Myrick Named Unit Supervisor At Valley School For Boys

Ace C. Myrick, 28 has been named to succeed Knox Lovejoy as Unit Supervisor for the Valley School of the Gatesville State School for Boys.

Myrick was selected for the post by the Texas Youth Council from a group of six applicants. He began his new duties Saturday February 28 at an introduction meeting at the school.

Myrick has worked at GSSB since January of 1966 as a teacher, youth activity supervisor, caseworker, caseworker supervisor before his selection as unit supervisor.

School's superintendent, M.B. Kinderick said "Myrick comes to this school with a fine reputation." He has a wide background in sports, music and scouting. Kinderick continued, "he is just right for this age group." The image of the unit supervisor is vital to the very young boys at the Valley School.

Myrick graduated from Sintor High School, in Sintor, Texas in 1960. He attended Rice University on a football scholarship but gave up the scholarship after an auto accident in 1962. He later returned to college at Howard Payne where he played football and graduated with a degree in Physical Education, History, Political Science, and Education.

Myrick and wife Marilyn live at 1410 Pidcocke in Gatesville.

Coach Bill Dyer talks with his clutch performer, Dean Patterson, after Tuesday night's two point victory over Priddy in Bi-District at Hamilton. Patterson scored the winning field goal with 13 seconds to play.

Eagles Win Bi District Title, Advance To Region

A clutch rebound and field goal by Dean Patterson with 13 seconds to play gave the Jonesboro Eagles the victory margin in their bi-district battle with Priddy at Hamilton Tuesday night.

The Eagles lead through most of the low scoring contest but when Mike Meis, Dale Sommerfeld and Paul Young ran into foul trouble in the latter stages the Priddy Pirates charged back into a tie.

Both teams were aggressive defensively in the early stages of the game forcing hurried shooting and loss of ball control. Coach Bill Dyer noted after the game that tension on both squads caused inaccurate shooting and the low score.

At the end of the first quarter the Eagles lead 5 to 4 which indicates the inaccurate shooting and tough defense. The two teams were not playing "deliberate basketball" even though the score would indicate cautious play.

Paul Young, playing perhaps his finest defensive basketball game, kept turning over the ball for the Eagles with pass interception and steals.

Young defended the ball where ever it went and in the second quarter three turnovers in a row helped keep the Pirates scoreless for four minutes.

The Priddy five hit and hot a hot streak just before the half and narrowed the Eagle lead to five points.

The surprising thing about the Eagle offense in the first half was Sommerfeld's cold shooting. He failed to score in the first half and only hit seven points for the game. Coach Dyer seemed worried at half-time with his top shooter not hitting. He noted, "Sommerfeld has averaged 22 points over the last 21 games but tonight he is having an off-night."

In the second half, the Pirates continued to press the attack with the Eagles protecting their lead. But the Eagles offense met the challenge and with one minute in the third quarter held a 30 to 20 lead. The quarter ended with the same score.

The fourth quarter opened with the Eagles running into trouble on fouls. First Mike Meis committed his fourth foul and then Sommerfeld got his third foul.

The Pirates went right to work in an aggressive offense knowing that foul trouble would weaken the tough Eagle defense. In two short minutes Priddy had pumped in 10 points and trailed by only two points. The Pirates tied the game with 5:40 left to play and the packed Hamilton gym went wild.

Young put Jonesboro ahead after a turnover on a lay up and he kept up the ball hawking to spoil Priddy's hopes.

Three more points by the Eagles gave them a five point lead with 3:07 to play. Then under the offensive basket Meis committed his fifth foul and Dean Patterson replaced him.

Sommerfeld hit on a free throw with 2:19 to play to lead by three points 38 to 35.

The Eagles went into a stall at the two minute mark and chewed up 30 seconds before walking was called. Another stall ran the clock down to 55 seconds and Ray Martin was fouled.

Martin missed and Priddy went after more points.

Local Man Charged With Kidnaping Over Weekend

Coryell County Sheriff's Department picked up a local man Friday and charged him with kidnaping, said Sheriff Windy Cummings.

The divorced man allegedly did not return his child to his mother following visitation privileges. The man made bond set at $3,000 by J.P. Stony Hammack.

Friday night, Sheriff Cummings and department picked up a Gatesville man for felony hot check charges filed by McLennan County authorities. The local man was turned over to the McLennan County Sheriff's Department Saturday.

Two county men were picked up Tuesday night at Dyer Restaurant and charged with being drunk in public place. The men were fined $19 in J.P. Stony Hammack's court Wednesday.

The Gatesville Planning and Zoning Commission began work on the cities 701 program Monday night at City Hall. The Commission met with City planner Mike Mahoney of Fort Worth in a meeting to organize the appointed commissioners.

