NUMBER 45

HERE IN HICO

By E. V. M.

Ridiculous! Fantastic! You name it, and that's the forthcoming Senate election. Imagine seventy-one candidates for one office, with perhaps five or six without a man's chance in Russia.

Office is a good job, but you have so many candidates it's confusing to the voters everyone else connected with the elections.

State should let this be a and take necessary steps to such a re-occurrence of the thing in the future. In the case, the $50 filing fee is so most of the blame for the number of candidates should directly to it. You can get your name on a count for justice of the peace or paltry sum.

Year's primary in Hamilton county for instance the fee for the average office was more than $200, which points to the need of some being made in our laws.

Fee for the Senate office have been, say $2500-$1500 at least—you would have probably only a dozen or so candidates in the race. The job pays of $25,000, a year and the in itself is enough to attract enough qualified candidates to the race interesting and people a choice.

for kicks, we're going to a complete list of the candidates and their occupations, as in this space several pages when only two dozen names had filed. For what's worth, you can forget all of them but maybe a dozen. But in case you vote for a darkhorse, here

AQUA-VERSARY

Life magazine, newsreels and newspaper headlines across the country carried the story of their unique marriage which stemmed from an under-water romance as performers in the well known Aquarena Submarine Theatre Shows.

This scene shows the Smiths during a rather spectacular celebration of their seventh wedding anniversary. All four little and big Smiths went "down under" for an appearance at the Submarine Theatre.

Carlton, March 8.—If unpredictable March weather stays moderate during Public School Week, Carlton hopes to have 250 visitors during the week. This would be considerable more than any previous period. Everyone interested in what the school is doing and in ways of improving our education system will visit a Texas School during this week.

The teachers and other school employees look forward to this time each year, because they are proud of their efforts in making the school system better. We want you to see the school facilities and how they are being used in making responsible, capable citizens of our children. ## CLAIRETTE

By MRS. LUCILE MAYFIELD

The March winds started howling over the hills and valleys around here last Thursday and blew hard Sunday.

Mrs. Zenith Johnson was hostess of the Busy Bee Club last Thursday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock. After roll call and business, two contest games were played. Prizes went to Mrs. Maida Christian. The members also worked on quilts. The next meeting will be with Nola Lee March 16.

The quilt made by the Busy Bee Club to raise money for the cemetery is on display at Thompson's Station. Stop by and see the pretty quilt and leave your contributions for the cemetery.

This correspondent is a member of the cemetery committee, and looked over the cemetery last week. From the way the weeds are growing it will not be long until we will have to burn them down.

Mrs. Zena Havens returned home last week after spending several days at Killen with her daughter, Mrs. Florine Wheeler and Richard.

A chicken supper is scheduled Tuesday night, March 7 at the Hico school lunchroom for the boy's basketball team. Their mothers are sponsoring the supper.

Mrs. Etta Whiteside and Charlie Dowdy were dinner guests Sunday in Waco with Mr. and Mrs. Truman Loden and family.

The peach trees and elms are budding out and the next few days they should be in full bloom. Nothing like spring when new life is starting all around us.

Mrs. Elwanda Duncan and children of Fort Worth spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mayfield and Mitch.

We are glad that Bro. McGuire is improving some. He has been a patient in the Stephenville Hospital several days.

A thought for the day: "It is far better to keep one's mouth shut and be thought dumb than to open it and remove all doubt."

March 1-31 is Red Cross month. March 2, April 2 is the annual Easter Seal campaign to raise funds for care, treatment and rehabilitation of crippled children and adults.

Howard Payne Professor Lectures at Carlton One Day Last Week

Carlton, March 8.—It was a marvelous experience to hear Dr. Leonard R. Daniel, Professor of Chemistry and Head of Department of Howard Payne College, lecture on the part chemistry was playing and would play in different areas of our lives. Carlton school was happy to have Dr. Daniel for the complete day.

In the Vocational Agriculture II Class, Dr. Daniel discussed the newest uses of chemicals in feeds, fertilizers and insecticides; and ended by asking how they were applied and their results. The highlight of his experience in a public school was his rescue from the Seventh and Eighth Grade Class in Science so that everyone would not miss their dinner.

