

IN THE SPHERE OF WOMANKIND

THE FLAG GOES BY.

Off with your hat as the flag goes by!
And let the heart have its say.
You're man enough for a tear in your eye
That you will not wipe away.
You're man enough for a thrill that goes
To your very finger tips—
Ay, the lump just then in your throat
That rose
Spoke more than your parted lips.
Lift up the boy on your shoulder, high,
And show him the faded shred
Those stripes would be red as the sun
Set sky
If death could have dyed them red.
The man that bore it with death has lain
This twenty years and more—
He died that the work should not be vain
Of the men who bore it before.
The man who bears it is bent and old,
And show him his beard and gray—
But look at his eye fire young and bold,
At the tune that he heard them play.
The old tune thunders through the air,
And strikes right into the heart—
If ever it calls for you, boy, be there!
Be there and ready to start.
Off with your hat as the flag goes by!
Uncover the youngster's head!
Teach him to hold it holy and high,
For the sake of its sacred dead.
—H. C. Bunker.

NATIONAL GUARD TO MOVE ON 24 HOURS' NOTICE

The date of the movement of the National Guard troops to Fort Worth has not been announced, but it is expected that it will be some time between 20th inst. and September 1st. John W. Thomas telegraphed on Friday to General Farnes, at Fort Antonio, to ask whether a few days' notice could be given, so that the committee would have plenty of time to get the cars together and in order. General Farnes replied that he could only allow 24 hours' notice of the movement; so the promoters will have to make the best of it. This will be a good opportunity for the civilians to find out how readily they can accommodate themselves to military discipline and promptness.

With the whole of Wichita county at large to provide cars to take the boys to Fort Worth, and at least 150 cars are already promised, the procession to Fort Worth promises to be one of the most unique ever staged in this part of the country. Burk Burnett has pledged himself for twenty cars, and Electra and Iowa Park are working faithfully to do their part.

Not only has the idea stirred Wichita county, but the towns all along the route between here and Fort Worth are making preparations to turn out and give the boys a royal welcome. Bowie has gone so far as to promise a huge barbecue at noon. Inasmuch as there will be about 200 people to be fed, it will be some barbecue. Bowie is due the best thanks of this county for this courtesy.

That there may be no undue delay on the road, a number of mechanics will accompany the troops, to take care of any cars which may get out of order. The promoters of the parade are most anxious to make a point of the decorations. All people sending cars are asked to help make this parade notable in every possible way; and the matter of decorations is an important one in the opinion of the committee. While no suggestions have been made as to the manner and style of the decorations, it is urged that the best efforts be used in this matter.

WICHITA COUNTY RED CROSS

Workers at the Red Cross on Friday were: Miss Mary Colquitt, Mesdames George Dobson, L. J. White, W. P. Danforth, Fred Smith, Johnson, Nafinge, A. W. Eichenbaker, B. G. O'Neal, C. N. Alexander, A. D. Anderson, E. B. Gorsline, H. B. Patterson, W. M. Brady and M. Gaffney.

The women's clubs of the city will be asked to arrange their plans of the year's work when time comes for the resumption of club activities this fall so that the Red Cross can receive some attention. Some of the clubs voluntarily have announced their intention of giving up the customary refreshment course the hostess at each meeting to donate to the Red Cross supply fund the money which would be spent on this course. In other cities and towns the women are giving of their time and means and even denying themselves to help the Red Cross. These are suggestions which may receive the consideration of the women of Wichita Falls. In omitting the refreshment course a step toward the conservation of the food supply is taken. This is saved, and the money which would otherwise be spent is turned to the Red Cross treasury this will serve a triple purpose.

THREE TROOPS OF BOY SCOUTS WILL GO CAMPING

There will be a general exodus of Boy Scouts from the city to various summer camps this week. Troops 3 and 4, as announced last week, will camp at the head of Lake Wichita, and it was learned yesterday that Troop 1 is to make a two-weeks' camp at Ellabelle, on the Clear Fork river, some eighty-three miles from here. Troop 1 will be in charge of Scoutmaster Sam P. Sproles, and assistant Scoutmaster C. H. Watkins, and will put in two weeks of very active scout work, tests, drill, and so on, which will be followed by hunting and fishing, which is said to be very good in that locality. All three troops will leave on Wednesday morning, after assembling at the courthouse; Troops 3 and 4 at 6

a. m. and Troop 1 later. Scoutmaster H. E. Bachman announced that their arrangement with the management of the Majestic Theatre last Friday night, had netted the boys close to fifty dollars, and that they had every expectation of completing their fund from their share of the proceeds of the performance at the Gem Theatre next Tuesday night. During the last year, the Boy Scout movement has shown a very steady growth. Last summer, so two small representatives of the order said, on Saturday, there were only two troops in the city. Today there are six troops aggregating some 125 boys, who are one and all enthusiastic for the work. The boys talk of the work with evident pride and pleasure, and they believe they can make Wichita Falls a "sure enough" Scout town.

FARMERS CAN SELL ARMY HORSES DIRECT TO GOV'T.

County Agent J. W. Campbell has received papers from the Agricultural Department explaining a plan for purchasing horses and mules for the army direct from the farmers. Whenever enough horses suitable for any use to fill a car can be pledged in any county or community, the war department will send a purchasing agent to that county or community to purchase the animals direct from the farmers.

Farmers who desire to sell horses or mules in this way are directed to apply to County Agent Campbell for information as to specifications and other details.

Each horse or mule offered will be subject to rigid inspection and any animal that does not meet with the requirements should be rejected. No white or gray horse will be accepted.

A gelding of specified color, in good condition; from 5 to 8 years old at time of purchase; weighing from 950 to 1200 pounds, depending on height, which should be from 13 to 14 hands.

The Most Beautiful Car in America

Twenty thousand Paige volunteer salesmen joined the Paige organization during the last season.

Every purchaser of a Paige car immediately becomes a willing and enthusiastic "booster."

That is one of the principal reasons why Paige cars are easy to sell and it also proves that the Paige stays sold.

These 20,000 volunteer salesmen have been a big factor in creating the Paige waiting lists that are growing steadily throughout the country.

The nation-wide enthusiasm for the Paige is inspired by the mechanical excellence of The Most Beautiful Car in America, its reliability, its durability, its economy of operation—its supreme quality.

SWOR QUALIFIES AS LABOR COMMISSIONER

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 18.—Frank Swor of Fort Worth today qualified as state labor commissioner and filed his bond in the secretary of state's department. Swor takes the place of C. W. Woodman whose appointment the Senate at the last special session of the Legislature refused to confirm. Mr. Swor was sworn in and assumed his duties. The delay of Mr. Swor to qualify was one of the reasons of the introduction and adoption of a resolution in the Senate declaring the vacation appointments of the Governor vacant because they were not filed within the required 10 days.

WORK STARTED ON NEW HOME FOR MOTOR SUPPLY CO.

Work has already started on the new $20,000 building for the Motor Supply Co. at the corner of Sixth street and Indiana avenue and Naylor & Hammack, the contractors, are under contract to have the building completed in sixty working days. The building is from the design of Herbert R. Woodcock, the local representative of Madorie & Field of Kansas City, and is patterned after the latest designs of Ford garages and supply houses. The large show room in the front of the building will be finished in white enamel. The ladies rest room will be tastefully decorated, and made as comfortable and attractive as possible. The storage garage in the rear is well supplied with entrances in side, rear and alley, so that next week coming in or going out, will not interfere with the repair department, which is also situated in the rear. The part of the building which has a separate entrance, so that none of the various departments need conflict in their working. As stated in a previous issue of The Times, this will be an exclusive Ford garage, and will be equipped with every convenience obtainable.

GOOD PROGRESS BEING MADE ON NEW TANK PLANT

John Tancred, who recently moved here from Fort Worth to install his tank and boiler factory, reports that the preliminary work is progressing very smoothly, and that everything is so far in good shape. Foundations for this main building are excavated, as are the ditches for the water mains. Twelve or fourteen men are on the job, and it is expected that by the middle of next week, the machinery will be shipped.

The shipment of the machinery, however, will depend upon how soon the side track is laid to the grounds; which are just west of the Panhandle Refinery Company's buildings. Mr. Tancred said that the M. K. & T. had promised to lay the track, and that they would have it done next week. On account of the great weight of many of the machines, it will be almost impossible to haul them over anything but a railroad track.

