

CTLEC Allocates Funds To Coryell And Copperas Cove

The Central Texas Law Enforcement Council (CTLEC) received $27,460 Thursday in planning and action money from the governor's Criminal Justice Council.

The money is made available under the federal Omnibus Crime and Safe Street Act of 1968. Charles Cass, CTLEC executive director, said $15,360 will be put to the organization's law enforcement plan into operation and $12,100 will be planning funds for 1970.

The Criminal Justice Council approved funds to establish a 10-unit Teletype network among law enforcement agencies in the six counties of CTLEC, Bell, Coryell, Lampasas, Hamilton, Mills and Milam.

Judge Norman Storm, president of the Executives Board of the Central Texas Council of Governments indicated that "one teletype unit will be located in Copperas Cove and one in Gatesville". Cost of the units will be on a 60-40 program with the local organization's cost approximately $30 per unit.

Eight units are located in other areas of the six county Council to make up the network. The cost of the Teletype systems was figured at $102 per unit per month, Cass said.

The Teletypes will give law enforcement agencies a direct link with each other and instant communication with the Department of Public Safety and other Police training and seminars for the remainder of 1969 received a grant of $3,000.

Cass said this is approval of two 140-hour certification training schools for 15 students per class and four seminars on crime subjects.

The $3,000 grant must be matched with $5,000 in local funds.

Cass said the application was for $1,200 per class, and $600 for the seminars.

The police training classes will be held at Central Texas

College in Killeen.

Dates for the schools and seminars will be announced later, Cass said.

He said the student cost probably would be on the same 60-40 basis as the Teletype financing.

Sgt. Benson Receives Bronze Star

Darrel E. Benson, retired U. S. Army First Sergeant was honored last Friday with the presentation of the Bronze Star for meritorious achievement in ground operations against hostile forces in the Republic of Vietnam.

The Bronze Star award cited Benson for consistently manifested exemplary professionalism and initiative in obtaining outstanding results.

Sgt. Benson was discharged from the Army April 1, 1968 and returned to Gatesville where he lives with his wife Juanita and sons Johnny 15 and Eddie 14.

Benson was on duty with the Third Squad, Delta Troop 5th U. S. Cavalry was situated at Bearcat about 150 miles south of Saigon near the Mekong Delta.

The "closest call" for Benson came on his first patrol when a Viet Cong was surprised when Benson's patrol neared his hiding place. The Viet Cong jumped out behind from a tree not more than 15 feet from Benson and fired a shot which luckily missed. The Viet Cong escaped after the shot.

Hornets Drop Heartbreaker To Belton

Gatesville Hornet district hopes took a terrific set back Friday night as the Belton Tigers powered their way into the district 13-AAA district lead.

The Tigers found a tough opponent in the Gatesville Hornets who ran the ball well against the stiff Tiger defense. The Tiger power packed backfield with Jim Stewart, David Barbeck and Roy Kneese piled up 388 yards against the stubborn Hornet defense.

Following the game Belton Coach Jack Meredith said "we beat a very good team, they were well coached and played inspired football".

Looking back over the past seven weeks the most optimistic predictor must be happy with the Hornets season and their desire to play the sport to the fullest.

The dejection that goes with defeat was evident on all the faces that made the trip to Belton but the dejection will surely turn back to eagerness and youthful enthusiasm for the next weeks game.

"Hornet Pride" which has been a key in recent victories will now have to take on a new dimension --- recovery for the next game.

The Tigers scored two fourth down touchdowns to ice the hard fought contest. A glimmer of hope existed in the Hornet camp when Belton used up almost four minutes of the last five minutes on an unsuccessful drive for a score.

In the early going the Hornets moved very well against a defense which had prevented any running game in previous district clashes. The Hornets opened with a 40 yard run featuring a consistent four and five yards from Randy Schoenwolf and Ronald Brown.

At the Belton 39 yard line the Hornets seemed to be heading for "paydirt" when a fumble was recovered by Big Red.

The mighty Belton offense started by recovering its own fumble at the 41 yard line on first down. On second down the Tigers fumbled again and this time Bobby Hodge pounded on the loose football for the Hornets.

With a second chance early in the game, the Hornets gave to Brown on first down and he hit for nine yards to the 35 yard line. Randy Schoenwolf then picked up a first down for the Hornets to the 32 yard line.

The quick pitch to Brown on first down lost two yards as the Tigers pressured the play. Two incomplete passes forced the Hornets to kick on fourth down. Saunders was rushed hard on the punt and got off a poor kick. Saunders raced down field and killed the ball at the Tiger 31 yard line.

The Tigers displayed their running attack with 6:21 seconds left in the first quarter as they moved 39 yards in six plays but fumbled. This time Billy Hord found the football for the Hornets.

Then the Hornets began another drive at their 32 yard line with Steve Palmer crashing for the first six yards. Brown pushed up two on a second down play. On third down Mike Barr circles left end for the first down at the Hornet 48 yard line. A late hitting Tiger added 15 yards penalty to the run setting up the Hornets at the 39 yard line.

Schoenwolf then carried twice for eight yards and Brown picked up the first down at the 26 yard line. Barr picked up six through the middle. Palmer picked up one on second down. Third down cost the Hornets one yard as the Tiger defense met Schoenwolf as the ball was widened project.

