"The Good Old Days"

-o-

The good old days are here again,
When loafing time is through;
No fishing poles or swimming holes,
It's Back to School for you.

The good old days are here again,
And farm clocks ring anew;
Come, my dears, and wash your ears,
It's Back to School for you.

The good old days are here again,
How that vacation flew!
It's time for books—not fishin'
hooks,
It's Back to School for you.

The good old days are here again,
And honest, kids, it's true;
There's much less fun when they are done
It's Back to School for you.

The good old days are here again
And tho' they make you blue You'll realize they're days you'll prize,
It's Back to School for you.

So cool...so clean...
so modern

Electricity is your better way to cook...because it's FLAMELESS

You'll enjoy cleaner cooking in a cooler kitchen when you cook the flameless electric way. Electric heat is as clean as electric light, so your utensils, kitchen walls and curtains stay new-looking longer. Flameless electric surface units transfer heat by direct contact with utensil bottoms, so little or no heat escapes up the sides to raise kitchen temperatures. And because an electric oven requires no oxygen to operate, there's no need for a draft of air through the hot oven and into your kitchen. See your electric range dealer soon.

Cook electrically . . . live better electrically!

NEW LOOK IN WINTER SUIT

Designers are unanimously enthusiastic about the nine-tenths coat with matching skirt showing as little as one to three inches below it. This, in all its various silhouette possibilities ushers in a completely new look for the winter suit which came so far last fall, according to Women's Wear Daily Silhouettes include not only the new princess and fuller back coat types but also belted tunic-like styles.

Coating weight fabrics, interlining and fur trimming will adapt these suits to wear through the coldest calendar months.

Jacket lengths for undercoat suits is swinging back toward shorter lengths, varying from bolero length to about 24 inches for belted styles. Suits, like coats, will be bulkier at the top, with deep armholes dropped shoulder seams, unmounted sleeves. Many belts will be casual ties in self-fabric or soft leather. Small-collared or cardigan necklines will be imported for suits.

Attention to skirt detail and ease in gathers or pleats continue to grow for fall. Multi-pleated, soft puffy gathers at skirt waistline, some godet skirts are part of the 1960 look.

MILLINERY IS HIGH, WIDE AND HANDSOME

New fashions run rampant in fall millinery providing a tremendous diversification of silhouettes and size, media and color.

Women's Wear Daily finds that turbans tower above the lively crowd of new brimless silhouettes, all types and in every material of fashion. They are draped with new width in fabrics, colorful velvets in top position and knits among the smartest novelties. They strike a flashing pose in felts, richly in furs and burst up in feathers.

Cloches take the spotlight in brimmed hats for fall into winter wear. They stand out in depth with new width and height of crown and brims that range from close fitting to slouch to turn-ups.

Toques show new growth with in all types of contours, leveled at the hairline in the newest forward pose or leaning backward a little to a lot. Sometimes they verge on turbans just as turbans verge on berets and berets verge on casques

NEW NEWCOMER RULES FOR "WELCOME NEIGHBOR" SERVICE

Bert Floyd, chairman of the Retail and Wholesale Committee of the C-C has announced new rules for newcomers to Gatesville who received the Welcome Neighbor Service and fall into these classes: Families who moved to Gatesville from other states, countries or counties.

Families who move from Evant Oglesby or Copperas Cove.

Families who move back to Gatesville after a lapse of 3 years or more.

Families who reside in Coryell County and then move to Gatesville will not be given this service except in class 2 above; and families from farm to town within the Gatesville trade area (25 mile circle) are no eligible and these rules apply to service personnel.

Somebody Named Tax Board: Somebodies Will Be Namin' Them Other Names

Wonderful citizens! Those that go through an equalization board session, and that's in store for R. W. Ward, Pat Patterson and Carl Drake.

They're called the City Tax Equalization Board, but, what they will be called after the session can't be printed here—not on this kind of paper. Asbestos would do.

Often they put up a new front with cuffs.

OPULENCE MARKS FUR FASHIONS

Cape cuts and princess lines, increased width or pyramid-spreading or fully arched contours, and front shaping backed by flowing bulk set the trend in fall furs. Fall collections contain all the opulence that goes with fur fashions through the expansion of body lines as well as unusual working of skins, combinations of furs and build-up of fabulous pelts in coat form.