CITY COMMISSION ELECTS OFFICERS, HEAR 701 DETAILS

The Gatesville Planning and Zoning Commission met with members of the City Council and Mike Mahoney, city planner, Monday night in an organizational and informative meeting. The new commission appointed by Jack Straw as chairman, Dale White as Vice-Chairman and Hal Anderson as secretary.

The Commission members include Lloyd Ivy, Silas Collins, Dave McCallister, and Dr. Oley Beard.

Monday night, Mahoney explained the Gatesville 701 program contract which will govern the details of the eight month planning program.

He asked the Commission members to "open up" in meetings to discuss far reaching ideas whether they be new, different or untried. Mahoney explained that the commission must look down the road 25 years and plan for development and problems of the future.

Mahoney detailed the planning program as follows:

1. Plan and regulate the location of trades and industries and the types of structures in which they are housed.
2. To make recommendations concerning zoning regulations.
3. To make recommendations concerning the location, extension and planning of public rights-of-ways, parks, and other public places.
4. To recommend the general design and location of public buildings, bridges, street fixtures, etc.

Commission members asked to what extent they would be involved in zoning of the city and discovered that the Commission will recommend action to the City Council on all zoning request with the Council to take official action.

Mahoney indicated that over the next few months interim reports would be filed and soon planning would look at the future financial needs of the city. A plan for the future can never be realized without actual projects being undertaken along the way.

It was brought out during the meeting that the Commission is a perpetual organization and not just organized to work on the 701 planning program.

The final report under the 701 program is scheduled for completion by February of 1971 and is hoped to be the guideline for future development of the city of Gatesville.

Mayor Bob Miller, indicated at the meeting that he believed "next to the City Council this is the most important Committee in the city."

Oglesby Snake Hunt Attracts Big Crowd

Over 800 spectators and snake hunters attended the two-day rattlesnake hunt at Oglesby Saturday and Sunday. It was the first annual hunt conducted by the Oglesby Lions Club.

The hunters were not turned away by the rain and wind over the two days but the number of snakes caught below hunters' expectations.

Twenty-two groups of hunters worked countless dens during the two day event collecting over 100 snakes. The longest snake was caught by Ralph Peterson of Turnersville. It measured five feet. Cecil (Smokey) Moore and Robert Pancake won the smallest snake and day money on total weight of snakes captured. Other winners included Dowell Brewer and Erle Hentiger.

Twelve trophies and $200 in prize money was awarded to the winners following the close of competition at 4:30 p.m. Sunday.

The spectators and hunters watched the popular snake handling by Ken Jones of the Galveston Snake Pit. Jones gave interesting facts about snakes as he walked around in an enclosure with the hunt snakes. He handled the wild reptiles with a hook and his bare hands in demonstrating different characteristics of the snakes.

The Man of the Year is honored at the annual Installation Banquet this year to be held on March 24.

Persons wishing to submit a nomination should mail the nominee's name to the Gatesville Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 206, Gatesville, Texas.

Snake charmer, Ken Jones, works with a freshly caught diamondback rattler during the weekend of rattlesnakes at Oglesby. Jones is part of a team of snake experts who helped put on the gigantic show. He handled snakes with hooks, hands and even milked the snakes for the spectators. On Sunday Jones was bitten on the tip of the finger with interruption of his show.

Coryell County Sheriff's Department received a new 100 watt transmitter Monday replacing old set which had become almost unusable.

The new set will improve communications between Dispatcher, Ajuan Smith, pictured above, and law enforcement officers for the city, county, and state in the Coryell County area. The new unit has almost doubled the power of the old set.

food for thought

BY MRS. B.A. SNOODY

This weeks writing shall begin with a vision that Habakkuk, a prophet of God saw sometime about the year 600 B.C.

"Why dost thou shew me iniquity and cause me to behold grievance? For spoiling and violence are before me; and there are that raise up, strife and contention.

There fore the law is slack-ed, and judgement doth never go forth: for the wicked doeth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgement proceedeth" Habak-kuk 1:3 and 4.

"And the Lord answered me, and said, "Write the vision and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time but at the end, it shall speak and not lie, though it tarry wait for it, because it will surely come it will not tarry" Hab. 2:2&3.

The above scripture was written over 2,000 years ago, but it was for an appointed time. "At the end, it shall speak" the Lord told the old prophet.

He saw iniquity and grievance; He saw spoiling and violence, and those that raised up strife and contention. He saw that the law was slack-ed and judgment didn't go forth, because the wicked compassed the righteous and wrong judgement went forth.

If we had been searching for words, we couldn't have described the conditions in the world today in a better way, and the scripture says, "At the end, it shall speak", "It shall surely come, it will not tarry."

As we read the statistics of the rise in Crime, in our own state of Texas from only a year ago, we were made to think soberly. And our heart was burdened anew, to warn the people that we are living in the end of time.

