"Water! Water! & Not a Drop to Drink": 'T'was So

Saturday morning Old Miss Leon was kickin' her heels up somethin' scandalous. Some says even higher than in '08, but we wouldn't know. She was bigger 'n better than we can remember.

Tried to get a monopoly on the "water racket", and flooded the city's electric motors and pumps. Therefore, just like Samuel Taylor Coleridge's poem, "The Ancient Mariner", or was it his, there was "Water, Water, everywhere, but not a drop to drink". Cafes went to the jail, as well as others that had to have it, and got it down there. The rest of us, at home, did without. Many a housewife didn't have to wash dishes, dummies, faces, feet or fingers. Later in the afternoon, tho, they let us have that No. 1 fluid of life.

753rd Entertained Saturday With Barbecue-Dance

Gatesville was host Saturday to the men, or those who could be taken care of, of the 753rd Tank Battalion, with the preliminaries, the barbecue, beginning at the former location of Howell Motor Company at about 7 o'clock.

A nice plate of barbecue, the trimmings and drinks were served to a large number of men.

Following this, about 8:30 in the gym, members of the WPA Recreation Council entertained with a dance, sing-song, and a grand march, with local girls furnishing the feminine half of the entertainment. Music was furnished by an orchestra from the WPA Community Recreation Project under the direction of Jackson Webb of Waco. A Miss Ready, District Supervisor for the WPA, took charge in the absence of Mrs. Rabon Balch, who has the mumps.

F'got Your Sugar? Here's Substitutes You Might Try

Here's sweetening power equal to one cup of refined white sugar: 1 cup maple sugar; 1 cup maple sirup; 1 cup honey; 1 1-2 cups sorghum sirup; (we spell it syrurp, but we may be wrong) 1 1-2 cups cane sugar; 2 cups corn sirup.

Other suggestions are: serve cooked fruits hot to enjoy their fullest flavor and sweetness; save sirup from canned fruit to sweeten other fruits, sauces, and drinks. Add a pinch of salt to increase the sweetening power of sugar in cooked dishes.

In substituting sugar with honey, make it cup for cup, reducing liquids used 1-2 the same with sirup. Using sorghum, reduce the baking powder called for and add 1-2 teaspoon soda for every sirup cup.

These come from H. D. Agent Sidney G. Gibson for the interest of the "non-sugar" users.

Guests in the R. L. Routh home over the week end were: Mrs. John D. Willis and daughters, Jimmie Louise and Martha Jane, of Waco.

They Signed the Dotted Line for Uncle Sam Mon.

Fourth registration, yesterday pretty near got everything but babies in arms, when the over 45s and under 65's registered.

At 5 til 5 yesterday afternoon, no count had been made, but the number, no doubt, will be larger than the third registration, which was over 1,000.

These men who registered will not be called for military service, but might be placed in positions in the defense effort.

"Sugar Quiz" Settles Many Tricky Things About Sugar Rationing Here

Here are questions and answers given us by County Superintendent Ollie Little, regarding the Sugar Rationing Program which opens May 5. Each question will be preceded by a "Q" and the answer will be indicated by an "A".

All of this "sugar quiz" is carried in today's News as was possible. There may be more to follow.

Q. Who is entitled to have an application filed for "War Ration Book One"?

A. Every person living in the United States EXCEPT:

1. Members of the Armed Services who regularly receive ration in kind.

2. Persons confined to public or private institutions and whose meals are furnished by such institutions. However, a TEMPORARY resident of such an institution may file an application or have one filed for him or her, by a member of his or her Family Unit. A "Family Unit" means a group of two or more persons consisting of all persons living together in the same household (including persons temporarily absent therefrom) who are related by blood, marriage or adoption.

Q. Who is the correct person to apply?

A. Only the following classes of persons may apply:

1. Persons of any age who are not a part of any Family Unit. (A parent, guardian or responsible adult must apply for such persons under 18 years of age who are not self supporting, and may apply for invalids who are not members of Family Units, and not confined in institutions.)

2. Persons who are applying for every members of a Family Unit. (Such applicants must be 18 years or over. OR, marrield persons, if

Council Votes for $4,500 Swimming Pool: Ready Soon

Yesterday afternoon, Mayor C. E. Gandy and the City Council voted to build a new swimming pool, with an outlay of approximately $4,500.00, to be completed in time for summer, and construction will start immediately. Horace Galloway got the contract.