The Commissioners have scheduled the meeting with Cove leaders Friday, November 14 in the Coryell County Court room. Judge Norman Storm indicated an 82 yard touchdown drive in eleven plays. On fourth down at the Hornet 25 yard line Roy Kneese raced around left end for the touchdown with 6:21 still showing in the first half.

Reports indicate that the relocation could cost as much as $814,000.

Judge Storm said in some cases county and state funds are used to relocate utilities if certain requirements are present. The Highway 190 project is complicated because of US government land involved on both sides of the present right of way.

hit Danny Belf with a pass good for ten yards and then Brown cracked for 15 yards to the 18 yard line. Palmer picked up one and on second down Mike Barr's pass was intercepted inside the five yard line.

Belton marched right back in ten plays to the Hornet 18 yard line only to have a fourth down pass fall incomplete.

The Hornets ran one more play before the halftime break.

In the second half, Belton's Jim Stewart took the opening kick off at the 25 and almost broke for a touchdown. Larry Moore made the tackle at the Gatesville 34 yard line.

Six plays later quarterback Bobby Wilson passed for six points from the nine yard line to Warren Isaccs.

The Hornets came out fighting with a hard hitting drive which started when Moore returned the kickoff 14 yards to the 35 yard line. Barr then picked up ten yards to the 45 yard line where Ronald Brown edged the ball closer to the goal at the 48 yard line. Barr then carried twice for nine yards and a first down at the 57 yard line.

On first Barr lost two yards and on second Brown raced around right end for 43 yards to the two yard line.

The Hornets held on that until fourth down and inches Barr ran a quarterback sneak over for the score. The extra point was good and the Tiger's lead was only six points 14 to 7.

Neither team could produce enough spark to score in the remaining part of the third period.

The Hornets almost pushed Big Red into a hole early in the fourth quarter when Saunders punt rolled dead at the Tiger

STOCK OFFERING COMPLETED BY WALLS INDUSTRIES INC.

A 260,000 share offering of the common stock of Walls Industries, Inc., of Cleburne Texas was completed Oct. 23 in a public offering headed by Dallas Rupe & Son, Inc., Dallas, it was announced by George S. Walls, chairman of the board.

The stock was marketed at $8 a share. The principal of the public offering closed the subscription in a matter of Thursday morning at the offices of Dallas Rupe & Son.

Of the 260,000 shares offered 135,000 were sold by the company, with the proceeds to be used to expand production facilities and to increase working capital. The remaining shares were sold by certain stockholders.

Walls is the chief executive officer of the company. The company has been closely held in the past with no cash dividends paid. On Oct. 23 the board of directors declared a dividend of 8 cents per share on the company's common stock payable Jan. 30, 1970 to holders of record as of Jan. 9, 1970.

The company has about 675 employees in its three plants at Cleburne, Gatesville, and Clifton. Sales for the year ended Dec. 31, 1968, exceeded $8 million. The company manufactures a variety of work and leisure clothing for men, women and children including snowmobile suits, casual jump suits, work and sports-styled coveralls, and children's western wear.

Cove City Council Calls For 190 Meeting

Copperas Cove City Manager John Carrollton and the Cove City Council have requested a meeting with the Commissioner Court to discuss the Highway widening project.

The Commissioners have scheduled the meeting with Cove leaders Friday, November 14 in the Coryell County Court room. Judge Norman Storm indicated an 82 yard touchdown drive in eleven plays. On fourth down at the Hornet 25 yard line Roy Kneese raced around left end for the touchdown with 6:21 still showing in the first half.

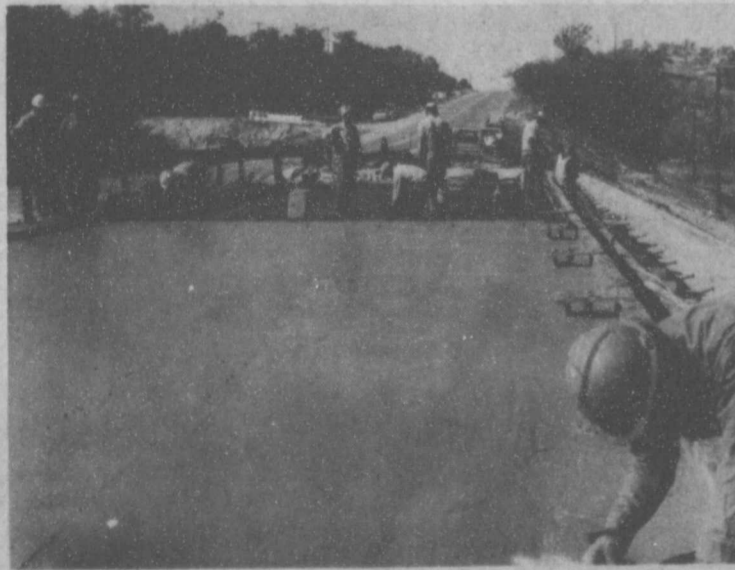

Reports indicate that the relocation could cost as much as $814,000.

Judge Storm said in some cases county and state funds are used to relocate utilities if certain requirements are present. The Highway 190 project is complicated because of US government land involved on both sides of the present right of way.

