

TAYLOR DROPS HORNETS AS OFFENSE FAILS TO CLICK

The Gatesville Hornets dropped their third straight game and the final game of the season to a much improved Taylor Duck team. The Hornets end the season 6 wins, 4 losses while Taylor ends up 5 and 5.

The Hornets offense lost many scoring opportunities to fumbles, pass interceptions, and tough Duck defense on fourth down plays. The Hornets moved the ball well until they neared the goal line and then the Ducks stopped all forward motion.

The Hornet ground attack blasted for 230 yards while the Hornet defense held the Taylor ground attack to a scant 45 yards.

From the start the Hornets found themselves with good field position and unable to score. Taylor took the opening kick off but fumbled on second down and the Hornets recovered at the Taylor 19 yard line.

It looked like things were off to a quick six points but two running plays netted only five yards and then the Hornets first two passes fell incomplete.

The Hornets forced Taylor to give up the football in four plays with tackler Bobby Hodge, and Randy Scheenwolf.

The Duck kick gave the Hornets the ball at the Taylor 46 yard line. On second down a Mike Barr pass was intercepted by Ernest Stiba at the Taylor 46 yard line.

The Ducks were allowed only four downs by the stubborn Hornet defense lead by Keith Bell, Jim Saunders, Gene Braziel and Scheenwolf.

The Hornets began a touchdown drive with 6:39 remaining in the first quarter at the Hornet 27 yard line. Wingback Larry Moore started the drive by slashing for 12 yards to the 39 yard line. Brown and Scheenwolf took two plays to pick up another first down at the Taylor 44 yard line.

Mike Barr then kept on the optim play for eight yards on second down to set up a third down and one situation. The Taylor defense played tough on third down and Brown was stopped for no gain at the 35 yard line.

Brown hit over left tackle on fourth down for four yards to the 31 and the drive sustaining first down.

Moore then swept left end to the 24 yard line. Scheenwolf set up a first down with a third down carry for four yards to the Duck 17 yard line.

Brown, Barr, and Scheenwolf picked up nine yards in the three plays and fourth and one Moore sprinted around left end for the touchdown and an early six point lead. Scheenwolf's extra point failed.

Larry Moore has seen action at quarterback, wingback, split end, and on punt returns this season and Friday night he scored his first touchdown.

Taylor bounced right back as Tim Kennedy began hitting passes over the middle against the Hornet pass defense.

Kennedy started his passing attack by striking to George Faltesh for nine yards to be Hornet 45 yard line on a third down play.

On another third down and seven Kennedy picked out Faltesh again for 13 yards to the 29 yard line.

The Hornets defense held the Ducks for three plays setting up a fourth down and eleven at the 30 yard line. Kennedy teamed up with his tight end Faltesh again on an over the middle pass good for 29 yards to the 6 inch line.

Kennedy then ran a quarterback sneak for the touchdown. The extra point failed and the game was tied early in the second quarter 6 to 6.

The Hornets marched for three first downs on the next series of downs but a four yard loss near the 30 yard line pressured the Hornets into a passing situation. The Barr pass to Mike Mathews slipped through his finger tips to end the drive.

Taylor moved the ball out to mid-field and Kennedy was rushed hard on a pass play and fumbled to the Hornets at the Duck 36 yard line.

With 1:55 showing on the clock there was still time to score a quick touchdown before the half. Brown busted for seven yards to the 29 yard line and on second down Moore fumbled and Taylor recovered at the 34 yard line.

Again Taylor was stopped in four plays and with 55 seconds still on the clock Barr hit Bell on two quick passes to the Taylor 44 yard line. Smith caught a third pass on the 34 yard line but time ended the Hornet threat.

At halftime the GHS Band reviewed their marching drills for the University Interscholastic League contest scheduled for Tuesday November 25 in Waco.

