MOB FAILS TO GET FORT WORTH NEGRO FROM DALLAS JAIL

DALLAS, Oct. 7.—Fifty men from Tarrant county, bent on lynching David Bunn, negro, under indictment at Fort Worth for robbery of a house, dispersed here shortly before daylight today, after Sheriff Dan Harston confined them to the Dallas county jail, where Bunn had been spirited for safe keeping. The men came to Dallas in automobiles after a mob of nearly 1,000 men had gathered around the Tarrant county jail last night and dispersed only after the Fort Worth officers had permitted a committee to go through the jail and satisfy the crowd that Bunn was not there. Twelve automobiles immediately headed for Dallas, where their fifty occupants, after looking over the big eight-story jail building, approached the main entrance. Here they were met by Sheriff Harston and Police Captain John Ryan. "We want the black," a member of the mob shouted. "Nothing doing, not a single one of us can enter this jail," Harston replied. "Boy," the sheriff said, "it's no use to try this, you'd better go home."

THOUSAND GATHER AT THE FORT WORTH JAIL

FORT WORTH, Oct. 7.—David Bunn, negro, under indictment in connection with a daring attack and robbery of a banking party at Lake Worth, was spirited to Dallas by officers after an unsuccessful attempt last night of a mob to storm the Tarrant county jail. About 1,000 persons gathered around the jail last night, hunting the negro. A committee, headed by the owner of the Lake Worth camp, went through the jail, but failed to find the prisoner they sought. The city jail likewise was searched. The crowd then dispersed, several automobiles loaded with men going to Dallas.

FORMER GOVERNOR ILLINOIS CONDEMNS KU KLUX KLAN

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Edward F. Dunne, former governor and head of the Illinois branch of the national United Council, speaking last night before the Chicago branch of the National Association of Colored People, condemned the Ku Klux Klan as an organization "breathing enmity and hate to millions of fellow citizens of this great land." He expressed the hope that the National United Council, which opposes the Klan, "will unite all American citizens in good fellowship."

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR WANTS SPECIAL TERM TO ENACT "KLAN" LAW

EVIDENCE IS HEARD IN CONNECTION WITH GATESVILLE SCHOOL

HOUSTON, TEXAS, Oct. 7.—Lieutenant Governor Lynch Davidson today issued a statement in which he suggested the calling of a special session of the Texas legislature to enact legislation preventing parades of the Ku Klux Klan. The lieutenant governor said in his statement that "every state official in Texas, be his rank what it may, should throw his influence in the balance for government by the duly elected authorities and not be secretly organized clans and gangs, who tar and feather women and drag helpless men from their homes and fire-alarm."

MUCH OF THE EVIDENCE DEALS WITH INSTRUCTOR

Witnesses Are Not Sworn But Sign Testimony As Copied By The Stenographers.

GATESVILLE, TEXAS, Oct. 7.—The inquiry by the state board of control into affairs of the Texas juvenile training school, especially with reference to punishment of boys inmates for infraction of rules, entered its third day this morning with prospects that hearings would continue through Saturday. Additional inmates, former inmates and attaches of the institution, were to be heard today. Witnesses are not being sworn, but merely sign their testimony as transcribed by the board's stenographers.

Much of the evidence so far heard alleged cruelty of H. G. Twyman, school instructor, who was indicted for a murder charge as the result of the death September 25 of Dell Thomas, young Beaumont boy. The lad's death followed punishment at the hands of Twyman, it is charged.

Witnesses testify as to practices at the school. Gatesville, Texas, Oct. 7.—Paul Marsh, 18, who resides near Dallas, and who spent 13 months as an inmate of the state juvenile training school here, testified in an inquiry into the school affairs of the institution being conducted by state officials.

He charged that he had been hit and kicked severely while in the school and said various guards had cursed him and the other boys. He alleged that punishment sometimes was brutal and when administered by H. G. Twyman, former military instructor, frequently no others were present.

The witness also deposed that it was his observation that inmates without relatives were treated more severely than those whose relatives visited them. He declared this ill treatment was inflicted without the knowledge of C. E. King, superintendent of the school, or Tom Sanders, assistant superintendent.

The morning session was taken up largely with the testimony of Sanders. Much of the questioning was concerning discipline at the school. He said it was his opinion that present disciplinary forms are not cruel, but that they might be administered in milder fashion.

Two other witnesses who testified in the afternoon—Lee Simpson, 18-year-old inmate, and E. H. Trapp, 18-year-old inmate, both of whom praised Twyman's disciplinary measure, saying he had done more toward working out a disciplinary plan for the school than any of his predecessors. Simpson has been in the school more than three years and Trapp has been employed there about 17 years.

Simpson said the military discipline and castigation at Twyman's school constituted seemed to have a salutary effect on the boys in that it made them healthier and their minds keener. He also said he had frequently been punished by Twyman, but thought his methods were good for the inmates and the school. Trapp testified that Twyman had punished the boys in various ways, but said he had never heard of the "third degree" through which it is alleged Twyman put young Thames.

"I have seen times when Twyman would have been perfectly justified in killing two or three of the boys," Trapp said. He told of an incident in which a boy drew a knife on Twyman. He praised Twyman's capacity for work. J. A. Marsh, father of Paul Marsh, told of several visits he made to the institution, while his son was there. Asked if the school had helped his boy, Mr. Marsh replied in the negative.

Father H. A. Heckman, Catholic priest of Waco, testified Twyman acted compared "rather favorably" with similar institutions he had visited in other states. He referred to the school as "an institution where a heart and soul, doing good for the state."

He said he had seen two dozen boys within the last two years who had been released from the school and that none of them complained of their treatment. Members of the board of control, who are conducting the investigation, gave some consideration to the mode of punishment known as "pulling toes," which was referred to by several of the witnesses. It was brought out that this consists of bending over with knees straight and placing the fingers on the toes, remaining in that position until permitted to get up.

SHOT IN K. K. K. BATTLE

Sheriff Bob Buchanan, of Waco, Texas, was shot and seriously wounded in a battle with Ku Klux Klansmen at Lorena, Texas, recently, when he attempted to halt their parade. Buchanan grappled with the leader of the Klansmen, trying to pull off his mask, several shots were fired in the general melee that followed.

CURETON'S ATTITUDE IN CASE IS DEFENDED

Attorneys For Some of Patentees Declare Times' Article Created Wrong Impression.

The Red river boundary hearing continued at the court house Friday, with Captain Henry W. Strong of Palestine, a pioneer surveyor and scout of this section, as the principal witness. Captain Strong's reminiscence, particularly as to dates and figures, and some of his reminiscences of early days, made him an interesting witness.

On one occasion he journeyed to Graham for the purpose of cutting off the heads of three dead Indians, the number of the anatomical collector of the government museum. He sent him on the unique mission to Graham for the purpose of cutting off the heads of three dead Indians, the number of the anatomical collector of the government museum.

The article in the Times of Thursday, dealing with the new order issued by the supreme court, was the subject of some comment among attorneys on both sides of the case. In a statement to The Times, attorneys for the patented land owners declared the article unwarranted and asserted that the only reason the patented land owners were not admitted to the hearing was that Special Commissioner Tyler had ruled that they were not parties to the case, un-

Scores of letters, some complimentary and some threatening, have come to Police Judge Sylvan Lazarus, who held Arbuckle to answer before superior court on a charge of manslaughter following presentation of evidence, concerning a drinking party at the St. Francis hotel, where Miss Rappé was one of Arbuckle's guests.

ADVANCE OF 25 CENTS POSTED BY BIG COMPANIES DURING DAY

ANOTHER RAISE IN PENN. CRUDE

The third advance in less than ten days, bringing the price of North Texas crude to $1.75, was posted by most of the pipe line companies Friday morning in the form of another 25-cent raise. This fresh advance, coming so swiftly on the heels of the other two, had a tremendously cheering effect on the oil industry generally, and was most joyfully received. As there are many contracts calling for 25-cent premiums over the market, a considerable amount of North Texas oil is now bringing $2.00 a barrel.

A number of small trades are being closed as a result of the improving market, and others are pending. The actual benefits from the recent advances have not been realized as yet; the production checks to be mailed out October 15, on runs for the last half of September, will not be based on the higher price, except for the last three days of the month, while the November 1 checks, covering the first half of October, will be at $1.50 to $1.75 per barrel, the second advance being posted on the first of the month.

Predictions of still further advances are being made in some quarters. Friday's advance was started by the Sinclair, with the Prairie and Texas company soon following suit. The Gulf company "law" the raise shortly before 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Although the Magnolia and Humble had not met the advance at that time they were expected to do so before the day ended.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Oct. 7.—Another 25-cent advance was added to the principal grades of crude oil quoted in the Pittsburgh market today when the purchasing agencies announced buying rates as follows: Pennsylvania crude, $3; Corling, $1.90; Cabell, $1.86; Somerset, $1.65; Somerset light, $1.90; Ragland remained unchanged at 85 cents. It is the second advance in crude this week.

INDEPENDENCE, KAN., Oct. 7.—The Prairie Oil and Gas company today announced an increase of 25 cents a barrel on Kansas and Oklahoma crude oil, making the new price $1.50 a barrel. At the same time, the company announced the price of $1.75 for north Texas oil.

WILMA, OKLA., Oct. 7.—Northern Texas oil was advanced to $1.75 in quotations announced here today. The Prairie Oil and Gas company set the $1.50 price on Oklahoma oil, announcing a 25-cent advance.

FORT WORTH, Oct. 7.—The Prairie Oil and Gas company posted a price of $1.75 here today for crude oil, a 25-cent advance.

REPUBLICANS MUST VIRTUALLY REWRITE TAX REVISION BILL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Majority members of the senate finance committee were faced today with the task of virtually rewriting the major portions of the tax revision bill, reported more than two weeks ago. Some details of the compromise revision plan tentatively agreed upon by republican leaders remained to be worked out, but Senator Penrose, in charge of the tax measure, predicted that the "preferred" bill would be passed next week. Other leaders were less optimistic, however, believing that the fight to come over the sales tax, repeal of the excess profits tax and some other provisions would prevent final action within that time.

NUMBER OF CHANGES MADE IN TAX MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—A tax of 14 gallons on all alcoholic spirits was abandoned for industrial, medicinal or any other purposes, has been agreed upon by republican leaders as a part of the new tax revision program. This is an increase of 1.50 a gallon and is expected to yield $1,000,000 additional revenue each year.

The proposal to repeal the $2,000 exemption from federal income tax for the abandoned on the ground that it would work too great a hardship on the small corporations. The leaders also were said to have increased 2 percent corporation income tax of 15 percent rate of a 10 and 16 percent rate.

