W. Averell Harriman Named Sec. of Com. Replacing Wallace

WASHINGTON, SEPT. 22. (AP)—President Truman today selected W. Averell Harriman, mutual friend of Britain and Russia, to be the new secretary of commerce.

In picking Harriman, now ambassador to London, and formerly to Moscow, he also got a combination of big businessman and longtime New Dealer to succeed the ousted Henry A. Wallace.

The intent was obvious—to soothe both the Democratic political wounds and the foreign affairs abrasions arising out of the Wallace break with the administration over Russian policy.

The Coryell County News learns from E. S. Bennett, manager of the Coryell County Cotton Oil Co. Mr. Bennett says the copra, which is the meat of coconuts will be manufactured into meal and cake to fill in the shortage of cottonseed products. The oil yield, mostly used in making soaps, is some .62 percent.

MEMORIAL CEREMONIES DEDICATE GRANITE TABLET TO HERO DEAD

At a plot made sacred in the Gatesville Cemetery last week by the placing of a memorial tablet in honor of Major Earl Oxford Hall, hero flier who went down to an unknown grave in the Southwest Pacific, an impressive service was held at 3 Sunday afternoon.

The inscription on the granite monument also honors the crew lost with Major Hall, the pilot, when the ship was missing in action, February 1, 1943. The list reads: Major Earl Oxford Hall, pilot; First Lt. J. Castro, Texas, Co-pilot; Second Lt. F. N. Stern, Jr., Illinois, Navigator; S-Sgt. J. W. Wales, Indiana, Engineer; T-Sgt. Paul Adler, Massachusetts, W. Gunner; S-Sgt. F. S. Banasiak, Massachusetts, Bombardier; S-Sgt. J. C. Stephens, Jr., Colorado, R. Man; Sgt. J. N. Olmstead, Connecticut, R. Man; Sgt. M. T. Grady, New York, Gunner.

Lending indescribable beauty to the scene at the hour of the service were the profusion of flowers in floral emblems, tributes to the young hero from sections of this country. Hymns were sung and fitting the occasion were the addresses by the Rev. Plez Todd of Crawford, and the Rev. Arthur Loper of Waco. A large group of Gatesville friends and others from a distance were in attendance, coming to honor the dead and to be with the father H. T. Hall, of the brave lad and his sisters, Mrs. W. R. Alexander of Roscoe,

Texas, and Miss Edna Beth Hall and the young brother, Weldon Hall of Crawford, also the uncle, Dr. T. M. Hall and wife of this city.