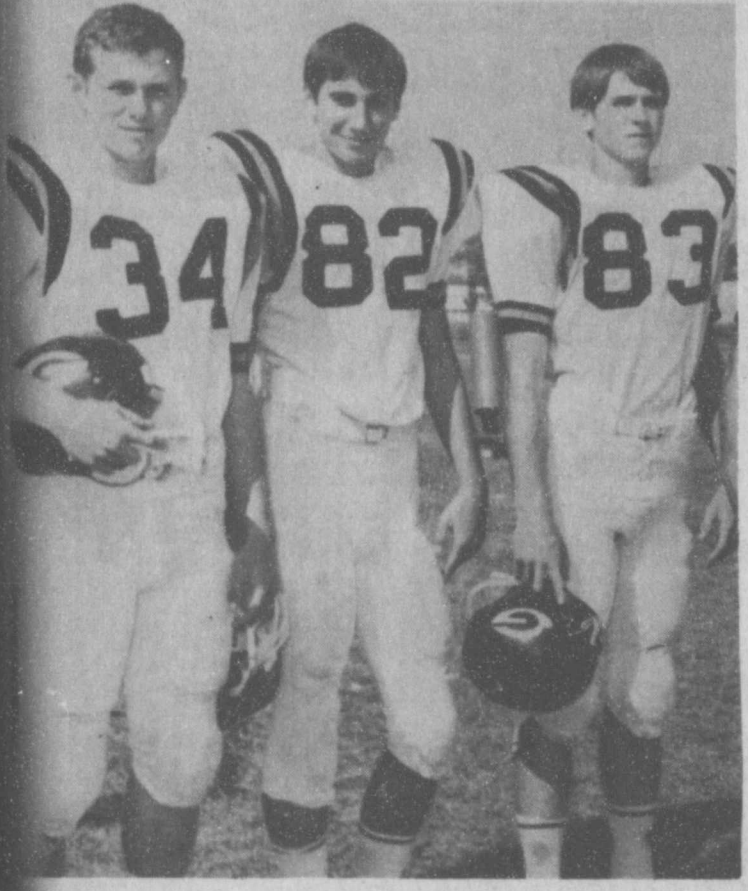

The Hornets were back to their song and dance in the third quarter with Smith racing 64 yards with second half kickoff.

The Hornets began operations in fine field position at the Taylor 29 yard line. Brown hit inside to the 25 yard line to start things rolling. He carried two more times to the 19 yard line and a first down.

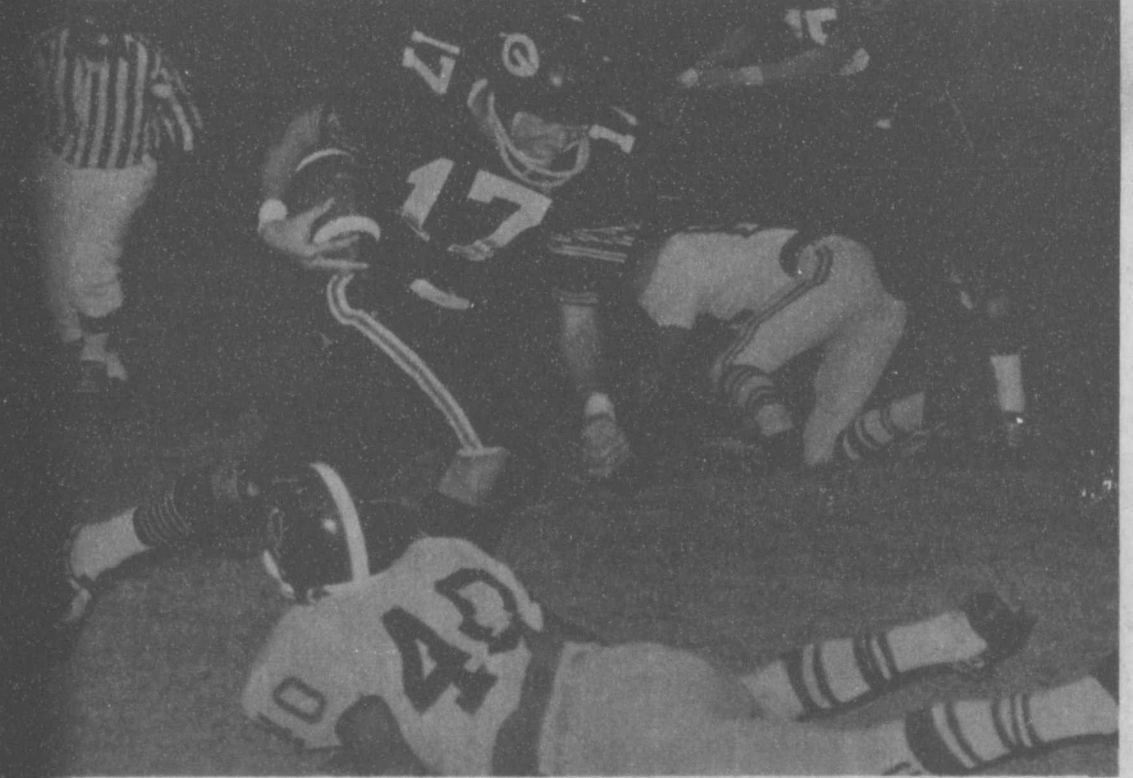

Brown got two more on first see DUCK page 2

...Quarterback Keeper Mike Barr plows forward for more yardage against the Ducks in the picture above. Barr playing in his last game as a Gatesville Hornet, ran 10 times for 41 yards.

