"Egg-Otic" or What Have I? We Don't Know, You Neither

If we only had all these eggs in one, or two baskets, what a mess, we'd have. They are so screwy, they're useless. Just imagine eating an egg like most of those we have had in our window.

Why do the hens do that to us? We don't know but we must have been one of those little boys that grabbed the old hen's young chicks and squeeze them to death. Have we not paid our debt to society since these mon—, no let's use the New Deal word "monetous" monstrosities.

We are a bit tired at night and are not worried with dreams. Just imagine waking up along about "plenty after ten" and seeing before your tired eyes, some of these various eggs. We'd need to see Sheriff Brown and borrow his stright jacket (you may say we do anyway, but we are still loose). What with the war and these eggs how can mortal man stand this punishment.

On the cheery side, however, we've always prided ourselves on being able to take it and are doing a bit of that now.

The last so-called egg that brought on this brain storm was something, "Pat didn't shoot at," but he certainly ought to have. Page that hen, Mr. Otis Pruitt of Jonesboro. Something must be done about this! Anyway, Mr. Pruitt, thanks for bringing this one in. We're going to sometime invite Ripley down and tell him a few things. He just ain't seen nothing yet! Incidentally, it's in our window.

TANK DESTROYERS FEATURES ON MARCH OF TIMES

Last night the radio program "March of Times" featured Camp Hood and Brigadier General A. D. Bruce, commanding general put the troops through a sham battle for the first time on the air to demonstrate how America's sensational new tank destroyers hunt down and annihilate the enemy.

Live ammunition was used and the audience heard the actual sound of battle.

Late yesterday the personnel of the radio show, with equipment etc., moved to location in Camp Hood proper. The program went on at 9:30 p. m.

Colliers' Also Gives "Blow" to Camp Hood

Recognition is now being given where recognition is due, long due. First thing you know, the radio stars will begin "showing" and "personal appearance" at Camp Hood. Here is what the article says:

article, illustrated with four-color photographs, dedicated to Camp Hood and is written by Gurney Williams, entitled "Tank Stoppers."

"They might have written a different story about Tobruk," he said, "if some of our tank destroyer battelions could have been there. Brig. Gen. Andrew D. Bruce spread a tactical map on the table at Camp Hood.

"Here's what I mean: There is a force of enemy tanks and here is a force of United States tanks. They meet and it's a sluggish match—an enormous expensive slugging match. Terrible waste of men and machines. Now with a group of tank destroyers battalion to bottle up the enemy armored forces * * *"

"Tank destroyer battalions are America's new land fighters—cohesive, speedy, tremendous destructive—the rolling successors to the anti-tank units of maneuver days. Only small units have as yet seen combat duty but as battalions, their doctrine differs from any task force now in existisistence, and at Camy Hood's Tank Destroyer Center there are getting ready to go to the Germans 88's one better, they believe, as major weapons in this supermechanized war.

"The army has been planning TD battalions for a long time; since May, 1941, in fact, when Gen. George C. Marshall called for conference in Washington and talked about anti-tank tactics. We must, said the military experts at that meeting, developed a plan to knock out that most potent of land weapons, Anti-Tank units are all right under certain circumstances but in this war, attack may come from any angle of a 360 degree circle, and anti-tank outfits are not flexible, enough to meet this condition. The very word anti-tank, furthermore, suggests static defense. The time has come for aggressive and for fluid defense with all possible mobility and firing power.

"As a result of the conference an experimental TD battalion last September entered the Carolinas maneuvers in Lit. Gen. Hugh A. Drum's first army; and military man, watching the battalion operate, decided the scheme was good. On December 1, the tank destroyer center was active at Maryland's Fort Meade, and after the site for Camp Hood, near Killeen, was approved in January, things moved quickly. By the end of March the government had bought the last of the 106,000 acres deep from farmers and ranchers deep in the heart of the

Sand Crab, They Say, Makes P. A. At News Office

Of all the things seen or heard of around Coryell county is the creature brought us this week. Some call it a sand crab, and it's as fur from salt water where we learned in GHS they inhabited as we are from being General Douglas McArthur.

