RENTS "MUST" BE CUT BACK TO MARCH 1 LEVEL, SAYS RENT DIRECTOR

There it is! We didn't do it, the Chamber of Commerce didn't do it, the renter or the rentee didn't do it, but the Area Rent Director, Paul C. Beresford, "acting" did it, by authority of the Federal Rent Control Law.

Here's the text of the release received Monday morning:

"Federal rent is now in effect in the Killeen-Temple defense-area and all residential rents in Bell and Coryell counties due on or after November 1 must be cut back to the level of March 1, 1942, according to Paul C. Beresford, acting area rent director.

"All the clauses of the Maximum Rent Regulations (previously carried in the News) become effective Sunday, November 1, and registration of all residential rental property will be announced in about two weeks. With the opening of the area rent office in the First State Bank Building, Temple, landlords and tenants are invited to bring their unusual problems to this office, although regulations are quite explicit in their content. The guiding principal for both landlords and tenants to follow is this—

"Tenant on paying their November rent are to pay no more than the rent which the same accommodations were bringing on March 1, 1942. The only major exception to this comes when accommodations have been substantially changed by a major capital improvement, such as the addition of a room or changing the place from unfurnished to furnished. Ordinary maintenance and repair, including repainting and repainting are not considered major capital improvements," the rent director said.

Payments of rents which over lap November 1 are not subject to rebate, according to the rent law, but all rents coming due on or after November 1 must be cut back to the level of March 1. Housing property which has been rented for the first time since March 1 is governed by the first rent charged for that property, and this rent is subject to review by the area rent director.

Under the rent law, tenants who have been charged more than the legal rent may bring action for $50 or three times the amount by which the payment or payments have exceeded the applicable maximum rent, whichever is greater, plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs as determined by the court. The Price Control Act of 1942 further states: "For the purpose of this section the payment or receipt of rent for defense-area housing accommodations shall be deemed the buying or selling of a commodity, as the case may be."

Further enforcement clauses under the rent regulations concern the registration. Failure to comply with the registration of rental housing property may be subject to willful violators to the $6000 fine, one year's imprisonment, or both, provided under the Emergency Price Control Act for violation of any regulations or order issued under the Act. It is this act by which Congress gave authority for the control of residential rent."

Early Monday, Mrs. Tom Mears called Mr. Beresford, acting area rent director, and the above was confirmed. Mr. Beresford said he or representatives of his office would be in Gatesville sometime this week.

TEXAS' COTTON ACREAGE ALLOTMENT ANNOUNCED

Approximately 90 percent of all Texas cotton farms will receive the same cotton allotment in 1943 as they did in 1942.

According to B. F. Vance, administrative officer of the AAA in Texas, allotments will be available to individual growers by November 20.

Under the present law allotments can be changed from last year's allotments under only two circumstances, the AAA official explained.

Citing the reasons for changes, Vance said that some individual allotments would be increased or decreased if the 1942 measured cropland increased or decreased over the 1942 measured cropland, or if the 1942 planted acreage was materially increased over the acreage planted to cotton during the three year period, 1939-41.

He said that the majority of individual cotton allotments could not be changed unless the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 also was changed.

Producers who do not receive regular 1943 cotton allotments may request a 1943 new grower allotment by contacting their local county AAA committees by Feb. 1, 1943. Farms on which cotton is planted in 1943 for the first time since January 1, 1940, are eligible for new grower allotments.

To date, approximately 31,000 cotton farm allotments under next year's AAA program have been calculated for 26 counties. Texas' cotton allotment under the 1942 AAA program was approximately 9,947,819 acres and the same acreage is expected under the 1943 program.

AAA COMMITTEE ELECTION DATE SET

Farmer-committeemen who will lead Texas farmers in 1943 agricultural wartime production will be elected in all Texas counties, Friday, November 13.

Always a vital part of the AAA organization, next year's committeemen also will help chart the course of farmers in the Food for Freedom. Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of the AAA in Texas, said this week.

One of the first responsibilities of AAA committees elected at the November meeting will be to lead in the production sign-up which gets underway in December after national Food for Freedom goals are announced.

Other responsible wartime jobs appear definitely headed in their direction, the AAA official pointed out.

Although county AAA committeemen have been doing wartime jobs throughout 1942, more responsibility will be placed on com-

CISCO PREPARING FOR METHODIST CONFERENCE MEET

Homes of Cisco are being made available for housing of delegates to the Central Texas Methodist Conference which will convene in Cisco November 5 for a five-day session.

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, Dallas, will be in charge of the meeting, assisted by his cabinet of ten district superintendents, comprising the following: S. A. Barnes, Fort Worth; S. W. Williams, Brownwood; J. M. Bond, Weatherford; L. L. Felder, Cleburne; R. O. Sory, Corsicana; E. R. Barcus, Georgetown; John W. Bergin, Waco; D. K. Porter, Gatesville; T. H. Burton, Waxahachie, and Roy A. Langston of Cisco.

