SUMMARY OF TODAY'S

y Associated Press. Austria's peace delegation will not eceive the terms of the peace from he Allied representatives until Mon-Peace Conference held yesterday ference to hold another plenary session Saturday.

The Austrian delegation has been nformed that the presentation of the treaty will not occur until Monday and has acquiesced in the decision of the conference. There is no suggestion of a disagreement in the conference over the terms, but it was pointed cut by M. Bratiano of Rumania that 'oland. Serbia Rumania and other small nations desired a short time for consideration.

While business had been discarded in the Senate and many of its members had gone to nearby cities to deliver Memorial Day orations, the House continued its work, except on the floor, where the time was devoted by Republican Leader Mondell, was framed after conferences with democratis and republicans.

The treaty is not as yet fully completed, the clauses involving settlements being omitted from the drait submitted at the plenary session.

The vexing problem of the disposition of Fiume has, according to Parist advices, been settled. Flume becomes in independent state which will be under the guidance of the League of Nations. Questions relative to the Dalmation coast have been adjusted by giving Italy strategic islands along the coast, but there seems to be some discrepancy between dispatches as to tre future status of Zara, capital of Islamatia, and Sebenico, a seaport of the coast, 70 miles southeast of Triest Tresident Wilson, and Premier Orlando were in conference this morning over the details of the settlement which was said to be assuming definite shape.

Experts Are Busy.

Experts are busily engaged in the task of translating the German country proposals submitted yesterday by the enemy delegation. Nothing spefific resarding the contents of the German reply other than received on Wednesday from Berlin, through London, have been made public. It is probable, according to dispatches, that the French and English translations of the reply will not be ready for the consideration of the council of four before Saturday.

In France and England today the memories of American solders who is fell on the battlefield or who died on the battlefield or who died on the battlefield or who died in the service of their country, were honored. ant to travel openly as an army, from one field to another, the invasion may be stopped by plowing three or four furrows and maintaining as thick a dust mulch as possible. As the worms collect in the furrows they may be killed with a drag or sprinkled with pure kerosene.

"Another method to prevent them from entering the field is to plow or dig a rather deep ditch with a steep vertical side next to the field that is to be protected. In this ditch every few feet apart are dug holes with a post hole auger. The worms will fall into these holes and perish, and owing to the steep side next to the field, "After they have once gotten into the field the best remedy is a poisoned bran mash, made as follows:

"Thoroughly mix 50 pounds of bian, two pounds of Paris green and three finely chopped lemons. Stir to a damp mash with four to seven gallons of water sweetened with one-half gallon of low-grade molasses. Sow silf-ingly around bases of plants and broadcast over the field where infestation is general."

Services Sunday morning and evening. Sunday school at 10 o'clock in the morning. The subject of the sermon at 11 a. m. is "A Perfect Plan." Of late years we have seen some wonderful examples of plans on a tremendous scale, worked out to the smallest detail. The minister will speak of another plan, in which the efficiency shown is greater than even the best of these can exhibit. At the evening service the subject of the sermon is "An Unknown God." On Wednesday evening at 8:30 each week there is prayer meeting. A cordial and sincere welcome is extended to visitors.—L. J. SHERRILL.

ALFRED BEARDEN IS HOME FROM OVERSEAS

Alfred Bearden, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Bearden, of 700 Austin street, has returned to Wichita Falls after serving ten months in France with the 28th Division. The youthful soldier (he is only 20) was in the front line with the 110th machine gun corps throughout several bitter engagements but escaped without a wound of any kind.

kind.

Bearden enlisted here on June 16, 1917, and a year later, July 10, 1918, went overseas with the 28th Division. His machine gun unit was sent to the front at once, and played a part in stopping the fifth German offensive from July 21 to July 27. He also fought in the Meuse-Argonne "scrap", was at Ourcq and Vesle and later took part in the fighting along the Thiercourt sector. The division left France for home

REFLECTS DISCREDIT ON THE SOUTH.

A new principle has lately been recognized in legislation in Texas in reference to venereal diseases and no longer is the subject handled solely from the standpoint of immorality. While its immorality is recognized as plainly as ever, late legislation has approached the subject from the standpoint of public health, and serious and earnest attempts are now being made to handle these terrible infections from that standpoint.

