

GREAT MILITARY REVIEW SATURDAY AT LAWTON, OKLA.

Special to The Times.
LAWTON, OKLA., Nov. 15.—The greatest military artillery review ever held in the history of the nation, will take place Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock, when nine regiments of light and heavy artillery, headed by regimental bands, and followed by hospital units, pack trains, and other auxiliary organizations and 2400 officers and six hundred cadet officers, together with aviation and balloon squadrons pass in review before General Lawson and other notables on the streets of this city. The parade will be three miles long and will take two hours to complete.

The big review will be preceded by seventy-five battle planes from Post Field, which will pass over the city in battle formation. The French balloon units will participate in the review with their equipment. Six big military bands will furnish the music for the day.

The great military spectacle together with the many civic demonstrations has been arranged to commemorate the formation of the French United States and allied fighting forces in France, which caused the German war lords to bow to the allied nations.

Fifty thousand visitors are expected to attend the great celebration and great preparations are under way for their entertainment.

Many Visitors Expected.
The thousands of Oklahomans, who have never had an opportunity to see war equipment, will have their desires satisfied, when the great pageant passes before them in this city.

Many different types of guns will be shown. Among them will be the famous American 3 inch rifle, the French "75," British field pieces, American "four point seven," American six-inch howitzers, 155 millimeter French field pieces and a number of other specimens, too numerous to mention. The lighter guns will be drawn by horses, while caterpillar tractors, similar to those used in the construction of tanks will furnish the motive power for the big field pieces.

Post Field's "stunt" men will do a number of daring feats in the air for the amusement of Lawton's visitors. The falling leaf, nose dive, tail spin, Immelman turn and a score of other tricks will be shown to the thousands who have been thrilled to date by straight flying.

After the great military review a comprehensive program, arranged by the people of Lawton, will be given for the entertainment of the visitors. Lawton will keep "open house."

Elaborate arrangements for the handling of the immense crowds are already underway. Housing committees will look after the comforts of the visitors, who appear several days before the big show. Due to the extensiveness of the amount of military equipment which will be shown in the pageant, the main streets of the city will be cleared of all traffic. Checking stations for automobiles will be arranged and ample space will be provided for thousands of machines. All restaurants have been notified to prepare to feed the visitors and are preparing accordingly.

The day's fair to be the biggest event of the kind ever staged in the history of the nation, and the thousands who come to see Uncle Sam's boys at their best will not be disappointed.

COUNTRY'S ANIMAL INDUSTRY MUST BE SAFEGUARDED

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—A warning that the animal industry of this country must be safeguarded if the United States is to supply its own wants and also feed war-devastated Europe for the next year or more, was sounded here today by Dean William Horace Hoskins of the New York Veterinary College. The food problem calls for the zoning of the country with an animal engineer in charge of every zone, he declared, and zone abattoirs and rendering establishments should be established where unprofitable and sterile animals can be turned into food, wool, fats and fertilizers, to save the waste of food on the farms.

SAY EXECUTION OF PEACE TERMS WILL INCITE ANARCHY

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—A declaration sent to the French government early this week by the German plenipotentiaries who went to Marshal Foch's headquarters to sign the armistice between the Allies and Germany has been published here. It protests against some features of the terms agreed to by the Germans and to which they objected verbally at their first meeting with Marshal Foch. The declaration reads:
"The German government will naturally make every effort to aid in the carrying out of the obligations imposed upon it. Its plenipotentiaries recognize that on certain points a conciliatory spirit has been shown toward their suggestions.
"They can not, however, permit any doubt to exist on the fact that the shortness of the delay fixed for evacuation and the handing over of indispensable means of transport threatens to provoke a state of affairs which without the German government and people being at fault, may render the execution of the terms of the armistice impossible. The plenipotentiaries further consider it their duty referring to their reiterated verbal and written declarations to state once more with the utmost energy that the execution of the convention must throw the German people into anarchy and famine."

WICHITA FALLS NOT COMING UP TO EXPECTATIONS

WEDNESDAY WAS DISCOURAGING DAY TO WORKERS FOR WAR WORK FUND.

IOWA PARK IS OVER

Girls Employed at Model Laundry Are Praised for Their Liberal Subscription.

Iowa Park was the first community in Wichita county to not only subscribe its full quota, but to raise the desired 50 per cent over-subscription for the United War Work fund. N. H. Martin, the county chairman, announced this morning, Iowa Park's contribution is $3,000, all raised by Wednesday afternoon.

Wednesday was a discouraging day to workers in Wichita Falls. Mr. Martin also stated, and unless subscriptions come in better during today and the remainder of this week, it is doubtful if Wichita Falls will equal the record of Iowa Park in even raising the quota. Tuesday's results were very good, but the subscriptions came in very slowly on Wednesday, and the amounts subscribed were disappointingly low.

