The 'spirit's heere, but our 'sp-rite' has gone - - long gone.

Just where, when, how, or why, or, even who(donow, donow!

So the wheels of this 'industry' (?) have clanked to a deathly stillness.

Maybe, in the near future, we'll be able to fix it, so there'll be no 'spirited sprites' and our little industry will go merrily on it's way without these nefarious nuisance. Nyet! No, nyet yet.

'Tis said, misery loves company. Last week, we helped another newspaper publisher get out - - his machine was brokn down - -, and frankly, we paid our operator too much, and since then, he must have had too much.

We san name you any number of other publishers that are having equal luck, or less, but, why bring all this up.

Right here, when we're supposed to be the merriest of merry, and have everything clicking to tell the foldks what a wonderful array of Christmas gifting merchandise the stores here have, we could hardly tell you if they told us to tell you, which they haven't because we don't have the machine man to set the information so's you could read it. So, guess we're not missing so much, anyway, and since you all read the papers from Senator Crawford Martin of Hillsboro was th 'honoree' at a C-C banquet honoring him at Gatesville High School Auditorium Thursday evening.

Introduced by L. C. McKamie, superintendent of schools, said: "our Senator and our friend, as well, has done a wonderful job representing the people of this district. Our interests are his interests."

Other notables presented, and speaking briefly were Sen. Jarrad Secrest, Temple; Sen. Louis Crump San Saba, Reb. H. A. Leaverton, Evant; George B. Painter, president, Gatesville C-C, O. F. Perry, superintendent, SSB, Texas Youth Council members Robert J. Kneebone, Houston; Louis Henna, Round Rock, Dr. Jack Turman, executive secretary of the Youth Council.

Bouquets were handed out profusely in brief talks by Painter, Leaverton, Secrest, Crump and others.

Senator Martin commented on the 'troubles' at SSB since 1952, and said: "We hope to maintain a school that doesn't look like a prison, and at the same time we are trying to do an over-all job thruout the state at our schools. He praised Supt. Perry and his staff as 'outstanding'. "We have in Texas one of the best records of any state insofar as juveniles being returned."

He said the new security school at Gatesville will employ 150 additional people, making a total of 450 employees at the institution, and that maximum security will be provided to prevent escapes and pointed out that fencing costing $114,000 per mile is being installed.

H. K. Jackson, Sr., was toastmaster, and assured the continued cooperation to Sen. Martin from the community and Coryell County.

THE AMERICAN WAY

TEAM WORK PAYS OFF

The St. Lawrence Seaway seems to be doing very well, thank you! This joint enterprise of the Dominion of Canada and the U.S.A., already has indicated that the huge cost involved in its building, will turn out to be a sound investment.

In the current navigation season up to September 30, some 14,200,000 tons of cargo were carried through the St. Lawrence Seaway (from Montreal to Lake Ontario). This represents an increase of 67 percent over the tonnage that passed through the old St. Lawrence canals for the time period of 1958.

For the month of September cargo carried through the Seaway between Montreal and Lake Ontario amounted to 2,600,000 tons, 81 percent above September 1958.

As readers will recall, the United States procrastinated about participating in this huge venture. It was not until Canada pulled Uncle Sam's whiskers a bit by threatening to go it alone that the U.S.A. finally decided to join hands. The success of the Seaway so far must be most reassuring to a formerly reluctant Uncle Sam. In turn, the Canadian authorities are to be commended on their dogged determination and persistence in getting the Seaway under construction.

Once again it has been demonstrated that two peaceful neighbors by combining their efforts can accomplish much for the benefit of the citizens of both.

BERSAILLES, Ky. — "In our book, the heroes of the day are those anonymous doctors out in California who succeeded in putting back the leg of a young foundry worker after it had been chewed off by a crane. "This, we think, is progress. We would be far more proud to have had ever so slight a hand in this victory than to have controlled the lunik camera that (they say) shot the back of the moon."

"Battle Border"

Little known facts about Texas boundaries.

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE TEXAS ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE.

PART XI

Rivers usually flow along in a series of loops rather than a straight line.

The Rio Grande is no exception. In times of flood the river will cut straight ahead, rejoining the channel further down stream, leaving an exposed loop which becomes a dry bed.

Inside this loop is a plot of dry ground which has, by action of the river, changed its position from one side of the river to the other. These facts of land are called "Bancos".

"These 'bancos' created even more complicated legal questions to add to the stockpile of Texas boundary disputes," Attorney General Will Wilson comments.

