CAPTAIN MATTES' WOUNDS NOT MADE WITH BAYONETS

HOUSTON UNDERTAKER CONTRADICTS CURRENT REPORTS OF MUTILATION.

OFFICERS TELL STORY

One Negro in Dock Is Positively Identified as Having Been Arrested During Night of Riot.

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 12.—Frank H. Snell, Houston undertaker, who embalmed the body of Captain Mattes, the Illinois guard officer killed in the riot of negro soldiers at Houston last August, testified before the court today that he found no bayonet wounds on the body which he was able to say were bayonet wounds.

Other testimony of the morning was by Illinois guard officers and coast artillery soldiers, who rounded up negroes following the riot. They told names given by arrested men, but were able to identify only one as a man they found in the dock as the man they arrested.

Lieutenant Testifies. Second Lieutenant Lincoln E. Mayor, Company C, 128th United States Infantry formerly the second Illinois infantry, stationed at Camp Logan in night of the riot, testified to being in command of a detachment stationed at San Felipe and Heiner streets the day following to prevent people from congregating there. Asked by Major D. V. Suthin, assistant judge advocate, he had aided in the apprehension of any negro soldiers on that day, the witness replied in the affirmative, saying he had taken two of them to the city jail and turned them over to the police.

Remember Carter. "Well, I remember Carter. I was more interested in him than in the other because he was a little misused at the station and had some fingers off his hand."

What was this misuse to which you have testified? asked Major Harry S. Grier, counsel for the defense. The Major testified that at first but as Major Grier indicated he would make an issue of his right to develop the testimony the objection was withdrawn.

While he was at the station, said witness, I noticed that one of the police officers, or some one, had placed a tobacco pipe in his hand.

Being questioned by the court, Lieutenant Mayer said he did not think he could identify either of the negroes.

First Lieutenant Curtis E. Stover, 129th United States infantry, formerly the fourth infantry, Illinois national guard, testified as to the arrest of the other negroes, Casey, Rowe and Richard Brown.

Received Tip. "We received a tip," said Lieutenant Stover, "that there were some negroes in a house at 1014 Bailey street, and I took a squad, consisting of Corporal Murray, Privates Giese, Casey, Rowe and Stover, to arrest them."

Find any guns there? "Yes, sir, five," replied witness.

Yes, sir, five, replied witness. "If they had been fired?" asked Major Grier on cross-examination.

No, sir. "Was any record made of the number of these rifles?" asked Colonel Charles J. Symonds, a member of the court.

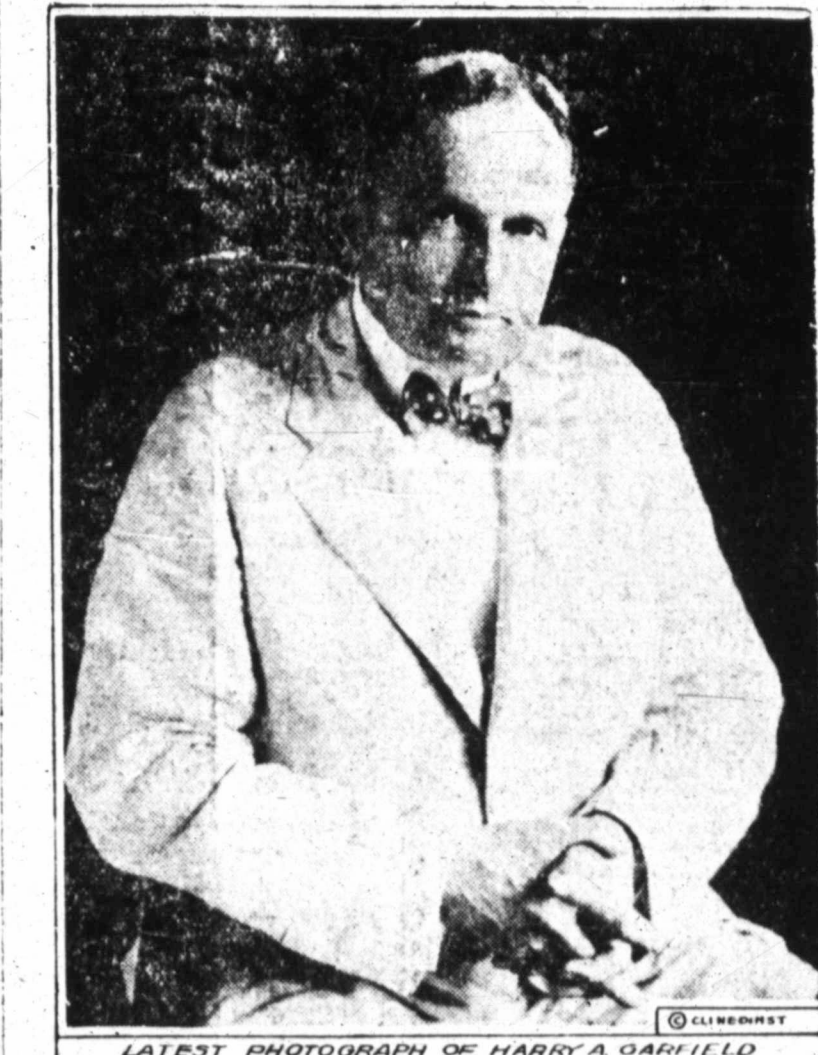

Yes, sir, but it was lost," said the witness. "Do you think you could recognize any of these men you arrested?" asked Colonel James H. Frier, a member of the court.

