Doves Labor On Labor Day: Here's Rules

It was a holiday Monday for some, but not doves, and a lot of others around here. Even the bankers worked, not the P. O., W. U. and others.

But for the working doves, which you can shoot at now, the law says, under these rules:

1. Shooting starts 1/2 hour before sunrise, 5:36 a. m. (Monday).
2. Shooting ends at sunset, 6:54 p. m.
3. Bag limit 10; possession limit 10.
4. Shooting from roads or private fields without permission forbidden.
5. Dates, this, the North Zone, extend from Sept. 1 to Oct. 15.
6. Shotgun (only type allowed) permanently plugged to 3 shell capacity, not larger than 10 gauge.
7. Must have license to shoot out of own county.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Reese are visiting relatives in Akron.

District Court Has Some Work Monday Morning

District Court went back in session Monday morning, and one case was tried before Judge R. Bates Cross.

The case was The State of Texas vs. Enman L. Pate, charged with theft of cattle, and was given a 2 to 5 year suspended sentence.

COLLEEN HIGGINS IS 'WATER CARNIVAL QUEEN' WITH SEVENTEEN OTHER PRETTY RUNNERS-UP

One of the best reasons for being Mayor of the City of Gatesville, is that he might get to crown the Water Carnival Queen of 1948, and that's a pleasure, I'm sure. Just ask Mayor Kermit R. Jones. Musta been about 500 there.

Anyway, when he crowned Miss Colleen Higgins "Queen" Friday evening at the Swimming Pool in Raby Park, she "paid off" beautifully, and well.

There were eighteen entries wh were stumping the judges, that evening, and they included Misses Gwendolyn Hayes, Harvie Hamilton, Janet Sadler, Patsy Southerland, Marion McMurry, Von Dell McBeth, Mary Ruth Franks, Mittie Mae Patterson, Jo Ann Sellers, Peggy Southerland, Barbara Smith, Margaret Ann Jones, Mary Sue Brown, Julia Ann Sheridan, Martha Ann Davidson, Colleen Higgins, Jane Howard and Mary Ann Franks.

As they passed, the judges strained, looked and scribbled, and then five were tied, and they had to have a "reshowing" and re-consideration. They finally settled that it was Miss Higgins, who was chosen out of these, Misses Higgins, Sellers, Sheridan, McMurry and Hamilton.

There were other events of the "brawn" type afterward, including fancy swimming, diving, and speed races of all kinds, boys and girls, and the Comedians, Clary and Anderson, winding up with a water polo game which was won by the Ex-students 7, and the students 2.

In the races, free style swimming one length of the pool, Donald Flentge 1st, Joe Daniels 2d, Bill Collins 3d.

Girls' Free Style, Ann Combest, Carroll Stovall, Vonda Beth Hayes Boys Breast stroke race: Ayres Anderson, 1st, Bo, 2nd.

Free Style, Flentge, Daniels, Collins.

Back stroke: Anderson, Collins Ranzell Meeks.

All Schools Open Monday and Next Mon. Except Turnersville

According to County Superintendent Ollie Little's office, all Coryell County Schools will be "open for business" come next Monday with the exception of Turnersville, which opens the 15.

Yesterday morning, Flat and Pearl jumped the gun, and are going full blast by the time you read this.

All others open Monday, 8th.

Sheriff White Nabs "Short Changer" And He Refunds & Pays

Sheriff Joe White and his officers took C. H. Strickland of Ft. Worth for "short changing", and he paid off.

He also paid the "shortages" in change that he made. He did the same in Hamilton county, the Sheriff said.

SELECTIVE TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT PROVD ITS VALUE AS AN ACCIDENT PREVENTION AID

By T. P. Sullivan
President, International Association of Chiefs of Police, and Director, Illinois State Department of Public Safety

The traffic officer who stops you for speeding isn't a perverse person who enjoys putting his foot on your running board and writing you a ticket for your arrest. He has a job to do—he job of keeping you alive.

He would rather face your anger over a major or minor violation than pick you up in a basket after an accident such as pictured above. He not only protects you from your own driving follies, whenever they are brought to his attention, but he also saves you from exposure to the highly dangerous driving habits of others. He deserves your highest respect and fullest cooperation.

