VON HERTLING IS PEEVISH BECAUSE HE WAS IGNORED

COMPLAINS THAT PRESIDENT HAS PAID NO ATTENTION TO HIS STATEMENT.

FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Declares That He Favors Four Points of Wilson's Message of February 2.

By Associated Press.
AMSTERDAM, Sept. 25.—Count Von Hertling, the German imperial chancellor, in addressing the reichstag main committee, complained of the lack of attention his acquiescence in the four points laid down by President Wilson as peace essentials, had met from the American executive.

The chancellor asserted that on February 23 of this year he declared in the reichstag his agreement in principle with the possibility of discussing a general peace on the basis of the four points of President Wilson's message of February 2, but that President Wilson neither at that time nor since had taken any notice of the chancellor's declaration.

Count Von Hertling continued by declaring that he favored the formation of a league of nations, the promotion of universal, successive disarmament in equal proportions, the establishment of obligatory courts of arbitration, the freedom of the seas and the protection of small nations.

"We have never concealed the fact," said Chancellor Von Hertling in the course of his address, "that all I thought of in the week after our minds. But how do things stand on the opposite side? If one credited the utterances of the enemy, official and unofficial, they would lead to a Germany which in criminal arrogance is striving for world hegemony, to fight for freedom and justice against German imperialism, the Prussian militarism. We know better. The world war was prepared years ago by the well known encircling policy of the Kaiser, and there were those who were not with Germany. Austria-Hungary's movement and the pan-Slavic idea demanded it."

"The match was not put to the powder by the Prussian military party, but by the German imperial government up to the last moment endeavoring to preserve peace, the Russian military party put through the mobilization of the army and navy and thereby made war unavoidable."

"The official account of the Sukhmetlinoff trial made this clear to everyone who desired to see the truth calmly forward to the judgment of posterity. For the present, it is true those who are in power in the enemy countries have not desired to see a parallel campaign of lies and calumny in obscuring the truth. When a result was not obtained by the spoken or written word, they have resorted to pictorial representations, productions of absolutely devilish fantasy, from which one turns with horror and disgust."

"But the object has been attained. A hatred has been raised among the enemy people against the German powers and particularly against Germany, a hatred which eschews all moderation and chokes off all just judgment."

"You will all read Premier Clemenceau's last speech, a speech which seemed in its fanatical hatred and consciousness of moral disavowal to say anything hitherto achieved. But in America it found a many voiced echo, as is proved by the pronouncements that are reaching our ears from across the ocean."

"The wildest war fury is at present raging in the United States. The people are intoxicated with the idea that America is fighting to destroy the powers and particularly against Germany, a hatred which eschews all moderation and chokes off all just judgment."

"Recalls Old Proverb.
Theory and practice are two different things. The old proverb of the note in another's eye and the beam in one's own, finds constant illustration in the machinery of the content. They are never tired of condemning our march into Belgium but they pass over the oppression of Greece, the interference with our country's internal affairs, and the forcible abdication of its king as if they were matters of course. They ascribe that they are fighting to protect the century-old wrongs and the justifiable grievances of Ireland nowhere find a hearing. The

VON HERTLING'S SPEECH DEFENDS CRUEL TREATMENT OF BELGIANS

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 24.—Chancellor Von Hertling in the course of his speech before the reichstag main committee, vigorously defended Germany's action toward Belgium. He admitted that in invading Belgium Germany had transgressed the written law but he said:

BELIEVE GERMANY BEHIND PROGRAM OUTLINED MONDAY

IS SUGGESTED THAT IT WAS INSPIRED BY THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT.

EMBODIES PEACE TERMS

Program Was Discussed Soon After the Failure of the Recent German Offensive.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—There is good reason to believe that the program adopted by the social democratic faction of the reichstag, at its meeting Monday, was not only inspired by the German government but actually embodies Germany's peace terms, according to Rotterdam advices to the telegraph.

