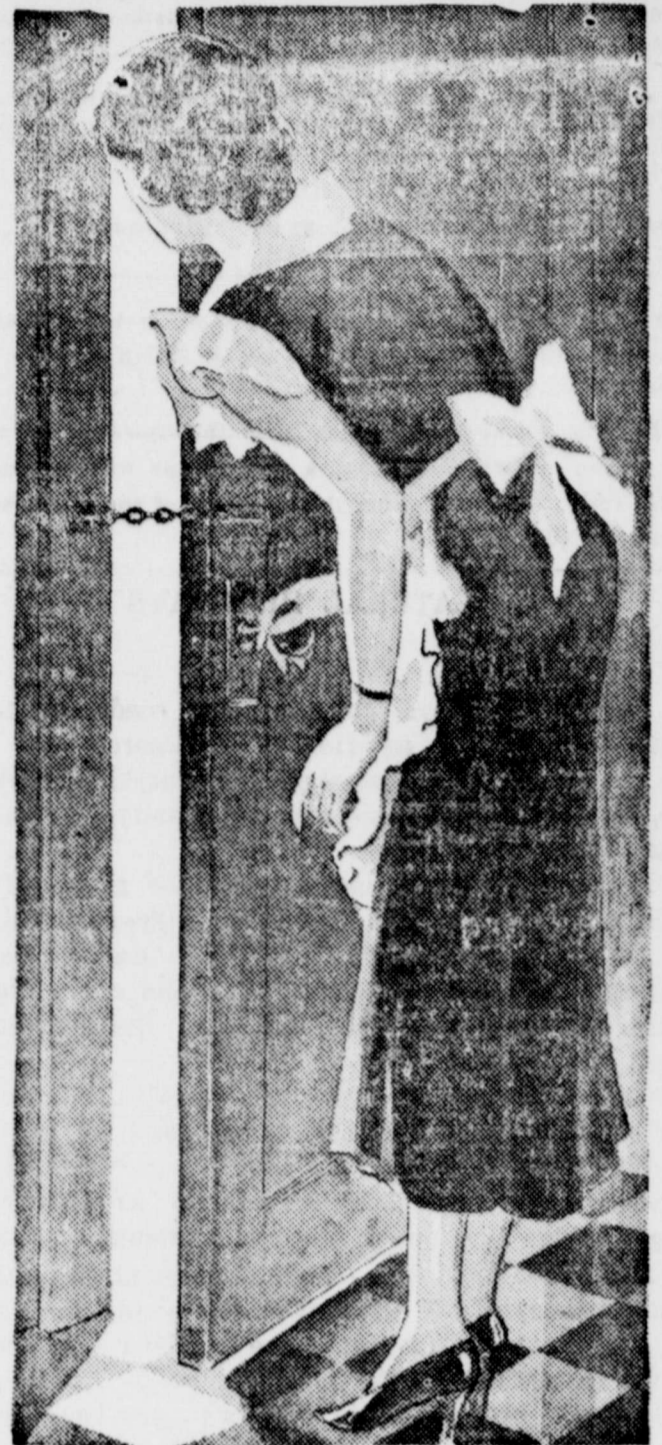

This new International features hardened exhaust-valve seat inserts, cam-and-lever steering gear, and full-floating rear axle. While the C-20 is a new model, its engine is well-known to thousands of International users. Bakers, laundrymen, dairymen, dry cleaners, florists, retailers, and others whose delivery service calls for a great many stops, have found this dependable engine a big factor in reducing their delivery costs.

We are now showing the new International Model C-20. Come in and see it, or phone us and we will arrange a demonstration.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO IN A CASE LIKE THIS?

A man comes to your door. You answer his knock, keeping the safety-latch on the door. You don't know him, and he can't identify himself as a representative of one of the established companies you've come to know and trust. He's selling something you've never heard of.

QUESTION:

Would you open the door?

ANSWER:

No. Not if you're like most of the women who keep house and buy things for themselves and their families in this community.

REASON:

Experience has taught them that the greatest danger in admitting strangers is the danger of being sold something without a reputation.

RESULT:

Women who know that a value is as much a matter of "right to exchange" and "right to demand a refund" and "known reputation" as it is a matter of dollars and cents, buy through the ads in the Coryell County News. They know they get double protection when they do.

Introduces Values You Can Trust

DUSTING COVERS —OF— TEXAS HISTORY

The Republic of Texas was in a serious state financially when Houston took over the reigns of office. There was still some trouble with the army, and the swashbuckling Felix Huston of Mississippi was interested in more warfare. He pushed his propaganda on Congress, inciting them to join in his plan to conquer Mexico.

Sam Houston's light in his room burned long after the city was quiet that night of May 18, 1837. Suddenly, eventhough it was two o'clock in the morning, he roused the Secretary of War, Fisher, and gave him explicit orders. The entire army, with the exception of 600 men, was to be furloughed!