A maximum income surtax rate of 20 percent would be increased 2 percent. Treasury experts estimate that the additional yield from these changes would be $50,000,000 annually.

Estimate tax rates would be increased by graduation to a maximum of 50 percent over the present 25 percent. Decision has been reached, leaders said, to repeal $10,000,000 of the surtax taxes.

WHITE-ROBED PARTY AND OFFICERS STAGE BATTLE AT DUNCAN

DUNCAN, OKLA., Oct. 7.—Several shots were fired last night between a group of officers composed of Sheriff Taylor of Bryan county and three deputies, and a band of white-robed men, who discovered in a pasture north of the city. None of the officers was injured. The robed men fled after the shooting and Sheriff Taylor said he believed none of them had been wounded. The sheriff declared he would not permit meetings of masked men.

SEE A POSSIBILITY OF AVERTING STRIKE ON THE RAILROADS

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Both railroad operating officials and union leaders today professed to see a possible possibility of averting a threatened railroad strike as the result of a decision announced yesterday to have a meeting here next Monday of 600 chairmen of railroad unions to confer on the strike question.

It was pointed out today by railroad operators and union officials that 130 executives in representing all first class railroads are scheduled to meet here simultaneously.

It was generally admitted that the workers will come to the conference armed with a strike vote.

TEMPERATURE DROPS AND A SEVERE COLD WAVE IS FORECAST

With a slight trace of snow reported at Denver and with the thermometer at Toxline falling to 20 degrees Friday morning, Wichita Falls may prepare itself for a cold wave before midnight tonight. The thermometer was slow to record, Friday morning and at 10:00 o'clock had fallen to 35 degrees.

The cold weather is traveling in this direction at a fast rate of speed borne on the wings of a gale that pointed along the Denver railroad line had attained a velocity of 35 miles an hour.

The Katy dispatcher's office received a similar report as that of the Denver. Rain was falling at points north of Woodward Friday morning and a strong north wind was reported at all stations. At 5:00 o'clock Friday morning the thermometer at Woodward had fallen to 50 degrees but kept on recording and at 11:00 o'clock it had fallen below 40 accompanied by a slow cold rain and a biting north wind.

No damage of any nature had been reported by any of the railroad agents in the line due to the cold strong north winds. The northern struck Wichita Falls at 5:00 o'clock Friday morning with a considerable number of unemployed in this city, the cooler weather was expected to occasion some suffering and the Welfare Council Friday afternoon sent out an $10,000 call for donations of blankets and heavier clothing with which to relieve the more needy cases.

There was a light fall of rain about noon, but hopes that some real precipitation would cause were not realized.

Why not have UNDERWEAR that is thoroughly COMFORTABLE?

It is so exasperating to have under-garments that pinch and bind, or that sag and are bulky.

And it is so easy to get the right kind, that protect so comfortably, and yet one never knows a moment's annoyance from them.

That is because some manufacturers make garments to make money, while others make garments as they should be made—to give satisfaction and make customers for life.

Our part is to bring here the good-fitting kinds that give perfect satisfaction.

MUNSINGWEAR for instance—

For the husband, wife, son and daughter. Priced very reasonably this season.

Problems and Perils of the Disarmament Conference

This is the first of a series of articles by Herbert Quick, dealing with the problems and perils of the coming disarmament conference. Quick has made a special study of this subject for the Wichita Daily Times.

By HERBERT QUICK.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The disarmament conference is no longer a nine-days' wonder. We are getting used to it. All the nations invited—the British empire, Japan, France, Italy and China—are coming. It will be less than a month when every seeing eye in the world will be fixed on Washington.

Washington will be the capital of the world until the disarmament conference is over. It will be the capital of the world until the conference adjourns.

The world is now a chess board calling the conference our government has made a fateful play in the game in which the destiny of the world will be decided for centuries.

How Do America's Players Measure? Hughes is the chief player for us. His associates are Lodge, Root and Underwood. Do they measure up to the stature required of those who cast dice with fate for the destinies of the race?

It is no criticism of them to say that they do not. It is no criticism; for unless they receive wisdom and power and skill and insight and the gift of prophecy with a humble attitude toward their task—in other words, unless God helps them—they will fail. No would any other men.

Supermen are required for a superhuman task, unless they have the genius, like that of Lincoln, to make the crooked straight, and to rise above obstacles instead of making ways through and around them. And Hughes, Lodge, Root and Underwood are not supermen.

Why the President Called Conference. This conference is called upon to remove from the bent back of the people the greatest burden it ever carried. The burden of navies and armies is heavier now in peace than it ever was before in war. You feel it, reader, every time you buy food, shelter or clothing, every time you pay your taxes.

Only seven cents of your dollar that the United States government collects goes to the support of the peaceful work of the nation. The other ninety-three cents goes to support the army and navy—and most of this ninety-three cents goes for past wars.

Give us another war, and a greater debt will be piled on this under which we now groan and sweat—and then ninety-six or ninety-eight cents out of every hundred will go for war past and present, and only four or two to government.

This will mean not only the miseries of war, not only the possibility of defeat and subjugation and the cup of humiliation and bankruptcy through which Germany is passing, not only the possibility of the ruin from which Russia is dying, but the probability that taxation for past and future wars will break down our national life, make business impossible as we now carry on, for us and for the rest of the world.

Disarmament Meeting Succeeds. It is for the purpose of trying to stem this current sweeping us down to ruin that the disarmament conference will meet in Washington November 11th.

Such are the issues at stake, that if this disarmament conference does not make for peace it may have the opposite effect.

Either we shall get peace and safety or there is strong reason to expect that the disarmament conference will end in the lineup for the next war.

Every American should see this opinion and its utterances shall help to harmony, shall lead out toward understanding and peace.

RED CROSS MOVIE TO SHOW SATURDAY, CHILDREN INVITED

Through the courtesy of the local Red Cross chapter and H. S. Ford, manager of the Olympic theater, a special movie film, "An Equal Chance for Health," will be shown for the benefit of the public Saturday morning.

The picture is furnished to Red Cross chapters throughout Texas by the state board of health and is said to give a wealth of practical information relating to the health of children.

Officials of the Red Cross here are especially anxious that as many school children as possible view the picture and they are also urging the parents to be on hand Saturday. The show opens at 10 o'clock.

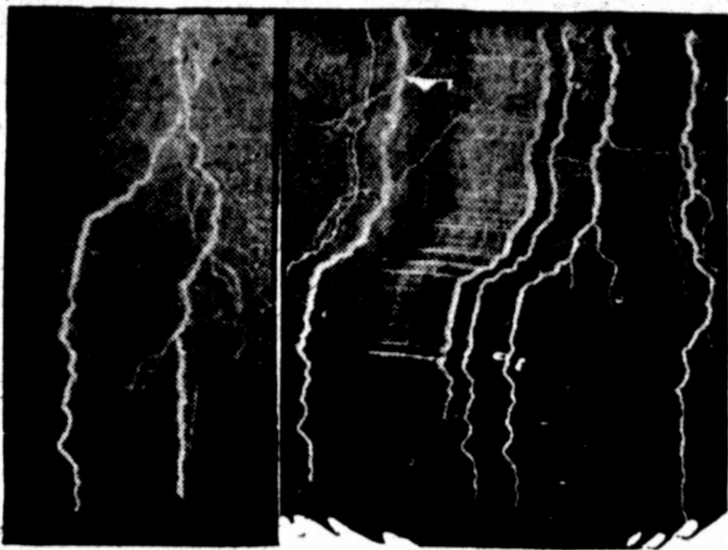

Another short picture, "The Dentist's Visit to the School," will also be given following the feature film.

ROCK ISLAND SUSTAINS A BIG DAMAGE BY FIRE

FRATT, KAN., Oct. 7.—Damage estimated at nearly $500 was done to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad division shops here when fire destroyed the rip rack, car sheds, carpenter shops and 25 box cars being repaired.

Sheldrakes, salt-water ducks common in western Europe, nest in sand dunes in chambers made by themselves or by rabbits, with each nest chamber covered by a movable lid of sod.

MYSTERY OF LIGHTNING FLICKER SOLVED BY REVOLVING CAMERA

The flickering of a lightning flash is often perceptible to the unaided eye, but heretofore nobody knew how it was caused. The mystery has now been fully solved by the use of the revolving camera.

This device is mounted on a vertical axis and is turned from side to side at a fixed speed by clockwork. Exposed by night during a thunderstorm, it registers on the plate two different kinds of flashes.

One kind is a narrow streak of light, while the other takes the form of a broad band or ribbon, made up of a number of parallel streaks.

In the former case there was but one practically instantaneous flash, while in the latter several successive discharges occurred at intervals of a small fraction of a second along a common path. The motion of the camera causes these successive discharges to register side by side on the plate, instead of being superimposed. These facts will be made clearer by the accompanying pair of pictures, taken at the same time by (left) a stationary camera, and (right), a revolving camera. One flash (the one nearest the church steeple in the first picture) looks the same in both pictures, because it was virtually instantaneous, lasting perhaps a hundred-thousandth of a second.

The other principal flash, which also registers as a single line in the first picture, is spread over a large part of the picture in the other picture and is shown as a great number of separate parallel streaks.

These streaks actually represent successive discharges along the same path. This is known as a "multiple discharge" and it is such lightning that can be seen to flicker.

ALLEGED BYERS HARDWARE MAN TO BE A BANKRUPT

The Nash Hardware company and two other concerns, all of Fort Worth, filed a petition of involuntary bankruptcy against the Lee Hardware company of Byers, Texas, in the United States district court in this city. It is alleged that the defendant committed acts of bankruptcy and that the three petitioners are creditors of the defendant in a sum exceeding $1,000.

No one suffering any more with catarrh. All druggists guarantee that if a Hyomei outfit does not relieve you, they will pay for it themselves.

All Look Alike to Traffic Officers, Deputy Arrested

More county officers are coming to grief at the hands of city police as a result of a recent ruling by Police Commissioner Pitts that all city and county officials would be subject to the same traffic regulations as those imposed on the public. A deputy constable was arrested Thursday night on a charge of parking his automobile in a down town safety zone.

Aside from a health department official who drew a fine of $5 for turning in the middle of the block no city officers have yet come to grief, although a motorcycle cop narrowly escaped arrest by his riding partners Friday morning. He started a circle in the middle of a block while his expectant buddy grinned in unholy glee. He caught himself in time, however, and saved a fine.

Judge Edgar Scurry Appoints His Party For U C V Reunion

Judge Edgar Scurry, department commander of the trans-Mississippi department of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, has announced the following appointments of his official ladies to the confederate reunion at Chattanooga, Tenn., October 24-28.