It is pointed out by the dispatch that the part of the program referred to international reforms as distinct from internal reforms, was discussed soon after the failure of the German offensive and when it became apparent that Germany's prospects were hopeless.

The resolution adopted by the social democratic party included the restricted endorsement of the reichstag peace resolution of July, 1917. It also declared in favor of Germany joining a league of nations based on a peaceable settlement of all disputes and general disarmament.

"There were non-committal declarations on the restoration of Belgium, on an understanding regarding indemnities and on the restoration of Serbia and Montenegro and a declaration that the peace treaties of Brest-Litovsk and Bucharest must not hinder the conclusion of peace negotiations with the occupying powers over all occupied territories be given up on the conclusion of peace to domestic parliaments which are to decide the terms of the peace."

Autonomy for Alsace and Lorraine was also provided for in the resolution which also declared for universal, equal and direct suffrage for all the German federal states.

It is said that the Prussian land tag will be dissolved if equal suffrage does not result without delay from deliberations of the committee of the upper house.

FRANCE HAS NO IDEA OF INVADING BELGIUM
By Associated Press.
AMSTERDAM, Sept. 25.—In his book entitled "The League of Nations: The Way to Peace," Matthias Erzberger, clerical member of the German reichstag, vigorously expounded the German civil administration, according to the Weser Zeitung. "Not a single valid documentary proof on the intention of France to cross the frontier can be produced," says Herr Erzberger. "It is even established from the German side that the French plans of mobilization did not provide for entering Belgium."

French and British Officers Take Refuge American Consulate

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—A number of French and British officers have taken refuge in the American consulate at Moscow which is under the protection of Norway, according to a dispatch from Copenhagen to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The bolshevik government has placed a guard around the building and has demanded the surrender of the officers and the consulate officials.

CHILD FALLS IN A 20-FOOT HOLE AT BURKBURNETT

IS RESCUED AFTER SPENDING ALMOST TEN HOURS AT THAT DEPTH.

TUNNEL NEAR WELL

Child Was Eighteen Months Old And Hole Was Not Over Twelve Inches.

After hours of digging with a wife, born of desperation, for the life of a baby was at stake, men at Burk Burnett Tuesday night at eleven o'clock finally tunneled into a 20-foot well where the eighteen-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Key, had fallen at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon. The baby was brought out unharmed from its long stay in the well, and the relief it experienced at being in the dark, and was restored to its parents who were almost overcome with anxiety through the hours that the rescue party was at work. A call sent to this city early in the afternoon brought the ambulance and pumpator of E. G. Hill quickly to the scene, but the pumpator was not needed, as the rescuers had kept air pumped into the hole while the work was being done. The little boy would not surface until the well, which was being dug for a water well, had been drilled to a depth of 20 feet, and the child in his panic had not yet been completed, while the workmen had been drilling for a few days, the hole had become a tunnel. When the alarm was sounded a large crowd collected and cars were made to get the child out. Owing to the smallness of the hole, which was about ten or twelve inches in diameter, it was impossible to think of putting anyone into the hole, and the child was rescued by means of a long string and could not help those who were trying to bring it out. Some efforts were made to draw a hooped rope over the hole, but this was not successful. A very venturesome small boy volunteered to go down into the hole with a rope tied to his feet, but this was not done, as it was seen that the only measure which could be taken was to dig a hole by the side of the well until the twenty-foot depth was reached, then tunnel to the well and remove the baby in this way.

For hours men worked like beavers, digging in a trench which was about ten or twelve inches wide, and the child was finally brought out at about ten o'clock. The child was unharmed, and the men who were working to save him were relieved and happy.

When the baby was finally brought out, he was found to be unharmed, and the men who were working to save him were relieved and happy.

Stubborn Resistance IS ENCOUNTERED BY ALLIES

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Sept. 25.—Stubborn resistance is being encountered by the Allied army under General Francoeur on the Bulgarian frontier beyond Demirkap Pass and Strumitsa station where furious fighting is proceeding on the left bank of the River Vardar. The Bulgarians are holding strong positions on heights protecting their own frontier. This is the only place where they are offering much resistance.