Last year on our roadways we killed 33,500 persons, injured 1-

150,000 others and destroyed property valued at $750,000,000. It is obvious from these figures that enforcement of traffic laws is necessary. No matter how lawless a modern road system, and no matter how skillfully blended into it are other safety factors, the entire structure of traffic control still depends upon this important element.

In every state or city where intelligent traffic law enforcement efforts have been coupled with public education and engineering, traffic toll has dropped. By intelligent enforcement is meant that it is selective, that effort is expended in areas and times of high accident frequency, and that records of accidents are maintained in such a manner as to reveal peak accident periods. This, thanks to the pioneering efforts of the Traffic Division of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the Northwestern University Traffic Institute, the National Safety Council, the National Conservation Bureau and other leading national organizations concerned with highway safety, is the current trend.

Traffic squads are no longer given pep talks and rushed into the vast grillwork of city streets. They are briefed as to what intersections are accident prone, what violations are causing the accidents and during what hours.

The modern officer will view a traffic violator not as a promising junior executive, a stable citizen or a competent and attractive woman, but as a potential killer. He has been trained that way. Violations identical with yours have killed persons, perhaps in the same spot, in recent days. That you did not cause an accident is not important. You might have caused one. Apprehending you and impressing you with the serious consequences resulting from this type of carelessness and disregard for the rules by which we must drive, is the officer's business. He grows more competent in it each year. He saves lives and should be supported and encouraged.

That selective enforcement is effective is proved by entries in the recent National Traffic Safety Contest. Studies revealed that 39 per cent of the 500 reporting cities used selective enforcement, as compared with 22.5 per cent of the cities reporting in the 1945 contest.

Proof that the work of the officer you see curbing the motorist ahead of you is necessary is found in records of cities which have undergone reorganization of their traffic control programs with assistance of the IACP Traffic Division. Cincinnati's traffic deaths were brought down in 3 years from an annual toll of 129 to 73; in Memphis deaths dropped from 48 to 31 in the first year after their traffic functions were reorganized. In 1936 and 1937 Cleveland had 463 fatalities. The reorganization completed, Cleveland's toll was cut to a total of 245 in 1938 and 1939. More important, the rates stayed down. For example, Detroit experienced 2,971 deaths in the nine-year period ending January 1, 1937. The major phase of the reorganization work was completed in 1937. In the nine years since, Detroit has totaled 2,011 deaths. Its rate per 10,000 registered motor vehicles has gone down steadily, despite a marked increase in registration and motor vehicle use.

Motor vehicle travel in the U. S. has multiplied six times in the last two decades. It is estimated that by 1956 vehicle registrations will increase to approximately 45 million, with a probable 55 million by 1962.

From experience we know that traffic police personnel will not be increased in sufficient number to handle this growing problem. You can help. Obey the law. Be intelligent in your approach to the problem by providing your city with as many carefully selected, competent and adequately paid officers as possible. Most important, be certain that your city or state department is employing modern methods of accident prevention and traffic control.

UNIFORM TRAFFIC CODE

—of—
50th Legislature

Mac Roy Roser

—Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of four articles explaining the principal effect upon the motoring public of the 50th legislature's uniform traffic code which becomes effective Sept. 5. The following article is devoted to rights and duties of pedestrians under the new law.

AUSTIN, Texas, August 30.—(AP)—Skyward I. Gaze, notable pedestrian unpopularity known to every motorist for consistently looking everywhere except where he is going, may find his pocketbook bashed in along with his head after September 5.

When the 50th legislature's new enacted uniform traffic code then becomes effective, it will provide fines up to $200 for the hazardous stunts of Mr. Gaze and his fellow foot-travelers.

If you, like Mr. Gaze, ever walk anywhere, you will be required by law to abide by the following pedestrian regulations:

1. Hitch-hiking is ok provided you stand off the vehicular-travelled roadway to do it. Sidewalks, curbs, or unsurfaced shoulders of roads protect hitch-hikers from both the law and the oncoming traffic. Otherwise you're breaking the law.

