Wilcox Repeat Grid Winner

WHEN WILL OUR criminal justice system's pendulum begin to swing back from granting the criminals all of the rights and more toward giving everyone, including crime victims, an equal share of justice?

Last month, the Panhandle area was once again frustrated when a federal district judge ordered a stay of execution for Jimmy Paul Vanderbilt, who had been convicted twice in the murder of Katina Moyer of Amarillo in 1975.

We're not talking about just one expensive trial, but two—all due to the appeals system. In both cases, a jury of 12 people found Vanderbilt guilty of murder, and sentenced him to death.

Not only that, but the taxpayers of the state of Texas have had to provide Vanderbilt with room and board as an inmate at Huntsville, for most of the past 15 years. And lest you forget, it costs the state's taxpayers roughly $100,000 per year to house an inmate on death row in the state penitentiary.

This week, another murderer had his execution put on hold for the 1984 rape-slaying of an 80-year-old woman at Amherst.

State District Judge Pat Boone, Jr., who is the former district judge for Parmer County, indicated that he had to grant a stay of execution because of time constraints (based on when the motion was filed).

Parmer County District Attorney Johnny Atkinson says it makes him "mad and very frustrated" to see these types of legal action being taken.

"Our only avenue is to vote those judges out of office," says Atkinson. However, federal district judges, such as William Wayne Justice, are appointed, so the voters don't have any recourse on their decisions.

Justice, whom many voters wish would occasionally make an attempt to live up to his name implications, is the judge who ordered the stay of execution for Vanderbilt last month.

Atkinson says that the U.S. Supreme Court, which once was ultra-liberal, now has a conservative majority and its recent decisions have been in favor of the state and against the criminals, which is an encouraging sign.

However, the Parmer County prosecutor says that at the present time, we have a very liberal Texas Supreme Court. In this case, voters could eventually make some changes, except that when it gets down to that spot on the general election ballot, these races draw very little interest. Voters need to keep themselves a scorecard on items of this nature, so that the next time an election comes around, they will know who they plan to vote for, and who they don't.

This practice of overturning decisions doesn't exempt Parmer County, either.

A couple of years ago, Bovina City Marshall Gary Coleman was shot while attempting to make a late-night arrest. The perpetrator of the shooting was arrested, tried, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced.

However, the Court of Criminal Appeals sent the case back to Parmer County. Again the court went through its proceedings, and again the suspect pleaded guilty. The case is still in question.

In this situation, the state (which interpreted is the individual taxpayers) has to pay the court expenses for bringing such criminals back to trial.

"This guy just wanted to plead guilty and get it over with. This (overturning decisions by the state) doesn't make any sense at all," the district attorney said.

And it makes even less sense to those of us who don't profess to know a lot about the law, but have to pay its bills.

UNCLE AUSTIN SAYS: It is a man's inalienable right to make a fool of himself, but he should not use up all his privilege at one time.

Terry Wilcox became a two-time winner in the Friona Star football contest for last week, after picking through a mine-field of upsets and scoring 16 correct out of the 20-game slate.

In a week when the average score was 11, Wilcox, Wayne Amstutz of Hereford and Don Gartin of Lariat rose to the challenge with scores of 16.

Wilcox claimed the weekly top prize on the tie-breaker system, missing the Dallas-New York Giants' score by only seven points. He picked the Cowboys to win, 24-20, and the score was 21-16. He had won the first week of the contest earlier.

Amstutz missed the tie-breaker by nine points, picking Dallas to win, 17-9, and Gartin was 19 points away, after choosing the Giants, 21-7.

Wilcox missed Childress-Randall, Texas Tech-TCU, Colorado-Stanford and Miami-New York Jets. He received $10 cash.

Amstutz missed Bovina-Plains, Colorado-Stanford, Dolphins-Jets and Patriots-Cardinals. He received $7.50.

Gartin missed Floydada-Canyon, Littlefield-Denver City, Michigan-Florida State and Minnesota-Denver. He received $5.00 cash.