"It would be a blot on the record of Wichita Falls which hitherto has been perfect, to have it said that we failed in this last work, that even though victory had come, we were unwilling to give of our abundance, in order that the men who won victory for us may be taken care of during the days of reconstruction, before they can come home again. Forty-five thousand dollars would be a small thanks-offering from Wichita Falls for this wonderful victory, and for the assurance that the boys are coming back, safe and sound. Let's don't be little, let's give our quota and then fifty per cent over that the United War Work campaign committee has asked for. We have two more days after today to do this in, but let's get it done right away."

The Victory Boys and Girls contribution, from among the high school students, now amounts to better than $1,500, the girls having collected $1,163 of this. The boys stated this morning that they were going to make their part of the contribution bring the total to $2,000. The fund which has been collected by Miss Roberts and Miss Mizell from the girls and women employed downtown amounts to about $2,000.

Praise Laundry Workers.
In connection with this subscription Miss Roberts mentioned an especially deserving praise the girls employed at the Model Laundry, who subscribed in a body. Both the spirit in which the subscriptions were made and the unanimity were praised by Miss Roberts, who also spoke of the cordiality and co-operation with which they were met by Mrs. R. H. Clark, the employer's wife. The generosity of the girls, many of whom are of extremely limited means, is a pleasant contrast, she said, to the small subscriptions which men and women of very comfortable circumstances have made.

The house to house canvass of the residential district by the women's committee will begin at 8:30 tomorrow morning. Miss Pauline Richolt, the city chairman, announcing everything in readiness in this canvass every family will be given a chance to contribute, if the members have not already made this subscription, and by this means every section of the city will be covered.

Electra and Burkburnett are working the committee chairman report to Mr. Martin, but no report is ready. These places are yet behind their quota, it is understood, but expect to have it raised before the end of the week.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF BAN ON BUILDING

First direct advice of the action of the War Industries Board in removing building restrictions within certain limits has been received by R. E. Huff, president of the Chamber of Commerce, in a telegram from Thomas B. Love, assistant secretary of the treasury at Washington. The telegram received by Mr. Huff follows:

President Chamber of Commerce, Wichita Falls, Texas.
Mr. McLaughlin's office advises me that new regulations allow the construction without a permit of houses costing not to exceed ten thousand dollars provided each one is constructed individually by the home builder. This will doubtless give you the needed relief.

AT THE THEATERS

"OUT THERE" PREACHES THE GOSPEL OF SERVICE

The cast assembled to present the great war play "Out There," which is to be offered at the Wichita theatre, Monday, Nov. 18, includes among its members, Thomas W. Ross, Amelia Bingham, Pauline Lord, Mary Shaw and Frederick Warde. It is scarcely necessary to say that these names are familiar to playgoers in every community that supports a theatre and that each one of them are stars in his or her own right. It would scarcely have been possible to gather together such an organization were it not for the patriotic appeal which the play itself offers and from the fact that every member of the cast is glad to appear in a drama that will help bring the truth of the great cause for which the allies are now battling on the fields of France to the vision of playgoers throughout the land.

During the recent drive for funds for the Red Cross society the big theatrical interests of New York City took more than an active part and this play, which already had had a run of an entire season in New York, was selected as one of their many offerings. A wonderful cast of stars was secured and a short tour of the big cities was arranged which lasted less than three weeks and so much enthusiasm was created that in 23 performances "Out There" raised nearly three quarters of a million dollars for the Red Cross. "Out There" was written by J. Hartley Manners, and the purpose of the author evidently has been to preach the gospel of service. While the play is, in a sense, a sermon, it is full of dramatic interest, and there is never a dull moment. One of the great scenes shows the interior of a hospital. The number of the suffering the light heartedness of the soldiers has enabled the playwright to impart many humorous touches.

WHAT CARDINAL GIBBONS THINKS OF DIVORCE

Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore primate of the Roman Catholic church in the United States, takes an unalterable position with reference to divorce.

"Divorce today is the one great black spot upon American civilization," he said. "It is terrible, un-speakable, outrageous. The number of divorces in the United States in proportion to the population is the greatest in the world. Think of that stain on our escutcheon!"

"The salvation of society depends upon the family. The salvation of the family depends upon the preservation of the marriage bond for all time. Dissolve the marriage bond and you virtually dissolve society."

"Marriage is a woman's destiny. It is the aim of her life. Her work should be for her husband, her children and her home. Anything that interferes with her in this, her true sphere, is wrong and divorce does this."

"Divorce is one of the crying evils of the day in which the church is vitally interested. Our stand is unalterable. There should be no divorce at all."