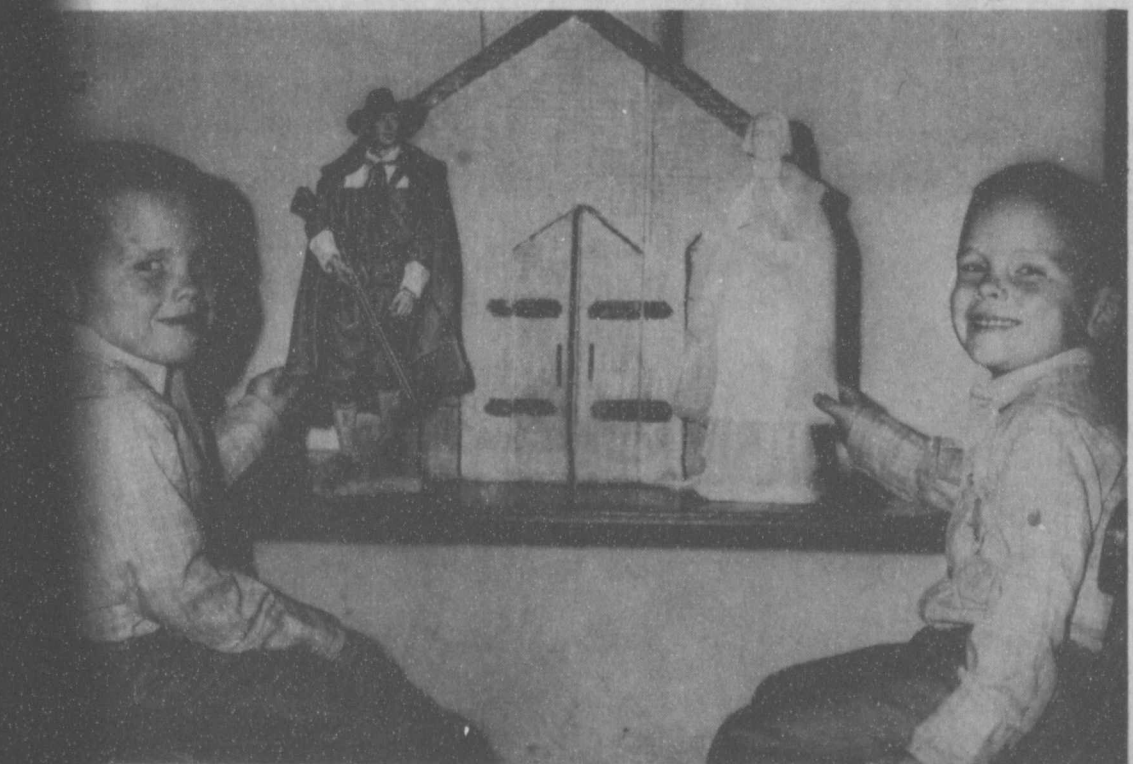

Billy Hord puts the stop to Tim Kennedy, quarterback for the Taylor Ducks. Hord held up Kennedy on this play until help arrived in the form of Doug Freeman. The Hornets defense collapsed only two times during the game but two times spelled defeat.

Larry Moore sprints around right end here for a good gain against the Taylor Ducks. Moore scored his first touchdown of the season and the only Hornet score against a stubborn Taylor squad.

Old-Young Take Time To Be Thankful

From the oldest to the youngest, Americans will take part in National Thanksgiving observances as well as local services during this Thanksgiving season.

Mike and Mark Healer are no exception. The two youngsters know that Thanksgiving is more than just a day to eat Turkey and dressing with all the trimmings-its a day to be thankful.

Mike and Mark are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Healer of Gatesville.

Give Thanks.

CITY TO HOLD UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICES

This Thursday, Gatesville and Coryell County residents, like the Pilgrims of the Plymouth Bay Colony, will take time off from the busy, hectic schedule of the working man and woman to give thanks to God for the blessings He has bestowed upon them.

Businesses in the area will close their doors Thanksgiving Day and a city-wide Thanksgiving service is scheduled Wednesday at 7:30 pm in the Eastwood Baptist Church.

This year's program, the seventh annual Union Thanksgiving service is sponsored by the Gatesville Ministerial Association.

All citizens are urged to attend the observances, said spokesmen for the group.

Reverend Kenneth Patrick, pastor of the First Baptist Church will deliver the Thanksgiving message. Special music will be presented by eighteen GHS students directed by Bill Rucker.

Organizing the special service are Rev. Joe Broadway of the Eastwood Baptist Church, Rev. Howard Porter of the Live Oak Baptist Church and Rev. Royce Christmas, a chaplain at the Gatesville State School for Boys.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE

Gatesville Public Schools and county schools will dismiss Wednesday for a four-day Thanksgiving Holiday weekend. Classes at the schools will resume Monday.

1970 ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS TO BE MAILED SOON

Individual farm acreage allotments and yields for the 1970 upland cotton crop will be mailed to farm operators in Coryell County, reported Robert L. Melbern Chairman of the Coryell County Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee.

Any questions about allotments or yields should be brought to the County ASC Committee as soon as possible, he said.

The 1970 upland cotton allotment for Coryell County is 19,343 acres, an increase of 921 acres over the 1969 allotment. The average yields the same, 233 lbs. The national cotton allotment for 1970 was increased to 17 million acres, after having been set at 16 million acres, the minimum under the law, since 1962. The million-acre increase was made to help assure adequate U.S. cotton stocks for both domestic and foreign markets.

Upland cotton producers will vote by mail Dec. 1-5 on whether to approve marketing quotas for the 1970 crop. The ballots will be mailed 11-28-1969 to eligible voters. Generally all producers who shared in the 1969 cotton crop or its proceeds are eligible to vote in the referendum.

Melbern said any producer who does not receive a ballot by Dec. 1-1969 and believes he is an eligible voter should contact the Coryell County ASCS Office.

Ballots must be returned to the Coryell County ASCS Office during the period Dec. 1 through 5.

For marketing quotas to remain in effect—as they have been since the 1954 crop—the law requires approval of at least two-thirds of the producers voting.

