EXPERIMENTAL, IS OUR EDITION TODAY! MAY BE, MAYBE NOT

Thought we'd try one of these! There are reasons, besides what the reader knows for the 7 or 8 column newspaper, and the 20 inch columns.

Personally, we like the tabloid, but, unfortunately, we're about to believe the fellow that "pays the bill" the advertiser, don't.

Now, this is not a finished model—you'll note the paper is two big, 4 ways, and there are a lot of other wrinkles to iron out.

From the reader's viewpoint, if you're that interested, give us your opinion on this size, or the tabloid, so-called "little paper." (They're both the same size, speaking of content.)

RODEO FEATURES ANNOUNCER: TICKETS TODAY

Firemen's Rodeo will present Ray Lackland, one of the best rodeo announcers in the Southwest, and he's calculated to keep the crowds in an uproar, with his wit, and also with his folk-lore stories of the ranges.

New in local rodeoism is the fact that Mrs. Dolly Poston has been named "Queen of the Rodeo" and will appear at every performance, and in the parade.

Tickets go on sale at the City Drug Store this morning, and all of them are numbered and reserved.

LABOR SURVEY TO BE CONDUCTED HERE IN BUSINESS HOUSES

Employment in smaller business firms by the Bureau of Labor Statistics is being undertaken in Gatesville, under the direction of Miss M. S. Driver, Supervisor.

This will concern businesses like the corner drug store, the grocery and filling station. Gatesville, the release says, has been selected as one of the representative communities to be studied, according to the Dallas office.

It is reported "Members of Congress are deeply interested in the problems of small business and therefore are concerned in having accurate and timely facts available, as a basis for arriving at effective solutions for post-war employment."

Representatives will call on business establishments to get current data, and explain the simple arrangements whereby one figure is to be submitted by mail in succeeding months.

Information will be kept completely confidential and none will be supplied to any organization, government or private for tax or enforcement purposes. Representatives under oath not to reveal any information, and business men are used to give information in connection with this survey to only bona fide representatives who all have official identification.

Also, The Longhorn Club, Waco drug store cowboy organization headed by Roy Drule will be here for the parade and the opening night performance, on which they will have a part.

(CENSOR'S STAMP)

Dear GI & GILL:

About the hottest thing that's happened here lately is the naming of Frank Higginbotham, formerly manager of the Temple Chamber of Commerce to that position here.

And, the cost, is not prohibitive. The man has experiences, background and connections that ought to do Coryell county and Gatesville a whale of a lot of good, if anything can, if we don't start taking potshots at each other and him. A little co-operation right here in this little burg and county, would help a lot, if there were not so much greed among us.

Everybody here seems to be afraid the other fellow will make a nickle, and he won't get his cut. Of course, that just cuts everybody's throat. It's been going on here for eons and this man is a new hope for a new era in Coryell county and Gatesville.

Mr. Higginbotham, with cooperation, can make this town and county a lot better place to live in than the one you left which, to say the least—was a pretty good place, despite, or in spite of some of our collective and individual shortcomings.

Already, the consensus seems to be around the square: "I'm for him." And, that's what it takes to make the county and town click.

Right here, we might say, the city limits of Gatesville (not for tax purposes) should be extended to Copperas Cove, Evant, Oglesby, Turnersville, Jonesboro and Ireland, and any other town or farm that is within the bounds of this old county. It takes "all the works to make the clock give time."

The 7th is creeping forward, and we have hopes, with the drive ending the latter part of this month, to be able to report: "We're over!" We've always thought we would, but, at times, the outlook don't look too brilliant.

Rev. Lawrence Hayes, pastor of the First Baptist Church is a doctor, now. One of those "conferred" doctors—honorary degree—and it's the Th. D., believe, if we know our degrees. It's a fine honor and not too many get them.

County's getting pretty good, and only 10 felonies were dug up by the Grand Jury, and their "report of condition" of the county was "good." Speaking of grand juries, there don't seem to be enough men hardly, to get a grand jury. Wonder why they don't try the ladies? They're voters and tax payers!