According to the Rev. Leslie Seymour, formerly of Gatesville, now Methodist minister of Cisco, 500 official delegates are expected to register for the conference. Mr. Seymour said that, due to limited local hotel facilities, the city is resorting to a former custom of such conferences, recently discontinued, of receiving conference delegates and guests into their home.

Mrs. Pearl White and Rev. E. L. Craig are delegates from Gatesville.

Miss Camille Lester, student in John Tarleton College, spent the week end here as a guest of her mother, Mrs. Etta Lester.

Mrs. Charles P. Liljebblad is in the Hillcrest Memorial hospital in Waco where she submitted to an operation Monday.

Community committeemen during 1943. For that reason, the most capable and dependable men of Texas communities are needed as AAA committeemen, Rennels said.

Community meeting places at which committeemen will be elected are being scheduled by county AAA offices and will be announced later, he said.

E. M. DAVIS LEAVES FIRM TO ENLIST IN AIR FORCES SERVICE

The Western Auto Associate store in McGregor was placed under new management last week when E. M. Davis, former manager, enlisted in the service of the air forces as airplane mechanic.

The new manager, Mr. Travis Hestilow of Gatesville, arrived first of last week, and henceforth will be in charge of the firm.

Mr. Davis has been here nearly three years and during that time has established for himself a reputable niche in McGregor business circles. "There'll always be a warm spot in my heart for McGregor people," he commented in expressing his and Mrs. Davis' regrets over leaving the business here.

Mr. Hestilow has moved his wife and son to McGregor.

This Column Was Stolen From One, And Now, Another

We're presenting this column which was written by the editor of the Grenada County Weekly, of Grenada, Miss., which was turned clipped by Roland Beasley, Jr., of The Monroe Journal of Monroe, N. C., and it's a 3-state column now, as we're presenting it for your approval.

This editor entitles his column: "Seen, Heard and Told", which you will understand more, when you read it, and they don't stop in the column, but run all thru his newspaper. Here they are:

Referring to Rent Control: "I am in favor of a reasonable rent control, but if it is to be controlled at such cost that it will further push the government into the receiver's hand, the method had better be simplified and more economy in financing it.

The country has almost been ruined by extravagance in government. Most folks are against waste but say, "Cousin Willie has a good job with it" or "it's going to be wasted anyhow, let our town get it." This encroachment has been so insidious that we are no longer a free people.

Old man J. L. Towne was caught working Wednesday.

Kenneth Tolar indicates in his column Sunday that Bilbo refused to let bygones be bygones when Jim Eastland, his colleague-elect, offered the olive branch. That's bad for the state of Mississippi. We get little enough when the two senators work in harmony; we will get nothing when they pull against each other." That's Texas, too!

Sometimes I wish I was down on a pier at Biloxi feeding shrimp to the croakers and catfish.

Frank Hill, who is spending the season at the "country club"—otherwise Ole Miss—spent the Sabbath in Grenada.

Horn and Greenfield (his printers) face a week-end of idleness and sin unless somebody comes in and lets us do some job printing.

About 200 soldiers arrived here last week. Wait until 300 times 200 arrive and you will see some soldiers.

These soldiers are like all soldiers, fast workers with the wimmin folks.

John Rufus Perry says he has reached the rank of PFE, Private Forever.

Wonder how Jack Robinson is getting along. I think he fell out with me about the county agent business.

Those damn bi-focals worry hell out of me.

You were good enough to keep Horn and Greenfield out of devilment last week-end. Do it again.

We are going to have to cut off some delinquents to make room for new ones. We ran out of paper last week.

The nation now needs the offspring of those sows that were slaughtered back in 1933. God Almighty must have frowned when He saw hogs being killed and wheat burned on a hungry world; and cotton destroyed in a ragged world.

Dear Bulldog Editors: Please get Mr. Rundle to buy a new typewriter ribbon. Signed: Horn, the linotype operator.

Here is a letter of woe from a county subscriber telling us that the baby at his home has started teething and that every time they give him his bottle the baby bites off the ends of the rubber nipples and that with the shortage of rubber a serious situation has arisen. Yep, that is a mighty sad story but it could be worse, just suppose that the baby wasn't a bottle baby.

This one cropped up last summer when the Negro revivals were under way. A local preacher of ebony hue was lambasting the various sins of the members of his congregation. In a loud voice he shouted, "It's a sin to cuss!" "Amen," piped up an old sister. "It's a sin to drink likker." And the loud "Amen" came from the same old sister. Then the preacher in one of his best oratorical outbursts shouted, "It's a sin to dip snuff." He waited for the familiar sanction to his words. The old Negro sister nudged another sitting beside her and said, "Lissen to dat man, he's done quit preaching and gone to medlin'".

Hornets Do Just About Everything And Take Conference Struggle From Valley Mills

Gatesville High School Hornets stayed in the running Friday night, when they soundly trounced the Valley Mills High School eleven by a much too lopsided score of 45-0, and could have done more, but should have done less, what with the remaining games they are to play.

