CLAIM BIG INROADS INTO THE REPUBLICAN STRONGHOLD IN THAT SECTION.

HUNTINGTON, ORE., Sept. 14.—Governor James M. Cox today was completing his stump invasion of the far northwest confident that during the last week has made big inroads into the republican stronghold.

"The result is already being felt at Marion," he said today. "I expect an announcement any time that Senator Harding is to follow in my footsteps."

Information in Cox's train was that from nearly every large city in which he has spoken an appeal has gone out to republican headquarters for a complete abandonment of the Harding "front porch" campaign.

Cox has put new life into the state democratic organizations wherever he has gone. "I think the northwest is now certain that it is not a republican 'cinch' any more," he said.

With rear platform talks eliminated, the Governor today was scheduled to speak only at Huntington and Boise City, Idaho. He will shake hands with station crowds at Nampa, Idaho.

His voice continues to show improvement and otherwise he apparently is standing the strain of the trip unusually well.

SENATOR HITCHCOCK SPEAKS FOR DEMOCRATIC TICKET
NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—United States Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock of Nebraska, speaking before the Arkwright club here today, declared Governor Cox, if elected, would exercise the powers of his office as they were exercised by Wilson, Roosevelt, Cleveland, Lincoln and other great presidents of the past.

"If this question can be fairly considered by the voters," he said, "I am sure that a majority will decide in favor of an individual president rather than a president acting as a figurehead for a combination of senators."

The republican managers, relying on this belief that the party in the strongest, have adopted a platform which may be interpreted in several different ways after the election on a number of important issues.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The sweeping republican victory in the Maine state election was as astounding to republican national leaders as it was to the democrats today.

That the state should go republican by a majority of approximately 20,000 over the former high water mark in 1896 of 48,000 was unexpected even by the most optimistic party leaders.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Remarkable growth in population has been shown by a number of Southern cities in the last ten years, preliminary statistics of the bureau of census show. Announcement of the 1920 population has added four cities to those of the 100,000 class in the South, making a total of 35 in that class. In all, the South has 45 cities with 25,000 or more population.

The cities which advanced into the 100,000 class are San Antonio, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston and Norfolk. Of all the cities in this class, Houston showed the largest rate of growth, 75.2 per cent. Dallas was second with 72.5 per cent. Norfolk tied with 71.6 per cent, and San Antonio fourth with 67 per cent. Nashville showed the smallest rate of growth, 7.3 per cent.

In point of numbers of numbers Dallas had the largest growth, the increase in the ten years having been 66,872. New Orleans, the South's largest city, showed a numerical increase of 48,114, which was fifth largest and a rate of growth of 14.2 per cent.

Of the cities of the 25,000 to 100,000 class, Miami, Fla., showed the highest rate of growth, 50.3 per cent. Wichita Falls, Texas, ranks second with 38.8 per cent and Tulsa, Okla., third with 29.4 per cent. Tulsa advanced from 50th city in 1910 to 16th in 1920. Other cities of this class which have more than doubled their population in the ten years are Knoxville with 81.3 per cent and Winston-Salem with 113.2 per cent.

It is not possible to give the 1920 rank of all Southern cities of 10,000 or more population as the population of several has not been announced. The following list shows the 1920 rank of cities of 25,000 or more which is likely to be changed by the population of cities yet to be announced. The remainder of the list shows the relative position of the cities having less than 25,000 population. MRS. LILLIS MORGAN CONDITION UNCHANGED

The condition of Mrs. Lillis Morgan who was seriously injured in an automobile accident Sunday afternoon was reported to be unchanged at noon Tuesday. Attending physicians at the Methodist hospital were of the opinion that it would be another 24 hours before the exact extent of her injuries could be determined and that the critical point would be passed some time Wednesday morning. Mrs. Morgan regained consciousness for a short time Monday afternoon and soon relapsed into a state of coma.

The first details concerning the accident Sunday were received Monday by business associates of Mrs. Morgan in this city. According to reports the Morgan machine turned over as it was attempting to avoid a Ford that was backing out of a cross road. The Morgan car is said to have struck the Ford, turning it over and pinning two men beneath it. Neither of these two were injured and their car was reported to be undamaged. First reports received in regard to the accident stated that Willie Morgan was injured in the smash-up but these were later learned to be erroneous. Carl Williamson was the man who was driving the auto. He was painfully cut and bruised but was not seriously hurt and was reported to be greatly improved Tuesday.

REQUEST A DEMAND OF $2.75 FOR WHEAT

Farmers Growing Spring Wheat Want Growers of Winter Wheat to Hold Crop.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 14.—Farmers of the spring wheat producing area of the Northwest are to be asked by the growers of winter wheat to hold their crop until it brings 12.75 a bushel at country elevators. Plans for this action were made yesterday at a meeting of representative wheat growers here from Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska.

Decision was made to establish headquarters in winter wheat states, send personal appeal to every farmer urging him to continue to hold his wheat. A survey will be made to determine the amount of wheat each farmer has on hand, how long he can hold it, and if he is financially pressed, urge him to sell only enough to relieve him from embarrassment.

A statement was issued explaining that the holding of wheat for $2 at terminal markets will really mean cheaper wheat to consumers in the end, for if that price is not obtained there will follow a great decrease in wheat acreage and a resultant higher price for wheat.

Explaining the action of the conference, Maurice McAuliffe, president of the Kansas Farmers' union, said: "We feel the time has come for a showdown. If we submit to the steal in wheat it will be made the basis of similar steals in corn, hogs and cattle."

CUMMINGS WILL NOT BE A CANDIDATE FOR UNITED STATES SENATE

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., Sept. 14.—Homer Cummings, former democratic national chairman, announced here today that he will not be a candidate for United States senator to oppose Senator Frank B. Brandegee, republican nominee.

"I am not a candidate for the nomination for United States senator," said Cummings. "It is not only a question of my personal interests and professional engagements preventing, but I am also advised from sources that I can not ignore that my health will not permit me to go through a strenuous campaign."

"I am very grateful to all the good friends who have suggested that I be nominated, but there are plenty of other men in the party who can carry the standard with honor and success."

EFFICIENCY METHODS DISCUSSED AT MEETING

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.—Efficiency in business methods to aid the printing industry was advocated by speakers at the 25th annual convention of the United Typothetae of America, in session here today.