When Jesus was being led away to be crucified a great company of people and of women followed him bewailing him, but he turned and said unto them: "Daughters of Jerusalem weep not for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For behold the days are coming in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren and the wombs that never bare-- Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, fall on us; and to the hill, cover us" Luke 23:26-30. This will be the time when God's wrath is being poured out on the people of the whole earth for their sin, and rebellion against Him, and his laws.

Sometimes in large families a sudden death or tragedy will reknit broken ties and so it is in the christian family--Christians will need all the strength they can draw from one another from all walks of life and church affiliations; They will not care whether they were of one church denomination or another--the tie that will bind them in this desperate hour will be their common faith in Christ. Doctrinal prejudices have divided Gods children, and there is dissension reprisals, jealousies, strife and offense, but in the end time we need each other, and to lay aside all of these things.

The luke warn must cast aside their besetting sins, and be identified with true beliefness. Social drinkers and marital cheaters need a new sense of values and the new morality standards and modern license for laxity will look differently. The social christian will have no strength to stand; their frivolous unwatchful imprudent lives will not stand the test.

The words of Jesus himself: "Except those days should be shortened there should no flesh be saved; but for the elects sake, those days shall be shortened. Matt. 24:21.

There will be a time of great remorse of conscience, regretting the lack of concern to influence their families to follow Christ; never realizing that things were so urgent, having planned that sometime eventually, to make a real dedication to the Lord, but thinking there would be plenty of time, placing other things now of more importance striving to work and save the material things of life only to realize that they have lost everything blaming others for not warning them sooner of the impending wrath of God; while on the other hand, there will be an unshakable faith among true believers for they know that soon they will see the son of God coming in the clouds of Heaven with power and great glory!

This is the greatest time of all the ages, for the believer in Christ. Jesus said: "This generation shall not pass away, 'till all these things be fulfilled," Matt. 24:34 & 35. (The generations that sees these things)

At Christs return there will be two types of people: The

INCOME TAX INFORMATION

Income Taxes, Death & Divorce

Death, divorce, or desertion create certain common problems in the payment of Federal income taxes, and there are special tax filing rules for those affected. Frequently, such persons are parents without partners and their children could provide some tax-cutting benefits.

For tax filing purposes, a person who is legally separated or divorced is considered unmarried for the entire tax year if he or she has not married again by the end of the year. This is basic to all the tax provisions covering divorced persons.

Child Care Deductions

A divorced woman with child custody can deduct child care costs necessitated by her absence from the home. The tax code provides a deduction of up to $600 for one child or $900 for two or more, even though her income is more than the $6,000 limitation on child care deductions. She can also deduct child care costs she may have made while she was still married. Her husband can deduct only the child care expenses he paid after the divorce.

A woman whose husband has deserted her, but who is still legally married has the same child care deductions as the divorced wife. However, to be eligible she must have not known the whereabouts of her husband during the tax year and she must have requested a court to require her missing husband to pay child support before she files her tax return.

The rules on child care deductions are slightly different for the widow or widower whose husband or wife died during the tax year. Unless the survivor had paid child care previously in the year, the survivor could deduct only the child care costs incurred after his or her spouse dies, and the $6,000 income limitation applies.

Dependents Exemptions

There is a difference, too, on the handling of exemptions claimed for dependents in the cases of divorce or death.

Benefits in Death

When a husband or wife dies, the tax rules give some concessions to the surviving partner.

If your spouse died during the year, you are considered to have been married for the entire year. Should you not remarry before the year is over, you can file a joint return for you and your deceased spouse and take any benefits joint filing might give.

Your tax concessions may continue for two additional years. Suppose your husband (or wife) died in 1969 and you did not remarry but maintained a home for yourself and one or more children or other dependents. For 1969, you can file a joint return for yourself and your late husband, claiming him as an exemption. On your tax returns for the next two years (1970 and 1971), you could qualify as a surviving spouse. This gives you the advantage of using the same tax rate schedule as those persons filing joint returns, thus affording you split income benefits and resulting in lower taxes than might otherwise be possible. Of course, for these two years and later you cannot claim your deceased husband as an exemption.

After these two years are over, and as long as you do not remarry, you may be able to file your tax return as the Head of Household. This allows you to use a special tax rate schedule which gives you approximately one-half the benefits of a married couple filing a joint return. But to qualify as Head of Household, you must furnish over half the cost of maintaining a household for the entire year for at least one relative. Your relationship to the person for whom you maintain the household determines whether he must qualify as your dependent and whether he must actually live in your household. For example, if this happens to be your mother or father, they do not have to live in your home.

You usually do not have to report or pay taxes on money you receive from your deceased spouse's life insurance policies (providing his total estate does not exceed $60,000), whether you get the money in a lump sum or in installments. And you can omit from taxes income up to $5,000 in death benefits paid to you by your late spouse's employer.