Take with the new element that amplifies coats of all length, and jackets too. Whatever direction it takes, say the fashion editors of Women's Wear Daily, it suits fur better than any other medium; and there are enough variations to go around and meet the requirements of each figure type. The princess silhouette has been adopted with as many degrees of loose and partial fit as can be counted in the fashion picture today.

No, they've got an unwanted job that SOMEBODY has to do, and they ARE good citizens for filling this unpopular post. More power to 'em.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1960.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 6 proposing an Amendment to Section 11, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, so as to give the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest, fix maximum rates of interest, and provide for a maximum rate of interest of ten per centum (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation setting maximum rates of interest; providing that the rate of interest shall not exceed six per cent (6%) per annum in contracts where no interest rate is agreed upon; providing for the right of appeal and trial de novo in the event any regulatory agency cancels or refuses to grant any permit; providing for the necessary election and the form of the ballots; and providing for the necessary proclamation and publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 11, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 11. The Legislature shall have authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest, and fix maximum rates of interest; provided, however, in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest all contracts for a greater rate of interest than ten per centum (10%) per annum shall be deemed usurious; provided, further, that in contracts where no rate of interest is agreed upon, the rate shall not exceed six per centum (6%) per annum. Should any regulatory agency, acting under the provisions of this Section, cancel or refuse to grant any permit under any law passed by the Legislature; then such applicant or holder shall have the right of appeal to the courts and granted a trial de novo as that term is used in appealing from the justice of peace court to the county court."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1960, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"FOR the Constitutional Amendment giving the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and fix maximum rates of interest; and providing for a maximum rate of interest of ten per centum (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest."

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment giving the Legislature authority to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and fix maximum rates of interest; and providing for a maximum rate of interest of ten per centum (10%) per annum in the absence of legislation fixing maximum rates of interest."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

THE CASE OF
THE LOSING HORSE

By DONALD J. SOBOL

Dr. Haledjian entered the glass cubicle that was the office of Winfred Farrahy, owner-handicapper of the Daily Hoof Report, a small racing tipsheet. Already there were Kurt Littlefield, the managing editor, and Inspector Winters.

Farrahy himself lay face down on his desk. Apparently he had slashed his left wrist with the straight razor still gripped in his right hand.

"The patrolman on the beat discovered the body at three this morning," said the inspector. "He spotted a light burning, and finding the front door unlocked, came in to investigate."

Haledjian walked to the desk, on which lay a note written on a piece of yellow copypaper. He read:

"I have just returned from the racetrack. Cummings and Josh Bones have failed. A better race was possible for them — of that I was so confident!"

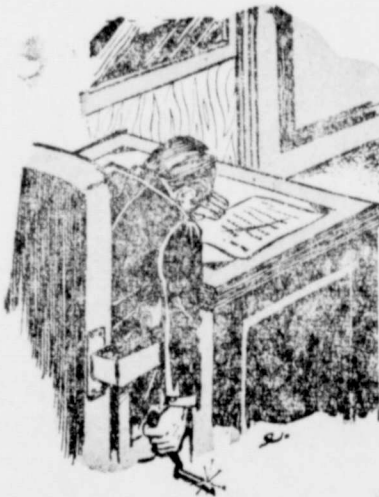

Kurt Littlefield said, "The handwriting is Mr. Farrahy's, or an excellent forgery."

"Who are Cummings and Josh Bones?" inquired Haledjian.

"Josh Bones is a gelding trotter and John Cummings is his driver," answered Littlefield. "As a four-year-old, Josh Bones was undefeated, but he injured a leg and has been out of action for two years. Last night he was making his comeback."

"And Farrahy figured him to win?"

"It was a slow field," said Littlefield. "The paper hasn't been selling well, and Mr. Farrahy thought the horse could save him. He told me he was going to bet all the money he could scrape together."

"Perhaps he did," said Haledjian. "But that doesn't explain the suicide note, which he didn't write."

WHY NOT?

Only a person unfamiliar with the professional handicapper, would have written rascally.
Josh Bones, a trotter, ran Farrahy, racing would have written "race track to describe the track on which

The Problem

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" — Psalm 133:1

With these words, David, king of Israel rejoiced over the returned exiles. How pleasant, he says, to dwell together in unity.