W. R. Colton, Chicago, director of the organization's department of research, declared rapid changes are foreshadowed in the printing industry for the "hazy few years" and predicted a period of trade depression that will allow only those concerns to operate at a profit which have prepared for efficient production.

WIVES OF APPLICANTS FOR NATURALIZATION MUST LEARN ENGLISH

ASTORIA, ORE., Sept. 14.—Wives of applicants for naturalization must learn the English language and qualify themselves otherwise for citizenship before application of their husbands will be passed upon, according to a ruling here by Circuit Judge Eakin. The decision grew out of the application of Oswald W. Johnson, a native of Norway. Hearing on his application was continued until next June. On learning that Mrs. Johnson could not speak English, Judge Eakin directed her to learn the language and fit herself to become a citizen.

"Life is a game, and we often wish we had back what we threw into the discard—Olney Enterprise. The trouble is that it's so much easier to see the possibilities of a flush than a straight—and we discard accordingly. The game opens too soon, anyway; poor, young things that we are, we sit in as soon as we can beg a hand and draw without glance at the pot. It's the game we want—not winning or losing. Then, when the sun marks a low path from the western edge of the sea, and star slips out, and somebody begins to draw the curtain, we glance down at the little bits of cardboard we drew to a kind high flush and realize that with a different discard and the jack and ten from the draw we would have had a royal straight. But such is life.

"A presidential candidate gets a lot of knocks, but he also gets many other things. Every mail brings a watermelon or a chicken for Mrs. Harding's table—Amarillo Tribune. Out here in Wichita Falls, adjoining the nationally famous watermelon patches of Burk Burnett suburbs, we appreciate what the watermelons would mean to the republican lady in question. And we have rosy memories of a childhood when chicken and cream feasts were just seven days apart. But for the life of us, the love of Mike we can't see what part the box of cigars or the big carton of cigarettes would play on Mrs. Harding's table unless bouillon table is meant, and she is that kind of a lady.

"If you do not like the man, why don't you tell him instead of telling some body else?"—Lukke McLake. Because we aren't necessarily on the warpath when we discuss our contemporary human beings. Life is made up, more or less (and more than is good for it, probably) of talk for and against people. People are the most interesting things in the world, and the more vitally we feel concerned with them, the more radical we are for or "ferocious" them. We do not necessarily sit in judgment; we simply take the works out and argue over the relative merits of the Elgins, Walthams, Gruens, Hamiltons, or South Bends in the cake of ice. The Elgins may be as good watches, but maybe they aren't as good in a cake of ice (though far be it from us to say so), and so forth, ad infinitum. Because we rave over the demerits of Patrolman Brown on the beat around the corner is no reason to assume that we would similarly disqualify him in our minds for gubernatorial employment. A punk policeman might make a good governor, and a punk governor might make an excellent policeman, specializing in skin grafting for instance. But where would it get us to tell the policeman what we think? It would be difficult to engineer a conversation to a safe conclusion, to place it mild!

Women members of the Country club are asked to be at the club Wednesday morning, as a business meeting of importance is to be held. Club hostesses for the next two weeks, including the open house Saturday evening, were announced Tuesday as follows: Madames Fred Gates, W. R. Ferguson, B. Livingston Fain, A. B. Myles and James Barnard.

The Country club women are displaying an unusual interest in the big international game, and many are on the links regularly several times a week, getting in steady practice. The putting contests and practice have attracted great interest also, and some splendid scores have been made among the women members. It is possible that a late fall tournament will be arranged, but no definite plans have been considered yet.

The swimming pool is still attracting daily groups of swimmers and it is interesting to note that some of those, especially among the children, who did their first swimming this season, have already grown quite expert in the art. There are some good divers among the women and children also.

DR. STEEL SPEAKS AT METHODIST CHURCH

"Backbone" is Subject of Interesting Lecture Delivered Monday Evening.

"They laughed, they applauded, they took notes, they greatly appreciated Dr. Sam Steel's splendid lecture Monday night," says Dr. H. D. Knickerbocker, pastor of the First Methodist Church, South.

"The subject of Dr. Steel's lecture," continued the pastor, "was 'Backbone.' It was illustrated and illuminated from the Bible, history and life. Especially enjoyable were the chapters from Dr. Steel's own experiences, relating the adventures of a green-horn of the green-horns. Dr. Steel was 17 years old before he ever left the cane-brakes where he was born, and his recital of his hardships and mishaps were both interesting and inspiring—especially to young men and young women who were encouraged by the contrast of an exceedingly green country boy and the national figure which he afterwards became.

"Dr. Steel will lecture Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock on the subject, 'Was Moses a Progressive?' This is one of the great series of studies of the outstanding characters of the Bible, and will be greatly interesting to any who care about the lessons of history and life. Dr. Steel is a very brilliant and entertaining speaker on any subject, and he has given time and thought to the preparation of these lectures. The public is cordially invited. There will be no admission fee."

The board of directors of the Wichita County Water Improvement District No. 1 met this morning and canvassed and accepted the vote polled recently in favor of the county irrigation project. Those who attended the meeting were J. A. Kemp, T. R. Noble, G. C. Wood, J. S. Bridwell, W. N. Lawton and Judge J. E. Stanley.

Statement of the formation of the reclamation and irrigation district immediately was filed with the county clerk and the directors then authorized the bond issue of $4,500,000, the bonds to be dated October 1. No attempt will be made to sell all of the bonds at the present time, in view of market conditions.

A later meeting of the board will be held to discuss matters relative to the tax burden between the city and the land owners, and to create plans for the organization of District No. 2. In connection with the latter matter, an opportunity will probably be offered to Iowa Park to affiliate itself with the project if the Iowa Park citizenship expresses the desire to do so.

The vote as canvassed by the board was accepted as publicly announced following the election.

FAVERSHAM PICTURE IS AN ARTISTIC PRODUCTION

William Faversham's first picture, "The Man Who Lost Himself," which began a two day run at the Wichita theater Monday night, equals in artistic finish anything that he has done during his long career on the stage.

Appearing as an American who is transformed over night to an English earl and who, with much reluctance keeps up the deception through five engrossing reels, Mr. Faversham delighted the audience with his performance. The photoplay provides situations which make it a production fully worthy of an actor of Mr. Faversham's talents. Its comedy situations, dramatic moments and air of mystery, adequately visualized by skillful direction and an excellent cast, make "The Man Who Lost Himself" a decidedly pleasing photoplay.

