CONFERENCE NOT CALLED FROM SELFISH INTEREST

Old Way Would Have Been to Build Biggest Navy and Assert Supremacy.

By MARK SULLIVAN, National Political Correspondent of the New York Evening Post and the Wichita Daily Times. (Copyright 1921 by The New York Evening Post.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—There is a fundamental fact in the relation of the United States to the coming conference for the limitation of armaments which should never be lost sight of. That is that the United States is not calling the conference in its own interest. It would be more correct to say that we are calling the conference against our own interests. There is no possible outcome of the conference, as the United States envisages it, which would be to our advantage as against the interests of the rest of the world. We are not calling the conference to get something, we are calling it to give up something.

TWO LOSE LIVES WHEN SUBMARINE R-6 SINKS AT SAN PEDRO

BELIEVED DISASTER CAUSED BY WATER RUSHING THROUGH TORPEDO TUBE.

OFFICIAL EXPLANATION OF ACCIDENT LACKING

Seaman Imprisoned in Sunken Craft May Yet Be Alive is Thought.

SAN PEDRO, CALIF., Sept. 27.—Two men lost their lives when the submarine R-6 sank in San Pedro harbor last night. It was officially announced today by Rear Admiral Hermon O. Stickney, commander of the Pacific fleet and an eye-witness of part of the disaster. A third man who was missing and who for a time was thought to have been a victim of the accident, has been accounted for, together with all other officers and men of the submarine.

The dead are: R. Griffin, seaman, San Pedro, Calif.; Vincent Spaulberg, seaman, Sowers Lake, S. D.

SAN PEDRO, CALIF., Sept. 27.—Three men are believed to have lost their lives when the United States submarine R-6 sank in Los Angeles harbor last night, the result of an unexplained accident, it was stated at the submarine base here early today.

First reports were that two lives were lost. An electrician whose name was given as Spaulberg was said to have been blown from the sinking craft from an explosion, while J. Drefen, a seaman, was reported imprisoned in the sunken craft. Today officers at the base hospital said another man whose name was not given out, was thought to have gone down with the R-6.

Divers were working in 35 feet of water this morning, and the R-6, endeavoring to raise her to the surface. It was possible, according to naval men, that any one inside might have escaped to an airtight compartment in which life might be sustained for 48 hours. The crew of 20 were inside the hull getting torpedoes ready for practice today when the craft began to ship water from the stern, indicating, according to officers, that the rear torpedo tube may have yielded to sea pressure and opened.

The position in which the submarine was found, it was believed, was caused by water rushing into an open torpedo tube.

A landing party from the flagship New Mexico told the Examiner that they were unable to give a detailed account of the sinking, but they believed the vessel was not given out, was being filled a cylinder with a scold the tubes of the vessel became opened in some unaccountable manner, sinking the vessel within sixty seconds.

The crew of the R-6 included twenty officers and men, and efforts are being made to check the accounts for and the missing to determine if any more were lost.

It is said that the submarine went down bow first. As soon as the alarm was sounded, searchlights from all ships of the fleet lying at anchor in the harbor were turned on the scene of the disaster.

The R-6 was tied up to the tender Camden when she sank. That the death list was not larger and that only one submarine was involved is thought to have been due to the presence of mind of one sailor, whose name is not known, who it is said, when the R-6 began to settle, ran up the fore peak and cut the hawsers by which the submarine was moored to the Camden and two other vessels of similar type as the R-6.

Divers are working feverishly in the hope that one sailor who is thought to have been on the stricken vessel may still be alive in the vessel, which is resting on the harbor floor under 25 feet of water. The belief was expressed that should this man still be in the R-6 he may be alive, providing he was successful in closing the compartments into which the water rushed through the open tubes.

Submarine Rescued Harbor. SAN PEDRO, CALIF., Sept. 27.—Two submarines from the base here early this morning were searching the outer harbor in an attempt to locate the bodies of the two members of the crew of the R-6 who are believed to have drowned when the vessel sank in the harbor last night. Naval officials stated that the cause of the disaster was unknown, but that an investigation would be launched immediately to determine the responsibility for the sinking of the vessel.

DEMOCRATS DECIDE PEACE TREATIES NOT PARTISAN MATTERS

SENATE CAUCUS SHOWS DEMOCRATIC SENATORS WIDELY DIVIDED

WILSON'S ATTITUDE WAS NOT INVOLVED

HOWAT SUPPORTERS WIN DEMAND FOR ROLL CALL VOTE

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—By an overwhelming vote the Democratic senators in conference today decided that the peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary were not matters for party action. Individual democrats, it was said, would be left to follow their own judgment in voting on ratification.

The democrats were said to be "widely divided" with a larger number favoring than opposing ratification. The conference, which was attended by twenty-seven of the thirty-six minority members, did not conclude its sessions today and agreed to meet again Thursday.

Senator Underwood of Alabama, minority leader, and Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, ranking democrat on the foreign relations committee, were reported to have led the discussion today in favor of ratification, with Senator Glass of Virginia and Senator Harrison of Mississippi leading the opposition.

The discussion senators said did not involve the probable attitude on ratification of former President Wilson. Senator Hitchcock, referring to reports in circulation that Mr. Wilson had expressed himself to one or two other democratic senators as against ratification, said he knew nothing about it, while Senator Harrison of Mississippi, a democratic spokesman, denied the reports flatly.

Coincident with the democratic conference, Senator Borah of Idaho, a representative of the opposition, introduced a resolution requesting the state department to advise the senate whether the United States has any "representative of agent" serving in any capacity with allied members of the reparations committee.

Republican leaders planned to defer further senate debate on the treaties until tomorrow when Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, republican leader, said that he proposed holding night sessions.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The national conference on unemployment standing adjourned today and the 10 sub-committees appointed at the organizing session of the conference yesterday was ready to get down to work today on a study of the various phases of the problem assigned to each with a view to recommending practical relief measures to the conference when it reconvenes. Hearings on unemployment statistics to develop reliable data as to the extent and distribution of unemployment as a prerequisite to enlightened treatment of the problem were to begin today before the sub-committee on statistics. Ethelbert Stewart, head of the bureau of labor statistics, was slated as the chief witness today and a number of other witnesses will be heard at their request.

SHERMAN, TEXAS, Sept. 27.—Johnny Fahy, proprietor of a cold drink stand here, said today he had received a letter telling him to close his business and leave Sherman. "They can come and get me, I will not leave," Fahy declared.

OCTOBER COTTON ADVANCES $6.25 BALE OVER MONDAY'S CLOSE

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—October cotton today advanced $6.25 a bale over yesterday's closing and the general market showed net advances of 50 to 90 points.

Unusually heavy notices of delivery on October contracts and unexpected competition for the same, Japanese interests were credited with taking up notices representing fully 50,000 bales of the 82,000 bales tendered. The October cotton was reported to be of a desirable grade and staple.

Exporting and domestic trade interests were credited with stopping such notices as reached them and buying October around the ring.