WESLEY GIRLS MET TUESDAY AT HOME OF MRS. B. H. RANKIN

The Wesley Girls of the First M. E. church, South, met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. H. Rankin, 1705 Pearl street, in business and social session and spent a most enjoyable afternoon.

A pretty feature of the party, and one especially enjoyed by Mrs. E. M. Evans, former teacher of the class, who is leaving for California in a few days, was a shower of "parting gifts" for her. Many pretty gifts made up the collection presented Mrs. Evans.

Mrs. Chesire's department members were hostesses for the afternoon, and were responsible for the attractive decorations for the party. They served refreshments of sherbet, cake and sandwiches late in the afternoon to the following:

Madames Belton Matthews, Allan Duncan, H. F. Calvert, E. B. Lee, L. A. French, Homer Lee, W. A. Bachman, H. C. Dakan, Jason Walker, Grover Bullington, Walter Daugherty, W. W. Nirk, J. A. Stevens, E. M. Green, H. C. Hammond, L. C. Ulrich, John T. Marx, George Taylor, G. N. Walker, Hugh F. Weaver, Thomas Glass, H. C. Chesire, J. J. Jenkins, R. S. Reeder, J. A. Cole, J. E. Ogle, Guy L. Moore, Elbert Hanks, A. H. Drake, J. C. Hanks, Z. W. O. Hollis, B. F. Long, J. R. Sheldon, H. F. Potter, J. C. Russell, J. B. McKinley, W. H. Rankin, W. M. Milo, and W. E. Neidigh, C. H. Parks and E. M. Evans.

OKLAHOMA FRIENDS OF PASTOR COME HERE FOR KNOT-TYING

Paul P. Ferguson and Miss Alice E. G. Loomis, both well known young people of Anadarko, Okla., were married at Wichita Falls Thursday morning to find Rev. Dr. Pittenger of the First M. E. church. They were married at noon at the Methodist manse.

Dr. Pittenger became acquainted with the young people during a visit in the home of the boy's aunt, a sister of former Governor Ferguson of Oklahoma, in Anadarko this year. So when the date they had set for their marriage approached they got on the train and came to their mutual friend for the knot-tying. They will make their home in Anadarko, where Mr. Ferguson is engaged in business.

PUPILS STILL ENROLLING IN Y. W. MILLINERY CLASS

Young business women continue to enroll in the Y. W. C. A. millinery class being conducted at Y. W. headquarters by Mrs. Mary Gross. The class meets twice weekly—Monday and Thursday evenings, and a number of business women are making rapid headway with the study of millinery. All are working on actual hats, with special instruction given individually. The class is still open for enrollment.

By Way of the Transom

It's a very good working principle—this "Let not your left hand know what your right hand doeth." With limitations, of course. And right extensive limitations, at that. Don't go round letting your right hand convey to your right eye and the talking end of your tongue that your right hand sent a basket of eatables to Widow McCarty and her nine children week before last. Or that you bought a shabby little new pair of shoes yesterday. There is a fine psychology connected with keeping such things to yourself.

But that's about the four corners of the limit to the limitations aforementioned. If you have fresh buttered popcorn to sell from a little stand at the corner of Brand and Ninth streets, let your right hand convey to your right eye and the talking end of your tongue all there is to be made known about the matter, and spread it as far broadcast as is humanly possible.

"Look here, ol' scout," you want to say, or words to that end. "I'm making the best, freshest buttered popcorn at this stand that anybody can buy the length and breadth of this country. The best they can buy the length and breadth of this state—or this country, for that matter. In fact, just between us and everybody else that might be interested, I'm making the best freshest buttered popcorn in the U. S. A., Canada, South America and the British Isles."

"And don't you feel bashful, ol' scout, about telling everybody you can come across. I'm making it, and I've got it to sell. I'm going to give folks the worth of their money when they buy my internationally excellent fresh buttered popcorn. Just to be strictly honest, and not limitin' my audience, it's a privilege to get to eat the fresh buttered popcorn I make. There ain't any better fresh buttered popcorn in the world, and I doubt if they make it on Mars half as good."

"You tell 'em, ol' scout. You know what kind of fresh buttered popcorn we're puttin' out, and you needn't hang back on the details. You tell the world."

No, Adolph; it never did do to get good working principles mixed. What is the meat of one enterprise is the poison of another. Whatever you've got to give the world, or sell it for price, tip your right hand off to keep your left hand informed.

BRAKEMAN IS GOOD CAKE BAKER

By N. E. A. Service. EMPORIA, KAN., Oct. 7.—Ordinarily A. H. Brill is a brakeman on the Santa Fe railroad, working out of Emporia. But recently he turned pastry expert and baked the cake which took the prize at the state fair at Topeka. Mr. Brill stated the thing with the announcement that she intended entering one of her angel food cakes in the fair competition.

PRIZE CAKE.
This is the recipe by which A. H. Brill, railroad brakeman, baked his prize angel food cake: 1 cup cake flour, 1 1/2 cups of sugar, 1 cup egg whites, 1 level teaspoon of cream of tartar.

Flavor with vanilla. Mixture—Beat eggs until foaming. Then add cream of tartar, then sugar, then flour. One and one-half minutes slow fire for first 15 minutes, then increase the heat gradually for 20 minutes and have a real hot fire the last 19 minutes.

"You're a good cake baker, all right, but I can beat you and not half try," said her husband. And thereafter, when A. H. wasn't breaking out on the road he was rushing the eggs and pans in his wife's kitchen.

When the date of the fair came, side by side in the cake exhibit were the angel foods baked by the husband and wife. They were exhibited, however, under numbers, not names. Mr. Brill's took first prize. His wife's took second.

Lyle with the assistance of the teachers, and an address is to be delivered by one of the visiting pastors of the Presbyterian synod now in session at the First Presbyterian church. At the close of the rally a lay delegate and alternate will be chosen from the church to attend the Oklahoma conference which meets Oct. 13 at Oklahoma City.

Launching Quadrennial
The rally program at the Wichita Falls church will be part of the opening of the quadrennial program of the Wichita area, comprising more than a thousand Methodist pastors and more than 1,500 churches in Texas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma. Every member of the church and Sunday school throughout the area pledge themselves to become one of the "Win One and Stand By" league by winning one member during the year.

ALTAR SOCIETY IS GIVING NURSERY BENEFIT SATURDAY

The Altar society of the Church of the Sacred Heart is giving a nursery benefit tea Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. H. Delaney, 1711 Tenth street, and a cordial invitation is extended to all of the women of the city interested in the nursery to attend.

A musical program has been arranged under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Fulton, and is expected to be unusually attractive and interesting. A free will offering will be taken during the afternoon.

The tea is one of a series of such hospitalities which the women of the various local churches have planned for the winter to add to the nursery treasury.

Mrs. J. D. Avis of 1315 Tenth street leaves today for Fort Worth, where she will join her sister, Mrs. H. C. McGlasson, and will spend the next 10 days in Sherman as the guest of her mother, Mrs. L. M. Bush.

SEPARATE SKIRT NOT YET DISCARDED

TRAVELERS' AID VERSATILE, BUT CAN'T SUPPLY MISSING HUSBANDS

Even the popularity of the one-piece gown has not completely sent the separate skirt into fashion's discard. Indeed, this season shows the separate skirt very much in evidence.

The individuality and loveliness of the new blouses with their long waist lines is partly responsible for this. Then, too, the separate skirt is developed into so many artistic modes that often when worn with elaborate blouses it looks like a costume.

The skirt of chinckilla satin with the long hanging fringed side panels gives evidence of this elaborate tendency. The blouse is of pussy willow satin crepe.

Sports skirts claim the bigger part of these separate "jupons." They are often worn with smart blouses under the long coat. The satin-striped pussy willow crepe shows how effectively the pleated and plain models may be combined.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing becomes easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—adv.

The New McCall Pattern
"it's printed"
In announcing the opening of our New McCall Pattern Department we feel that we are offering to our customers a wonderful new pattern service.
From the time that the paper pattern came into existence, nearly fifty years ago, there has been no fundamental improvement in the pattern itself until the advent of the New McCall Printed Pattern.
All of you are familiar with the old-style tissue-paper pattern, a thing of dots and dashes, circles, and various perforated marks requiring translation, all of which is done away with in the New McCall Pattern—"it's printed." On each piece of each pattern are clearly printed, in simple language, full detailed instructions.
We believe the New Printed Pattern will prove the biggest boon to women since the invention of the sewing machine. Women who, from experience, have learned to use the perplexing old-style pattern will appreciate the simplicity of the New Printed Pattern, and thousands of women who have never learned to use patterns will be able to practice wonderful economy with the aid of the simplified New McCall Pattern—"it's printed."
An invitation is extended to you to inspect the New McCall Pattern—"it's printed."

Romance and Riches Figure in a Dispute Over a Copper Mine

By N. E. A. Service.
NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Rainbow Halliday is a girl who owns a rich copper mine. Or rather she thinks she owns it. She meets the handsome George Standish. He owns the mine, but she doesn't know it. She learns to love Standish, and when she finds he is engaged to another girl, she simultaneously learns that the mine morally belongs to him—she is willing to sacrifice both love and riches. Then the "other woman" steps in. And there is jealousy and bitterness. And Rainbow changes her mind and hangs onto the mine. And in the end Standish realizes which is the "right girl."
That's the story of Alice Calhoun's new film vehicle.
Miss Calhoun is starred as "Rainbow Halliday" in the picture, "Rainbow." That is her name and it is also the name of the mine.
It is a story of the conflict between love and riches.
In it Miss Calhoun has the opportunity to display her art in the sudden transformation from the girl of the mining town, who knows nothing of the splendors of cities and the lure of fine clothes, to the beautiful young woman of the city.
As the little country girl she had been treated like a child by Standish. Here's an unrequited love, and when she discovers that the copper mine her father had left her really belonged to him, she was unselfish enough to wish him to have it to make him happy.
But she didn't bargain for the cold, callous Estelle Jackson—the woman Standish was to marry. Nor the three old friends of her father—who were her foster "daddies." The former was going to take the mine away from Rainbow, and the latter were determined she should keep it.
Everything ends happily when Standish comes seeking her, not to force his claim to the disputed mine, but to ask her to marry him.
In the picture, which is released by Vitagraph, Jack Roch plays the part of Standish, Cecil Kern is Estelle, and William Gross, Charles Kent and Tom O'Malley are the foster "daddies."

This is Rainbow Halliday—Alice Calhoun— heroine of a drama in which her love and the ownership of a mine are at stake.

