PRO AND CON OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS. (Philadelphia Record.) Article X of the League of Nations covenant is the keystone of the structure.

Article X of the League of Nations covenant is the keystone of the structure. The most prolific cause of war is national greed for augmented power and expanded territory.

But Americans, who were top level headed to be carried off their feet by the plea that it would be possible to prevent war by treaty, are not to be frightened by the bogies of bolshevism and Hun propaganda.

At Columbus the President threatened the country with war if it rejected his league, at St. Louis he threatened it with bolshevism; at Sioux Falls he threatened it with pro-Germanism.

WHAT HAPPENED SEPTEMBER 15. (Fill and paste this in your scrap book.) Copyright, 1919. Allied armies occupy Rheims; continuous fighting on Aisne.

English Premier Asquith and Earl Kitchener tell parliament 3,000,000 men are already enlisted; Britain spending $17,500,000 a day.

Allies renew Somme offensive with terrific force; British pierce German lines two miles taking three towns and 2,300 prisoners.

Karensky proclaims Russian republic; General Korotloff arrested. C. E. Russell, member of Root mission, says pacifist speeches in U. S. congress dishearten the loyal.

Washington prepares reply to Austrian peace note; Allied sentiment for rejection. British shell Hindenburg line and advance near St. Quentin.

Europe accepted it cynically—England because she believed she could make it of an Anglo-Saxon alliance; France only under the condition of the guarantee of an old-fashioned paying it lip service.

This extraordinary treaty the president returned home to put across. At first the American people were disposed to accept it as meeting his description of a patent preventive of war.

With sentiment setting in strongly against the dangerous innovation in policy the president started on his tour of the country to stem the tide.

It is becoming increasingly evident what he wants. They want peace without entangling alliances with Europe.

As a preventive of war, the League of Nations will be effective somewhat in the degree that it is more certain that all members will unite in the ways set forth in the covenant against any offending member.

It is not a rather a rational conclusion that in wishing to emphasize the right of the United States to withdraw from the League whenever it may choose the senate is actuated by a reluctance to join that makes it doubtful whether the United States would long continue to be a member.

And it is not rather a logical suspicion that we emphasize our right to withhold the use of force under the terms of Article 10 because of a disinclination to do so which renders it extremely improbable that we should respond favorably to such a request from the League?

These are the only rational inferences to be drawn, and the doubts which they justify as to what would be the course of the United States as a member must operate powerfully to deprive the League of the moral compulsion which it must have if it is to be an effective instrument for the prevention of war.

Hence the president has reason for contending that while these reservations would not change the meaning and effect of the covenant, and would not make this country's responsibilities and liabilities less, the mere fact of making them would engender a distrust as to the purposes of the United States which would seriously impair the strength of the League.

Some seven years ago, Mr. Wilson said: "When we resist, therefore—when I, as a democrat, resist—the concentration of power, I am resisting the processes of death, because concentration of power is what always precedes the destruction of human initiative and therefore of human energy."

The passion of America is to be permitted to live her own life according to her own principles. The only thing that she profoundly resents, or ever will profoundly resent is having her life and freedom interfered with.

And yet if we enter the League of Nations we must, as President Wilson lately said, be willing to do so at any sacrifice. Where then would be the right of America to have her own life and freedom without interference?

Again, in 1915, Mr. Wilson said: "There have been some among us who have not thought first of America who have sought to use the might of America in some matter not of America's origination, and have forgotten that the first duty of a nation is to express its own individual principles in the action of the family of nations, and not to seek to aid and abet any rival or contrary ideal."

Commending Washington's advice to avoid entangling alliances, Mr. Wilson on May 16, 1914, said: "Every man who worthily stands in this presence should examine himself and see whether he has the full conception of what it means that America should live her own life. Washington saw it when he wrote his farewell address.

"It is not merely because of passing and only when circumstances that Washington said that we must keep free from entangling alliances. It was because he saw that no country had yet set its face in the same direction in which America had set her face.