Eight contestants had scores of 15, missing by just a point at having a shot at one of the weekly cash prizes. They were Johnny Rodri-guez, Ron Smiley, Cory Hamilton, Randi Burkart, Ken Stowers, Charlie Morgan, Laura Field and Jo Blackwell.

Fifteen other contestants had good scores of 14: Alan Monroe, Wade Hinkle, Cindy Carthel, John Seright, Jimmie Chapman, Tom Johnson, Don Spring, Ted Procter, David George, Martha Clements, Kent Patterson, Jeremy Bentley, Jackie Morgan, Don Max Vars, and Mark Blankenship.

In the race for grand prize, Jackie Morgan took over the lead with a score of 64. Amstutz' good week propelled him into a tie for second place with Bill Carter with scores of 62.

Bobby Wied, last week's leader, was a victim of the upset bug, and fell into a seven-way tie with Cindy Carthel, Gartin, Mal Manchee, Charlie Morgan, Seright and Vars for third place.

Scores of all the leading contestants can be found elsewhere in this issue.

Contestants are vying for the grand prize of $100 to be awarded at the conclusion of the event.

Local Gin Honored By Cotton Board

MEMPHIS, TN.—Recently, 549 gins, representing 4,643,082 bales of U.S. Upland cotton, received the Cotton Board's Distinguished Service Award for the 1990-91 crop year.

The Distinguished Service Award honors cotton gins which achieve above 80 per cent grower participation in the Cotton Research and Promotion Program, says William H. McCoy, Jr., an Oswego, SC, cotton producer who is current chairman of the Cotton Board.

Ten of the 549 gins have 100 per cent grower participation, and 37 are first-time recipients of the award.

Among the gins honored in this area was Friona Farmers Co-op Gin.

Commodity Distribution Cancelled

Panhandle Community Services has notified Parmer County Commissioner's Court that there will be no commodity distribution for the month of October.

The only items that were available for October would have been surplus butter and rice, and these will be added to the next distribution, which is scheduled for December.

School Sets Dismissal

Friona schools will dismiss at 2:45 p.m. on Friday, October 11, it was announced this week.

"The early dismissal will help the band make the trip," said Superintendent Hal Ratcliff.

motion Program is at a crossroads this year," McCoy says. "These gins will be the last recipients of our Distinguished Service Award because the recent successful producer referendum changed the funding system of the program from a voluntary assessment to a uniform assessment."

"With this award, the Cotton Board says 'Thank You' to the ginners and growers who have shown outstanding support for the Cotton Research and Promotion Program this past year," McCoy says. "Without their help, Cotton, Incorporated could not conduct the national advertising campaigns which keep cotton in front of the consumer public, nor could Cotton, Incorporated do the extensive research and product development which keeps cotton competitive."

The Cotton Reseach and Promotion Program, established by congressional act in 1966, is conducted by Cotton, Incorporated. The Cotton Board, also created by the Cotton Research and Promotion Act of 1966, administers the program's funds and contracts with Cotton, Incorporated to conduct the program.

TAAS Test Scheduled

The Texas Assessment of Academic Skills (TAAS) will be administered to Friona students in grades 3, 5, 7, 9 and 11, on October 8, 9 and 10.

The T.A.A.S. test is a statewide assessment that measures math, reading and writing skills. Mastery at the eleventh grade level is a requirement for graduation. The test date is useful in identifying individual strengths and weaknesses as well as targeting curriculum modifications.

The Friona I.S.D. faculty has prepared the students for a positive experience; however, for students to perform at their maximum potential, they will need a good night's sleep and a nutritious breakfast. Attendance is crucial because this will be the only administration of the test.

Redistricting Plan Okayed By Court

The Parmer County Commissioners Court adopted a plan for redistricting the County Commissioners precincts, and made changes in the election precincts and Justice of the Peace and constable precincts at a called meeting of the court on September 23.

The changes are spelled out in a legal notice being published on pages 2-3, section two of this issue.

Notable changes included changes in location of some polling places.

Two long-time polling places, those which have served the Black and Lakeview communities, have been abolished. Voters who previously voted at these rural polling places will, after January 1, cast their ballots at Calvary Baptist Church in Friona.