He walked over and inspected the prisoners, finally designating one of them as a man he had arrested.

One man in all I can recognize," said witness. "Do you know his name?" asked Colonel Frier.

Henry Green Designated. After Lieutenant Stover had left the stand Brigadier General George K. Hunter, presiding officer of the court, asked the name of the negro pointed out by the witness and was told it was Henry Green.

DETAILS OF TRENCH RAID BY GERMANS SHOW THAT AMERICANS FOUGHT GAMELY

By Associated Press. With the American Army in France, November 12.—Complete and verified details of the recent German trench raid show that the American troops on that occasion set an example for courage and valor unequalled.

The officer who had charge of verifying the accounts of the raid said to the correspondent today: "I am proud to say that our men engaged in the fight did everything with their power. They jumped into the trench and stuck to it. In the first place the troops had been in the trenches less than three hours when the barrage fire of the Germans began. They had marked a good part of the previous night and were tired. Some of them were allowed to go to sleep in a dugout 25 feet underground."

Men in Dugout Surprised. "When the barrage began these men did not hear the racket. It is apparent that the first they knew of it was when the Germans started throwing grenades down upon them. It was these men who were taken prisoner but they fought well, even when surprised that way, for the snairs of the dugout were covered with blood, especially the top half, showing that the Germans must have been hit. The entrance to the dugout also gave indications of close hand-to-hand fighting."

SLIGHT TROUBLE QUICKLY ENDS IN COAST OIL FIELD

By Associated Press. Houston, Texas, Nov. 12.—The first disorder in connection with the strike of oil workers in the Texas-Louisiana district, now 12 days old, was reported Monday morning from Goose creek, as a result of which three nonunion men employed in that field were bruised after trouble with men whom they claimed were strikers.

No disorders have been reported from other fields. Early reports of requests by producers for the declaration of martial law were later dropped.

Cooperation Now Chief Necessity For Winning War

WORKMEN HEAR STRONG APPEAL TO REMAIN PATRIOTIC

A. A. LONDON WELCOMES DELEGATES TO FEDERATION OF LABOR AT BUFFALO.

WOULD SINK DISPUTES

Depicts State of Unionists Should Germany Win This War Against Democracies of World.

By Associated Press. Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 12.—With an appeal to all American workmen to place their full and undivided force behind the fighting men at the front and a stirring picture of what labor may expect if Germany wins the war, President A. A. London of the Buffalo Chamber of Commerce today welcomed the American Federation of Labor at the opening of its convention here.

A former leader himself, who has seen first hand in Europe how troops in the field give their lives and blood for naught when workers at home engage in disputes instead of putting all their energy into keeping the fighting men supplied. Mr. London appealed to all labor to do its part to win the war.

President Wilson, declared Mr. London, "has said we are fighting a war for democracy. We are fighting a war for democracy but a war for industrial freedom and self-protection, a war to conserve that which we now have. A victory for Germany would mean slavery for the American people for generations to come and the people who work will be the greatest sufferers."

Spent Summer in France. "I spent the summer of 1915 and 1916 in France and Italy, doing what I could in helping out in their efforts to increase the efficiency of their industries so that they could hold back the German army and possibly defeat them. In 1915 England was in a very sad way."

What That Holiday Meant. "And what was happening in England? A large shipment of munitions that was waiting on the coast and ready to ship and could have been used and should have been used in this very battle—upwards of 300,000 pieces of munitions—was used to be used in the exception of a small firing pin. It was told that they could not be delivered in less than three weeks for the reason that the workmen were taking their usual summer holiday. Think of that! While their own brothers and sons and relatives were undergoing the hardships and tortures of hell, and the very nation was in danger."

Why They Leave Germany. "And now we are in this war and this convention is going to give the answer to why they leave Germany to the American people and to our allies, and last but not least, to the emperor of Germany. And I want to say that a far better way to have gone, the answer is on the side of Germany. We are still washing our dirty linen and we have not as yet settled down to a realization of the conditions. The German propaganda is a broad one in the land and may be numbered among your delegates."

German Propaganda. "And why not? They were in the house of parliament in England. They were in the duma of Russia; they were in the chamber of deputies of Italy; they were in the chamber of deputies in France. They had Greece by the throat, and if such is the case why should they not be in our own legislative bodies, national state and municipal? And if there, I repeat, why not here? And if here, how are we going to know him? He won't tell us. We can only judge by his actions and when he approaches this great problem of winning the war."

It matters not what a man claims as a reason for justifying the retardation or holding back of our war activities. We must stand on results or any man or any body of men who assume to retard the work of the nation in winning this war for democracy, conservation and humanity, is on the side of Germany, regardless of what his method of reasoning may be.