The new pool, replacing the one with the "washed-out end" will be regulation, 40 x 82, with a 20 x 40 "kiddies' wading pool", and will be built of reinforced concrete.

Diving boards and the very little additional equipment necessary will be extra but will not amount to much.

With these rains now measured in feet, it doesn't seem like a swimming pool would be necessary, but there'll be plenty of hot and very dry days ahead.

Soon, the boys will be sayin' "C'mon in, the water's fine"; girls, too.

RAIN, 1.31 MONDAY: THAT WAS BEFORE THE 4:30 SHOWER

First thing you know, they're going to be measuring this rain in feet instead of inches.

So far, that is up until that big shower yesterday afternoon, the count was 1.31 for Monday, which in itself is a nice shower.

The river was back in its banks Monday but is expected to be out again, after the deluge.

Floyd Adahold and N. A. Shirley of Austin visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Shirley Sunday.

the person applying for the Family Unit should have the following information concerning each member of the Family Unit written on paper: height, weight, color of eyes, color of hair, age, and his or her sex.

From that time until rationing begins May 5, retail sugar sales are prohibited.

Ottawa, Apr. 26 (UP).—Millions of Canadians go to the polls tomorrow to vote in a plebiscite which will determine whether they will release the government from a pledge not to use conscripted troops outside the dominion.

Loony Lucy

Langtry, Texas,

April 24, 1942.

Mr. Ward Burris,
Sports Editor, The Express,
San Antonio, Texas.

Dear Wardie:

I been a thinkin' this week of a lot of things I'd like to see happen to the following people:

Mussolini: Given a bath with lye soap, scrubbed with a wire brush, and then given a rub-down with fat meat and barrel salt.

Tojo and the rest of the Japs: Strapped to dentist chairs and let the survivors of Wake, Guam and Pearl Harbor take turns a drillin' until they strike oil.

Hitler: Get the lumbago, double pneumonia, two broken arms and the seven-year itch, all at the same time.

Traitors and spys in the U. S.: Anything you can think of that's worse than any of the above.

Of course, I know there's lots of folks in Belgium, China, Holland, Norway, France, Greece, Poland and nearby places, whot could easily think of funnier things to do, that would take longer. But the things I've mentioned ain't fatal, and after they had that happen to 'em, the folks over there who have first claim could get in their licks fer the improvement of the race on the continent.

I think if this could be drummed up, it could be held in Madison Square Garden with the proceeds—on second thought, hold it in Yankee Stadium and let ever body in free.

I'll be a seein' you Pal. Keep 'em Flyin'.

Yourn,

LOONY LUCY,

We have this past week enjoyed the first really warm weather of the season in Washington. The famous cherry trees have bloomed and faded almost unnoticed this year. Mrs. Poage and I did not even get down to see them, and I am sure that the same thing is true of thousands of others. There are very few of the thousands of tourists who usually fill Washington at this season, but all the hotels are full and overflowing with the "brief case warriors" who are filling the city. Some of these people want commissions in the Army and probably won't get them. A few want to keep someone out of the draft and will probably fail in this effort. Many want and some will receive contracts of various kinds, but probably most of them want some government project for their own community. Of course, many communities are getting some kind of government project, but when compared with the total number of communities that want some project, the per cent of fortunate ones is small.

It has been most interesting to note the change in the attitude of the citizens here with respect to adjustments in their normal life as a result of the war. Every government building is still guarded, and registration and identification is required in order to enter most of them, but these things are beginning to be accepted as a commonplace requirement. For instance, when war was declared, all but one of the doors in the House Office Building were closed at five p. m. Now these other doors are kept open until eight o'clock altho identification is still required. Early in January, I reported a sharp reduction in traffic on the streets of Washington. It has gradually increased again until I can not see that it is now any less than it was before the order was issued prohibiting the sale of tires.