Polling place #101 is the consolidation of old Election Precinct numbers 2-1, 1 and 8. The poll number 101 was chosen to coincide with Commissioner Precinct 1. Old polling place 1, located at the Black Elevator or Hamilton residence, and polling place 8, located at the Dee Willard residence at Lakeview, have been eliminated in order to provide secrecy of balloting and for voter convenience. The new polling place is Calvary Baptist

Chamber To Sponsor Carnival

The Chamber of Commerce will be sponsoring a Halloween Carnival at the Community Center, it was announced this week.

Any interested club, organization or group is invited to participate in this event for the children of the community by having a game booth or activity at the carnival. Call the Chamber office for more details.

PA Benefit Dance Set October 5

A benefit dance will be held at the Friona Community Center on Saturday, October 5 from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. with proceeds going to assist Prairie Acres, the local nursing home.

Music will be performed by the Carria Band. Advance tickets will be $4.00 each and tickets at the door will be $5.00 each.

For more information, call Prairie Acres at 247-3922 or call Brenda De La Paz at 247-2519.

Church on Cleveland Avenue in Friona.

Martha Hamilton, election judge for the old polling place #1 (Black community), said this week she felt the move was in order, and that it should not be an inconvenience to very many voters.

"Most people come into town anyway, and it's expensive to have these smaller voting boxes. I'm required to have two people help with the counting, and on the last (amendment) election, there were only three votes cast. How much counting do you need for three votes?" Mrs. Hamilton said.

Bovina's old polling place number three has been renamed as polling place 201, to coincide with Commissioner Precinct 2. This polling place remains in the EMS Building, formerly called the American Legion Hall, on Third Street in Bovina.

Polling place 202 was previously known as polling place 2-2. The new designation ties it into Commissioner's Precinct 2. This polling place remains in the Community Center in Friona.

Polling place 203 was previously known as polling place #7 or Rhea. It, too, is a part of Commissioner Precinct 2, and the polling place is the Rhea Community Center.

Polling place 301 was previously known as polling place #4. The 301 is to coincide with Commissioner Precinct 3. Polling site is the Community Center in Farwell.

Polling place 302 was previously known as polling place #6, or Oklahoma Lane. A part of Commissioner Precinct 3, its voting place will be in the Methodist Church at Oklahoma Lane.

Polling place 303 is a new polling place. It is a strip that includes part of the city of Bovina, and runs parallel with Highway 86 to Hub, then south, and is about five miles wide. Voters in this new polling place will be served by County Commissioner, Precinct 3, and the polling place will be Ridgelea Elementary School, 1000 Highway 86.

Polling place 401 is the old election precinct 5, or Lazbuddie. It was re-designated 401 to coincide with Commissioner Precinct 4. Polling place remains at the Lazbuddie School Building.

Polling place 402 was previously known as polling place #2. Its new designation coincides with Commissioner's Precinct 4, polling place #2. The polling site remains at the Friona Fire Station.

Additionally, the commissioner's court adopted the following changes in the Justice of the Peace and Constable precincts:

Justice of the Peace and Constable Precinct 1 is composed of Election Precincts 101, 202, 203 and 402; Justice of the Peace and Constable Precinct 2 is made up of Election Precincts 201 and 303; and JP and Constable Precinct 3 is composed of Election Precincts 301, 302 and 401.

Readers are urged to refer to the maps being included in the Parmer County legal notice in section two of this issue, which will have the new Election Precincts numbered.

New Federal Grant To Save Lives In Texas

A $3 million federal grant from the Centers for Disease Control will help the Texas Department of Health (TDH) screen low-income women over 40 years old for breast and cervical cancer. This is the first time the federal government has awarded funds to states for cancer screening.

"Breast cancer is the most common cancer among women, and the mortality rates for this type of cancer in Texas are highest among black women," said Charlene Laramie, director of the Chronic Disease Prevention Program at TDH. "Cervical cancer is the second most common cancer in women between the ages of 15 and 34 years old. Cervical cancer mortality rates are three times greater among black women and two times greater among Mexican-American women than among Anglo women.