With the expected fall of Velez, it is believed that the next objective of the Allied army will be Iskub in order to re-establish the salient at Iskub. It will be easier to move into Bulgaria than by attempting to enter through the Strumitsa district where the natural defenses are exceptionally strong.

AMERICAN REPLY TO PEACE NOTE PLEASES LONDON

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—The American reply to the Austrian peace note has given satisfaction here even to those who expected some re-annulment of President Wilson's previous statements regarding peace terms.

The American reply, it is said, is not as far removed from the British position as some of the public still holds that it would be possible to conclude a peace agreement between Austria and Germany by making it clear in the answer that we recognize differences between them. MARSHAL FOCH SUMS UP SITUATION IN SHORT ENCOBRAGING INTERVIEW

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 25.—Marshal Foch, commander in chief of the Allied armies on the western front, who dislikes interviews and rarely grants one, received a few newspaper men at his headquarters on Tuesday. Among those who received was the correspondent of the Telegraph, who thus records the marshal's brief utterances made in an encobraging manner with the use of hardly any verbs.

"The British army is better than ever. It fights better than ever. All that it loses have been made good and it is a more splendid army than it has been before."

"The Americans are splendid and are wonderfully gallant in the field."

"The French army is the same good old army that it was in 1914. No more is said."

In discussing the general situation, the marshal said:

"The enemy is shaken up and shak-

NO BREAKDOWN IN MORALE OF ENEMY IS REPORT MADE

OPINION IS GIVEN BY AMERICAN OFFICERS AFTER INTERVIEW WITH PRISONERS.

SITUATION IS EXPLAINED

Morale Not as High as It Was Early in the Summer, Before Reverses.

By Associated Press. AMERICAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Tuesday, Sept. 24.—Concrete information obtained from thousands of prisoners taken by the Americans in the last few days does not indicate a breakdown of German morale according to examining officers. It is true that individuals occasionally say they are glad they are fighting hungry and badly treated, but officers point out that the same is possibly true of Allied prisoners taken by the Germans after several days of bombardment.

It is explained that a man's morale is naturally at the lowest ebb at the moment of capture and is usually shaken by the exposure, fatigue and possibly the lack of food. At such times men are inclined to say things which they would retract later and which they are glad to see they are not placed on prisoners' utterances reflecting on the true conditions in the German army and among the people. At any rate, the authorities say that the number of Germans uttering such sentiments is not great.

It is pointed out that the morale of the Americans and this number is being constantly increased by incessant raids. Some of the captured material is of a high quality and is far from being worn out.

They usually maintain a soldierly bearing and seldom utter any profane language. They are seen and inspected hundreds of prisoners. Those captured lately measure up well with the usual standard. Men are found, but the same is true of other European armies long at war, whose personnel it is unfair to measure by the high physical standard of the fresh American troops. From a great mass of digested prisoner information and observations from other sources, military authorities say they find the enemy well fed and well clothed. While his morale is not as high as it was early in the summer, he is far from losing his fighting qualities and spirit. This was recently demonstrated in the bitter fighting along the Marne, at St. Mihiel and St. Quentin.

Study of captured material shows that the German soldier's clothing is of good quality and plentiful. Their rations are generous and nutritious which is testified to by American soldiers who ate rations taken from the dead and wounded when their rapid advance around St. Mihiel carried them beyond reach of their supplies. The German army always well kept and there is a vast supply.

INSPECTOR FOR THE GOVERNMENT REPORTS ON VICE

Recommendation that a matron be secured for the detention camp, where women infected with the so-called "social diseases" are quarantined, and that the women be provided some light work to do to occupy their time, is made in a report to R. T. Orth, as a member of the executive committee of the Anti-Vice Association, by a Federal officer who was here on an inspection trip last week. The Federal committee made a thorough investigation, both of the conditions existing in the city with regards to an open district and the measures being taken to treat those taken in the drug-fund to be infected.