MOVIES: $5 Per Seat

Would you pay $5 to see a movie? That's the price charged at the world premiere of "Peter Ibbetson," the first picture of the De Maurier novel, at the Hotel Plaza in New York. The $5-showing was arranged between Paramount and the Film Mutual Benefit Bureau, an organization which throws open the homes of prominent society people as locations for pictures made in and around New York. Fees charged for these locations are contributed to Anne Morgan's American Committee for Devastated France and the Maternity Center of New York. Proceeds of the "Peter Ibbetson" premiere go to the same charities.

Where All the Marks Go

Is Germany broke? Not as far as motion pictures are concerned. According to "Lichtbildschau," the capital invested in the German film industry last January 1 was $8,751,000 marks. And on July 1 the amount had risen to 192,025,800 marks.

TODAY'S TALK
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

STEEPLES.
There has always been something inexplicably fascinating to me about steeples—whether they be those of a church or school—or what not.
A town doesn't look like a town without its steeple. Stevenson once wrote that his "favorite kind of mountain scenery" was found in the admiration he had for great cathedrals.
A man couldn't be much of a pessimist and an admirer of steeples at the same time. For, you see, he would have to look up to see them. And pessimists look down!
And in the case of a great cathedral, how the spires play among themselves—never quarreling.
We are lost spirits in a strange world when we fail to be uplifted by the evidences of aspiration made a reality all about us, such as in the reaching steeples which are appreciated by so few.
I talk with many people and see imaginary steeples pointing up through their words and attitude. Somehow the big God manages to plant in the hearts of some people a kind of power that doesn't let them fall. He builds steeples right up through their daily aspirations—and they win in spite of everything.
If you were in New York City and would walk down Broadway and stand at the corner of Wall Street and look into the face of that inspiring steeple that makes the old Trinity Church so notable a structure, you would understand steeples anew.
The great skyscraper buildings almost bury this historic building. But there it stands in all its beauty and dignity—its spire pointing upward to greater things than all the mammoth fortunes made about its lap.
When we look upward, we touch the lines of infinity. Our vision is made over and we find the fingers of perpetual hope which interlock with ours—and we smile because we believe and have confidence.
Steeple men a great deal to the world!

YOU AND I
Admire the Ancients for Works That We Can Duplicate Easily

For over 2300 years, one of the great marvels of the world has been the Parthenon, famous Grecian temple. The city of Nashville is building an exact reproduction of the Parthenon. It does not excite much attention in these days of such gigantic building operations as the Woolworth building and the Panama canal.
Give credit to the ancients for their art, for their original architectural and sculptural designs.
But as builders, they no longer are wondrous. Plenty of American construction companies would be glad to get the job of replicating the Great Pyramid of Egypt in a few months.
Ancients usually built for the rich, to satisfy their vanity, to have something grand to show off. Modern man builds for usefulness. Phidias, greatest sculptor of Ancient Greece, would make a very favorable report on the beauty of a 1921 skyscraper.
HOMELESS
Four hundred thousand American children need some one to adopt them, says Dr. C. C. Carstens, president of the Child Welfare League of America. Happily he reports, baby adoption is on the increase.
Every husband and wife, not blessed with children, should adopt one. Emerson said, "All life is a preface until we have children." It is just the cover of the book, not even a preface, parents will agree.
CURE
Too much usually is as bad as not enough. Clerk in a candy store soon gets sick of the sight of candy and never eats it. The clerk who is glad to see even the best show pack up and leave Saturday night.
Courtiers in the psychological principle of the "cure" is to do things that are not always works. Chicago Judge cured a boy of breaking windows with 1,000 rocks.
Nine young men, stealing melons the other day, were caught by the owner, J. Miller, Council Bluffs, Iowa. He captured them, and made them gorge on melons until they howled for mercy.
JAGS
Precious whiskey is fed to albinos, by scientists at the Carnegie Institute. Report says the liquor makes the mice grow faster, become stronger, and ready to give battle to the cat.
What a waste! The mice who hypnotize themselves into believing that strong drink doesn't destroy the body tissues.
The report, however, adds that prohibition mice lead in mentality and find their way out of mazes more rapidly than their tipping brothers. That should please the dry, who know that whiskey's greatest curse is in the way it drugs the brain.
JURIES
Nearly every one, summoned for jury duty, tries to "get off"—dodge his duty. Result: Most juries have weak links. In gathering together the 12 good men and true, some fearful mental specimens often get into the fold.
Unless intelligent people stop trying to evade jury service, one of these days we'll awaken to the fact that our jury system has broken down and is a general failure.
Would it be better if cases were tried by professional juries—boards of judges?
BOSS
Swift & Co., meat packers, say that 21,000 of their employees, more than a third of the total, are partners in the business. They own $1,500,000 worth of stock.
That is the sensible way for workers to take of their employers, could not take many years for employees to make themselves absolute owners and their own bosses, by buying, with their savings, the business that employ them.
Confiscation fails because, as soon as the property is divided, a movement for a second confiscation starts.
CONSUMERS
In a recent speech, Andreas E. Burkhardt, president of the National Association of Retail Clothiers, blamed the "buyers' strike" on newspapers and bankers, claiming they encouraged the public to refrain from buying.
Not so. The so-called "buyers' strike" is due simply to a situation in which combined retail prices exceeded the buying power of the public. A four-cent article cannot be bought with four cents.

THE SITTING ROOM.
A grate fire and a snapping log.
Upon the hearth a sleeping dog;
The mother in her rocking chair
Sewing fully many a rip and tear
In little garments—while in bed
Slumbers each drowsy curly head.
Oh, mighty poets, can you miss
The glory of such scenes as this?

That this might be, the pioneers
Of Freedom suffered dreadful years;
Braved countless dangers, forests wild,
To bless with peace a little child;
Took arms against a mighty foe,
And smiling died that men might know
Beyond all covetous desire,
A home roof and a happy fire.

All history from age to age,
Recorded on the printed page
Of battlefields strewn thick with dead
And ocean waters running red
The cannon smoke and screaming shell
This very simple story tell,
'Twas all to save from wreck and doom
The glory of the sitting room.

UNIMPRESSIVE DISASTERS.
(New York Times.)
It is an old-fashioned cliche of the recent capricious, tantrums and temperamental explosions of nature that The Associated Press has assembled for unregarding eyes. Hail, storms, floods, waterspouts, tornadoes, cyclones, droughts, mighty rivers in spate, volcanoes doing business at the old stand, new craters opening fire—these milk-milk sensations can't stir the nerves of a sophisticated world fed on stronger meat and drink. Earthquakes? Hoop! The most determined earth-shaker is hardly more than a Roman candle was in the primitive days before 1914. We have sipped full with horrors; and the dark expectation of deadlier and more monstrous ones linger consciously or unconsciously in every thoughtful mind.
In the art of destruction nature is but a bungling child. The chemists have shown something of what they can do. The worst remains behind. We have seen more than enough to fear the cold-blooded, scientific, easy wholesale ruin, the quick desolation of great cities, deaths by the million, the annihilation of civilization, the full work of the perfected art of war. Shall it be allowed to come? Shall the labor of men under the sun be not for life and happiness but for rivalry in the devices of death? The age-long game of war is reaching its culmination of intensity. If the nations go on grasping, intriguing, seeking their supposed advantage in another's loss, the fire always lurking in the treacherous ashes will burst out some day into an ecumenic flame.
How long can the United States afford to abstain from the league of nations, from the one existing plan to reduce the causes of war, to limit or prevent war, to limit armaments, to provide peaceful means for the settlement of international controversies? The Washington conference is a worthy but necessarily only a halting step toward the limitation of armaments and the amicable discussion and arrangement of certain questions of policy that might contain the seeds of war, and, left unsettled, force the continuation of that competitive armament which already lays an almost intolerable burden on the taxpayer's back. It is reported to The Times from Geneva that Great Britain and France will ask the United States at the Washington conference to enter the league. They are expected to raise the question of land disarmament, of which they will say explicitly that an agreement of the great powers to limit armament will be no guarantee of peace. If in the Balkans or elsewhere new nations or older nations enlarged, still full of the animosities, jealousies and feelings of aggression produced by secular struggles and oppressions, are heavily armed, the chance of war among them or some of them remains acute; and the larger states may be dragged in as they were in 1914. Some of the opponents of the league of nations at Washington have professed themselves friendly to "disarmament," but have insisted that it must be "universal." Here is the opportunity to make it so.
The absence of the United States from the league has been an anxiety to our friends in Europe, a cause of malicious joy to our old enemies, a premium on international misunderstanding, social unrest and economic instability. The American people are calmer than they were in 1920. They have had their second thoughts. The unendurable cost of armament, the inconceivable disasters of another great war have sunk into their minds. They see the league doing useful work. They see in it the one and only means of general limitation of armament and prevention or localization of war. They see Mr. Hughes and Mr. Harding committed to a partial but praiseworthy scheme of smaller scope. Why should that not be preliminary to our consent to the greater plan? Article X has ceased to be a bugbear. If France and Great Britain invite us into the league, let us, as a nation, rational and less partisan spirit will consider the invitation. Meanwhile, the omnipotent deities of scientific war are the strongest arguments for the league to the "plain citizen."

AUSTRALIA'S REPRESENTATIVE.

David Lloyd George, British premier, has urged Premier Hughes of Australia to attend the disarmament and Pacific conference at Washington as a representative of the Australian government. It is reported that Canada, New Zealand and Australia each will have representation in the British delegation. Australia in particular is acutely interested in the problems of the Pacific.
The presence of Premier Hughes at the conference would give it added weight. Hughes is one of the big men of the British dominions. He is able, courageous and independent. These qualities may be badly needed in the coming conference. The Pacific problem is one of such importance to Australia that it ought to be represented at the conference by its ablest leader. There is little question but that man is Premier Hughes. Americans would like to see him on the British delegation.
We read that republican leaders in the senate have agreed on a plan for tax revision. The country doesn't care anything about agreement or disagreement among republicans or anybody else on the question of tax revision. What it wants is relief from the burden of war taxation.

