"FUSTEST WITH

THE MOSTEST"

little 'g' gatesville. Taxes

Missed the boat Friday—skidded to Evant on ice, and expected worse next day—didn't come. Haven't heard any howls, suppose should leave it out, but then:—

NINETEEN BANDS (again this year) (they had 16 last year) went to Brady Band Festival the past week end. In mathematics (correct us, you sharks) 19x24x3 equals $1,368. In other words, 19 bands of maybe an average of 24 kids, spending a very minimum of $3 equals $1,369 dollars that would never have been in Brady turned loose there. Of course there are Mamas, Papas, Band Directors, Bus Drivers, and other personnel who might have to buy gas, meals, lodging, etc., etc., and etc., which might have carried to Brady the past week end at tops, maybe $3,000.

Down at Bastrop, they've a high school golf tournament, and Gatesville has a team, Brady 2 teams, Lampasas is there, and they've many more four or more man teams, their coaches, parents, etc., that swell the pocket-books of Bastrop merchants. So, mathematically, 15x5x3 would be something like $225 minimum, and might run $500 or more. They went down Friday noon, and were to be there all day Saturday, too.

Now, we don't recollect of either here, but, we did have a basketball tournament this year, which was an improvement over activities of recent years.

Course, schools are not operated for town-folks benefits or country-folks for that matter, but some regions, they DO bring while they're in operation is money IN to town that don't come otherwise. We don't think for one instant, we'd sell a subscription to these visitors, or any job work, or newspaper advertising, but, it might be that some of our good customers might realize something out of activities like these. But, maybe business is so ood here, such infinitesimal things a these promotions are not needed.

And, too, tehre may be some TIL rule that prevents them from happening, but there's always a way to get around most rules, and legally, if wanted badly enough.

Looks like what's good for the goose, should be good for the gander. But, we wouldn't

* THEM JONESES' MIGHT KEEP UP WITH'EM BUT CAN'T GET AHEAD

A Jones done t again! It really happened! Friday it was announced Princess Margaret Rose would soon be a common' Jones.

In fact, she's going to marry a commoner—society photographer Anthony Charles Robert Armstrong—Jones—same ag as the Princess!

Jones is a fair-haired, pleasant young man—short, but taller than the tiny princess and five months her senior.

He has a photographic studio in Pimlico Road, not far from Buckingham Palace, an is the son of Attorney R. O. Armstrong Jones and the Countess of Rosse, who ar divorced. He was educated at Sandroyd School, Eton an Jesus College, Cambridge University.

They can drop the Armstrong part of the name, an it'll be simply X Anthon Jones. Them Joneses ge along!

CATTLEMEN ASK FOR BRUCELLOSIS PROGRAM

Three hundred cattle owners signed petitions for Coryell County to be placed in a brucellosis control program. the cohnty's committee has reported. At least 773 cattle owners must sign.

The three hundred own more than 51 percent of the cattle listed in the county's tax roll.

It might be black, Zack!

know.

"One advantage of big business is that it can absorbe big losses, and that's about the only advantage."

ICE AND SNOW CAUSE SOME CHECKS ARE A BOTHER

At 12:15 Saturday 20, a '51 Chevy driven by Doyle Preston Bond of Gatesville was damaged about $15 when it was in an accident with a '54 Chevy driven by Bulah K. Rauschenberg. One was going south on Lover's Lane and pulled out too far and the other cut in front. The '54 Chevy was not damaged, and no one was injured and no charges filed.

Next day, Marie Chesshir of Brownfield 1:10 p. m., driving a '59 Bunck going west on U. S. 84 tried to dodge, and did, a '48 Chevy, driven by Beonira F. Duke started to make a left turn off the highway. The Buick missed the Chevy, but didn't miss an apple tree, and 2 crepe myrtle bushes in Mrs. P. E. Henderson's 2521 N. ... which w ... Buick was ... Carter's car was damaged $195 and Kilpatrick's $250. Carter was filed on for driving while license was suspended. It happened in McLennan County on U. S. 84.

A Houston man, who gave Tax Assessor-Collector Creston Brazzil a check for $69.76, one Virgil Cravens, is out on $1500 bond. Seems there was something the matter with the check, and that made it a felony.

It might be blue, Lou!