"THE SOUL OF YOUTH" IS FEATURED AT THE EMPRESS

Lewis "Huckleberry" Sargent, so dubbed because of his splendid portrayal of Mark Twain's immortal boy creation in "Huckleberry Finn," is once more the hero in a new screen comedy-drama, "The Soul of Youth." The picture is being featured at the Empress theater today.

This photoplay is by all odds the best "kid" picture that has ever appeared on a local screen and its cast is composed of some of the best known juvenile actors in filmdom. However the youthful prodigies are not the whole show and such figures as Lila Lee, Clyde Fimora and Ernest Buterworth are included in the cast. Judge Ben Lindsey, the famous juvenile jurist of Denver, also appears in several of the scenes.

"WHAT'S YOUR HURRY" PLEASURES AT OLYMPIC

Wallace Reid in "What's Your Hurry" again proved himself in "master" in the production of those breezy comedies in which he has appeared with such frequency during the past year. This picture is now being featured at the Olympic theater.

Aside from the rapidly moving plot and many comical situations which the story provides, the scenery of the production is enough to assure its success and some of the night scenes showing the work on the weakening, Cabrillo dam are exceptionally fine.

Mr. Reid has the role of a famous auto racer who answers to the name of Dusty Rhoades and an exciting race in which Dusty is returned winner forms the opening scene of the picture. From then on the plot develops Dusty into the capacity of a demonstrator for Pauro trucks and later, after he has been arrested for driving a truck on a famous boulevard, fined a

"JOYOUS TROUBLEMAKERS" SHOWING AT MAJESTIC

"The Joyous Troublemakers," with William Farnum in the title role, pleased large crowds at the Majestic Monday when it was given its initial presentation. The popular star is given a role in this picture that is somewhat different from his usual portrayals, but the new type fits him like a glove and his work was entirely pleasing. The plot of the story is woven around a buried treasure which thousands have sought in vain and which is finally located by a mere boy. The successful explorer is compelled to hide his find after obtaining possession of it, but later, after growing to manhood, he returns to claim it, and from that point on action is plentiful.

SANITARY ORDINANCE PASSES FIRST READING; REQUIRE CLEAN GLASSES

At a special called meeting of the city council held late Monday evening a sanitary ordinance was passed on its first reading providing that all utensils used in dispensing soft drinks must be sterilized with hot water or steam after use.

The council discussed briefly the matter of tax rates, but it was decided no definite rate could be fixed until after the election, October 12, on the various bond issues. It is generally agreed that the rate will approximate $1.45.

The city engineer was instructed to investigate and report on an application by H. G. Fitzgerald for permission to erect a retail store at 1661 Huff street.

STOLEN AUTOMOBILE IS RETURNED TO PLACE FROM WHICH TAKEN

A Marmon automobile belonging to J. L. Mears was stolen from the front of the First Presbyterian church Sunday night. A warning was sent out to officers throughout this section of the state to be on the lookout for the car. Monday morning the car was found standing in about the same place from which it had been stolen. Texas number plates had been removed from the car and Missouri plates substituted. The speedometer showed that the car had been driven about ninety miles.

NEWS FROM THE COURTS

PLAN TO EXPEDITE BUSINESS OF COURTS

Committee of Bar Is Named to Draft Rules for Dispatching Trial of Cases.

Due to the fact that for various reasons, progress in the disposition of cases on the dockets of all of the courts in the county has been retarded, members of the local bar association met in session Monday evening in an endeavor to formulate some plans for the improvement of this condition.

A committee was appointed at this meeting and invested with the duty to co-operate with the courts of the county and try to formulate some plans and rules to get more speed in the disposition of cases which are pending.

A committee was appointed at this meeting and invested with the duty to co-operate with the courts of the county and try to formulate some plans and rules to get more speed in the disposition of cases which are pending.

The committee, composed of Attorney J. T. Montgomery, T. H. Boone, J. W. Akin, Fred Weeks, W. B. Chauncey and W. J. Dale will meet soon and draw up plans which it will present to the courts for their approval or disapproval.

It is understood that the courts are in favor of some system whereby this condition can be remedied and it is believed that any progressive plan that may be introduced will be heartily sanctioned by them.

The bar association in its move does not intend to leave the impression that they are endeavoring to curtail their jurisdiction but are endeavoring to assist in bettering existing conditions.

WRITE ANOTHER CHAPTER IN RECENT ROBBERY CASE

Another chapter is annexed to the history of those held in connection with the robbery of Kimberlin's Tailors Garment Shop. Arthur Campbell, who is charged with the theft of a cameo ring, was bound over for action of the grand jury under a $1,000 bond in the court of Justice of the Peace Arrington Tuesday morning.

Mrs. V. C. Campbell, a sister-in-law, who was charged with concealing stolen property, was placed under a bond of $300.

It is alleged that Arthur Campbell entered a lady's room in a rooming house on Scott street and took the ring to his sister-in-law with the statement that he had brought the ring with him from Germany.

In the trial it was brought out that Mrs. Campbell told the authorities at the city hall under examination that she had received the ring from her husband 30 days ago. She stated on the witness stand that she was excited and had made a mistake in making this statement.

EARL MATTHINSON WAIVES A PRELIMINARY HEARING

Earl Mathinson, charged with theft over $50, waived examining trial before Justice of the Peace Arrington Monday afternoon. He was bound over to appear before the next session of the grand jury under bond of $1,000.

MUST SELL BONDS OR DISCONTINUE ROAD WORK

In view of the fact that approximately only $500,000 road bonds of the authorized two million were sold, the county has been doing its road work on this amount. The county commissioners in regular session Monday afternoon advised J. A. Kemp that the remainder of the bonds would have to be sold or otherwise work on the road.

More Phosphate Or Lose Your Youthful Looks

Lack of Phosphate in Blood and Nerve Cells Age Many People Before Their Time—In Current Report

The people who stand up and laugh at hot, sultry weather are the ones who have plenty of phosphate in their systems.

If you are weak, become played out early on a hot day if you become irritated easily, lose your patience and cannot concentrate your mind on difficult problems, then you need Bitro-Phosphate, a pure organic phosphate that feeds your starving nerves just the food they need.