If marketing quotas are approved, they will apply to a national average rate of 20.25 cents a pound. The price-support payment rate will be 16.80 cents a pound on the farm's projected yield for the acreage planted within the farms domestic allotment. The domestic allotment is 65 percent of a farm's total upland cotton allotment.

Also, if quotas are approved farms with allotments of 10 acres or less, or with projected production (allotment times projected yield) of 3,600 pounds or less, may plant the entire farm allotment and receive an additional payment of 11.95 cents per pound on the projected yield of 35 percent of the farm allotment. The price-support payment on the domestic allotment also will be made.

Also if quotas are approved growers who elect not to participate in the price-support program may apply for a share of an export market acreage reserve on which they may grow and export all their cotton without price support and without marketing quota penalties.

If marketing quotas are not approved, no quotas or penalties for the 1970 upland cotton crop will be in effect. No price-support payments will be made. No export reserve acreage will be available. Price support loans, however, will be available at 50 percent of parity to growers who do not exceed their farm acreage allotment. Growers choosing to forego price support loans could grow all the cotton they wished to grow.

TO DISCUSS FAMILY CODE COUNTY CLERKS TO HOLD SEMINAR HERE DEC 9

County Clerks from a 20 county area will be in Gatesville for a one day Seminar December 9 to discuss new laws passed by the 61st State Legislature and its special sessions, reports Coryell County Clerk, Rebel Henson.

Henson explains that the Seminar developed when he attempted to contact a few area clerks for a discussion of the new laws. The small meeting developed into the Region 8 Seminar when the Texas A&M Extension Service indicated it wished to conduct the Region wide meeting in Gatesville.

The Extension Service will send County Officials Program Specialist, Charles E. Lawrence to help in the program. Lawrence, a former Gatesville resident, works with county officials as part of the state-wide A&M Services.

The Seminar will be co-sponsored by the Texas A&M Extension Service, Don Callahan county agent; Coryell County Rebel Henson, clerk and emcee; and the Gatesville Chamber of Commerce.

The Seminar will be held in the Gatesville Community Center, Gatesville's newest meeting facility, located at the corner of Waco and North 14th Streets.

Henson said "there will be eight lectures concerning all aspects of the recent legislative session and its new laws."

"One main law passed by the legislature involved teenage marriages" notes Henson. The new family code lowers the legal age for men from 21 years to 19 years old as of January 1, 1970. Eighteen year olds will remain as the female legal age.

The new statute passed by the legislature allows common law marriages of teenage males 16 years old and teenage females 14 years old.

This particular statute has come under fire from county clerks over the state including J.B. (Jimbo) Wooldridge the president of the County Clerks of Texas. Wooldridge will be in Gatesville for the one day Seminar.

Wooldridge recently gave the following account to newsmen in Baytown.

J.B. (Jimbo) Wooldridge, veteran county and district clerk of Chambers County and president of the County and Districts Clerks' Association of Texas said Tuesday he will refuse to issue common law marriage certificates to teenagers who seek to take advantage of a new state law which is effective Jan. 1.

Wooldridge said he would refuse to issue the certificates until he is forced to do so by a court order.

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has interpreted the law as allowing 14-year old girls and 16-year old boys to declare and register informal marriages without consent of parents or proof of age.

"At this time, it is my opinion that we will refuse to accept these declarations of informal marriages," Wooldridge said. "Someone might object and take us to a court in effort to make me issue the certificates," he admitted.

Wooldridge said this might be what will happen in Texas county clerk's offices after Jan. 1 if the matter is not settled.

"An 18-year old boy and a 17-year old girl come in and ask for a marriage license, but neither will have reached the age of consent. They must have their parent's permission for us to issue a marriage license."

"The next couple in line will say that the boy is 16 year old and the girl is 14 years old. For their own purposes, they wish to be known as man and wife. They sign this statement: 'We the undersigned declare that we are married to each other by virtue of the following facts...on or about... we agreed to be married and after that date we lived together in this state as husband and wife, and in this state represented to others that we are married.'"

The couple would receive declaration and registration of informal marriage which is suitable for framing, Wooldridge said.

"We predict that young people would be coming to Texas from all other states and it would be a mecca for the hippies to move in on us," Wooldridge quoted one alarmed county clerk as saying. "I do not think that the Legislature meant to interpret the law that way. I also think that I am morally bound to consider the parents of minors. Of course, the courts

FORT HOOD BUILDING PROGRAM REINSTATED

House-Senate Conferees voted Thursday to authorize Fort Hood $21 million in construction funds. The allocation was a part of $76.2 million for Texas bases voted by the Senate.

The military post, near Killeen, had at one time faced a possible cut of $15,370,000, but as approved Thursday, lost only $520,000 from the original allocation of $21,520,000.

The authorization agreed upon for Texas installations was $76,072,000. This was $29 million above the House authorization bill. The President had asked for $91.7 million.

The conferees finished work on the Senate and House versions Thursday but did not announce their conclusions.

The office of Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., revealed, however that the conferees went along with the higher Senate figures in all but one case.

They accepted House figures of $5.34 million for Kelly Air Force Base in San Antonio rather than the $5.86 million recommended by the Senate.

The conferees raised the total construction authority for Shepherd Air Force Base at Wichita Falls above either chambers bills. The new total is $4.16 million and includes authority for both a data processing plant which the Senate recommended and a library which the House had urged be built.