A man came around yesterday afternoon giving out little boxes of shoe polish saying on them you don't know what a high shine is till you've used Dazzle. Being a funny shape man without much of a shine on his own shoes, and I got the box he put in our vestibule, thinking, 'I know what I'll shine ma's extra shoes and Gladdie's extra shoes and serape and maybe they'll each give me a dime or something maybe.'
And I went up in ma's room and there was 2 pairs of black shoes under her bed and I shined both pair with the Dazzle, making such a shine shine the shoes looked as if they were made of polished leather, and then I went up in my sister Gladdie's room and there was only one pair under her bed, being a bran new pair without any shine on them before I polished them with the Dazzle but such a bright shine afterwards they looked like 2 different shoes, and ma and Gladdie came home together on account of having went out together, and I went down stairs holding Gladdie's shoes behind my back, saying, 'My Gladdie, wat will you give me if I shine your extra shoes under your bed?'
'Wat, my new dull calf skin shoes, I'll give you something you don't expect if you dare to touch those shoes, set Gladdie, and I, set, Well I got a sample box of blackening and if you ever saw the grato shine it makes you'd be glad to have it on your shoes, G, I bet you can see it for 2 blocks.'
How perfectly horrible, I don't think there's anything more detestable than a brite shine on shoes, and the briter it is the more detestable it is, that's wat I particularly bawt calf skin, set Gladdie. Her not having an idea wat I was holding behind my back, and wat I set, I feel the same way about it, I like all my shoes dull, clean but dull, if there's anything that makes my bud run cold it's highly polished shoes.
Me thinking, Heck, good nite, holy smoke, G, And I went out of the room backwards and quick ran up and put Gladdie's shoes in her closet under a lot of things so she wouldn't see them till she wanted them and even then she'd see them, and then I went in ma's room and did the same thing to her 2 pairs, and I haven't heard any more about them but I expect to see my minnit.

Watch Purdy's experiment. It may mean another step forward in parcel post. Maybe, in a few years, when moving day comes, the owner of the van that will back up to your house will be Uncle Sam. Why not?

COMMON SENSE WAYS TO KEEP WELL
APPENDICITIS

By DR. R. H. BISHOP
Appendicitis occurs four times as often in the case of men as in women, a strange fact which has never been satisfactorily explained.
It is now easy to tell the causes of tuberculosis or typhoid fever, but the causes of inflammation of the appendix have not yet been definitely determined.
The appendix itself is an organ quite rudimentary. It represents an important part of the large intestine, still present in some of the lower forms of animals, but which in the course of human evolution has in man become so small as to be of no use. It is about two and a half to three inches long and its walls are so thick that its cavity is only as large as the lead in a blue pencil.
If some minute particle of undigested food gets into and remains in the appendix, it irritates the walls and inflammation is speedily started as the result of germ activity.
The inflammation causes swelling which in turn interferes with the circulation of the blood in this region. If the swelling continues, gangrene or a death of the tissues of the appendix wall sets in. If the appendix breaks as it often does shortly after the attack, the poisonous germs of inflammation escape among the coils of the intestine.
These are the reasons why an attack of appendicitis with gangrene and rupture are often fatal despite an operation.
Disorders of digestion are causes of appendicitis. Haste in eating, indigestible food, lack of proper chewing and disorders of the stomach all aid to this end. All these things should be watched out for. Besides, one should take sufficient fluid into the system, not at meals, but distributed throughout the day.
In suspected cases of appendicitis there are several things which an intelligent person can do at the onset of an attack, real or suspected, that are quite as efficient as anything that can be done by a physician. Mere pain in the right side is not necessarily due to appendicitis. It is often due to acute indigestion with resulting colic. A tablespoonful of castor oil with an equal amount of glycerin in a glass of iced lemonade can be taken at once by a person who believes he has appendicitis. After the oil has been taken if the pain still persists the victim should go to bed at once and a well-filled ice bag should be placed over the

DEMONSTRATION OF IMPROVED WEAPONS

Tests of Developments Since World War is Made at Proving Grounds.

ABERDEEN PROVING GROUNDS, Md., Oct. 7.—Tests of developments since the world war in military and naval offensive weapons were held here today on the occasion of the third meeting of the Army Ordnance association. The exhibition of new weapons was before a limited number of invited guests, consisting largely of members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, the Society of Automotive Engineers and of the Army association, whose scientific assistance still is being "commandeered" in the highly technical work of the men who have charge of perfecting the equipment of the nation's defense lines. The demonstration of "flashless powder" was a feature of the program. Just as elimination of smoke following discharge rendered a battery invisible by day, ordnance engineers and chemists assert that by removing the flash they have "hidden" their guns from enemy observers by night. In achieving this result, they incidentally reduced the volume of the detonation. Improved types of guns from the massive 16-inch, 50-caliber naval rifles designed to throw 2,400 pounds of chilled steel 35 miles, to the portable machine gun capable of sending a dozen bullets with the tick of a watch, were tried out under "service conditions." Tractors and "self-propelled mounts" also were demonstrated. The program also called for further tests of the 4,000-pound bomb, carrying more than 100 lbs. of TNT. The first of these to be dropped blasted a pit 25 feet deep and 100 feet in di-

BURKBURNETT GIRL WINS RANGER BICYCLE

is The Eleventh Youngster to Be Rewarded For a Few Hours Of Energetic Work.

Miss Mamie Huffman, Burkburnett, Texas, is the first worker in that city to be awarded a Ranger Bicycle for securing 35 new subscribers to the Times. Her wheel has been ordered shipped direct to her from the Mead Cycle company of Chicago, as this little lady requires a special size.

This makes the eleventh bicycle that the Times has put out to workers in this territory and six more boys and girls have about completed their books and we expect to announce their names real soon.

Workers are reminded that they have until Nov. 1 to win one of these Rangers, but they are requested to turn in the subscriptions as rapidly as they are taken so that we can start the Times to the subscribers at once and complete the verification of the order.

LARGE SUM MUST BE RAISED TO SAVE STARVING RUSSIANS

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Efforts to save 16,000,000 Russians from starvation will fail unless 5,000,000 pounds is raised before Christmas, declared Dr. Fridtjof Nansen in an interview with the Daily Herald last night.

Dr. Nansen, who is in London for the purpose of furthering measures for the relief of Russia, asserted the solution of the world problem of unemployment would be found in combatting famine in that country.

Dr. Nansen confirmed from his own observation dire need of Russia and emphasized the fact that the Russian soviet government is dealing honestly with all supplies sent to that country, no food being distributed among the soviet troops. He praised the nations which already have sent assistance, but declared this aid was not nearly enough to meet necessities.

"It is a pity," he said, "that with Argentina burning her spare grain in furnaces, American wheat rotting in granaries and Canada's bins bulging with 2,000,000 or more tons of corn that she can use, these Russian millions should die of starvation."

He argued that, apart from humanitarian reasons, it was entirely to the interest of British business men to protect Russia from disaster, open a wider field of trade and employ the Russians to work. Dr. Nansen recently stated to newspapers that despite much adverse and constant appeals, British subscriptions to the Russian famine funds had been only 22,000 pounds.

BUSINESS COUNCIL TO MEET SATURDAY, ENGINEER TO SPEAK

A change in the plans for the first fall meeting of the business council was made late Thursday, the luncheon being postponed to Saturday in order that R. A. Thompson, chief engineer of the irrigation project, might be present and speak. J. C. Mytinger, chairman of the council, announced that Mr. Thompson, Mr. Kell and Mr. Noble would discuss plans for getting the project under way in the near future.

Mr. Mytinger urged that every member of the council be present at the meeting, in order that the organization's plans might be gotten actively under way.

Mr. Thompson was out of the city Friday, being on a trip to some portions of the project.

Principals in the Strange Jekyll-Hdye Case

By NEA Service
 GREAT BEND, KAN., Oct. 7.—The strange case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hdye will be repeated in real life in the Barton county district court if the state can prove its murder and robbery charges against Dr. W. A. Nixon. Here is the "Dr. Jekyll" side of this strange case:
 Nixon, 54, and a native of Canada, has a lucrative practice and is a hard worker.
 His wife is 25, and he is the father of four children, the youngest being twin girls, 19 months old.
 He is commander of the American Legion in Great Bend, prominent in local affairs, and very generous.
 He has found homes for many friendless infants and has given freely to "down and outers."
 He served during the war as head of a military hospital.
 He is a big game hunter and has traveled widely.
 And here is the "Mr. Hdye" side, according to the charges preferred by the state:
 Dr. Nixon murdered his friend and patient, Arthur C. Banta, a young Great Bend lawyer.
 He is a highwayman.
 Complaints charging arson have been lodged against him.
 He is said to have had nitroglycerin and dynamite in his possession, to be used for unlawful purposes.
Others Accused
 Two other men, A. L. Wallace and Roy Hayes, are accused with Dr. Nixon of the murder of Banta, who was a son of Judge Dan A. Banta, of the 29th Kansas Judicial court.
 The body of the murdered man was found by farm hands, lying beside his auto on a lonely road three miles west of Great Bend. He had been shot six times with a revolver.
 The body was lying with folded hands, as if it had been laid out by an undertaker. The pockets of the trousers were wrong side out, but money, a watch and other jewelry were on the lawyer's person.
 The attorney was last seen alive in Great Bend at the Elks' club on the previous night. He had left a card game to answer a telephone call and as he left the club he told his companions that he would see them again soon.
 The entire state asked: Who killed Arthur Banta? What was the motive?

Arthur C. Banta, murdered man, at left, and at right Dr. W. A. Nixon, prominent Great Bend, Kan., physician who is charged with killing him. In the center Dr. Nixon's wife, who is loyally standing by him.
 Developments were slow. Burns detectives were employed to aid the sheriff's force. They worked on the supposition that bootleggers had killed Banta.
 Several suspects were arrested, questioned and released.
 Then Wallace was arrested. Wallace, an ex-bartender, was a restaurant proprietor and Banta was his attorney. It is said that there had been ill feeling caused over a case in which Banta had represented Wallace, who was charged with the illicit sale of cigars contrary to the Kansas law.
 Wallace was kept in jail several weeks.
Confession Announced
 Then the officers announced he had confessed he had been in on a plot to kill Banta but got "cold feet." He accused Hayes, proprietor of a filling station, and Dr. Nixon of the killing.
 He said that Dr. Nixon told him that Hayes fired the shots, but that he, Nixon, told him where to shoot to kill. Hayes and Nixon were arrested. They were taken out of the city in automobiles and held for several days in jails in adjoining counties. Then they were brought back to Great Bend and arraigned.
 On the evening of the arrangement, the county authorities announced a new confession from Hayes, in which he accused Dr. Nixon of taking Banta to the country and shooting him to death.
 Hayes claimed he was in on the plot, drove the physician's motor car to the scene of the murder, and took the doctor back to town after the crime.
 The only motive that has been assigned is that Wallace stated that Dr. Nixon told him that Banta owed him money and that "he was going to get it if he had to kill him."

 Wallace and Hayes, in their confessions, made other charges against the physician, so that he is now accused of murder in the first degree, highway robbery, and three charges of arson.
 Complaints on the charges of arson were made by a deputy state fire marshal, but no warrants have been issued yet.
 The trials of Nixon, Wallace and Hayes come up in the November term of court here.
 Dr. Nixon's bonds have been reduced by supreme court from $100,000 to $37,500.
 He steadfastly declares his innocence and his wife is standing loyally by him.