Mr. Tancred said on Friday that he was leaving that night for Fort Worth, where he expects to collect a crew of some twenty-five men, whom he will take to Kingline, Okla. Here they will disassemble a huge 55,000-barrel tank to be shipped here, and erected for the Panhandle Refinery Co. This work will probably be completed within three weeks.

There is plenty of building supplies on hand, rock, sand and gravel, so Mr. Tancred said, and by Monday the concrete will probably be ready to pour. Operations were somewhat hampered at the end of the week, on account of the heavy rains, but there has been no hitch, and Mr. Tancred is confidently expecting the completion of the factory in about thirty days.

Studebaker

—a better balanced Chassis—

Four years' study, four years' careful analysis of the performance of more than 300,000 Studebaker cars in the hands of owners all over the world have enabled Studebaker engineers to produce the scientifically balanced chassis.

The weight of a Studebaker car is scientifically distributed; this makes the car wonderfully easy in its riding qualities and reduces the tractive effort of the motor. It also helps to reduce the wear and tear on tires to a minimum.

Studebaker owners are constantly reporting 8,000, 10,000 and more miles per set of tires. Here again, in one of the most important of all up-keep items Studebaker has proved its value.

Five Passenger Touring Car
E-Six-Forty-five

The beautiful streamlines of this Buick touring car sweep from the honeycomb radiator gracefully along the body sides, merging into the pleasing contours of the fender. The sloping windshield and new style top help lend to this Buick its air of individuality.

The top is of the improved one-man type, exceptionally free from visible side bows. Storm curtains, carried in overhead retainers are quickly lowered and attached when needed.

The upholstery is of high-grade leather in buttonless plaited design over curled hair and specially constructed spiral cushion springs, affording unusual comfort, on the long tour.

The sixty horsepower Buick valve-in-head motor responds to the accelerator with a snap that delights the most experienced motorist.

Under its never-failing power the car quietly glides along at high speed or creeps away at a snail's gait, easily and quickly changing from one speed to another, obedient to the will of the driver.

The Buick clutch is disengaged by the slightest pressure of the foot and is exceptionally smooth but positive in action.

The ease and simplicity with which Buick cars are controlled is largely responsible for the vast number of ladies and young folks who are Buick enthusiasts.

BISHOP ANDREW OF UFA RUSSIA'S LATEST HOLY MAN

Petrograd, June 30.—Andrew, Bishop of Ufa, is Russia's latest holy man. An exception in the reactionary Greek Orthodox Church, he is a prominent democrat and a daring ecclesiastical reformer. He is candidate for the exalted post of Metropolitan of Petrograd; and were it not for his reforming zeal he would be Metropolitan already. Since the revolution, Bishop Andrew has resided in the Athos Monastery in south Petrograd, where he works for the regeneration of his church.

Andrew's career is a chapter from a Tolstoy or Turgenieff romance. He was born Prince Andrew Nchtomsky, member of a princely and once millionaire family famous in Russian history. His best known living kinsman is Prince Hesper Uchtomsky, who accompanied the late Emperor Nicholas, then heir apparent, on his journey round the world, published a history of the journey, founded the Russian Chinese Bank, gave Emperor Willhelm the idea of the Yellow Pearl, and for twenty years edited the Petrograd Vedomosti.

Bishop Andrew began his career as a wealthy guards officer. After four years of worldly living, he gave away his riches, and underwent the process of "simplification" described by Turgenieff in the novel "Virgin Soil." "Prince Uchtomsky" died, and "The Monk Andrew" was born.

Unlike many Russian monks, Andrew lived in genuine asceticism, in estrangement from the world, in midnight vigils and prayer. He tenanted a six foot square cabin in a remote forest, ate bread and drank spring water, and added good works to mortification and prayer.

Andrew's charity made him famous. Peasants flocked to his cell, and he was begged to join the richest, most aristocratic monastic communities. He refused. He preferred to wander along the Volga preaching to other monks, Tartars, Kalmuks, Bashkirs and Tchermises, and to heathen Shaman tribes, descendants of the Asiatic hordes which devastated East Europe in the early Middle Ages.

Even the Petrograd reactionaries

SOME TROOPS WILL BE TRAINED ON ISLAND OF CUBA

By Associated Press. Washington, Aug. 18.—Cuba's offer to provide a mobilization and training ground for some American forces has been accepted. The number or description of the forces to be sent can not be disclosed for military reasons. The state department issued this statement:

"The government of Cuba has offered, in a most friendly spirit to the government of the United States, the use of training grounds in that Republic for the American forces. This generous offer has been accepted by this government with great pleasure and careful consideration has been given to the question as to which of the American forces would be most benefited by training on the island of Cuba. This question has now been determined and American forces will proceed to the eastern end of Cuba for training at an early date.

"The action on the part of President Menocal in making this friendly offer is regarded as fresh proof of Cuba's desire to give aid to America and to be of further assistance in the war which both countries are waging for humanity against the German government."

Andrew did not ignore Andrew's fame. In their camp, they made him a bishop. Disappointed in this, they treated him as a joke and seclusionary. They suspected his democratic ways, his straight talking to soldiers and peasants, and the simplicity of life which was a mute rebuke to his ostentatious cotillions. The reactionary Plevche and the reactionary procurator of the holy synod, surrounded him with spies, gendarmes and agents provocateurs. In 1910 he practically was imprisoned in his house. He kept his courage and independence.

Alone of the higher prelates he refused to bow the knee to the infamous monk, Rasputin. Thereby he earned the enmity of Emperor Nicholas and Empress Alexandra, and just before the revolution he was in danger of being untraced or interned as a heretic in Soudal Monastery.

After the revolution the monks of the Petrograd Athos Monastery offered Andrew their finest rooms for residence, and when he arrived a dozen jacks and lay monks met him at the railroad depot. He refused to occupy the rooms. Though in bad health—he is a little, frail, almost transparent man—he slept in a tiny cell, lying on the iron laths of a bed, sleeps three hours a night, and spends the other twenty-one in prayer, charitable works, and projects of church reform.

Today a free man, Andrew is promulgating plans for the democratization and purification of orthodoxy. He demands the convocation of an Ecumenical Council of the whole Russo-Greek Church; the delivery to the Russian state and people of the church's walled treasures, and the universal application of the electoral principle to church appointments.

To the Provisional Government's invitation to accept the Metropolitanacy, he answered that only the priests and the people had a right to choose or reject him.

He stands for the immediate and complete abolition of the secular White Clergy with the monastic Black Clergy. At present preferment is granted only to monks. Members of the White Clergy, however pious and learned, are kept in the position of parish priest, and paid on the average $150 a year. The secular "pope" has no stimulus to work.

Andrew is trying to eradicate the church's tradition of reaction in politics and its anti-Semitism and servility to the state; and he is preaching with apostolic zeal and eloquence the universal brotherhood which he practices.

Bishop Andrew is a friend of War Minister Kerensky (since made premier.) He described Kerensky as "an exceptionally strong and homogeneous personality." Also though a man of peace, the bishop is a patriot and speaks sharply against the lack of discipline in the army and "fraternizing" with the enemy, which imperilled the cause of Russian liberty.

JUDICIAL REFORM PROCEEDING RAPIDLY IN RUSSIA

Associated Press Mail Correspondence. Petrograd.—The reform of Russia's judicial system, proceeding rapidly under the Provisional Government, has brought with it the institution of women magistrates, unknown elsewhere in Europe.

The higher courts already have been reformed. One of the new governments first acts was to reintroduce the famous "Judicial Statute," promulgated by Alexander II in 1864 during his brief reforming fit after the Crimean War, but abolished by his reactionary successors. The reform of the minor local courts, the peasant courts and the police courts is a more complicated task, but virtually it is accomplished.

Chief of the reform of the Courts of the Peace, corresponding to police courts in other European states. The system of peasant jurisdiction also has been reformed by the abolition of the volost courts. Before the Revolution the real judicial authority in the villages was the "Rural Chief" or Zemski Natchalnik, usually retired army officer or other person without legal training, who also was administrator of peasant affairs; and therefore was often in a position to justify as magistrate his own illegal acts as administrator. The rural chiefs have all been dismissed and, for the peasants as already for the so-called "privileged classes," justice definitely is severed from administration.

The reform of the courts of the peace is radical. Formerly a single magistrate of the peace sat in judgment. In future three magistrates will sit, the chairman having the rank of Justice of the Peace and the two others being members of the peace court. The electoral principle on American lines is introduced. By a law of June, 1912, the old government consented to election of peace magistrates; but the law was only partially put in force, as it was distasteful to reactionary ministers. The law of 1912 will now everywhere be put in force.