The Hornets went to the air with Barr and Saunders passing for four times the first three incomplete and the fourth down pass intercepted at the 29 yard line.

The Hornets returned to the offense after four plays and on second down Doug Freeman threw a wingback pass to tight end Mathews for 23 yards to the Taylor 38 yard line.

With 1:10 remaining the Hornets were still in the game with a chance to push across the winning score.

Three passes fell incomplete and on fourth down Saunders was dropped for a loss at the Duck 44 yard line.

The Ducks just ran out the remaining 23 seconds and carried off a 13 to 6 upset victory over the Hornets.

Taylor was able to stop the Hornets each time they threatened while the Hornet defense allowed Taylor only four penetrations, two of which went for touchdowns. The Hornets threatened to score nine times and were successful on only one drive.

The Hornet's defense held Taylor to four plays or less on eight different possessions while Taylor managed to hold the Hornets short of a first down only four times.

The Hornets had ten drives stopped for a variety of reasons. Three fumbles were lost, two passes were intercepted, three drives died on fourth down tries and two punting situations were encountered.

Barr went around right end on first down for ten yards and Brown picked up four to the 49 yard line. Moore then swept left end to the Taylor 38 yard line and the Hornet offense seemed to be rolling.

At the 38 yard line a fumble recovered by Taylor killed another chance.

On first down Kennedy lined the Ducks up tight and sent Mike Bunge on an "out and go pass" and Bunge caught the 61 yard pass and out ran defenders into the end zone for the Taylor second touchdown. The kick was good and the score was 13 to 6.

The Hornets had 6:7 seconds left to score a touchdown and push across two extra points.

Their first drive lasted only four plays but the defense got the ball back in four more plays at the Hornet 45 yard line.

Moore gained five yards to mid-field and then a Barr pass was almost picked off by Greg Buzan on second down. Barr then ran for five yards and the first down.

...Ducks

down. Barr lost the ball momentarily on second down but recovered at the 21 yard line. Ray Ortega came in and picked up six yards to the 15 yard line. On fourth and six yards to go Brown was stopped for no gain.

The Hornets forced Taylor to kick again after four plays and a minus four yards. Good tackles were made by George Thompson, Bell, and Steve Palmer.

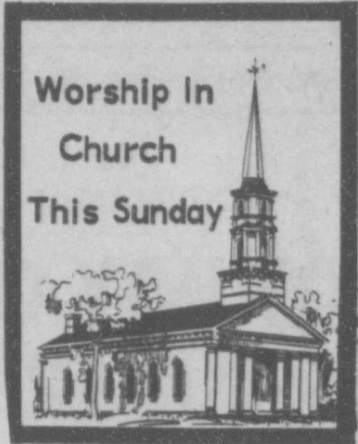

More of the same music came in this series as the Hornets stalled out at the Taylor 26 yard line after driving 36 yards in nine plays.

Four more downs for Taylor.