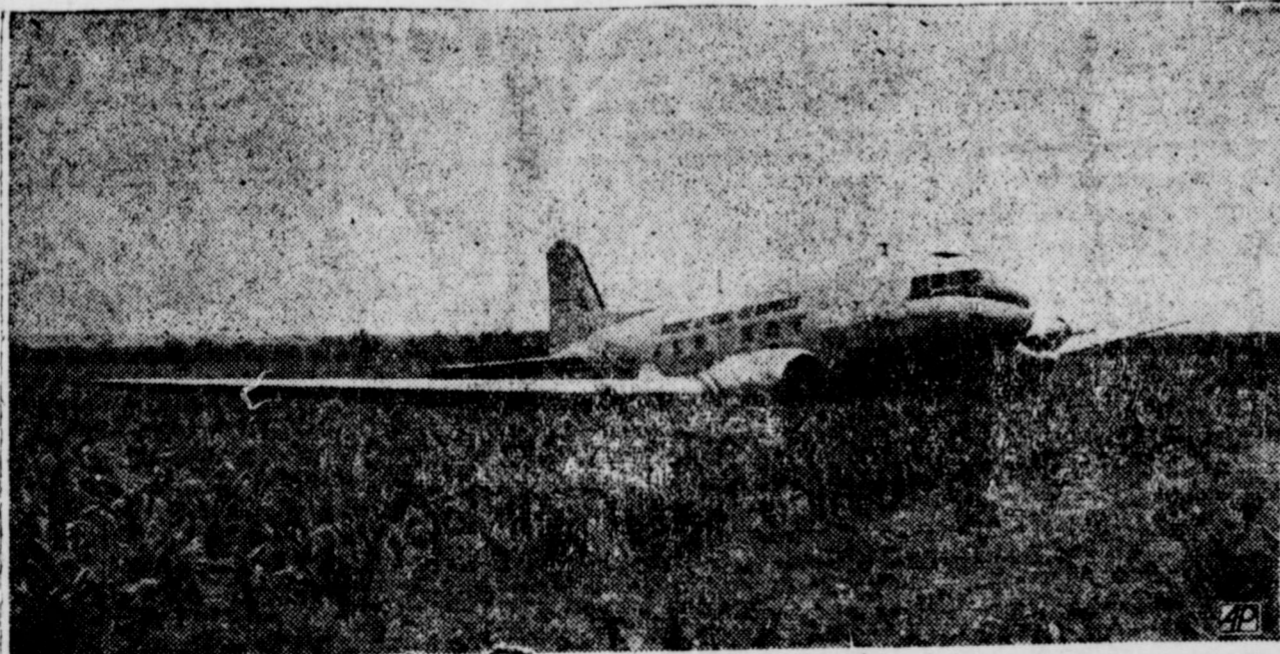

The life story of Earl Oxford Hall is that he was born October 25, 1913, near Gatesville, to H. T. Hall and Mrs. Alice Oxford Hall. The mother was lost to him through death when he was a child. He received his public schooling in Crawford where he graduated as valedictorian of his class.

Graduated from A & M in 1934 as an electrical engineer, and worked for Texas Power and Light Co., for the next six years prior to joining the air force in 1940, was at Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941 when the Japs made the sneak attack. In July of 1942 he flew to the Southwest Pacific and flew many missions and was awarded several medals. On the fatal day he flew away from Henderson Field, Guadalcanal and probably went down in the ocean Southwest of New Georgia Island.

Earl Oxford was converted and united with the Methodist Church when he was fourteen years of age, and was faithful in Christian duty and loyal to his vows to the end of his life.

The bereaved family and mourning friends will keep in their hearts this closing tribute written on the tablet, "How sleep the brave who sink to rest; By all their country's wishes bless'd".

SYNOPSIS
Regi Allen, a manicurist in the barber shop of a swanky New York hotel, has ambitions to marry a millionaire. Although she attracts the attention of Allen Macklyn, young millionaire paralyzed from the waist down in a plane crash, Regi has eyes only for Theodore Drew III, society playboy. Drew has plans to marry a wealthy society girl after a short trip to Bermuda. However, he takes Regi to dinner, gets drunk and misses the boat. Regi puts him up in her apartment for the night. The next day she discovers that Drew isn't worth a cent. His father losing everything in the crash. Meanwhile, Macklyn is making plans to marry Regi and take her on a honeymoon trip on his yacht.

CHAPTER VI
THAT night there was a dreadful crash in the living room. Regi jumped out of bed and hurried to find that Ted had fallen off the couch and was nursing a skinned elbow.
"Have you got any iodine?" he muttered, still half asleep. "There's been an accident. Is there a doctor in the house?"
"One minute!" The girl hurried to the bathroom and returned with the iodine and a box of cotton. "Are you hurt?" she asked.
"Hurt, sire," he answered as he I'd better." She shook her head, much relieved. "Lie down."

Looking steadily at her, Ted relaxed, as she began to bundle him up tightly.
Regi, in her nightgown and robe, close to Ted . . . alone in a New York apartment at two in the morning . . . made for a slight strain on otherwise restrained emotions. With almost fierce determination, Regi was showing Ted how impersonal she could be. She finished her bundling, then took the overstuffed chair and pushed it against the bed. Ted still stared at her steadily.
"You're almost as good at this as my mother was," he said at last.
"Was there anything else your mother did?" she inquired as she started to put out the light.
"Before she turned out the light," Ted answered huskily, "she used to kiss me good night." As he spoke he turned away from her with his face to the wall, proving that his remark was not an attempt at being forward.
"I'm only almost as good as your mother was," smiled Regi as she extinguished the bridge lamp, went Allen reprovingly. "We aren't sure yet that we will be taking the yacht out again. . . . And, of course, there's always Venice, Peter. I think she'd like Venice. . . . She's a lovely girl, Peter."

"Yes, she is, sir." The butler looked at his master tenderly.
"She'd make a lovely wife."
"Yes, sir, she would."
"It's only fair to tell you, Peter," Macklyn continued in a jovial vein. "my mind's made up. Friday's the day I'm going to ask her. In the morning call the jeweler downstairs and tell him to bring up all the engagement rings he has. Yes . . . and wedding rings, too. You know, she might be willing to choose one."
"Of course, sir."
"And now wheel me out on the terrace, will you, Peter?" Allen was luxuriating in his pleasant anticipation. "I'd like to sit there and think about tomorrow."
"It's a fine night, sir," said the butler as they sat on the roof, staring at the myriad lights of the great city.
"I know . . . and I'm beginning to like the stars again." There was a leaned on one elbow and examined his wound. . . . I'm dead."