All of this is in spite of the fact that each day it becomes more apparent that we are to be faced with increasingly strict control of all kinds of articles. I think that we should all realize that it is entirely probable that before next fall a great number of the articles we now look upon as necessities will not be available at any price. This is not so much due to the impossibility of securing the needed raw material (altho that is the reason in a few cases), as it is to the fact that our factories, our tools, and our skilled workmen can not produce needed war supplies if they are being used to produce civilian goods. With this rationing and freezing of consumers' goods must come a much more far-reaching system of price control than we have heretofore seen. I think it is inevitable that we strengthen our price control laws. Along with such legislation must logically go wage control and control of profits. I believe all of these will come more rapidly than some people suspect.

It is still impossible to know what the House will do about additional labor legislation. Certainly there will shortly be a great struggle over the suspension of the forty-hour week for the duration of the war. In the meantime, I have been surprised at the bitter criticism that some of the labor organizations have directed at the pending legislation which would require labor organizations to make public their membership, their officers, their elections, their expenditures, dues, etc. I can hardly see why these organizations should object to having the public, and particularly their own members, know how they are being operated.

The House has this past week passed some rather important legislation relative to the Navy. Among other things, the Navy was allowed to enlist women for certain shore service. The women so taken will actually constitute members of the Navy itself and be subject to its control in every way. In general, they will fill clerical positions. The House also authorized the Navy to greatly increase the number of submarines we now have. Our experience so far in this war has proven that the submarine is almost the only type of offensive weapon we have that can operate effectively without air support. In addition, submarines can be produced much more rapidly than most types of naval vessels.

Mrs. Denver Roberts and son, Billy Bates, of Pettus are visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. R. B. Cross, and Bob.

A. Shirley of this city is visiting his son, Dr. Clayton Shirley, of Tyler.

Mrs. J. W. Truitt of Gilmer is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Troy Jones.

Miss Cleo Timmons is visiting relatives in Fort Worth and Dallas this week.

Your Electrical Appliances and the War

BY JUNE 1, the manufacture of virtually all electrical appliances will have ceased for the duration. This action was taken by the War Production Board to conserve vital metals and to speed the conversion of the appliance industry to war production. Appliance manufacturers are cooperating wholeheartedly as their contribution to the all-out drive for victory.

How will the cease-production edict affect you? What can you do to assure a continuation of the necessary functions that electricity performs in your home? Here are some timely suggestions:

- 1 If you have appliances that are in good condition, keep them that way by giving them proper care and attention. Continue to use them for essential purposes, but avoid wasteful and unnecessary use that causes needless wear.
- 2 If some of your appliances need repairs, have them attended to now by a competent serviceman. Often a small part or a minor adjustment will make an old appliance as good as new.
- 3 If other appliances have outlived their usefulness and cannot be repaired, replace them now with best-quality new ones that will give you trouble-free service for the duration. We still have a stock of new appliances to meet essential needs and we will endeavor to take care of the requirements of our customers as long as our limited supply lasts.

It has always been our policy to help our customers make the best and most economical use of their electrical service and we plan to continue this policy to the fullest extent possible. We invite you to consult us or any electrical dealer regarding your appliance maintenance and repair problems. We'll help you in every way we can. We suggest that you try to make your present appliances last for the duration, but if you need new equipment, we urge you to buy now while stocks are available and you can purchase on present favorable terms. Waiting may entail disappointment.

SUGAR RATIONING—

2. A person who is a member of a Family Unit and who is temporarily absent from his home during registration should not apply for his own War Ration Book separately; the person applying for the other members of his family unit should also apply for him. For example, if a traveling salesman is away from his home for a week or two he should be considered as a member of his Family Unit in spite of the fact that at the time of registration he is not at home.

3. If a person 18 years of age or over has left home to attend college, he should apply for and get his own book in the town where he is residing during the school year. His father or mother must not apply for him as a member of their Family Unit.

4. On the other hand, if a person under 18 years of age has left home to attend school or college and is not a member of a Family Unit his father, mother, or legal guardian must file an application for him.

5. A person is entitled to a War Ration Book in spite of the fact that he may eat all his meals at a restaurant, boarding house, or similar place, and has no present intention of buying any sugar. The War Ration Book may be later used for some other product which may have to be rationed and at that time he may need the book for that product.

