Local Men Injured In Wednesday Crash

Early Thursday morning, approximately 1:30, two local men were injured in a one-vehicle accident on F-M Road 1829, 8 miles southeast of Gatesville.

Torris and Roger Hartsell, of Route 2, Gatesville. The accident occurred when the driver lost control of the above pickup truck and smashed into the bridge rail on the Coryell Creek Bridge.

Both of the occupants were rushed to Coryell Memorial Hospital, where Roger Hartsell was treated and released, Torris Hartsell was admitted into the hospital in severe condition.

March Of Dimes Will Surpass Last Years Goal

The March of Dimes collection this year is ahead of the pace set last year, but well behind earlier years. A steady decline is evident in the March of Dimes. Starting in 1964, with $3,000 collected in the project that year. In 1965, it dropped to $1900 and in 1966, a further drop to $1200. Last year was a low point, with only $700 being collected.

Mr. W.H. Donaldson had collected $636.44 through 10:00 Thursday morning, with many sources still to report. The merchant envelope system has bogged down, with envelopes not being passed on as planned. Of course, someday these envelopes will be passed on as they are supposed to and of course, someday researchers will be able to make discoveries to eliminate birth defects. Procrastination seems to creep into every phase of our lives.

The funds collected by the March of Dimes are displaced 25% to Research projects, 37-1/2% to operation of National Centers and 37-1/2% to our local program.

Mrs. Christine Smith of Evant turned in $77.98 Wednesday, collected in the Evant march.

The Elementary School has turned in $121.93 so far and will receive more contributions from the students and teachers by the end of the school day, today.

The March of Dimes will top last year's total, which will end the year to year decrease in collection. The organization has all but eliminated polio and with support, could one day eliminate or at least correct birth defects.

Filing Is Complete 15 Seek Texas Top Spot In 1968

Monday night, at midnight, was the closing date for political candidates at all levels of government in the state.

By the closing minute, the governor's race had mushroomed to 15 candidates, ranging in age from 35 to 55. There will be a run-off election in the Democratic primary for sure. The first two finishers in the May 4 primary will probably face each other in the run-off election. On the Republican side there is the possibility of a run-off if the vote is split to any degree.

Voters will need computers to determine which candidate best qualifies for the office. Surely the voter can find someone on the list pleasing enough to vote for.

In the lieutenant governor's race, there will be three democrats and one republican to choose from. Douglas R. DeCluitt, of Waco, is the only republican seeking the second seat and will face the winner of the Democratic primary in November.

House Speaker, Ben Barnes, DeLeon, Rep. Don Gladden, Fort Worth; and Gene Smith, Fort Worth have paid their filing fees and will appear on the Democratic ballot in the first primary for lieutenant governor.

Back to the governor's race, the following Democrats have tossed their hats into the ring:

Republicans entered are: Paul Eggers, 48; John Trice, 35; Wallace Sisk, 38 and Jim Segrest, 46.

One independent will try to get on the ballot. To do so, he would have to get more than 14,000 signatures on a petition during the month of June. Speculation is that Martin A. Wiginton will just be trying to attract attention to "new left" issues and not really seek a place on the ballot.

Several candidates have yet to pay filing fees. All fees must be paid by late Thursday. The field could be cut by one or two candidates and it is comforting to know that it will not be more than 15.

Gatesville's Newest Water Well Reaches 650'

The new water well drilling has progressed to the 650' mark as of Thursday. Drilling will continue to the 900' level before testing and evaluation will begin.

City Manager, Eiland Lovejoy, expects the drilling to reach the 900' level by the middle of next week, barring any complications or work stoppage.

The drilling is ahead of schedule and shows signs of early completion. Only a day crew has been employed in the operation, showing the easy drilling.

Mr. Lovejoy pointed out that street conditions in the city will require time to dry out after the recent rains that soaked the areas.

Many road resurfacing projects are needed in the city and several chronic seeps and other problems deserve attention in the near future.

Cove CC Banquet

Avenue E, gymnasium will be the site for the Copperas Cove Chamber of Commerce Banquet to be held Tuesday night, February 13th.

Guest speaker will be Ben Barnes, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Outgoing President is Marlin Bond. The new President, Raymond Johnson will be installed at the banquet.

The Chamber of Commerce is expecting about 400 to attend the banquet.

LOCAL FILING COMPLETED MONDAY

Local politicians have made their decisions for the election. At the close of filing, there were 35 District, County and party races unopposed, with 7 races drawing two or more candidates.