CHECKS ARE A BOTHER SPECIALLY HOT & FORGED AS SOME FIND OUT

One man is held on a felony hot check charge and is out on a $1,000 bond, and another on forgery of 2 for $85, and is being held in jail trying to make bond.

One Gatesville man was fined in Justice of the Peace Stony Hammack's court for failing to have a drivers license and another paid a fine for speeding.

Two boys, one Bell and one Coryell County who were on probation violated that by performing other burglaries in Bell County and have been committed to SSB by Judge Norman Storm.

Two SSBs, one 17 were out over the week end and took O. C. Roy's '51 Ford. Sheriff Win- ... Hill's station on U. ## APRIL 8 LAST DAY FOR FARMERS TO RELEASE OR REQUEST MORE ACREAGE

Coryell County farmers have until April 8, 1960 to either release or request more cotton acreage to be planted in 1960. As of this date there has been 765 acres released and 2576.8 acres ask to be planted. No additional acres will be given out until after April 8th and farmers have until April 8 to ask for more acres. According to Clois D. Stone, it is possible to maybe get more acres from other counties if needed.

Each farmer in 1960 needs to plant at least 75 percent of his allotment or release it back to the office in order not to lose half of his cotton base for 1961.

The office has just mailed out a pamphlet on how each farmer can hold his cotton history.

March 16 is the last day a farmer has to choose B allotment. If he has not chosen by March 16 he will be in group A.

BLOAT IS A PROBLEM
With the appearance of lush green grass in many parts of the state comes another problem to the cattle people. This is the problem of controlling and curing bloat. This is the beginning of the bloat season.
Here are some recommendations of how to control or keep down bloat when cattle are grazing on green pastures. If they are on a legume pasture it should have some grass mixed with the legume. If there is not grass in the legume the animals should be left on the legume pasture only 2 or 3 hours at a time, then they can be moved to an all grass pasture. After grazing a few days on grass pastures cattle should adjust themselves to the amount of green material they can eat.

If you have animals to contract bloat it is advisable to call a veterinarian if you are not familiar with relieving the pressure

THE CASE OF THE TOO HOT TIP

By Donald J. Sobol

Beore inspector Winters could bellow a protest, Nick the Nose had slipped into his office.

"I got something this time, the little informer insisted.

"Last night I'm sleeping in this abandoned warehouse when I hear noises. A voice says, "did you gim that piece on page 29 about Mrs. Vandermill?"

"There's a hole in the floor," continued Nick. "I can see four tough eggs sitting in the room below. One of them picks up a newspaper and turns to the back page and starts reading out loud. (Copyright, 1959,

What he reads goes something like this:

"The Baritoni collection of jewels has been purchased by Mrs. C. Worthington Vandermill of 292 Sea Cliff Heights. Mrs. Vandermill told reporters she will keep the jewels, valued at more than a million dollars, in her house, which she claims is burglar proof."

"The four guys begin to laugh," went on Nick. "One guy says, 'Harry, make sure the car is running good, because tomorrow night we're going to pay Mrs. Vandermill a quiet little visit."

"There is no Sea Cliff Heights in this city," said Inspector Winters. He lifted a hand.

Nick the Nose remained unshaken. "They were probably reading an out of town paper. They'll be back tonight. For ten bucks I'll take you—"

The inspector rose menacingly. "Five!"

"Five fingers," growled the inspector, putting five on Nick's collar and five on the seat of his pants. Haledjian opened the door wide as the little informer flew out into the hall.

Dear Friends:

There has recently been so much interest in the renewal of the Sugar Act that I felt that I should attempt to explain this seemed to believe, an arrangement.

First, it is NOT, as many have ment whereby the United States government bought the Cuban sugar crop from the Cuban government at above world prices, thereby supporting the Cuban government. On the other hand, the sale of this sugar at a good price (because it can be profitably sold under our quota system in the United States) does greatly strengthen the Cuban economy. Actually, all of the buying and selling goes on between private American sugar importers and the owners of the sugar in Cuba. The only exception to this as far as I know occurred during World War II and the Korean War when our government did actually buy sugar.

The purpose of the arrangement is to assure United States consumers an adequate and reasonable price. I had doubts about dependable, supply of sugar a re- its effectiveness during its early years and originally voted against

... get the needed sugar during the war at considerable LESS than world prices. I was and am convinced that this type of arrangement helps us and should be continued, although last time the law was renewed, I voted to materially reduce the Cuban quota and to give much more to Mexico and other Latin countries. I still think it would be both wise and fair to take some of our eggs out of the Cuban basket and put them with proven friends like Mexico.

