GUESSES AND PRIZES IS

FOR "FIRST FREEZE"

CONTEST IN THE NEWS

It's the 1961 "First Freeze", unless it don't freeze until 1962, and in that case, it would be the '1962 First Freeze Contest. But, think it'll freeze in '61 and won't wait until '62.

This is THE NEWS 2nd freeze contest and James A. Dixon was the winner in '60, and he guessed and won guessing Dec. 16.

Now he got a subscription from THE NEWS, plate lunch, Round-Up Cafe, battery charge, Jack Healer, potted Ivy, Graves Florist, Lindy Pen W. Mat Jones Jr., Grease Job, Frank Morgan; Flannel Shirt, Bennett's; 50 cent taxi ride, Yello-Cab; portrait, Webb Studio; 1 gal anti-freeze, White Auto; 1 month membership, Gatesville Chamber of Commerce, 1 game, Gatesville Bowlanes Inc.; 3 Ledger records, and spot on KCLW; can chili, Hollingsworth Grocery; 1 lb Kings candy, Gatesville Drug; Phoenix Hose, Leairds; $1 merchandise, City Drug. Eighteen prizes for ONE guess! Ain't bad, we'd say!

First guesser this year is Mrs. Nola Brazzil of Flat, who sent in her 3 Sept. 8, and she has some good ones.

The guesses are dated and timed, so there won't be any duplicates.

Guess, NOW, and we'll try to round up these, and maybe other prizes. Why Not?

What To Do In a Tornado

- People in open country can view the approach of a tornado and move at right angles to its path. If there is no time to escape, lie flat in the nearest depression, such as a ditch or ravine.
- In towns or cities, seek shelter inside, preferably in a substantial building. Stay away from windows.
- The southwest corner of the basement of a frame house is safer than in a brick or stone house. If there is no basement, lie down on the first floor under a table or bed (preferably in the southwest corner).
- Urban schools: Stay inside, away from windows; remain near an inside wall on a lower floor. Avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums.
- Rural schools of frame construction: Teachers should remove children to a ravine or ditch if storm shelter is not available.

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

GOD WANTS US TO HAVE MORE THAN ENOUGH

I once heard about a man who was very wealthy. He lived on a large, beautiful estate. He drove a long, sleek car. He was able to dress in the latest fashions and enjoy all the luxuries of life. But no one was envious of this man's wealth — no one resented his having so much. He knew how to use his surplus.

Many small church groups worshiped in lovely buildings that this man had given them. The hospital in his city built and furnished an entire wing with his donations. Charitable organizations were never refused aid from this great man. He even supported an entire mission school and contributed to the missionary teacher's support. And God blessed him and prospered him even more. His surplus was a blessing to his fellow man.

Is God interested in people's having a surplus? Does He ever give more than is needed? I believe He does. In my opinion, while a surplus is not necessary to the salvation of a soul, it is vital to the well-being of a witness for Jesus Christ.

From the very beginning, God has given surpluses to His followers. Remember how God provided food for the Israelites in their forty years of wandering? He gave them manna six days a week and on the sixth

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

TEEN-AGERS NEED A HAPPY HOME

THE following letter is a sample of similiar letters from teen-agers who write to me with the same problem. I am printing it for the benefit of their parents in the hope they will realize the unhappiness they are causing their children.

Dear Amy:

I am a very unhappy 15 year old girl with a problem and I don't know who to turn to.

My parents are not very happily married and they both drink beer but not to a great extent. They are not alcoholics. How can I get them to stop drinking? Whenever my mother has had a few and we are together, she's always trying to start an argument. In a very calm voice I try to answer her but she keeps accusing me of sassing her back. Sometimes I am very ashamed to have my friends home because of this.

What can I do to make my home life happier? I am very unhappy and I love my parents deeply. Please help me.

Troubled Unhappiness

Dear Troubled:
If you are unable to tell your parents what you have told me, take your problem to an adult member of your family or a clergyman. Arrangements should be made for your parents to get assistance in improving living conditions at home through the FAMILY SERVICE ASSOCIATION. Do this . . . then let me know the results.

Dear Amy:

Are we to understand that you are now recommending the practice of bigamy? 'Her Husband' must be thoroughly confused at this point—to think that you are recommending a husband for her every mood!

As Confused

Dear Confused:
Perish the thought! What I meant to convey was ONE husband with enough compassion and love for his wife to be able to understand her moods, whims and fancies!

Dear Amy:

My problem is the oldest of all times . . . my mother-in-law. When I was married 16 years ago, she was a lovely person. Now she is a trouble maker. She visits all 4 of her children without being invited. These visits last for 3 to 4 weeks. And she fights all the time. When she's in my house, she never stops degrading the others. She expects us (unemployed for 5 weeks with 4 small children) to keep her in cigarettes (2 packs a day) and take her out every few days.