Despite the war being over in Europe, late announcing still brings casualties, and too, something new is happening. Some of the boys are being freed from both German and Jap prison camps. Pfc. James C. Whatley is out of a German one, and Joseph H. Hamilton is out of a Jap one in the Philippines.

And, in a little lighter vein, the "85's" are beginning to come home. Already, we have Alvin M. Taylor, Raymond Painter, and Neal Hinsley. And, there'll be more and more coming.

The Rodeo. Yes, it's a fact, now, and the Gatesville Firemen are not pulling any punches in getting ready for the big "shookus" as Austin Doolittle would say it. The pens are up, the chutes, and the big hats and tight pants, and boots are the order of the day. Dates are June 20, 21, 22, and 23, and the shows are nights.

Quite a big time was had Tuesday by those who visited Camp Hood to see the big guns fire, and the men work. It was quite a show, and many were the sunburns and everything else that goes with a show like that in the summer. We declared a holiday in the News office for the help, but found more than we could turn out in the entire day to do, ourselves. It's as ever.

This is a free plug for the 7th War Bond Drive. But, in our window is a picture of an injured Marine by an American artist. It appeared in a national picture magazine, and was too horrible for the kids to see. If you're in Coryell county, we'd like for you to see this picture—no, two pictures. Then, feller, if you DON'T buy bonds, there's no hope for you. It's one of the most terrible pictures we've ever seen.

This fellow's given, and not "loaned," and he'll get nothing back, not even the interest. The only interest he has in this world is his dog-tag tied on a couple of pieces of 2x4 or 2x6, and some lousy dirt "somewhere in the South Pacific." Some blamed Island he was fighting for—for what, did he know? We doubt it. There are thousands doing it, and thousands more to be doing it, and the job won't be done soon. (Notice Servicemen and Women, this, most certainly is not directed to you, but we know, many civilians will read this, and this is for them.)

Buy War Bonds TODAY Well, more anon, WMJ.

NEWS of MEN AND WOMEN IN UNIFORM

S/Sgt. Travis C. Harper has been promoted to 2nd Lt. according to information received. This was a battle field commission and he was commissioned in May in Germany. His wife is Mrs. Ethelyn L. Harper and with their small son live on Pearl Star Route.

Reports have been received by Mrs. Sam J. Powell, from a member of the crew of the ship, Sgt. J. Powell, Jr., was flying in when it went down over the Kiel Canal in Germany, that only three occupants of the plane got out alive. Four were killed. One man got his jaw broken and Sgt. Sam Powell, Jr., and the pilot were confined in the same Nazi prison Camp. They have not yet heard from him.

Ft. Logan, Colo.—In order to speed his return to highest possible fitness, Pvt. Gerrell W. Barrington, of Gatesville is not stationed at the Ft. Logan Convalescent hospital near Denver.

Recently returned from the ETO where he was an aircraft armorer he was assigned to a doctor who is acting as his medical and personal adviser.

With the 5th Army, Italy.—S/Sgt

He entered service Sept. 16, '42, and trained at Biggs Field, and Santa Anita, Calif., before going overseas October 21, '43. He is a member of a Ft. Logan flying class, and while convalescing, is learning a new hobby.

Aubrey E. Lawrence, son of Mrs. Demie Lawrence, Rt. 3, Gatesville, is a member of Co. B, 338th Infantry Regiment, which was recently awarded the Distinguished Unit Citation for having taken and secured the high ground dominating II Gigo Pass, while the 5th Army knifed thru the Gothic Line, one of the last great barriers that stood between the Allies in Italy.

Co. B. crossed barren, rocky terrain, barbed wire entanglements and minefields to reach and take the crest of Mt. Altuzzo, while from both flanks sniper fire and intense fire from Automatic weapons sprayed the route of advance. Machinegun fire was received from three sides. One man knocked out a German machine gun that was fired from a pillbox 50 yards to the front, and a combat patrol operating forward of the rest of the company drove off a Jerry self-propelled gun.