"What in the world happened?"
"I fell off the couch. . . . It's happened every night," he added, somewhat petulantly, "only you sleep like a sailor and never hear me."
"What is the matter? Do you dream?"
"No" (in a small voice). "I just can't sleep on a narrow bed."
"Well, what do you suggest?" Regi was suddenly grim.
"I could suggest something," he hesitated, "but . . . you won't be mad now . . . will you?"
"What is it?" she watched him with narrowed eyes.
"Would you tuck me in?"
"If I want to?"

to her room and closed the door.
While all this was going on in Regi's apartment, Allen Macklyn and his outler were burning the midnight oil poring over a mountain of travel folders.
"I find I rather lean toward Capri," said the cripple at last. "And then, of course, we could go all around the Mediterranean. It's been a good long time since I've seen the Riviera."
"It's nearly five years, sir, since we've been on the yacht."
"Yes, it must be. How did she look when you saw her yesterday?"
"Fine, sir. The captain is delighted that you're taking it out."
"You and the captain shouldn't

"Companionship," supplied Peter. "From what I've seen, sir, the happiest husbands are married to young ladies with those ideas. It's natural, sir. They're the sensible ladies."
"Yes, I suppose you're right," mused the other. "It will be an interesting experiment to give a girl like . . . Miss Allen, her wish. Won't it, Peter?"
"Yes, sir. It will."
"Yes, sir. It will," Macklyn echoed softly.

Smart was dizzily oblivious to wire charges in a Western Union scream of delight about this new babe who "outshines her passe forerunner the pinup girl like a sleek 1946 runabout weaving through a traffic snarl of war-worn, war-dated jalopies."

"Her glance," enthused Smart, "is as predatory as some wild thing, her movements as lithe and bodily outspoken as those of some jungle creature—but she can knit her well plucked eyebrows in sophisticated annoyance over a major problem such as selecting a $250 nightie or deciding to be ingenu or temptress for the night's chase."

The Civil Aeronautics Board watching a new Texas enterprise to learn how feeder airlines will get along.

The appropriately named Pioneer Airlines, formerly Essair, is the first airline of its type in the United States to be authorized by the CAB and to go into operation. Its route is from Houston to Amarillo, via Austin, San Angelo, Abilene and Lubbock.

Recently the company's president, Robert Smith of Houston, and attorney, O. R. McGuire, appeared before the aeronautics board asking for amendments to their operating certificate, which was issued Dec. 1, 1943.

Inability to obtain planes and pilots because of the war forced a delay in inaugurating service until Aug. 1, 1945, so Pioneer asks that the certificate be dated from 1945 and that the time be lengthened to 5 years, contending the longer period will more readily attract capital and competent personnel.

They ask an amendment in the certificate so turn-around flights may be made over segments of the route, as round-trips between Houston and San Angelo. The certificate now provides that all flights shall be over the entire route from Houston to Amarillo, with stops at all intermediate points of its route, except in bad weather, would lead eventually to the skipping of intermediate points and creating of direct competition with trunk airline traffic.

Throughout the hearing members of the board observed several times, as they questioned airline attorneys, that fundamental policy determined in deciding the Texas case. They gave no indication how soon they would reach a decision.

Simultaneously with the CAB hearing, the Maritime Commission heard three competing steamship companies plead for a subsidy contract to operate between Gulf ports and West Africa. Both hearings were held in the Commerce building, one on a floor directly below the other.

The shipping concerns declared that without a subsidy to make up the differential in operating costs, no American vessel could compete with the British and Norwegian ships now plying that Trans-Atlantic route because of their lower wages. While American ships do go to Capetown and East African ports, none calls regularly along the West coast of the Dark Continent.

AROUND THE CAPITOL:

Rep. Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls was agreeably surprised when newspapermen in the Capital, stirring up copy, interviewed him and gave widespread play to his proposal to reform the "Archaic, undemocratic, and detrimental" electoral college system of electing presidents. Under his plan, which could be effected only by adoption of a Constitutional amendment, the electoral vote of each state would be divided in the exact ratio with the popular vote. Thus if the Republican presidential nominee should get 10 percent of the popular vote in Texas, he would get two and a fraction percent of the 23 electoral votes to which Texas is entitled.