It is a simple matter that all modern physicians understand. If you, man or woman, desire a sturdy virile body with an abundance of nerve force and endurance—if you want a keen, active mind that won't tire under severe strain, then you must have plenty of phosphate in blood, nerves and bone cells and a pure organic phosphate known as Bitro-Phosphate is just what you need.

Get Bitro-Phosphate as dispensed by Miller Drug Co., and all good druggists in the original package; it should revive your depressed spirits and renew your ambition. It should make you look younger and feel younger, physicians assert.

THREE PRISONERS ARE TURNED OVER TO COUNTY

The city authorities have turned over three people to the county officials and all three have been placed in the county jail. Francis Martin is charged with theft under $50. Jessie Travis is charged with shop lifting and adultery and A. L. Neal is held on the charge of adultery.

Monday evening a Buick roadster, belonging to and bearing the inscription on both sides of the car, of Chevrolet-Robinson-Robinson-Clates was reported missing. The other stolen car is a five-passenger Ford and is owned by Elmer Byman.

BOND NOT ACCEPTABLE IN REMAINDER TO JAIL

Counsel for John Dunham, who has been confined in the county jail for several days, instituted habeas corpus proceedings in the 9th district court Tuesday morning asking that the sheriff be ordered to accept a bond which had been made out. Judge Martin ordered the man returned to the county jail, ruling that the bond was faulty.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF IS INSTRICTED BY COURT

The suit was on a contract and for an equitable lien on the Golden Field oil company. The amount sued for was approximately $10,000. The case was tried in the Eighty-ninth district court before Judge F. A. Martin.

JACK KELLY IS MOVING TO HASTINGS, NEBRASKA

Jack Kelly, who has been a well-known and popular man in the oil business in north Texas for nearly a dozen years, is leaving Wichita Falls this week to go to Hastings, Neb., to be with Mrs. Kelly, who is slowly recovering from a critical operation.

Mr. Kelly has placed his fine residence here on the market and if he does not sell it, expects to close it up until it is sold.

Mr. Kelly is one of the pioneers in the oil business in Wichita county, having operated in all the oil pools of this section and having drilled many wildcats throughout this territory. A number of years ago, long before the development that brought fame to Texas through the Burkburnett, K. M. A. Rader, Deadmons and other great oil discoveries Mr. Kelly was one of the staff of practical oil men, engineers and geologists who, under the direction of Yancey & Requa made a survey of the territory from Red river to Comanche county and which took losses on many thousands of acres in what later became the Burkburnett, K. M. A. and Ranger fields. While the wells that were drilled by Yancey & Requa did not find the oil sands discovered that came later by accident, proved the correctness of their findings and only a financial stringency that came at the time prevented further explorations that would undoubtedly have discovered the oil sands and made Yancey & Requa rich beyond imagination.

Mr. Kelly is a native of New York and has been engaged in the oil business for more than 25 years. His father was one of the pioneers in the oil business in New York. Mr. Kelly has operated in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Illinois, Oklahoma, Texas and Mexico. He came to Wichita Falls from Tampa where he built the first pipeline in that field. He still has valuable holdings in Mexico which he hopes yet to be able to develop.

During his residence in Wichita Falls Mr. Kelly has been a member of the chamber of commerce and has supported all undertakings for the betterment of the community.

PROMINENT OIL MEN IN CITY ON BUSINESS

Howard Bennette, of Dallas, secretary of the Texas-Louisiana division of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, and Early Deason, of Shreveport, representative of a New York brokerage house interested in oil matters, were in Wichita Falls on business today.

Bennette is particularly interested at this time in conferring with W. D. Cline, president of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, regarding the results of the recent joint meeting in Tulsa between representatives of the association and the federal tax committee of the American Petroleum Institute of New York. This meeting was called for the purpose of considering changes in the income tax law and to discuss plans for drafting a substitute bill for the present federal measure.

Similar meetings are being held throughout the United States, and the results of these meetings will be made public, and definite steps directed toward changing the present income tax law will be taken at a later joint meeting of representatives of thousands of industries. The Tulsa meetings, while it discussed the income tax law from a great variety of angles, was particularly interested in proposed changes that will affect the oil industry.

SUSTAINS BROKEN ARM IN FALL FROM BRIDGE

The first accident of the school year was reported Monday when Anna May Walker, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Walker, who live 10 miles northwest of Wichita Falls, fell from a bridge on the Burkburnett road and sustained a broken arm. According to reports the girl was accidentally pushed from the bridge by playmates. She fell about eight feet, fracturing the right arm in two places.

The girl was brought to Wichita Falls and given surgical treatment, later being removed to her home.

MEMBER OF UNITED PRESS MEMBER AMERICAN NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS' ASSOCIATION TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1920.

The election of General Alvaro Obregon as president of the Mexican republic was discussed in advance reports of election day—the vote isn't to be counted, we believe, until Dec. 1—show that it was quiet and peaceful and that voting was orderly and well conducted everywhere, without necessity for calling out troops placed at strategic points to prevent disorder.

General Obregon appealed to us in the beginning as the strongest figure that has come to the surface of the Mexican mainland since the death of Diaz; his actions since then, and the accompanying period of quietude, have added confirmation to that belief. He has been aided, of course, by the weariness of all Mexico of the conditions she has been forced to endure during the various so-called governments over the past twelve years. But Obregon, we submit, has demonstrated a strength and a real desire to do justice that has been of very much greater assistance in achieving that desirable end of peacefulness, and we believe he is animated by a spirit of unselfish patriotism to labor for his country's real good.

Obregon furnishes a base around which can gather the Mexican patriots who are imbued by the desire to help Mexico, and time will further demonstrate, we are increasingly confident, that the base will be found strong enough to carry the pyramid. The United States, officially and otherwise, can well afford to do those things which will help uphold the Obregon regime as one worthy of its assistance and with an ambition to give real service.