Why They Leave Germany. "Do you imagine that under German rule you could possibly have the rights you now have under a democracy? Ask any man who has come from Germany. Ask him why he left Germany. He will tell you the answer, if he is honest. If we continue to argue among ourselves as to the right and wrong of this principle and the...

By Associated Press. Auditorium, Buffalo, Nov. 12.—President Wilson made a personal and eloquent appeal here today for the full support of organized labor for the government in the conduct of the war. Speaking before the annual convention of the American Federation of labor, he declared the war could not be won unless all factions unite in a common cause, sinking their differences. The president paid warm tribute to Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, and virtually called upon the federation to give him united support. He denounced pacifists and critics. He appealed for cooperation. Discussing Germany, the president declares flatly that Germany had started the war and that he was willing to await the verdict of history on that statement.

Labor and Capital. New instrumentalities for better cooperation between labor and capital was one statement by the president which was of prime interest to the delegates at the convention. The president alluded to the present war as "the last decisive issue between the old principles of power and the new principle of freedom."

That the spirit of freedom can get into the hearts of Germans and find as fine a welcome there as it can find in any other hearts. But the spirit of freedom does not suit the plan of the pan-Germans. Power cannot be used with concentrated force against free peoples if it is used by free people. "I speak against free people when the power is controlled by the people," he said, a statement which the audience loudly applauded. "Germany is determined that the political power of the world shall be hers. It is amazing to me that any groups should be so uninformed, as in certain circles of Russia, as to believe they can live without danger from Germany. I oppose not the feeling of pacifists, but their stupidity. The pacifists do not know how to get peace, but I do."

Refers to House Mission. The president referred to the sending of Colonel House to Europe as "having sent a greater lover of peace than any man in the world, but I did not send him to negotiate peace. I sent him to determine how the war is to be won."

Taking up the labor question in the United States, the president said: "If we are true friends of freedom we will see that the power and productivity of the country shall be kept at maximum. Nobody shall be allowed to stand in the way. This government won't keep them doing this but the spirit of the American people will. We must stand together night and day until the war is over." The president added that "while we are fighting for freedom we must ensure the freedom of labor."

The president said that kick over the traces must be put in a corral," he asserted. "The president praised the work of Samuel Gompers and the labor leaders' support of the government."

"Nobody has the right," said the president, "to stop the processes of law and institutions," the president said, "to speak to you alone. I have found labor in many instances more reasonable than the other side."

The president appealed for co-operation. He said that he "would like to see all the critics exported." He said, "We must get down to business and every one must do the right thing."

Never show ourselves Americans by going off in separate groups, to talk by ourselves but by co-operating in a common effort. We must speak to you alone. I have found labor in many instances more reasonable than the other side."

Instrumentalities must be devised where they do not exist, said the president to bring the proper amount of co-operation between labor and capital.

Lonely at Washington. "The reason I came away from Washington," he continued "is that I get lonely down there. There are so many people in Washington who know things that are not so. There are so many people in Washington who do not know what the rest of the people of the country want. I have to come away to find out."

The president concluded by saying: "I'm with you if you are with me. Explaining he did not mean he wanted co-operation with himself personally but as the representative of the whole United States government. President Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, introduced Mr. Wilson, referred to him as "this man of destiny, spokesman for..."

MUCH ENTHUSIASM FOR GOOD ROADS BEING EVIDENCED

H. C. HOWARD RETURNS FROM TRIP WITH INSPECTORS OF OZARK TRAIL.

H. C. Howard returned this morning from a trip over the Wichita valley highway, which he covered as far as Haskell in company with the official inspectors of the Ozark Trail Association. At Haskell the inspection party doubled back to Vernon, via Knox City and Crowell, and Mr. Howard continued to Sweetwater.

All the way down Mr. Howard says he never saw good roads enthusiasm brought to such a pitch. In every town every one seems to be talking good roads, he says, and they are doing more than talk—they are putting the roads in as perfect condition as the lack of rain will permit. Mr. Howard says that the present plan of the Ozark Trail Association, in the event of their adopting this route as a part of the O. T.—of which Mr. Howard believes there is not the slightest doubt—to go from Anson to Sweetwater via Merkle instead of via Abilene. This is not definitely settled, however.

Mr. Howard stated that so far as he could ascertain there seemed to be about six different routes for the O. T. to choose from; but that he had not the least doubt but that they would choose the Wichita valley, though he admitted that a strong competing route was from Lawton to Vernon, via Chattanooga, and on through Mataro, Floydada and either Lubbock or Plainview, thence to Roswell and El Paso. The Wichita valley highway will connect Sweetwater and El Paso over the Texarkana and El Paso highway, which has been designated highway No. 1.

All the way along the route, Mr. Howard says that there is a 60-foot roadway, 32 feet from ditch to ditch, with 200-foot corners, and the culverts and bridges in excellent condition. The people along the Wichita valley highway have, in Mr. Howard's opinion, done some of the best road work in the state on their road, and will get the Ozark Trail without difficulty.