"The one great black spot," of which Cardinal Gibbons complains will be shown in all its graphic intensity in the William Fox photodrama of social conditions of today, "The Blindness of Divorce," which is the attraction at the Empress theatre to-day.

CHARLIE CHAPLAIN WITHOUT CAME IN "SHOULDER ARMS"

To say the least "Shoulder Arms," starring Charlie Chaplin and showing at the Majestic today, is immense, and is without doubt the best story that Chaplin has ever made. The usual make-up is forsaken, such as the limber swagger stick and the deer. These are replaced by a sturdy rifle and a "tin" helmet. The recalcitrant feet are encased above in the busyness like khaki. The rest of Chaplin remains, however, only to better advantage.

The trench scenes will vie with those of any picture heretofore produced, every detail being carefully attended to. The ruins of France are all here with their grimy, dingy, and offer a fitting background for a serious love theme that carries somewhat of a thrill regardless of the character of the hero. The humorous touches that Charlie inserts into the life in the dugout will cause the most prosaic onlooker to double up, with mirth. The epistle from the German headquarters wherein Charlie becomes the commandant and changes places with him, is worthy of the best in pictures.

There are numerous other details and episodes, such as the rain storm, the flooded dugout, "over the top," Charlie camouflaged as a tree, the capture of the imperial trio, and many others that will reach the depths intended.

THE BLINDNESS OF DIVORCE — WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION

—IN—

"THE BLINDNESS OF DIVORCE"

DIVORCE has been denounced by presidents, congress, the clergy — in fact everyone with the best interests of the Nation at heart. When Roosevelt was president, he believed the divorce evil in the United States important enough to recommend to Congress that an appropriation be made to enable the Census Bureau to collect statistics on the subject.

"Marriage is now little better than a system of free love," declares Cardinal Gibbons, spokesman for the Catholic Church in America. See the evils of which he complains in this production. This production is a thrilling melodrama full of tense, exciting scenes and of the kind that will hold your interest. The question arising: SHOULD DIVORCES BE PERMITTED?

VAUDEVILLE AGAIN TONIGHT AT THE WICHITA THEATRE

Tonight opens the three nights engagement of the Pantages Ocean to Ocean vaudeville troupe, offering the second of the Pantages circuit shows at the Wichita theatre. The five exceptionally good acts are selected with a view to pleasing all tastes and include a wide range of entertainment.

Opening the bill is the "Norvellos" in a wonderful presentation of marvelous feats on the flying ring with many new and unbelievable stunts, a graceful, dainty act that is the last word in athletic offerings. Jessie and Dollie Miller have the unique distinction of "stopping" the show in second place, a compliment paid to very few acts. This is their third continuous year on the Pantages circuit, a fact that speaks for itself.

The act on the whole is one of the best of its kind now on the road. Gladys Gillen and Company present the amusing little parlor sketch "Silly Pery Duck." The sketch is well written and goes over with a punch that keeps the audience interested to the last word. It may be said in passing that Miss Gladys Gillen is an actress of some reputation, having played opposite Maud Adams in Peter Pan and kindred plays of the legitimate stage, and this is her first tour in vaudeville.

Spencer and Wilson, universally known to patrons of vaudeville as "Everybody's Favorites," will present one of the most laughable skits imaginable, "Putting It Over." They are fresh from a months vacation and are full of pep and go of the kind that makes for uncontrollable laughter.

"The Imperial Peking" is a troupe of Chinese who have a spectacular offering of large proportions, consisting of juggling, acrobatics, ground tumbling, hand balancing and various other oriental athletic stunts that are most amazing and entertaining.

The screen offering is a five reel selection "Out of the Night," from the pen of Frank A. Keeney, presenting the finished and delightful actress, Catherine Calvert, under the management of E. Lloyd Sherry.

The program is billed for tonight, Friday, Saturday afternoon and Saturday night.

"THE BLINDNESS OF DIVORCE"

DIVORCE has been denounced by presidents, congress, the clergy — in fact everyone with the best interests of the Nation at heart. When Roosevelt was president, he believed the divorce evil in the United States important enough to recommend to Congress that an appropriation be made to enable the Census Bureau to collect statistics on the subject.

"Marriage is now little better than a system of free love," declares Cardinal Gibbons, spokesman for the Catholic Church in America. See the evils of which he complains in this production. This production is a thrilling melodrama full of tense, exciting scenes and of the kind that will hold your interest. The question arising: SHOULD DIVORCES BE PERMITTED?

LET US BUILD 1000 NEW HOMES WITHIN SIX MONTHS.

Restrictions on the building of homes have been almost completely removed. Buildings costing not to exceed $10,000 may be built without a permit. This will give the relief to Wichita Falls that has been sought for the need for buildings costing more than $10,000 is not great.