"The democratic state platform does not contain a recommendation for a West Texas A. & M. college," notes the Fort Worth Record in regretting that the convention by a narrow squeak voted down the proposition, "but the project must not be forgotten and within a few years when the uncertain conditions which always follow a great war shall have become stable, the people of Texas will approve of and the legislature of Texas will provide for the establishment of this needed institution." While a rather constricted provincialism and selfishness was at the bottom of the fight made against the minority plank proposing the new A. & M., it would never have been able to defeat the movement had it not been for the desire for real economy in the administration of state affairs during parlous times and the fear that the period of deflation to follow the long period of war-inflation means tight money and the necessity of an effort to hold down governmental expenditures. We are loath to believe that sectionalism against an empire section of this great state is represented correctly by the vote at Fort Worth the other day, and the Record is justified in its assertion that it will not be long before "the people of Texas will approve of, and the legislature of Texas will provide for the establishment of this needed institution." The fight has not been in vain; its success is only deferred.

Individual Texas democrats apparently do not realize the pressing need for campaign funds by the national headquarters—at least, one arrives inevitably at that conclusion from the dearth of local subscriptions. With an eschequer that is almost as bare as Old Mother Hubbard's cupboard and facing an opponent that has money to burn, from big business, the democratic organization is hard put to it to finance the absolute necessities and unable to do many things that would contribute to the democratic nomination success in November. Texas democrats are interested—and most of us are willing to put up; but we must be impressed also with the fact that the time to act is now, and that a $10 donation today is worth a $20 donation a month hence, because of the necessity of headquarters' planning ahead, and knowing where the money is to come from with which to carry out its plans. In typewriter parlance and also as is usually the case in democratic financing, "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party." If you don't know to whom to send your donation or if it is inconvenient to give it to the local chairman, send it or hand it in to us, and we'll see that it reaches the proper destination, with our county getting the credit for the money.

Senatorial Nominee Thomas E. Watson may well say that his victory in the Georgia democratic primary should be taken as proof that Georgia democrats are opposed to the League of Nations, because that was the issue upon which he mainly depended his campaign. Mr. Watson may just as well say, too, that his victory is indicative of the fact that a majority of Georgia democrats are opposed to the Wilson administration and its successful conduct of the war, for those two were also issues upon which Mr. Watson ran the race to a successful conclusion. And National Democratic Chairman George H. White but echoes the general belief among democrats generally when he says that Watson's nomination is "something of a blow to the democratic party," but the weight of the blow is somewhat lessened, it seems to us, by the fact that, of all the democratic states in which the question of approval of the democratic administration has arisen, in Georgia alone has the verdict been one of disapproval; the other ways have given their seals to other ways.

Republican witnesses before the senate campaign expenditures investigating committee ought to compare their figures before giving them on the stand. Estimates of the G. O. P. budget have ranged from $5,000,000 downward, and now comes Mr. Upham, the republican national committee treasurer, with the official statement that the budget totaled $4,875,000, following Assistant Treasurer Bial's admission that "in his mind" the quotas for fifty-four cities set forth in "form 102" (which seems to have been "in his mind" as a substitute for "form 101") totaled more than the $5,145,000 charged by Governor Cox in his Pittsburgh speech as having been set as city quotas. In our concern about the size of the republican "barrel," however, we democrats should not lose sight of the fact that our own party's treasure chest is down to the scrapings, and that we should "kick in" now with our own subscriptions to enable our own managers to make at least a showing alongside the huge sums piled up by the opposition.

An Austin dispatch announces a hearing on September 23 by the state fire insurance commission to determine whether fire insurance rates in Texas shall not be further and materially reduced. Notice of the hearing asserts that in the last three years fire insurance companies operating in Texas have earned average profits of 20 per cent, and a member of the commission estimates those profits at almost $8,000,000—which is too much. The risks which it is proposed to reduce include all classes of mercantile and various classes of cotton, warehouses, foundries and machine shops and—which is of more general concern—city and country dwellings as well.

Talking About Wichita Falls. (Gene R. Ricker.) Wichita Falls has just voted 14,500-800 in bonds to be used in the construction of an irrigation project which will give the city a water supply adequate for a city of 250,000 people and will irrigate 150,000 acres of Wichita county land. The vote was 342 to 29. Wichita Falls is a fortunate city. In the first place, Wichita has had leaders with a vision for city building and men who do not split hairs and who do not horse trade when great problems that mean the advancement of their city are being considered. Abilene and other Texas towns which were once larger than Wichita Falls, and that here a few years ago may well take notice of the Wichita spirit. Oil was a big factor in building Wichita Falls, but oil alone did not build that city. Abilene is "sitting down and letting golden opportunities drift by which Wichita Falls had the gumption to capture. To be perfectly plain, Wichita has leadership where Abilene has not.

Our Young Mothers. (From the Ohio State Journal.) A new baby, a little boy about a year and a half old, we should judge, has moved into this neighborhood lately and all the little girls around here have become mothers. One or another of them takes care of little Arthur all day long, reluctantly giving him up when his bedtime comes. There is keen rivalry among them for the privilege of being mother and when little Arthur plainly shows a preference and toddles to Mary Katherine, for instance, and leaves his mother, for instance, standing there with empty outstretched arms, Mary Katherine glances at Winifred with all the sympathy, deep and sincere, but somewhat wistful, of the parent for the child's loss. They hold little Arthur on their little laps by the hour, they strain him to their little breasts, they lead him about by his little hand, they take him for long rides up and down the street in the Paris coaster, a small vehicle of express wagon type propelled by foot power. It is very cute and sweet and charming to see them, but intuition is a surer guide than reason, instinct is a more powerful influence in our lives than training and we are not at all alarmed by the dire predictions of what universal suffrage is going to do in the way of unpopulating motherhood and wrecking the home.

Just Folks

The Large Family. Time was we seldom bowed to care, the family was small, and 'An' grief went walkin' down the way an' never stopped to call. We heard of sorrow here an' there an' saw time's constant change. But oft was all so far away an' seemed so very strange. This joyously we lived our lives, scarce thinkin' we must know The sorrow others had to bear, but that was long ago. And now the family has grown, its circle stretches wide. And very often now our hearts by care and grief are tried. We've many here who share our love, and some of them are ours. Soon by the Shepherd to be called into the Heavenly fold. And we have bowed our heads in grief and lived those days of woe. Which seemed so strange to us back then in that glad long ago. We've drawn the shades against the sun, we've said the last good-bye. We understand just what it means to see a loved one die. For as the family grows more and more we come to care. And greater are the burdens that our hearts are asked to bear. And yet our joys have multiplied, glad we smile through out the year. And love and laughter we have known to pay us for our tears.