Rain is the Headline Maker

The headline news is rain; spring grass growing rain, and heavy season for the coming crops. Some measured a total of three inches during last week.

Leaving all the robberies and such out of the news and proceeding to the more familiar this reporter might mention it is good to be on the typewriter again, after almost a month sitting in the hospital, or lying in bed. My mother, Mrs. A.C. Bertrand, returned to Evant last Monday and is a new patient in the January Care Home, where she is making satisfactory recovery from surgery undergone in the Hamilton County General Hospital, Feb. 3. Between staying with her and a bout with the flu and a new case of flu to nurse as soon as I got home, it seems all the world is sick....But with the outlook on the home front better, all will be bound to improve with the warm weather.

Patients from Evant in hospitals, this week includes Mr. Evant Brooks who is in Gatesville, and Mr. Tucker Austin, who is in the Hamilton hospital and Miss Gertrude Hill is still at Hamilton. Mr. Chester Sheldon is one who has had a slow recovery from his winter ailment, and was able to see his daughter and family, the C.L. Whites, Abilene, the last two week ends. Mr. Elbert Sheldon and Phil, Gatesville, also called in the Sheldon home, Sunday. Mrs. B.T. Arnold spent the week end with the Herbert Coffmans, Center City.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bates and daughters, Arlington were callers in January Care Home Sunday to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Bertrand.

Mrs. Frank Lee, who underwent surgery in Fort Worth and spent about three weeks with her son and family, the Frank Lee's is back in Evant. Her sister, Mrs. Velma Nowlin, Gatesville, spent a few days with her.

Mrs. Jack McGuire had Mrs. Clyde Bailey and Miss Leta Bennett, Gatesville as guests Wednesday.

Mrs. Larry Harding and children, formerly of Copperas Cove are now living in the Roy Conner house in southeast Evant. Mrs. Harding's husband, a service man, is in Viet Nam. The children range in ages from two months to fourteen years of age. Three are now in school, which is a genuine contribution to the community, and school.

This is Public School Week, and Evant celebrated it by open house and an invitation to every parent to be present for the noon meal on Wednesday.

Plum and peach blooms are showing up on the rivers and on the hills. Some other spring signs are in evidence such as baby chicks, many calves and some elm trees are full of their first leaves. With steady cold, it seems winter was not severe, just long....And who saw the first robin, anyway? One, lonely and early came to one lot in Evant and seems to like it....A squirrel climbed the window screen of this writer's home last week. That was either a sign of a late sleeper, or an early riser-which?

Mrs. Allen Campbell returned to the home of Mrs. Paul Neff, at Dallas as her daughter came down Saturday. She has her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ray Campbell, Sheidan, with her the first week she was home from Hamilton General Hospital, following surgery. There can simply never be a more attentive family than the Campbells.

Mrs. Edwin Marwitz is home from her visit with the family at Fort Worth, but she has had a bad cold and unable to be out much.

ATTEND APPRECIATION DINNER... Mr. and Mrs. Bob Arnold Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Otha Johnson, all of Gatesville, attended the S.C. "Shorty" O'Neal Appreciation Dinner at the Holiday Inn in Waco Saturday night. O'Neal, long-active in Little League Baseball, started the pint-sized league in McLennan County in 1950. The group honored him for his outstanding contribution to Little League Baseball through out the years. The Gatesvilleites attending are no strangers to little leaguers in our area as they are important figures in our local league history.

WILL IT BE A LION OR A LAMB... March is really with us this week and the month managed to come in like a lion—the first of the week there was a lot of roaring going on. With all of the pounding early-week rains our "Pounded Rosa" was really pounded. The wagon trail to the house turned to gritty soup and forced this "un-professional" driver to take several "runs" at the mud hole to get the green "mustache" across! Enough of this dirty story! Did you know that this week of March has its own special days. March 6, Friday is the World Day of Prayer, Sunday marks the first day of Girl Scout Week through March 14. And just think! Only three weeks until Easter Sunday. That special day will be here before you know it, so get that perfect Easter outfit early!

DON'T BE TARDY FOR SCHOOL... As I have said in previous columns, this week is Public School Week in Texas. If you have not visited a public school, don't be tardy and miss seeing what is happening at our local facilities. In all three of the Gatesville Public Schools, administrators, teachers, and students have the welcome mat out for parents, friends, relatives.

And what displays of student works! While visiting Gatesville Elementary School this week I was thrilled to see the art work that students of all ages—from the 1st to 5th grade—have been preparing just for that special day when dad and mom come to school!

One especially nice sight was the registration books in the rooms with a good number of names for the second day of the "open house". If you haven't gone to see your child's school, don't pass the chance up—see him as he is everyday—laughing looking and learning.