HOUSING OFFICE MEN IS PROBLEM FOR GOVERNMENT

HOW COUNTRY IS MANAGING IS TOLD BY ONE FEDERAL DEPARTMENT.

The American government is being confronted with the same problem which confronted the British government at the outbreak of the war—that of providing offices and desks for the army of employees which it was necessary to use in addition to the regular employees. Temporary buildings are being erected as rapidly as possible, and plans for permanent structures are being drawn up and considered.

How Government Does.
The following account of the way in which the government is solving the problem comes from the civil service department.

One of the manifold problems presented by the war is that of furnishing adequate office accommodations for the thousands of additional officials, clerks and other federal servants who are pouring into Washington. The government is exercising its prerogative in this direction and has commandeered conveniently located office buildings and apartment houses with a free hand. In addition, it is erecting huge temporary structures for use as offices and in the building of these contractors are breaking time records for construction work. A building to house the 600 officials and clerks of the Council of National Defense, containing more than 100,000 square feet of floor space, was erected and fully equipped in 53 days. Similar buildings nearby are for the use of the forces of the food administration, fuel administration, and army ordnance. Work is well under way on a mammoth structure which will cover three city blocks to house the overflow of the war and navy departments, the ### Government Well Ahead.

By these methods the government keeps in advance of its actual needs. At the present rate of increase the usual 35,000 federal employees in Washington will be more than doubled if the war continues another year. Workers of all kinds are being appointed, stenographers and typewriters and draftsmen for the service generally, and what are known as schedule clerks, index and catalogue clerks, clerks qualified in statistics or accounting, and clerks qualified in business administration for the ordnance department of the army, being in great demand.