Coach Madison Pruitt played them all, and if our "substitute list" overlooks someone, it's our fault, because they played. In fact, they went in so fast in the waning minutes of the game, it looked like a white streak.

Valley Mills' two man team, Vannetta and Vannetta, gave the Hornets some chills, but that's about all. No one else on the club seemed to be able to do too much, at least not enough to score.

For the Hornets, it was the "interceptor Williams" in the early part of the game, and then it looked like Boynton was trying to steal his stuff. Thomas went in where he wished, and that boy Davis did quiet a bit of going, too. Lengefeld playing as ever, played a nice game at safety, and Henderson's passes and punts kept the Black and Gold out of trouble.

You've heard of that "Good Old Baylor Line", and the junior, or let's say the high school "Old Baylor Line of Texas" is the forward wall of Gatesville high school, and with Fry leading off, not shading much Copeland, Gartman, "Mean-Man" Edwards, and "Scrapper" Morgan, with Caruth doing some nice work along with 'em. We just might as well say "Calling all Stars".

But, there's the bull, and here's the play by play:

Hornets kick, ball to Vannetta on the 20, returns to 25. Beardon drops 1. Poole makes 3. They pass, and there's Williams, gets it on 35, returns to 31.

They pass incomplete. Thomas makes 1, and then 1, and ball goes over on 28. Caruth throws 'em for 9 yd. loss. Valley Mills off side. Spread formation, they punt from 10 to Lengefeld on 45, returns to 49.

Thomas makes 6 at LT. Whittenberg makes 6 more and 1st D. Thomas spins for 3 more. Henderson hits that big tackle. He then punts out on the 13.

Poole make 3. Copeland gets 'em for no gain. Vannetta punts out on the 13.

Poole makes 3. Copeland gets 'em for no gain. Vannetta punts from, but it's a fake and Poole carrying, fumbles, recovered by Williams.

On RE run, Thomas carries over behind good interference. Davis adds extra.

Kick goes to Hill on 20, returns to 30. Pass no good. Poole passes, knocked down by Henderson. Williams intercepts on 40, and runs down side line for touchdown.

Thomas adds extra. Ball goes to Poole who throws it out. Ball put in play on 35. VM loses 5, off side. Edwards nabs Poole for 2 yd loss as quarter end.

2nd Quarter

Edwards nabs Poole again for 3 yd loss. Vannetta fakes punt, passes, incomplete. Boynton for Thomas. Vannetta punts, killed on 40. Boynton out, Thomas in. On long LE run, they make 6. Davis makes 3. Thomas makes 1st D.

Thomas makes 4 on hand off. Vannetta stops Thomas for no gain. Jones for Poole. Thomas fails, losing 1. Henderson punts out on 11 yd line.

Vannetta kicks to Lengefeld on 45, returns to 36. Boynton for Thomas. Pass, Henderson to Lengefeld from 40, received on 20 and galloped over. Placekick no good.

Lipsey in, Williams out. Ball to Vannetta, stopped by Powell. Vannetta to Vannetta, pass, goes to 35. There's a little argument and Soldiers give Coach Pruitt a famous cheer, "The Bronx".

Next long pass incomplete. Boynton out, Thomas in, and he intercepts on 32, taking to 43.

Henderson passes incomplete to Lengefeld. Davis makes 4 at LT. Davis makes 5 more. Henderson punts, killed by Fry on 20.

Vannetta passes to brother, making 15 and 1st D. Whittenberg intercepts on 50, returns to 41. Henderson don't find receiver and loses 12. Lengefeld makes 3. Henderson to Davis, a hand to, and he runs to 24 for 1st down. Henderson picks up 4. Vannetta slows up Lengefeld and GHS loses 15 yds for clipping, back to the 46. Henderson to Williams, pass on 38 and takes to 35. Henderson passes twice incomplete and it's VM's.

Vannett apasses, Fry knocks down. Two or three more passes and the ball goes over as the half ends.

3rd Quarter

VM kicks, ball to Whittenberg hands to Lengefeld who takes it from 30 to 35. Thomas fumbles, recovers, losing 5. Davis doesn't gain. Henderson punts from 28 to 28, returned to 32. Poole slightly injured but stays. Vannetta makes 1 at LG, then passes incomplete, and a gain and Williams doesn't catch this one, and then he punts 20 up and 20 down for a 20 yd roll.

Thomas makes 1, Henderson passes to Whittenberg over C. Davis runs thru 'em to the 6 yd line. VM offside, but Davis doesn't take penalty. Davis take it over, 12 yards, and fails to add extra.