In 1836 the Republic of Texas fixed the boundaries along the principal stream of the Rio Grande. The Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo in 1848 fixed the boundary as the middle of the Rio Grande following the deepest channel.

nel began to pose real problems and in another treaty in 1884 it was agreed that any bancos cut off since 1852 by the river should remain part of the original nation.

"This meant that parts of the United States were south of the river and parts of Mexico were north of the river."

This naturally did not work so another treaty eliminated all present and future bancos and fixed the line between the two nations along the deepest channel of the streams. The 58 bancos remaining on the north side of the Rio Grande went to the United States.

The International Boundary Commission is directed to set monuments in the abandoned beds of the river where the boundaries of the bancos could be clearly defined.

Private Mexican landowners continue to own land even when it moved north of the river. In Mexico the government owns all the minerals while in Texas the landowners control the minerals.

By a 1922 statute, the Federal Government ceded jurisdiction over the bancos and provided that they be a part of the State of Texas.

The heart of controversy is this:

Because the act did not specifically state what happens to the ownership of the minerals under the bancos it appears in the light of the Tidelands experience, that another three way battle looms between the Federal Government, the State of Texas and the Mexican landowners over the minerals under the bancos.

The General Land Office reports that none of the bancos have been leased by the state for minerals in view of the uncertainty of the title.

The Texas portion of the river bed has been leased, but not the bancos.

Oil drilling along the Rio Grande will eventually force a decision regarding mineral rights.

LOVE or BE ENSLAVED!

"Where love stops, power begins, and violence, and terror"

Those are words from Dr. Carl Jung's magnificent little book—THE UNDISCOVERED SELF—quoted in the context of a "Vision for America" in the "Words to Grow on" calendar for 1960, just published by Spiritual Mobilization (Box 877, San Jacinto, California).

Dr. Jung makes the point that to counteract the edenges arising from collectivized mass men who find dictators the moving force to hold them together "the free society needs a bond of an affective nature a principle of a kind like - - - the Christian love of your neighbor."

In America we have gotten as far as "freedom under law." But American law was meant only to protect individuals in their freedom to move on to the higher principle of freedom under love. It is only in love that man can be really free.

But if, instead of love, we move farther toward force, depending more and more upon government to step in to solve problems which should be solved by free men of good will, the road to tyranny becomes clear. There is no third alternative. It is either love or power. The less love, the greater the danger of enslavement to power.

As Christmas approachese, these are good words to ponder: "Where love stops, power begins, and violence, and terror!"

Coryell to Withdraw From Blood Program

Coryell County will drop out of the Central Texas blood program at the end of the year.

The board of directors of the county's Red Cross chapter reached that decision this week "with great reluctance and regret," Chairman Hal Anderson said Wednesday.

Sole reason for the withdrawal is an acute lack of financial resources. It costs the Red Cross chapter $1,420 a year to participate in the blood program, and right now it's $1,477 in debt to the blood bank. If the county remained in the program, a new $700 payment would become due Jan. 1.

Sufficient money to meet the demands is no where in sight.

The Red Cross blood program is expected to be replaced by a program set up for the Coryell Memorial Hospital by hospital officials and local doctors. Details of the new program have not yet been worked out, but reports are that it will be so tailored as to continue furnishing blood to the county's ill and injured free except for processing costs.

The county will continue to receive blood under the Red Cross program until Dec. 31.

"The Red Cross chapter, its officers and volunteers, will lend the new program all the support possible," Executive Secretary Mrs. W. A. Culbertson promised.

This county has been in the Red Cross blood program since 1952, and the set-up has furnished hundreds of pints of blood to Coryell citizens who needed it. "We can't say enough in appreciation of those volunteers who have donated blood, helped secure donors and worked in the canteen during the bloodmobile visits," Mrs. Culbertson said. "They've been wonderful, and have given much to the humanitarian blood bank cause."

Last visit of the Red Cross bloodmobile will be made here Dec. 29, when the county will be called on to pay another debt—this one in the form of blood donations. Since July 1, Coryell donors have given 54 pints of blood to the center, while 144 pints have been administered to hospital patients from this county.

Drops in revenue gained from Fort Hood and from United Fund drives have left the Red Cross chapter without funds necessary to meet the blood program costs.

Under its Congressional charter, the Red Cross is required to carry on most of its other services. The blood program has the rating of "permissive service."

Only an emergency county appropriation okehed by the commis-

Anderson pointed out that the $700 set up in the recent United Fund campaign here for the blood program's operation in 1960 has not been received by the Red Cross chapter. "Since we're dropping out of the program, this money will be deleted from our budget and its disbursement will be left to the United Fund directors," he explained.

