The total amount now turned in to the local Red Cross headquarters, is still slightly under the first goal of $660, but due to the fact that conditions in Europe continues to grow worse the quota has been raised and the sky is the li-

SALESMANSHIP COURSE AT LOCAL HI SCHOOL

W. R. Marrs, an itinerant teacher of salesmanship employed by the State Board of Education has opened a series o fstudy courses in salesmanship at the local high school and approximately thirty enthusiastic salespeople attended the opening meeting Monday nite.

These courses are divided into classes as follows and any person nomy has been practiced and at A Vacation Bible School and desiring to attend may do so at a very smal fee:

Drygoods, 6:30 to 7:30, Tuesday,

Appliances, 7:30 to 8:30 Tuesday

Thursday and Friday.

Variety, 7:30 to 8:30, Monday

Mr. Marrs states that he is well pleased with the excellent stores, variety of merchandise, and especially the high type of salespeople engaged in Gatesville and sees no reason for Gatesville people trading out of town when they can get the service obtainable in Gatesville stores, which he thinks would be a credit to a much larger town.

A small fee to take care of the lights and janitor service was voted by those attending the opening classes and any money left over after incidental expenses are paid. will be used to buy books pretaining to sales work, which will be placed in the library for the benefit of those taking the course.

This is an extension of the vocational work now taught and if you are interested there is still time to enroll.

JUDGE LOVELADY ANNOUNCES FOR STATE SENATOR

Judge Karl L. Lovelady, County Judge of Bosque County through the medium of this newspaper, formally announces for the office of State Senator from the 21st Senatorial District, composed of Bell, Bosque, Coryell and Erath and Hamilton Counties, although he made an informal announcement several months ago and has been conducting a very active campaign since that date.

Judge Lovelady places his candidacy before the people of this District solely on the record he has made as County Judge of Bosque County, with the statement Results of second go-round that if elected he wil go to the Senate with an open mind, an overwhelming desire to co-operate with the elected State Governmental Officials in order to get something done especially in the interest of the Old People, the dependent children, the blind and the teachers. He wishes to assure the people that he will always be present, whenever humanly possible, each day the Legislature shall be in session, and wil work for the interest of the District as a whole and not for personal interest nor for any special "Click or Clan".

Judge Lovelady has been a leader in Soil Conservation, Farmto-market road building, Highway construction, and all phases of Social Security. His record in Bosque County substantiates these statements. He wants to go to Austin so that he can serve the citizens of the 21st Senatorial District as he has served the citizens of Bosque County.

Judge Lovelady believes in economy in all phases of governmental expenditures, this is verified by the fact that in his own county ecothis time they have no Countybe paid.

He advocates that the money adequately take care to the needs.

you vote for a man who has already proved he will work for the best interests of the people of his Reba Lee Hewitt, Betty Lou Mar-District and of our State.

HOUSE PASSES POAG'S BILL TO DEPORT ALIENS

Washington-The House this week continued its work tightening National Defense against any possible "fifth columns" by finally passing a bill by Congressman W. R. Poage (D) Texas, providing for mandatory deportation of any person who is a spy, or who engages in sabotage or espionage for any foreign government. The bill also provides deportation for any alien convicted of any felony at any time after January 1, 1930. The author pointed out that this was a stronger bill than the one he had sought to have passed last year. At that time there was considerable opposition, but today practically the entire House readily went along on a much stronger bill. Poage said that this was evidence that Congress was now fully alive to the necessity of prompt deportation of all alien representatives of foreign governments, as well as to the desirability of deporting all criminal aliens.

In discussing the bill, Congressman Poage recalled Chancelor Hitler's speech in 1933, when he is reported to have asked:-

"What is war but cunning, deception, attack and sacrifice? What is the object of war? To make the enemy capitulate. Why should I demoralize him by military means if I can do so better and more cheaply in other ways? When I wage war troops will appear, let us say, in Paris. They will wear rFench uniforms. They will march through the streets in broad daylight. Everything has been thought out and prepared to the last detail—the unlikeliest things are the surest. We shall have enough volunteers, men like our Sturmabteilung (Storm Troops), trustworthy and ready for any sacrifice. We shall send them across the border in peacetime, gradually; no one shall see them as anything but commercial travelers. We shall have friends who will help us in all enemy countries. Mental confusion, contridaction of feeling, indetsiveness and panic-con-quer

Mr. Poage pointed out that ,in spite of such warning, we still find ourselves in the ridiculous aliens who have actually become habitual criminals as well as aled by foreign nations to destroy our very national existence. Under the existing law the discretion for ists, and it only exists in case of certain special crimes, lies with the Secretary of Labor. The Poage bill takes all discretion away from the Secretary and makes the deportation prompt and mandatory. It is, therefore, considered as important step in National Defense.