2. You must strictly comply with official traffic control signals, crossing only at crosswalks in all signal-controlled areas.

3. In areas of no signal controls, you must not suddenly leave the curb to walk or run in front of an approaching vehicle. After you have started across at a crosswalk or intersection, however, after exercising due diligence, you are then entitled to right-of-way, even if the oncoming car has to stop.

4. No car may pass another car which has stopped to give you the right-of-way to cross at a crosswalk or intersection.

5. Pedestrians crossing a roadway at any point other than at a crosswalk or intersection must yield right-of-way to all vehicles.

6. Where sidewalks are provided, it is unlawful to walk on the roadway.

7. Where sidewalks are not provided, pedestrians shall when possible walk on the left side of the road, facing traffic.

8. Notwithstanding the specified provisions of the law relating to the pedestrian, all drivers are required to exercise due caution to protect the pedestrian upon a roadway.

Violations subject the violator, whether pedestrian or motorist, to as much as a $200 fine.

The Money Men

Just where is all the nation's money? Probably we've all asked that question at some time. However, we don't have to go far to find a multitude of "experts" eager to point out the answer—their answer. These might range from the old wheeze about "90 per cent of the wealth in the hands of 10 per cent of the people" to other outdated adages just as economically unsound.

The real answer is simple enough. In investigating the possible culprits who command the nation's economy, most of us fail to consider the most important individuals—ourselves. Yet many people think only of wealth as being controlled by a few. These usually are pictured as pompous capitalists exploiting the masses for their own gain. A more untrue picture could hardly exist.

Equal Shares

Actually, the distribution of the nation's money constitutes the most striking arguments for freedom of endeavor in our country. Together with more than 50 million of his fellow employed workers, Mr. Average Citizen in 1945 took home some 114.5 billion dollars—71.1 per cent of the national income. As members of the largest group they received the largest share of the country's money. This is the natural consequence of democracy.

Wide distribution does not stop here. In the same period 15 per cent of the national income went to the proprietor class—the farmers, small businessmen, doctors, dentists, and other professional people. It is difficult to think of the local farmer, the corner grocer, or the family doctor as greedy exploiters. Through their own work and training they have provided themselves with a livelihood.

More Sharing

The remaining 12.9 per cent is again distributed. Rents, interest and dividends account for the major part, with corporate savings amounting to only 2.8 per cent of the national income. Included in rent income are large numbers of small property owners, whose rent-bearing holdings might be only a home or building. Then, too, thousands of small stockholders account for a good share of the interest and dividend income.

The 4.5 billion dollars earned as corporate savings is a far cry from the "profiteer" pictures painted by those who would change our way of economic life. For the most part, this is the source of the laboring man's income. This 2.8 per cent return to corporations is their share of a system which puts 71.1 per cent into the pockets of the employed man. As a minority group, corporations receive a minority share.

Despite these sobering statistics, there are many who would call for a change. There are those who would take the responsibility away from the individual and vest it in a central authority. It is paradoxical that these interests would "give the wealth to the people" in a nation where the majority of the people now receive the majority of the income. They would junk our successful economy to institute an unproved one—all to achieve an ideal which we have achieved already in greater measure than has any other country.

Theatres Are Always Jammed

So much interest has been shown at the opportunity of seeing such an outstanding hygiene attraction as "Let There Be Light" hat S.R.O. (standing room only) signs always make their appearance at every performance.

Due to the fact that he show cannot be held over, because it is always booked up several months in advance, the public knows it had better get to the theatre early for seats. If you care anything at all about your happiness, don't miss this outstanding attraction. It's worth twice the admission.

BACK TO SCHOOL!

New books...new clothes...but what about LIGHT for home study?

Scientists say that 87% of all that children learn they absorb through their eyes. Their progress in school and their ability to win advancement in later life depend to a large extent upon their eyesight. So don't take chances with your children's eyes. Give them enough light and the right kind of light for safe, easy seeing when they read or study at home.