On the other hand, we must remember that if we act in a manner which will enable the Communists to convince the people of Venezuela, Panama, etc., that we are using economic force to destroy Castro, it could react against us. No matter how bad we think Castro to be - and I think his regime is, to say the least, very close to Communism - we simply must not make him a martyr either in the eyes of the people of Cuba or elsewhere.

So long as we hold the economic power to completely bankrupt Cuba, it requires lots of restraint not to use it in the face of Castro's insults. At this time restraint may be better than retaliation, but surely we should not give any extended renewal of the existing program.

Prepared by the Investment Research Department of Hemphill, Noyes & Co., 15 Broad Street, New York 5, N. Y. Members of the New York Stock Exchange

January 13, 1960

CHEMICAL STOCKS: Favorable Outlook for 1960

In 1959 the outstanding market performers were the electronics stocks. This fact is not surprising with all the news about the space age and about automation, fields in whose growth the electronics industry was going to participate. However, this group of stocks has been glamorized to such an extent that many of them are selling at prices which anticipate earnings several years ahead. Therefore it seems advisable to seek out some new growth industry group in 1960.

Chemical stocks appear to be very interesting. In the first place, after a period of three or four years where growth and earnings of the major companies were relatively small, a significant upturn in earnings now appears evident. It is true that many chemical stocks are selling near their all-time highs but by statistical yardsticks the market values may not as yet anticipate their earnings potential in the next two or three years. There is a certain glamor surrounding chemical stocks. In the first place, many of the companies are in the rocket fuel field. Secondly, several companies are engaged in metallurgical research, important in developing new light, heat-resistant metals used in the space age. Perhaps the most important growth area of the chemical industry lies in plastics which are being substituted more and more for other products. Finally 1960 should be a good year for the chemical industry as the demand for industrial chemicals relates itself very closely to business activity and many economists believe that 1960 will be the most prosperous year to date in the history of business.

There are ten companies that we have found of particular interest. All these qualify in an investment category. For participation in the growth of plastics we particularly recommend: Dow, DuPont, Monsanto, Rohm & Hass and Union Carbide.

In the field of metallurgy Dow, DuPont and Union Carbide are interesting. Allied Chemical & Dye, one of the largest chemical companies, is beginning to show the benefits of several management changes made over the last few years. American Cyanamid offers a participation in the growth of drugs as well as those of chemicals.

Diamond Alkali has increased its sales and earnings significantly and is perhaps statistically the most attractive of the chemical group. Other stocks which we include: Hercules Powder, Hooker Chemical.

What shall I do?

"What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ?"

Matthew 27: 22

FOR two thousand years these words of Pontius Pilate have stood out in history as the greatest example of indecision, cowardliness and weakness known to mankind.

Here was a man who knew the truth, but was afraid to uphold it because of fear of the crowd, fear of being unpopular, and the fear of making a decision.

There is a lesson for our modern world in Pilate's words and actions. What could be more terrible for any man than a life of indecision, half believing everything or anything, always afraid of what the crowd will say or being unpopular?

Man must take a stand, today more than ever, for the things he knows to be right, be it religion, a personal problem, politics, or business ethics. The man who doesn't dies a little bit every day.

Did you see what Belton did to Brady in their bi-district game. It was 102 to 50. The Tigers ended up with the 3rd string in. They got 13 before Brady scored. Halftime was 54-22, 3rd 74-44. Brady stalled in the final to keep the score below 100, but it didn't work.

Other games of interest, Midway stopped Thrall 55-44; Aldine stopped Killeen in a hair-raiser. Killeen's Terry Bishop got a field goal with 2 seconds to go, putting the 'Roos on top 56-55, but officials had called a last-second foul on Gary McBride of Killeen. B. J. Fisher got a 1-1 and made both shots to gain a victory for Aldine. Took 5 minutes to clear the court for the shots, and Killeen fans thought they'd won.

Similar things happened in the Girl's Class B Tournament at Jonesboro. Turnersville beat Jonesboro, and then, Oglesby. In this game, it was a tie-ball with 3 seconds to go, and the Turnersville girl got the ball, and shot the winning tally. Jonesboro and Turnersville met again the 2nd time in the round robin for the title, and we ain't heard yet.