Wichita Falls ought to add not less than 1,000 residences within six months. There is immediate need for that many new dwellings here. There are thousands of homeless people in Wichita Falls anxious and ready to buy or build.

The Times can realize the need for more dwellings better probably than any other institution in Wichita Falls. For months its office has been thronged with persons seeking rooms and houses. There has not been a day within the past five months but that there have not been a number of persons waiting in the Times office for the evening paper to come from the press in order that they might have an opportunity to make an early run for any rooms that might be advertised.

Men have found it much easier to find jobs elsewhere than houses in Wichita Falls and thousands of persons have left the city after futile efforts to find shelter for their families. These conditions may now be remedied and Wichita Falls can, within a few months, add five thousand to her permanent population.

Busy days are ahead in Wichita Falls and the situation calls for the co-operation and united efforts of everyone.

IRRIGATION A COMING DEVELOPMENT. The development of irrigation will be one of the important industrial features in Texas during the next decade. Hundreds of thousands of acres will be brought under irrigation and made highly productive.

One of the largest of the projects under consideration is that of the Big Wichita here. There are many other smaller projects already being promoted. In an editorial the Houston Post mentions some of them. The Post says:

The drought of the past three years in some parts of the state and of two and one year's duration in other sections has caused a great interest in irrigation than has ever before been manifested by the people of Texas. Farmers who have heretofore been content to cultivate from 100 to 600 acres of land with natural rainfall to furnish necessary water are now endeavoring to assure crops upon at least a portion of that land by irrigation, and next year probably will be produced in this way on many a farm that did not make a crop this year.

Some of these farmers are securing necessary water from shallow wells which furnish an inexhaustible supply in many parts of the state, particularly some of the sections which have suffered heavily from the drought. Others are getting water from streams under the control of the State.

Just now the board of water engineers has under consideration petition which will come up for hearing during this month for water as follows: From Honey Creek in Llano county for the irrigation of 12 acres; from the Colorado river in Bandera county for the irrigation of 27 acres; from Cibola creek in Wilson county for the irrigation of 63 acres; from the North Concho in Tom Green county for the irrigation of 31 acres; from the Medina river in Bexar county to irrigate 70 acres; from the Guadalupe river in Guadalupe county for the irrigation of 16 acres; from the Brazos river in Falls county for the irrigation of 60 acres; from the Guadalupe in Guadalupe county for the irrigation of 41 acres; from the same stream for the irrigation of 49 acres of land; from the San Sabo for the irrigation of 103 acres of land; from Capote creek in Presidio county for the irrigation of 19 acres of land; from Comal creek in Comal county for the irrigation of a small tract; from the Brazos river in Falls county for the irrigation of 488 acres; from the Brazos river in Falls county for the irrigation of 109 acres of land; from the Rio Grande in Starr county for the irrigation of 513 acres; from the Leon river for the irrigation of 28 acres of land; from the Loan creek for the irrigation of 71 acres.

The purpose in giving this list of petitions for water for irrigation is to show that the petitioners are finding it profitable to irrigate small as well as large tracts. The man with a large farm who has only a few acres of land under irrigation will find it possible to make a living from those few acres no matter how dry the season may be; and the size of the area to be placed under irrigation is not limited to the wealth or the land holdings of the petitioner. Had every West Texas farmer taken advantage of the irrigation possibilities of his farm, the recent drought would never have done the damage that is to be attributed to it. Even ten acres of irrigated land to the farm would have prevented any such privations as the people of possibly a quarter of the State have endured. And the farmers of other sections of the State would profit by the expenditure of such money as would assure them a crop upon a small acreage in spite of drought.

GERMAN ARMY CONSUMES WINE SUPPLY IN THIAUCOURT Associated Press Mail Correspondent. WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES in France, Oct. 25.—Officers of the German army who occupied Thiaucourt until they were driven out by the Americans in the smashing of the British salient envisioned their stay in the little French village by consuming large quantities of French wines which they confiscated from the owners of the French proprietors. From the wine cellar of one Frenchman alone the Germans took 5,000 bottles of champagne, 10,000 quarts of red wines in bottles and dozens of enormous casks, each containing more than 6,000 quarts of various kinds of wine. The advance guard of the Germans helped themselves liberally to the latter wine for greater part of it was shipped back to Germany as loot of the German army.

None of the civilians of Thiaucourt was ever searched for valuables owing to this fact all of those who remained in Thiaucourt when the Americans entered the village still have their jewelry and other articles of gold and silver. Many of the women had sewed material over the French gold pieces and wore them upon their outer clothing as buttons.

Many of the keepsakes and pieces of jewelry and French gold coins were offered to the Americans by the villagers as souvenirs, but the Americans refused to accept them. The villagers said that two years ago the Germans stripped the churches of Thiaucourt of their bells and even took the metal of the pipe organs, all of which was shipped to Germany to be turned into material for war. The electric light plant likewise was dismantled of its machinery and every bit of metal obtainable was sent back as fast as it could be assembled.