The report Mr. Orth received, which is a copy of the report which was sent to Washington, shows that the Federal officers found conditions, so far as an open vice district was concerned, under control of the authorities and the sentiment of the town towards keeping the district closed, as it had been since the first "clean-up" early in the year, when military authorities hospitalized the red light district by abolishing some houses, were found open, in last week's investigation, the report stated.

The report continues: "A thorough investigation showed that 15 'madams' were left and these as often as opportunity was given were solicited from the front steps of the houses visited and examined and in the meantime are being held in the detention camp, awaiting results as to being quarantined. These women are of the class who own little houses, some of them being very well to do, and intimated to the writer that they would be accorded freedom, could they only get to the tender mercies of the jail."

The report states that what prostitution was found was of a class not depending for its livelihood from the soldiers. The writer of the report, who is operating with the secret service, states that "public opinion and sentiment is in favor of a clean town and the incensed speaking back of many of its secrets, but for the beauty of the 'grand pantomime' in which appears the complete ballet from the La Scala opera house at Milan, Italy. Absolutely novel in its construction, and so different from anything that has previously been shown in America that no comparison is possible. This sensational, spectacular, seven-reel picture has indeed established itself as a real success during an extended run here."

Though the story itself is "human interest" and though the "pimp" characters can be numbered on one hand, liveliness is used in its spectacular features. Fully $50,000 was expended in a short series of scenes in constructing the ballet, the most famous in the world. It worked into the story in a 16-scene pantomime, which is really a play within a play, and gives opportunity for most beautiful and striking photographic effects, as well as rare coloring. In order to have made this perfect, several weeks were spent in rehearsal. Those familiar with these men of the law, the resulting scenes were far above anything of their kind ever seen before. Critics universally agree on the perfection of the ballet's spectacle.

THE MASQUE OF LIFE SPECTACULAR FEATURE

"The Masque of Life" featuring Rita Jolivet showing as the empress on Thursday and Friday, is unusual not only for the spectacular nature of many of its scenes, but for the beauty of the "grand pantomime" in which appears the complete ballet from the La Scala opera house at Milan, Italy. Absolutely novel in its construction, and so different from anything that has previously been shown in America that no comparison is possible. Secretary Lane Voices America's Gratitude To Her Fighting Men

By Honorable Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior. We judge a man by what he does more than by what he says, and so with a nation. If we wish to know America and its people, we must know America as she is, not as she regards herself with relation to other nations, and how her spirit is expressed. A nation, like an individual, is many-sided and contradictory. We may acknowledge that America is boastful at the same time truthfully assert that she is humble in spirit; that she is materialistic but also highly idealistic; that she has been self-centered but is growing broader each day, and very rapidly since the great war of Europe.

One characteristic of America of which we have not boasted, at least until now, is gratitude. Republics have been noted as proverbially ungrateful. This is hardly true of the United States. Her people always have been generous toward those who have made sacrifices for the country. After the Civil War every soldier became entitled by law to 160 acres of the public domain. Those who were injured in the war were given pensions. Those who were too old to work were pensioned, and now all of the survivors and their widows and dependents are pensioned. So that every year after the close of the Civil War we have three quarters of a million of pensioners and are spending $175,000,000 a year for their support. Such generosity as this the world has never seen before.

The thought in the public mind has been that these men fought to preserve our liberty and that we should be grateful that they may not suffer those privations that come because of injury or dependence. Before the war, we expended more in our pensions growing out of a war that had closed one-half century before than any nation in the world spent in support of its army or navy.