Unless instructions are received from the Office of Price Administration to the contrary, each person, at the time of registration, will be permitted to keep a supply of sugar not in excess of 2 pounds withing having stamps removed for it.

Q. How much sugar can I get with each stamp?

A. You may buy 1 pound of sugar with each of the first four stamps.

Q. Can I get the same amount of sugar with each stamp?

A. Not necessarily. The ration of sugar may be changed from time to time according to the total supply of sugar in the country. The ration for each stamp will be publicly announced by the Government.

Q. How long is each stamp good for?

A. Each stamp will be good for the period to be announced by the Office of Price Administration. The time each stamp is good for will be publicly announced.

Q. Can I save up the stamps and get all my sugar at one time?

A. No. Each stamp is good for only the announced period.

Q. Do we each have to take our War Ration Books in person to the store in order to buy sugar?

A. No. Anyone may take your War Ration Book to buy sugar provided they are buying sugar for you. The mother or the father, or any one of the children, or anyone connected with a family may take some or all the War Ration Books to the grocer to buy the entire household's supply of sugar.

Q. Suppose I do not buy sugar at all?

A. There is no occasion for you to buy sugar except as you need it. But keep your War Ration Book carefully. It may, at some time later, be necessary to use it for other commodities if they are rationed.

Q. May I tear out a stamp and take it to the store to buy sugar?

A. No. You must take the War Ration Book with you and tear out the stamp in the presence of the storekeeper or his employee.

Q. Suppose I order sugar by telephone?

A. Before the person making the delivery can give you the sugar you must show him the War Ration Book, or the family's War Ration Books, and in his presence tear out enough stamps, not more than one from each book—to cover the amount of sugar you have ordered. He cannot give you more sugar than your stamps allow even if it has been sent. He would have to take the balance back to the store. Give the person delivering the sugar the stamps you tear out of the War Ration Books.

Q. What if I need more sugar than I get with my War Ration Book?

A. If it is absolutely necessary for you or your family to have more sugar for home canning, illness or some other special reason, you may go to your Local Rationing Board. They will decide whether you can have this sugar, and how much you can have. They may then issue to you a special certificate permitting you to buy a specified amount of sugar for a specified purpose. You will NOT need to use the War Ration Book or Books in buying sugar with this certificate.

Q. What do I do if my War Ration Book is lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated?

A. Report the facts to the Local Rationing Board at once.

Q. Can send my War Ration Book home to my family to use?

A. No. Your War Ration Book is issued to be used by or for you. The sugar it permits you to buy is intended to be used by you or by the family of which you are a member and WITH WHOM YOU LIVE.

Q. Do these War Ration Stamps entitle me to get sugar for nothing?

A. They only entitle you to buy sugar. They determine the amount of sugar you or anyone else may buy.

Q. Do I have to buy sugar because I have a War Ration Book?

A. No. The War Ration Book gives you the right to buy certain amounts of sugar. If you do not need sugar do not buy it.

Q. If my family has enough stamps can we buy more than 2 pounds of sugar at a time?

A. Yes, you can buy as much sugar as your family's stamps entitle them to in the period during which these stamps are valid.

Q. I make candy and cakes and sell them to make money. How can I get sugar I need for these?

A. Apply and register at the local Rationing Board. They may give you a special certificate to use to get the sugar you are allowed for your business.

Q. I live in a boarding house. May I have a book just the same?

A. Yes, you may.

WINFIELD'S MODERN EQUIPT HATCHERY

Capacity, 40,000

Gatesville, Texas

By Sidney G. Gibson
County H. D. Agent

Last Wednesday the Food Preparation Specialist from A & M College Extension Service held a training school for Home Demonstration Agents and Hot School

Lunch Supervisors at Gatesville. She cooked vegetables to conserve the greatest amount of their food value. She scraped carrots, cut them lengthwise, put them in a baking dish with a half cup of hot water and baked them with a cover on them in the oven about twenty-five minutes. After they were tender, she seasoned with butter, pepper and salt. She prepared Irish potatoes and beets on top of the stove using a little hot water to steam them with a cover on and she buttered the potatoes and browned them in the oven. The beets were buttered. A favorite salad was made of raw tender spinach, chopped hard cooked eggs, radishes, onions, parsley and a dressing of bacon drippings and vinegar and pepper and salt. This was a tasty salad and enjoyed by the home economists who tasted it.