Candlelight Ceremony Honors Pledges

Pledges honored were, Mesdames Sue Bankhead, Janda Coward, Phyllis Harvey, Jo Lynn Jackson, Becky Kenworthy and Lillian Vidler. Following the Ritual of Jewels refreshments of fruit punch, cake squares, nuts and mints were served.

RETURN TO CORYELL COUNTY... First Sergeant and Mrs. John F. Wensorski returned to the Gatesville area Sunday to make their home in the Levita Community. The couple came to the Gatesville area from Ft. Knox, Kentucky where Sgt. Wensorski was stationed for two years. He will leave March 18 for a 13-month tour of duty in Korea. Mrs. Wensorski is the former Rita Joy Lee of Gatesville. When talking with her sister, Mrs. Joe Markunas of Levita, I was glad to hear that after 20 years of separation, the two sisters live across the street from each other "in downtown Levita!" Mrs. Markunas added that Rita will teach kindergarten or a primary grade in some area school. Prior to Ft. Knox, Kentucky the Wensorskis lived in Germany. Welcome home Wensorskis!

Town Tots On Stage In Saturday Contest

The Xi Iota Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi International sorority is hastily putting the final touches on this year's Little Mister and Miss personality contest slated this Saturday night in the Gatesville High School auditorium, said Joyce Arnold, sorority spokesman. The 7:30 curtain will rise on a "Mary Poppins Evening Out," this year's tot contest theme. Six trophies will be awarded for the top three Misses and Mistresses at the contest. Sorority officials ask that parents of contestants have their children at the auditorium one half hour early.

Mrs. Joy Cummings and Mrs. Kathlene Healer are co-emcees for the 35-entrant competition. Special entertainment will be selections from "Mary Poppins" sung by BOB Jackson. Piano accompaniment will be provided by Charles Ament.

Tickets are priced at $1 for adults and 50¢ for children under 12. "We have had great response with our entries and expect an enthusiastic turnout Saturday night, said Mrs. Arnold. "The show seems to be better received this year because of Xi Iota's last year success," she added.

The proceeds from the contest will be used toward local projects as well as the sorority's state project.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ANDY... Birthday fun and frolic were surrounding little Andrew Edward Sheir of Timber Cove over the week end as he celebrated his fifth birthday. The actual date of Andy's birth is March 4, so the rough and ready lad celebrated the occasion early!

A special guest and special person to Andy was present—grandmother Evelyn Potts of Gatesville. Talk about a granny's eyes popping with excitement and joy, Evelyn displayed lots of grandmother pride when talking about little Andy, the cake and his reaction to the day.

Of course, much pride was apparent in Andy's mom and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Artie Sheir. Mrs. Sheir is the former Miss Patsy Potts of Gatesville.

Accompany Mrs. Potts to the Houston area was Mrs. Kay Ament who visited with relatives in near-by Baycliff.

Also in the receiving line was Mrs. Kenneth Wallace, another daughter-in-law of Austin. Party rooms were decorated with numerous floral arrangements. The dining table was laid with a hand-embroidered linen cut work cloth, brought from Hong Kong. Centering the table was an arrangement of tulips, Dutch iris, carnations and gladiolas of spring colors in a silver bowl with silver candelabra and white tapers forming a background for silver and china appointments. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Charles Walker of Houston, Mrs. Marian Baugh of Brownwood, Mrs. William Chamlee of Temple and Mrs. Bob Miller.

Mrs. Jack Poston was in charge of the brides book where

"Nine Great Musicians"

Jazz-drummer Buddy Rich calls them "great musicians." The dean of American jazz critics, Leonard Feather, says they "may just be the most important pop-music group of the decade."

And recently at Madison Square Garden they brought the Winter Festival for Peace to a tumultuous halt when the sell-out crowd leaped to its feet and gave them an ovation that must have lasted a full five minutes.

Their name is Blood, Sweat, and Tears, and they are nine great musicians (including two trumpets, a trombone, and a sax) who play the music that satisfies not just more people, but more different kinds of people, than any other group around. And last week they proved it by receiving a record 10 category nominations for Grammy awards. Previously, the most nominations in a single year for the record industry's version of the Oscar had gone to Frank Sinatra, another performer with a rather wide appeal.

The kids turn on when the band's fine singer, David Clayton-Thomas, who was once a lumberjack in Canada, belts out one of their three 1,000,000 seller singles—Spinning Wheel, and When I Die, or You've Made Me So Very Happy. Unreconstructed jazz buffs break into smiles when one of the group's excellent instrumentalists—say trumpeter Lew Soloff or alto saxist Fred Lipsius takes off on a soaring, free-blowing solo. And should the more sober-minded lovers of serious music take the time to listen, they are sure to be pleasantly surprised at the complexity and harmonic sophistication in which all these wild, swinging sounds are set.