It is to be hoped that the new viewpoint will result in some check to the spread of these diseases. The one tracked legislation on this subject from the viewpoint of immorality alone that has prevailed has failed, as is shown in the records of the mobilization camps. Replying to your letter of the 20th, received today, you are correct in your statement that you know I am for good roads.

There is in my opinion nothing, regardless of the expenditure, that would be worth as much to every line of business and to every individual in Wichita county as the system of good roads contemplated by the proposed bond issue.

I believe that the sentiment here is almost if not quite unanimous for the proposition and I assure you that it has, and will have until the election is over, my most hearly support.

Yours for success on June 4th.

worse. They are driven to the Yoshiwaras or vice listricts by sheer necessity of making a living They become virtual slaves under the burden of lebt necessarily mentred to equip them for their profession. They are openly bought and sold.

Again, in Japan one finds the coolie woman, no mly belping to coal ocean liners, but againting u. friving piles for the building of bridges, and carrying burdens of every kind And among the factory workers of Japan-in some of the factories difts are said to be changed once every twelve hours-56 per cent are women. And these women, secording to available statistics, are paid between thirteen and fifteen cents a day.

Japan is provided for in the program of the Centenary. Japan's women are to be relieved of their yoke, as well. So are the women of Korea and Malaysia, of Mexico and South America.

Where Neither Childhood Nor Motherhood Is Sacred

So are the women of Africa-those 40,000,000 wild creatures of the jungle who are the prey of and sold and inherited like property; neither their childhood nor their motherhood held sacred.

In North Africa, and all through the countries of the orient, millions of Mohammedan women must be liberated, not only from the purdah, but from the zenana and the harem -the forbidden

The zenana and the purdah are obligatory upon all women who recognize the Koran. Both are symbols of the subservience and inferiority of woman's position under Mohammedanism, and the zenana carries always the implication of polygamy The veiled women of Islam are innumerable. The secluded number many millions. In India alone there are 40,000,000 of the latter, and in North Africa, it is estimated, there are 20,000,000 more.

The seclusion of the barem deprives women de outdoor liberty and recreation. It affects their health and the health of their children. Many of these imprisoned women die of tuberculosis Limited in their experience, permitted to see only husband, lather, brothers and nephews, their knowledge of life is small, their minds seldom more than child minds.

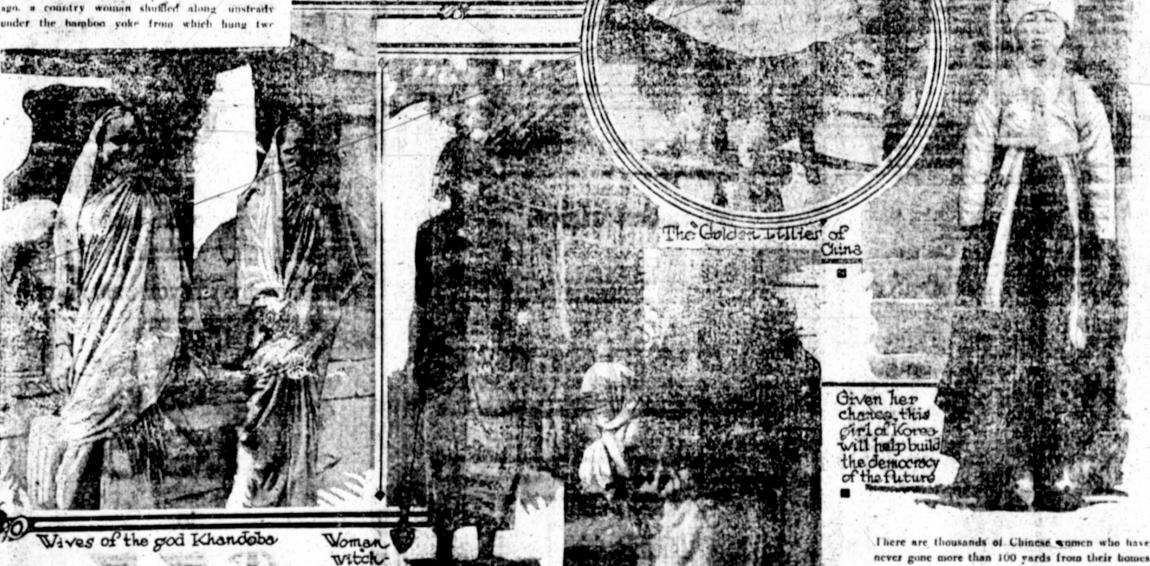

What the Freedom of Women Will Mean

For the sake of world democrace Methodism America believes that these wrongs must be righted, these women lifted out of the subjection the servitude, the contempt which surrounds all women of the oriental countries.