Our Special Care. We now are looking forward to the close of the present war, and are saying to ourselves that those men who are fighting for us shall always be our special care. They are giving of their youth and their blood, and those who follow after for the centuries to come shall enjoy those natural rights which we have enjoyed. There is no obligation other than a moral one that those men shall be especially considered. The great arm of the State may properly reach out and draw into its army all who can be of service. But this does not satisfy the American sense of justice. We wish to do more than exercise power; in fact, the only exercise we have for exercising power is to incur some obligation. Liberty to us means largeness, a wider consideration of human beings. Thus it is that we are brought today directly to consider the opportunity which we will reserve or will give to those who return to us from France. Four million men will be the size of our Army within another year. They have given up positions, opportunities, hopes, for us. In return what can we do for them? My answer is that we should give each one an opportunity to make for himself a farm home upon our land, if on his return he finds himself without a position, or if he desires to lead the independent life of a farmer; that he be put at work on some great irrigation project or some of our swamp or other unused lands, and there, under proper direction, be enabled to make a home for himself and the family that he now has or desires to have. Congress has already made an appropriation looking to a survey of the land situation in the United States and we will have a report for Congress during the winter upon this matter. It appears now that there are at least 200,000,000 acres of land in the United States that can be reclaimed. To reclaim these acres will obviate all difficulty whatever as to the absorption of our army on its return. The men who reclaim the land will own the farms. The Government will lend them money with which to get on their feet, and help them to a farmer's education if necessary. We will break the back of this ruinous movement toward the cities. So out of this war will come many good things, and once again the American spirit of gratitude for sacrifice, appreciation of service rendered, will be revealed.

DRUGGISTS ARE MAILED COPY OF NEW LAW

By Associated Press. AT ST. PAUL, Sept. 24.—All druggists of Texas registered with the State Pharmacy Board have been mailed a copy of the new law regulating ing venereal diseases by the Bureau of Venereal Diseases. Special attention is called to this paragraph in the law: "Any druggist shall report the name of any person to whom is sold any drug compound, specific or other preparation of any kind used for or believed to be intended for the treatment of venereal diseases. Such report shall be made each week to the State board of health." This is another avenue through which the bureau expects to cooperate in the campaign to combat the social evil in Texas. The druggists are supplied with blanks so there need be no delay in complying with the law. It is pointed out.

ATTACK CONSTITUTIONALITY OF MOTOR VEHICLE LAW

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, TEX., Sept. 25.—Constitutionality of the act of the regular session of the thirty-fifth legislature making it an offense for a person to use the motor vehicle of another without the owner's consent, is assailed in the case of Walter Williams, appeal from Lamar county, filed today in the court of criminal appeals. Williams was fined $100 in the county court of Lamar county on conviction of using the motor car of another without the owner's consent. It is contended that the act is unconstitutional because the enactment is not fully set out in the enacting clause.

AN INCREASED DEMAND FOR BIRTH CERTIFICATES

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, TEX., Sept. 25.—Conditions brought on by the war has created an unusually large demand for birth certificates, stated Dr. W. A. Davis, State registrar of vital statistics, who has just issued another appeal to the doctors of Texas to immediately record all birth records in their possession and transmit them at once to the State health department here. In order that the government may be able to identify soldiers with dependent claims who may have met death on the battle field, it is essential that birth certificates be produced. Dr. Davis said that he had already received a large number of requests from the government for the information, and on account of the incomplete records it has been impossible to supply the information wanted in many cases.

LETTERS FROM OUR BOYS "OVER THERE"

WICHITA FALLS SOLDIER SENDS INTERESTING MESSAGE

GALLANT IN DEFENSE OF AMERICAN GIRLS

IS TAKING INTEREST IN NEW LIFE AND WORK

ALIEN SQUAD TO WORK IN LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

A message of praise and commendation was issued to all men of the Forty Second Division on August 13 by Major General Charles T. Mencher, commanding the division, on the anniversary of the formation of the division, one of the first of the American expeditionary forces to reach France. This message was sent to Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Laford, 612 Travis, by their son, Elmer C. Laford, who was one of the first Wichita Falls boys to go across, and who has been in actual combat for several months. The young man is in the Motor Transport Corps, attached to the headquarters of the Forty Second Division. He writes that he is well, and that everyone is feeling confident that the war will soon be over, by next spring perhaps, and he assures his parents that in General Mencher's message they can read the feeling that the division has accomplished, in the time it has been at the front.