We especially want to target those women over 40 who have ceased having children and probably aren't coming in for regular medical exams anymore." Women who are below 200 per cent of the federal poverty level and who do not have medical insurance or other third-party payment will qualify for the new services.

The grant for the first year is $3 million, with funding to be awarded year to year for five years depending on the availability of funds. All four states, including Texas, which were awarded funds are required to write a State Plan for Breast and Cervical Cancer Control.

For the first year of the new program, it is expected that 25-30 contracts will be awarded and that 15,000 women will be provided breast and/or cervical cancer screening services and appropriate follow-up. "That appropriate follow-up can include diagnostic mammograms, biopsies and other diagnostic procedures," explained Donna Nichols of the Chronic Disease Prevention Program.

"Mammograms and pap smears are state-of-the-art in detecting breast and cervical cancer, and the earlier the cancer is detected, the better the chance for a cure."

When the screening becomes available this fall, TDH and the contractors will alert women about where they can find these services nearest to their home town.

McMeans Visit Son In Washington, D.C.

By Joyce Gilbreath
Editor, Bovina Blade

Bob and June McMeans of Bovina recently returned from a trip to points of interest in Washington, D.C.

They left Amarillo September 4 and flew to Chicago. Their first stop at Chicago was the Sears Tower, which is the tallest building in the world. On a clear day from the 110-story height, you can see four states. They also visited the Museum of Natural History.

From Chicago, they took an Amtrak to Washington, D.C. and arrived on September 6. Their son, Stuart, met them at the Old Union Station. Among a few interesting points they visited were the Washington National Cathedral, Lincoln Monument and the Jefferson Memorial, also, the Air and Space Museum at the Smithsonian Institution.

June commented that the most impressive was the Vietnam Memorial. She said it was so shiny and so black that it reflects the image of the people passing by.

They went to the Capitol Building, where the House of Representatives is on the left wing and the Senate is located on the right wing. They went to the office of Representative Larry Combest to get passes into the Senate Gallery. The Senate was in session and they sat in on the speeches for over an hour.

While visiting the U.S. Mint, they saw where they print money and June said when they make an error in the printing, they just shred the money up, place it in little bags and sell it.

They bought tickets for a boat ride down the Potomac River. An hour down the river was the home of George Washington, called Mount Vernon. June related, "Any chance to get on a boat, Bob will take it."

Stuart took them to Quantico, Virginia, where the Marine I Helicopter is kept at a Marine base there.

They toured the Pentagon. Stuart's wife, Lt. Linda McMeans, works for the Chief of Naval Operations, at the Pentagon.

Stuart, who is a graduate of Bovina High School, is a Marine pilot and flies the Marine I Helicopter which transports President George Bush and other dignitaries on official business. June said they were fortunate to observe President Bush walk down the colonnade from the Oval Office onto the White House lawn and on the Marine I Helicopter.

Stuart also took them to the press room, where press conferences are held. They were permitted to take pictures in that area. On one occasion, an acquaintance of Stuart, Sean Walsh, (who is an assistant to Press Secretary Marlin Fitzwater), took them to the Oval Office. They were not allowed to enter the room, only to look inside. They were not permitted to take pictures in that particular area.

Bob and June left Washington, D.C., rented a car and drove to Detroit. While at Dearborn, Michigan, they went to the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village. The restored boyhood home of Henry Ford is located there.

There were all kinds of cars and even locomotives, also, a presidential limo used by John F. Kennedy. The Thomas Edison laboratory building and a boarding house that had the first electricity hooked up to it, was also part of the museum.

From Detroit, they flew home and arrived in Amarillo on September 20. Stuart and wife, Linda, live in Washington, D.C. within walking distance of the Capitol Building. June celebrated her birthday on September 15 with a steak dinner prepared by Stuart and Linda. Bob and June saw many interesting things in the areas they visited and June commented it was a most memorable trip.

SPS To Be Honored For Management, Leadership

Electrical World magazine honored SPS this Wednesday, October 2, as the national winner of its 1991 James H. McGraw Award for management and leadership.