In Algebra I Class he was discussing the different number systems of which our base ten is only one. For instance he put a number system on the board in which 4 plus 4 is eight, but 8 plus 8 is four Members of the local FFA Chapter have been in Houston the last week participating in dairy and livestock competition, scramble contests, livestock sales, and judging contests.

The first boys to leave for the show were those participating in the FFA Scramble held Saturday morning, Feb. 25. Six boys went for the contest. Two boys, Butch Knudson and Mike Lowe were sure of places in the scramble. Tommy Donley, Bill Rutledge, Morris Samford and Floyd Hyles were alternates and had chances of scrambling. Bill Rutledge, who was first alternate, joined Butch and Mike in the scramble, and Mike was the only Hico boy to catch a calf. He was first out of 30 boys to catch a calf. He received a $150 certificate to buy a calf, which he is required to take back to the Houston Show next year and enter in competition.

Edwin Shannon and Butch Knudson had livestock in the dairy and beef cattle divisions. Both made good showings, and Edwin's Holstein heifer won 2nd place in her class. The 1st place heifer in the class was Reserve Champion of the show.

Saturday morning, March 4, six local members participated in dairy and livestock judging contests. Those participating were Harry Brown, Freddie Naul, Ronnie Nachtigall, Edwin Shannon, Don Jernigan and Butch Knudson.

About 1 p.m. Saturday it was learned that Harry Brown was among the top individual judges in the show with a score of 268 out of a possible 300 points. He received a $200 certificate as a prize. He is to buy a dairy heifer which he is required to take back and show next year.

Saturday afternoon Butch Knudson sold three of his heifers in the Texas Shorthorn Lasso Sale. He also bought two more head from R. E. Smith Ranch.

All the boys gained valuable information and experience in the show, which was one of the most well-organized shows of this season.

TATTLE

I'm back but I don't know for how long. I've heard some kids talking about me. They are confused. Hee! Hee!

I was at one corner in the wall when I heard some people talking about a short fat sophomore who had gotten shot. I was wondering if they would close school for his funeral when I discovered it was only a shot in the leg. Too bad B. R. Take more careful aim next time. D. J. is a pretty big target—as long as he isn't sideways. I figured D. J. would be laid up for a while but he was soon back to school flirting and getting sympathy. He even went to Houston Friday for the Livestock Show.

One of the other spirits told me he heard some fair Hico students talking about old M. A. again. That last date that she had with the youngest nephew was not quite as private as it could have been. In fact the roads are getting very crowded, aren't they H. H.

I heard someone talking about Junior Play. They had been interrupting my sleep every night last week but from all I hear it was worth it. There sure was a crowd here Friday night and some Thursday night too. That Grampa was a real scream. Yes he reminded me of my—oh, but you wouldn't be interested in that.

I heard Mr. Barnett coming full steam the other day and it certainly cleared the halls in a hurry. He was getting up a full head of steam about the lovely initials in the library table. All the spirits got together and decided to be on the lookout for the skunk.

What's the matter D.R.?—Get your Booth's mixed up?

A lot of the teachers have been sick lately. If you want tell I'll tell you what happened. Some of the kids got tired of some teachers butting in the lunch line so they sneezed on their food. Pretty good, huh?

Well I'm just about out of newsy news so I'll sign off for another week. Just remember: I hear and I tattle!

SPOTLIGHT

Friday night I ventured up to the auditorium to see the Junior play and saw that the auditorium was crammed. The couples I saw there were Sheila P. and Melton L.; Linda P. and Harlon K.; Kathy H. and Harold H.; Mitchell H. and Carol C.; Nelda W. and Jimmie H.

I think everyone decided to stay at home this week end because I only spotted a few couples. Saturday night couples were Kay Y. and Billy B.; Anita M. and Kenneth S.; Linda P. and Harlon K.; Sheila P. and Melton L.

Had a visitor? Been some place? Then call in your news items each week.

COUNTY AGENT REPORTS

By E. R. LAWRENCE

Floyd Green, Pecan Wells, was in last week and I helped him get some graft wood off some pecan trees around here. He has a pecan bottom that he has been working for a number of years and he is doing all the grafting of improved varieties.

Floyd says he can not get as good results from budding as he can grafting, so he likes to graft better. He plans to work up the graft wood, put it into small bundles then down in his ice box until time to use.