This is how rock critic Mike Jahn analyzes the wide appeal of Blood, Sweat and Tears: "It does not attempt to blend rock and jazz, a wise decision. Rather, it alternates these forms. There is rock one moment and then there is jazz. The transitions are sudden, but smooth. One is awed by the group's power, then impressed by its musical proficiency."

Yes, maybe that's it. Maybe.

But for their part members of the group feel that just a little too much critical energy is expended trying to fix their style and define their music. They are sometimes called a rock group, sometimes jazz band, and most often lately a "jazz-rock" group. "What this means," says singer David Clayton-Thomas, "is that nobody has really figured out what we are yet—and that's all right with us. After all, we're not involved in any big movement as such. We're just making our own music."

And if it is very distinctive music—the kind that constantly tempts critics to new feats of definition and explanation—this is because it is their music, the sum total of Blood, Sweat and Tears' drummer, Bobby Colomby, has said the "our band in essence is trying to get the best out of all music and combine it with rock and roll. It's also our taste."

Our music is pretty much what our taste in music is.

The nine young men in the band have done a bit of noodling on these matters of semantics. And lately, they have begun to call what they play simply, "American music." They like that. They think it fits and it does.

The also tour. As a matter of fact, Blood, Sweat and Tears recently returned from a grueling 55 date, 2 1/2 month trip that took them to nearly every major city and most of the big colleges and universities in the country. And it concluded with a triumphant three-day stand at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, the first time that a pop group of any sort has headlined at a room on the Vegas strip, during which they broke the old house record set by Frank Sinatra.

"Personal appearances are getting tough for us to play for a kind of funny reason," say Blood, Sweat and Tears guitarist Steve Katz. "You get in front of an audience that's never heard you live before, and all they really want to hear are your records performed all over again in person. It's crazy. We always try to do one or two new things on every show just to keep from getting bored, but when we do that you can tell they don't like it. We start to lose them. And one or two is the limit. That's about all any audience will take."

The students were tested in Math, Reading, and Literature, in the achievement series, and a general aptitude test was also given. The test periods were from 8:30 to 9:40. These tests will be computer scored, and the results returned to the school where they will become a part of each student's permanent record.

The tests given were the SPTAA (Short Form Test of Academic Aptitude) and the CAT (California Achievement Test, 1970 edition) which are published by McGraw-Hill.

HORNETS TAKE THIRD AT COTTON BOLL RELAYS SATURDAY

A third place finish at the Cotton Boll Relays in Taylor has the Gatesville Hornet track team at the height of anticipation already in the young cinder season.

The Hornets lead at one point during the long afternoon and evening at track and field events. The lead dwelled when the Hornets failed to make points in three straight events.

Leading the Hornets in their high finish was Gary Kafer with 21 points and second high individual at the meet. The Hornets piled up 63 points during the meet well above pre-meet estimates.

Finishing first in the relay meet was Marlin with 103 followed by Belton with 86 and

Other strong finishes for the Hornets included second in the Shuttle Hurdles behind Marlin's 43.8 second time. Kafer won some more points in the high hurdles finishing second in 15.8 seconds and Mike Williams finished fifth with 16.1 seconds.

Gatesville with 63 points. Taylor finished fourth with 47 points.

The Hornets picked up first place in both the pole vault and high jump as Steve Palmer cleared 11-6 in the fewest jumps to win and Gary Kafer set a new Relay Record in the high jump at 6 2 1/2. Kafer's jump broke a long standing GHS School record 6-2 set in 1953 by Jerry Bates.

The Sprint Relay team consisting of James McCarley, Larry Moore, Don Rogers, and Ray Ortega, finished fifth with a 45.2 seconds for the 440 yard dash. The only District 13AAA team to beat the Hornets in this event was Del Valle.

In the 100 yard dash, Larry Moore was timed at 104 seconds and ranked third among District 13AAA competitors. Ray Ortega finished fifth in the 220 yard dash with a promising 24.2 second time.