Private Ordered Back To Secure Decent Hat By Artillery Captain

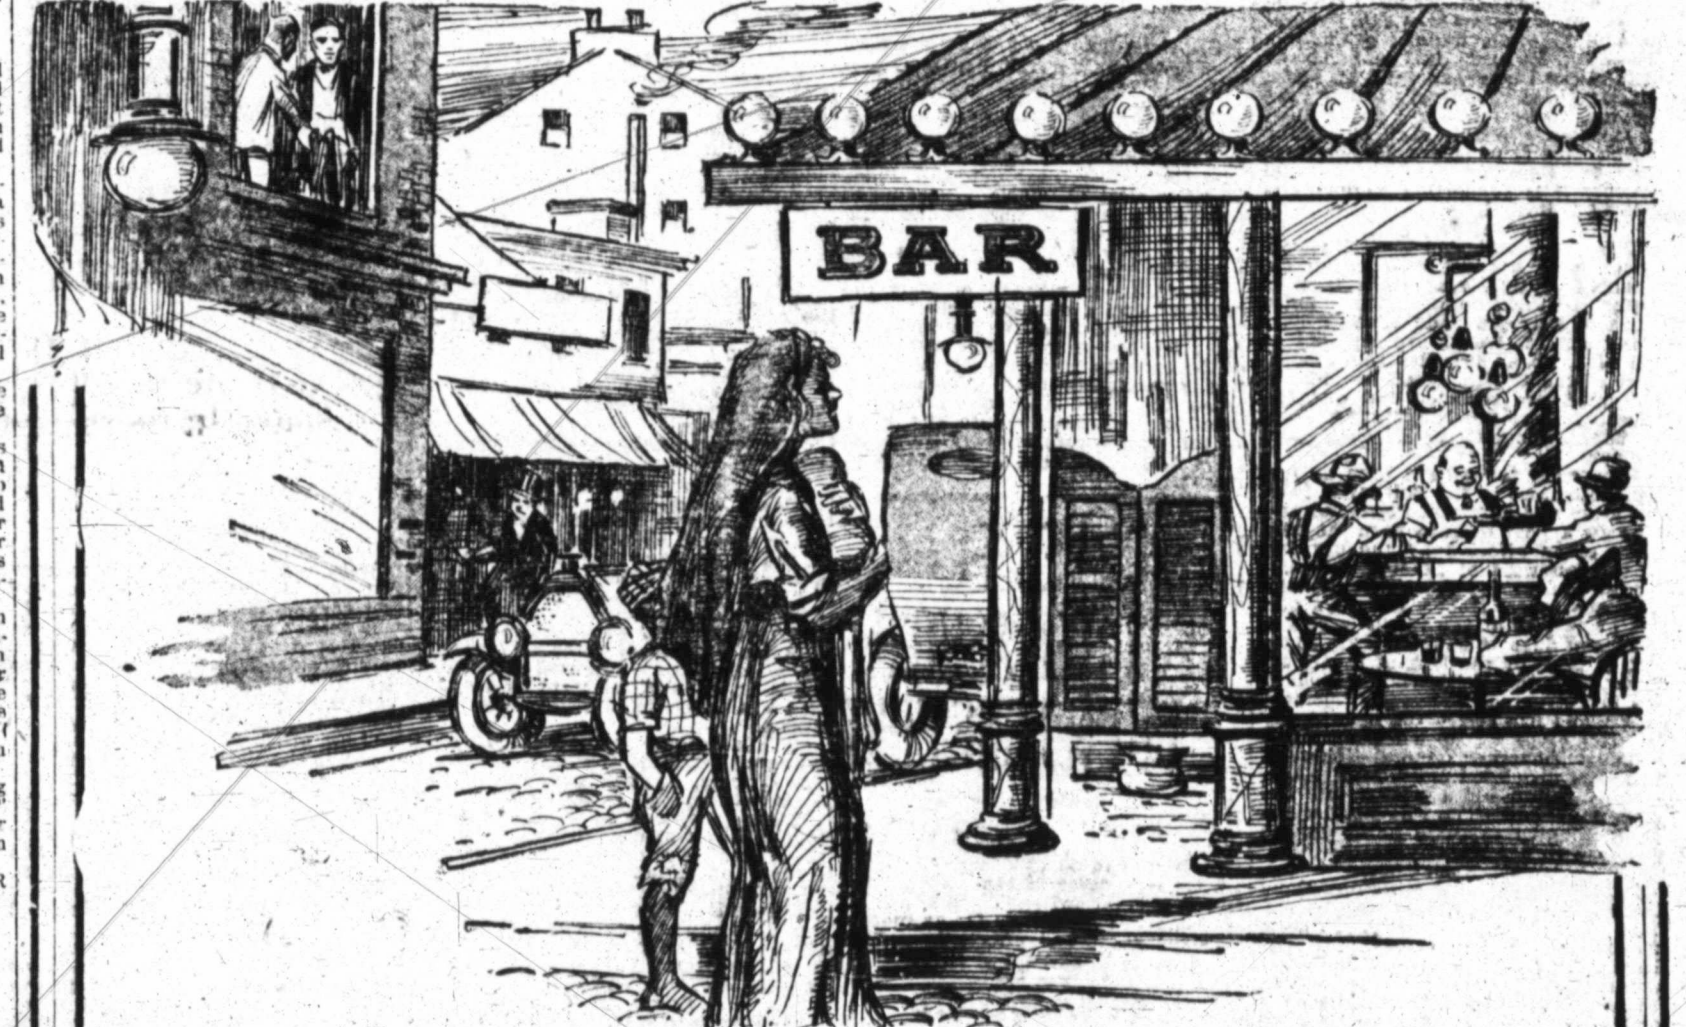

"Get back in that car and put a decent hat on your head," was the command a thinly built captain uttered to a husky private of battery E, Eighty-second artillery, when the mixed troop and stock train pulled into the yards in front of the passenger station and stopped at noon Sunday.

The private thus addressed had appeared on the platform of the Pullman wearing a traveling cap that gave him more the appearance of Hooligan than a United States trooper, but just as he hit the platform the captain's attention was fixed on the cap, and when the command came sharp and quickly the private obeyed without wincing or uttering a sound, showing conclusively that discipline was the rule in E battery.

The train of eight Pullmans and baggage car and a number of stock cars, in which were 186 horses and mules, was south-bound from Fort D. A. Russell, near Cheyenne, Wyo. There were six officers and a chaplain and 212 men aboard the train.

One of the officers stated that the stock would not be watered here, due to the scarcity of water which he has been informed existed at Wichita Falls.

"Woman and boy—wife and child of some husband and father—were fearfully, pitifully waiting,—praying that the weekly wage might not all be squandered!"

Japanese Display Is Creating Comment at Perkins Timberlake

With a Japanese setting which enhances the beauty of the garments themselves, the window display by J. Andrew Bradley at Perkins-Timberlake of holiday kimonos, imported from Japan, is attracting much admiring comment. The window is hung with Japanese lanterns and imported vases and chrysanthemums give an additional Oriental touch. The kimonos are usually beautiful and attract as much attention as the artistic setting.

GIFTS FOR SAMMY FLOOD POSTOFFICE; WORK ROOMS BUSY Postoffice clerks were busy this afternoon handling the largest single shipment ever dispatched from the Wichita Falls office. This consisted of 40 parcels, weighing 20 pounds each. Wichita Falls Christmas gifts to the soldiers in France, through the Red Cross. All this morning the Red Cross workroom was busy as a bee hive, with about a dozen women packing the bags and boxes sent in by individuals in big paper cartons, wrapping them securely and marking them with the Red Cross stencil. There were 400 packages, exactly twice as many as had been asked of the local chapter. An inspection of the packages, to see that no contraband was contained, to save inspection at headquarters, was made. The shipment was made to St. Louis, the southwestern headquarters, and from there reshipment will be made to the expeditionary forces in France. The windows of Perkins-Timberlake and P. M. H. Company, which were given over to the Sunday display of the packages, were very effective; the decorators of the store putting forth their best efforts at making the setting of the "Sammy" packages attractive and the appeal of the windows was doubtless responsible for such a splendid over-contribution of the desired packages.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught. Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks. He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture. I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught." Theodor's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it! NC-131

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.
 From some news item in The Times the impression seems to have gotten out that Red Cross workers in Wichita Falls are advocating that the women of Wichita Falls and throughout the country do not buy Christmas presents, but give what would go into such presents to the Red Cross. This impression is erroneous.
 What was advocated was that the women, instead of preparing gifts of needlework for their friends, do sewing for the Red Cross. This is also different from not giving Christmas presents at all. The latter is one that would defeat the very purpose for which it was intended, that is, winning support for the Red Cross. If the Red Cross is to do its work it must have contributions from merchants, workmen and all classes of people. If there was no Christmas shopping practically every merchant in the land would be driven into bankruptcy, factories would be closed and commerce and industry generally paralyzed.
 There would be no contributions for the Red Cross and there would be no credit nor money for the government to maintain its armies.