Private crop reports reducing estimates of the indicated yield to around 6,100,000 bales stimulated the buying movement and the advance extended to 21.20 for October and 21.23 for December. The market closed firm at a net advance of 33 to 125 points.

HEAVY PURCHASES OF LIBERTY BONDS FEATURE TRADING

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Further enormous purchases of liberty bonds and victory notes overshadowed all other dealings on the stock exchange this morning. The first hour's sales of bonds approximated $6,000,000 and fully 75 per cent of this was represented by United States government issues. Almost all domestic war flotations rose to highest quotations of the year, but the feature was the victory 4s, which advanced to 99.

The issue was taken in block quantities from small amounts to $250,000 and $400,000. One lot of $1,000,000 changed hands.

Buying of liberty bonds and victory notes continued in large volume during the mid-session and early afternoon, dealings up to 1:30 o'clock being estimated at $12,000,000.

Prices receded slightly in most instances, probably as a result of speculative profit taking but every stock market was met with further accumulation.

Financial institutions, insurance companies and wealthy individuals are reported to have taken an active part in the recent recovery of these issues.

Forced selling by people of moderate means which occasioned the low prices in the early months of this year seems to have run its course. The lower discount rates announced by federal reserve banks last week, foreshadowing easier money rates also have been factors in the advance.

Liberty bonds eased with the recovery in the stock market toward the close. Victory 4s remained firm, however, within a fraction of the day's highest quotation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The final showdown in the two Kansas strike cases that have been before the convention of the United Mine Workers of America for four days was expected to occur today. The convention opened today. Supporters of Alexander Howat, president of the Kansas district, then won a roll call vote to elect Howat president of the day.

Howat contends that the strikes were called when the operators failed to observe a cut-off time after the convention. The international executive board has ordered that the strikers return to work.

The convention rules declare that 200 delegates must support a demand for a roll call vote. This number was easily obtained following the motion picture shown by Senator Howat from Peoria, Ill., that a roll call be taken on the proposition of supporting the administration of President Lewis and the international executive board.

Alexander Howat, president of the Kansas miners, who opposed ordering the men back to work, said he expected to file a motion tomorrow for Dolores, Kan., appearing in court there next Friday before beginning a jail sentence which may escape by giving bond not to call any more strikes.

The American were employed by the Dolores Mining company. Consul Ott received assurances from the governor of Chihuahua, in which state Dolores is located, that he would not give bond, asserting he preferred to go to jail.

MISS ZEH PROVOST SAYS MISS RAPPE WAS FULLY DRESSED

ANOTHER MEMBER OF PARTY CONFIRMS TESTIMONY GIVEN BY MRS. DELMONT.

SEMNACHER SAYS HE WILL SUE DOMINGUEZ

Grand Jury Hears Semnacher's Story And Places It Upon Its Records.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Miss Zeh Provost, one of the show girls participating in Fatty Arbuckle's hotel party which led to the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, was the first witness today in the Arbuckle murder charge hearing in police court.

Arbuckle, Miss Rappe, Mrs. Bambina M. Delmont, Miss Alice Blake, Alfred Semnacher and Milton Fred were in Arbuckle's suite when she joined the party, she testified. Arbuckle and Sherman were dressed in pajamas, bath robes and slippers, she said.

Miss Rappe was seated on a settee at Arbuckle's side, according to the witness, who said she saw "a little bit" of drinking.

Fred Blake later joined the party, Miss Provost added, and others came in and out of the room.

"Did you see Miss Rappe leave the room at any time?" asked Assistant District Attorney Milton Fred.

"About an hour later," she replied. "Arbuckle followed Miss Rappe into the room adjoining the one where the party was gathered, closing the door, Miss Provost continued.

About three-quarters of an hour later, according to the witness, and Miss Delmont, who was seated at the latter table, she said, Miss Rappe came in and out of the room, Miss Provost continued.

"She was fully dressed, but her hair was hanging down, and she was moaning," the witness added. Mrs. Delmont and I went over and asked her what was the matter," Miss Provost said. "She said 'I am dying. I am dying. I know I am going to die.'"

I replied, and then she sat up in bed and started to tear off her waist and stockings. Mr. Arbuckle then came in and started to undress her, she said. "Miss Rappe's clothes then were taken off, according to the witness, and she was put on a bed.

"Then she started to cry again. 'I am dying, he hurt me,' said Miss Provost.

A restorative given the girl caused her to lose consciousness, she said. The witness continued, and she was dipped in a tub of cold water.

"She cried loudly again when she was put back on the bed," Miss Provost said.

Threatens Miss Rappe. "Then Arbuckle said, 'If you don't stop yelling, I'll throw you out of the window.'"

Arbuckle then went back into the other room, Miss Provost continued. "Miss Rappe continued, applying ice to her forehead, she said.

"That'll make her come to," she said.

In answer to a question from the prosecution, Miss Provost said she did not hear Miss Rappe say "Hoscow, you will have your little piece."

Some one put in a telephone call for aid, Miss Provost stated, but some other person came to the rescue, she said, saying no notice was given to the police.

While Arbuckle and Miss Rappe were out of the room, she said there was music being played in the room. "On examination by the witness, Miss Provost stated that she received an invitation by telephone to come to Arbuckle's suite, there were no other people in the room, she said, but he did not remember her. She did not know who the invitation came from, she said, and when she entered Arbuckle's suite, there were no other people in the room, she said, but she refused to sign her statement made to District Attorney Brady.

TEXT OF MEXICAN COURT'S DECISION FORWARDED TO U. S.

PROPERTY ACQUIRED PRIOR TO MAY 1, 1917, NOT AFFECTED BY ARTICLE 27.

PERPLEXING PROBLEMS IN PARAGRAPH FOUR

Text of Decision Given Out Last Night and Copy is Forwarded to Washington.

By Associated Press. MEXICO CITY, Sept. 27.—Property acquired by oil corporations prior to May 1, 1917, cannot be construed as coming within the provisions of article 27 of the Mexican constitution, which nationalizes petroleum deposits. This is the view of several legal authorities who last night examined the formal decision in the Texas company amparo case, which was handed down last night by the Mexican supreme court. Members of the court admitted that paragraph 4 of article 27 contained perplexing problems, but they concurred in the decision that this article could not impair titles to property perfected before the constitution went into effect.

George T. Sumnerlin, American charge d'affaires in this city, obtained a copy of the decision last night. He will forward it immediately to the state department in Washington, but refused during the evening to comment on the court's action. The document was very lengthy, containing more than 2,000 words. The first part of it was given over to a history of the case. The Texas company brought a suit in equity in the lower court asking an injunction against the Mexican government officials forbidding them to carry out the denouncement filed against the company's property, following its seizure last year by President Carranza's decree ordering all oil companies to manifest their holdings. The lower court denied the injunction and the supreme court reversed the lower court's ruling. The supreme court, however, did not find that President Carranza exceeded his powers when he issued the decree ordering the denouncement of the Texas company's properties under the provisions of article 27.