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Bill Helton will accept the honor's commemorative medallion on behalf of all employees at a ceremony in New York City during the magazine's annual Executive Round Table of industry leaders.

The McGraw Award, named after the founder of the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, is presented annually for the purpose of giving public recognition and expressing industry appreciation of the contribution to the advancement of the electrical industry.

McGraw-Hill is the publisher of Electrical World, as well as other magazines, including Business Week.

In singling out SPS, Electrical World's Editor-In-Chief William Hayes said the award honors the company for:

*Effectively pursuing a policy of "dynamic conservatism" that has produced rate reductions in each of the last seven years.

*Gaining a rating of excellence in service from 97% of its customers as opposed to an industry average of 73%.

*Earning awards in two states for its economic development efforts (SPS actively participates in two economic development coalitions: The High Ground of Texas and the Business Quarter of New Mexico).

*Raising interest coverage to almost five times (a measure of how well the company controls debt).

*Winning EPA and national attention for its pioneering environmental efforts (such as SPS's development of air quality control equipment for power plants, conservation of fresh water, marketing of coal ash and other achievements).

Nominations are not solicited. Electrical World monitors the industry and selects appropriate winners. Last year's winner was Florida Power & Light Company.

Helton said the McGraw Award is recognition of the foresight and commitment of the company's former and present directors and management team; and the hard work, dedication and contributions of every employee.

"It's gratifying to be honored nationally," Helton said. "Every employee has a right to be proud of this major award."

Historians Offer New Approaches To Understanding Texas

By James F. Veninga

How a community defines itself is determined in part by how it understands its history.

Texas A&M University historians, Walter Buenger and Robert Calvert, tell us that the recording of a history is always a selective process, and the story that is told functions as a mythic text for a community. Historians are keepers of the culture, they argue, functioning much as the ancients used the spoken word to pass the mythic story of their society from generation to generation.

Contemporary scholars increasingly understand the extent to which past historians have been bound by their own cultural biases. In Texas, those biases have been considerable, resulting in a history of the state that for far too long focused on the pre-dominant Anglo myth, devoid of adequate reference to women, minorities and average citizens of all races.

C. Van Woodward estimates the shelf life of history to be about twenty years. After that time, new scholars have emerged to question the presumptions of previous historians.

Yet here in Texas, the giants of a previous time—George Garrison, Eugene Baker, Walter Prescott Webb, for example, continue to cast long shadows limiting perspectives on Texas history.

Unfortunately, traditional Texas history has all too often had negative consequences on the formation of public policy and on the relationship between the civic and political leadership of the state and the citizenry as a whole. A portrait of Texas shaped by 19th-century experience is hardly a guide to solve late 20th-century problems.

But this is changing. Buenger and Calvert believe that the myths of Texas are overdue for thinning and replanting. New trends in historical research and scholarship are helping us evaluate the past in new ways, such as those discussed in Texas Through Time, a collection of essays recently published by Texas A&M University Press and edited by Buenger and Calvert. The new social history has helped to recover the lost history of women, minorities and the non-elite. It has led to more emphasis on labor and economic history and on the history of our cities. And never before have historians borrowed so much from other disciplines—sociology, for instance. Thus, a truer, fuller, more inclusive portrait of Texas is emerging.

All this has raised expectations that we will be better prepared to address serious problems of the environment, to care for the disadvantaged, to improve public education, to make state government more efficient and effective, and to find new ways to help ensure sustained economic development.

This is the second in a series of eleven articles made available by the Texas Committee for the Humanities as part of a three-year project focusing on the future of Texas. James F. Veninga is executive director of the TCH.

Mammogram Clinic Is Set November 20

The Breast Cancer Screening Program of the Don and Sybil Harrington Cancer Center and High Plains Baptist Hospital of Amarillo will continue community outreach clinics for early detection of breast cancer.

A clinic will be held in Friona on Wednesday, November 20, from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Parmer County Community Hospital. Exams are done by appointment only. For information about the clinic or to make an appointment, please call the Harrington Cancer Center (806) 359-4673, or our toll free number 1-800-274-HOPE (4673). Locally, for more information, contact Elda Hart at 247-2754.