BETTER LIGHT MEANS BETTER GRADES

Poor light causes drowsiness, fatigue and eyestrain, makes concentration on studies difficult. See that the lamp your children use for home study is equipped with bulbs totaling at least 100 watts and is well-shaded and free from glare. Better light means better grades!

Gallup Poll: A 1948 Prospect

Eisenhower: Party Man?

BY GEORGE GALLUP,
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion.

PRINCETON, N. J., Aug. 26.—The mystery man of the 1948 presidential campaign is Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The country isn't sure whether he is a Republican or a Democrat. But a substantial number of voters in both parties think he ought to run for President.

When the general accepted the presidency of Columbia University, starting next year, speculation about his political future immediately began. It was argued that by leaving the army he would become "available" for the 1948 Presidential race, although Eisenhower himself has remained strictly silent on the matter.

Is He a Party Member?

In view of the speculation, the Institute sounded off the attitudes of the nation's voters toward the famous war hero as a possible political leader. From coast to coast a cross section of the electorate was asked:

"Do you regard General Eisenhower a Republican or Democrat.

The percentage who think he is a Democrat is neatly balanced by the percentage who believe him a Republican, although by far the largest number say they just can't make up their minds what he is. Think Eisenhower is a

Republican	22%
Think he is a Democrat	20%
Don't Know	58%

There is a tendency for Democratic voters to claim him as a Democrat and for Republicans to claim him as a member of their team. The general hails from Kansas, a strongly Republican state, where a number of Republican leaders are reported to be setting the stage for an Eisenhower boom.

Few Have Thought of Him?
The fact that the general is comparatively free from traditional political tags may enhance his pulling power as a candidate with the people, although it might limit support for him from party machines and bosses. In any case, about one-third of the nation's voters would like to see him run in 1948.

"Would you like to see General Eisenhower become a candidate for President in 1948?"

Yes 35%
No 48%
No Opinion 17%

However, comparatively few voters in either party have given much thought to Eisenhower as a possible candidate. When the institute has asked, "What man would you like to see elected President in 1948?" only 4 per cent of Republicans with opinions and 6 per cent of Democrats volunteered his name. One reason, undoubtedly, is that there has been less publicity about him as a possible candidate than about such men as Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Harold E. Stassen, President Truman and others who lead the field of popular choices.

Popular With Workers.
One important asset of General Eisenhower is his popularity with working classes. In today's survey the occupation group showing the highest vote in favor of his becoming a candidate is the manual worker group. That is the section of the population where the Republicans are

The attitude by occupation groups toward General Eisenhower's candidacy is shown in the following:

	Yes	No	Undec
Farmers	24%	54%	22%
Prof and Bus.	25	64	11
White collar	31	54	15
Manual workers	44	37	19

The substantial support in the manual worker group may stem in part from the enthusiastic reception which General Eisenhower won from the CIO when he addressed the union convention early this year. In fact, that speech was in large responsible for starting speculation about the general for 1948.

Medical Officials Hail "Let There Be Light"

An evergrowing list of medical authorities endorse the new picture, "Let There Be Light". These men, and women, who actually handle such cases every day, realize that this film is a superior fore awakening an adamant public to the facts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ward and J. C. Jr. and Mr and Mrs Fred Reed are visiting Mrs. Ward's daughters, Mrs. J. M. Antonich and Mrs. Bud Blume of Anaconda Montana.

Could You Ever Forget?

The way ahead seemed clear. In a moment of careless relaxation the driver swung his eyes from the road. In that same moment a ball bounced into the street — after it ran a little child. It was only a brief moment, but long enough for a lifetime of regret.

Last year more than 3,500 American children under the age of 14 were killed by automobiles, 160,000 were injured. This State, in some degree, contributed to that toll.

With school days here again, child casualties will rise unless every individual driver makes it his self-appointed responsibility to safeguard these young lives from harm.

When driving through school zones—and streets where children are at play—use extreme caution. Always be ready for split-second action, even though moving at moderate speed. Anticipate the unexpected.

There's no indemnity that can restore a human life. If, because of one careless act of yours, a child died or its young body were maimed—could you ever forget?

This advertisement is presented in the public interest by the President's Highway Safety Conference and the daily and weekly newspapers of the nation through their Press and Publisher Associations.