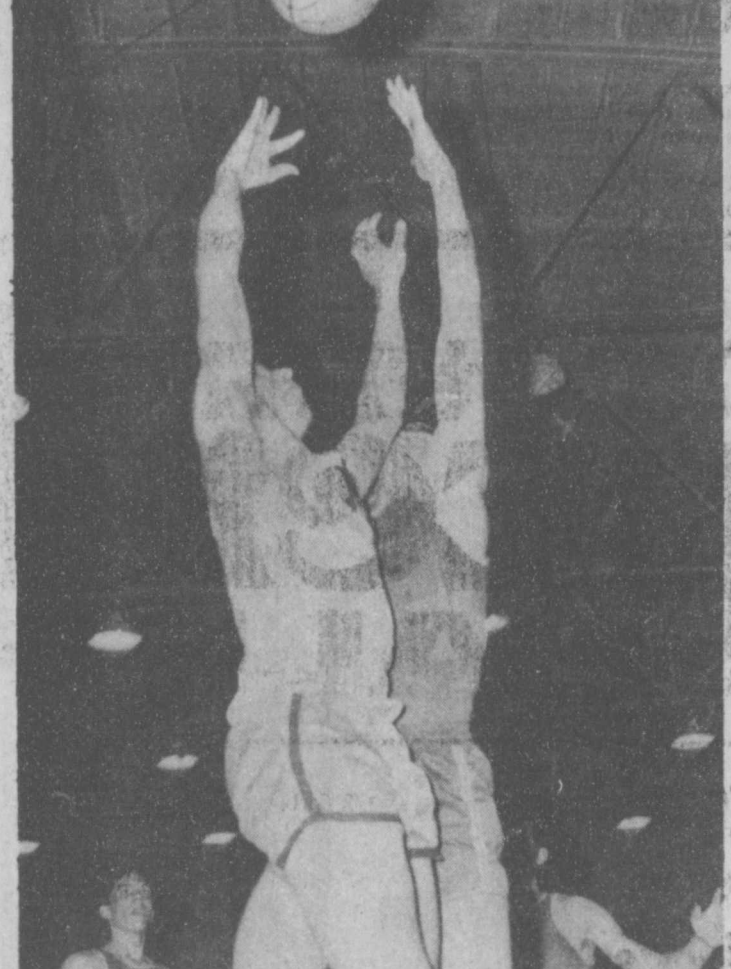

William Ayers ran the one mile run in 4:57.4.

In the High Jump where Kafer set the meet record Willie Knox also turned in a good early season performance with a 5-8.

The Hornets failed to score points in the 880 yard dash, 440 yard dash, mile relay, broad jump, shot put, discus and intermediate hurdles.

Coach Jack Moss and Track Coach James Christopher agreed this week that work on distance runners and quarter milers along with weight men need work. The Coaches noted that the potential for improvement exist in all events where points were not scored.

The Hornets returned from Taylor with a new found confidence which was very obvious in workouts this week. Runners field men and coaches all worked out this week a new spirit.

Paul Young fires a jump shot with a Priddy defensive player right on top. The entire Bi-District game featured outstanding defensive plays by both squads. Young was the only Eagle to score a field goal in each quarter of the contest.

...Eagles

Sommerfeld committed his fourth foul and Priddy hit one free throw 38 to 36.

A tie ball went to Priddy and a jump shot tied the game at 38-38 with 27 seconds to play.

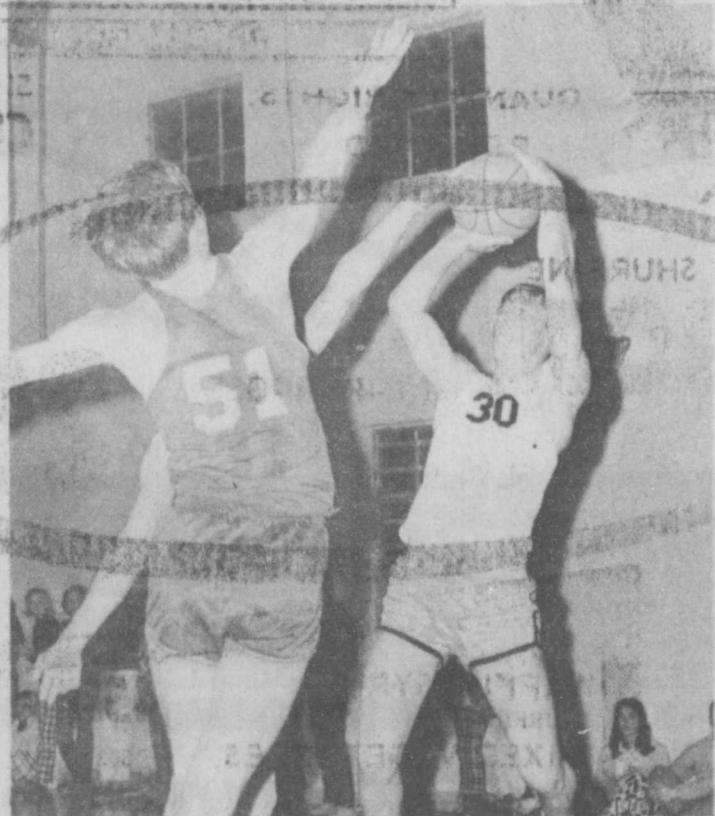

The Eagles drove down and a long pass to Patterson under the goal seemed like a sure two pointer. Patterson went up but missed. He rebounded his shot and went up from directly under the basket and got the two points.