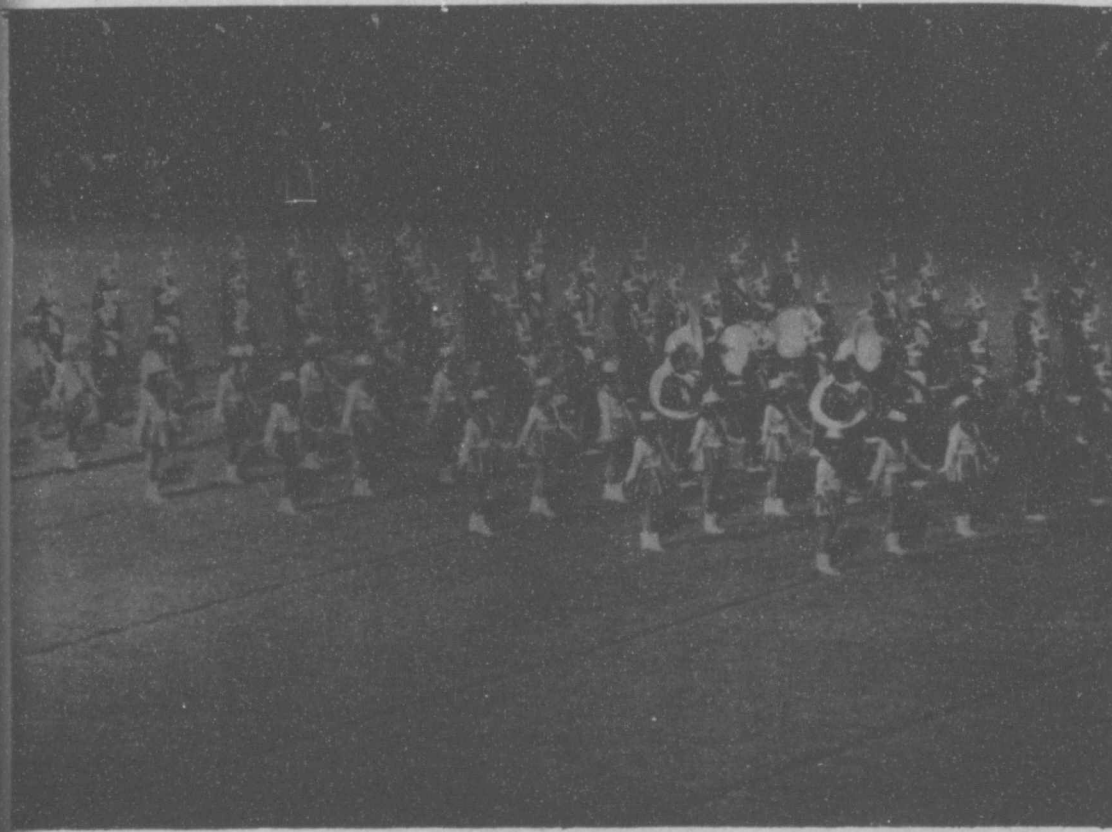

This time the Hornets move 30 yards to the Taylor 32 yard line and a fumble at the 26 yard line stalled another potential scoring drive.

Nine plays by Taylor and Bell and Brazier dropped Kennedy for a nine yard loss on a fourth down play.

WILLIAMSONS HAVE NEVADA VISITOR...Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Williamson is their daughter, Merle Williamson, of Reno, Nevada.

In addition to their daughter's visits the couple enjoyed seeing Mr. and Mrs. Bob Boone of Midland, John Fegette of Oglesby and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Williamson of Bryan.

Gatesvilleites dropping in Sunday were James Sydow, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hayes, Miss Minnie Exa Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Williamson and Mark.

PRICES UP...SPIRITS DOWN...'don't know about the rest of you Gatesville and County residents, but this ole girl is feeling the pinch of the shrinking dollar. As the days close in on my single-life I find the "leather walls" surrounding my "greenbacks" closing in!

Why even "kitty-kats" have it better than we do! Take double-T, a refugee from the land of sand (Texas Tech) Now that old grey cat of mine has 9 lives of Riley! Double T even has a choice of chicken, liver, Kidney or meat. The sky's the limit, next thing you know the Cats will be demanding HAPPY REUNION...Smiles were everywhere to be seen Thursday afternoon when the NEWS eye visited with an old friend, Mrs. Mattie Abbott at the Rotunda Convalescent Facility in Gatesville.

Mrs. Abbott, now 92, was feeling like a spring chick when her family(5 generations of 'em) got-together at the home.

Mrs. Abbott had the fun of visiting with son Barney of Rt. 3, Gatesville; grandson Connie of Olympia, Washington; great-grand daughter Linda Davis of Houston and great-great grandson David Scott Davis also of Houston.

The Washingtonians arrived in Gatesville Monday after flying to Texas by jet. Connie left Friday for Houston for visits with daughter, son-in-law and grandson, the Davises. From Houston, the accountant for the Washington Department of Highways flies Tuesday to San Francisco to visit with relatives. Then the Washingtonians will return home. There was no special occasion for the meeting of the five generations. Then the Washingtonians will return home. There was no special occasion—the meeting of the five generations in one place at one time was a special occasion in itself.

Also happy to see the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Barney Abbott who live on a farm near the Ater Community. You see, Connie Abbott is the Abbotts' son.

may have a different viewpoint," he said.

In order for a boy and a girl to obtain a marriage license now in Texas, the boy must be 21 and the girl 18 unless one or both parents sign a waiver for them. After Jan. 1, the age for boys has been lowered to 19 years, Woodriddle said.

Henson commented Friday that "I feel like I am morally obligated to the parents" concerning the teenage common law marriage. He went on to note "I think the Attorney General (Crawford Martin) should go back and take a second look".

Henson will require court action before he will issue licenses for teenage marriages.

ONE OF THOSE JONES BOYS CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY...It was cake-y faces around the home of little Micheal Jones Sunday, November 16 when relatives gathered to honor "Mike" on his third birthday.

As you can see gifts were in order from parents, brother grannies, aunts, cousins and friends. The handsome chocolate cake (or some of it) was re-located off of the crystal cake plate onto the pink cheeks of young Jones.

Mike's brother Todd a 6-month old "tiger" was on hand to join in the festivities.

HORNET FOOTBALL OVER...It looks like another Hornet football season is over and Gatesvilleites will turn their attention to a wooden playing field for GHS athlete involvement. The couple also have 4 grandchildren.

FOOD PRICES GOOD FOR THANKSGIVING

College Station, Nov. --- Apples, cranberries, oranges and grapefruit are economically priced this week, just in time for the Thanksgiving cornucopia.

Bannanas, Tokay grapes, russet potatoes, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, sweet potatoes, broccoli, collards, turnips and mustard greens also are plentiful, adds Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist at Texas A&M University.

In the meat department, frozen turkeys are priced slightly higher than a year ago, says the specialist.

Fryers are priced attractively and Grade A large eggs offer the best quality and economy in eggs.

Look for the best beef values this week on round steaks and roasts, short ribs, stew meat, ground meat, blade pot roasts and steaks. Pork values include picnics, shoulder roasts and steaks, canned ham fresh sausage and end cut loin roasts and chops.

TURKEY TIPS

Plan on extra turkey for Thanksgiving. It's great for quick meat and in casseroles. Tuck away "plan-overs" in the freezer but be sure to remove all stuffing or dressing from the turkey before freezing, says Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist. Divide the meat into the size portions you can use at one meal.