OVER THERE.

August 3, 1918. Boy Howdy— Say, win is 40 cents per quart up and champagne, the kind that makes the drawing room lamp look like a food of golden sunset and makes you see kind faced old crows standing in silvery streams of water—only $2.49 per quart. Beer is five cents for "keg" and about a bit a bottle—the old price before the world went wrong.

Headquarters, 42nd Division, American Expeditionary Forces, France.

To the Officers and Men of the 42nd Division: A year has elapsed since the formation of your organization, it is the first anniversary of the day when you have accomplished as a combat division and what you should prepare to accomplish in the future.

Your first elements entered the trenches in Lorraine on February 21. You served on that front for 110 days. You were the first American division to hold a divisional sector and when you left the sector June 21, you had served continuously as a division in the trenches for a longer time than any other American division. Although you entered the sector without any previous training, you conducted yourselves as to win the respect and affection of the French veterans with whom you fought. Under gas and bombardment in rain and mud, in the heat of battle to hand combat and in the long dull hours of trench routine as trying to a soldier's spirit, you bore yourselves in a manner which bore witness to the traditions of our country.

You were withdrawn from Lorraine and moved immediately to the Champagne front, where during the critical days of July 14 to 18, you had the honor of being the only American division to fight in General Gouraud's Army which so gloriously obeyed his orders, and by its iron defense crushed the German assault and made possible the offensive of July 18 to the west of Rheims.

From Champagne you were called to take part in exploiting the success north of the Marne. Fresh from the battle front before Chaons, you were called to fight against the German "Eber" offensive consecutive days, you attacked skillfully prepared positions. You captured great stores of arms and munitions. You forced the Germans to retreat. You were the first American division in the advance to the Vesle.

For your services in Lorraine, your division was formally commended in General Orders by the French Army Corps under which you served. For your services in Champagne, your assembled officers received the personal thanks and commendation of General Gouraud himself. For your services on the Vesle, your division was officially complimented in a letter from the Commanding General, 1st Army Corps, of July 28, 1918.

To your officers, all ranks, and all services have contributed, and I desire to express to every man in the command my appreciation of his devotion and courageous effort, and to commend to you the sacred obligation of maintaining the reputation which they did to establish. The influence of our performance on our allies and our enemies cannot be overestimated for we were one of the first divisions sent from our country to France to show the world that Americans can fight.

Hard battle and long campaigns lie before us. Only by ceaseless vigilance and tireless preparation can we fit ourselves for them. I urge you therefore, to approach the future with confidence, and to give all your firm determination that no spare is in your power you will spare no effort whether in training or in combat to maintain the record of our division and the honor of our country.

CHARLES T. MENCHER, Major General, U. S. Army.

Well, write me at my old address and I will get them all when we return to the dear old States once more. Trusting that you are doing well and in the best of health, I remain, Your son, BRACK DELL HAWTHORNE.

Brack D. Hawthorne, Wichita Falls boy who is serving in the navy overseas, writes an interesting letter to his mother, Mrs. W. J. Hawthorne, 1110 Denver, telling of the pleasure he is taking in his new life. He has been transferred from fireman to yeoman duty and says that doing clerical work has shoveling coal heat a thousand ways. His letter follows:

Dear Mother: It is amidst the best of health and comfort that I write you this letter. I surely hope that you can say as much, I am just now beginning to miss my mail; no doubt there will be some stack of it awaiting me when we do return—of our return we know nothing about.

This trip has been a pleasure to me. I have seen some of the most beautiful scenery in the world, the landscape looks like some great painting. It is worth something to learn the customs and habits of the various countries, and they differ, sometimes widely, from ours.

For mine, give me Dixie and Uncle Sam. I could not be contented anywhere else. Life is too slow for me, it is surprising how far ahead of us the world is really going. I was successful in changing my rate from a fireman to a yeoman. My work is clerical, and believe me, it beats coal shoveling a thousand ways.