Recent visitor here was Mrs. Eugenia Lindbury Dengel, formerly of Austin, president of the New York Club. She said that some 30,000 Texans live in New York City and are affiliated with the state club. With her was Miss Mary Watson, formerly of Weimar, Texas, who also now lives in New York.

Two Texas army airmen, now in process of being discharged, called at the office of Rep. W. R. Poage. Stationed temporarily at nearby Fort Belvoir, Va., they were 1st Lieut. Alva Bryan, Jr. of Waco, who saw 21 months service as a combat pilot throughout the Pacific and Lieut. Lucas Celeste of Houston, who was an instructor pilot. Bryan, who is married and has a 6-year old daughter, Jo Ann, plans to resume private law practice in Waco.

Friends of Ted Watson of Dallas want him appointed Texas state director of the Farmers Home Administration. They have wired Texas Congressmen endorsing him for the post.

An example of the ramifications of administering sugar rationing is the problem which came into the office of Rep. Clark Fisher of San Angelo.

A soft drink bottling concern in Garden City, Kansas, was sold out, stock and barrel, including sugar quota, and moved to Hutchinson, Kansas. While at Garden City some of its output had gone to the San Angelo area. The Hutchinson company ignored the West Texas market. Another soft drink company already operating in San Angelo consequently found an increase demand for its bottled goods. The Texas Company now asks for a portion of the sugar quota obtained by the Hutchinson company. The OPA says it is checking into the situation.

Lieut. Col. X. B. Cox of San Angelo, by the authority of Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, has been made a member of the Order of Orange-Nassau, degree of officer.

Officials at the Netherlands legation say the award, presented to Colonel Cox for his role with the 82nd airborne division, is given to subjects of the Queen and to those of other nationalities "who distinguish themselves conspicuously in devotion to the Crown, The Kingdom or Society."

It is considered a high honor, and was established April 4, 1892, by Dowager Queen Emma, who was regent mother of Wilhelmina. The insignia is a cross with light beaded points, the arms of white enamel with a blue enameled heart and gold border. Two silver swords with gold hilt crossed diagonally and a royal crown cap the cross. For civilians a laurel wreath is substituted for the swords.

DODGE CITY

Named for Col. Henry I. Dodge, Dodge City, Kansas, became one of the country's most picturesque cattle centers, the cowboy capital of the southwest. There the Santa Fe and Arkansas River Trails met. Travelers came with stories of Indian attacks on wagon trains. Cowboys drove in herds of thousands of cattle for shipment east on the railroad. Others rested and watered herds of young steers there before going north. The songs of soldiers and hupters mingled with the shouts of cowboys. Fearless, spirited men whose grandsons are now turning back the enemies far overseas founded that city. War Bonds furnish weapons and food for the men fighting today to fulfill their ancestors' dreams. U. S. Treasury Department

TEXAS OIL AND GAS DEVELOPMENT

Oil and gas development covers all of Texas, a map prepared by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association shows. Every one of Texas' 254 counties now produces or has produced oil or gas or has land under lease for oil and gas exploration, the map reveals.

Nearly 54,000,000 (million) acres or virtually one-third of the State's total land area are now leased to Texas oil and gas operators. Last year their lease and royalty payments to Texas farmers and ranchers and other landowners totalled $215,000,000, providing a large "extra crop" for Texas agriculturists. Since 1919 such payments have aggregated more than two billion dollars, or an extra cash bonus of nearly one-seventh of the value of all Texas agriculture crops during this period, the association reported.

Oil and gas are now produced in approximately 1,100 different fields in 166 counties scattered throughout Texas, while an additional 17 counties formerly produced. The 71 other counties are now being actively explored for oil and gas, with land under lease for drilling.

Gatesville's C. of C. Board of Directors met with Lt. Col. Hank Clewis of the Texas National Guard to discuss the possibility of activating the 485th Ordnance Evacuation Company of the Texas National Guard at Gatesville.

The company will maintain heavy equipment for the National Guard and will occupy several shops and buildings in North camp Hood.

A year after the company is activated here, an estimated 80 to 100 men will have full time employment in the shops, and will belong to the National Guard and to the Gatesville company.

Col. Lewis has asked the board to recommend a local man for Company Commander, with the rank of Captain.

The majority of the full time civilian employees in the shop will be civilians. Invitations are asked at the Chamber of Commerce office according to Bill Thomson, Manager.