We do not know of any ocean north of us, and the Leon still runs a course, generally, and northwest to southwest, so we know he did not come from there. He looks so bad, we even forgot the man's name that brought him in, but he used to work for the city. Maybe he came from the water works but we have noticed nothing unusual in our drinking water and a critter like that could not be in anything without it stinking his flavor.

If we could only petrify all these varmints that we have been on the receiving end recently, we would make P. T. Barnum look like a two-bit sport. He just would not be in it at all. Where is the Coryell County Zoological Society? If there is one, in our last will and testament, we are willing all this managerie to it. My Gawd, somebody ought to find something to with these, these — —

If it keeps up, what with the war, inflation and what not, we are liable to be terrible Terrell!

Dr. Clyde Bailey's Farm Picture is Featured in Ads

Dr. Clyde Bailey's terraced farm gets national recognition and is used in an advertisement in farm journals by the Bethlehem Steel Company. Wouldn't it look nice in one of your local newspapers or both.

Dr. Bailey has a beautiful place on or near Coryell Creek, with terraces of grain and all that kind of stuff and the farm scene makes a nice display for the advertisement.

Soil conservation is the best investment any farmer ever made, in our you might say, uniformed opinion, and that is one more thing we advocate being compulsory. If not, somebody is going to get hungry in 50 or more years from now. There will not be enough eats to go around. Don't believe it? Then read about families in China.

Pvt. Henry Lengefeld of Shepard Field spent last week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lengefeld.

BOYS SPECIALIZE IN JOHNSON AUTOS AND ARE STILL LOOSE

Tuesday evening it was three boys from the Gatesville State School for Boys took a flyer and in the taking took or were alleged to have taken, Ruvel Johnson's car, and drove it to Hamilton. There they had a flat, left the radio blasting which ran the battery down and then found Johnny Johnson's car.

They are alleged to have taken Johnny Johnson's car for a real ride. Last reports were they had left it at Hamlin in Jones county and were alleged to have taken another car there and were also alleged to have continued heading west.

Another alleged refraction of the rules of our country was made Monday night, when a Ford, bearing license plates purported to have belonged on a San Angelo Chevrolet was stripped about 5 mile east of Gatesville on U. S. highway 84. The plates belonged to a negro who has not so far come after the machine.

ALL SET FOR SCHOOL

...But Are They?

Off they go! New books... new clothes... but what about eyesight protection? Eighty-seven per cent of all that children learn they absorb through their eyes. Their ability to fill useful jobs and win advancement in later life depends to a large extent upon their eyesight. So don't take a chance. Give your children the advantage of good light for easier seeing when they play or study at home. Good light means better grades now and better jobs later.

Two Ways to Assure Better Light for Home Study

Jimmy's eyes will relax when you put an I. E. S. Study Lamp with 100-watt bulb on his table. Its white glass diffusing bowl sifts out harmful glare. Its wide, white-lined shade spreads soft, generous light evenly over a broad area. Why not let us send one out for a free trial today?

When Jimmy and Mary study at the dining room table, you can help them sail through their work with a plastic adaptor equipped with a 150-watt bulb. Easy to install, it screws into existing socket like an ordinary light bulb. Provides abundant eye-easy light, yet costs surprisingly little.

"V-Mail" Is Newest Wrinkle for Uncle Sam

This is a "Must Go" story that got covered up by other "Must Go" stuff on our desk. This V-Mail release, but it has all come home to us now. We have seen one, on which to write your letter to your boy, boy-friend, or father overseas.

Here is the way it works: You write your letter on the V-Mail letterhead-envelope which so far is furnished by the GPO, fold it, mail it, and when it gets to the APO addressed and then they are photographed on micro-film by automatic machines at 2,000 to 25,000 an hour and the film rolls containing 1,500 letters each are transmitted to designations.

Reproductions on paper are made by other automatic machines and delivered to the addressee in individual sealed window penalty envelopes.

There are about 97 V-Mail letters to a pound, whereas ordinarily letters are 40 per pound. The letters being photographed are in the sender's writing.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cantrell of Gatesville has received the first here that we know of. The copy was plainly written and written by their son, Pfc. Vernon Cantrell, Medical Det. APO 305 c/o Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

The censor's mark is in the left hand top corner and his address is in the right hand top corner.