Freedom for the women of the world means to the church the dispelling of ignorance through education, the substitution of Christian ideals for superstition and for creeds that have made possible the wrongs of women.

The program for attaining these ends is definite and detailed. Schools, seminaries, colleges and universities are to be built in many countries Hospitals are to be founded and equipped, and made the center of systems of dispensaries. Teach ers, physicians, nurses are to be sent from this

All these will have behind them the major pur pose of the Methodist Centenary movement, the establishment of the ideals of Christianity in every country, as a four ation upon which women may stand in the work that is primarily theirs, the the world democracy of the future.

swaying baskets. Over the side of each peeped the immobile face of a Chinese child. They were the woman's children She had brought them to the city to offer them for sale.

Up the steep incline of a road in Northern India, under a merciless sun, twenty women strained at the traces of a heavy roller. Their bare feet, cut and blistered, scrambled painfully in the gravel of the new condbed. At their head an overseer-a man-urged them on.

As a trans-Pacific liner slipped into the harbor of Nagasaki, innumerable flat-bottomed boats laden ofth soft coal made fast alongside. Scores of little Japanese women, hends bound for protection from coal dust, and some with babies bound to their backs, scrambled up the hastily erected scaffolding. Hour after bour they stood, catching the baskets of coal lossed to them by men in the boats. Night had fallen when the coaling was done. The little women took their day's wage, fifteen or twenty cents, and went home.

Are these the mothers of universal democracy? They are types, living illustrations of the subjection of women in oriental countries, whether onder the yoke of custom, of ignorance or of poverty.

Strange Wrongs to Be' Righted in Every Country

Lifting the yoke is the objective of the centenary program. The small army already being recruited to apply that program will undertake not unly to help make them free, but to help make them better mothers, better home makers, greater influences in the lives of their men and of their

There are strange wrongs to be righted in every country. There are anlhous of somen who must be given their heritage.

India's women number 150,000,000. Their roke, despite all the British government has done to sid them, is still heavy.

Courtesans, Sanctioned by Religion and Custom

They are bowed under the matitution of child marriage which disposes of their lives before they are old enough to know what life deeps. And the costom is 500 years older than the Christian era.

They suffer under the contempt of widowhood. More than 20,000,000 of them, widowed in gfrlbood, or even childhood, live lives of outcasts, with shaved heads as a badge of their widowhood, and practically prohibited from remarriage.

Young girls are devoted to idols in infancy and early childhood by their parents in some parts of India. About their neck is placed the necklace of the seven cowries. They are wedded to the dagger of Khandoba. Their lives are devoted to singing obscene songs in praise of the god, performing night worship and song services, selling them-

These are the muralis. Akin to them are the devadasis, or slaves of the gods, and the nautch girls of Southern India. They are taken in childbood to sing and dance before the temple gods and in the idol processions. Through centuries they

The women coolies of India work from sunrise to sunset. They carry upon Wetr hands baskets of concrete for the smooth autemotific roads of modern India. They carry earth from excevations, bricks for building, and water. They mis mortar. And often, they steal a moment from their work to look after the little baby they bare left under the shadow of a bush near their tasks.

For the bowed millions of India's women, the Centenary program promises the beginning of a "Woman," wrote Confucius, "is a mindless, China has bound its women's feet for 1,000 years. Within the last two or three decades many of the women have unbound their feet. But so old a custom cannot be eradicated in a few years.

never gone more than 100 yards from their homes unless they were carried. And in the interior one may see women of bound feet, compelled to work, dragging at the ropes of boats, along the townaths of canals. And, in the cotton fields, they work, sitting, hitching themselves along as they proceed. They are carried to and from the fields in wheel-

China's coolie women labor like beasts of burden. One may see them by hundreds, bowed under heavy yokes. One may watch them, in the mud of the rice paddies, while men stand by on dry ground, directing their work.