RECENT VISITORS IN GATTSVILLE

Pictured above are Joseph Reese Robinson and bride, the former Miss Katherine Anne Shannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Egbert Shannon of Memphis, Tennessee, where the wedding, a brilliant society affair, was solemnized on September 29. Mr. Robinson, a son of the late Judge Tom L. Robinson, and Mrs. Robinson, and his bride were recent guests in the Robinson home at 1308 Waco St., this city. The groom, who has many friends in Gattsville, the place of his nativity, is now a student in the University of Texas, completing his work for a law degree. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are at home in Austin.

Subversion

However successful America's system of free enterprise has been, faith in planned economy has spread rapidly over this nation's political thinking in the last 25 years. It is strange that the world's most prosperous and influential people should forget how its power was built, and think about imitating a plan that fails every time it is tried, but that's the picture.

How did planned economy get into the picture in the United States? This is the country with no peasant class! It is here that laborers drive their own motor cars. This is the land where farmers live like lords in older countries. It must have been a strange set of circumstances that turned the eyes of a favored people to look with envy at under-fed and over-worked races beyond the seas.

They Only Heard

The facts were not all known. If farmers and craftsmen of America could see how men of similar skills elsewhere must live, they would thank God for giving their forefathers wisdom to safeguard in our Constitution the right of ownership. Americans who lean toward socialism have seen very little of it and heard only one side. Planned economy invaded America thus:

After Liberty Bell had been silent 150 years, the Statue of Liberty grew green with tarnish and people began taking freedom for granted. Carefree descendants of men who endured Valley Forge ceased to appreciate their costly birthright; simply had no idea how it would seem to be without freedom. Sly digs at America and her people were swallowed down by an open-minded generation.

Poisonous Teaching

Protected by the free-speech clause in our Constitution, soap-box orators started braying against invested capital. Crafty minds coined such slurs as "entrenched greed" and "economic royalists" to stir up envy and make success in business seem dishonorable. Wordy wars against "coupon clippers" frightened investors, large and small, and choked the flow of capital into business.

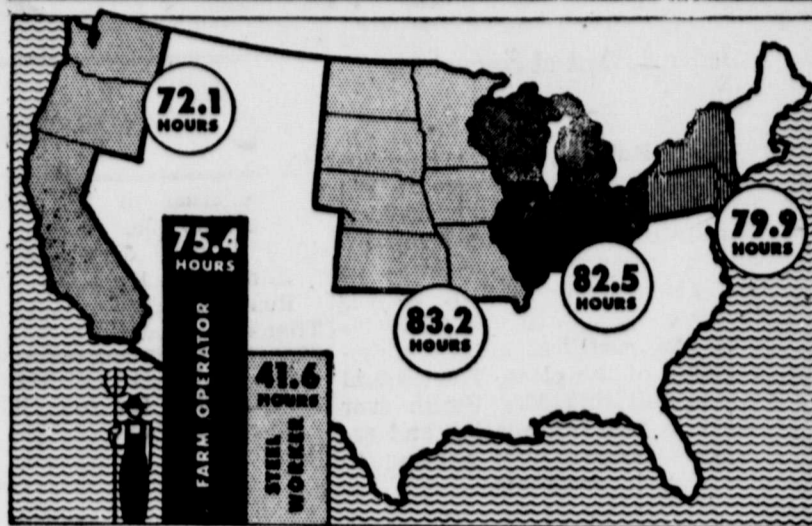

It is not possible in any country to provide abundant lives for the masses by raiding the rich, but the idea was hatched and spread around in America. Armies of idle people were trained to rely on government instead of on themselves. Even in schools supported by the state, boys and girls learned to question the value of individual opportunity, a cardinal liberty.

Government Control

War came, and it was two years old before victory was even reasonably certain. Government rightly seized the nation's resources and manufacturing plants, and (presto) a lion's share of America's bread winners were in war work drawing the highest pay they ever heard of; Uncle Sam going in debt 150 million dollars a day. Things to buy became scarce, and loose money rattled in every pocket.

Quite naturally people gave government the credit when, after four years of government management, they had more money than they could spend. Actually the facts are not related. When a public debt, that approximates the country's worth, keeps growing, people are not prosperous even if their wallets do bulge with "lettuce" because there are not enough things to buy.