PETTENGILL "The Gentleman from Indiana" Inside our Congress

HOW HITLER CAME TO POWER Hitler is gone, but the forces that lifted him to power live on. They are in every country, more now than when he became Chancellor. In all the talk I hear of making future Hitlers impossible, scarcely anyone goes to the heart of the problem. They would pluck some of the evil fruit; but they leave the roots alone.

The tap root of Hitlerism is government control of people's bread. When human beings have to say to government, "Give us our daily bread," Hitlers are on the horizon, whether you call them Kings, Monarchs, Caesars, dictators, city bosses, generalissimos or marshals.

With Jefferson the forgotten man of modern politics, the number of people who know why Hitlers come to power are few indeed. Recently two exiles from Europe, Hayek in "The Road to Serfdom" and Von Mises in "Omnipotent Government," have joined the few disciples of Jefferson now extant on American soil.

It is my observation, however, that most of these European exiles are totalitarians themselves. For Hitler, whom they justly hate, they would substitute the kind of Hitlerism they like — communism or a "planned economy."

Fascism has many faces. The myth of the master race is simply a mask worn over the real countenance. In Italy, where fascism came to flower a decade before Hitler was known outside of his beer halls, the race cult was practically unknown. The persecution of race or religion is simply a Black Devil to whip up the dark emotions of the leader's followers, and to conceal from them what he is doing to them. He uses his devil to play them for boobs.

"It gives us Nazis a special secret pleasure to see how the people are unaware of what is happening to them," Hitler said. The secret of Hitler's power was government control of the way the German people made enough to eat. As a German critic of this foul growth said: "The gradual spreading of state control into every corner of the economic system puts the whole community at the mercy of any adventurer who can capture the political machine."

But before Hitler there was Bismarck, the father of social welfare — the No. 1 fascist of the past century, the first in modern times to buy the votes of the people with the money he took from their pockets.

Hitler had his roots in Bismarck, just as New Deal state socialism has Republican antecedents. I ask you to read carefully the following very significant statement by another German: "Thirty per cent of the entire industrial population of Germany are today government officials in one form or another, or work in enterprises upon which the national, state or local government exercises a decisive influence. Thirty per cent of the industrial population of Germany are therefore immediately dependent upon public and political corporations. The number of business men who work at their own risk and of workers who seek work on their own responsibility is steadily declining. Men whose entire effort was once devoted to taking care of themselves are made into mere political officials. . . . Men who hoped to rise and make themselves count as a result of achievement become indifferent mechanical workers who insist upon their politically guaranteed rights."

(From the Saturday Evening Post, December 5, 1931.) This was said by Hjalmar Schacht, former president of the German Reichsbank, three years before Hitler came to power!

Hitler captured the political machine that already existed, and expanded it. People sometimes resist arbitrary political power, but with the exception of a few desperate spirits, men in the mass can not long defy a political tyrant who also controls their jobs, business, and bread. Note how all classes grovel before smaller Hitlers like previous governments were used by Hitler to destroy the liberties of his people.

The American people have no idea how far our "liberals" have acquired almost life and death power over American jobs, business, and bread.

This is a good time to look under the bed! My next piece will throw some light on the things beneath.

Miss Dorothy Allen Of Evant Is Married In Reno

At a pretty double ring ceremony Dorothy Allen became the bride of S. C. 2-c Albert Hooker. The rites took place at the residence of Rev. Brewster Adams at 6 p. m., May 6, in Reno.

Miss Allen was very distinguished in gray with cherry accessories and an orchid corsage. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Maurice Armentrout who wore blue with gardenias. Capt. Maurice Armentrout attended the groom.

A bridal dinner at the Club Fortune followed the ceremony and the couple spent their honeymoon in Reno before the groom returned to his ship.

The bridegroom is a native of Evant, Texas, and has been overseas for nearly a year. Mrs. Hooker is employed in Payroll at Herlong. The couple have known each other for seven years, having attended high school together.