In grafting, dormant wood is grafted onto the tree after it has come out in the spring. Budding is done any time the bark will slip and can be done with buds that have been on cold storage or later in the year when buds are taken directly from a tree.

Jack Witton, the trapper employed by the Wolf Club has been pretty successful so far. Weather conditions have prevented him from getting out his traps like he wants to.

Nevertheless he has caught three wolves so far. Those who need his services are asked by the club to list their names and address on the pad hanging on my door.

Jack says he will get to you as soon as he can.

Otto Pflueger, Rt. 1, Hamilton, is working a pretty good idea on his home orchard. Otto has an orchard that has some old trees in it. For the last few years some of the trees have begun to die. As they die, Otto sets a few young trees then removes the old ones. His orchard now has trees that are years apart in age. Some are ten to twelve years old, some three or four, some two or three and some just put out this winter. I think this is a pretty good idea as it should keep an orchard in continuous production. Generally as has enough fruit each year to supply the family needs.

Albert Peters, chairman of the ASC county committee, says the local office sure does need the cooperation of farmers of the county. The office has to have the cropping history of farms for the year 1959 and 1960. This is for the anticipated Feed Grain Program.

The office will be open Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. to take the farm information as it is brought in. Albert also suggests that all read their news letters from the ACS office as they will, from time to time, have important information in them. Just now there is very little information available on the Feed Grain Program and the office is unable to answer all questions asked. Your cooperation and help in turning in the crop history for your farm for the years mentioned will be appreciated.

Jeff Perry started last week measures to control mesquite on his place north of town. He is using 2.45-T and diesel oil. He makes 50 gallon mixture in a drum and carries this in his pickup. From the drum he fills his two-gallon pressure sprayer and works out and around the truck. This seems to be the most desirable method as several have used it last year. It saves some work by having an extension tube added to the sprayer—prevents having to bend over to apply the solution around the base of the trees.

Loving, New M.

Dear Sir:
The recent report of the passing of Ben Barrow brings to mind an incident that occurred almost 60 years ago, in early September, 1902, at Morgan, Texas.

Ben and I boarded the same north-bound Santa Fe train. Fort Worth bound, and we had just become seated when the conductor of the train entered and called: "Tickets, tickets, please." Ben handed his ticket to the conductor, and at the same time asked about some train east bound out of Fort Worth that night.

I thought that the conductor was unnecessarily rude, as he told Ben that he could not keep the schedule of every train out of Fort Worth, so he did not know what time the train left Fort Worth.

As he turned to proceed taking up tickets, Ben turned to me and said: "I hate to be so uncivil as to disturb the man's mental equilibrium by asking him a civil question," which I thought was a very appropriate reply of Ben.

Best wishes for you and your staff.

Yours very truly,
ALSEY ALFORD.

Bill Puckett, Highway 22, near the river bridge is applying a top dressing of 16.20-0 to his wheat and barley this week. He is putting out 1,000 pounds of fertilizer and will leave a check plot to measure his results.

HAT-MAKING WORKSHOP

Make your plans now to attend the hat-making workshop to be held at the First Methodist Church Educational Building on Monday and Tuesday, March 27 and 28. Mrs. Vera Whitmire of Fort Worth will be giving this workshop, and she will have all the materials that you need to make your Easter bonnets.

The fee for these two days will be $7.50. You will be making two hats which you will be proud to wear with your new spring outfits. The first day you will be working with straw and the second day you will be making hats from fabrics to match your favorite dress.

For further information and for pre-registration, please write or call the home demonstration agent's office. This information received in a similar workshop has been quite useful to many of the women in the county.

MORE VITAMIN C NEEDED BY FAMILIES

How to step up the vitamin C in family meals is worth the consideration of many homemakers, because this essential vitamin, needed every day, is apt to be short in American diets. One family in every four was not getting enough vitamin C, according to a food consumption survey completed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Knowing which foods rate high in this vitamin is very important. Most people know that citrus fruits are rich sources. An orange or a half grapefruit a day can supply the full daily quota.

Many green leafy vegetables contain large amounts of vitamin C, especially the deep green leaves—spinach, kale and collards, if properly cooked. Canned tomatoes and tomato juice are notable inexpensive sources of this vitamin the year round. Potatoes, sweet potaatoes and cabbage are good for vitamin C much of the year. Vitamin C is the most easily destroyed by exposure to air, is soluble in water, careful preparation and cooking are necessary to save it. As much as possible use vegetables raw in salads, relishes and serve them when they are fresh and crisp.