Belton's Bobby Wilson picked off the Mike Barr pass intended for Mike Mathews, No. 85, at the goal line in the second quarter. The score was 6 to 0 at the time and the Hornets were threatening to score for the third time when Wilson made his leap.

CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS UNDERWAY

At left the Austin Bridge Company is moving into the subsurface work on the Leon River Bridge just west of the business district. The workmen are finishing up on the second slab 40 ft. long to be poured this week. ABC officials hope to pour one 40 ft. section each day to complete the north side of the bridge before continuing on the south side.

Bottom left the new Library has received a front wall of tile as construction continues on the $100,000 project. The structure is over 10% complete at present. One section of concrete floor has been poured.

Bottom right, city street work is getting underway in earnest now with dirt and bridge work on Live Oak street receiving a high priority. Street improvement funds received a boost this year with the city sales tax receipts.

BROWN

Ronald Brown heads to the outside and picks up a good double team block in the above picture. George Thompson and Mike Mathews picked up Belton's middle linebacker, David Barbeck and Brown scampered 45 yards to the Belton two yard line in the third quarter. Brown carried for 129 yards against the toughest "run defense" in the district.

LOCAL OPTIMIST ANNOUNCE YOUTH APPRECIATION WEEK

George Tull, President of the Optimist Club of Gatesville, today announced that the local club will be fully participating in the organization's annual Youth Appreciation Week program. The observance held during the month of November was first observed by Optimist International in 1957. It is designed to encourage adult recognition of the responsible actions taken by the nation's young people which result in many outstanding accomplishments. President Tull pointed out that a vast majority of today's youth are decent, dedicated, constructive and deserving individuals who are often overlooked by the adult world. He went on to say that, "today's youth, through achievement, concern and their demonstrated willingness to act in responsible fashion makes them the finest the world has known."

Optimist David Sandefur, who will serve as local chairman for the Youth Appreciation Week activities, stated that the club will be requesting the cooperation of other organizations and individuals in the community to make the week an outstanding, city-wide program. In order to recognize the accomplishments of the youth in Gatesville, numerous events are being scheduled by the Optimists and as plans are finalized, announcements will be made.

Mayor Bob Miller has indicated that he will proclaim the week of November 10-16, 1969, as Youth Appreciation Week and will urge all citizens to support the Optimist Club in its admirable efforts to express appreciation and recognize the youthful citizens of Gatesville. Whereas, today, a vast majority of the youth of our nation are constructive, responsible individuals, vitally concerned with the present and the future, willing and desirous to act in service and to the benefit of all mankind, and

Whereas, it is felt that their many admirable achievements and actions do not receive from the adult community just recognition and,

Whereas, the members of Optimist International, as a vital part of their program of service, wish to promote due public recognition of these young people have set aside the seven days between November 10 and November 16, 1969, to be known as Youth Appreciation Week, and

Whereas, the citizens of Gatesville have indicated their approval of such action and wish to join the Optimists in expressing their pride and confidence in their youth and let them know that they approve of the many fine things they do to improve themselves, their community, their nation and the world, I, Bob Miller, Mayor of Gatesville, Therefore, proclaim November 10-16, 1969, as Youth Appreciation Week in Gatesville, Texas.

In such action, it is my sincere hope that every adult will stop and think of the many "plus" qualities to be found in the vast majority of todays younger generation and will actively recognize both the individual and collective groupings our citizens which age alone classifies as YOUTH. Let us let them know that we are confident in the ability to build and govern. Their's is the bright new world of tomorrow.

Signed: Bob Miller, Mayor of Gatesville

VETERANS DAY PROCLAMATION - FLY YOUR FLAG - Governor Preston Smith signed a Proclamation recently declaring November 11, 1969, as Veterans Day in Texas, and urged all citizens and businesses to FLY THEIR U. S. FLAGS as a massive display of our national unity, and a rededication of our support of our Nation in her defense of the cause of freedom. He called for appropriate ceremonies to honor those who have borne the burden in defense of our freedom. Present for the signing were American Legion Department Commander Henry H. Hill, San Antonio (left) and Department Adjutant Willis H. McGregor, Austin.

VETERANS DAY, NOVEMBER 11

This day, Veterans Day, November 11, 1969, was first observed as Armistice Day. Silence had fallen across Europe at 11:00 a.m., November 11, 1918, ending World War I. This is still a day of hope, fifty-one years having passed since that eventful day.

Over 4 1/2 million men represented the United States during this great conflict, World War I. Over 126,000 men would not be coming home, having paid the supreme sacrifice for their country. They were remembered in services beginning on November 11, 1921. In 1926, Armistice Day was the official name given this day of observation. In 1938 Congress proclaimed the date a legal public holiday.

The hopes and dreams of mankind were shattered just one year later, in 1939, when World War II began. America again responded to the challenge. Over 16 million men were called to forsake peaceful pursuits and bear arms for the protection of our allies.

Twice since that date, Americans have come to the aid of oppressed people, once in Korea, and now in Vietnam. When communist forces invaded Korea and South Vietnam, we came to the aid of those suffering people who had visions of living in a land that was free. We Americans still maintain hope for peace in the world today, even though battles continue to rage in the jungles of Vietnam. We will not accept a peace of slavery, but a peace of honor and dignity.