Funding is available through the Texas Cancer Council for screening mammography for Texas residents qualifying for financial assistance.

Early detection of breast cancer is the major goal of cancer control for each woman seen in the clinic. The clinic provides low cost screening which includes a breast exam by a Registered Nurse trained in breast cancer detection, teaching of breast self examination, and a mammogram.

Currently, the most effective method known to win the battle against breast cancer is early detection. Early detection is best done by following the guidelines recommended by the American Cancer Society for breast cancer screening for women who have no signs or symptoms of breast cancer.

The guidelines are: (1) Learn and perform breast self examination every month; (2) Have a physical examination every year; (3) Have a mammogram according to the recommendations by age. Age 35-40, one baseline mammogram; 40-50, a mammogram every 1-2 years; over 50, yearly mammograms.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

CONCUBINES, THE SAME AS HARLOTS? ...NO!

WESTERN CIVILIZATION HAS VIEWED A MAN'S CONCUBINE ON THE SAME LEVEL AS A PROSTITUTE—BUT NOT SO IN EARLY HEBREW SOCIETY! LARGE FAMILIES WERE ESSENTIAL FOR ECONOMICAL SECURITY AND POLYGAMY WAS COMMON. IN THOSE DAYS, A MARRIAGE CONTRACT AFFORDED THE HUSBAND-TO-BE A GENEROUS DOWRY FROM THE BRIDE'S FATHER—BUT THE HEBREW MAIDEN WHOSE FATHER WAS TOO POOR TO GIVE A DOWRY COULD BE A MAN'S WIFE IF HE PAID HER FATHER A SUM OF MONEY, THUS SHE ENTERED HIS HOUSE WITHOUT MARRIAGE CONTRACT AS A SECONDARY WIFE (CONCUBINE), BUT EVEN SO HER RIGHTS WERE PROTECTED BY LAW (DEUT. 21:10-14) AND HER CHILDREN HAD EQUAL RIGHTS WITH THE CHILDREN OF THEIR FATHER'S WIFE BY MARRIAGE!

USUALLY, HEBREW WOMEN EXPOSED THEIR FACES, ONLY HARLOTS VEILED THEIR FACES—SO THEY WOULD NOT BE RECOGNIZED AS THEY FLIED THEIR TRADE!

THE FIRST WIFE RULED THE HOUSEHOLD, ALL OTHER WIVES OR CONCUBINES WERE UNDER HER DOMINION!

NEVERTHELESS, EVEN THE OLD TESTAMENT POINTED TOWARD MONOGAMY. MOSAIC LAW (DEUT. 17:17) FORBIDS A KING "...TO MULTIPLY WIVES." HOSEA PREACHED MONOGAMY, MALACHI ADMIRES A HUSBAND'S LOYALTY TO THE "WIFE OF HIS YOUTH (2:14ff) AND LO, BY NEW TESTAMENT TIMES, A JEWISH HUSBAND USUALLY TOOK BUT ONE WIFE!

NEXT WEEK: LOT'S WIFE—SALT OR NOT?

Wolves Slaughter Chieftains, 44-7

The Friona Chieftains' homecoming game against Dalhart last Friday was another frustrating experience for the team, which lost their fourth straight game, 44-7.

After the Chieftains had rallied to trail the Wolves, 12-7 with 2:02 left in the first half, they watched the game unravel before their eyes, as the visitors scored two quick touchdowns for a 24-7 halftime lead, then in a nightmarish third quarter, Dalhart added three more TDs in the first 4:48 of clock time, and quickly had a blow-out lead.

Virtually all of Dalhart's scores came on quick strikes. Fans were just settling in their seats when speedy James Harris burst up the middle for 55 yards. Two kick tries failed, but Dalhart had the lead at 6-0 with only 1:44 elapsed in the first quarter.

Friona fans thought the Chieftains should have been awarded two points on the Wolves' second conversion try, as the kick was blocked and Scott Houston scooped up the ball and ran it to the other end of the field. In most cases that would have been two points for the defensive team, but an official across the field ruled that he had blown his whistle to stop the play.