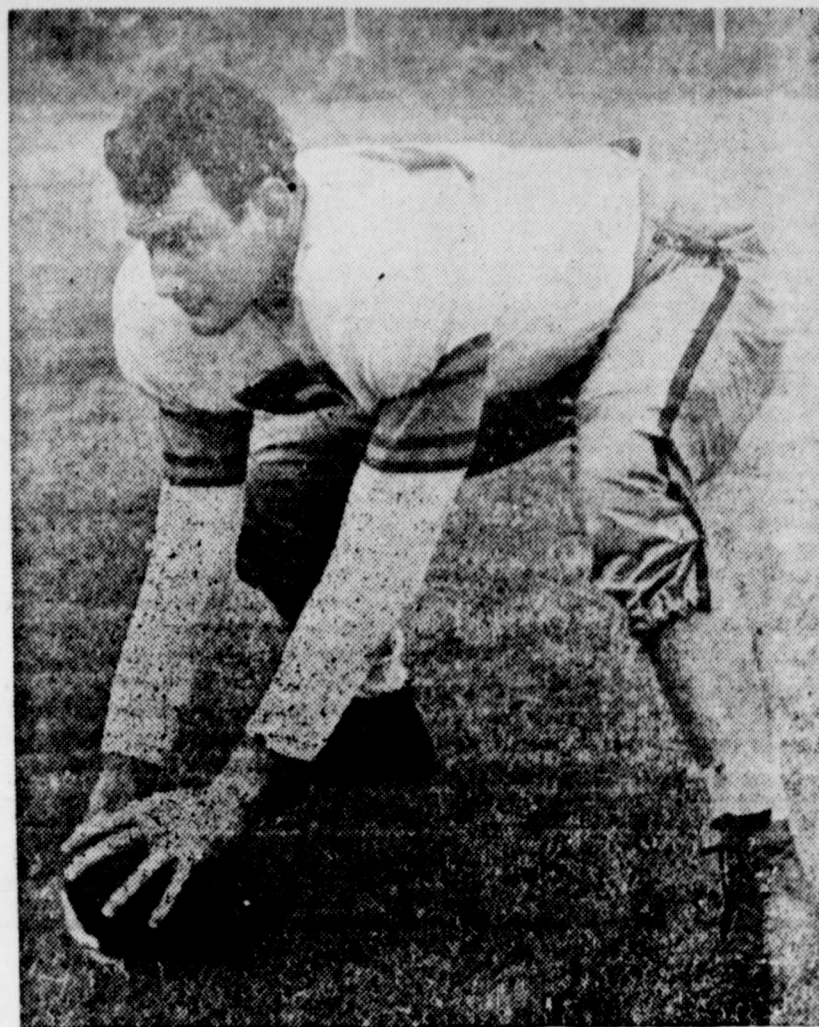

Poole takes on 10 on kick off, returns to 35. That brother act makes 25 and 1st D., a pass, and then they connect for another 1st D. Then it's that Williams again, and the Hornet's ball.

4th Quarter

VM receives, and pull a "kick-off huddle", but it didn't go, and they lose about 5 they would have made. Boynton intercepts and it's on the 16. Thomas makes 5. Hornets lose 15, illegal use of hands. Boynton takes it from 23 and a 1st D. Boynton makes touch. Vannetta stops place-kick.

Weaver in, Tatum in. Painter in, everybody in. Vannetta passes incomplete. Wallace in. Pass to Poole completed, stopped by Powell, 3 yd gain. Vann passes to Poole makes 3, and then they lose 5, backfield in motion, penalty. Boynton intercepts on 50, returns to 31.

Painter to Lipsey, pass goes to 2 yard line. Wallace makes 1. Hornets lose 5, too much time. Davis runs 8 more for another touch, and they add extra.

Buddy Gatewood, great Baylor center, moved out in front in the pace for all-conference honors on Saturday, October 24 when he outplayed A&M's Bill Sibley all over the field. Besides figuring in on three-fourth of the Bears' tackles, this senior two-year letterman from Waco, called the defensive signals that stopped nine Aggie goal-line thrusts.

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE
Believing—as do the San Francisco police—that she is guilty of a murder she did not commit, Kay Kerrigan, a beautiful pianist, has fled to Honolulu. Sam Wye, a clever but woman-crazy detective, is sent to bring her back, with the moral Detective Blodgett as his watchdog. Not knowing Kay has dyed her hair, but using two clues—her March cigarettes and her fondness for a certain Chopin prelude—Sam trails her through Honolulu, Japan and Shanghai to Saigon in Indo-China. There he encounters Jeanie, an old flame, who knows Kay is in Saigon under the name of Mary Holden. Jeanie is also after Kay because of a $100,000 reward that has been offered. Tricking Jeanie, Sam boards Kay's boat to Singapore, and for the first time meets Kay Kerrigan face to face.

Chapter Three

Those first few days in Singapore almost made Sam forget why he was there. The magic of that night on the boat, when he had leaned down and kissed Kay Kerrigan's neck as she played the rum in it—his contentment was complete. And so was Kay's as she sat in the grandstand with Sam—that is, if frenzied, delirious joy can be described as contentment. For with Sam's help bet after bet had been lucky, and now—somewhat against Sam's advice—she had told him to stake everything on a horse of her own choosing: Vanishing Lady. As Vanishing Lady swept past Sabin at the turn, she rose, shrieking hysterically. Then it was as if the whole world had crashed around her. Vanishing Lady stumbled, fell, throwing her rider to the track; and Sabin had won. She sank down, muttering: "Well, I—I guess that's that."