As we observe Veterans Day 1969, we pause to remember the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, a symbol of all American fighting men who paid with their lives, that the living might enjoy enduring freedom. More than one million men have given their lives in this endeavor. Veterans of all wars of the United States now number more than 39 million. Of this number, there are some 414,000 women veterans. There are more than 27 million of these veterans alive today. We have a tremendous responsibility and owe a great debt to these veterans who have given us our dearly cherished freedom.

To this very special group of Americans, we owe a pledge of assurance that we are worthy of the many sacrifices they have made and are making at this moment, in order that we may remain a free nation. We face the future with confidence and hope that world peace will come because of the actions and deeds of our veterans of past wars and our men who fight today on the battlefields of Vietnam.

Today, Veterans Day 1969, we salute those heroes of past wars and our fighting men of today, who are preserving our democracy. We honor those who died for freedom's sake, and we pledge to those who live that we will remember with reverence their contributions to our freedom.

TIME TO CUT DOWN

URB FEDERAL SPENDING

There have been many panaceas proposed to curb inflation, but the No. 1 solution seems to have found some of our national leaders. It is, of course, to cut federal expenditures.

Official Washington might well be particularly receptive to this method, for the cost of living seems to be getting out of hand in the nation's capital. The Labor Department reports that while the national cost-of-living index was up 5.6 per cent in August as compared to the same period in 1968, it rose 6.3 per cent in Washington, D.C.

While the Administration is attempting to hold down federal spending, calling for a $5.9 billion surplus in 1970, the House of Representatives appropriation bills in the present session are exceeding the budget by $231,021,000 and the Senate has exceeded the budget by $632,627,000. The House is also considering legislative bills with spending authorization exceeding the budget by $67,019,000, while the Senate has bills exceeding the Administration's budget by $222,375,000. This means that with the bills now under consideration, Congress could exceed the budget by at least $1.353 billion.

It is hoped that this tangible evidence of these surpluses, as well as rising living costs, will influence members of Congress and the Executive branch to insist on an effective reduction in federal spending to help halt the ever-rising inflation.

Senator's Report

Sen. Yarborough Pushes Three Health Bills Through Senate

The Vaccination Assistance Act expired last year. The last money under that act was used up earlier this year. This left the nation in danger of an epidemic of any of several diseases. My Communicable Disease Control Bill will head off this threat to the health of the nation.

Another health bill of mine which passed the Senate was the Medical Libraries bill. This bill extends for three years programs to help in the financing of medical libraries for hospitals and medical schools. My bill will aid in the collection of the latest medical knowledge and in getting this news from the research centers to the doctors treating patients.

My third health bill which passed the Senate in that one day deals with the commissioned officers of the Public Health Service. It will give those officers the same retirement benefits as commissioned officers of the armed services.

The Commissioned Officers Corps of the Public Health Service was set up in 1889 along military lines. It had the same titles and pay as Army or Navy officers but they don't get the same retirement. It is only fair that these men in the Public Health Service should have the same retirement plan.

The passage of these three bills was gratifying to me personally but more importantly they will do much to help health care and the delivery of health care in this country.

Medical science has found ways to prevent measles, polio, and many other diseases. But many children do not have the benefits of this knowledge, they do not get vaccinations or inoculations against these diseases. They have not been given such vaccinations or inoculations that would protect them from many contagious diseases for which we have the means of protection. My bill will make money available to the states to provide protection against these diseases. The diseases which will be fought under my bill include tuberculosis, measles, polio, or infantile paralysis as we formerly called it, diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough and Rh factor diseases and other diseases.

This report is about three of my health bills which passed the Senate in one day, the same week that saw passage of my Cold War GI Bill, that I reported on to you last week.

Each of these three health bills represents months of work of study of committee hearings and meetings and of reporting out of committee. The work on each was finished at the same time and I was able, with the assistance of the able Majority Leader, Mike Mansfield of Montana, to get all three passed the same day in the Senate. One bill was the Communicable Disease Control Bill. This Bill is urgently needed as surveys have found that half of the preschool children in poverty areas do not have protection they need from communicable diseases.

From Social Drinking To Alcoholism

"The cause of alcoholism is alcohol," says a new book FROM SOCIAL DRINKING TO ALCOHOLISM by a Veteran Administration Psychiatrist, Dr. Jorge Valles. The book contains "no statistical tables, no popular theories, no educated guesses, no familiar quotations, no comforting cliches," but facts about alcoholism and the alcoholic according to the publisher, TANE Press, a division of Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education.

Dr. Valles is Director of the Alcoholism Unit, Treatment and Research Program, Veterans Administration Hospital in Houston, and Baylor School of Medicine. FROM SOCIAL DRINKING TO ALCOHOLISM follows the pattern of medical inquiry; after analysis of the cause, early symptoms for a prompt diagnosis are defined. Dr. Valles describes complications of the disease, with special emphasis on distinction between symptoms and complications. Treatment, based on psychodrama and group therapy, is presented followed by a penetrating consideration of the alcoholic as a human being.