The Major, Giddings, Thomas and all of us are still alive, but as busy as the proverbial cat—preparing I suppose, for services in the trenches before a great while—and to tell the truth I'm really anxious to get up and see the world. I know just how blood smells, you know.

The railroads over here are nearly all double track, rock ballast road beds but the freight cars are but little better than turkey roops on wheels. Eight horses per car is a load. They are usually marked 10,000 pounds capacity. No air and only a few of them have really brakes and the new engines have air. It seems that each brakeman has a horn and the conductor a whistle to wake the engine crew with when they want to make a coupling or anything. These horns blowing in the yards furnished quite a bit of amusement to the boys.

Now, sometimes I want you to take the time and let me hear how everything is with you. Remember me to the good wife.

Yours truly, CHAS. C. INGRAM, Address: Co. E, 111 Supply Train, American Expeditionary Force.

NO OCCASION FOR ALARM SAYS COMMISSIONER WEINERT

By Associated Press. AUSTIN, TEX., Sept. 25.—P. C. Weinert, commissioner of markets and warehouses, acting upon a message from his chief clerk, D. A. Gregg, who is now attending the cotton conference in Washington, said this morning: "My advice to the people of Texas is to not be unnecessarily alarmed concerning the fixing of cotton prices. The committee, at the advice of President Wilson, will do the right thing by the people."

SAVE FUEL

In producing and delivering Electric Service (power, heat and light) to the consumer, the Electric Company's big power plant requires only one-half to one-quarter of the coal that would be used if the consumer did it himself. Therefore help Uncle Sam and substitute, as much as you can, electricity for every other fuel that requires fuel.

SAVE FOOD

Use Electrical Appliances—cook as much as you can with Electricity. You can prepare just the quantities wanted without waste, and with the greatest nutriment and most palatable flavor.

SAVE TIME

Almost any human labor can be done better by Electricity. It is so instantly responsive, continuous, quick and direct that you can do most things by Electricity while you're getting ready for them in other ways.

SAVE MONEY

The economies in Fuel, Food and Time affected by Electric Service represent an actual money saving over other methods. While it is the best service in the world it is at the same time the cheapest.

Do all you can electrically and you will save more and do more.

Uncle Sam says, "Save and Serve" and that is equivalent to telling you to "Do It Electrically."

Let us help you work out your problems for power, heat and light—show you how to save fuel, food, time and money.

By Associated Press. CAMP DICK, DALLAS, TEX., Sept. 23.—Could you feed about four thousand and hard-working, hungry men and keep them satisfied on a total allowance of forty-five cents per day per man, asks the Camp Dick News, a weekly newspaper published at this ground school by student aviators.

"The situation is serious but it gives no ground for deep depression. The iron wall of the western front is not broken and the U-boat is slowly but surely fulfilling its task of diminishing tonnage, thus above all, increasingly menacing and restricting reinforcement of men and material from the United States."

CITIZENS URGED TO RESPOND WITH WEARING APPAREL

Only about 500 of the 2000 pounds of used clothing asked of Wichita county in supplying 5000 tons of wearing apparel for the people of Belgium and occupied France through the committee for collecting the material in urging more hearty response from the people of the county during the remaining three days of the campaign week. Four minute men will address the audiences in the theatres tonight and probably each night during the week and efforts will be made to arouse the interest of other towns and communities of the county. Last March Wichita Falls contributed 2000 pounds toward the total of 5000 tons of clothing sent to Belgium in the spring, but further help from America is necessary if the population is to come through the winter with adequate wearing apparel. Herbert C. Hoover, chairman of the Commission for Belgium Relief.

Mr. Kemp returned this morning from Dallas, where he had gone on business and was met here by Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Bellah. Mr. Sullivan is from El Paso and has been here several times before in connection with the proposed irrigation project. Mr. Bellah has been a resident of this section of the State for a number of years and is thoroughly familiar with the country. He is interested in the proposition to dam the Wichita river, and was for this reason invited to make the preliminary surveying trip with the members of the local committee.