NEW NYLON ZIPPER
A new nylon zipper, appearing in some ladies' wear promises added comfort and attractiveness to garments. The new all-nylon spiral gives the new zipper the flexibility of fabric—soft, warm to the touch and no air.

It is small, yet incredibly strong and comes in all colors. The color penetrates through the threads, it can never wear out. The new zipper has a new feature to preserve it from dental damage. It is flatter, smaller, too.

It is snag-proof, but if the edge of fabric should catch, you can bend it in open and remove threads, continue to zip.

MISS VELMA SUE JAGGARS

Mr. Bonner is Guest Speaker at Thursday Review Club Meeting

The Hico Review Club met March 2 in the home of Mrs. Ellis Randals with all members present, also several associate members. The hostess served strawberry pie and coffee.

Immediately after roll call and reading of the minutes, the president, reversing the order of business, asked Mrs. Marvin Marshall to introduce the guest speaker, Mr. Frank Bonner, principal of Hico Elementary School. Topic of his talk "One Out of Fifty" pertained to a discussion of Texas. He started with the American Indians and came up to the present time. His word choice in the discussion of early life in our State was so delightful that members felt as if they were living in that time. At the end of his talk he referred to the alarming situations in our state, situations caused mainly by lack of education.

After reports from officers and committees, Miss Mettie Rodgers reminded the club of the visit to the next meeting of her friend, Dr. Lorena Stretch, former Dean of School Education at Baylor University.

In order to make preparations for her talk on American magazines, Mrs. Appleby asked members to bring a list of magazines they take to the next meeting and to mark their favorite.

The club then adjourned to meet March 16 with Miss Rodgers.

Mrs. Hafer Hostess At Luncheon Bridge

The home of Mrs. W. F. Hafer was the scene of a party on Wednesday of last week when she entertained members and guests of her club.

The hostess presented her guests with orchid corsages preceding four games of bridge, and at conclusion of play served a luncheon plate and dessert course.

Mrs. Edgar Bulloch and Mrs. Ray Cheek were guests of the club and members present included Mrs. Truman Roberts of Hamilton, Mrs. H. V. Hedges, Miss Mettie Rodgers, Mrs. Odis Petsick, Mrs. Bill Stearman, and Mrs. Ellis Randals.

Plastic Demonstration Given at Meeting of South Hico Club

South Hico Home Demonstration Club met March 2 in the home of Mrs. Charley Hyles.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Marie Churchill. Roll call was answered with "The Kind of Pictures I Like" followed by a short business meeting.

The club enjoyed a demonstration on how to make plastic flowers by Mrs. Jesse Landis. The demonstration showed members each step in making plastic flowers and was most informative.

Those present were Mrs. Grace Merritt, Mrs. L. M. Weeks, Mrs. Cyrus King, Mrs. Della Bell, Mrs. Byron Hawthorne, Mrs. R. L. Weaver, Mrs. Darrell Simons, Mrs. W. A. Moss, Mrs. C. J. Sikes, Mrs. Churchill, and the hostess. Guests were Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Ganska, Mrs. Prater, and the club mother, Mrs. Linnie Adams.

Refreshments of cake and coffee was served by the hostess. Members planned to meet in the home of Mrs. Della Bell March 9 for an all-day meeting and work on two quilts.

Next regular meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Merritt March 16.

Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McCarty were Mr. and Mrs. R. F. McCarty of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Clark of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hobbs and Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McCarty Jr. of Abilene.

Knudson Home Scene Of Bridge Party Friday Afternoon

Mrs. M. I. Knudson was hostess at her home on Friday afternoon of last week when she entertained members of her club with a party.

Games of bridge provided the entertainment and at conclusion of play, Mrs. Sarah Reeves was winner of high score, and Mrs. E. V. Meador and Mrs. Knudson were second high winners.

The hostess served refreshments to Mrs. Ray Cheek, Mrs. W. F. Hafer, Mrs. Jimmie Ramage, Mrs. Sandy Ogle, Mrs. Harold Walker, Mrs. Reeves and Mrs. Meador.