As much as we are dislike to, we must admit that except for the days when Christ was gathering his disciples about him, and immediately after his crucifixion, there has been little unity among Christians.

Disunity has become the great problem of Christianity.

We in our modern world know something has to be done about it if Christianity is to win its greatest contest.

Materialism is already far ahead in the race of winning humanity.

Many efforts toward unity are being made on numerous fronts, but it will never be accomplished without unity in our own church right here in our home town.

NO JEANS AT SCHOOL, POST TRUSTEES RULE
 POST, Aug. 12 (Sat).—The days of blue jeans, slacks and pedal pushers for girls and beltless blue jeans, exposed shirt-tails and odd-ball haircuts for boys are over at Post High School, the school board has ruled.
 The board took the step toward more decorous student dress after being told by Supt. R T Smith that he and other school administrators feel such practices are "a demoralizing factor and not conducive to good learning."

Mrs. Jerry Cornille of Ft. Worth was a business visitor in Gatesville Friday.
 Rev. C. L. Derrick and son, Ben, left this week end to visit their son and brother, Milton and his family in Danvers, Fla.

Little 'g' gatesville, Texas

Gatesville now has 2 service clubs. Some say why? The same some say "why" when anything new starts at at. It might disturb the saus quo.

A second service club, of course, means competitio, friendly competition, and a spreading out of possible new ideas, new views and a possible change of the status quo.

Out of nearly ANYTHING new for Gatesville, something good comes of it, and the NEWS welcomes the newness of anything in Gatesville. An Optimist Club was tried during the war, and was summarily squashed. We hope this is not the case with Kiwanis. It shouldn't be. Incidentally, the Kiwanians are inviting others to join with them in their efforts to make a going second service club, and it's still time to be a charter member. See about it soon!

This week, to be exact is the annual Goat and Sheep Show and Sale, and we welcome the folks particularly, "Miss Wool of 1960" who will be here, and we understand will appear on KCEN-TV or KWTX-TV, and P. E. Cull of the association will appear on KCLW, and there will be other things. The goat-sheep folks present isn't too active.

Right now, we want to suggest since it's wool and mohair show why don't all you 'producers' put on a pair of wool pants, or mohair if you can find'em, and consum some of your own production. Betcha, you all wear khaki's—your competitor's product—and, with prices on YOUR own product down.

And we suggest to restauran and cafes to serve lamb chop barbecued goat. Betcha, you can find lamb chops or barbecue goat on a menu in Central Texas. In south Texas they have go barbecues instead of beef as we have here. You goat and shec men ought to patronize your own industry. Or, who do you expect to patronize it?

Consumption of lamb chop eating of barbecued goat, and wearing of wool pants and shirts, and use of your very own mohair, YOURSELVES, would do a lot to bring your price up and make you feel just a heck a lot better. We've already written "Sheep And Goat" raiser to this effect, with no effort.

NEW "BOSS" FOR 45TH IS NAMED: DAUGHERTY IS IT: MULDROW RESIGNS

Governor J. Howard Edmondson Saturday announced a new commanding officer for the Oklahoma 45th Infantry Division. He is Brig. Gen. Fred Daugherty, present assistant division commander. He is an Oklahoma state district judge in Oklahoma City. He started as a buck private in the division.

Maj. Gen. Hal L. Muldrow, 8 years commanding in the division has completed 32 years in the service, was commissioned a second in the army reserve in 1928 and was transferred to division artillery.

Gen. Daugherty, who was with the 455th in Korea, commanding the 179th Infantry, was promoted to his present rank in 1952.

"About all we can gain from experience is not to make the same mistake again. Then we try a new way of getting into trouble."

"Henry Ford the First, out of long experience, once said "Anyone who stops learning is old whether this happens at 20 or 30. Anyone who keeps on learning not only remains young, but becomes constantly more valuable, regardless of physical capacity."

YOU COULD PAINT YOURSELF A BILLBOARD

Yes, you could paint your advertising message on the biggest billboard in town, but maybe three-fourths of the people who saw it wouldn't even be in the market for what you're selling. Printed advertising is far better because it lets you select the people to whom you're going to advertise and reach each one at low, low cost. Let us help you develop a printed mail advertising campaign at low cost to you.