"Paragraph 4 of article 27," said the section of the decision dealing with non-retroactivity of the article in question, "cannot be regarded as retroactive, either in its text or its spirit, if it does not affect rights which were acquired upon those rights in the text of the article, because it does not contain an express mandate regarding its retroactivity; nor can any such indication be read into it. No attack is made in the spirit of the article, because it acts in the same spirit manifested in other articles of the constitution, which as a whole recognized the old principles upon which are based the rights of man granting ample guarantees."

"Non-retroactive, non-retroactive, we find it is in harmony with the principles set forth in the paragraphs immediately preceding it. These are in the private property. We also find it in harmony with the section relating to petroleum which follow it. From all this, it is understood that, according to universally applied rules which have been accepted for the interpretation of laws, paragraph 4 of article 27 is not retroactive in that it does not impair rights previously and legitimately acquired."

By Associated Press. PARIS, Sept. 27.—Russians representing all political groups outside the bolshevik party held a mass meeting here last night and called on the nations of the world to protest vigorously at Moscow against the recent executions of "intellectuals" by the soviet authorities. A resolution adopted by the meeting designated the crime as one of the most horrible of modern times and certain to hasten the end of the bolshevik regime.

Several speakers lauded the work of Herbert Hoover and the American relief administration, saying that the United States through this organization was helping the Russian people in a practical way, while many other nations were not yet beyond the talking stage.

ARCHDUCHESS DISPLEASED WITH CONTRACT FOR SALE OF ARCHDUCAL ESTATES

By Associated Press. PARIS, Sept. 26.—Reports from Berlin that Archduchess Isabella of Austria had refused to sign a contract for the sale of her estates in Austria, which she recently entered into with an American syndicate to take over the archducal estates in Europe and is considering a rupture, were denied today by Thomas J. Feltner, the syndicate's representative here. A similar denial was authorized by the legal representatives of the archduke's family, who represented the syndicate in the negotiations, were considered absolutely binding by the family which never has been known to repudiate a contract.

Questioning of Miss Provost will be resumed in the afternoon session, it was stated. (Continued on Page 7, Column 2)

SESSION REICHSTAG MOST IMPORTANT SINCE ARMISTICE

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—Important legislation awaited action by the reichstag when it reconvened here today, this session of the German parliament being considered as the most important held since the treaty of Versailles was signed. Ratification of the peace treaty with the United States, tax measures and law calculating to bring order out of chaos prevailing in Germany's finances were on the calendar and these threatened to be postponed as a result of the assassination early this month of Matthias Erzberger, former vice chancellor. Interest centered today in the proposed reconstruction of the German cabinet and it was expected there would be a proposal that the present coalition would be extended by the inclusion of representatives of the German people's party. There seemed to be some probability that this could not be brought about without partisan bitterness, in view of the hostility to Chancellor Wirth, which has been manifested by an influential group of the German people's party. The attitude of Gustav Stresemann was one of the most interesting features of the situation today. The majority socialists continued to assert their allegiance to the chancellor despite his announced readiness to co-operate in a government in which the German people's party was represented.

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 27.—Dispatches from New York telling of the successful negotiation of an Argentine loan there of $50,000,000 were hailed with great relief by the financial and commercial community here today. The purchase of locomotives in the United States is planned.

Anti-bolsheviks who were deported from Constantinople and were on their way back to Russia have jumped overboard along the Turkish coast. # DONLEY COUNTY FAIR AWARDS ANNOUNCED; WERE MANY EXHIBITS

CLARENDON, TEXAS, Sept. 27.—Donley county fair closed here after three successful days showing the greatest amount of agricultural exhibits and swine ever seen in this county. The agricultural exhibits included six communities, Goldston, Lella Lake, Windy Valley, Martin and the Clarendon canning club women. Goldston won the first prize, Lella Lake second and Windy Valley third. These six exhibits would do credit to any fair in the state. The Clarendon canning club women exhibited 150 varieties of fruit and vegetables. The girls club exhibit had the most attractive display in their canning department as well as their sewing and millinery. Mrs. Ida Chitwood was in charge of this work and has made great progress along these lines.

The Boy Scouts had an unusually fine exhibit showing their different kinds of workmanship. This department was in charge of Rev. W. H. Foster of this city.

The boys' pig club, Roy W. Hendrix, county agricultural agent, in charge, deserves much praise. M. B. Dates, agricultural agent, judged the swine in open classes and was assisted by R. O. McFarland and L. M. Thompson in the boys' and girls' pig club entries. The winners were: for boys, Mont Wolford; junior boar, Clyde Bach; senior gilt, Marie Bowser. First, Raymond Mosely, J. L. Rogers, Jeff Tanner, Nole Kinnally, Sam Blocker, Junior gilt, Chester Hodges, Willie Grandon, Rubie Mae, Glenn Woods and Earl Bain. Marie Bowser who took first with the senior gilt, won the grand championship in the club class; Chester Hodges won second grand championship.

A boar weighing 195 pounds and owned by W. L. Butler & Sons of Lella Lake won the grand championship. Frank M. Clark of Hedley was another successful exhibitor of the Poland China hogs; also W. L. McFarland and Sons of Lella Lake and Avers Bros. of Hedley.

In the poultry department, boys' and girls' clubs: Barred rocks, first, Lucille Naylor; second, Clarendon Brown Sweepstakes, Lucille Naylor. Brown leghorns, first, Lucille Naylor; second, first pullet, Lella Bowers, Cornish game, first pen, Cordella Holland.

TAX COLLECTION RECEIPTS TO BE SMALL IS BELIEF

That receipts from the collection of annual taxes will be small until the first of the year is the belief expressed by the majority of county officials. The first day for the payment of taxes will be Saturday, October 1.

The first day's collections last year were very small. Two poll taxes amounting to $2.75 and $2.50 for current taxes included all the collections on October 1, 1920.

Various funds of the county treasury are in need of being replenished immediately but officials are of the opinion that loans will have to be floated for the benefit of several of the funds. The money will be transferred from one fund to another so that the county will not be compelled to borrow from its depository.

AMERICA MUST FIRST LOOK TO FRANCE FOR INSPIRATION

PARIS, Sept. 26.—America has no national art and must continue for many years to come to look to France for inspiration, Ceceila Beaux, a New York delegate to the international art congress which opened here today.

"America is constantly striving for its own national art," she said, "and in time it will come; but for many years we shall have to find our chief inspiration in Holland and Italy and especially in France."

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH US, ANYWAY?

Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, Sets the Cause and the Cure.

By SAMUEL GOMPERS, President American Federation of Labor.

The present industrial depression is not essentially different from the cycles of financial and industrial depression which have come with somewhat regular frequency.

It is the magnitude of the present situation that makes the problem so acute. The fundamental cause is the same faulty judgment on the part of those responsible for management.

The degree of responsibility for management that rests on the various contributing elements concerned in production, varies with each industrial establishment.

Bad management means waste—unnecessarily high costs of production. This waste is cumulative and finally becomes too heavy for the productive processes to carry.

Then comes the crash!