NEXT DOSE CALOMEL MAY SALIVATE YOU

Calomel salivation is horrible. It swells the tongue, loosens the teeth and starts rheumatism. There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and cannot salivate. Calomel is a dangerous drug, besides it may make you feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than treacherous calomel your money is waiting for you. (Adv.)

GENTRY YOUTH IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

Thought to Have Been Thrown From Horse and Dragged—Was Badly Bruised.

Berle Gentry, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gentry of 12 miles north of Wichita Falls, who was brought to town Wednesday morning suffering from serious injuries, thought to have been caused by being thrown from a horse and dragged, was taken back home Thursday night. The attending surgeons stated that he was doing very well, and will recover.

The little fellow was found Wednesday morning by members of his family in a pasture near the house in a partly dazed condition. His face was badly bruised and the flesh torn, and several teeth were knocked out. He was unable to tell what had happened and had no remembrance of having received the injuries. An older brother brought him to town immediately to local surgeons, when stitches were taken and other treatment administered. The surgeons gathered that he had been on a horse and accounted for the injuries, which were extremely painful and serious, by his having been thrown from his horse and dragged some distance.

STRIKE VOTE ON QUESTION OF ARBITRATION PROGRAM

LOUIS, ILLS., Oct. 7.—A strike vote on the question of arbitration will be started late today by 2,300 members of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of East St. Louis packing houses, according to an announcement by Earl Jimmerson, local secretary of the union. The employees are opposed to the abolition of the arbitration board which has handled their disputes during the past few years.

SOUTH AFRICA WILL PLACE NATIVE FLOWERS ON GRAVE OF U. S. "UNKNOWN SOLDIER"

Representatives of the various districts making up the union are now gathering these flowers which will be typical of the country's unrivalled flora and will be made into a magnificent wreath.

Utmost care will be taken to preserve the flowers during their voyage to the United States.

FAVORS THE CANCELLATION OF THE DEBTS OF EUROPE

ATLANTA CITY, Oct. 7.—America can better afford to cancel the $13,000,000,000 owed this nation by the countries of Europe, than force them into bankruptcy through payment, George W. Norris, governor of the Philadelphia federal reserve bank, declared today in an address before the convention of the American Box Manufacturers' association.

Mr. Norris expressed the belief that limitation of armaments and an association or a league of nations would be the quickest and surest solution of the world economic crisis.

NEW COURSE RECORD HAS BEEN ATTAINED BY LOCAL GOLFER

A new course record for the local golf club has been hung up by T. B. Cochran, who shot the 18-hole course in 67 strokes, one under the previous record also held by him. Cochran had been battling for some time to cut down the record and attained it Wednesday when, by sinking a 20-foot putt for a three on the 18th green, he made a 67 for the course.

Cochran made four birdies and the rest of the holes, with the exception of No. 9, in par; he took a five, one over par, on No. 9.

MYSTERIOUS HANGING OF TWO YOUTHS IN CHICAGO IS PUZZLE TO OFFICERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—The mysterious death by hanging of two 14-year-old boys in less than a week today offered the authorities one of the most puzzling problems they have faced for months. Last Sunday the body of Samuel Buffington was found hanging in a closet of his home, the hands tied behind his back. After four days of investigation authorities were today still undecided whether it was a case of suicide, accidental strangulation or a possible murder.

Last night the body of Edward Knauts was found hanging to a ceiling hook in the basement of his home.

Delicacies made from the flesh of whales are now being put on the market by Newfoundland whalers. Among them are sausages, meat extracts, canned steaks and tongue.

SYNOD'S EDUCATION CHAIRMAN SPEAKS AT FRIDAY SESSION

REV. R. L. IRVING'S ADDRESS CONSIDERED ONE OF NOTABLE FEATURES OF MEETING.

BANQUET THURSDAY NIGHT PROVES PLEASING AFFAIR

Is Attended By About 150—Addresses And Musical Numbers Follow Feast.

An address which was declared by many who heard it to be a masterpiece and which was of more practical value from the standpoint of a Christian leader than any they had ever heard was delivered by Rev. R. L. Irving of Fort Davis, synod chairman of education, to the synod of Texas delegates when they convened in the First Presbyterian church Friday morning. Mr. Irving spoke with an earnestness that carried conviction in every word and prolonged applause greeted him at the close.

For an hour he held the large audience in rapt attention. The speaker said, in part: "The theory that seeks to separate the individual from the mass of the people is a theory that is as old as the hills and as dangerous to our liberties as it is to our lives."

"There are millions growing up in America today without religious education. It is time, therefore, for the church and the school to co-operate in the common defense of our country. Only religious education can bring permanent order out of the chaos of the present, for things can never be right until people are right, and people are not right until they are right at heart in ideals, motives, will and their habits."

"The future of America depends very largely upon our schools that impart religious instruction. Suppose we train and leave out reverence for law, justice and brotherhood, will we not create a dangerous situation? Ideas and ideals are of supreme importance in determining the destiny of nations. The class room is the battle ground of ideas and ideals, and the righteous forces must win this battle. Christianity is the greatest civilizing, uplifting and uplifting power on this globe. Let it be affirmed that the leading characteristic of a Christian life is not enjoyment, but beneficence."

"When radical teachers, who undermine faith in American ideals and government, and the fundamentals of Christian religion, the outlook is not bright nor smiling. The source of all the ills and evils that afflict humanity lies far beyond legislative halls. The work of degeneracy never proceeds from the lower to the higher, but in reverse. It is a false philosophy which proposes to develop the intellect, reform manners, elevate society, conserve government by secular education."

Who does not know that the culmination of arts and philosophy, poetry, painting and sculpture, in Greece and Rome, was the result of the fact that there is no moral quality in intellect, no moral power in science. We have had enough philosophy without religion of reason without conscience and of education without God's Book, and that it is high time to recognize and act upon the truth that the Bible is the only book of the soul, and also the best book for the intellect."

The most important function of the university is not to impart knowledge but the formation of character. Only Christian education gives that in the highest and completest sense. Hence we affirm that the individual who is best educated for the world to come is also best educated for the duties and relationships of the world that now is."

Thursday night marked the close of a busy day for the synod. The banquet in the church basement at 6 o'clock was a tremendous success from first to last and compliments from the visitors on the culinary prowess of the Wichita Falls ladies flew thick and fast. About 150 delegates sat down to the banquet and on its conclusion listened to an enjoyable program of speeches and music, furnished largely by local talent.

The evening meeting was well attended and was productive of another fine session, a tenor solo by Dr. Floyd Lee, pastor of the Presbyterian church at El Paso and talks by Captain G. B. McMillan, missionary worker from Canton, China, standing out as features.

A joint devotional service of the synod and the women's synodical opened the Thursday morning session. Mrs. W. P. Preston of Teague, Texas, president of the synodical, being in charge of the service. Reports by Roy Brazz, district president of the National union; Dr. J. H. Bruner president of Trinity university, and Dr. Irving's great address took up the morning hours.

The Thursday evening session will be turned over to the synodical and the ladies given free rein in conducting the services.

Medicated Smoke Drives Out Catarrh

Dr. Blosser's Cigarettes Give Out a Healing and Soothing Smoke-Vapor that Clears the Head, Nose and Throat.

Dr. Blosser is the originator of a certain combination of medicinal herbs, flowers and berries to be smoked in a pipe or ready prepared cigarette which is meeting with unusual success in catarrhal troubles. As the disease is carried into the head, nose and throat with the air you breathe, so the anti-septic healing vapor of this remedy is carried with the breath directly to the affected parts.

This simple, practical method applies the medicine where sprays, douches, ointments, etc., cannot possibly go. Its effect is soothing and healing and is entirely harmless, containing no opium, tobacco or habit forming drug. It is pleasant to use, and not sickening to those who have never smoked and may be used by women and children as well as men.

If you suffer from catarrh, asthma, nasal deafness, or if subject to frequent colds, you should try this remedy. Satisfactory results guaranteed. Any well stocked drug store can supply Dr. Blosser's Remedy.

A trial package will be mailed to any sufferer for ten cents (coin or stamps) by The Blosser Co., 28 DL, Atlanta, Ga., to prove its beneficial and pleasant effect.

Author of Phrase "Race Suicide" Has Changed His Mind

MADISON, WIS., Oct. 7.—Prof. E. A. Ross, author 20 years ago of the phrase "race suicide," announced before his students at the University of Wisconsin last night that he has now "changed his mind" regarding large families because of conditions which are saving more lives and cutting down the death rate of the white race. He is now an advocate of birth control, he said.

Prof. Ross spoke of the phrase "race suicide" as "grossly misused."

"Child labor laws, advances in medical science and paternal legislation," he said, "have given the white race a longevity unequalled through the ages."

"Neither the present nor future generations would benefit by an increased birth rate. A higher birth rate is accompanied without exception by an increased death rate."

HIGH SCHOOL MAGAZINE TO BE PUBLISHED TWICE MONTHLY HEREAFTER

By doing this it will be possible to cover all school events thoroughly and will at the same time reduce the work and expense attending the publication.

McGraw Had First Crack At Hoyt But Turned Him Over to Minors In 1916

HOYT HAD BETTER OF NEHF IN ALL ANGLES

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Waite Hoyt, youthful pitching hero of the second world's series game, was happy today in the realization of a secret ambition—to beat the club that turned him loose on his venture into the big leagues.

A mere school boy, flut out of Erasmus Hall high school, Brooklyn, in 1914, Hoyt was signed by Manager McGraw of the Giants, but was quickly released to the minors.

The Giants' chief sat on the bench yesterday sadly watching the cast off turn the National leaguers back with two scant hits for a 3 to 2 victory.

The young twirler, now only 22 years old, was as cool and sure of himself as a Mathewson.

"He had everything, plus," as the experts say.

But his father who had shared the son's ambition was as excited as Waite traditionally should have been. The old Hoyt saw his boy win everlasting fame in baseball's hall of records and was one of the first to congratulate him in the clubhouse after the game.

Surrounded by a crowd of fans, the father told and retold of the boy's early career so often that he almost forgot to go home for supper.

McGraw Says Giants Are Still in Fight

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—"I am not at all discouraged," I expect the Giants to go out and win for Tony," declared Manager McGraw of the Giants as he announced that the big twirler would be sent against the Yankees today—the third game of the series.

"They have got to win and I am confident that they will do it," he added.

"We will be right back with the same old combination. It may be Harper; it may be Shawkey. I will not decide until just before the game," he said.

"The mentor of the National League champions declared his team has never had the break and hadn't started to play yet this series.

"The Yanks have scored six runs in two games, but the cheapie ever made in a world's series. We are making the breaks for the Yankees to score and that's not at all like the cheapie made no great a finish for the flag.

"A two game lead is a big handicap in a short series, but it doesn't mean the fight for the world's series is over."