Farmers Worked 75.4 Hours a Week

Average Hours of Work Per Week—1939, 1943, 1944

American farm operators averaged 75.4 hours of work a week during a recent three years, according to a nationwide survey of working habits in agricultural centers. In the same period, according to the American Iron and Steel Institute, workers in steel plants averaged 41.6 hours of labor a week. The operators of the six million American farms spent nearly 4000 work hours a year, per man, plus the use of mechanized equipment, to earn a living and to produce the crops and food needed to meet the urgent wartime demands of a hungry world. Farm operators in the West North Central area worked the longest hours, putting in an average of 83.2 hours a week. Second were the farm operators in the East North Central area with 82.5 hours a week, while farm operators in the Middle Atlantic worked 79.9 hours a week. Farm operators in the Pacific states put in the smallest number of weekly work hours, averaging 72.1 for the three years of 1939, 1943 and 1944.

HORNET ALL-STARS ROLL OVER VAUNTED DUCKS 38-0

SLASHING HORNET THRUST PUTS DUCKS TO ROUT; NO RECOVERY POSSIBLE

The Duck was really on dry land Friday night, and the "Buzz-inist bunch of Hornets you've dreamed of" stung 'em from the front, the rear, overhead, and up and down. It was the most complete rout of the Ducks, we've ever seen, and, in fact read about.

We heard both Coach Lloyd Mitchell and T. H. (Heck) Johnson lying for an hour before the game how sorry their respective clubs were, and we believe, now, Heck wasn't lying. Heck just didn't have it, or enough of it, to make much of a showing. Right now, we wonder WHAT Yoakum had, when the Ducks walloped them 27-6, or some-such figure. But don't forget, Heck Johnson's club was new, and he's got potentialities, and Heck Johnson can make teams. He has the Buzans, the Millers, a Wendland and a little McCarty, that might weld in to a real club, just in case we should have to meet them again.

Now, as for the Mitchellites. There were NO stars. Everybody Coach Mitchell took except Bob Pott, and assistant, the bus driver Mr. Weaver and I, got into it, and ALL turned up nice games. When you read the play by play, you'll see names of those who counted, but there were many, many plays where Patterson, Featherstone, Whitt, Franks, Ashby, Gilmer, Vandiver, B. Davis, Freddie, and of course, we've missed some, but they starred in their own right. It was a beautiful game, barring fumbles on both sides, and mistakes a coach would see, it was a super-duper.

But, there's a Banger from Lampasas, and they say he's quite an obstreperous (?) old fellow, and he's in Gatesville Friday night of this week. Let's don't "glow" too much in a win, but get down to brass tacks, and do the "glowing" after all these scalps are tied to our belts, if they are.

Two bands, added the festivities and color to the big game, the Gatesville High School Band consuming the entire half period, forcing the "hosts" to put off their presentation of the Band Sweetheart until after the main event. Right now, let's stick our neck out, and suggest the "in-betweens" be timed, so each band will have an even break at the half time period. Ours got "booed" a little for this, and it was the only thing that in anyway marred a very nice trip to a very nice little city by a very nice bunch of people from another very nice little city.

But, that's enough of this, and here's the play by play:

Hornets receiving, defending the south goal. Clark kicks, Constantine holding, ball goes to Davis on 25 returns to 35. Flentge hit C for 6 then makes 1 more, fumbles and Weyland recovers on 19. Weyland passes to Farr incomplete. Wendland makes 2 at C. Constantine don't gain and they punt, ball going to Hornets on their own 9.

Bone punts nicely over safety, rolling out on the 49. Clark at end makes 5, Wendland carries nicely, drops and Bone recovers. Flentge carries, fumbles, Dentler recovers. Melton in, Davidson out. Wendland passes, Melton takes, returning to 27. Bone carries for 5 at LE. Davidson in, Melton out. Davidson passes to Bone over C for 20 yds, and he carries to the Duck 25 and carries again for 1st D. Bone goes thru RT for 5, then one more. Davidson makes 1st D on the 4 yd line. Flentge puts it on the 1. They're held, ball going over on the 6inch line.

Miller kicks, partially blocked and goes out on the 10. Davidson to Bone, pass, loses 4. Painter in, Gilmer out, and it's 2nd quarter.

SECOND QUARTER

Davidson passes long to Bone in the SW corner and he steps over for the 6. Dysingers kick is no good. Gv 6, Ducks 0. Pennington in, Patterson out. Kick goes to Pennington on the 5. He returns to the 13. Ripple passes to Wendland for 4, stopped by Franks. Clark passes incomplete to Miller. Anderson for Franks.

Miller kicks poorly, taken by Melton on 44, no return. Melton carries for 4 at RE. Bone on reverse, makes 15 before being run out of bounds. Davidson passes long, incomplete to Davis. C. Davis in. B. Davis out, sprained ankle. Painter in, Gilmer out. Bone carries losing 4 as like-, blockers don't click. Davidson to Bone makes another touchdown. Dysinger in to kick, and it's bad. Gv. 12, Ducks 0.