Miss Hazel Phipps is the Food Preparation Specialist who demonstrated the vegetable cookery and she encouraged all who cook vegetables to cook them as short a time as possible in the least amount of water possible and to use all liquids that remain from cooking vegetables in white sauce, gravy, or soups.

At this time the women and girls in the Coryell County Home Demonstration Clubs and their families are enrolling in the Victory Demonstration.

SELZNICK INTERNATIONAL
Presents
Little Lord Fauntleroy
Starring
FREDDIE BARTHOLOMEW
DOLORES COSTELLO BARRYMORE

A Motion Picture Based on the World-Famous Frances Hodgson Burnett Story

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE:
The death of both sons of the Earl of Dorincourt leaves the title open to his grandson, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," who has been brought up in Brooklyn by his American mother. The youngster goes to live in his grandfather's castle and wins the old man's heart completely, when the startling news comes that there is another claimant to the title.

Chapter Five

The amazing tidings that a claimant has come forward to dispute the right of Ceddie to the title of Lord Fauntleroy causes a sensation. Newspapers on both sides of the Atlantic are full of the story. Ceddie himself, greatly excited but

"No!!!"
"Then I shall be your boy even if I'm not going to be an earl—just as I was before?"
"My boy—yes, as long as I live—and sometimes I feel as if you were the only boy I'd ever had." Dorincourt's emotions are crowding in on him. "They shall take nothing from you that I can hold for you. You were made for the place—and who knows—you may fit it still. But whatever comes to you, you shall have all that I can give you—all!"
Broken by what he considers his terrific misfortune, the old Earl calls on Dearest at Court Lodge. He tells her that the highest legal opinion he could find has decreed against him. He confesses that he is "miserable—miserable"—and Mrs. Errol is deeply touched.
"Perhaps it is because I am miserable that I have come to you," he tells her. "I used to hate you.

not in the least let down, sets immediately about the task of writing full details to his old friends, Hobbs and Dick.

On Lady Lorrindale the blow falls heavily.

"That boy—the first human being he has ever loved!" she tells her husband.

Because the character of Bevis was such that he was just the sort to make a marriage with a woman like the claimant, most persons were prepared to accept her statement at face value. However, Dorincourt insisted that the evidence must be sifted to the bottom. He could not bear the thought that Ceddie should not be his heir.

The Dorincourt tenantry are heartbroken.

Dorincourt calls on the woman whose son is claimant to the title. She is staying at the Dorincourt Arms in the village. He sees a coarsely handsome woman who assumes an incongruously elegant manner. Shade, a sly attorney, is with mother and son. When the Earl and Havisham treat the woman and Snade with contempt, she berates him viciously.

In London, the Lord Chief Justice tells Dorincourt that the evidence leaves him only one conclusion—that the son of the woman who claims to have been the wife of Bevis is the rightful possessor of the title of Lord Fauntleroy and heir to the earldom.

"But it's monstrous!" the Earl exclaims. "This woman and this boy are utterly unfit!"

Back at Dorincourt Castle, the Earl goes to Ceddie's room. The boy is in bed but not asleep.

"You've heard bad news, haven't you?" he says.

"The very worst," the Earl sighs. "I'm not Lord Fauntleroy any more, am I?"

"No. She's beaten me."

"Then the other boy will have to be your boy now?"

I have been jealous of you. I have been an obstinate old fool and I suppose I have treated you badly. I have come to you because you're like the boy and he cares for you. And I care for him. . . . Treat me as well as you can—for the boy's sake." He takes command of his slipping emotions and finishes: "Whatever happens he will be provided for."

The American woman who claims to be Lady Fauntleroy comes to Court Lodge to call on Mrs. Errol.

"I guess you know that the Earl's given in," she says. My boy's Lord Fauntleroy now—not yours."

"So I understand," says Mrs. Errol. Why have you come?"

"To take a look at my future home. I understand this is where the Dowager Lady Fauntleroy always lives."

Outside the youngster to whom the Earl referred as an "oaf" is carving the name "Lord Fauntleroy" in the back of the Dorincourt carriage. Ceddie rides up on his pony. The boy Bevis sneers malevolently. Bevis tells Ceddie he will have to surrender everything he has, even the pony.