Bulletins Dealing With the Geologic Conditions of State

Special to The Times. AUSTIN, TEX., Nov. 14.—The Division of Economic Geology, Bureau of Economic Geology and Technology of the University of Texas, has with in the last few months issued four bulletins which will be found of special interest to men engaged in prospecting for oil. Bulletin No. 1758 deals with the geologic conditions of the country around Bridgeport and Chico, Wise county. Though it deals only with a small area, it is very useful on account of the interesting data it furnishes the reader for determining the probabilities of getting oil in commercial quantities in any given region. It is written in very plain language and so clearly that even an inexperienced man may get valuable information from it. Bulletin No. 1753 gives very valuable information regarding the geological condition of the Glass Mountain region. It states that northeast of this mountain, there are many indications for finding oil. Wells have been drilled in this region but without reference to the geologic outlay of the country. Bulletin No. 1754 has been found in this region in appreciable quantities. It is believed that an intelligent drilling of this region will be productive in large quantities. Bulletin No. 1755 was especially prepared for the oil men of the state. It deals with the Colorado coal field and mentions particularly the presence of natural gas in the Canyon and Cisco divisions around Brownwood. It contains a very useful map of this region at the back of the bulletin. Bulletin No. 1756 is a review of the geology of Texas. It contains a complete and very comprehensive geological map of Texas. This map points out particularly the regions where it is most likely to find oil and gas. These bulletins may be obtained upon application to F. W. Craft, secretary of the committee on publications of the University of Texas.

The material is now en route and it is expected to have the line completed and ready for runs within thirty days. The new line will have a capacity for 15,000 barrels daily. Hoover and Party Sail Saturday To Direct Food Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Food Administrator Hoover will sail for Europe on the White Star liner Olympic probably on Saturday. It was reported at the food administration today. He goes at the President's request to direct the work of feeding the starving populations. This is the first time since the war started that the name of a ship on which American or other officials sailed or planned to sail has been permitted to be published. On the Olympic also, it is understood will be Dr. Masaryk, president of the Czechoslovak republic, returning to his liberated country. Accompanying Mr. Hoover will be Dr. Alonso E. Taylor, representing the war trade board, as well as the food administrator's chief of staff, and director of the state's administration, Robert A. Taft of the law division of the food administration, and former President Taft, and Lewis Strauss, secretary to Mr. Hoover.

HAS CONFERENCE WITH LEADERS OF THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Food Administrator Hoover, about to sail for Europe to draw up the fight against after-the-war starvation had a final conference with Senate leaders today and told them legislation to extend the life of his organization limited to the declaration of peace will be unnecessary. Many months must pass before final peace is concluded and in the meantime the food administration will be closing up its tasks, taking the steps necessary to co-operate in the section of food products abroad and giving attention to reconstruction. Some legislation may be necessary. Mr. Hoover told the Senators in connection with work to be done, including particularly the guarantee for minimum prices for the 1918 wheat crop still will be binding and will be fulfilled. He explained that contracts made by the government under the law necessarily would be binding after the administration ceases to exist. Mr. Hoover plans to return to America by Christmas. He said he would study especially plans of German provisioning, the question for decision being whether this shall be done on a cash or credit basis.

Market Report

Cotton Market

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—There was a sharp falling off in the volume of business and the excitement of the last two days appeared to have subsided in the cotton market during today's early trading. The opening was steady at an advance of 10 to 45 points on covering and active months 40 to 50 points net higher before the end of the first hour with December selling at 26.70 and January at 26.00. Yesterday's action by the committee on distribution seemed to be making itself felt as a check to selling while the tendency to cover shorts was promoted by Washington advices predicting greatly increased exports this season. Liverpool suffered the maximum break and reported sellers at the minimum prices but the maximum decline permitted for one day in that market was not sufficient to meet the recent break in American market. The census report showed domestic mills consumption of 440,833 bales for October against 584,946 last year. There was another flurry of liquidation during the middle of the morning which caused reactions from 26.80 to 26.25 for December and from 26.10 to 25.35 for January with active months selling net unchanged. Subsequently packers buying was less active around midday when December ruled around 26.50 and January 26.50, or 25 to 30 points above last night's closing figures. The market remained quiet during the early afternoon but ruled generally steady on bullish southern spot advices with prices holding some 40 to 45 points above last night's closing figures. Cotton closed steady.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 14.—A nervous and unsettled market prevailed in cotton in the early trading today. On the first call prices were off 10 to 20 points but almost immediately a recovery occurred and at the end of the first half hour of business prices were 65 to 70 points above the level of yesterday's closing prices. Liquidation worked against values moderately. At one o'clock the most active months were 45 to 50 points up.