On the U.S., State, County and District levels, the following candidates will find the going easy: Congressman W. R. Poage, Judge Vic Hall, State Rep. Bob Salter, Judge Truman E. Roberts, District Attorney Byron McClellan, County Attorney Albert Dickie, Sheriff Windy Cummings, County Surveyor H.L. Burleson, Constable, Precinct 2, A.H. Donaldson; Constable, Precinct 3, Abe Merritt; Constable, Precinct 4, W.D. (Pat) Snoddy, Constable, Precinct 5, H.H. Maynard.

Races have developed in 3 commissioner precincts. Precinct 1 will feature a contest between Otha Medart and Curtis Smith.

Precinct 2 will be the largest race in the county and rival the Governor's race in size. Four candidates will appear on the ballot: Pat N.

Mr. O.D. Bates, Principal of the Gatesville Elementary School, presented Mr. W.H. Donaldson, Chairman of the 1968 March of Dimes Drive with funds collected at the school this week.

P.T.A. Will Vote On New Project

Monday night at the Parent-Teacher Association regular meeting, discussion will center around the project for the PTA talent funds.

Projects were suggested to the directors in several areas. A walkway between the New Junior High complex and the High School is in need for the students during wet weather, because school buses load and unload at the High School only.

New curtains were suggested for the Elementary School Auditorium. The most urgent project, the installation of more water fountains at the Elementary School as the school presently has only two fountains.

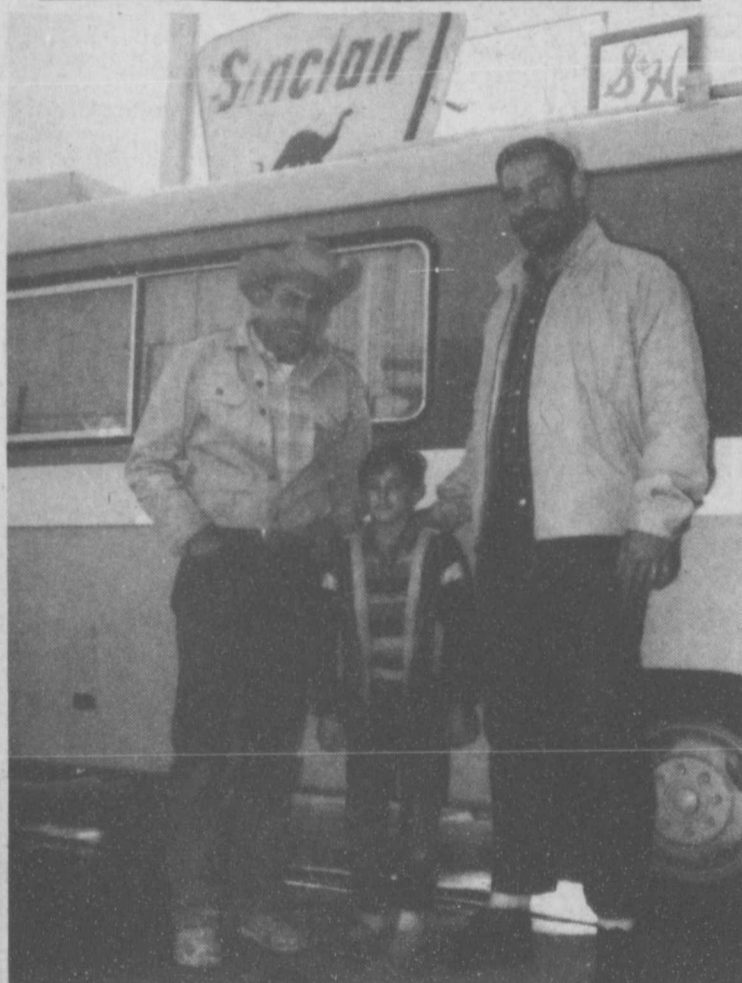

The PTA directors, led by Mrs. Jean Wilson, President, selected the Elementary School fountain project as this year's recipient of PTA talent show funds and receipts from the chili supper.

The PTA talent show collected $133 and the highly successful chili supper netted $323.22 for use on worthy projects around the local school system. It is expected that the fountain project will cost approximately $170. The PTA will make plans to use the remainder of the funds for another worthy project sometime this spring.

Will Spring Be Early

Despite the fact the Ground Hog saw his shadow, Gatesville is beginning to have indications of spring like weather.

Third Round: Mr. and Mrs. Newlon Sanford, 23,190; Byron and Billy Clay McClellan, 22,980; Paul Bromser and Corine Homan, 19,020; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bonnell, 13,670. Fourth Round: Mr. and Mrs. Newlon Sanford, 32,050; Byron and Billy Clay McClellan, 29,500; Mrs. W.E. Poston and Mrs. Cleo Woodard, 26,190; Paul Bromser and Mrs. Corine Homan, 24,960.