Incidentally, censored or not, Vernon said he was in Northern Ireland and that he liked it there and the people and was doing O. K.

In the News window if you have not already, you can see some of this V-Mail—the kind you are supposed to write your letters on.

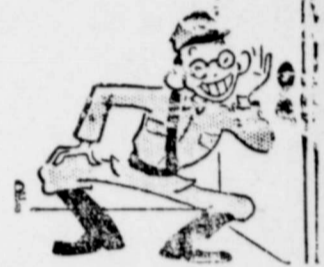

What we are wondering, are they going to start V-Mailing newspapers. We have a number going to these "o/c Postmaster" addresses.

An Open Letter to Newly Weds or May be Weds

Dear Youngsters:

Listen close to this letter. You can't imagine what it will mean to you six or seven years from now.

If you are married, or are going to be, here is a friendly suggestion for a very reasonable hum, and by sending WEDDING INVITATIONS or ANNOUNCEMENTS to your friends and relatives, you can really "feather your nest."

Personally, we have not opened all the sheets we got yet, and the big event happened (I'll have to ask my wife over 5 years ago.

Now we don't mean to commercialize your great love, and we know you don't but in this world of realism, why not make the best of every situation and let the relatives and friends throw in a "feather or two."

Fifty or one hundred announcements or invitations will well we'll just dare you to try. Not cost much and the results, Drop in the News office. We will make the suggestion to you and we won't "expose" you until you "release the grand event for publication."

Very truly yours,

By JUDY GARLAND
Young Screen Star

You don't have to sing or dance to entertain the soldiers. All you have to do is talk. Just pull up a chair, sit down and be prepared to answer a lot of questions. That's one thing I found out during my tour of the Army camps. All the fellows want to know about Hollywood and the motion picture stars and I wanted to know all about them.

If the soldiers asked me questions, it didn't compare with the quiz I put them through. All my life I've wanted to travel throughout the United States, staying a week or two in each town. I wanted to meet people from different parts of the country. When you live in one town, your scope is narrowed.

Of course, a trip like that would be impossible for a working girl, boys from every city and state in each camp I met and talked with boys from every city and State in the Union. It was everything I expected and more than an education. I had to know about each one, where he came from and what he did. The thing that touched me most was that they were equally interested in me. If it hadn't been for the boys at Camp Robinson, I would never have had a wedding cake.

WEDDING CAKE DONATED TO ME BY SOLDIERS

The day we played there was my wedding anniversary. My husband, David Rose, who accompanied me on the trip, and I were talking about it. The boys overheard and that night we were given a surprise party. The highlight of the evening was a huge wedding cake topped by a tiny bride and groom. A wedding cake was the one thing I felt cheated of when we were married. Now I had that, thanks to a bunch of swell people.

The first time I sang for the soldiers I was scared to death. My knees shook and my voice trembled with a severe case of stagefright. It seems silly now, as I look back on it. Every performer dreams of stopping a show, but believe me, no show was ever stopped with the thunderous applause and appreciative response that greets an entertainer playing to a group of soldiers.

TOURING CAMPS LIKE 'OLD HOME WEEK'

In a way, touring the camps was like my old vaudeville days. Making overnight jumps on milk trains and playing four-a-day instead of the usual two. It was like "old home week." Many of the performers were people with whom my mother and father, as well as my sisters and I, had played in vaudeville.

It was wonderful to see these people, headliners twenty-five years ago, return to bring the hoase down in Army camps all over the country. One of the troupers told me he never hoped to experience a greater moment than the day he opened at the Palace Theater eighteen years ago. But he did when, with the same act, he received an even greater ovation at Fort Knox in Louisville, Kentucky.

A NEW CRADLE FOR TALENT

Willie Shore, the "Abba-Dabba Man," who was my favorite comedian when I was a little girl, played with us at one camp. He does an act with a seltzer-water bottle and I used to sit out front with the soldiers and watch him. It never failed that when he squirted the water it would land on me. This often resulted in my appearing on the stage in a slightly wet and bedraggled condition, but it was wonderful.