Manager Huggins, pleased with the work of his entire team, was a bit cautious. Admitting that the two games were quite an advantage, he said:

"I'm not forgetting in the 1917 series McGraw's team lost the first two games and then got back on even terms with the White Sox. Don't count your base hits before they are made.

"I certainly have nothing to complain about in the pitching line so far. The whole team is going along just as I expected it would."

BIG UNIVERSITY FOOT-BALL CAPTAINS

-By Wood Cowan

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The captains and half back of the Yale football team, Aldrich, is fast as a streak, a fine punter and with two years of varsity experience under his belt the former Exeter star should prove an excellent leader—if he can keep off the hospital list. He has a bad knee which gets hurt more frequently than he was last year. The 1920 freshman team was composed of a string of cowboys and these fellows should plug up the holes left vacant by graduation.

MICHIGAN UNIV. HAS HARD GRID SCHEDULES LONGHORNS TO PLAY KANGAROOS SATURDAY

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Oct. 7.—"Two schedules in one," is the way football experts throughout the state are describing the series of western conference games faced by the University of Michigan this year. This view arises from the fact that the Maize and Blue meets Ohio State, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota, regarded as the most formidable of the conference teams. No other university in the "Big Ten" will clash with more than three of the stronger elevens.

Michigan's first conference game is scheduled for October 22, when Ohio comes to Ann Arbor. A week later Yost will take his squad to Urbana for a game with Illinois. The Wolverine mentor now is preparing his charges for these games.

With the first two conference contests out of the way, Michigan will have but two weeks to prepare for the Wisconsin game at Madison, November 12. Only a week after the battle with the Badgers, Michigan will meet Minnesota here.

That the two finals games of the year will require as much effort to turn into victory as the first pair, is seen by following the list of members. Members of the coaching staff are not underestimating the power of the other conference teams Michigan must face and the former Maize and Blue squad are being subjected to a pace not equalled since the championship days of ten and fifteen years ago.

The Maize and Blue will face its real test of the year October 15, when it clashes here with the Michigan Aggies. The Aggies have a strong team and in past seasons have fought Yost's crew all the way. The real strength of the varsity is expected to be known at the end of this game.

Danny Clark Says 'Why not give us your cleaning and pressing?'

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—"I am not at all discouraged," I expect the Giants to go out and win for Tony," declared Manager McGraw of the Giants as he announced that the big twirler would be sent against the Yankees today—the third game of the series.

"They have got to win and I am confident that they will do it," he added.

"We will be right back with the same old combination. It may be Harper; it may be Shawkey. I will not decide until just before the game," he said.

"The mentor of the National League champions declared his team has never had the break and hadn't started to play yet this series.

"The Yanks have scored six runs in two games, but the cheapie ever made in a world's series. We are making the breaks for the Yankees to score and that's not at all like the cheapie made no great a finish for the flag.

"A two game lead is a big handicap in a short series, but it doesn't mean the fight for the world's series is over."

Manager Huggins, pleased with the work of his entire team, was a bit cautious. Admitting that the two games were quite an advantage, he said:

"I'm not forgetting in the 1917 series McGraw's team lost the first two games and then got back on even terms with the White Sox. Don't count your base hits before they are made.

"I certainly have nothing to complain about in the pitching line so far. The whole team is going along just as I expected it would."

DISPUTED $3000 IS GIVEN TO ENGLISH CAPTAIN IN CHINA

MONEY SENT TO INVEST IN OIL FIELDS HERE TO BE RETURNED IN PART.

WOMAN AND BANK HERE SEEKING TO CLAIM SUM

Court Holds That Neither is Entitled To It, Awarding It To The Original Owner.

A finance bubble with innumerable intricate angles in which $3,000 is concerned was burst by Judge P. A. Marshall in his decision in the case which was tried before him Thursday afternoon. As a result an English captain, stationed in Shanghai, China, has $2,825 in Wichita Falls awaiting his claim.

County Attorney E. L. Fulton was appointed by the court to take charge of the money until word is received from the captain, who perhaps by this time has given up hopes of ever seeing any portion of his original $3,000. The beginning of this finance scheme dates far into the past when a local oil man, having climbed to that height on the ladder of finance where a man's wealth is written in seven figures, sent his wife for a trip abroad. On the trip abroad the wife visited the Orient and there attended some social functions and was introduced to an English captain. The American lady was interesting and the captain extended to her all the courtesies possible. She told him of the fabulous wealth that it was possible to gain in the rich oil fields of Wichita county, Texas.

In due course of time the lady returned to Wichita Falls and told her husband of the courteous English captain she had met. Later, it appears, ill-fortunes overtook her husband, perhaps through dry holes and non-productive acreage. Some time later the lady received the startling message that $2,000 had been deposited in a local bank to her credit. She found that the money had been sent to her from the English captain in the Orient.

Using an incident in which some silverware was concerned as a wedge, the husband having ascertained that $2,000 in money had arrived from Shanghai and that it was in his wife's name, succeeded in having his wife transfer $2,000 of the money into his name. It appears from the testimony that a certain business firm in this city that had filed a suit for debt against the husband also discovered that there was in the neighborhood of $2,000 in the husband's name and filed out a garnishment writ, tying up the money. The wife then started an investigation and found that her husband had months before sent a cablegram through the Western Union to the English captain advising him that a rich pool had been opened up and that he and his friends should pool as much money as possible and thereby gain an opportunity of making wealth overnight. For some reason or other the English captain instead of sending the money to the sender of the message sent it here to the credit of the sender's wife.

The lady then intervened in the garnishment suit contending that the money was rightfully hers and that her husband had secured it through fraud. The case was tried in the 89th district court Thursday and Judge Martin ruled that the money did not rightfully belong to either the bank, business firm or the woman and placed it in the hands of the county attorney to await word from the captain in Shanghai.

CAMPBELL IS NOW OVER HIS TROUBLE

Houston Man Says Tanlac Reached His Case After Everything Else Had Failed

"There is no telling what my troubles would have led to if I had not found out about Tanlac, and I feel very grateful for what it has done for me," said J. P. Campbell, 3416 Center street, Houston, Texas. "Some years ago I was taken down with a trouble no one seemed to understand. I was operated on twice, but got no relief and kept getting weaker, and more nervous all the time. My stomach was out of order, my back hurt me dreadfully and I had intense pain in my left side without ever a let-up. I was constantly taking laxatives and was hardly ever without a headache. Tanlac reached my case after everything else had failed and I am feeling like a new man now. I do not suffer any more pain in my back and side and my headaches are gone. I sleep fine and can eat anything I want without any trouble afterwards. I certainly am strong for Tanlac." Tanlac is sold in Wichita Falls by Miller drug store, in Electra by Tarrleton drug store, West End drug Co., Burkburnett, and by all leading druggists. (Adv.)

behalf of the Confederate Veterans of Tennessee will be delivered by the Hon. James B. Frazier, former governor and an ex-member of the United States senate. The convention will then be turned over to General K. M. Van Zandt by Chairman Hickenham, and a response to the welcome addresses will be delivered by the Hon. McDonald Lee, of Richmond, Va. The outstanding feature of the afternoon session of the convention will be an address by Gen. J. Boyd Sears, of Mass'ews Court House, Va., as the convention orator. An address will also be made on this occasion by Congressman Charles M. Stedman, of North Carolina. The following days of the reunion will be full of interest to the veterans and visitors. The program consists of receptions, balls, parades, military displays, music and theater parties, old fashioned barbecues for the veterans, trips to the battlefields and boat rides on the Tennessee river. The grand parade of the United Confederate Veterans, Sons of Confederates and the Confederate Southern Memorial association will be held Thursday, October 27, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. The program provides also for the sessions of the Confederate Southern Memorial association, the Sons of Confederate Veterans and the Naval Veterans under the command of Admiral A. O. Wright of Jacksonville, Fla. All indications point to a large attendance at this reunion, the interest in the meeting all over the south being very lively. Railroads have already issued certificates providing for the purchase of tickets at one cent a mile and these are being distributed by the reunion committee and Gen. Carl Hinton, adjutant general of the Sons of Confederate Veterans. Gen. Hinton has established headquarters for this work in the reunion committee's rooms at the Patten hotel and will be here all the month. If commanders and adjutants of the various Confederate organizations throughout the country have any trouble securing certificates, the committee will supply them gladly upon request.

CATASTROPHE BOOM
DREAD OF GERMAN
DECLARES FINANCIER

International financiers, confronted with the increasing deterioration of the mark and the tottering financial structure of Germany, wonder what will be the outcome. Frederick W. Gehle, assistant to the president of the Merchants and Metals National Bank of New York, has just returned from Germany, where he made a thorough investigation of conditions. He presents his views in this article.

By FREDERICK W. GEHLE
Of the Merchants and Metals National Bank

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—I have heard so often the expression, "We won the war, but Germany is winning the peace," that I fear the American people are being misled as to the true state of affairs.

Germany not only lost the war in a military sense, but she was defeated economically, and the consequences are bound to show themselves in the near future.

It was my opportunity to talk with bankers and business men in various parts of Germany this summer, and I was impressed by the fact that the German people are not only suffering from the economic consequences of the war, but they are also suffering from the political consequences of the war.

"Catastrophe boom" is the way they describe the present condition of affairs. It is true that Berlin, Hamburg, Essen, Dueseldorf, Hanover and the other industrial centers of Germany are amazingly busy today, and that the population of 65,000,000 people in Germany are putting forth tremendous efforts to stimulate their production.

Almost everything that is produced in Germany is being sold at a profit. The only people who are not making a profit are the disabled. On the surface Germany is the busiest part of the world today, but beneath the surface the hollowness of the boom is becoming more and more pronounced.

Germany's finances are in a precarious condition. Her currency is being debased more and more every day by the issue of tens of millions of paper marks, which have no value. The taxes paid by the people are not sufficient to do more than meet one-third of the government's ordinary expenses, hence the printing of the paper money is destined to go on.

You cannot give value to paper money simply by placing on that money the name of the government treasurer. Value can be produced only by production and savings.

Germany's production and thrift, however, is not sufficient to build her up, or for that matter, even to meet the tide of the stupendous indemnity obligations that have been heaped on her under the terms of the Versailles treaty.

In order to secure 1,000,000,000 gold marks for payment of the September 1 installment of the indemnity Germany was compelled to issue more than 20,000,000,000 paper marks; these paper marks were literally sold for gold just as any other commodity might be sold.

The hollowing of the German economic situation must lead to a crisis, after which the real place of Germany in the world economic scheme will manifest itself.

The German people are among the most productive and intelligent of the world; they have manifested the strongest will to win the war. But they cannot avoid the penalty of their great crime against the world, and the mere fact that, under the anaesthetic of inflation they could seem to be prospering should not delude America.