Oakland Raider Visits Gatesville

"Paul Bunyan", "Big Ben" or "The Tree" (would you believe "The Oak Tree"), you pick the name. Ben Davidson of the American Football League Champions, Oakland Raiders, visited with another famous group of Davidsons this past weekend.

Ben "The Oak Tree" Davidson and his wife, Kathy and their three children, Janella, six years old; Deana, 5 years old and Vickie, three years old, travel the U.S. each year after the season ends. This year their trip has taken the family to Washington, D.C. and Gatesville, Texas, with a few hundred interesting stops in between.

"The Tree" has been in professional football since 1961.

Oddly enough, Ben began his career with the Green Bay Packers. (Someday someone is going to burst that bubble.) Davidson worked with the New York Giants and Washington Redskins before going to the champion Raiders.

This "Big Oak Tree" weighs in at 280 pounds and stands 6' 8" tall. Trees that size just don't fall out of the way when you run at them. Ben plays defensive end for the Raiders and the Super Bowl program described him as "He is a rough one, this 280 pounder."

The "Big Oak Tree" is traveling in a home on wheels and headed for a tour of Mexico. Each year the Davidsons travel in Mexico and will probably settle in Mexico someday.

Sanfords Win Club Bridge Tourney

Winding up in 2nd place for the bridge competition was Byron and Billy Clay McClellan. The McClellans pulled out in front of the field during the 2nd round, but the Sanfords passed them again in the third round and managed to hold their lead. The final total for the McClellan team was 29,500/

Third place in the tourney was won by Yvonne Poston and Lanelle Woodard with 26,190. In fourth place was Paul Bromser and Corine Homan with a 4-round total of 24,960.

Grass Team Takes Third Place At Fort Worth

The Gatesville High School Grass Judging Team was in Fort Worth last weekend, to judge during the Livestock Show. The three-man team finished third in competition in a field of 40 teams. The team has received some special coaching under Sam Adams, who retired from teaching recently. The team will compete in several other fair contests this spring. Look for some first place finishes from the team.

Individualism -The Key

The fact that the individual is the key to everything is the basis of our Constitution. The United States is the first nation to recognize this officially. For the first time, man was accepted as a responsible, self-controlling individual, able to work out his own destiny. The Constitution does not grant the individual his rights; it recognizes that his rights are inalienable. Instead the people grant rights to their government. The recognition that a man is responsible, self-controlling individual is the big difference between our system and all others. This recognition frees man to put his energy and ambition to work. Millions of people, including a lot of Americans, have come to believe that the Socialist system is something new, a wave of the future. Communists still insist that capitalism is society gone to seed, that it is outmoded, obsolete, and simply filled the gap between feudalism and socialism. The truth is, the only new and workable social and economic system operating in the world today is American capitalism. It is hardly 200 years old, and that is very young as history goes. H.G. Weaver, in his book, "The Mainspring of Human Progress", asks: "Why did men, women and children eke out their meager existence for 6,000 years, toiling desperately from dawn to dark - barefoot, half naked, unwashed, unshaved, uncombed, with lousy hair, mangy skins and rotting teeth - then suddenly, on one place on earth there is an abundance of such things as rayon underwear, nylon hose, shower baths, safety razors, ice cream sodas, lipsticks and permanent waves?" Stop and think about this. Why and how did it happen that way? It's not governments that have done this, but men, individual men. Nearly every great accomplishment the world has known has been done by an individual. They have been able to do this because the social and economic system we have chosen has freed us to use and satisfy our God-given abilities and aspirations to the fullest. Socialism and responsible individual freedom are not compatible. The real danger to American freedom lies in the idea of a welfare state, a gov-

FTA TO HOLD CAKE WALK

Teachers met in the auditorium Tuesday, February 6, for their regular monthly meeting. Stanley Kopec, president, called the meeting to order and led in the FTA pledge. After Janna Bonner read the minutes of the last meeting, the business part of the meeting was discussed and Mrs. Gail Callahan, one of the FTA sponsors, reminded the students to turn in their points. Then, teacher and future teacher of the month were elected. Mrs. Mabel Balch was the student's choice for "Teacher of the Month" and Teddy Foote, a freshman, was elected "Future Teacher of the Month."

In conclusion, Kathy Sims announced a FTA cake walk to be held February 14th in the gym. Proceeds from this cake walk will go in the FTA's general fund.

GHS elects favorites
Each of the classes in GHS met Monday, February 5th, to elect class favorites for the 67-68 school year. The seniors elected Jerry Morgan and Sue Byrom for favorites; junior favorites are Dick Belf and Corliss Worthy; the sophomores elected Danny Belf and Jean Jackson; and the freshmen elected Mike Matthews and Lu Lee.