As if Dalhart's heads-up play would not be enough on this given night, that set the tone for plays in which the officials were involved, from Friona's standpoint.

Early in the second quarter, Friona was backed up to its seven-yard line by a Dalhart punt. Brian Herring let a Blair Burney pass fall incomplete, and Friona faced a punting situation. The snap was high, and Julian Colunga, in his end zone, paused just a second, and Dalhart had covered the ball for a touchdown. That brought the score to 12-0.

The Chieftains thought they had blocked a Dalhart punt a little later, but officials ruled roughing the kicker. So the Chiefs held on three more plays, and Brandon Renner burst through to get a definite block on the punt, picked up the ball and ran it in for a Friona touchdown. Britt Conklin came in to kick the point, and the score became 12-7 with 2:02 left in the half.

That gave the large Homecoming crowd renewed hope—but what happened in the next two minutes took some of the edge off their enthusiasm.

A 57-yard pass play to Harris moved the ball to the Friona 20, and two plays later, the speedy Dalhart runningback charged around right end to make the score 18-7. The Wolves tried to run their 330-pound lineman, John Medford, for a two-pointer, but the Chieftain defense managed to stop the "refrigerator" short.

Trying to get something on the board, Friona took to the air in the final minute, and it proved to be a mistake. Harris stepped in front of the would-be Chieftain receiver, intercepted Burney's pass and loped into the end zone for his third touchdown of the half. Although the two-point try again was foiled, Dalhart had built a 24-7 halftime edge.

And if the Chieftain faithful were hoping for a comeback in the second half, their hopes were soon dashed by an unlikely turn of events in the third quarter.

Dalhart received the second half kickoff, and nominated Harris to return it. It took the 170-pounder 13 seconds to race 85 yards with the kick, and the score quickly was 30-0, as again the Chieftains were able to block the PAT kick.

What followed in the next few minutes could not have been predicted for Friona's "worst case scenario."

Dalhart raced downfield to recover the high kickoff, and five plays later were in the end zone for a 36-7 lead. A high snap foiled this kick try. Only 2:41 had elapsed in the third quarter, but the nightmare wasn't over for Friona.

Another high floating kickoff went near the sideline, and twice in a row the Wolves got to the ball before a Chieftain could recover it.

Six plays later, Harris scored his fifth touchdown of the night—if not a record, a darned good average—and Dalhart had padded its lead to 44-7.

Friona didn't complete its first pass until the fourth quarter and had only two completions for eight yards for what had been gaining as a potent passing attack.

Ismael Rocha gained 86 yards in 19 tries, and Curtis Brady 63 in 13 rushes. Gavin Ellis had a pass interception for the Chiefs in the first half, or else the score might have been even worse.

Amendment 1

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

Imagine if you had to seek permission from the government when you wanted to distribute a petition, give a speech, or report the truth about events in your community. Even if you wanted to write a simple newsletter for your club or church. That's the way it's done in many countries, but not ours.

During National Newspaper Week, we are joining with newspapers across the nation to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the United States Bill of Rights. And we especially cherish the freedom to say what we think. Freedom to report the truth. Freedom to be free!

County Director Told For Spelling Bee

For the 44th year the Amarillo Globe-News will sponsor the National Spelling Bee for students in grades eight and below.

Joining the newspaper in this educational program is West Texas State University, Canyon. And, serving as bee coordinator for the newspaper is Gene Parker, office of career planning and placement. He has held this position since 1975 when the university joined the Globe-News as a co-sponsor.

The area assigned the two sponsors covers 37 counties in the Texas Panhandle, parts of New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Rules established by the national sponsors, the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, state that no student in a grade higher than the eighth or older than 16 by the end of the current school term may compete. The bee is open to any student in a public, private or parochial school. Directors in each of the counties are responsible for scheduling their own county eliminations.

There are two levels of competition: the Junior Bee is for students in the fifth and lower grades; the Senior Bee is open to students primarily in grades six through eight; however, some directors in the small areas combine the two levels of competition.