"This book dispels the time worn orthodoxies and misconceptions concerning alcoholism. Fruitless and unscientific psychological and emotional conjectures and interpretations are displayed by investigation and surveillance," according to the publisher.

Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education is a non profit, educational organization. Part of TANE's program is the publishing division TANE Press. Though it is a Texas organization TANE's materials are being used nationally and throughout England. In addition to publishing, the organization produces film strips and other educational aids aimed at "preventing problems that arise from the use of alcohol, narcotics and other dangerous drugs," in the words of Albert F. Tucker, Executive Director.

In Texas, a 100 man speakers bureau represents the organizations, churches, civic clubs, and schools. A seminar on alcoholism and drug problems is sponsored jointly by TANE and Baylor University. The Twelfth Annual School on Alcohol and Narcotics Studies is scheduled for February 20-21 at Baylor's Waco Campus.

Dr. Valles who sports a brush size moustache is in demand as a speaker on alcohol problems. He was born in Barcelona and received his degree at Medical School of Barcelona. He left Spain in 1939 to practice medicine in Mexico and later in Columbia. He came to the U.S. in 1947 and did graduate work at Harvard and practiced medicine at various state hospitals. In 1960 Dr. Valles joined the Neuro Psychiatric Service at the VA Hospital in Houston. He organized the comprehensive program for treatment of alcoholics and set up Alcoholism and Treatment Unit of which he is the Director. This unit serves as a pilot agency for the Federal, State and local medical agencies, and is widely used as a training center. Dr. Valles serves as Clinical Assistant Professor of Psychiatry at Baylor College of Medicine. He is the author of several books, including "How to Live With an Alcoholic," published by Simon and Schuster.

HOUSE DRAFT BILL DELAYED IN SENATE

Early this week the House engaged in one of those exercises in futility for which it has been too often noted. After two days of bitter debate we passed an amendment to the draft law. As quickly as the bill was sent to the Senate, Majority Leader Mansfield announced that he had no intention of taking it up until next year. While I voted for the amendments, I don't think that they were of such great significance. Actually, about this bill did was to provide that the President should make the draft calls out of the group reaching the age of 19. He has already the authority to do this if he wants to--and, secondly, it provided that those to be called from this group could be selected by lottery--what we called a "fish bowl" in World War II. I thought that these changes might give our young men a little better opportunity to plan for college or other activities.

There has never been any very satisfactory way to select men for the draft and I don't think there ever will be. I wish that it were not necessary to select men at all but if we accept the philosophy that every man owes his country military service in time of need, and I do accept this philosophy, then I think we must agree that a draft is about as fair a method as we have of selecting individuals for this service.

We are beginning to experience some of the economic problems a country always experiences in connection with the slowdown of military operations. Quite understandably some of those who are now finding themselves without a job are at first suggesting that these industries should be kept at work, but I am sure that on second thought none of us would insist that we should keep producing arms and equipment which we are not going to need. What we do need is to convert these war plants into production of needed civilian articles. This is always difficult and it requires many months of contacts and industries on the hope that we can help our people find some to take the place of the military industries which are being phased out in Central Texas.

In recent years a practice has grown up in the House for people to ask Members to introduce dozens of duplicate bills simply as a way of evidencing the Members support of the legislation. I have felt this was a silly and costly procedure. Normally, I do not introduce bills where others have done so, but recently the Federal Communications Commissions has indicated that it was going to authorize some "Pay TV" stations. I think that "Pay TV" would almost certainly destroy our present free TV programs and deny a great many people particularly our old and our poor people the comfort, information and entertainment which they get from TV. There have several bills to take away the authority of the FCC in this regard. I hope that this move is helpful in protecting the information and entertainment of the masses of our people.

is there such a great reliance for shopping and buying information. Only in the newspaper does advertising share this reliance.
Dozens of independent surveys show that customers rely on newspapers five, ten and even 20 times more than on any other media.
And in this market, more families rely on the newspaper for shopping information than on all other forms of communication combined.

FLY YOUR FLAG... All citizens of our community are urged to fly their flags on Veterans Day 1969 as a display of our national unity and rededication of our support of our nation in her defense of the cause of freedom as the governor's proclamation so states. So, Gatesvilleites, lets fly Old Glory on Veterans Day!

PERRYMANS VISIT PARENTS... The Perrymans were happy to welcome their two youngsters for a much-wanted visit in our city. Larry Perryman and Susan Perryman were the visitors of course. Larry is currently serving in the U.S. Air Force in Biloxi, Mississippi at Keesler Air Force Base.

ENJOYING FISHING HOLIDAY... Gatesville anglers Carl Eubanks and Frank Cohagan are enjoying nothing but fishing for five days in the Gulf Coast area. The pair left Gatesville Wednesday with the Bob Smith Ranch Resort as their destination. A specially stocked fishing region near Palacios provides an exciting fishing experience for veterans and novice fishermen alike. Mr. Eubank's brother, Tom Eubanks is caretaker at the Smith resort. Cohagan and Eubanks returned to Gatesville Sunday tired but glad to feel those sore muscles from hauling in the big ones.