In order to meet the reparations Germany, under the terms of the treaty, would have to export every year for the next several generations $1,000,000,000 more of manufactured goods than it imported. This would mean disastrous competition with France, England and America.

It certainly was not the intention of the peace conference to build Germany up and to tear the allies down. Hence it is to be expected that this subject will receive the attention of the world's economic leaders in the months to come.

EL PASO, TEXAS, Oct. 7.—The Associated Charities has announced it will conduct a campaign within the next few weeks for $25,000, which is $25,000 more than the usual budget. The increase is asked to help meet charity calls due to the employment situation.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

New York Stocks—Grain and Provisions—Cotton—Livestock

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton. NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—While Liverpool made a very full response to yesterday's advances here, the local cotton market was irregular and unsettled during today's early trading. The opening was barely steady at an advance of 5 points on October but generally 13 to 27 points lower under overnight hedge selling and realizing. The demand from shorts was less active after the heavy covering of yesterday, but when soon sold at 26.04 and January up from 26.25 to 26.40, or about 15 points net higher. Private cables reported a steady market in Liverpool on trade buying as a result of continued crop reports and a good spot demand for the week. The price of the Egyptian crop for this season places the yield at only 3,440,000 cantars. It is reported that in addition to pending shipments from the local stock to Japan, 5,000 bales are to be shipped out to Liverpool.

Bullish features including the prospects for frost in western belt sections called to promote any fresh buying of consequence and the market turned easy late in the morning. December sold off to 26.04 and January to 19.60, or about 20 to 35 points net lower.

New Orleans Cotton. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—On the first call in cotton today, the more active months were 10 to 15 points up, but liquidation from the long side became heavy and immediately after the call the market fell to the end of the first half hour of trading prices were 15 to 21 points under the close of the previous day. The market was shown on the opening was due to a better Liverpool than expected. December rose to 26.04 and fell back to 19.77.

Liverpool Cotton. LIVERPOOL, Oct. 7.—Spot cotton in fair demand; prices firm. Good middling, 15.16; fully middling, 14.66; mid-ting, 14.16; low middling, 13.66; good ordinary, 13.16; sales, 11,115 bales, 10,000 bales, including 3,500 American.

Armstrong is defendant and said petition alleging that on the 28th day of January, 1920, the defendant made, executed and delivered to the plaintiff his certain promissory note for the sum of $200 payable in nine monthly installments in the sum of $110 each, first installment being payable Feb. 29, 1920, and one of said installments being payable on the same date of each month consecutively thereafter, and further providing that if any of said notes are not paid at maturity together with interest accumulated thereon, then all said notes shall become due and collectible immediately. Said notes bearing interest at the rate of 10 per cent. annum from date until paid, and dated Jan. 25, 1920, and providing for 10 per cent. additional on the amount of principal and interest then due as attorneys' fees, if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, and further brought on same. Plaintiff would further show to the court, that at the time said note was executed and delivered, plaintiff, defendant executed, acknowledged and delivered to plaintiff a mortgage to secure the collection of said indebtedness upon the following described property situated in Wichita County, Texas, and described as follows: It being one Essex roadster, Motor No. A-6127, and said mortgage now constitutes a valid and subsisting lien against said property that said note is now past due and unpaid and defendant though often requested has hitherto failed and refused and still refuses to pay said note or any part thereof, except the sum of $320, to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $759.27, by reason of the amount of principal, interest and attorneys' fees. Wherefore plaintiff prays the court that defendant be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that he have judgment in the sum of $759.27, interest and attorneys' fees, and for foreclosure of his mortgage as above set forth, and an order directing a sale of said property to satisfy said indebtedness, and for costs here expended and for such other and further relief, generally and specially as the law may require. He may be justly entitled to receive herein full note, but have before said court, at the aforesaid next term, this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed and satisfied the same, and the seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1921. A. F. Kerr, Clerk District Court, Wichita County, Texas. By Ulric Jackson, Deputy, Sept. 29, Oct. 7, 14, 21.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Stocks in which the short interest is believed to be very extensive were subjected to further pressure at the opening of today's market. Sumatra Tobacco fell 1/2 points and Retail Stores lost one point. Mexican Petroleum and Royal Dutch forfeited large fractions. New Orleans, Texas and Mexico again were strongest of the rails, gaining 2 points. Liberty 4 1/2 and the second and fourth 4 1/2 were active and strong, the latter two reaching the year's record quotations.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Scattered speculative buying gave an upward slant to the wheat market. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 1/2 higher, with December $1.13 to $1.15, and May $1.15 to $1.18, were followed by a moderate sag and then by upturns all around to well above yesterday's finish.

The close was heavy, 2 1/2 to 4 1/2 net lower, with December $1.09 to $1.09 and May $1.12 to $1.14. Wet weather tended to strengthen the corn market. After opening 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 higher, with December 49 1/2 to 50 1/2, the market continued firm. The close was easy, 2 1/2 to 1 1/2 net lower, with December 45 1/2 to 46 1/2 and May 46 1/2 to 47 1/2. Oats started to off to 1 1/2 to 1 1/2 net lower, with December 34 1/2 to 35 1/2 and May 35 1/2 to 36 1/2. October lard lacked support, but other provisions were firm.

Chicago Produce. CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Butter lower; creamery 43c. Eggs unchanged, receipts 4,819 cases. Poultry, alive, un-settled; fowls 13 1/2 to 22c; springs 21c.

are realizing more every day how this building and loan association is filling a need of the community; how it is helping men and women to save their own money in a safe and profitable manner and yet their funds easily available; how other men and women have had lifted from them the burden of meeting large payments on their homes by repaying the B. & L. only $7.50 a month on the $1,000 borrowed and how present vendor's lien note holders realize the cash on their notes, all because of the active existence of this association! GOOD FIRE RECORD SAVES INSURERS OF THIS CITY $60,000

CREDIT OF TWELVE PER CENT IS ALLOWED AS RESULT OF SHOWING HERE.

PROCLAMATION ISSUED FOR FIRE PREVENTION DAY

Mayor Calls Attention to Need of Further Efforts to Keep Losses Down.

Because of the good fire record this city made last year, a reduction of 12 per cent in insurance premiums has been allowed the insuring public of this city...

If Wichita Falls' fire record had been a little better the maximum saving of 15 per cent, equal to $83,012.12 for this year, would have been attained.

October 9, next Sunday, has been designated as "Fire Prevention Day," that being the fifty-first anniversary of the great Chicago conflagration.

Observance of the occasion will consist of brief talks on fire prevention in the churches on Sunday and in the schools on Monday.

"It is the custom throughout the nation to observe October 9, anniversary of the Chicago conflagration of 1871, as fire prevention day, in which connection the governors of the several states and mayors of cities and towns issue their proclamations to emphasize the need for eliminating fire hazards.

"Each year in this country several thousand persons are burned to death or maimed for life by fire and heavy toll is taken of our natural and created resources because many of us do not pause to count the cost of tolerating conditions that cause fire.

Therefore, I, W. D. Cline, mayor of the city of Wichita Falls, do hereby proclaim Sunday, October 9, 1921, fire prevention day in our city, and call upon every citizen to join in its appropriate observance.

"On that day it is proper that ministers of the gospel throughout the city arrange for addresses from pulpits and before Bible schools covering safety from fire.

Let the first 10 days of the month of October this year be known as a period for safeguarding against fire during which let us place our homes and business properties in order against damage or destruction by a careful examination and repair of chimneys and flues and heating and lighting apparatus and equipment, by making provision for the safe handling and storage of volatile liquids and explosives, and by clearing away rubbish and trash and other agencies that cause fire.

Livestock shipments on all the roads have been large during the past two weeks. Cotton shipments are showing improvements on all roads.

F. W. Grace, division superintendent of the Katy, went to Dallas Thursday evening on business.

H. G. Smith, division freight and passenger agent, left for Dallas Friday on business.

WILFORD HARRISON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF PHARMACY BOARD

Wilford Harrison of Wichita Falls was elected president of the Texas Board of Pharmacy at its meeting at Dallas this week, succeeding W. H. Cousins, a former Wichita Falls man who has been president of the board for a number of years.

San Antonio was selected as the next meeting place, the second Tuesday in January, 1922.

The board examined 118 applicants for licenses as pharmacists at its Dallas meeting. It voted to take immediate steps to prevent action on the part of a number of Texas drug stores which are operating without registered pharmacists in charge which is in violation of section 1 of the pharmacy law.

CASINGHEAD GAS PLANT ON M. K. GRAHAM FARM

GRAHAM, TEXAS, Oct. 7.—One of the things of special interest to the oil people, as well as to the general public is the completion of a casinghead gas plant on the M. K. Graham farm, which is one of the most up to date and modern plants of its kind in the state.

The plant has a capacity of 5,000,000 cubic feet per day, enabling the operators in this field to dispose of their casinghead gas, thereby greatly increasing the revenue of their leases.

Possibly the most important feature about this plant is the fact that the gas is taken from the wells without the use of vacuum, and after the gasoline has been extracted from the gas the residue gas is returned to the line and is used by operators in the field in firing their boilers.

The plant is under the management of Mr. John M. Hoag, who has had years of experience at operating gas-line plants.

LOANS AVAILABLE FOR AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

STAMFORD, TEXAS, Oct. 7.—Word is received here today by the west Texas chamber of commerce from Martin Sanson, chairman of the Fort Worth committee having in charge livestock loans through the war finance corporation, that this loan will be on any kind of agricultural products, including livestock, cattle, hogs and sheep.

This is considered of extraordinary importance in the entire grain-sorghum belt of west Texas.

It was announced recently at the Texas Grain Dealers association that west Texas was about to harvest the largest grain-sorghum crop ever grown and since the west Texas chamber of commerce estimates this crop at more than $8,000,000 bushels. It is anticipated by the farmers and stockmen that there will be an extraordinary amount of this grain marketed in the form of hog, poultry, sheep and cattle. This means that there will be a demand for loans for hogs and sheep of unparalleled degree. It has however, been the custom for ranchmen and small farmers to borrow money on cattle and swine. SURE YOU CAN—

You can cold storage an egg. BUT it won't be a FRESH EGG. You can seal up butter in a tin can and keep it indefinitely BUT it won't be FRESH BUTTER. You can pack coffee in a vacuum can, but it won't retain its delicate aroma—

—BUT

SUPPOSE IT DID—what's the use of going to all that useless expense WHEN you can buy your coffee FRESH FROM THE ROASTER. DO YOU BUY Storage Eggs? DO YOU BUY Tinned Butter? THEN WHY buy Vacuum Coffee? DON'T BE WOOLY—it's in the cup.