Whether turkey, pork, or chicken was your Thanksgiving feature, left-overs can become steaming soups or sandwiches. Add fruit or vegetable salad, suggests Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist, for a nutritious snack.

Grandmother-Father Clocks Work Double Time

College Station, Nov. -- Today's grandfather and grandmother clocks work double time. They tell time and add decoration to a room.

Customers have a wide selection: French, Spanish, Italian country English, modern and Colonial. Clock shoppers in past centuries were limited to 18th Century or Colonial styles, says Bonny Lay, Extension housing specialist.

Clocks are crafted in cherry, maple, oak, walnut or pine solids and veneers and a wide array of finished and painted colors. Some models sit on the mantel and hang on the wall.

Prices in floor length commercially produced grandparent clocks range from $275 to $1,000 the specialist says.

Grandfather and grandmother clocks are either weight on chain driven or spring wound. Many feature Westminster chimes for the quarter hours and Big Ben strike for hours.

Miss Lay says some even have triple chimes: Westminster, Whittington and St. Michael.

Miss Marcella Segner And Robert E. West, III Exchange Nuptial Vows In Stonewall

Mr. & Mrs. Robert E. West, III

The Rev. W.W. Schneider officiated at the double ring ceremony and nuptial mass which united in marriage Miss Marcella Dora Segner and Airman First Class Robert E. West III on Saturday, November 8, at 3 p.m.

Scene of the impressive nuptials was St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, Stonewall. White wicker baskets of white gladiola and mums enhanced the church. White satin bows marked the family pews.

Sandra Segner, cousin of the bride, presided at the organ for the traditional music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex E. Segner of Stonewall. A graduate of FHS and Nixon Clay Commercial College, she was employed as secretary by the Texas Liquor Control Board in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. R.E. West Jr., of Gatesville are the parents of the groom. He is a graduate of Gatesville High School and attended The University of Texas one year. He is stationed at Luke AFB, Arizona.

Mr. Segner gave his daughter in marriage. She was lovely in a gown created and made by her mother and her aunt Mrs. Alois Klein. The A-line gown with empire waistline feature a satin band and three satin bows had long fitted sleeves which were edged with lace and closed with five small pearl buttons. The rounded neckline of the satin bodice was splashed with rose motifs. Two small satin bows accented the two rows of lace which outlined the front panel of the gown, complemented by one satin bow in back. An enchanting chapel length train was trimmed with alencon rose lace motifs in the shape of a bell. Three small satin bows were centered on the train.

She wore a gold locket belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Helmuth Klein. Her crown of orange blossoms held a four tiered illusion veil. Phalenopsis orchids and stephanotis with English ivy garlands formed her cascade bouquet.

Sharon Pehl of Austin was maid of honor. Janie Compton of Austin and Ro Shell Segner, sister of bride, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were created with emerald green velvet bodice with round neckline and short sleeves and Nile green crepe skirt. A green lace and velvet bow accentuated the empire waistlines in back. Their headpieces were a two-layered semi-circle of Nile green lulle gathered to two Nile green flowers. They wore matching shoes and a pearl necklace, gift of the bride. Their bouquets of yellow anemone mums and camelia foliage were centered by large yellow mums.

Glendine Segner was her sister's flower girl. She wore an A-line dress of bridal satin with round neckline and short sleeves trimmed with two small motifs and green velvet ribbon at the waistline. She wore a white headpiece and carried a miniature cascade bouquet of orchids like that of the brides.

Rodney Ottmers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Ottmers, was ring bearer.

R.E. West Jr. was his son's best man. Michael Kunz of Austin and Dennis J. Segner, brother of bride, were groomsmen. Gerald Ottmers, Sammy Segner, and Chris Kunz, cousins of bride of Fredericksburg, ushered.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Segner wore an A-line green-bonded lace dress and a yellow cymbidium orchid corsage. The groom's mother chose a beige lace dress and had a green cymbidium orchid corsage. The grandmothers, Mrs. Helmuth Klein and Mrs. Ida Segner had corsages of white mums. Mrs. Homer Wilson of Gatesville, the groom's grandmother, was unable to attend.

The reception and dinner, attended by 150 guests, was held in St. Thomas Hall.

Cheryl Ann Ottmers presided at the bridesbook. Others assisting were Sandra Segner, Susan Kunz, Karen Klein and Lucia Klein.

The registration table, laid with lace, held a green candle embedded in greenery, with small white love bird and net.

The gift table covered with a white net and satin skirted cloth, was enhanced by a green heart with yellow roses and green net and a miniature bride and groom. An assortment of white flowers graced the head table, which was laid with white net embellished with drapes of greenery. Hurricane lamps amidst greenery were on other tables. Baskets of white gladiola and mums were used about the hall.

The four tiered colonade cake, dotted with yellow roses, was topped by two white doves centered under a heart of white roses. Serving cake were Mrs. Kermit Rahe of Austin, Mrs. Johnnie Jansky of Taylor, and Jo Nell Nielson, Mrs. Leslie Klein, Sherrie Wiemers and Cathy Hensell of Temple laded punch.