Every household in the land has some spare clothing worn or outgrown of little value here, but desperately needed by the destitute there. They have been reduced to fashioning garments from flour sacks, old blankets, sheets and table cloth, which have all been disappeared, and shoes from scraps of carpet and lute sacks. To day it costs eight dollars to have a pair of shoes made. For bedding, sacks stuffed with dry leaves or moss serve as mattresses. Everywhere the need of blankets is tremendous. Hospitals and other institutions suffer for want of sheets. In some places whole families sleep together to share a single blanket.

PARTY MAKES TRIP UP WICHITA RIVER PLANNING SURVEY

V. L. Sullivan, engineer, who will probably be retained to put through the surveying of the big Wichita irrigation project, Sam Bellah of the State, and J. A. Kemp and W. W. Silk of the local irrigation committee, left early this morning for a preliminary survey of the Wichita river. The party expected to go about 40 miles up the river and make a thorough inspection of the proposed irrigation project. Mr. Kemp returned this morning from Dallas, where he had gone on business and was met here by Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Bellah. Mr. Sullivan is from El Paso and has been here several times before in connection with the proposed irrigation project. THOMAS E. NOBLE DIES AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Thomas E. Noble, of Electra, died at the Wichita general hospital early this morning, following an operation for appendicitis. The body was sent to Yale, Oklahoma. Mr. Noble's father, George, died at the same hospital a few months ago. He was connected with a refinery project at that place.

FATHER AND SON REUNITED AFTER ACTIVE SERVICE

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Eagle Hut was crowded as usual the other night when a grizzled veteran in the uniform of the Second London Scottish Regiment made his way to the desk and asked the Y secretary in charge if there was any one from Boston in the building. Before he joined the colors Sergeant Major J. Ripple had lived in Boston, and he yearned for a sight of some one from the New England metropolis. Over in one corner of the room two young men sat in earnest conversation. Both had been blinded on the Marne and one of them, George Arthur Sullivan, had returned from a German prison camp after eight months to seek his cousin Vincent Francis Ripple, a sergeant in the 1st Canadian Rifles, in which both had enlisted soon after the war broke out. By chance they had come together under the hospitable Y. M. C. roof and were busily engaged in having a real reunion when the "Y" man shouted through a megaphone: "Anyone here from Boston?" "Is there any one here from Boston?" asked the man from Boston. "Here, here," came from the corner and two sightless pairs of eyes turned toward the voice. And as the cousin returned to his seat and happily started through the lane made as the crowd stepped back, Sergeant Major Ripple pushed toward them. ERNEST L. JONES OF THIS CITY IS AMONG WOUNDED

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Jones, at 617 1/2 Ohio, have received a telegram stating that their son, Ernest L. Jones, is "missing" and today's official casualty report lists Mr. Jones as "wounded, degree undetermined." Mr. and Mrs. Jones received the wire on Tuesday of last week, the war department stating that they would be advised further, but no word has yet been received. Mr. Jones entered training at Camp Travis, from Hastings, Oklahoma, his former home, in September of last year, and was sent over in the spring of 1918. His parents moved to Wichita Falls from Hastings in January, and he was able to spend some time with them here just before sailing. He is twenty-four years old. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are in charge of the Denver hotel.

Soldier's Club and Vice Conditions Are Discussed by Lions

A discussion of the Soldiers Club, and of the vice conditions in Wichita Falls, occupied the greater part of the time of meeting of the Lions Club today. The committee from the Lions and Rotary Clubs will meet this week and will ask the War Camp Community Service for a statement as to their intentions with regards to the soldiers club. The two clubs are at present operating the club, but the W. C. C. S. had previously stated that they expected to take the club over after it had been put in operation. If the service does not desire to operate the club the two clubs are ready to do so, it was announced, but a definite decision will be reached on this matter after the meeting of the committee. The work of the anti-vice committee was discussed by the club members, several telling of investigations which have been conducted and the work accomplished so far. The attendance was not large, a number of members being out of town on business.