As if in a dream, she heard Sam chuckle: "Well, not quite that. You see, I switched your bet to Sabin."

On the way home in the carriage the reaction from the excitement left them quiet, feeling close to each other. Suddenly, unable to bear Sam's look any longer, she was in his arms. "Even if it's only for a moment!" she whispered, holding him fiercely. "No, don't be afraid! I'm not! Neither of us can ask for eternity—only a few great moments! Promise me—now—that we'll treasure each moment as it comes! And when it's gone—promise?"

In his room that evening Sam

She made a last gamble — for all or nothing.

Chopin, had not faded but had become troubling to both of them. Once, out riding, he began his routine business about walking along the stars, and she said wistfully: "That, I believe, is what's known as a line. I'd hoped for something tailor-made."

"You're right," he blurted shamefacedly. "Even since I was a kid selling papers it's been like that—turning it on and turning it off. Well," he smiled, touching a tree. "I'm turning it off now—for good." "Does knocking wood make it certain?" she teased.

"That's from being a street kid too," he said soberly. "This is my way of praying." But one thing was not turned off, and that was Jeanie. It struck Sam as strange that Kay—or "Mary Holden"—whom he knew to be completely broke now, should suddenly hire a maid, even when Kay explained that the girl had been stranded. When they returned to Kay's hotel room and he heard Jeannette's "Did you call, Modom?" his dismal hunch proved correct. "Jeannette" had been out trying—vainly in this jewel-filled city—to pawn Kay's last brooch. She and Sam met silently, but when Kay had gone to dress the storm broke. Jeanie had not lost her broad "a's" but she had definitely lost her susceptibility to Sam's wiles. All he could get out of her was the wish that he be visited with a pleasant case of smallpox. And he saw that from now on he must work rapidly.

The races that afternoon were to decide everything, for Kay had so little left that she felt she must make a last gamble—all or nothing. Even Blodgett went, but only to look at the types, of course. Blodgett was delighted to see Jean again—he still knew her as the refined Dr. Livingstone! And when Dr. Livingstone hiccupped the information with a coquettish but well-bred smile, that the planter's punch she was drinking had only a medicinal dash of was giving a last touch to the flowers and the champagne when the bell rang. It was not Kay but Jeanie—looking as if her health had required quite a few of those little dashes of rum. A few minutes later, as he pushed her out another door and went to answer Kay's ring, Sam's brain was whirling. So she knew! She had a picture of Kay Kerrigan which even Blodgett would recognize! She knew for certain now that Mary Holden was Kay Kerrigan—and she wanted that reward!

For a minute or two he stood holding Kay tightly. Then: "Will you excuse me for just that long, dearest?" he asked, kissing her ear. A moment later he was downstairs sending a cable. As he walked away, Jeanie emerged stealthily from behind a palm. "Mr. Wye wants me to check that telegram he just addressed to the San Francisco police," she said. Smiling unpleasantly, she read: "CHIEF OF DETECTIVES, SAN FRANCISCO POLICE."

SINGLE-HANDED AS USUAL I CAPTURED KERRIGAN STOP MAKE CERTIFIED CHECK FOR ONE HUNDRED GRAND PAYABLE TO ME STOP LOVE AND KISSES SAM WYE.

In an instant Jeanie had picked up a phone. "Mr. Wye's room! Quick!" she ordered. Then: "Hello! Hello! Miss Holden, this is Jeannette—!"

Sam wondered where she could have disappeared to, but humming happily he poured himself a glass of champagne and waited. At the end of half an hour he was just pouring himself another when a dreadful thought struck him. Paralyzed, he dashed down the corridor. "Mary!" he called. "Mary, where are you?"

Her room was in wild disorder but there was no sign of clothing or luggage. Kay Kerrigan was gone.

SIX WAYS TO GET MORE LIGHT FOR YOUR MONEY

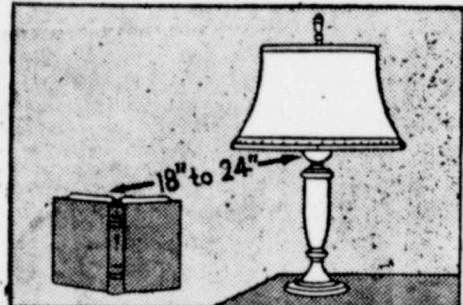

Good light is cheap but that's no reason for wasting it. Get all the light you're paying for by following these suggestions for making the most of your present equipment.

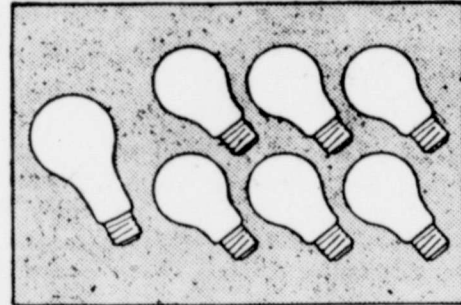

KEEP EQUIPMENT CLEAN. Washing bulbs and bowls will give you 30% to 50% more light. Use damp cloth and be careful not to get moisture into sockets or connections.