HEART BREAK OF DEFEAT... I guess most of you Gatesville football fans felt the heartbreak of defeat just as sharply as the young Hornet gridsters who fought so hard against the fast Belton Tigers team. I know I did. We lost the big one to Big Red, but most important there is not one among us that can say those fighting Hornets weren't fighting! Every member of the squad dug in the turf and did his best to carry through. The spirit was great from both sides of the field and it turned into a battle of the lungs as well as of the gridiron. The Hornet fans never let the squad down in spirit and blasted spirit from the 3,500 plus crowd.

OLD FRIENDS, WELCOMED GUESTS... The M.V. Mays family of San Antonio are welcomed guests this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Pearl. The San Antonians arrived in Coryell County Friday with expectations of a pleasant visit with old time friends, the Robinson's. Mrs. Mays and Mrs. Robinson will have much to talk over as all girls do when they get together-especially old school chums. Both ladies were students at Holland High School together.

OH WHAT FUN AT HALLOWE'EN... FUN was the word at Mrs. C.H. Wallace's Kindergarten Halloween party on that spooky day.

Another word that describes the festive air is KIDS and lots of them. Kids in every costume imaginable, Casper, the friendly ghost, spiderman, superman, the Brute, Peter Rabbit, and Cinderella names just a few!

The fun began with the Kindergarten's name game, in which the kids clapped their hands and said their names individually as they unmasked.

Following the roll, Joey Kenworthy presented a poem for the program. Then the group joined in on a panopline choral number where, as the children heard a Halloween story "Here's A Witch", they made gestures depicting the characters. In addition the youngsters sang songs about fun while learning for parents and guests.

In fact, music was filling the room with songs like the "counting Song", the "Do Bee" song in which the children sang about safety. Also the kids sang the "Good Morning" song and a pair of youngsters skipped for the crowd.

Little Margaret Miller and Greg Davis lead the "School Days" song at the party to the enjoyment of the 70 plus attending.

Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Billy Joe Davis, Mrs. J.M. Kenworthy, Mrs. Robert Jackson, Mrs. Rex Tilly, Mrs. Gene Arnold, Mrs. Troy Sneed, Mrs. Curtis Logan, Mrs. Edward Leach, Mrs. Charles Allen, and Mrs. Donald Smart.

JUST YOU WAIT UNTIL 1984! Little Lloyd Fernung of Oglesby can't wait until he can join in on the rough and rugged game of football like the guys on the Oglesby High School Tiger football team.

Lloyd, 2, hopes to join the red'n white of OHS during his high school days in the 1980's. The football may be almost as big as the youngster, but you can tell by the gleem in his eyes that he's an Oglesby Tiger!

Our little Tiger is the son of Mrs. Linda Fernung of Oglesby and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Owens of that city. Owens is the superintendent of the Oglesby Schools. Also grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F.G. Fernung of Indianapolis, Indiana.

GATESVILLEITES AT UT OVER WEEKEND... Bright orange and white were the dominant colors at the Saturday football game for the University of Texas and you can bet lots of localites were rooting for the Longhorns!

The opponents for Texas were the Bruins from ole Baylor University.

Those attending the game from Gatesville were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Foster Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Woodard, Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Lowrey, Dr. and Mrs. Tom Williams, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shephard, and Mr. and Mrs. Byron McClellan.

FOUND IN THE NEWS OFFICE... Some young lady in Gatesville left a brown patton bag at our office on Main Street recently. Contents of the bag include one small clear plastic box filled with pennies, one bubble blowing pipe, one light blue plastic dome ring, two "Kiddie Kandies" (chocolate flavor) and one tiny bottle of Yve Saint Laurent perfume. The bag owner may pick up the purse at our office.

STUDENTS TO HONOR VETERANS... Students at Gatesville Elementary School will take time from their busy learning day to honor Veterans on their day Tuesday.

The students will present a program in the Elementary School Auditorium for the honor of those men who fought in US wars. Paul Bromser will be guest speaker at the program.

Just Think

Of The

Shade

It Makes!!!

WONDER WHAT SIZE THE MULBERRIES ARE? If you thought that mulberry trees were delicate medium-size trees (at their biggest) bearing tiny red berries-you are half right. The trees can get quite large say the experts and Coryell County sports one such huge Mulberry tree that we know of.

The monstrous conglomeration of wood and leaves has a limb spread measurement of 74 feet and five inches. The trunk could hold a jillion names carved into its deep brown bark, since the circumference measures 17 feet and 3 inches.

However, the other half of the statement is false. The mulberries on the tree at the place are no bigger than usual so we can rest assured that no apple-size mulberries hang from the tremendous botanical growth.

It looks inviting to sit under the "leafy umbrella" and enjoy all the shade that the huge tree can give us. A nice place for a picnic, wouldn't you say?

Why Not Dress Up

Ye Old Hen?

What is delicious, versatile, economical, nutritious, and easy to prepare? Chicken, of course. Broiler-fryers are particularly good and plentiful. They lend themselves to any recipe from Southern Fried Chicken to Cog Au Vin, not to mention numberless casseroles and sandwiches.