Coryell City Stopped Dallas Textiles 4-3 In C. City Game

Covered up on desk, but here's how Coryell City took one from Dallas Textiles, Dallas, on which Pierce Richards, formerly of Gatesville played.

First inning no score; in the third, Dallas boys got 5 hits and three runs, showing Dallas 3-0 at end of the third, and that was all for them.

In the fourth, Ira Gholke, singled, Ira Westerfield got a 3-base hit, and Gholke scored.

In the 8th, Newt Westerfield hit a circuit clout, and the count was Dallas 3, Coryell City 3.

With one out, Pete Giebler got a two-sacker and scored on Landfried's for the fourth tally, and the ball game.

For the statistical Dallas got 6 hits and 3 errors; Coryell City got 10 hits, and made two bobbles. Wiggs for Coryell City whiffed 8 and Cooper of Big D. whiffed 5. Kellerman received for See City.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Oldham of Houston; he's with Humble; were visitors in Gatesville, Evant, Hico and Hamilton, recently.

V. N. Bentley of Austin was a Labor Day visitor in Gatesville. He's with one of the State Department's in Austin.

Mitchell's Hopfuls Begin Workouts in The A. M. Coolness Monday Morning

Coach Loyd Mitchell's 1947 hopefuls began their preliminary workouts at 8 a. m. Monday morning, as did probably 100,000 more high school and college boys throughout the state. Work was the order of that Labor Day.

Those present at the 8 a. m. session were Bill McIlroy, Billy Sheridan, Dub Holt, manager, Frank Newton, Glenn Deavers, Damon Wicker, Kent Biffle, a junior hi, James Guimarin, Fisher Brown, Jarvis Wheat, Charles Woodward Cotton Davidson, Bill Bradley, manager, William (Pete) Schange, manager, George Dy, singer, Jerry Fredde, Crawford, Meeks and Spence (junior hi's), Bobby Wright, Joe Daniels, Geo. Whitt, Belvin Gilmer, Nevada Black, Belvin Lary, Ernest Moore, Edgar Sims, Wayne Price Ranzell Meeks and Clay Davis.

There is lots of hard work between now and the first game, only 10 days from now, when the Hornets take on the Killeen Bulldogs here for the opener of the 1947 football season.

Coach Mitchell, vrobably has'em picked, or nearly for the opener, but there is still a way for an aspiring and prespiring footballer to get off the bench. Hard work.

GET AGGIE SHEEPSKINS AT SUMMER GRADUATION

Lawrence E. Dooley of Ireland, won his Master of Education degree in agricultural education at A & M the summer term, and William A. McDonald, Gatesville, got his Bachelor of Science in the same.

They were among the nearly 400 summer graduates.

THIS IS ADDED TO THE PTA STORY ON ANOTHER PAGE

The speaker for the PTA meeting, as announced elsewhere will be Mrs. Neal Foster of Waco, and this comes from Mrs. Floyd Zeigler, program chairman, thru Mrs. Buddy Biffle, reporter.

Just add this to the other story you read in this issue of the News about the PTA.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Kirby of Temple were Labor Day visitors in Gatesville.

Mrs. R. L. Routh and sons John Elmo and Robert were visitors in Gatesville this week end. Robert is enroute to Fort Worth where he will enter TCU.

Quince Bone of Waco, who is with a dental laboratory there, was a visitor with relatives and friends here Saturday.

Roy Acuff, Feature Of Central Texas Fair at Temple

Along with his Grand Ole Opry Gand, direct from Nashville, Tennessee and Hollywood. The show features the Smoky Mountain Boys and Girls, Pap and his Jug Band, Velma and her Big Bashful Brother Oswald; also a special added attraction, Rachel and her Banjo. This is one of the most outstanding shows on tour today. Two hours of music, songs and comedy for the entire family. The secret of this fellow, Roy Acuff's tremendous success and popularity is that he sings with his heart as well as with his vocal cords, and puts everything in his heart into the show from start to finish.

He is on leave from his Grand Ole Opry, NBC Coast to Coast Network, heard from Nashville, every Saturday night. Acuff's show will feature over an hour of music songs and comedy twice each night will please everyone.