During the war economy of production was a secondary consideration. The dislocation effected by war production was world wide. A serious strain has been placed on all the elements participating in industry.

The calamity that has resulted will serve a good purpose if it leads to earnest study and an evaluation of the basic principles upon which industry, commerce and finance are organized, together with an understanding of the human beings whose intelligence and labor power are necessary to coordinate the materials and forces of industry.

America is rich in natural resources, gold, machinery, productive establishments and commercial agencies.

If we have sufficient wealth of intelligence and human creative ability we can put our material wealth at the service of the humanity of the world. The function of wealth must be service. There are barriers of prejudice, precedent, unearned income that interfers with the use of credit and wealth for the fullest volume of production in the service of humanity.

In order to eliminate industrial and financial depressions, we must eliminate practices and institutions that prevent the ideal of service to humanity from being the controlling principle in production and human activity.

Lubitsch so Good he Overshadows Pola Negri

By N. E. A. Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Another foreign film, "One Arabian Night," has been launched in America.

The National Board of Review considered it such a good picture that it was selected as the first "exceptional" film of the 1921-1922 season. And a whole theater-full of critics was invited to an advance showing to pass judgment upon it.

Questionnaires were distributed. Complete returns are not in, but it can be said that "One Arabian Night" is a fitting successor to "Passion" and "Deception," its German predecessors. Pola Negri is the star. She is so advertised, while Ernst Lubitsch's name appears in smaller type as the director as well as the interpreter of the role of the hunchback clown. Which is probably the picture's only fault.

Lubitsch, not Negri, really is the star. She is the lithe, alluring dancer, who captivates all hearts. As an Oriental vampire she is at least one could expect, and she is extremely easy to look at. She dances in a most thrilling way and she wears the same kind of costumes.

Put it remains for Lubitsch to do the best dancing. It is a most difficult role, and his characterization of the crippled clown, madly in love with the desert-bred dancer who laughs at him and smiles her way into the hearts of everybody from the mighty Sheik down, is a piece of work you will not soon forget.

You may be a Pola Negri fan, but you will give Lubitsch the most credit. Especially when you stop to consider that besides directing the most important role he also directs the entire picture.

"One Arabian Night" also has another foremost German movie figure in Paul Wegener. Lubitsch produced "Passion," and it was Wegener who produced "The Sheik." In this picture Wegener, who aids Lubitsch as director, plays the part of the Sheik.

The settings are remarkable, pronounced a triumph of Oriental representation. The picture is picturesque and spectacular enough—but it is more of a drama than a spectacle.

It is the story of the romance of Zuleika, the Sheik's favorite wife, with a merchant. And of the Sheik's fascination for the desert dancer who comes to Baghdad with the thrilling players, of whom the hunchback clown is one. As the Sheik tires of Zuleika, who meanwhile has tired of him, the itinerant dancer is loved not only by the Sheik but by his own son and also by the clown.

The dancer—Pola Negri—is installed in the harem. But she keeps on "camping" the son and the wrathful Sheik kills her and the son. And he is just about to slay the merchant, who has been smuggled into the harem to meet Zuleika, when the clown, climbing the wall, enters and kills the Sheik—this being vengeance for the death of the dancer who laughed at his love and also payment to the merchant for resisting the dancer's previous advances.

There is rather a superabundance of death in the picture. But it has its moments of comedy, and it is highly dramatic and colorful.

Believe it or Not
Larry Semon will be paid $2,000,000 by Vitagraph for the series of comedies he is now producing, according to his personal representative. High: Well, Larry not only appears as the star, but he writes, directs and produces his comedies. And he also has to pay the cost of production, including everything from railroad fares to fame. He once produced a one-act picture for release in Australasia that had Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks and Charlie Chaplin as stars.

"WEAR LIKE IRON" NOT TO BE TAKEN LITERALLY LEARNED JUDGES HOLD

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—When a clothing clerk tells you that a suit will "wear like iron," he shouldn't be taken too literally, because his expression is figurative and does not bind his boss as giving a warranty entitling the purchaser to his money back when, after several months of wear, holes make their appearance in the seat of the trousers.

This, in effect, was the decision yesterday of three learned justices of the supreme court, sitting in the appellate term which passes on the judgments of lower tribunals. The ruling was made in an action brought by Lewis W. Harburger against Sern Brothers, clothing dealers.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1921.

MISSING MILLIONS.

Everybody is getting poorer—in dollars. But there are practically as many dollars in existence as ever. This puzzles a reader. He asks, "Where have all the dollars gone? Who has them?"

Money in circulation for every person in the country was $24.68 in 1913. It increased to a point of $59.48 last November. Now it is down to about $52.

"Yes," you say, "but dollars seem to be disappearing faster than they are taken from circulation. Where do they go?"

Easily answered. Wash a suit of woolen underwear. It shrinks, and you wonder where the shrinkage has gone. The woolen garment hasn't really lost. It merely has gotten tighter.

So with dollars. Money has shrunk tighter. Dollars, as shown by bank clearings, are changing hands more slowly.

When dollars move slowly, we have depression. When dollars gallop, there's a boom. Whether you get $52 a month or $52 a day depends on how fast money is changing hands. That depends on spending.

The chief thing that is wrong with us is lack of capital, says Samuel M. Vauclain, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works.

Yet capital, measured in terms of buying power instead of face value, is just as big now as during the 1918 boom.

Less money is available for business. But that's compensated by the fact that prices and wages are down so that business can do as much with, say 60 cents, as it formerly could with $1.

Available capital didn't actually increase during the war. While the boom was on, business was conducted largely on imaginary capital—inflated dollars. Now the dollar has run out of war booze and is sobering up. The delusion, the imaginary capital, is gone. But the loss is not actual—merely one of bookkeeping.

In 1914 a man bought a share of stock for $50. It rose to $280 during the war. That man thought he had made $200. So he had—if he cashed in, which few did. Most couldn't resist waiting for the profit to reach $300. The increase was imaginary—what Wall Street calls "paper millions."

Now the stock is down to $60 again. And the owner wails that he has lost $200. He hasn't lost anything. What he thinks he lost, he never had. It never really existed.

A railroad's stocks and bonds fluctuate daily, yet the tracks, freight cars and so on remain unchanged. Stocks and bonds merely are certificates of ownership in property. The property hasn't changed, though an increasing buying power of the dollar makes it look as if the nation's wealth is melting like snow on a hot stove.

No, Rollo, we're not getting poorer. We're merely learning to talk about the same commodities in terms of thousands instead of millions.

REWARDING THE ASPIRANTS.

Eight years ago William J. Bryan's "deserving dependents" was given unenviable fame. Bryan was a better phrase maker than those who have followed him. They have written nothing so euphonious or alliterative and therefore so easily quotable but they have gotten their meaning across just the same.

Out in Utah there was a democrat named I. C. Thoreson, who was surveyor general of the public lands in Utah. He was an official with a good record and he had been appointed for a four-year term which would not have expired until some time next year.