The qualification for voting for the magistrates has been democratized, as was demanded in 1912 by all progressive parties in the Duma. Henceforth any person of either sex more than twenty-five years old, who has passed a secondary school or higher school examination may be elected Justice of the Peace. This opens the position of petty judge to practically all women of the middle and upper classes and to many women from the poorer classes. Men and women without the educational qualification may be elected if they have had legal experience as court officials or lawyer's clerks. As subordinate "members of the peace court," sitting with the chairman or chairwoman, any man or woman who can read or write may be elected.

An appeal will, as heretofore, lie to the peace sessions (Mirovoe Sudebno). The reform makes Russia's system of petty administration of justice one of the most democratic in the world.

MAJESTIC TO STAR STEEL CLAYTON TUESDAY

"My wife! And I don't know her!" This was the amazed exclamation made by David Clifton when his sight was restored to him. He had been married while he was blind and he thought that he was marrying the girl of his dreams, the girl about whom he had woven such a romance. But when his sight was restored he saw another woman. He had married another girl instead of the one he thought he had married! This situation was enough to amaze any man, especially as a baby had been born to them. David Clifton decided for the sake of the charming young girl who was his wife, to make the best possible of the situation. But when the girl he had so loved and dreamed about, came back into his life, it was only natural that he should gradually become estranged from his wife. He rented a studio and there he met his dream girl, the woman who had also married. One day this woman's husband, raging jealous, started for the studio to kill Clifton. Mrs. Clifton learned what was about to happen and reached the studio first. She made the other woman go and when the jealous husband reached the studio he found Mr. and Mrs. Clifton perfectly happy. Mrs. Clifton had saved her husband's life! This is a portion of the extremely entertaining story told in "The Stolen Paradise" the new World Picture made in which charming Ethel Clayton is the star. This picture will be the attraction at the Majestic theater Tuesday.

CLEO MADISON AT THE GEM MONDAY

Cleo Madison has never appeared to better advantage than in this two-reel feature which was written by Katherine Kingsbury, adapted for the screen by Harvey Gates, and produced by George Cochrane. It is well named "The Web," for all the characters find themselves involved in a situation which works out in an utterly unexpected way. The complicated story runs as follows: Cleo is in league with "Gentleman Joe." She is tired of lounging in her gorgeous boudoir, so she dons apron and cap and walks out into her garden to do some work. At the same time, Mrs. Van Wert enters Norman's studio and finds him painting. She orders him to go driving with her as she has her limousine at his door. They are driving along the street where Cleo lives when Mrs. Van Wert tells Norman to wander about a bit until she pays a visit. Norman comes to the fence of Cleo's garden just at the time that Cleo reaches out her hand on the other side for a flower. Their hands meet and she climbs up to see the owner. But Joe appears and Mrs. Van Wert catching Norman hanging over the fence angrily calls him. Joe points out to Cleo that there are the jewels worn by Mrs. Van Wert that she so much wants to have. Cleo thereupon instructs Joe to find out whereabouts and come to inform her. On the following day she dresses as a young widow and goes to Norman's studio, to have her portrait done. Just then his phone rings and it proves to be Mrs. Van Wert, asking Norman to invite a woman guest to her weekend party. After some persuasion, Cleo signifies her consent to go. At Mrs. Van Wert's Norman dances with Cleo when suddenly her string of pearls falls to the ground. She begs Mrs. Van Wert to allow her to place them in her safe. She goes with her and watches the combination. Later, as Cleo stands talking with Norman outside the house, Joe slinks around and sees the numbers Cleo writes on the fence as she holds one hand behind her. In the dead of night, Joe robs the safe and is clambering down the window. He is struck down and a hand is seen to retrieve the jewels, her trousers pocket. Then there is great commotion, when Mrs. Van Wert finds the safe robbed. Joe is at a loss, and thus confronts Cleo. She accuses Joe of not being on the level. Joe is tortured, for he loves Cleo. She takes the sun on the table and in their struggle she fires. Norman hears it and gives the alarm for the police, rushes in and hands Cleo a jewel case, asking her to keep it safe for him. When the police come, Norman gives himself up and says he did the shooting. Joe is taken to the hospital. Later, Cleo decides to make a clean breast of things. Joe is released and goes to Cleo. Norman is released and goes to Cleo. He tells her her friend Joe is a bungler and that he, Norman, has an admiration for her cleverness, and that they had better join forces. Detectives are on his trail, for this and previous of fence, and Cleo sees through her mirror, the head of one of them. Cleo gets the jewels, and as the detective enters, she protests to Norman she doesn't want to buy these jewels before examining them.

MARY PICKFORD AT EMPRESS TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

As an attraction extraordinary the Empress theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday will present Mary Pickford in a new Artcraft picture, "A Romance of the Redwoods," staged under the personal direction of Cecil B. De Mille. A Western subject of full-blooded dramatic action, the new Pickford vehicle presents "Little Mary" in a role that is entirely different from anything in which she has ever appeared on the screen. The story was written tion with Jennie MacPherson and discloses a wealth of typical Pickford incidents of heart appeal. The settings are of the days of '49 during the time of the big gold rush. Mary Pickford, as Jenny Lawrence, a little New England Miss Journey for the West in search of her only relative, an uncle. Before she is aware of it, she falls in love and as a result, becomes embroiled in serious complications. Various clever twists to the story afford surprises that add greatly to the general merit of the picture. "A Romance of the Redwoods" links together the arts of two of the greatest notables in screenland, Mary Pickford and Cecil De Mille. The talents of either one used in connection with the production of a photoplay would mean a subject of unusual merit. The combination of both represents the affilation of the screen's best artists. Not only is Miss Pickford's wonderful charm included to best advantage in her new picture but a dramatic finesse such as she has never before displayed is shown in the screen. It is also apparent. In addition to this remarkable Pickford characterization there is presented the art of De Mille, creator of the art of the Western screen spectacle, and other cinema triumphs. Staged at the new Lasky studios in California, the production is a masterpiece of art and technique that are only possible as a result of the novel installations of this model plant, under the supervision of Mr. De Mille, supporting the star is an exceptional cast including Elliott Dexter, Charles O'Leary, Tully Marshall, Raymond Hatton and Winter Hall.

CHARLES RAY AT THE MAJESTIC MONDAY

"The Millionaire Vagrant" will be the attraction at the Majestic Monday. Everybody knows that Charlie Ray is an athlete, but except for doing stunts of horsemanship, the fact has not been demonstrated upon the screen. In the new Triangle-ince drama, "The Millionaire Vagrant" by J. G. Hawks, he performs feats of agility that will excite enthusiasm among the fans. The first scenes reveal him in his palatial chambers. He is a photo-dramatic production since he is photographed in the renowned Herberich in her screen debut in Queen Elizabeth. The production is unusually beautiful as to sets and artistic as to direction.

"WHAT MONEY CAN'T BUY" AT THE EMPRESS MONDAY

In a gripping story dealing with the adventures of a vigorous American father and son in a European principality, Charles Ray and Louise Huff supported by Theodore Roberts, will be seen at the Empress Monday in the Lasky production, "What Money Can't Buy," a photo-dramatic scene by Benish Mabe Dir. of George Broadhurst's famous drama. Having scored such a pronounced success as co-stars in the famous "Great Expectations," and the Lasky "Paramount production of "Freelance," Jack Pickford and Louise Huff, have now shown themselves the most popular youngsters of the silent drama. In addition to their popularity as co-stars both have proven themselves artists of ability as stars in separate productions. The story of "What Money Can't Buy" has to do with the adventures of Dick Hale's father, a wealthy financier; Princess Irenia of Maritzia, and the unscrupulous financier who has her father, the King, in his power. Dick Hale's father, a wealthy financier, has a concession to build a railroad through the Principality, which is opposed by Texter, the King's financier. How the adventurous young American and the young Princess fall in love; how he is imprisoned in the lonely castle by his jealous rival; how the Princess permits herself and her little brothers to be captured by the American; how affairs are finally straightened out by brilliant ruse, will naturally have to be seen to be appreciated. The cast supporting Jack Pickford and Louise Huff will be termed "all-star" for in addition to the noted actor, Theodore Roberts, others in the cast are Hobart Bosworth, well known as a star both on the stage and screen; Raymond Hatton, the brilliant character actor who recently scored such pronounced success as the Dauphin in support of Geraldine Farrar in "Joan the Woman," James Craig, James Neill and Bliss Chevalier.