Recreation Center Scene of Clairette H.D. Club Meeting

Mrs. H. K. Self was hostess to the Clairette Home Demonstration Club March 3 at the Recreation Center.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. John G. Lightly. The group sang two songs, with Mrs. Loden at the piano. The club prayer was repeated in unison.

For recreation Mrs. Self gave a written contest, with Mrs. G. Lightly presented a gift as winner. Mrs. Edwards was lucky lady of the day.

Main topic of business for the day was discussion on improving the recreation center.

Roll call was answered with "An Interesting Article I Have Read Recently." Mrs. Loden gave the program on Health.

Mrs. Self served a refreshment plate of sandwiches, cake, coffee and punch to Mrs. G. Lightly, Mrs. Chance Sterling, Mrs. H. G. Wolfe, Mrs. J. G. Edwards, Mrs. Loden, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Auvermann, Mrs. John Willis, and a guest, Mrs. J. L. Willis of Henrietta.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neel spent the week end at Quitman in the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Neel and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wadlington, Mike and Donna of Midland, and Mr. and Mrs. Royce Lee Mackey, Gary and Stevie of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Mollie Harvey visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tulos Carpenter Sunday.

Glad to learn that I'm not the only person in town who prefers a good strong cup of coffee, and Mrs. Davis, Doris Flowers and I aren't complaining, BUT!

Virgie Ratliff perks the coffee and serves it all day, but at coffee time heads down the street for a good cold coke.

Granny Meador is always stopping by to say hello, but never has time to sit and visit as she says she is in a hurry to get home and do nothing.

John Leach stopped in to say hello and renew his subscription, and said he'd better get on home as they were enjoying their last meal of good fresh turnips for lunch.

Nice to say hello to Herbert Sellers who was enjoying a coffee break with Wade Greenslit after a lengthy bout in the hospital. Lucy Lowe and Elta Higginbotham were sipping coffee and chatting about all the work that was waiting their return home. Would like to have watched Elta whip up that new dress in 15 minutes!

I enjoyed having coffee with Ada Woodard last week and chatting about her little granddaughter Kim.

That wasn't a dummy you saw driving Blair's Hardware pickup last week—it was Louise with a problem.

Houston Davis sure makes a good "soda jerk" if you watch him closely as he fills the order. Nothing like sipping on a glass of ice.

Wayne Rutledge has promised Avon that he'll get the porch posts painted even if it is fall before he gets around to it.

Laverne Parker doesn't agree with you that little girls are cheaper and easier to bring up. Little boys may not wear petticoats but, oh, those knee holes in those blue jeans.

Boyd McClure says he enjoys "coffee time chatter," but feels sure I could get by with printing some real scandal part of the time. Give me some clues, Boyd.

Mary Jo Patterson took the advice of her husband, along with a morning off, and received a new hair style.

That extra gleam in the eye and beaming smile from Bro. Dawson this week is attributed to the fact that he is again great-grandpa.

Lorraine Petsick was out driving Sunday, asking frequent inquiries about the lost bicycle riders.

Saw the boss holding his own in a fast basketball game with his daughter, Denna, Claudia Hafer, and Mike Reeves. Or I might say basketball scramble.

Better read close because here's your name—Eclirp Keub.

Ernie Jacobs was ready to jump in the creek, and would have been sorry he didn't if he had lost that 8 pound catfish.

Dude Ratliff has been rushing me all week to get on the press, so guess I'll head that way.

Engagement of Velma Jaggars, Bennett Told

Mrs. L. A. Jaggars of Hico announced the engagement of her daughter, Velma Sue, to Lynn Bennett of San Antonio.

Lynn Bennett is the son of Mrs. L. A. Bennett and Mr. Harvey Bennett of San Antonio.

The engagement was revealed at a party on Feb. 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas in San Antonio, sister of the bride.

After seven "news" burst out, the bride enjoyed a balloon "burst." Small hearts with the announcing the time, place, and date were inserted in the paper before the party.

A Valentine motif was carried out. A centerpiece of white gladioli with red candles and heart-shaped finger rings, dips, nuts, coffee and punch were served to 35 guests.

Bluebonnet Country Club Scene of Bridge Party

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Parks and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parks were hosts Tuesday evening of this week at a bridge party held at Bluebonnet Country Club.