Arranged security - The threat is in our own thinking - in the changing American attitudes and approaches. It is in the abandonment of the doctrine of individualism, and our espousal of the theory that our government should do for us. It is not that we CAN'T do for ourselves, but that we DON'T WANT to do for ourselves. Too many of us refuse to face decisions, to take risks, to dare to be different, and to stand up for what we believe.

You may say, I am just one of millions. What can I do? Remember, "You are only one, but you are one... You cannot do everything, but you can do something. And what you can do, you ought to do. And what you ought to do, by God's grace you will do."

State Of Union Principle Debate Of '68 Election

The State of the Union, how it gets that way and what to do about it will be the central topic of heated debate in this election year, 1968. The President, in his message to Congress and the nation, has begun that debate. Problems facing the nation were covered, ranging from the gamut from Viet Nam, relations with the Soviet Union, housing, consumer protection, crime, taxes, spending and inflation. Against the backdrop of a $350 billion debt carrying interest charges of $15 billion a year, a record budget of $180 billion, up $10 billion from last year was recommended. The President predicted an $8 billion deficit, but this estimate was based on the adoption of a 10 per cent surtax on incomes expected to raise $11.5 billion. Whether congressional objections to such a tax increase, without a corresponding decrease in federal spending, can be overcome in this session of Congress remains to be seen.

If there was anything remarkable about the State of the Union message, it was that there were no surprises -- no new solutions offered for the questions before the nation. With the possible exception of the tax increase, no priorities were given to guide Congress concerning the relative urgency of action in different areas. Peace terms for North Viet Nam were not materially altered, and Hanoi has again turned its back on U.S. proposals for negotiation. Public concern with crime control and drug addiction problems is evident, and these matters received much attention with proposals for federal aid and strengthening local police organizations and federal law enforcement agencies. Enlarged programs for housing, model cities, job training and employment were recommended to ease disillusionment and rioting in cities. The failure of these programs in the immediate past does not, to many minds, recommend them as solutions for the future. The danger remains that far too much will be expected far too soon. A broad range of measures purported to protect the interests of the consumer were recommended, with increasing emphasis on regulations as a substitute for variety and competition in the marketplace.

The President's appraisal of the State of the Union had two major elements disturbing to many observers. Excessive federal deficits over many years have caused the inflationary depreciation in the dollar's value which has become a major concern to every U.S. family. These same deficits have been a major factor worsening our balance of payments problem. Despite the government's role in creating these problems, the cures recommended for them do not include any real restraint in federal spending. Rather, they are based on higher taxes on the private citizen to restrain his spending and restrictions on the individual's freedom to travel and carry on normal business developments in foreign nations. The effectiveness as well as the long run wisdom of these solutions, can be seriously questioned.

The second, and perhaps the most disturbing element of the President's message in the minds of many critics, is that it conveyed no sense of purpose and direction for the nation's efforts. Certainly it is impossible to ride off in all directions at once to accomplish simultaneously the conclusion or advancement of every conceivable national objective within our own country and around the world as well. The President noted, "... there is in the land a certain restlessness -- a questioning." Since public uncertainty is evident, the question arises as to why something was not said to define national objectives more precisely. Most of the recommendations made have already been considered, rejected or watered down by the same men in Congress, who will be reviewing them in the current session.

Some political observers have suggested that the President may have charted this straight-ahead course to lay the ground work for a political campaign against a "do-nothing" Congress which might then be blamed for many of the country's ills. Certainly this has been effective in past political campaigns. In any event, the State of the Union remains a matter of deep concern to the American people. The opening gun of the 1968 presidential campaign has been fired, the political winds are blowing and only the passage of time will reveal their impact upon the destiny of the nation.

Dear Uncle Charlie:
How does one go about letting a friend know that she might be making a mistake in her love life? I'm afraid I might hurt her feelings if I say something. Please give me some advice if you can. Miss Wonderer 1968

Dear Miss:
You have not really given me enough information to give a proper analysis. However, if you know something that your friend should know, for goodness sakes, tell her. U.C.

Dear Uncle Charlie:
In all of your letters you say that if a girl really likes a fellow, she can find some way of letting him know. What are some of these ways? U.C.

Inquisitive Student
Dear Student:
Do not let the boy of your dreams know you are chasing him. Most boys resent an aggressive girl. A common mistake made by many girls is to get a friend to ask the boy if he likes her. This is an immature action, which even the freshman should have outgrown. As a rule, just play it cool, act yourself and be friendly. U.C.

Dear Uncle Charlie:
Do you think that a girl and boy who are going steady should block all of their friends out of each other's lives? U.C.

Definitely not! Many people U.C.

LET'S CALL A HALT

One of the nation's highly respected fiscal experts, Maurice Stans, former Director Bureau of the Budget, has expressed concern over the inroads that inflation, the silent tax, is making on the American economy.