If the war continues a year or more adjustments in our manner of living may become necessary, but the people themselves will automatically adjust themselves to changed and changing conditions and it will not be necessary to ask or urge that they do so.
 Several months ago a nation-wide campaign was launched to influence people everywhere to buy only those things that were absolutely necessary.
 The movement never got anywhere. It was the conviction of many that the movement was German propaganda and that its purpose was to bring disaster rather than good. The best business sense of the country saw that the success of such a movement would so disarrange business and industry as to bring disaster.
 The people of Wichita Falls may well observe Christmas in such manner as their own situation and views may seem desirable, remembering, however, that donations to the Red Cross and gifts to the soldiers very completely express the spirit of the season.

NOT LACK OF FAITH.
 "It seems to me that the only people who are showing a lack of faith in Wichita Falls are men with capital who are living here," said a newcomer the other day. For two weeks this man had been trying vainly to rent a house here, and during his search, he said, he had found hundreds of others in the same quest. He arrived in Wichita Falls in the night time and was unable to find a room in a hotel. He can't understand why it is that Wichita Falls capitalists are not putting some of their money in a modern new hotel and in-dwellings.

Wichita Falls right now is too big for her size and unless a new hotel is built and more dwellings are put up the growth of the city will be checked.
 There are numbers of people in Wichita Falls right now who would like to locate here, but who will be forced to go elsewhere because they cannot find living quarters.
 The Times doesn't believe that there is any lack of faith on the part of anybody living here in the future of Wichita Falls. It does believe that when the situation is realized by our men of capital there will be an immediate response to the needs of the hour.

The trouble is that Wichita Falls is bigger and is growing faster than the folks who live here quite realize. If we could all get off at a distance and look at our town we would better appreciate its needs.

Quarantine Service
 At Galveston Taken
 Up With Committee

By Associated Press.
 Austin, Tex., Nov. 12.—Colonel Walter Gresham of Galveston appeared today before the legislative investigating committee relative to the quarantine service at Galveston which is maintained by federal and state authorities. It appears the question of detaining vessels for a certain length of time before they are permitted to enter Galveston harbor is not entirely satisfactory to the business interests of that city. Colonel Gresham wanted to acquit the committee with the situation before any action is taken the committee decided to make a personal investigation of the situation and will proceed to Galveston during the latter part of this week, possibly Friday.
 Sub committee number six, headed by Mr. Cope today questioned Judge Rudolph Kleberg, Jr., of the Southwestern University at Georgetown relative to the law authorizing district judges to approve the accounts of sheriffs and other officers. Under a decision of the supreme court, the comptroller cannot change these accounts or audit them; that is the comptroller cannot go back of the approval of the district judge. Judge Kleberg believed this law should be amended so as to give the comptroller authority to audit these accounts. The members of the committee are inclined to the same view and a recommendation to that effect will no doubt be made.

Air Postal Service For Texas Is Being Given Consideration

Fort Worth, Texas, Nov. 12.—Mail service by air route between points in Texas is now under consideration and will probably be in operation before many months, according to a statement made here today by Major General Squier, chief signal officer of the United States Army.
 Plans for the establishment of a general line of air travel between the aviation fields in Texas are being tentatively drawn by General Squier, who conferred today with C. C. Gumm, manager of the chamber of commerce, relative to securing the cooperation of that organization in getting suitable landing places for airplanes while en route between the Texas camps, especially those located at Waco, Wichita Falls and Dallas.
 Manager Gumm stated after the conference that the assistance of the "Chamber of Commerce" had been pledged in bringing about the establishment of the landing places.

Pessimistic Reports of Danger To Troops Fail To Frighten

Washington, Nov. 12.—Secretary Baker in a letter to Senator Saulsbury made public yesterday declared he had no reason to believe in pessimistic reports regarding danger to American soldiers in France "because all of us know that the American people are not children to be frightened" away from duty. He pointed out that British expeditionary losses up to June 1 in deaths in action and from wounds were seven percent of the total of all men sent to France since the war began.

Man Is Bound Over
 On Whiskey Selling
 Charge In County

When J. H. Brown was arraigned before Justice W. J. Howard this morning he pleaded not guilty to the charge of selling intoxicants in local option territory and waived preliminary hearing. The bond was fixed at $1,000, which had not been made at noon.
 Brown was arrested by Sheriff Hawkins near Burkburnett. He was plying the avocation of a huckster. Sheriff Hawkins located a locker underneath the seat of the vehicle Brown was using, from which he said several pints of liquor was taken.