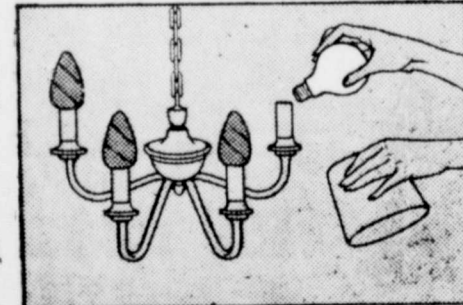

REPLACE DARK SHADES. Shades with dark or yellowed linings soak up light like a sponge. Replace with clean, white-lined shades and get up to 50% more light. Dust shades often.

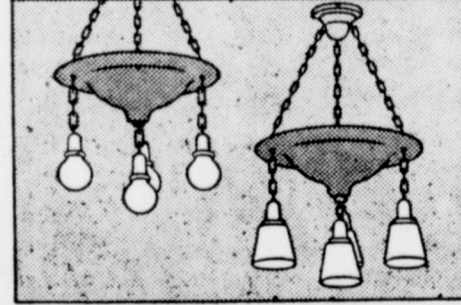

PLACE LAMPS PROPERLY. Stem of lamp should be within 18 to 24 inches of seeing task. A difference of 12 inches the wrong way can reduce the light you get by as much as 50%.

USE RIGHT-SIZED BULBS. One 100-watt bulb gives as much light as six 25-watt bulbs and uses one-third less current. Use one large instead of several smaller bulbs whenever possible.

ELIMINATE COLORED BULBS. Flame-tint and amber-orange bulbs give a soft effect but waste light. Use inside frosted white bulbs of same wattage for more light.

SHADE BARE BULBS. They not only produce harmful glare but are wasteful where downward light is desired. Shades control and direct the light where it is needed.

Former Coryell County Girl Weds Soldier in Home Wedding

Miss Frances Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Nelson, 714 Avenue A, Denton, became the bride of Cpl. J. W. Flanagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Flanagan of Sanger, Sunday, October 11, at 2 p. m. in the home of the bride's parents. Dr. Frank Weedon, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Denton, read the single ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and close friends, before an improvised altar of ferns.

Pink roses, fern and blue ad-juratum decorated the rooms throughout the home. Before the ceremony, James G. Bennett sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Billy Mac Ritchie, cousin of the bride, who also played the traditional wedding march as the couple entered, and during the ceremony, "Traumerei" (Schumann).

The bride wore a soldier blue alpaca with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. For "something old" she carried a handkerchief bought by her grandmother and presented to her mother on her wedding day. For "something borrowed" she wore a necklace of pink moonstones belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Curtis Ritchie.

For the informal reception after the ceremony, the table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of roses and ferns on a reflector. The tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was cut by the bride. Miss Ruth Rutherford of Gatesville, and student in NTSTC, served the cake. Miss Ellen Hopkins, also of the Teachers College, served punch from a crystal bowl. Miss Margaret Ritchie, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest book.

Immediately after the reception the couple left for a short trip to Waco and Moody. The bride wore a gold tailored suit with brown accessories.

Mrs. Flanagan is a graduate of Moody high school and attended North Texas State Teachers College. Cpl. Flanagan graduated from Krum high school and also attended Texas State Teachers College. The couple will be at home at 1528 Smarsh St., Wichita Falls, where Cpl. Flanagan is an instructor in the propellor branch of the Air Corps Technical School, Sheppard Field.

An out-of-town guest for the wedding was Frank Nelson, twin brother of the bride, who is stationed at Amarillo.

Miss Jo Berta Draper Weds Tuesday in Waco

In a twilight ceremony performed in the post chapel at the Waco Army Flying School Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, Miss Jo Berta Draper became the bride of Captain James H. Gilmore. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Joe B. Draper of Gatesville, chose as her only attendant Miss Rebekah Wilcox of Waco and McKinney. Lieut. James E. Ralston of the Waco Army Flying School attended Captain Gilmore.

Chaplain Raymond A. Horner of the Waco Army Flying School performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was gowned in lame fashioned, with a tight bodice, which was caught at the neck with an Eisenberg clip of blue stones, and a full skirt. The shoulder-length veil fell from an off-the-face hat of Renaissance design. She carried a white Bible to which was fastened a spray of white orchids and tube roses. Miss Wilcox was attired in a gown designed of two shades of green. She carried a spray of bronze chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Gilmore was graduated from the Oglesby High school and a Waco business college. For the last year she has held a position at the post headquarters of the Waco Army Flying School. Captain Gilmore was graduated from Georgia Military academy, and attended James Millikin university. His flying instructions were taken at Spartan School of Aeronautics, Tulsa, Okla., and at Randolph Field. He received his commission in the air corps during April of 1942.