He said that we need only look back to the days of 1960 to 1965, when prices rose only 1.4 per cent a year. In 1966 we had a 3 per cent inflation or double the 1960-65 rate, and in 1967 another 3 per cent increase was recorded. "This year a 5 per cent or more increase threatens," he said.

The last session of Congress enacted appropriations from $7 to $10 billion above those of the year before, and during the first three-quarters of calendar 1967 actual federal spending ran 13 per cent ahead of 1966.

The concurrence of more balance-of-payments difficulties and accelerating domestic inflation is significant, Mr. Stans stated. It should serve as a pertinent warning to those who manage our fiscal and monetary policies. However long we fail to recognize the dangers of inflation for our own markets, we will very shortly be reminded of its consequences in international relationships.

With this background of large government deficits, a long unfavorable balance-of-payments, new crises in international finances, growing inflation at home, and general uncertainty for business and the domestic economy, it is a good time to prove for a better way of doing things, according to Mr. Stans. Now is the time to make substantial progress in getting our federal budget in order and to reduce the inflationary pressures during 1968.

Big Tax Take Would Run U.S. Government 34 Days

How long do you think the Federal government could operate if it were to tax—at 100 percent—all taxable income in excess of $50,000 on an individual's return (excluding capital gains)? The answer, says the Tax Foundation is: 1.8 days, or what the $700 million in added revenue obtained by such a drastic levy would buy in day-to-day Federal government.

If Uncle Sam got real hard up and wanted to tax at 100 percent all taxable income in excess of $10,000, he'd take in $13.2 billion in added funds, sufficient to operate the government for 34 days, says the Foundation.

Washington Views and News

By Congressman Bob Poage

The House spent three days on discussion of the so-called "Truth in Lending" bill which finally passed by an overwhelming majority. This is one of those measures which has built up lots of interest and support through the use of a "catchy" title. Everyone believes that we should tell the truth about the cost of money or credit. It is not so clear that we should use this bill as a means to rewrite the garnishment laws of a number of States as it does. It does not affect Texas. We are one of two States which does not allow garnishment of current wages, but it seems to me that it is better to let each State decide for itself how it will administer its own laws. I, therefore, voted for an amendment which would have confined this bill to the subject matter of its title. This amendment lost by three votes. We were then faced with the alternative of voting against what seemed to be a needed control of credit statements in interstate commerce, or of accepting further intrusion of Federal power. This is a good example of the way much of our State's rights are lost. Since Texas was not involved and since everyone was agreed as to the need for an honest statement of interest rates, I voted for the bill. The Rules Committee still delays a final hearing on the Telephone Bank Bill, although I testified in behalf of the bill last Tuesday. I hope they will take action next week. The sooner we start these rural systems to using private money rather than tax funds, the better for all concerned. I have just come from a meeting on "pollution" sponsored by the United States Chamber of Commerce. Secretary Freeman made a splendid speech on the subject. Too few of our people realize just how far-reaching this problem has become. It is getting more serious each year. It involves not only water pollution, but air and soil pollution as well. It includes the pollution of our streams and lakes by just plain silt (cost $300,000,000 per year) as well as pollution of our water with salt (a common problem in our oil fields) and with animal wastes (a growing problem around feed lots). It also involves residues from fertilizers and pesticides as well as from all kind of industry. We can't avoid all pollution, but we can reduce it and we must take much more effective and more economical steps to deal with these substances in our water, our air or even in our soils. It is estimated that it costs 20 times as much to remove a ton of silt as it does to hold it in place, so I think it is clear that ordinary soil conservation pays pretty well. I realize there is little optimism in the news you are reading today, but I am happy to report we have enjoyed a most "successful" Ground Hog Day. There has been no sun in Washington all week.

A BABY SHOWER, . . . honoring Mrs. Donald Walker was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kermit Jones, Wednesday evening.

A NOVEL IDEA! . . . Say, decorate your home for Valentine with this clever tree made from household items.

VALENTINE TOPIARY TREE

Straws and glitter, hairpins and glue, Red paper hearts, some effort by you.

These, plus six pipe cleaners and a two-inch styrofoam ball, are the ingredients for a charming Valentine centerpiece.

Select white, pink and red straws from a box of assorted "Glad" plastic straws. Cut into two to four-inch lengths—you'll need about 100 pieces. Put a speak of glue on the top of hairpins and insert one about an inch inside each straw length. Brush glue on other end of straws and sprinkle with glitter. While glue is drying, cut out paper hearts (12 thumb-nail size, 12 one-inch and a few two-inch). Glue small hearts directly onto straws. Larger hearts should be glued to pipe-cleaners cut in half. When all are dry, poke hairpin ends and pipe-cleaners into styrofoam ball; leave a small space for tree trunk.