Vandiver in. Hornets kick ball to Clark on 17, returns to 30. Wendland carries on hand off from Clark for none. Penalty, Hornets off side. Clark fumbles, Featherstone recovers. Then Flentge weaves, dodges, runs, etc. 33 yds for marker, with, we might say, blocking. Bone plunges for extra; no good. Hornets 18, Ducks 0.

Dysinger kicks to Wendland who returns to 35, but a penalty, is called on Hornets, refused by Taylor. Wendland passes, intercepted by Flentge on 50 and he loopes for another. Bone to Davis, lateral fails to convert. Gv. 24, Ducks 0.

Dysinger kicks to Wendland on 15, returns to 35. Wendland carries, stopped by Witt, 1 pd. Wendland passes, Melton can't get knocks down. Wendland kicks to Davidson on 25, returns to 40. Another pass is incomplete, Eiben kknocks down as the half ends.

THIRD QUARTER

Ducks kick, ball to Davis, attempts to get, but it's out of bounds. They do it over, it goes to Flentge on 17, returns to 40 Ducks off side, and they kick again from 30, and Flentge gets on 20, returns to 35, and we lose 5 from the last kick, even with the penalties. But, he dropped the ball and the Ducks recovered.

Bone knocks down Wendland's pass. Melton in. Wendland hits tackle for 1; Constantine makes 1. Bad pass from C. Wendland fumbles, recovers and ball goes over on 35.

Bone pitches to Davidson who passes to Patterson, 1 in and incomplete. Melton out. Bone over RT for 2. He hits other side for 1. Gilmer in, Painter out. Hornets drop 15; player illegally in motion Bone carries at RE for 2. Bone kicks nicely to Constantine 28, returns to Hornet 51. Freddie and Pennington in. Hornets lose 5, substitution penalty. Constantine carries, fumbles, Bone recovers. Hornet ball on 35. Melton at C makes 2 and then 4 more. Davidson passes incomplete and ball goes over.

Wendland carries for 8, stopped by Painter. Wendland at other end makes 1st down, stopped by Davidson. Pass, Wendland to McCarty carries to Hornet 15, stopped after overtaken by Gartman, and that WAS a swell stop. Hornets lose 5, off side. Ball on 9. Shultz carries for 1st down on the 2. Another play, they don't. McCarty fails and Wendland at, also. Ball on 1 ft line. Wendland don't go adn Ball goes over, as quarter ends.

FOURTH QUARTER

Bone punts to Constantine on Hornet 35, returns to 28, from back of goal. Bone intercepts Wendland's pass and runs for touchdown with good blocking. They plunge for the extra. Gv. 31, Ducks 0.

Dysinger kicks to McCarty on 15, returns to 30. Wendland passes short to McCarty. Wendland kicks over Flentge and he takes on 3g returns to 40. He hits for 1. Melton 1 more. Davidson throws 30 yard pass to Pennington and he runs 20 for another 6. Dysinger hit a natural and adds extra point right thru the uprights. Gv. 38, Ducks 0.

Hornets kick to Wendland who is hit and Flentge recovers on 28. High pass to Melton, incomplete. Davidson at RT makes 3. Dentler knocks Davidson's pass down. Melton carries and ball goes over. Wendland passes, Davidson intercepts, carrying to Duck 13. Davidson to Pennington, pass incomplete. Buzan stops Melton for no gain. Like leaks and Freddie don't go. Ball goes over.

Wilkerson maks 5. They fumble, Hornets recover and that is all.

SPORT SCRAPS

By JONES

Friday night was a big success, wasn't it?

It could result in a BIGGER FAILURE, later.

That was just one game, and a "warm-up" for the real thing. There are NO Hornet Heroes as yet. Let's see what happens before we go naming "stars, heroes, indispensables" and other pet names that disappear over night.

It's Badger night Friday night, and they tell us the Badgers know their way around—at least the scribes say so.

Advice is free, but this Old Fossil says like many have said before: "Let's just play ONE game at a time." Teams that do that, always win more.

Now, for a review of the week's happenings, concerning the Hornets, here it is: Valley Mills 51, Lorena 0, McGregor 40, Belton 0, Hamilton 14, Marble Falls 6; Mart 25, La Vega 0; Mexia 13, Jesuit High, Dallas 0; Georgetown 0, San Marcos 24; Goldthwaite 13, M. E. Home 0; Marlin 14, Rosebud 12; Killeen 13, Lampasas 13 (There's the one), Clifton 31, Dublin 0.