"Were holding Eddie Jordan on suspicion of murder," inspector Wintrs told Dr. Haledjian.

"Yesterday Jordan and Harry Lewis ate lunch together at a crowded restaurant. When and how Jordan slipped the poison into Lewi's drink in front of all those people is a mystery.

"Both men oreded club sandwiches and soft drinks," continued the inspector. "Just as the waiter brought the drinks, Lewis complained to him that he'd picked up a dead line."

"You believe that the call was a decoy to allow Jordan a chance to poison the drink?" asked Haledjian.

"Admits?"

"The waiter says Lewis ordered a oot beer and Jordan a sarsaparilla. He placed the order in the kitchen, and when he returned to pick up th edrinks, he didn't know which was which. The chef didn't remember either.

"In glasses, the two drinks look alike," went on the inspector. The waiter admits he sipped one to find out which was which. He tasted the root beer, which Lewis ordered. That means the root beer wasn'tpoisoned till afterward, or the waitre would have been poisoned too."

"A kitchen is a busy place," said Haledjian. "It was aesy for the waiter to slip the poison into the drink he served Lewis."

The inspector looked startled. "ut - why?"

"Undoubtedly because somebody - perhaps Jordan - paid him well. You won't have any trouble. The waiter will confess once you confront him with his lie."

Ask and Receive

"And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." St. Matthew 21:22

THIS was one of Jesus' greatest promises to mankind. He that possesses the ultimate in faith is assured that his prayers will be heard and answered.

Fyodor Dostoyevsky once wrote: "Be not forgetful of prayer. Every time you pray, if your prayer is sincere, there will be new feeling and new meaning in it, which will give you fresh courage, and you will understand that prayer is an education".

There is only one place in our modern world where you can learn to pray. That is in the church.

It is there every day, waiting, beckoning, ready to teach you and help you to build the faith by which prayers are answered.

Attend the church of your choice this Sunday.

AUSTIN, Tex. . . . Texas high courts began a new era of stately splendor with a double-barreled dedication of the massive granite Courts Building.

Court of Criminal Appeals dedicated its chambers in the north wing, and the Supreme Court had another ceremony for its new home in the south wing.

Opening of the $3,000,000 building represented a dream come true for the jurists and State Bar leaders who began talking of a courts building back in 1940, the year of the Supreme Court's 100th anniversary.

Supreme Court dates its origin to the days when Texas was still a republic and the first session was held January 13, 1840, in a private home in Austin. Court of Criminal Appeals was established in 1891 and is the oldest of the only three courts in the world of its type. It has final, exclusive jurisdiction in criminal matters.

In opening day addresses Bar leaders paid tribute to the courts and jurists through the years as guardians of the concept of government by law rather than by men.

a dozen representatives have said they will not ask re-election to the House.

In this group are Reps. Joe Ed Winfree, Houston; W. N. Woolsey, Corpus Christi; James S. Bates, Edinburg; Carl Conley, Raymondville; Ben D. Sudderth, Comanche; Oscar M. Laurel, Laredo; Zeke Zbrank, Daisteta; V. L. Ramsey, Beckville; Jerry Sadler, Palestine.

Some of these will be running for other offices or are hoping to. Others are retiring to private life, at least for the time being.

Those whose places are to be filled in the special elections in January are Sen. Jimmy Phillips of Angleton; Reps. Ted Myatt, Burleson; Bobby Bullock, Hillsboro; and Sam Bass, Freeport.

BOAT REGISTRATIONS LAG—Only about one of every thousand Texas boat owners has thus far registered his craft under the new Water Safety Act.

State Highway Department reports that only 1,747 Certificates of Number have been issued for an estimated 212,000 Texas motorboats.

Deadline for registration is March 1, 1960. After April 1, 1960. After April 1, 1960, the boat cannot be operated unless the Certificate of Number has been placed on each side of the bow.

Justices of both courts wore for the first time the black robes that will be their court attire from now on. Robes, said Supreme Court Chief Justice J. E. Hickman, are "not to satisfy our own vanity, but in recognition of the fact that we are beginning a new era in the court's history . . . The elegant surroundings call for it . . ."

Judge Hickman, who is planning to retire next year, had said some years ago when the building was still in the planning stage that to preside in the new courts building was on of the most cherished hopes. When the day came, the elderly, revered jurist, admitted to having, among other emotions, a "nostalgic feeling" for the old courtroom where "the great urists of the past had sat."