The tree base is a paper cup filled with sand or gravel. Insert sharpened stick (dowel or pencil) as tree trunk. Glue straws vertically to cup. Cover entire surface of cup and tree trunk with gold paint. When completely dry, lower ball onto spike of "tree-trunk." Finish off with a perky red velvet bow.

See you in the NEWS.

EVANT NEWS by CORNELIA KREID

Here we are with the robins coming and the ducks going! Spring is surely close to them, in spite of the Ground Hog's story. Saturday we saw lots of robins, as we went to the Gatesville fair. Friday, we heard the sound of ungreased shoe leather, and upon looking skyward, there were some twenty-five ducks flying northwest. It may prove too early, if the weather reports are true.

Mrs. George Matthews is home from Scott and White Hospital and doing well.

Mrs. Jim Ballow has been assigned a rest in bed, to recover from her needs to give her heart a vacation. But she can have a few callers, a few phone calls and lots of cards, letters and covered dishes for she and her husband, while she is not able to prepare meals.

Mrs. Amy England and Clyde Thompson are two more victims of the flu.

The school is still suffering slightly from mumps, chicken pox and flu. Attendance has never been very low, a single day, however.

Married on January 10th in San Saba, were Charles Martinez and Miss Jessica Vogues of San Saba. Charles is a senior in Evant High School and the couple are residing on the C.B. Martin place. He will continue to remain in classes. Not a case of teenage marriage, this incident is worthy of mention. Charles is one of those boys to be complimented for staying in school until he finishes, in face of several inconveniences that has been his lot; he is getting under "the wire" for age and accomplishments and won a charming bride too.

Word was received of the recent death of Troy Chick, Denton, by his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Williams. Married to the former Luevelyn Williams, Mr. Chick was a farmer - rancher near Denton, where his wife taught school.

Word of the death of Miss Myrna McGill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland McGill, came to them January 30th. Miss McGill was a resident of Pasadena, California, where she had lived several years.

Visitors in the Ben Williams home Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Williams, Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Smith, Lampasas. Ben is recovering from an attack of pneumonia and that made a stay in the Hamilton County General Hospital necessary.

Mrs. Clyde Thompson, Evant teacher, is a patient in Hamilton County General Hospital this week with pneumonia.

District Superintendent J.W. Sprinkle will deliver all three sermons for the Evant parish churches, Sunday February 25, with the one for the Evant church being conducted at the 11 o'clock hour and plans of covered dish meal, followed by conference for Evant Methodist Church is in the making.

Rev. and Mrs. E.R. Wall have moved to London (Texas) where he has been called as pastor of the Baptist Church in that city. He formerly held the position as pastor for the same church, for seven years. Evant will miss the Walls.

Mr. Paul Horton returned home from Hamilton County General Hospital, Sunday and is doing well.

Reports on Mrs. Edwin Marwitz sound good; she will soon be out of Harris Hospital, Ft. Worth.

Of interest in the Evant area is the following item, which we regret not receiving soon enough for an earlier paper. Death came to Mr. A.J. Caldwell, in a Kerrville hospital, January 24. Mr. Caldwell, age 69, had been in ill health for several years, but suffered a severe attack of flu recently. Following hospitalization in Goldthwaite, he returned to his former hometown of Kerrville, where he died. Buried in Oiltown, Oklahoma on January 26, he is survived by three sisters and a brother of that city, one daughter, Mrs. Sammie Harper of Star, three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. His wife also survives him. The couple made their last home, together, in the J.D. Farmer house, on Highway 281, just north of Evant, but did not live there but a short time.

Mrs. Ben Flach attended the ceremonial in Dallas Friday evening of last week, that ised her granddaughter, Cindy Flach, to the position of Worthy Adviser in the Rainbow Girls Order. Beautiful both in spirit and color, all the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Flach, Jr., were present to see their daughter and sister take her new position. A re-

Hornets Finish Season With Loss To Taylor Tuesday Night

Reggie Schoenewolf shoots from his favorite spot. Reggie was moved to forward during mid-season and has become one of the most effective outside shooters on the team. Against Belton, last week, Reggie hit on four consecutive shots from a similar point. Against Taylor, the job of screening out the Taylor height, Nos. 51, 4 and 43, went to Bobby Cole and Kenny Gaston. Above, Bobby has performed the task to perfection.

Jerry Morgan jumps against a Duck, after a loose ball was "tied up" in the third quarter of Tuesday night's contest. Jerry was high point man, scoring 18 points for the Hornets in this, his last game for the Hornets.