FRIED CHICKEN
Favorites may come and go but Fried Chicken leads the parade consistently. Cut a 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 pound broiler fryer into serving pieces. Combine 1/2 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt and pepper to taste in a paper bag. Dip chicken pieces in sweet or buttermilk if desired. Then place pieces a few pieces at a time, in a bag with flour mixture. Shake to coat. In heavy skillet, heat shortening or oil to depth of 1/2 inch over full flame. Add chicken to hot shortening and fry till brown, turning several times. Cover, reduce flame to medium and continue cooking until tender (25 to 40 minutes.) Remove cover and continue cooking 5 to 10 minutes to crisp chicken. Makes 4 servings.

CHICKEN EL DORADO
Peaches are the gold with Chicken El Dorado. Melt 1/4 cup butter or margarine in a saucepan over medium flame. Add 1/4 cup finely chopped onion and 1/2 cup finely chopped celery. Sauté until almost tender. Remove from flame. Stir in 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning and 1/2 cup chicken stock or water. Add 1 1/2 cups corn flake crumbs (5 cups corn flakes, crushed) and toss lightly. Use crumb mixture to stuff 2 1/2 to 3 pound broiler-fryer. Drain reserving liquid, 1 can (1-pound 13 ounces) cling peaches. Place stuffed trussed chicken in center 24 inch length of aluminum foil. Brush with peach liquid. Bring ends of foil up over chicken and close with double fold. Close sides with double folds. Place foil package in open roasting pan. Bake in hot gas oven (425 F) 1 hour. Open foil, being careful to avoid steam, and flatten in pan. Arrange peaches around chicken and baste with drippings. Continue baking 20 minutes or until chicken is tender. Serve with peaches as garnish. Makes 4 servings.

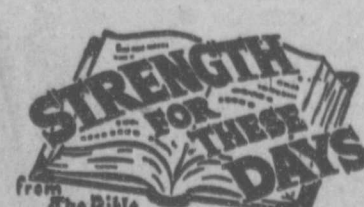

Mrs. Laxon Funeral Rites Held Here

Mrs. Belle Laxson, a Gatesville resident, died November 5 at 10:15 p.m. in the Rotunda. Mrs. Laxson, who resided at 1204 Main Street, had been in the rest home four months prior to her death. She was 84 years old.

Funeral services were held Friday at 2:00 p.m. in Scott's Funeral Home with Rev. Kenneth Patrick officiating. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

Mrs. Laxson was born near Purnela on April 4, 1885. She lived in Purnela and Gatesville most of her life. In 1903 she married J. W. Laxson. Mrs. Laxson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cal W. Blair, was a member of the Purnela Baptist Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. William Greenwood of Biloxi, Mississippi, Mrs. Thelma Gilmore, and Mrs. James R. Powell both of Gatesville; one son, Buster Laxson of Gatesville; and one sister, Mrs. Ollie Strickland of Hamilton. There are also four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

A man's wisdom makes his face shine. (Eccles. 8:1).

All of us have a need to understand, assimilate and to remember. Courses, teachers, books are priceless. We gain the most from their help, however, if we go first to the source of all wisdom the God-Mind in us. As we become attuned to God-Mind, we see, we understand, and we remember. Working from this starting point we grasp facts, retain knowledge, make sound judgments, and express ourselves easily.

INDIAN CHICKEN CURRY

Chicken is a favorite, worldwide. Indian Chicken Curry is a method of preparing chicken borrowed from the other side of the world. In a saucepan melt 5 tablespoons butter or margarine over low flame. Add 1/2 cup minced onion and simmer until tender. Stir in 8 tablespoons flour, 2 1/2 teaspoons curry powder, 1 1/4 teaspoons salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons sugar and 1/4 teaspoon ginger. Gradually stir in 1 cup chicken bouillon (Dissolve 1 chicken bouillon cube in 1 cup boiling water.) and 2 cups milk. Cook over very low flame until thickened, stirring occasionally. Add 1 teaspoon lemon juice and 4 cups cut-up cooked chicken. Continue cooking until thoroughly hot. Serve with hot, cooked rice. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Jenkins Receives

Bronz Star

For Viet Bravery

LONG BINH, VIETNAM—Chief Warrant Officer David H. Jenkins, whose wife Marie, lives at 603 S. Third Street Copperas Cove, Texas, received the Bronze Star Medal October 3rd, near Long Binh, Vietnam.

He was presented the award for meritorious service with connection with military operations against hostile forces in Vietnam, during the period October 1968 to October 1969 while serving as an armament maintenance officer for the 28th Maintenance Company.

His citation states that "he consistently manifested exemplary professionalism and initiative by his outstanding performance in this command. His rapid assessment and solution of numerous problems inherent in a combat environment greatly enhanced the allied effectiveness against a determined and aggressive enemy. Despite the many adversities, he invariably performed his duties in a resolute and efficient manner. His initiative, zeal, sound judgement, and devotion to duty have been in the highest tradition of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself, his unit and the United States Army."

CWO Jenkins, an armament officer with Headquarters Company of the 29th General Support Group, entered the Army in August 1958 and was assigned at Ft. Hood, Texas, before arriving overseas in October 1968. He holds the Army Commendation Medal.

He is a 1954 graduate of West Scranton High School, Scranton, Pa.