Each county junior winner and each county senior winner will be guests of the sponsors on April 11, 1992--the date of the Regional Bee to be held on the WTSU campus. The winner in that competition will represent the sponsors in the 1992 National Bee in Washington, D.C., beginning on May 25. The trip includes free airline tickets for the champion and one parent.

Each champion honored in Amarillo will be given special awards.

The director in Parmer County is Valli Welch, new principal at Lazbuddie Elementary School.

Any interested student or teacher should contact the director for additional information. Or, contact Jeane Bartlett, Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, Box 2091, Amarillo, Texas.

In most counties, students use the booklet prepared by the national sponsors, "Words of the Champions." This booklet is available from Mrs. Bartlett for only 50 cents each and may be ordered by contacting her at the newspaper, Box 2091, Amarillo, Texas, 79166. The new 1992 issue will contain more than 500 new words over the previous year's issue.

"I encourage all students to take part in this outstanding program," Parker said. "It is a wonderful opportunity, as well as a learning experience and those of us at WTSU who are involved in the program are pleased that we may recognize those students who excel."

YOUR EYES

TOGETHERNESS

Good vision depends on both eyes working together as a team. Each one must see clearly, of course, but it's equally necessary that both eyes be able to focus on the same object at the same time. For most of us, this togetherness is automatic. It happens quickly and easily. But if the eyes are not working well together, the result may be double vision. Sometimes the individual must overwork muscles trying to get the eyes to aim at the same object simultaneously, or conscious or unconsciously block out the image seen by one eye. When the eyes don't work together, the brain gets confused about what it sees. Corrective lenses and vision training can bring success in correcting this problem. Your optometrist may use either or both. After careful examination, lenses to correct nearsightedness or farsightedness may be prescribed. If indicated, a prism may be used to alter the image the eye sees. Vision training exercises will be taught in the optometrist's office so you'll be able to do them on your own at home.

FINANCIAL FOCUS

BY IKE STEVENS

Edward D. Jones & Co. (See Related Adv.)

Check Your Insurance Company For Financial Stability

Insurance is typically purchased for financial protection, for example, preserving family income in the event of death or guaranteeing life income after retirement. In either case, insurance is a long-term commitment that demands a financially strong and stable insurance company. Your top priority, therefore, should be to select the proper insurance company.

Insurance companies are rated by independent sources that report on financial strength and stability. These ratings can be very helpful as you make your insurance selection.

One of the most well-known independent insurance raters is A.M. Best Company. The four factors A.M. Best considers in its ratings are (1) capital and surplus, (2) control of expenses, (3) adequate reserves, and (4) sound investments. Best's highest rating is A+ (superior). Other ratings include: A, A- (excellent); B+, B (very good); B- (good); C+ (fairly good), and C, C- (fair). Cautious investors generally choose an insurance company within the top two ratings.

Standard & Poor's, another rating agency, relies heavily on a company's claims-paying ability when determining a rating. The S&P ratings reflect the insurance company's ability to meet its contractual obligations as set forth under the terms of its insurance and annuity contracts. S&P's highest ratings are AAA, AA+, AA, AA-. The AA ratings indicate a strong capacity to pay interest and repay principal.

Like S&P, Moody's rates insurance companies based on claims-paying ability. Its top rating is Aaa. The slightly lower ratings of Aa1, Aa2 and Aa3 indicate companies judged to be high-grade. Only a slim margin exists between the Aaa ratings.

Duff and Phelps also analyzes the claims-paying ability of insurance companies. Its highest rating, AAA, means risk factors are negligible. Some of the key factors Duff and Phelps considers include (1) the company's capital base, (2) a low operating leverage, (3) high-quality investment portfolio, and (4) recovery of statutory profitability.

Although an insurance company's rating is a reliable way to judge its financial stability, it is subject to change. Ratings are evaluated periodically and are often adjusted. Knowing the current rating of your insurance company should be part of an annual financial review.

Don't assume that because an insurance company is operating within the laws of your state that you are safe. Make sure you obtain the current rating of your insurance company. Understand what the rating means and how safe the insurance company is. Insurance protection is too important to your financial security to ignore the stability of the company you are paying to protect you.