China's women are even more numerous than India's But the program of the Centenary is for them as well. The American millions to be spent will help them to a higher place in the new scheme of things that is in the making.

The Story of the Geisha Girls

There is work to be done smong the women of Japan, advanced though that country is. There are the superannuated women bired out at a few yen a day to corry babies on their backs for many consecutive hours-the Komori. There are the girls of the tea houses, some of them work for twenty or even twenty-two bours a day.

And there are the 30,000 geisha, each taken in childhood, to become the property of old women who support them, and train them in singing, dancing, playing the samisen and in repartee. After years of the most rigid instruction, these girls may be hired by men for their entertainment.

And the shogl or licensed prostitutes, estimated to number more than 80,000, endure a fate even

MUSKOGEE IS WITHOUT STREET CAR SERVICE

By Associated Press
MUSKOGEE, OKLA.. May 30,—
Muskogee is without street car service today. Following the strike order issued late yesterday by the newly organized union of motormen, jitneys and specially impressed livery motor cars did a thriving business.
Indications this morning were that the city would be without street car service indefinitely. The men have refused the compromise wage scale offered by Manager R. D. Long of the Muskogee Electric Traction Company and Long asserts he has absolutely made his last offer.

There was no semblance of trouble this morning. The men are demanding a sliding scale of from 44 cents to 50 cents an hour.

BURKBURNETT MAN SERIOUSLY INJURED:

P. J. Thomas, an oil field worker, is in a local hospital in a very serious condition with a broken jaw, fractured nose and one eye gone as a result of being hit with a piece of pipe in some way while he was engaged in work on the rig at Burkburnett this morning. The injured man was brought in on the train this morning and carried to the Wichita General hospital. At 2 o'clock this afternoon his condition was pronounced very serious with about an even chance for recovery.

Great Britain and simultaneously boosting the prestige of American boxers.

Eddle McGoorty leads in the matter of coin-gathering, the St. Paul, Minn., man having engaged in several bouts which are estimated to have rested him around twelve thousand dollars. His last bout, May 12th, with Harry Reeve, at the National Sporting Club, was for an $8,900 purse.

Joe Lynch, the New York bantam, is believed to save cleaned up between five and ten thousand. Augle Ratner, middleweight, also of New York, has profited to the extent of several thousand and considerable to his bank roll.

If the success of McGoorty, Lynch and Ratner here is any basis for comparison of American and British fighters, Americans have the edge. All three have met and beaten the British light-heavy-weight holder of the Lord Londale championskip belt.

Lynch sholds a fwenty round decision over Tommy Noble, the British light-heavy-weight holder of the Lord Londale championskip belt.

Lynch sholds a fwenty round decision over Tommy Noble, the British light-heavy-weight holder of the Lord Londale championskip belt.

Lynch sholds a fwenty round decision over Tommy Noble, the British Brooklyn Chicago Philadelish and the American and prospects of future lucrative matches.

Terry Martin of Providence, R. L. is another Yankee scrapper, who is laring well over here. Martin, whose manager is Bob Warner, the Boston ice skater, got a bad start at Liverpool, when he lost to Joe Symonds, ex-bantam champion of Britain, on a foul, but he made up for it in the first week of May by walloping the ter out of Chris Langdon, a Welshman at the National Sporting club. Martin is being press-agented for a match with Noble or Jimmy Wilde, but his chances are not considered exceedingly bright against the latter, Wilde will be a hard man to get into a ring with an American, after his nearly fatal experience with Lynch, unless he is offered an easy mark or a healthy bank roll.

A copy of the permit when issued, will be transmitted by the grain control committee to the railroad by which the shipment is to be made so that necessary action may be taken to furnish cars. The system is similar to that which was used in clearing freight congestion last year.

"It will be readily appreciated," a statement by Director General Hines said, "that not only producers and shippers of grain will be benefited by this regulation, but the entire shipping public will benefit, in that the channels of commerce will be kept free of congestion, car detention large by eliminated and the maximum use of all equipment more highly developed,"

Good weather and decreasing business due to the cessation of shipment of war supplies have tended to built up a large car surplus which will be mobilized in the grain belt by the railroad administration as fast a preaded.