For traveling the bride chose a dress of fuchsia crepe, fashioned with a full-pleated skirt bordered with ruching. Her fuchsia turban was draped with a veil of the same shade and her corsage was of purple orchids.

Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Draper of Gatesville; Mrs. W. C. Gilmore, mother of the bridegroom, and Bob Gilmore, Captain Gilmore's brother, both of Fort Worth; Mrs. Thomas, aunt of Captain Gilmore, also of Fort Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Draper of McGregor and Mrs. F. E. Wilcox of McKinney.

WASHINGTON NEWS
FROM OUR CONGRESSMAN
W. R. POAGE

October 23, 1942
Dear Friends:
Early this week both Houses adopted the Conference Report on the Tax Bill. The following day the measure was signed by the President and is now law. The Tax Bill has been the subject of continued discussion both in and out of Congress for the major portion of the year. It directly affects probably 40 million citizens who have never heretofore paid an income tax.

Our heretofore existing tax laws have produced about $18,000,000,000. These taxes were paid by about 6,000,000 tax payers. All of these taxes are retained. The new taxes will produce about $8,500,000,000, but from this figure must be deducted about $1,700,000,000. post war credits that must be repaid by the government. The Federal Government will, therefore, collect in taxes approximately $25,000,000,000. which will probably be something less than one-fourth of the national income and something less than one-third of the estimated Federal expenditures for the coming year. In other words, it will be necessary to sell two dollars of bonds for every dollar of tax collected if the Federal Government is to have the funds needed to carry on the war. Personally, I can only understand these figures by applying them to my individual income. I know that this tax bill will take approximately one dollar out of every three that I earn. (Contrary to a widespread opinion, Congressmen pay all Federal taxes on all of their income just as other citizens do). The man who makes $1,000,000. will pay 90 per cent of this in income taxes, and if this income is derived from corporation stock, it should be kept in mind that before the individual ever began to get any income, the corporation was required to pay various taxes including excess profits taxes which might range up to 90 per cent depending on the sizes of the corporate income and its relation to the normal income of the corporation.

Thus, it is easy to see that even though there are still many individuals and corporations who are making excessive profits from this war, there certainly will not be the number of war-time millionaires that there were in the First World War when our total Federal tax bill was only approximately $6,000,000,000. per year with a national income approximately as high as it is today. This fact made it possible for Congress to include in this bill certain provisions removing some of the uncertainty and hardships involved in the renegotiation of war contracts. I think that the renegotiation method is fundamentally unsound and should, and I believe will be, superseded by appropriate provisions for the collection of additional excess profits taxes in the contract with an element of uncertainty which is burdensome to the contractors and must of necessity finally add to the costs born by the Government. On the other hand, with a proper system of excess profits taxes, the Government can give the contractor absolute assurance that he will receive the compensation promised, but if his profits are unconscionable, the Government can recover them in the form of taxes. This bill goes a long way in that direction, but there is room for further improvement.

But back to the effect of the average citizen: This bill levies a Federal tax on every person who earns in excess of $624. per year. In addition to the regular income tax, a so-called "Victory Tax" of five percent of all income in excess of $12.00 per week is to be collected. This tax is not collected on that part of the individual's income below $624. No deductions are allowed in the Victory Tax, but certain credits for dependents, interest payments, charitable contributions, etc., and other credits will be returned to the tax payer after the war. Generally speaking, it can be said that the post war credits will amount approximately 25 percent of the amount of the Victory Tax paid by single persons and 40 percent of that paid by married persons. If you make $700. per year, your Victory Tax will be only $3.80. If you make $1200. per year it will be $23.80 and so on up.

This Victory Tax is to be collected by a so-called "withholding" Tax. This means that all those who work for a fixed wage on salary will have the tax withheld by the employer who in turn must pay the government for all of those who work for him. The arrangement is very similar to that now in force in regard to the social security tax, and like that tax, the withholding features will not apply in the case of farm laborers, domestic servants, etc.; but these classes will nevertheless owe the tax the same as other wage earners. The only difference is that they will pay directly to the government at the end of the year.

Your friend,
W. R. POAGE.

Notes of an Innocent Bystander:

The Story Tellers: Following in the typewriter ribbon of Shirer and Flannery, the last CBS boy in Berlin, Howard K. Smith, dishes out a slice of exciting reportage in "Last Train From Berlin" (Knopf). Goebels' barrage of lies, Smith states, has discredited him in Naziland and helped inflict a spiritual nervous breakdown on the Germans. Seems that the only people who take Goebels seriously are a few American editorialists . . . The most eyebrow-lifting part of "Sabotage!" is that many of those in the Benedict Arnold camp have escaped the clutches of the law . . . It should be compulsory for all defense workers to read W. L. White's "They Were Expendable" (Harcourt, Brace). If that report can't make you put an extra ounce of steam in your work, nothing can . . . Wallace Carroll, the UP foreign correspondent, hangs the crepe around the crystal ball by predicting, in "We're in It With Russia" (Houghton-Mifflin) that after Hitler is crushed there will be a revolution in Europe. But it's hard to understand how Europeans will have any stomach for blood baths after this war is over . . . Corporal Hargrove's cap and bell version of army life, "See Here, Private Hargrove" (Henry Holt) is funnier than a top sgt. with a soprano voice.