When the captains of the companies in the army received their instruction to "move on" the protests were loud and vigorous from the men. They would desert first! They were tired of having nothing to do and they wanted to follow Felix Huston's plan of attacking Mexico. President Houston was more powerful than their fiery militarist, however. One company moved the next day to Dimmitt's Landing; the second company went to the mouth of the Brazos, and the third company went to Galveston, to be stationed along with others in a line of defense of the coast. Felix Huston saw the defeat of his plans to invade Mexico, and sailed for New Orleans.

There were other troubles confronting the President. For months and months the officers of the cabinet had gone without pay. Some soldiers of San Jacinto had been given land as compensation, but most of them had not been given more than 'a jug of whiskey, a sack of corn meal, and a few dollars.' The panic of 1837 paralyzed all efforts to borrow money from the United States.

In the meantime, there was trouble again with Mexico. William H. Wharton had been held in a Mexican prison, after his vessel was waylaid by a superior Mexican man-of-war. A severe fight ended in the capture of Wharton. His brother, John A., went to his rescue under a flag of truce, and was also captured. Possibly there would have been real warfare had the two men not been able to escape. Once more the Texas navy attacked the Mexican ships, and for awhile all was well on the seas.

Houston's presidency was almost over, and the law prevented his being elected for another term in succession. Many people were already thinking of their next President. Some wondered if Houston had been the proper man to be their leader after all. The Republic was wobbling under the pressure of debts and dissatisfaction. What was to be done?

FAMOUS TEXAS RANCH BRANDS TO BE FEATURED

SAN ANTONIO, Texas—Texas Coats-of-Arms—those brands as significant of the great ranch families of pioneer Texas as was heraldry emblazoned on the shields of knights of old—are to be featured in a frieze along the walls and stamped in the floor of the Texas Trail Drivers Patio, erection of which is proposed by the Witte Museum here, an institution interested in the preservation of the history of the early Texans. This patio it is desired to complete in time for the official opening day of the Texas Centennial celebrations in 1936.

An appeal has been issued by the director, Ellen Shulz Quilan, to every one in Texas, qualified to do so, to send in their cattle brands.

"We do not need your branding iron, although we would like to have that too, for the branding iron collection," she explains. Just draw the design of your brand and write us the county in which it is recorded, the date, by whom and anything else that is interesting about your ranch. This data we will print in a hand book to be used as a souvenir for visitors.

In the frieze in the patio, the brands will be divided into periods from the earliest to the latest. Many are now in the possession of the museum, the earliest there being that of the forebears of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson "J W" of date 1826 and brought to Texas from Louisiana by the original owner, Taylor White, and now registered in Chambers county.

Not only cattle brands, but also heirlooms and relics of the early Texas days are desired by the museum, which long has been in need of expansion. It is full to the brim, explains the director, but not too full to add those precious heirlooms you always intended to give.

Summer School Notice

GATESVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Summer of 1935

During this summer there will be conducted in the Gatesville High School building a summer school which will conform to the rules and regulations of the Texas State Department of Education. All work offered will be regular school work and will be affiliated work.

The school will open on Tuesday, May 28, and will close on July 27, comprising a nine weeks session.

Tuition charges will be somewhat dependent upon the attendance. A large attendance will reduce the tuition per pupil. Not more than $20 per pupil for the full pupil load will be charged and it is almost certain that the charge will not be more than $17.50. It is hoped that this can be reduced to $15.00.

No pupil will be permitted to earn more than two one-half units during the term. No full unit courses will be taught. A pupil may take one or two half unit courses. If he takes two courses one of them should be a course which he has had before. Classes will be 2 hours long in length and will meet six days each week, except on holidays.

The courses offered will very likely be: English II; English IV; History II; American History; Plane Geometry and some advanced elective course that will fit the demand of the students needing the work. Algebra I and Algebra II will be taught if the demand is sufficient.

Fifth, sixth and seventh grade pupils may do summer work also if the demand justifies offering the work. No pupil below the fifth grade may attend summer school. Tuition will be lower than for high school pupils. Grammar school pupils may take one or two courses but not more than two.

For further information call at the High School office.

Celebrated Concert—

Having a remarkable voice, Mr. Kendrick, lyric tenor, has been variously featured in the east and north, and has been heard over all the big broadcasting chains, as well as many other smaller systems. He also has been soloist at a number of New York Churches.

"MELODY CRUISE"

As the curtain rises, eighteen dancers enter, each with their over-night bag, boarding the ship for the cruise. Following quickly are five tap routines and two soft shoe dances.

Miss Rayford then appears in a beautiful number, entitled "Moonlight Madonna."

Climaxing the program is a typical ship-board wedding, featuring thirty attractive young people, all dancers.

This program includes fourteen different numbers with a change of costume for each number. Scenery and settings are by Byron Freeman, and costumes by a New York theatrical costume company.