PRINCE OF WALES GIVEN FREEDOM OF LONDON

By United Press.
LONDON, May 29.—With all the ancient ceremonials, the Prince of Wales was today admitted to the 'Freedom' of the City of London.' Members of the royal house can claim the freedom as a right, but it is never done, and the bestowal of this, the city's highest civic honor, is far less common in the case of royalty than of distinguished "common-ars."

The ceremony was made the occa-ion for an imposing military and civic thow, the prince driving, escorted by avalry, to the Guidhall, where he was received in state by Lord Mayor iir Horace Marshall. A guard of conor of the Honorable Artillery Comany, (the City's pet "Guards") renered royal salutes, and the City rumpeters, in scarlet and gold, cunded a fanfare.

The prince arrived punctually at 2:30 p. m. and was conducted by the red mayor, the city chambe bein, the live marked and other disminutes.

OIL DEVELOPMENT

CUEBA HILL IN CLAY COUNTY IS BECOMING CENTER OF INTER-EST FOR OIL COMPANIES AND INDIVIDUALS.

GEOLOGISTS' REPORT FAVORS

That section of Clay county, lying southeast of the Petrolia field, and northeast of Henrietta, known as Cueba Hill, is becoming a center of interest for oil companies and individual operators, who have faith in geological reports, that the formations at this point show similarity to the Ranger field. There are a number of rigs up for deep tests in this section, and indications point to a thorough test of this section. Lastern capital is interested to the extent of several thousand acres under lease, and several deep tests.

The National Petroleum Co. of New York have what is said to be one of the finest rigs and drilling equipment ever erected in Texts on their location, three miles northeast of interest for oil companies and indi-or the linest rigs and drilling equipment ever erected in Texts on their location, three miles northeast of Byers. They are starting their well with 22 inch casing and are prepared to go 4,500 feet if necessary to reach the big pay. Geologists reporting on this location state that shallow production should be found at 700 feet, and a good sand around 1800 feet.

The Wichita Little Rock Oil Co.
have already let the contract for a 2,000 foot test on their lease in section 21, Montague county school lands.
This location is on what is known as the Cueba Hill dome. Not far away the Peters-Yeager Oil Co. are reported to have made their location on the summit of Cueba Hill.

H. H Temple of this city has several thousand acres under lease in this vicinity and has made his first location in the northwest corner of block 44, Angelina county, and has timbers on the ground and will have the standard rig completed and drilling com-

In block 22, Angelina county school lands, the Elias and Pool Oil and Gas Co. have secured a portion of Mr. Temple's lease, and have made location for their first deep test in the southeast corner of their tract.

The Three States Oil Co. have also made location in the Cueba Hill section for their 3,500 foot test and are now preparing to begin drilling operations at an early date.

On the Edwards ranch New York parties, whose names are not available at this time, have a derrick completed and machinery on the road for a 4,500 foot test.

and Sidney Semuels were chosen to make a trip to lows Phrs on Wednesday to make as investigation of the supposed trouble.

The land was leased to Robinson & Harrington some time ago. It was stipulated by contract that they should begis drilling in ninety days; pay the county $1,000 bonus and give a one-eighth royalty of all oil found. The county was to deliver the land for clear operation with a lawful abstract. The abstract was provided and Judge Hugh L. Small said that the court was under the impression that everything was progressing satisfactorily entil the complaint was filed by Robinson & Harrington, claiming that their workmen had been threatened with a shotgun if they entered the pasture to construct a derrick.

Small said that the county will take any necessary legal steps to assert its rights to the forty acres of school land which is a remnant of school lands disposed of several years ago.

THE THORNBERRY OIL COMPANY is now drilling on its Block 11, with all the money in the Bank to complete a deep test.

WILL SELL OFF-SET LEASES at prices for which you can double your money in the next

THOSE WHO PURCHASED acreage early Northwest of Burkburnett, amassed large fortunes. You can do the same here.

THE GEOLOGICAL AND GEOGRAPHICAL situation on the acknowledged anti-cline, between Burkburnett and Petrolia, indicates one of the best oil pools in this country.

READ WHAT LLOYD SMITH, five years Chief Geologist of the Sun Company, says of our location:

"EVIDENCE OF STRUCTURE: There is a ledge of sandstone exposed for a distance of fifty feet along the road just southwest of your location. This shows a gentle dip to the south. A little more than a quarter of a mile northeast of your location, a rock exposure in the bank of the creek shows a northeast dip. No other outcrops can be found in the vicinity. These, however, are sufficient to show that your location is on a high part of a structure. Corroborating this, the elevation of the ground here is high, compared to the surrounding country.