"We cannot form alliances with those who are not going our way; and in our might and majesty and in the confidence and definiteness of our own purpose we need not and we should not form alliances with any nation in the world.

"Those who are right, those who study their consciences in determining their policies, those who hold their honor higher than their advantages, do not need alliances.

"You need alliances when you are not strong, and you are weak only when you are not true to yourself. You are weak only when you are in the wrong; you are weak only when you are afraid to do right; you are weak only when you doubt your cause and the majesty of a nation's might asserted."

A captain who has been guiding his ship by a compass which had been tested during many tremendous storms, but who suddenly concludes that his own inherent wisdom is a better guide than the compass may send his ship and its passengers to death while thoroughly honest in his conviction that he is carrying them to a harbor of safety.

The American ship of state has been guided for nearly one hundred and fifty years by a compass which has never yet led it astray, a compass which President Wilson has himself emphasized as the right one to follow, in his enthusiastic advice to the nation; but now President Wilson has suddenly changed from that old and tested compass, which has never failed in the past, and seeks to guide the ship of state on his own judgment—against that of the experience of nearly one hundred and fifty years—and he thinks he can land us in harbor of safety. We would rather not make the experiment.

CHICAGO OUTCLASSES CINCINNATI REDS IN GAMES LAST WEEK

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Chicago Americans outshone the Cincinnati Nationals in the other played world series contender, in games last week. Both league leaders have only to break even in their remaining contests to clinch first place.

Although both teams were opposed by second division clubs, the Reds managed to get little better than an even break, while the White Sox won five out of six including a victory over Cleveland, their nearest rival. The Cincinnati batsmen averaged slightly over six hits a game.

In the National League St. Louis and Philadelphia each split two games with Cincinnati. Cincinnati won from Boston Friday and broke even with the Braves in a double-header Saturday. Boston could not score on Fisher Sunday, Cincinnati increasing its lead over New York, which lost, to eight games.

Dividing a double-header with Boston last Sunday, New York started a winning streak Tuesday when it took the second half of a double-header from Chicago, defeated the Cubs in the next two contests and took two from St. Louis before losing to the Cardinals today.

Chicago, which lost five games out of eight, will have to race to withstand the onward rush of Pittsburgh toward third place. The Pirates pounded the ball for 166 hits, won seven weekly record, and 52 runs, won eight contests and lost two, Chicago won Sunday, Martin shutting out Philadelphia.

In the American League Shaw of Washington was the only pitcher to beat Chicago. The White Sox won a lead of 7 1/2 games over Cleveland. Cleveland defeated New York twice in three contests and took two from Boston.

Detroit was unable to make headway against second division teams and dropped five games in six, giving New York, which divided eight games evenly, an opportunity to grab at third place. The Tigers and Yankees both won today.

Before meeting Cleveland, Boston won double-headers from New York and St. Louis. "Babe" Ruth, the Boston slugger, bettered the major league record when he poked out his 26th home run at New York Monday.

DOPESTERS WATCHING WORK OF TWO TEAMS

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—With the Reds and White Sox close to "sure things" as the season's best winners, dopers are watching the work of the two teams in the final stretch to get into the world's series prospects. If the work of the two leaders the past week is to be taken as an indication of the cash of the doubt, the ones will lean toward the White Sox.

Maybe Moran is easing up his boys in the stretch, perhaps the absence of Heints Groh has upset the club. But the Reds slumped badly last week. Their batting was way off form with the poorest strike work of the league. Out of the seven games they won only four.

On the other hand, Gleason kept up his whirlwind pace. In six games, the White Sox won five. The club was third in team hitting for the week and was brilliant in the field with only one error. Their work for the week was not only the best in the American League, but on some anything in the older organization.