These performers were all my old friends and it was grand to see them back in front of an audience where they belong. Camp shows have not only brought entertainment to the soldiers, they have revived vaudeville and opened a new field for young hopefuls who up to now have had no opportunity to appear before an audience. A new cradle for talent has been found.

and then did request nun. seems the boys favor the old songs and in my case the two outstanding requests were "Over the Rainbow" and "Dear Mr. Gable."

The first time they asked for the "Gable" song I was stumped. It had been a long time since I had sung it, but after ad-libbing the lyrics a few times, the original ones came back to me. The shows were all at night and my days were spent touring the camp.

There's one thing about the army. It has a swell sense of humor. When I started out I couldn't tell the difference between a private and a general. I was introduced to a colonel one night and to the great amusement of all the boys I acknowledged the introduction with a "I'm very happy to meet you, Corporal!"

They howled and when I arrived home they sent me a huge chart listing all the insignia and what each stood for. Just to keep me straight, they wrote.

USO to date: Operations, USA 892, elsewhere 49, USO clubs in US 536; elsewhere 37; USO professional staff; 1750, volunteers, 500, possessions and offshore bases.

Dick Palmatier returned from the USO conference in New York state, and said from reports of other USO people he met, that he was plenty glad to be in Gatesville and that the cooperation here was superb.

The tile is in at last and the first dance will be held Saturday night, and will be in honor of the hostesses who have served USO since it's opening here and those who are leaving for college. It is probable the T. D. school orchestra will furnish the music.

The sound movie projector is here and the show will start soon.

Coffee hour will be Sunday morning from 9 to 10 o'clock and a musical hour late Sunday afternoon will start soon.

Soldiers and officers' wives now in Gatesville have sought jobs, and through USO many have landed, either full or part time. There are clerks, clerical workers and secretaries. Need one? then, Mr. Merchant, call USO. It is a two-way proposition. It will help you and the unbusy army wife.

Got a flag you do not know where to hang, and of course, if it is an American flag, you might do well to loan it to USO until they can get one, which they have not been able to do. Wonder if there is a priority on U. S. flags, too?

Colored soldiers near the old location of the 893rd would like to get chairs, tables, card tables, games, an old piano, a radio and carpets, etc., for their day room. You can leave them at the USO and they will be delivered.

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

HAMILTON-CORYELL DISTRICT OFFICIALS MEET HERE

Sixteen conservation plans on 3,448 acres between farmers and ranchers and the Hamilton-Coryell District were approved at the regular monthly meeting of the board of supervisors held in the Gatesville SCS Work Unit office recently, according to Cliff Tinkle, member of the board of supervisors. Meetings will be held monthly, at Hamilton each odd month and Gatesville on even months.

Two hundred and twenty-five farms have been signed for this work which will be done with assistance of SCS technicians and the county agent.

After the plans are completed, the farmer establishes conservation practices, as he can get them over a period of years.

The Liberty Priority Area of 14 farms met, and were given an explanation of the assistance available and the needed equipment.—The Hamilton County News

CAMP HOOD

Lone Star State, and an army of workmen swarmed in to build what is probably the most functional—in layout and variety of terrain—of training camps.

"In May and June the first TD cadre went through two officers' orientation courses in makeshift school-rooms, and two battalions—the 893rd tank destroyer and the 753rd medium tank—were brought in from Meade to act as school troops—the demonstration of the new system. As of today the first battalion trained from bivouac camps on the reservation, have moved on and an undisclosed number of other battalion have taken their places in the newly finished cantonment area, from which they daily roll out to range or problem terrain in their two to five month of technical (weapons and equipment) and tactical (combat team) training.

"What is the fighting scheme? assuming actual battle conditions, TD units fight essentially as raiders do, moving all the time; harrying and bewildering enemy tanks with "a devastating fire from an advantageous position." They fight in three vehicles teams comprising two gun mounts and their own protective anti-air-craft carrier. Camouflaged, they dart out of woods, fire at a tank and dart back to a new hiding place before they can provide a target for the enemy. They are lightning fast—and elusive."