Side Talks

The Fun of Being Busy. "You poor thing," I heard one woman say to another recently, "I don't see how you stand it, why you simply go from one thing to another. I don't see where you have any time to yourself. You're busy just about all the time." "I know I am," said the other woman, "but," with a laugh, "you really needn't pity me. I get time enough for the rest. I need to keep me fit. I'm perfectly happy. I don't know of any more fun in the world than being busy, do you?" The other woman looked somewhat taken aback at this having her right to pity taken away from her (haven't you noticed how much pleasure a certain class of people take in pitying their neighbors?) and not at all convinced. "You would have known she wouldn't be—she's that sort. But just the same that is a pretty fine philosophy of happiness, don't you think?" "Who was it put it in a single line of poetry which I may have quoted to you before?" "Too useful to be lonely and too busy to be sad." "To be strong enough to keep busy the majority of the time to have work that one likes to do, and work that one feels is worth doing—that fairy godmother could give her godchild three more precious wishes than these?" "Of course it is a terrible thing to be busy in a way which inundates you—that is to have so much more to do than you have time to do. But if you have a feeling of being rushed and driven, and inadequate. Business is happiness only when one has a sense of being adequate mentally and physically to one's work." What Micawber said about money is also true about time. Micawber, you know, said that if you had an income of twenty shillings a week (I may not have the exact figures) and spent nineteen shillings you were comfortably off, but if you had the same income and spent twenty shillings sixpence you were miserably poor. So it is with your time—if you have enough to keep you busy you can be very happy, but if you have enough to keep you busy and then a little more you will probably be unhappy. Of course there are some people who by force of circumstance or necessity have to take on more work than they can comfortably do. If that really is inevitable, that is all there is to it. But sometimes when a man thinks it inevitable it isn't at all. Do you read the magazine story of the woman who was so inundated by housework that she was getting old and unhappy and out of touch with her husband and children, and how she came to realize that if she shared that work with her children every one would be happier and better off. But to every individual who does too much because he has to there is I think at least one who spoils the symmetry of a useful, happy, rounded life by trying to hang on to too many interests.

WHY?

Is a Portion of the Fall Known as "Indian Summer"? (Copyright, 1920, by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) According to the Rev. James Freeman, the name "Indian Summer" was due to the fact that the Indians were particularly fond of this portion of the year, regarding it as a special gift of the God of the southwest winds and with whom they hoped to be happy after death. Daniel Webster stated that the early autumns were that name to the season because they attributed its peculiar features—the comparative heat and haze—to the burning of the prairies by the Indians at that time. Kercheval, however, gives an even more plausible explanation when, in his discussion of "Amorism," he states: "It sometimes happened that, after the apparent onset of winter, the weather became warm, the 'hazy time' commenced and lasted for a considerable number of days. This was the 'Indian summer,' because it afforded the Indians, during the severe weather, never made any incursions into the settlements another opportunity for visiting them with their destructive warfare. The melting of the early snow saddened every countenance and the genial warmth of the sun chilled every heart with horror. The apprehension of another visit of the Indians was painful in the highest degree." In England the same season is known as "St. Martin's Summer," from the fact that it properly begins on or about November 11, St. Martin's Day. The Germans know it as "der alte Weiberrimm," while in China it is called "St. John's summer." Tomorrow—WHY is black the symbol of mourning?

And I gave him a sent, an account of a sent being cheap for maple sugar candy nowadays, and I started to serch him, leavin' the back pocket till last as if it was all my own idee without me havin' saw him stick anything in it, and all he had in his side pocket was string and buttons and cork and stuff, and all he had in his back pocket was a round leather pocket book, the color of maple sugar candy, me thinkin'. Aw heck, darn it, O. And Skippy put the sent in the pocket book alongside of 1 more sent, and I had a grate idee, sayin', Hay, Skippy, do you want to serch me for a sent? No, sed Skippy. Wich he dident.

For any sort of commercial enterprise and favorable for journeys that have for their object some business transaction. Neptune is in a place supposed to impart vision, intuition and understanding. The rule seems to promise much to persons dealing in oil, whether through stocks or as actual handlers of the product. Saturn is menacing today, so that the cautions will be careful in real estate transactions or in mining deals. Centers in which men work underground are subject to the most disturbing rule of the stars, making for discontent and labor troubles. Mars is in sinister array, but whatever peril threatens is far off. Spain certainly will pass through a crisis, if the stars are read aright and the king is now under the most threatening rule of the stars. The Moon seems to tell of a royal romance and the marriage of an English princess is foretold. Agitation concerning public revenues may come much to the fore at this time and extravagance will be uncovered in more than one state. Women who are leaders in politics or any public service now have to contend with planetary influences that are most threatening, since they encourage envy and malice that works trouble. Persons whose birthdate it is may experience a strenuous year in business which should be successful. All litigation should be avoided. Children born on this day may be too fond of amusement to progress rapidly in any serious pursuit. They should be wisely trained and educated, for they should have fine possibilities.

BITTEREST CAMPAIGN IN ILLINOIS CLOSES; PRIMARY WEDNESDAY

LEADERS OF REPUBLICANS CENTER FIGHT ON GUBERNATORIAL RACE.

TWO CANDIDATES FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION

Libel Suit for Hundred Thousand Dollars by Mayor is Feature of the Campaign.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—One of the bitterest primary campaigns in Illinois political history closed today with leaders of the two republican factions centering their fight on the gubernatorial nomination. At the polls tomorrow democrats and republicans will nominate candidates for senator, representatives and the various state offices, in addition to governor.

Len Small, former speaker of the Illinois house, who is backed for the gubernatorial nomination by Mayor William Hale Thompson and his wing of the republican party, is opposed by John G. Oglesby, lieutenant governor, for whom Governor Frank O. Lowden has taken the stump. Two other republicans, Oscar E. Carstrom, and Edward N. Woodruff, also are seeking the nomination.

In the democratic contest for governor, James Hamilton Lewis, former senator, is opposed by Barrat O'Hara, former lieutenant governor.

Candidates for senate, seeking the nomination for senator on the republican ticket are W. B. McKinley, representative from the 13th district; F. L. Smith, favored by the Thompson faction, and Burnett M. Chipperfield, former representative. The democratic nomination is sought by Robert E. Burke and Peter A. Walker.