And, looking at the SWC for the past week end, it's this way: Texas 42, Missouri 0; A & M 47, NTSTC 0; Baylor 21, Southwestern 7; Arkansas 21, NW La. State 14; TCU 0, Kansas 0.

And, as far as this coming Badger Battle, here's the boys we're up against. Coach of the Badgers says starting lineup will be unavailable until Friday night, and that the lightest starter is 142 pounds, and the whole thing will probably average 162 to 165 pounds. Good high school weights.

Tell us, main thing to watch on this club is Leon Canales and another pretty good boy.

And, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the GHS Hornet Bees meet the boys from Crawford, which promises to be a nice rugged game, and these "future A-Squad Hornets" expect you to see them go thru their paces. They deserve it, as they are the "shock troops" for the A-boys, and some of them are pushing the As for their places.

Never does a Bee get what he deserves; one or two seasons without a sign of a letter, just plain hard work.

TRADING POST

By UNCLE BOB

Under the above head, Trading Post, we can write on any subject that comes to our attention, for after all Trade is just barter, and barter means exchange, the editor, trades you ink in his newspaper for your money and he takes the money and buys groceries, and everybody likes groceries, so Fish is meat and that's what I want to take up your time with in my column for this issue alone, the best known fisherman I ever heard of or read after was named Ike Walton, he was an artist in his line, he only used a cane pole, twine string and perch hook, and his bait consisted of red worms, he never used $50.00, Rods and Reels, and am sure he never paid $1.00 per pound for shrimp or 25 cents a dozen for minnows, he was what would be termed in this day and time just a common onery Nigger Fisherman, am sure he caught lots of fish, course he couldn't have caught as many as Jule Clark or Barney Owens, for they are the Champeens of Lake Lometa, that's about the only place I ever heard of them catching any thing, mostly "POLLY WOGS" and TNRTLES, not very edible, and while they are the fair haired boys, they let the "Good Ones" get back like the rest of us small fry fishermen, we can't and don't brag about our catches like they do, they string every thing they catch, the Writer strings no fish under five pounds, so I don't come home with a big string, but what I do bring in amounts to something and it takes a 30 gallon Sugar Kettle to cook a days catch of mine, and I can name you lots of real sportsmen that follow along the same line and leave the small ones in the lakes and streams to grow in to real Pan Fish, C. M. Crawford, Ncb Short, Troy Jones, Gaines B. Hall, K. R. Adams, O. K. Brown, Jim Bates, Troy Sheffield, John Washburn, Earnest McCorkle, Ashby Bros., D. R. Boone, Leonard Meeks, these men would be ashamed to string stuff like Jule and Barney, and they won't lie about what they have caught in the past, course no fisherman will lie, he just handles the truth a little careless, Jule will tell you how they catch them on Strips of colored cloth, no hooks down at Aunt Emma's place in Old Mexico, and Barney will tell you about catching Rain Bow Trout in the streams of Canada, the rest of us are just local fishermen and we don't cover as much territory as these fair haired boys. Well I guess I will saw off and eat doves for lunch, had fish for supper last night, will write you Friday about something worth while.

SET YOUR SIGHTS

It takes planning to achieve a goal

Some young men know what they want and plan for it. Others are still looking for their niche. The new Regular Army can help both.

Perhaps you want to go to college but can't afford it. If you enlist in the Army, you'll get your chance. Honorably discharged after a three-year enlistment, you are eligible for 48 months of education at any college, trade, or business school for which you can qualify. The Government will pay your tuition, laboratory fees, etc., up to $500 per ordinary school year, plus $65 a month living allowance—$90 a month if you have dependents.

If you haven't found your spot, an Army enlistment offers you training in any of 200 trades and skills. You leave the service eligible for further training at the best civilian schools.

You can assure yourself of the benefits of the GI Bill of Rights if you enter the Army on or before October 5, 1946. See your nearest Army Recruiting Station for details.

HIGHLIGHTS OF REGULAR ARMY ENLISTMENT

- Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years inclusive (17 with parents' consent) except for men now in Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men depending on length of service.
- A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since such bonus was last paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 3 months after last honorable discharge.
- A furlough for men who reenlist within 20 days. Full details of other furlough privileges can be obtained from Recruiting Officers.
- Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to enlist or reenlist.