WESTERN LEAGUE SEASON CLOSED SUNDAY WITH ST. JOSEPH THE WINNER

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 15.—The Western League baseball season closed Sunday with St. Joseph the pennant winner, having won 75 of 132 games played. Tulsa finished second with 77 games won in 140. The others finished in the order named: Wichita, Des Moines, Oklahoma City, Sioux City, Joplin, and Omaha.

The league officials declared the pennant race was the closest in the league's history, pointing out that only 22 games separated the winning club from the one in last place.

One of the features of the season was the batting of Joseph Wilbott, a Wichita outfielder, who hit safely in 63 consecutive games, breaking the world's record.

You Should Never "Rile" Your Liver

Don't prod a weak liver with harsh, harmful cathartics. Mild, easy NR Tablets are better for biliousness.

NR Tonight—Tomorrow Feel Right

Prodding an inactive liver with cathartics and sluggish bowels with powerful purgatives is like pushing a tired horse to exhaustion. It can be done once too often and sooner or later, if persisted in, may so weaken the organs as to cause serious results.

Bilious attacks, constipation, sick headaches, etc., are to the great majority of cases due to digestive trouble and no reasonable person can expect to obtain real or lasting benefit until the cause is corrected.

That many people realize this and are giving up the unwise practice of dosing themselves with dangerous cathartics and irritating purgatives, is proved by the fact that more than five million boxes of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) were used last year. Have you ever tried it? Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is a vegetable compound that acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys, the purpose being to bring about healthy and harmonious action of all the organs of digestion and assimilation.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR The Ford One Ton Truck may well be classed as an agricultural necessity, it fits into and fills so many wants on the farm. It is a reliable bearer of farm burdens, not only doing the work of several horses quicker and better than the horse, and does not "eat its head off" when not working. The aggressive farmer has only to consider the possibilities of the Ford truck and he is ready to buy one. We judge this to be so from the way farmers are buying them. Truck Chassis $550 f. o. b. Here is a roofing that costs less to buy, to lay and to maintain than any other type of roof. Here is a roofing that can be quickly laid by anyone who will follow the simple directions that come with the roll. Here is a roofing that is absolutely guaranteed 5, 10 or 15 years. Certain-teed is made in rolls, both smooth and rough surfaced (red or green)—also in handsome red or green asphalt shingles for residences. Certain-teed is extra quality—the same means certainty of quality and satisfaction guaranteed. It will pay you to get Certain-teed—most dealers sell it. Ask for Certain-teed and be sure to get it. TWO GIRLS SHOT BY NIGHTWATCHMAN AT NORMAN UNIVERSITY

NORMAN, OKLA., Sept. 15.—Two girls were shot, one possibly permanently injured, when Nightwatchman Ben Clay fired on an automobile driving through the State University grounds.

First report of the shooting, which took place September 6, came this morning, when Clay was arrested on complaint of the girls' fathers and charged with shooting with intent to do bodily harm.

University rules forbid students' driving in an automobile after 10 o'clock and at 10:30, according to Clay's story, a party driving rapidly entered the university grounds and failed to stop at his command.

When the car failed to stop under his flashlight and he ducked out of its way, the pistol was discharged, he said he could not tell how many shots were fired.

The shot went through the car door, pierced the calf of Miss Baker's leg and lodged in Miss Shinn's ankle.

FIRST QUARTERLY CONFERENCE OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

Sunday, September 14, the Wichita Falls district Epworth League met in first quarterly conference at the First M. E. Church South, at 11:30 a. m. The following report of that conference is given by Rev. W. H. Wallace, assistant pastor of the church, and an enthusiastic League worker:

"The first quarterly conference of the Wichita Falls district Epworth League met at the First Methodist Church, South, yesterday afternoon with J. V. Thorne, the president, in the chair. Electra and Iowa Park were well represented and the Wichita Falls league was in attendance with a vim. The whole keynote of the conference seemed to be enthusiasm and pep. Two great Epworth League words.

Cox is Speaker.