"GEOGRAPHICAL CONSIDERATIONS: Electra, Burkburnett and Petrolia are on the same major structure. The oil pools here are located on minor folds on this large structure. Between Electra and Burkburnett there are many productive areas. There is every reason to believe that similar areas will be found between Burkburnett and Petrolia, when this region is given a fair test.

"CONCLUSION: I approve your location, both from a geological as well as a geographical standpoint, and believe the chances of your discovering a new pool on the lands of the Thornberry Oil Company are very good."

THE WELL NOW DRILLING will be supervised by experience oil men, including Judge C. B. Felder, Wm. F. Ramming, L. F. Ramming, F. W. Prechel, and others.

THERE ARE A NUMBER of deep tests now starting close to this acreage, among them the well of the Price-Gamble Oil Company, the H. J. Newman well, and a well soon to be started on the J. F. Pool place.

BUY NOW BEFORE THE ADVANCE.

THESE LEASES MAY BE purchased direct from the Company.

LITTLE BUSINESS COMES BEFORE THE COUNCIL MEETING

With only three aldermen and Mayor Marlow present, and with business unusually "slack," few matters of importance were brought before the city council last night.

Three permits were granted by the board for the storing of building materials. J. O. Polhemus received permission to use 15 feet of Tenth street at the corner of Ecott avenus for the storage of materials to be used in constructing the Priddy building; R. S. Stuckey Building Co. was granted a permit to store materials on 15 feet of Ohio avenue, in front of No. 718, and a similar storage permit was issued to W. Y. Hammack to store material on Tonth street at Lamar, where an extension is being built to the Methodist church.

The Southern Oil Corporation of Oklahoma, whose main offices are in Kansas City, applied for permission to construct a private telephone line starting on Seventh street, running across the railroad tracts, north scross the river to Jefferson street and thence west out the line of the Fort Worth & Denver road and along the lower Park highway. The permit was granted, the line to be constructed under supervision of the city tangineer, the company to be responsible for all damages and the line to be removed at any time on order from the city council.

URGE RECEPTION OF ANTI-BOLSHE

Pioneer lodge No. 49, Knights of Pythias, held one of the most enthusiastic meetings Wednesday night in the history of the local lodge. Chief of Police Fred Smith was made an Esquire, and four applications were received for membership by initiation. This lodge has been growing steadily for several years, now having a membership of almost 250, some 25 additions having been made this year.

On next Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock memorial services will be conducted at the First Methodist church, corner Seventh street and Lamar avenue, Rev. H. F. Drapar, who is a Knight' of Pythias, delivering the sermon. Hon, Walter relson will deliver a short address, and T. A. Bradley will deliver that beautiful and impressive "Lesson of Friendship," as portrayed by Damon and Pythias.

Seats will be reserved for all Knights of Pythias in the city, as well as their wives and children. All mmebers of the order, whether in good standing or not, or holding membership locally or elsewhere, are urgently requested to meet at the Castle Hail Tenth and Scott streets, at 8 p. m. promptly, and march in a body to the place of worship. Special appropriate music will be rendered, and you will enjoy seeing the pictures.

A "regular meal," not served "off the arm" but an honest-to-goodness banquet layout, disappeared via the customary human route last night, when the members of the Cooks, Waiters and Waitresses Union, local No. 158, heid their monthly spread in the Labor Temple on Ohio avenue. Not only was a goodly collection of food apread before the members, but jazz music added "pep" to the program and dancing was in order as an added feature of the entertainment. were present, work was cast into the discard, and everyone "stepped out" and had a genuine jamboree of entertainment and frivolity.

BERLIN, Thursday, May 29—A sensation has been caused by a statement issued by the independent newspaper Preidheit that Lieutenant Vogel, who was convicted of the murder of Rosa Luxemberg, the radical socialist leader, and who recently mysteriously escaped from prison, had been released under a faise order and was now at the German legation in Holland awaiting the next steamer to Argentine. The statement charged that he had reached the legation with a pass by the war ministry.

The statement led to an official investigation and the government has issued a declaration that it will proceed unconditionally against persons sons involved in Vogel's flight.