"No, you can't have Prince," says Ceddie.

"I'll show you," Bevis shouts and the fight is on. After some rough and tumble preliminaries, Ceddie lets go a terrific punch that knocks Bevis down. Bevis howls. Mrs. Errol and Bevis' mother rush out of the house and the latter is about to chastise Ceddie when Mary appears wielding a rolling pin and puts her to flight.

Ceddie, transformed suddenly from a sweet little boy into a thoroughly roused young tiger, refuses to be sorry for his conduct until his mother's sadness melts him.

"Oh, Dearest, I'm sorry," he cries. "If you like I'll let him have my pony."

She folds him in her arms impetuously.

CAMP HOOD'S

893rd Tank Destroyer Battalion
753rd Tank Battalion

Men with the Colors!

By Sgt. Charles W. Wherley, Co. A

753rd TANK TRACKS

The 753rd Tank Battalion takes this means to publicly thank the folks of Gatesville and surrounding territory for the splendid reception of the outfit and for the interest shown during the "open house" days.

The Blitz Boys enjoyed the tank rides as much as the people did, as was evident by the wide smiles on their pan. The smiles were especially wide when femininity was present.

We hope everyone got to ride, but for those who didn't all we can say is better luck next time.

Pvt. Marvin Hill, of Co. A, who was the battalion's first snake-bite victim, is fully recovered from his bout with a diamond back rattler. His speedy recovery is partially due to the quick-thinking first aid given by Pvt. W. W. Graham.

Headquarters Company has a new supply sergeant in the form of Bennett R. McMurray. We wish Sgt. McMurray well in his new job. He is a Houston boy and really has "stuff on the ball."

Corp. Jackson and Corp. Mosley of Co. A are starting a young zoo. In their collection they have a squirrel and four crows. Their ultimate goal is a specimen of each animal in these parts and as the supply is many and varied, the battalion may have to move out to make room for the varmint they catch.

Several of the boys have been pursuing the somewhat dubious occupation of catching rattlesnakes and saving their skins. No doubt they would make some young lady a very classy pair of 4B wedgies. Speak up, girls, they may be yours for the asking.

Captain C. B. Davidson, first patient in the battalion hospital, is well on the way to recovery after being stricken with a severe cold and sore throat.

The hospital, a converted farm house, is rapidly shaping up as a first class institution. The Medicos have really been working, building walks, porches and installing modern conveniences. The interior has been painted white and the whole place is as neat and clean as a Baylor ward.

Mess Sgt. J. J. Worobey of Service Co., says he believes he will join the Navy. After having to get up during the night and anchor his kitchen to keep it from floating away he thinks life on a ship would be "duck soup". Sgt. "Wobbles" has his stove on stilts now and wasted no time in moving to higher ground. Worobey said he was under the impression this was a "dry" country.

The 753rd at last has a camp exchange wherein the boys can buy a few of the milder luxuries such as soda water and cigarets.

The place does a rushing business in the evenings as nothing cools the parched throat like a cold bottle of "pop". The exchange area, back of Co. A, is surrounded by trees and is a beautiful spot, affording a good view of the hills in the background. Such scenery is a far cry from the sand and swampy country of southern Louisiana which was the home of the 753rd for many months.

The "gulley washer" of Thursday night taught a lesson to many a tanker out here. For most, this is their first experience in tents, and many a deficiency showed up in the work of the boys who were detailed to dig ditches around the teepees. As they reached down to grab their shoes floating by, their first thoughts were of the guys who dug the drainage. And most of the words they used are not fit for publication. Yet there are residents here who tell us "you ain't seen nothin' yet".

Staff Sgt. Haywood of Co. C is one man who gained a fair measure of success from all the rain. Upon getting out of bed in the night to help a friend cover up his furniture out here, he found a box of his own which had been misplaced. "It's an ill rain that does no one good."

First Sgt. Zacharjat of Co. A has a mad on at all cats. One just cost him an apartment in town. Was it a black one, Sergeant?