CIVILIZATION WILL BE SHOWN IN WICHITA FALLS

"Civilization," Thos. H. Ince's million-dollar spectacle, is coming to Wichita Falls. Ernest Latimore of Quincy, Ill., who has exclusive right in four southern states for this picture was here yesterday and completed arrangements with the Wichita Theater for a showing here some time about the middle of September. The exact date will be announced early this week. Mr. Latimore stated yesterday that "Civilization" is a master picture in the reels, and the plot starts with the European war, and embodies actual war-scenes taken before the end of the war. It is the only picture in the world that could not be procured now at any price. It is in this picture that the sinking of the Lusitania is reproduced as President Woodrow Wilson makes his first appearance as one of the characters in a moving picture play, and he actually addresses the audience from the screen in the last reel of the production. Over $100,000 has been spent on this picture since it was first released something over a year ago, in revising it to make it fit the actual fighting that is going on in France. So up to the minute it is that the recent decision in the German cabinet to report the Kaiser over the world, striking scenes of the entire production is in the beginning of the last reel where a character representing Christ is leading the Kaiser over the world, pointing out the sinking of the Lusitania, the devastated Belgium and the war-ridden cities of France, England and Germany itself, and asking him the question, "Had you thought of this?"

MARY PICKFORD in "A Romance of the Redwoods"

AN ARTCRAFT FEATURE OF UNUSUAL HEART APPEAL, CHARM AND THRILLS

California in the picturesque days of '49, when the gold rush brought to that glorious country human romance and melodrama as stirring as real life could evolve, forms a background for the delightful adventures of Jenny Lawrence, the part Mary Pickford plays. Jenny goes to California to live with her uncle, but she finds that a road agent has taken his name and place to evade the law. From this point on there is good humor, the love of romance and exciting action. A decidedly entertaining tale, with Mary Pickford as the center of interest, the appeal of this photoplay is universal in its scope.

2,000 ARTICLES KNITTED WEAR IS COUNTY'S QUOTA

RED CROSS CHAPTER RECEIVES TELEGRAM TELLING OF URGENT NEED OF GARMENTS ASKED

Wichita County women are asked through the Red Cross to contribute a large number of knitted garments for the soldiers in France. American and their Allies, by a telegram received at the county headquarters from W. J. Leppert of New Orleans, director of the Knitting Division of the American Red Cross. The need for these garments is pressing, time draws near for cold weather to set in on the continent and unless the warm sweaters, socks, mufflers and wristlets are supplied the suffering will be intensified, so Major Grayson Murphy has called the Red Cross asking an enormous quantity of supplies to come from the needles of the patriotic women of the United States.

Mr. Leppert's telegram, including the cable from Major Murphy follows: "Red Cross has urgent call from Major Grayson Murphy for enormous quantity knitted women articles. Here is cablegram from Major Murphy: 'Last winter broke the record for cold and misery among people here, and it is possible a dread coming winter finding us without supplies to meet situation. Urge you, on behalf of our soldiers and those of our allies who will suffer in their frozen trenches and also thousands of French and Belgian refugees and repatriates being returned through Switzerland to France. Everyone here looks to America. Best shipping facilities once one million five hundred thousand each of warm knitted woolen articles already requested. They must come before cold weather, and in view of shortage of fuel and other discomforts they will be of incredible value in both military and civilian work. We ask your chapter to furnish a definite allotment of these requirements. Your allotment is five hundred sweaters, five hundred mufflers, five hundred pair wristlets, five hundred pair socks. Full instructions will follow in two days. Ask your members to finish all knitting work now on hand and clear the decks for action. We want every chapter to have a chance to do its part in making good on this call for help from France.'

This county's share is set at 500 sweaters, 500 socks, 500 mufflers and 500 wristlets. This is a large amount, though it is infinitely small in comparison to the sum total which will be needed to keep the coileders of freedom from suffering. Wichita Falls women and those from other towns and rural communities in the county can be trusted to answer the call, the headquarters here feels, and next week will begin on the woolen garments called for.

Full directions have been sent by mail by Mr. Leppert and will be here in time for the opening class on Wednesday for knitters in the city; and those who will learn in order to do their part in filling this order. Those who attend the Wednesday class are asked to bring their knitting needles, preferably number No. 5 size. The yarn and knitting instructions will be given out at the supply hall. This knitting is work that can be done at home, in spare moments and hence many women who have felt they could not spare an afternoon or two a week in rolling bandages because they were necessarily do it outside the home will be glad to find that they can have a share in the women's part of the war.

The Red Cross hall is in the Masonic Temple, any information that may be desired by those who can help in this knitting will be cheerfully given. The phone number is 2741.

7 MORE SALOONS CAN BE LICENSED IN WICHITA FALLS

Wichita county is seven short of its full quota of saloons. It has only thirty-three saloons whereas 40 may be licensed. The county commissioners last week declared the population of the city of Wichita Falls for saloon purposes. This is done with the scholastic census as a basis. The scholastic census of the corporation is 2085, which would give a population of 18,510 for saloon purposes. One saloon for each 500 population may be licensed.

WAR CAN BE WON ONLY BY FIGHTING SAYS PERSHING

By Associated Press. Paris, Aug. 18.—Major General Pershing, the American commander, told the Associated Press today that the war can be won only by hard and forceful blows delivered by a well-trained American army working in conjunction with the allied armies. Deploing the lukewarmness of the American people in regard to the war, "Every man, woman and child should support the administration to arm and equip the American army and to keep up its morale and that of the allied armies. This war will not be won by talk or subscribing to the Red Cross. The American people must come to a full realization of what this war means. It can be won by fighting and striking forceful blows, not otherwise."

TEMPLETON SCHOOL WILL OPEN SEVENTH SEASON SEPT 1ST

The Templeton Music School will open its seventh season on September 1st of this year. Charles J. Templeton was one of the pioneers of music in Wichita Falls, and during the seven years that he has been here, he has established himself very solidly in the confidence of the public, as a teacher, a player, and a gentleman conscientious in the carrying out of his work.

Last year, Mr. Templeton undertook the direction of the High School orchestra, and succeeded admirably in bringing that organization to a very creditable point of proficiency. The enthusiasm of the members of the orchestra for their work was never greater than under Mr. Templeton's leadership, and their work with the chorus at the presentation of the "Rose Maiden" last spring, spoke for the excellent training they had had.

The Templeton School will be enlarged this year to include instruction in all band instruments, and this department has been entrusted to E. J. Boyer, who is well and favorably known here as a cornetist and band leader. This department has been added on account of the increasing demand for instruction in band and orchestra instruments, a demand traceable possibly to the military preparations and generally war-like atmosphere. At least, this is Mr. Templeton's view, and he has had many requests for this instruction from boys and young men who want to play in military bands.

Band and orchestra practice will be free to all students of the school, and the value of this ensemble work cannot be too strongly emphasized. Many of the difficulties encountered in individual playing can be overcome more quickly by ensemble work than by any other means.

Mr. Templeton, as is well known, is thoroughly equipped for his work. His violin training has been received from several famous teachers—among them, Emile Saurer, the great French violinist, Bernhard Listemann, the noted German teacher, Kalman Holstein, a pupil of the celebrated Hubay; whilst his orchestral experience was obtained under Theodore Spiering, Theodore Thomas and other noted leaders. To this sound training, Mr. Templeton brings a marked degree of patience and thoroughness which is indispensable to the successful teacher, and the ability to win the confidence and friendship of his pupils.

VIVID DESCRIPTION MIMIC WARFARE AT CAMP FUNSTON

A vivid description of mimic warfare as practiced at Camp Funston is contained in a letter received by Mrs. W. L. Ponder from Mr. Ponder's brother who was commissioned a second lieutenant there. Lieutenant Ponder is expected here today for a visit with his brother before reporting for duty.

"We had some war out here last week," he writes. "Friday night we had to move up into the trenches. I told you about we had out there. The Blues' our enemy, attacked us about midnight and it was one of the most wonderful sights I have ever seen. The Blues' broke out of the brush about 200 yards to our front, and just as soon as they did the entire country was flooded with light and we could see as plain as we could at noon.