BULL TERRIOR IS MUCH OPPOSED TO APPEARANCE OF PET BEAR ON THOROUGHFARE OF WICHITA FALLS

A "great, big, brown bear" ambled east on Ohio avenue this morning while a little bull terrier with a loud voice followed and made a terribly fierce noise. The bear appeared to the bull terrier, evidently, like the "big bear" as it swung shut and his bristles raised as if the child being told a story of ruin. When the bear had gone into a store that had swinging doors the pup rushed up against the door as if swung shut and his bristles raised high and his voice grew louder and louder.
 This particular bear was brought to Wichita Falls this morning by W. R. and W. C. Parker and Mrs. J. P. Cunningham of Pampa, Texas, who are visiting their mother, Mrs. W. R. Parker, five miles west of Iowa Park, and who came to Wichita Falls today to see about leasing some oil land Mrs.
 Cunningham owns.
 "That bear is five months old," said W. R. Parker this morning. "He was bought by my sister, Mrs. Cunningham, at Yellowstone Park, and he is a great pet in the Cunningham household, being an almost constant companion of Mrs. Cunningham's twin sons, Bedford and Preston Parker, 5 years old. He is good natured and plays with the boys kindly and gently."
 "When we passed through Burkburnett, E. E. Hardin offered Mrs. Cunningham $125 for the bear, but she would not sell it for that sum. In fact the bear is such a favorite in the Cunningham household it is not for sale."
 The bear is a member of the large specie of brown bear.

WORKINGMEN HEAR
 STRONG APPEAL

 principle, and if we continue to satisfy our personal ambitions and our pocket books at the expense of our national efficiency, what will we when our boys return from France?
 How are we going to excuse our negligence to them when they return log-less, armless and eyeless (if they return at all). Knowing that the reason for it was that we failed to back our boys at the front. That the boy's very father refused for some reason or other to make him another shell to shoot or another bayonet to defen-himself or refused to load a sufficient amount of food supplies on ships so that he could be fed or refused to build ships so that the food and clothing, comfort, even medical supplies, might be carried to him across the sea.
 What are you going to tell them? In-are we going to square ourselves with him and how are we going to square ourselves with our conscience?
 Personal Disagreements.
 "Personal disagreement here or efforts to take advantage of this war, either by capital or labor is un-American and if the men are not loyal to the nation, they should at least be loyal to their own flesh and blood."
 "If Germany wins this war it will be because she has beaten us to our knees. If she beats us to our knees, how do we know that Belgium will not be a side show compared to what Germany will do to America. And it will be no time then to say 'I didn't know,' because we did know. It will be no time then to say that 'I wish I had done differently,' because it will be too late.
 "May we not hope that a national spirit may be reborn here. May we not hope that a message will come from this convention into the very teeth of the Kaiser saying to him that this is a democracy, that marching shoulder to shoulder in France is the rich man and the poor man, every one striving to the common end—honor and victory for democracy and self-preservation—and being sure that we have given to those sons of our and those brothers of ours who are in France, everything that could possibly be required so that they may do their work well; so that they may do their credit to American traditions; so that they may never be able to say, 'We didn't you back me up. Oh! Father, why did you stop when I was suffering and hungry. Why didn't you help me?'"

TODAY'S MARKETS

PRICES OF CORN REFLECT UPTURN IN STOCK MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Corn prices developed considerable strength today, reflecting the upward tendency of the New York stock market. Opening quotations which ranged from 1/2c to 1 1/2c higher, with December $1.18 1/2 to $1.20 and May $1.14 1/2 to $1.15 1/2, were followed by a moderate reaction from the top side of the initial range.

Oats hardened in value as a result of lightness of rural offerings. Provisions took an upward swing impelled by grain strength. Sympathy with a sharp advance in the value of oats counted later an element of strength in the corn market. The close was unsettled, 1/2 to 2 1/2c higher with Dec. $1.20 1/2 and May $1.15 1/2.

New York Stock Market.
New York, Nov. 12.—The short interest was again forced to cover at the opening of today's stock market, prominent issues adding 1 to 2 points to last week's final quotations. United States Steel made an extreme gain of 1 1/2 points on its first offering. Other equipments, motors, shipyards, coppers, oils, sugars and tobaccos also rose. Coalers led the railway list. Selling of Canadian Pacific and St. Paul at recessions of 1 and 2 points respectively gave the list a decided setback in the afternoon. Industrials also reached 1 to 2 points with similar losses in specialties.

A rally in the hog market gave further strength later to provisions. Marine preferred and General Motor were almost the sole exception of the lower trend of the last hour. The closing was irregular. Liberty 4 1/2 sold at 99.98 to 99.96 and the 3 1/2's 99.36 to 99.28.

COTTON ADVANCES ON BETTER NEWS FROM LIVERPOOL

New York, Nov. 12.—A more optimistic view of European conditions, firmness in Liverpool and the stronger early showing of the stock market served to stimulate buying in the cotton market early today. The opening was firm at an advance of 22 to 27 points and active months sold some 20 to 35 points above Saturday's closing prices with January touching 7.14 and March 26.55. Houses with Liverpool connections were buyers of near month but sold the distant positions. Domestic trade interests also bought the near months and there was fair scattering demand and covering by sellers of late last week.