Palm Beach out of the season, with not a soul she knew for miles around, was insufferable. for miles around, was insufferable. But there in gloomy exile she must stay, for her, father, the eminent Judge Smith, seemed on the verge of realizing his lifelong ampition—that of winning his party's nomination for the highest office in the land. And Mary, whose life had always been severely circumscribed by the political limelight in which the family lived, had been packed off to the Florida estate when the night club in which she packed off to the Florida estate when the night club in which she was innocently dancing on her one night out in a month turned out to be running a little gambling facket on the side when the police—and the reporters—entered. So now, away from inquisitive journalists and political foes, she breakfasted and played solitaire, dined and played solitaire, dined and played solitaire, until she could bear the game no lenger.

Katie drew Stretch, and Mary, more than a little disappointed, found herself escorted to one of the long tables in the rodeo cook house, where the cowboys repaired for "chow," by Sugar. Gazing at the gawky singularly unromantic-looking fellow, she saw adventure fly out the window and boredom stalk in with heavy tread.

Elly gave a sudden squeal of excitement, darted into the crowd, and emerged leading a cowboy by the wrist. After him tagged sheepishly two of his mates. Elly's friend, young, very red-headed and irrepressibly cheerful, was introduced to her companions as "Buzz," and he in turn introduced "Sugar," a scrawny, bow-legged, slightly disheveled cowhand; and "Stretch" Willoughby, who was exceedingly tall, slow-moving, and surprisingly handsome.

Mary pondered this for a moment, then had another idea.

"Has he got a friend, Elly?"

"Why, yes, Miss," returned the girl, gaping slightly. "B-but Cook's got him."

At that point Katie, the cook, came in and Mary frankly admitted her jealousy of the girl who was going out on the blind date with a cowboy. Then Mary's two employees were simultaneously visited by the same inspiration. # Hazen Ward Signs With Pidcoke Cokers Blackfoot last Sunday.

Hazen Ward, pictured above, is one of the many former Coryell County athletes who are home for the summer and many of these lads will play important roles in Coryell county sports for the next few months. Several weeks ago Ward was officially signed by the Pidcoke Cokers to participate in the News baseball race and played his first game of the season against the Blackfoot Indians at Ward made numerous trips to the plate in the Pidcoke-Blackfoot game and the best he got was a pop fly that landed square in an Indian's glove. He played flawlessly in the field, however, and there is no doubt but what his batting will pick up as the season advances. Ward gained national basketball fame last season when he sparked the TWC Rams to a conference championship and was recognized as one of the greatest forwards in the nation.

Byron Gilbreath, another Coryell county athlete who has been attending school in Jacksonville, Texas, is also home for the summer and has added color to the baseball race by casting his lot with the Mound club. Just what position that Gilbreath will occupy on the Mound nine was not specified by the Mound manager but the lineup will probably be shifted and Gilbreath will probably hold down the first sack.

Sonny Hair who has been attending school at Huntsville is also home for the summer and has already made his initial appearance with the Pidcoke team.

Many more of these former Coryell county athletes are due to arrive home for their summer vacations soon and will be worked into the lineups of the various teams that make up the third Coryell County News Baseball Cup Race

HOT, SAVORY SOUP

Combined Cream of Asparagus and Chicken Soup is a delicious beginning to luncheon on a cold day

By Dorothy Greig

WE young ones used to drop in often at grandma's after school to "surprise" her, as we thought. Grandma had such delectable things to eat waiting for us-crusty home baked bread which she spread thick with butter and sugar, frothy milk drinks with nutmeg and, in cold weather, great bowls of steaming soup. Of course, we could get those things at home, too, but it was a party to have them at grandnother's.

"How did you know we were coming?" We would ask. "Oh, a little bird told me," she'd twinkle as she ladled out the savory broth. 'Here you are, honey. There's nothing like good hot soup to warm you ap and make you grow.

And grandma was right, as usual. On chilly days hot soup is a cheering, comforting food. Thin, keen broths such as consommé or bouillon offer a stimulating beginning to a meal, while thick soups, hearty with vegetables and meat or chicken can be the mainstay of luncheon

Nowadays, too, we have such a magnificently wide variety of soups. Row on row they line our grocer's shelves—rich broths skill-tablespoon of the milk. Then add tully seasoned, sheer flavor delight curry paste and remaining milk and as well as fine nourishing food.