Liverpool Cotton

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 14.—Cotton spot quiet; prices weak. Good middling 23.13; middling 21.50; low, middling 20.45; good ordinary 18.93; ordinary 18.93; ordinary 18.41. United States' steel was the only leader to make little upward progress, holding within fractional limits. French municipal bonds were strong at the record of 100.00. The market became very irregular during the listless noon hour. U. S. Steel, Marine preferred and the motor division reacted 1 to 3 points on moderate pressure while Southern Pacific and the leading tobacco issues were prominent at substantial gains. The market reacted again the last hour, industrials, equipments and oils being especially affected by further rumors of cancellation of war contracts. The closing was heavy. Liberty bonds closing prices: 3 1/2's 99.86; first convertible 4's 97.50; second 4's 96.10; first convertible 4 1/2's 98.80; second convertible 4 1/2's 97.80; third 4 1/2's 97.84; fourth 4 1/2's 98.00.

New York Stocks

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Buying orders in large volume lifted prices considerably at the opening of today's stock market. Demand evidently resulted from more authoritative assurances of an easy transition of business from war to peace conditions. Rails, shipbuilding, coppers and equipments shared almost equally in the advance which extended from 1 to 2 1/2 points in the first half hour. United States' steel was the only leader to make little upward progress, holding within fractional limits. French municipal bonds were strong at the record of 100.00. The market became very irregular during the listless noon hour. U. S. Grain Market

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Fresh weakness in the corn market resulted today from the official order eliminating wheat substitutes. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to % up with December $1.19 1/2 to $1.20 and January $1.21 to $1.21 1/2, were followed by a material setback all around. Oats followed the action of corn. After opening unchanged to % lower with December 70% to 71%, the market underwent a further sag. Liquidation brought about lower prices and the market closed 1/2 to 1 lower with December $1.18 1/2 to $1.18 3/4 and January $1.19 1/2 to $1.19 3/4. Subsequently packers buying brought about upturns in prices. Shipments were larger than a year ago. The provisions weakened with grain and hogs.

SEC. HOUSTON IN STATEMENT URGES ORGANIZED PLAN

Special to the Times.
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—David F. Houston, Secretary of Agriculture, in a statement issued today, urged that steps be taken to secure the better organization of the agricultural forces of the country, especially of the local farm bureaus, in preparation for the execution of the necessary production program for 1919. The fall planting season is completed. Informal indications coming to the department are that the farmers planted this fall a considerably larger acreage in winter wheat than that of a year ago, which was 42,170,000, the second largest planting in the history of the nation. A large acreage of rye also has been planted. It is too early, the Secretary said, to forecast how these crops will come through the winter and what suggestions should be made as to the spring wheat planting. It is also too early to formulate and announce the details of the general spring planting program. Conditions are changing very rapidly and the reliable information is not now at hand. After full conference, suggestions will be made sufficiently in advance of the planting season.

The Secretary, however, pointed out especially the need for an increased production of beef and fats. It seems clear, he said, that for a considerable period the world will demand particularly a larger supply than normal of live stock, and especially of beef and fats. American farmers should not fail to adopt every feasible means of economically increasing live stock products. To do this farmers should give due thought to the securing of an adequate supply of feedstuffs and to the eradication and control of all forms of animal disease. The department has just issued a circular which contains suggestions regarding live stock production.

Further Co-operation of Agencies Needed.

Further organization of all agricultural agencies to carry out the carefully considered agricultural program for 1919 is necessary, the Secretary said. Not only should there be the best possible organization and cooperation of the Federal Department of Agriculture, the agricultural colleges, the State departments of agriculture, and farmers' associations, but also the local farm bureaus and other organizations which support the extension forces should be strengthened. The perfecting of this organization is highly desirable not only during the continuance of the present abnormal conditions but also for the future.

Agricultural Commission Returns.

An agricultural commission, headed by Dr. W. O. Thompson, President of the Ohio State University, and comprising trained agriculturists from a number of the State agricultural colleges and the United States Department of Agriculture, has just returned from Europe where it made a thorough investigation of the agricultural conditions of the allied countries. The information it brings will be considered in formulating the agricultural production program for 1919.

The Secretary's statement, addressed to "the farmers and the agricultural forces of the United States," is as follows:

"We may depend upon our Army and Navy, in cooperation with the armies and navies of the powers with which we are cooperating, to do what that force and strategy can do to make our victory on the battlefields complete and we may trust the President and the heads of these other powers to secure a just peace when the proper time comes. Our part is to maintain the agriculture of the Nation on a sound basis, to secure sufficient food and feeds for ourselves and to meet the demands of the foreign nations, and to strengthen the foundations of agriculture for the future.