"Different methods were used to light our front. First, there was a network of small twine all over the ground, this cord was attached to what is called a flare. When anyone steps on and pulls a cord it sets this flare off and it burns for about five minutes. It makes a light similar to a joint electric light.

"Next we had great big searchlights away back of us on the hills. These lights were kept constantly swinging back and forth like a huge knife blade being swung out there in the dark.

"The third method used was a small cannon-like affair that was fired from the trenches. It shot bombs about 100 feet high which exploded dropping parachutes with glaring lights that sailed over the enemy.

"You can see that no one had much of a chance out there in all this light. To continue with the attack, just as soon as the flares went off they saw the enemy the searchlights focused on him, the star bombs began to float over their line and the rifles began to crack and spit. The back of us the heavy constant roar of the artillery began.

"I could not see as much as I could if I had been an observer, but what I could see was wonderful. When the enemy was supposed to have reached our barbed wire, it looked just like someone had picked the whole country up in front of our entanglements and tossed it 200 feet in the air. The mine we had laid had been exploded by an electric spark from the trenches."

22 MEN FOR ARMY WITHIN FIFTEEN DAYS
Wichita Falls provided twenty-two men for the regular army during the first fifteen days of August notwithstanding that there has been only one man on recruiting duty outside the office, and that he has not been working for some little time. Most of the other stations in the district have two or more men on field recruiting duty at the time, and these men "feed" the stations. The standing of the towns of the district is as follows: Dallas, (main station) 35; (auxiliary station) 17; Waco 75; Fort Worth 52; Wichita Falls 22; Denison 21. The report from headquarters makes no comment, but it is understood that this is considered a very good showing for the whole district, and there is no doubt that the whole recruiting business has been very much stimulated in the last two or three weeks.

The local army recruiting station has received orders concerning the enlistment of men for the ordnance department. The order says, "accept for enlistment in ordnance corps of the National Army, any qualified applicant present before the office of chief of ordnance, requesting such acceptance. Send applicants to arsenal for enlistment if so requested in letter from chief of ordnance, otherwise to proper depot. Copy of enlistment paper to be changed to read, 'National Army.'"

COL. BLOOR'S HEADQUARTERS MOVED TO LAKE WICHITA

Col. A. W. Bloor has ordered field headquarters at Lake Wichita. Colonel Bloor and his entire staff will take up residence at the Lake Wichita hotel, it was reported here yesterday. The staff will consist of one lieutenant colonel, three majors, four captains, and eight or more lieutenants. It was also reported yesterday that the uniforms will arrive in all probability at 1 o'clock today, and will be issued Monday. This will complete the supplies which will be sent here as the mess kits, knives, spoons,

Chiropractic As a Health Agent

Your own common sense will convince you of the logic of the science that allows nature to heal itself, through the proper adjustment of the nerve channels.

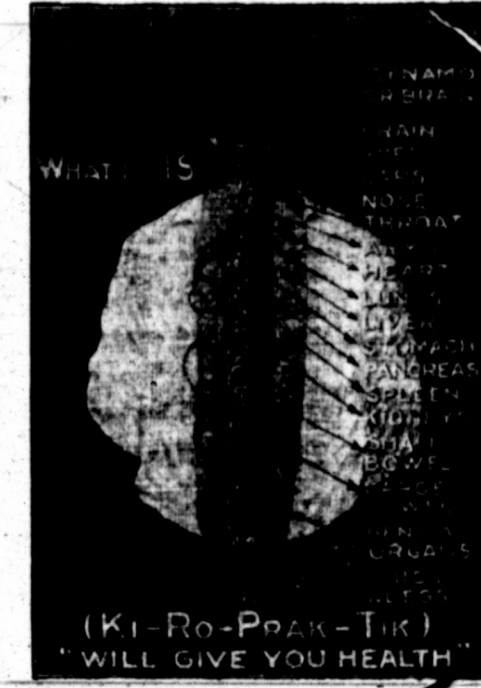

A nerve is really a conveying medium for the transmission of mental impulses or life forces. It must be of size sufficient to transmit a normal amount of energy per given length of time, and is likened to any other medium used for the transmission of energy. Any reduction in the size of the nerve results, in a reduction of its carrying capacity, and a corresponding lack of energy, per given length of time, the result of which is lack of function in the parts and organs into which such affected nerve terminates, in proportion to the degree of interference, and is recognized as some form of disease.

The only point where interference with the transmission of energy can be made, to a degree sufficient to cause deranged functional activity, or disease can occur, is at the little openings (foramina), between each consecutive pair of vertebrae. At these points a slight mis-alignment or sub-luxation of a vertebrae will result in pressure upon the nerve passing through such opening, interfering more or less seriously with its transmission of the nerve current.

Scientific Chiropractic employs a method of its own to correct such mis-aligned or sub-luxated vertebrae, the result of which is a restoration of carrying capacity to the affected nerve, AND A RETURN TO HEALTH.

CHIROPRACTIC has demonstrated that the primary cause of all diseases is lack of energy in some organ or tissue of the body. Every organ must do its part and it must have power with which to operate. It can only operate in proportion to the amount of power it receives. If it receives 100% of power, it can do its work normally. If only 50% of power, then only half its capacity, and disease is the result.

CHIROPRACTIC is not a theory—it is a science of facts that have been proven to the most skeptical. By adjusting the vertebrae (joints) of the spine to their normal position, thus freeing the nerves from pressure and allowing the vital life force of the body to be transmitted over them to the organs and tissues of the body. Such diseases as these, after all other methods failed, Chiropractic removed the cause and DISEASE DISAPPEARED.

The vital life force of the body is transmitted from the brain via spinal cord, thence through spinal nerves to energy organ and tissue of the body. Just the same as electricity is transmitted over a wire.

Chiropractic has demonstrated its value as a health agent in all dis-ease emanating from obstructions of the various nerve channels, such as

- Aphasia, Deafness, Eye Troubles, Epilepsy, Facial Paralysis, Facial Neuralgia, Hay Fever, Headaches, Insomnia, Melancholia, Neurasthenia, Nasal Catarrh, Loss of Memory, Locomotor Ataxia, Quinsy, Head Noises, Tonsillitis, Wry Neck.
- Bleeding from Nose, Catarrh of the Throat, Dizziness, Goitre, Hiccoughs, Hoarseness, Loss of Speech, La Grippe, Numbness of Arms and Hands, Nervous Prostration, Pain in Arms, Pain in Back of Neck and Shoulders.
- Asthma, Bronchitis, Enlargement, Leakage and Palpitation of the Heart, Pain Between Shoulder Blades, Rheumatism of Arms, Various Lung Troubles, Writers' Cramp.
- All Diseases general in nature, Difficult Breathing, Pleurisy, St. Vitas Dance.
- Anemia, Dyspepsia, Enlargement of Spleen, Gas in Stomach, Gall Stones.
- Hearthburn, Indigestion, Jaundice, Loss of Appetite, Neuralgia of Stomach, Sick Headaches, Vomiting Attacks, Ulcers of Stomach.

GOV. FERGUSON COMPLETES HIS DIRECT TESTIMONY

UNDER CRANE'S QUESTIONING FERGUSON ADMITS HE HAS NOT PAID BACK MONEY TO STATE THAT OFFICIAL ACCOUNT

Crane Reads Records to Show That Lumber Case Decision Did Not Come Until Late in 1916.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, August 20.—Gov. James E. Ferguson today completed his direct testimony on the charges preferred against him by Speaker P. O. Fuller and M. M. Crane, counsel for the House committee immediately began the cross examination.

Under questioning from Crane the governor said that he had not paid back into the treasury funds from "the water, ice, light, fuel and incidental" legislative appropriation alleged to have been spent for groceries, meat, vegetables and other necessities.

Mr. Crane next took up the charge that the governor used $5,000 in the governor's official account in the Temple State bank for a personal obligation. The governor had stated previously that this item was erroneously charged to his personal account and should have been charged to his special account. Under cross examination the governor admitted that the special fund consisted of money that an agreement could not be checked on pending the settlement of the case.

The governor, explaining the remitting of the $5,000 bond, said Mr. Allen had told him that he would be able to bring back from Mexico Luis Rodriguez, the Mexican, who had jumped bail and that it would be a matter of time before he were on the bond if they had to pay. The governor said his position was that he would not enforce the bond if the local authorities did not wish it done.