In Cook county, a hot fight developed in the contest for nomination for state's attorney on the democratic ticket. Maclay Hoyne, incumbent, is opposed by four others, including Michael L. Igoe.

A development today in the republican fight was the announcement of Sheriff Charles W. Peters of Cook county that more than 1,000 men would be deputized to "preserve law and order at the polls," followed by a statement from Chief of Police Garrity that they would be arrested if they violated the law relative to the carrying of weapons.

A libel suit resulting from the campaign filed for Mayor Thompson against former Mayor Oglesby, damages of $100,000 being asked. The suit was based on letters sent out over the nature of Mr. Oglesby, which were said to attack the mayor as being "seditious and unpatriotic."

PRIMARY IS BEING HELD THROUGHOUT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Enrolled republicans and democrats of New York state went to the polls today to vote for candidates who seek party nominations for the various state offices as well as for United States senator, representatives in congress and seats in both houses of the legislature.

Leaders of both parties predicted a large vote.

The most important contests of a state-wide nature are for United States senator and governor on the republican ticket and for U. S. senator on the democratic ticket. United States senator James W. Wadsworth Jr., who received the endorsement of the unofficial state convention, is opposed by Mrs. Ella Boole, state president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and George Henry Payne, city tax commissioner.

Nathan J. Miller of Syracuse, former judge of the court of appeals, designs of the unofficial republican state convention for governor, is opposed by State Senator G. F. Thompson.

The contest for the senatorial nomination on the democratic ticket, is between Lieut. Gov. Harry Walker of Binghamton and Mayor George R. Lunn of Schenectady.

Lieut. Gov. Walker is the designee

IMPORTANT MEETING OF ITALIAN LEADERS

Employers Want Settlement of Economic Question as an Immediate Solution.

MILAN, ITALY, Sept. 13.—Important discussions took place today between representatives of the workmen and the masters, in which Prefect Luognotti of Milan and Prefect Taddei of Turin participated. Signor Taddei returned to Turin on receiving word of the Debenedetti incident.

The most interesting statement in these discussions was that Deputy Daragona, representing the confederation of labor, is trying to convince the employers of the necessity in their own interests of solving the problems of their relations with the men in a radical manner so as to profoundly modify social conditions. He informed the delegates that the confederation was at work on a project aiming clearly to establish a new moral, technical and economic situation for the workmen.

The representatives of the employers expressed the opinion that a settlement should be made now on the purely economic question, postponing any decision regarding complete reforms until the reopening of parliament, which was asked also by the socialist and Catholic deputies, who observed that parliament was the only proper tribunal to give a decision on such important matters involving the life of the entire nation.

Meanwhile, in all the works, socialist propagandists are urging the men to resist for a definite triumph of the proletarian ideals.

Elephant Goes On Rampage at Circus; Objects to Trainer

SALINA, KAN., Sept. 14.—A firing squad ended the career of Snyder, a $10,000 circus elephant, that went on a rampage here yesterday when a new trainer displeased him.

"Me and me and the kids" were "all set" for the afternoon performance when a roar from a rear tent announced Snyder's displeasure. He refused to be quiet. The circus crowd fled in terror. The enraged elephant tossed animal cages in all directions. A meal of marshmallows and apples mixed with poison only added to his fury. Snyder seized a cage of four lions and hurled it 30 feet. Then a firing squad armed with army rifles came into action, firing volley after volley into the elephant, which died charging the rifle-men.

Doesn't it make you feel good—cause you to straighten up and feel "chesty"—when someone guesses your age at ten years or so younger than you really are? You look into your mirror, smile with satisfaction and say to yourself: "Well, he didn't make such a bad guess, at that."

When Leonard steps into the ring to face young Eddie Fitzsimmons, also of New York, at Madison Square Garden, he will be about as busy for 15 rounds as he has ever been since gaining the lightweight title. This Fitzsimmons person swings a wicked left with a kick like no mule ever had. For the past year fighters in this division have taken to their heels every time Fitz's name was mentioned.

used to weigh around 145 and beat such boys as Phil Bloom, Harry Stone, and Harvey, but now he is trained down to 125 and can make the required weight with very little effort. Eddie is a southpaw, assuming a sort of Jeffries' crouch, standing face on, set to deliver a wallop with either hand. But that left is his ace, and oh, what a left, my countrymen. He is credited with being the hardest hitting lightweight in the game.

REPUBLICANS SCORE BIG VICTORY IN MAINE

comfort in the result for them. They went into the contest feebly organized and gathered from its conclusion a correspondingly feeble satisfaction. It appears that about half of the so-called woman vote has been polled, which should increase the total vote over 1916 by 50 per cent. Yet the total democratic vote is running even with or behind that of 1916 when expectedly it would be running 50 per cent ahead as in the case with the republicans. Either then the newly enfranchised women have been voting the republican ticket rather exclusively or there has been a great defection in the old time democratic vote, which is not probable.

"PLANNED, LABORED AND PAID" DECLARES WHITE

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The republicans "planned, labored and paid for" their victory in the Maine elections yesterday, George White, democratic national chairman, said in a statement today.

"This is the republican day of rejoicing," he said. "They planned, labored and paid for it and I would not, by any utterance of mine, rob them of any of their meed of joy."

"With a splendid organization and with the expenditure of every effort possible to get finances they prepared the republican state of Maine for its state election in the hope of persuading the country that the trend is heavily republican in the national race."

"Had the democratic party been presented the same opportunity in a state where the trumpet call of democracy means as much as the clarion of republicanism means in Maine, we should have made as nearly the same efforts as possible with the same psychology in mind."

"We shall have votes for the league in November from thousands of the men and women who supported Colonel Parkhurst. On a certain morning in November our time for rejoicing will come, and in the meantime we gaze cheerfully upon today's republican demonstration and I do not begrudge it to them at all."

RESULT IN MAINE IS NO SURPRISE, SAYS COX

WEISER, IDAHO, Sept. 14.—Governor Cox, democratic nominee for president, who is en route to Salt Lake City, today made the following statement on the Maine election.