Farmers Have Responded Magnificently.

"During the period since we entered the war, the farmers of the nation have responded magnificently to the appeals for increased production and to the urgent requests for fuller conservation. During this present fall season, our farmers have planted an increased wheat acreage and a large acreage in rye. It is too early now to make detailed suggestions for the spring planting season. We do not know how the fall grains will come through the winter and we are not now able to forecast the demands and the conditions which will prevail after the first of the year.

"This department, the agricultural colleges, and other organizations will continue to give definite thought to all the problems, and, at the proper time, will lay the situation before you.

"Two things seem to be clear:

"One is that, for a considerable period, the world will have need particularly of a larger supply than normal of live stock, and especially of beef and fats. We should not fail, therefore, to adopt every feasible means of economically increasing our live stock products. As a part of our program, we should give due thought to the securing of an adequate supply of feedstuffs and to the eradication and control of all forms of animal disease.

Need to Perfect Organization.

"The other is the need of perfecting the organization of our agricultural agencies for the purpose of intelligently executing a program as may seem wise. We should not only have the best possible organization and cooperation of the Department of Agriculture, the agricultural colleges, the State departments of agriculture, and farmers' associations, but we should especially strengthen the local farm bureaus and other organizations which support so effectively the extension forces and assist them in their activities. The eradication and control of animal disease is highly desirable not only during the continuance of the present abnormal conditions but also for the future. The local as well as the Federal agricultural agencies are of supreme importance to the nation in all its activities designed to make rural life more profitable, healthful, and attractive, and to secure adequate economic production, efficient distribution, and necessary conservation.

"The main purpose of this appeal is to direct attention to the necessity of continuing our state of preparedness and of strengthening the foundations of our agriculture."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS: The Allwise Ruler of the Universe has seen fit to send the Death Angel in the home of Brother W. A. Bachman, who when he received the fatal blow from Prussianism was gallantly fighting for Democracy; and

NO RELAXATION IN CONTROL OF LIQUOR NEAR ARMY CAMPS

By Associated Press.
 AUSTIN, TEX., Nov. 14.—The secretary of war today wired Governor Hobby:

"Sighting of armistice in no way lessens responsibility of civil communities for the protection of soldiers from prostitution and sale of liquor. Our states and cities ought to never lose the control which has been established or stop so vital a work. The government proposes to leave no measure untried in repression of these evils from now until demobilization is fully accomplished. War department is determined to return soldiers to their families and to civil life unincubated by disease. Laxity in your state after so much has been done would be a disaster to our soldiers and their families."

The government sent copies of this telegram to the mayors of Waco, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston, Galveston and El Paso.

General McArthur Is U. S. Prisoner Through Mistake

By Associated Press.
 WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY in France, Tuesday, Nov. 12, to be taken prisoner by American troops was the experience last Friday of Brigadier General Douglas MacArthur, a brigade commander of the 42nd division. The first and 42nd divisions were advancing rapidly that day toward Sedan and in the region of Autrecourt the lines of the two divisions became crossed.

General MacArthur, who was at the head of the advance of his men, was taken prisoner by soldiers of the first division who could not believe that any Americans were ahead of them. The situation was quickly explained and General MacArthur released. He then coolly and naturally went about straightening the line and the two divisions were soon fighting the Germans with full vigor.

When the Engine Stalls on Dead Man's Curve!

THEY climb aboard their loaded truck at sundown, fifteen miles behind the lines. They rumble through the winding streets, out on the white road that leads to Germany!

The man at the wheel used to be a broker in Philadelphia. Beside him sits an accountant from Chicago. A newspaper man from the Pacific Coast is the third. Now they all wear the uniform of one of these organizations.

The road sweeps round a village and on a tree is nailed a sign: "Attention! L'Ennemi Vous Voit! The Enemy Sees You!"

They glance far up ahead and there, suspended in the evening light, they see a Hun balloon.

"Say, we can see him plain tonight!" murmurs the accountant from Chicago.

"And don't forget," replies the Philadelphia broker, "that he can see us just as plain."

The packing cases creak and groan, the truck plods on—straight toward that hanging menace.

They reach another village—where heaps of stone stand under crumpled walls.

Then up they go, through the strange silence broken only when a great projectile inscribes its arc of sound far overhead.

They reach a turn. They take it. They face a heavy incline. For half a mile it stretches and they know the Germans have the range of every inch of it. The mountain over there is where the big Boches' guns are fired. This incline is their target.

The three men on the truck bring up their gas masks to the alert, settle their steel helmets closer on their heads.

At first the camion holds its speed. Then it slackens off. The driver grabs his gear-shift, kicks out his clutch. The engine heaves—and heaves—and stalls!

"Quick! Spin it!" calls the driver. The California journalist has jumped. He tugs at the big crank.