With about 13 seconds to play Priddy moved down and shot. Young rebounded and passed to Sommerfeld.

A Priddy play stole the ball with two seconds to play and moved in for a lay up one second after the bell sounded.

The Eagle victory puts them into the Region 2B Tournament in Stephenville Friday and Saturday. Coach Bill Dyer expects to face Huckaby, Coperal, Prock or one of four unknown teams in the first round Friday.

Scoring for the Eagles was lead by Mike Meis with 5-3-13, Paul Young 4-3-11; Dale Sommerfeld 2-3-7; Delbert Ramsey 1-3-5; Dean Patterson and Ray Martin 2-0-2.

Dale Sommerfeld, No. 30, found defenders with four arms a regular thing against Priddy. Here two players jump to defend a Sommerfeld shot late in the fourth quarter. Sommerfeld scored seven points for the game well below his season average of 22 points per game.

Two Accidents Reported Monday

Two accidents were reported by DPS officers Monday.

The first mishap occurred on Farm Road 182 near Turnersville at about 10:45 a.m., when an auto driven by Carl Samuel Zerinque of Waco crossed the center stripe as he rounded a curve on the rain-slick highway and struck the rear of a pickup.

Driver of the pickup truck was Tony Zapata of Gatesville. Zerinque and Zapata were uninjured in the crash. Damages were set at $200 to the Zerinque auto and $20 to the pickup truck. Charges of driving in the wrong side of the road and not passing were filed against Zerinque.

Two Gatesville men escaped serious injury in a one-car accident Monday night on rain-slick highway 36 in Fort Hood.

The mishap occurred at about 6:45 p.m. when Ronnie Wade Dyer, 20, of Gatesville lost control of the Plymouth Road-runner he was driving and slid off of the roadway. The auto proceeded through the east bar ditch and struck a concrete culvert. The impact forced the car into the air and it came to rest in the parking lot of the North Fort Hood Chapel.

The driver and occupant Bobbie Don Stubblefield were taken to Coryell Memorial Hospital for emergency treatment and released. The auto was totaled

Out of Bounds

The Hornets are fast becoming a contender for the District 13AAA Track Championship. The team finished third behind Marlin and Belton at the Cotton Boll Relays in Taylor this week end. The only District team not on hand for the meet was Lockhart.

Coach Moss contacted the Head Track Coach at Amarillo this week for some tips on how to improve his quarter-miler's times.

Time will tell on the training program but coaches have begun speed training and time running. The speed training includes a series of 110 yard dashes down wind. Coaches note that the 110's teach the sprinters to race all out for the entire race. The time running is a New Zealand method of training where the athlete runs longer and longer lengths of time instead of repeated runs of specific distances.

At Amarillo the distance men are now running for an hour and a half. Coach Moss noted that this is not a jog but a run.

Hornet Distance men started Tuesday running for 35 minutes and Coach Elliot noted that after the Tuesday 35 minute run 880 yard runner, John Booker did not even breath heavy. Elliot expects Booker to pick up points as the season progresses.

Mrs. Lynda Hill, Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Johnson, San Antonio, Duke Patterson, Fort Worth, J.D. Patterson, Grand Prairie, Mrs. Bertha Patterson, Hico. Porter Hargis and daughter Glenda were with Ozella most of her stay in Scott and White, about five weeks and remained to visit with Jay and help him.

Ozella had retired from her loved vocation, teaching school, two years ago, after having given 43 years of service, teaching at Amity, Jonesboro, Hubbard, Osage, Sweet Home, Pearl, and Fairy. Then she worked with the Veterans Administration school lunch program, was a food supervisor in a service club at North Fort Hood for two years.

Following World War II, she instructed Veterans families in Home Economics, helping them re-establish their homes and later worked for the Red Cross. She then taught at Meadows Elementary School at Killeen for ten years.

She held a B.S. Degree from North Texas University, Denton, and a M.A. Degree from Baylor University, Waco, working for them during the summer months, taking extension courses and correspondent courses.

In knowing Ozella one realizes she loved her teaching and enjoyed her students. A poem which can be applied to her and her life is The Builder, or The Teacher.

Poem

An old man going a lone high way
Came at evening, cold and gray,
To a chasm, vast and deep and wide,

The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
The swollen stream had no fears for him,
But he turned, when safe on the other side,

To build a bridge to span the tide,
"Old Man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
You are wasting your time in building here,

You never again will pass this way,
Your journey will end with the closing day,
You have crossed the chasm, deep and wide,

Why build you this bridge at even-tide?
The builder lifted his old gray head
"Good Friend, in the way I've come", he said,

"There followeth after me to-day,
A youth, whose feet must pass this way,
This stream that has been as naught to me,
To the fair haired youth might a pit fall be,
He too, must cross in the twilight dim,
Good Friend, I am building this bridge for him."