She doesn't help one single bit around the house—other than keeping all the coffee cups dirty and the ash trays a mess. I am a quiet, easy going type of person. So is my husband. We don't like a lot of noise and disagreements. What can I do with her? (My brother-in-law ran her out of his house 3 days ago.) I'm sure she needs a doctor!

I'll do whatever you say. Even if you say for me to shoot myself . . . there's no other way out! (But, Amy, my dear husband and children need me.)

Have Mother-in-law Will Travel

Dear Will Travel:

Stay put. If anyone needs to travel, it's Mamma. There's no quick remedy for a troublesome mother-in-law. But if she has worn your hospitality (and the budget) thin, it's up to friend hubby to tell her to leave . . . permanently, until she mends her ways!

Dear Amy:

I hope you can give me a good answer to my problem—naturally it's my husband. He is very shrewd about women and tries to make time with his boy friends' wives.

I try to force him to stay home but I'm not cut out to be a police woman, and sometimes it is more than I can bear. How can I stop him from sneaking around behind my back and making time with everyone? He also laughs at the husbands who get yelled at by their wives for doing the same things. If I yell or don't speak to him, he won't give me the paycheck on pay day.

Sincere

Dear Sincere:

Your husband is an unprincipled scoundrel and doesn't deserve the protection you are giving him. Don't waste your time appealing to his sense of decency. He apparently has none. All he can understand is the fear of punishment from his boy friends.

When you enter a drug building, you have faith that the builder so constructed it that it will not come down around your ears. This is the type of faith your doctor has in his druggist. Gatesville halfback Stanley Everett led the Hornets to a 32-0 romp over the Midway Panthers Friday night for the Panthers' second straight loss this year.

One more play carried to the nine yard line and Everett ripped for his first score and added the extra point on a kick to give the Hornets a 7-0 lead.

Everett tallied again in the third period when he gathered in a punt in his own 15 yard line and side-stepped his way downfield for 85 yards and a touchdown. The try for point failed and the Hornets led 13-0.

In the fourth period the Hornets broke loose for three touchdowns with the first coming on a 10 yard scamper by Everett. He gained the extra point attempt failed.

Scott flipped a pass to fullback Jerry Gilcrest for another touchdown. The play carried 78 yards, and Everett booted the extra point to give Gatesville a 26-0 lead.

The Results: Hornets 32, Midway 0; Cameron 14, Rosebud 14; Georgetown 14, Lampasas 0; Temple 28, Jeff Davis 0; Academy 14, Rogers 8; Lorena 8, McGregor 43; Belton 41, Taylor 16; Killen 0, Brackenridge 14; Blanco 0, C. Springs 42, Coolidge 28, Dublin 20, Hico 0; Gustine 45, Turnersville 26; Oglesby 58, Pottsville 12; Evant 12, Cherokee 6; Hillsboro 51, Wilmer-Hutchins 0; La Vega 13, Irving 7; Lamesa 14, Midland 0; Bellville 35, West Columbia 15. And there are others.

Note, Coach Al Langford's ball club, Lamesa, stopped Midland 14-0.

Some criticism might be leveled at the Hornets, but the boys are young in the season, and Coaches Elder and Anderson will polish them off with some sessions, before the big ones come, and one's coming come Friday. It's a bunch of Bulldogs from Hamilton who've scored thusly this season: Hamilton 34, Glen Rose 8, and their first was Hamilton 38, Goldthwaite 0. Both, believe, are A schools, so that don't mean too much, but Hamilton has got a lot of Bulldogs. In '59 we took 'em 30-0, and in '60 40-0, but wouldn't bet it'd be that way in '61. Got a lot of work layed out for us.

GHS Sars at Midway were Gilcrest, Bond, Everett, Scott and Schange in the backfield and Allen, Powell, Yows, Bankhead and Morse in the 'heavy line' and Saltow at end. We don't particularly like this 'star-naming'—they're 11 playing at one time and everybody has to operate to make the other look good. These only had more chances.

Want to compliment Midway on the press box—a Class A school. Plenty of room, light, an electric fan, heat, linoleum on the floor. Room for spotters, board operators, writers and photograph-es and others are in another section. Others can stand 5 deep behind the front row seats. Awfully good for Class A.

The Bs stopped McGregor in a game Saturday night to a small crowd 14-6. Potentially, GHS has some nice boys coming up next year, "Crud" Carothers, Rob Bennett, Danny Shepherd, Bill Hix, Mike Thompson, Larry Harold, and others.

Humble starts 16th, live Pitt-Miami, and the total will be 49 games broadcast the season, including 14 play-offs of 3-A and 4-A games. 13 of the games will be NCAA telecasts. SWC broadcasts start 23, Rice-LSU, Texas-California; A&M-Houston, SMU-Miss., TCU-Kans., T Tech-Miss St. all start 23 for your lookin' & listenin'.

Survey shows, 2 million, 1.3 men, and .7 women in Texas see or hear one of the games.