"Wh-r-r-r-r-r-room!"

The shell breaks fifty yards behind. Another digs a hole beside the road just on ahead.

And then the engine comes to life. It crunches, groans and answers. Slowly, with maddening lack of haste, it rumbles on.

"Wh-r-oom!" That one was close behind. The fragments of the shell are rattling on the truck.

Now shells are falling, further back along the road. And the driver feels the summit as his wheels begin to pick up speed.

Straight down a village street in which the buildings are only skeletons of buildings. He wheels into the courtyard of a great shell-torn chateau.

"Well, you made it again I see!" says a smiling face under a tin hat—a face that used to look out over a congregation in Rochester.

"Yep!" says the driver glancing at his watch. "And we came up Dead Man's Curve in less than three minutes—including one stall!"

Later that night two American boys, fresh from the trenches bordering that shattered town, stumble up the stairs of the chateau, into a sandbagged room where the Rochester minister has his canteen.

"Get any supplies tonight?" they ask.

"You bet I did!" is the answer, "What will you have?"

"What's those? Canned peaches? Gimme some. Package of American cigarettes—let's see—an' a cake of chocolate—an' some of them cookies!"

"Gosh!" says the other youngster when his wants are filled. "What would we do without you?"

You hear that up and down the front, a dozen times a night—"What would we do without them?"

Men and women in these organizations are risking their lives tonight to carry up supplies to the soldiers. Trucks and camionettes are creeping up as close as any transportation is permitted.

From there these people are carrying up to the gun-nests, through woods, across open fields, into the trenches. The boys are being served wherever they go. Things to eat, things to read, things to smoke, are being carried up everywhere along the line.

With new troops pouring into France, new supplies must be sent, more men and women by the hundreds must be enlisted. They are ready to give everything. Will you give your dollars to help them help our men?

PANLETT BANKER DIES FROM SKULL FRACTURE

Following a fall from the porch at his home in Randlett Friday night, when his head struck a cement walk, John Henry Taylor, a well known banker and citizen of Randlett, died at his home there Sunday...

The Glah Undertaking company, of Frederick, embalmed the body, which will be held pending the arrival of a brother from New York, when funeral arrangements will be announced...

Mr. Taylor was 26 years old. Prior to entering the banking business at Randlett he owned a store, the Taylor Mercantile company, near Randlett. He was ill Friday and during the night walked out onto the porch to get fresh air. It is supposed he fainted and fell from the porch.

He was able to go to his office Saturday, but Saturday night became seriously ill and told of his experience. An operation was then performed, but efforts to prolong his life were futile.

Besides the brother now en route to Oklahoma from New York, he is survived by his wife.—Frederick (Okla.) Leader.

Restrictions On Roads and Paving Are Now Removed

Work on the highway system, of Wichita Falls, which has been halted because of restrictions having been placed on materials for the construction, may now begin as soon as County Road Engineer Crockett is notified. All restrictions having been raised on highway and paving construction as well as on buildings up to $10,000 in value. T. R. T. Orth, the county secretary of the council of defense was apprised of this fact in a telegram received this morning from R. McLennan, chairman of the non-war construction section of the priorities committee at Washington. No priorities order for permit is necessary for highway and paving work, the telegram stated. Materials to be bought when and where desired, as in times before the war began. All permits for material, even for the government road to Call Field, had been refused Engineer Crockett previous to the signing of the armistice and the consequent revoking of construction restrictions, consequently the road work in this county was facing a standstill for an indefinite period. Mr. Crockett is ill with influenza at present and it is understood he has had no time to report on this. Lifting of restrictions on purchasing of road materials. Practically all of the work that could be done outside the city limits had been completed and the engineer and his road building outfits were expecting to spend an indefinite period of inactivity. Permission for purchase of materials for the bridges and culverts that had not been completed had even been refused, the advice from the priorities committee being to "go around instead of building a bridge."

P. W. PAYNE HOME IS WRECKED BY CYCLONE

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Payne and their five-year-old son, Darnell, whose home is three miles east of Wichita Falls, Texas, to visit relatives, the wrecking of their home by a cyclone was reported Monday night in the Daily Leader, and Mrs. Payne while here described the experience to a representative of this paper. "Mr. Payne," said she, "was sick in bed at the time the storm struck and the house was turned completely over. Our little son sustained more serious injuries than any of us, his right forearm being fractured in the middle of the bone between the elbow and wrist and the right side of his face being cut and bruised. It was lucky there was no fire in the house at the time or we would probably have been burned to death. I had tried to start a fire just before the storm came and was unable to get it going, even with the use of coal oil. The storm came from the west, was accompanied by torrential rain and must have been a real cyclone, traveling off to the northeast after it left us."—Frederick (Okla.) Leader.