"I concluded finally," said the governor, "to remit the bond as to enforce it would be bringing the man back from Mexico who had killed a man, and Rodriguez had killed back to life, nor Rodriguez back to trial. Allen was committed of course to make every effort to recover the Mexican. This act had no connection with any official action of mine in connection with the University. That there was any comment on it shows how far the university will go when a man ceases to be their tool."

W. A. Hanger asked the governor if he had ever attempted to coerce any member of the board. "No," said the governor, "but I have never failed to appeal with all the power the Lord has given me to the reason of those concerned there who were on the board."

The governor turned to Fuller who was back of him and asked the speaker to sit in front of him so he could see him. "That was after the meeting was held that I signed a statement that the West Texas A. and M. was office to cater to Fuller came to my office and said his congressional campaign was coming on fine but he needed some financial help. I asked him how much he needed and he said $500. I said I had not a cent but I would think I had but that I wasn't broke."

The governor continued that Fuller examined the bill and asked the governor quickly and he rejoined that he understood. "I then drew up a $500 note to run two years at six per cent and gave the speaker a check for $100 and $100 in currency, five $20 bills. I started to give the speaker a check for $500 but he said he needed some money so I loaned Fuller that money as to a friend. I never dreamed of the result. I was looking for no help from him. He was looking for help from me. He (Continued on page 4.)

EMPEROR H.A.S CONFIDENCE IN HIGH SEAS FLEET

ISSUES STATEMENT AT CONCLUSION OF VISIT AT HELIGOLAND PRAISING BRANCHES OF SERVICE

By Associated Press. Amsterdam, Aug. 20.—At the conclusion of his visit to the German high sea fleet Wilhelmshaven, Emperor William issued the following statement to the fleet:

"After having recently received an unbroken thunder showers over the attack of the enemy in an attempt to break up our sea-front in Flanders had been successfully repelled. I have had by a visit to my fleet and the island fortress of Heligoland, been enabled to convince myself of the security of this front. I express my warm appreciation to all the high sea forces on the water, under water and in the air, and to the fortress of Heligoland for their untiring, self sacrificing and successful labor by means of which they have kept firmly in view and attained this aim. May the fleet remain conscious that the conference of myself and the fatherland repose firmly in it. The emperor distributed a number of iron crosses.

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 20.—The fourth annual session of the Central West Texas District Farmers' Institute is to be held this year at Sweetwater, Nolan county, on September 6, according to the program just issued by J. W. Scott, director of farmers' institutes of the State Department of Agriculture. Delegates from over 25 counties in the central and western portions of Texas are to attend the meeting. The keynote of the meeting will be the production of a fall crop of wheat and other food and feed staples.

Director Neill is on the program for an address on the "preparation of the Soil and Moisture Conservation." Professor E. Scholl, state entomologist, will discuss "Insect Pests and How to Control Them."

ARMED FORCES NOW TOTAL NEAR A MILLION MEN

Washington, Aug. 2.—Since April 1 approximately 1,500,000 men offered themselves for military service. Of this number 448,859 were accepted. WAR HAS INCREASED OUTPUT FILM COMEDIES

By Associated Press. Chicago, Aug. 20.—The war has caused an increase in the output of motion picture comedies, according to Adolph Zukor, president of a large film production company. "We are making mostly comedies now," he asserted today. "People want fun and laughter in the films, they take their tragedies from the newspapers."

GENERAL STRIKE OF I. W. W. FAILS TO GET GOOD START

By Associated Press. Chicago, Aug. 20.—A general strike of the Industrial Workers of the World called as a protest against the holding of its members in jail without charges being preferred against them, spread to begin today in Montana, Washington, Idaho and Oregon, did not get a good start according to reports received here. Seattle and Portland dispatches indicate normal conditions.

GERMAN LANGUAGE WILL NOT BE DROPPED FROM CURRICULUM

By Associated Press. Austin, Texas, Aug. 20.—Despite the fact that the United States is at war with Germany, the German language will still continue to be taught in the Austin public schools, according to Professor A. N. McCallum, city superintendent of public instruction. According to information received here, the German language is not to be dropped from the curriculum of most of the public schools of the state. Several cities in the North and East have eliminated German from the course of studies because of the war, reports say.

Those cities which have taken the study of German from their programs, said Superintendent McCallum, "are reports received here. Seattle and Portland dispatches indicate normal conditions."

I know I will not be disappointed, as our citizens have never failed yet to respond to any matter having for its object the advancement of the best interest of our country. Very respectfully, J. A. KEMP.

Representative Denton raised the point of order that a committee of the whole is equal to a special order, to which Denton said the investigation of the impeachment charges had become a special order, despite the governor's call for a special session to consider the university appropriation bill and that no motion had been made to make a committee of the whole a special order. Railroad Alters Line, So Ames Monument Must Be Removed

OAKES AMES MONUMENT

Up on the summit of the Rocky mountains, where the Union Pacific railroad crosses the backbone of the continent, workers are now preparing to erect a huge pyramid of granite, to move thirty seven years ago to the memory of Oakes Ames and Oliver Ames, the constructors of President Lincoln's great steel highway to the Pacific. The monument is sixty feet high.

Through a change in the line, built for the purpose of eliminating unnecessary mileage and for cutting down the grade, the Ames monument was left standing alone nearly five miles from the new tracks. The Ames monument, a unique among monuments, stands on one of the most lofty eminences ever chosen for such a purpose and commemorates the name of the men whose constructive genius carried the first railway over the Rocky mountains, a feat which at the time held the admiration of the world.

WOULD RAISE $1,000 FUND FOR NATIONAL GUARD

A patriotic rally will be held on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the Eighteenth street between Indiana and Ohio avenues. The object of the rally is the raising immediately of the sum of one thousand dollars, with which to buy the equipment of the National Guard camp at Lake Wichita, and to form the nucleus of a company fund for the boys of the Guard.

It is planned to have address by Major Owsley, Major Decker and other prominent officials. Miles O'Reilly has been appointed treasurer of the fund, and he already has twenty dollars in the treasury. Other contributors, E. G. Hill, E. P. St. Clair, and Miles O'Reilly each have subscribed $5.

Blankets, knives, forks, spoons, plates, and cups for three hundred boys to be provided and until the government supplies arrived which was only yesterday—this was provided by the officers. Miles O'Reilly, E. G. Hill, and Judge Carrigan, all were appointed to go out to the camp to interview Capt. Stanforth, and find out what was needed. They did promptly and Capt. Stanforth is up to the citizens to see that the boys have something to eat, and something to eat it with.

The judge also said that he understood that the boys of the camp had raised one thousand dollars to equip a company and that Wichita Falls could certainly do the same for two companies.

The government has by now sent the necessary supplies, which arrived yesterday; but owing to the overwhelming demand for just this kind of supplies the supplies arrived late. Meanwhile, the boys had to have the supplies, and therefore the officers purchased them.

The Chamber of Commerce has taken upon itself a great deal of expense on behalf of the National Guard, and it is felt that the citizens themselves would be glad of the privilege of making this tribute to the patriotism of the boys who have volunteered their lives to the service of the country.

FRENCH OFFENSIVE ON ELEVEN MILE FRONT REPORTED

FIGHTING HAS DEVELOPED TO THE ADVANTAGE OF THE FRONT OF MEUSE

The Associated Press war summary today follows: The French took the offensive this morning on the Verdun front striking along a sector of eleven miles on both sides of the Meuse. Every official report from Paris while giving low to high estimates, has developed to the advantage of the French and that prisoners already are passing to the rear.

The first reports do not show whether the French have inaugurated a major offensive, although indications are that the operation is an unusually important one. There has developed fighting recently on the Verdun front. It was in this sector that the German crown prince launched an offensive early this year in an attempt to break the French line, losing several hundred thousand men without gaining any material advantages. Last week the Germans made a sharp local attack there, possibly having developed a French preparatory and hoping to break them up. For several days the French have been conducting a terrific bombardment of the German lines.

In the north the Germans have made a counter attack on the positions taken by the British yesterday after Epehy. London reports that the assault was repulsed completely. The British line on the Ypres front had been advanced slightly.

Another fighting in progress on the Italian front. Austrian war office announces an offensive has been launched by the Italians on a 35-mile front. The Italian officials yesterday did not mention the attack but press dispatches from Rome mentioned the Italian advance and say the situation for Austria is grave.

Another airplane raid over Belgium was made by the British Saturday night. Many tons of bombs were dropped by the machines.

DIZZY SPELLS

Relieved After Taking Two Bottles Of Cardui, Says Tennessee Lady.