SUR, BUT—A majority of legislators, according to reports, have told Gov. Price Daniel they favor a pay raise for school teachers.

But from there on their statements—at least those that have been made public—contain little to encourage either the governor or the teachers.

Some say they would favor the raise only if it did not mean passing this, that or the other kind of tax. Some point to what they call the "improbability of success."

Almost all the lawmakers, it seems, would be more willing to vote a teacher raise if the governor can come forward with a money-raising plan on which general agreement can be reached. But talk has been mostly of taxes, like the abandoned property tax and three-factor formula franchise tax, which ended in hopeless wrangling in the four sessions this year.

Some Capitol observers are predicting that Governor Daniel might pass up calling another session and put the blame on the legislators for not being willing to pitch in. This might be coupled with a challenge to the people to elect a different Legislature next time.

BOWING OUT—Announcements filtering in from over the state already indicate there'll be a number of new faces in the 57th Legislature when it meets in January, 1961.

Highway Department is not authorized to grant an extension in time and has urged boat owners to register now to avoid a pile-up in March.

Law applies to all boats with more than 10 horsepower operating in public waters. Applications can be made with any boat dealer or county tax collector.

Certificates issued now will be good until March 31, 1963.

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE -- A "juke box" is not a phonograph insofar as the new state sales tax on phonographs is concerned.

Atty. Will Wilson ruled that the 3 per cent sales tax on phonographs, record players and hi fi equipment does not apply to an occupation tax that was in effect before the new tax bill was passed.

FIFTY MILLION IN F-M ROADS -- State Highway Department has authorized the spending of $50,000,000 on farm-to-market roads in Texas.

Work is divided into three programs. First is designating county roads to become a part of the state F-M road system and providing funds for construction of these new roads.

Second project is the improvement of F-M roads built early in the farm road building program begun in 1949. Many of these Commission Chairman Herbert C. PDetry Jr. pointed out, were built narrow and light in order to get as many miles of new roads as possible built quickly. These roads are showing wear

KNOW YOUR NAVY

JOHN PAUL JONES

OFTEN CALLED THE "FATHER OF THE AMERICAN NAVY," JOHN PAUL JONES WAS A FIGHTING SAILOR. HIS FAMOUS CRY, "I HAVE NOT YET BEGUN TO FIGHT" HAS BEEN AN INSPIRATION AND GUIDING LIGHT OF AMERICAN NAVY MEN EVER SINCE THE BLOODY BATTLE BETWEEN JONES' BONHOUE RICHARD AND THE BRITISH MAN-O-WAR SERAPIS IN 1779. OUT-GUNNED AND OUT-MANNED, BUT NEVER OUT-FOUGHT, JONES VANQUISHED THE LARGER SERAPIS THROUGH SHEER SKILL AND COURAGE.

Four days of the 'bouncing ball' both sexes will open Wednesday for a four-day run at the high school gym—20 games a day for the ground. Plans are to make it an annual fair since Gatesville hasn't had an invitation basketball tournament for a number of years. The schedule for opening play: Wednesday: Lampasas-Jones boys 6:45; Turnersville-Milton girls 8 pm; Gatesville-Turnersville boy 9:15 pm. Thursday: Evant - Midway girls 10; Evant-Midway boys 6:45; Copperas Cove-Gatesville girls 8:00; Copperas Cove - Jonseboro boys 9:1 pm. Semi-finals, championship and consolation brackets, Friday night and Saturday morning, the final contests, Saturday night.

SNOW FOR PARADE - Somehow it doesn't seem like a Christmas parade without snow. But even the old, old timers can't remember it having snowed in the Rio Grande Valley. With temperature in the 80's there was only one thing to do...

Naturally...
Upon learning of the bereavement of anyone close to you, your first instinct is to express your sympathy as eloquently as possible. Down through the ages, fresh flowers—fragrant and beautiful—have brought comfort and solace during troubled times to those left behind.

BAD KREUZNACH, Germany (AHTNC). — Army P/ce Gerald D. Hodges, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert C Hodges, Copperas Cove, recently participated with the 8th Infantry Division's 8th Aviation Company in combat eficiency training tests in Germany. The tests were designed to determine the ability of the company to set up and operate a tactical airfield, establish a communication system for aircraft control and provide defense against air, ground, and chemical, biological and radiological enemy attack. Hodges, a radar specialist in the company in Bad Kreuznach, entered the Army in August, 1958—completed basic training at Ft. Riley, Kan., and arrived overseas last February. He is a 1958 graduate of Comanche High School.