According to Frank Slamon Softball Notes

Proving the old adage that the game isn't over till the last man is out, C Company came from behind in the final inning with two men out to score two runs and win a thriller from the unbeaten sluggers of B Company. With two extra base blows contributed by Petock and Vitchock coupled with the timely single by Aglietti, Company B bowed for the first time in league competition. Vitchock, slugging first baseman for the victors, was the batting hero with four straight hits in four trips to the plate. His double proved the Waterloo for the B Company team when he knocked in Aglietti to provide the margin victory.

Captain Hegarty's fighting Medicos came back from their first defeat in fine style, and defeated the Reconnaissance Company team 6 to 3. Bunching their hits, the "Pillrollers" scored all six runs in one inning. The glory of this game goes to Bob Seldomridge former Lancaster baseball idol and the popular Bob "Punchy" Haynes, former Louisville slugger for of the needed money, according to the form letter received by the News.

The Recreation Council is composed of the following: Dan McClellan, chairman, Mrs. E. W. Brooks, secretary, Maude Alyce Painter, Chairman Program committee; Mrs. Rufus Brown, Chairman, Hostess Committee; Bob Arnold, Sports Committee; Clay Stinnett, Public Relations; Rufus Brown, Buildings; Rev. E. L. Craig, Church Committee; Mrs. Mabel Gardner, Chairman Donations Committee; Dr. Otis Ray, Mrs. Ray Ealy, Mrs. R. R. Anderson, Francis Powell, W. T. Hix, Dawson Cooper, Pete Patterson, E. W. Jones, Jr., Miss Lois Grantham, Charlie Barton, C. E. Gandy, E. W. Brooks, Mrs. Bythel Cooper and J. W. Laird.

Estimates are it will take $3,000 for our part for a year to equip and operate the facilities in the Howard S. Compton (Ford Motor Co.) and the Sadler Buildings.

The Compton building will be equipped with rest room facilities and will be used for social entertainments, supervised by the Hostess Committees, Program Committees and Mrs. Rabon Balch.

The Sadler building will be a Soldiers' Center, and will be equipped with rest rooms, shower baths, shaving facilities, reading and writing rooms, and table games, and will also include a general information desk in the front of the building.

Outdoor sports for the summer will be provided for the soldiers, such as soft ball, tennis, baseball and other sports.

their timely hitting. Having lost a heart-breaker in his first start, Johnny Timko came back and pitched brilliantly, allowing the boys from Reconnaissance but six hits. Larry Marchese, well known University of Pittsburgh football and basketball star, broke into the line-up by getting one hit out of two trips to the plate.

Weather permitting, there will be two games nightly starting promptly at 6:00 p. m. Lieut. Lavin's Headquarters team still remains in the unbeaten column, and three others have lost but one game each. From the outside rail it looks as though the first round will result in a "photo finish".

Off the Record

Joe Howley, Headquarters Company, has been invited to sing over station WACO in Waco next Saturday. After rendering two selections in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Joe was immediately picked up by a talent scout for that station. Rumor has it that Nick Grazionale, the Philadelphia Kid, culminated a two day romance with a trip to the altar. Ralph Piccolo of Reconnaissance Company would rather sing than eat. It was reported that Ralph was harmonizing for five solid hours last Sunday. Harry McClafferty, C Company and a member of the brass section of the 893rd band, played one season with Eugene Ormandy's Philadelphia Orchestra. Mike Nanno, who looks more like ony Galento than Tony does, was a floor walker in a telephone booth prior to his induction. Corp. Johnny Cornell of Hdq. Co. was lightweight boxing champ in the Golden Gloves tournament from Ohio and Corp. McKenna of the Battalion plants and training office was featherweight champion of the Hawaiian Division in 1938. Corp. Danforth Webster of Co. C received an "infantgram" from Philadelphia to the effect that he is now the proud papa of a ten pound baby boy, thus the cigar-passing activities of Corp. Webster are explained. Pfc. Joe Fox is spending his evenings regaling by mail his experiences at sea some years ago. Pat Adamo became a proud "uncle" over the weekend. "Sheik" Sheirich has a harem located in Central Texas. "Dinky" Kratovitch, C Company cook, received the customary cupid's blow in Temple—he has even taken the "water" pledge for Norma. Tech. Taylor is rapidly making headway with his guitar