Whitwell, Tenn.—Mrs. G. P. Cartwright, of this place, writes: "About four years ago the dizzy spells got so bad that when I would start to walk I would just pretty near fall. I wasn't past doing my work, but was very much run-down. I told my husband I thought Cardui would help me, as a lady who lived next door to me had taken a great deal, and told me to try it. This was when we were living in Kentucky. My husband got me a bottle and I took it according to directions. It helped me so much that he went back and got me another bottle. I got a whole lot better and just quit taking it. I got over the dizzy spells. I took no other medicine at that time nor since for this trouble. No, I've never regretted taking Cardui. I felt just fine when I finished the second bottle. Purely vegetable, mild and gentle in its action, Cardui, the woman's tonic, may be the very medicine you need. If you suffer from symptoms of female troubles, give Cardui a trial. All druggists. NO-127

MORALE OF PEOPLE IMPORTANT

"The morale of an army is as essential to its effective fighting power as guns, ammunition and other instrumentalities of war. Of equal importance is the morale of the civil population, which must support the armies in the field. We cannot have this essential morale unless the Nation comforts the men in the ranks with the knowledge that everything possible will be done for them and their families, and renders to the civil population at home the assistance which will make it most effective in upholding the government and the fighting forces."

THE FIGHTING LINE, FOR INDEMNITIES AND FOR RE-EDUCATION OF THE CRIPPLED, ARE IN THE LAST ANALYSIS INVESTMENTS OF THE BEST SORT

The fighting line, for indemnities and for re-education of the crippled, are in the last analysis investments of the best sort. The sum of capital advanced by the Nation to promote utility, self-respect and economic development. More than all, they are essentially humanitarian and in the highest sense a discharge by the government of an essential duty to society.

CURETON SAYS AMENDMENT VITAL TO PROGRESS

BY C. M. CURETON, Assistant Attorney General. The constitutional amendment to be voted on August 21 declares that the conservation and development of all the natural resources of the State, including the control, storage and preservation and distribution of its storm and flood waters and the waters of its rivers and streams for irrigation and all other useful purposes, the reclamation and irrigation of all lands of the state needing irrigation, the reclamation and drainage of all overflowed lands, the conservation and development of the forests, the navigation of hydro-electric power, the preservation of our inland and coastal waters, and the preservation and conservation of all our natural resources, to be public rights and duties and it authorizes the legislature to pass all such laws as may be approved relative thereto.

SELECTED WAS THE GARDEN OF EDEN, JUST BELOW THE CONFLUENCE OF FOUR RIVERS

The system of conservation contemplated under this amendment not only involves the storage and control of storm and flood waters, but it involves the development of irrigation by pumping from the wells on the plains of the state and in the southern portion of the state, a system which has been tried out in California, India and other places on a very large scale. The fundamental basis of which is the furnishing of electric current from water and steam power in large quantities for cheap distribution to associations of farmers, as well as to municipalities. The amendment affords a practical method of preventing the recurrence of floods, and at the same time develops navigation, and hydro-electric power, the possibilities of which are very great.

The Gem. Cleo Madison in "The Web" is the star of the program at the Gem today. This is a film in which Miss Madison plays a part which leaves the audience speculating at its close. AUGUST FASHIONS REFLECT THE APPROACH OF FALL

A Peep Into the Future Discloses Long Tunics and Smart Satin Dresses in the New Shades.

New York, Aug. 18.—In August, in spite of the fact that this is the month when the midsummer heat is at its height, women who are interested in fashions generally begin to turn their thoughts to the new season that is approaching. I should really say their thoughts are forced in this direction, for the shops are already beginning to show new autumn silks for dresses, and other things for the fall season. A walk on Fifth avenue will disclose many a shop window devoted to velvet hats, others displaying fall dresses and suits, and sprinkled here and there among them we even see heavy coats with fur collars and fur trimmings. In the face of all this, even those of us who have been set against the idea of rushing the seasons cannot help showing some curiosity as to what we shall wear when the cool weather comes. And, after all, there is some method in this seeming madness, and something to be said for the reason of it. For those who have to get their wardrobes ready in time for the new season, it is a privilege to have a peep into the fashions for autumn as early as this, for certainly no one would relish the idea of making over a dress that had been made on the other side, make the opening of the tunic much more interesting, for this is certainly a novel treatment and one which will attract lovers of the unusual. The dress, with its straight bodice and straight stitched belt, is very characteristic of that smart simplicity which now marks so great many of the new models. This dress in satin or serge would undoubtedly prove very useful for a between season frock.

Other styles in tunics are gathered at the top, with a deep contrasting band across the bottom which falls in points at the sides. The upper part is usually of sheer material such as Georgette crepe or chiffon, and the band of silk or satin. In very elaborate dresses the band is embroidered in several colors—braided in a contrasting or self-color.

Brown and the Wine Shades

Although there is a predominance of navy blue at present, brown and the wine shades will be very smart for fall, according to the best authorities. Smart dresses of brown satin with white satin collar and cuffs are already seen, and this color is also noticed in the new Georgette dresses which are worn over silk slips of a contrasting color. All black satin frocks of black with white trimmings are very fashionable, too.

Stripes and plaids are to be very strong in silks as well as wool fabrics, and very interesting are the new combinations. On a very dark blue background there is a stripe, not very wide, formed from three narrow stripes with green in the center and orange on either side. Another effective striped material has a navy background with the tie-on dress is a familiar sight these days.

fairly wide green stripes and a hair blue stripe in the center and on the sides of the green. Bolder stripes one or two months before the autumn styles became known, which might very easily happen if dresses made up toward the end of the summer are not planned with a view to having them stylish for fall wear.

The Long Tunic Prominent.

There is no doubt that the long tunic will be popular for the coming season—everything goes to show this. In the very newest models the tunic is employed and in ever so many charming ways. In the smart dress illustrated above, the long tunic, pressed into straight pleats and parted at the side, shows one of the favored designs. Buttons placed close together on the one side and bound buttonholes—just as many of them as there are buttons—in various bright colors also widen the variety of the striped fabrics. For separate skirts these new stripes and plaids are particularly smart and may

DIRECTORS OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TENDER VOTE OF THANKS TO DRAFTED OFFICIAL

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce met in a called meeting this morning to devise ways and means of insuring a large vote on the constitutional amendment to be voted on tomorrow. Speaking on the advantages which would accrue to the county from irrigation, J. A. Kemp said again that if the amendment carried, he had not the slightest doubt that Wichita Falls would become one of the first cities of Texas—and of the South.

Several committees were appointed with specified duties, and a general committee of opinion was appointed to confer this afternoon with committees from the Rotary and Lions' clubs, for campaign work in the city. Messrs. Art, Silk, Bridwell, Bean, Monroe, Rogers, and Marlow compose the general committee, and Dr. Reed and W. R. Ferguson were appointed to go to Iowa Park and the surrounding territory.

The motion was carried that a request be made to the city officers to have Eighth street between Ohio and Indiana avenues cleared of cars tomorrow, so as to give parking space for the campaign cars which will be in use.

Messrs. Bridwell, Harvey and Marvin Smith were appointed to confer with County Judge Harvey Harris, to see that all the boxes were open, and that some one be personally responsible for the charge of the boxes.

John W. Thomas, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, was granted indefinite leave of absence during the period of his military service. Mr. Thomas has been granted similar leave of absence from the Retail Merchants' Association. The Chamber of Commerce passed a vote of thanks and appreciation to Mr. Thomas for his faithful service on their behalf.

Upon the motion of Mr. Kemp, a resolution was passed to the effect that both the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants' Association cooperate in every possible way to look after Mr. Thomas' interests during his absence.

Judge A. H. Carrigan reported that it had come to his attention that the boys in camp at Lake Wichita were short of a good many things which they ought to have, and that some of the officers had been to a good deal of personal expense to provide necessities for the boys. Judge Carrigan then made a motion that some means be taken to reimburse the officers, and that a committee of inspection be appointed and instructed to visit the army camps to see what was needed and to take steps to provide it. The motion carried, and Messrs. Hill, Carrigan, and Miles O'Reilly were appointed.

OKLAHOMA TRACTION CO. WILL EMPLOY GIRL CONDUCTORS

Muskogee, Oklahoma, August 20.—WANTED—Girls between the ages of 18 and 25 to act as conductors on street cars. Apply Muskogee Electric Traction Company.