"During the afternoon services, Judge P. B. Cox, one of our Wichita Falls Leaguers, gave us an inspiration and made us all want to climb to greater heights with his address on 'The Place of the Young Life in the Church.' Judge Cox said that the time has come when the church of today must look to the leadership of the young people and to their enthusiasm. The church needs such an impetus to their life as the young people can give.

"In order to keep the business of the conference going at full tilt, luncheon was served in the basement of the church and the delegates and the leaguers from our own city did not have to leave early but came prepared to spend the whole afternoon and evening. This luncheon was served by our Epworth League at Wichita and all enjoyed the occasion very much with one or two exceptions, who could not get enough and at the same time appear in the proper light. No names will be called.

Colored Jubilee Singers.

"At the regular Epworth League hour, the colored Jubilee Singers led by Dr. Jas. A. Stout came over and to the delight of everyone, entertained the conference with some of their favorite selections. The leaguers nearly made them sing themselves to death but all seemed to enjoy it, even the performers. Come again, say the leaguers. Mrs. Wallace then led the Model League service with a program on 'Not our bit, but our best.' It was

First Attention to All Orders For the Sick

A great program and well rendered and the talks by Mr. McCaddam and Miss Gem Cowling were especially interesting and full of pep and encouragement.

Captures Conference.
"At this juncture, our pastor, Rev. S. A. Barnes, was introduced to the conference as a preacher that was for the young people and though he was at least seven feet ten and one-half, yet he was all for the young people. Bro. Barnes captured the conference and that is making it very mild indeed. He told us about the relation of the Epworth League to the church and the church to the young people. In the course of his remarks, Bro. Barnes said that the day was here for the church to begin using the Epworth League with all the force they could. The Epworth League is the training camp of Methodism and that the church must be the material that is to be trained and given instruction. The Epworth League has a three-fold mission. It is distinctly a training ground, it is a missionary organization, and it is distinctly religious. Dr. Barnes said that he was sorry for the young man or the young woman who was trying to be religious and out of harmony with the young people of the church. He paid a glowing tribute to the work of the Epworth League of the past and predicted a greater future than even it has seen in the past. Rounds of applause greeted him as he took his seat.

Musical Numbers.
"The conference was entertained with a great many musical numbers, among them being a piano solo by Miss Mary Matilda Ak'n and a piano duet by Misses Holt and Staten in the afternoon. At the league hour Miss Cecile Adikes, with a violin solo, held the great audience as if in a trance. The league also enjoyed the piano solo of Mrs. Traveek and the solos of Mr. McCaddam and Mrs. Hepler.

This was one of the greatest conferences for the young people that has been held in this district in a long time and all felt amply repaid for the work they had done. Our president, Mr. Thorne, was untiring in his efforts and that was one cause for the great success. The audience stood and repeated the Epworth League benediction.

PARKER IS SPEAKER PRESENTING STATUE OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN

MANCHESTER, ENG., Sept. 15.—"While our entry into the great war was belated, and as we feel, excusably so, it will not be claimed that we failed to play a many part after we were in," said Judge Alton B. Parker of New York, chancellor of the U. S. grave. In presenting the statue of George Grey Barnard's statue of Abraham Lincoln to the city of Manchester today.

In his address Judge Parker outlined in brief the career of Lincoln, telling of his humble boyhood, his development into a lawyer, his broadening vision and his call to the presidency. He emphasized the fact that to Lincoln the integrity of the union presented the whole question between the North and South prior to and during the war between the states, the problem of slavery being subsidiary to the vital need of maintaining intact the authority of the federal government.

The lord mayor of Manchester accepted the statue on behalf of the city, unveiling the memorial at the close of his remarks.

DUBLIN, Sept. 15.—Arthur Griffith, vice president of the Sinn Fein, in an interview with the Daily Mail correspondent, declared Friday's raid conducted by the British authorities, was worth a million votes to the Sinn Fein.

"England's game in America will be defeated," Griffith said. "Without America's assistance England can not maintain the stand she has taken hitherto."

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is hair-mess.—Adv.