A few months ago Mr. Thoreson received a nice letter from President Harding in which the latter wrote of "the current demand for recognition of aspirants within our party for consideration in the matter of patronage" and complimented Mr. Thoreson with the suggestion that he was a man who "knows of these developments with a sweeping change in national administration."

Mr. Thoreson failed to heed the request for his resignation so delicately conveyed by President Harding and kept right on with his duties, which had no connection with any policy of the administration, except the most vigorous application of the spoils system that has been seen in many years.

Saturday the removal of Mr. Thoreson from office was announced from the executive offices at Washington and the nomination of one of the "aspirants" about whom President Harding wrote to Mr. Thoreson was sent to the senate for confirmation.

Instances like the removal of Mr. Thoreson are by no means isolated. Scores of democrats have been summarily removed from office without regard to the expiration of their terms to make room for M. Harding's "aspirants."

President Harding is a master among as keen a bunch of politicians as ever inhabited Washington. He knows that the way to build up a party organization and make it efficient is to reward the "aspirants", no matter at how great an injustice to those who hold the places to which they aspire. Woodrow Wilson had a different practice, but then he was an idealist.

GETTING OFF A SEE-SAW.

A young rural school teacher told some friends the other day one of the bravest things she had ever seen a child do. It was during a noon recess, and the little girl, about fourteen or fifteen years old, was "see-sawing" with two other smaller children, the little ones on one end together. Holding the laughing children high in the air she happened to glance down and saw a three-inch scorpion crawling up her stocking. Instead of screaming or stepping off the see-saw she called to the two babies to swing off, ready to get down, and swung off herself, raising and holding the board with both hands until the children were safely on the ground—and watching the scorpion crawl up closer to her bare leg.

The chances were, with the teeter-board only a few feet in the air, that neither of the little tots would have been much hurt by the tumble. On the other hand, the scorpion is one of the most dreaded and venomous of the arachnida species, and particularly frightful to children. But the little girl stayed true to the bargain assumed when she let the smaller children crawl on the see-saw with her, and refused to jump off until they were safe.

I thought of grown people, and the way we get out of things, sometimes, to save ourselves discomfort or trouble. How many of us have lived so, during the past ten years, that we think first of the person at the other end of the see-saw at the crucial moment? Or how many of us have it naturally in our character to stay on the see-saw until our "playmate" is off, in all of the various transactions of everyday life? Aren't we pretty easy to attract from one thing to another, regardless of the other person concerned, if the attraction is sufficient—or pretty easy to scare off if our comfort or safety is threatened, leaving the other person to bear the discomfort or disappointment?

The little girl who stayed on the teeter-board for another child's sake, while a scorpion crawled toward her bare flesh, must be growing into a wonderful sort of woman. The world can certainly use her.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

BE ON TIME!

When Lord Northcliffe recently visited the United States he stated that one of the worst wastes in this country was unpunctuality.

"Unpunctuality," says this great organizing genius, "disorganizes. It throws working schedules out of gear."

And from the man who started—without a cent and worked long hours—but not late. For he believes in beginning early. He says that he starts his day at 6:30 in the morning and goes to bed at 9:30 p. m. No wonder at the age of 54 he accomplishes such wonders. He is probably the most powerful and influential private citizen in all the British empire, and one of the world's greatest publishers.

Napoleon once said that the reason why he beat the Austrians was that "they didn't know the value of five minutes."

Promptness in an office is the greatest asset that any organization can have.

The employee who is habitually late, may be put down as one not to be trusted for any important task. If you expect to be a leader you must learn to be on time.

The late arrival robs himself much more than he does his employer, much as he takes away from the one who trusts him. Also he cultivates an inaccurate and inefficient manner that is sure to show in all that he does. If you want to get ahead and earn more money—be prompt. Be on time.

Many have the false impression that lateness can be "made up" by over time. But it isn't the loss of time that counts—but the loss of getting started—of giving the right universal movement to your organization that means so much. Most employers who understand what promptness brings, are as particular about prompt quitting when the work of the day is done.

Promptness is the father, mother and ancestor to Dependability! And what is greater than to feel that you can be depended upon?

GRANDFATHER'S MUSTACHE.

Fashions pass like a flash. We don't see any more The gorgeous mustache Which my Grandfather wore.

It was bushy and long And dropped over his lip. And was wiry and strong For a youngster to grip.

When drinking his tea It made a queer noise, Like the buzz of a bee Which delighted us boys.

It had long curly ends Which would often protrude. And, when talking with friends, These my grandfather chewed.

It was frazzled and frayed, But in days long ago With it often we played, For it tickled us so.

When I've piled up my cash And need work nevermore, I may grow a mustache Like my Grandfather wore.

YOU AND I

Are More Apt to Hit the Train Than the Train Hit Us

You get a queer tingle when crossing a railroad track. Instinct warns of danger, cautions you to look both ways. Barely any danger if you obey that impulse and exercise caution.

So far this year, more than 1,000 persons have been killed at grade crossings by trains. Much of this is due to carelessness. Good idea.

But there should be, also, agitation against individual recklessness. Direct this agitation against folks who walk about in a trance and cross railroad tracks without looking both ways.

The train never turns off the track to hit you. The danger zone is only a few feet wide. Keep your eyes open and live longer.

PLANS Germans built their railroads with tracks closer together than in any other country. Then they sawed off the ties, close to the rails, so a possible invader could not run his broad-gauge trains without laying new ties instead of just moving one rail.

AGENDA Japan must be satisfied about the "agenda" at the peace conference. Many, seeing the word in print, wonder if it's a drink.

ADVANTAGE Farmers may be getting low prices, but they have one big advantage over the rest of us.

BETTER Cost of running the national government in August was only $231,157,847. That's for actual government operation, not counting the financing of the public debt.

WHAT IS DUE US

By DR. WM. E. BARTON.

If Mr. Harriman was right in saying that he is richest who owes the most, the European nations are very rich. Great Britain owes the United States four billion dollars. France owes us three and one-third billions. Italy owes one and two-thirds billions. All together the nations of Europe owe us ten billions of dollars.

They do not have the money. They do not know where to get the money. They can never pay their debts in money. And with the present balance of trade against them and the cost of exchange it is difficult to see how they can pay us in commodities.

SAYS MISS RAPPE WAS FULLY DRESSED

was announced when the court ordered a noon recess.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Roscoe (Patty) Arbuckle, charged with murder of Virginia Rappe and who was shifted temporarily from the center of interest yesterday when charges of extortion were made in court against Al Semmacher, prosecution witness, resumed his place before the spotlight of public curiosity as his preliminary hearing proceeded today.

The extortion charge has been disposed of, it was intimated today, by action of the San Francisco grand jury, which last night heard Semmacher's story and "placed it on record". Semmacher denied to the grand jury that he had any knowledge of a plan to extort money from the defendant as was alleged by Frank Dominguez, chief counsel for Arbuckle.