Coryell County Baseball Playoff To Open In Gatesville Sunday Afternoon

From all points, managers, players, sports writers or whathave-you, the opinion we gather is that they're all rearing to start the playoff Sunday in the Coryell County Base Ball League Plaoff. We're ready, and the diamond will be too.

So, with no objections coming, we'd say it should look like this for the first Sunday's play, Sunday, September 7:

Evant vs T'ville, 3:00 p. m.

Then, if Purlmela isn't scheduled by Sunday, 7th, for a game with the Cow House Basin League, then it could meet Coryell City in the opener, say at about 2 o'clock, which would push the first game on a little later in the afternoon. So, there are plenty of "if's and And's" about it, and sine Czar Rabon Balch is out of town today, and hasn't been consulted, this ought to be O.K., provided there are no complications that set up.

The 10 run rule is in force (10 runs at the end of the 7th). The eligibles have been turned in, the umpires nated, everything is now ready, but the umpire's order:

Gap. Believe Indian Gap won, and that's the club Purlmela is supposed to meet Sunday next.

Fred Post, student at Baylor, was a Labor Day visitor in Gatesville.

"Play Ball"

Two bankers, or more will be ticket takers, and there'll be fence guards, and diamond guards, ball shaggers, sound, and maybe, the Mayor, Dr. Kermit R. Jones or a "stand-in" will throw out the first ball, and we're off for the First Coryell County Baseball Tournament Play-off since the last one, which was then the NEWS County Baseball Championship, which was won by Jonesboro in 1938, and Pidcoke 1939-40, which was the last time the old battered trophy was played for.

Although, this present tournament is co-sponsored with the Gtesville Messenger & Star Forum, and its Sports Editor, John Frank Post, we are including the trophy in the awards, and will have the winner's name engraved on the trophy, and in addition, will present the team, as a gift until next year, the "Pittsburgh Pirate Coryell County Championship Baseball Award", which is an autographed baseball, with Heinie Manush, Andy Hewlett Leo Mackey's signatures.

So, no squaks to the contrary being uttered, the "shokus is on". Come, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 7.

Herbert Nance of Cameron was a visitor in Gatesville last week.

J. D. Blum of Marlin, former GHS footballer was a visitor here Saturday and said he was going out for the Marlin Bulldog team.

RULES FOR PLAYING

For any Number of Players

One player is chosen to act as "Banker" of the game. He does not play, his part in the game being to draw and call the number counters.

The "Banker" shuffles the Bingo cards and places them face down on the table. He then allows each player to draw a card. The covering counters are divided evenly among the players. These are used to cover the numbers as called.

The "Banker" places before him the Bingo number sheet which gives the complete list of numbers, and as he calls the numbers he places them over the corresponding number on this sheet.

The number counters should be placed in a deep box or paper bag so that the numbers cannot be seen.

The players place their Bingo card face up in front of them. To begin, each player places a counter on the "Free" space in the center of his card.

The "Banker" now draws a numbered counter blindly from the container, and calls it aloud and places it face up on the number sheet. Suppose he calls "N 45." The player having a card with the number "45" in his third row under "N", calls it and places one of his covering counters over the number. If no player has a card bearing the number called, it is simply placed on the number sheet along with the others.

The game proceeds in this way with the "Banker" calling the numbers and the players covering when their numbers are called, until a player has covered five numbers in a row, when he calls "Bingo!" and the game stops. The player may have five numbers in a row, horizontally, vertically or diagonally. After the player calls "Bingo," he reads back the five numbers in his row, and they are checked by the "Banker" who notes if they are on his number sheet. The "Banker" then adds the numbers covered in the winning row, and enters the total as the score for the winner on a score sheet.

A game may be for 1,000 points, or may be played by hands, the player having the highest score at the end of an agreed number of hands being the winner.

Bingo Played for Stakes

Bingo may be played for stakes and each player may buy from the "Banker" as many cards as he wishes for two or five chips each, as may be agreed upon. The chips are put in the "Kitty" and the winner takes all.