Miss. Patsey Ann Moore-Joe Edward Lee Exchange Baptist Wedding Vows

Miss Patsey Ann Moore and A/C Joe Edward Lee were united in matrimony in a candle light ceremony November 1, at 7:30 pm in the Flat Baptist Church. The Reverend W.M. Price officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Moore of Flat and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lee of Tampa, Florida.

Given in marriage by her uncle, George McConathy, the bride wore a full length gown of lace over peau de soie. Her waist length veil of illusion was accented by flower appliques centered with seed pearls. She carried a lace covered Bible, topped with white spider chrysanthemums, centered with a white orchid corsage.

Marcie Miller, a friend of the bride's was the Matron of Honor for the occasion and wore a full length gold velveteen dress.

She carried a nosegay of gold mums.

Junior bridesmaid was Genie McConathy. She wore a full-length emerald green velveteen gown and carried a basket of golden petals.

Best man for the occasion was A/C Ronald Miller of Dyes W. Lee II, brother of the groom and Richard Moore brother of the bride.

Ring bearer was Marsanne McConathy.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. Punch and cake were served to the wedding guests by Mrs. Marilyn McConathy, aunt of the bride, and Miss Nickie Johnson, a friend of the bride.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Gatesville High School and the groom graduated from Robinson High School, of Tampa, Florida.

The couple will live at 920 Cedar Street, Abilene, Texas. Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lee, and Janis Lee and Susan of Jacksonville, Florida.

WEEKEND RESEARCH ESSENTIAL TO COACHING FOOTBALL

Coaches play an important role in preparation for each game in any district conference or league. The weekend routine of the Gatesville Hornet coaching staff is far from unique but it still deserves mention.

Weekends mean late hours for the Hornet coaching staff. Pictured here they are working on problems presented by the next Hornet opponent. In the

Naturally Friday night means the climax to a week long drill of personal on the possible problems that will come up during the game. Determining these characteristics of an opponent begins with scouting reports on Friday nights for the next opponent.

Reports are taken and films are exchanged between opponents for the coming week.

Saturday morning activities begin with the morning bus bringing Friday night film to be reviewed. Coaches take a glance at the previous nights action and then dive into the films of the next opponent.

A couple of times through the projection and the films hopefully reveal a pattern of plays called on first, second, third, and fourth down for all situations. Blocking assignments are noted and carefully recorded by coaches. Defensive formations and possible weaknesses are discussed.

Some time off on Saturday afternoon and then a late afternoon continuation of the mornings work until 8:00 or 9:00 p.m.

Sunday afternoon strategy and workout preparations for the coming week are discussed. In some cases the coaching staff travels to other schools to review more film and further analyze the opponent.

Drills during the week relate the researched material to the players involved and game plans are developed.

"This will work on that defense—How about a sweep to the left—No, they have us out mugged unless we change our blocking." (This is not actual dialogue but it is much the same.)

With all the planning, rehearsal, and drilling nears the end of the week emotional readiness come to the forefront with pep rallies, banners encouragement from all areas of community life.

Coach Moss recognizes the need for emotional stimulation an its effect on team performance. Moss has created "Hornet Pride", and it will definitely play a part in each Hornet ballgame.

at sixteen yard line. Wilson then got caught attempting a pass by Doug Freeman back at the nine yard line.

Kneese went over left tackle for a good gain to the 16 yard line but a piling on penalty put the ball well out of trouble at the 31 yard line.

Kneese and Stewart worked three plays for 26 yards and on second David Bardeck burst through the Hornet right side for 41 yards and the Tiger third touchdown. The two point conversion was good and the score was 22 to 7.

The Hornets stalled at mid field on their next possession with about six minutes to play in the game. The Tiger defense knew it must hold on to this drive to stay a comfortable 15 points ahead.

Belton took over at their 46 yard line began the time killing drive covering 45 yards to the Hornet seven yard line.

The Tigers stalled on fourth down and the Hornets began from the seven yard line. Brown tried to get running room on first down but fumbled the ball and the Tigers recovered with 46 seconds to play.

Wilson swept right end on first down for the bonus six points as time ticked away. Bardeck's extra point failed. The final kickoff came with 35 seconds remaining on the clock and the Hornets showed their style in moving the ball 35 yards in three plays. Barr hit Belf first on a 10 yard pass play and then Moore picked up two yards.

On the last play of the game Barr hit Moore on a 22 yard pass play to the Tiger 40 yard line.

Belton now holds the district lead alone with Copperas Cove and Lampasas yet to play. The Hornets, now 4-1 are still in the district race mathematically but will have to win two while Belton loses two before the crown comes to Gatesville.

POWER

Randy Schoenwolf, No. 39 powers his way through the line for yardage against Big Red.

Schoenwolf had been nursing a sprained ankle last week and wore high top shoes with tap.

SNEAK

With fourth down and inches, Mike Barr ran a quarterback sneak for the Hornets only touchdown of the night. In the above picture the Hornet line fires into the end zone to meet Big Red in the trenches.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

from One Bible

How lovely is they dwelling place.—(Psalms 84:1).

Our immediate environment is an extension of ourselves. We help create it. If there is inharmony in the home, office or plant, we should do something about it. We have the ability to bring about harmony, if we work at it. If there is discord we can be peacemakers. We can rebuild the trust; and work to come into agreement with others.