Within the next few days this want ad. will make its appearance in the Muskogee newspaper. For already the traction company has felt the effect of the war. It can no longer obtain men as motormen and conductors. The company has been hard hit by the draft, and it has been impossible to fill the places of the men who have quit the company's service to go to war.

"Girls as conductors are coming just as sure as tomorrow's dawn," said R. D. Long, general manager of the company, in discussing the situation. "We are worried, of course, but we expect the new order of things to be equally as satisfactory as the old. In fact, I would not be surprised to find it in some ways an improvement. We shall probably get bright, educated girls."

Mr. Long has already offered a position as conductor to one girl. She is Lela Smith, daughter of O. A. Smith of this city. Miss Smith sprang into prominence a month or so ago by accepting a job as station agent on the M. K. and T. railroad at Okonah, a little town about twenty miles south of Muskogee. She filled the position so well Mr. Long is sure she will make a good conductor.

J. F. Riggs returned Sunday morning from his fall buying trip to Chicago and Cincinnati. He reports a splendid rush of business in all the northern and eastern cities, and a prospect for fall trade that has not been exceeded in years. Mr. Riggs bought an extra large stock of men's suits, getting them at little more than before the war prices, and says he will have some extraordinary bargains to offer as soon as these new goods arrive.

There is a tendency toward little longer coats of suits. Lapels are a trifle wider and slightly soft roll. Shoulders are a little wider and "worked up" to suggest a military effect. The waists are high enough to give the wearer graceful, stylish lines.

These—and other—new features are brought out with particularly good effect in our SOCIETY BRAND CLOTHES, which you should see.

JUDGE BONNER
 WEDS AT OKLAHOMA CITY SATURDAY

A most interesting event in local business and social circles is the wedding of Judge William N. Bonner of this city to Miss Irma McKibben of Vernon, which occurred Saturday night at the home of the bride's sister in Oklahoma City. This morning's Daily Oklahoman chronicled the event in the following manner:

The marriage of Miss Irma McKibben and Judge William N. Bonner of Wichita Falls was quietly solemnized Saturday evening at 6 o'clock in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert Stuart, and Mr. Stuart, 506 West Fifteenth street. Only the immediate members of the two families and a very few intimate friends were present to hear the marriage vows read by the Rev. Frank Barrett. Later in the evening Judge and Mrs. Bonner left to spend their honeymoon in the west, which will include visits in Denver, Salt Lake City and points of interest on the Pacific coast.

The bride is one of the four charming daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McKibben of Vernon, Texas, and is as popular in social circles here, where she has spent two summers with her sister, as in her home town. The groom is the district judge of Wichita Falls, where he and his bride will be at home to their friends at September 15.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McKibben, and her sisters, Mrs. J. M. Naylor and Miss Nellie McKibben, all of Vernon, J. J. Bonner and Linn Boyd of Wichita Falls.

KEEP OFF TRACKS.
 STICKERS WARN
 TRESPASSERS

Stickers have been placed around the Union Depot here by the Anti-Track Walking Crusade warning the public to keep off the railway tracks. The following warning, which is on the stickers, if heeded will eliminate many of the accidents on the railways: "Keep off the track. Keep your family, friends and employees off the dead-end railway tracks."

TWO THEATRES DECLARED UNFAIR TO UNION LABOR

The operators at the Empress and the Majestic theatres went on strike today. The management of these theatres has issued the following statement in connection with the strike:

"The management of the Majestic and Empress theatres state that they had contracts with their operators that expire August 23, and that a committee called upon them Aug. 20 to renew the contracts and they (the management) refused to do so. The new contracts until some adjustments were made and asked for a committee from the trades council to see if said adjustments could be made, but this was refused on the 20th day of August, three days before present contracts expire. Their operators were called off and the two theatres declared unfair to union labor. The management feel that they have been very unjustly termed unfair under the circumstances as they have always been friendly to union labor."

POPE'S PEACE PROPOSALS
 STRENGTHENS RESOLVE

Washington, August 20.—Pope Benedict's peace proposals have succeeded to strengthen the government's determination to push the war until Prussian militarism is stamped out and the world insured against another attempt at conquest with its attendant slaughter and pillage.

Last week Washington was stirred and concerned over the insidious moves of the pacifists. It was recognized as a bad situation and growing worse. Everyone recognized that it had to be brought to a head somehow; not for its effect in America, but for the damaging and costly effect the activities of the American pacifists were having in Russia and the encouragement they gave Berlin.

The thing the Russian mission emphasized when it got home was that the anti-government activities of the small but noisy minority in this country were magnified and directed in Russia and could lead to only one end—not peace, but the lengthening of the war and the increasing of the number of American lives that would be lost in Europe.

Along came the proposals of the pope. While they were received and are being considered with the respect and attention that is due such a source, the immediate effect, as far as Washington and Congress represents the public mind and sentiment of the Nation, has been to increase the determination that all the sacrifices in blood and treasure shall not have been made in vain—that the peace must be a genuine and lasting peace, not an armed truce. There has been a clamor for a statement of war aims and peace aims before the note. The proposals called naturally, for an examination of the records—and there is to be found a more complete record than anyone supposed of the statement of war aims and peace possibilities.

The President's Flag Day speech especially was timely. It might be an answer to the note itself and may be said to represent the actual attitude of the government—and an amazing thing when it is pointed out that in Germany not only has nothing transpired to meet the conditions that brought the United States into conflict, but that the direct cause of the war, the junkers are more completely in the saddle.

People busy with war preparations—sending their boys to the front—sometimes forget what has transpired and the significance of it. They hear the clamor for a statement of war aims and begin to wonder if something isn't off somewhere. But a climax forces attention on the real issues.

And that has been the effect of the pope's note. For one thing, it has solidified Congress in its determination to stop most of the aimless peace talk. Of course, it hasn't stopped the perpetual malcontents and anti-government members like La Follette and Gore of Oklahoma, who before the war were pro-German in sympathy and expression. But it has brought other members to the point where, as soon as they get the chance, they are ready to show the world just where Congress stands and by what majority.

The superficial view here is that America should have rather than the military preparations—that if Germany and Austria are weakening, the quicker America strikes in force, the sooner the end—a peace that can be lasting.

did not have money to help him on his campaign.

The Governor said there was absolutely nothing in the deal to indicate an attempt on his part to influence the speaker in any way.

"Nothing was said concerning the statement that Ahlens was fairly chosen," the Governor continued.

Hanger asked regarding the Rangers in Austin and the fact that a ranger has accompanied him on trips.

"There has been a condition of unrest," replied the Governor. "We have had war at home and abroad. Since I came into office there have been disloyal people about. There has been border trouble and expressions of treasonable sentiments about the Governor. When I offered a reward of $1,000 for De La Rosa, the raider he offered $1,000 for my head. I have no desire to be a dead hero. I want to live as long as I can. People don't understand things like this. Every burn, everything that hit town would come out and walk around the mansion at night. My wife became alarmed and asked General Hutchings for a guard. A man was assigned to guard the mansion. That was 12 or 15 months ago.

"Then began the March investigation. H. C. Poe said he would kill me if I did not stop investigating him. I was told he said, 'got me a ranger to go with me to Temple. I did not want any trouble with Poe.'

"Poe followed Ferguson as president of the Temple State Bank but soon left it.

"The witness said T. H. Conner, chief justice of the civil court of appeals followed Ferguson as president of the Temple State Bank but soon left it.

BENEFIT AT GEM FOR BOY SCOUTS

With their second benefit to be given tomorrow night at the Gem Theater, the Boy Scouts of Troops 3 and 4 hope to complete their encampment fund which is now only $25 short. A benefit last Friday at the Majestic Theater for which the Scouts sold tickets netted them a very substantial sum and as they are expending the same efforts in selling tickets for the Gem benefit, they are sure they will have the required amount by the time the hike to the encampment at Lake Wichita Wednesday morning. The Scouts are grateful to Robert Carey for a donation of one dollar to the camping fund.

The feature at the Gem Tuesday will be a war picture, "Soldiers of the Legion," an interesting story of French soldiers.

E. J. Pope left today for San Francisco, where he will join his wife and son. They will return to the city about September 10, coming by way of Salt Lake City and Colorado Springs, spending a few days in each city.

The navy department is making an urgent call for cooks and bakers, according to reports from the local recruiting office.

F. H. Gildhouse left Saturday night for the eastern markets. Mrs. Gildhouse and little daughter will stop in St. Louis and visit with Mr. Gildhouse's mother.