When the newly weds left on their wedding trip to Phoenix, Arizona, where they will be at home, the bride was wearing an A-line glowing red dress and her corsage of white orchids.

Out of town guests were from Fredericksburg, Harper, Albert Taylor, Austin, Gatesville and San Antonio. Out of town guests from Gatesville were: Mrs. Mimi Wyatt, aunt of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Leaird, aunt and uncle of groom, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roach, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Ament, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cummings, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bell.

The rehearsal supper was given Friday night by the groom's parents in Stonewall.

MR. AND MRS. B.S. COOK

Larger Turkey, More People Served Per Pound

The larger the turkey the more people each pound serves. Gwendolyn Clayt, Extension consumer marketing specialist for Texas A&M University, says a four-pound turkey has four servings, an 8 pound bird equals 10 servings, a 12-pound one provides 20 servings and a 20-pound turkey has 40 servings.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Cook of 110 North 16th Street celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary quietly Saturday.

The long-time Gatesville residents were married in 1908 in the home of Mrs. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Dunn, officiating at the ceremony was Reverend Hightower, a Waco Methodist minister.

Mrs. Cook, the former Ieval Dunn, was born in Missouri but was reared in Waco.

Mr. Cook was also reared in Waco and after their marriage the couple moved to Gatesville where Mr. Cook was employed with the Cotton Belt Railroad.

In May of 1958, Cook retired from his Cotton Belt Railway post after 39 years of service to the company.

The couple have three children: Mrs. Glenn(Janice) Gray of Homer, Louisiana; Mrs. Johnny(Genora) Washburne of Gatesville; and Mrs. Byron(Eloise) McClellan of Gatesville.

They have seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Norris Graves Recalls Uncle Mat's Instruction

Mrs. Mat Jones & Staff:

While in the old home town last weekend I had an opportunity to glance at an issue of the current News. Brought back a few memories. Recalled when I was in high school in Gatesville and how I worked part time there at the paper. Fact of the matter I wrote the sports page for a couple of years if my memory is correct, and "Uncle" Mat's instruction caused me to enter college with visions of a degree toward journalism, although I changed to another field.

All in all it was quite an experience that I cherish to this day, and seeing the "News" again brought back distant memories. To me, newspapers such as we have in Gatesville have become an institution for the community.

Best regards,

Norris Graves, Jr.

FEEDING OF MARS ASTRONAUTS WILL BE PROBLEM

College Station, Nov.--Although a space flight to Mars is at least 17 years away, the problem of feeding astronauts on the 28-month trip already is being tackled.

Food must be produced aboard the spacecraft by physico-chemical techniques and growing plant life, the Chief of Food and Nutrition for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Houston, said recently at Texas A&M University.

Dr. Malcom Smith, Jr. said that on the Mars mission, potable water and oxygen from human and cabin waste products will be required.

Heating and carrying food stuffs are two problems.

The Apollo Command Module and the Lunar Module have no equipment for heating or storing frozen foods but scientists and engineers at NASA expect to conquer these problems in the near future.

Microwave energy, like that used in new microwave kitchen ovens, may be used to heat foods despite high power requirements and electromagnetic interference, Smith said. Weightless conditions in space make conventional oven heating impossible.

The foods team is trying to develop a variety of foods that are highly palatable and tops in nutritional quality. Smith said his researchers attempt to determine the food preferences of each astronaut by several interviews with him and his wife.

But, he said, some foods may not be popular if they are repeated frequently on prolonged space flights.

"I think eventually we will have flight food systems like submarines and later on large galleys and dining areas where food can regain its role as a nutrient for the body and the mind," Smith concluded.

by MARY LEE

Whenever anyone tells you that the modern homemaker has it easy compared with grandmother, don't you believe it. The Department of Labor claims that there are well over 20 million working women today. Three out of five are married, and more than 10 million have children under 18.

That means that at least half of our working gals have a double-work schedule that would have staggered grandma. One set of statistics says that in addition to the time spent on the job and traveling to and from it, today's working mothers put in an average of 5.3 hours per day on house-keeping and with childcare.

Might make you think today's career woman looked like a harried drudge. Not so. Grandma would have gaped, no doubt, over miniskirted moms with frosted hair and false eyelashes, but she would have applauded the freedom of spirit, ease of movement, and lack of pretense shown by today's young homemakers.

Another surprising note is the amount of home sewing that is done today. According to the sewing machine industry, nearly half of all homes in the country own an electric sewing machine.

Some 41 million women sew at home, and 65 percent of them are under 40 years of age. In fact, a recent survey shows that 85 percent of our teenagers love to sew—in 1968 they made more than 82 million items for themselves.

Incidentally, if you are one of the homemakers who starts half a dozen things at one time when you houseclean, don't let anyone say you are being inefficient.

It now turns out that household fatigue is caused by sticking at one task too long a time. Experts now recommend that you vary your tasks frequently. For example, iron or sew for 15 minutes, then dust a room or two, or make a bed, then come back to ironing for another 15 minutes or so. You'll have less fatigue that way.

Stopping for a short bit of exercise or a good stretch is healthy for muscles and nerves, too. Loosening up neck and shoulder tension makes you feel better and your work easier.