If Clare Boothe gets to congress she'll make many of the windbags there let go of the flying trapeze and come down to earth . . . She's one to break up the demagoguery and force them to drop the ifs, buts and howevers . . . She revealed that in her initial oration with: "What's all this cooing with Franco and Laval, anyhow? All they wish us is bad luck!" . . . John Mason Brown's account of his operation will be called "Insides Out" . . . Jolson, back from Britain, reports the high morale there . . . "I went to see a movie," he says, "and it contained some newsreel scenes of the first Nazi air blitz—showing a movie audience shivering from fright. The Londoners in the real audience rocked with derisive laughter."

The explanation of certain military leaders (to the public relations execs, who take the brunt of squawks over lack of war news) is this: "We're not interested in good write-ups—only victory. The thing to remember is this: The public always cheers the winner!" . . . The peacetime use of inventions (which are now military secrets) will make the peacetime world a fairyland . . . If you wondered about those familiar voices (of the narrators) in "The Battle of Midway" film—they belong to Henry Fonda and Donald Crisp.

In case you were wondering about the difference between the Garand repeating rifle (used in combat) General MacArthur is the authority for rating it the tops. Said the General: "A child asked his dad the difference between a Garand and an ordinary rifle. 'There's a big difference,' said the father. 'It's just as if I spoke, and then your mother spoke'" . . . The one they still talk about at Fort Dix concerns the Sgt. who bawled out a rookie for standing around with his hands in his pockets . . . "You'd think," barked the Sarge, "you had a $1,000 and were afraid of losing it!" . . . The rookie happened to be Pvt. H. Morgenthau, 3rd, whose pop is the Treasury biggie . . . An acting corporal (one waiting for a corporality) is called "A Hollywood Private."

This story, which is sweeping the town — they insist — actually happened . . . A high-ranking Washington official came to see the President and delivered his views on a matter of importance . . . When he was finished, the President smiled and said: "I'm inclined to agree with you" . . . The man departed, glowing with satisfaction and goodwill toward F.D.R. . . . A few minutes later another caller discussed

Ermon Hill and Albert Tyson marketed hogs in Fort Worth last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hartin of Gatesville were week end guests of the J. D. Hedgepeths.

We learn with pride, that W. T. Perryman is ranking first as a "sniper" at Camp Callon, San Diego, Calif. He has always been considered an expert with a rifle.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vermillion and Rayford Glaze visited the Albert Tyson family this week, they were enroute to Oklahoma City where Gene and Rayford have accepted positions as linemen for an electrical company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ermon Hill are now at home in the Loy Gene Brown house where they have recently moved. Mrs. Hill will entertain the Liberty Clubs November 3rd. It will feature a shower for Mrs. Albert Tyson. Mrs. Hill extends a hearty invitation to all friends. Miss Jones, the H. D. agent, will be with us on that date. Mrs. L. C. Perryman urges that all the H. D. Club members be present at this meeting for election of officers.

J. D. Hedgepeth was favored with a surprise birthday dinner some ten days ago. His children, who made the happy occasion possible, were: Mr. and Mrs. Armo Hedgepeth and son, Denny Burk of Harmon, Harold Glenn Hedgepeth of Killeen, Miss Doriece Hedgepeth of Gatesville, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Stanford and children, Geroldeen, Jimmie Dick, T. J. and Merna Beth and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hartin of Gatesville. The absent children were Sgt. Kenneth Hedgepeth of Kodiak, Alaska, Mrs. Calvin Perryman of the same subject—taking the opposite stand . . . When he was through the President smiled and said: "I'm inclined to agree with you" . . . The visitor took his leave flushed with success.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who supposedly heard both conversations, criticized the President . . . "How could you do that to those men?" she observed. "It is not only unethical—but it is unwise politically!"

F.D.R. smiled and said: "I'm inclined to agree with you."

The Magic Lanterns: Far and away the film of the week is the gov't-sponsored Battle of Midway. Kodaked in color, the scenes of Jap havoc make you full of fight. The ragged effect you can blame on the camera right off its perch. It's a real pulse whipper . . . Ginger Rogers rigs herself out in pigtails and pinafores to cut a swath among the puppy lovers in "The Major and the Minor." Ray Milland and R. Benchley chip in, and it all keeps you laughing out loud.

Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. W. N. Elam of Washington, D. C.

We regret to report the critical illness of Mrs. J. D. Hedgepeth for the past week, and at present, Aunt Luie, as she is called, is very dear dear to every Libertyite. We sincerely hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Laxson had a pre-mature Thanksgiving dinner last Sunday. It featured turkey and all of the trimmings. It was given for their son-in-law, Joe Walker of Temple, who is being inducted into the army. He reigned the job of manager of the A. & P. Store in Temple. Their