Cotton futures opened firm; Dec. 27.55; Jan. 26.98; Mar. 26.48; May 26.26; July none.

Domestic trade interests were buyers of January against sales of later months and 2 1/2 during the forenoon sold up to 27.71, or 41 points net higher, compared with 26.61 for March, or 35 points above Saturday's closing figures. Trading became less active at this level and there were reactions of 10 to 12 points from the best around midday. There seemed to be very little pressure against the market, however, and the up-trend was steady.

Cotton closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton.
New Orleans, Nov. 12.—A rise of 40 to 47 points was registered in the first half hour of trading in cotton here today, the market responding readily to buying based on the better news from Russia and a more hopeful feeling regarding the position of Italy. The demand was met by diminished offerings.

Cotton opened steady. Opening bid Dec. 27.10; Jan. 26.29 asked; March 27.79 asked; May 25.48; July 25.30.

Realizing by longs caused moderate retreat but the market took a fresh spurt at noon small crop estimates and bullish forecasts of pending consumption figures and went to a level 47 to 55 points over Saturday's final quotations.

The firmness was carried over into the afternoon and at 1 o'clock prices were at net advance of 47 to 63 points.

Cotton closed steady at an advance of 41 to 55 points.

Liverpool Spot Cotton.
Liverpool, Nov. 12.—Cotton spot good ordinary; prices: good ordinary 22.31; middling 21.79; low middling 21.26; good ordinary 20.27; ordinary 19.74.

Sales 2,000, including 1,200 American.

No receipts.

Futures closed irregular and unsettled. New contracts: Jan. 22.93; Mar. 22.62; May 22.62.

Old contracts (fixed prices): Nov. 20.19; Dec. Jan. 19.55; Feb.-Mar. 19.36; Apr.-May 19.19; June-July 19.03.

Attention of Master Get-There-First

Young Sir:

You're at the age when Speed is King. You want to hurry, to get somewhere, to play fast and clean.

And you want to dress in the briskest of the new styles. You want your clothes to be the freshest and up-to-datest that are to be found in town.

Not "dandy" clothes that won't stand the racket of the race or the scrimmage, but good, substantial clothes that will wear as well as they look—and, by wearing long, make it easier on Mother's purse.

WHAT LOCAL MEN AT CAMP TRAVIS ARE DOING TOLD

BUDGET FROM ARMY POST TO APPEAR IN TIMES EACH WEEK

Wichita Falls and Wichita county men in the National Army training camp at Camp Travis will have their doings chronicled in The Times for the information of their families and friends. This camp "Travis" budget, which will be a weekly feature, makes its initial bow to readers of The Times today.

Sergeant John T. Baggett, better known as "Paul Bunyon," Baggett among his friends, made his debut in the National Army September 9, 1917. He is now a member of Battery C, 34th Regiment Field Artillery Camp Travis, Texas.

Sergeant Baggett entered the ranks as a private and was appointed lance corporal September 16. On October 27th he was promoted to supply sergeant. "Paul Bunyon's" home is in Wichita Falls, Texas.

Frank Smith, of Wichita Falls, has applied for transfer to the Aviation corps.

Fred Badgett of Wichita Falls, is now a corporal.

A change was made in the company organization of the 42nd Infantry on November 1st. The members of the company were very sorry to see Lieutenant J. H. Woodside, of Wichita Falls, who had been in command up to that time.

Guns have been issued, and the 42nd presents a real warlike appearance.

Mr. Smiley Turner of Wichita Falls who enlisted in the Ambulance Company Reserve Corp at Fort Worth, has been transferred to the Q. M. C. Fire Truck and Hose Company of Camp Travis, Texas. Smiley seems right at home now, as he is at his old occupation, which he followed in Wichita Falls. Smiley is enjoying the best of health, and is having a good time. He sends best regards to all.

Next to the last car of furniture for the Wichita county $250,000 courthouse reached Wichita Falls this morning and the last car was located a detached in the yards at Denton.

County Judge Harris got busy on the long distance telephone and ordered the car in the Denton yards moved immediately, and it is believed all of the furniture and furnishings will be in Wichita Falls within the next 24 hours.

Both of the district court rooms are almost furnished and present a very gorgeous effect. Judge Harris said no one would be permitted to move into the new building until the furniture had all been installed.

County Commissioners Authorize Payment of Many Routine Accounts

The Wichita county commissioners court convened in regular monthly session this morning with County Judge Harvey Harris presiding and all members of the body present. The forenoon was devoted to auditing and authorizing payment of bills against the county.

The court will probably remain in session three days. The matter of inspecting the new courthouse will be taken up this afternoon or tomorrow morning, when it will be determined whether or not the building is to be accepted or rejected. There is no opinion visible to indicate that the building will be rejected.

The county commissioners serving precincts Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4, respectively, are J. J. Jackson, L. G. E. A. McCleskey and H. H. Haynes.
