Company D, 149th Says "Adieu" To Coryell County 15th

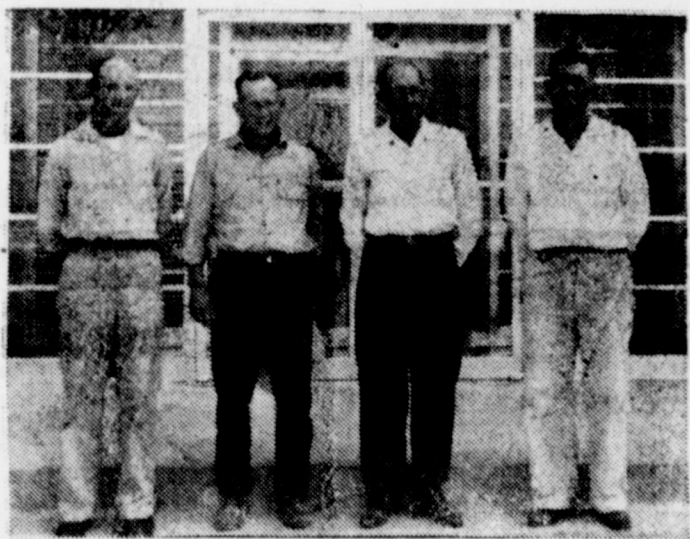

They were MR. prior to Oct. 14. Today, they have a GI rating, from plain private up to captain. The U. S. Army did this. They'll be 'mobilized' in fact, "in" at 1 minute, ir less after midnight the 15th.

Gatesville, are the members present Sunday morning, 8th, and Webb says he has a number of photos available, no commission to Jones. The wide-awake Jaycees are sponsoring a barbecue and get-together for the men, their families, the Jaycees, their families, and the general public, set for 5:30 Sunday evening at Gatesville High

Schiol Cafeteria. Watts Wholesale Meats is furnishing barbecue for 120 and Co. D 949th will take $100 out of the company fund to help out and the Jaycees will 'pick up the check' for the balance. Is that right? They didn't say so but you ought to be there and lay a little deposit on the table to help help the Jaycees out in this deal—it ought to be a town affair, no county, with no discredit to the Jaycees who started the ball rolling The mtn, their families and up to 143 adults and 57 children; add the Jaycees and their families, and some 400 ought to be there, and it ought to be more if you'll be there. Bring the wallet and be a real sport. Thanks awfully! (Note, the Jayces don't know anything about his reqes for funds.) Good Luck, Company D '49th.

Water Was Plentiful In Some Sections: None In Others: Leon Out

That rain Monday, or Sunday night, put the old Leon out at all points from Jonesboro to Lake Belton, and C. D. Turner, local water level reader said it got to 32.30 here, highest ever. Seems it got out here about 4 a. m. Monday.

Some roads were washed out, and a few bridges and Mrs. Lillie Brown at Plum Creek had her car washed off in the creek with her 5 children and she got them all n top of the car from where she and the children were rescued. Others were reported taking refuge in trees, but there was no loss of human life, and livestock wasn't so fortunate, quite a few were reported missing.

Cowhouse Creek, or another west of Purnela, flooded U. S. 84 and stopped traffic for a time.

Rain in Gatesville was not so much, being 1.4. Ater reported 3 and 4 inches, around Honey Creek 10, Turnersville 6.6, Purnela 8, White Hall 3.5, and one report from Ireland said 15. Mound and Leon Junction are said to have had none.

Also, at the meeting, a report was made on overcrowded conditions in the Junior High School.

Audit by Wilcox Patllo Company was approved and the board took under study certain academic requirements and in-service training for teachers to be eligible to teach n the schools after 1961-62. Action is due in the November meeting.

GATESVILLE, BELTON "Bs" BATTLE TO 0-0 TIE AT HOLMES STADIUM THURS.

Gatesville Bs battled Belton Bs to a 0-0 tie Thursday night at Holmes Stadium.

Both teams showed splendid defensive play against each other. During the game, both teams had good chances for a touchdown but the defense overruled the offense to a tie.

At on time, 23 seconds of the 2nd quarter, Danny Shepherd pulled in a pass that put Gatesville on the 5 yard stripe. The half ended shortly after the bid for a Gatesville touchdown.

In the 4th quarter Byron Mauldin of Belton went to the Gatesville 5 and was rying for a six pointer, which was about the best chance for Belton to score, but Gaylon Simmons, Gatesville, htd something to say about that. He and a few of his teammates pounded the line and found what they were looking for—the pigskin.

Gatesville made another bid with 2:40 left in the ball game, carrying the ball to the 3 yard line, and then lost a few yards, but gained them back by offside penalty on Belton. The penalty put Gatesville on the Belton 1 ft. line but Belton's defense heeld the Hornets for 2 downs and then Walter Huey of Belton hit Larry Harrell of the Hornets for a 10 yard loss and only a few seconds were left in the game.

Starters for the Bs were Hal Anderson re, Joe David Williamson rt, Reid Williams rg, Mike Thompson c, Walter Wiley lg, Johnny Bates le, Bobby Carothers qb, Larry Harrell lhb, Danny Shepherd rhb, Bob Bennett fb.

For Belton: Rice Boney le, Owen Roberts lt, Tommy Hamerick, lg, James Faglee c, Walter Huey re, James Ross rt, Glenn Baird rg, Byron Mauldin qb, Chuch Hernandez rhb, Jerry Shan non lhb.

FLAT, SIX IS 26-12 WINNER OVER SIDNEC

Flat's Yellowjackets scored in every period last Friday night to clip the Sidney six, 26-12, and tune up for the District 12-B wars. The Jackets engaged Jarrell in a district duel Friday night and next Saturday night will tangle with Oglesby.

B. B. Botkin started the scoring against Sidney by tossing a 30 yard pass to Ronnie Barr for a first period touchdown, and Botkin notched the second tally on a two yard plunge.

Freshman Leon Russell's 4 yd run scored Flat's third touchdown, and Freddie Wolf tallied the fourth on a 10-yd pass from Joe Ashby.

Sidney's touchdown came in the first and fourth quarters.