Testimony concerning past actions of Miss Bambina Belmont, who swore to the complaint charging Arbuckle with murder, will not be allowed to proceed beyond the point relevant to the case on trial, Judge Sylvain Lazarus declared. He denied permission yesterday to Arbuckle's attorneys to proceed with questions they said would show details of a friendship between Mrs. Belmont and Earl Lynn, a Los Angeles motion picture actor.

"I am not going to try the character of witnesses here in this court," Judge Lazarus announced.

Mrs. Belmont probably will be the main witness today, the district attorney declared, and if her testimony is concluded, Zeh Prevost and Alice Blake will be summoned. These three, like Semmacher, were guests of Arbuckle at his party in the St. Francis hotel here when Virginia Rappe is alleged to have received injuries which resulted in her death.

CLERICS PETITION OREGON TO RETURN LANDS OF CHURCH

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 27.—A petition to President Obregón, requesting him to return church lands valued at $2.5 billion pesos which had been appropriated by former governments, was presented to the president today by more than a hundred clergymen of the state of Jalisco.

The clergymen also asked the president to use his influence to secure the amendment of certain sections of the constitution, which they allege are discriminatory against Catholics.

SENATE GETS DOWN TO TAX LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The senate got down to consideration today of tax legislation, a number of minor finance committee amendments to the house bill being agreed to under a unanimous consent agreement that such proposed changes as were objected to would come up later for discussion and vote.

Little progress was made as the senate proceeded with the bill, however, as objections caused a number of committee amendments to be passed over, including that reducing income surtaxes to a 25 per cent maximum.

Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, offered an amendment to the surtax section proposing that the rates be continued up to a maximum of 50 per cent on income of from $100,000 to $200,000 annually, and that the rates on incomes in excess of $200,000 would be 40 per cent.

At the request also of Senator Simmons, democrat, North Carolina, the senate passed over the sections allowing additional exemptions of $500 to heads of families having incomes of $4,000 or less and $200 on account of dependents. The North Carolina senator said he had several amendments to this section to offer later.

EVIDENCE COMPLETED IN TRIAL OF PEREZ

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, Sept. 27.—Submission of evidence was completed this morning in the case of Pablo Perez, alleged Mexican bandit, charged with the murder of Dr. E. S. McCain, deputy state health officer, during the exciting border raids six years ago. Leading witness, a passenger on the train near Brownsville on October 15, 1915, and shot to death Dr. McCain and Corporal Miller, of the United States army, the engineer of the train, was killed when his locomotive overturned, due to the removal of a rail.

Chano Flores, 22, confessed member of the gang, but claiming he was acting under bandit pressure, identified Perez as one of the raiding party.

Perez also was identified by Harris Wallis, a passenger on the train, as one of four Mexicans who entered the derailed train, firing as they came and shouting "Viva Carranza."

Taking the stand on his own defense, Perez, who was arrested several weeks ago, declared he was on a ranch 14 miles south of the American border at the time of the killing. He denied participation in any of the bandit trouble of 1915.

The case probably will go to the jury late today.

MISSION AS MEDIATOR APPARENTLY SUCCESSFUL

PRAGUE, Sept. 27.—Dr. Eduard Beneš, Czechoslovak foreign minister, has returned to his city from Brünn, where he conferred with M. Haffner, former minister of foreign affairs of Hungary, relative to the controversy between Austria and Hungary relative to Burgenland. There is an impression here that his mission as mediator between the two countries has been successful.

It is understood that the arrangement contemplated would involve the complete retirement of Hungarian forces from West Hungary with a treaty by which Austria would return to Hungary the town of Oedenburg perhaps in exchange for economic concessions.

This getting together of Hungary, Austria and Czechoslovakia is regarded here as one of the most important developments in central Europe since the war, reflecting, according to some views, emancipation from the tutelage of the allies.

The little girl died after a short illness. Her father is a well known peace officer of the city and she was the granddaughter of R. L. McDonough, night chief of the city police force.

Burial was in Rosemont burial park.

TO REOPEN PALACE THEATER OCTOBER 17, MOVIES TO BE SHOWN

Announcement that the Palace theatre would be opened October 17 and would run thereafter as a feature moving picture house was made Tuesday by H. S. Ford, local theatrical magnate. Rumors to this effect have prevailed for some time but no official confirmation could be obtained.

The Palace, according to the announcement, will be devoted exclusively to the showing of high class moving pictures. "The Three Musketeers," Douglas Fairbanks' famous production which has been breaking all attendance records here, the country-wide which has been hailed as the greatest film masterpiece since the Griffith production "The Birth of a Nation" will be offered as the initial picture. It will run for one week, starting October 17, and will be followed by other pictures of unusual magnitude.

The big De Mille masterpiece, "The Affairs of Anatol," with an all-star cast, including Wallace Reid, Elliot Dexter, Ebe Daniels, Wanda Hawley, Gloria Swanson, and other equally well known stars, will appear soon after the Fairbanks drama and this in turn will be succeeded by the latest Griffith film "Way Down East."

The Palace is to be under the direction of Robert Sparks, at present manager of the Olympic Mr. Ford himself will take over the direction of the latter house.

A de luxe performance which is to be made up of orchestral selections by a symphony orchestra now being recruited, a possible vocal solo and other features will be given each day. The orchestra is to be under the direction of a competent musical director and practically all of the players were to be brought here from outside.

Workers have been busy for weeks on remodeling the interior of the theatre and in providing new lighting effects. The screen is to be arranged in such a manner that better projections may be obtained and other changes which will work for the comfort of patrons are being made.

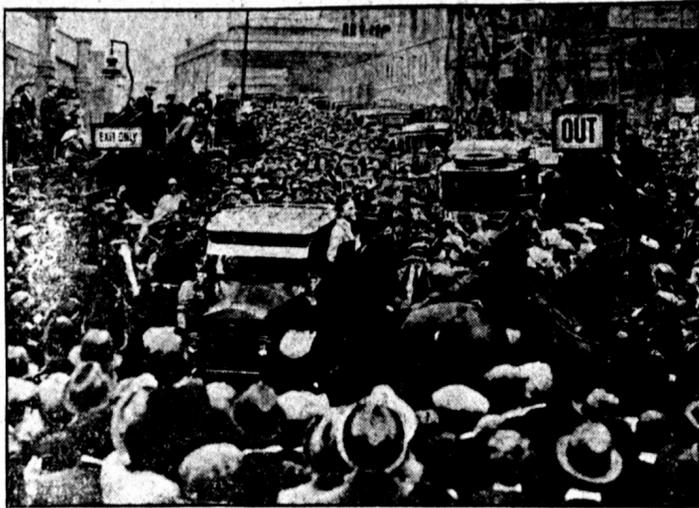

Enough pictures of class A calibre are now on the market, Mr. Ford believes, to supply the Palace with feature attractions during most of the winter and he proposes to furnish local movie fans with entertainment second to none. "The Three Musketeers," "Way Down East" and "The Affairs of Anatol" are already established throughout the amusement centers of the country as being dramatic epics, and other films equally attractive are scheduled for release at various intervals this winter. All these are to be brought here.