"The result in Maine is no surprise. The majority is accounted for by the augmented vote. Republican National Chairman Hays went into the state early and that clearly meant that Maine was to be prepared as the pyrotechnical display for this campaign. But neither pyrotechnics nor money can win the fight. It will be decided outside of Maine. In the 1916 September election the republicans carried Maine, and yet in November President Wilson carried 29 states and divided the electoral vote in West Virginia."

Girl 19 Years Old In Dark Basement Since 2 Years Old

JOLIET, ILL., Sept. 14.—Marie Kowicz, 19 year old, toyed with a rubber doll as she rested on a hospital bed here today while eminent physicians debated her chances for physical and mental development.

The physicians discussed her condition freely in the presence of the patient for she could not understand their simplest words. Her whole interest was absorbed by the doll and the white, clean clothes on her bed.

Marie's physical development approximates that of a four year old child; the physicians found in their examination. Her mental development was even less, they declared, than that of the average three year old baby.

The girl, who developed spinal trouble when two years of age, was allowed to lie in a baby crib in a dark basement, for 17 years until found by a visiting nurse. Her mother was ashamed of the girl's deformity and did not call for medical aid.

"The doll was the first 'made' plaything the girl ever had. She spent most of her childhood sleeping, but during her short time awake played with sticks and crumbs of bread given her."

Bread and other coarse food, physicians said, had apparently been her only nourishment. The girl could not talk or comprehend. She saw more persons at the hospital where she was taken today than in all her previous life.

Dr. Bernard Klein, the physician, who has charge of the girl, said that no definite announcement of the girl's possibilities could be given until a more complete examination was finished.

If possible, the physicians hope to develop the girl to maturity physically within two years. Her mental training will have to be the same as that of a baby.

"It is a peculiar case and we have to proceed slowly," declared Dr. Klein. The physical deformity of the girl may be corrected, physicians said.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—John Zolak, foreman of a south side warehouse, was found murdered today. Robbers evidently had killed him when they broke into the warehouse. Zolak's pockets had been turned inside out and all his money taken. His family said he had $2,000.

Look Out for Rheumatism As Winter Approaches

So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny disease germ that infects the blood, that physicians are beginning to realize that this source of the disease is becoming quite preventable. Of course a disease that has its source in the blood cannot be reached by local remedies applied to the surface. One remedy that has given splendid results in the treatment of Rheumatism is S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been sold by druggists for more than fifty years. S.S.S. acts by driving out of the blood the disease germ that causes Rheumatism, thus affording real relief. Begin taking S.S.S. today and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. PROPOSE TO COME TO RELIEF OF
GUARD ON DUTY AT

DECISION REACHED TO INCORPORATE CHAMBER

Financial Statement of Secretary
Harrison Shows a Cash Balance on Hand.

Wichita Falls, through the Chamber of Commerce, will attempt to handle $25,000 of state warrants in an effort to guarantee that guardsmen on strike duty at Galveston will not lose any part of their pay. The matter was brought to the attention of the directors of the chamber Monday evening by Frank Kell, who pointed out that the state appropriation for the pay of the militia had been consumed some time ago, and that unless aid was forthcoming hundreds of guardsmen would be forced to sell their pay warrants at a discount. It was pointed out that the legislature will undoubtedly pass another appropriation the first of the year to retire these warrants, in view of which fact it was suggested that local banks should handle $25,000 of the warrants. T. B. Noble, G. C. Wood and Frank Kell were appointed a committee to take the matter up with the six local banks. Kell stating that he would handle the matter personally if the banks refused to do so.

Votes to Incorporate.
After considerable discussion, it was voted to incorporate the Chamber of Commerce. The matter passed the directors readily, although the point was stressed that the question of making a corporate body out of the organization was not of particular importance; and was being done merely as a matter of business policy.

Secretary Harrison's financial statement for the month of August showed a balance on hand of $5,990. He stated further that with few expenses other than overhead to meet for the next three months, the chamber might expect to close the year with a balance approximating $5,000. The statement was accepted, and the secretary was authorized to file with the city attorney and the city clerk the chamber's bill of $3,000 against the Wichita Falls Water company for the expense of the water line to Call Field. The bill of $150 for the decorating of Eighth street on the day Maikat Temple was instituted here was also ordered paid, by the chamber.

To Keep Rainfall Record.
Attention was called to the fact that weather records, with special reference to the rainfall record, are no longer being kept in this city, and it was decided that the chamber will continue this work. The records are considered valuable in their bearing on certain phases of the proposed irrigation project.

The directors authorized J. G. Culbertson to represent the chamber at New Orleans October 11-12, when the southern protective tariff commission will hold a convention on matters of interest to various southern industries. Mayor W. D. Cline explained to the directors the various bond issues for municipal improvements that will come before the public for vote on October 12, and the chamber approved each issue and voted to extend its aid to the city in helping to obtain a favorable decision from the citizenship. The meeting closed after voting to take out a membership in the Wichita club for the secretary of the chamber. It will be held temporarily by Secretary Harrison, but will be transferred if at any time before its expiration he should sever his connection with the organization.

HEARING FOR FIVE IN KIMBERLIN ROBBERY

Sixth Person is Placed Under Arrest in Connection with This Burglary Case.

All five persons who are held in connection with the burglary of Kimberlin's Upstairs Garment Shop testified at a preliminary hearing held before Justice of the Peace Arrington late Monday afternoon. Those charged, Mrs. Ira Campbell, Roy Staton, Mrs. Dora Staton, W. C. Campbell and Artabon Campbell, were ordered held under bonds of $200, $1,500, $250, $250 and $1,000 respectively.

At the hearing it was brought out that Artabon Campbell is a deserter from the United States army having been absent from his command for a period of two or three months.

Artabon Campbell and Roy Staton both admitted on the witness stand that they were the two who robbed the store. The other, it appears, became entangled in the affair after the goods were stolen and are charged with having assisted or advised in the concealment of the goods.

Immediately after the trial charges were filed against Artabon Campbell and his brother's wife, Mrs. Ida Campbell, in connection with the theft of a cameo ring stolen from a roomer at 425 Scott street. The two are charged with theft over $50.

Monday afternoon the sixth person was arrested in connection with the store robbery. N. Barrett, an employe of the Summerville garage, where the goods were concealed for a period of time, was the sixth man in a statement Barrett said he did not know that the furs and coats were there until after they had been deposited in the garage.