B Team Takes Taylor 68-36

The Hornet B's walked all over the Taylor B squad, Tuesday, 68 to 36. Every player scored at least two points in this last game of the season. High point man for the locals was Danny Belf with 12 points. The Hornets jumped out to an early lead and held a fine point margin at the end of the first quarter, 18 to 8. In the second quarter, everything exploded with the locals massing 23 points and holding the Ducks to 9 points. At the mid-point, the Hornets had poured in what would later prove to be as many points as the Ducks would accumulate for the entire game, 36 points.

13 games. Wednesday, when I talked with Coach Bell, he said, "If we had won last night, we would have had the maximum from our talent." Coach Bell set his goal at winning half his games this year and falling short is no crime. If you did not see a game this year, you made a mistake and you lost out this season. Congratulations Coach Bell and the fine group of athletes you have. Scoring in the last game of the season, was Hornets - Jerry Morgan 18 Reggie Schoenewolf 11 Bobby Cole 8 Raymond Cole 7 Kermit Swindall 2 Buddy Wiggins 2 Kenny Gaston 1

Riding Club Schedules Annual Show

It's almost horse show time again. That's the main topic of conversation among members of the Gatesville Riding Club. Plans are being made for another two-day affair, that should be bigger and better than ever. The Quarter horse show is scheduled for April 5, the Appaloosa, Non-registered and play day shows are scheduled for Saturday, April 6, 1968.

Gatesville Riding Club President, Bobby Curry, announced that J.W. Shults will be Quarter horse show chairman, Rev. Jim Sanders will be Appaloosa chairman and Willie Ogden will be chairman of the non-registered and play day shows. Last year's prizes, ribbons and trophies attracted over 500 horses to Gatesville. The Gatesville Riding Club appreciates the hospitality and courtesies extended these visitors.

DANNY BELF

With the 36 to 17 half-time lead, the Hornets played every man with all contributing to the victory.

The third and fourth quarters continued to pile up points, 13 and 15, respectively. The Ducks best quarter came at the end, scoring 13 points to achieve respectability in the final minutes of the game.

"Hats off" to the entire group of young athletes in the highly competitive 13 AAA North zone.

Scoring went as follows:
Belf 12
Barr 8
Srovall (Bobby) 8
Freeman 7
Carothers 6
Rhea 6
Stovall (Billy) 5

"HUSTLE" TRADEMARK OF 1968 HORNETS

"Our effort and hustle have been outstanding all year long", stated Coach Jack Bell of the Gatesville Varsity basketball squad. In addition to this statement, the coach calculated a possible comeback for the Hornets back in competition as a district contender. The over-all output of the squad this year has been definitely good. Team work and hustle are two eminent qualities evident in the results gained this year by the Hornets. Coach Bell foresees bigger and better goals to be attained by the players next year. The 1968-69 season promises to be interesting and enlightening, not only to the Gatesvillites, but also to district competitors.

Returning lettermen, Raymond Cole, Reggie Schoenewolf and Buddy Wiggins show tremendous promise as tough competition to opposing teams such as Belton and Copperas Cove. These men, along with progressing B-teamers, will surely provide Gatesville spectators with vigorous basketball entertainment. Enthusiasm toward basketball in Gatesville has progressed to some degree during the past season and the effort of eminent players like Bruce Neely, Kermit Swindall, Bobby Stovall and Buddy Wiggins contribute much to the game. These boys did not start many games this year, but were determined and enthusiastic team members throughout the season. These were the fellows who worked the hardest, were the most energetic, and had the best spirit of the team. Certainly, this core for next year's Hornet varsity is promising.

Spirit throughout this year has been high among the boys. The fighting Hornets are to be praised for their unreserved determination at the season's most difficult games.

Spirit among the players has been outstanding, but the school spirit is lacking and enthusiasm among the townspeople has been exceedingly bad. Next year, hopes are that fans will make their presence known and their support felt by improving the attendance at not only home games, but at the out-of-town ones, too. The fighting Hornets need our support, so next year let's all go out to the ballgames.

Track Team Holds First Workout

... "Fleet Feet"

The Hornet track squad went through a light work out Wednesday afternoon with a series of wind sprints, followed by walking periods to loosen up muscles.

The cool weather, this time of the year, forces the athletes to warm-up very thoroughly before each work out. The squad went through a series of 220 yard sprints to begin the first stage of the training.

The coaching staff was hard at the construction of asphalt runways for the broad jump and pole vault events.

Jim Ferguson, senior, is described by Coach Bishop as one of the most competitive athletes in GHS sports. Jim was 1967's Most Valuable Lineman. He was not satisfied to coast through the spring semester and graduation, so he began running track in December.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

By Verle Sanford

KEEP ESSENTIALS HANDY
One of the handiest ways to fish is to keep a fairly large plastic box, say with a half-dozen compartments, on the boat seat beside you. It should have your most used lures, so that you don't have to open the big tackle box every time you change baits.