With the Palace opened and showing such pictures as are now being secured and with the Wichita theatre housing a high class stock company it is believed that Wichita Falls will be well provided with amusements and that the dearth of theatricals occasioned by the loss of Majestic vaudeville will be entirely recompensed.

A Tale of Blood

The blood is to the body what steam is to an engine. If the steam runs down, the engine slows up, and if your blood runs down, you slow up. Your food doesn't digest as it should, you don't feel rested in the morning and you are out of sorts generally. Over fifty years ago Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was put on sale in the drug stores to help people whose blood was in poor shape, and ever since then has been doing wonderful things for men and women all over this country. ### HOW FRIENDLY LONDON MOBBED CHARLIE CHAPLIN

London's greeting to Charlie Chaplin was like the victorious home-coming of a conquering hero. Tens of thousands of Londoners packed streets for blocks, as he made his way from Waterloo station in an automobile surrounded by mounted police and detectives. This picture shows a small part of the throng that welcomed the comedian. Arrow indicates Chaplin in light suit. For days he was given police protection against friendly mobbing, whenever he ventured from his hotel.

40,000 KILLED BY FLOODS IN CHINA AND MANY STARVING

SHANGHAI, CHINA, Sept. 6.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—China's third great disaster within a year has been recorded in Anhwei province, where an area larger than Connecticut has been flooded with the loss of thousands of lives and $80,000,000 property damage.

The Anhwei catastrophe followed the famine in the seven northern provinces in which millions literally perished and the earthquake in Kansu province, in which 40,000 persons are estimated to have been killed. Wesley M. Smith of the Southern Methodist mission at Changshu, Kiangsu province, who traveled across 100 miles of the flooded area, was the first arrival here to bring an eye-witness account of the disaster.

The flood district, according to Mr. Smith, lies about 60 miles north of Nanking. Refugees gathered on the railroad embankments in the flooded area with their belongings and so closely were these unfortunates packed on these restricted islands that numbers were killed by relief and construction trains.

NEW NEGRO SCHOOL WILL OPEN MONDAY, QUIT OLD BUILDING

Class work will be started next Monday morning in the Booker T. Washington school building, the new structure which is to house the negro portion of the city's public school students. Announcements to this effect were made Tuesday by Superintendent of Schools Lee Clark.

The negroes have been attending regular sessions since the opening of the city schools several weeks ago, but all classes have been in the old building on Sullivan street, which has become badly congested. Class work has been carried out under difficulties and the move to the new building is being eagerly awaited for by the students and teachers alike.

With the opening of the Washington plant Wichita Falls can boast of one of the best and most completely equipped negro schools in the state, school officials declared Tuesday. The building is modern in every respect, is of ample size to care for all educational needs of the city's negro population and will offer advantages in the way of equipment and appointments that are second to none.

In addition to its primary purpose as a school, the building will also serve as a community center for the negroes and will fill a long felt need for such an institution. An auditorium in which public gatherings may be held has been fitted up in the basement and a kitchenette in which luncheons and suppers may be prepared also provided.

Other advantages offered by the new school include a domestic science room and a manual training department, in addition to the seven regular class rooms.

AN IMPRESSIVE AND SOLEMN SERVICE FOR UNKNOWN SOLDIER

WILL BE HELD IN WASHINGTON CEMETERY NEAR WASHINGTON NOVEMBER 11.

NATION'S INDUSTRY TO STOP TWO MINUTES

There Will Be Military Escort Of At Least Five Thousand Men.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 27.—No funeral more solemn or impressive has ever been held than the one planned for the unidentified soldier of the great war, whose body will be laid to rest in Arlington cemetery, near Washington, Nov. 11. There will be a military escort of at least 5,000 men, the pallbearers will be generals of the army and admirals of the navy, the funeral oration will be pronounced by the president of the United States and throughout the length and breadth of the nation industry will cease for a period of two minutes, just at noon, so that 100,000,000 people may bow their heads in silent prayer for this hero who gave his life for his country.

With the utmost care officers of the quartermaster general's department, complying with terms of house joint resolution 422, will select the body of one of America's unidentified dead in France. This body will be so chosen as to preclude the possibility of future identification as to his name, rank, organization, branch of the army and even the battlefield upon which he fell. With due pomp and ceremony this body will be disinterred and transported to Le Havre, France, where the port of France will render such homage as that nation desires.

At Le Havre the cortege will be met by the commanding general of the American forces in Germany and by a rear admiral of the navy. Here it will be placed aboard the cruiser Olympia, Admiral Dewey's flagship at the Battle of Manila, and conveyed to Washington navy yard, which, according to schedule, it should reach after dark on Nov. 9. Here it will be received by a major general of the army and a guard of honor, by whom it will be conveyed to the rotunda of the capitol, where it will rest in state Nov. 10 and until 9 a. m. Nov. 11.

The funeral escort which will accompany the body from the capitol to Arlington will be practically that prescribed in army regulation for a general of the army. There will be a battalion of field artillery, squadron of cavalry, regiment of foot troops to consist of regular infantry, sailors and marines, national guardsmen and the Marine band, while the pallbearers will be eight general officers chosen by Secretary of War Weeks, and four admirals, or general officers of the navy, chosen by Secretary Denby. The body bearers will be non-commissioned officers of the army and petty or non-commissioned officers of the navy and marine corps, specially chosen for their war records.

Those who have been invited to participate as official mourners at this ceremony will include the following: All living holders of the Medal of Honor; one representative for every 10,000 of the 4,740,711 men who served in the national army and who will be selected by the governors of the states and territories, one officer and one enlisted man from each branch of the service in the army and navy, one member of the American Legion from each state and territory and one member from each of the five permanent war veteran societies.

While this funeral procession follows a prescribed route down Pennsylvania avenue and out to Arlington, machine guns will be fired at Fort Myer, the reservation of which borders on the cemetery grounds. Foot troops will be stationed along the line of march at a distance of one man to every five yards.

When the cortege reaches the imposing marble amphitheater, crowning a hill which overlooks Washington and the valley of the Potomac, it will be met by President Harding, members of his cabinet, justices of the supreme court, members of the senate and house, ambassadors and diplomats of foreign nations and such other official and private citizens as may be selected by the president, who will deliver the oration over the body. It is contemplated that the casket will have been placed in the amphitheater just before noon and from 12 o'clock until 12:02 eastern time there will be silence over the vast multitude assembled there. In compliance with an official proclamation, which the president is to issue, all citizens will be urged to gather in their places of worship throughout the country and do honor to the nation's heroic dead at this same time.

How To Revitalize Wornout Exhausted Nerves

Your nerve power depends on plenty of blood, rich red blood of the kind that organic iron—Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, with medicinal iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalizes worn-out, exhausted nerves and gives you new strength and energy. Over 1,000,000 people annually are using it. Beware of substitutes. Always insist upon having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists in tablets only—never in liquid form—only.