Four games of bridge were enjoyed during the evening.

Refreshments of party snacks and punch were served.

Mrs. W. F. Hafer won high score for the ladies, and J. D. Ramage was winner of high for the men.

Second high winners were Mrs. Ellis Randals and M. I. Knudson.

Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Hafer, Mr. and Mrs. Partain, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Randals, Mr. and Mrs. Knudson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Morse Ross, Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Ramage, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cheek, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Meador, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bulloch, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bulard, Miss Louise Blair and Mrs. Sarah Reeves.

WASHINGTON—

As It Looks From Here

By OMAE BURLISON, M.C.
17th District, Texas

Washington, D. C.—In writing this column special effort is always made to stay from the first person "I". However, this one is personal, and to explain, it becomes necessary to use a form otherwise avoided. It is not simply a matter of pride that I relate the following, but because of a sense of deepest appreciation.

On Thursday night of last week our Home Town of Anson held its annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. On that occasion Ruth and I received the Outstanding Man and Woman Award of the Year.

The selection committee called me in Washington to know if we could come home for the affair, and my immediate reaction was that I would be willing to walk all the way to receive such an honor from the people of our Home Town.

No more humbling experience could come to us than this recognition from people who have known us, either all or the greater part of our lives. The cynic says that people are more likely to remember the bad and the shortcomings of people than the good and the wholesome. Every human being is, of course, endowed with some of both. But my Home Town folks, in making this Award, have not remembered my many shortcomings, or at least are willing to forgive them. Of course, Ruth has far fewer faults than I, but she too shares our feelings of being undeserving of this signal honor.

In response to the presentation of her award, Ruth said, "I am reminded of the words of Juliana when she became Queen of the Netherlands—Juliana said, 'Who am I that such an honor should be bestowed on me.'"

"Tonight," Ruth said, "As never before I realize that to every honor is attached a duty—and to every privilege an obligation. In this one block here in Anson are the three greatest influences of my life—home, Church and school. When coming to Anson as a teenager, little did I know that many years later it would still be my Home Town, for a Minister's child learns early that where he may be home for only a short time, depending in any way on how the Baptists felt about him. "From that day forward," said, "Those seemingly deep roots have grown deeper and stronger. No matter how lean, dry and windy the years have been, I know those roots have not been disturbed."

"Through the years we wept with us in our sorrow and in our joys and helped to make possible the things our hearts have wanted to do."

"To try to repay my debt to you will be a labor of love. We sincerely feel that of being awarded an honor of service to the community it would be more fitting to give thanks for what the community has done for us."

We shall forever remember the occasion and the honor. The certificate of Award will be and hung in a place where we shall see it daily. It will us to be humble; it will give us confidence; it will be a constant reminder of the loyalty of friends. We are grateful.

HE'S VITAL doing his job... and doing his job for his country

The National Guard has a unique mission . . . and a vital one. Constantly at the ready, it is on immediate call for the disturbances and disasters of peacetime as well as for the supreme demands of battle.

This dual mission is carried out by 472,000 citizen-soldiers of the Air and Army National Guard, men you know as your neighbors. The protection provided by these community men makes it possible to keep America's defenses up without the larger dollar outlay needed to maintain similar numbers of active Army and Air Force personnel.

Today, the National Guard is better trained and better equipped than ever before. Famous since Concord, the Guardsman is...in every way...an Up-to-the-Minute Man, today. HERE OR NEAR

By F. E. DAWSON

There came to me the other day a brand new translation of the New Testament, issued by a body of scholars of England and put on the American market as soon as printed. What I have read of it causes me to like it very much, for it translates the Greek into the language of the present, and is representative in that all Christian bodies of our day are represented, and it was kept free of terminology that is characteristic of any one body. In other words, the translators undertook to put the New Testament into the words common to all our Christian bodies.

In the last decade there has been a lot of discussion about the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. It has come in for a lot of criticism, and many fanatical statements have been made that are wholly untrue and out of place. There are a lot of folks who are so wedded to the King James Translation of 1611 that they can see no good in any newer translation. Such persons overlook so many things that largely invalidate what they say in their approval of the King James version and their condemnation of all other versions.