SPIDERS SCATTER WIDELY
Young spiders scatter over the country easily. On their little silk skeins they can climb like a plane, and the air currents will scatter them thousands of miles away.

PHEASANT KILL IS HUGE
If you think pheasant hunting is small business, consider that some 16,000,000 are harvested in the United States by hunters each year.

MARLINS ROAM WIDELY
Don't try to follow the white marlin. One tagged off North Carolina in 1964 traveled 2,000 miles to be picked up two years later off the coast of Venezuela.

DRAGON FLIES FLY FAST
Those dragon flies that perch on the end of your pole can cruise at a speed of 25 miles per hour. Some have been clocked at 60 mph.

SOME FISH GROW OLD
How old does a fish get? Average life span is four or five years. Striped bass, however, may reach 30 years—sturgeon 100 years.

Taylor 65 Gatesville 49

The Hornets completed the basketball season Tuesday night against the Taylor Ducks.

Taylor lost to the Hornets in Taylor, earlier in the season. Coach Bell explained that the Hornets managed to screen out the kTaylor rebounders. On the local court, the Ducks controlled the boards completely, limiting the Hornets to a one shot offense.

Coach Bell said before the game that the open date, last Friday, could hurt the Hornets. Bell reported, "It was the worst we have been beaten on the boards this year."

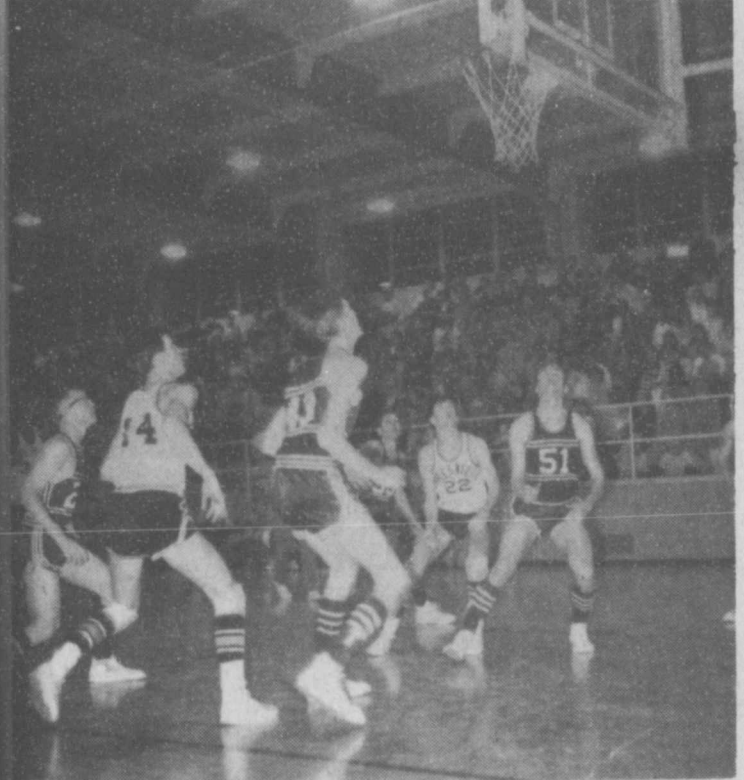

The Hornets did seem abnormally cool in the first quarter, with only 5 points, while the Ducks picked up 12 points.

It was a question of shoot one time and try to stop the tall Ducks at their end.

The second quarter action picked up, with the Hornets recovering the scoring. Taylor could not keep up in this stanza, as the Hornets ran and shot for 13 points and Taylor picked up 6 points. Everything was tied up at the half-time, 18-18.

The Ducks came out after the mid-point and dropped in 47 points, most of which came from 6'8" Featherston and 6'4" Burkhart. The Hornets played about average, picking up 31 points in the second half.

The Hornets completed the season, winning 11 and losing

Buddy Wiggins and Kenny Gaston move into the lane in an effort to pick up a rebound against Tall Taylor. Number 43, for Taylor, is Featherston 6'8" rebounder, who scored 24 points Tuesday night. No. 51 is Burkhart, who stands 6'4" and led the Taylor Ducks in scoring, with 25 points. Keeping these two men away from the basket was the problem for the Hornets.

...Get Ready for the Tip

Doyel Summerfield tips the jump ball to team-mate Ray Summarfield. Ray scored two points with the tip-off on a 15 foot jump shot.

It could be a high-flying Jonesboro Eagle squad in the State Tournament.

The girls captured a comfortable victory by 11 points, 41-30.