Mrs. Hooker makes her home at the Armentrout's in Herlong.

Tuesday evening, Dorothy Allen Hooker of Payroll was very pleasantly surprised by a dinner at Post Restaurant at which she was honored guest.

Fourteen of her co-workers in Payroll gathered to congratulate her on her recent marriage. After the delicious dinner, C. Q. Johnson made a little speech presenting Mrs. Hooker with a lovely white chenille bedspread as a gift from Payroll friends. Then Mrs. Hooker cut the beautiful cake which was of all white, and thanked her friends.

Here's a letter from Sgt. Pete Lam, Jr., of the famous 101st Airborne Division, who is now in Austria.

"... This is the first letter that I could write and tell you just exactly where I am and what I have done in the past.

"I will start when I left the States. I left New York Sept. 3, 1943, and had a quiet voyage. We started and got almost halfway to England and the ship we were on broke down, so we were sent back to New Foundland—what a hole. I stayed there 30 days and we were not allowed to get off the ship. It was the nearest thing to jail I have seen.

"We ate all the food we had on the ship so we went back to Halifax, Canada and were there for a few days. We changed to another ship there and then we were on our way for the big journey. The food was lousy on the first ship—the second was an American. It was swell. We arrived in Liverpool, England after a 47 day journey. What a relief to get on the good old ground again. We took a train and were sent to a small town called Newbury, England, 70 miles from London. I could sneak out to London quite often. I stayed in this small town 10 months and then came the D-Day, June 6, '44. That was quite an exciting and thrilling day. I will never forget. It was my first experience in combat, and there were times that I thought it would be my last. It was sure a rough battle there. I was in France 30 days and was sent back to England. The same place I left from. I got a 7 day leave and sure did need it. It was spent in Longon.

Then, the Holland invasion. I went in riding a glider this time, and landed in the outskirts of a little town called Zon. It was not much of a battle there then, but it wound up that it was 73 days of Hell. If it wasn't raining every day, the Germans were throwing artillery shells in on us.

After this, we were sent back to France to a rest camp. It was a town called Mourmalonne, 20 miles from Riems, and 70 miles from Paris. We were in France about 3 weeks and then went in combat again. This time, I went in by truck and it was another hot spot. We were in Bastigone. It sure was bad there. We were encircled by the Jerries, the next day. There we were cut off again, but it didn't make too much difference to us as we were used to being hemmed off from our troops.

We made out for a few days and our food and ammunition began to run short and the Jerries were still fighting us with everything they had. It sure looked bad for us. It was foggy and snowing all the time. Then the good Lord came to our rescue. The sun began to shine and the snow stopped. Then our Air Force started to work on them. Then came the best Xmas present I ever had. I looked far in the distance and it seemed to look like a million planes coming overhead. They were transport planes with food and ammunition. They came on that day and the next day we had enough supplies then to go to work on the Jerries and don't think we didn't. We put him on the run and from then on he kept running. I don't think he has quit yet.

It was rough there. From there we were sent back to France for a short rest, and then back to Germany in combat again.

I was helping hold the big pocket of the Ruhr, and was near Dusseldorf, and from there to the present place I am now. From here I hope to come home, but don't get your hopes up too much. I may have to via Japan, but I sure hope not.

I am in a small village up in the Alps, at Unsen. There isn't any snow here, but I can see it from where I am.

Love from your son,
Pete Lam.

Cpl. Steve Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cole who's over in Germany sends home two German rifles which are in our window, and have attracted a good deal of attention. Cpl. Cole has been in the Army 4 years and has been overseas some 6 or 8 months. He is 26.

And, from Pvt. Harold M. Goolsby, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Goolsby of Jonesboro sends a copy of a, they spell it, Ceskoslovenske, newspaper, and the name is "NOVY DEN." The "den" is probably "the" and the "Novy" is probably "news." The paper is a two page tabloid, all written in their language. He also sends a copy of "Highlights of 1944," shown on a map, the route taken by the 112th Engineer Combat Battalion, and briefly the campaigns, and what they did, saw, and would like to forget, we imagine. They celebrate their 3rd years overseas in January.