In 1913 a dear friend gave me a copy of a translation made in 1828 by Alexander Campbell. It was never widely adopted, though many of Campbell's followers took to it readily and would use no other. If it is printed at all today, I have not heard of it. But what Mr. Campbell says in his introduction of the translation is worthy of serious consideration. He felt the need for a translation in modern English so much that he proceeded to give one to the world.

His main point in the introduction is that the English language has changed so radically since the 1611 translation was given to the world that many of its important statements are unintelligible to the average modern reader. His citations are illuminating. For example this one from 11 Cor. 8:1, "We do you to wit of the grace of God." Now what does it mean? Nothing to the average reader. Its translation in his volume was: "We cause you to know." And that does make sense to the modern reader.

He cites the word "conversation" which is often seen in the King James. In our day it means what passes from the lips; talk between persons. In the 1611 period it meant "conduct, behavior." Then the word "prevent" in the King James is used so many times. There it invariably means "go before." Now it means to keep something from occurring. Thus wholly changing its meaning.

When I was a student in college, Dr. B. H. Carroll was teacher of the Bible Class in Baylor. As we started a study of the whole Bible he requested that the students get and use the Revised Version of 1881, because he said it was so much clearer in its presentation of the word of God. I did not get it because I lacked the necessary funds. But in the early days of this century I got the American Standard Revised Version and for many a year used it in my study and in pulpit use. Then when the Revised Standard Version was issued a few years ago, I got it and have used it constantly in my reading and study. Why? Because I want God's Word in the words that convey its real meaning.

A certain Bible teacher in an outstanding school used to refer to the King James Version as the Roman Catholic Bible. It was put out soon after the Roman Catholic Church was put out of England and the clergy of the newly Established Church of England was made up of those who formerly were the Roman Catholic clergy, and when they translated the Bible into English they used the words of their faith, both as to meaning and in terms of church officers and activities. Now we want a translation that keeps away from the favorite terms of any one body of believers and uses the language that is well known to all. So I got the new translation and like it very much. My soul fed adequately on smooth flowing English, not that of almost four centuries ago, as one finds in the James version.

FERTILIZER ON SMALL GRAIN
By BOMER HARRIS
Luke Campbell and F. A. Roberts, District cooperators with the Hamilton-Coryell SCS, plan to use fertilizer on oats in a few days to increase seed production at harvest time. During the past few years both cooperators have observed and realized the value of fertilizer in a conservation cropping system. This year they purchased a partnership fertilizer drill to be used on their crops at the right time.

— SCS —
Val Craig, another district cooperator in the Rock House community, top dressed 20 acres of oats last year with 100 pounds of ammonium nitrate per acre. Val was so well pleased with the increased production that he will fertilize 70 acres this year.

— SCS —
A. O. Newton near McGirk, used 100 pounds of 16-20-0 at planting time in the fall of 1959. He reports a 50 per cent increase in grazing. Glen Riley, technician of the SCS of Hamilton, made clipping checks on the Newton fertilized barley and found the fertilized field produced 3800 pounds of green weight per acre as compared to 2575 pounds per acre on non-fertilized barley.

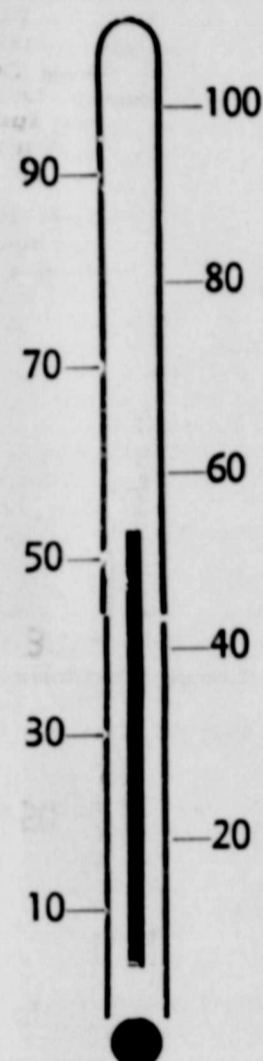

— SCS —
Billy Chumney, operator of a dairy in the West Point community, fertilized oats at planting time with 100 pounds of 16-20-0. This field, planted for grazing only, produced twice as much green pasture as the area not fertilized. He has found that proper fertilization more than pays its way. It is used on most crops that he grows.