PLAN DISARMAMENT PARADE NOVEMBER 11, ASK COUNCIL ACTION

ALDERMEN DEVOTE MUCH TIME TO DISCUSSION OF GAS BILL.

NO DOWNTOWN PERMITS FOR GASOLINE STATIONS

Argument Over Alleged Overcharge By Gas Company is Indulged In By Councilmen.

Another round table discussion in which the North Texas Gas company was the chief object of interest, a decision to grant no more permits for the installation of gasoline filling stations on curbs of downtown streets and the possibility of Wichita disarming parade November 11 loomed up as features of Monday evening's session of the city council.

The parade was brought to the council's attention by A. M. Reynolds, president of the Central Trades and Labor Council, who stated that the American Federal of Labor had requested all unions to stage such events November 11. Mr. Reynolds indicated that the local unions were planning to carry out such a scheme and that the aid of the city council was desired.

On motion of Commissioner Fitts it was voted to pass the matter for another week so that a full council might act on it. Mayor Cline was absent at Monday's session.

The gas controversy came up when Commissioner Fitts presented a gas bill from J. W. Harsock, 302 Lamar, in which a charge of $5.25 had been made for the first two weeks in August. The charge for the entire month of July, in which Harsock was said to have used a proportionate amount of gas as in the two weeks of August, was $1.

Mr. Fitts waxed eloquent in presenting the case, declared that "the gas company had robbed the people of Wichita Falls long enough" and that the council should take some steps to regulate matters. He advocated the securing of a city meter reader to check up on the gas company readings.

After a lengthy discussion, which brought out arguments favoring and opposing the suggestion, the object was finally dropped with no official action taken. That the Harsock bill was equitable was readily admitted by the councilmen, but it was their opinion that the gas company would be willing to correct the evident mistake. Action on banning more filling stations on the city street curbs was taken following the granting of a permit to move a station from 425 to 415 Ohio. The permit was issued to the Mears Gasoline company.

Commissioner Curlee led the fight and received the backing of the entire council. He declared that traffic on streets was becoming too congested to allow private individuals the use of 40 or 50 feet of the streets as stands to carry on their business. The motion to refuse permission for further stations was readily carried.

A request by the school board that Flood street, a small by-way located in the Homewood heights addition and which Collins street intersection. A. Thelton from the Booker T. Washington, (negro) school, be opened up by the city, was turned down. Street department funds are not available at present for the work. Mr. Curlee said the street was not deemed of sufficient importance to warrant a large outlay of money.

At the request of Commissioner Shepherd a committee of three local contractors was named and will be asked to inspect and report on a brick business building in the downtown section. The structure in question has been reported to be unsafe.

In connection with this, Fire Marshal J. L. McClure declared that this city stood in dire need of a building code and a building inspector. He urged that the council consider this matter and act on it in the future.

Disposition of three automobiles now being used by the city health department was left up to Dr. Reed, health commissioner, and Dr. A. H. Douglas, director of the department. Recommendations by the latter that salary increases of $40, $35 and $30 be made to Dr. J. Lacey, food and dairy inspector; Herbert Jackson, quarantine officer, and himself for general work he granted and that the men buy and maintain their own machines were accepted by the council.

Approval of the 1921 tax roll, submitted by Tax Collector H. J. Anderson, was made on a total of $22,500 to E. F. Albritton for an overcharge granted.

LEGISLATIVE MANUAL IS AVAILABLE TO APPLICANTS

In compliance with a resolution introduced by and passed through the instrumentality of Senator R. P. Ferguson of Texas, a thousand extra copies of the "Legislative Manual" of the 1921 Texas legislature were printed for free distribution. This is probably the first time that citizens of the state, other than members of the legislature and state officials, have had the opportunity of securing a copy of the "Legislative Manual," as before a very limited edition has been printed.

The extra copies were printed in response to the numerous demands for material contained in the manual and not accessible elsewhere. This manual contains an up-to-date copy of the constitution of Texas, and outside of certain expensive compilations of Texas statutes, the manual is the only place where anything like an up-to-date copy of the Texas constitution can be found. This manual also contains the constitution of the United States, lists of members of the house and senate, the rules of both houses, and standing committees of both houses, as well as other material of interest.

A request addressed to Miss Octavia F. Rogan, legislative reference librarian, state library, Austin, enclosing postage for transportation will bring a copy of the manual. The manual weighs, unwrapped, one pound two ounces, making the postal charges for the first and second zones from Austin six cents; for the third zone, eight cents, and for the fourth zone, eleven cents, and for a single copy.

Teachers of history and civics may obtain several copies for class use.

MERCHANTS AND JOBBERS TO DECIDE ON PLAN FOR TRADE TRIP THIS FALL

The decision as to whether the fall trade trip, proposed by the trade extension committee, is undertaken this year rests entirely with jobbers and merchants. It was stated Tuesday. If a sufficient number fall to sign up for the trip, no further effort will be made.

Letters testing sentiment on the plan were sent out Monday, and as soon as the responses are received the result will be announced.

Honor them with a monument. A. G. Toothaker, 406 Seventh street. Phone 5440.

SEYMOUR, TEXAS, Sept. 27.—The bodies of Noel H. Graham and Columbus Reed Morris arrived from overseas Sunday morning and will be held until Tuesday afternoon when funeral services will be conducted at the Baylor county court house. Post Commander Youngblood, with a chaplain and firing squad from Vernon, will assist the American Legion here, who will have charge of the services.

Letters from the war department were received by the parents of these young men stating: "They bravely laid down their lives for the cause of their country. Their names will ever remain fresh in the hearts of their friends and comrades. The record of their honorable services will be preserved in the archives of the American Expeditionary Forces." (Signed) "Commander in Chief."

These young men were born and reared in Baylor county, coming from among the oldest and most respected families of West Texas. The Grahams came to Baylor county in 1882 and the Morris family in 1885.

Noel H. Graham was born December 12, 1885. He spent his life here until the spring of 1918 when he was inducted into the U. S. army and was placed in Company 1, 142nd Infantry of the 36th division. He sailed for France in June of the same year and was killed in action at the Meuse-Argonne battle October 8th, 1918.

Columbus Reed Morris was born March 28, 1894. He also spent his life here until inducted into the army in the spring of 1918. He was mortally wounded on the battlefield of the Meuse-Argonne-Champagne sector October 8th, from which he died in a hospital on November 15, 1918.

The business houses of Seymour will close and a large attendance is expected at the funeral interment which will be in Seymour cemetery.

Wichita Falls Now 39 Years of Age, Birthday Tuesday

Tuesday was Wichita Falls' 39th birthday. The community was officially born Sept. 27, 1882, when the town lot sale was held.

There had been a Wichita Falls for several years previous, but the date mentioned has been generally accepted as this city's birthday.

Among the lots sold on that day was one that brought $150, being at the corner of Eighth and Indiana, where the First National Bank now is. The buyer acquired it as an investment, but it was so far from the business district that he jettisoned his bargain long before he realized on it.

The occasion of the auction sale was the completion of the Fort Worth & Denver, September 27 being the date the first train was run.