Among the 185,000 men and women of the Eighth Air Force congratulated today by Lt. Gen.

James H. Doolittle, who assumed command of the eighth in January, 1944, was Sergeant Winston C. Smith of Evant, Texas.

"I wish to extend my personal congratulations and my heartfelt appreciation to everyone of you for the magnificent job you have done," Gen. Doolittle said in a message to all personnel.

"Each of you" he continued, "may be proud of your part in the defeat of Germany. I am proud of you. The world is proud of you."

An Advance Aleutian Base—1st Sergeant Clyde Elam of Evant, Texas, is one of the best liked "top-kicks" stationed in the Aleutians. Each month, he goes through the service records of men in his company, and his mess sergeant bake a large birthday cake. The 15th of each month finds the men usually four to six sitting at a reserved table eating the best an Aleutian mess hall can offer, and the envy of everyone else with three-layer, frosted, cake.

Formerly an employee of the Central Power and Light Co., of Corpus Christi, Texas, Sgt. Elam resigned his position and returned to his home in Evant shortly before entering the Army in June, 1941. His wife and three-year-old daughter will reside there.

He has been stationed in Aleutians since May, 1944, and has served at two bases. Sgt. Elam has been a First Sergeant since December, 1944.

The most interesting phase of his Army life is one he refuses to discuss. In 1942, he attended an Army Administration School in Hattisburg, Miss. It wasn't the fact that the school was coeducational that makes it "undiscussable," but because Sgt. Elam was the only man in several of his classes.

Men in his organization find much pleasure in calling him "Sir" a name for which he definitely does not qualify. While he is only 5 foot, ten-inches tall, red-headed, 24-year-old Sgt. Elam is definitely a man's man, the nickname is merely to let him know that his company is aware of the secret in his service career.

Love from your son,
Pete Lam.

Prior to the death of Charles VIII of France, in 1498, widows wore white as mourning. His queen, Anne, changed the custom when she clothed herself in black.

NEWS of MEN AND WOMEN IN UNIFORM

S/Sgt. Travis C. Harper has been promoted to 2nd Lt. according to information received. This was a battle field commission and he was commissioned in May in Germany. His wife is Mrs. Ethelyn L. Harper and with their small son live on Pearl Star Route.

Reports have been received by Mrs. Sam J. Powell, from a member of the crew of the ship, Sgt. J. Powell, Jr., was flying in when it went down over the Kiel Canal in Germany, that only three occupants of the plane got out alive. Four were killed. One man got his jaw broken and Sgt. Sam Powell, Jr., and the pilot were confined in the same Nazi prison Camp. They have not yet heard from him.

Ft. Logan, Colo.—In order to speed his return to highest possible fitness, Pvt. Gerrell W. Barrington, of Gatesville is not stationed at the Ft. Logan Convalescent hospital near Denver.

Recently returned from the ETO where he was an aircraft armorer he was assigned to a doctor who is acting as his medical and personal adviser.

With the 5th Army, Italy.—S/Sgt

He entered service Sept. 16, '42, and trained at Biggs Field, and Santa Anita, Calif., before going overseas October 21, '43. He is a member of a Ft. Logan flying class, and while convalescing, is learning a new hobby.

Aubrey E. Lawrence, son of Mrs. Denie Lawrence, Rt. 3, Gatesville, is a member of Co. B., 338th Infantry Regiment, which was recently awarded the Distinguished Unit Citation for having taken and secured the high ground dominating II Giogo Pass, while the 5th Army knifed thru the Gothic Line, one of the last great barriers that stood between the Allies in Italy.

Co. B. crossed barren, rocky terrain, barbed wire entanglements and minefields to reach and take the crest of Mt. Altuzzo, while from both flanks sniper fire and intense fire from Automatic weapons sprayed the route of advance. Machinegun fire was received from three sides. One man knocked out a German machine gun that was fired from a pillbox 50 yards to the front, and a combat patrol operating forward of the rest of the company drove off a Jerry self-propelled gun.

(CENSOR'S STAMP)

Dear GI & GILL:
About the hottest thing that's happened here lately is the naming of Frank Higginbotham, formerly manager of the Temple Chamber of Commerce to that position here.

And, the cost, is not prohibitive. The man has experiences, background and connections that ought to do Coryell county and Gatesville a whale of a lot of good, if anything can, if we don't start taking potshots at each other and him. A little cooperation right here in this little burg and county, would help a lot, if there were not so much greed among us. Everybody here seems to be afraid the other fellow will make a nickle, and he won't get his cut. Of course, that just cuts everybody's throat. It's been going on here for eons on eons and this man is a new hope for a new era in Coryell county and Gatesville.

Mr. Higginbotham, with cooperation, can make this town and county a lot better place to live in than the one you left which, to say the least—was a pretty good place, despite, or inspite of some of our collective and individual shortcomings.

Already, the consensus seems to be around the square: "I'm for him." And, that's what it takes to make the county and town click.

Right here, we might say, the city limits of Gatesville (not for tax purposes) should be extended to Copperas Cove, Evant, Oglesby, Turnersville, Jonesboro and Ireland, and any other town or farm that is within the bounds of this old county. It takes "all the works to make the clock give time."

The 7th is creeping forward, and we have hopes, with the drive ending the latter part of this month, to be able to report: "We're over!" We've always thought we would, but, at times, the outlook don't look too brilliant.

Rev. Lawrence Hayes, pastor of the First Baptist Church is a doctor, now. One of those "conferred" doctors—honorary degree—and it's the Th. D., believe, if we know our degrees. It's a fine honor and not too many get them.

County's getting pretty good, and only 10 felonies were dug up by the Grand Jury, and their "report of condition" of the county was "good." Speaking of grand juries, there don't seem to be enough men hardly, to get a grand jury. Wonder why they don't try the ladies? They're voters and tax payers!

Despite the war being over in Europe, late announcing still brings casualties, and too, something new is happening. Some of the boys are being freed from both German and Jap prison camps. Pfc. James C. Whatley is out of a German one, and Joseph H. Hamilton is out of a Jap one in the Philippines.

And, in a little lighter vein, the "85's" are beginning to come home. Already, we have Alvin M. Taylor, Raymond Painter, and Neal Hinsley. And, there'll be more and more coming.

The Rodeo. Yes, it's a fact, now, and the Gatesville Firemen are not pulling any punches in getting ready for the big "shookus" as Austin Doolittle would say it. The pens are up, the chutes, and the big hats and tight pants, and boots are the order of the day. Dates are June 20, 21, 22, and 23, and the shows are nights.

Quite a big time was had Tuesday by those who visited Camp Hood to see the big guns fire, and the men work. It was quite a show, and many were the sunburns and everything else that goes with a show like that in the summer. We declared a holiday in the News office for the help, but found more than we could turn out in the entire day to do, ourselves. It's as ever. This is a free plug for the 7th War Bond Drive. But, in our window is a picture of an injured Marine by an American artist. It appeared in a national picture magazine, and was too horrible for the kids to see. If you're in Coryell county, we'd like for you to see this picture—no, two pictures. Then, feller, if you DON'T buy bonds, there's no hope for you. It's one of the most terrible pictures we've ever seen.

This fellow's given, and not "loaned," and he'll get nothing back, not even the interest. The only interest he has in this world is his dog-tag tied on a couple of pieces of 2x4 or 2x6, and some lousy dirt "somewhere in the South Pacific." Some blamed island he was fighting for—for what, did he know? We doubt it. There are thousands doing it, and thousands more to be doing it, and the job won't be done soon. (Notice Servicemen and Women, this, most certainly is not directed to you, but we know, many civilians will read this, and this is for them.)
